

Organized Baseball Wonders What To Do With Surplus Talent Of Mexican Jumpers Due To Return

New York, June 7.—(AP)—If Max Lanier and Fred Martin return to St. Louis Cardinals in their 1949 form, Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler's decision to reinstate the Mexican "jumpers" could mean the National League pennant for the Birds.

If Lanier's arm is as strong as his 7-1 record for Drummondville

in the semi-pro Quebec Provincial League would indicate, the Cards have an impressive southpaw array—Harry Brecheen, Howie Pollet, Al Brazle and Lanier.

Martin was a brilliant pre-war prospect. He went into the service after winning 23 games at Houston in 1941 with a 1.54 earned-run average. He and Pollet were Houston aces. When he came out of the army, he pitched in the Cuban Winter League of 1945-46 before reporting to the Cards.

Then the Cards also got Lou Klein, veteran 35-year-old infielder, reduced to utility status before he jumped. With Whitey Kurowski on the shelf, Klein might be of great help to the St. Louis infield. Brooklyn also figures to get help from Chandler's dramatic move. Catcher Mickey Owen, although he's now 33, could help as an extra catcher. The Dodgers have only two—Roy Campanella and Bruce Edwards—with Gil Hodges, a converted catcher, on first base. Owen has been playing semi-pro ball since he left Mexico. He is reported en route to Ebbets Field.

Louis Olmo, a .313 hitter for the Dodgers in 1945, also might come in handy. The 29-year-old Puerto Rican, a right-handed batter, now is playing with the Pastora Club at Maracaibo, Venezuela.

Washington also expects to add strength in Roberto Ortiz, slugging outfielder who led the Mex-

In the senior division two more records were shattered. J. Parkin, of Windsor, heaved the softball 172' 1" while E. Barrington, of Richmond and E. Streep, of Stanstead, tied for first place in the broad jump. They jumped 14' 5.3-4 inches.

Trophies and prizes, donated by the H-Y Club, Sid Hart and other local sportsmen, were presented on the grounds after the meet.

Mayor Alphonse Trudeau officially opened the afternoon's activities when he fired the gun to start the senior 100-yard dash. The day-long meet is an annual affair and is becoming more popular each year.

All times were recorded by Longline watches, official Olympic timers.

can League in batting and home runs. He is playing in Venezuela but owner Clark Griffith of the Nats will welcome him back.

Detroit does not know the whereabouts of infielder Murray Franklin who jumped the Tigers for Mexico. He hasn't played for the Tigers on their farms since 1941 at Little Rock and now is 34.

New York Giants are not looking for much assistance from their eight former players who now are free to rejoin the club. One-Danny Gardella—says he won't ask for reinstatement. Danny is suing the Giants and baseball for $300,000. At the present time he is riding the bench for Drummondville, hitting .233 in 11 games.

Sal Maglie, another former Giant, is the top man at Drummondville with a 7.0 record. Pitchers Adrian Zabala and Harry Fieldman and first baseman Roy Zimmerman also have been in Canada. Infielders George Hausmann and Nap Reyes are playing in the Mexican League. Hausmann, a second baseman, is the only Polo Grounds possibility.

Catcher Chico Hernandez, once with Chicago Cubs, turned up on the roster of the Milwaukee team of the American Association. It doesn't matter, anyhow, because Hernandez, managing in Mexico, says he's happy where he is.

Formal Nomination Of J. T. Hackett B. N. Holtham Marks P. C. Meeting At Ayer's Cliff Is Speaker At Lions' Meeting

By CUTHBERT JONES
Associate Editor, Sherbrooke Record

Ayer's Cliff, June 7.—John T. Hackett, K.C., Progressive Conservative member of Parliament for Stanstead County in the last Parliament, was the unanimous choice of the Opposition forces as their standard bearer in the forthcoming Dominion general elections. The name of Mr. Hackett was the only one presented at the Progressive Conservative convention held in the County Building Saturday afternoon.

The selection of Mr. Hackett was a foregone conclusion and the nomination proceedings, presided over by Harold Beane, president of the Stanstead County Conservative Association, occupied only a few minutes. Following the acceptance of the nomination by Mr. Hackett, the meeting was turned into a political rally.

In his acceptance speech, the candidate declared that this election was unusual in that the government supporters claimed there were no important issues to debate and that the election was being held merely to meet constitutional requirements. But, he continued, the Progressive Conservatives believed differently and held there were many major problems on which the citizens had the right to criticize the Government.

Government costs, he declared, had gone up five times in the past ten years and the tax burden upon the people had been increased even more acutely.

The Government had talked much of the great expansion of Canada's foreign trade, which made it the third trading country of the world. However, the commerce had become unbalanced to the point where Canada was not receiving enough in payment for its exports to meet the cost of what it must purchase from the United States. This had reached the point where the Government had made it illegal for Canadian citizens to retain United States currency in their possession without a permit.

The high level of employment was another boast of the Government supporters, but this had only been maintained by the extension of large loans to overseas countries to buy products manufactured here and with the depletion of these loans and credits, Canadian industry was already suffering a marked curtailment. The prosperity had been an artificial one, maintained at the expense of the Canadian taxpayer.

On the matter of provincial rights, he charged the Dominion had robbed the provinces of much of their autonomy by refusing to restore those rights assured them under the constitution which they had ceded as an emergency measure during the war.

The Liberals, Mr. Hackett continued, were seeking to create a false impression among the people on the question of family allowances. Their political advertisements said the Liberals had "given" the people of Canada family allowances. But, as the Government had no money of its own, these allowances came out of the pockets of the taxpayers. Conservative taxpayers contributing their share of the taxes needed for the family allowance plan.

In the financial field, Government speakers had boasted that the national debt had been reduced some $1,600,000,000 in the past four years, offering this as an excuse for maintaining taxation at a high level. But this claim required closer examination. The net debt—the national debt less amounts due the treasury—had been reduced by this sum, but in reality the actual debt had increased as many of the loans made for European recovery could never be repaid and should actually be written off when determining the net debt. The true indication of the national debt burden was the amount required for interest payments and this had risen by $8,000,000, from $455,000,000 to $463,000,000 during the past fiscal year.

The alternation of power between one party and another was essential to the proper working of the democratic system, Mr. Hackett continued. Fifty years or more ago, Sir Wilfrid Laurier had said that a government in power for fifteen Labor problems were discussed last night by B. N. Holtham, K.C., in an address before members of the Sherbrooke Lions Club.

