Indians Greet Russ Visitor

NEW DELHI (AP) — Soviet President Klementi Voroshilov and a delegation of Kremlin officials received an orderly welcome today from an estimated 150,000 Indians.

Prime Minister Nehru and Indian President Rajendra Prasad greeted Voroshilov warmly as the 79-year-old Russian chief of state stepped from his TU-104 jetliner. Government clerks and farmers waved quietly to Voroshilov as he drove with Nehru and Prasad into New Delhi to begin a 16-day goodwill tour.

Voroshilov is largely a figurehead in a government dominated by Premier Khrushchev, but full honors were required both by protocol and India's warm feelings toward Moscow.

Voroshilov was virtually buried under garlands of yellow marigolds, first heaped on him by government officials, then by diplomats and school children. By the time he stepped to the speaking stand for welcoming addresses, half a dozen or more garlands hung around his neck.

Prasad said the exchange of visits by Indian and Soviet leaders has brought the two countries closer together and taught respect for each other's way of life. He said Voroshilov's visit would make them still closer.

Voroshilov replied that the last few years had shown that Indian-Soviet friendship is unbreakable.

Fire On Crowd Of 500

Police, Natives Clash In Eastern Uganda

KAMPALA, Uganda (Reuters) — Police and Negroes clashed today in riot-torn eastern Uganda as violence spread in the Bukedi district to this British East African protectorate.

Police fired on a crowd of 500 storming the Pallisa town police station, killing two and wounding two others.

The crowd attacked the station when 17 tribal chiefs were sheltering there. Troops later conducted the chiefs to safety.

Rioting broke out Saturday in eastern Uganda when Negroes protested at tax assessments set by the chiefs.

At least 10 persons have been killed, scores of buildings have been burned down and about 100 persons arrested. About 1,000 troops and police are trying to quell the riots.

A dusk-to-dawn curfew was imposed on the entire area Tuesday night, and the government promised an inquiry into the taxation issue, admitting that some assessments appeared to be unfair.

Taxes paid to district governments are assessed by regional committees under the chiefs.

Courtemanche Quits Post Cites Health As Reason

OTTAWA (CP)—Henri Courtemanche, state secretary since May 12, 1958, resigned Tuesday for reasons of health.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker told the Commons and later Mr. Courtemanche, said in an interview, that he quit the cabinet post on the advice of a cardiologist.

He said he knows nothing about rumors he will be appointed to the Senate, but would not refuse a Senate seat.

For the time being, he will retain his seat as Progressive Conservative member for Labelle riding.

Mr. Courtemanche said he told Mr. Diefenbaker last November he intended to quit.

Other rumors were that he would be appointed to the bench, but Mr. Courtemanche said he isn't interested in becoming a judge.

Cambridge Debater Hits Monarchy As Sacred Cow, National Bromide

CAMBRIDGE, England (Reuters) — A Cambridge University student Tuesday night attacked the monarchy as Britain's "sacred cow" and a "national bromide," but he lost out in a university debate.

Student David Saunders was speaking in the Cambridge debate on the motion that "provision for the Royal Family is excessive and ought to be reduced." The motion was defeated by a vote of 156 to 111.

Support for Saunders came from a Labor member of Parliament, Emrys Hughes, Defence of the monarchy was led by L. G. Pine, editor of Burke's Peerage.

Saunders said the monarchy, "our national sacred cow," reminded him of a frail old lady dressed in her Sunday best to impress the neighbors.

He thought Britain was making "a shabby, dishonest attempt to masquerade as a great power when we are really a second-rate power dressed in the mantle of imperial majesty."

Hughes said that "nearly £1,000,000 a year is rather expensive for what has become a purely ceremonial institution."

Five Die In Crash

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) — All five members of one family met death here Tuesday night when a fast passenger train struck an automobile. The accident occurred as the Santa Fe's San Francisco Chief arrived nearly 30 minutes late. Killed at the scene were Dr. Robert Lee Brown, 37, and his two sons, Brown's wife, Dorothy, 34, died an hour later, and a daughter, Sharon, 11, died six hours after brain surgery necessitated by the collision.

Virginia Crash

Sift Debris In Swamp For Clues

HOLDCROFT, Va. (AP) — The burned wreckage of a Capital Airlines Viscount yielded the last of 50 bodies Tuesday, nearly 15 hours after the Chicago-to-Norfolk plane pancaked into a swampy ravine near here. No Canadians were aboard.

Throughout the day rescue workers toiled under a clear sky in marked contrast to the fog and rain that shrouded the area when the prop-jet airliner crashed late Monday night.

Immediately after the bodies were removed, teams of investigators began sifting through the tangled debris looking for clues that might show why the plane fell.

A spokesman for the Civil Aeronautics Board termed the crash pattern "a little unusual, it was as if it had been let down by parachute."

NO CRASH TRAIL

There was no swatch cut through the trees, such as a falling plane usually makes. Only six trees in the immediate area showed any marks of the tragedy. Cause of the crash was not readily apparent.

The pilot, Capt. James B. Fornasero, 50, made a routine radio check with the Norfolk tower, at about 10 p.m. Then, at 10:20, 10 minutes before the plane was due to land, trouble apparently developed.

Three times the craft circled over the farm home of Robert H. Tench. The last time the engines roared as if they were wide open — and then silence.

Each body brought from the plane was strapped in, an indication those aboard expected a crash landing.

The Capital plane carried 46 passengers — 20 men, 14 women and three children — and a crew of four.

Equal Partner In Free World Camp

Sign 'Indestructible Partnership' Between Japan And United States

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Japan Tuesday signed a historic treaty which President Eisenhower said sets up a new "indestructible partnership" between the U.S. and its former enemy.

Eisenhower and Japan's Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi joined in ushering in the pact which raises Japan — a defeated, disarmed and occupied enemy after the war — to the status of equal partner in the free world camp.

The president did not sign the document. State Secretary Herter acted for the United States.

More than 70 officials from the two countries gathered for the signing ceremony in the White House.

One of the U.S. signers was Douglas MacArthur II, ambassador to Japan. His uncle led U.S. forces to victory over Japan 15 years ago.

WAS WAR CRIMINAL

Kishi himself once was jailed by the Allies as a war criminal. He had been a high official in the wartime Japanese government.

But there was not a single reference to the war bitterness in the speeches Tuesday.

Under the 1,000-word treaty, similar in many respects to pacts the U.S. has with 41 other free world Allies, the United States pledges to come to Japan's defence in case of armed attack on Japan.

Japan grants the United States use of military bases in Japan without time limit.

Tokyo wins a say in U.S. activities which might affect Japan's interest in the Far East.

And the two countries promise to co-operate economically, and to settle any disputes between them by peaceful means.

FULFILLS GOAL

Eisenhower viewed the treaty as fulfillment of a goal he and Kishi set during Kishi's Washington visit in June, 1957.

The president said this goal is: "To establish an indestructible partnership between our two countries in which our relations would be based on complete equality and mutual understanding."

In like vein, Kishi termed this "truly significant and historic occasion . . . a happy augury for the future."

The aid will be provided under the Colombo plan for economic aid to South and Southeast Asia. Mr. Green said India requested $55,000,000 worth of Canadian commodities and equipment for its next five-year plan.

Other items to be shipped by Canada: $2,550,000 worth of fertilizer; $2,000,000 worth of diesel locomotives; a further $700,000 for a study of four hydro power projects; $130,000 for three coking therapy units; $250,000 for radio and telegraph equipment; $120,000 worth of raw asbestos.

Canada To Give $18 Million In Colombo Aid To India

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada will give India $7,000,000 worth of wheat and $11,500,000 worth of aluminum, copper and nickel.

External Affairs Minister Green announced Tuesday in the Commons.

Press Air-Sea Search For US Navy Plane

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Fifty-eight persons — two of them Canadians — are dead or missing today following the crash of a Scandinavian jetliner on a hill near this Turkish capital and the disappearance of a United States navy plane over or near Turkey.

The Ankara disaster, in which all 42 persons died, was the third crash of a commercial airliner since 1960 began less than three weeks ago. It brought the death toll for commercial aviation this year to 126.

A passenger list issued by the Scandinavian SAS Airline included the names of James Hopkins and Mariella Laurendeau, both listed as Canadian.

(Hopkins was reported by The Associated Press in New York to be a chemical engineer for the Pfizer Corporation stationed in Istanbul. This report said his home address was Birmingham, Mich., although the passenger list gave his nationality as Canadian.)

UNDOUBTEDLY CRASHED Sixteen persons were aboard the American plane, a two-engine reconnaissance amphibian on a flight from Rota, Spain, to Adana, Turkey. The navy said it undoubtedly had crashed, and a land, sea and air search was launched.

The plane that crashed here was a French-built twin-jet Caravelle operated by Scandinavian Airlines. It was the first commercial crash for the Caravelle since Air France and the Scandinavian line began using it more than a year ago.

The plane encountered heavy rain and wind as it approached Ankara, but airport experts said the crash "was caused by technical reasons — not the weather."

They gave no further explanation, and the Turkish Air Force began an investigation today.

The Caravelle had left Stockholm and Copenhagen Tuesday and had stopped in Dusseldorf, Germany, Vienna, Austria, and Istanbul. From Ankara it was to have flown on to Damascus and Cairo. As it approached Ankara it carried 35 passengers and a crew of seven.

ASKED FOR CLEARANCE About five minutes before he was to land, the pilot asked the Ankara Airport control tower for landing clearance. He reported an altitude of 6,500 feet, then went silent. Airport workers saw a bright flash and put out an alarm.

Three persons were found alive, but two died soon after, and the third, an unidentified woman, died in an Ankara hospital this morning.

Premier Adnan Menderes and a group of Turkish cabinet ministers hastened to the scene.

