VERDUN

The City of Verdun is ideally located at the south-western limits of Montreal on the banks of the St. Lawrence River, which is about 3 miles wide at this point. The municipality was incorporated as a village under the name of Riviere St. Pierre in 1875, changed to the Village of Verdun in 1876, erected into a Town in 1907 and a City in 1912. Since 1901 its population has increased from 1898 to 82,103. Possessing few large industries it is mostly composed of homes and stores. Its famous boardwalk has been replaced by a modern asphalt promenade, brilliantly lighted, along the entire three-mile river front.

and banked with attractive lawns and shrubbery. Municipal tennis courts, a bowling green, a yacht club, two motor boat clubs and a sailing club are also situated here. In addition, a very modern Municipal Auditorium and Hockey Arena seating 4,500, and a municipal natatorium consisting of two magnificent open air swimming pools are located on the river front.

Educational facilities are excellent, with sixteen Catholic and six Protestant schools and three commercial colleges. There are two hospitals and nineteen churches. Public services such as health, police, fire, water and electricity are of the best. The City Council gives special attention to providing and supervising playgrounds for children, and the Municipal Playgroud Commission operates all sports on the numerous playing fields.

Two comprehensive juvenile libraries are also operated by the City.

The form of civil government consists of a mayor and eight aldermen elected every three years. The City Manager System has been in force since 1938. Population, 82,103.

WESTMOUNT

The City of Westmount is beautifully situated on the western slope of Mount Royal, and from the upper level a magnificent view of the St. Lawrence River, Lake St. Louis and surrounding country is obtained. The city is almost exclusively residential and may be designated a "city of homes." It is governed by a mayor and five aldermen, elected for a term of two years by the city at large. The city manager form of government has been in vogue for 39 years, and the city's progress is evidence of the wisdom of the adoption of this system of government.

The city owns an electric light and power plant and garbage destructor plant.

Park and playground spaces owned by the city cover an area of about 119 acres equal to 12 per cent of the total area of the city.

Many municipal tennis courts are in great demand during the summer months and every facility is given for the enjoyment of winter sports.

The Westmount Athletic Grounds on St. Catherine Street, containing an area of 7.8 acres, are equipped for sports and recreation.

The city owns a free public library. During the year 202,314 volumes were circulated for home use.

The Victoria Hall is in great demand for activities of a varied nature.

Public education is provided by the school commissioners of Westmount and the school commission of St. Leon de Westmount. In addition there are a number of private schools.

The city is supplied with filtered water and a 94 per cent. efficiency is required. The water is regularly tested to assure that a maximum of purity is maintained. Population about 28,050.

W. S. GILBERT (1836-1911)
WROTE IN H.M.S. PINAFORE:

"Things are seldom what they seem, skim-milk masquerades as cream."

Gilbert and Sullivan were delightfully funny in words and music. But, in comedy and business, masquerades are always unmasked. "Old birds are not caught with chaff" and highly placed executives are not deceived by substitutes. They demand the best in all that is presented to them—in the paper on which they are addressed as in other things. So it is dangerous to try to "get away with it" by using a substitute for Superfine Linen Record.

For you in "making letters", as for us in making paper, only the best is good enough. So when ordering letterheads or paper for documents intended for posterity, specify . . . . . .
