SUFFRAGETTE HIDES FROM REPORTERS

Miss Wylie Is Pestered for Interviews Until She Flees from Montreal Hotel.

Toronto, Sept. 30.—According to a Montreal despatch, Miss Wylie, the noted English militant suffragist, has left that city for Toronto. Inquiries at the local hotels have failed to reveal her whereabouts.

According to information received from a prominent Toronto suffragist, Miss Wylie is still in Montreal, but has vacated her suite in the Windsor Hotel for more secluded quarters and to side-track the newspaper men who have besieged her for interviews ever since her arrival.

Since Saturday, Miss Wylie has communicated with the Toronto headquarters asking their co-operation during her visit in this city. Nothing will be done until Mrs. Flora McDenison returns to the city this evening, and in the meantime Miss Wylie will remain in seclusion until advised from Toronto to reach her.

BANK TELLER GETS 4-YEAR SENTENCE

Arthur Richmond of Toronto Pleads Guilty of Embezzlement of $22,000.

Toronto, Sept. 30.—Arthur Richmond, the young teller who stole $22,000 from the Bank of Toronto, and whose attempted suicide led to the discovery of his falsifications, pleaded guilty before Judge Denton today and was sentenced to four years in Kingston. T. C. Robinette, his counsel, said that Richmond had been persuaded to bet most of the money on horse races by a disreputable racing man, who showed him bogus telegrams from horse owners. The racing man's present whereabouts is unknown.

GRAND TRUNK IN AGREEMENT WITH PORT DIRECTORS

Harbor Commission May Now Go Ahead on Work of New Freight Terminals.

The Quebec Harbor Commission held a meeting yesterday, President Chateaufort presiding, to meet Mr. Kelly, Vice-President of the Grand Trunk Railway, and confer about the removal of the company's present freight sheds at the foot of St. Paul street, and the building of a new freight depot on the site that will be a modern large structure and provide accommodation for the three south shore railways, the Grand Trunk, Intercolonial and Quebec Central.

GRAND TRUNK AGREES.

The conference resulted in an agreement in which the Grand Trunk engages itself to conform with the wishes of the Harbor Commission, which wants to demolish the present wooden building and other surrounding structures owned by the Commission, that will give the necessary space to erect a suitable freight depot that will comprise two structures, one to receive the incoming freight and the other to accommodate outgoing freight.

In the meantime it will be some time before the work of demolishing the old buildings can be begun, for the reason that the companies now using the structures will have to be provided with temporary quarters. Nevertheless the Harbor Commission expects to have the new depot built and ready for occupation next spring.

POINDRON HAD LED ANTI-FORGET FIGHT

Paris Suicide, Former Canadian Commercial Agent, Organized Montreal Steamship Line

Montreal, Sept. 30.—The cable from Paris yesterday to the effect that the ex-Canadian commercial agent, Mr. Anatole Poindron, had committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a revolver, following an excess of grief because of the recent death of his wife, had all the more interest in financial circles because of the fact that Mr. Poindron was credited with leading the campaign against Sir Rodolphe Forget, which has been in progress for some time past in the French capital.

The late commercial agent was appointed to that position through the influence of Senator Dandurand, but he was retired soon after the change of regime at Ottawa. Mr. Poindron, who was born at Limoges, Belgium, first came to Montreal as the representative of several Belgian houses, afterwards organizing a line of steamers between Montreal and the Continent.

SACKVILLE (N. B.) FIRE

LOSS REACHES $60,000

Sackville, N.B., Sept. 30.—The most destructive fire in the history of Sackville occurred this afternoon and many buildings were burned or damaged. Assistance from the Amherst, N.S., fire department checked the progress of the flames. The loss is about $60,000.

CARSON AND FRED, SMITH MADE PROTESTS

One Hundred Thousand People Marched in Procession at Liverpool Last Evening.

Liverpool, Sept. 30.—A great gathering took place at Shell Park this evening to protest against Home Rule. The assembly numbered not less than 100,000, which arrived in three processions. The enthusiasm was unbounded and rockets and fireworks of all kinds were discharged. Sir Edward Carson and Frederick E. Smith, the Unionist leaders in the movement, made speeches. The latter said that three Liverpool ship owners had promised him the free use of ships to carry 10,000 men from Liverpool to Belfast to help Ulster if "it came to a fight."

MARCHIONESS PROTESTS.

Belfast, Sept. 30.—The Marchioness of Dufferin presided at a meeting of women in Ulster Hall tonight in opposition to the Home Rule Bill. The hall was crowded and fiery protests were voiced against the measure.

MRS. SZABO WAS STRANGLER, SAYS DOCTOR AT TRIAL

Life or Death for Gibson Will Hang on Evidence by Dr. Schultze.

Goshen, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Dr. Otto H. Schultze of New York, a coroner's physician, took the witness stand this afternoon in the preliminary examination of Burton W. Gibson, and testified that Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, with whose death Gibson is charged, died of strangulation by compression on the throat, and not of drowning. Upon his testimony District Attorney Rogers declared the state's case must stand or fall.

Describes the Autopsy.

"For three inches above the larynx," Dr. Schultze testified, "her throat was entirely closed. Death was caused by strangulation by compression of the upper part of the neck and the floor of the mouth, from without."

Dr. Schultze detailed the autopsy he performed on Mrs. Szabo's body Sept. 10, when it was exhumed from the cemetery in Jersey City, where Gibson, who was the woman's lawyer, had ordered it buried. On his direct examination he told of what conditions he had found in the throat and brain. On his cross-examination, Robert H. Elder, Gibson's lawyer, had to tell the story of the complete autopsy. Adjournment for the day was reached with Dr. Schultze on the stand.

After adjournment Dr. J. J. O'Reilly, professor of medico-legal jurisprudence at St. Lawrence University, gave out a statement. Dr. O'Reilly is here to combat for Gibson the theory that Mrs. Szabo did not die of drowning.

MAY BE ACTION ON NEW HARBOR BOARD DURING THIS WEEK

William Price May Be Offered Chairmanship, but His Acceptance Is Uncertain.

It has been known in Conservative circles for the past three weeks that the Federal Government intends to reorganize the Quebec Harbor Commission within the near future, but nothing definite toward that end is yet decided. A move in that direction was made last week, but owing to certain circumstances the proposition was postponed, but to all appearances the question will be settled this week.

MR. PRICE UNDECIDED.

William Price, former M.P. for Quebec West, went to Ottawa yesterday on private business, and in the meantime will confer with Premier Borden and members of his Cabinet pertaining to the interests that concern Quebec and will no doubt take occasion to discuss the Quebec Harbor Commission question, which involves the dissolution of the present Board and the appointment of a commission of three similar to the Harbor Commission of Montreal.

It is certain that Mr. Price will be offered the chairmanship, but not so certain that he will accept. At least he will not unless Quebec is placed on the same footing as Montreal, and he accorded financial arrangements that will enable the commission to proceed immediately with the proper equipment of the harbor of Quebec. Should Mr. Price consent to accept the presidency of the new board, he will do so at a great personal sacrifice, on account of his large business interests that he will be obliged to some extent to sacrifice.

Should he consent to serve his appointment will give general satisfaction in the city of Quebec, especially among those who know him best. The Government would be congratulated if Mr. Price is chosen and given a free hand to act upon his own judgment, which is acknowledged to be sound in every particular.

COMMITTS SUICIDE TO ESCAPE PAIN

Montreal, Sept. 30.—Seeking relief from intense pain from which he was suffering as a result of an accident, Major William Bennett, a well known resident of Point St. Charles, committed suicide at his home, 118 Britannia street, late tonight. Crazy by the agony which he had undergone throughout the day, he quietly crept to the bathroom of his home, placed a heavy caliber revolver to his temple, pulled the trigger and was found lying lifeless on the floor when distracted members of the family rushed to his side. The services of a physician were immediately requisitioned, but they were of no avail, as death was instantaneous.

The only explanation given for the man's rash act is that his mind became temporarily unbalanced as a result of a concussion of the brain which he had sustained the day previous as a result of a serious fall.

Major Bennett was 63 years old, a native of Grenville, and is survived by a wife, one daughter and three sons, William and Charles of Montreal and Herman of Walkerville, Ont. Relatives also reside at Grenville and Spencerville, Ont.

LAWRENCE GENERAL STRIKE CALLED OFF AFTER RIOTING

"Demonstration" by I. W. W. Against Trial of Ettor and Giovanetti Results in Hand-To-Hand Clashes Between Strikers and Police.

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 30.—A demonstration strike against the imprisonment of labor leaders took place here today. After hand-to-hand clashes between rioters and police, from the opening of the textile mill gates in the morning until the closing at night, the "demonstration" was declared off by the Industrial Workers of the World. The strike was called for 24 hours, beginning this morning, in protest against the imprisonment of Joseph J. Ettor, Arturo Giovannitti and Joseph Caruso, whose trial in connection with the death of Anna Lopizzo opened in Salem today.

7000 in Demonstration.

Seven thousand of the 25,000 operatives in the cotton and woolen mills here obeyed the call, forcing out 500 others either through intimidation or lack of work in closing down departments. Then at a mass meeting late this afternoon the workers were told to go back to work tomorrow morning, ready to come out again at the call of the Industrial Workers, if the leaders are not satisfied with the progress of the trial at Salem.

The worst of the rioting occurred at the opening of the mill gates this morning. Pickets armed with revolvers, knives, sledge hammers, iron bolts and other weapons, attempted to stop operatives from going into the mills. When the police tried to maintain order the pickets struggled with them desperately. Violence flashed out once more at closing time tonight. At the corner of Essex and Union streets a crowd of Italian operatives and sympathizers who were on strike met some Polish workmen coming from one of the mills. The two parties at once came to blows, but a squad of police leaped into the midst of the tumult with drawn clubs and after a few moments of hard fighting dispersed the crowd. No arrests were made.

Women Knocked Down and Kicked.

The riots were handled by 200 city and state police. Automobiles at the central station house took flying squadrons of officers wherever serious trouble was reported. In some instances where picketers used violence women on their way to work were knocked down and kicked. In order to get at the guilty persons the officers had to fight their way through the mob leaving a trail of broken heads behind. After rescuing the working operatives the police would pick up as many rioters as they could find, but many of the victims of the police clubs made their escape.

Women and children were sufferers in the evening riot as they had been during the morning. Several were knocked down and apparently trampled upon, but none appeared to be seriously hurt. Dinner pails were snatched from the hands of operatives returning from work and hurled back into the faces of the owners. The state police assisted the city patrolmen in quelling the disturbance, there being about 50 officers altogether in the squad. While the Lawrence men used their clubs, the state officers drew their revolvers when the crowd became more menacing, and at the point of the leveled weapons the mob was driven in sullen retreat for several blocks before it finally dispersed.

ONLY TWO JURORS OUT OF 106 EXAMINED

Majority of Talesmen Excused Because They Had Formed or Expressed Opinions on Ettor Case.

Salem, Mass., Sept. 30.—Of one hundred and six talesmen who were examined by Judge Joseph E. Quinn, in the Superior Court here to-day for jury duty in the murder trial of Jos. J. Ettor, Arturo Giovannitti and Jos. Caruso, growing out of the Lawrence strike riots last winter, only two were acceptable to the court, commonwealth and defence. The majority were excused when they told the court that they formed or expressed an opinion or that their feelings were such as to "preclude them from bringing in a verdict of guilty where such a verdict might result in death to the defendants." Others were excused because of advanced age or poor health, and some were challenged.

Judge Quinn declined to ask prospective jurors if they owned stock in any of the Lawrence mills against which the strike of last winter was directed. Counsel for Ettor and Giovannitti desired the question asked.

The two men who occupied seats in the jury box when court adjourned to-night were Christian W. Larsen, a Haverhill hair dresser, and Robert S. Stillman, a carpenter, of Rockport.

"NO GOD, NO MASTER,"

SAYS I. W. W. PLACARD

Three large placards were carried in the parade at Lawrence, Mass., Sunday, which ended in a riot. Of these one read:

"Twentieth century civilization. For the progress of the human race we have jails, gallows, guillotines and electric chairs for the people who pay to keep the soldiers to kill them when they revolt against Wood and other czars of capitalism. Arise, slaves of the world! No God! No master! One for all; all for one."

A second read:
"Police, militia—who killed Anna and John?"

