dread to-mor-row's sky, There's a mel-an-cho-ly scenes that can-not die, Then I feel that all is bet-ter things on high, There is still a com-ing trust and sor-row fly, And with glad an-ti-ci-sweetness In the name of days gone by; Yes, though Time hath laid his changing, Then I weep the days gone by. Sorrowful should I be, and hea-ven, Brighter than the days gone by: Faith lifts off the sa-ble pa-tion, Calms re-gret for days gone by. Cease then, heart, to thee are