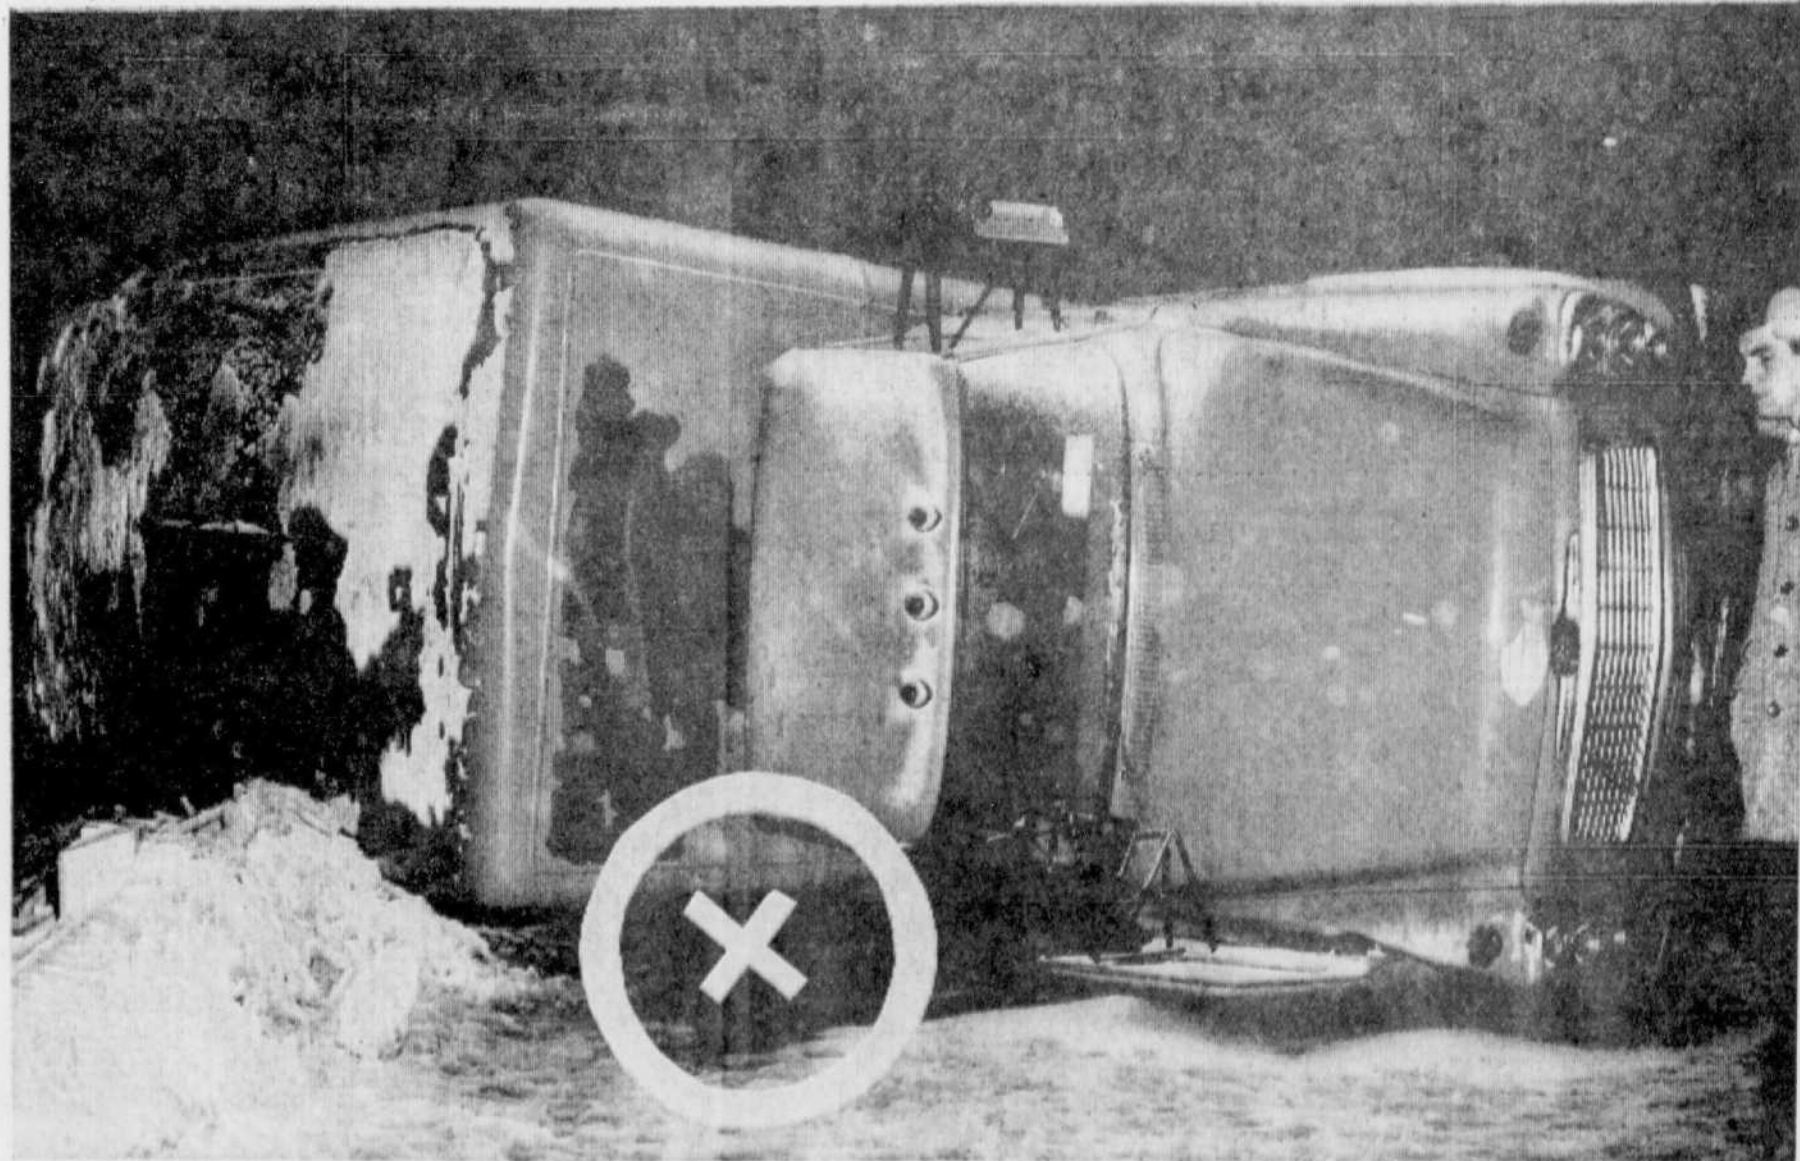

The Ankara crash followed two commercial plane disasters in the U.S. A Capital Airlines plane crashed near Richmond, Va., Monday, killing 59 persons. On Jan. 6 a National Airlines plane exploded in the air near Bolivia, N.C., killing 34.

Five Children Up For Adoption Get 100 Queries TORONTO (CP) — More than 100 inquiries have been received in response to a newspaper advertisement offering a family of five children for adoption, Ontario Welfare Minister Cecile said Tuesday.

The ad, which ran in a number of Ontario dailies last week, offered for adoption three brothers and two sisters "who want to stay together as a family."

Mr. Cecile said inquiries still are coming in from potential foster parents. The children — David, 7, Peggy, 6, Andy, 5, Eleanor, 3, and John, 2 — were taken in custody by the Children's Aid Society because of parental neglect.

Has Quads, Dies CEBU, Philippines (AP)—Mrs. Casiana Polo, 35, died Tuesday of a heart attack after giving birth Monday to quadruplets. The quads, three girls and a boy, are reported healthy.

DEATH TRUCK — Edmond Cardinal, of 1655 Fullum street, Montreal was killed instantly yesterday afternoon in Bromptonville when he was thrown from the truck in which he was a passenger and pinned under it. The accident occurred at the Windsor Mills entrance to the Bromptonville bridge. The truck, driven by Richard Blais of Sherbrooke started skidding at the bridge entrance. Circled cross shows where Cardinal was pinned down. (Record Photo by Gerry Lemay)

Lois Marshall

Loves Soviet Audience

MOSCOW (CP) — Canadian singer Lois Marshall, in the midst of a triumphant Russian tour, says she loves Soviet audiences and thinks Canadian-Soviet cultural relations should be expanded.
"Our views and social convictions may be different, but this should not prevent the development of friendship between us," she told an interviewer for the Moscow newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya (Soviet Russia).
"No audiences in the world can listen to music and understand it as the Soviet audiences do," she added. "The Russians have received me with an open heart. How can I believe that they do not want peace?"
The Toronto soprano, in Moscow for further concerts after a successful Peningrad premiere, said she has sung in many countries—"back home in Canada, in Britain, the United States, the Scandinavian countries, Italy, Germany and Switzerland"—but nowhere had she enjoyed such success as in Russia. It had surpassed all her expectations.

She told the Moscow interviewer that she would like to come to the Soviet Union again next year "because I want to get to know the country better."

DECEPTIVE APPEARANCE

It's easy to imagine what a Crosby-Como rehearsal would be like: Relaxed. Though Bing and Perry ambled through their numbers with a somnolent air, it was apparent that both were well aware of what was going on.
During a break in the crooners' summit meeting, Perry paused to reflect on his brief movie career. "We had a little stock company—Vivian Blaine, Carmen Miranda, Phil Silvers and me," he said. "Whenever they needed a picture to fill out the schedule, they'd put us to work."
Perry made three pictures—Something for the Boys, Doll Face and If I'm Lucky.
"I was pretty bad as an actor," he admitted.
He and the studio eventually cancelled their contract by mutual consent, as the saying goes. Perry went back to radio, records and TV. The movies should be doing as well.

Sherbrooke YMCA 84 Years Old Enjoys Record Year In 1959

The Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A. which was founded 84 years ago, is growing more and more every year.

Last year a record was set for the number of people taking advantage of the facilities offered at the local Y.M.C.A. building, with 26,000 boys and young men participating in Y.M. activities.

Of the 850 male members of the Y.M.C.A. classes this year, approximately 550 of them are between the ages of 6 and 15, and are enrolled in gym and swim classes, under the supervision of Rein Broersma, physical director.

Every boy who attends the 'Y' may take part in all activities under the supervision of the Y.M.C.A. And there is no boy in Sherbrooke or Lennoxville who cannot be a member of the Y.M.C.A. due to lack of finances, because there are always service clubs who are willing to sponsor boys.

At least 300 men are enrolled in special classes which suit their needs.

Meeting at least twice a week and sometimes three times, the men go to the 'Y' for weight lifting and judo practice, as well as for boxing, basketball and volleyball lessons and practice. There is a special business men's class.

This year the University of Sherbrooke has a special physical education program with approximately 80 students using the Y.M.C.A. facilities each week.

Some Y.M.C.A. members travel from as far as Coaticook, Danville, East Angus and Stanstead each week for their classes.

The Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A. building consists of a pool, gymnasium, lounges and a residence on the top floor for 16 young men.

Three of the founders of the Sherbrooke Y.M.C.A. Board, are still ardent supporters of the 'Y' today. These are J. K. Edwards, J. R. Sangster and A. C. Skinner.

Y.M.C.A. Week is being observed across America, January 17-23. In recognition of this week, the local Y.M.C.A. held a special service Sunday at Trinity Church.

The Board of Directors will hold their annual meeting tomorrow evening at the Y.M.C.A. building, when the election of officers for the new year will be the highlight of the meeting.

Leaders of the railway industry in Canada realize that the shipper is king; that they must acquire as wide a range as possible of the transportation tools which modern technology can provide, Mr. Pouliot said, and that they must press for recognition of the competitive conditions with which they are faced.

Of the Canadian economy, Mr. Pouliot said: "The trend as our economists see it, is for great pressure on the Canadian dollar in 1960. Interest rates are rising rapidly in Europe and in other countries in the common market area as well as in Japan, and will rise in the United Kingdom too."

"These are the economic problems in which you, as shippers or as customers of the passenger services of the railways, must necessarily become involved."

Sherbrooke Hospital Annual Meeting

Wage Budget For All Employees Up $45,000 Cash Position Said Continuing 'Precarious'

The Sherbrooke Hospital has increased its budget for wages and salaries in the coming year by $45,000, hospital president Harry Grundy, Q.C. told the annual meeting of the hospital last night.

Despite the fact that during 1959, the operating deficit of the hospital was reduced by slightly more than 40 per cent and the net deficit by 64 per cent, Mr. Grundy said the hospital's cash position continues to remain "precarious."

He said no portion of the wage and salary increase — affecting salaries of all employees — was reflected in financial figures for 1959.

The financial statement showed that the operating deficit for 1959 was $51,547.74, and the net deficit was $21,454.12.

Mr. Grundy sounded a warning that "inflation is a very real and present danger" as far as the operations of the hospital are concerned.

He said that using the 1958 figures as a basis, the estimated gross patient income to be derived from an increase in rates introduced January, 1959, will cover less than 90 per cent of the increase in salaries.

To the individual patient without some form of third party coverage, Mr. Grundy said, the new rates mean an average increase for the average nine-day period of hospitalization of $27 for a private room, and $13.50 for a bed in a semi-private room.

In his president's report, Mr. Grundy, said there was an increase in 1959 in the number of admissions and births, and the X-ray, outdoor, pharmacy together with clinical and pathological laboratories.

D. J. Salls was re-elected honorary president of the hospital, Harry Grundy, Q. C., president, Evans Joslin, first vice-president, and P. M. Robins, second vice-president.

Eric T. Webster was elected an honorary vice-president.

Dr. E. A. Cooper was appointed chairman of the Medical Board, Dr. J. A. MacLeod vice-chairman and Dr. John Taylor, secretary.

A statistical report presented by hospital administrator H. C. Allnutt showed that total admissions in 1959 were 4,179, of which 1,367 were city residents, and 2,812 from outside the city. This is an increase of 359 over 1958.

The number of days of patient care, Mr. Allnutt said, increased from 38,103 to 39,406, with an average daily census of 108 patient and an over-all average stay of nine days.

Mr. Allnutt said that in addition to wage increases, other increases in expense were principally due to increased usage and cost of supplies. The greatest, he said, was in drugs and solutions which showed an increase of $6,639.32.

