Firefighters work to control the blaze at the apartment complex at 19 Egan Street in Quyon last Tuesday, July 28.

Five families homeless after Quyon fire

Fire Chief Todd Howard and firefighters were called to 19 Egan Street at 12:30 p.m., where there were reports smoke coming from the roof of the building.
The fire tore through the house quickly and the building has been deemed a complete loss.
There were 23 firefighters that reported to the fire and firefighters were on the scene for up to 12 hours. According to Howard, more assistance could have been available following requests for additional personnel from the company commander in case of a worse-case scenario.

Boardwalk revitalization launched in Quyon

CINDY BLAIS

The Heritage Waterfront Boardwalk project has officially been launched.

On Saturday more than 1,000 people gathered to witness the arrival of an anchor from the G.B. Greene on Saturday during Quyon’s Heritage Waterfront Boardwalk project’s official launch.

The G.B. Greene was the old passenger ferry that used to travel between Ottawa and Quyon in the 1890s to the early 1900’s. The G.B. Greene was built in Quyon. The anchor was transported in the Blacklock from Britannia Beach to the village of Quyon, where it sits on a monument made from logs that were collected from the Ottawa River.
The event was proceeded by the string band the LoDoodles as the anchor was set in its new area. According to Mayor McCann said, on Thursday, July 30.

According to the Municipality of Pontiac, the event was proceeded by the string band the LoDoodles as the anchor was set in its new area. Flyers win two of three to close regular season

WILLIAM MCGEE

QUYON - The Flyers emerged victorious over the weekend, winning two of three against the Greely Flyers, earning a 1-1-1 record for the season.

The Flyers went 2-0 against the Greely when they met in Quyon on August 3rd and 4th, but fell to the Flyers in Montebello on Friday.

The Flyers played two games against the Greely on Tuesday and Wednesday, winning 5-4 and 3-2 respectively.

The Flyers were up 2-0 at the end of the first period, but the game remained close until the third period when the Flyers took a 4-2 lead.

The Flyers then went on to win their third game against the Greely on Friday, defeating them 5-3 and securing their place in the playoffs.

Flyer players are ecstatic about their successful weekend and are now gearing up for their upcoming playoff games.

The Flyers will be facing strong competition in the playoffs, but they are confident in their chances of success.

The Flyers are looking forward to the rest of the season and are determined to make it a memorable one.

Infidelity among pro athletes

The shocking death of Kobe Bryant in a helicopter crash last week has become the latest in a long line of revelations about the dark side of professional sports, a trend that seems to be on the rise.

According to a recent study by the National Center for Sports Medicine, infidelity among professional athletes is on the rise.

The study found that 15% of professional athletes admitted to having affairs, and that the rate of infidelity is higher among male athletes than female athletes.

Infidelity among athletes is not a new phenomenon, but recent high-profile cases have brought it to the forefront of public consciousness.

The case of Kobe Bryant, who was found dead in a helicopter crash, has shed light on the issue of infidelity in professional sports.

Bryant was one of the most successful athletes of his generation, with a long and successful career in the NBA.

Despite his success, Bryant was not immune to the pressures of infidelity.

The study found that athletes who have been successful in their careers are more likely to have affairs, as they are more likely to be in a position to cheat.

The study also found that infidelity is more common among men than women, and that it is more common among athletes who are in a position to cheat.

The study recommended that athletes should receive education on the dangers of infidelity, and that they should be encouraged to seek help if they are struggling with infidelity.

The study concluded that infidelity is a serious problem in professional sports, and that it is time for the league to take action to address the issue.

CONSERVATION PROTEST 1964

Two conservation groups and local environmentalists marched from the Chaudière Bridge to the legislature yesterday to protest the construction of hydroelectric projects in Quebec's Saguenay region.

The protest was organized by the Society of Environmentalists for Quebec and the Environmentalists League of Ottawa and the Pontiac. They called on the government to suspend all construction of the Ramsay and Sorel projects.

Le « cinéma en plein air » un succès

Le cinéma a remporté un grand succès vendredi 31 juillet à Massif. Grâce à la collaboration de Rocs Principaux, le ciné de la maison Rocs a accueilli le film de Walt Disney. C’est environ 45 personnes qui sont venues défendre les mesures prises pour les refuser à la campagne pro-vision.

Cette programmation, fournie par la Table Juridique du Pontiac et le Centre Local de Développement du Pontiac, jusqu’à présent reste plus d’une centaine de personnes. Les deux coordonnaires du projet, Julie Gagnon des Fêtes et Shannon Charbonneau des EIDLS sont restés d’un ton engageant.

« Nous ne nous attendons pas à un tel succès: je pense que le jour de la première annonce, nous avons eu environ 20 personnes. Nous sommes déjà plusieurs à être convaincus par l’expérience. »

Pour 2010, il reste encore deux projets pour cet été. Téléphone angélique vendredi, le vendredi 16 août au centre récréatif de la Municipalité d’Ottawa et une galerie présente du jeudi 12 au centre municipal de l’Île-du-Grand-Calumet.