The third was:
"The only justice—freedom for Ettor and Giovannitti."

There were no American flags carried, but many of red.

BALKAN TROUBLES NEED ONLY SPARK TO START A WAR

General Hostilities Can Only Be Averted by Powers Bringing Pressure to Bear.

London, Oct. 1.—The Balkan difficulties have developed with alarming rapidity to a point where only a spark is needed to set the whole of southeastern Europe aflame. Three of the Balkan states by common consent have ordered the simultaneous mobilization of their armies and are making every preparation for immediate hostilities.

TWO EXPLANATIONS.

Two possible explanations are offered, the first, that a coalition of the Balkan states exists for the purpose of demanding from Turkey before she has time to conclude peace with Italy, the grant of complete autonomy to the Macedonian provinces; the second, that, fearing Turkey will seek an issue from her difficulties at home and abroad in war, they are preparing themselves for a possible attack.

The Quebec Chronicle

QUEBEC, OCTOBER 1, 1912.

A MODEST CONGRATULATORY FEELING.

There is something like a last-day-in-September feel in the air of Quebec at the bidding of certain trading prospects about to be realized. The prophets of evil-forboding have been sent a-fluttering by the prophets who make out that Quebec is going to be a city of a quarter of a million people in the near future. The one set of prophets is almost as dangerous as the other set to the well being of our city. They are self-seekers of an unwary type. If our Quebec Harbor Commissioners had been given the spending of that million dollars, once inserted in the federal estimates, Quebec might have had by this time, harbor improvements that would have been a preliminary object lesson to what is going to be done with the little haven at Cap Rouge as a subsidiary to Quebec's lower harbor. If we could only get the citizens to see that the "One and Indivisible" idea is the correct one to be taken up with by them in behalf of the city as a whole the feel in the air would perhaps have more of a self-congratulatory charm about it than it has on this last of September, 1912. None of us surely would be knowingly betrayed into a feeling of disloyalty towards those who are anxious to help us along the line of report progressiveness; We have all heard of religious insanity and ecclesiastical insanity, and racial insanity; but the insanity which has retarded Quebec in its commercial progress is the insanity of political partyism and civic parochial differences, that has so often led the community to drive from its limits the men who would have fought its battles to the point of a commercial success. One government is anxious to do what a preceding government has failed to do, only to be abused by writers calling themselves Quebecers for the fun of the thing. Place two energetic candidates in Quebec West or Quebec Centre against two do-nothing candidates, silent as two frightened badmen in mental and physical terror over their own shadow, and what has been, and is likely to be again, the issue. Alas, poor Quebec! Will you ever get there, with disunion for a rope to hang every one who wants to get you there, be it government, Minister of the Crown, parliamentary representation, or journalistic pleading?

THE ETHICS OF THE PARTIZAN

What an unstable code of morals the dyed-in-the-wool partizan endeavors to weave for his own justification, as he juggles with right and wrong with good and evil, headless of which is which! Write or speak well of a man or a measure, and if he or it is in line with the poor fellow's partizan notions, you will be set down as a saving agency of righteousness; but, if he or it is not, you will be sure to come in for violent and abiding condemnation. The other day, the Chronicle placed on record what everybody knows to be true about the Hon. Sydney Fisher, namely, that he is as far from being an expert in educational matters, as he can get; and, because Mr. Fisher happens to be a Liberal the Chronicle was at once denounced as being all that is bad. And eventually we have the converse of the partizan's shallow reasoning. The Hon. Mr. Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, has discovered that Mr. Fisher's administration of our Canadian Model Farms was everything that it should not have been and now those who write or speak well of Mr. Burrell's reform are at once consigned to outer darkness, as "silly, spiteful, senseless ignoramuses". This is pretty fair evidence that a political farmer of Mr. Fisher's experience is no more a good agriculturist than an expert educationist. Then again, in the case of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it will soon be as much as a newspaper's credit is worth, for it to write or speak of that venerable and distinguished politician's public record, except as of one who has obtained a sainthood in the realm of Canadian politics. Any allusion to him that is not laudatory is to be denounced as profane, nay, worse than any words in the English or French language can picture. And this continues, until the laugh follows the joke that no one should refer in any way to the ex-premier, unless with a censor in the one hand and a candle in the other. We have been asked where this underworld of Liberal partizan folly is to be located, as distinguished from Liberal decency of discussion. Why, it is located all over. There is not a constituency which has not its branch or branches of the unsound variety-show, with its termagant severe-words and mobbing logic interrupting even the wild-mannered Sir Wilfrid himself, when he "cisses on," in his own classical rhetorical way. Mr. Adolphe Lemieux, to attack certain Ministers of the Crown, and Mr. Henri Bourassa. And so there we are, and the poor foolish partizan too! Indeed the only relief is for all good Conservatives and respectable Liberals, to give the poor fellows the go-by; and go on in their own responsibility sensible way of thinking out a problem in public affairs, in terms of its rightness or wrongness.

The weather-man must have been sore about that vain-glorious boast of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's that there is going to be 250,000,000 bushels of a wheat crop in the West, though we see he (the weather-man) has got over his "tiff" and promises us a fair harvest as heretofore, with a restraining hand on Master Jack Frost. But what a spite as some people would say, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy must have against Sir Wilfrid, when he tells us that "many people are given to exaggeration"; but that, with a reasonable degree of patience, the handling of the grain by the western railways will work out all right in the end. The congestion is therefore going to be overcome, notwithstanding Sir Wilfrid's plea for reciprocity so that we may not be ruined by having too big a harvest. What a nightmare that reciprocity plea is evidently becoming to the "dear old man"! But, there, now; We ought not to mention his name so often, even to remind him that, for years to come, there is going to be no waste of wheat in the West, while outlets for its exportation are being arranged for on the Pacific Coast, and Hudson Bay.

"I wonder why Sir Wilfrid Laurier still continues to discuss that panama'd dead issue of reciprocity?" a reflecting Liberal was overheard asking another reflecting Liberal the other day on John Street.

"I often wonder the same thing," said the second Liberal.

"Would you gentlemen really like to know why?" asked a Conservative standing near them.

"I for one certainly would," said the one.

"And so would I," said the other.

"Well, gentlemen, the reason is simply this: there is no other political topic of any platform dignity for him to discuss, unless it be the naval question, and you would not have him discuss that matter until Premier Borden has had his first practical word about its details! And failing that, you surely would not have him using the language against Premier Borden which President Taft lately used against Colonel Roosevelt or vice versa, nor of venturing to riddle the Borden Government with the riddle of falsities which appear from day to day in the newspapers formerly subsidized by him. Sir Wilfrid is too much of a gentleman to take up with the methods of such ribald Liberalism, or to take abusing people personally above or below the intellectual standard of Mr. Henri Bourassa."

"The journalism you refer to is certainly doing no good service to the Liberal party," answered one of the Liberals.

"Nor is the discussion of reciprocity at the hands of the leader of the party of any service to Liberalism at the present moment," said the other Liberal.

"That side of the question cannot but be of more interest to you than to me, gentlemen. Good morning," and the good natured Conservative passed on to his office-building.

The arrival of the Hon. L. P. Pelletier, on a flying visit to the city, and what he has been saying about the Quebec improvements and other matters, go to show that neither his own nor the Hon. Mr. Monk's resignations are of such pressing interest to the people of Quebec at the present moment as are the resignations of Messrs. Power and Lachance. In the first place neither Mr. Pelletier nor Mr. Monk have the remotest intention of resigning; and now it is for Messrs. Power and Lachance to tell Quebecers whether they intend to resign of their own will or be forced to resign by an indignant public. Let them at least say, and at once, whether it is their wish to have Quebec's aggrandizement as a seaport and railway centres made a party question or not.

There is a federal by-election on just now in the constituency of MacDonald, Manitoba. And the Liberal selectors of candidates have let loose upon the constituency a rare specimen of the old-time oratoricalists of the Laurier regime, who counsels the electors of the baser sort to take money from both sides, and vote as they have a mind to—that is, vote for the corruptionist himself. From such a type Canadians may judge of the herd from which he springs. A scamp of that class should have a place provided for him in the penitentiary. Though, should he happen to be elected, the underworld of Liberalism will scream themselves hoarse over the grand and glorious victory in favor of the corruptionists of former days.

The empty tin can with the stone in it is on the rattle again, monotonous as the noise it makes has become. It is as a dead light weight round the neck of Quebec's two conscientious representatives. If they have made up their minds to say nothing in their own defence, they might at least select a secretariat that knows something of police conversation. They are evidently between the devil and the deep sea—between their rabble-brained upholders and their own immovable silence. A public meeting might provide a means of escape for them.

HORSE RAN AWAY; FELL DOWN STAIRS

There was a remarkable accident yesterday morning at the top of the St. Clair street steps, leading to Crown street. A man named Demeule, who was driving a heavily-loaded dray, when a portion of the load of furniture with which it was loaded, fell off and the horse became frightened and broke away and ran into a post to the left of the steps. Demeule was thrown from the rig and badly hurt, while the horse, which had become disengaged from its harness, fell down the iron stairs. It was with difficulty that the animal was recovered from its position, but wonderful to say it was not seriously hurt. Demeule was taken to the Hotel Dieu.

WILL OF BROKER KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Toronto, Sept. 30.—The will of the late Robert A. Smith, a partner in the brokerage firm of Osler & Hammond, who was the victim of an automobile accident near Richmond Hill, while returning from the Conservative picnic at Jackson's Point, was filed for probate in the Surrogate Court office this afternoon. He left an estate of $549,180, divided as follows:

Real estate, $73,500; household goods, $9300; mortgages, $51,000; stocks, $124,064; life insurance, cash and miscellaneous, $266,350.

An annual income of $15,000 is provided for his widow. The capital fund will be divided equally between the two children, Francis and Ruth. A number of bequests to other relatives are made.

In his will Mr. Smith valued his partnership and holdings in the firm of Osler & Hammond at $250,000, his seat on the Toronto Stock Exchange at $15,000 and his 740 shares in the Royal Alexandra Theatre at $37,000. He held in addition $44,500 worth of Mackay common stock, a one-quarter interest in equity in the Tretheway farm, valued at $23,000, and $51,000 in North-West Land Company mortgages, $10,000 in Vancouver lands and the Allen farm, valued at $40,000.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

DOCTORS SAID IT WAS HEART FAILURE

And Gave Me Up—But "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Me

Moorfield, Ont., March 25, 1910.
 "I suffered from severe indigestion and dyspepsia for nearly two years. I could not take food without fearful distress. Two doctors thought my disease was heart failure and incurable, and I expected to die in a short time. My son asked me to try 'Fruit-a-tives.'"
 From the outset, I was better and gradually this fruit medicine completely cured me.
 I took perhaps a dozen boxes—now I am cured and have gained over 30 pounds in weight."
 Henry Speers (Justice of Peace).
 "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c—or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HON. J. D. HAZEN IS ON THE JOB

Goes on Trip of Inspection of
St. Lawrence Ship Channel—
Useful Information Received.

There is no more responsible portfolio in the Dominion cabinet than that held by the Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, and no minister takes his duties more seriously than the popular minister from New Brunswick. Since his entry into the Dominion cabinet he has exhibited great powers of organization and grasp of detail so necessary to a department, which has so many ramifications in different parts of the country.

Back from England, where, next to the Prime Minister, he occupied the chief position in the naval conferences, he is now arranging to undertake his first annual inspection of the St. Lawrence Ship Channel. He will embark on the government steamer Earl Grey from Montreal on October 5, and proceed to Crane Island, which is forty miles below the city of Quebec. The inspection is no more formality. The minister will be accompanied by representatives of the great shipping interests in Canada. Their suggestions will be regarded and the engineers of the department who will accompany the party will be called in consultation during different stages of the journey. The results of the journey will be embodied in the plans, which will afterwards be presented to the cabinet by the Hon. Mr. Hazen for the improvement of the channel. He is desirous of deepening the channel as soon as possible, so that the route to Montreal may be able to accommodate the large 18,000 ton Allan liners now in course of construction for the Canadian trade.

An Illustration.

An idea of the alertness of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries in the discharge of his duties may be gathered from an incident on his return trip from England in August on board the Royal Edward. When the Canadian shores were reached he could be seen scanning the coast with his long range glasses and consulting with his deputy minister of naval service on board with him, Mr. J. G. Desbarats. From the time the ship took her pilot on board at Rimouski until she docked at Quebec the Hon. Mr. Hazen stayed on the bridge of the ship and heard from the pilot his ideas as to the places in the channel which required more improvement. It was characteristic of the minister, and indicates why he has achieved his success.