Mr. Grundy paid tribute to those who assisted in the 1959 campaign for funds, noting that the total collected, up until December 1959, was $61,604.42, well over the objective.

total days of patient and newborn care, combined with increased activity in almost every ancillary medical department.

"They present convincing evidence of the confidence placed in us by the community," Mr. Grundy said.

EXPANSION NEEDED

A Medical Board Building Committee report said that it is "urgent" that immediate thought be given to the development of further bed space and diagnostic facilities in view of the imminence of some form of hospital care sponsored by the provincial government.

The report, incorporated in a Medical Board report given by board chairman Dr. T. J. Quintin, said the committee, under Dr. J. Slny, advocated an additional fifty beds and further space for interns' quarters, enlargement of operating rooms and additions to physiotherapy,

Replaces Geography

Railways Now Facing Competition Test

The challenge of competition has replaced the challenge of geography as the great stimulus of progress in rail transportation, Rotarians were told last night.

In an address to a meeting of the club held at the Hotel Sherbrooke last night, F. A. Pouliot, Assistant General Manager, Atlantic Region, Canadian Pacific Railway Company, said one result of this has been to revolutionize the art and science of Canadian railroading in all of its aspects.

Railway management must provide shippers and travellers with the highest possible standards of transportation service consistent with lowest cost, he said.

Leaders of the railway industry in Canada realize that the shipper is king; that they must acquire as wide a range as possible of the transportation tools which modern technology can provide, Mr. Pouliot said, and that they must press for recognition of the competitive conditions with which they are faced.

Of the Canadian economy, Mr. Pouliot said: "The trend as our economists see it, is for great pressure on the Canadian dollar in 1960. Interest rates are rising rapidly in Europe and in other countries in the common market area as well as in Japan, and will rise in the United Kingdom too."

"These are the economic problems in which you, as shippers or as customers of the passenger services of the railways, must necessarily become involved."

The rules of the market place apply to railroads too, he said. "We recognize that transportation is no longer a monopoly, and is in no danger of becoming one," he said. Shippers and travelling public are no longer dependent on any one transportation agency and, in fact in some areas, as in the case of the private automobile, truck, airplane or boat, they are no longer wholly dependent on public transport in any form."

Mr. Pouliot spoke of the many advances in CPR services in recent years, such as faster transcontinental schedules, the 95 percent dieselization of its engines and the new "piggyback" service, which is the movement of truck-trailers on flatcar.

He listed the many facilities of and routes taken by Canadian Pacific Airlines and Canadian Pacific ships.

In closing, he assured the members that Canadian Pacific was doing all within its power to provide transportation at costs which will enable Canadians to move their products in competition with other countries.

Mr. Pouliot was introduced by Clarence Blake and thanked by Paul Carriere.

Head-table guests included President Lyman Tomkins, D. Patrick, N. Soles, C. Blake, F. A. Pouliot, guest speaker, P. Carriere, A. Ross, H. Johnston, F. Stegmaier and D. Stevenson.

Other guests were J. Crate, T. Thompson, B. MacDonald, S. Grant, H. McRandall, R. Portelance.

Suspended Sentence For Stealing Stove From Church

A Ham South resident of Hungarian origin was given a suspended sentence yesterday for the theft of a $55 stove which presiding judge Mr. Justice William Mitchell said was not worth more than $10.

Twenty-seven-year-old Gordon Wicks pleaded guilty to stealing the stove from the Ham South United Church in December 1958.

But Wicks was ordered to keep the peace for the next five years.

Crown Prosecutor Roland Dugre asked for clemency because of the circumstances which surrounded the theft, but did not explain them.

Wicks had already spent eight days in jail for the theft.

Studies Bus Service

A suggestion Monday by Parks and Playgrounds Committee chairman Antonio Pinard that the municipal ski-trail be serviced with buses was favorably accepted by Alphonse Laramee, owner of the Laramee Transport Company.

Mr. Laramee said that he was interested in organizing a special bus service to the ski-trail, but that fares would be a little more expensive than the conventional service given.

Mr. Pinard suggested a special bus with a stand for skis be installed at the back.

Constitutional Reform

The desire of Prime Minister Diefenbaker to evolve some system whereby the British North America Act, the constitution of Canada, can be amended without recourse to the Imperial Parliament will be shared by the vast majority of the people of this country. The present system whereby each minor amendment in Canadian constitutional practice must be approved by Westminster is rather incongruous, especially after the passage of the famed Statute of Westminster by which the British parliament washed its hands of any further supervision of Canadian affairs.

Undoubtedly some means can be found without too much trouble for amending the constitution internally. But the big problem would still remain — How can the basis for the amendments themselves be determined?

As long as an important element of the Canadian people believes that confederation was a compact, an agreement between the four original participating members, which cannot be changed without the unanimous consent of all partners to the accord, the difficulty will be almost unresolvable. Until an understanding can be reached on this basic point, any attempt to amend the constitution materially is ruled out.

However, Prime Minister Diefenbaker's decision to re-open the thorny question may serve the important end of bringing the obstacles into their proper focus. Once the difficulties are properly understood by the public at large, steps may be taken to remove them. Perhaps it may be possible to work out a compromise formula which will permit the constitution to be an aid rather than a strait-jacket for Canadian development, at the same time protecting the rights and privileges of the varying groups which comprise Confederation.

One of the greatest blocks in the past has been that interested parties have approached the conference table determined to yield nothing, with their thinking often blurred by opposing political lights. With the softer view now prevailing, hopes are brighter for at least a limited agreement.

Do It Now

Canada has come a long way in combatting seasonal winter unemployment since intensive campaigns towards this end began several years ago.

Canadians have found that winter, despite its climatic characteristics, need not be a time of idleness for those who earn their livings at trades most active in the summer.

We are now undertaking construction and other projects once thought impossible to carry out in cold, snowy weather.

Government and industry are cooperating in erasing the traditional slack season from December to April, and more and more is being done every year. But there is more still to be done, and the ordinary householder can do a great deal to help.

The Privileged Many

"When everybody's somebody, then no one's anybody" is a very wise phrase from one of Gilbert and Sullivan's famous operettas, "The Gondoliers."

It applies, apparently, to those who serve English royal households. These are the select suppliers of goods and services who are entitled to advertise, "By appointment to . . ."

On the face of it, this seems like a most regal and much cherished right. But is it?

If it was confined to such things as precious wines, superb confections, priceless silver and rare china, it might be.

But along side these majesties of the retail trade are lined a host of not-so lofty purveyors.

They include the crushed chalk man, nosegay sellers, turtle soup suppliers and relief milkers.

The royal warrants go out to poultry men and those who make the machines to pluck them; to buttonmakers and dog food manufacturers; to organ blowers and rodent control contractors.

They include suppliers of bagpipes, spurs, brushwood, kippers, horse malt and dog food.

In short, those who are appointed by royalty, while without a doubt the best in their line, are mixed bag.

Moreover, the privileged many are not so privileged as one might think. With regal discretion, a warning against flippancy in advertising the royal warrants has just been issued.

Never can the royal coat of arms mingle with a television jingle, nor can neon be used to advertise a royal customer.

And, perhaps the cruelest cut of all, producers of bacon, eggs and coffee can never get together and announce that they supply the royal breakfast. That is considered bad form.

THE DECLINE OF FALLOUT

(The Toronto Telegram)

The sharp decline in the amount of radioactive fallout in Canada will make all Canadians happier and less apprehensive about the future.

The reversal of trend is doubtless linked with the voluntary ban on nuclear tests imposed by the three nuclear powers, Britain, Russia and the United States, a year ago.

It is not yet certain if this downward slide will continue, but it is fair to assume that it will if the ban on nuclear tests continues.

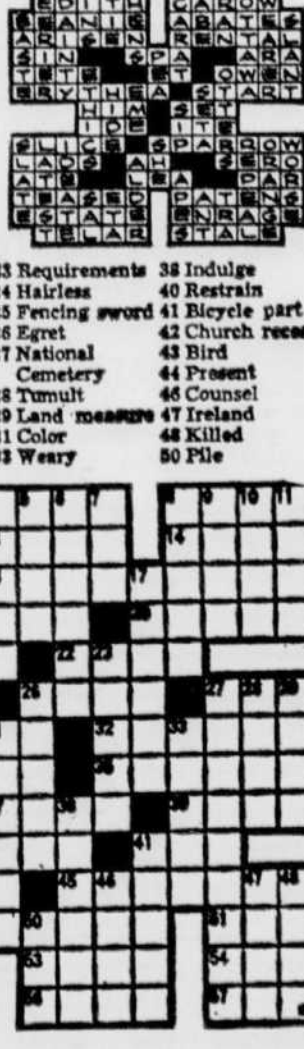

The new figures on fallout in Canada are contained in a report of the Health Department's radiation protection division. In the July-August-September period, the average fall-out of Strontium 90 reported by 15 testing stations across Canada was 14.6 micro microcuries per gram of calcium, compared with 18 in the previous quarter and 10.8 in the first three months of the year. In Vancouver, in May, it was 46.5, in Calgary, in June, 34.8.

Health Minister Monteth is right to be cautious about what the new figures mean. They are encouraging, he said, but the next report, on a whole year, would give a much firmer picture. Nevertheless, it's a much brighter picture right now.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Craft Began Dying Before He Was Born

Makes A Living Out Of The Past

MONTREAL (CP) — Bill Hansen isn't living in the past; he's just making a living out of it.

Hansen is a theatre organ specialist, a practitioner of a craft that began to die before he was born 23 years ago.

Apparently no one has built theatre organs since about 1930, but Hansen, a blond craftsman from Portland, Ore., finds himself busy the year round, travelling across North America repairing and installing them.

"More people want theatre organs now than can get them," he said in an interview.

"You'd be surprised at the number of people who are nostalgic about the sound of the old organs. Some just collect organ records but a lot love them so much they want an organ right in their own homes."

And love of heroic magnitude it has to be. A theatre organ with a full set of pipes can sometimes be bigger than the house of a man who wants it installed.

Dr. Ray Lawson, Montreal surgeon in whose home Hansen installed a three-storey organ, provides an example. He has collected theatre organ records for years and always wanted to own one.

When he finally found one, he had to extend one side of his house six feet from roof to basement. Stone walls were ripped out, moved, and replaced.

Upper storeys had to be insulated and baffled to keep sound from getting out of the house without destroying total purity inside.

The Lawson organ is about the same size as the one in Maple Leaf Gardens, Toronto. The whole of the living-room wall is the organ's speaker, the wall being formed of precision shutters that open and close to diffuse and direct the sound.

The banks of pipes range in length from 1-8 of an inch to 16 feet and in construction from brass to wood, tin and zinc. Miles of wiring link the control console to the magnetic valves under the pipes. Air is provided by a compressor in the basement.

The organ can reproduce almost any sound any musical instrument can make. It plays drums, clangs cymbals, blows whistles, and rattles castanets. It can sound like a locomotive chugging, a troop of cavalry charging, or a foghorn mourning in the night.

"Of course that's what theatre organs were built for," Hansen said. "They provided the sound that movies didn't have."

"But more important than that they provided emotion."

The movies began to talk in 1927, and the theatre organ's popularity began to fade. There was a time, during the depression and just before the Second World War when theatres couldn't even give their organs away; some fine installations were destroyed.

Now, an organ of the type installed in the Lawson home could cost $25,000 depending on condition. Small ones could go as low as $3,000.

The Lawson organ was built at North Tonawanda, N.Y., and originally installed in the Strand Theatre at Madison, Wisc. It was sold to a recording company, which enlarged it with pipes from the Tiffin Theatre, Chicago, and Metro Theatre, Lynch, Ill., organs. Even when it was later cut down, the remaining banks of pipes were twice as big as the original unit.

French Scientists Close To Harnessing Sun Power

PARIS (Reuters) — French scientists are rapidly coming within sight of an ambitious plan to harness man's greatest enemy in the Sahara, the sun, and make it yield the great wealth of the 2,400,000-square-mile desert.