Mr. Holtham, a specialist in labor law, outlined the various processes involved in negotiations between workers and employers, starting with an explanation of how a union becomes certified as the bargaining agent for the employees.

He told about the functions of labor conciliators and arbitration boards and referred to improvements made recently in provincial labor legislation.

Mr. Holtham also discussed labor contracts and spoke about the issues usually involved in labor disputes.

He predicted, in conclusion, that with patience on the part of both labor and management this province would continue to be "the finest possible part of the world in which to live."

Introduced by Narcisse Amiraault, Mr. Holtham was thanked by Armand Crepeau.

Club president, Dr. Rene Du Berger, announced that the formal election and installation of officers will take place at next week's meeting which will take the form of a "ladies' night" and begin at 8 p.m., instead of the usual 6.15 p.m.

A dance will follow the meeting.

At the head table with the president, Mr. Holtham and Mr. Amiraault, were Ossi Goyette, Leopold Chevalier, Douglas Amour, Joseph Begon, and one guest, Donald McMahon, of Montreal.

Local Man Is President Of Cost Accountants

Montreal, June 7.—(C)—H. J. Moffatt of Sherbrooke, was elected president Saturday of the Society of Industrial and Cost Accountants of Quebec, at the annual meeting.

D. J. B. Padden, of Shawinigan Falls, was elected first vice-president; A. V. Harris, of Montreal, second vice-president; P. H. Dorval, of Quebec, treasurer; and Gaston Barbeau, of Three Rivers secretary.

St. Ferdinand, Que., June 7.—Three men suffered serious injuries and 15 others were treated for cuts and bruises yesterday in an explosion which rocked this Eastern Township village.

The blast, believed to have been caused by dynamite, came during a fire in the large frame dwelling of Theo Tanguay, 55. The 18 casualties reported were volunteer firefighters, all injured by flying debris. Some also were treated for shock from the explosion.

Real Cullen, a baker who helped fight the blaze, said Tanguay had stored a case of dynamite in the basement of his home. There was no one in the house at the time.

Tanguay, Jean Paul Simoneau and Roger Guillemette were taken to hospital. Tanguay suffered a possible spinal injury; Simoneau fractures of the arm and leg, and Guillemette a fractured leg and a bruised arm. All three also suffered shock.

Of unknown origin, the fire broke out at the rear of the house. Volunteer fire were attempting to put out the flames when the explosion occurred.

Two ambulances, one from Plessville and another from Thorford Mines, took the three injured to hospital.

Gustave Nadeau, Of Danville, Is P. C. Candidate In Richmond-Wolfe Riding

By MARGARET DOHERTY

Richmond, June 7.—Gustave Nadeau, Danville industrialist, was chosen to represent Richmond-Wolfe Progressive Conservatives in the forthcoming elections, at the convention held in Richmond on Saturday afternoon.

The three other proposed candidates, who requested that their names be withdrawn were, J. A. Goulet, Mayor of Weedon, Lorenzo Michaud, Mayor of Melbourn, and J. E. Lemieux, of Windsor Mills. In declining the nomination for various reasons of an important nature, they all, however, pledged their continued support to the party and to the man who would be chosen to represent it.

Henri Crepeau, K.C., of Montreal, Chairman of the Candidates' Committee, presided over the convention and announced, before any nominations were proposed, that although the county is composed of a French Canadian majority, this did not necessitate the choice of a French speaking candidate.

He referred to the recent convention in Shefford County, where the population is almost completely French, and where an English-speaking candidate was chosen. He reminded the delegates that they were completely free to make their choice of the man who could best carry the P.C. banner to victory on the 27th, regardless of nationality.

No other names being proposed, Mr. Crepeau declared the Convention closed and Mr. Nadeau the official candidate of the P.C. party.

Thanking the gathering for the confidence shown in him, Mr. Nadeau expressed his appreciation to the three other nominees who had withdrawn and said he felt certain that with their support and the support of all the delegates, the "Progressive Conservative party would take the county and hold it for many a year."

Mr. Crepeau then introduced the first speaker, George Gromp, of Montreal, "well known labor head and counselor to Premier Duplessis in labor questions, social and technical."

Stating that the situation is serious and the decision an important one, Mr. Gromp reminded his listeners that they had started a fight last year in the provincial field when they rose unanimously to appoint a leader who would defend their autonomy and stand up for their personal interests.

"In the name of social justice and the reinvigoration of our rights," he added, "we must continue this fight which is so well started. We must unite to give Richmond-Wolfe a Conservative candidate. We must unite those two great men, Maurice Duplessis and George Drew so that the rights of the English and French, the Protestant and Catholic, the Canadian, may be upheld."

Criticizing the Taschereau, Godbout, St. Laurent regime, and referring to the former Prime Minister as the "late Mr. King," the speaker mentioned as one of the last evidences of their maladministration the question of margarine.

"You farmers," he said, "the Liberals wish to destroy your business, to ruin your farms. Godbout wanted to make you eat horse meat during the war and now St. Laurent wants to make you eat margarine."

"The majority of you farmers cannot afford refrigerators, and are not always able to keep ice," he continued, "and it is a well-known fact that margarine unless kept on ice, spoils rapidly. Therefore it is evident that the Liberals are not thinking of helping you economize with margarine, even if it is cheaper than butter."

In closing he made an appeal to the women, the young girls and to the old men, as well as the farmers and laborers, asking them to unite in the love of their country and to cast their vote for George Drew and the well-being of Canada.

Henri Vachon, provincial member for Wolfe County, spoke briefly, stating that he was not present as a provincial member but as an elector of the county. He congratulated Mr. Nadeau on his nomination and also paid tribute to the three other proposed candidates who were, he said, all devoted men, faithful to the party, and men who could be depended upon to give their wholehearted support, in spite of the fact that, through personal reasons, they were prevented from accepting the candidature.

Mr. Crepeau then declared the meeting adjourned. Seated on the platform with Mr. Crepeau, Mr. Gromp and the candidate, were the Mayors of the various surrounding municipalities, Mr. Vachon, and John J. Carlin, of Montreal.

Accidents Take Lives Of Two District Boys

Two young boys were killed as the result of highway accidents over the week-end.