Banquet to Minister.

The popularity of Mr. Hazen with the large number of workmen employed in the yards of the Marine Department will be shown in a banquet to be tendered him on his way down the ship's channel by the government employees in Sorel. He will be presented with an address and appreciations of his excellent treatment of all those employed in his extensive department will be exhibited. At other points on the route he will also be warmly and cordially received.

Mr. Hazen had planned to make a trip to the Pacific coast to inquire into the fisheries dispute in British Columbia, but the prominent part he will take in the coming naval discussion at the opening of the House of Parliament in November will prevent this.

PARLIAMENT AND THE NAVAL QUESTION

House Meets in November—
Believed Government Policy
Will Commend Itself to All.

The announcement that Parliament is to be summoned for some time in November means that before long the people of Canada will have before them the result of the deliberations which took place in London during the past summer between representatives of the Canadian and Imperial governments. The Borden government is to announce its naval policy, and is to make that announcement, according to proper constitutional practice, on the floor of Parliament, in the hearing of all the people, through their representatives.

That the policy to be announced will finally realize the expectations of those Canadians who believe that Canada as a British nation should do her part toward British defence on the seas, seems to be more than probable. It is also to be safely assumed that in whatever proposal the government makes to Parliament there will be no diminution of Canadian autonomy and no sacrifice of Canada's position as a great self-governing Dominion within the empire.

The Borden government has sought, and it is believed, has found, a solution of the navy problem which is at once adequate to the needs of the time, consistent with the increasing dignity and importance of the Dominion, and a worthy recognition of the long years of service freely given to Canada by the mother country in the maintenance of great fleets for the protection of this as well as other portions of the empire of Greater Britain.

DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR A BAD LIVER OR SLUGGISH BOWELS

This Gentle, Effective Fruit Laxative Thoroughly Cleans Your Stomach, Liver and 30-Feet of Bowels of Sour Bile, Poisons, Gases and Clogged-Up Waste.

A harmless cure for sick headache, for biliousness, for a sour, gassy, disordered stomach, for constipation, indigestion, coated tongue, sallowness, pimples—take delicious Syrup of Figs. For the cause of all these troubles lies in a torpid liver and sluggish condition of your thirty feet of bowels.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs tonight means all poisonous waste matter, the undigested, fermenting food and sour bile, gently moved on and out of your system by morning, without griping, nausea or weakness. It means a cheery day tomorrow—many bright days thereafter.

Please don't think of gentle, effective Syrup of Figs as a physic. Don't think you are drugging yourself, for delicious figs, senna and aromatics can not injure any one.

This remarkable fruit preparation is a wonderful stomach, liver and bowel cleanser, regulator and tonic, the safest and most positive ever devised.

The day of violent purgatives, such as calomel, pills, salts and castor oil is past. They were all wrong. You got relief, but at what a cost! They acted by flooding the bowels with fluids, but these fluids were digestive juices. Syrup of Figs embody only harmless laxatives, which act in a natural way—what eating lots of fruit and what plenty of exercise will do for the liver, stomach and bowels.

Be sure you get the old reliable and genuine. Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. Hand back, with scorn, any Fig Syrup imitation recommended as "just as good."

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

Friday, Sept. 27th, 1912.

Present: His Worship the Mayor, Aldermen Berube, Cannon, Collier, Cote, Dinan, Dussault, Fiset, Gauvin, Lantier, Lavigne, Madden, Martin, Morin, Pouliot, Verret (15).

The minutes of the last meeting are read and confirmed.

Read a letter from Mrs. Widow O. Lortie, praying the Council to grant her three months' wages of her late husband, who has been for over 30 years in the employ of the City. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Read a letter from Mr. Frank Carrel, offering a piece of land corner of Fabrique street and Avenue Chauveau, to build thereon a fire station. Referred to the Fire Committee.

Read a letter from the Central National Council of Labor of the District of Quebec, objecting to the choice of the old Jacques Cartier market for the building of a central fire station, and favoring the choice of the site corner of St. Valier, St. Helene and Caron Streets. Referred to the Fire Committee.

Read letters from Mr. Matthews, of the Quebec Railway, Light and Power Company, the first stating that it is impossible for the Company to remove the trolley poles on des Fosses street and replace them by brackets placed on the houses; the second, stating that the Company will lay its rails on the new Drouin bridge when it is completed and ready for the rails. Referred to the Road Committee.

Read a letter from the National Battlefields Commission, asking the Council to give permission to the Quebec Railway, Light & Power Co. to transport, through their construction cars, all kinds of materials required for the building of the avenues on the said park. Referred to the Road Committee.

Read a petition from the Very Rev. Lennox Williams and others, in support of the petition of the carter of the St. Ann Street stand, asking not to remove the stand from where it is now. Referred to the Police Committee.

The City Clerk lays on the table the annual report of the City of St. John, N.B. Ordered that a letter of acknowledgement and thanks be forwarded to the civic authorities of St. John.

Presented the following reports of the Finance Committee:

Finance:—2154th (To appoint Mr. Telesphore Verret, Clerk of the Recorder's Court on the list of permanent officers of the Corporation); 2155th (To purchase the property of Messrs. Audet & Picher, corner of Boulevard Langelier and St. Olivier streets to house therein the guardians of the water works); 2156th (To renew the treasury bills to the amount of £160,000 pounds sterling to the Bank of Montreal); 2157th (Readjustment of taxes of the Quebec and Lake St. John and Canadian Railway Companies). Moved by Ald. Cannon, seconded by Ald. Lavigne, and resolved: That the said reports be taken up as the first, 2nd, 3rd and 4th orders of the day.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

First Order of the Day:—Read the 2154 report of the Finance Committee, which being put to the vote, is adopted, and it is resolved: That Mr. Telesphore Verret, Jr. is hereby inscribed on the list of permanent officers and employees of the Corporation as Clerk in the Recorder's Court, at a salary of twelve dollars a week, said amount to be charged to the credits voted for contingent expenditure for current year.

Second Order of the Day:—Read the 2155th report of the Finance Committee, which being put to the vote, is adopted, and it is resolved: That the Mayor is hereby authorized to sign a deed of purchase of the property belonging to Messrs. F. Audet, notary, and Edouard Picher, corner of Boulevard Langelier and St. Olivier Street, number 3755-113 of the official cadastral plan of St. John's ward, for the sum of $4,500, said amount to be charged to contingent expenditure. The vendors continuing to collect the rents thereon until the 30th of April next, 1913, and paying all taxes and ground rents up to that date and keep the property insured for that period for an amount to be determined by His Worship the Mayor.

Third Order of the Day:—Read the 2156th report of the Finance Committee, which being put to the vote, is adopted, and it is resolved: That the Finance Committee is hereby authorized to transact with the Bank of Montreal, in London, for the renewal of the loan made upon treasury bills for the amount of £160,000 pounds until the market becomes favorable for the sale of the City debentures.

Fourth Order of the Day:—Read the 2157th report of the Finance Committee, which being put to the vote, it is moved by Ald. Fiset, seconded by Ald. Dinan, in amendment thereto: That the word "ten years" be replaced therein by the words "five years." And the said amendment being put to the vote, is lost on the following division of 3 for, and 12 against, as follows, to wit:

For:—Aldermen Dinan, Fiset, Morin.

Against:—Aldermen Berube, Cannon, Collier, Cote, Dussault, Gauvin, Lantier, Lavigne, Madden, Martin, Pouliot, Verret (12).

The said amendment is declared lost, and the said report being put to the vote, is adopted on the same division, and it is resolved: That this Council authorizes His Worship the Mayor to sign with the Quebec and Lake St. John and the Canadian Northern Railway Companies a deed of agreement, limiting, for a period of ten years, from the 1st of May, 1912, to $1,500.00 the amount to be paid by them for all municipal taxes, saved water and school rates, on all the properties which the said companies hold nor or shall hold in the future in the limits of Limoilou ward as they actually exist, employed for purposes of the said railway, and also fixing to twenty-five cents for each thousand gallons of water from the Quebec water works, the water rate to be paid by the said Companies, according to measurement by hydrometers, all arrears of taxes for the said ward to be paid on the same basis. The said contract to be signed subject to be approved by the Legislature at its next session.

MOTIONS.

Moved by Ald. Dinan, seconded by Alderman Collier: That the Federal Government, having been several times notified by the City, through proper officials, to have removed the debris of the landslide of September, 1889, and having never given a satisfactory reply, it is hereby proposed that His Worship the Mayor be authorized to employ a civil engineer to make, in conjunction with the City Engineer, a report as to the necessity of removing the said debris. And the said motion being put to the vote, it is resolved: That the said motion be referred to the Road Committee.

Moved by Ald. Verret, seconded by Ald. Martin, and resolved: That the legal advisers of the City are hereby instructed to apply to the Commission of Public Utilities to obtain for the City permission to be heard in the case concerning the defective pipes of the Gas Company in the streets of the City of Quebec.

Moved by Ald. Cannon, seconded by Ald. Lavigne, and resolved: That this Council do now adjourn.

MUSIC BY WIRELESS.

Music by "wireless" is the latest electric wonder. The key of the transmitter is pressed and a piano begins to play—not mechanically, but with expression and loudly or softly, slowly or quickly, as the operator may wish.

This idea of controlling orchestral instruments by wireless waves was demonstrated recently at the Coliseum by the inventor, Raymond Phillips, and is really his way of illustrating his claim to have solved the problem of selective wireless control. Mr. Phillips had three pianos on the Coliseum stage, specially constructed to produce orchestral effects.

The pianos were each connected with another instrument called a selective wireless receiver. The receiver, in turn, was connected with a large battery, the whole comprising a wireless controlled orchestra.

Mr. Phillips' little audience of newspaper representatives was enabled to listen to some excellent music from the pianos, and at the public performances next week a vocalist will sing to a "wireless" accompaniment.

Mr. Phillips also showed the wireless controlled harmonophone, which comprises a case containing twelve tuned bells. These bells were played direct from the keyboard of the selective wireless transmitter.—London Daily News.

OYSTERS AND MACARONI.

Carefully look over and wash one pint of oysters. Cook three-quarters of a cupful of macaroni, broken in 1-inch pieces, in salted boiling water; drain. Put a layer of macaroni in a small baking dish, then a layer of oysters. Season and add a little butter; repeat and cover with buttered bread-crumbs. Add one-half cupful of milk and sprinkle a very little grated cheese on top. Bake in a hot oven about twenty minutes.

Cheaper Than Accidents

EVERY printer knows the endless waste and damage of a pied form. Costly hours of labor lost and other expensive delays that simply annihilate profits and boost costs to prohibitive limits. Besides, the manual labor of carrying forms up and down stairs costs big money for every minute you endure such a system.

A Shop that occupies more than one floor should have an Otis-Fensom Freight Elevator. The investment is small. A good freight elevator can be had for as little as $70. Most printing shops do not require an expensive outfit. You would willingly pay almost as much for a new press attachment or for a typewriter in the office. Yet nothing else will pay for itself so quickly.

Get "Freight Elevators and Their Uses." It explains how freight elevators can be used to save money in your business. It is worth having. Send for it now.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

ORPHANS WILL BE GIVEN CAR RIDE

Guests of Quebec Automobile Club Today—Will Display Flags on Drive.

The orphans of Quebec will enjoy their auto ride with the members of the Quebec Automobile Club to-day providing the weather is fine. The auto club members will give the children a ride through the city and around Cap Rouge. All members of the club are expected to send their cars to the Auditorium at 12.30 to report to the secretary, Mr. Beaupre. Owners of cars not belonging to the association are also invited to send their cars.

Those who have donated flags for the children in honor of the occasion, include the following:

Frank Carrel, W. J. B. Brunet, Aug. Piau, W. H. Lacuard, J. H. Fortier, J. M. Landry, C. Kirouac, members of the committee of the Quebec Automobile club who have bought 500 flags together with those received from the firms of Jos. Amyot & Co., P. J. Garneau and J. Brophy, of the Cambridge Book Store, will give every orphan a souvenir flag on their motor ride this afternoon.