A three-square-mile area of sand and rock there, they estimate, receives from the sun each year the equivalent of more energy than all the electricity used annually in France.

They predict that utilization of this enormous reserve of power not only will make the desert habitable but also will provide an answer to a future fuel crisis in sight elsewhere.

The earth's known reserves of coal, oil and other organic fuels are expected to be exhausted in 100 to 200 years. One replacement will be nuclear energy. Another is the sun.

A team from France's National Centre for Scientific Research already has made solar energy an economic reality at Mont Louis, in the Pyrenees, where a 17th-century fort houses the world's biggest solar furnace.

There, a mirror 34 feet in diameter concentrates the sun's rays into a furnace, raising a temperature of 3,000 degrees centigrade in a fraction of a second. The apparatus is used to produce 100 pounds a day of a metal called zirconium, which is used for making very-high-temperature furnaces.

Work now has begun on a new furnace at Odello, five miles from Mont Louis, which will use 5,500 square feet of mirrors to catch the sun's rays and produce 5,200 pounds of zirconium a day.

Professor Felix Trombe, director of the centre, believes solar furnaces could be built in the desert and used to treat the Sahara's mineral wealth.

For the present, plans are more modest, affecting the everyday lives of people in North Africa and other of the world's arid zones.

A blackened plate which forms part of the roof of many houses in Algeria collects the sun's heat and uses it to provide hot water through a system of pipes running from the back of the plate. In Morocco, a similar apparatus with a capacity of about 400 gallons is used, and other versions can produce steam for power.

Another device uses a 3.28-foot-square mirror to give cooks the same power as a 600-watt electric stove.

Hansen drifted into his profession by following his natural instincts.

"From the time I can first remember seeing a theatre organ I was interested in it," he said. He never took any organ lessons, but read every book he could find on the subject.

As soon as he finished high school, he bought a small organ to work on and took jobs with firms repairing organs and pianos. He struck out on his own before he was 20.

Family life doesn't interrupt—his wife travels with him. Their first child, a daughter, was born at the Lawson home. Mrs. Hansen, the former Eleanor Frost of Portland, helps him string wires and tune pipes.

"The funny thing is that most women don't like theatre organs," he said. "Women hear thin, high frequencies best and the organ is just too loud and overbearing for them."

"But most men enjoy them. It's a man's instrument, a real man's instrument."

Board Of Control Not Suited To Ottawa Needs

OTTAWA (CP) — Professor Donald C. Rowat of Carleton University here feels the board of control system of municipal government is not suitable for Ottawa.

In an interview, Mr. Rowat said he favors an adaptation of the parliamentary system for municipal government here.

Under it the council would be elected from the city wards and would then choose a mayor. He would pick a cabinet of controllers from among the councillors and would be assisted by an administrative official — a sort of deputy mayor.

The mayor then could give policy leadership and would stand or fall on his strength in the council and his public support, Mr. Rowat feels.

At present, Ottawa ratepayers elect a mayor and four controllers with two aldermen in each of 10 wards. The mayor and the four controllers form the board of control. It acts as the city's executive, answerable to city council.

Professor of political science at Carleton University, Mr. Rowat formerly was research director for the Nova Scotia municipal bureau, and served as a United Nations technical assistant in Ethiopia. He is author of a book entitled "Your Municipal Government."

Pioneer Portrait Photographer Started With 50-Cent Camera

OTTAWA (CP) — For Alexandre Castonguay, photography has been a long love affair that still is burning bright after 55 years.

"I can't stop taking pictures," says the pioneer Ottawa portrait photographer who was a big name in photography salons for decades.

"When I do a portrait I feel like 20 again, instead of 82, and this feeling of youth stays with me a long time."

"I get bored when I'm not working. Business in December was so slow that I got my nephews and nieces and old friends and people with interesting faces to come and pose for me. I love taking pictures."

VARIED CAREER

Mr. Castonguay is a bit stooped with age now, but on his frame of more than six feet two inches it hardly shows. He was a waterfront policeman in Montreal, a railway builder and he played as a lineman with the University of Ottawa football club early in the century before turning to photography.

He still puts as much care into each portrait as he did when he was the most popular photographer in the Capital.

"I'm taking pictures now I never could have taken a year ago," he said in an interview. "I 'paint' my portraits now, using 13 spotlights—no floodlights—to highlight features of the head and shoulders of my subjects."

"Sometimes it takes two hours to get what I want. It has been a continual process of learning and experimenting. It's been a hobby as well as a profession."

YOUNG DRIVER

Mr. Castonguay, born at Baudreuil, Que., April 24, 1877, started work at the age of six, driving a horse and wagon during construction of the CPR line between Montreal and Ottawa.

"I was big for my age and could handle a wagon well. Besides, I had my father and my uncle, who also worked on the job, to look after me."

"I think I'm the last surviving member of the construction crew of the CPR line from Montreal."

He was "always too busy to go to school," attending classes for only two years. While polishing the waterfront in Montreal he met a university professor who "taught" him how to learn English.

The professor's advice: "Get yourself an English book and start translating it from cover to cover."

ARDUOUS TASK

"I bought the novel Camille in English and a French-English dictionary," said Mr. Castonguay. "It took me 9 1/2 months to translate the book."

"I could read and understand anything in English after that, but I couldn't speak the language until later when I went to night school for a short time."

Mr. Castonguay then came to the capital and played football for the University of Ottawa in 1902-04, "but I never attended a lecture in my life."

In 1903, friends interested him in photography.

"I rented a camera for 50 cents a day, bought a roll of film and headed for nearby Pointe-Gatineau, Que., where there had been a flood."

TOOK CAMERA IN CANOE

"Families were stranded on their porches and I went around in a canoe taking pictures of the people. Some asked for prints and I made $21 on the trip."

"Then I bought a good camera and went around Gatineau and Hull (Que.) from house to house, offering to photograph people. Some days I'd make as much as $100 a day, which was very good money then."

He has something like 50,000 photographs of his own in his basement and he has thrown away hundreds more.

Some of his big-name sitters? "There was Mackenzie King whose picture I took for his first election campaign. Then I took portraits of R. B. Bennett and Ernest Lapointe and I was family photographer in Ottawa for the Earl of Bessborough when he was Governor-General."

SAFETY PLAY CAN SAVE SET

Suppose that you held the South cards an dhad stopped at a nice, conservative two spade contract. Would you play the hand the way the actual declarer did?

East took two diamond tricks and shifted to the king of clubs. South won with dummy's ace and played the king and ace of spades in that order. When the queen failed to drop South led back a club. East took two club tricks and the queen of trumps and exited with a heart.

South played the eight, West the ten and dummy the king. Then the finesse of the heart jack lost to West's queen and South was down one.

Mighty tough luck indeed but careful play would almost surely have brought the hand home. South should have started a safety play at trick four by returning a club. East might have been smart enough to lead a heart immediately but probably he would have cashed a second club before doing so.

Then South would lead a spade to dummy's ace and finesse a spade on the way back. The finesse would win but that would be immaterial. If it lost West would have been forced to lead away from the queen of hearts or to give declarer a ruff and a discard.

Gaspe Lead

Catholic Fast Rules May Be Modified

By ROY LABERGE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
OTTAWA (CP) — Catholics across Canada may get a break from their church's strict rules of fasting following a lead given by diplomat - Archbishop Paul Bernier of Gaspe.

Archbishop Bernier announced Monday, in a pastoral letter on his 54th birthday, that the church laws of fast and abstinence will henceforth apply in Gaspe only on Fridays and on four other days of the year.

Rev. Gilles Belisle, secretary to Archbishop Bernier - Joseph Lemieux of Ottawa, said in an interview Tuesday the Ottawa archdiocese shortly will announce an identical step.

The pastoral means Catholics in Gaspe will be permitted to eat meat at more than one meal on days other than Friday during Lent. They will also be permitted to eat meat at more than one meal during ember days—special fast days observed during each of the four seasons. They may also eat all they want during Lent instead of having only three meals a day.

OTHER DAYS

The four days besides Fridays on which the rules will continue to be observed are Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, the Vigil (Dec. 8) of the Immaculate Conception and the day before Christmas Eve.

Since 1949, Catholic bishops throughout the world have had wide authority to ease the regulations in their own dioceses but Archbishop Bernier, a veteran of 10 years in the Holy See's diplomatic service, is the first Canadian to take the step.

The regulations were relaxed years ago in several European countries, including Italy and France. As far as is known here, they have not yet been relaxed anywhere in the United States.

While no one here can say whether any other Canadian bishops would follow the example of Ottawa and Gaspe, there is reason to believe Bishop Bernier discussed his step with other bishops before taking it and has given a lead others will follow.

Archbishop Bernier, a native of Quebec City ordained to the priesthood when he was only 22, was chancellor of the Archdiocese of Quebec from 1934 until 1944 when he came to Ottawa as secretary of the conference.

He joined the Holy See's diplomatic services in 1947, serving first at Rome and then in Panama and Costa Rica with the title of archbishop. He returned to Canada in 1957 as Bishop of Gaspe.

ABSTINENCE RULE

The abstinence rule requires all Catholics who have made their first communion—most do at age six or seven—to abstain from eating meat. The fast law forbids those over 20 to eat between meals and requires that at two meals they eat less than they normally would. However, large numbers are exempted because of illness, hard work and similar reasons.

Archbishop Bernier gave two reasons for the change. One was that it is hard for working people, especially those doing heavy work, to fast and abstain from eating meat, particularly in Canada's cold climate. Another is that increasing numbers of people now are travelling and fasting is most difficult for them.

It is obvious these reasons of occupation and climate could apply to any diocese in Canada.

In effect, the ruling substitutes voluntary penance for compulsory fasting and abstinence. The archbishop calls on his people to practise other forms of self denial.

The "great evangelical percept of penance" remains for Catholics, he said.

Happy When Spouse Dead Says 'Shady Character'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jack Cody, so-called shady character in the Finch murder trial, said Tuesday the first time he ever saw Carole Tregoff happy was when he told her he had shot and killed Mrs. Barbara Jean Finch.

Actually, Cody said, he had not shot Mrs. Finch and never had intended to.

Cody, 29, of Minneapolis, a key state's witness in the trial of Miss Tregoff and her lover, Dr. Bernard Finch, also testified Carole once told him:

"You can back out of this, Jack. If you want, but if you don't kill her, Dr. Finch will. And if he won't, I'll do it."

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

Cody also testified Finch instructed him to tell Mrs. Finch that her husband was behind the killing.

"Before you kill her," Cody quoted Finch, "tell her the bullet came from Bernie."

Finch, 42, wealthy West Covina surgeon, and Miss Tregoff, 23, his mistress, are charged with murder in the slaying of the doctor's wife outside her fashionable home last July 18.

The prosecution asked Cody if Carole had told him why she wanted Mrs. Finch killed.

FORGOT REASON

"Yes, Carole told me but I can't recall now why," Cody said.

Except for a brief appearance by actor Mark Stevens, most of the testimony Tuesday was by Donald Williams, 21, a childhood playmate of Miss Tregoff.

Williams testified that Miss Tregoff told him:

"I will be happy when Mrs. Finch is out of the picture permanently."

Actor Mark Stevens testified that he had had a bar room conversation with Mrs. Finch a few days before her slaying in which she told him:

"I'm afraid for my life."

Stevens said she told him Finch had threatened to kill her.

Proposal Made In Senate Would Block Divorce Here

OTTAWA (CP) — A proposal has been made in the Senate which legal sources on Parliament Hill say would place a prohibition on divorce in Quebec and Newfoundland.

Quebec Liberal Senator Jean-Francois Pouliot proposed Tuesday night that jurisdiction over marriage and divorce be transferred from the federal Parliament to provincial legislatures.

He told the upper house during a brief divorce debate that his proposal would place jurisdiction over marriage and divorce where it "should have been in the first place."

No one would say that marriage and divorce did not fall under civil rights, a field of exclusive provincial jurisdiction. They were civil rights "and they are part of family rights that are called for in all civilized nations."

