SIX BOERS VOTED AGAINST SURRENDER

The Ballot Taken at Vereeniging Was Overwhelmingly in Favour of Such a Course—Boer Delegates Are Now Friendly—Kitchener and Meyer Exchange Compliments

PRETORIA, Transvaal, June 4.—The ballot of the Boers at Vereeniging resulted in fifty-four votes in favour of surrender and six against it.

Preparations are being made here for the surrender of the Boer Commands, which will take place on the race course. All the Boers are allowed perfect freedom.

There will be a thanksgiving service, Sunday, June 8, on the Church Square, in which it is hoped the Boers will participate.

The women in the concentration camps are anxious to return to their homes immediately, but this will be impossible until a system of supply depots for the outlying districts is established.

General Baden-Powell is arranging for the distribution of mounted constabulary in the districts. The police, railways and telegraphs will be handed over to the civil authorities as soon as possible, and the restrictions of martial law will be gradually removed.

The Boer delegates who, during the peace negotiations, were stiff, formal and unfriendly, are now extremely cordial. All the commandants are returning to their commands in order to explain the situation.

General Louis Botha, the Boer Commandant General, has written an open letter to the Burghers, thanking them for their obedience in the past and exhorting them to be equally loyal in their obedience to the new government.

Lord Kitchener's address to the Boer delegates, at Vereeniging in which he said that if he had been one of them he would have been proud to have done so well in the field as they had done, made the best possible impression and drew forth a hearty response from General Beyers, the chairman of the Boer conference, who expressed the pleasure the Boers experienced at meeting Lord Kitchener as a friend, adding that they had fought so long against him that they had acquired full appreciation of his worth.

The departure of the Boer commanders from Vereeniging for their various districts was marked by remarkable scenes of fraternization. The trains conveying the Boers started late, and, the night being extremely cold, the sentries along the railroad track lighted huge bonfires, round which groups of Boers and Britons gathered, forming a highly picturesque scene. The late opponents joined in such songs as "Hard Times Come Again No More" and "Old Folks at Home," the British soldiers and the burghers outvieing one another in their demonstrations of joy. In brief, the scenes with the departure of the trains resembled nothing so much as the starting of huge picnic parties. The same signs of rejoicing were witnessed throughout the Rand. Flags were displayed everywhere and thanksgiving services were held in all the towns.

KITCHENER GETS HIS REWARD.

The Country Will Grant Him Fifty Thousand Pounds.

LONDON, June 4.—In the House of Commons to-day, the Government leader, A. J. Balfour, presented a message from King Edward as follows:

"His Majesty, taking into consideration the eminent services rendered by Lord Kitchener, and being desirous, in recognition of such services, to confer on him some signal mark of his favour, recommends that he, the King, should be enabled to grant Lord Kitchener £50,000, ($250,000)."

(Earl Roberts was granted the sum of £100,000, by a vote of the House of Commons on July 29 last.)

John Dillon, William Redmond, and Swift MacNeill (Irish Nationalists) announced their intention of opposing the grant at every stage.

A resolution giving effect to His Majesty's message will be discussed to-morrow.

PRO-BOERS HAVE BUT LITTLE TO SAY.

They are Not Disposed to Criticize the Peace Terms—The Ministerial Journals Satisfied.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—The correspondent of the Tribune in London cables: Lord Kitchener, Lord Milner and Mr. Chamberlain are the real authors of peace and have done the work with flexibility and astuteness. While they have made a military convention for the surrender of the Boers still in the field, they have dealt with the responsible agents of the two republican governments, and have arranged a compact which binds the British Government to carry out a liberal and just policy to the vanquished. Pro-Boers have little to say against Mr. Chamberlain's peace. There is a continual chorus of praise from the ministerial journals, with a general disposition in and out of Parliament to dismiss the Boer war as a wearisome subject which is at last played out.

The proclamation of peace has been signalized on the stock exchange by an all-round decline in the price of Kaffirs. Professional speculators who absorbed the stocks in expectation that peace day would inaugurate the long delayed Kaffir boom, are not altogether happy, as the investing public still holds aloof, and the immediate future of the market is doubtful. Yesterday, there was a steady stream of selling orders, but the hope is by no means abandoned that there will soon be a big rush for all kinds of South African securities, good, bad and indifferent.

Russia is Apprehensive.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

LONDON, June 4.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says some anxiety is expressed there lest the end of the war may enable the British Government to defend with greater energy than has been possible hitherto her Imperial interests in various parts of the world.

HOW BRITAIN TREATED HER BOER PRISONERS OF WAR

An Object Lesson in Warfare, Which Is Unprecedented in History.

BOER PRISONERS AT BERMUDA PLAYING AT PING-PONG.

The Boer prisoners in the various camps occasionally have light-hearted moments. Among the cedar trees on the islands of the Great Sound, Bermuda, many have built themselves picturesque shanties out of poles and palm leaves, and in these they carry on carpentering, billiards, ping-pong. They also combine business with pleasure, as the makers of the tables charge their fellow-prisoners for the use of them. Thus their imprisonment is not necessarily unhappy, for they may play all day if they like, oblivious of the sentries and gunboats on guard, while the cedar-scented air, tuneful with the song of many birds, is always soft and balmy. The Boer looking on at the game and his companion sitting on the bank have taken an oath not to have their hair cut till the war is over.

A WEDDING IN A CONCENTRATION CAMP AT VRYBURG.

BOERS WHO SIGNED THE PEACE TERMS.

PRETORIA, June 4.—The ten Boer delegates who signed the peace document were, for the Orange River Colony: Messrs. Christian De Wet, Olivier, Hertzog and Brebner; for the Transvaal: Messrs. Schalkburger, Reitz, Louis Botha, Delarey, Lucas, Meyer and Krogh.

BOER PRISONERS WENT WILD WITH JOY.

The News That Peace Had Been Arranged Worked a Transformation at Bermuda.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 4.—When the news of peace was communicated to the prisoners in the enclosure on Hawkins Island, the prisoners were delighted, and received it with great enthusiasm, shouting, singing and hurrahing. Some of them rushed wildly about, embraced every English soldier they met, and said:

"Yesterday we were foes, but to-day we are friends."

Drinks were served out to the Boers on Hawkins Island, and the rejoicing there continued until a late hour.

The Boers on Tucker's Island also received the news with great joy. When the fact of peace was communicated to them, the prisoners went fairly wild, shouting and singing the Volkslied and other hymns until 1 o'clock in the morning. At reveille the band of the Warwick Regiment moved up to the Tucker's Island enclosure and played "Auld Lang Syne," "Old Hundred" and "God Save the King," and in all these airs the prisoners joined most heartily.

The peace news was received by the Boer prisoners on the other islands here with similar manifestations of joy.

BOMBAY, British India, June 4. — In the Boer prison camp here a majority of the prisoners rejoiced over the news of peace in South Africa, but many considered it bad, because it meant the loss of all they fought for. "We would have stayed in captivity for years without complaining," said many of the Boers, "had such been the judgment of the burghers."

JAMESTOWN, Island of St. Helena, June 4.—The news of the peace agreement in South Africa created the greatest enthusiasm in the Boer prison camps here. It was celebrated by singing Boer and British anthems.

ANTI-GERMAN FEELING.

LONDON, June 4.—The opinion of the world regarding the terms of peace with the Boers is now chiefly occupying the capital. The tributes to the remarkable military qualities of the burghers are generally concurred in, but the chief note in England's reception of foreign comment is the strength of the anti-German feeling which was uncompromisingly and angrily revived by the Times on Monday morning.

The Graphic to-day says that amid all the chorus of congratulation and pleasant comment there is only one discordant note. It comes from Germany. The note is full of venomous hatred, shameless envy and brutal and bitter malevolence.

The other newspapers are scarcely less unmeasured in assailing Germany's part in leading the popular campaign against England on the Continent.

The Times says it is the fixed German idea that Germany ought to always come in for plunder no matter who has done the work and fighting, but the Boers will soon learn that they are better off under the British flag than any German colony is under the Kaiser.

The War Office has issued an announcement that it has been arranged with General Kitchener that ten reservist men from each corps shall be embarked immediately to represent the South African army at the Coronation. The arrangement includes representatives of the Colonial troops.

King Edward will attend a peace thanksgiving service in St. Paul's Cathedral Sunday, June 8. The Lord Mayor, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, and the members of the corporation will be present in state.

CHAMBERLAIN POPULAR.

Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, was received by King Edward at Buckingham Palace last night.

Mr. Chamberlain's residence at Birmingham is nightly the scene of patriotic demonstrations and ovations.

LORD KITCHENER SPEAKS.

BOARDS OF TRADE IN CONFERENCE

Important Gathering of Canadian Business Men Opens at Toronto.

INTER-IMPERIAL TRADE TALK

Resolutions of the Montreal Board of Trade Discussed—Many Divergent Views Expressed.

(Special Staff Correspondence of the Star.)

TORONTO, June 4.—One of the most important commercial gatherings ever held in Canada was the conference of Boards of Trade of the Dominion which assembled in the Legislative chamber here this morning at 10 o'clock. The conference was promoted by the Toronto Board of Trade with a view to bringing the business men of the Dominion together to formulate plans and suggestions for the guidance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other Canadian representatives at the coming Colonial conference in London, England.

Fifty-two of the leading Boards of Trade of the Dominion are represented by over 150 delegates being in attendance. Amongst the delegates present are the following from the province of Quebec:

Alex. McFee, president of the Montreal Board of Trade; Arthur J. Hodgson, 1st vice-president; Geo. E. Drummond, 2nd vice-president; Geo. Hadrill, secretary; Robt. Munro, Jas. Davidson, J. C. Holden, D. Laviolette, H. D. Metcalfe, Jas. Thom, W. W. Watson; D. Masson, president of the Montreal Chamber of Commerce; C. H. Catelli, 2nd vice-president; H. LaPorte, Jos. Contant, L. Geoffrion, ~~Hon.~~ J. D. Rolland, E. V. Roy.

The list of subjects for discussion embrace a very wide range, including: Canadian Copyright, Canadian insolvency, a commercial depot in London, Consular agencies, defence, a duty on lead, the establishing of a customs union with sister Colonies, a fast steamship service, importation of Canadian cattle into the United Kingdom, the metric system, the mineral resources of Canada, newspaper postage between Canada and Great Britain, postal and telegraph communication, a railway commission, steamship service for exclusive trade between Britain and the Colonies, steamship service from Canadian ports, a state cable from Canada to Australia, shipbuilding in Canada, trade relations within the Empire, and trade returns between the Colonies.

On each of these subjects a large number of resolutions have been submitted for consideration. It hardly seems possible that in the two days at its disposal the Conference will have time to properly deal with them. This morning, only one subject was disposed of, and that a minor one, the question of newspaper postage between Canada and Great Britain.

The discussion of Imperial trade was entered upon, and it soon became evident that a question of such breadth on which so many different shades of opinion prevail, cannot be disposed of in an hour or so.

The resolution proposed by the Montreal Board of Trade, which was moved by Mr. Drummond, formed the basis of discussion. With the general principle, most of the delegates who spoke seemed to be agreed, but there was considerable divergence of opinion upon its forms, and in regard to matters of detail. Numerous amendments and suggestions were offered, and it will probably be necessary eventually to remit the matter to a committee to draft a composite resolution which the conference as a whole can accept.

THE DELEGATES WELCOMED.

Promptly at ten o'clock Mr. A. E. Ames, President of the Toronto Board of Trade took the chair and read an address of welcome to the delegates. He announced that no apology was necessary for this conference. The approaching conference of Colonial Premiers in London would invite the consideration of many matters of importance to the Dominion of Canada in respect of which it was desirable that the commercial interests of the country should express their opinions for the guidance of Canada's representatives in that conference. There were many matters of internal importance in regard to which it would be advantageous to have the combined opinion of the representatives of Canadian Commerce.

A reference by Mr. Ames to the conclusion of peace in South Africa caused an outburst of applause.

THE CHAIRMAN CHOSEN.

Upon motion of Mr. A. McFee, President of the Montreal Board of Trade, Mr. Ames, the President of the Toronto Board, was unanimously elected chairman of the conference. Mr. Paul Jarvis, Secretary of the Toronto Board of Trade was appointed secretary of the conference.

The rules of procedure suggested by the Toronto Provisional Committee of Management were adopted, after a protest from the Quebec Board of Trade against delegates voting as individuals instead of as representatives of their respective boards.

A PEACE RESOLUTION.

Before proceeding to the regular business of the conference, Mr. Foster Cockshutt, of Brantford asked permission to move a resolution expressing unbounded satisfaction at the restoration of peace in South Africa on the eve of the Coronation, and hailing the inauguration of an era of prosperity in South Africa. The resolution was adopted by a standing vote, the delegates rising and singing "God Save the King." It was ordered that a copy of the resolution be cabled to the Colonial Secretary for submission to His Majesty.

POSTAGE ON NEWSPAPERS.

The question of newspaper postage between Canada and Great Britain was then taken up. The following resolution submitted by the Kingston Board of Trade, was moved by Captain Gaskin and seconded by Captain Donnelly.

That whereas: Newspapers and magazines from the office of publication, pass between Canada and United States at the domestic rate of the two countries.

And whereas the postal rates on newspapers and magazines between Canada and Great Britain and vice versa are so heavy as to discourage the interchange of publications.

And whereas such interchange would do much to strengthen Imperial unity and that association of ideas and aims upon which such unity can only be based.

Resolved therefore: That in the highest interest of Canada, Great Britain and the Empire, the postage on newspapers and periodicals should be lowered to the domestic rate as has been done in the case of letters.

The resolution was adopted with little discussion.

OUR TRADE RELATIONS.

Trade relations within the Empire were next considered. The subject was introduced by Mr. George E. Drummond, second vice-president of the Montreal Board of Trade, who moved the following resolution:

"Whereas, the Imperial Government has changed its fiscal policy by imposing a duty upon certain imports;

"Whereas, in the resolution adopted by the London Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the Empire held in June, 1900, it was stated that an advantageous commercial bond is one of the strongest links in the national unity, and that the maintenance and strengthening of trade is the keystone of a nation's successful development;

"Whereas, it is the opinion of this conference of Boards of Trade of the Dominion that it is imperative in the interests of the Empire that some practical steps should be taken towards consummating such an arrangement;

"Whereas, the British Colonies are admittedly rich in natural resources, possessing as they do vast areas of arable and mineral lands as yet undeveloped, and those Colonies are even now producing, in rapidly increasing qualities, grain, flour, cheese, butter, live stock, as well as the yield of the fisheries, forests and mines, all of which are continually required by the British consumer;

"Therefore, resolved, that this conference is of opinion that Great Britain can serve best the interests of the Empire by giving the products of her Colonies a preference in her markets as against the products of foreign countries, it being believed that such preference would stimulate trade and develop Colonial enterprises, and moreover serve to make the Colonies attractive not only to the large number of British subjects emigrating annually from the British Isles, but also to the surplus population of other countries and at the same time benefit Great Britain by largely freeing her from dependence upon foreign countries for her food supplies."

ARD PATRICK WINS THE DERBY

Sceptre the Favourite Did Not Get Inside the Money.

(See also page two.)

LONDON, June 4.—The general holiday making mood of the people, arising from the announcement of peace in South Africa and the approaching Coronation festivities, was exemplified to-day notwithstanding the inclement weather, by the unprecendented muster of the classes and masses at Epsom Downs, for the Coronation Derby. Enormous crowds left London (the exodus beginning at daybreak), both by road and rail. Vehicles of every description, stage coaches, automobiles, hansom cabs, costers, donkey carts, all beflagged, moved along all the roads converging on the race course.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Duke of Cambridge, Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark, and the Indian Rajahs, and their suites, took special trains to the course and received ovations everywhere from the crowds.

SOME BIG BETTING.

Americans and American money were strongly in evidence. Fully $3,000,000 was wagered on result of the great race in which American horses were entered and American jockeys had favourite mounts. Some of the wagers are record breakers. The owner of Pekin, the second favourite backed his horse to win $750,000.

King Edward looked upon Sceptre with favour, this filly being sired by one of his own horses Persimmon, a former Derby winner.

Mr. J. Gubbins brown colt, Ard Patrick at 7 to 1, against, ridden by J. H. Martin, the American Jockey, won, Colonel H. McCalmont's Rising Glass was second, and the Duke of Portland's Friar Tuck, third.

Mr. R. S. Siever's, Sceptre, the favourite, was fourth, and R. Forest Tods, Csardas, was fifth.

Ard Patrick won by three lengths and the same distance separated the second and third horses. The time, 2.42 1-4. Eighteen horses faced the starter, one of the biggest fields in recent years.

The betting on the three placed horses was 100 to 14, against Ard Patrick, 40 to 1 against Rising Glass, and 100 to 7 against Friar Tuck.

ARD PATRICK WON THE DERBY

Three Horses Beat Out Favourite For Noted Turf Event.

NOVEL SITUATION IN RACING

$50,000 Yearling Sceptre Ran for Robert Sevier, Meteoric Turf Gambler, Disappointed Thousands.

The first three Derby horses to cross the finish to-day were:

ARD PATRICK, 1,
RISING GLASS, 2,
FRIAR TUCK, 3.

LONDON, June 4.—Many Americans found their way to Epsom yesterday, King Edward and a suite watched the races, which were to culminate in what was expected to be the most brilliant Derby in years. Nearly all the members of the Royal family and the foreign potentates in England were to be the King's guests for the Derby, and the demand for coaches threatened to exceed the supply.

The racing was marred by accidents to three jockeys in the race for the Craven stakes. Owing to the unevenness of the turf three horses collided, throwing their riders, including England's premier jockey, Lane, and incapacitating him from riding in the Derby. Maher (American) captured the Woodcote stakes and the Wallington plate, the latter on Mrs. Langtry's Sinlax.

Maher was to ride the Duke of Devonshire's brown c. Cheers, 20 to 1 against; Jenkins (American) was to have the mount on Wallace Johnstone's bay colt Fowling Piece, 100 to 9 against; J. Martin (American) was to pilot Gubbin's brown colt Ard Patrick, 7 to 1 against; J. Reiff (American) was to be in the saddle on Wm. C. Whitney's chestnut colt Intruder, 100 to 6 against; Ian Spencer (American) was billetted for the mount on J. R. Keene's bay or brown colt Kearsarge, 100 to 1 against. All these horses were regarded as outsiders, except Ard Patrick, who is supported by many of the sporting papers as being the best hazard for a place in the race.

Reiff, who it is said had the offer to ride R. S. Sevier's bay filly Sceptre, the favourite, at 5 to 4 against; and W. C. Whitney's permission to go so, said he would rather ride a loser for Mr. Whitney than win for Mr. Sevier.

FILLY FAVOURITE A NOVELTY.

The very fact that Sceptre ran has made a worthy addition to the records of the race that throughout the world has earned place as the synonym of a supreme trial. The mare was the public favourite for the great race, and in that already has won a position unique in the history of English racing for that a filly should be favourite for the great race is as strange as that a filly should win it.

Aside from the remarkable prominence of Sceptre, the highest-priced yearling that the turf anywhere has ever known, and a mare held at the highest price in the history of horse racing, the Derby favourite has another claim to public attention in that she is the property of the phenomenon of the British turf of to-day, the plunger, in and out of season, Robert Sutton Sevier. It is only in keeping with the record of her owner and with her own career that Sceptre occupies the position she does. The filly made a beginning when she was led into the sales ring after the death of her breeder, the Duke of Westminster, for she was the bright particular star of the most remarkable sale ever known in all records of great sales in England or the world, the filly, then described as the Persimmon-Ornament filly, bringing the top price of that sensational offering of untried horses, and going to her present owner for 10,000 guineas, the equivalent of $50,000. On the score of pedigree, the filly has appealed to other English turfmen as one that ought to be worth a great deal of money, as her dam is own sister to the great Ormonde, but the price that Mr. Sevier bid and paid for the baby race mare staggered even the most progressive of English turfmen, and so it was that Sceptre, as she was named later, began her public career under circumstances of a sensational nature.

SCEPTRE HELD ABOVE PRICE.

How well she has lived up to her early promise may be gathered from the fact that her present owner, the same Mr. Sevier, bookmaker and race horse gambler, has refused all offers for the phenomenal mare, even to the bid of a sum said to be $300,000, credited to one of the millionaires of America. Other rich men frequently have asked Mr. Sevier to put a price on his great mare, William K. Vanderbilt being named among the many who have wished to become owner of the Derby favourite, but the gambler turfman in whose name Sceptre races has declined to consider any offers.

Mr. Sevier's position to-day is most remarkable. After having begun life as a low-salaried clerk in a London office, he to-day is the first man on the English turf, for the time at least. Strange as is the change in Mr. Sevier's condition, there is precedent for it even on the turf of conservative England.

Thrice before in the years since the race was instituted in 1780 have fillies won the Derby, Eleanor won in 1801, Blink Bonnie in 1857, and Shotover in 1882. Sceptre, however, will start for the Derby with the honour earned beforehand of having won both the One Thousand Guineas and the Two Thousand Guineas, and should she add the Derby to the list of her triumphs, as the best judges of racing in England firmly believe she will, Sceptre will have a position unique in turf history, for of the winners of both the races for the "Guineas," Crucifix in 1840, Formosa in 1868, and in comparatively recent times Pilgrimage, none has been a Derby winner, though the first two did add the Oaks to their triumphs. Of the trio of filly Derby winners, Eleanor and Blink Bonnie also won the Oaks. Shotover, after in a measure having forecast the present season's success of Sceptre by winning the Two Thousand Guineas, won the Derby, but it was not her fortune to triumph in the Oaks, that race going to another remarkable mare in Geheimniss.

ROBERT SEVIER'S CAREER.

The parallels to the triumphs of Sceptre are vastly more numerous than are those to the remarkable achievements of the owner of the Derby favourite, Robert Sutton Sevier. That favourite of fortune stands alone on the turf to-day, though history names one other turfman who may be regarded as the prototype of Sceptre's owner. Sevier from his beginning in life as a clerk gambled on races, won and lost a fortune, and then taking the bull by the horns, embarked in turf gambling as a life business. He had "ups and downs" of a character to discourage any but a born gambler, and after amassing a great fortune by introducing the English method of "ready money" betting and bookmaking on the race tracks of Australia, lost all that he had accumulated in that country and returned to England a bankrupt, to begin again at the bottom. His next success in a financial way was achieved through the establishment of post odds betting agencies in English towns, his chief business being in London. By the operation of these agencies, which were similar to the American poolrooms, Sevier accumulated another fortune. In the course of this success he was fortunate enough to marry an Englishwoman of noble family, whose dower and position gave him the chance to embark in racing as the owner of a stable of race horses. These promptly went on and made him rich. With the new fortune Sevier became one of the big figures of the English turf to the extent that he paid the largest sum ever paid in England or elsewhere for the Persimmon-Ornament filly, now known to fame as Sceptre.

A PICTURE

Of health, we say of a perfectly healthful woman, and it is a picture everyone loves to look upon. All the pictures of all the artists who have ever painted the glory and beauty of womanhood, are only copies and imitations of this picture. Never artist mixed a color on his palette that can vie with the hues which tint a healthful woman's cheek. Why should this charm be sacrificed to sickness? It need not be save in rare cases. The general health of woman is so linked with the local womanly health that wasted cheek and sunken eye are in general but evidences of womanly diseases. Cure the diseases and the physical health is restored.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the ills of women. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Mrs. Mary E. Lewis, of Tanner, Gilmer Co., W. Va., writes: "I shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' for they cured me when doctors and other medicines failed. For fifteen years I suffered untold misery. When I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicines, I had given up all hope of ever getting well. I could not lie down to sleep, and everything I ate would almost cramp me to death. Was very nervous and could hardly walk across the room. I only weighed ninety pounds when I commenced taking these medicines six years ago; now I weigh one hundred and forty pounds and am having better health than ever before. My friends all say they can hardly believe that I am the same person; after being sick so long I have changed to be robust and rosy checked."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

ADVANCE GUARD WAS AGAIN BEATEN.

Morningside Got in Three-quarters of a Length Ahead.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Homestead, Morningside and Merito were the winning favourites at Gravesend. The Brookdale handicap, at one mile and a furlong, the feature of the card, was won by W. C. Whitney's Morningside, the filly making her first appearance. Col. Padden had plenty of speed, and rushed to the front, opening a gap of two lengths, with Morningside second. In the stretch Morningside took command and won in a wild drive by three-quarters of a length from Advance Guard. Summary:

First race, 2-year-olds, 5 1-2 furlongs—Atleroy, 105, Lindsey, 10 to 1 and 4 to 1, won; Our Nugget, 112, Buchanan, 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, 2; White Chapel, 105, Shaw, 11 to 1 and 2 to 5, 3. Time, 1.07 4-5. Ancke, Pebble, Adamon, Akela, My Queen, Onatis, First Chord, Mennen Field, Earl of Warwick and Shoe Top also ran.

Second race, 3-year-olds, 1 1-16 miles—Homestead, 111, Ball, 10 to 5 and out, won; Grand Opera, 111, Connor, 3 to 1 and 3 to 5, 2; Fried Krupp, 106, Shaw, 20 to 1 and 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1.48. Connecticut and Trump also ran.

Third race, about 6 furlongs—Cheat 'Em, 105, Burns, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Essene, 94, Shea, 9 to 2 and 8 to 5, 2; Snark, 103, L. Smith, 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, 3. Time, 1.11 1-5. Genese, Macana, Lady Appleby, Flirtineer, Bastile, Locket, The Dancer, Robert Metcalf, Lord of the Manor, The Puritan and Shandonfield also ran.

Fourth race, Brookdale Handicap, 1 1-8 miles—Morningside, 104, Hinch, 5 to 2 and 6 to 5, won; Advance Guard, 125, J. Woods, 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2; Col. Padden, 111, Shaw, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1.52 1-5. Sadie S., Trigger, Water Cure, Carbuncle and The Regent also ran.