A verdict of accidental death was returned after a coroner's inquest into the death of seven-year-old Jean Girouard, adopted son of Donat Girouard, of La Tribune, who was killed when he was hit by a car on Saturday. Another verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury after an inquest into the death of Bertrand Doyon, five, who was hit by a truck on the Stoke Road.

Young Girouard was running on King Street when he was hit by a car driven by Arthur Vallee, 51, at the corner of King and Ontario. The victim was taken to Hotel Dieu Hospital by Monette's Ambulance and was pronounced dead by Dr. Emile Brunau, Constable Willie Emond investigated the accident.

The second victim, Bertrand Doyon, was chasing cattle with his sister on the road near his home when he was struck by a truck. He was killed instantly.

Dr. Louis Gagnon, coroner for the district of St. Francis, presided at the inquest.

FINES ARE PAID

Campaigning In E. T. Will Soon Hit Its Peak

The selection of Progressive

Conservative candidates in Richmond-Wolfe and Stanstead Counties having virtually completed the line-ups of the major parties insofar as Eastern Townships constituencies are concerned, the interest of political followers is now turned to the actual campaigns of the candidates and their supporters.

The highlight announcement from Progressive Conservative headquarters is that of the visit of George Drew, national leader of the party, to this district in the week preceding elections. He is scheduled to speak in Sherbrooke on Tuesday evening, June 21, with a gathering either in Coaticook or Granby in the afternoon. He is expected to spend at least one more day in the Eastern Townships. There has been no definite statement on the possible visit of Prime Minister St. Laurent although there is a possibility he will be in Sherbrooke the Friday before the voting.

Maurice Gingues, the official Liberal candidate in Sherbrooke, opens his speaking campaign Thursday night while Mayor Alphonse Trudeau, Independent Liberal, does not plan any public meetings, preferring to direct his efforts to personal solicitation of the voters.

Redmond Haynes, K.C., the Progressive Conservative candidate, who has opened his central committee room in a building adjoining the parking ground, will not hold any formal rallies until after the official nomination Monday next.

So far neither the C. C. F. candidate, Theo Bilodeau, nor the Union des Electeurs nominee, Romeo Gauthier, has given any indication of waging an oratory campaign, although both are expected to hold at least one public meeting.

Most Eastern Townships constituencies anticipate a three-way fight, with the Liberals facing opposition from the Conservatives and Union des Electeurs. However, in Stanstead, the Liberal ranks are split open, Ernest Simard, of Magog, vying with Col. Louis Roberge, convention choice, for Liberal support. Simard announced his candidature at the week-end.

Quebec Branch Of Customs House Brokers' Association Meets Here

The second annual meeting of the Quebec Provincial Branch of the Dominion Chartered Customs House Brokers Association was held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel on Saturday.

An address by R. S. Jackson, President of the Dominion Association, of Vancouver, B. C., and the election of directors highlighted the meeting.

Branch president Herve Chapdelaine, of St. Hyacinthe, presided at the afternoon meeting and welcomed the members and guests. W. R. Wilson, vice-president, of Huntingdon, conveyed a vote of thanks to members of the Montreal division who attended.

Mr. Jackson spoke of the work that has been done by the association to bring customs brokers' work to a high standard, so that they are now acknowledged by the Customs and Excise Division of the Department of National Revenue to have obtained a professional status. He also told of the splendid co-operation existing between the department and the Association.

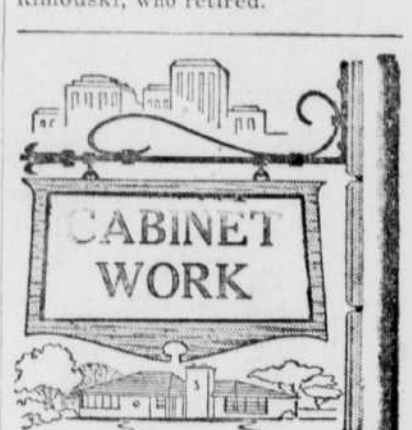

Mr. Jackson also reported that the annual meeting of the association would be held in Vancouver during September.

Romeo Bergevin, of Montreal, then reported on the efforts of the standing committee and results obtained in their interviews with the department at Ottawa, on behalf of the association.

Officers of the Quebec Provincial Branch elected were: Herve Chapdelaine, of St. Hyacinthe, President; W. R. Wilson, of Huntingdon, vice-president; Howard H. Woolerton, of Sherbrooke, secretary and treasurer.

Directors named were: J. A. Fortin, Chambord Junction; J. A. Leveille, of Granby; A. Morin, of Lacolle; J. Edouard Roy, of Quebec; W. T. Greer, of Rock Island, all re-elected. K. G. Nourse, of Richmond, was elected to the board to replace H. Richard Cummings, of Rimouski, who retired.

EVERY PROPERTY OWNER SHOULD VOTE

Few municipal by-laws presented for the
approval or rejection of the Sherbrooke rate-
payers have had the direct interest to each
citizen of the municipality as has the arena
project being submitted tomorrow. In view
of the extended importance of the measure,
it is incumbent upon every qualified elector
to express his opinion for or against the project. The fact which lends special interest
to this project is that the sponsors of the scheme admit frankly that it will mean the imposition of additional taxation, the favorite
method being the introduction of a municipal
retail sales tax.

Thus, the voters are being called upon to express their willingness to submit to fresh
tax burdens in return for the advantages to be accrued from the construction of a modern
arena and auditorium in the centre of the city,
which it is planned will become the first unit
of the projected civic centre.

In the past, much of the disinterest
displayed in municipal by-law referendums has
been accredited to the fact that the individual
project or group of projects concerned has
had little direct bearing upon the pocketbooks
of the taxpayers. Generally the argument has been that the extra interest charges required
were not sufficient to throw the budget out of
balance and produce any taxation increases.
Conversely, it was claimed that if the by-law
were defeated, there would be no resulting reduction of the mill rate. Thus, the individual maintained, it was just a waste of time to express an opinion.

In the present instance the situation is entirely different. The approval of the project will mean new taxes while the rejection of the plan reduces this danger. Thus, whether the property owner believes that the extra burden
represents money well spent or whether he holds opposing views, he should make his feelings clear. Certainly it would be a blow
to civic consciousness if a measure of this importance were to be accepted or rejected by a small minority of the ratepayers who for some reason or other felt they had a personal interest in the outcome of the voting.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY REMAINS HIGH

On the whole, business in Canada has remained active, says the current Monthly
Review of The Bank of Nova Scotia. Production, though off somewhat from the post-war
peak of last fall, held during the winter at just about the same level as a year earlier. Employment was also much the same as during
the preceding winter, though in some areas,
notably the Maritime Provinces and British Columbia, unemployment was a problem.

