

LIFE GRADUALLY EBBING AWAY

His Holiness Has Steadily Grown Weaker, but Whether the Final Agony will be a Matter of Hours or Days His Physicians Cannot Tell.

DR. MAZZONI SAYS RECOVERY IS NOT ENTIRELY IMPOSSIBLE.

Rome, July 8-7.18 p.m.—The Pontiff's heart is not performing its functions properly. As a result of this there is great prostration and very great weakness. There was no amelioration in the working of the kidneys, which was contrary to expectations after yesterday's operation. Up to 3 p.m. to-day the Pontiff had not passed any urine. To-night's bulletin is anxiously awaited, as it is known that it will be issued after a thorough examination, and will be considered to be a final verdict, and also because it will tell the whole truth as the result of criticisms of the treatment and the proposal to consult other doctors.

Rome, July 8-8.50 p.m.—Notwithstanding the sensational despatches published in London, the day has passed without any attack of fainting, although the Pope has grown steadily weaker and is now greatly prostrated. The pulse is less frequent, but a little more regular. The breathing is calm and the general condition improved. While the Pope lies on his deathbed, the finger of death seems also to have touched one of his most intimate friends, Mgr. Valpini, whom he the other day appointed Secretary of the Consistorial Congregation. Mgr. Volpini was stricken with syncope to-day. He fell to the floor, but was carried to his apartment and Dr. Laponi was hurriedly summoned from the Pope's bedside. The official bulletin of the Pope's condition was issued at 8.15 this evening, as follows:—

"The remainder of the day has passed without any recurrence of fainting attacks. The pulse is less frequent but a little more regular. The breathing is calm and the general condition improved."

Rome, July 9-5.25 a.m.—The Pope is asleep. The condition of his lungs is no worse. There is as yet no suspicion of serum gathering again in the pleura, but the disorder of his kidneys is disquieting. During the early part of the night His Holiness was somewhat restless. The occasional brief periods of sleep were disturbed by difficulty in breathing. Dr. Laponi and the Pope's valet, Centra, did their best to nourish the patient at brief intervals. Chloral and caffeine were administered with good effect. About sunrise the Pontiff fell into a more restorative sleep than he had had all night.

LIFE GRADUALLY EBBING AWAY.

Rome, July 9-1.15 a.m.—The life of Pope Leo continues to hang by a thread, with the expectation that any moment may bring the final catastrophe. Yet the wonderful vitality of the remarkable old man is combating a complication of diseases which would endanger a strong man in the prime of life. Monsignor Volpini, one of the Pontiff's most intimate friends, is lying in a serious condition as a result of an attack of syncope that he suffered to-day. Pope Leo, as though he had second sight, has asked several times why Monsignor Volpini has not been to see him. The condition of Monsignor Volpini has been kept from the Pope. Throughout the day the reports from the sick room have alternated with fears and hopes. During the night the Pope has secured but little refreshing sleep, and with this sleeplessness has augmented the depression. The difficulty in breathing had increased and a derangement of the kidneys began to seriously manifest itself. The official reports were supplemented by the doctors in the course of personal conversation in which they showed that they entertained scarcely any hopes of recovery. Yet they always qualified their statements, setting forth the Pope's remarkable constitutional strength. They instanced the dying man's leaving his bed during the morning and taking several steps unaided save by a cane to an arm-chair. When the Pope became known many were disposed to criticize the doctors for permitting such an exhausting effort, but it was expected the entire absence of fever eliminated the danger of syncope. Fortunately all the climatic conditions in Rome for the time being are favorable to the sufferer. Except for the brief time he passed in the arm-chair, the Pope lay in bed throughout the day, shifting his position frequently without assistance, and occasionally taking a small draught of diluted wine with yolks of eggs. The only solid

Passage of Special Supply Bill

THE RAILWAY COMMISSION

BLAIR ADOPTS MACLEAN'S AMENDMENT—AFTER CALLING HIM A SOCIALIST FOR SUGGESTING IT, AND COWAN HEADS A LIBERAL REVOLT.—THE GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSAL OF BOUNTIES FOR THE STEEL TRADE

(Special to the Chronicle).

Ottawa, July 8.—In the House to-day the special supply bill for one-fifth the amount of the main estimates of 1904 was passed. An item of $708,179 for 1903 was also assented to.

The House then took up the Railway Commission bill. Mr. Henderson's amendment to compel municipalities to secure the consent of the authorities was lost, on Mr. Blair's call. Mr. Blair offered an amendment giving the Commission the supervision of telephone and telegraph rates. Poles can only be erected with permission from municipalities, or the Commission is empowered to extend the right to any telephone company to secure connection at a railway station on such terms as may be fixed. This latter provision is the same advocated by Mr. MacLean and denounced by Mr. Blair and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The Minister of Railways has since been forced by public opinion in Ontario to change his mind. Mr. Blair was given a warm reception when the drainage clauses of the bill were considered. The Minister offered to compel railways chartered in future to maintain drainage.

Mr. Cowan, Liberal, declared this to be a useless provision. What was needed was that all roads should be prevented from placing unnecessary expense on farmers. He moved an amendment to make it imperative on railway companies to bear all the cost of construction which shall be in excess of the cost if the railway did not exist. Opposition speakers also took a strong position in the interest of private owners.

Mr. Cowan's amendment was carried. Mr. Blair voted against it, but the feeling of the House was strongly in favor of it.

The Government to-night submitted to Parliament a proposal giving a bounty of three-eighths of a cent per pound upon binder twine manufactured from the fibre imported from the Philippines. This is to offset the export duty on fibre from the Philippines imposed on all countries except the States.

Mr. Fielding, on Monday next, in committee of the whole, will move the following resolution:—That it is expedient to enact as follows:—

1. The Governor-in-Council may authorize payment of the following bounties on the undermentioned articles manufactured in Canada from the steel produced in Canada from the ingredients of which not less than 50 per cent weight thereof consists of pig iron made in Canada, that is to say:—

(a) On rolled round wire rods not over three-eighths of an inch in diameter, when sold to wire manufacturers for use in making wire in their own factories in Canada, a bounty of $6 per ton.

(b) On rolled angles, ties, channels, beams, joists, girders or bridge building or structural rolled sections, and on other rolled shapes not round, oval, square or flat, weighing not less than 35 pounds per lineal yard, and also on flat eyebolt blanks, when sold for consumption in Canada, a bounty of $3 per ton.