Fifth race, maidens, 2-year-olds, 5 furlongs—Tantalus Cup, 112, T. Burns, 8 to 1 and 3 to 1, won; Invincible, 112, Brennan, 15 to 1 and 6 to 1, 2; Creocus, 109, H. Cochran, 12 to 1 and 5 to 1, 3. Time, 1.02. Sumida, Franklin C., Attorney, Dauphin, Pearl Diver, Buttons, Dr. Hagyard, North Brook, Navigator, Prediction and Barnstormer also ran.

Sixth race, 1 mile and 70 yards, selling—Merito, 105, Shaw, 13 to 5 and even, won; Mercer, 105, Redfern, 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2; Prince Richard, 108, J. Woods, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1.45 3-5. Rocky, Henry Clay, Rye, Satire, Alack, Astor and Gibson Light also ran.

OBSTINATE SIMON WOULD COME IN FIRST.

The Opening of the Hamilton Race Meet Was a Great Success.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 4.—About 2,000 people, including five car loads from Toronto, witnessed a good afternoon's sport at the opening events in connection with the Hamilton Jockey Club's spring meeting. The weather was clear and pleasant when the races began, but after the first race was run a violent thunderstorm, with rain in torrents, converted the track into a sea of mud.

Only two favourites won in the five events on the card. In the opening scurry, Wainwright got a good start on Young Henry, and won in a drive by a good length over the favourite, Spring Wells.

The second race was run in a heavy shower. Cantilever and Kite alternated in the lead for two furlongs, when Mda, at evens, came on fast and won by three lengths.

Fillibuster, who was backed from 40 to 1, had the selling race well in hand all the way and won handily.

The Cover purse, at one mile, was a four horse event, and Obstinate Simon, after letting Beguile and Vere de Vere do the running up, came fast in the stretch and won by a length and a half. Mattie Spencer the light weight, won the last event by half a length in a close finish over Tip Gallant, who was the hot favourite. Summary:

First race, opening scurry, for three-year-olds and upwards, 6 furlongs—S. E. Palmer's Young Henry, 122, Wainwright, 3 to 1, won; Geo. Hendrie's Spring Wells, 122, Blake, 4 to 5, second; J. Nixon and Co., April Shower, 114, McQuade, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1.15¾. Colchester, Cad Hazel, Glesseg and Sheppard also ran.

Second race, two-year-olds, 4½ furlongs—G. W. Cook's Mda, 115, Blake, even, won; S. E. Palmer's Eddie T., 115, Wainwright, 20 to 1, second; W. Shield's Hallucination, 105, Lorenz, 8 to 1, third. Time, .58¾. Kite, Woolsack, Gold Cockade, Cantilever, Enue, Pea Ridge and Tampa also ran.

Third race, all ages, 7 furlongs—Sam Meyer's Filibuster, 114, Thompson, 5 to 1, won; G. W. Graydon's Jack McGinn, 115, T. Walker, 5 to 1, second; John Walter's Alea, 110, Blake, 6 to 5, third. Time, 1.31¾. Honeywood, Tiffany, Tom Cosgrove, Kettle Court, Drogheda also ran.

Fourth race, three-year-olds and upwards, one mile—R. F. Meyer's Obstinate Simon, 107, Blake, 7 to 5, won; J. E. Seagram's Sir Vere de Vere, 110, Dangman, 15 to 1, second; Geo. H. Shearer's Magentic, 107, Lorenz, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1.50¾. Beguile also ran.

Fifth race, all ages, 7 furlongs—H. N. McIntyre's Mattie Spencer, 99, Williams, 7 to 1, won; T. Crook's Tip Gallant, 114, Kingston, 8 to 5, second; D. Boland's New Amsterdam, 107, R. Murphy, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1.33¼.

FOOTBALL

THE RUGBY SCHEDULE

Great Hurry About Making it Up — A Meeting to be Held a Week From Saturday.

There is great activity in the air for this time of the year in Rugby football circles. In all probability the proposed trip across the ocean has something to do with this.

There have been a number of little informal meetings and it was finally decided to call a regular meeting of the Quebec Union for the purpose of drawing up a schedule for the coming season.

This meeting has been called for a week from Saturday.

CYCLING

SUNDAY RACING SHOCK TO PASTORS.

Newark Preachers Appoint Committee to Make War on Vailsburg Cycle Track.

NEW YORK, June 4.—At a meeting of the Ministerial Association of Newark, N. J., and vicinity, held yesterday in the First Presbyterian Church there, Rev. Mr. Fennell, Rev. Louis Lampmann, Rev. Dr. Daniel H. Martin, Rev. William H. Morgan and Rev. C. C. Collins were appointed a committee to start an active movement against the bicycle races held every Sunday afternoon at the Vailsburg board track. It is to act with a similar committee of laymen to be named by the association. If necessary the association plans to extend its appeal to Chief Justice Gummere.

The Sunday bicycle racing was brought yesterday to the attention of the association by Rev. Dr. Israel W. Hathaway, secretary of the American Sabbath Union, of New York.

"The Vailsburg track is a horrible ulcer and Sunday racing should never have been permitted," said Dr. Hathaway. "Young persons go there to see the races and linger there until the small hours."

"Liquor is sold at the track, I understand," said Rev. William G. Fennell, of the South Baptist Church," and it has become so common that I have heard men who go there referred to as "being caught by the Vailsburg fever."

"The reverend gentlemen have surely been misinformed concerning the bicycle races and the character of the persons who attended them," said Fred. W. Voigt, manager of the track.

"There never has been a scene of disorder at the track since Sunday racing was instituted. There never has been a drop of liquor sold on the grounds. The patrons represent the most respectable element in the population of Newark and vicinity. It is not true persons remain at the track after nightfall, as the park is always cleared as soon after the races are concluded as is possible."

ODDS AND ENDS.

Nelson W. Willard, who led Columbia's list of strong men in the inter-collegiate tests with a record of 1,824 points, broke that record yesterday by scoring 2,072 points. With his back he lifted 858 pounds and with his legs, 1,859 pounds, a record almost unsurpassed. His record is the third best ever made under the Sargent system.

The annual athletic sports of Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, that were to have been held to-morrow, have, on account of the bad weather interfering with the practise, been postponed to June 16, the Monday of the convocation week. The old boys' match will be held Tuesday, June 17, the dance will take place the same evening, while the prize giving is fixed for the morning of Wednesday, the boys returning home that afternoon.

Arrangements have been completed with the Toronto Ferry Company to hold a six-day race at the Island for lady bicycle riders, for a purse of $500 and the world's championship. Tillie Anderson, the Swedish champion; Lizzie Glaw, the German champion; May Allen, the English champion; Jennie Brow, of Rochester, the New York State champion, and Anna Ehmer, of Ohio, and Marguerite Gast, of New York City, have already sent in their entries.

BISONS AGAIN TRIM MONTREAL

Dooleyites Failed to Hit the Ball at Opportune Times.

LEE WAS HIT FREELY

Sheehan Out of the Game on Account of a Sore Arm—Johnson Back at Second.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 3.—Buffalo again defeated Montreal. Superior batting abilities was the main cause of the Bisons' victory. They out-hit their opponents and hit when hits meant runs. Lee was rather easy for the locals. They hit him hard in the opening innings and then let up for four innings, but in the eighth they went after him viciously and drove the ball around the lot. Lee was unable to stop the hitting, and in addition he was a trifle wild.

The inability of Montreal to land effectively on Gray was the sole cause of their defeat. The Royals were unable to hit "Chummy" when hits were needed. Gray kept the Montreals out of danger's way all the time. When Montreal did hit, it was after two were out and not the remotest chance of scoring. In the ninth Raub doubled to left and scored on Kelly's single. These were the only hits on him in succession.

CAUGHT OFF THE BAG.

Stafford opened the game with a long triple to centre. His hit was nullified by Shaw, who caught him off third after the second strike out. Raub had a chance, but he threw it away by too daring base running after he was given a life on Brain's error.

For five innings the Royal men went out in succession. Fast fielding prevented the Montreal players to occupy the sacks. Gettman robbed several players of hits by making sensational catches. In the seventh the ice was broken. After Odwell flew to Milligan, Dooley got a short hit to centre. Johnson got first on an error by Connaughton. Shaw threw to catch Stafford, who ran for Dooley, but the ball went to centre field. Gettman returned the ball poorly to third base and it went against the grandstand. Stafford scored, Johnson ran over third and Gray got the ball and slammed it to Shaw, who threw Johnson out at third. Sheehan was out of the game, because of a lame arm. A high wind was blowing across the diamond and Sheehan could not get the ball across against it. Stafford went to third and Johnson was put in at second. Johnson and Quinlan worked together nicely, participating in two double plays. Kelly had a bad day in left field. He tried to capture short flies to him, with the result that they bounded past him and lengthened out the singles. The score follows:

National League Affairs.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 4.—The protest entered by the New York Club regarding the games played in Chicago on May 7 and 8 was allowed by the Executive of the National League at their meeting. When the meeting adjourned, Chairman Brush announced that the two Chicago games protested would be played against Monday, July 1, and Monday August 5. The decision not counting yesterday's game, it was announced, materially keeps the local club in the percentage column, in that instead of holding down sixth place with a percentage of 405, it is received with the Philas for fifth place with a percentage of 429.

Diamond Dust.

Dooley is making one or more hits every day.

Danny Sheehan's throwing wing has gone wrong again.

Jack Shearon couldn't locate Chummy Gray yesterday.

O'Hagen has been let out by Chicago on account of poor hitting.

It is becoming monotonous; Lajoie or somebody else is wanted in a hurry.

Bonner will likely be held by Cleveland until such time as the legal fight over Lajoie is settled.

The Toronto papers say that McKean should be more choice in his language, or should be put out of the grounds.

Toronto has the net out for Jimmy Gardner, who has been released by Chicago. He was with Hartford last year.

Barrow, of Toronto, has suffered a fine of $50 and five days' suspension for assaulting Umpire Kelly, at Worcester.

Lee was pie for Buffalo, and, besides, he was the only man on the Montreal team to figure in the misconduct column.

Lajoie has completed his dicker with the Cleveland people, but there will be a legal fight before he will be able to be of much use to the team.

Here is an interesting extract from a Toronto Baseball column:

The Boston Bloomer girls played before an immense crowd yesterday afternoon on the old U. C. C. grounds, over 6,000 people paying admission, while fully a thousand dead-headed their way into the park via the fence. The spectators encroached on the diamond, and the outfielders were given but few opportunities to show their ability, although that did not prevent "Carrie Nation," the Bloomers' left-fielder, from jumping high in the air after a long fly and pulling it in nicely. The Park Nine were the opponents of the Bloomers, and they had to work hard to secure a 5 to 1 victory. The girls showed surprising form, their fielding, batting and base-running being fully up to the mark. Their pitcher had the Park Nine guessing, and in one innings retired the side on strikes. Another game will be played this afternoon, and in order to give the teams full scope to show their ability, ten policemen will be on hand to prevent the spectators from interfering with the players.

CUP DEFENDERS NOT TO BE RACED.

Columbia and Constitution to be Held in Reserve Till the Challenge Comes.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Many wild statements have been circulated to the effect that the Constitution will go into commission this season and demonstrate to the world that she is the fastest 90-footer afloat.

As a matter of fact neither the Constitution nor the Columbia will do any sailing this year. Both will be held in reserve for the challenge of Sir Thomas Lipton, which will come next fall.

There is no doubt that the Herreshoffs believe the Constitution was not so well handled as to show her true form in the trial races of last season. But the Herreshoffs do not own the Constitution and have nothing to say as to her disposition. Had J. Pierpont Morgan, who now is the sole owner of the Columbia, thought fit to sail his yacht this year, there might be some excuse for the rumour that the Constitution would fit out, but with the Columbia hauled out at City Island for the summer there is not the slightest incentive for the Constitution to take to the water. She would have no antagonist—for nobody believes that Gen. Paine's Jubilee is worthy of mention in the same class.

It should also be remembered that August Belmont and the other members of the syndicate who built the Constitution are not going to waste their money in sailing her for spectacular purposes only. When the proper time comes—that is, after the challenge has been received—the Constitution will be put into first-class condition for the trial races and the Columbia will also be fitted with new sails for that occasion.

Titus to be Fit for Henley.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Constance S. Titus, although beaten by the giant Canadian sculler, Scholes, in the Harlem regatta last Friday, will represent the Union Boat Club in the Henley regatta. He will sail June 10.

Titus's story of how and why he was beaten by Scholes is short, but to the point. He said yesterday:

"I was not fit., I was undertrained instead of stale. At the advice of the wisest heads in the Union Boat Club I decided that it would be unwise to prepare for two hard races. For that reason I refused to row in the Harlem regatta because my work had not been of a kind that would fit me for a race so early. There were protests, and intimations that I was afraid to row Scholes. As a consequence, I went in unfit and against my will, and was beaten.

"I will have the final sprint in me at Henley. I know my condition better than any one else, and merely laugh at those who think I was overtrained."

Valois New President.

Mr. J. T. McBride, has been elected the new president of the Valois Boating Club.

Basil De Guischaud, the little French pace follower, won a 10-mile motor paced cycle race from H. Freeman on the Coliseum Bowl track, Baltimore. Time, 15.03 3-5; 14.47 4-5. Under the conditions, Freeman was to have beaten the Frenchman three laps in each heat. He was one and a half ahead in the first heat and one lap in the deciding heat of the three.

LACROSSE

TRAVERS IS WITH SENIOR MONTREAL

A Shamrock Man Has Also Been Out With Them.

NATIONALS WANT M'BURNEY

They are Also Trying All Sorts of Means to Get Blanchard to Come Back to Them.

The Montreal Lacrosse Club people are not lowing the grass to grow under their feet upon the Montreal grounds just at present. Captain Carlind is looking all he knows how after the final polishing off of the senior team for their first match, and Capt. Brown is not by any means letting the intermediates go wild.

They hope to take a first class combination to Cornwall, and amongst them will be Travers, once a Montreal junior, afterwards a member of the Hochelaga team, and now a Montreal senior. He is a finely-built chap, and seems to know how to play the game.

SHAMROCK MAN OUT WITH THEM.

It will be a surprise to most people probably to hear that a Shmarock man has been out practising with the Montreal senior "bunch" also.

Attempts are constantly being made to get some of their men away, like what are being made upon all other senior teams, and in addition to Blanchard, the Nationals would like to get McBurney. The chances of obtaining either of them are very slim, however.

THE CHARTRAND FIGHT

Montreal and National Lacrosse Clubs Both Want Him—Montreal Says He Wants to Stay.

There is considerable hard feeling between the Montreal Lacrosse Club, and the National Lacrosse Club, about Chartrand.

The Nationals became aware last Saturday that they want a few additional men to pick from.

Chartrand who left them to practice with Montreal, would be, they consider, an aid to them, particularly as Montreal does not want him, but they claim that Montreal will not release him.

Said a prominent member of the Nationals: "They don't need him, Lefebvre, the trainer, says so; but they will not release him, on principle, so as to teach these young players not to fly around too much from one club to another, as has been the habit of late. But what about the Marshall case?"

President Bramley, of the Montreal Club, says:

"The Nationals are trying all sorts of inducements to make Chartrand declare that he wants to play with them. He will not do so, however. He has asked us not to release him. On the other hand, if the Nationals want players, so do we."

It is likely as not that one or two of the new youngsters, who have been playing in the practice games, might come out next Saturday.

Torontos Bruised a Little.

TORONTO, Ont., June 4.—The Toronto University lacrosse team reached home by the Niagara boat yesterday afternoon. They more a number of scars, indicating a warm reception during their tour of the States, just closed. The boys say they had two hard games with the Crescent Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, winning one and losing one. In recent years the Crescents have been too strong for the 'Varsity team. Besides, a game was played with Hobart College, Geneva, and won easily.

Ready for Nationals.

OTTAWA, June 4. — Billy McIntyre has again been selected to field captain the Capitals. He had the office during the two previous years and gave splendid satisfaction. The Caps are practising hard. Twenty men were out Monday night, and 25 last night. The club will place a perfectly conditioned team against the Nationals Saturday. Geo. Hyde, who played centre field three years ago, started practise this week, and will likely figure on the team in the later matches of the season.

A BOXING MATCH IN LONDON

LONDON, June 4.—Kid McFadden, San Francisco, knocked out Jem. Williams, of London, at the National Sporting Club, in the match for the bantem weight championship of the world and a purse of £350 ($1,750.).

This was the sharpest five round contest which has been seen in London for a long time. A big crowd including Tom Sharkey, Gus. Ruhlin and Joe Walcott, the American boxers, and other participants in the pugilistic tournament to be held here in connection with the coronation festivities was present.

McFadden could not get down to the weight and was allowed to go on at 126 pounds. He forced the fighting from the start and proved to be much stronger than his opponent, Williams, however, was very clever and had the best of the third round, but the end came suddenly at the close of the fifth when McFadden landed a half hook on the Englishman's jaw.

Counted Out.

Charlie McKeever was practically knocked out by Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in the first round of what was to have been a six round bout at Industrial Hall, Philadelphia. Five seconds before the gong sounded O'Brien landed a right hook on the point of McKeever's jaw and the latter was carried to his corner. He still had five seconds in which to recover but when time was called for the second round McKeever was unable to respond. The referee declared it a knockout..

Cancer Cured Without Dangerous Drugs.

A Simple Constitutional Remedy For Cancers and Tumors That Will Not Harm the System of the Most Delicate.

Cancer sufferers would do well to beware of many remedies that are being advertised as cures for Cancer. Some of these contain highly poisonous and dangerous drugs, that frequently do more mischief than they do good. Our Constitutional home treatment for cancers and tumors is purely vegetable, and while it destroys Cancer germs and poisons completely, and rids the system of the dread disease, it will not harm the most delicate woman.

It not only cures Cancer, but in addition strengthens and builds up the system weakened by the disease and restores the whole organism to a healthy and vigorous condition. ATHLETICS

DATES FOR OUR ATHLETIC MEETS

Spring Games Take Place a Week From Saturday.

FIRST HANDICAPS THURSDAY

Canadian Amateur Championships Will Take Place Here on the 27th of September.

Mr. Leslie Boyd, the new chairman of the Outdoor Sport Committee of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association, is working hard to get the season started in proper manner.

All arrangements have been finished for the first weekly club handicap, and this will take place on Thursday evening next, and will consist of two events—one mile and half mile.

In the meantime, the programme is being arranged for a spring meeting, as is usually held, and the date set for this is Saturday, June 14.

CANADIAN CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Mr. Boyd and his committee will have their hands full, for this year, the annual championships of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union are also to take place here upon the M.A.A.A. grounds, and it is pretty certain that Duffy and some of the other celebrated United States athletes, who have just lately made names for themselves, will take part in these.

The date for the championships is announced as Saturday, September 27.

LIPTON CRITICIZED.

His Associates Think That He is Neglecting Business.

LONDON, June 4.—The annual meeting of the company, known as "Lipton, Limited," produced interesting complaints from the shareholders over the reduction of the amount of the dividend. One man said that if Sir Thomas Lipton, the chairman, attended a little more to business and a little less to yacht racing, the conditions would be improved.

Other shareholders loudly denounced the action of Sir Thomas Lipton in going into the liquor business.

Sir Thomas Lipton's gift of the company's advertising expenses was also criticized, a shareholder, amid remarks of approval, declaring that he did not want to be bolstered up by one man, or be the recipient of charity.

Sir Thomas replied by saying that it was not too late for the shareholders to refuse the gift. But this offer produced no takers, and, eventually, all the directors were re-elected, and the meeting passed a vote of thanks to Sir Thomas Lipton.

MEETINGS AND SOCIETIES

In the Labour World.

THE PLASTERERS.— A business meeting of the Plasterers will be held tonight in Blue Label Hall, 560 Dorchester street.

THE HACKMEN.—The annual meeting of the Montreal Hackmen's Union will be held to-night in the Monument National. Officers will be nominated.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS—A meeting of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers will be held to-night in St. Joseph Hall for the purpose of transacting international business.

THE TAILORS—Regular weekly meeting of the Independent Tailors' Union will be held to-night at 44 Chenneville st. The question of affiliating with the United Garment Workers will be decided.

TO FORM AN ALLIANCE.—The Stonecutters', Stonemasons' and Bricklayers' Unions are taking steps to form an alliance for purposes of mutual protection. A committee from the Stonecutters' Union has been appointed to study the question.

THE CARPENTERS.—A largely-attended meeting of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners was held Monday in St. Joseph's Hall. The general condition of employment for carpenters was reported as being good.

THE UNION IS GROWING.—The Clothing Pressers' Local Union of the United Garment Workers of America held a meeting Monday in Blue Label Hall. Nine propositions were received and five members admitted. Mr. M. Dupont, the general secretary, reported the union to be in good shape and doing good work.

BRASS WORKERS INVITED. – Mr. A. Studholme, president of the International Stove Mounters' Union, is in the city in the interest of the Allied Stove Mounters', Moulders' and Polishers' Unions, and will address an open meeting of the Brass Workers' Union Wednesday, June 4th, in their hall, 251 St. James street, and the Federated Trades Council Thursday evening. All brass workers and iron workers are invited.

EXPELLED FOR DISOBEDIENCE—Mr. John A. Flett, vice-president of the Trades and Labour Congress of Canada and general organizer of the American Federation of Labour, has confiscated the charter of the Iron Workers' Helpers' Union of Kingston, Ont., because of the union having refused to stand by the machinists in the locomotive works against the action of the company in placing a handy man on a machine who was not a member of the Machinists' Union.

THE ECONOMIC LEAGUE.—At last night's meeting of the Economic League the trusts were attacked and severely criticized by the members. One of the speakers declared there was no good reason why coal should cost $5 or $6 a ton when it can be taken out of the mines for less than $3 a ton; no reason why beef should be increased in price, but for the greed of the monopolists; that the necessities of life should be placed under the control of trusts, soulless corporations, he said, is highway robbery on a large scale, and the men who enter into such schemes ought to be treated as we treat highway robbers.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP DISCUSSED. — The Rubbers Workers held an enthusiastic meeting last night. Several new members were initiated, and a number of applications received. Mr. B. T. Morris gave notice of motion for a picnic to be held under the auspices of the union. The question will be decided at the next meeting. An address was delivered on "public franchises." The speaker gave a brief history of the ownership of the natural utilities, showing that no individual body of men ever had the complete control of the necessities of the comforts of life as certain of the people of the present time. He also explained the system of municipal government in Glasgow, and showed the benefits gained by the taxpayers and consumers of that city by keeping the public franchises in the hands of the public for their own benefit. He cautioned the working classes of Montreal to watch the interests of the city, and resist the giving out of any more extensions to pretended philanthropists of the Montreal Street Ry. Co. type, who would be willing to water the streets and clear the snow for the trifling consideration of a seventy-five year franchise.

Fraternal Orders.

DIVISION NO. 3, A.O.H.—There will be a meeting of Division No. 3, A.O.H., in their hall, Notre Dame street, to-night.

THE YOUNG IRISHMEN.—The semi-annual meeting of the Young Irishmen's Literary and Benefit Association will be held in their hall, Dupre street, this evening.

THE LETTER CARRIERS.—The committee in charge of the moonlight excursion to be held on Tuesday, July 15th under the auspices of the Federated Letter Carriers' Association, is doing everything possible to make the affair a big success. The steamer Three Rivers has been chartered for the occasion, and a first-class string band has been engaged for dancing.

THE C. M. B. A. EUCHRE. — There was a meeting last evening of the committees in charge of the euchre party to be held June 12th under the auspices of the branches of the C. M. B. A. of Canada in aid of St. Mary's Church. The ladies' committee, under the presidency of Mrs. P. Reynolds, have been working hard and will hand over to the general committee over 150 prizes. The advance sale of tickets has been most satisfactory, and the committee has arranged for 500 tables of four players each.

Societies.

THE GROCERS.—There will be a meeting of the Montreal Grocers' Association on Thursday evening in the Monument National for the purpose of arranging details in connection with their annual outing.

THE YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY. – The St. Anthony's Catholic Young Men's Society has arranged to hold a picnic to Otterburn Park on Coronation Day, Thursday, June 26. The Grand Trunk Railway will run a morning and afternoon train to the park.

LEADERS ELECTED.—At last night's meeting of the Montreal Reform Club these officers were elected: President, J. A. Drouin; first vice-president, Mayor Cochrane; second vice-president, Godfroi Langlois; treasurer, E. G. O'Connor; joint secretaries, F. H. Markey and Joseph A. Lamarche, Messrs. Robert Mackay, Samuel Coulson, H. W. Raphael, Peter Lyall, Lyon Cohen, G. P. England, Henry Hamilton, Aime Geoffrion, Joseph Fortier, Olivier Faucher, J. L. Decarie, F. X. Roy were elected as a council.

The St. Louis New Street Car Service.

Preparations for putting the new street car service in operation in St. Louis have been going on actively since the opening of spring, and the work is now so far advanced that it is expected all the lines will be running throughout the town of St. Louis within ten days. Double tracks have been laid on Park and Van Horne avenues, and a single track around the triangular loop at the C.P.R. station. On St. Lawrence street the work of shifting the old track is going on rapidly and will be finished within a few days.

Annual Police Inspection.

The annual inspection of the city police force will take place on Friday on the Champ de Mars. The drill instructor, Lieut. Landriault, has expressed himself well satisfied with the progress made by the new men. He expects that the inspection will be the best ever held by the force.

Will Look Up His Record.

Z. Larose, a carter, was yesterday convicted of robbing one of his fares of $50. Detectives Samson and Sloan, who had arrested the prisoner, were heard as witnesses in the case. Judge Desnoyers remanded the man for sentence, as he wishes to look up his record.

A TOMBOLA.—The Hebrew Sick Benefit Association will hold a tombola at 1863 Notre Dame street on Sunday next.

CANADA NEEDS A FAST LINE

Not Only a Fast Passenger But Freight Service Required.

VIEWS OF HON. MR. TARTE

There is No Danger of the Canadian Pacific Being Reorganized, He Thinks.

"Canada is large enough and its trade is important enough to-day, for us to control our trade routes independent of anybody else," said Hon. J. Israel Tarte, last evening, to a Star reporter.