NO ARENA ON Q.A.A.A. GROUNDS

Montreal Syndicate Buys Senator Choquette's Share and Will Build Residences.

Senator P. A. Choquette, who held a proprietary share in the Q. A. A. A. grounds, Grande Allee, has disposed of his interests to a Montreal syndicate.

The Senator, in answer to a query from the Chronicle, last night confirmed the news of the sale, and said that while he was not disposed to give out the amount for publication, said he had made a fair profit out of the transaction. He also said that the Montreal syndicate that made the purchase intended building a number of private residences on the property, which appears to put an end to the proposed building of an arena on the grounds.

PIERROT TROUPE CONCERT

FOR ST. BRIDGET'S HOME
The "pierrot Troupe" from the SS. Empress of Ireland will give a concert in aid of St. Bridget's Home at St. Patrick's Hall tomorrow evening. The programme will include songs by Messrs. Tunstall, Kennedy, Dawson, Grey, Laycock, Lewis and Jones in the first part, and character songs and sketches by members of the troupe in the second part.

SNOW AT HALESBOROUGH.

The first snowstorm of the season arrived in Halesborough on Sunday afternoon. The storm raged for two hours and was so bad that a harvest thanksgiving service which should have been held had to be postponed until next Sunday.

The old residents say that six weeks from now we can look for good sleighing—and also to expect a very severe winter.

MRS. PERCY G. COPEMAN.

The many friends of Mrs. Percy G. Copeman will be pained to hear of her death, which occurred yesterday at St. Pierre, Charlesbourg, after a short illness. Mrs. Copeman, who was but 30 years old, took a cold a little over a week ago, which developed into double pneumonia, and despite the efforts of the best medical skill the disease proved fatal. Her husband and four young children, three girls and a boy, her mother and three sisters and two brothers survive her, to whom sincere sympathy will be extended.

ALICE LLOYD FIXED THINGS

Former English Vaudeville Star Now Shines Effulgent in Musical Comedy.

It was Alice Lloyd all the way. Don't you know Alice Lloyd, that dainty, charming and delicious artist who almost set the music halls on fire in England, and then came to America and succeeded in starting a second near conflagration? Don't you remember Sweet Alice—no, not Ben Bolt, but you great public? Don't you remember that vivacious girl who, in sailor togs, sang about "Ship, ahoy," and about everybody who loved a sailor? Do you forget the invitation to "Splash Me," or the query "Who're You Gettin' at, eh?" Well, the same little Alice Lloyd—well, perhaps she's not so little as we used to know her, but she is still as bright as ever—appeared in a musical comedy last night called "Little Miss Fix-It." Miss Lloyd certainly fixed the comedy to please a large audience at the Auditorium, and she showed all her old-time charms. Miss Lloyd has had a comedy built around her, and it seems to suit her like a charm. Her audience did not seem to be so much concerned with the piece as they did their desire to see the adorable Alice. This popular lady is such a splendid entertainer that the audience could not get enough of her work. She danced and she sang, but it was in her old offerings, known almost the world over, that she won her greatest success. Miss Lloyd was called upon so many times to respond that she had the greatest difficulty in securing breath to answer all the demands. But Miss Lloyd is still Miss Lloyd, and the Miss Lloyd whom we know is as pleasing and entertaining as ever.

While Miss Lloyd is pretty nearly all the show, she has associated with her some extremely clever people. A comedian of splendid attainments is Lionel Walsh. He is one of the most finished that Quebec has seen in a long time, and his song, "My Word," was a real dream of how a song can be sung. James C. Lane is another artist of merit, and he also won much success. One of the prettiest numbers of the piece was "Excuse Me, Mr. Moon," which was sung in conjunction with Miss Lloyd by Victor Foster. The latter is no stranger to Quebec, and he made quite a hit with the star in addition to the moon. The piece is splendidly mounted, the company is a capable one in every respect, most of the musical numbers are of the kind that keep you tapping your toes in accompaniment and the whole production is one that cannot fail to appeal to modern theatre-goers.

But if "Miss Fix-It" lives, perhaps it would not be wrong to say that it is because that jolly Alice Lloyd is still at the zenith of her powers and her attractiveness. She is the main-spring of the show and her show-down is a great one.

PRETTY WEDDING.

At Chaudiere Curve a very pretty wedding took place on Monday morning at the Presbyterian Church, when Miss Alfreda Mary Sharpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sharpe, was united in marriage to Mr. Peter Walter E. Mullen, of Campbellton, N. B. The Rev. Mr. Wright, of Levis, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a silk white dress with a veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses, sweet peas and maiden-hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Maude E. Sharpe, was gown in cream silk with overlace, wearing a cream hat with willow plume. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Ida Ruthman, of Quebec. The groom was supported by Mr. Walter Ruthman, of Quebec. The church was tastefully decorated with palms and potted flowers. At the conclusion of the ceremony the young couple received the congratulations of their friends, after which all repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a bounteous repast was served. Those in attendance from out of town were: Rev. Mr. Wright, Miss Wright, of Levis; Miss Flora Goss and Miss Jenetta Smith, cousins of the bride; Campbellton, N. B.; Miss Ida and Alice Ruthman, Quebec; Mr. Albert Clint, Quebec; Mr. Tancred Asselin, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bentley, Quebec; Miss Boyce, Lennoxville, Que. The Chaudiere guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Caron and daughters and Mr. Harold Johnston. The wedding gifts were displayed upon a table in the drawing room and were very beautiful, including silver, cut glass and linen. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen left amid showers of confetti, rice and good wishes on the Maritime Express for Montreal, and on their return will reside in Campbellton, N. B. The bride travelled in Alice blue suit with a large heaver hat, trimmed with a large white willow plume.

CONSTABLE DOYLE

HAD BUSY TIME
There was quite a busy time for Constable Doyle, of No. 2 Station, last evening, when he had a run-in with two sailors who were creating a disturbance at the corner of Cote St. Genevieve and St. Eustache street. The constable, however, landed them in the station.

A.O.H. EXCURSION TO THE METROPOLIS

While Disappointed at Inclement Weather Were Much Pleased with Reception.

As announced yesterday, the demonstration in honor of the fever-stricken victims who are buried at Point St. Charles, had to be indefinitely postponed on account of the inclement weather. However, a large number of Hibernians and their friends took advantage of the occasion to visit Montreal, and while they were much disappointed on account of the outdoor demonstration having to be cancelled, still all have expressed themselves as delighted with the trip, in a general sense. The excursion train was in charge of Mr. James McKenna, the genial and popular C. P. R. travelling passenger agent, who was as usual most zealous and assiduous in his attention for the comfort of the excursionists.

The Hibernian Cadets marched in a body headed by their bugle band from St. Patrick's School to the depot, after paying their respects to the Rev. Rector and Fathers of St. Patrick's Church. They were accompanied to the depot by the rector and Rev. Bro. William, director of the school, and a large number of their friends. They also marched in a body from Place Viger to the St. Lawrence Hall with the members of the parent body and were joined by many Montrealers. They were lustily cheered along the route. Notwithstanding the heavy rain Sunday morning, they marched from St. Lawrence Hall to St. Ann Church to attend mass, and were welcomed by the rector, Rev. Father Daly, C. S. S. R., who complimented them on their neat and military appearance. After mass they repaired to St. Ann School and paid their respects to Rev. Bro. James, the former director of St. Patrick's, and were his guests for the remainder of the day. The Rev. Brother having made great preparations for their coming, giving them a sumptuous feast. The cadets were accompanied to Montreal by Rev. Brothers Memoriam and Stanislaus. They are in charge of the former named brother, who has been untiring in his efforts in their behalf, and is to be complimented in having established the present high state of discipline which exists within the ranks of the corps.

As also stated in yesterday's issue, there was a religious service at St. Patrick's Church, and in the afternoon, at the appointed hour, notwithstanding the heavy downpour of rain and snow, a delegation of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the A. O. H. and United Irish League drove to the cemetery and deposited a wreath of immortelles at the base of the stone.

In the evening at 8 o'clock the presentation to the Hon. Charles J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, and the other gentlemen took place at the Corona Hotel, followed by a banquet to a limited number of invited guests. The banquet was jointly presided over by Mr. T. M. Quigley, county president A. O. H., Montreal, and Dr. Kennedy, of St. Patrick's society. Some very eloquent and able speeches were delivered by Messrs. Foy and Sullivan, national officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians; Mayor Laval, mayor of Montreal; Dr. Guerin and others. Universal regret was expressed that the weather has interfered with the celebration, and special reference was made to the big delegation coming from Quebec, and all the speakers expressed their sorrow that the Quebecers had met with such keen disappointment.

Matters are already under consideration by the A. O. H. as to the appropriateness of holding a joint celebration next year both at Montreal and Grosse Ile on a large scale which would be participated in by visitors from the United States and Western Canada.

NEW YORK GIANTS'
RECRUIT PITCHERS

Enthusiasts Surprised with the Big String McGraw Has for Championship Games.

New York, Sept. 30.—Enthusiasts who are following the concluding work of the New York Giants before the world series are being surprised with the strength of McGraw's string of recruit pitchers. Such men as Demaree, Kirby, Goulet and Bader, all strange names in the Giants' line-up, have been tried out in the past few games since the pennant was assured, and helped to boost the Giants showing.

Bader, a youngster from Dallas, Texas, pitched a winning game against Philadelphia to-day although nine hits were made off him. None of these recruits are eligible for the big games next week, but the fact that they are winning games is pointed to by many fans as indicating strong men behind them. In the last five games the Giants have played it is strange that the only one lost was pitched by the so-called star of the team, Big Jeff Tesreau, against Boston on Saturday.

To-day's victory was the 101st for the Giants this season, one less than the string of Boston American victories to date. Predominance of earlier opinion that the Red Sox would be strong favorites in the world series is weakening, particularly here. Many of the "experts" say that the contenders are so evenly matched that a seven game series is not at all likely. The clear cool day, keeping the crowd at the Polo Grounds in a shivering state, led to much speculation as to world series weather. The heavy rains last week are believed to have emptied the clouds for some time to come, but chill winds, more in order for football than baseball, seemed from unofficial observation to be in prospect. It is recalled that last year the weather was so rainy during the big game season that it took 13 days to dispose of the six contests.

BRITISH LACROSSE TEAM WILL PLAY IN QUEBEC

Ottawa, Sept. 30.—Mr. Emmanuel Tasse, honorary president of the Capital Lacrosse Club, has received a letter from Harry Allingham, of London, Eng., confirming previous announcements as to the coming of a British lacrosse team next summer. They will go to Australia in the spring and play a series of games on their return in August at Vancouver, Winnipeg, Calgary, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec. Permission for the tour has been granted by the British Lacrosse Association, but they may only be allowed to play against amateur teams and not against professional clubs as has been expected.

PRESIDENT LYNCH
WILL MAKE ENQUIRY

New York, Sept. 30.—President Thomas J. Lynch, of the National League, purposes to have the board of directors of the league investigate the charges of Horace S. Fogel, president of the Philadelphia club, that favorable decisions by certain umpires were responsible for the New York club winning the pennant this year. Mr. Lynch says he cares nothing for Mr. Fogel's personal attack upon him, but that the imputation of dishonesty on the part of the umpires cannot be overlooked.

In a statement issued to-night, Mr. Lynch says: "As far as President Fogel's attack on the president of the National League is concerned I care nothing. My twenty-five years' record in baseball speaks for itself. The cowardly attack on the honesty of the umpires and the game itself is a different matter, however and cannot be overlooked. I shall take these charges of President Fogel before the board of directors of the National League, which has sole jurisdiction. Regardless of whether Mr. Fogel has financial interests in the Philadelphia club or not, he is the president of that organization and the charges made can only be handled by the league itself."

Bursting Tire Goes Thousand
Feet in the Air—Many Have Narrow Escapes.

Race Track, Wauwatosa, Wis., Sept. 30.—Practice began to-day for the Vanderbilt Cup, Fabs and Wisconsin and Grand Prix trophy automobile races, scheduled for Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday respectively.

It was a day of thrills. From the very outset, the larger cars began to average about 78 miles an hour, which surprised the thousands of spectators along the course.

Tetzlaff, in the Fiat car which he will drive in the Vanderbilt Cup race Wednesday, skirted a lap on the eight mile course in six minutes and 16 seconds, a little better than an 80-mile an hour average. He also drove several laps with his larger car of the same make, which he is to pilot in the International Grand Prix, but his time with this was slower.