(c) On rolled plates not less than 3/16 inches in width and not less than one-quarter inch in thickness, when sold for consumption in Canada for manufacturing purposes for which such plates were usually required and not to include plates to be sheared into plates of less width, a bounty of $3 per ton.

2. The Governor-in-Council may make regulations to carry out the intention of the foregoing section.

3. That chapter 8 of the statutes of 1899 be so amended as to provide that the bounty on steel and iron authorized by chapter 6 of the statutes of 1897 shall be continued until the 30th June, 1907, and that the rates of such bounties shall be as follows:—

(a) From 1st July, 1903, to June 30, 1904, both inclusive, shall be 90 per cent of the amount fixed by said chapter 6 of the statutes of 1897.

(b) From July 1st, 1904 to June 30, 1905, both inclusive, the bounty shall be 75 per cent of the amount fixed by said chapter.

The Railway Commission Bill was under discussion all day, protection of employees, drainage across railway lands, protection of animals, etc., being points debated. An amendment was inserted providing that in the case of cattle being killed on the railway, the presumption of negligence should not be on the owner.

The House adjourned at 1.40 a.m.

NOTES.

Mr. Patterson's secretary, John Bain, has entered upon his duties as Assistant Commissioner of Customs.

It has finally been decided to remove the Meteorological Observatory from Toronto to Ottawa. It will be located at the Experimental farm.

Le Hung, who has lived here 12 years, has been arrested as a high binder suspect. It is alleged that he threatened two other Celestials' life. He is about 28 years of age, well educated, and speaks English and French. He came here from Richmond, Que. He takes matters coolly and says it is a trumped up charge.

BOY DROWNED

Ottawa, July 8.—Arthur Burt, 13 years of age, son of Joseph Burt, Inglewood street, Hull, was drowned this evening while swimming near the Eddy works. He was with two companions and was drawn into a swirling eddy. The body was recovered a very few minutes after the accident.

DEATHS FROM HEAT

Chicago, Ill., July 8.—Six deaths and a score of prostrations resulted from the heat here to-day.

Memphis, Tenn., July 8.—Two deaths occurred in this city to-day as a result of the heat.

A RICH PEDDLAR

Cornwall, Ont., July 8.—John Stats, a Hungarian, clad almost in rags, who has been travelling through the country selling lead pencils, was arrested last night on a charge of theft.

When searched by the police officers, bank books in his pockets showed he had deposits of $3800.

EGYPTIAN Papyrus.
The first paper made from the Papyrus plant by the Egyptians, was not what we understand by the term paper. It was made of the inner bark of the plant and prepared and polished by the peculiar process. It was not until the ninth or tenth century that the use of paper, probably so called, was introduced into Europe.

QUEBEC, JULY 9, 1903.

THE FIASCO OF THE CAUCASUS.

If anything had been necessary to convince the public of the extravagance and impracticability of the scheme of the Laurier Cabinet to make the Grand Trunk Pacific proposals acceptable to the country, it was supplied by the fiasco of the Ministerial caucus held at Ottawa on Tuesday to fill in the details of the Government project, the main lines of which had been tentatively submitted for a week previously and the very excuse brought forward for the failure to arrive at a decision is so ludicrously lame and impotent that it only makes matters worse. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, we are told, had not time to attend to the matter: he could barely spare a quarter of an hour for the discussion.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Extension scheme has been before the country for the best part of a year. During that time it has been subjected to severe criticism, under whose influence it became a species of gigantic railroad eadid worm, in which the original form was entirely hidden from view by the numerous accretions gathered during its existence, but in all the discussions the Government took no official part, publicly at any rate, and made no official announcement, save that it refused to be committed to anything. Mr. Blair, indeed, said both in the Railway Committee and the House that he thought the Company ought to have its charter unconditionally, and that the Government would make terms with it after it had made up its mind what to do, but he also said that the Government had not made up its mind. It was considering: it could not help considering the matter, seeing there was so much interest taken in it, but some seven or eight months of consideration had not yet made the thing sufficiently clear. Then came the unexpected. The Government egg, it was announced, had hatched, and the chick was ready to come out of the shell. Then the Government organs broke silence, and published descriptions of what the youthful bird would look like when it emerged to the gaze of an admiring public; but the public did not seem to be very enthusiastic; it was even hypercritical; and then we were told that the announcement of birth was a little premature, and that before it could be presented to the country it would be necessary for a Pan-Canadian Synod to meet, to preen it up a bit, and arrange its tailfeathers. The date for this all-important gathering was fixed a week ago, and its main object was announced, yet now we are expected to believe that the central figure of the gathering could do no more than look in for a few minutes, having something more important to attend to elsewhere. It is difficult to conceive of an excuse more palpably lame, or more damning if accepted. A Government ought to be able to see at least six or seven days ahead, and when it fixes on a date for arriving at a decision, should be able to keep it. If it is really true that Sir Wilfrid informed his supporters that he could not spare time that day to discuss a matter with them as arranged, it would have been interesting to have had a snap shot of the faces of the assembly. Whatever else it might have looked like, it could not certainly have presented the most distant resemblance to a Council of eages.

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS.

We have received a memorandum drawn up by the trustees of the will of the late Cecil Rhodes, the provisions of which provided for the establishment of scholarships at the University of Oxford, open to candidates from the colonies, the United States and elsewhere. This memorandum is for the information of college and school authorities and intending candidates, and contains the requirements for the preliminary examination which are based on those for Responsions, the first public University examination of candidates for a degree, and are intended as qualifying and not competitive.

The first election of scholars in the Dominion will be held in February and May next, and the selected candidates will go into residence in October. There will be one scholar chosen from each Province to which scholarships have been assigned, and the qualifying examinations will be held in each Province or in centres easily accessible. A list of those who have successfully passed will as soon as possible be furnished to the chairman of the Committee of Selection, or to the University making the appointment, together with a statement for their guidance of the qualifications which Mr. Rhodes desired for the holders of his scholarships. In the case of the four older provinces, the appointments will be made by the Universities in rotation, in 1904 and 1905 by Toronto and Queen's Universities respectively in Ontario; by McGill and Laval in Quebec; by Dalhousie and Acadia College in New Brunswick; in Prince Edward Island and British Columbia the selection will be made by a committee composed of the Lieutenant-Governor, Chief Justice, and Superintendent of Education; in Manitoba, and in the Territories by a committee of five named by the Lieutenant-Governor and the Judges of the Supreme Court. Candidates must be unmarried, British subjects, and between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five, and must signify their intention of presenting themselves to the Chairman of the Committee of Selection some time during the month of January, 1904. They may elect whether they will apply for the scholarship of the province in which they have acquired their educational qualifications, or of the province in which they have their ordinary private domicile, but must present themselves for examination in the province selected.