The Minister came down from Ottawa, accompanied by Mr. St. Laurent, engineer of the public works department, and was joined by Mr. Jos. R. Roy, another of the departmental engineers.

Mr. F. J. Weber, who is constructing the Harbour Commissioners' elevator, at Windmill Point, for the Storage and Elevator Construction Company, had a long interview with Mr. Tarte, and it was announced that the difficulty concerning the piles on the new work had been overcome.

"It is just this way," explained Mr. Tarte, "the caissons have been sunk so near the outside row of piles that it is impossible to sink another row of piles to the required depth. To overcome this we will simply put down an extra row, and have two piles instead of one, and that will make the structure as strong as could be desired."

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION.

When asked to give his ideas upon the subject of an establishment of a Canadian fast line, he replied as quoted above. He continued: "People do not take enough interest in this transportation question. The press does not take up the matter with enough of serious consideration. I believe this matter is one of the greatest importance. We must be prepared to protect ourselves against the powerful Morgan syndicate or any other combination. Do you know I fear the influence of those people on the Lloyds is very great. We will have to take this matter up seriously within a short time, and the sooner the people wake up to the importance of this matter, the easier it will be to have it settled.

WORK IN RIVER CHANNEL.

"I have just returned from an inspection trip down the river. I came up the day before yesterday; we came from Sorel to Montreal in the evening, and with the channel in its present condition, with the new lights which Hon. J. Sutherland is having established between Sorel and this city, there is no difficulty in navigating the channel at night. We have a fleet of dredges at work in the river now, and the large suction dredge will be at work within a week. It would have been at it before this, only that one of the attachments, a connection of the suction pipe which was a little too stiff, broke and caused the delay. This large dredge, the 'J. Israel Tarte' is the most powerful yet constructed. It has a capacity of 2000 yards an hour, although I do not think we will put it to its utmost. We have another suction dredge of great power which will be finished within a month, and will be put on the work. We will then have the finest fleet of dredges ever seen on the continent. We have everything necessary to carry on the work, too. Our shipyards at Sorel are among the best equipped in America. People do not seem to realize this, perhaps because I am not boastful enough, but really Canada has good right to be proud of those shipyards. They are absolutely necessary, too, if we are to carry on the work of deepening and widening the channel, without delay."

"How soon do you expect the work to be done?"

"Well, I expect that within two years the St. Lawrence channel will be dredged to a depth of thirty feet at the very lowest water all the way down, with a width of 450 feet in the straight parts and from five to eight hundred in the curves. At Contrecoeur, for instance, where the curve is very sharp we will dredge eight hundred feet.

THE GREAT LAKE PORTS.

"But you must remember that this is not the only work that is being carried on. The Great Lakes are being looked after as well. It is no wonder we have not had as much trade as we had a right to expect. How we could get trade with the dearth of accommodations there is something difficult to realize. This is being rapidly changed now. Port Colborne, at the entrance to the canal system, has been neglected. It is now being equipped with the best and most modern appliances and will be ready in a very short time to accommodate all the trade that can be brought to it. Collingwood, Goderich, Meaford and Midland are having elevators built, and will be ready for trade within a very short time too. I have great hopes for Midland as a port of distribution. The Grand Trunk will have every interest now that they have decided to construct an elevator at Montreal to build up their Midland trade. On the other hand, I can see no reason why the C. P. R. should not have running rights into Midland. The Grand Trunk has lots of room, it has, or will have within a short time, double track between Midland and Peterboro, and I see no reason why the C. P. R. should not secure running rights over that portion of the line, and continue on its own line, thus being enabled to carry the freight to St. John, the Canadian winter port for freight service. The Grand Trunk, of course, cannot be expected to bring freight to the Canadian winter ports when it has spent $25,000,000 in and about its terminus at Portland."

FAST ATLANTIC LINE.

"Have you any definite plan in view with regard to the stablishment of a Canadian fast line?

"Well, I feel very strongly that we should have such a line. Not only a fast line for passengers, but a fleet of freight carriers as well. As I remarked before the Morgan syndicate is strong and influential, and we should be prepared to face any such combination at any moment. I would favour such a line, but as a Minster of the Crown, I do not think I can say that I have any definite plan in view. It is for the business men of this country to wake up and do something. They do not pay enough attention to this, according to me the most important question of the day. We have our own Canadian ports, for winter and summer, and there is no reason, with the improvements now being carried out, there is no reason why the St. Lawrence route should not enjoy within a couple of years the advantages of insurance rates given to American ports at the present time. My idea would be to have Quebec the summer terminus of a fast line, with Halifax the winter terminus for passengers, and St. John, N. B., for freight. The reason for this is obvious. The C. P. R. must be depended upon almost exclusively to supply the trade for the winter port, and their own line runs only to St. John, so that the Canadian line should furnish it with return freights.

"For the passenger terminus, of course, the idea is to have the passengers landed where they can get along as fast as possible and the freight carried on the very fast liners is generally of a perishable nature. That is the reason why I would make Halifax and Quebec the terminus of the fast line, and have the freight boats go further. Quebec is situated at an ideal spot to receive freights from all directions. It has the C. P. R., the Grand Trunk, the Quebec Central, the Quebec and Lake St. John and the Great Northern to bring in freight overland, and it has the St. Lawrence and the canals to tap the trade of the Great Lakes and the West. It has an ideal situation from every point of view as a port."

ST. JOHN FOR FREIGHT BUSINESS.

"What do you think of the plan proposed by Mr. Charles Marcil, M. P., to have a winter port established on the Gaspe Coast at Gaspe Basin or Port Daniel or Paspebiac?"

"Oh, I do not think it is at all practicable for the present. To have a port become the terminus of a line of steamers there must be some local trade. That does not exist on the Gaspe coast at present. While that section of the country is very well fitted in many ways for such a destiny, the lack of proper communications and the lack of local trade must inevitably militate against its chances of being chosen as the terminus for such a line as that which I have in mind. No, St. John is the proper place for such a line to have its terminus, so that the C. P. R. may have the opportunity of getting the freight down to the port, as it is the only road that can be expected to help Canadian ports, as it is in the interest of the road to do so. Of course the Intercolonial will bring a certain amount of local trade but the freight lines from St. John must necessarily depend on the C. P. R. for the bulk of their trade."

C. P. R. AND MORGAN.

"But what if the C.P.R. passes into the hands of the Morgan group of capitalists?"

"Oh, I do not apprehend any great danger in that respect. There is over $12,000,000 of the stock held here in Canada, and about $50,000,000 in Great Britain, as far as I can make out. Under those conditions, I do not think there is any danger of the Canadians losing control of the great national road. If it should happen, however, that foreign capitalists secured the road, and there was a danger that it might be used to the detriment of Canada, I am much mistaken if the people of Canada would not manifest their prompt decision to have another route or series of routes across the continent, whereby the Canadians could carry on their trade as they saw fit."

CAPTAIN STARLIGHT WAS WOUNDED

Dick's First Sight of the Noted Bushranger Was Impressive.

HIT BY A POLICE BULLET

The Narrative of Crime in the Bush Enters Upon An Exciting Phase.

(By Rolf Boldrewood.)

CHAPTER VI.

After we'd fairly settled to stay, father began to be more pleasant than he'd ever been before. We were pretty likely, he said, to have a visit from Starlight and the half-caste in a day or two, if we'd like to wait. He was to meet him at the Hollow on purpose to help him out with the mob of fat bullocks we had looked at. Father, it appears, was coming here by himself when he met this outlying lot of Mr. Hunter's cattle, and thought he and old Crib could bring them in by themselves. And a mighty good haul it was. Father said we should share the weaners between the three of us; that meant £50 a piece at least. The devil always helps beginners.

We put through a couple of days pleasantly enough, after our hardish bit of work. Jim found some fish-hooks and a line, and we caught plenty of mullet and eels in the deep, clear water-holes. We found a couple of double-barrelled guns, and shot ducks enough to last us a week. No wonder the old frequenters of the Hollow used to live here for a month at a time, having great times of it as long as their grog lasted; and sometimes having the tribe of blacks that inhabited the district to make merry and carouse with them, like the buccaneers of the Spanish Main that I've read about, till the plunder was all gone. There were scrawls on the wall of the first cave we had been in that showed all the visitors had not been rude untaught people; and Jim picked up part of a woman's dress splashed with blood, and in one place, among some smouldering packages and boxes, a long lock of woman's hair, fair, bright brown, that looked as if the name of Terrible Hollow might not have been given to this lonely, wonderful glen for nothing.

We spent nearly a week in this way, and were beginning to get rather sick of the life, when father, who used always to be looking at a bare patch in the scrub above us, said—

"They're coming at last."

"Who are coming—friends?"

"Why, friends, of course. That's Starlight's signal. See that smoke? The half-caste always sends that up—like the blacks in his mother's tribe, I suppose."

"Any cattle or horses with them?" said Jim.

"No, or they'd send up two smokes. They will be here about dinner-time, so we must get ready for them."

We had plenty of time to get ourselves or anything else ready. In about four hours we began to look at them through a strong spyglass which father brought out. By and by we got sight of two men coming along on horseback on the top of the range the other side of the far wall. They wasn't particularly easy to see, and every now and then we'd lose sight of 'em as they got into thicker timber or behind rocks.

Father got the spyglass on to 'em at last, pretty clear, and nearly threw it down with an oath.

"I believe Starlight's hurt somehow. He's too infernal rash. I can see the half-caste holding him on. If the police are on his tracks they'll spring the plant here, and the whole thing'll be blown."

We saw them come to the top of the wall, as it were, then they stopped for a long while, then all of a sudden they seemed to disappear.

"Let's go over to the other side," says father; "they're coming down the gully now. It's a terrible steep, rough track, worse than the other. If Starlight's hurt bad he'll never ride down. But he has the pluck of the devil, sure enough."

We rode over to the other side, where there was a kind of gully that came in, something like the one we came in by, but rougher, and full of gibbers (boulders). There was a path, but it looked as if cattle could never be driven or forced up it. We found afterwards that they had an old pack bullock that they'd trained to walk up this, and down, too, when they wanted him, and the other cattle followed in his track as cattle will.

Father showed us a sort of cave by the side of the track, where one man, with a couple of guns and a pistol or two, could have shot down a small regiment as they came down one at a time.

We stayed in there by the track, and after about half an hour we heard the two horses coming down slowly, step by step, kicking the stones down before them. Then we could hear a man groaning, as if he could not bear the pain, and partly as if he was trying to smother it. Then another man's voice, very soft and soothing like, trying to comfort another.

"My head's a-fire, and these wretched ribs are grinding against one another every step of this infernal ladder. Is it far now?" How he groaned then!

"Just go to the bottom; hold on a bit longer and you'll be all right."

Just then the leading horse came out into the open before the cave. We had a good look at him and his rider. I never forgot them. It was a bad day I ever saw either, and many a man had cause to say the same.

The horse held up his head and snorted as he came abreast of us, and we showed out. He was one of the grandest animals I'd ever seen, and I afterwards found he was better than he looked. He came stepping down that beastly rocky goat-track, he, a clean thoroughbred that ought never to have trodden upon anything rougher than a rolled training track, or the sound bush turf. And here he was with a heavy weight on his back—a half-dead, fainting man, that couldn't hold the reins—and him walking down as steady as an old mountain bull or a wallaroo on the side of a creek bank.

I hadn't much time to look him over. I was too much taken up with the rider, who was lying forward on his chest across a coat rolled round and strapped in front of the saddle, and his arms round the horse's neck. He was as pale as a ghost. His eyes—great dark ones they were, too—were staring out of his head. I thought he was dead, and called out to father and Jim that he was.

They ran up, and we lifted him off after undoing some straps and a rope. He was tied on (that was what the half-caste was waiting for at the top of the gully). When we laid him down his head fell back, and he looked as much like a corpse as if he had been dead a day.

Then we saw he had been wounded. There was blood on his shirt, and the upper part of his arm was bandaged.

"It's too late, father," said I; "he's a dead man. What pluck he must have had to ride down there!"

"He's worth two dead 'uns yet," said father, who had his hand on his pulse. "Hold his head up one of you while I go for the brandy. How did he get hit, Warrigal?"

"That —— Sergeant Goring," said the boy, a slight, active-looking chap, about sixteen, that looked as if he could jump into a gum tree and back again, and I believe he could. "Sergeant Goring, he very near grab us at Dilligah. We got a lot of old Jobson's cattle when he came on us. He jump off his horse when he see he couldn't catch us, and very near drop Starlight. My word, he very nearly fall off—just like that" (here he imitated a man reeling in his saddle); "but the old horse stop steady with him, my word, till he come to. Then the sergeant fire at him again; hit him in the shoulder with his pistol. Then Starlight come to his senses, and we clear. My word, he couldn't see the way the old horse went. Ha, ha!"—here the young imp laughed till the trees and rocks rang again. "Gallop different ways, too, and met at the old needle-rock. But they was miles away then."

Before the wild boy had come to the end of his story the wounded man had proved that it was only a dead faint, as the women call it, not the real thing. And after he had tasted a pannikin full of brandy and water, which father brought him, he sat up and looked like a living man once more.

"Better have a look at my shoulder," he said. "That fellow shot like a prize-winner at Wimbledon. I've had a squeak for it."

"Puts me in mind of our old poaching rows," said father, while he carefully cut the shirt off, that was stiffened with blood and showed where the bullet had passed through the muscle, narrowly missing the bone of the joint. We washed it, and relieved the wounded man by discovering that the other bullet had only been spent, after striking a tree most like, when it had knocked the wind out of him and nearly unhorsed him, as Warrigal said.

"Fill my pipe, one of you. Who are these lads? Yours, I suppose, Marston, or you wouldn't be fool enough to bring them here. Why didn't you leave them at home with their mother. Don't you think you and I and this devil's limb enough for this precious trade of ours?"

"They'll take their luck as it comes, like others," growled father; "what's good enough for us isn't too bad for them. We want another hand or two to work things right."

"Oh! we do, do we?" said the stranger, fixing his eyes on father as if he was going to burn a hold in him with a burning-glass; "but if I'd a brace of fine boys like those of my own I'd hang myself before I'd drag them into the pit after myself."

"That's all very fine," said father, looking very dark and dangerous. "Is Mr. Starlight going to turn parson? You'll be just in time, for we'll all be shopped if you run against the police like this, and next thing to lay them on to the Hollow by making for it when you're too weak to ride."

"What would you have me do? Pull up and hold up my hands? There was nowhere else to go; and that new sergeant rode devilish well, I can tell you, with a big chestnut well-bred horse, that gave old Rainbow here all he knew to lose him. Now, once for all, no more of that, Marston, and mind your own business. I'm the superior officer in this ship's company—you know that very well—your business is to obey me, and take second place."

Father growled out something, but did not offer to deny it. We could see plainly that the stranger was or had been far above our rank, whatever were the reasons which had led to his present kind of life.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY

TRADE THERAPION MARK.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1 in a remarkably short time, often a few days only removes all discharges from the urinary organs, superseding injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases.

THERAPION No. 2 for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pains and swelling of the joints, secondary symptoms, gout, rheumatism, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of sufferers' teeth and ruin of health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3 for nervous exhaustion, impaired vitality, sleeplessness, and all the distressing consequences of early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION is sold by all the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the World. Price in England 2/9 & 4/6. In ordering, state which of the three numbers is required, and observe above Trade Mark, which is a fac-simile of word "THERAPION" as it appears on the Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

For further particulars of Therapion send addressed envelope for pamphlet to Mr. R. Johnson, 43 Holford square, London, W. C., England. Large Edition (152 pages), post free, for twelve cents stamps.

THE KING'S HAND.

The announcement made with much gusto by some of the newspapers, principally in the telegraphic columns of some New York papers, that peace had been largely brought about by the influence and intercession of the King, has been spoken of as greatly adding to His Majesty's popularity. We are also given a hint that His Majesty and the Prime Minister are having a little coolness, due to the peace terms the King insisted upon giving the Boers.

There is little reason to credit either report.

His Majesty's Ministry enjoy the confidence of their Sovereign, and the good-will of the people. They understand, and have understood, their business. It is extremely doubtful if the King had any influence with the Boers, or that he endeavoured to bring any pressure upon them personally. Yet it was a change which came over the Boers which led to peace being concluded.

The idea that the King made the British modify their terms so as to induce the Boers to accept them, in order to give additional eclat to the coronation festivities, bears on the face of it evidence of being a pretty little fairy tale. The terms which were agreed to last Saturday were those which were emphatically refused by the Boers over a year ago. They were the terms which were long ago considered by the British Government, and forwarded to South Africa for the guidance of Lord Milner and Lord Kitchener. The modification in the final settlement was in the increase of the amount that Britain would advance to aid the Boers rebuild farm houses. The number of farms which would have to be restored had materially increased since the terms were refused before.

The conclusion of peace is in accordance with the well-understood policy of the King's Ministers, long since decided upon, frequently published and commented upon all over the world, and not brought about by any pressure from His Majesty to obtain peace at any price.

A GEM FROM THE BRITISH ISLES.

This being Coronation year and there being a certainty that London will attract a large number of subjects of the King from Greater Britain, some of the London Dailies, notably the Daily Chronicle, have started a daily column of news and comment concerning the Colonies and the Empire generally. The success of the Chronicle in this line was so marked that its rival, the Daily News, also started a Greater Britain column. The intention was no doubt very kind, but just how much the editor knows of Canadian affairs may be gathered from the following clipped from this "Greater Britain" column:

> "It must be premised that the general elections in the Dominion are close at hand. Nominations took place all over the country on Thursday last, and all voters will go to the poll on Thursday next. The Liberal and Tory campaigns have been in full blast for some weeks. A great competition for the Quebec vote, which is wielded by the French Canadians, is taking place, since it is considered possible that parties will turn out to be pretty evenly divided in the English-speaking provinces. Mr. Whitney, the chief opponent of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, has therefore been "hunting" the French vote vigorously. He has been a little embarrassed by that section of his party which is uncompromisingly anti-French, and chafes bitterly at Sir Wilfrid's long domination. But he has persevered; and one of the first Tory moves was to represent Sir Wilfrid and his Government as too Imperialistic. This may seem an odd proceeding from a Tory party; but it is to be remembered that the French Canadians, though many of them have gone with the contingents to the front, have been as a whole either passive on the war, or opposed to it. This, then, was the natural Tory line with them; and it was expedient that the Government should meet it with some action to show themselves not so much carried away by Jingo enthusiasm as their opponents had said. Hence the 'lukewarm' reply to Mr. Chamberlain, dictated as report has it, by Mr. Tarte, the Minister of Public Works, and the principal party manager in the French Province."

Thus are the people of the British Isles kept informed as to what we are doing and saying and thinking in Canada. The Daily News's writer may be said to know a little more about Canada than one who doesn't know anything about it, but not very much more.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT.

A French writer who has devoted a book to a study of "The Psycholgy of the English People in the nineteenth century expresses himself as follows: "Who that has lived long in England can deny the animal character of the bulk of the people? To-day, as in past times, sport, betting, drunkenness count among the pleasures most appreciated by Englishmen. To-day, as formerly, you must fill their stomachs in order to stimulate their genius; and if a statesman of the commencement of the century is to be trusted, the most important decisions and the most ingenious combination have had their birth in the half hour devoted after dinner to a few extra glasses and somewhat free conversation." The Quarterly Review is indignant at these remarks, and cites them as a proof of anti-English prejudice on the part of a writer from whom better things might have been expected. What the author—Mr. Boutmy—has said, however, might be corroborated to some extent from English sources. It is not many years since the voice of Matthew Arnold was proclaiming in the wilderness that the upper classes were materialized, the middle vulgarized and the lower brutalized; and if we go back to the eighteenth century the pictures of Hogarth and the romances of Fielding and Smollet tell a tale of national manners which to say the least is not flattering. Dr. Johnson has left it on record that Sir Robert Walpole made a rule of always introducing indecent conversation at his table, as "that was something in which everybody could join." But leaving ancient history aside and coming down to actualities, is there not some justification for M. Boutmy's criticism in the fact that the Lord Mayor of London, in announcing from the Mansion House the news of peace in South Africa, found it necessary to express his hope that London would show its appreciation of the good news by "behaving itself decently and in an orderly manner." The authorities, as we know, were seriously concerned lest there should be a repetition of the really disgraceful scenes which marked the receipt of the news of the relief of Mafeking. The press despatches state, indeed, that, had it not been for a certain undercurrent of discontent at what were assumed to be the terms of peace, London would have been "given over to the wildest debauchery." The words are strong—quite as strong as the Frenchman's.

When criticism of obvious national shortcomings is tendered there is not much use worrying ourselves over a little more or a little less. The English race has its virtues and it has its faults. Possibly, in some sense, its virtues may spring from its faults and vice versa. Shakespeare knew what he was doing when he drew the character of Jack Falstaff. It is for those who influence public opinion in England by speech, by writing, or by example, to do all that in them lies to improve the popular ideals. That the upper classes are doing all they should in this respect may be doubted. We read in the despatches that what was lacking in the uproariousness of the crowd was made up by that of the gentlemen in the fashionable restaurants.

It is a noble thing when a noble science or art is nobly conceived. Architecture is a noble art, founded as most, if not all, arts are, on the principles of science; and it is a pleasure to read the utterances of some of the members of the Architectural League of America, which lately held a session at Toronto. The true architect, said Mr. D. H. Perkins, of Chicago, is he who seeks to realize truth to nature in all that he does, who is not content simply to take a paying job and work on prescribed or conventional lines, but who strives to make all his work the expression of a true idea. The architect should not be an architect alone, but also a conscious and conscientious citizen. The city itself is an organized unit, and the architect should aim at enabling it, so to speak, to realize its best self, not only in the character of its building, but in the arrangement of its parks and playgrounds, the organization of its means of transit, in everything, in a word, that can add to its completeness and beauty. May such sentiments gain strength day by day, and may the kingdom of beauty and all that should accompany it, come!

The question of automobile speed on the highways is being considered in England now. Vehicles using the highways are required not to be driven at a speed "greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic on the highway, or so as to endanger the life or limb of any person, or to the common danger of passengers." It is further enjoined, however, that no one shall under any circumstances drive a light locomotive (which covers the automobile), at a greater speed than twelve miles an hour." The London Times and Spectator are out on behalf of the auto. They claim that the machine can be almost instantly brought to a full stop from a speed of twenty to twenty-five miles an hour, while the certainty of stopping a horse in case of emergency is far more remote. The only difference is that people have been run over by a horse vehicle and survived to relate their experiences. It is feared the auto's victims tell no tales. Yet a person might just as well be struck by one going twenty-five miles an hour as one ambling along at twelve.

Mr. Gross, the gentleman who succeeded in getting a restraining order against the performance of "Cyrano de Bergerac" from a Chicago Court, is an ingenious advertiser. He sent copies of his play to all the principal papers in the country to prove that he had a long-nosed hero in a drama the public had never seen, before Rostand wrote "Cyrano." From all we have heard of his drama, this flurry and the newspaper comment give the only chance the play would ever have had to get a manager to produce it. The gnat bit a lion and strutting around said to the world: "Behold me! I have within me the blood of a lion!" And some of the world went to see the insect.

It is suggested that our neighbours are getting Benjamin Harrison's face hurried out of sight when they are remembering the ex-President by putting his portrait on a thirteen cent postage stamp. Better that than to put it on a thirty cent stamp.

THE PASSING HOUR.

PA'S AWFUL IGNORANCE.

Most every day when I'm at school
  The teacher tells us things
About the birds and animals
  And presidents and kings,
And then, at night, when I ast pa
  If what she says is so,
He reads his paper right along
  And says, "Oh, I dunno!"

One day she told us that the world
  Is round just like a ball,
And that there's nothing down below
  It's standing on at all.
I ast pa if she told the truth,
  He read his paper through,
And put his feet up on a chair,
  And said: "Oh, I dunno"

And once the teacher said the sky
  Ain't heaven's floor, and tried
To make us think no angels walk
  Along the other side,
And so that night I ast my pa,
  And all he said was: "Oh,
Don't bother me about such things,
  I'm busy—I dunno!"

One time a bigger boy, he said
  The doctor didn't bring
My little baby sister in
  A box—no such thing!
That night I ast my pa if what
  That big boy said was so,
And pa, he answered: "Oh, keep still—
  Confound it, I dunno!"

I used to kind of think somehow
  That my pa knew a lot—
But that was wrong, or if he did
  I guess that he's forgot.
Since I've got started into school
  Most every day or so
I hear about a hundred things
  Pa doesn't seem to know.

DEPEW'S EXPLANATION FAILED.

(From the Washington Post.)

About a month ago a constituent of Senator Depew came to him to seek his influence in getting an office.

"You write a letter telling what you want and I will forward it with my endorsement," said the Senator, when he had heard the man's story.

Yesterday the man met the Senator in the Capitol lobby.

"You remember telling me to write you a letter?" he said.

"O, yes," was Mr. Depew's reply, as he cordially grasped his visitor by the hand. "Let me see. You sent me the letter, didn't you, and, if I remember rightly, I endorsed it strongly."

"No," said the man, "I never wrote the letter. I've been sick."

DONE.

An old soldier belonging to a well-known line regiment had gained the unenviable reputation of being known as a "sting," or, in other words, one who comfortably manages to live on another's pay.

Pay day having come and gone, things looked rather blue for him when the time for opening the canteen arrived. But not for long: he soon espied his bed chum not far away, and, calling him over, he engaged him in conversation, finally persuading Paddy—a recruit, by the way—to sell a pair of pants, saying it was foolish to have more kit about one than necessary.

Accordingly Pat went to his room, and, providing himself with a new pair of pants, returned and gave them to the man, who forthwith proceeded to dispose of them.

Needless to say, an enjoyable evening followed, and, on leaving the canteen, the "sting" remarked:

"You're a good boy, Pat, and I'll stand you a drink some day in return."

"Och, you need not bother," said Pat. "Sure, it's your own pants ye sould. I tuk them from your box."

CALLING DOWN THE FUNNY MAN.

