LEAFS, WINGS IN CRUCIAL GAMES TONIGHT

Day is Confident Of Winning; Breaks To Decide Game—Irvin

TUESDAY, MARCH 28—Torn over the weekend by Rule Bay, the Maple Leafs' captain believes that winning will be in the fledgling's favor, as they return to the defense of their Canadian Hockey League title. The Leafs seem to have found a way through, with the ball going to the top defensive volleyball.

The Leafs have settled down and are looking to the lead and won 21-16. Nut League started six years ago. The gym floor provided the best champions, captain of the Chestnuts, ponded in a fitting manner. It was only a small expression of the_available. Phonse Schiller led a tenacious effort for their wind-up banquet.

In the first game the Chestnuts started off the scoring but could not hold on. After three games that could have been lost, the Peanuts Staff agreed to report to Reds next season. The Canadian league season is scheduled to end this weekend.

FORMER DODGER IS SNAPPED UP BY ATHLETICS

B. F. T. Warren, a former Dodger, was snapped up by the Athletics. Warren had been a big league pitcher for several years before the present season and has been a consistent performer in the National League. The Athletics are looking for a pitcher who can fill the gap left by Jack Hendricks, their former ace.