As the qualifying examination is based on the Oxford Responsions, it has been decided that all scholars shall have reached at least the end of their second year work at some recognized degree granting university or college of Canada. Further information can be obtained from Copies of Responsions Papers, the Student's Handbook of Oxford, and from F. J. Wylie, Esq., the Oxford agent of the Rhodes Trustees.

THE NEXT POPE.

The conclave for electing the successor to Leo the Thirteenth will assemble under somewhat anomalous conditions. Whoever may be chosen he will be the second Pontiff to be elected in what the Church is pleased to regard as captivity, though it is certain that the Italian Government will take every precaution, as in the year 1878, when Leo was elected, to secure the conclave absolute protection from outside interference of any kind. The election of a Pope is not now a matter of such vital political importance as it once was to the nations of Europe, though it has been claimed that what the See of Rome has lost in power it has been compensated for in influence. However that may be, it is indicative of the change that has taken place in the status of the Papacy that the four Roman Catholic powers, Austria, Spain, Portugal and France, which once jealously insisted on the right, conceded to each of them, to veto the election of an obnoxious candidate, have already, it is stated, consented to waive that right in the coming election, as they did in the last. France is not included in this arrangement, but it is taken for granted that she will not exercise her power of veto under existing circumstances. It is, in fact, very hard to see, now that the Pope is no longer a temporal sovereign, how such a veto could be enforced. The right to veto was conceded to Bonaparte by Pius VII., in 1801, when the concordat, which still remains in force, was arranged. But the France of to-day is not in search of Papal sanction for its authority or its acts. It may not be generally known that theoretically any cleric or layman who is not an avowed heretic, and not laboring under any canonical impediment to receiving holy orders, is eligible to be elected as Pope. But for many centuries the choice has been confined to the College of Cardinals, which is so overwhelmingly Italian that one of that nationality is almost certain to be chosen. Of course, there has been a great deal of speculation as to who stands the most likely chance, but Papal elections have always been extremely problematical, and all forecasts are mere guesswork. According to the popular notion in Rome, the candidates stand in the following order: Cardinal Giotto, Prefect of the Propaganda, and a member of the Carmelite Order; Cardinal Vampa, Archbishop of Bologna; Cardinal Vanutelli, and the Papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Rampolla. The only non-Italian mentioned as a distant possibility is Cardinal Vives y Tuto, a Spanish Capuchin, and one of the youngest members of the Sacred College. The laws under which the election of a Pope is held are extremely elaborate, minute and severely strict. Members of the conclave cannot communicate with each other or with any outsider while the election is in progress, and only learn who has been chosen after the balloting is all over and they are released from their cells.

LOOKING AT THE BRIGHT SIDE

Assuming that the story is right and that the line is to be built, why not look on the bright side?

Of course it is well known that the Grand Trunk never proposed to build this part of the projected transcontinental road. The experts in transportation, when entering upon the enterprise, simply desired to reach the prairie so that they might feed their main line from Midland to North Bay from a line of their own, or from one of the existing or projected roads. The extension to Quebec, and more recently to Moncton, paralleling the Intercolonial, upon which we lose so much, is an addition to the scheme thrown in by the politicians when granting the charter. There is no particular reason why the Grand Trunk Pacific should go to the expense of building a section of 1500 miles that it really does not want. If we are to have this addition to the railway mileage, cutting off Ontario and leaving the business of Montreal to some extent stranded, it would not be courteous to ask the Grand Trunk to pay for it. The best way to get it is to make the public find the money. The 1500 miles will not cost more than $15,000,000 or $50,000,000. This only amounts to an interest charge of $1,500,000 or $2,000,000 a year. Nobody can discover objections to an undertaking of this nature, especially when it is borne in mind that we shall not have to pay the cost of working the road. If we had to operate the 1500 miles it would be different. We would then lose more than we do by operating the Intercolonial. But when we simply provide the track and give it to a company we make money, that is to say, we save what we would lose if we took over the expense of management. In consideration of what we shall save we ought either to give the Grand Trunk a liberal allowance for relieving us of the cost of operation, or add to the bargain a vote of thanks to that corporation for its kindness in accepting the line after we have built it. Some people think that $45,000,000 or $50,000,000 is a good round sum to invest in the North and East, paralleling existing routes and roads, and that perhaps the time has not arrived for such an outlay. But the expense is a mere bagatelle. Our taxation has increased from $5.92 to $8.66 per head during the past six years, and this is not quite enough. Another jump will only be proof of the masterly activity of the economists who are making it. We look to Sir Richard Cartwright to deliver a speech, showing that what the country needs is more taxes and more debt, and that this is the best way to get both. Of course, the speech will be different to some other speeches the gallant knight has made, but it will be quite easy to prepare it, provided Sir Richard is convinced that the people are able "to forget some things," he has said in the past.

IS IT PREJUDICE?

That Makes You Suffer from Dyspepsia when others Tell You Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will Cure It, Sure.

"I have always had very strong objections to patent medicines, but the cure of Dyspepsia by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are wonderful. For two years my life had been a burden. I could not take the simplest food without having a pain across my stomach. Doctors did me no good. One box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets completely cured me. The Dyspepsia has never come back."

This is brief is the statement of Marie Ann Bujold, of Maria Cap, Bonaventure County, Quebec. Does it not strike home to you? Are not your prejudices against the so-called "patent" medicines causing you misery? Can't you overcome your prejudice and your Dyspepsia at the same time?

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will assuredly cure any case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. They will digest the food themselves, giving the stomach a chance to rest up and return to its normal condition.

CAPTAIN SHOT SAILOR DEAD

TRAGEDY ON GLOUCESTER FISH-ING VESSEL AT BROYLE NEAR NEWFOUNDLAND.

St. John's, Nfld., July 8.—Captain Willard, of the schooner Helen Whitten, of Gloucester, Mass., shot and killed Patrick Yetman at Cape Broyle on Saturday night. The schooner had put into Broyle Head for bait and was ready for sea when Yetman refused to go and jumping into a dory attempted to cut the painter and leave the vessel. The captain ordered him to stop. Yetman refused and emptied live barrels at the sailor. One shot penetrated his heart and Yetman fell dead in the boat. The captain was arrested and will be brought to St.
John's for trial. The victim was a Newfoundlander and his death has aroused indignation here.