The one man Mark Twain has stopped having fun with is Colonel A. G. Paine. Mark, Colonel Paine, Thomas Brackett Reed and others were members of a merry party on board Henry H. Rogers' yacht not long since. In the arrangement of seats at the table Mark Twain found himself opposite Colonel Paine. It struck him as being funny to play deaf whenever the colonel was talking and to demand more trumpet-like enunciation. Finally, wearying of the repetition of the cry, "Louder, louder." Colonel Paine hit on an expedient to quiet the exuberance of Mark Twain's humour. He accordingly borrowed the yacht's megaphone, which he concealed under the table at his elbow. The next time the funny man uttered the familiar war whoop "Louder," the colonel drew the megaphone from its hiding place and yelled his reply into it with such force and effectiveness that the joker was nearly knocked out of his chair and through the boat's side. Mark threw up his hands and cried quits. He promised he would not be funny again on the trip—at least not at the expense of Colonel Paine.

A story is told about a notorious beggar in a large town in England, who, like the big magazines, had a regular "corps of contributors." On a recent occasion this man accosted one of his patrons as usual, and received from him half a crown. This beggar took it, thanked the donor, but apparently seemed dissatisfied. "Well, what is it?" said the gentleman. "It is this, sir. Every month for years you have given me five shillings, but to-day you give me only half a crown. How is that?" "Well, I'll tell you," said the gentleman, smiling good humoredly. "I have had some unusually heavy expenses this month. My eldest daughter has married, and the outlay for her trousseau, etc., has compelled me to retrench in every direction." "Ah, yes, I see," said the beggar. "But, sir, I really can't afford to contribute anything toward your daughter's wedding expenses."

PORT'S REVENUES SHOW AN INCREASE

Harbour Commissioners' Statement To-day Shows Excess of $15,000

OVER SAME PERIOD IN 1901

So Far the Sea-Going Tonnage Arriving in Port of Montreal Amounts 271,000 Tons.

So far this year the revenues of the port show a substantial increase over last. At the meeting of the Commissioners, to-day, a statement was read showing the total revenue from the opening of navigation to the first of June, to be $15,000 in excess of the same period last year. Of course the port was open somewhat earlier this year than last, and this would probably account for a little of the increase, still, at the same time, the steamships, with the exception of a fruiter or two, did not arrive earlier than they did a year ago.

The statement of revenue for the month of May in 1901 and 1002, and from the opening of navigation in said years to 1st June, 1902:

	1901.	1902.
From collector of customs—
Imports	$17,000.00	$29,000.00
Exports	3,500.00	4,000.00
	$20,500.00	$33,000.00
From wharfinger for local traffic..	1,205.78	$36,752.21
Total	$21,705.78	$36,752.21
Increase		$15,046.43
The above totals were received from:
Imports	$17,000.00	$29,000.00
Exports	3,500.00	4,000.00
Local traffic..	1,205.78	3,752.21
	$21,705.78	$36,752.21
Comparative statement of Trinity Dues, being 7 per cent. of all pilotage fees paid on vessels entering and leaving Montreal Harbour, 5 per cent. of which for Montreal Decayed Pilots' Fund, and 2 per cent. for Montreal district pilotage expenses	$593.85	$620.72
	$593.85	$620.72
Increase		$26.87

So far this season the sea-going tonnage arriving in port amounted to 271,000 tons, as compared with 253,838 tons from the opening of navigation to the first of June, 1902.

Steamships from abroad arriving in port from the opening of navigation to the first of June, the present year, amount to 132, as compared with 131 for the same period last year. This indicates a larger class of vessels during the present season.

The inland vessels making the port of Montreal, between the opening of navigation and the first of June, amounted to 312,379 tons as compared with 241,393 for the same period last year. Calculated in this list are the Cape Breton coal carriers and a large proportion of the increase this year is due to the extraordinary number of this class of vessels coming to port.

A CORONATION ODE.

The following are some verses from Bliss Carman's Coronation Ode, published in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post:

They will take him up to Westminster, and set him in his place;
And Church and Lords and Commons will stand before his face,
  And hear him make reply,
  In the name of God Most High,
  To be their Faith's Defender, as it was in days gone by,
With the thousand years behind him and the glory of his race.

* * * * * *

There'll be men of little learning, and men of proven worth,
Of every caste and every creed, come up from all the earth,
  To watch him brave and fine,
  To speak of right divine—
  Plantagenet and Lancaster and Stuart in his line—
And bless the blameless memory of Her who gave him birth.

But who will stand before him, with simple words and few,
And a knowledge of the morrow, and tell him straight and true,
  Not only by God's grace
  He comes unto his place,
  The sovereignty of office, the reverend pride of race,
But by their will who choose him as their fathers used to do?

* * * * * *

And these who speak the English tongue not in the English way,
With the careless mien and temper self-assured, whose sons are they?
  By the larger, looser stride,
  By the ampler ease and pride,
  By the quicker catch at laughter and the outlook keener-eyed,
They were bred beneath the tent-cloth of a wider, whiter day.

From the rough red tides of Fundy where the ships go far inland,
To Kamloops where the hills are set as at a council grand;
  From the waving northern light
  At the edge of polar night,
  Where underneath the burnished stars the bitter trail is bright,
To the inland seas that sparkle where goodly orchards stand;

By prairie, swale and barren, by jungle and lagoon,
Where endless palm-trees rustle and the creamy breakers croon,
  By canyon, ford and pass,
  By desert and morass,
  In snows like stinging lashes, on seas like burning glass,
By every land and water beneath the great lone moon;

Our fathers died for England at the outposts of the world;
Our mothers toiled for England where the settler's smoke uncurled;
  By packet, steam and trail,
  By portage, trek and rail,
  They bore a thing called honour in hearts that did not quail,
Till the twelve great winds of heaven saw their scarlet sign unfurled.

And little did they leave us of fame or land or gold;
Yet they gave us great possessions in a heritage untold;
  For they said, "Ye shall be clean,
  Nor ever false nor mean,
  For God and for your country and the honour of your Queen,
Till ye meet the death that waits you with your plighted faith unsold.

"We have fought the long, great battle of the liberty of man,
And only asked a goodly death uncraven in the van,
  We have journeyed travel-worn
  Through envy and through scorn,
  But the faith that was within us we have stubbornly upborne,
For we saw the perfect structure behind the rough-hewn plan.

"We have toiled by land and river, we have laboured on the sea;
If our blindness made us blunder, our courage made us free,
  We suffered or we throve,
  We delved and fought and strove,
  But born to the ideals of order, law and love,
To our birthright we were loyal, and loyal shall ye be!"

AMUSEMENTS.

Francais.

Corse Payton's Stock Company opens a ten-weeks' engagement at the Theatre Francais, beginning on Monday, next, with daily matinees, with the great English race track drama, "The Prodigal Daughter," as an opening attraction. Corse Payton is undoubtedly aware of what the public wants, as is shown by his success as a theatrical manager. All the plays presented by his company are well mounted. The leading lady is Miss Florence Hamilton, a capable and versatile actress. J. Frank Burke is the leading man, and the remainder of the company has been selected especially to conform to Mr. Payton's standard of excellence.

Proctor's Theatre.

On Saturday afternoon, immediately after the matinee, will be an innovation and social event at Proctor's. The event will be a "pink tea," which will be served to ladies occupying seats in the lower part of the house. The various members of the company, including Miss Linthicum, will act as hosts upon the occasion, and serve the guests. In order that the event may be without the least restraint and social in every way, the tea will be served upon the stage itself, which, by the way, has a depth and width which but few patrons of the theatre have any conception of.

"Under the Red Robe" is the drama to be put on at Proctor's next week. "Under the Red Robe" is a play with a splendidly worked-out plot, and fine dramatic situations, and will give excellent opportunities to the company.

Theatre Royal.

The attraction at the Royal next week will be the "Gay Girls of Gothem," a burlesque company of merit, and among the many features will be seen the Mad Cap Girls and Florodoro Girls, Greves and Green, a musical act of great ability, and Belle Harvey, who possesses a baritone voice of great register. There will be two burlesques and numerous comedians and chorus of pretty girls.

IRISH WILL NOT ATTEND CORONATION.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

LONDON, June 4.—One of the curious features of the coronation will be that, while all the Irish members of Parliament and their wives have been invited, none will attend the Westminster Abbey ceremony. A meeting of the Irish Parliamentary party will shortly be held, at which this decision will be announced, and the reasons therefor will be declared.

The Boundary Monuments.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—W. F. King, chief astronomer, and C. A. Biggar, Dominion Land Surveyor, left yesterday for Rouse's Point. They will meet H. P. Willis, Surveyor for the State of New York, who, with Mr. Biggar, will re-erect the monuments marking the international bundary between New York State and Canada.

De Lussan Coming to Canada.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Announcement is made by cable from London that Mlle. Zelie de Lussan, the dramatic soprano, will make a tour in song and recital under the management of Loudon G. Charlton, in this country next season, beginning in November. The tour will include Canada.

Deputy Minister May Retire.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—Deputy Minister of Public Works Gobeil is away preparing for his law examinations. If he succeeds in getting called to the bar he will retire from the Government service and practice law in Montreal.

An Old Report Revived.

LONDON, June 4.—A despatch to the Central News from Rome says that Mgr. Falconio, the Papal delegate in Canada, has been definitely selected to succeed Cardinal Martinelli as Papal delegate in the United States.

STREET GOSSIP AND STOCK EXCHANGE ECHOES.

Star Office, Wednesday, June 4.

Traders in the stock market have to a considerable extent decided to play a waiting game, for the present at least. This sentiment has in a good measure contributed to the growing dulness of the market for the past few days. Professional operators are believed to have some plans in reserve which will be of considerable interest, but the outsiders want to see something of their hand before commencing the game. This state of affairs, together with the failure of peace to stir up the markets, and the poor encouragement from Wall Street, may tend to make the market dull for a few days, unless the bulls get to work immediately. The bulls worked the Canadian Pacific boom surrounded by an adverse set of circumstances, and very successfully, too, so it is claimed bullish plans may be set working at any time, no matter how unfavourable the general conditions may be.

A deal was raitfied yesterday at Halifax by which the Halifax Electric Tram Co. has purchased the property and franchise of the People's Heat and Light Company, thus centralizing in one corporation the electric light and gas interests of the city. The People's Heat and Light Company for some time has been in the hands of the Eastern Trust Company, as liquidators.

The terms of the sale are that the receivers of the People's Heat and Light Company shall be given for the property 3,500 shares of the new issue of stock of the Halifax Electric Tram Company. The par value is $100. The capital of the Tram Company was $1,000,000, out of which $800,000 of stock was issued. At the last session of the Legislature the company was given power to increase its capital to $1,500,000. At the present time the directors, to pay for the newly acuired property and to defray the cost of a new power house and station, have issued 5,500 shares of new stock. Of this 3,500 shares go to the People's Heat and Light Company, and 2,000 shares will be used for the work that is being done in building a power station, improving the plant and putting the company in a better position generally. The 2,000 shares will be offered at par to shareholders in the ratio of one to every holder of four shares.

At a meeting of the directors of the Commercial Cable Company, held in New York yesterday, the usual quarterly dividend of 1 3-4 per cent. was declared payable on July 1st. The transfer books will be closed on June 20th, and re-opened on July 2nd.

Like Wall Street, the Toronto stock market was dull yesterday, with prices showing an easier tendency. C. P. R. was dealt in to the extent of about 4,000 shares, the stock selling down in sympathy with Wall Street. Bank shares were firm. Navigation shares steady. In Street Railways there was little done. Toronto Street Railway sold only to the extent of 140 shares. Twin City sold to the extent of 200 shares with 120 7-8 the top price. Sao Paulo was more active and showed decided strength. Dominion Coal sold to 141. Nova Scotia Steel was firmer. Lake Superior common was more active than of late, selling to the extent of over 500 shares at the top price of 29 1-4. A resumption of activity in the Clergue stocks, which have been doing nothing for some time, is promised for this week, and higher prices are predicted. For the St. Lawrence and Chicago Navigation Company stock, which has just been listed, 160 was bid, with none offered, or 10 higher than yesterday. The statement supplied by the committee reporting on the matter shows that the capital stock is $500,000, of which $300,000 is paid up. The reserve fund amounts to $40,000, and the average dividends during the last eleven years have been over 15 per cent. The last dividend was in December. The par value of shares is $100.

Speaking of the rumoured extra dividend on Canadian Pacific shares, the London Economist remarks: "How far the directors are likely to depart from a conservative policy, and divide up to the hilt during an exceptionally prosperous period, as is anticipated in some quarters, or will husband any surplus for future contingencies, can best be inferred from their policy in the past; unless the directors see their way to not only maintaining, but increasing their receipts, it is doubtful if they would venture to declare an increased dividend on a half-year's exceptional results."

A year ago transactions upon the New York Stock Exchange were more than 1,700,000 shares; yesterday they were less than 200,000 shares. In point of the volume of sales, the market is at the lowest stage of dulness reached on any day, barring Saturdays, since January 1, or, for that matter, since January 1, 1901. For the first time in years, checkerboards were brought out in some of the offices. Displays of sprightliness were not to be seen except where ping-pong games were in swing.

Dividend disbursements announced by industrial companies in the United States for June amount to $20,058,622. If it were not for the fact that the Standard Oil Company's payment of $10 per share and the United States Steel Corporation's disbursement of 1 per cent. on the common stock are to be made, the total for the month would be quite small. The companies named will pay out to their stockholders the sum of $9,750,000 and $5,084,952 respectively. The June disbursements complete the payments for the half-year, which are highly favourable. The total rises to $134,112,253 from $120,945,310 in the first six months of 1901. The importance of this increase lies in the fact that copper dividends were decreased materially in the first half of the current year. In the face of this there is an increase this year of over $13,000,000, which reflects in strong terms the unparalleled prosperity now being enjoyed by the industries of the nation, with practically a single exception of that engaged in copper mining.

It is announced that the shares of the British Columbia Packers' Association will in the near future be listed on the Montreal, Toronto and San Francisco Stock Exchanges. The company comprises a consolidation of about 60 per cent. of the salmon canneries of British Columbia. The payments to the canners have been made partly in common stock, the average proportion being 40 per cent. cash and 60 per cent. common stock. The cash paid out on account of purchases has only amounted approximately to $600,000. The company, therefore, starts business with a large sum in cash, which can be used both for the purchase of other canneries and as a working capital. The following is a short statement with regard to the capitalization of the company: The authorized capital is $4,000,000, being divided into common stock $2,500,000, and preferred stock $1,500,000. Of the preferred stock $1,250,000 has been subscribed for, and the cash paid into the credit of the company. Of the common stock $1,494,500 has been issued to pay for the canneries obtained. This leaves in the company's treasury over a million dollars worth of the common stock and $250,000 worth of the preferred. This is to be used, if it is considered desirable, to buy other canneries not yet taken into the consolidation, or to provide funds for the erection of factories to utilize the by-products of the fish, such as guano, glue, oil, etc. The Alaska Packers' Association, a consolidation of the canneries operating in American territory on the Pacific coast, became incorporated about three years ago. They have made an average profit of nearly $800,000 a year, and their consolidation embraced fewer canneries than this. Their capitalization is much larger in proportion to the number of canneries embraced than in this consolidation, yet their stock stands at a high premium, being at about $170.

Steady Live Stock Markets.

Receipts at the local live stock markets to-day were liberal, but as the demand continued fairly good, prices showed practically no change.

Some 500 cattle were offered at the East End market. A few very choice steers brought 5 1-2 to 6c, and a shade over, but the greater part of the fine stock ranged from 5 to 5 1-2c; medium sold at 4 to 4 1-2c, or 1-4c more, and common at 3 to 3 1-2c.

The offerings of sheep were liberal, several hundred being received. Best butchers' stock sold around 4c a pound. Lambs were plentiful, and sold at from $3 to $4 each.

The offering of calves was evidently very heavy, as nearly 700 head were reported. These sold from $3 to $5 a head, and 6c a pound.

The attendance of butchers was fairly large, but a considerable quantity of stock remained unsold at noon, and will be held over in the stables till to-morrow's market.

TORONTO, June 4.—One hundred and six loads in to-day, including 768 hogs, 639 sheep and lambs and 100 calves. Export cattle, choice, $6.25 to $6.65; export cattle, medium, $5.90 to $6.25; export cows, $4.75 to $5; export bulls, $4.75 to $5.25; butcher cattle, picked lots, $5.25 to $5.65; butchers' cattle, medium, mixed, $4.60 to $5.25; butchers cattle, common, $3.75 to $4.50; stockers, $3 to $3.75; milk cows, each, $30 to $50; calves, per head, $2 to $10; export ewes, $4 to $4.50; export rams, $3.50 to $4; yearlings, $5 to $5.50; spring lambs, each, $2.50 to $5.00; hogs, singers, 6 7-8; fats and lights, 6 5-8c off cars. Trade fairly good.

CHEESE IS SCARCE

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—Work on the Brockville and Woodstock cheese-curing stations, has been pushed with great rapidity, and the stations will soon be ready to commence business. N. G. Somerville will have charge of the Brockville station, and Jos. Burgess will be in control at Woodstock. The stations at Cowansville, Que., and Woodstock will be equipped with mechanical refrigeration, and those at Brockville and Ste. Hyacinthe will be provided with ice.

CHEESE. — Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 13,309 boxes.

There is little or no stock offering on this market, as everything is going straight through for export. Prices here are consequently pretty firm, and holders have no difficulty in obtaining 10c for westerns. Townships are quoted around 9⅝ to 9⅞c, and Quebecs at 9⅝ to 9¾c.

BUTTER. — Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 4461 packages.

An improved demand is reported in the local market, and quotations are steady to firm. Very little choice export creameries could be obtained at 19½, and 19¾c is freely paid for the right quality, while 20c is being asked. Unsalted makes are a fraction higher, while good to fine salted makes range from 19 to 19¼c.

EGGS.—Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 1832 cases.

The market is steady, but the dull heavy feeling reported yesterday continues, and buyers are no longer competing with such fierceness for every case offered in the country. Locally, 14¼c to 14½c is still quoted. The average f.o.b. price is 13½c, and, although some firms paid as high as 14c last week, 13½c is the limit now, many not being prepared to pay even that.

POTATOES.—The market is overstocked at present, quite a few cars being offered on track; some say there are 30. As a result prices are temporarily easier, and sellers are prepared to accept 90 to 95c for fine stock, on track. In fact, lots may be easily purchased at that price from first hands. From second hands, on track, stock may be purchased at 95c to $1.00, while 5c more would be paid for delivery into store.

THE GRAIN MARKETS

The Liverpool wheat market was weaker again to-day, July closing 1-4d down at 5s 10 5-8d, buyers; Sept., 1-8d down, at 6s 0 1-2d buyers. Antwerp was unchanged, No. 2 red winter closing at 17 3-8c. Paris closed 10 up on June at 22.20; Sept. and Dec., closing down at 20.35. London reported Walla Walla, prompt, 29s; arrived, 29s 3d; psge., 29s 6d; Australian, arrived, 29s 6d.

Chicago was stronger, July options being quoted as follow at noon: Wheat, 1-2c up at 71 3-4c; corn, unchanged at 61 3-8c; oats, 1-2c up at 35c.

Rain in England and cloudy in France.

Stocks of wheat and flour ashore and afloat, 8,027,000 qrs., as compared with last year's, 8,532,000 qrs.; European monthly statement.

Instead of a car famine at Chicago, the eastern roads are trying to loan their cars to western connections. But they, too, have more than they want, showing the transportation boom is over.

Patten closed his May oats deal in Chicago in a halo of glory at 49 1-2c on Saturday. It might just as well have been 50c, as it would have sounded better and made little difference. But how much money was made in the deal Patten saith not. The Chicago newspapers make $1,000,000 out of it.

The Chicago Record-Herald says: "Patten has led his oats line for six months and has handled it cleverly. It looked for a while as if it would prove a bad deal, and it certainly has been a tiresome one. If paper profits could have been secured there would have been a fortune in the oats for the bull leader. There will probably be some profit when the books are all closed, but it is not likely to prove large enough to be enthusiastic over. If there had not been very clever management the loss might have been a mean one."

LOCAL MARKET—Sales of two cars of No. 2 oats were made to-day at 49 1-2c, store. Other sales have been made at 49c, and the market ranges around these figures. Export is out of the question at present. Manitoba No. 1 northern wheat in store at Fort William is quoted at 73c; No. 2, 71c; No. 2 oats, 49c asked, in store for local use. Peas are reported at 85 1-2c afloat. Buckwheat was 68c basis afloat. No. 2 rye, 63c afloat. No. 2 barley, 60c afloat.

FEED—Quotations in car lots on track: Manitoba bran, in bags, $19 to $20; shorts, bags, $22; Ontario bran, in bulk, $18.50 to $19; shorts are scarce at $21 to $22 in bulk; middlings, $22 to $23; moullie, $23 to $30, according to quality.

PROVISIONS ADVANCE AND LIVE HOGS DECLINE.

Abattoir Dressed Hogs Decline in Sympathy With Live Stock — Barrel Pork Very Dear.

Declines in the market for live hogs have been frequent during the past few weeks, while the market for provisions has advanced. Dressed hogs are cheaper in sympathy with live stock. The advance in barrel pork is one of the most noticeable features of the market, it being impossible to obtain anything now at less than around $24 per barrel. Bacon, lard and hams are also a shade higher.

The offerings of hogs on this market this morning was not particularly large, but they were so much in excess of the demand that prices suffered a decline. Straight lots, off cars, sold at $6.85 to $7 a hundred. Abattoir dressed hogs now sell to butchers at $9.50 to $9.75 a hundred pounds, the demand being pretty fair.

PORK—Heavy Canada short mess, barrels, $25; long cut, $24; heavy or light short clear, $24; short cut backs, $24; heavy flanks, $24.

HAMS.—Large hams, 12c; medium size, 13c; extra small, 13½c; with bone out, rolled, 14c; choice picnic hams, 12c.

BACON.—Breakfast boneless, 15c; Wiltshire sides, 14c; Windsor backs, 14c; green, bone in, not smoked, 11½c; long clear, 11½c.

LARD.—Choice refined compound, in 20-pound wooden pails, 9¾c, and more for smaller packages; extra pure, in pails, 11½c; finest kettle, pails, 12½c.

Montreal Mining Exchange.

Following were the sales at this morning's session of the Mining Exchange:
Virtue—1000 at 12½.
Centre Star—500 at 40½.
Montreal and London—1000 at 1.

AFTERNOON SALES.

Copper and Lead Markets.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 4.—Copper, weak. Lake, $12.25 to $12.52 1-2; electrolytic, and Casting, $12 to $12.25; Standard, $11.65 to $11.87½. London, Copper, quiet at £54 2s 6d. Lead in New York unchanged; London, weaker at £11 2s 6d.

New York Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Cotton futures opened steady. June, 8.94; July, 8.66; Aug., 8.44; Sept., 7.96; Oct., 7.80; Nov., 7.71; Dec. 7.71; Jan., 7.70; Feb., 7.71 bid.

According to the Boersen Courier, of Berlin, Herr Krupp has brought to perfection a gun, the projectile from which is capable of penetrating the best and thickest armour plate he manufactures. Emperor William has already witnessed trials of this gun and His Majesty has exacted a promise from Herr Krupp to reserve it exclusively for the use of the German navy.

Announcement is made in Toronto of the marriage at the Church of St. James the Apostle, Montreal, on August 21st last, of Mr. A. Courthope Poussette, of the Sovereign Bank, formerly of the Bank of Toronto, Montreal, to Miss Eleanor M. Rackham, a member of an old Peterboro' family. The groom is a son of Mr. A. P. Poussette, K.C., Peterboro'.

At a dinner recently given in London by Mrs. George Cornwallis West, formerly Lady Randolph Churchill, at which His Majesty was present, the guests included the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, the Countess of Minto, Lieut. and Mrs. Jack Leslie, Mme. Von Andre, Miss Gladys Deacon, the Baron Alfred de Rothschild, Mr. Winston Churchill and Mr. John Churchill.

The marriage took place yesterday at St. Patrick's Church of Miss Agnes Louise O'Brien, daughter of Mr. C. O'Brien, to Mr. Walter L. Price, youngest son of Mr. James Price. The bride, who wore a gown of voile de Paris over gray taffeta, was attended by Miss C. Hogue. Mr. L. C. O'Brien acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Price have left for Boston and a tour of the Eastern States. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents.

The marriage of Miss Gwendolyn Grant, daughter of Sir James and Lady Grant, to Mr. Harry Cassils, of Montreal, son of the late Mr. John Cassils, took place very quietly to-day. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Elgin street, Ottawa, Rev. Dr. Herridge officiating, and only a few of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. The maid of honour was Miss Isbester, and Mr. B. Simmons, of Ottawa, formerly of Montreal, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brant, of Buffalo, and Mr. Evans, of Montreal, brother-in-law of the groom, were present.

The marriage of Miss Edna Isabel Ebbitt to Mr. E. Frederick Dugan took place on Monday at the residence of the bride's mother, 6 Springfield avenue, Westmount. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edmund Wood in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride, who was gowned in white, was given away by her brother, Mr. E. R. Ebbitt, and attended by her sister, Miss Mabel Ebbitt. Mr. Sydney Dugan, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dugan are spending their honeymoon in the west, and on their return will reside at 176 Park avenue, where Mrs. Dugan will receive in September. The bride went away in a tailor-made gown of blue cloth, with hat to match.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Yondau, when her daughter, Miss Ida Yondau, was married to Mr. Duncan McElheran in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. Elcombe, wore a gown of white organdie, much tucked and ruffled, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Ivye Yondau, who was also in white, carried pink carnations and sweet peas. Mr. J. W. McElheran, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Among the numerous presents received was a handsome silver entree dish presented by No. 3 Company, Victoria Rifles, of which Mr. McElheran is a member. Mr. and Mrs. McElheran left later for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a gown of blue cloth with trimmings of black and white, and Tuscan hat trimmed with foliage and black velvet.