A thrill was provided when Caleb Bragg, in the big car he will drive in the Grand Prix, came down the stretch at about a 90-mile an hour clip and threw off two years of a rear tire thread.

Tire Turns Balloon.

This shot perpendicularly in the air to a height of about 1000 feet and then returned almost to the identical spot where the machine was when the tire flew off. The rubber was so hot it could not be held in the bare hand. George Clark had a narrow escape when he skidded badly on the back stretch. Just as Tetzlaff was passing Clark, the car of Clark tried to right it, it rolled on two wheels for some distance, then plunged into the soft sand in the ditch. Clark finally righted the car without stopping and continued.

In making the next to his last lap, Tetzlaff was struck in the right lens of his goggles by a stone thrown up as he was passing another driver. Splinters of glass from the broken lens were driven into his eye, but he continued on to his pit without stopping. Several bits of glass were removed from his eye and he started off on another lap.

GUNBOAT SMITH WINS.

New York, Sept. 30.—Gunboat Smith, of California, knocked out Jim Savage, of Orange, N. J., in the third round of a scheduled ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden to-night. The knockout blow was a right uppercut on the jaw under the ear. The Californian had weighed in at 179, while the local man was nine pounds heavier.

Johnny Dundee fought a fast clean draw with Harry Thomas, the English featherweight, and Joe Thomas, of New Orleans, outpointed Jimmy Coffey, of New York, in another fast bout.

PHILADELPHIA CRICKETERS
DEFEAT THE AUSTRALIANS

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—By the narrow margin of two runs, the Gentlemen of Philadelphia to-day won the first of the series of international cricket matches being played in this country by the Australian eleven. The total score of the two innings of each team was: Philadelphia, 259; Australians, 257.

The match was ended amid much excitement, and J. B. King, of the Philadelphia team, a veteran bowler of international reputation, added more laurels to his career. With the score at 135 runs for nine wickets in their second innings, three more runs needed to win, and W. J. Whitty, no mean batsman at one of the wickets, King sent down a fast ball that completely beat the Australian and cleanly bowled him. Whitty's partner at

ALICE LLOYD BELIEVES IN OUTDOOR SPORT

Charming British Star Thinks
That Walking Is the Greatest of Them All.

"I was greatly charmed with my reception in your good old city tonight," said Alice Lloyd, the famous English comedienne, to a Chronicle reporter last evening after the show.

"Being English, you know, it was with great pleasure that I found so many of my fellow-countrymen and fellow-countrywomen to greet me—and how they did appreciate the old songs."

Miss Lloyd is a devotee of all kinds of out-door sports and is an enthusiast in such sports as golf, automobilism, horseback riding and motor boating. She holds the world's record for a woman in the last named sport by reason of having driven a 100-horsepower boat owned by W. J. Connors of Buffalo, N. Y., at a rate of 30 miles an hour on the Niagara River. But walking is alike a preventative and a cure for all ills with this charming Britisher.

"Electric cabs, trolleys and subways are great conveniences in this busy age, but sometimes I wonder if they are not too convenient for the man who uses only his brain and rides every time he has to go to two or three blocks, instead of deriving the benefit that is obtained from several short walks," said Miss Lloyd.

"To my mind, the three fundamental requisites of a sound mind and a healthy body are simple food, plenty of sleep and an abundance of exercise in the open air. There is no doubt that every one eats too much, while they go to the other extreme in the matter of sleep, particularly by those who work all day and then devote half of the night to the more exhausting pursuit of pleasure.

"It is, however, in the matter of exercise that the greatest mistake is made. I have tried riding, driving, rowing, tennis and swimming. All of them are excellent, but more beneficial than all, I think, is walking, in which everybody can indulge, the poor as well as the rich, although with the former it means going to and from his work, while with the latter it is more likely to be on the golf links.

"It is walking that really does one more good than all the doctors in the world; that prolongs life and makes life worth living."

UMPIRE HERMANN
HAS BEEN SUSPENDED.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 30.—President August Hermann, of the Cincinnati Baseball Club of the National League, announced to-day that he had received notice from President Thomas J. Lynch, of the National League, that he had suspended second baseman Egan, of the Cincinnati Club, for three days and Umpire Finneran for the rest of this season. This, it is said, was the result of Hermann's protest against Finneran ordering Egan from the field in the game in Chicago Friday.

BRADEN DIRECT IN WORLD RECORD TIME

Pacers at Grand Circuit at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 30.—World's record pacing by Braden Direct, owned by J. H. Elspass, of Denver, Colo., was done this afternoon at the opening of the second week of the Columbus Grand Circuit racing. He set the record for four-year-old pacers at 2:03 1/4 and followed that heat up with miles in 2:03 1/4 and 2:04.

Braden Direct was the title holder because of a 2:03 1/4 mile this season at Cleveland.

The race, the King Stake, was not won in straight heats. Don Pronto was first home in the first trip in 2:05 1/4. The judges held that no attempt had been made to win with Braden Direct, Brannan Baughman and Sadie Hal. Accordingly fine of one hundred dollars each were placed upon drivers Egan, Cox and Snow. Don Pronto had been backed off the boards for the heat. All bets were declared off.

Don Pronto tried hard for the second heat and was but half a length back of Braden Direct at the finish. The contending in the last two heats was passed over to Brannan Baughman. Before the third heat of the 2:18 pace, that was won finally by Carna G. Driver Bell was removed and C. Valentine placed behind Addition. A break ruined Carna G.'s chance and Addition won, also taking the fourth heat. In the fifth heat Carna G. paced all the way and beat Addition through the stretch.

Cheeny, like Braden Direct and Carna G., was a winning favorite.

The Texas mare had the easiest race of the programme, three heats in 2:08 1/4 giving her the Columbus Stake for 2:09 trotters. Jack London secured the place.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Public notice is hereby given that, under the Quebec Companies' Act, letters patent have been issued by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec, bearing date the fifth day of July, 1912, incorporating Messrs. Joseph Lucien Baribeau, merchant, Joseph E. Brassard, merchant, Gaudiose Guerard, notary, of Hebertville Station, Oswald A. Porritt, managing director and vice-president of the Cie de Puiepe de Jonquiere, Agessilas Lepage, merchant, residing at Saint Alphonse, and Joseph Gerard Verreault, notary, of Jonquiere, for the following purposes:

The company may, under the authority of a resolution adopted by the common shareholders, at any general annual meeting, or at any general special meeting duly convened to deliberate on such, at which meeting shall be present or represented by proxy the shareholders representing at least the one half in value of the subscribed capital stock of the company, issue any portion whatever of its capital stock not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, as preferred stock shall, in regard to the dividends and in all other respects, have over the common shares the privileges and priority set forth in the resolution;

The holders of such preferred stock shall be shareholders under the terms of this act and shall be vested in all respects with the same rights and subject to the same obligations as the shareholders under the terms of this act;

The directors may issue as paid up stock, shares of the capital stock of the company in payment for the whole or part of the business, franchises, undertakings, property, waterpowers, rights, powers, privileges, letters patent, contracts, immovables, stock, assets and other property of any person, company or municipal corporation the company may lawfully acquire under the present act, and they allot and deliver such shares to any person, company or corporation or to its shareholders and issue as fully paid up a non assessable stock, shares of the capital stock of the company, and allot and deliver same in payment, for rights of way, land, rights, materials, property, patents of invention, rolling stock or materials of any kind, or for services rendered to the company, and all such issues and allotments shall bind the company and the said shares shall not be subject to call and the holders thereof shall thereby incur no responsibility, and the company may for any property or for any similar services rendered to it, pay for same, in whole or in part, with paid up shares or in whole or in part with bonds, according as the directors may deem advisable;

The directors may also attribute and issue such paid up shares or bonds in payment for the "bona fide" claims of the contractors and engineers or other persons having claims against the company for services rendered or work done;

The company may within the counties of Lake St. John and Chicoutimi purchase or otherwise acquire, transmit, distribute and dispose in any manner whatsoever of gas, electricity or any other source of power, heat or light, and may also manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, lease or otherwise alienate any kind of apparatus and articles employed in such industries, and may dispose of and manufacture any by-products derived from their manufacture;

The company may within the same places, purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any immovables, water power, rights to make use of such water powers, canals or any other property that may be necessary or useful in the pursuit of its undertaking, and may construct, purchase or lease all the buildings, apparatus, materials and machinery it may deem advisable to have or to employ for its business, and it may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of same, in whole or in part, as may be deemed fit;

The company may, within the same places, acquire, lease, erect, construct and maintain the canals, dams, mill-races, pipes, wharves, rights of way and any other works that may be necessary or useful in the pursuit of its undertaking, and it may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of same, in whole or in part, as it may deem advisable. The company may, within the same places, acquire, lease and operate the workshops or undertakings, in whole or in part, of any person or corporation carrying on or authorized to carry on any business in connection with the purposes of this company, and may acquire and hold the shares and bonds of any corporation having the power to carry on any business of a similar nature;

The company may transfer to its representatives the necessary shares to qualify them as directors of any other companies, of which it may hold the stock, and, if otherwise qualified, such representatives shall thereby be eligible as such directors;

The company may exercise the franchises and the rights conferred by the charter of any company having analogous powers to those granted by this act, within the territorial limits assigned to it and of which it may acquire the business or undertaking by location or purchase;

The company may create, develop, acquire, hold, employ and operate hydraulic powers within the counties of Lake St. John and Chicoutimi, and construct, develop, maintain and operate workshops, canals, mill-races, dams, wharves, booms, piers sluices, conduits and structures concurrently with the said canal and the said hydraulic powers;

To manufacture and sell water power and electric energy, and dispose of, distribute and transmit same by means of pipes, conduits, wires, cables, lines of posts or other apparatus through or to any place in the counties of Lake St. John and Chicoutimi, with the consent of the municipal councils of the different municipalities within the limits of the counties in regard to the territory under their respective control;

To purchase or otherwise acquire or hold the whole or part of the business, property, assets and liabilities of any person or company carrying on a similar kind of business to that which the company is authorized to carry on and owning property conducive to the attainment of the purposes of the company, and such within the counties of Lake St. John and Chicoutimi;

To purchase, sell, lease or exchange any immovable property, rights or privileges that the company may deem necessary or useful in the attainment of its objects;

To sell, convey and alienate the franchises and some or the whole of the rights, privileges and powers conferred or held by the company under its charter as well as its undertakings or any part thereof, to any incorporated company or companies with objects in whole or in part similar to those of the company or companies with objects in whole or in part similar to those of the company, for such price and consideration and on the terms and conditions it may deem desirable and especially for the preferred or ordinary shares, bonds, debentures or other securities of such company, and generally to do all such things in connection with the carrying out of the objects of the company;

To hold, subscribe and pay for the shares, become shareholders, hold or purchase the debentures of one or more incorporated companies;

To appoint an attorney or representatives to assist and note for and in the name of the company, at the meetings of such companies of which it may hold or acquire the shares, bonds or other securities, provided that such attorney or representative be himself a shareholder of such companies, under the name of "La Compagnie Hydraulique du Lac Saint-Jean, Limitee," with a capital of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000.00), divided into twenty thousand (20,000) shares of ten dollars ($10.00) each.

The chief place of the business of the corporation will be at Hebertville Station.

DIZZINESS ANOTHER SYMPTOM OF EYESTRAIN.
To the lay mind it may be difficult to understand how dizziness can be induced by the eyes, yet many cases of vertigo are due to nothing more or less than eyestrain. If your system is in good order, your dizzy spells are undoubtedly caused by the strained condition of your eyes. The right glasses will correct this defect in your vision and you will never be troubled with dizziness from this source again. We make glasses for this purpose at satisfactory prices.

"AUGUST WEATHER" IS RULING IN MANITOBA
Portage La Prairie, Man., Sept. 30.—Magnificent August weather prevails and threshing is progressing rapidly. The wheat yield is running from 25 to 35 bushels per acre. Some yields of from 35 to 50 bushels are shown by the threshers who counted that fully 50 per cent will grade No. 2 and the balance No. 3 northern. Threshing will practically be completed this week if present weather conditions continue.

HARRIMAN LETTERS TO ROOSEVELT ARE OF LITTLE WORTH

Voluminous Correspondence Has Small Bearing on Matter of Campaign Contributions.