BNA ACT UNFAIR

"I say that it was unfair at the time of the drawing up of the constitution (the British North America Act) to give jurisdiction over marriage and divorce to the Parliament of Canada."

Legal sources here said the suggestion would have no effect except in Quebec and Newfoundland which are opposed to divorce on religious grounds.

All other provinces have divorce courts, most of them under federal legislation giving them the right to grant divorces. However, legal sources here said that if Senator Pouliot's suggestion were carried out Quebec and Newfoundland would not establish divorce courts.

These sources said the two provinces have made it clear many times that they would never sanction the establishment of divorce courts.

To Address Local CMA

At the regular meeting of Canadian Manufacturers' Association to be held on Thursday, at St. George's Club, Bert Jones of Montreal will be the guest speaker.

Transportation Superintendent of Dominion Bridge Company Limited, Mr. Jones will treat with the subject "Material Handling." To many people this subject is understood as the Study of Handling Methods and Procedures as a means of developing a high degree of plant efficiency.

From his broad experience in this field, Mr. Jones is highly qualified to address this group. He is past president and charter member of the Montreal Chapter and is national past president of the Society. As a national officer he has visited all 50 Chapters of the Society in Canada and the United States and recently visited affiliated Material Handling Societies in Great Britain and Europe.

"Invest In A Cat" Advice Of Court To Landlady

TORONTO (CP) — Mrs. George Gamula, fined $100 Tuesday for allowing mice to infest five rental suites in her home, got this advice from Magistrate James Butler: "Invest in a good cat."

Reject Liquor Code

REGINA (CP) — A uniform liquor advertising code, under study by liquor commissioners of all provinces, will not be adopted in Saskatchewan. Provincial Treasurer Fines, minister in charge of the liquor board, said Tuesday the provincial government is "not interested." All forms of advertising and sales soliciting by the liquor industry are illegal in Saskatchewan.

Government Switch

CAIRO (Reuters) — The insurgent "Free Algerian Government" in Cairo has been reshuffled, a spokesman for the government said here Tuesday. The change involved new ministers of culture and armaments—but no replacements for the transferred or deposited ministers were immediately announced.

To Support Rebels

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — King Mohammed V. of Morocco and President Nasser of the United Arab Republic joined Tuesday in pledging support for the Algerian rebels' fight for independence.

Bracelet Found Not Worthless

LONDON (Reuters) — When night watchman Clarence Nightingale found a sparkling bracelet in a London park he thought it was worthless. His 15-year-old daughter wore it to school once or twice and sometimes it made a collar for the family dog. Tuesday Nightingale discovered the necklace was £20,000 worth of diamonds and emeralds. Police identified it as belonging to a wealthy London widow.

To Go It Alone

CALGARY (CP) — The Salvation Army has withdrawn from the Calgary Community Chest, a statement issued by both organizations said Monday. The statement said the Salvation Army was withdrawing from the chest as part of a national policy which resulted from a feeling that the army can "serve the masses more effectively by remaining free to control its own policy and to conduct its own appeal."

Anti-Tax Comeback

PARIS (Reuters)—Pierre Poujade, turbulent leader of a depleted anti-tax movement, launched a comeback bid Monday. He claimed his union for the defence of shopkeepers and artisans "now is the only organized formation to face up to the Communist party." Poujade, prominent in 1956, lost most of his supporters with the return to power of Charles de Gaulle in 1958 and was defeated when he sought to enter parliament in the election that year.

bring your home... UP TO DATE!

Despite the best efforts of governments, labor unions, industry, employment committees and the Unemployment Insurance Commission as well as the Canadian people in general there is still an alarming proportion of seasonal unemployment in Canada. One is told that in some areas one out of every three or four workers is unemployed. We think of these people not simply as statistics but rather as fathers and heads of households with wives and children who must be housed, clothed and fed.

It seems unbelievable that in this booming land of plenty there should be families of five or six or more persons including several small children who are required to pay rent, buy food and clothing and supply other necessities of life out of an income of something like twenty-five to thirty dollars a week. Yet in many cases unemployment insurance of that amount is the only source of income for such families.

The vast majority of these people have no desire to live on unemployment insurance. What they want is employment. They are ready and willing to contribute their share to the nation's economy and yet are denied the right to do so.

Why should this be so, and what can be done to correct the situation? The cause no doubt arises from the fact that the demand for the goods which these presently unemployed were helping to produce has fallen off. The solution would appear to be to give the unemployed an opportunity to help produce those goods for which there is a demand. Since this particular type of unemployment is largely of a seasonal nature the most effective solution would seem to be a more regular demand for certain goods and services throughout the year.

It is of course always easy to say that there is nothing you or I can do about it. The inclination is to place responsibility on the government or anyone but ourselves. Yet there is little doubt that we are all guilty of deferring many of our work-creating activities until spring or summer. Too often there are purchases or repair jobs or projects which could just as readily be undertaken in January as in July.

Ten years ago very few building contractors would dare to carry on certain types of work during the winter months. Concrete, stone and brick work was considered to be strictly warm weather activity. Now this type of construction is being carried on every month of the year and under all climatic conditions.

Why do Canadians traditionally put off until spring many operations which could as well be proceeded with during the winter months?

There are a number of reasons. The prospective automobile purchaser waits until spring to make his purchase because he likes the idea of breaking in a new car in warm weather; or he feels that winter driving is not good for a new car; or for a number of other reasons. The man who intends to repair or improve his home waits until spring because he does not believe it is possible to do the job in winter, or because he thinks it will be too cold for men to work. There are many reasons why we wait for summer to do such things, but perhaps the most common reason is simply that we have become accustomed to doing so.

Canada is a cold country and for many generations our people worked hard during the summer months to lay by a sufficient supply of the necessities of life to see them through the winter.

But we all can do something about seasonal or winter unemployment. The little jobs which you and I are now putting off until spring, added to the millions of other little jobs being put off by millions of people until spring, make a mighty big job which would in turn keep a very large group of people working throughout winter months. We would get our little jobs done when men are available to do them, and fewer fathers and mothers would be worrying about how to feed their children and themselves on $25 a week.

Automatic Laundry Takes On Aspect Of Old Community Meeting Place

VANCOUVER (CP) — It's a far cry from the old village pump, but the automatic laundry is becoming something of the same sort of community meeting place.

In the last six months at least a dozen of the coin-operated laundry-machine centres have opened up here and a distributor of automatic equipment says his firm is having trouble keeping up with orders.

They've already aroused controversy. After first exempting the laundromats from any closing-hour regulations, city council recently changed its mind and ordered them to close by 10 p.m. There had been criticism of the sight of some people doing their laundry at 3 a.m.

The laundromat owners now are asking council to reconsider. They say their best customers are those who can't do their laundry in normal hours, and they point out that the laundromats require no attendants.

Most All The Girls Are Just Dyeing To Be Blondes

I don't have any statistics on the country as a whole, but in our town so many women are rushing into beauty salons saying, "Make me a blonde," that you feel a little bit conspicuous if your hair isn't honey blond, champagne blond, ash blond or some other exotic kind of blond.

"What's behind this blond hair craze?" My dinner partner on a recent evening (whose wife has recently become a champagne blond) queried me with the look of a man who is wondering what women are going to think up next.

I couldn't tell him why so many women with mossy hair and gray hair and brown hair have suddenly got the urge and the courage to turn themselves into dazzling blondes.

Women were told a long time ago that gentlemen prefer blondes. But in the past only the more daring have acted on the knowledge.

Now, all of a sudden, sedate matrons who have gotten along fine for years wearing the hair color nature bestowed upon them have started blossoming out as blondes.

Maybe the reason is that hair-dyeing has at last become as socially acceptable as wearing lipstick. No longer does it have to be done secretly.

In fact, instead of considering "Who does your hair? It's such a lovely color?" a snide question, women consider it a high compliment.

And the rigors of sitting in a beauty salon five or six hours at a stretch has replaced the agony of sticking with the latest diet as a topic of conversation when "the girls" get together.

Anyway, don't raise your eyebrows if you run into old Joe with

The nomination meeting of the Sir John Sherbrooke Chapter was held in the home of Mrs. Beatrice Bishop with the regent, Mrs. D. F. Watson, presiding.

Mrs. H. Horsfall announced that 80 books, eight pocket books, 12 French magazines and two French books had been given out in the library during the month of December.

The Late Afternoon Party which was held in early December was resumed by the convener, Mrs. J. Gilbert, and she also read Mrs. Bonduant's report, both of which gave a most complete picture of the event.

The regent announced that the report meeting would be held in I.O.D.E. House on Friday afternoon, Jan. 22 at 2 p.m.; the annual meeting will be on Tuesday evening, Feb. 2, and the treasurer reminded the members that dues would be received at that time.

Following the business meeting nominations took place with Mrs. E. W. L. Arnold as chairman and Mrs. E. Hall and Mrs. G. Logie acting as scrutineers.

After the adjournment of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Beatrice Bishop, Mrs. E. W. L. Arnold, Mrs. G. B. Loomis and Mrs. R. I. McCabe.

British Hats

Tops In Canada

LONDON (CP) — H. W. Barratt, president of the Millinery Institute of Great Britain, says Canada was the principal overseas buyer of British-made women's hats in 1959.

Nearly $1,500,000 worth of hats was exported to Canada during the year and more than $1,000,000 worth to The West Indies, the Scandinavian countries and Holland.

Canada has been a major buyer of British hats for 30 years, and officials agree that 1959 was one of the most successful years ever.

"Our hats are becoming very popular in Canada," said Barratt.

High fashion hats, the bane of the average husband, were most in demand. Even the higher priced caused by customs duties did not deter Canadian women. Barratt said the United States is the only country other than Britain that sells hats in quantity to Canada.

Mrs. R. S. Pearson New President Of St. George's Guild

Mrs. R. S. Pearson was elected president of St. George's Guild at the annual meeting held recently in the Parish Hall, Lennoxville. Archdeacon T. J. Matthews presided.

Twenty-one members were present. Following the reading of the constitution, the annual report and minutes were read and adopted. The treasurer's report showed a very successful year.

Among the different conveners reports was a very creditable one, the Social Service report, which showed that 76 get-well cards, 14 sympathy cards and 21 Christmas cards to shut-ins were sent during the past year. Forty-two Christmas cheer baskets and nine Christmas dinners were given to needy families. A vote of thanks was extended to friends for their donations for this cause, to parishioners who delivered the gifts and to the Optimist Club for their help.

Mrs. L. M. Watson gave the report of the hall committee formed this past year, in the absence of Mrs. H. E. Blanchford.

The slate of officers presented by Mrs. R. C. McFadden was as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. T. J. Matthews; hon. 1st vice, Mrs. E. L. Atto; hon. 2nd vice, Mrs. W. H. Fisher; president, Mrs. S. Archdeacon Matthews thanked the Guild for remembering the Endowment Fund every year and the social service convener for the group's splendid work.

The president, Mrs. Pearson, then took the chair and a short business meeting followed.

The Guild will meet again on their usual day, Jan. 27, at which time new members will be most welcome.

Tea was served after the meeting by Mrs. C. Waite, Miss E. Taylor and Mrs. G. Giroux.

Officers Elected By W. A. Of Richmond Melbourne Church At Annual Meeting

RICHMOND — Officers elected by the Woman's Association of Richmond and Melbourne United Church at the annual meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Barrington of the nominating committee presented the following slate: President, Mrs. Alfred T. Smith, 1st vice-president, Mrs. C. E. Manning; 2nd vice-president, unfilled; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. Walter Stevens; secretary, Mrs. H. W. Dapp; and treasurer, Mrs. J. S. MacNaughton.

The first portion of the meeting was in charge of the outgoing president, Mrs. Arthur Galbraith.

A brief devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Arnold Healy. Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. H. W. Dapp and the financial report presented by the treasurer, Mrs. J. S. MacNaughton.