Several factors have been supporting demand, the Review points out. One is that Canadian prices for a number of important farm products have been well sustained. The system of pooling the wheat crops for five
years from 1945-46 to 1949-50 has meant
that the price to the farmer has been gradually rising. The increase in the initial price to $.75
this spring not only means 20c more a bushel
on the coming crop but it has also meant
participation payments of $214 millions to farmers to bring returns on the four preceding crops up to that level. Other supporting influences have been the repayment of the remaining compulsory wartime savings to the public, which this spring meant the distribution of a further $250,000,000, and the recent
significant reductions in the personal income
tax. These substantial additions to incomes
are undoubtedly helping to bolster consumer
spending and have much to do with the
notable increase in retail sales during April.
In addition, the most important sustaining
influence in Canadian business has continued
to be the high level of investment expenditures
which, in relation to the national expenditure,
have been even larger and even better maintained than in the United States.

The Review notes, however, that the
economic background is clearly changing.
Since the peak of the post-war inflationary
upsurge late last year, prices have been gradually declining over a widening range of commodities. The backlog of consumer requirements, which in 1947 and 1948 added substantially to demand, have been steadily cut down. The extra demands on production for

the building up of business inventories are now
small and much of the program of manufacturing expansion has been accomplished. There is growing evidence of the shift from a sellers' to a buyers' market, confirmed and
strengthened by the gradual recession in the United States which has now been in progress
for about six months.

The most disconcerting change, however,
has been the contraction in Canada's exports
to overseas countries resulting from their restrictions on dollar purchases. During the first four months of 1949, Canadian merchandise
exports to Great Britain were 8 per cent lower
in value than in the corresponding period of 1948. Though exports to the rest of the
sterling area showed some increase, the rise
was entirely the result of much larger shipments to India and Pakistan, and the effects of South Africa's severe import restrictions were
only beginning to appear in actual export shipments. It is true that exports to the United States were still higher than a year earlier, but in view of the current trend of U. S. business
it may be difficult to maintain shipments to that market at last year's very high levels. Unfortunately, there is as yet no significant improvement in the outlook for overseas trade.
The dollar earnings of overseas countries have increased only moderately and, while vigorous
efforts are being made to sell more to Canada,
particularly by Britain, the fact remains that
the sterling area and Europe have not recovered
their pre-war share of the Canadian market.

PRESS COMMENTS

THE ALTERNATIVE

Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph

Already The Ottawa Journal has called on the Liberal leader to state publicly whether or not he is prepared to carry on with C.P.F. assistance, if he falls short of a working majority. But, so far, he has ignored the challenge although this is information
to which the voters are clearly entitled.

Mr. Drew, in short, has every reason to contend, a she did the other day, that the real alternative
before them is between a strong Progressive Conservative administration and a weak Liberal
government existing on the sufferance of the C.C.F.
third party.

Those who want the latter combination may vote for it. But those who wish to save Canada from such a calamity must work and vote for the candidates of Mr. Drew.

THE AGED CARS

Saint John Telegraph-Journal

Age in cars is certainly a warning of potential
danger. Many venerable vehicles constitute a danger to the public and their own occupants. Compulsory inspection of all cars over 10 years old
on applying for new licences might be a good thing, if it could be enforced, but to be really effective such measures should be nation-wide and
all provinces would have to agree to similar procedure.

A really thorough official inspection of all cars
on the roads would doubtless be an expensive
undertaking and might create a state of mind
among drivers that they should forget their own
responsibilities and leave it all to the government.
How heavily are we willing to pay for increased safety? The problem of old and dangerous cars is bound to become greater as the season advances. Now is the time to make decisions on the subject and to balance the ideal
with the practical.

THE SMITH AND HIS SMITHY

Halifax Chronicle-Telegraph

A recent news despatch concerning the Nova Scotia general elections referred to one of the candidates as "the village smithy." It seems improbable that he is any such thing. The village smith, yes; but
"smithy"? . . . well, hardly!

It is surprising how often this error crops up.
The dictionary makes it abundantly clear that the man of iron is the smith and his shop is the smithy,
yet people persist in miscalling the one for the other.

Perhaps Longfellow contributed to the error,
unwittingly. When he reported that "under a
spreading chestnut tree the village smithy stands"
and went on to talk about the blacksmith, some
readers, perhaps, thought the village smithy was
the man and not his picturesque shop.

THEY LIKE SCHOOL

Vancouver News-Herald

It almost seems as though Vancouver youngsters don't want to run away from school any more. The urge to play "hooky"—which was always at its strongest in the spring—seems to be dying.

Last month, according to Superintendent H.
W. McCorkindale, there were only 34 cases of truancy in all Vancouver, as compared with 140
in April a year ago. Thirty-four truants is less than one per cent.

There has been quite a change, apparently, since Shakespeare's schoolboy "crept like a snail, unwill-ingly, to school."

FIRST OF HIS RACE

New York Herald Tribune

A young midshipman named Wesley Brown will be graduated from the United States Naval Academy this week. The event has attracted a moderate amount of attention, for he is the first Negro ensign to come from Annapolis. There was a time
when such an occurrence might have caused considerable stir. Other Negroes have won appointments to Annapolis, but none have lasted the full
four years. In time, sentiment and opinion change,
and we are glad to see that this honor to Wesley Brown, which reflects the greatest credit both on
him and the Naval Academy, is taken completely
in stride by all concerned.

SPADE SLUFF WILL MAKE THIS SLAM

I accepted Dan Seymour's invitation to go over to see his Saturday night radio program "Sing
It Again," and I had the privilege
of seeing Ray Bloch perform, and I mean perform. He not only is the leader of the orchestra, but he
does the rumba and keeps the audience in laughter during the whole show.

Ray is riding high now, as he
is also on Ed Sullivan's television
show every Sunday night. He told me that back in 1929 he got his first real opportunity on radio, to sing and play the piano. He was very nervous, but the program
was going well, when in walked
four big piano movers, with ham-
mers and screw drivers.