Washington, September 30.—All of the correspondence between President Roosevelt and the late Edward H. Harriman, covering the period from Mr. Roosevelt's accession to the office in 1901 until Mr. Harriman's differences with him in 1906, was placed in evidence to-day before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures.
Letters Give Little Light.
Out of the scores of letters, covering every subject from exhibits of Indian pictures to the appointment of Federal judges and territorial governors in Arizona, the Senate committee was able to secure little new light bearing upon the subject of campaign contributions, or the disputed question of whether or not President Roosevelt had specifically asked Mr. Harriman in 1904 to raise a fund of $240,000 for the aid of his campaign.

C. C. Tegetoff, now agent for the Harriman estate, and former private secretary to Mr. Harriman, and Chas. A. Peabody, President of the Mutual Life Insurance Company and personal attorney for Mrs. Harriman in the administration of the estate, both testified that Mr. Harriman had told them that the raising of the big campaign fund had been undertaken at President Roosevelt's request, a statement which Mr. Harriman made before his death, but which was denied by President Roosevelt.

Aside from the file of letters given the committee, no documentary evidence was offered, however, and out of the many letters, none was produced except that written by Mr. Harriman to Sidney Webster, Jan. 2, 1904, that in any way bore upon the charge that President Roosevelt had asked the railroad man to raise funds.

Asked Harriman's Aid.
The Webster letter, made public by Mr. Harriman himself during the controversy with President Roosevelt over the fund, intimated that Mr. Harriman had been asked by the President to raise the fund; and that it had been the understanding among financial men to whom he appealed that Senator Dewey was to be given the ambassadorship to France.
Earlier in the day, when the committee opened its hearings, Cornelius N. Bliss, jr., produced three letters which he claimed were the only ones bearing on campaign matters that had been left by his father, who was treasurer of the Republican National Committee in 1904. He admitted he had destroyed many of his father's letters, but said they were not connected with campaign affairs.

Nothing On Archbold Charges.
None of the three letters touched upon the facts alleged by John D. Archbold that Mr. Bliss had assured him President Roosevelt would welcome a contribution of $100,000 from the Standard Oil Company. The one bearing directly on campaign contributions was a vigorous defence of Mr. Bliss' integrity, written by President Roosevelt in 1906, in which the President asserted that no one had asked him for favors because of contributions to his campaign fund; and that no one had been favored or discriminated against because of their contributions, or their opposition to him.
The receipt given Mr. Harriman for his personal contribution of $50,000 was produced by Mr. Tegetoff, but he said he did not know what other men had contributed to the so-called Harriman fund. The checks passed through his hands, he said, but he had no way of identifying them.

LOSS TO POTATO CROP BY CONTINUED RAINS
Toronto, Sept. 30.—Reports received from district representatives by the Ontario Department of Agriculture estimate that at least 10 per cent of the potato crop will be lost because of the continued heavy rains. Oats are still largely uncut, buckwheat is practically untouched, and fall seeding is very backward.

TORONTO CUSTOMS RECEIPTS
Toronto, Sept. 30.—Customs receipts for the port of Toronto for September reached $1,660,000. In September, 1911, the receipts totalled only $1,293,000, so that the increase is over $360,000. For the first half of the fiscal year the collections totalled $9,937,590, as compared with $7,231,421 for the same period a year ago.

BY-ELECTIONS IN TORONTO.
Toronto, Sept. 30.—Writs will be issued to-morrow for provincial by-elections in East Middlesex and North Waterloo. Nominations will be held on Oct. 21, with polling on Nov. 28. The first named vacancy was created by the death of R. A. Sutherland, the Liberal member, while in North Waterloo, Dr. Lacker, the Conservative member, has resigned to accept the appointment as sheriff of the county.

The Old Nameless Woven Wire Mattress
The Banner Spiral Spring for health and Comfort
In What Position Does Your Backbone Spend the Night?
If you sleep on a sagging woven-wire spring, your backbone is curved like a sagging chain. This cramps blood-vessels and nerves. Is it any wonder you feel "played-out" in the morning? You will realize what real bed-comfort is after you have bought a Banner Spiral Spring.
On the "Banner" your body isn't swung, hammock-like, it is supported evenly, comfortably, healthfully. The hundred coiled springs "give" when they are pressed—enough to be buoyant, restful—but they come back instantly when the pressure is removed. The "Banner" keeps your backbone straight—no matter whether you lie on side, back or stomach—keeps the nerves and blood-vessels free from strain or pressure. Promotes healthful circulation of the blood, and therefore, sound, refreshing sleep, and the "Banner" is guaranteed to retain these qualities for a lifetime. Not an expensive spring—costs little more than the old, woven-wire kind.
Your dealer should be able to show you the Banner Spring. If he cannot, write us.

HOW TO MAKE WORK EASIER
Mother, the homemaker, the real head of the house, has not an enviable position, and everything that can make her work easier, more satisfactory and comfortable should be done in the home. She in all probability will protest and deny the cost of the conveniences that should be installed, but here is the place to insist on your own way.
Housework need not be another name for drudgery. It can be made readily enjoyable and decidedly easier than it is in the majority of homes. This is a philippic against the unnecessary, back-breaking work that mother seems to shoulder, generally uncomplainingly.
Since mother is a very important worker in the world she should be given advantage of every invention, convenience and aid. Her tools should be bought from the general fund and paid for with much more philosophy than the doctor's bill. And just here let it be suggested that if mother's work be made easy her health will be improved.
Take the matter of dishwashing. In the first place, sinks and tables are generally too low. We don't know why. In one home the sink was raised to a convenient height. But this cost more than the high stool suggested here. It allows mother to rest while working, eliminating all strain on the back muscles and resting the tired feet. While washing she need only use her arms. Doesn't that sound sensible? Well, buy the stool, then notice the results.

Drying Rack For Dishes.
After the dishes are washed the method used in all up-to-date restaurants should be followed. The soapy water has done the work of thoroughly cleaning the dishes. They should be placed in a wire rack on the grooved drip board. Hot water should be poured over them and no wiping will be required, for the air will dry them in a few minutes. Try it.
When mother wishes to hunt for a recipe of your favorite cake, let her have a filing cabinet to consult. Oh, of course, she can hunt through two or three books for it; business offices also can consult books, but they do not do it. They have found the card system more convenient.
Mother can clip recipes from papers and magazines, paste them on cards and add to her collection. System is a keynote of success in housework as decidedly as in other kinds of business. If you cannot buy a cabinet, make one of a large box with box drawers.
Add convenient handles and place a frame with a card at the top on which the subject matter can be written. Cards can be bought for as low as 10 cents a hundred. There really is no excuse.
If you have bare floors that should be dusted, wiped or oiled, provide bags for the brooms.
Dustless Dustcloth.
Let us tell you how to make your own dustless dustcloth. Coarse cheesecloth is dipped in kerosene, and the oil is allowed to evaporate. This can be done for the broom when cleaning the floors. No more backaches from the hand-and-knee cleaning, because an easy expedient has been given and taken.
The endless trips from the kitchen to the dining room are a great source of weariness. When you consider how many times dishes, clean, filled or dirty, are carried to and fro you will be surprised at the miles that mother walks every week. The wheel-table is the thing that will make things easier.
On this all dishes are placed and only one trip is necessary. The food can be brought in in one trip, and used dishes can be piled on during the meal and all removed at the same time.
Making a Wheel-Table.
If the price of a wheel-table is too high, let the men of the home make one. Some have but two wheels, attached to the front legs that have been shortened. Others have four small ones. Old wheels of a velocipede (rubber tires are necessary) will serve very well on this labor saver.

Mother's memory can be relieved greatly if she has a small blackboard hung in the kitchen. On this she can write the articles needed from the order man. She can give explicit directions to quantities, etc., and the order man can copy from this. It saves time for both, especially if mother is upstairs or out of the house.
There is joy for mother in a brush collection that is too important to neglect. Have the long-handled mop for washing the outside of first-floor windows.
A shorter one with an oblong, brush arrangement, is also for cleaning windows. This enables the top to be cleaned without stretching up in the exhausting work. If you have never cleaned windows, take a day off and prove to yourself how tired you can be.
The soft-pointed brush is for cleaning carved wood, reaching crevices and chasing dust and dirt.
For greasing cake tins, the soft pastry brush is excellent. Melted butter, lard, etc., can be applied quickly and easily.
Cut glass is cleaned with the stiff hand scrub, and other mops and brushes found in the household furnishing department will complete a necessary part of mother's kitchen.
There is great satisfaction in a well-equipped, up-to-date workroom. Since mother's work embraces all rooms of the home, there should be special attention given to make things easy and enjoyable for her. Servants are demanding these conveniences. Mother is too patient—and too busy—to ask for them. It's your place to supply them!
PACKAGE OF RADIUM MAKES HEAP OF BOTHER.
Dr. Howard A. Kelly's private secretary is hoping that the doctor will come back to Baltimore immediately, even if he has to cut short his vacation. She has about $5000 worth of radium waiting for him and does not like to leave it, even when she locks it in a safe.
The radium arrived on the steamship Ulstermore from Glasgow, Scotland, and it is understood that the consignment will be used in experimental work at John Hopkins Hospital, under Dr. Kelly's direction. As radium was last quoted at $75,000 a gramme, it is believed that the package contained about one-fifteenth of a gramme of the precious article. It is said to be worth four hundred times its weight in diamonds.
Excitement prevailed aboard the Ulstermore when the package was received at Glasgow from J. W. Wheatley & Co., having been despatched to the ship by special messenger. Captain Gowan was solicitous about the safety of the package and ordered the purser to place it in his private safe. The purser had to give a personal receipt for the consignment.
The package, seven inches long, four inches wide and one and a half inches thick, arrived in good shape in Baltimore and was taken before the customs appraisers. The package weighed just about one pound. This was due to the fact that metal was used as a container.
Dr. Kelly arranged with the selling agents to have the package delivered to Mr. Arthur W. Robson, the Baltimore steamship agent and broker, but before the package was turned over to Mr. Robson the customs officials placed seals upon it. Mr. Robson will be protected from loss if Dr. Kelly finds that "short weight" was given when he breaks the Government seals.
There is no tariff now upon radium imported into this country, which makes it easier for American medical men to use it in experimental work than heretofore when the tax was heavy. It has been employed at John Hopkins Hospital in the treatment of cancerous growths, moles and for similar purposes for about three years. A piece as large as a pinhead is valued at about $1000, so the rays are merely cast upon the diseased portion, the radium not coming in actual contact with the patient. Physicians find that it does not deteriorate with age.
Dr. Kelly is now in camp on the Magnetawan River, Can., 178 miles north of Buffalo, and is not expected to return before the latter part of next month. Meanwhile one of his assistants, Dr. Curtis F. Burnham, is helping to guard the importation.

BARS ARE RUIN OF YOUNG MEN

Recorder Dery So Said at the Meeting of the License Commissioners Yesterday.

Honorable Judges Carroll, Cross and Tessier, members of the new License Commission, appointed by the Provincial Government to inquire and study into the sale of liquor throughout the Province and suggest amendments to the present license law, held a session at the Quebec Court House yesterday.

Mr. Justice Carroll presided and there were quite a large number of interested parties present who took an active part for and against the cause of temperance.

Provincial Comptroller A. Brosnan, Secretary of the Commission, read a letter addressed to the Commission in favor of the cause of temperance from the well known champion of the cause, Rev. Canon Sylvain, of Rimouski.

Recorder Dery followed with a strong denunciation of the abuses of intoxicating liquor, and in scathing language condemned the sale. He illustrated the manner in which the hotelkeeper secured his license by the presentation of a petition on which was written the names of 25 municipal electors, and suggested that the petition should come from the majority of the electors in the ward where the petitioner intended to carry on business. He also advocated that should there be good grounds for the cancellation of a license, it should be done at once instead of waiting until the expiration of the year to do so, and furthermore each hotelkeeper should be obliged to have a petition for renewal of his license signed every year.

Opposed To Bars.
"I am opposed to bars," said Judge Dery, "because they are the ruin of our young men."

"Why do we see hotelkeepers establishing their business stands near factories and markets. It is to set their traps, and the thing must be done away with. Bars are the cause of all disorders."

"Besides there is not one genuine restaurant out of every ten. They are simply saloons where liquor is sold."