Correspondence consisted of several thank-you notes for fruit boxes and Christmas remembrances. A note from Mrs. Vanderwalk of the Flambeau Home thanked the W.A. for a parcel received early in December. Miss McCourt reported a Christmas box had been sent to the Home with articles donated by Mrs. Gavin, Mr. Gordon Smith, Mrs. T. G. Torrance, Mrs. Bessie Laurie, Mrs. K. G. Nourse, Mrs. W. T. Epps, Montreal, also Mrs. A. Collins, Mrs. E. Gibbs, of Montreal and Miss Edith McCourt.

The annual reports were given. A general review of the year's activities was given in the secretary's report by Mrs. Dapp. The Association had had a very active year under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Galbraith.

Through the Groups the W.A. decorated the church for Easter, Mother's Day, Thanksgiving, anniversary and Christmas, and also took care of the communion glasses.

The Cheer Committee sent out many get-well, baby cards and sympathy letters, and fruit boxes to those who were ill. Christmas remembrances were sent to shut-in members of the congregation. Calls made to sick, shut-ins, and new comers numbered 955.

Miss Edith McCourt continued her work of packing parcels for the Flambeau Home with articles donated by W. A. members and other interested persons.

The Association purchased articles for the kitchen, dining room and bedrooms in the manse; gave testimonials to young people joining the church; purchased two coat-racks and hangers for the church hall; purchased gowns, hats and music for the choir; paid for re-wiring the church building and bought a vacuum cleaner for use of the janitor.

The Edith Group was responsible for the making of the baptismal font given to the church in the Spring and also contributed to local welfare needs through the W.A.

Stacking chairs for the church parlor, a new coffee-maker, and articles for the Sunday school were purchased by the Marjorie Group.

In January, the Christian Citizenship committee sponsored an evening meeting for all women of the church with Rev. J. L. Dean as speaker. Also during the year the W.A. served refreshments after the annual meeting, served two meals to members of the W.M.S. Presbyterial, served refreshments at the farewell party for Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Dean, served supper and billeted members of the Princeton Choir; put on a successful harvest supper in September; served a meal and billeted C.G.I.T. girls and leaders at their Fall rally, and also provided food for the congregational supper held October 22nd. All groups took an active part in the Christmas sale and tea. Donations were made to the Church Board, the M. and M. fund, the W.M.S., the Sunday School, St. John's Hall Committee, Save the Children Fund, the Deaconess' Order.

A detailed financial report was read by Mrs. J. S. MacNaughton, showing a substantial balance on hand.

Group reports were given. The Ruby Group, by Miss Hazel Boast. This group has 38 members on its roll, and reported 130 calls. Nine interesting meetings were held, quilts and mittens were made for the Flambeau Home, and all W. A. activities were assisted.

Edith Group members, numbering 18, held a toboggan party and sugar social; catered to a tea in June; made 83 sick calls. The report was read by Mrs. Royce Griffith.

In the absence of Mrs. George Ewing, a brief outline of the Melbourne Group activities was given by Mrs. W. Moreland. The main event was their Maytime tea and sale, and they also sold remnants, and 236 calls were made.

Marjorie Group raised funds by catering to a wedding, auction sale and rummage sales. They have 30 members and reported 183 visits. Mrs. Stanley Bushey gave the report.

The report of fruit boxes sent out, and Christmas remembrances delivered was given by Mrs. H. W. Hills. The card report was read by the secretary for Mrs. W. J. Ewing.

Following the reports Mr. W. J. Graham took the chair for the election of officers and conducted a brief installation service for those who were present.

The new president, Mrs. A.T. Smith, took the chair and named committees and conveners.

Mrs. W. J. Ewing and Mrs. H. W. Hills asked to be relieved of their duties on the Cheer Committee, and Mrs. Arthur Galbraith was appointed to send out cards and Mrs. John Barrington to deliver fruit boxes.

OBITUARIES

ROBUTEL THEBERGE, OF THETFORD MINES—On Wednesday, Jan. 6, 1960, the death occurred of Robutel Theberge in his 69th year. Mr. Theberge had been in poor health for some time but seemed to visibly fail following the death of his son, Raymond, a month ago. During the night he was stricken with a heart attack and was taken a few hours later to St. Joseph's Hospital where he died at 11 a.m. Mr. Theberge, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Severe Theberge, was a native of St. Joseph de Beauce. He was the last surviving member from a family of 14. During his 49 years of service with the Quebec Central Railway, Mr. Theberge established a record for he served the entire time as station agent in this area, first at Black Lake, then at Coleraine and finally, at Thetford Mines, where he remained for 26 years. It would have been five years in March since his retirement from the Q.C.R. During this time he acted as Customs broker here.

Mr. Theberge, who has been a familiar figure in Thetford Mines for almost 31 years will be sadly missed. He was a member of the Thetford Golf and Curling Club and, when his health permitted, often dropped in for a visit with friends.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, the former Rose Anna Gagne; his sons, Yvan and Gaetan of Thetford Mines, Palmus and Severe of Quebec; a daughter, Lucette, Thetford Mines; daughters-in-law, Mrs. Palmus Theberge (Margaret McGowan), Mrs. Severe Theberge (Marthe Laguerre), Mrs. Yvan Theberge (Suzanne Dalpe), and Mrs. Raymond Theberge (Carmel Gendreau), and 14 grandchildren.

The funeral took place at St. Alphonse Church, Thetford Mines, Saturday morning, Jan. 9, with interment in St. Alphonse Cemetery.

FREDERIC HUGH MacKay, OF PULLMAN CITY, WASH.

FORMERLY OF RICHMOND RICHMOND—The death of Frederic Hugh MacKay, occurred at the Pullman City Hospital, Wash., on Wednesday, Dec. 16, 1959.

Mr. MacKay was son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacKay, formerly of the Township of Cleveland and Richmond. He left here while a young man for the West, and in partnership with his brother, John, took up ranching in a big way at Walla-Walla, Wash.

The funeral took place on Saturday, Dec. 19, at the Kimball Funeral Home in Pullman City, Rev. Lawrence Mitchell officiating. Interment took place in Pullman City Cemetery.

Practically every family in the surrounding country was represented, showing the esteem in which the deceased and his late brother were held. Beautiful flowers banked the funeral chapel. Fred MacKay belonged to a family of seven sons and one daughter. Three brothers survive, George, of 6341 Arbutus St., Vancouver, B.C., Donald of Heney, B.C., and Leslie of Uniontown, Wash.

LEWIS GUNTER, OF ULVERTON

ULVERTON—The funeral of Lewis Gunter, who passed away at his home here on Saturday, Dec. 26, in his 83rd year, was held Tuesday, Dec. 29, in Holy Trinity Church, Kirkdale.

Rev. Mr. Brown, of Drummondville, in charge of Kirkdale parish, conducted the service. Mr. Franklin Graham presided at the organ. Rev. E. New, of Ulverton, offered prayer at the committal service.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of W. A. Storie, of Richmond. Bearers were Herbert Massey, Roy Cummings, Michael Brady, Samuel Doyle, Gordon Smith and Arthur Mace.

Interment was in Holy Trinity Church Cemetery at Kirkdale. Mr. Gunter was born at Ulverton June 2, 1877, a son of the late George Gunter and his wife, Jane Bowring. On June 25, 1903, he was united in marriage to Sarah Waterhouse, who survives him. No children were born of this union.

The deceased spent his entire life in this district, with the exception of about two years shortly after his marriage, when he was employed in bush work in New Hampshire.

At an early age Mr. Gunter suffered the loss of an eye, but retained perfect vision in his other eye throughout his long life. He had been confined to his bed for the past year and 10 months. His illness was borne with fortitude and he was tenderly cared for by his wife.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Gunter is survived by several nieces, nephews and cousins. His brothers and a sister predeceased him.

MRS. R. C. DICKSON, of Cowansville.—This community was saddened to learn of the sudden death of Mrs.

Robert C. Dickson at her home on Dec. 24, after only a few days illness.

Last summer she had been a patient in B-M-P Hospital for some time, but had seemed improved of late. Being a great sufferer from arthritis for many years, she had not been able to leave her home, but her friendly cheery smile will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

The former Kate Ellen George was born in England and came to Montreal with her parents when only eight years old. On Jan. 10, 1900, she was married to Robert Dickson. They lived in Montreal until about 15 years ago, when they purchased the John Jones farm. They lived there until last summer and had just completed a new brick home nearly opposite the Freeport Corner, but had not moved into it at the time of Mrs. Dickson's death.

Mrs. Dickson was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Montreal and Secretary of the Women's Association of that church. She was a life member of the Canadian Red Cross, a member of Fordyce Ladies Aid and of Fordyce Women's Institute. The members of these last two groups will miss her very keenly; she made many lovely articles of handwork for their sales.

The funeral was held on Dec. 27 from Bedard's Funeral Chapel in Cowansville, Rev. C. J. Gustafson officiating. Bearers were James and John Bowling, Chas. Renaud, G. Parenteau and Messrs. Prestley.

Interment was in the Union Cemetery beside the United Church, Cowansville.

Left to mourn, besides her husband, are a daughter (Marjorie), Mrs. V. Filteau, and a son, William, three grandsons

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson law and a daughter-in-law, five sisters and a brother, Walter George, who lived near her.

HUNTINGVILLE—Mr. and Mrs. Max Ford, of Boucherville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Phipps.

1/2 AWAKE NIGHTS

Many people never seem to get a good night's rest. They toss and turn in bed—and then are dull and listless throughout the day. All of which may be due to a temporary toxic condition which calls for the use of DODD'S Kidney Pills.

1/2 ASLEEP DAYS

Healthy kidneys filter poisons and excess acids from the blood. If they slow down and impurities stay in the system, disturbed rest, tired feeling and backache often follow. If you don't rest well at night—if you haven't that sprightly step of health in the daytime—use DODD'S Kidney Pills. You can depend on DODD'S!

United Church W. A. At Beebe Hold Annual Meeting Preceded By Supper

BEEBE — The annual meeting of the Women's Association of Wesley United Church, was held in the church parlor preceded by a pot luck supper. There were 16 members and two guests present. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Robert Denney, the theme being, "By This Shall All Men Know." The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and the treasurer's report showed receipts for the year amounting to $3194.25. Disbursements were $1,835.56. The annual report of the secretary showed a very active year. The Upper Room magazines were purchased and made available to the congregation, as were the church calendars. Donations were made to the Sunday School to help with the installation of curtains to divide the classes, for church school supplies and for gifts and candy for the Christmas party. The sum of $200 was given to the Women's Missionary Society and a sizable donation was made to the official board of the church. Furniture was purchased for the parsonage and book cases were installed in the study at the manse. Money was raised during the year by food sales, suppers, waste paper drive, catering to a wedding reception, and by a talent money project. Mrs. N. Somerville, convener of the visiting committee reported that only 48 calls were recorded, a much lower number than last year. Several members reported that calls were made but that they had neglected to report them. Mrs. H. Beane reported on mission work that a box of white cotton and two boxes of used nylon stockings were sent to Korea. Mrs. Harold Emslie reported a profit of $32.52 from the sale of greeting cards and Mrs. Gordon Laberee reported a total of $239.80 from the fancy work. Asquith reported that a series of educational and entertaining programs were provided for seven of the ten meetings. Several chapters of the book, "Concerns of A Continent," were reviewed at the Spring meetings. The book, part of the Women's Missionary Society project for the year deals with peoples of the North American Continent, their work, religion. Of special interest at the October meeting were the highlights of a trip through Western Canada taken during the summer by one of the members, Let Us Give Thanks by Louise Dickenson Rich, was read at the November meeting, reminding one of Thanksgiving Day. At the December meeting Mrs. R. Gale, president of the Quebec-Sherbrooke presbytery of the W.A., spoke about the eventual union of the Women's Association and the Women's Missionary Society. The Doctor Says

ITCHY PROBLEMS OF ECZEMA HAVE MANY POSSIBLE CAUSES

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

The word "eczema" means "boiled out." In medicine, it is used as a label for localized inflammations of the skin. In the acute stage of inflammation, as in a sunburn, the skin is painful, hot and moist ("weeping eczema"). Later the skin becomes thickened, dark and scaly and it's said to be the site of a "dry eczema."