They started to knock the legs
off the piano. The announcer said,
"Shoo, we're on the air." One fellow spoke up and said, "That's got nothing to do with us, here is our
order to move this piano out," and
move it they did.

Ray says now if he ever gets
nervous before the microphone, he
just thinks back to the day they
moved the piano.

However, Ray did admit that it
made him a little nervous to play
bridge, especially with someone he

BUS COURTESY

The Editor.

Sir—I was a standing passenger on a Coat coach recently,
which is a fairly common occurrence for a woman these days, but
this not the reason for this letter.

The reason is I was so disgusted
with the selfish indifference of the
able-bodied men and school-boys
and the young women on the bus.

When a crippled ex-serviceman
on crutches was obliged to stand
as no one had the decency to offer
him a seat, I thought surely some
one would offer this man a seat,
for he looked so tired. However,
when I arrived at my destination,
he was still standing and I am al-
most certain he would have to until he reached Compton.

It was not so very long ago that
this man and thousands of our
boys fought and suffered for us,
that we may live free, democratic
lives. Is this the way we repay them? If a priest or nun had needed a seat, more than one man or
boy would instantly have given them. Why then not accord the same human decency to a cripple?

I have witnessed mothers with small children having to stand on
buses occasionally and have wondered at such selfishness or
thoughtlessness of our fellow-men.

We wonder why the world is in such a mess. We don't need to
when a crippled veteran has to
stand on a bus while able-bodied
men keep their seats.

DISGUSTED,
Lennoxville, June 4, 1949.

DEFENDS FOOD CONTRACTS

The Editor:

The Royal Commission on Prices
Report suggested that the food
contracts with Britain helped to keep the whole Canadian price
structure at a low level during the post-war period. Many people, including some not generally interested in the farmer's welfare, declare by the loss of millions of dollars by the farmers in selling our
wheat under the world price.

Supposing the price had been allowed to rise another $1.25 to
the U.S. peak, the farmer would have benefited some, but wouldn't
the speculators have received
much of the initial gain? And Canadian wages would have been driven closer to the higher U.S.
level. The tremendous post war

expansion of industry, hydro electric power developments and extensions, new homes, etc., would
have cost more, adding overhead
charges that could not be reduced
with falling farm prices—which
everybody considered inevitable.
And as for industrial labor and
freight rates keeping pace with declining farm prices, well, I wonder.

I think farmers who still have
to work for a living should consider themselves very fortunate
and be thankful for those contracts. They received good prices
for their produce in relation to
the rest of our economy, and there
was virtue in keeping down the cost of living in Canada and in treating Britons (our first line defenders) as ourselves. There'll always be an England and we'll
always need a market for our wheat.

Very truly,
JOHN W. GILBERT,
Hanover, Ont., June 3, 1949.

INDIA'S FOOD PROBLEM GROWS

The Editor.

Sir:—A sentence from your
news-columns dealing with the
third annual conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers (IFAP) at Ottawa, Ont., tempts me to take
my pen in hand, and runs as follows: "Professor N. G. Ranga,
president of India's major farmers' organization, said India required $1,500,000,000 to assist in
reaching her objective of agricultural self-sufficiency in two years." (Daily Record, June 3.)

Yesterday morning's mail
brought me my copy of "Agriculture Abroad"—a digest of agricultural policies in effect, or under consideration, in various countries
—issued every three months by
the Department of Agriculture (Economics Division) at Ottawa.
I observe the following references
to India, I would highly appreciate
the privilege of bringing them to
the notice of your readers:

"Production of food-grains in India showed a further decline in 1948 and the country's food position is officially recognized as being grave. . . . The critical food situation in the current year has
been underlined by unsettled weather conditions, droughts and excessive rains at the wrong time resulting in stunted growth and extensive rust damage mainly in the wheat-growing districts. . . . Notwithstanding that more than four-
fifths of the acreage under cultivation, or about 156,000,000 acres,
are being devoted to food-grain
production to keep India's 337,- 000,000 people from starvation,
the spectre of growing shortages
of food-grains will haunt India for many years to come. Government
plans to increase acreage under
cultivation by means of capital
consuming reclamation projects of waste lands, and by irrigation, are
slow to materialize, and their ultimate attainment barely keeps pace
with the added food requirements
of India's rapidly expanding population. It is estimated that this population growth alone, now
amounting to four million people
yearly, would require a rise in the production by half a million tons a year—to keep slightly above the
famine level."

The Record Short Story

THE PORCH CAVED IN

By CHRISTOPHER KING

Bill Harvey pushed the letters to the side of his desk, and took the brown paper bag containing his lunch from the drawer. He folded his newspaper to the sports page, propped it up against his file basket, and began reading the story of the fight as he reached into
the bag for his lunch.

The lunch felt wet. He turned from the paper, and looked into the bag. It was filled with orange peels and coffee grounds in a soggy mess. He threw the bag in the basket, and looked over at Peggy sitting at the opposite desk.

"My nephew," he said, "little
angel that he is, has done it again.
Jean made my lunch this morning,
ham sandwiches, no less, and Terry
was so sweet. He wanted to hand
Uncle Bill his lunch. From now
on, when Terry hands me anything, I investigate it on the spot."

Peggy laughed. "Is he still staying at your house? How do you ever manage with your own three
boys?"

Bill smiled. "I guess it isn't as bad as it seems. All the boys are close enough to play together, and Jean doesn't feel there's more work with four than with three. My brother and his wife will be back
next week, and take Terry home."

"I bet you'll be glad to see Terry
leave," Peggy said.

"I won't be as glad as some of the neighbors," Bill replied.

"That boy has a wild imagination. He's only six, but he has all
the children in the neighborhood
pulling leaves off the bushes. They pretend the leaves are money. Mr.
Cullen next door hasn't a chance to have a nice lawn next year. I wouldn't be surprised if he sent me
a bill for the damage."

"Is he the man who runs the community garden?" Peggy asked.

"The one you had trouble with?"

"Yes," Bill replied. "He got sore
because Jean and I didn't go in on the garden project. I told him we didn't have time to work in a garden with three kids and a house to keep us occupied. He doesn't have any children, and can't understand that. All it meant to him was that he and the rest of the people would have to pay a buck and a half more
to get the land plowed, since I
wasn't going to pay a share."

"Is he an old man?"

"No. He isn't 40, but what a character! Everywhere you see him
working around the place he dresses the part. If he mows the lawn, he dresses like a farmer; if
he paints the fence, he's in a painter's outfit. He doesn't have just plain old clothes to work in."