"The man granted a license should be obliged to deposit security, and besides he should furnish two bondsmen, which would cause the bondsmen to take an interest in the way the place was conducted."

Referring to places kept by women, Judge Dery said: "When it is found that liquor had been sold in such places, the proprietors should be imprisoned without option of fine. He was told that they even charged as high as twenty-five cents for a glass of ale. He had just learned this by hearsay, for he had never had the misfortune to put his foot into one of those houses."

Mr. L. A. Cannon, K.C., who was present to represent the National Breweries Limited, announced that he would present a memo on behalf of his clients at the next meeting of the Commission.

Serving of Meals.

Mr. Joseph Turcotte contended that the law respecting the serving of meals in restaurants should be made more explicit, and the sale of liquor in houses kept by women should be stopped.

Mr. David Ouellet, of Montcalmville, said that it was the hotelkeeper who sold liquor who should be punished and not the drunkard. It was forty-eight years, he said, since he had gone into a barroom, for he realized that such places were only a plague. Whenever he happened in a hotel and felt sick, he had had liquor brought to his room, not wishing to degrade himself by standing up to a bar.

The Law Mocked.

Hon. Judge Lemieux, Chief Justice of the Superior Court, and President of the Quebec Anti-Alcoholic League, complimented the Government on the composition of the Quebec License Commission. He considered that the Commission had a very important work to do, and they could not be expected to make a thorough study of the question and to submit a complete report before fifteen or eighteen months. He referred to Sir Lomer Gouin as a friend of temperance, and quoted the Prime Minister as saying that he wanted a temperance law and not a revenue law. He spoke of the results of the temperance agitation and pointed out that in the city of Quebec it had resulted in the reduction of the number of licenses from 125 to 60. He considered that infractions of the license law should be heavily fined, and not dismissed with the fines which are now imposed.

Speaking of a recent case in which a number of women were arraigned on the charge of selling liquor without a license, he said that their light condemnation was a parody of justice, a mockery of law, and a scandal. In his closing remarks Judge Lemieux said that temperance workers now numbered a quarter of a million in the Province of Quebec and that they would help the commissioners to make the law as perfect as possible, and that they would see that the law was put into force and carried out in its every letter.

After Recess.

After recess Cure Lagueux delivered a powerful address against the abuse of liquor, and the moral effect of suggestions for amendments to the present license act.

Dr. Dorian, of the Action Sociale, spoke in the same strain, while Mr. L. Bertin, Secretary of the Quebec Victuallers' Association, defended the principles of the licensed liquor dealers.

RENOMINATION OF GOVERNOR DIX

Democrats of New York Find a Sharply Drawn Division in the State.

Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 30.—The night before the Democratic state convention found a sharply drawn issue over the re-nomination of Governor Dix. All day long the opponents of the Governor massed their forces around the headquarters of Leader Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall, to urge him to withdraw his support from the Governor. When night came they claimed to have won a victory. They asserted that the Governor would not be re-nominated and that the availability of other candidates was being considered. Justice Victor J. Downing, of New York, and Congressman William Sulzer were said to be the leading candidates in opposition to Governor Dix. Others talked of were Martin H. Glynn, of Albany, who is to preside as temporary chairman of the convention; John Purroy Mitchell, President of the Board of Aldermen of New York; Supreme Court Justice James W. Gerard; Surgeon Robert L. Fowler, of New York; Lieut.-Governor Thos. F. Conway; Mayor John J. Irving, of Binghamton, and Thos. B. Lockwood, and Senator Geo. B. Burd, of Buffalo.

The forces fighting for Governor Dix's re-nomination were no less active to-night than those making the struggle against him. Leaders of the Dix movement went among the arriving delegates and urged their support of the Governor. Governor Dix heartened his followers here late today when he sent a telephone message from the State Capitol declaring unqualifiedly that his name would go before the convention and that he would not withdraw from the race for either friend or foe.

United States Senator O'Gorman had little to say on the situation other than to remark that Justice Downing would make an excellent candidate. Mr. Murphy remarked significantly this evening that the convention would undoubtedly have many candidates for the Governorship.

Nominations for the State ticket are not expected until Thursday and Mr. Murphy has let it become known to his friends that he thinks plenty of time should be taken to consider the situation.

A progressive platform intended to go at least as far as that on which the other parties base their campaigns, was discussed to-night in preparation for the organization of the committee on resolutions after the first session to-morrow of the Democratic State convention. One of its features, the suffragists say, will be a plank similar to that adopted at the Republican convention last week, providing for the submission of the question of "votes for women" to the people of 1915, unless it is taken up previously by a constitutional convention.

The platform builders face a delicate task in writing their reference to the administration of Governor Dix. The Governor's friends declared to-night that if the convention adopted a platform endorsing Dix's administration it could not consistently refuse to renominate him. At the same time it was said that a plank praising the Democratic administration of the past two years for its business efficiency and economy and the fulfillment of its pledges already had been drafted.

Balkan Troubles May Lead to a War.

whether the great powers will be able to bring sufficient pressure to bear to prevent the outbreak of hostilities and preserve the status quo in the Balkans. To-day's developments appear fully to confirm the existence of a military understanding between Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Montenegro directed against Turkey.

The approach of winter is held to be a factor in favor of peace, and in the European capitals the hope is still cherished in diplomatic quarters that the efforts of the powers will be successful. The Russian and British representatives at Constantinople are energetically urging upon the Porte the necessity of carrying into execution the promised reforms in Macedonia and are applying pressure to induce Turkey to modify her provocative military preparations in the Adriatic district.

MOBILIZATION MAY MEAN AN IMMEDIATE WAR.

Belief in Russian Diplomatic Circles That Hostilities Are On Verge of Breaking Out.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—The mobilization of the armies of Bulgaria, Serbia and Greece will probably mean immediate war, according to the belief held in political circles here. The nature of Turkey's military activity the last few days is taken to mean that she intends to make war; in that case the Balkan condition has naturally forestalled her in her endeavor to profit by the rapid concentration of troops.

The opinion is held here that the action of the Balkan states has resulted from the inability of the powers to deal with the situation. The conversations which the Russian Foreign Minister M. Sazonoff has had in London apparently have been barren. It is understood that Russia has taken an adequate view of the crisis in the Balkans and has proposed the radical remedy of putting into effect article 23 of the treaty of Berlin, providing for the introduction in the European provinces of Turkey a statute giving a measure of self-government under a provincial governor-general controlled by the powers.

Want Decision of Powers.

Russia's proposal was communicated to Turkey by M. De Giers, the ambassador to Austria-Hungary. Great Britain showed herself willing to talk reforms in Macedonia in a general way without committing herself to anything definite. France's answer is due to-morrow and her attitude is expected to be still more conservative, being dictated mainly by consideration of finance.

More was expected of Great Britain, where for years sympathetic interest was accorded the Macedonian cause. The principal task of the powers, in case hostilities actually break out would be to localize their scope, as Italy was forced to localize her's to a limited area. The immediate danger depends upon the possible action of Roumania, instigated by Austria-Hungary. It is worth noting that the King of Roumania was to-day named as a field marshal of the Russian army, an honor now held only by King Nicholas of Montenegro.

Mrs. Szabo Strangled Says the Doctor

O'Reilly said. "His analysis shows that death could have been due to any of half a dozen or more causes, including heart disease, acute indigestion, uremia or drowning. It fits in beautifully with the defence."

Daniel Dewitt, a negro boatman at Greenwood Lake, in whose waters Mrs. Szabo died July 16 last, testified that he saw her boating with Gibson a few minutes before she died and that she was leaning over the side of the boat, gazing into the water. John Minturn, a Greenwood Lake storekeeper, testified that Gibson and his companion were exchanging places at the moment the boat tipped over. He declared that he saw the boat rock and capsize, the brief struggle in the water, the re-appearance of the man above the surface and his clinging desperately to the craft as it drifted away.

William K. Rempl of Rutherford, N.J., was 500 feet away in his motor boat when the boat capsized. He heard Gibson yell and soon was beside him.

"Look Out for Lady," Said Gibson.

"Don't mind me; there is a lady there—look for her," he says Gibson shouted as he neared the capsized craft. Rumpf pulled Gibson aboard his boat and threw a coat over his shoulders, for the lawyer had lost his shirt during the struggle in the water. The motor boat lay still for ten minutes while her crew of three scanned the water for Gibson's companion. Gibson all this time was ill of nausea.

Albert McDaniel, whose rowboat Gibson hired for the outing, declared that Mrs. Szabo wanted to take to the water in a canoe, but that he told her it probably would upset. Gibson, he added, persuaded Mrs. Szabo to abandon the whim for a canoe and take a safer boat.

After the adjournment District Attorney Rogers said:

"It all depends upon Dr. Schultze. Of course our case has depended almost entirely on him all along. The other witnesses proved the fact of death, and that was about all we expected them to prove. We may end our case tomorrow with Dr. Schultze's testimony."

Gibson said he expected to be held for the grand jury, but was confident that he would win his freedom on a trial. His wife sat beside him during the session today and laughed and chatted with him and his lawyers as the case progressed.

"Everybody who testified today told the truth," Gibson said, "but Dr. Schultze was in error in his conclusions."

SNOW IN MAINE

LOSS TO FARMERS

Presque Isle, Me., Sept. 30.—A snowstorm early today, the first of the season, caused heavy loss to farmers in this section. Fruit and shade trees were broken by the weight of the snow and standing grain damaged. Telephone wires were broken in many places.

One pound of cooked fish, one cupful of rice, one tablespoonful of butter, two eggs, pepper and salt. Cut the fish in small pieces. Wash the rice well and then cook it in boiling water with a little salt, let it boil for twenty minutes, drain it dry, and let it steam with a lid closely shut for ten minutes without stirring. Boil the eggs hard, take off the shells and chop up the eggs finely. Put into a clean saucepan the fish, rice, chopped eggs, butter, pepper and salt to taste. Stir all over the fire with a fork until very hot.

Cook one pint of gooseberries, mash and strain; add two well-beaten eggs and sugar to taste. Scoop out the center of a mold of vanilla ice cream, fill with the gooseberries, return to the mold, pack in ice and salt till ready to serve.

CONSERVATIVE SPLIT SAYS SIR WILFRID

Liberal Leader Says Government Is Torn by Dissensions. New Election Only Remedy.

Cornwall, Ont., Sept. 30.—In the Victoria Skating Rink to-night, before an audience of some 2000 people gathered from Stormont and contiguous ridings, Sir Wilfrid Laurier inaugurated his Central Ontario campaign by a speech in which he claimed the Conservative party is torn by dissensions which prevent its coming to an effective policy without the navy or any other of the burning questions now confronting the Canadian people. He claimed that the only solution of the present situation is a new election, and he concluded his address with what he said would be the motto of their campaign, "Please don't cry, don't whine, don't despair, but prepare at once for a new fight."

Hon. Sidney Fisher, late Minister of Agriculture, contrasted records of the two parties and rehearsed the arguments familiar in the last election to the effect that the Conservatives had made different appeals for election in the provinces of Quebec and Ontario.

Sir Wilfrid, after the usual preliminary humorous references to last year's defeat, exclaimed:

"I ask you, my Conservative friends, what has been done by the present government during the last twelve months. It would sit very lightly on the two wings of a sparrow and not add so much as a feather's weight to its small body. What has been done is not visible to the naked eye."

Wrangle Over Naval Policy.

"The reason is that since the moment they got into office they have been wrangling among themselves over a naval policy. They have not been idle. They have been sitting at the council board ever since they came in, to find out if it were possible to get together on some naval policy. Up to the present time they have not been able to come together, and I do not think that they ever will be able."

Sir Wilfrid proceeded to say that his opponents could not come to a united policy because sitting at the same table were fifteen ministers of the cabinet who claimed that the Conservative party had sown the present dissensions by attempting the task during the last election of appealing to the Nationalists in Quebec on one propaganda and to the Liberals of Ontario on another. They got into power by appealing to conflicting passions. They sowed the wind and were now reaping the whirlwind.

Canada Must Have Navy.