The marriage took place at St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, at eleven o'clock this morning of Miss Josephine Clements to Mr. Francis Hill Macnee. Both bride and groom are popular in Kingston, and in addition to the hundred and twenty guests there were many interested spectators at the Cathedral. The service was full choral. The bride, who was given away by her father, Dr. Clements, wore a gown of ivory satin with berthe of Duchesse lace, a lace veil and coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Miss Ethel Macnee, gowned in pink silk voile, was maid of honour, and Mr. William C. Kent was best man. The ushers were Mr. Arthur Macnee, Mr. C. Gay Shannon, Mr. Campbell Reaves (Toronto), and Mr. Halloway Waddell. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. the Dean of Ontario, assisted by the Rev. G. Lathrop Starr. A reception was afterwards held at the residence of the bride's parents, King street, where the decorations were most artistic. Breakfast was served in the dining room, where the bride's table was done in white roses and carnations. The wedding gifts were exceptionally beautiful, among them being a silver tea service from the club friends of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a travelling bag fitted with toilet requisites in ivory and silver. His gift to the bridesmaid was a pearl brooch. The bride's going away gown was string-coloured canvas over violet taffeta and hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Macnee left by the train going east, and after their return from their wedding trip will take up their residence on King street.

Christ Church Cathedral, Ottawa, was the scene this morning of an interesting wedding, when Miss Amy F. Blair, daughter of Hon. A. G. Blair, was married to Rev. F. H. Brewin, of England. The church was decorated with palms and white lilacs, and the service was fully choral, with Mr. Arthur Dorey as organist. Rev. Henry Kitson was the officiating clergyman, and the bride was given away by her father. Her gown was of white moire, with transparent yoke and sleeves of lace, outlined by a berthe finished with a heavy pearl trimming. The skirt was also trimmed with lace and pearl applique. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Audrey Blair, who wore white silk, with insertion of white lace, a white lace hat, and carried pink roses. Mr. Julius Brewin, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arthur Campbell, Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Gerald Ruel and Mr. Lawrence C. Taylor. Mrs. Blair, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black lace. Mrs. Randolph, sister of the bride, wore black grenadine over white satin, and Mrs. Clarke, another sister, was in gray crepe de chine with a white polka dot, and trimmed in black and white. Miss Brewin, sister of the groom, was in white silk voile and lace. Miss Thomson and Miss Mona Thomson, of St. John; Miss Schulhof, of England; Mr. Randolph, Mr. Clarke, and Mr. G. Blair, brother of the bride, were also of the house party. After the marriage a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 274 O'Connor street. Mr. and Mrs. Brewin left this afternoon on a short honeymoon trip before sailing for England on Saturday, June 14th, from Montreal.

Mr. Drummond in a short speech said this resolution had been framed by the members of the Board of Trade of Montreal, as business men, anxious for the permanent safety and solidity of the Empire. It was presented in a spirit of loyalty and he was glad to say that the loyalty of Canada could not be questioned. He referred to the traditional free trade policy of England, and argued that the adoption of an inter-imperial trade preference was the best way of attaining the objects of the free traders.

It was time Britain gave her protectionist rivals a taste of their own medicine. The question of food supply was a vital one to Great Britain. He quoted statistics showing the present dependence of the United Kingdom upon foreign nations for her food supply. He believed that under inter-imperial preferential trade the Colonies would in 15 years be able to furnish all the food supplies Great Britain needed. This policy would increase British immigration to the colonies and would tend to the strengthening and consolidation of the Empire.

THE MOTION SECONDED.

The motion was seconded by Mr. Cockshutt, of Brantford, who denounced the Manchester School of Trade policy. Great Britain's salvation was her colonies. Without them she would not be a first class power for a year. Britain should, therefore, adopt a policy calculated to benefit and strengthen them. There was no policy so potent in the direction of unity as one of material interests.

Mr. E. G. Henderson, of Windsor, approved the resolution, but thought it did not go far enough. It said nothing as to what steps should be taken to give effect to the policy advocated. He urged that the following clause of the Toronto Board's resolution be incorporated

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Prime Minister of Canada be requested to urge at the Imperial Conference the securing of a Royal Commission composed of representatives of Great Britain and the Colonies to investigate conditions and to suggest such preferential treatment of imports from the various parts of the Empire as shall be best calculated to insure the fullest benefits.

Mr. Drummond consented to add this clause to the Montreal resolution.

Considerable discussion took place upon a point of order as to what was to be done with the score of other resolutions on the same subject of which notice had been submitted, some of which covered different aspects of the question. The chairman finally decided that the other resolutions must be moved as amendments to the Montreal resolution.

CANADIAN PREFERENCE.

Mr. Hathaway, of St. John, N.B., moved an amendment to the effect that the Canadian preferential of 33 1-3 per cent. be allowed only on goods imported through Canadian ports. It was not an amendment to the Montreal resolution, and Mr. Hathaway subsequently withdrew it for the present.

Mr. Geo. L. McLagan, president of the Stratford Board of Trade, moved the following amendment:

"That preferences between the Motherland and the Colonies should be entirely voluntary, rather than the result of bargaining, and each independent Government should consider the interest of its own people first.

"That it is possible to continue the Canadian tariff preference in its present form or modified, if need be, so that no interest in Canada need suffer thereby, and in the opinion of this conference, Britain would be serving the interests of the Empire by adjusting the present tax on foodstuffs and levying any other duties that may be imposed in such a manner that imports from Canada and other colonies will have preference over those from other nations, when this can be done without sacrifice of British interests."

Mr. McLagan believed bargaining would defeat the object desired. He pointed out that the Montreal resolution gave no indication of how preferential trade should be brought about.

The amendment was seconded by Mr. W. Preston, of Stratford, who thought Canada should not go with her cap in hand, asking for favours.

Mr. Andrew Pattullo, of Woodstock, considered it was necessary to indicate that Canada is willing to revise her fiscal policy in the interests of the Empire.

Mr. McKay, Sault Ste. Marie, said that a preference should not be asked as the price of what Canada had done in Africa, nor as the price of the preference she has already given.

A MONTREAL OPINION.

Mr. Robert Munro, Montreal, said there was nothing about a quid pro quo in the Montreal resolution. We do not go hat in hand, but as a part of the Empire. He did not think the Stratford amendment was a fitting one.

Mr. Russell, president of the Winnipeg Board of Trade, told what the West could do to supply the Empire with food. Its capacity would be vastly increased by a preference on the British market.

Mr. Ferguson, of Stratford, objected that the Montreal resolution was not of an Imperial nature. It only referred to Canada. He believed Great Britain did not owe Canada anything.

Mr. Campbell, Halifax, moved a further amendment that the words "and that representatives of other colonies be asked to join in this request," be added to the Montreal resolution.

Mr. C. A. Young, President of the Winnipeg grain exchange, supported the Montreal resolution and gave further information as to what Manitoba can do as an Imperial granary. Mr. P. B. Dumoulin, Quebec, thought that nothing should be done to prejudice our trade relations with the United States unless it is certain we shall derive greater advantages from Great Britain. He considered that our exports to Britain were satisfactory enough and that we should rather seek to develop our exports to the United States.

Mr. Hagedon, of Berlin, supported the Montreal resolution. Mr. D. R. Wilkie, Toronto, suggested two amendments, one which linked the question of defence with that of trade, and substituting the word "differential" for "preferential." He argued that the question of defence was so bound up with the question of trade that they could not be considered separately, and he declared it was abject to go asking for a preference for ourselves when what we really wanted was a differential duty against foreigners.

It being one o'clock the Conference adjourned for lunch, the various suggested amendments remaining undisposed of before adjourning. It was decided in consequence of the immense amount of work to be done to hold night as well as day sessions.

POWER CO. HELD ANNUAL MEETING

President Holt Satisfied With Result of Year's Operations.

NEW DISTRIBUTING STATION

When Completed it Will Prove One of the Finest Plants in America.

Considering the size and importance of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, there were very few present at the annual meeting, held at noon to-day in the Street Railway Chambers.

Mr. H. S. Holt, president, occupied the chair, and among the others present were: Hon. Senator Forget, Mr. James Ross, Mr. C. E. L. Porteous, Mr. H. Montagu Allan, Lt.-Col. Henshaw, Hon. Robert Mackay, Mr. R. Forget, Mr. F. L. Wanklyn, Mr. George Caverhill, Mr. W. R. Miller, Mr. Gordon Strathy, Mr. John Morrison, Mr. Nolan de Lisle, and Mr. W. G. Ross.

Mr. Holt stated that in order to list the stock on the New York Exchange, it would be necessary to amend one of the existing by-laws. This by-law, which was a very old one, stated that no one indebted to the company could transfer a share of stock. For instance, any one owing a month's gas or electric light bill could not, according to the by-law, transfer shares. The listing committee of the New York Stock Exchange objected to the clause, and it was, therefore, removed with the full consent of the meeting.

A PROSPEROUS OUTLOOK.

The chairman, in his remarks, stated that the year which was to come had every promise of being even more prosperous than the one just closed, and even the present annual statement did not give the shareholders opportunity to complain. It had not been possible to put in play all the contemplated economies; this would take time, and the speaker felt certain that the year 1904 would see results which were not possible at present.

There had been some delay in completing their new electrical transforming plant on Queen street, owing to the rush for machinery. All the electrical companies are away behind in their orders. The new distributing station, which will be fed by power from Chambly, will have its machinery installed within the next two months. Mr. Holt stated that it would be the equal of the best stations on the continent and in the world. It would be safe from fire and in every way modern. When this station is complete the present steam station will be fire-proofed. When the new station is in operation, the present steam stations will be held in reserve.

THE POWER AT ST. THERESE.

The development of the water power of the St. Therese Rapids, three miles above the Chambly power-house, will materially increase the company's capacity so far as regards water power. It would also do away with all possible interference with frazil.

In answer to a question from Mr. John Morrison, Mr. Holt stated that circumstances had been such that the company was unable to furnish the Montreal Street Railway with its power as per contract. In the year to come this would make an additional hundred thousand dollars' increase in revenue. The directors had taken up the question of erecting a suitable building. The policy of the company was to go slow in this matter, and not spend anywhere from three to four hundred thousand dollars without giving the matter a great deal of consideration. Perhaps in another year the project would be put through. Not, however, until such a structure could be paid for out of surplus earnings.

Mr. John Morrison and Mr. Nolan De Lisle were appointed scrutineers and the old Board of Directors was elected unanimously as follows: H. S. Holt, Jas. Ross, R. Forget, Hon. L. J. Forget, Hon. R. Mackay, Lieut.-Col. F. C. Henshaw, H. Montagu Allan, C. E. L. Porteous, Hon. H. B. Rainville.

ASSISTANT MANAGER OF SOVEREIGN BANK.

Mr. W. Graham Browne, who for the past fourteen years has been connected with the Canadian Bank of Commerce and most of the time located in New York, has been appointed assistant manager of the new Sovereign Bank of Canada. He arrived from New York to-day and at once entered upon his duties.

The Sovereign Bank's relations with New York and other financial centres of the United States, are to become very close. It has advisory committees in New York and elsewhere. That in New York is composed of William C. Lane, president of the Standard Trust Company, and Paul D. Cravath. James H. Eckels, John A. Spoor and Frederick S. Winston act in a similar capacity in Chicago. J. P. Morgan and Co. are the New York correspondents.

On a Charge of Breaking.

Alexander Merineau and Alphonse Mercier, on a charge of breaking into the house of Thomas Gobiel, at the C. P. R. station at Little St. Martin, occupied the time of the Court of King's Bench to-day. Chief Justice Sir Alexander Lacoste presided, and Mr. Rodolphe Lemieux, K. C., M.P., appeared for the Crown, and Mr. J. A. David for the defence. The evidence showed that the young men had been loitering around the place for some time in an advanced state of intoxication.

Montreal Patriotic Fund.

The Montreal Patriotic Fund has published a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements. The receipts from subscriptions, entertainments, and other sources amount to $13,332. The disbursements have been $1,421 less, which amount is to the credit of the fund in the bank. The statement is signed by Lieut.-Colonel Labelle, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, and Lieut.-Col. F. Minden Cole, honorary secretary-treasurer.

Petition in Circulation.

A petition is being circulated among the members of the Centenary Methodist Church, Point St. Charles, to be presented to the Conference, asking for the privilege of making their own appointment for the coming term. At the same time a number have announced their intention of opposing the petition and requesting the Conference to sanction the appointment as made by the stationing committee.

Grand Trunk Moving Day.

The removal of the various departments of the Grand Trunk Railway from the old offices on St. Etienne street, to the new building will take place to-morrow.

The management expect to have the bulk of the work completed by Saturday, in order that business may be resumed in the usual way on Monday morning.

The Late Mrs. Joseph Courtois.

Mrs. Joseph Courtois, of Visitation street, wife of Mr. J. Courtois, insurance agent, died suddenly at an early hour this morning. The deceased was well known in French-Canadian society circles. She leaves nine children.

Mr. Waite Returns Home.

Mr. R. A. Waite, the architect of the new Grand Trunk offices on McGill street, who, during the past couple of years has resided at the Windsor, has returned to his home in Buffalo.

Twentieth Century Train.

The New York Central and Lake Shore Railroads have decided to place in service June 15th, a new twenty hour train to run between New York and Chicago every day in the year. It will be called the "Twentieth Century train" and it will be beyond all question the fastest long distance train in the world, making the 980 miles between New York and Chicago in exactly twenty hours, including all stops. It will leave Grand Central Station, New York, at 2.45 p.m. each day arriving Grand Central Station, Chicago, by the Lake Shore at 9.45 next morning; leaving Grand Central station, Chicago at 12.30 p.m. arriving Grand Central station, New York at 9.30 next morning, thus saving a day between two cities.

HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS SEND CONGRATULATIONS TO COLONIAL SECRETARY.

At the meeting of the Harbour Board today, the following resolution was, upon the motion of Mr. Robert Bickerdike, seconded by Mr. Jonathan Hodgson, passed unanimously, and ordered to be transmitted to the Hon. Joseph Chamberlain:

Resolved:

That the Harbour Commissioners of Montreal hereby place upon record the heartfelt pleasure with which they have learned of the success of the Empire's army in South Africa, which has resulted in the termination of hostilities, the surrender of the burgher forces and the acknowledgment of King Edward VII. as their lawful sovereign.

That the Commissioners also record their high appreciation of the manner in which Canada and the British Colonies responded to the calls of the Empire, and whose officers and men performed their duty so nobly and so well as to merit the praise of the whole world.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE ON SUNDAY NEXT.

Sunday next, June 8th, has been set apart by Archbishop Bond as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God for the cessation of hostilities and the restoration of peace in South Africa. His Grace has drawn up a form of service, which is now being printed for circulation in the Archdiocese, and which is to be incorporated with the offices of Morning Prayer. It consists of a special exhortation, special lessons, suitable Psalms, hymns of thanksgiving, and appropriate collects. The collects are three in number, the first being the "thanksgiving for deliverance," to be found in the Prayer Book; the second, a special prayer of thanksgiving for what the war has accomplished in unifying the Empire; and the third a prayer for those whom the war has bereaved. Permission is given to sing a Te Deum in honour of the occasion, and the National Anthem may also be rendered at both services.

Archbishop Bond in setting apart Sunday next as a period of thanksgiving is but following the example of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The King, it is announced, will attend the special thanksgiving service to be held in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, on Sunday next.

SAYS GOVERNMENT WILL NOT PURCHASE THE CANADA ATLANTIC.

La Patrie, last evening, announced that it was in a position to deny the rumours that the Government was about to purchase the Canada Atlantic Railway.

"What would the Government do with such a road?" asked the Government organ, "when it has no connections during the winter months, and which has not yet reached the city of Montreal.

"The Intercolonial costs the country enough already for us not to want, at the present time, to assume a burden just as weighty if not more so.

"To give his road traffic, Mr. Booth is obliged to keep a fleet on the lakes; he is obliged to create a return traffic which he secures from New York, Boston, etc. Mr. Booth feeds his own enterprise with his own trade.

"There is no likelihood, at present, of the Government's buying the Canada Atlantic Railway, which, before it can obtain an entrance to Montreal must cost seven or eight million dollars."

RAINFALL FLOODED A FEW CELLARS.

A few complaints of cellars being flooded were made to the Road Department to-day. This was on account of the heavy rain which fell last night. The statement was made that such was the quantity of rain which fell that the macadam on many of the streets was practically washed out. This was especially the case on the steep hills leading up to Sherbrooke street. The sewers were sorely taxed to carry off the immense amount of water which the streets poured into them. From City Hall records it appears that two and two-tenths inches of water fell. This is an enormous amount, and is only surpassed by the tremendous rainfall of July 30, last year, when in the short space of three hours two and a half inches of rain fell. This record differs from that at McGill, which registers a rainfall of 1.76 inches.

RAINFALL LAST EVENING WAS RECORD BREAKER.

The rainfall of last night was a record one for the present year, and caused considerable inconvenience to all who were obliged to be out-of-doors. The heavy wind added greatly to the general discomfort, driving the water along the streets in sheets, against which umbrellas and rubber coats were alike of no protection. The downpour had been threatened all the afternoon, but it was not until half-past seven o'clock that the intermittent showers changed into a veritable deluge, cleansing the pavements in fine style, and at the same time greatly damaging the macadamized roadways and flooding the sewers. With the exception of a slight lull between nine and ten o'clock the storm continued with unabated violence during the entire night. The total rainfall for the night amounted to 1.72 inches.

CITIZENS KEEN AFTER PERMANENT SIDEWALKS.

Some time ago the Finance Committee asked citizens to assist the city in laying permanent sidewalks and in doing away with the old and unsightly wooden walks. The incentive was held out that the city would bear half the cost of permanent walks. During the past few weeks orders for permanent walks have been pouring into the Road and Finance departments, until to-day it was seen that the city could spend ten thousand dollars more than what it had now on hand for permanent walks.

MR. JUSTICE BELANGER HAS RESIGNED POSITION.

Mr. Justice Belanger, of Beauharnois, has announced that he has sent in his resignation to the department of justice. He has presided over the courts of Beauharnois for the past twenty-nine years and is much respected by all who know him. Mr. H. C. St. Pierre, K. C., is mentioned as his successor.

Will Save Interest Charges.

The Finance Committee is meeting this afternoon and opening tenders for the new two million dollar loan. This loan will not increase the consolidated debt of twenty-seven millions. It is made up of a lot of old loans that were floated a long time ago, at a heavy rate of interest. By retiring old debentures it is expected the city will save a large amount annually in interest charges.

Special Notice.

6000 TROOPS IN OUR CORONATION REVIEW

Montreal Will Witness an Elaborate Military Display

AT LAFONTAINE PARK

Initial Arrangements Have Been Made and Invitations to Various Regiments Issued.

A meeting of local commanding officers was held yesterday afternoon, at the brigade office, to make the initial arrangements for the big review which is to be held in this city on Coronation Day.

It was decided, inasmuch as the Government had made a grant of $15,000 for the purpose of bringing outside troops to the city, that invitations to visit Montreal on that occasion should be extended to regiments in the leading cities of Ontario and Quebec.

The following troops were subsequently invited: 2nd Queen's Own Rifles, Toronto; 10th Royal Grenadiers, Toronto; 48th Highlanders, Toronto; Governor-General's Foot Guards, Ottawa; 43rd Duke of Cornwall's Own Rifles, Ottawa; Princess Louise Dragoon Guards, Ottawa; 14th Princess of Wales Rifles, Kingston; 8th Regiment, Quebec; 9th Regiment, Quebec; 53rd Regiment, Sherbrooke; 84th Regiment, St. Hyacinthe, and the Toronto Bearer Company and Toronto Field Hospital Corps.

The combined strength of these units is 3,867 officers and men, so that the total number of men to parade in Montreal on Coronation Day will exceed 6,000. This number will of course include the members of the Montreal brigade—2,400 men, of all ranks.

The review may be further strengthened by the addition of a couple of American corps—one is certainly coming—and by a strong detachment of probably 400 sailors and marines from His Majesty's men-o'-war, which are expected to be in port that day.

It has been arranged that the review shall be held on Lafontaine Park.

Major-General O'Grady-Haly reached the city to-day for the purpose of saying good-bye to the local militia officers, as he sails for England on June 14. A reception was to have taken place in the Victoria Rifles' armoury between the hours of 4.30 and 6 o'clock this afternoon, but owing to an important engagement elsewhere this has had to be cancelled. The Major-General, however, will be at home to all who may wish to call on him at the Place Viger Hotel between the hours of 6 and 11 o'clock this evening.

CORONATION DAY.

HARBOUR PEOPLE WILL CELEBRATE.

Thursday, June 26th, Coronation Day, will be observed by all employes of the Harbour Commission, and every man will receive a full day's pay.

At the meeting of the Commissioners, to-day, a resolution to this effect was moved by Mr. Bickerdike, and seconded by His Worship the Mayor. The giving to all the men a full day's pay is an innovation, and one which has not taken place in the past. But, as one of the Commissioners, remarked: "It is not every day that a King of England is crowned."

MONTREAL LADIES REALLY WON AT GOLF.

They Did Not Expect a Victory on the Quebec Links.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

QUEBEC, June 4.—The golf match between the Quebec and Montreal Ladies' Clubs was played this morning in a raw northerly wind and on sodden grounds, and resulted in a victory for the visitors by five holes up. The attendance was smaller and less fashionable on account of the unfavourable condition of the weather, and the victorious team left for home by the Canadian Pacific Railway at 1.10 p.m.. The score follows:

	Quebec.	Montreal.
Mrs. Foy	0
Miss Green		4
Mrs. Meredith	4

This leaves the two clubs even on matches.

The visiting ladies of the Montreal Golf Club were entertained at luncheon by the Quebec lady golfers at the Garrison Club yesterday afternoon. Mrs. E. E. Webb, president of the Quebec Club, presided, having on her right Mrs. McTier, president of the Montreal Club. About 45 in all sat down. Last night many of the Quebec players dined their Montreal friends at the Chateau Frontenac.

SHAMROCKS WILL PLAY SURE.

Will Not Allow Anyone to Interfere With Their Game With Tecumsehs.

It is rumoured that an attempt will be made to try and prevent the Shamrocks from playing the exhibition game scheduled with Tecumsehs.

The Shamrock people, however, say that nothing of that kind will interfere with the proposed game, and that there is no reason and no clause in the lacrosse law to prevent them from playing in Toronto.

Star Office Invaded.

The Star offices were invaded yesterday by a small army, which went through the entire premises. The army was on peace intent, however, and at different times during its stay cheered the Star and everybody connected with it. The army was made up of the boys from the Dufferin School, St. Urbain street, who were out in a body enjoying their peace-making holiday. Most of them sell the Star each evening, and they naturally have the kindliest feelings for the whole establishment.

STRENGTHENING SITE WILL COST $190,000

Chief Engineer Kennedy Made Report on Windmill Point To-day

TO HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS

Will Probably be a Conference Between Grand Trunk and Board on Elevator Proposition.

Chief Engineer Kennedy made a report to the Harbour Commissioners to-day respecting the Windmill Point site, which, it is understood, will be given the Grand Trunk Railway for an elevator.

It was feared that the raising of the site, some fifteen hundred feet of water front, would cost altogether too much money, the original estimate being anywhere from $300,000 to $400,000. Mr. Kennedy reported today that he had examined the property. Strengthening the weaker portions of the crib-work, renewing the crib-work above the water line, and bringing it up to the level of the new piers would suffice, and this could be done for $190,000.

The chairman remarked that this was about four times as much as they were to spend on Mr. Conners.

Mr. John Torrance replied: "If we are to compete with other ports we must be properly equipped."

Senator Mackay said that he had no objection to making the improvements. It was only a matter of the necessary funds.

Mr. Hodgson thought that they should approve of the Engineer's suggestions.

The chairman stated that they would have to re-appropriate funds already appropriated to meet the expense.

After much discussion, it was resolved to send Mr. Kennedy's communication to the Hon. Mr. Tarte and ask for an interview in order that the matter may be settled at the earliest possible moment. If possible, an appointment will be made, which will include the Grand Trunk officials, as a meeting of the three interests would, no doubt, expedite matters.

THOUSANDS OF NEW TOOLS FOR MEN ON THE HARBOUR FRONT.

For many years, indeed, ever since the harbour of Montreal was a harbour and had men working on it with pick and shovel, it has been the custom of the men to supply their own tools. This is all to be changed, however, and the commissioners are to supply the necessary implements. The matter came up at the meeting of the Harbour Commissioners to-day. It appears that Mr. W. E. Doran, the newest member of the Board, has since his appointment, been visiting the works at different times and at the last meeting he remarked that the men were working with a very poor class of picks and shovels. He therefore moved that the Commissioners supply the tools in place of the men as had been the custom. The matter was left over until the meeting to-day when it was finally resolved to purchase 1,000 shovels, and 1,500 picks for the use of the 650 workmen now in the Trust's employ.

Mr. Doran contended that it was the principle of getting good work out of good tools and in this he had the support of the Mayor.

COMMISSIONERS NOT TO BLAME FOR DELAY.

At the meeting of the Harbour Commissioners to-day a short letter was read from the Hon. Mr. Tarte, respecting the complaint which the contractors had made regarding the ground being unsuitable for the driving of piles.

The letter, the Commissioners judged, was written before the Minister of Public Works had received the Commissioners' last communication on the subject. The entire matter, however, was one in which they had no hand as the Steel, Storage and Elevator Construction Company would deal directly with the Department of Public Works through the Government Engineer, Mr. A. St. Laurent.

In his letter the Minister of Public Works merely referred to the fact that a complaint had been made as to the state of the ground for pile driving, mentioning that the engineer, Mr. St. Laurent, would deal with the matter. The Commissioners congratulated themselves over the fact that no responsibility lay upon them.

HETU CASE BEFORE THE COURTS TO-DAY.