"Sounds like a stuffed shirt."

"He is. The first day Terry was at the house, he ran across Cullen's
lawn, and this guy started to bowl Terry out. I told him to leave the boy alone. I don't want anyone yelling at Terry. My brother and his wife adopted Terry, and I've always tried to show him I liked
him as much as my own boys. I told Cullen later that Terry was adopted. He hasn't complained since."

The phone rang. Peggy answered
it, and nodded to Bill.

"Oh, Jean! I was just about to call. Yes, I know all about the lunch."

"What? How did they do it?
I'll come right home. Does Cullen
know about it?"

Bill dropped the phone in its
cradle, and put on his hat and coat.

"Peggy, I've got to go home. The ground cave under Cullen's porch
next door. They hacked away at one of the supports, and the porch
is all set to fall down. Mrs. Cullen
called her husband, and I guess
I'm in the soup this time."

He left the office, and all the
way home tried to think of how
he could apologize to Mr. Cullen.

except that his coat is short and
smooth. It is a very old breed,
originating, as did the Pekie in China.

Q—Does a dying person fall forward or backward?

A—A person who suddenly dies
while standing, whether from a bullet or other causes, almost invariably falls forward. The same
is true of a person who faints
while standing.

industries. "We have made up our minds that we are not going to settle merely for consultation," he said. "We want a real share in control and administration."

The motion was side-lined at the request of conference chairman James Griffiths pending discussions now in progress between the trades union congress and the party's executive on the whole subject of nationalized industries.

member of Plymouth United Church.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Sidney, of Sherbrooke and Douglas, of Pointe Claire; a daughter, Mrs. J. A. C. Thomson, (Margaret), of Kamloops, B. C.; two brothers, Dr. C. E. Cross, of Three Rivers, and Arthur Cross, of Sherbrooke; two sisters, Mrs. F. T. Skinner, of Saskatoon, and Mrs. N. F. Rowell, of Montreal, as well as grandchildren.

The remains are resting at Johnston's Funeral Parlor, Melbourne Street, where the funeral will be held on Thursday, June 9, at 2:30 p. m., Rev. R. C. Tait officiating. Interment will be in Maple Grove Cemetery, Melbourne.

amount he has to pay taxes.

"This is all he gets for loaning the company the money which it has used to buy the tools of production. No wonder many investors prefer to put their money into government bonds and get a three per cent return with no risk."

"Even if the three cents paid to shareholders were cut in half, the price of a one dollar article would only be cut to 98 1/2 cents. Surely no one will think these profits are the reason for high prices. The 6.2 cents of net profit are the red cells of the life blood of our industry; they make our dynamic free economy tick. We are certainly not apologizing for them they just couldn't be much lower."

an experienced group of woodsmen, scoured the district but found no traces of the Fontaine boy. "The dog didn't find any tracks of the lad, and I have complete faith in my dog," he said.

The possibility of dynamiting Long Pond was also discussed yesterday, although searchers said there was no evidence to suggest that the child had been drowned there. Because of rocks, timber, and stumps strewn over the bottom of Long Pond, it cannot be dragged.

Evidence of the huge crowds who joined the hunt on Sunday is contained in the report of the St. John Ambulance Unit, which treated 51 persons for minor blisters, foot burns, and cuts throughout the day. In addition to the nearly three thousand who were at the immediate scene, police estimate they turned away hundreds of "sight-seers" at the main highway.

Searchers departed from a white flag, erected as a rallying point, in groups of 25 all day Sunday separated sometimes by intervals of only three or four minutes. They left hopeful and confident, only to return dejected and mosquito-bitten some four hours later with the same story—"no luck."

But they were determined to continue and most went out a second time, after a brief pause for rest and food. Two short cloud-bursts in the early afternoon had no effect on their efforts.

Coming from all over the Eastern Townships, by mid-afternoon they had completely "combed and criss-crossed" seven and a half square miles. This was the report of Capt. P. E. Roy and Lieut. Albin Dubois of the Royal 22nd Regiment, St. Johns, who were in charge of mapping the search course.

Early Sunday morning the Fontaine family was driven to Eastman, where they attended Mass and heard Rev. Laurent Tourigny, R.M., (Catholic) parish priest, say a special prayer for the success of the search. The fatigue and worry of the past week showed plainly on Charles Fontaine and his wife.

As the day wore on it became evident that the peak of the search had been reached, and there were still no tangible clues to the mysterious disappearance of little Michel.

Shanghai, June 7. —(AP)—The Shanghai Post Mercury says today Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek broadcast from Formosa that he will recapture Shanghai within four months or commit suicide.

The English-language newspaper says Chiang, retired president of national China, apologized for the loss of Shanghai and blamed it on a sell-out by some of his troops.

Simla, India, June 7. —(P)—The cast Punjab high court yesterday reserved judgment in the appeals of Narayan V. Godse and six others against their sentences for the slaying of Mohandas K. Gandhi. Godse, convicted triggerman, is sentenced to be hanged. The appeal opened May 2. The judge may deliver their decision in 10 or 15 days.

Carrier Runs Aground On Reef

Halifax, June 7. —(P)—The aircraft carrier Magnificent, licking her reef-inflicted wounds in dry-dock here, today was the most un-talked ship in the Canadian Navy.

Naval officials maintained a tight silence on extent of the damage to the 14,000-ton warship which ran aground off southern Nova Scotia Saturday night. Neither did the Navy reveal progress made in an examination of the vessel's hull.

Only announcement from naval authorities to date is that an official inquiry will be held "in the near future" and findings of the court will be made public.

Magnificent piled onto a submerged rock off White Point beach, 70 miles southwest of here. A second attempt to yank her free, engineered by the destroyer Nootka, was successful and the carrier limped into Halifax Sunday at reduced speed.

The ship, Canada's largest naval vessel, grounded some 160 yards offshore. None of her 1,100-man crew was injured.

BC Election Is One Week Away

Victoria, B. C., June 7. —(P)—With but a week left until the June 15 provincial election, final "campaign punches" were prepared today.

The issues are reminiscent of the 1945 campaign. "There is little chance."