NEW GREEK CABINET

Athens, July 8.—M. Balli, the former Premier, has undertaken to form a Cabinet. He has asked for two days in which to consult his friends. It is understood that the new Cabinet will follow the policy of M. Delynni.

FAMOUS BASEBALL

Buffalo, N. Y., July 8.—Frank Delahanty, of Syracuse, brother to Ed.
Delehanty, and other relatives, came to this city to-day, and positively identified the satchel that was left in the Pullman sleeper and the hat found on the International Bridge last Friday morning. There is no doubt that the man who fell through the draw of the bridge that morning was Ed. Delehanty, the famous outfielder of the Washington American team.

U. S. JEWISH PETITION

Washington, July 8.—Secretary Hay returned to Washington from Oyster Pay this afternoon. It may be stated that the President and his Secretary of State are in absolute accord upon everything that has been done in connection with the Jewish petition, the Manchurian issue, and other important pending and open questions.
There has been no change of plan respecting the Jewish petition so far as the general features are concerned.
It is not yet settled how this petition shall be placed before the President, nor indeed just how his attention shall be drawn officially to its existence.

A BRUTAL MURDER

Havana, July 7.—A friend of L.
Bradley, an American, has written to Mr. Squires, the United States Minister, informing him of the details of the brutal murder of Bradley near Volguin on June 29. Bradley was the manager of a colony of Americans and Canadians. His body was cut to pieces and both arms were hacked off. It is supposed that the motive of the crime was robbery, as the body had been picked in the back with the points of cutlasses, it is presumed in order to make Bradley tell where his money was. The murderers are unknown. Mr. Squires will call attention of the Cuban Government to the murder.

JOINT HIGH COMMISSION

Ottawa, July 8.—John Charlton, M.P., is authority for the statement that the Joint High Commission between Canada and the United States will resume its deliberations this fall, and take up the question of reciprocity in trade matters between the two countries. The member for North Norfolk, who sat on this commission before as one of the Canadian representatives, says he is quite satisfied that our neighbors are ready to negotiate. Why, then, he would like to know, should the Dominion refuse to enter into a compact that would prove of much financial assistance to many of her interests? It was suggested to him that Mr. Chamberlain's proposals for reciprocity within the Empire would make it rather difficult for this country to lower its tariff also towards Britain's chief competitor in our markets, but Mr. Charlton does not look upon the Colonial Secretary's proposition as likely to lead to any concrete result in the immediate future. He thinks that this country's wise plan is to avail itself if possible of a chance to enter the United States market on more favorable terms than we now enjoy.

A QUESTION OF TRAINING.

N. Y. Mail and Express.
Gen. O. O. Howard occasionally addresses juvenile patriotic clubs. An organization of this type entertained the veteran at a sociable and dinner.
A little chap near the General displayed a good appetite.
"You eat well, my son," said the old soldier.
"Yes, sir."
"Now, if you love your flag as well as your dinner, you'll make a good patriot." Gen. Howard's eyes beamed on the boy.
"Yes, sir; but I've been practicing eating twelve years and I ain't owned a gun but six months," was the laconic reply.

FOREIGN POPULATION IN BOSTON

Boston was at one time considered the most distinctively American of the cities of the United States, but that distinction exists no longer. The last published report of the Boston Board of Health, a good guide to the division of population, shows that the number of deaths for the week was 997, as against 999 for the corresponding week last year. Of the number 233 were white and 4 coloured. 146 were born in the United States, 85 in foreign countries and 6 of unknown nationality. 47 were of American nationality, and 161 of foreign parentage.
The increase in the foreign born population of Boston is mostly from Ireland, Canada and Russia. The German population of Boston continues small.

POPE LEO XIII

DAILY ROUTINE OF WORK, REST AND RECREATION AT THE VATICAN.

"He is up at 7 every blessed morning, and I have helped him out of bed, have shaved and dressed him for the last 14 years," said Pio Centra to a friend, speaking of Pope Leo the Pope's birthplace, and was a XIII. Pio Centra is from Carpineto, hawker in reduced circumstances when Leo installed him in the Vatican as his confidential valet. Now, though he still shaves and dresses his master, he is the Chevalier Centra, the dispenser of Papal favors and as influential in the Vatican world as any Cardinal if we except the all-powerful Rampolla.

He is the shadow of the Pontiff, who trusts him implicitly. He is the first to see the Pope in the morning, and the last to bid him good night.
A good and trustworthy reporter of Vatican doings is he when inclined to be expansive among his friends. What follows comes almost exclusively from the whilom hawker of Carpineto.

The Pope rises sometimes at 6 in summer or when pressing business is to be dealt with. After a summary toilet he goes to the oratorio, adjoining his bedroom, where his chamberlains dress him for the mass, which he celebrates slowly and with great devotion. After mass breakfast (a cup of strong coffee and a bun, brought in by Centra on a silver tray), and the Pontiff is ready for his day's work.
He passes to his private library, where his secretaries are in waiting with briefs to be signed, drafts to be corrected, reports to be considered and press clippings to be read, and, if important, to be indexed. Then a few outsiders are admitted who have been accorded the privilege of a private interview, and among these is Lapponi, a welcome visitor at all times except when his august patient is ailing and fears his prescriptions of rest and abstention from work.

AUDIENCE OF THE CARDINALS.

When the bell of St. Peter's strikes, the Pope sips a cup of broth with a beaten egg and half a glassful of wine, the Cardinal Rampolla is announced. The Cardinal Secretary of State, followed by secretaries and clerks with papers, crosses the magnificent suite of ante-chambers, rich in frescoes and artistic hangings, smiles blandly to the Swiss guards presenting arms and to the prelates in waiting, who bow low, and disappears into the Papal library. He brings news from the Nuncios, Apostolic Delegates and other political agents; discusses probably the latest move of the anti-clerical M. Combes, the latest promise of protection from the Kaiser, the latest encroachments of the Italian usurper and the general indifference of the Powers to the temporal claims of the Holy See. The conference lasts for an hour at least, and does not leave His Holiness in the best of humor, which is not improved during the subsequent audience of Cardinal Mocenni.

Mocenni is Prefect of the Apostolic

Palace, which means auditor of Vatican accounts, the administrator of the patrimony of St. Peter, the finance minister of a state which has dwindled down to a palace and a garden.
The Holy See has refused the ample subsidy of the Italian Government in compensation for the lost temporalities of the Church, a subsidy which the Pontiff from the proud position of the independent ruler of Catholicism to the humble position of a chaplain to the Italian King. Still, ways and means are to be found for the maintenance of the Cardinals and Nuncios and the thousand dependents, civil and military, of the Vatican.

