Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be well.

This morning, before Judge Curran, in the Practice Court, Mr. J. L. Arosbault, Q.C., City Attorney, applied to have the writ taken out by Louis Riopelle, who is appealing from a decision of the Recorder's Court, declaring his house dangerous and authorizing its demolition, be resumed at once. Mr. Globensky, for Mr. Riopelle, contended the delays were too short and the case was continued until Tuesday next.
