LIVING HAPPILY

The business of living happily is synonymous with moderation—moderation in our attitudes, moderation in our spending, moderation in our personal habits.

And, when an occasion calls for the use of whisky, moderation in drinking.

For, as the House of Seagram has so frequently pointed out, along the path of moderation lies peace of mind, the respect of our neighbours, the confidence of our business associates, security and happiness.

Carrying Seed to All-Stand Island

Although Monte Island, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, is entirely made of sand, it still has to carry more sand to it. The reason is that the Monte Island sand is too salty for the manufacture of cement, and when construction of anything substantial sand has to be shipped from Quebec City. This picture shows a load being hauled by the Government ship "Chesterfield" and in a scene from the National Film Board production "River Watch".

GERALD SHIELDS

Bugsil, Man, ignores own safety to aid injured

Shields was working on an engine when a car suddenly fell from the tracks of the holiday special train and smashed into his shop. The car was on fire and Shields rushed to help the injured passengers.

Gerald Shields jumped over his back fence, and rushed through a dark, snow-covered field to help the injured passengers.

Not only did Shields make the gesture, he also got a truck to drive the injured to the hospital.

Are you Making a Will?

If you own property or owe money, it is likely that you will need a Will. Think about what you would like to happen to your property, money and debts when you die. It is important to have a Will, even if you are not rich. A Will is a legal document that tells what you want to happen to your property, money and debts after you die.

The Owl Pen

When Ken and Leslie bought owl pen at the auction sale, they decided that the birds would be a perfect addition to their home. Leslie was particularly excited, as owls were her favorite birds.

The owls arrived a few days later. Ken set up the owl pen in their backyard, close to the house. Leslie spent hours observing the owls, fascinated by their unique abilities.

You're not forgotten, father dear,

SOMEBODY'S BEEN READING MY MIND!

That's what I mean to pop into your home the first time you come around the wheel of a new Chevrolet and drive smoothly and surely down the street.

For short of mind reading on somebody's part—how could she do any more for you than you want! How could she be so personable and particularly yours?