How Cardinal Mocenni manages to make ends meet is a mystery which he and the Pope only could explain.
There is the interest of $2,000,000 invested in the British and American funds; there is, perhaps, a secret subsidy from Austria and Spain; there is the fluctuating output of Peter's Penne, and the donations of pilgrims and of worthy devotees like the Duke of Norfolk, and there is the incontestable fact that the Holy See has invariably paid its way and has a well stocked strong box, close to the Papal bedchamber, to meet emergencies.

THE GENERAL PUBLIC'S TURN.

The public audience at noon in the throne room closes the day's work of the Holy Father. Princes, pilgrims, people of note or of means are always welcome visitors. The Pontiff, when in good health is most affable.
His retentive memory and his great learning and piety charm the people who approach him and leave a lasting impression most gratifying to his love of popularity.

A frugal dinner, a short siesta, a drive in the gardens, or a walk in the Vatican galleries cover the time from noon to evening. He then reads his briefs or resumes his busy pen, if no cardinal or church dignitary drops in to speak of ecclesiastical affairs or to discuss his favorite poets, Virgil and Horace. Sometimes his nephew comes for a chat, and on special occasions Rampolla asks for a special audience, which, of course, is always granted.

Leo then retires to his oratory and prays until Centra taps at the door to invite him to supper—a pretext of supper—and to bed.

KINGSTON HAPPENINGS

Kingston, Ont., July 8.—Dr. A. K.
Winters, New York, who spent a week in Kingston with Dr. W. B. Thompson, visited the penitentiary and was greatly impressed with the electrical and engineering department, which he said was far ahead of those in any of the large United States penitentiaries he had seen, everything being up to date.

All the children of Thomas Can-dotte, Simcoe Island, have been affected with diphtheria. Three or four recovered but two died, Thomas, aged 3 years on Monday night, and Catharine, aged 6, on Tuesday night. Precautions have been taken to prevent further spread of the disease.

Counterfeit $2 Dominion bills and United States $1 notes raised to $10 were passed here to-day. They are clever deceptions.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that the steamer Arabian, with Government supplies, is ashore on Pigeon Island, some thirty miles above the city.

Deafness is a terrible affliction to the man who likes to hear himself talk.

The Professor Said

"Don't Drink Coffee"

(A certain Professor in a Chicago University in a late talk to students)

"We talk of drunkenness as a crime" he continued, "but tea and coffee drinking at meals is more injurious than liquor to some men."

Tea and coffee drinking, Prof.—told his class, is responsible for much of the restlessness of the American nation.

Think they will quit ?

Yes. Many of them know that with good health they can "do things" in this world, so when they find stomach trouble, weak eyes, bad blood and muddy skin, or any of the many incipient signs of disease set up by Coffee they quit.

Then they take on

Postum Coffee

Because it furnishes the Coffee flavor, charming color and all the pleasure of Coffee drinking and does not destroy stomach and nerves but makes for the sure rebuilding of the entire body on healthful, sturdy lines.

THE REBELLION OF THE CARDINALS

Dr. Laponi Severely Criticized by Some of Them.

RAMPOLLA SENDS FOR MAZZONI

THE POPE'S RELATIVES SUG-GESTED A CONSULTATION WITH DOCTORS CARDARELLI AND BACCCELLI, BUT A DIFFI-CULTY AROSE ON ACCOUNT OF THE RELATIONS BETWEEN CHURCH AND STATE, AS ONE IS A SENATOR AND THE OTHER A MINISTER OF THE CROWN.

Rome, July 8.—It became known today that the motive for Dr. Mazzoni's sudden call by Cardinal Rampolla originated in what Vatican circles have already baptized as "The rebellion of the Cardinals" against Dr. Laponi.
It appears that some of the Cardinals complained of the doctor's treatment of the patient, thinking that Dr. Lapponi had not since the beginning detected that the Pope was suffering from affection of the pleura and thus, they said, allowed the disease to assume a gravity which otherwise might perhaps have been avoided. Dr.
Laponi, who is supported by Dr.
Mazzoni, indignantly repudiated the idea. Both the doctors declared that barely five days have elapsed since the Pope became ill, and they claim that three days ago they detected water in the pleura and that it was not possible, in the nature of the disease, to detect it earlier, nor was it prudent, considering the age and weakness of the Pontiff, to risk a test puncture. However, the criticizing Cardinals not only maintained their view, but succeeded in reaching the ear of Cardinal Rampolla. Besides this, the Pope's relatives proposed a consultation with the most illustrious physicians, naming Dr. Antonio Car-darelli and Dr. Guido Baccelli, but Laponi's feelings, further difficulty thereupon arose, owing to the existing relations between Church and State.
Dr. Cardarelli was a member of the Chamber of Deputies for 16 years, and is now a Senator, that is to say, he fills a position which has necessitated not only taking the oath of allegiance to the King to support the constitution, but he has also sworn to obey Italian laws, including the Papal guarantees, which regulate the position of the Papacy in regard to the Italian State, thus making him obnoxious to the Papal party.

Dr. Baccelli's position is even more difficult. In addition to having been a member of the Chamber of Deputies for thirty years, he is actually a Minister of the Crown of Italy, being Minister of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture. Dr. Baccelli occupies such a high position in medical science that notwithstanding his political principles he has often been called to the deathbed of prominent ecclesiastics, and was even consulted during the last illness of Pope Pius IX., but then he was not a Minister and had never been one.

In spite of these objections the wishes of the Pecci family were respected, and it was announced that doctors Laponi and Mazzoni would consult with Dr. Cardarelli to-morrow morning.

THE PILGRIMS' CLUB LUNCH London, July 8.—The luncheon which the Pilgrims' Club give to the American officers to-morrow will be one of the most interesting functions of their visit to England. Such a number of representative British and American officers have seldom been seen together. All the navy and army officers will be in uniform. Vice-Admiral Lord Beresford will preside. On his right hand will be Rear-Admiral Cotton and on his left Captain Prince Louis of Battenberg. The American officers present will be the same as those who attended the State ball and the others present will include Ambassador Choate, Captain Chas. H. Stockton, the United States Naval Attaché, Senators Gorman and Dewey, Consul-General Evans, Admiral Sir John Dalrymple Bay, Admiral Sir Henry Stephenson, Admiral Lord Nephew Scott, Rear Admiral Sir James Bruce, Sir Berkeley Milne, Commodore of the Royal Yachts, and the King's aide-de-camp; Archdeacon Sinclair, General Lord Grenfell, Lord Geo. Hamilton, Arthur Lee, M.P., Perry Belmont, Geo.
T. Wilson, of New York; Hamilton McCormick, of Chicago, and Louis Hay, of Michigan.