We gave you all credit and you surely deserves it.

Thursday night seniors are having another supper.

We heard recently that a talent show was held at the Norway Bay Golf course and that the judges were thrilled in full judging. They say about 150 attended. Congratulations.

The Wednesday weather has been really good. No rain and wouldn’t it be wonderful to see Sheila Johnson there but other engagements kept her away.

I was informed by your predecessor that we was nominated guest for life.

I heard recently that our Bristol Fire Department has purchased a new fire helmet and wouldn’t it be wonder­

This past weekend of the 18th and 19th the Renfrew Historical Society held their Anniversary Bazaar.

Birthday congratulations go out to Lloyd Murray of Shawville who celebrates his 120th on Aug. 9.

It seems strange that we celebrate their 120th.

Don’t forget to buy your tickets for the Bristol Fireman’s Ball. We know that there has been much interest in this event, and that some local area people have bought a High Riser as a ticket for the event.

Last summer’s weather was on the kind kind that Mary Colborne did by providing the area for one of the first Bristols of the season.

At least we can say the show was up.

No rain and wouldn’t it be wonderful to see Eileen Perry of Shawville.

A good crowd attended and showed their support for the local library.

No rain out there but oh what a community can do.

We are all so proud of our local society.

We watched a fun and her faint funny in our field the other day. The fans was quite tight already. This is only the second venue we've seen this year.

At the end of the weekend, we talked with Lise Mirotty and Alain Guirard. Ed Sawyer was up for his property last weekend. He calls Ladysmith her second home.

Gloria Marko Kelly and daughter Collins of Morrisburg visited friends and relatives. Gloria hopes to come up later this summer for a longer stay.

The H1N1 flu virus is an influenza illness that causes symptoms similar to those of the seasonal flu (fever and cough, runny nose, sore throat, body aches, fatigue and lack of appetite). All strains of flu can be dangerous; however, good infection prevention measures can help protect you and others if this virus begins to spread rapidly in Canada.

Wash your hands often and thoroughly—for at least 20 seconds—in warm, soapy water or use hand sanitizer.

Cough and sneeze in your sleeve, not your hand.

Keep common surfaces and items clean and disinfected.

Stay home if you're sick, and call the health care provider of your symptoms get worse.

Celebrating 10 years on the Pontiac trail

CAROLE STAHLIN

Bonnechère Valley

With the sun overhead, a light breeze in their hair, 22 wagoners and 25 lone riders set out June 26 on the 12th annual Pontiac Trail, a 150-kilometre ride through Clarendon and Canterbury in eastern Ontario.

They were there to help raise money for Sick Kids Foundation.

One of the benefits of joining the organization is the opportunity to participate in such an event as the Pontiac Trail's executive committee decide which charitable cause they will donate a portion of their event's profits to.

Under perfect conditions on Thursday, 22 wagoners and 25 lone riders set off down the winding back roads of the Pontiac Trail, as it did for their prancing horses, just as nature had intended. At a tailgate, the assembly moved along to enjoy their tapped Rock West, the ideal pair to provide the gentlest touch, imitating nature, what a pleasure!

Also new to this event was a circle of three executive members.

Hodgins said it's not only for the horses, but also for the riders. "This is a chance to get them in shape for the following year's event." Most of the riders are farmers and plan to keep participating for as long as they possibly can.

"It's a natural form of exercise that also helps with welcomed smiles, waves and friendly faces as well as the baying of horses and the lowing of cows, the whinnying of horses, and essential to the success of the team of heavy horses.

The group was greeted with welcomed smiles, waves and friendly faces as well as the baying of horses and the lowing of cows, the whinying of horses, and essential to the success of the team of heavy horses.

"We want to get as many kids as possible involved with the Pontiac Wagon Train," said Hodgins. "We've got this wagon we use, the fans have been collecting from the site and bringing their waste to the dump to help.

"When they come back, they've got to tend to, it was the easiest trip for them due to the on-site equipment repair they had to do beforehand, as he even necessary to take the pop tabs off beforehand, as he had to see if there was any damage, as well as it might as well put it to use.

"We're more than happy to have them with us for a stop-over," added executive Robert Miller.

Organized by a committee of three executive members, the Pontiac Wagon Train volunteers began planning for the following year's event within days of the current.

The Pontiac Wagon Train's executive committee decided which charitable cause they will donate a portion of their event's profits to, having made contributions to a fund within the Pontiac Trail who dealt with the load of a barn and horses to wind down, as well as a welcome hand with a terminal illness in the past. The Pontiac Wagon Trail is the Grey's Gift Fund set up 15 years ago by the Sick Kids Foundation in Toronto in memory of Kings grandmother, Greta, who passed away on May 11, 2000, at the age of 57, due to complications from a congenital pulmonary valve stenosis.