Premier Byron Johnson and his coalition forces warn against socialism as sponsored by the C.C.F. Both Mr. Johnson, a Liberal, and his finance minister, Progressive Conservative leader Herbert Anscomb, have referred steadily in campaigning so far to expansion plans disclosed in the last legislature. Mr. Anscomb, finance minister in the coalition government, also has challenged the C.C.F. to remove the controversial three-per-cent sales tax if that party is elected. The coalition claims that the C.C.F. would drive out capital if elected.

Both the sales tax and bill 66—the latter enabling negotiations between the cabinet and the Aluminum Company of Canada—have been hit hard by C.C.F. spokesmen.

They say the tax is aimed at the working people and the proposal to allow the Aluminum Company of Canada to build a $300,000,000 industry in B. C. is giving away B. C. resources.

In province-wide tours, both Mr. Johnson and C.C.F. leader Harold Winch have ignored federal issues.

In the provincial election, the electorate has a choice of 139 candidates for the 48 seats in the legislature.

The coalition—made up of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives—and the C.C.F. will contest every seat in the 41 ridings.

Social Credit has 16 candidates, and Union of Electors, a break-away group from the Social Credit league, 12. There are two Labor-Progressive party candidates and eight independents.

In the last Legislature, the coalition had 36 members against 11 C.C.F. and one Labor.

Trading In Livestock Was Light Today

Montreal, June 7. —(P)—There were only 27 cattle, 9 sheep, 80 hogs and 276 calves offered for sale on the two Montreal livestock markets today.

Prices on all classes of livestock were firm to strong. Medium cows brought 15-16.50 and common kinds 13.25-14.50. Canners and cutters made 10-13 and common bulls 14-18.

Veal calves were in good demand. Good quality brought 26 with an odd sale at 27. Mediums ranged from 23-25 and common thin light veals were as low as 20. Drinkers brought 16-19.

Good quality spring lambs weighing 60 pounds or better made 17-18. Light lambs were selling at 10-14 according to quality and weight. Sheep ranged from 6-13.

The most common price for Grade A hogs was 35. Sows were 24 to 25 dressed.

The west wants to hand over more authority to the German administration and limit the veto to essential matters involving security or changes in the city charter.

Failing to agree on Berlin the ministers will turn next to the German treaty and the Austrian pact, the remaining items on their agenda.

he replied it was an inappropriate remark at a time "two ideologies are splitting the world" and "frank collaboration" is required among peoples on guard against dangers to their democratic way of life.

The Prime Minister told another questioner he favored a Canadian flag that would "create union rather than disunion" and any other measure demonstrating the adulthood of the Canadian nation.

city is committed to the construction of a new bridge across the St. Francis River, for which tenders have been called and close June 20. The installation of additional water power generating capacity for the municipal system must be undertaken in the near future, either through the development of the Ulverton or Two Mills Falls power sites, either of which would cost over $1,000,000.

years was rotten. The present Government, which has been in power for fourteen years, may not be rotten but it was reasonably ripe.

A government in power for too long assumes an excessively paternal attitude towards the electors and believed that it could manage the affairs of the citizens much better than they could themselves, with a resultant increased interference in personal business of the individual.

Col. Louis Roberge, vice-president of the Association, after disclaiming any connection with the official Liberal candidate except similarity of names and military ranks, told the gathering that the Liberal party had held itself up as the defenders of Quebec, but in reality had been the betrayers of the Province. During elections they had promised the people of Quebec everything, but once they had been returned with a solid bloc of Quebec supporters, they had forgotten their promises. In neither the civil service nor the army had the French-Canadians been given their fair share of the higher executive positions, a condition aggravated by the lack of independent thought upon the part of the Quebec Liberal members who blindly answered the dictates of the party machine rather than fight for the interest of the province.

A great bureaucracy had gained control of the Government, he continued, and was determined to maintain the present administration in office in order to retain their easy living at the expense of the Canadian taxpayers.

Other speakers included Dr. C. M. Harris, of Magog, Ovide Bergeron, of Magog, former Bloc Populaire Member of the Legislative Assembly, Albert Fregeau, of Rock Island, and J. C. Samson, of Coaticook.

PROPERTY OWNERS

Here Is The Arena We Will Build You, Without Asking You To Pay For It!

As you all know, Sherbrooke property owners will be called upon to vote on Wednesday, June 8, for or against a loan by-law which would allow the City of Sherbrooke to borrow $1,250,000 to construct a new municipal arena and civic centre. The architect's drawing (above) prepared by Alphonse Belanger, gives you an idea of what our proposed enlarged arena will look like. This enlargement, of course, depends on the by-law being defeated tomorrow.

A Modern, Practical Arena
That Will Not Be
A Financial Liability
To The Builders!

The Sherbrooke Exhibition Arena can be easily enlarged according to Mr. Belanger. The new Arena will be, as it is now, 227 feet in length, but it will be 235 feet wide. The structural supports will be raised from 28 feet from the ice to 42.

There will be 13 double doors. The main part of the arena will be enlarged by 50 feet. There will be no more posts in the vicinity of the rink and the roof will be insulated. The wooden floor will be covered with asphalt to make it fire-proof.

We Must Vote Against The Loan By-Law Tomorrow!

Ratepayers must oppose the construction of an arena to be built without regard to cost and under any conditions, and paid for by an extra sales tax. This new tax is bound to be extremely unpopular because of the fact that we have not yet completely recovered from an inflationary period and the present cost of living is already prohibitively high.

Capacity of the proposed Arena:
7,000 SEATS
Parking Ground:
1,000 CARS

The question which ratepayers must decide tomorrow is: Is it reasonable, with conditions so unsettled as at present, to permit our municipal administration to speculate in the construction of a new arena, at a cost of a million and a quarter dollars, when Sherbrooke already has an arena which could be easily enlarged and is advantageously located, especially since a new bridge is to be built across the St. Francis River? We answer: "NO".

The minutes of the previous meeting were adopted as read by the secretary, Mrs. G. Maddiss, and Mrs. A. Harris gave the treasurer's report. A short film, loaned by the Red Cross, entitled, "Water Safety," was shown and proved both interesting and educational. Rev. There will be no further meetings until October 25.