Rodolphe Hetu, the deputy returning officer of poll No. 37, in the St. James's Division election, was up before Judge Choquet at eleven o'clock to-day, when Mr. J. A. Descarries, K.C., for the prosecution, declared that he had no more evidence to offer. The attorney for the defendant, Mr. H. St. Louis, asked until June 10 to decide upon what course he would follow. He declared that he would offer no evidence for the defence at the preliminary hearing. As the accused cannot have his trial before the present term of the court, because the grand jury has been discharged, the judge agreed to the delay, and the matter will come up again Tuesday next.

GREAT INTEREST IN THIS YEAR'S DERBY.

Few Derby races of late years have created the interest which was created by the present one in Montreal, and considering the popularity in England of the filly, Sceptre, the people who bet on the race came out pretty well simply because they did not believe in a filly's ability to win at this time of the year, and because they put their money for place on old reliables, Ard Patrick and Rising Glass being backed for a good deal. In all about $6,000 were bet and the backers of Sceptre lost about $2,000 of that sum, one man being credited with having lost about half of that amount.

A Deserter Arrested.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

SAULT STE. MARIE, June 4.—A deserter from the 3rd Canadian Special Service Battalion, garrisoning Halifax, named Martineau, was arrested here last night, and will be taken back by escort to arrive here on Friday evening. Martineau, who had been a member of a Montreal Company, was identified here by a former member of the regiment, and arrested on the request of the commanding officer at Halifax.

A Divorce for Mrs. Acer.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

NEW YORK, June 4. — The Supreme Court has granted a divorce to Mrs. Addie Acer, who kidnapped her children and fled to Toronto a year ago. Mrs. Acer is awarded the custody of her children for eleven months each year, and Acer is to have them for the other month. No alimony is awarded

Sir Thomas at Winnipeg.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

WINNIPEG, June 4—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and party arrived in the city to-day on a special, and were met by a number of prominent citizens. Sir Thomas will stay here a number of days and will then proceed to the coast.

Patrick Gleeson, of St. John, Dead.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., June 4.—Patrick Gleeson, an old and respected citizen of St. John, died on Tuesday aged 70 years, after a lingering illness, he was one time a member of the City Council and for many years filled the position of collector of rents for the city. He was also financial agent of the late Bishop Sweeney, and was a member of the Roman Catholic Temperance and Fraternal Societies. He was father David J. Gleeson of the statistical department, at Ottawa, and of P. Joseph Gleeson, Quebec.

THE WHITTON TRAGEDY

Nine Year Old Boy Who Killed His Father Acted in Self-Defence, the Jury's Verdict.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

SHERBROOKE, Que., June 4.—Details of the tragedy at Whitton, in which Donald, the nine-year-old son of Jos. Hugh Matheson, shot and killed his father, are at hand to-day, in the evidence taken before the coroner's jury. The lad and his brothers tell a story of most cruel treatment at the hands of their father. On one occasion they were all driven from the home, and lived for a week in a camp in the woods. On the day of the shooting the father threatened to kill all his children, and started to put his threat into execution. He had one of the boys down and was calling for a club, when Donald took down the rifle and sent a bullet into his father's body. Death followed in twenty minutes. The coroner's jury exonerated the lad, finding that he acted in self defence, and in defence of his brothers. Evidence went to show that Matheson had been constantly abusing his children, and had driven his wife to a premature grave by ill treatment.

LORD KITCHENER IS A VISCOUNT.

(See also page 1.)

LONDON, June 4. — It was announced this afternoon that Lord Kitchener has been created a Viscount by King Edward.

DURBAN, Natal, June 4. — The Times, of Natal, states that Lord Kitchener has left for England, and that General Lyttelton is acting Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in South Africa.

(The above report is most improbable, inasmuch as Lord Kitchener would most likely sail from Cape Town. If he did so on Saturday next he would be able to reach London on June 25, just in time to participate in the Coronation festivities.)

BOER LEADERS WILL VISIT EUROPE.

The Object of Their Trip Will be to Raise Funds for the Distressed Burghers.

PRETORIA, June 4. — Generals Botha and Delarey and other Boer leaders will start for Europe shortly for the purpose of raising funds for the distressed Burghers.

General Schalk-Burgher, who was acting President of the Transvaal, joined General Botha in addressing an open letter to the Burghers. After referring to the courage which they had displayed and their brave deeds in the field, he called on them to work together for the social and spiritual advancement of the country.

BOUND FOR CORONATION.

Empress of Japan Had a Notable Passenger List This Trip.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 4.—The Empress of Japan has a notable passenger list. It includes 83 members of the Hong Kong, Singapore and Wei-Hai-Wei contingents to the coronation of King Edward of England, Sir Thomas Jackson, ex-chief manager of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation, and for thirty-eight years a most conspicuous figure in the Far East; General Fukishima, of Siberian fame, who joins Prince Koma-Tsu, the Japanese envoy to the British coronation; Col. Sir William Bisset, inspector of Indian railways and representative of capitalists, John Birch & Co., of England, who has been investigating Japanese railways, as a sound basis of foreign investment, Sir Francis Lovell, who is making a tour in connection with the foundation in London, of a tropical school of medicine, where local sanitary perils could be studied and met; Mr. J. T. Hamilton, Japanese agent for large insurance companies of the United States; Hon. and Mrs. J. Bell-Irving, of Hong Kong; and others.

BRITISH TAX ON GRAIN.

Will Help Pay National Debt if There is a Surplus.

LONDON, June 4.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, will make his amended financial statement to the House of Commons this evening.

In the House of Commons to-day in reviewing the necessities of the situation now that South African war is terminated, the Chancellor of the Exchequer forecasted the purport of his statement, saying that the new taxes, including the duty on grain, would be retained in order to raise the money required; but, if there is any surplus it will be devoted to the redemption of part of the national debt.

LORD PAUNCEFOTE'S SUCCESSOR.

Hon. Mr. Herbert Appointed—A New Spanish Minister.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Two important changes in the diplomatic representation in Washington were announced to-day. The Hon. Michael Herbert succeeds the late Lord Pauncefote as British Ambassador and Senor De Ojeda succeeds the Duke de Arcos as Spanish Minister.

HUNDREDS PERISHED.

Vessel Sinks in the Irrawaddy With All on Board.

RANGOON, British Burmah, June 4.—The British steamer Camorta, from Madras for this port with 650 passengers, which was believed to have foundered on May 6 in a cyclone owing to the discovery of wreckage, has been discovered sunk at Baragua Flats, in the Irrawaddy Delta, directly in the track of shipping. Her topmasts are protruding above the surface of the water.

BIRTHS.

ANDERSON—At 5 Hutchison street, on the 4th inst., a son to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Anderson.

LITTLE ANIMATION IN STOCK TRADING

Canadian Pacific Eased Off Under the Influence of Wall Street.

NEW CANDIDATES FOR FAVOUR

Lake Superior Consolidated and Detroit United Railway Figured to Some Extent in Trading.

The correspondents of the Montreal Star in Wall Street and on the Chicago Board of Trade report that stocks were heavy, while wheat was stronger. In the local market stocks were easier. Yesterday's sales on the New York Stock Exchange were 182,175 shares.

Trading in the Stock Market this morning was pretty well scattered over the list, with no particular attention paid to any one stock, if Canadian Pacific is excepted, and in that connection the dealings were of only ordinary proportions. Under the weakening influences in Wall Street the price recorded a net decline of ¾ for the forenoon. After closing at 138⅝ yesterday, the market opened at 138½ this morning, declined to 137⅞, and after recovering to 138⅛, closed the forenoon at 137⅞.

Lake Superior Consolidated, which was listed here a short time ago, but did not figure in the trading heretofore, went up on the blackboard to-day with 500 shares to its credit at 29½. Toronto has been trading in the stock right along, while Philadelphia goes in for it heavily. There has been some talk of a movement in the stock, a tip to that effect having come from Toronto.

Detroit United Railway, which was listed here over a year ago, but has attracted little or no attention, sprang into prominence to-day. Wall Street also took a hand at the stock simultaneously, the initial price there being 76. The local market got on board at 78, and from those points the price rose in both markets to 80. The record of transactions in this market shows a little under 1,000 shares.

Early last year when the stock was first listed there was trading in this market to the extent of 600 shares. The opening price was 76, the highest 77⅝, and the lowest, and last, transaction, at 75. The company pays 4 per cent. per annum on the common stock, the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. having been declared yesterday. The property was one of the important assets of the Everett-Moore syndicate, which went to the wall some months ago. A Cincinnati broker has recently been calling attention to the relative cheapness of the stock.

Changes in the general run of stocks were unimportant. Power declined to 102¾, and Twin City to 120, while Street Railway was unchanged at 280½, and Toronto Rails at 123¾. Richelieu declined to 113¾, and Dom. Steel sold off ¼ to 55¾, but recovered to 56.

Montreal Power, it is understood, will be listed on the Toronto market before the middle of the present month. The Messrs. O'Hara, of Toronto street, will represent the company there.

Messrs. L. J. Forget and Co.'s London cable to-day quoted: Grand Trunk first, 106¼; second, 91; third, 40¼; Canadian Pacific, 142⅜.

The Montreal Clearing House returns of bank clearings for to-day are 4,563,297.

Montreal Street Railway earnings yesterday were $6,156.69, an increase of $479.85.

Among the sales of the morning board, Toronto Stock Exchange, were: Canadian Pacific new, 55 at 131¾ to 132; Canadian Pacific, 5,491 at 137¾ to 138⅝; Richelieu, 50 at 114⅝; Toronto Ry., 5 at 123½; Twin City Ry., 550 at 120 to 121; N. S. Steel and Coal, 65 at 108⅞ to 109; Lake Superior com., 320 at 29¼ to 29⅝.

The announcement is made that the Steel Tired Wheel Company has been absorbed by the Railway Steel Spring Company, the stockholders of both companies having voted to ratify the merger. The capital of the Steel Spring Company is to be raised from $20,000,000 to $27,000,000, the additional stock being divided into 35,000 shares of preferred and 35,000 shares of common. James C. Beach was elected treasurer of the merged companies.

In New York at noon money on call was quiet at 3½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper, 4 to 4¾ per cent. Sterling exchange, firm, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.87⅞ for demand, and at 4.84¾ for sixty days. Posted rates, 4.85½ and 4.88. Commercial bills, 4.84 to 4.85. Bar silver, 52⅛. Mexican dollars, 42.

London, closing—Consols for money, 96 ⅜; do for account, 96 9-16; Anaconda, 5⅞; Atchison, 82¾; do pfd., 101½; B. and O., 108½; Canadian Pacific, 141¼; Chesapeake and Ohio, 47⅝; Chicago and Great Western, 30; Chicago, M. and St. Paul, 174; Denver and Rio Grande, 43¼; do preferred, 93½; Erie, 37⅞; do 1st preferred, 69¾; do 2nd preferred, 54; Ill. Central, 156; Louisville and Nash., 140½; Mo., Kas. and Texas, 26⅝; do pfd., 60; New York Central, 160¼; Norfolk and Western, 58⅞; do pfd., 92; Ont. and Western, 33⅝; Pennsylvania, 76¼; Reading, 32¼; do 1st pfd., 42½; do 2nd pfd., 35; Southern Ry., 37⅝; do pfd., 97; Southern Pacific, 65⅞; Union Pacific, 107⅛; U. P. pfd., 90¼; U. S. Steel, 40¾; do pfd., 91½; Wabash, 27½; do pfd., 45½; Spanish fours, 79⅝; Rand Mines, 12⅝; De Beers, 42⅝. Bar silver steady, 24 1-16d per ounce. Money, 2½ to 2¾ per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2¾ to 2⅞ per cent.; do for three months' bills is 2¾ to 2 13-16 per cent.

Messrs. Burnett and Co., stock brokers, have received the following New York advices:

Trading is very light, and with the exception of a little scattering realizing in anthracites and Canadian Pacific, was of no significance. Some inside buying reported in Smelters, although the room did not put any faith in the stories of the early return to a dividend basis. Earnings said to be very good. Strength of K. and T. issues ascribed to Gould following, who claimed six per cent. being earned on preferred. Earnings of Hocking Valley for fourth week May show an increase of over 40 per cent. The company has declared 2 per cent. on preferred stock, and 1½ per cent. on common. The resignations of W. E. Dodds and Percival Roberts have been accepted by the U. S. Steel Company, and Robert Bacon and James Gayley elected in their stead. The rumour that D. and H. is to be guaranteed 10 per cent. by N. Y. C. and Erie, the passenger business going to former and the freight business to the latter, is officially denied. Atchison declared regular semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent. on preferred.

Messrs. J. S. Bache & Co., of New York, send the following advices to their Montreal manager, Mr. C. D. Monk:

Americans in London 1-8 to 3-8 below parity. Anthracite miners claim that some mines are being flooded, but operators express confidence of their control of the situation. Coal Trade Journal says there is an extraordinary market for soft coal, and prices of that commodity have advanced. Many of the former anthracite operatives have gone to the soft coal regions. Chicago Junction Railway and U. S. Yards Co. declared quarterly dividend of 1 1-2 per cent. on preferred and 2 per cent. on common. American Beet Sugar declared regular quarterly dividend of 1 1-2 per cent. on pfd. Colorado State Board of Equalization fixes assessment on railroad property in that state at $59,053,575.

Messrs. J. B. Picken & Co., stock and exchange brokers, to-day received the following New York advices over their special wire:

There is an utter lack of public interest to the market, and the attempts to stimulate trading by manipulating various specialties proved futile. In London trading in Americans was given up to the Derby, and the entire amount of business for foreign account would be covered by 3,000 shares. All sales of G. A. Fuller stock were higher, but represented only pool figures. Principal trading was in Canadian Pacific, which represents a slight loss. Sugar, Readings and Steels all were a fraction lower. Missouri, Kansas and Texas and Brooklyn are firm, especially the former, which shows over a point gain for the morning. The market is very dull, and it looks as though yesterday's record would be broken to-day. Exchange market strong at 4.87 1-2.

Montreal Exchange quotations: New York funds, between banks, 1-16 to 5-64 dis.; counter, 1-2 to 1-4 prem.; sterling, 60 days', between banks, 8 15-16 to 9; counter, 9 3-8; do., demand., between banks, 9 9-16 to 9 5-8; counter, 9 7-8; do., cables, between banks, 9 11-16 to 9 3-4c; counter, 10; Paris francs, long, between banks, 5.18 3-4; do., short, between banks, 5.17 1-2; counter, 5.05.

Sales of Canadian Pacific in Wall street up to 1 o'clock to-day were 7000 shares.

Sales of stock on the New York Stock Exchange up to 1 o'clock to-day were 150,000 shares.

Lethargy in Wall Street.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Wall Street—The opening stock market showed no change from its recent lethargic character. The majority of prices were lower. United States Steel fell 3-8 and the preferred ½. The gains were amongst the specialties, Hocking Valley and Continental Tobacco preferred rising 1¼ each. Stocks were dealt in at slight concessions from earlier prices. Offerings, however, continued limited, and there was no indication of pressure anywhere. Metropolitan Street Railway rose 1. Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie preferred 1¾, and International Power rallied to 70 again. Illinois Central lost a point, and Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling preferred sold at a decline of 6½.

Wheat Market Irregular.

(From the Special Correspondent of the Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.)

CHICAGO, June 4.—Wheat was irregular and unsettled. July sold at 71¼ to 72c off to 71⅝c, and September at 69½ to 70⅛c to 69⅝c. The feature in this market was the continued buying of the July and the selling of September by the Armour concern. The Gates party is long on the September and short on the July, and a big fight is likely to occur unless these two mammoth concerns play into each other's hands, and their positions are evened up. The Ohio crop report sent out by C. A. King & Co., of Toledo, makes the wheat conditions 75 compared with 74 a month ago and 89 a year ago.

CHICAGO CLOSING PRICES.

THREE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY.—George Lavoie, one of the boys found guilty of breaking into Lemieux's restaurant on St. Lawrence street, was sent to penitentiary for three years by Judge Desnoyers. His companion, Charles Wallace, has a better record, and was therefore let out on a suspended sentence pending good behaviour.

THE WOMEN'S ART ASSOCIATION'S OPENINGS.

The Women's Art Association held an informal opening yesterday, of their new quarters at the Renaissance Club, 4 Phillips Square. A number of the members and a few of their friends were present. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers. During the afternoon Mrs. James Laing sang most pleasingly, and Miss Vesey gave a piano solo.

Much interest was taken in the work which was for sale in connection with the depot for Home Arts and Handicrafts which the Association has established at its rooms, as an outcome of the exhibition held under its auspices last winter. Miss Edith Watt has been appointed secretary-treasurer, and the depot will be open from ten a. m. to five p. m. daily. Among the things on exhibition yesterday were some beautiful embroideries made after old Russian designs by the Doukhobors, and Canadian made homespuns and hangings. There was also on view an interesting collection of Beauvais tapestries.

Tea was served by Mrs. C. F. Hibbert, and Mrs. R. C. Smith (convener of the committee) assisted by Mrs. Woods, Miss Evans, Mrs. W. Notman, Miss Notman, Miss Mills, Miss Costigan, and Miss Beard.

Those present, who were received on arrival by Mrs. Peck, included Lady Tait, Prof. and Mrs. Cox, Rev. Mr. Barnes and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Voigt, Mrs. de Bellefeuille Macdonald, Miss Macdonald, Miss Phillips, Mrs. C. Moyse, Mme. Dandurand, Miss R. Barry, Miss Eglauch, Mrs. Ernest Gault, Mrs. Sheldon Stephens, Miss Edith Watt, Mrs. Fayette Brown, Mrs. Beard, Miss Beard, Mrs. Stokes, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Geo. Simpson, Mrs. Morrissey, Mrs. K. Macpherson, Miss Muir, Miss Acer, Mrs. Logan, Miss Skelton, Mrs. T. Craig, Mrs. A. F. Brown, Mrs. A. W. P. Buchanan, and many others.

The poster submitted by Mr. Wilfred Barnes won in the competition recently held by the Association. During the summer the Association will hold an exhibition of Home Arts and Handicrafts for two days at the Town Hall at Metis. Prizes will be offered for the best work. At the Association's headquarters in Phillips Square there are a number of sketches of Montreal and the vicinity, for sale, the object being to supply tourists with souvenirs.

Died in South Africa.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

KINGSTON, June 4.—Yesterday Mrs. Armstrong who moved here recently from Ottawa, and is now living on Victoria street, received a message that her husband a soldier in South Africa, died recently from enteric fever. He wrote to his wife some time ago that he intended going to England to witness the Coronation proceedings. He enlisted at Ottawa.

Senator Clemow's Will.

OTTAWA, June 4.—The late Senator Clemow's will has been opened, and it is understood that all his large estate has been left to his only daughter, Miss Clemow, excepting the homestead, and $5000 a year to his wife, and at her death the whole will revert to Miss Clemow.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

FRACTURED A LIMB.—While at work in Ogilvie's Glenora mill last night, in Seigneurs street, Alma Seguin, 23 years of age, was caught in a belt, and sustained a compound fracture of his leg. He was taken to the General Hospital in the ambulance. Seguin lives at 152 St. John street, St. Henri.

MISSIONS IN BRAZIL.—The Rev. J. D. McEwen, who has been in Brazil for three years, is to give an address, at eight o'clock, this evening, in Emmanuel Congregational Church, on mission life in Brazil. Mr. McEwen is a Canadian who went to South America under the auspices of the late Mr. Moody.

SOOTHING SYRUP.—The three year old child of Alexander Brosseau, of 152 St. Timothee street, took an overdose of cough syrup yesterday. The usual dose is 5 to 10 drops, but the baby drank 300 drops. Dr. J. V. Geoffrion, of 1578 St. Catherine st., was called in, and to-day states that the child is now out of danger.

The New St. Louis Recorder.

It was announced yesterday that Mr. Pelletier, of the law firm of Charbonneau & Pelletier, who has been appointed Recorder of St. Louis, would be sworn in today and enter at once upon his duties. Since the retirement of Mr. Rudolphe Lemieux, Mayor Gelinas, assisted by an alderman, has been discharging the judicial functions of his office.

FORTY APPLICATIONS FOR POLICE POSITIONS.

A sub-committee of the Police Committee examined, yesterday, a number of lieutenants and detectives, who were anxious to get promotion. At the present time several good positions are vacant on the force. In all, forty applications were made for the places. The examinations were not completed and another meeting will have to be held. There is no little conjecture as to whether or not the captaincy, made vacant by the appointment of Captain McMahon to an Inspectorship, will now be filled by an Irish or French speaking candidate. A rule will be given by the chairman as to which nationality is entitled to the position.

Examined Police Officers.

A sub-committee of the Police Committee met this morning and examined a number of police officers who are anxious to get promotion. The result of the examinations will be known at the next meeting of the Police Committee.

TROOPS PARADED IN THE DRIVING RAIN

Montreal Brigade Celebrated Peace News Despite Adverse Conditions

A UNIQUE BAND CONCERT

At Drill Hall There Was Splendid Musical Demonstration While Awaiting End of Downpour.

The heavy downpour of last evening did not prevent the local regiments from celebrating the return of peace in South Africa by a big brigade parade.

"Our comrades on active service," said a member of a city corps to Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., when the storm was at its worst, and when the rain had sought out and found the weak spots in the roof above the brigade office, "have had to sleep and march in many such heavy showers during the past two years and a half, and what they had to put up with for so long a time we surely can stand for a single evening. The rain won't hurt us, and the boys want to go out."

This was a plea that the district officer commanding could hardly withstand, and so, with the concurrence of the commanding officers of city corps, who were at once consulted with respect to their willingness to parade under the existing weather conditions, he promised that if a lull occurred in the downpour the troops would parade through some, at least, of the principal streets of the city.

And so it happened. At twenty minutes past nine the storm abated and the rain ceased. The regiments were dismissed and the men were told to put away their rifles. This done, they once more fell into battalion formation on the drill hall floor. Ten minutes later the pipe band of the Scots struck up "The Cock of the North," and to the stirring skirl and drone of the pipes the troops marched out through the great south doors of the armoury into Craig street and thence along St. James street, Victoria Square and Craig street back to the point of departure.

MUSTER WAS A BIG ONE.

The muster was a splendid one, upwards of 1,485 men, out of a total brigade strength of a little more than 1,800, officers and men, being on parade.

The regiments fell in shortly after eight o'clock, and soon after they had taken their positions on the drill hall floor the storm, which had long been threatening, broke, and the rain began to come down in torrents. A heavy wind was blowing at the time, and this had the effect of driving the rain along the streets in perfect sheets of water, against which an umbrella was but slight protection. Presently, the water found its way through the roofs of the brigade office and the big hall, and for some time caused considerable inconvenience to the troops who had frequently to alter their positions owing to the persistency with which the rain would find new weaknesses in the latter roof.

Outside the hall the air was disagreeably chilly, inside it was almost suffocating. The rain had had the effect of driving into the hall the thousands who had congregated on the Champ de Mars and Craig street in the expectation of witnessing the parade, and the sudden appearance of so many caused the temperature to rapidly rise until at last the troops were perspiring to as great an extent as would have been the case had they been parading in review order on a hot summer's day. The intense humidity in the hall added greatly to the physical discomfort of the men.

WAIT WAS A LONG ONE.

It was a long wait before the elements abated their fury—nearly an hour and a half. But the men stood it like bricks, and there was plenty to divert their attention from the heat and the inconvenience under which they were labouring. The crowd in the hall, in the first place, was full of enthusiasm, and freely gave vent to its feelings in cheers and patriotic songs; and in the second place, owing to the presence on parade of all of the regimental bands of the city, there was plenty of music to while away the time.

At first, to relieve the tedium of waiting, one of the bands struck up a lively air, and everybody kept time in unison. This was the beginning of what proved to be the most unique band concert heard in Montreal for many days. When the first band had finished, another one began a tune, and when it was ended another started in.

EACH BAND PLAYED IN TURN.

So each band played in turn, and, then there was the skirl of the pipes, and the shrill fifes added to the martial music. This continued without cessation until the men were finally marched out of the Drill Shed. There was not an instant's delay between each number, just as soon as one band stopped the next one struck up, and as every bandsman appeared to be quite enthusiastic over the matter it was a concert well worth listening to. The selections played were mostly of a patriotic character, English, Scotch, French Canadian and Irish airs, being rendered in splendid style. Then the Scots band struck up a medley of operatic selections, waltzes and cake walks, and to this music the crowds in the galleries danced and tip-toed until one would have thought a big dancing competition was in progress.

AN ANIMATED SCENE.

On the floor of the Drill Shed there was an animated scene. Each battalion had taken up its place opposite its armoury, and as viewed from above the blending of the colours formed a striking picture. There was life, tone and spirit in the living picture which could not be reproduced on any canvas. With the quickened heartbeats caused by the martial music and the general appearance of the troops came the thoughts of military resources of the Empire of which these men formed a unit, and it was not surprising that the occasion evoked cheers from the spectators and from the militiamen, too.

The bright scarlet of the Fusiliers shone out against the white tunics of the Scots, and behind these were the dark business-like colours of the artillerymen. On the opposite side of the shed the natty riflemen of the 65th Battalion looked dapper and gay, and behind were the Highland Cadets in their pretty Highland dress of grey. Then the Field Artillery and the Cavalrymen looked dashing enough to capture the hearts of all the fair ones, and the final touch was given by the neatly dressed boys of the Westmount Cadets. All these men had been marched from their armories and remained there. The bands had also come out.

While the soldiers and crowds were enjoying the feast of music in the drill hall, Lieut.-Col. Roy and the commanding officers of the regiments on parade were watching the storm through the windows of the brigade office. For a long time the rain came down, so to speak, in buckets, but at length it let up a little. A deputation, consisting of Lieut.-Col. Whitley and Lieut.-Col. Cooke, was then appointed to go down to the front door of the office and ascertain precisely the amount of water falling at the time. The committee returned and reported that, in its opinion, it was inadvisable to go out at that particular moment. Accordingly it was decided to wait until half-past nine o'clock, when, if the weather cleared, the troops would parade as per intention.

At that hour, however, the rain was still coming down in pretty good style, and so it was decided to cancel the parade and dismiss the men. Orders were given to mass the bands together in order that the National Anthem might be played by all the musicians, while the troops presented arms.