Most patients who consult skin specialists and many of my correspondents seem to want some sort of local application to "cure" their eczema.

Actually, this should be their last request since the inflamed skin needs few things less than exposure to yet another possible irritant.

A more sensible and practical approach to the eczema problem involves a Sherlock Holmes type of search for the offending irritant. Here are some hints that may prove helpful to the amateur detective:

—The irritant may be a food, as in the case of cow's milk that produces facial eczema, especially in infancy. If the eruption quiets down when the suspected food is removed from the diet, gets worse when it's put back, and quiets down again when it's removed once more, you can take your degree as a Professor of Eczema.

—Most often, however, the irritant is something external. A classical example of eczema, or contact dermatitis as it's now classified in medical books, is the attack of poison ivy that you're all familiar with.

—Unfortunately most attacks of contact dermatitis are less easily spotted. But there are always clues for the diligent searcher. Sometimes the clue comes from a knowledge of the occupation; like the eczema of a dentist's fingers and hands from sensitivity to local anesthetic, or of a dishwasher's hands from soapy water, or of a nurse's hands from giving injections of penicillin or streptomycin.

—Sometimes the clue is provided by the site of the eruption: the forehead from a hatband or a hair net, back of the ears from spectacles or perfume, the scalp from hair dye or a permanent, the back of the neck from a scarf

SHS Midgets Stop Lennoxville High 4-2 For Their Fourth Win Of Year, Pattullo, Parker Star In Nets

Sherbrooke High School Midgets posted a 4-2 victory over Lennoxville yesterday afternoon at SHS. This win by the hosts was their fourth of the season.

In a game which saw exciting action throughout all three periods, Sherbrooke High Midgets chalked up their win thanks mainly to their goater Gary Pattullo and to their well-organized squad. The match was close throughout with the action swinging from one end of the rink to the other.

Sherbrooke opened scoring early in the battle when Mike Marshall tallied at 3:00 of the first period. The pressure was kept up by SHS for the rest of the period and the result was that at 10:11, Roy Lavalliere tallied unassisted to push the hosts' lead to two goals.

Play was much closer during the second period with LHS settling down to better passing and goaling. In this period, Sandy Cotton of the visitors was the only scorer, tallying on a pass from Lawrence Maurice at 14:30.

The best action of the third and final period with SHS scoring twice as compared to Lennoxville's single tally. LHS played their best hockey in this period with the goalers of both teams deserving praise for the excellent net-minding handed in.

SHS came back strongly at 6:00 of the final period when Ken Pariseau scored, thanks to a pass from Mike Marshall. Jeff Mills, of the same club, also picked up a point for his squad when he tallied on a pass from Dave Cooper at 10:13.

Lennoxville tried desperately to tie the game up but could only come up with one more goal before the final whistle. John Klinck racked up the point unassisted at 14:35.

Gary Parker and Gary Pattullo should be commended for the excellent way in which they handled the puck. Pattullo was the more experienced goater of the two and stopped LHS's scoring hopes on many occasions. Gary Parker is a new comer to the midget class this year and has been turning in some fine hockey for his club.

All in all, yesterday's match was very evenly played even though SHS won by a two-goal majority. The action swayed back and forth during the game, thrilling spectators from start to finish.

United States May Drop Out Of Davis Cup Play If New Rule Is Passed, Will Be Decided In March

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States probably will drop its Davis Cup team and the cup itself will be withdrawn if the controversial "authorized player" rule is passed by the International Lawn Tennis Federation, The Associated Press learned today.

The proposed rule, introduced by France, would create a class of players permitted to take part in an unlimited number of tournaments and receive expenses. They would remain amateurs and be eligible for Davis Cup play.

The catch is in the definition of an amateur. As far as the USLTA is concerned these players would be professionals.

The U.S. association's view:

Maple Leafs Give $2,000 To Dutchmen

TORONTO (CP)—Maple Leaf Gardens has given $2,000 to Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen, Canada's Olympic representatives, to help them reach their $17,000 expense quota.

In a phone call from Florida to George Dudley, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, Conn Smythe, president of the Gardens, said the money would come out of the Gardens' share of the gate receipts from Tuesday night's game between Whitby Dunlops and Moscow Selects.

"I have often had my difficulties with the National Hockey League about the operation of our Olympic teams," Dudley said. "But I appreciate the efforts of the Montreal and Toronto clubs."

Montreal has made Bob Rousseau of their Brockville Junior Canadiens farm club available to K-W and donated $1,000 to Dutchies' expense fund.

The Kitchener club has been having trouble amassing the necessary $17,000 expense money, but the Toronto donation plus an expected $5,000 from a Kitchener-Waterloo Blue Line Club automobile draw is expected to fill the gap.

Kitchener manager Ernie Goman has predicted the club will pay closer to $20,000 for its Squaw Valley jaunt.

Russians Have Improved In Hockey Fundamentals But Not In Finesse, Lose 9-1 To Whitby Before 14,182

TORONTO (CP)—Judging by the play of Moscow Selects, Russian hockey has improved in fundamentals but there's still plenty to be learned about finesse.

The Selects displayed fast skating, good stickhandling and a willingness to body check Tuesday night but they couldn't finish off their plays and their defensive abilities seemed limited. Whitby Dunlops had little trouble beating the Selects 9-1 in the second game of the Russians' 10-game Canadian tour.

This is not the team which will represent Russia in next month's winter Olympics although one or two members of the Selects may be chosen for the Olympic squad. Butch Martin, one of six players loaned to Whitby for the game, led the scorers with three goals. Sandy Air and George Samolekko each scored twice with Gord Myles and Harry Sinden getting the others.

SCORE ON PRETTY PLAY
Viktor Tsyplakov scored the Moscow goal, completing a neat passing play with linemates Boris Mayorov and Slava Starshinov early in the third period.

A sellout crowd of 14,182 which often cheered the Russians, watched Mayorov commit a major mistake just after the two-minute mark when he carried the puck right across the ice in front of the Russian net. Air took advantage, knocking the puck from the Russian's stick and whipped a 15-foot shot into the goal.

The Russians showed amazing accuracy, seldom missing the net, John Henderson and Cesare Maniago, who replaced Henderson.

Cookshire Downs Richmond 7-2 With Guy Roby Leading Way With Hat-Trick

RICHMOND—Guy Roby, with a hat-trick, helped his team down Richmond Braves 7-2 last night before about 200 fans at the local Coliseum. Thibodeau and B. Morin scored two apiece for Cookshire, accounting for the seven goals against sub-goalie Jerome Desmarais in the Richmond nets.

Clement Viens and Roger "Pat" Desrosiers scored the two goals for Braves as they went down for the second time at the hands of the Cookshire club. Emile Beaudet, regular goaltender for Braves, had suffered a broken finger in the game with Windsor Mills last Sunday afternoon and could not play. The game was to be played in Cookshire but because of heavy snow it was moved here.

Braves were unable to cope with the drive put on by Cookshire as they outplayed the Bergeron boys. A total of fourteen penalties was called in the game with eight going to Richmond players.

Cookshire opened the scoring in the first period on a goal by Roby with Dubois and Holte assisting. It was the only goal scored and three penalties were called by the referees. Frank Bergeron went off at 14:20 for elbowing and Cookshire took advantage of this to score again. Houde and Holte were sent off at 19:15 for roughing it up a bit.

Cookshire boys made it 5-1 in the second period with Roby getting his second marker and Morin getting his second. Thibodeau scored the other. Morin counted first at 8:40 after taking a pass from Dubois and four minutes later Chabot took a penalty for holding the puck and this gave Braves a chance to find the target. But they were staved off by Cookshire. Guy Houde of Braves was sent off for holding and Viens scored on an end-to-end. It was a neat goal that had Cookshire goalie Dionne beat cleanly.

Roger Smith cost Braves another goal as he was penalized at 16:15 for knocking and Roby scored right after. Two minutes later, the Cookshire crew rushed into the Richmond zone, hit the goalpost a couple of times and finally on a rebound scored with Morin getting the marker.

Richmond got off quickly in the third period with Pat Desrosiers netting the puck just 20 seconds after it was dropped. J. L. Talbot got a tripping penalty at 4:43 and at 8:50 another similar infraction went to P. Talbot and Braves tried to get back into the game, but were held off. They had another chance with Roby off at 10:17 but it went the opposite way as Thibodeau got a break-away with Chabot and scored.

The Braves rushed back but were unable to beat the young Cookshire goalie. Later at 17:25, a pushing play by Cookshire was close but Houde got in the way and was given an interference penalty and referees awarded a penalty shot to Cookshire. Morin took the shot but goalie Desmarais saved.

The game was not over as far as Cookshire was concerned for Roby completed his hat trick at 18:50 with Thibodeau assisting. Shots were about even with Desmarais stopping 16 and Dionne making 17 saves.

Richmond plays a return game at Cookshire next Sunday, weather permitting, and if there's too much snow on the open-air rink there, then it will be played in Richmond. Thursday night's game sees Braves at Rock Island and Windsor at Cookshire.

Akron, Ohio—Solomon Boysaw, Cleveland, knocked out Johnny Palmer, Columbus, Ohio, 2, light weights.

Quebec Aces Edge Rochester

Quebec Aces may be in last place in the American Hockey League race but they had a touch of class Tuesday night.

They picked up a 3-2 overtime victory against the third-place Rochester Americans, their second win over the Americans this season.

It was the only game of the night and Jean-Marie Cosselle was the man of the hour as he best goaltender Ed Chadwick at 3:55 in overtime. The Americans were short-handed on a minor penalty to defenceman Dick Mattiussi, nabbed at 2:23 for deliberately falling on the puck.

A crowd of 5,073 was on hand at Quebec to see Myron Stankiewicz score for Quebec with 12 seconds remaining in the first period. Norm Corcoran scored with little more than one minute remaining in the second. Bill Saunders picked up both Rochester goals. Nine penalties were called, five to the Americans.

The win gave the Aces a record of 11 victories, two ties and 51 defeats. They have 24 points, 12 behind the sixth-place Cleveland Barons. The Americans have 47, 12 behind the leading Springfield Indians and four back of Providence Reds.

Two games are scheduled tonight—Rochester at Quebec and Springfield at Hershey.

Ray St. Cyr Gets Winning Tally For Beavers Before 1,293; Jack Illick Pots Two As Rockets Extend Lead

Drummondville downed Asbestos 4-3 and Sherbrooke Beavers posted a 4-3 win over Granby last night but the results failed to change the standing in the E.T. Intermediate Hockey League. The Rockets extended their margin over the second-place Victoriaville Canadiens, who were idle, while the Beavers moved within three points of the Canucks.

The Poliquin squad now has a total of 27 points, six more than Victoriaville but the Pepin team has a game in hand. A crowd of 975 watched the game while at Granby the fans turned out strong again to see their team with 1,293 attending.

The game at Granby was a close battle as both clubs played it hard. The Beavers were with-out Bob Bedard and Pee Wee Theriault and coach Dube was forced to shift his lines slightly. Marcel Fournier was moved up to fill the vacant spot.

Dube and Normie Dussault turned in a great defensive game as the Beavers picked up five of the eight penalties handed out. In the second frame three quick goals for the Beavers, within three minutes, was the big thing. Allard opened the scoring when he got the only tally of the frame but Sherbrooke's three quick tallies at the start of the second session changed things. The Vics got caught napping. Bouvrette, Dussault and Levesque batted the disc home.

Lacroix put the Vics within hailing distance as the frame ended with Sherbrooke out in front 3-2. In the final frame Ray St. Cyr, the league's leading marksman, potted the winning tally on a passing play with Frankie Reid. A minute later Samson got Granby's last tally but from then on Sherbrooke held on to their slim margin to post the victory.

AT DRUMMONDVILLE
Jack Illick, captain of the Drummondville club, paced the way to victory last night over his former mates, Asbestos, with two goals. Gilles Boivin and L. La-Haye accounted for the others. For the Meteors it was Bob Leger and Roland Rousseau who got the markers.