SUCCESSFUL FISHING TRIP.
Messrs. H. H. Sharples, R. J. Davidson and H. R. Goodday returned yesterday morning from Lake St. An-L'Islet County, where they had a most successful three days fishing, bringing back to town a large number of speckled beauties, which were distributed among their friends. This lake is one of the best stocked in the Province, while the club preserves abound in deer.
During the trip a number of the latter were seen and several photographs were taken of deer on shore and swimming across the lake.

SECURE THE MONTREAL GUIDE AND MAP

Before Visiting That City—It Will Avoid Trouble.

A booklet called the "Practical Guide of the City of Montreal," with map attached, has been sent to us by Mr.
Antoine Langlois, news agent, Mountain Hill, where it is for sale at all times, as well as at the principal news depots. This "Guide and Map of Montreal" has been specially written by Mr. R. Beaugrand, who has taken great pains to give all the most useful, necessary and practical details which anybody could wish for respecting that city. The history of the city, of its different monuments and buildings as well as the most prominent sites, have been written up in this guide, not only in a very interesting manner, but also in a very practicable point of view.

OUR TRADE WITH UNITED STATES

Improved More Last Year Than Ever Before

QUEBEC AND ONTARIO LEAD

BUT OUR EXPORTS HAVE NOT INCREASED IN THE SAME PRO-PORTION—THE IMPORTS MORE THAN DOUBLE THE EXPORTS.

Washington, July 8.—Export trade from this country to British North America is in a more flourishing condition than ever before in the history of commerce between the two countries.

The Bureau of Statistics, which has just been incorporated as a branch of the new Department of Commerce and Industries, gave out a statement to-day which shows that for the eleven months of the fiscal year 1903 the increase in exports from this country to Canada amounted to $12,000,000 as compared with the same period last year. This is a greater increase than in any year in the history of our commerce with Canada except in 1890.
The volume of exports now shipped to British North America is greater than in any preceding year.

The Bureau of Statistics groups within the term "British North America" Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, the North-West Territory, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Labrador and British Columbia.
From the export point of view the important divisions of this group were Quebec and Ontario, and it is in the exports to these Provinces that the biggest increases are shown.

During the eleven months ending May, the total value of exports to Quebec and Ontario amounted to $98,- 000,000, against $87,000,000 during the corresponding months last year.
Nova Scotia received $7,000,000 worth of our exports compared with $5,- 500,000 last year.

Exports to British Columbia were $5,500,000, compared with $7,000,000 for the same months last year, while Newfoundland and Labrador received $2,330,000, against a little less than $2,000,000 for the eleven months ended May, 1902.

The total exports to British North America from the United States for the full fiscal year seem likely to be about $125,000,000, against $112,000,- 000 in 1902, $107,000,000 in 1901 and $97,000,000 in 1900.

Not only has the growth in exports from the United States to Canada been greater in the year just ended than in any preceding year with a single exception, but that growth has been greater than to any other country except Germany. To Germany the increase in the eleven months of 1903, for which figures are now available, was $21,000,000, to Mexico the increase was $2,000,000, to Argentina $1,500,000, to all of South America $2,500,000, and to all of Africa $4,- 000,000.

Meantime the imports into the United States from Canada have grown, but not with equal rapidity. The total imports for the year just ended will amount to about $55,000,000, against a total of $48,000,000 imported from British North America in the fiscal year 1902. Comparing 1903 with 1902, the growth will amount to about $7,000,000, the total imports from British North America in 1903 having been about $38,000,000, while the growth in our exports to British North America during that same period will be about $77,000,000.

Thus the total exports to British North America from the United States are a little more than double the imports into the United States from that section, and the growth in exports between 1902 and 1903 has been twice as great as the growth in imports.

The most important articles exported to British North America, and comprising the bulk of the $125,000,000 worth of exports, in their relative order of value, were manufactures of iron and steel, coal, breadstuffs, raw cotton, cotton manufactures, agricultural implements, chemicals, lumber and manufactures of wood.

MR. JOS. POPE AT WASHINGTON

Washington, July 8.—Jos. W. Pope, the Canadian expert in connection with the Alaskan boundary controversy, who also has been named principal assistant to the Canadian agent in the preparation of the Canadian case for submission to the Commission, which will meet in London in September, called at the State Department to-day and began the examination of the originals of some of the important charts presented by the American side in support of its case.

TAKING UP THE NEW CLAUSES.

London, July 8.—All the regular clauses of the Irish Land Bill being adopted, the House of Commons took up the newly proposed clauses, on the first of which the Government showed the smallest majority of the whole debate. Irish Secretary Wyndham proposed appropriating $25,000 annually out of the development grant to indemnify Trinity College, Dublin, for any loss of revenue arising from the sale of land owned by the College. The new clause was vigorously opposed by the Nationalists, but after a long debate it was adopted by a Government majority of 63.

A number of private members' clauses were then submitted and discussed at length. Mr. Wyndham pleaded that the House complete the committee stage of the bill this evening, and all these clauses were then withdrawn. Mr. Wyndham then moved an amendment to schedule one, providing for the payment to the landlords of a uniform bonus of twelve per cent. This was agreed to, although the Nationalists plainly intimated their intention of re-opening the question on the report stage. The bill as amended then passed through the committee stage and was reported to the House amid cheers.

One touch of humor makes the whole world grin.

sidered to account for the Pope's general growing worse. After a test puncture, 800 grammes of bloody liquid was extracted. The condition of the patient improved immediately, reviving hopes, slight in some persons, and exaggerated in others. The amelioration in the condition of the patient was not continued during Thursday. Indeed, depression gained the upper hand.

Berlin, July 8.—According to a despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger, dated 12.45 this morning, the Pope's kidneys have again become active, and he feels much better.

HOPES OF TWO PARTIES.

Rome, July 8.—Although Pope Leo is one of the best loved of the Popes, the situation in the Church now is, that while there is one party who could do anything possible to have him live longer, there is another party who thinks a change in the Papacy would further their interests as well as those of the Church. The former party is composed of all the friends of those who are now in power, and who have secured the best posts both with regard to honors and positions as well as financially. These understand that a change may mean practical oblivion for them. The other party is composed of all those who have been kept in the background, and whose only hope is in a new administration. It must be considered that a new Pope generally brings a change in all the great appointments, including the Papal Secretary of State and Vicar of Rome, the representative of the Pontiff in spiritual affairs; the Vice-Chancellor, who has charge of issuing the Papal bulls; the Grand Penitentiary, who presides at the tribunal of Penitentiaries, granting absolution under certain circumstances, and the librarian of the Holy Church, besides all other positions more or less important connected with or depending on these great dignitaries.