WISHED TO HAVE THE PARADE.

But when Col. Roy and his staff reached the drill hall floor, he found that both officers and men were quite unwilling to forego the parade, even though it was raining. The men seemed so eager to go out that Col. Roy despatched an orderly to the door to ascertain if the storm had ceased to such an extent as would permit of the evening's programme being carried out. The orderly returned and reported that the rain had stopped. This was enough for Col. Roy to decide that the parade should be held. But it was considered unwise to allow the men to parade with rifles. So the companies were dismissed, rifles were put away, and when the men again fell in they carried side arms only.

Then the parade got under way. Bands played and trumpets blared, pipes droned and bugles blew, drums beat a merry tattoo, and children cheered and yelled.

Up St. Lambert Hill the troops marched, headed by a band of urchins carrying Union Jacks. All went well until the head of the column reached the Post Office, when the rain again began to assert itself in earnest. By the time the troops had reached Victoria Square, the downpour was like unto a deluge, soaking officers and men alike. Under these conditions, Col. Roy deemed it advisable to return to the armoury, by way of Craig street, and such was done. But the men had accomplished their object, and had had their wishes gratified. And so they didn't mind the soaking they got. It was nothing, they said, to that which Kitchener had given the Boers.

Uptown the Victoria Rifles mustered 250 strong, and awaited the decision of the staff down town. However, the battalion was dismissed without leaving the armoury, though some of the men expressed disappointment that there was no march out.

The heavy rainfall did not spoil what was readily an excellent parade, but it kept many people indoors and had the result of keeping the celebration generally within bounds. In spite of this there was plenty of stir on the streets.

St. Louis Council Meeting.

Mayor Gelinas presided at the St. Louis Council meeting last night. The annual discussion on the question of the appointment of auditors took up nearly the whole sitting. It will be remembered that the Citizens' Association passed a resolution recommending the appointment of chartered accountants with the object of securing an independent audit. The recommendation, however, was not accepted and there is much dissatisfaction at the continued employment of men, some of whom are in receipt of salaries from councillors as book-keepers.

It appeared from the reading of the minutes of a general committee meeting, held on May 21, that at that meeting Messrs. Germain and Charrette were appointed auditors and Mr. Dore was dismissed.

Councillor Jubinville denounced the manner in which important business was rushed through these general committee meetings, which were secret meetings, to which the public were not admitted. The taxpayers had no means of finding out what was done at these private meetings. In the present case the Council and the public were informed by the hurried reading of minutes that Mr. Dore had been dismissed and Mr. Charette's salary had been augmented by $50; yet three-fourths of the work had been done by Mr. Dore, while Mr. Charette had done about one-fourth. He moved to reconsider the resolution passed at the meeting on the 21st, dismissing Mr. Dore and increasing Mr. Charette's salary.

Councillor Collerette said the motion was out of order, and a discussion followed.

The division which immediately followed on Councillor Jubinville's motion to reconsider resulted in its defeat.

For the motion: Olivier, Martin, Shinnick and Jubinville, 4; against, Martel, Godon, Colerette, Daze and Legault, 5.

The report of the road committee recommending the purchase of a steam roller for $3,400 was adopted and the Council adjourned.

New Cold Storage Building.

One of the largest and best equipped cold storage buildings in Canada is being erected at present on King street, between William and Wellington streets, by Messrs. Lovell and Christmas, provision merchants. The building is being fitted throughout with a Linde British Refrigerating Plant, and in order to avoid high insurance rates, will be as nearly fire-proof as possible. The building is to be ready for occupation by September 1.

CANADIANS WHO WILL GO TO CORONATION

Ships Sailing This Week Have Big Passenger Lists.

MANY PREMIERS ON THE WING

His Excellency Lord Minto Accompanied by His Daughter Sails by the Parisian.

On the passenger ships leaving port the latter portion of the week will be hundreds of people whose destination is London, and who go abroad primarily to either witness or take part in the gorgeous Coronation spectacle.

On board the Allan Line steamship Parisian will be the members of the Canadian Coronation Contingent, 674 officers and men, while among the other passengers will be His Excellency Lord Minto and daughter, Lady Ruby Elliot; Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, and Mrs. Murray; Premier Tweedie, of New Brunswick and Mrs. Tweedie; Premier Peters, of Prince Edward Island and Mrs. Peters; and Sir Robert Bond, Premier of Newfoundland.

The Coronation Contingent which will go on board at Quebec at six o'clock on Saturday evening will consist of 24 commissioned officers, 2 warrant officers, and 628 non-commissioned officers and men. The commissioned and warrant officers will, of course, occupy saloon accommodation, while 30 of the non-coms. and men will occupy quarters in the second cabin, the remainder of the men will be accommodated 'tween decks. Special arrangements have been made for them, and they will be berthed in much the same manner as the troops which have sailed from Canada to South Africa, only if anything they will be given better quarters. A portion of the men will sleep in hammocks and the remainder in permanent bunks. The mess tables for the men will be arranged on the same plan as upon troop ships, the hammocks being taken down and stored during the day. The men will have the run of all decks except that occupied by the saloon passengers, so there will be no lack of space for exercise.

PARISIAN'S BIG LIST.

The Parisian's saloon list numbers in all some 130 people, in other words the ship is already filled, all available accommodation being engaged. Besides those already mentioned will be the members of the Westminster Choir party to the number of twenty, Principal Peterson and family, Lt.-Col. Cooke, who is going over to view the Coronation, Mr. Lansing Lewis, Miss Stikman, Mr. W. S. Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Nelles.

The Parisian will sail from Montreal at nine o'clock on Saturday morning and the troops will be taken on at the Allan wharf at Quebec, and not at Levis as formerly announced.

On Thursday at daybreak the Elder, Dempster steamship Lake Simcoe will sail from Montreal for Liverpool, taking out a large party bent on viewing the Coronation ceremonies. Among the passengers booked are twenty-one members of the West India Volunteer Corps, who will take part in the Coronation ceremonies. They will be under the command of Lt. C. S. Higgs.

Among the Montrealers booked by the Lake Simcoe are Mr. Justice Girouard and son, Mr. Ernest Girouard; Mrs. D. A. Starr and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Layton, Mrs. R. R. Stevenson and Miss Stevenson, Mr. Charles Alexander, Mr. John Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Beaubien. Among those booked from other portions of Canada are Judge and Mrs. Ermatinger of St. Thomas, Ont.; Dr. A. F. Tufford and Dr. J. C. Tufford, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. John White, Halifax, Mr. R. F. Wickstead, of Ottawa; Rev. D. Jenkins, of Cushendall; Ont.; and Mr. M. A. Gilbert and family, of St. Thomas, Ont.

The Dominion Line steamship Vancouver, from Portland, on June 7, will take out a good number bent on witnessing the Coronation while the Commonwealth of the same line from Boston, on June 16, has already her full complement of saloon passengers. She has been widely advertised as the Dominion Line's Coronation steamship. She will take out some 300 saloon and 250 second cabin, among them being many Canadians.

A HOT SUMMER MAY LEAD TO AN ICE FAMINE.

The present hot spell has jarred the sensibilities of the average householder to the extent of reminding him that the ice crop of last winter was by no means the largest on record, and that there is a likelihood of there being a shortage before the season of harvest again comes around.

Some of the larger firms in the ice business are not taking on any new customers, and those on their books are paying about ten per cent more for their ice than last year. The shortage of the crop last year was due to peculiar weather conditions. When there was ice the roads were in no fit condition to haul the same, and when the roads were in good shape the ice was poor. The consequence was that it cost considerably more than usual to harvest ice last winter, and the different ice companies did not put in any more than they thought they would need.

EITHER WAY HURTS.

A Cross Fire on Coffee Users.

The breaking away from coffee is an exceedingly serious problem to many people, especially when headaches follow leaving off the drug, and dyspepsia and bowel trouble grows more and more serious if the coffee is continued. So there you are between two fires.

A comparatively easy way out was taken by a lady from Franklin, Pa., who says: "We had a curious experience with coffee. Husband had been, for many years, a sufferer from dyspepsia, with heart-burn, headaches and general nervous trouble. We tried a great many physicians and a great many remedies, but none of them did him any lasting good.

"We concluded there must be something about his employment that thus affected him. One day a man told him that probably coffee was the cause of his trouble, and advised him to use Postum. The first time I made it I studied directions and made it good. Well that day was a day long to be remembered.

"We liked the Postum, but we had a hundred headaches compressed into one. You see the trouble was we had both used coffee so long that our nerves were in a state of collapse, without the usual stimulant. Until then I did not dream I was such a slave to coffee, but we had to do something to quit, so the next morning I used Postum with part coffee and we missed the headaches; then I used less coffee every morning for about two weeks, and then Postum alone for nearly a year now, and I just wish you could see the change in my husband. He has better health than he ever had before, never has the headache, can eat anything he wants, does not have heart-burn or any stomach trouble, and he cannot be induced to drink coffee under any circumstances.

"When anybody mentions dyspepsia in his presence he tells them what cured him.

"I was almost as bad as he, but am now entirely well, and have gone up from 98 pounds to 108 pounds, and am so thankful for the blessing of good health.

"If my name will do any good, use it, for we stand by Postum always." Mrs. W. A. Bowers, 29 9th street, Franklin, Pa.

SHE PATIENTLY BORE DISGRACE

A Sad letter from a lady whose Husband was Dissipated.

How She Cured Him with a Secret Remedy.

"I had for years patiently borne the disgrace, suffering, misery and privations due to my husband's drinking habits. Hearing of your marvellous remedy for the cure of drunkenness, which I could give my husband secretly, I decided to try it. I procured a package and mixed it in his food and coffee, and, as the remedy was odorless and tasteless, he did not know what it was that so quickly relieved his craving for liquor. He soon began to pick up flesh, his appetite for solid food returned, he stuck to his work regularly, and we now have a happy home. After he was completely cured I told him what I had done, when he acknowledged that it had been his saving, as he had not the resolution to break off of his own accord. I heartily advise all women afflicted as I was to give your remedy a trial."

DECIDED UPON OFFICIAL HYMNAL FOR ST. GEORGE'S.

At a special meeting of the vestry of St. George's Church, held Monday, it was decided that for the future Hymns Ancient and Modern will be the official hymnal of that church, superseding a hymnal that has been in use in the congregation for the past twenty-five years, but which is now out of print. This decision was only reached after a canvass of the congregation had been made, showing the great majority to be in favour of the adoption of Hymns Ancient and Modern.

At the meeting it was reported that some time ago a copy of the following card was sent to every pew and seat-holder in the church:

"In view of the fact that the hymn book presently used in St. George's is out of print, and if its use is to be continued it would require to be reprinted, and a guarantee given of its continued use for some years, at a meeting of the vestry held on the 17th instant it was unanimously resolved that the opinion of each pew and seat-holder be asked as to which hymnal they would prefer for future use in St. George's Church of the following:

The book presently in use.
Hymns Ancient and Modern.
The Hymnal, S.P.C.K.

Will you be good enough to place an X opposite the hymnal you would prefer, and you may further indicate, if you desire it, your second choice by marking opposite it No. 2, and return in enclosed envelope.

JAMES CRATHERN,
GEO. E. DRUMMOND,
"Churchwardens."

At last night's meeting Mr. Crathern stated that 226 cards had been issued and there were 173 cards returned, as follows: S.P.C.K., first choice, 2; second choice, 20; Hymnal presently in use, first choice, 46; second choice, 22; Hymns Ancient and Modern, first choice, 125, second choice, 14.

The following resolution was moved by Mr. A. F. Gault, seconded by Mr. Richard White:

"That, inasmuch as the pew and seat-holders of the congregation have declared in writing their desire that Hymns Ancient and Modern should be used in St. George's Church, the vestry now agrees to the request and recommends the rector to confirm the views of the majority."

The resolution was carried, 14 to 8, and the meeting adjourned.

No. 228 the Lucky Number.

The drawing for the gold watch and chain kindly donated by Archbishop Bruchesi in behalf of the Home for Incurables took place Monday afternoon in the home, Notre Dame de Grace. In the absence of His Grace the Archbishop, Rev. Dr. Luke Callaghan, Vice-Chancellor, presided, and handed the sisters in charge the net proceeds of the raffle, $303.50, together with a personal gift of $100 from Mrs. Thomas Collins towards defraying the cost of two rooms in the new home. The party whose ticket bears the lucky number drawn, 228, is requested to call at 818 Lagauchetiere street. Mrs. Collins and her daughter, Miss Cecilia Collins, who collected for the incurables, and others who assisted were thanked by the Archbishop for their success in realizing so handsome a sum.

Horses From St. John.

Five steamers sailing from St. John, N. B., this month will take out an aggregate of four thousand head of horses. Half of this number are being shipped from the United States and are at present on their way. The vessels, all of the Elder-Dempster Line, are of about the same tonnage and will take 800 horses each. The steamship Monarch will sail on June 12th; the steamship Marquette, on June 16th, the steamship Milwaukee, on June 20th, the steamship Mechanician, on June 24th, and the steamship Montcalm, on June 28th.

Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Dr. Richer has secured temporary accommodation for six or eight patients at Dr. Kemp's cottage, Ste. Agathe. Further arrangements will be made for the accommodation of patients until such time as a permanent sanatarium is erected in place of the one recently destroyed by fire. In this way the work will progress without serious drawback.

SUBURBAN NOTES.

The monthly meeting of the Outremont Town Council will be held this evening.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Point St. Charles Railway Association was held last evening, when the various reports of the work done during the past couple of months was presented.

The Westmount Council has decided to hold a special meeting at the beginning of the coming week, in order to make arrangements for the celebration of Coronation Day. The Westmount Sons of England are willing to join the council to make the celebration as general as possible.

The annual Fete Dieu procession held at Longueuil on Sunday proved to be one of the largest in the history of the town. The route of the procession was through the streets of the eastern portion of the town. Solemn benediction was celebrated at the repository, which was stationed at the residence of Mayor Perrault.

At St. Matthew's Presbyterian Church, Point St. Charles, last evening, Mr. Melvin Cowie and Miss Rebecca H. Stoba were married by Rev. E. A. Mackenzie. Miss Lillie Curry and Miss Mingie acted as bridesmaids, while the groom was assisted by Mr. W. C. Montignani. After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 33 Rosel street. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Cowie left for Ottawa.

A number of the residents and property-holders on the upper portion of Clarke avenue, Westmount, have written the Council protesting against the nuisance caused by the black smoke issuing from the chimney of the pumping station of the Montreal Water and Power Company. The Council has decided that the nuisance has now become a public one, and have instructed Mr. J. Dunlop, K.C., the town solicitor, to take action in the matter.

At the meeting of the Westmount Council held on Monday evening, the Road Committee recommended to Council that in future permanent sidewalks should replace the wooden ones. The Council unanimously decided that this course should be followed and work started at once, the necessary funds being taken from the general fund of the town. A good deal of granolithic will be used, but it is intended that different kinds should be tried.

Before quite a large audience in the Fairmont Avenue Methodist Church, Montreal Annex, last evening, an interesting address on the work accomplished by the Catholic Total Abstinence Society of the United States was given by Mrs. Lenora M. Lake, the vice-president of the society. Mrs. Lake has already been heard on the lecture platform in the city, and made many friends for herself, who were anxious to hear her again. She will deliver lectures in the different churches during the present week.

The Westmount Council, on the recommendation of Mayor Lighthall, has decided that souvenir medals should be presented to the three African heroes who have just returned from the front. They are George Marks, a member of the South African Light Horse, 4466 Western avenue; Herbert Perry, of Kitchener's Scouts, Greene ave., and Fred. B. Minto, of Kitchener's Scouts, 4470 Western avenue. Medals were presented to the other residents as they returned.

At a special meeting to be held shortly the Westmount Council will take action against the Montreal Street Railway to see what can be done to do away with the amount of noise caused by the running of heavy cars at a high rate of speed through the streets of the town. The action is being taken at the instance of Councillor Evans, who claims that motormen while going through the town try to make up the time lost in the city. The company has been written to frequently with regard to the matter, and it is expected that decisive action will be taken.

Diamond Light and Heating Co.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Diamond Light and Heating Company of Canada, Ltd., was held Monday afternoon in the offices of the company, 750 Craig street, with Mr. R. C. Miller, president, in the chair. Immediately after the meeting of the shareholders the board of directors met and re-elected Mr. R. C. Miller president; Mr. H. J. Johnston vice-president, and Mr. J. R. Bain, secretary-treasurer.

Feats of Mind Reading.

Onofroff appeared in the Theatre des Nouveautes, St. Catherine street, Monday evening before a moderate house. His feats of mind-reading were simply marvellous. While he was out of the theatre in the custody of a committee, one of the audience took a hair from the head of each of three different persons in various parts of the house. Each hair was wrapped in a piece of paper and the packages con- [illegible] roff was then brought in, and, by simply touching the hand of the person who had selected and hidden the hairs—just touching the hand for a moment—he found the tiny parcels and picked out the three persons whose hair had been selected. The second part consisted of a lecture on hypnotism, with remarkable experiments performed upon members of the audience. The performance was one of the best of the kind we have had here.

Council of Arts and Manufactures.

The programme which is being prepared by the council for the distribution of awards to be held on Wednesday of next week will be very interesting. Music will be rendered by the pupils of the Solfeggio Course, and a solo of 'cello will be given by Mr. J. B. Dubois.

The president, Mr. Thomas Gauthier has just been informed that His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi, the Hon. S. N. Parent (Prime Minister), Hon. L. Gouin, Hon. H. Archambault, Hon. Adelard Turgeon and Hon. Thomas Duffy will honour the meeting by their presence.

Appointed Honorary Canon.

The Rev. W. Percy Chambers, M.A., rector of St. Stephen's Church, Lachine, has been appointed an honorary canon of Christ Church Cathedral in succession to the Rev. Edmund Wood, resigned. Canon Chambers is a graduate of the University of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, and was, before he went to Lachine, incumbent of Aylwin in the Gatineau district, rector of Knowlton and rural dean of Brome.

The Fraser Institute.

The Fraser Institute will close on June 30, at 6 p.m., for such time as may be necessary to carry out certain alterations in the library and to make an inventory of the books. The members are therefore notified to return all books belonging to the Institute on or before June 17.

Fell Exhausted and Unconscious

A Frightful Case of Exhausted Nerves and Debilitated System — From a Mere Skeleton, Pale, Weak, Trembling and Almost Wild With Pain, Mrs. Edwards Was Made Strong and Well by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 33 McMurray street, Brantford, Ont., describes her case as follows:

"For five years I have suffered more than words can tell from nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, and exhaustion. The pains in my head would at times almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights, but would walk the floor in agony until I fell exhausted and unconscious, and my husband would have to carry me back to bed.

"Sometimes I could take no food for four days at a time, and experienced terrible gnawing sensations in the stomach, had bad taste in the mouth and coated tongue. I was pale, nervous, irritable, easily exhausted, was reduced to a mere skeleton of skin and bone, and my heart would palpitate as though it was about to stop beating. My greatest suffering was caused by the dreadful pains in my head, neck and back, and all this was in spite of the best efforts of three leading doctors of this city.

"For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and for a considerable time I have not experienced a headache, or any of the symptoms mentioned above. From a mere skeleton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight, until now I am strong and well, do my own housework, walk out for two hours without feeling tired, and am thoroughly restored to health. Is it any wonder that words fail to express my gratitude for this remarkable cure? You can use this testimonial for the benefit of other sufferers."

It would be impossible, we believe, to produce stronger evidence to prove the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a system-builder. It contains the very essence of the most potent restoratives of nature, and is certain to be of benefit to you. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"A NIGHT IN JAPAN."

The Young People Who Will Participate in One of the Musical Romances.

An interesting feature of the Carnival of Musical Romances to be given at the Academy on the evenings of June 12th and 13th, and a matinee on Saturday, June 14th, for the benefit of the Protestant Infants' Home will be

"A NIGHT IN JAPAN."

Adapted from the opera "Mikado" this will especially delight the young people when forty youngsters appear in the beautiful garden surrounding "Ko-Ko's" palace and execute all kinds of grotesque dancing and tableaux for the delectation of his highness the Mikado, who will dance in his inimitable operas, "Santoy" and will also execute a most difficult national dance in this scene. The Mikado will also render a topical song touching upon many well known politicians and public men. The names of those who appear in the cast will be: Mikado, Mr. Davis; Attendant, Mr. Simpson; the "Geisha," Miss Milne, Miss Lily Milne, Miss Meldrum, Miss Janie Meldrum, Miss Alice Nelson, Miss Gertrude Smaill, (Specialties); Messrs. BOY RETURNED TO MOTHER.

A heartrending scene took place yesterday in the Practice Court, when Mr. Justice Taschereau, ordered Pierre Lambert, of Ste. Cunegonde, to return to Mrs. Francois McNichol, her six year old son. The case for the mother was conducted by Mr. Honore Mercier, while the defence was looked after by Mr. P. M. Durant. The child is admitted to be the grandson of the defendant, although his son had never married the petitioner. When the woman married, the grandfather of the boy was forced to take care of him, and later when her husband died the mother once more claimed her son, and took possession of him putting him in a convent of Ste. Cunegonde. He was removed from there by his grandfather, with whom the little fellow wished to remain. When the Court ordered him returned to his mother, the little fellow protested and his grandfather had to get out of sight before he could be quietened and persuaded that he was safe with his mother.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

Delegates to the General Conference Chosen at Sherbrooke.

SALE OF TEMPLE BUILDING

It Has Been Authorized — A Great Deal of Work Put Through Yesterday.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

SHERBROOKE, Que., June 4.—The temperance report was presented at last evening's session of the Methodist conference. It set forth that it is useless to debate the action of the Ontario Government now on the referendum, and that the Ontario liquor act is not prohibition, although it aims to remove the bar.

Mr. W. H. Lambly spoke and gave a brief address on prohibition as it is seen in the local option in the province of Quebec.

Rev. D. Winter spoke on the work among the children and work by the women.

The report of the Epworth League committee was presented by Rev. W. H. Stevens. It recommended two changes in the constitution.

Mr. Lockburn B. Scott spoke on the different departments of Epworth League work.

The Sunday school report was presented by Mr. A. Shaw. It expressed gratification at the increased attendance and support. It also suggested a course of study for teachers and recommended more temperance work and the study of the Catechism in the schools.

Mr. J. A. Tomkins was called on, and gave some excellent thoughts on the relation of the Sunday school to the church. The great need is teaching preachers. Sunday school pedagogy would be as helpful as pulpit oratory, yet it does not get nearly so much cultivation in the training of young preachers.

THE TEMPLE BUILDING.

At the afternoon session the church property committee reported through Rev. E. R. Kelly, giving permission to sell property in certain places where changes are necessary, among others that of the Temple building, Montreal.

After balloting eight times, the following were elected ministerial members of the general conference: Dr. Benson, Dr. Antliff, Dr. Williams, Dr. Shaw, Rev. J. E. Mavety, Dr. Ryckman, Rev. Wm. Timberlake, Rev. W. H. Sparling, Dr. Rose, Rev. M. Taylor, Dr. Griffith, Rev. T. J. Mansell, Rev. D. Winter, Rev. C. S. Deeprose, Rev. F. G. Lett, Rev. Messrs. J. Elliott, L. B. Conley, J. T. Pitcher, Dr. Jackson, Rev. H. Cairnes, and Rev. Messrs. S. J. Hughes, Wm. Philp and F. C. Reynolds as alternates.

The laymen reported the following election of delegates: Messrs. Judge J. Deacon, A. Shaw, W. H. Lambly, Jno. Cunningham, C. Morton, J. R. Lavell, S. J. Carter, L. B. Scott, John Torrance, C. W. Cate, A. R. Oughtred, J. A. Tomkins, W. G. Hunt, Dr. Pritchard, Messrs. C. C. Knight, W. Thoburn, J. L. Bates, Judge Britton, C. W. Coates, H. W. Mix; alternates, Mr. W. H. Godwin, Dr. Smith and Mr. A. D. Van Camp.

Mr. W. H. Lambly is the representative to the General Missionary Committee.

COMPLETING THEIR WORK.

While waiting on the tellers the Ministerial Conference completed their work. J. R. R. Cooper was accepted, on the recommendation of Matilda district, as a probationer for the ministry.

The French Methodist Institute reported, through the principal, Rev. Paul Villard, an encouraging year's work. Dr. Williams spoke highly of the work of the institute and of the principal.

A resolution from the laymen was presented, urging the use of the weekly offering system, wherever possible. It was endorsed by the conference.

Stanstead College reported, through the secretary, Rev. J. T. Pitcher, and principal, Rev. Dr. Flanders. The year has been one of steady progress. The Pierce Memorial Hall, erected during the year, forms a beautiful and much-needed musical college, and is in affiliation with Toronto College of Music. There is a surplus on current account of $400, and the debt will soon be wiped out. At present it is $1,700. There is an endowment of $31,000. The boarding accommodation was fully occupied last year. The cost for board and tuition for a year is about $130, and off this there is a reduction of about $30 for ministers' families and candidates for the ministry.

Dr. Shaw reported the Educational Fund showing a most encouraging year. He also read the report of Albert College, showing a very encouraging year with an enrollment of over 300.

Dr. Ryckman read a letter from Dr. Briggs re an order of service for Coronation Day in which he said he would wait the action of other conferences.

The Committee on Bible Study reported recomending the study of Deuteronomy. Essayists: Revs. H. A. Young, D. T. Cummings, and R. Corrigan, B. A., and leaders of discussion, Revs. W. J. Wood, J. W. Davidson, B.A., and C. S. Deeprose.

Rev. Mr. Grenfell reported the Contingent Fund, showing the disposition of some $734.

A resolution was carried, asking the General Conference to modify course of study for medical missionaries.

The Memorial Committee presented report No.3. 1. Asking that class-leaders be appointed for members who do not, or can not, attend class. 2. Asking that home missions take precedence in the Missionary Fund. 3. Asking that each district elect its own chairman. 4. Asking that committees be formed in the districts to take charge of the interests of the church and the conveners of these to form the Conference Committee. 5. To give a "Building Committee" powers and duties in order to prevent in each district building churches, etc., when they would be too close to each other. Nos. 1, 4 and 5 were adopted.