The game was a close battle but the Rockets jumped to the fore quick and then maintained their margin. In the first period La-Haye, Boivin and Illick got their markers for a 3-0 advantage. In the second frame Rousseau tallied but Illick came up with his second goal of the evening to give the Rockets a 4-1 spread.

In the final frame Bob Leger got the only goal. In the second frame it was a steady parade to the cooler with a total of ten penalties being dished out. The Meteors could only get one goal. Illick potted his tally when his team had two men in the sinbin.

In the third frame the boys settled down and only two were called for minor offences but they didn't figure in the scoring. Both went to the home club. Beaugard was handed a misconduct while the Rockets played without Bob Houde who is sitting out a suspension.

Gordie Howe Holding Comfortable Lead In Voting For Most Valuable Player In NHL, Harvey Top Defense

MONTREAL (CP)—Gordie Howe of Detroit Red Wings led comfortably in the balloting for most valuable player and Doug Harvey of Montreal Canadiens had an even wider margin as top defenceman in mid-season voting announced Tuesday by the National Hockey League.

Voting was close for the other two individual trophy awards. Bill Hay of Chicago Black Hawks had only a three-point margin over Murray Oliver of Detroit for the rookie award — the Calder Memorial Trophy.

Don McKenney of Boston Bruins led Henri (Puck) Rocket) Richard of Montreal by eight points for the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy. The Lady Byng award goes to the player "adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability."

Howe received 59 of a possible 99 points in balloting for the Hart Trophy, the MVP award. Closest among nine others receiving points were Bobby Hull, Chicago Black Hawks, 31; Jean Beliveau, Montreal, 21; Bert Olmstead, Toronto Maple Leafs, 18.

For the Norris Memorial Trophy, which goes to the top defenceman, Harvey received 66 points. Closest among 10 others were Bill Gadsby, New York Rangers, 20; Marcel Pronovost, Detroit, 19; and Tom Johnson, Montreal, 18.

Voting was done by a panel of hockey writers, broadcasters and telecasters in the six NHL cities. Points were computed on a 5-3-1 basis for first, second and third choices.

A second vote will be held at the end of the season and the combined point totals will determine the awards. With each goes $1,000 from the NHL.

If Howe wins the Hart Trophy, it would be for the fifth time. No other player has ever won it five times. Harvey has been winner of the Norris Memorial Trophy in four of the six seasons it has been in existence.

Unexpected Good Weather Favors Rally Drivers, One Death Reported In Early Stages, 293 Cars Still In

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Unexpected good weather favored most drivers in the Europe-wide Monte Carlo auto rally today, but ice and snow caused one fatality.

Proceeding toward Monte Carlo from nine European starting points, 293 cars apparently remained in the running.

Only the 14 starters from Athens hit really rough weather and road conditions. They met flooded roads in northern Greece and snowbound roads in Yugoslavia. A ruling from rally officials may be needed to straighten out possible disqualifications for seemingly unavoidable delays.

Both American-driven cars appeared to be doing well.

The Renault Dauphine of Capt. George Larose, Bethlehem, Pa., and Capt. Roy Hebel, Chicago, Ill., left Paris on schedule and went through Belfort and Colmar on time.

VOLVO TEAM

The Volvo driven from Oslo by Donald Delling, Bethel, Conn., and William Dodd, Amherst, Ohio, reached northern Germany without any reported difficulty.

Although the weather was generally better than had been feared, it was far from perfect and snow and ice cropped up widely.

The route from Oslo was one of the worst in its opening stages and it was there that Dutch driver J. Van Nieuwenhuyzen was killed and his co-driver, Adriaan Moggre, badly injured. A Danish-entered car also skidded out of the rally on the same road, but no one was injured.

All nine routes to Monte Carlo cover about 3,600 kilometers (2,235 miles). The starting points were Athens, Oslo, Warsaw, Lisbon, Glasgow, Paris, Frankfurt, The Hague and Rome.

All routes converge at Chambery, France, for a final 10-hour drive to Monte Carlo. This final stretch still is icy from last week's cold snap.

Ed Litzenberger Told Of His Wife's Death

CHICAGO (AP) — Captain Ed Litzenberger of Chicago Black Hawks has been told of his wife's death in an auto accident and "has taken it pretty good," a club official said Tuesday.

His wife, Doreen, 26, was killed when the couple's car, driven by her, skidded on icy Edens Expressway early Monday morning and crashed into a concrete abutment.

The 27-year-old Black Hawk wing, who has led the team in scoring for the last three years, was severely injured but was removed from the hospital's critical list Monday.

The body is to be sent to Regina, Sask., where funeral services will be held Friday.

Canadian Curlers Post Win Over Renfrewshire

GLASGOW, Scotland (Reuters) Canada's touring curlers defeated Renfrewshire 60-45 Tuesday.

Calgary's J.L. Haw was in particularly good form. Time and again his rink hit J. G. Craig's with some excellently-placed shots.

The experience of the rink conditions gained by the tourists in their morning 57-40 loss to Argyll, Forth and Endrick provinces stood them in good stead for the afternoon encounter with Renfrewshire.

Scores (Canadian skips first): Haw 14 Craig 4; J.G. Pate, Montreal 15 J. Leggat 8; A.J. Parkhill, Oshawa, Ont. 8 W. Jamieson 6; Collie Campbell, Toronto 6 R.L. Connell 5; H.P. Webb, Halifax 7 J.D. Woodrow 13; Ken Watson, Winnipeg 10 W. Torrance 9.

FINNS TO ENTER TEAM

HELSINKI (AP)—The Finnish Olympic Committee Tuesday decided to enter a national hockey team in the Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif., Feb. 18-28.

REMEMBER WHEN ...

Henry Armstrong, world featherweight boxing champion, invaded the lightweight ranks 22 years ago tonight to score a sixth-round knockout over Enrico Venturi. It was Armstrong's first start in a year that saw him become simultaneous holder of three world boxing crowns—the featherweight, welterweight and lightweight.

Quebec's 47th Annual International Bonspiel Opens Jan 31 With Record Number Of Entries, 155 Rinks In QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec's 47th annual international bonspiel — a colorful seven-day combination of curling and social events — will start Jan. 31 with a record number of entries.

A total of 156 rinks representing the United States, the Maritime provinces, Ontario and Quebec will compete for 15 trophies in the event which ends Feb. 6. The previous record entry was 128 rinks.

Ontario will have the largest number of entries — 61. Quebec follows with 59, including 29 from Quebec City. New Brunswick will be represented by 14 rinks, Nova Scotia 12, Prince Edward Island three and Newfoundland one. The remaining six entries will be from the United States.

The 156 entries will not constitute a perfect draw but bonspiel officials are keeping their fingers crossed that they won't run into any snags.

Each rink will play a minimum of eight games throughout the week. Twenty-two ice sheets will be used at the city's six curling clubs.

THREE DIVISIONS

The participants will be divided into three sections in competition for the Chateau International Trophy, the Omega International Trophy and the Francois Jobin Gold Cup. Rinks reaching the quarter finals in these events will qualify for play leading to the Lieutenant-Governor's Trophy—the bonspiel's top award.

The bonspiel's other big award—the grand aggregate bowl—will go to the rink compiling the best record.

There are no outstanding pre-bonspiel favorites although Bob Metcalf's Toronto Royal Canadian rink, last year's winner of the Lieutenant-Governor's Trophy, is rated highly.

Most other trophy winners from last year will be back, some with a few changes in personnel. The Pointe Claire, Que., rink, winner last year of the Grand Aggregate Bowl and the Chateau Trophy, will be back with a new skip and a new third. Skip John Freeman is in Hawaii and will be replaced by Montreal golf professional Pat Fletcher.

Among old timers returning are E. W. Spriggs of Halifax and Charlie Dickenson of Newcastle, N.B.—the latter for the 17th time.

Pros Sign Nine Of 12 Seniors

DENTON, Tex. (AP)—Professional teams have signed nine of the 12 seniors on last fall's North Texas State football team. Another was drafted but is undecided whether to play pro ball.

Dallas Texans of the American Football League signed halfbacks Abner Haynes and Morris Rose and guard Bobby Way.

Two others went with Dallas Rangers, who are seeking a National Football League franchise. They are end Frank Klein and guard Norman Denney.

Tackle George Herring signed with Houston Oilers of the AFL.

The remaining three chose the Western Interprovincial Football Union in Canada. Guard Bill Carrio and centre Sammy Stanger signed with Edmonton Eskimos and quarterback Vernon Cole with Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

Fullback Bill Groce was drafted by Pittsburgh Steelers of the NFL but has not signed a contract.

Seattle — Denny Moyer, 149, Portland, Ore., knocked out Pat Lowry, 150, Cleveland, 3.

Ken Watson On Curling No. 15 Outdoor Curling Thrill Of Scottish Visit

(Canada's "Mr. Curling", Ken Watson of Winnipeg, is covering the Canadian curling scene for The Sherbrooke Record. This is another in a series of 20 articles).

It was on a Sunday after a visit to the famed St. Giles Church where Jennie Geddes once aimed a prayer stool at the Bishop's head that my host, Jock Waugh, drove me from Edinburgh to St. Leonard's Lasswade, the home of Leonard Todd.

Todd, who was one of Scotland's most ardent curlers, was a manufacturer of fine craft paper. He operated a mill in this gentle rural community. Rumours that Todd's Mill Pond had an unusual five-inch thickness of ice that signalled a few invigorating hours of outdoor curling led Jock and me to the scene for I had never experienced the sensation of curling outdoors with only the sky overhead.

Oldtimers in Winnipeg love to recount stories of curling on the frozen surfaces of the Red and Assiniboine Rivers before the turn of the century, and many the tall tales they tell of the adverse conditions they played under. Yet in each telling I can detect their secret relish of the camaraderie they had enjoyed.

Here at Lasswade was an opportunity for me to unravel this mystery once and for all.

It was a foggy day when we arrived and a cool, damp 15 degrees Fahrenheit. The trees of the countryside completely covered with hoarfrost, and partially shrouded by a low hanging mist, presented a picture from fantasyland. Once the Austin was parked we emerged and started for the path that led down to the Mill Pond two hundred yards away. It was then I heard the shouts and peals of laughter carrying through the still, frosty air.

"Aye", said Jock, "They're curling!" We made our way down a gravel path through the landscaped garden to a Mill Lade that supplied a current of open water to the paper plant. Two regal-looking swans floating serenely on the surface seemed to look askance as we crunched by. Soon we caught a glimpse of the frozen Mill Pond and its occupants.

The sight could have provided a setting for a Walt Disney creation. A centuries-old stone viaduct provided the background, its outlines dimmed by the mist. A few dozen passersby, attracted by the shouts and merry-making of the curlers, had paused above on the causeway supported by eighty-foot Roman arches to watch the play. Banks on either side of the pond covered with frosted trees sloped up towards the skies and disappeared into the fog.

Ere long we reached the playing surface. Two sets of rings, only discernible at a few paces, and hog lines had been scratched out on the ice, and the players, hastily summoned by the Mill owner when he found the conditions right, were having the time of their lives.

Much to my surprise the surface was rough but I learned this was true of most outdoor curling. The stones had to be thrown from the long metal crampit with considerable effort and they bobbled and bounced as they made their way along the murky-colored surface. There was practically no curl to the stone and a quarter-guard was as good as a stone quarry protecting the shot. When I turned over a rock to clean it before throwing I noticed a two-inch cup. Some stones had no running surface whatever. These conditions are true of this type of curling. Only under circumstances when the wind velocity was Zero would outdoor ice freeze to a smooth, unruddled face. The very nature of this phenomenon lends zest to curling on the loch or the pond, and the participants play the game for its "ain sake" and thoroughly enjoy themselves in the process.

After an hour or two, exulting in the bracing air and enjoying the shouts and the banter, it occurred to me that Canadian curlers on indoor ice rinks would be a wee mite ashamed of themselves for complaining to the ice-makers about playing conditions if they had never had the thrill of curling on Todd's Mill Pond.

This concludes our articles on Curling in Scotland and Canada. In the final articles in this series, we will consider the Strategy of Curling.