Sir Wilfrid said that Canada, as a young nation, shared with other nations the necessity of defending its territory. He referred to the unprotected nature of the Atlantic and Pacific coasts in Canada, and said the time had arrived to meet the problem. He said in 1902, while he was in England, it had been represented to him that Canada was doing nothing for defence, and he had offered then that Canada should take charge of the defences at Esquimaux and Halifax. He had also said that as soon as Canada increased to such an extent in population and resources as to make it possible, they would get a navy of their own. In 1909 a resolution was agreed to by all the members of parliament, even including Mr. Monk, to the effect that such a navy should be constructed, but later the Conservatives divided on the question, one branch saying the navy should pass into Great Britain's control automatically in case of war, and another that Canada should not have any navy or fight for England under and circumstances.

Canadian Navy of Canadians.

The Liberal naval policy was for a navy built in Canada for Canada, manned in Canada and under all circumstances under the control of the government and parliament of Canada. If England were in danger, or even on trial, he knew all Canadians would insist on the navy going to her assistance, but "we are all Canadians, first, last and all the time," said he.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

The Toronto Paper Mfg. Company, Limited, was established in 1882 at Cornwall, Ont. The plant, consisting of twenty-one buildings, is located on the St. Lawrence River and the Cornwall Canal, with unusually favorable water and rail shipping facilities. It gives employment to from 175 to 200 hands and is operated day and night. The present average output is about 40,000 pounds of high-grade linen, book, bond and lithographing paper a day.

ASSETS AND EARNINGS

Depreciated appraised value of plant.....$645,000.00

(Made by Canadian Appraisal Company, Limited)

Surplus of liquid assets over liabilities....200,000.00

Net earnings, year ended April, 1911.....$845,000.00

Net earnings, year ended April, 1912.....85,000.00

(In addition to these earnings, special reserves of $19,000 were created)

Net earnings, year ending April, 1913 (estimated)....100,000.00

(July and August earnings were 25 per cent. in excess of this estimate)

These net earnings are after deducting all expenses, interest charges, repairs and replacements.

FEATURES OF THE ISSUE

In recommending these bonds as combining all the points essential to a high-grade investment, we desire to call attention to the following features of the issue:

Estimated earnings for the current year are three and one-third times the bond interest.

A sinking fund which will become operative in 1915 is calculated to retire the bonds before maturity.

Additional bonds can only be issued up to 66 2/3 per cent. of the amount required for extensions or enlargements.

Improvements and additions to the plant, already planned, should materially increase the output and add to the earnings.

Application will be made to list the bonds on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Additional particulars will be furnished on request

The total issue is $500,000, and, in addition to the bonds, there is outstanding $750,000 in common stock.

The depreciated appraised value of the plant is $645,000, with surplus of liquid assets over liabilities of $200,000. The net earnings for the year on 1st April 1913, are estimated at $100,000, which is 3 1/3 times the bond interest requirements. As a matter of fact, it is understood that the earnings for the months of July and August of the current year were 25 per cent in excess of this estimate.

The Toronto Paper Mfg. Company is one of the oldest and one of the best known makers of high grade linen, bond, book and lithograph papers in Canada. The plant at Cornwall consists of 21 buildings. The directors of the company are G. P. Grant, President Dominion Bond Company, Limited; T. H. Watson, Vice-President Spanish River Pulp & Paper Mills, Limited; the Rev. TENDER FOR WIRELESS MAST.

SEALED TENDERS addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Tender for the Erection of one Wireless Telegraph Mast at Father Point, P.Q." will be received at this office until noon on October 10th, 1912.

Plans, Specifications, and Form of Contract to be entered into, can be seen on and after the 28th September, at the office of the General Superintendent of Wireless Service, Department of Naval Service, Ottawa, or at the Wireless Telegraph Station at Father Point, P.Q., or at the office of the Agent of the Marine and Fisheries Department, Quebec, Que.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed form supplied, and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the nature of the occupation, and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honorable the Minister of the Naval Service, equal to ten per cent (10 p.c.) of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the person tendering declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the contract. If the tender is not accepted the cheque will be returned.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order,
G. J. DESBARATS,
Deputy Minister.

Toronto Man Cured of Intolerable Itch

By Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment

"I just want to say a good word for Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Four or five years ago I was in Port Arthur, and I had an attack of the itch. It certainly was an intolerable nuisance. The itching was principally at night before I went to bed. The thighs were especially affected.

"I went to two doctors about it, and tried more than one remedy. I was beginning to think the complaint was incurable, when I was told by a friend to try Cuticura. I took his advice, and, sure enough, the itch vanished. I had probably been troubled with the itch for two or three months before I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and they completely cured me of that intolerable nuisance. After one warm bath with Cuticura Soap and use of the Cuticura Ointment I was never troubled with the itching again. Anything in this testimonial I would be prepared to swear to in a court of law." (Signed) J. E. Hooper, 268 Parliament Street, Toronto, Jan. 10, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the speediest, simplest and most economical treatment for skin and scalp humors. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each, with 32-page book, sent free, to any address, by the Foster Drug & Chem. Corp., 52 Columbus Ave., Boston, U.S.A.

GLIMPSES OF OLD QUEBEC

From the Files of the CHRONICLE, October, 1812 and 1882.

A HUNDRED YEARS AGO TODAY

From the London Gazette: It is this day ordered on behalf of His Majesty, that no ships or vessels belonging to His Majesty's subjects be permitted to enter and clear for any of the ports of the United States until further orders; and that a general embargo or stop be made of all ships or vessels belonging to citizens of the United States, now within any ports, harbors or roads within any part of His Majesty's dominions, together with all persons and effects on board such ships and vessels; and that the commanders of His Majesty's ships of war do detain and bring into port all vessels bearing the flag of the United States, except such as may be furnished with British licenses.

Happenings in Florida.

We have continual reports of the massacre of our countrymen by the Creek Indians. Major Woodruff and 13 or 14 others are among the victims. They have burnt several plantations and killed the inhabitants on St. John's River. The militia have been ordered out to punish these savages. Qu.—Who were first invaders of Florida and set desolation on foot?

The British Sloop of War Alert.

It will be remembered that this vessel was captured some time ago by the United States frigate Essex, Captain Porter, and sent to Halifax as a cartel, with 200 English prisoners, and with orders to bring the same number of American prisoners in return. She has promptly obeyed, and this morning arrived at this port (New York) safely, with 200 ransomed Americans on board.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

CONTROL OF THE STANDARD OIL CO.

Proceedings to Prove Rockefeller and Archbold Are Still Connected.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Geo. W. Stahl, brother-in-law of John D. Archbold and secretary-treasurer of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, was the chief witness to-day in the resumption of the legal fight between H. Clay Pierce, of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis, and the Rockefeller interests.

Counsel for Mr. Pierce devoted the entire day to efforts to prove their contention that John D. Rockefeller, John D. Archbold and other important men in the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey still own and control the Standard Oil Company of Indiana despite the dissolution order of the United States Supreme Court.

The hearings are based on mandamus proceedings brought by Colonel Robert E. Stewart, of Chicago, against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company to compel its officers to accept his vote of proxies he holds in their corporation.

The Waters-Pierce officers refused to accept these proxies on the ground that they are controlled by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and therefore were being used illegally in opposition to the decree of the Federal Supreme Court.

Beginning with a date in December 1911, Mr. Stahl was questioned closely regarding all directors meetings of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana.

Under the questioning of Attorney Fordyce he said that a board of five directors, who personally owned but 17 shares of stock in the Indiana corporation, voted 8,008 proxies when the capital stock of the concern was increased from $1,000,000 to $30,000,000, after the Supreme Court dissolution order had been issued. He testified that this was done on the initiative of the five directors and so far as he knew without any suggestion from Mr. Rockefeller or Mr. Archbold in reply to a question.

"Why I haven't seen Mr. Rockefeller for fifteen years," he continued. "We didn't pay any attention to him at all."

"How were Mr. Rockefeller's personal stock holdings in the Standard Oil Company of Indiana affected by the increased capitalization?" Mr. Stahl was asked.

"Mr. Rockefeller owned 2482 shares in the company when it was capitalized at one million dollars. When the capital stock was increased to thirty million, he automatically became the holder of 74,460 shares. The additional stock was voted to stock holders just in the same manner that a dividend would be declared."

Mr. Stahl then testified that 580 new stock holders had come into the Indiana company since the date the dissolution order was issued at Washington.

The witness was then directed to bring before the examiner a complete list of both old and new holders of stock in the Indiana corporation.

Some amusement was caused when

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Strange News.

Under the above heading, Mr. Tarte in the "Canadian" thus welcomes to Canada the two lady teachers sent out by the French Government, and who recently visited Laval Normal School in this city accompanied by Hon. Mr. Ouimet, superintendent of education.

A journal of Montreal announces that two French ladies, certificated teachers, have arrived, to study the system of education in Canada.

Are you serious, confrere, in giving us this news? Do you think that the French Republic, which expels the officers of religion from its possessions and drives God from its schools, has instructed two teachers to visit the houses of education in Canada, where Christ still finds a place. And this Republic which boasts of being the true light of the world. In any case this news appears to us extraordinary, to the mission ordained by men of the stamp of Messrs. Paul Bert, Jules Ferry and Consorts. Somebody asks if these ladies have not rather come here to initiate us into the secrets of the new priesthood inaugurated by the friends of schools without God.

Real Estate Booming in St. Roch's.

A genuine boom in real estate seems to have set in, as far at least as St. Roch's is concerned. Mr. Dubeau, the well-known grocer, has just purchased some $45,000 worth of property facing on Joseph, Crown and Desfosses streets, and Marcotte's old foundry and adjoining buildings, extending from St. Joseph to St. Francois streets. The latter property is intended, we believe, as the site of the new hotel to be erected in St. Roch's, as already referred to in these columns. It is claimed that desirable property in the vicinity of St. Joseph street has advanced in value by fully 25 per cent.

Attorney Fordyce inquired into Mr. Stahl's personal relations with John D. Archbold.

"Is it not true that you are related by marriage with Mr. Archbold," asked Mr. Fordyce.

"Yes," replied Mr. Stahl, "Mrs. Stahl and Mrs. Archbold are sisters."

Attorney Kirby interrupted at this point with a question regarding Mr. Stahl's relationship to Attorney Fordyce.

"Is it not true," asked Attorney Kirby with gravity "that you are connected by marriage with counsel on the other side of this fight?"

"Yes," laughed Mr. Stahl, "my daughter married a cousin of Mr. Fordyce."

TURKISH-SERVIAN RELATIONS MORE STRAINED

Constantinople, Sept. 30.—Owing to the insistence of the Turkish Government upon obtaining a written declaration of amity from the Servian Government, the Servian minister, Dr. Nenadovich, has sent another important communication to the Porte. This follows a communication which the minister addressed to the Porte on Saturday, respecting the stoppage of Servian ammunition after permission had been given for its passage through the Turkish lines. In reply to this the Turkish Foreign Minister said that the consignment was detained because of the doubtful attitude of Servia. On the declaration by the minister that the Servian policy was unchanged, the Turkish Foreign Minister asked for a written statement embodying these assurances.

The present note invites the Porte to adopt a definite decision within 48 hours, either to sanction the passage of the ammunition or return it to France. The communication is couched in friendly but energetic terms. It is understood that failure to comply with the conditions will lead to the departure of the minister.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO DIABETICS

Kamsack, Sask., Aug. 5, 1912.
Messrs. The Sanol Manufacturing Co., Winnipeg, Man.

Gentlemen:—To-day I write you and am as healthy as a healthy man could be. I was told by several doctors that I am troubled with "Diabetes," and that the only thing for me was to keep a strict diet to prolong my life. But a few days after I heard of Sanol's cure for diabetes and began to take their cure, as this is the only cure for diabetes, and I am proud to say that not only has it done me good, but has completely cured me. I am obliged by the doctors to eat anything and everything and am healthy and live like any healthy man. My cure finished completely on July 29, 1912.

I can recommend anyone suffering with diabetes to apply to Sanol Mfg. Co., and they are sure to be cured. I thank you, and I fall in words to express my thanks to you. Anyone wishing to get any information how I was cured and everything about it, may write to me.—Yours truly,

JOE KNAZAN, Kamsack, Sask.

P.S.—A word more to the Sanol Mfg. Co.: I feel now just like going out in Main Street, Winnipeg, and "yell out": I was cured of Diabetes by the Sanol Mfg. Co., who have the only cure for Diabetes.

Sanol's Anti-Diabetes is the new German CURE. Manufactured in Winnipeg by The Sanol Manufacturing Company of Canada, Ltd., 977 Main Street.
