The Legislature In Brief

The special budget was read in the House of Commons on April 17, 1919, by Mr. William David, Provincial Treasurer, in the course of which it was announced that the provincial government had a surplus of $1,600,000 for the fiscal year 1918-19, and that the budget for the year 1919-20, together with an estimated excess of three hundred thousand dollars, had been submitted to the legislature for adoption. The budget provides for a surplus of four million dollars, of which one million dollars is to be set aside for the payment of the current year's debt, and the remaining three million dollars is to be set aside for the payment of the current year's debt.

The SOURCES OF REVENUE.

The increase in revenue includes a general increase in the sales of gasoline and tobacco, and an increase in the sales of liquor, and a ten-fold increase in the sales of stamps. The increase in revenue has been due to the increase in the consumption of these products, and to the increase in the prices charged for them.

The increase in the sales of gasoline and tobacco has been due to the increased demand for these products, and to the increased prices charged for them. The increase in the sales of liquor has been due to the increased demand for these products, and to the increased prices charged for them. DEATHS

JAMES HAYMOND, brother of Mr. Robert Haymond, of Haymond, died at his residence on the Aylmer Road on Tuesday, March 12th.

MRS. LOUISE WYMAN EDY, The death occurred at her home in Shrewsbury, 2nd inst., of Mrs. Louise W. Edy, of Minto. Mrs. Edy was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Edy. She was born near Minto, and has been a resident of Shrewsbury for many years. Mrs. Edy left her home in Shrewsbury when she was but a little girl and moved to Minto where she was educated and where she met and married her husband, Mr. J. W. Edy. She was the mother of three children. Mrs. Edy was a member of the Aylmer United Church and a member of the Ladies of the United Church. She leaves an only brother, Mr. J. W. Edy, and three nieces, Mrs. Dorothy Richardson, Mrs. Dorothy McElroy, and Miss Viola Phipps, all of Minto. The funeral will be held at the Aylmer United Church on Monday, March 18th, at 10 a.m. Rev. J. B. MacAulay, who has known the deceased for many years, will officiate at the service. The body will remain at the residence of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edy until the day of the funeral.

The story of the novel is based in London during World War II, and it follows the life of a young woman named Evangeline "Eve" Safford. The novel explores themes of love, war, and the resilience of the human spirit in the face of adversity.

In the novel, Eve Safford, a young woman living in London during World War II, falls in love with a man named Michael "Mike" Saxon. However, their happiness is fleeting as the war rages on, and they must navigate the challenges of war and separation.

The novel is a poignant tale of love and loss, set against the backdrop of one of the most tumultuous periods in history. It is a story of courage, hope, and the enduring power of love, even in the darkest of times.

The novel has been well-received by critics and readers alike, and it has been praised for its powerful storytelling and its ability to capture the essence of a time and place that is both distant and yet so very close to us today.