By resolution an increased number of the minutes was permitted, if prospects warranted their being printed, and a pamphlet containing "Pastoral Address," and some other matter ordered.

The conference postmaster, Rev. J. H. Philp, was called to the platform and presented by the president of the conference with a purse.

By motion it was unanimously resolved that the next conference be held in Kingston.

Methodists in Japan.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 4.—Dr. Sutherland, superintendent of the Canadian Methodist missions, arrived yesterday by the Empress of Japan, from Japan, where he has been since March. He states that the six separate Methodist bodies now working in Japan are arranging to form themselves into one body under a general conference. There are about twelve thousand Methodists in Japan, about 2,500 of whom are under the Canadian Methodist Church. The proposed concentration of the work will greatly increase the usefulness and influence of the church. Dr. Sutherland will have an interesting report to make to the General Board of Missions and the General Conference at Winnipeg. He leaves for the East on Thursday.

CANADIAN PRODUCTS

They are Now Much in Favour in England, Says Prof. Robertson—New Field in South Africa.

OTTAWA, June 4.—Professor Robertson, commissioner of agriculture, who has just returned from England, says he found that Canada, Canadian affairs and Canadian products were occupying a much larger share of attention from the public generally, and from business men particularly than ever before. He had interviews at the departments of the Imperial Government regarding future shipments of Canadian supplies to South Africa. He found the authorities in London most favourably disposed to take as large a share as possible of supplies from Canada, as Canadian products which had been shipped to South Africa, particularly hay and flour, on the whole, had given satisfaction.

Professor Robertson went before the committee on remounts for the army to give evidence regarding the supply of horses from Canada. He said out of the million and a half of horses, anywhere from 10,000 to 30,000 a year could be furnished, suitable for artillery, cavalry and mounted infantry.

PRODUCTS OF THE DAIRY.

A notable increase has taken place in the quantities of cheese, butter and bacon shipped from Canada in recent years. The value of these foods exported from Canada has increased from $19,455,544 in 1896, to $35,822,434 in 1901. All occupy a relatively better place in the markets of the United Kingdom than at any previous time. The arrangements made by the Department of Agriculture to improve the methods of curing cheese by cool air in central curing rooms is spoken of highly by British importers.

The shipments of fattened chickens made by the department have been successful and point to a great increase in that trade. Account sales were examined in England by Professor Robertson for the latest shipment of about 1,500 chickens. These had been held in cold storage from November, to test methods of keeping and handling them for the spring and early summer markets. They were sold at from 6 3-4 pence to 8 pence per pound, and were reported in perfect condition.

The exports of eggs are growing. Careful sorting into sizes and proper packing for safe carriage must be looked after.

THE FRUIT MARKS ACT.

The operation of the Fruit Marks Act, to insure correct marking and honest packing of apples is having a good effect on that trade. Instead of creating difficulties and dissatisfaction as was predicted when the act was being discussed in Parliament, it has benefited the business and is now approved alike by growers, shippers from Canada, and receivers in the United Kingdom.

The newspapers were giving much prominence to discussions on preferential trade under various captions. The business men are preferring some lines of Canadian products because of the superior quality and good value.

Matters of education are receiving uncommon attention in England. The new plans in Canada for the improvement of educational rural schools have been commented on widely in the leading journals and by education authorities.

THE FRENCH CABINET

Will Continue to Transact Business for the Present.

PARIS, June 4.—The letter of M. Waldeck Rousseau to President Loubet, tendering his resignation as premier, was published in the Journal Officiel to-day. M. Waldeck-Rousseau says the state of his health, after three years of uninterrupted exercise of office, compels him to take a rest. Moreover, he considers that the task which he took up is terminated, and that the recent elections produced a majority sufficiently powerful to assure not only the maintenance, but the development of republican institutions.

A reply from M. Loubet was also published to-day, announcing that he accepted the resignation and charged the ministry to carry on affairs until the appointment of their successors. M. Loubet will begin his consultations at once.

PAID THE DEATH PENALTY.

Louis Pouquette Was Hanged at Kamloops on Tuesday.

KAMLOOPS, B. C., June 4.—Louis Pouquette under sentence of death for the shooting of Fred Legere, at Notch Hill, on the 26th of April last, was hanged on Tuesday in the gaol yard, in the presence of a few spectators, who were admitted by pass. Sharp at eight the solemn procession entered the court yard. The condemned man mounted the scaffold, unassisted, preceded by Rev. Father A. Michels, the gaol officials following. Two minutes later the trap was sprung. The drop was seven feet, yet death was not instantaneous. The body hung fully fifteen minutes before life was pronounced extinct. The condemned man made no statement, but was unconcerned to the last.

Lord Minto for Washington.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The correspondent of the Times in London cables:

Of all men actually in diplomatic life, the present Lord Minto seems the most distinguished and capable to succeed Lord Pauncefote, and the objection made that the fact that he has been in Canada might lead to complications, is made light of even by men who think that a purely diplomatic training is not the best equipment for an Ambassador in Washington. That Canadians should object to their Governor-General going to Washington is said to be absurd, while in regard to any possible American objection, that such an Ambassador might come prejudiced, I heard an Englishman in public life say yesterday, only half jocularly, the fact that a man has been compelled to live in Canada for a long while is as likely as not to make him rather anti-Canadian in his feelings.

OUR NEW FELLOW-SUBJECTS.

One of the most gratifying things in connection with the termination of the war is that after fighting so gallantly and stubbornly the Boers generally have accepted the inevitable with a good grace. Judging by the behaviour and utterances of the prisoners and the people in the concentration camps they appear to have a better opinion of their conquerors than they had at the outbreak of hostilities and are disposed to meet cordiality with cordiality. A despatch from Pretoria says that General Kitchener visited the Boer camp at Vereeniging on Sunday and made a short address, in which he expressed the belief that Boers and Britons would soon be friends; and adds that the address was vigorously cheered. Then, we are also told that there was great rejoicing in the concentration camps, where English as well as Boer anthems were sung. These things seem to indicate that the Boer possesses a virtue much admired by the Briton, that of being able to take a licking like a gentleman. There will be no reason to regret any generosity accorded to the vanquished if it helps to induce them to loyally and cordially accept their new status. Their conduct during the war leads to the impression that they will make splendid British subjects and they should meet with every encouragement. It is a pity that Stead and the other pro-Boers do not know enough to accept the result with an equally good grace.

DR. CHURCH TOOK WRONG MEDICINE

Mistake of Ottawa Dentist Which Resulted in His Death.

TOOK ARSENIC FOR CALOMEL

He Was Removed to His Home in Aylmer, Que., Where He Died.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—Dr. J. M. Church, dentist, died under distressing circumstances at his mother's residence, Aylmer, yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. Monday afternoon the doctor who was in ill-health retired to rest in his office in the Sun Life building, corner of Bank and Sparks streets. Between one and two o'clock yesterday morning he arose to take a dose of calomel. He took a dose out of a bottle of white arsenic instead.

Realizing his error shortly afterwards, Dr. Church summoned the caretaker of the building, Mr. Butterworth, who secured the services of Dr. Potter and other physicians. Dr. Fred Church, a brother of deceased was summoned from Aylmer. The medical men strove with all the skill that science could bring to bear to relieve the sufferer. He recovered from the effects of the poison and expressed a strong desire to be removed to his home in Aylmer. This wish was complied with and assisted by his brother, Dr. Church, made the journey.

During the day he seemed to gain strength but about two o'clock he took a turn for the worse. He gradually sank till death ended his sufferings about four o'clock. During the day the deceased received every medical attention and in the afternoon a medical consultation was held but it was found impossible to offset the fatal effects of the unfortunate dose.

The late Dr. John Athan Mills Church L.D.S., D.D.S., was in his 32nd year. He was the fourth son of the late Dr. Collar Church, of Aylmer, in which town he was born. After completing his studies at the Toronto University and Dental College he opened an office in Ottawa.

SIX BOERS VOTED AGAINST SURRENDER

was his conviction that the Briton and Boer would be friends. The address was vigorously cheered. The Boers expressed the opinion that there would not be the slightest difficulty about the commandoes coming in. The most cordial and friendly sentiments were expressed. It was decided that there should be three centres for surrender of arms. In the eastern Transvaal Gen. Bruce Hamilton will receive them, in the western Transvaal, Gen. Walter Kitchener, and in the Orange River Colony, Gen. Elliott.

BOER DELEGATES IN EUROPE.

UTRECHT, Holland, June 4.—The Boer delegates in Europe arrived here yesterday afternoon. They held a prolonged conference in the house of Mr. Kruger, and afterwards another meeting was held at the Hotel de Pays Bas here. None of the delegates were willing to talk with regard to the conclusion of peace, or of what had been done at yesterday's meetings. Mr. Leyds and Mr. Fischer will remain here. Mr. Wessels and Mr. Wolmarans have proceeded for The Hague.

The Handelsblad declares that neither Mr. Kruger nor any of the Boer delegates in Europe has received any communication from the Boers in South Africa concerning peace. "The inference is," says the paper, "that the British Government is stopping such despatches."

THE POPE WELL PLEASED.

ROME, June 4.—The Pope gave an audience to several diplomats yesterday afternoon. He expressed great joy over the news of peace in South Africa. He said he honoured the English for the manner in which they had treated the Boers, and the Boers for their gallant struggle against long odds. Monsignor Stonor, the Archbishop of Trebizond, officially communicated to the Pope the news of the termination of the war in South Africa. His Holiness answered: "God be blessed. I pray you to communicate to the British Government the fact that the news has filled me with content."

AMERICAN PRISONERS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 4.—Representative Naphen (Mass.) yesterday introduced a resolution reciting the conclusion of peace between Great Britain and the late South African republics, and asking the Secretary of State for information as to what American citizens were held as prisoners of war by the British authorities.

EX-PRESIDENT KRUGER

Will Probably Retire to His Farm at Rustenburg.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The correspondent of the Tribune in London cables:

It is reported that friendly advances are being indirectly made by the British Government to Mr. Kruger, with the object of enabling the ex-President to return to South Africa, conditionally on his retirement to his Rustenburg farm.

LONDON, June 4.—Telegraphing from Amsterdam, the correspondent of the Daily Mail says that Sir W. Conyngham Greene, the British Minister at Berne, Switzerland, and who was formerly British agent at Pretoria together with Lord Reay, from London, has arrived here and conferred at length with Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch Premier. It is rumoured, continues the correspondent, that Sir W. Conyngham Greene and Lord Reay purpose accompanying Dr. Kuyper to notify Mr. Kruger of the conditions of peace, and to offer him safe conduct to South Africa and other facilities conditional upon his retirement to his farm at Rustenburg. Dr. Kuyper's good offices in this matter were requested by Great Britain.

THE KING THANKS MILNER AND KITCHENER.

LONDON, June 4.—The King on Sunday addressed the following message to Lord Milner, governor of the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony and high commissioner in South Africa:

"I am overjoyed by the news of the surrender of the Boer forces. I warmly congratulate you on the able manner in which you conducted the negotiations."

Lord Milner replied:

"I offer my most respectful thanks for your Majesty's gracious message. I am profoundly thankful that your Majesty's coronation will be celebrated in peace throughout your African dominions."

The following message from the King was sent to General Lord Kitchener:

"My heartiest congratulations upon the termination of hostilities. I also heartily congratulate my brave troops under your command for having brought the long and difficult campaign to so glorious and successful a conclusion."

General Kitchener's reply was as follows:

"The army in South Africa will highly appreciate your Majesty's gracious message, which I am now communicating to them. I humbly beg to thank your Majesty."

KITCHENER'S REPLY TO LORD MINTO.

OTTAWA, June 4.—His Excellency the Governor-General has received the following acknowledgment of his personal message of congratulation to Lord Kitchener:

Pretoria, June 3.—Many thanks.
(Signed) Kitchener.

Subsequently Lord Kitchener cabled to His Excellency in reply to the message of congratulation from Canada as follows:

"Pretoria, June 3.

"My hearty thanks on behalf of self and army for Canada's congratulations.
(Signed) "Kitchener."

CANADIAN PRESS ON THE PEACE TERMS

The General Opinion is That Great Britain Has Been Generous to the Boers.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

TORONTO, June 4.—The Globe says editorially that it will be the general opinion that the terms granted by Sir Alfred Milner and Lord Kitchener to their brave antagonists are such as they could fairly put their hands to. Referring to the clause relating to the language, which it says will attract a good deal of attention in Canada, the Globe expresses the opinion that the concession granted is as moderate as could be extended. "We have but little sympathy with the one-language-at-any-price-idea. "You cannot by force prevent men talking whatever language they choose. It is best, therefore, to accept cheerfully what is beyond our power to mend—even if it were wholly desirable to mend it, or at least to take any set measures to that end."

THE MAIL AND EMPIRE.

The Mail and Empire says that the document signed there Saturday will have a very important bearing upon the future development of the Imperial fabric. It views with disfavour the provision of the teaching of Dutch in the schools if desired by parents, and says that while the terms generally are less liberal than they were a year or so ago, it is still a question whether the doubtful good of the moment has not been sacrificed for the permanent weal of the Empire and the race.

(THE ST. JOHN SUN.)

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

ST. JOHN, June 4.—The Sun in dealing with the terms of peace, says they are the best answer to the charges that Great Britain has been fighting in Africa for any kind of gain. It will be admitted the Boers must have in the end accepted whatever the terms Lord Kitchener might impose. But saving independence, the conquered people have secured conditions that a victor might have claimed. After referring to the Boers being allowed to retain their rifles for protection, the returning of the prisoners by the captors, the allowing of the use of the Dutch language, the paying of the cost of the war by the victors, the paper says the only indemnity for war losses is the one paid by the triumphant nation to the vanquished. The terms are more than lenient, they are generous beyond all precedent.

(The St. John Star.)

The Star says: The feature of the terms of peace that will provoke most comment will be the amazing leniency of the British Government. It goes without saying that there will be much criticism of some of the provisions. It looks as if the Government have been storing up future trouble for themselves, or their successors. If the loyalists who fought and suffered were rewarded for their devotion in proportion to what is done for these people who destroyed their own stock and burned their own farms the resources of the Empire would be pretty severely taxed.

THE OTTAWA CITIZEN.

(Special to the Montreal Star.)

OTTAWA, June 3.—The terms of peace are but little commented on here. The Citizen this morning says editorially: The Dutch blood in the U. E. Loyalists who settled in Canada at the close of the revolutionary war, contributed to the enrichment of our national life, and among some of the most notable names in Canadian biography can be detected evidences of their Dutch and German origin.

The Boers have shown that they are a good fighting stock; in time, we believe, under the genius of British institutions, they will become valuable citizens of the Empire upon which the sun never sets.

Prisoners in South Africa.

LONDON, June 4.—Answering a question in the House of Commons to-day, the War Secretary, Mr. Brodrick, said the total number of Boer prisoners in South Africa and elsewhere was 25,565, of whom 783 were under 16 and 1025 over 60 years of age.

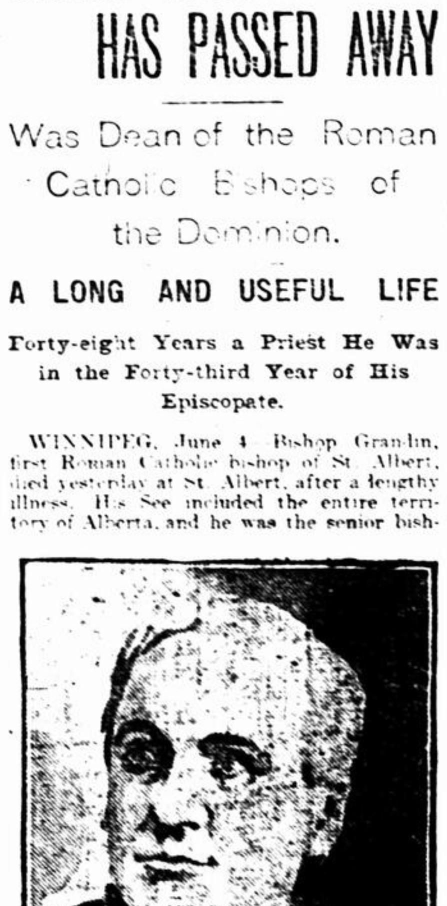
BISHOP GRANDIN HAS PASSED AWAY

Was Dean of the Roman Catholic Bishops of the Dominion.

A LONG AND USEFUL LIFE

Forty-eight Years a Priest He Was in the Forty-third Year of His Episcopate.

WINNIPEG, June 4.—Bishop Grandin, first Roman Catholic bishop of St. Albert, died yesterday at St. Albert, after a lengthy illness. His See included the entire territory of Alberta, and he was the senior bishop in Canada, having been consecrated in 1859. He came to the North West about the year 1851, and has travelled the entire north country, including the Mackenzie River district, on snowshoes, and by dog trains. He was most popular with his people.



THE LATE MGR. GRANDIN.

His Lordship, Mgr. Vital Justin Grandin, O.M.I., was the dean of the Roman Catholic bishops in Canada. He was seventy-four years of age, and in the fiftieth year of his religious life as a member of the Order of Mary Immaculate, known as the Oblates. For forty-eight years he had been a priest, and was in the forty third year of his episcopate. He was one of the first missionaries to preach the Gospel to the Indians on Ile a la Crosse, in Athabasca, and along the banks of the Mackenzie River. He was appointed titular bishop of Satala, on November 30, 1859, and afterwards appointed coadjutor to the late Mgr. Tache, of St. Boniface. In company with Mgr. Faraud, he went over the immense territory of the missions, founding churches and parishes in different sections of the country. The principal parish established by him is that of La Nativite, on the banks of the great Lake Athabasca. Some years later, when Mgr. Tache found that the extent of the missionary diocese was so great that he could no longer control the whole of it, the Holy See appointed Mgr. Grandin as bishop of the new diocese. Saint Albert, a parish founded by his old missionary companion, Father Lacombe, was chosen as the site of the bishopric, and the residence of the bishop.

The life of the late bishop has been one of zeal, devotion and self abnegation. His memory will live for ever among the people of Manitoba and the North-West Territories. His loss is a great one to his church in Canada, which always looked up to him as a model and an example of the virtues which should adorn the episcopate.

The deceased bishop was a native of Laval, France, and studied in the small seminary of that town. He joined the Oblates at an early age, and was ordained a priest by Mgr. de Mazenod, the founder of the Order. The funeral will take place at Saint Albert cathedral on Tuesday next. It is altogether likely that Mgr. Langevin, bishop of St. Boniface, will officiate. Father Lacombe, the veteran missionary of the western country, was in the city when the news reached here, and expressed the deepest sorrow at the death of his old friend and bishop.

$499,000 EXPENDED LAST YEAR UPON THE HARBOUR FRONT.

At the meeting of the Harbour Board to-day, Major Seath, the secretary, read a report of expenditures for the year 1901. During the year the sum of $499,000 was expended upon harbour works, such, for instance, as the construction of the new piers, dredging the harbour, etc. The sum of $83,000 was expended upon the flood walls. This sum is separate and apart from the harbour improvements, as above mentioned. During the year 1901 the city of Montreal contributed the sum of $187,000 towards the work.

"And this money is paid," remarked the Mayor, "but somehow the city does not get credit for doing anything."

Permission was asked to borrow an additional $100,000 in order to carry on the work. The request was granted.

Get the Most Out of Your Food
You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.
Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.
"I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and tried every remedy I heard of, but never got anything that gave me relief until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla. I cannot praise this medicine too highly for the good it has done me. I always take it in the spring and fall and would not be without it." W. A. NUGENT, Belleville, Ont.

THE COLONIES AND THE EMPIRE

Significant Speech by Mr. Chamberlain's Ally in Colonial Office.

BRITON OWES RECIPROCITY

To the Daughter States Which Have Aided Her in Her Hour of Need.

> A preferential tariff is in truth the only means at our disposal of repaying the Colonies the obligation under which they have laid us by their behaviour during the war. Canada wants to send us timber and wheat; Australia hides and wool. If we can give Canadian timber an advantage over Norwegian, and Canadian corn an advantage over Russian, why should we not? If we wish to give Australia the preference to Argentina in the matter of hides and wool, who shall say us nay?—Saturday Review.

Lord Onslow, the Under-Secretary for the Colonies, was the principal speaker at a Primrose League demonstration at Levens, near Kendal, the other day, and, replying to a vote of confidence in the Government, he spoke upon the question of our Colonial Empire, saying that if Britons were the victims of malice from Continental nations, they at least had some consolation on the other side, for never in the history of the Empire had the ties of affection which bind the great daughter States in all parts of the world to the Mother Country been so warm, and never were those States so ready to fight side by side in her quarrels.

What was the duty of the Government under those circumstances? He thought they would agree it was their duty to foster and to reciprocate in every way the affection shown by our Colonies to the Mother Country, and the opportunity of the Coronation would present itself in the shape of the presence in this country of a number of distinguished statesmen and prime ministers from different parts of the Empire.

At a conference to be held they would be able to consider a very large number of subjects which interested all alike, and foremost among them would be the consideration of political relations which existed between Great Britain and the Colonies.

The question would arise: Could they be strengthened? Could they be drawn more closely together, and, if so, ought Britain to take steps in that direction, and what should these steps be for?

One would not wish a change unless all parties were determined that the time had arrived when those political relations should undergo some modification and change.

He ventured to hope some of the difficulties which had appeared would disappear during the meetings to be held in London next month, and he hoped they would settle two things: one that there should be regular periodical and recurring meetings of the leading statesmen of the Colonies for the purpose of discussing those questions which have so much interest for all of us, and the other that they would not let the opportunity pass of facilitating the means of intercommunication between the Mother Country and the Colonies.

The Toronto jewellers' strike has been settled, the men getting their demands.

Sailors' Institute Concert.

In spite of the storm a good-sized audience attended the Sailors' Institute concert last evening. The entertainment was under the direction of the choir of the American Presbyterian Church. Among those who took part were Mr. Edward Browne. Mrs. Warner sang "Hush Ben," Miss Coultry sang "Song of the Morning," Mr. Woodley sang "Salamandar," and was joined in the duet, "To Arms," by Mr. Capon; Charles Knowles, of the steamship Lake Simcoe played a cornet solo; Henry Brown danced an Irish jig. Songs were sung by Hugh Johnson, steamship Norwegian; George Miller, R.M.S. Parisian, and Wm. Hart, steamship Lake Simcoe. Mr. Harry Brewin, steamship Lake Simcoe, proved himself a clever entertainer.

Catholic Sailors' Club.

The weekly entertainment of the Catholic Sailors' Club will take place this evening. Mr. F.E. Meredith will act as chairman. The concert will be under the management of Mrs. Jennie Riley McIntyre and friends. The sailors will also contribute.

Came in Collision.

PORT LAMBTON, Ont., June 4.—The tug Seaman arrived here yesterday morning and reported a collision between an unknown steamer and the barge Gleniffer, which the Seaman had in tow. The accident happened at the south-east bend between 9 and 10 o'clock Monday night. The captain's wife, Mrs. C. Moore, was drowned, and Archie Mysner, of Windsor, is missing, and is supposed also to be drowned. Thos. Brown, of Southampton, had his nose broken, and a leg and side badly bruised.

Collided With Empress.

VICTORIA, B.C., June 4.—As the big Japanese liner Shinana Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha line, was entering the dock here yesterday afternoon, she struck the steamer Empress of Japan, just in from the Orient, which was lying at the dock, and besides smashing a boat on the C.P.R. liner damaged her below the water line. The Shinana was also damaged. The Shinana was libelled for $5,000, but was later released on bonds and proceeded on her trip.

Notes.

The Head line steamer Malin Head has been chartered by the Canadian Sugar Refining Company to bring a cargo of sugar from Dunkirk. She will sail for Montreal on June 15.

The Donaldson line steamer Concordia passed Low Point inwards, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Elder, Dempster and Co.'s line steamer Monteagle passed Fame Point inwards at 1.40 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Canadian Horses for South Africa.

The cessation of hostilities in South Africa will not interfere with the shipment of 3,000 horses from Canada during the next thirty days. These mounts have already been secured, but no further purchases will be made. Four steamships have been chartered to carry cargoes from St. John, N.B., and the first of these will sail June 16. The subsequent sailings will be weekly.

Lake Megantic Outward.

The Elder, Dempster and Co.'s Beaver line steamer Lake Megantic sailed from Liverpool, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, for Montreal, with nineteen first, forty-four second and 640 steerage passengers, together with 1,400 tons general cargo.

The coming summer should prove a golden harvest for the London Hotels, and the huge Hotel Cecil with its fine position overlooking the Thames promises to obtain a large proportion of the best of the visitors who will throng to England for the Coronation festivities. As on the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee in 1897 the Colonial Office has made arrangements whereby the whole of the Premiers to be present during the Coronation will be accommodated at the Hotel Cecil. These at present include Sir Wilfrid Laurier (Dominion of Canada), Mr. Edmund Barton (Commonwealth of Australia), Sir J. Gordon Sprigg (Cape Colony), Sir Albert Hime (Natal), Sir Robert Bond (Newfoundland), and Mr. Richard Seddon (New Zealand.)

The management appears to have anticipated a big season and the handsome Northern Extension on the Strand is now completed and will be ready for occupation about the end of March. Now that this wing is finished the hotel forms a complete quadrangle and may fairly claim to be the largest hotel in Europe, and probably in the whole World.

Special Notice.
The President Buys Another Knabe.
Only a few weeks ago twenty Art Knabe Pianos were personally ordered by the Pope for the Vatican Rooms. About the same time President Roosevelt ordered three for the White House at Washington. Now, last week, the President personally selected a handsome Mahogany Upright Knabe to be placed on board the United States Despatch Boat "Dolphin." The President expects, with his family, to make a cruise of the principal seaside resorts this summer, for which he has purchased the Knabe Piano. Willis & Co., Empire Building, 2470 St. Catherine St., are sole contractors for the instruments in Montreal.