There is only one man who holds such a position as to be sure to profit by the election of a new Pope, if the usual custom is observed. This is the Secretary of the Consistorial Congregation, who during the conclave acts as Secretary of State. It is his duty, when a Pope is elected, to advance, kneeling, and offer the white Zucchetto, or small cap, the emblem of Papal dignity, to the new Pontiff, who is expected to remove the red cap and put the white one on his head and the red one on the head of the kneeling officiating Monsignor, as a sign that he will soon create him a Cardinal. On that occasion, in 1878 Leo calmly and slowly folded up his red Zucchetto and put it in his pocket as a mute protest against politics. The officiating prelate was Monsignor La-sagni, who, in fact, waited about three years before entering the Sacred College. The fortunate prelate who is now looking forward to such a dignity is Monsignor Valpomi, who has just been appointed Secretary of the Consistorial Congregation, as a reward, perhaps, for his polished Latin, which has been at the disposal of the Pontiff for so many years.

BEAR CUBS.

Two bear cubs were on view in one of Holt, Renfrew & Co.'s large show windows on Bunde street yesterday, and attracted the lively attention of passersby. They were recently captured at Lake Edward.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

The Ladies' Aid Association of St. Andrew's Church, Levis, are proposing to give a moonlight excursion on the river on Thursday night, July 9th. The boat will leave Levis and Quebec wharf at 8 o'clock, calling at Point Levis and St. Joseph. Tickets for the round trip and refreshments, 50c.

ACTIONS OF DAMAGES.

Senator Landry has taken an action for $5,000 damages for libel against Le Soleil. Mr. Ferdinand Poitras, father of the young child who was killed on St. John street by an electric car in May last, has instituted an action against the Quebec Railway, Light & Power Co., claiming $3,000 damages.

MUSIC AT KENT HOUSE, MONTMORENCY FALLS.

Arrangements have been made by Manager Baker that dance music will be played every evening in the ball room at Kent House between 8 and 11 p.m. This attraction will be looked forward to all this month by a large number of our young people.

CHARGE OF CHILD MURDER.

Last fall one of the local papers at Chicoutimi gave currency to a report that while an Indian and his squaw were being driven from St. Anne to Lake Clair, the portage to the hunting grounds on the Shipshaw River, they allowed a child to drop from the cart, only to recover it after some time, and that it died almost immediately. Not much credence was given at the time to the rumor, but the Indian and squaw have just returned from the winter hunt and have been promptly arrested on a charge of child murder and placed in Chicoutimi Jail.

KILLED BY A CAR.

An aged beggarman named Nazair Pelletier, alias Labonte, of St. Sauveur, was struck by an electric car yesterday at Hadlow and almost instantly killed. It appears that the deceased crossed over to Levis early in the morning and was walking along the electric railway track above the G. T. R. station. His attention being taken up with an approaching train, he did not hear the electric car coming behind him. The tracks at this point are close together and one can almost step from one to the other. He did not hear the warning of the bell on the electric car, which struck him before it could be stopped. He was conscious when picked up and was taken into an adjacent house, where he relapsed into unconsciousness and died in about twenty minutes. His body was not identified until later in the day, when a son of the deceased recognized the remains as those of his father. The coroner will hold an inquest to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Deceased was about 65 years of age.

Pain in the Joints.

may be muscular or rheumatic. The joints are hard to get at, and it requires a powerful, penetrating remedy to reach the affected parts. Polson's Nervine exactly meets the requirements, for it is both powerful and penetrating. The pain is expelled as if by magic, for one drop of Nervine equals in strength five drops of other remedies. You won't often call the doctor if Nervine is in the house. Price 25 cents.

DRUMMER BOY OF THE RAPPAHANNOCK. (Franklin, Neb., Free Press, Dec. 15th, 1901.)

Major R. H. Hendershot, the "Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock," gave an entertainment, under the auspices of the M. W. A., Monday evening at the Congregational Church, assisted by his son and some local talent. The house was well filled and all were pleased. The Major is truly a wonderful drummer. He realizes also that "a little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men," and having been previously "posted" adds much amusement to his entertainment by cracking a few jokes at the expense of his auditors. His imitation of a battle and the roar of an express train are his masterpieces and never fail to please. The above attraction has been engaged by Mr. Baker, the Manager of Kent House, Montmorency Falls, for an engagement dating from the 11th to the 15th instant, inclusively.

THE LADY FORESTERS.

The High Court, Lady Compenions of the I. O. F., concluded the business of their convention yesterday and adjourned. The next convention of the High Court will be held in Fraser-ville. The following officers were elected:—

Mrs. J. B. A. Alarie, Montreal, High Chief Ranger.
Mrs. E. Bertrand, Chambly, ex-High Chief Ranger.
Mrs. E. Belanger, Quebec, High Vice-Chief Ranger.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

A correspondent from Quebec, signing himself "Z," writes as follows to the Canadian Military Gazette:—"In view of the fact of the 1st Battalion Gordon Highlanders having presented a trophy to the D. R. A., to commemorate their association with the Canadian soldier in South Africa, and particularly with the first contingent, could you through the columns of your well-read military journal suggest to your readers, especially to those of the late 2nd R. C. R., the suitability of raising funds with the object of returning in some measure this very thoughtful act of the 'Gallant Gay Gordons.' All will remember the good feeling which existed between the two corps, whether in action or in bivouac. Each had an unbounded admiration for the other, which must still exist, the Gordons as a unit remembering their old comrades at this late date—the Canadians, as individuals, only needing an opportunity of keeping alive the memory of many a hard-fought day, fought side by side, with that fine fighting battalion, the 1st Gordon Highlanders. As a very humble member of the late 2nd R. C. R., I would beg to suggest that through your columns opinions might be sought as to the method of soliciting and handling subscriptions, and the form the gift should take."

AROUND THE COURTS.

In the Recorder's Court yesterday three labourers, for being drunk and creating a disturbance in St. Andrew street, were each fined $1 and costs of eight days. Several cases against unlicensed dog owners were heard. There was nothing doing in the Police Court.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

An inquest was held by Coroner Belieu yesterday morning on the remains of the late Miss Lizzie Burns, daughter of Mr. John Burns, baker, who was killed on Grande Allee by alighting from a moving electric car. The inquest was held at the late residence of the deceased, No. 147, Artilley street. The witnesses examined were Ann Kennedy, wife of John Burns; Conductor Guenard, Motorman Pare, A. Rheanne, advocate, Trumpeter Desgagne and Dr. Verge. The testimony corroborated the facts already published. The following was the verdict rendered:—"Death from a fracture of the skull." The verdict exonerated from blame the Electric Car Company and its employees.

LAW EXAMINATIONS.

The written examinations for the admission to practice and study law in this Province were concluded on Tuesday evening and yesterday the examiners were busy correcting the copies. The oral examinations for admission to-day, but those for admission to practice will probably not commence until to-morrow evening. Only those who have successfully passed their written examinations will be admitted to the oral exams. The examiners are Messrs. H. Gervais, K.C., and P. B. Mignault, K.C., Montreal; A. Bernier, K.C., and G. Lampron, Quebec; J. McDougall, K.C., Ottawa; S. Constantineau, Bedford; P. N. Martel, K.C., Three Rivers; H. Verret, Sherbrooke; and P. H. Cote, K.C., Arthabaska.

LADY TO REST.

A very large number of citizens as well as residents of Silley attended the funeral yesterday morning of Miss Mary Josephine Evelyn Connolly, daughter of Mr. Stephen Connolly, of this city. The chief mourners were the father of the deceased and her two brothers, Rev. Father Connolly, C.S.S.R., and Mr. Martin Connolly, Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, Mr. J. Power, brother-in-law, and Messrs. T. McEnnelly and W. McEnnelly, cousins, and Rev. Father Maguire, parish priest of Silley. The Requiem Mass at St. Patrick's Church was celebrated by Rev. Father Connolly, assisted by Rev. Father Delargy, C.S.S.R., and Father McCarthy, C.S.S.R., as deacon and sub-deacon, while Rev. Father Maguire officiated at the Libera. All the altars were draped in heavy mourning and the musical portion of the service was ably rendered by a choir under the leadership of Mr. Jos. Vezina, organist of the church, appropriate solos being rendered by Mrs. Edward Foley and Mr. R. Timmons. The remains of the deceased were subsequently interred in St. Patrick's Cemetery, where the last prayers were read over the body by her brother, Rev. Father Connolly, assisted by Rev. Father Hickey, C.S.S.R.

FEED THEM

The Way to Build up Wasting Children.

When babies begin to waste away and fail there is but one thing to do, and that is to find the proper food. Physicians have never yet found a stomach, young or old, that would not digest the scientific food Grape-Nuts, for Grape-Nuts is the most perfect food form in the world and will nourish and build up any stomach no matter how weak.

A Washington lady says: "I had lost two children from marasmus, or wasting away, before my little boy Maurice came, and when I found nothing agreed with him in the way of food, you may imagine how I felt."

"No food seemed to satisfy his little stomach, as he would bite his fingers and appeared to be slowly starving to death, crying all the time. It was pitiable to see and hear him, and when he was seven months old I certainly thought I would lose him. It was then my sister begged me to try Grape-Nuts, which I did, using three tablespoonfuls covered with a half pint of scalded milk and a half pint of boiling water which after standing awhile was strained and fed from the bottle."

From this time baby began to improve and he took absolutely no other food until I weaned him from the bottle. He could not take milk in any form except on Grape-Nuts. He is now in good health, strong and sturdy and nearly three years old, and I am very proud indeed of my Grape-Nuts boy." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Exposure

To cold and stormy weather opens the way to an attack of bronchitis. The man on the wagon, be he farmer, milkman or truckman, needs to pay special heed to the first symptoms of weakness or disease of the organs of respiration.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure bronchitis, deep-seated coughs, bleeding of the lungs, and other conditions which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

"For seven years I had been troubled with what the doctors called bronchitis," writes Mr. Arthur Maule (general merchant), of Niles, town, Middlesex Co., Ontario. "A year ago, after I had been taken sick with a severe attack, I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and I rapidly recovered from the attack and felt no ill effects. This season I began taking the 'Discovery' in August, and have so far been perfectly well. I can go out in all kinds of weather and not feel the bronchial trouble at all. Let me say to all who are suffering from such complaints to give Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a fair trial, and I am convinced that good results will be obtained."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper-bound, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps, to pay expense of customs and mailing only; or 50 stamps for the book in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Harrison Ross underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Jeffery Hale Hospital yesterday afternoon. Dr. Ahern and Dr. Sewell, as operated by Dr. Carter, performed the operation, which his many friends will be glad to hear proved very successful. Enquiry at the hospital last evening brought the gratifying news that the doctor was doing very nicely, and it is expected that he will be around again in a few days.

E. F. Budden, a pupil of St. Alban's School, Brockville, heads the list of successful candidates at the Royal Military College, Kingston, with a total of 4,379 marks, beating the second man by 950 marks. "St. Alban's" has thus secured the first place for two consecutive years. The School is well known in the Province of Quebec, and among its present pupils H. Wartle and G. Cockburn come from this city.

AN ANGLO-AMERICAN REGIMENT.

The American-British Rifles, of San Francisco, California, are a unique military organization, composed, as the name signifies, of American and British men who, having fought in army or navy beneath one or both flags, feel themselves bonded together by the kinship of blood, that birthmark of friendship which they desire to keep ever true and firm as a bond of comradeship between the two great English-speaking peoples of the world. The organization has been recognized by the State of California, and granted permission to parade and carry arms. The uniform is khaki, with Colonial hats and American trimmings. Its members include men who have fought the Maoris in New Zealand, the Zulus, the Matabele, the Boers in South Africa, the Spaniards in Cuba and in the Philippines, the Filipinos, the Red Skins, the Afghans at Cabul, and the Samoans at Apia. Some three months ago the corps had to conduct its first funeral service, that of a veteran who accompanied King Edward VII. (then Prince of Wales) to India; the cortege attracted much attention at the sight of the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes being carried side by side, and many a head uncovered as the old flag of his native land brought to mind the days of "Auld Lang Syne." The corps has its coat of arms—a handsome design of the combined colors, supported by crossed rifles and flanked by the eagle and the lion, and a ribbon of blue and red bearing the motto, "Quis separabit?" a sentiment which we trust may long signify the goodwill between the Great Republic and the British Empire.—Canadian Military Gazette.

The attempt to be a good fellow has spoiled many a good man.