Mrs. R. C. Winslade, Mrs. Leonard Barlow and Mrs. Rene Blouin were hostesses at a delightfully arranged crystal shower held at the home of Mrs. Blouin, Terrill Avenue, last Monday, in honor of Miss Therese Steben, a July bride-to-be. Mrs. Barlow welcomed the bride-elect and pinned a corsage of lilies-of-the-valley on her shoulder, while Mrs. F. E. S. Shelley played the Wedding March. Activities started when Mrs. Blouin and Mrs. Winslade presented Miss Steben with two large boxes, done in pink and white shower paper. The contents of the boxes, soon unearthed and placed on a nearby table, revealed a beautiful collection of crystal in four different sizes. Miss Steben graciously expressed her thanks to her friends, who had assembled to honor her and for their gifts. A sing song and cards were enjoyed for a time, following which the hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. F. Steben, mother of the guest-of-honor, presided at the tea table, covered with a lace cloth and centered with white lilies and Sweetheart roses in a low silver bowl and tall white candles in silver holders. Assisting in serving were Mrs. A. Goulet and Miss Pauline Steben.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid recently held their closing meeting for the summer months in the ladies' parlor, of the Church. Owing to the illness of the president, Mrs. R. Sanders, the vice-president, Mrs. D. Knapp, presided over the meeting. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. H. Mills who read a portion of the 3rd chapter of Galatians and a prayer. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. E. Wheeler. The visits to the sick and shut-ins were reported. Business arising from the minutes was discussed and final plans were made for a rummage sale to be held at the market, June 17, at one o'clock. Many other items of interest were brought up and some plans for activities in the fall were made. The meeting was closed by repeating the Mizpah Benediction in unison. During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. Beaman and Mrs. E. Wheeler.

The closing tea and sale held in St. Peter's Church Hall, last Wednesday afternoon by the St. Peter's Guild, was most attractive in various ways. White and mauve lilies were used in profusion to decorate the stage, windows and the small tables and the cool and colorful salads were in keeping with the summery day.

The guests were received by Mrs. Alfred Spry, president of the Guild, and Mrs. Charles Coombs, vice-president. Mrs. Henry Barlow acted as cashier.

Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Norman Porter and Mrs. C. Woby, were in charge of the salad table; Mrs. George Povey and Mrs. Fred Povey, of the table of baby articles; Mrs. John Hall and Mrs. J. McGregor, of the apron and greeting card table. The decorations were done by Mrs. Stanley Wilson and Mrs. C. Shufelt.

The hostesses, for the occasion, included Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. Fred Pearson, Mrs. James Twyman, Mrs. Albert Byham, Mrs. James Plamondon. They were assisted by Mrs. Stanley Wilson, Mrs. A. Simpson, Mrs. W. Byham, Mrs. Fred Eastman, Mrs. John Northey, Mrs. M. Buzzell and Mrs. Frank Dorey.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and in the centre was a large crystal bowl filled with white lilies, tulips and forget-me-nots, with green candles in crystal holders on either side. Tea was poured by Mrs. Reginald Smith and Mrs. Michael Dineen.

The perfect day, the flowers, guests in large numbers, and the chirp of nature's minstrels, all combined to make the first garden party of the season a highly pleasing affair. This event took place at the home of Mrs. A. M. Sangster, Quebec Street, who on Wednesday, made available her house and grounds to the W. A. of the Plymouth Church.

Tables were arranged on the lawn along a border of ferns at the side of the house, and between flower-beds under the old trees at the back. Equally attractive for a cup of tea, was the large living room, with antique furnishings and in contrast, the solarium, where bouquets of forget-me-nots and lilies-of-the-valley spaced climbing ivy on the window sill and the sun was on duty.

Receiving, were Mrs. Sangster, Mrs. T. R. MacKenzie, president of the W. A., and Mrs. R. C. Tait. The hostesses, Mrs. J. L. Blue, Mrs. Victor Newton, Mrs. Everett Nicol, Mrs. J. M. Fraire, Mrs. Sanford Carter, and Mrs. M. A. Law, took charge of the serving.

Mrs. G. T. Armstrong and Mrs. F. S. Rugg, presided at the tea table, covered with an ecru linen embroidered cloth, with insets of fillet lace. A large crystal bowl holding a mixture of forget-me-nots, lilies-of-the-valley and honeysuckle formed the decoration in the centre.

An added pleasure was a visit to the nearby garden of Mrs. F. A. Briggs, where guests roamed at their leisure. Here were clumps of yellow primroses, beds of Persian buttercups, alongside the dominant tulips of every variety and color, remarkable among which were the rarer parrot tulips. The beautiful iris held its own, all attracting attention around the paths and curvatures of the symmetrically arranged garden. The opportunity of viewing Mrs. Briggs' garden furnished a happy conclusion to the very enjoyable afternoon.

GENERAL ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS

cost less to operate...keep water hot longer

"...now we have all the hot water we need, for all the family, it's such a pleasure!"

Today's best method of heating water is with a General Electric automatic electric Water Heater. It's the easiest and most convenient way to have a constant supply of hot water on tap for all family requirements and it costs only a few cents a day.

Check These G-E Features

1. G-E Calrod Immersion Units: totally immersed in the water so ALL electricity is used in heating the water. This assures maximum efficiency and greatest economy of operation.
2. Fiberglass Insulation: a full three and a half inches of Fiberglass completely surrounds the tank. Fiberglass is one of the most efficient heat insulators known. Heat losses are almost negligible.
3. Magnesium Protection: where corrosive water conditions exist, the magnesium alloy rod protects the galvanized tank and prolongs its life. An exclusive G-E Water Heater Feature.
4. Completely Automatic and attention-free operation is assured by thermostatic controls and safety valves. Just install your new G-E Water Heater, adjust thermostat and forget about it.

The G-E Calrod Immersion Units in the water supply you with the maximum amount of hot water per penny spent on electrical energy. That extra-thick Fiberglass insulation keeps the hot water hot far longer, also helping to keep the cost of operating your G-E Water Heater down to the minimum. That's why you'll always be glad you chose a General Electric Water Heater.

Canada's great Leader

LOUIS ST. LAURENT, Prime Minister of Canada

At the polls on June 27 the voter must ask himself, ahead of anything else, who should be head of the government.

In Louis St. Laurent, Canada has a great national leader.

That he had high abilities of the mind was proved by his career in law. That he had wisdom in cabinet, unique gifts in parliamentary debate and a quick grasp of large affairs became clear as soon as he entered the Government. In international affairs, as one of the original advocates of the Atlantic Pact, he made himself a world figure who spoke out as no Canadian before him, in the councils of the nations.

He also revealed an understanding of ordinary

people, because he is one of them.

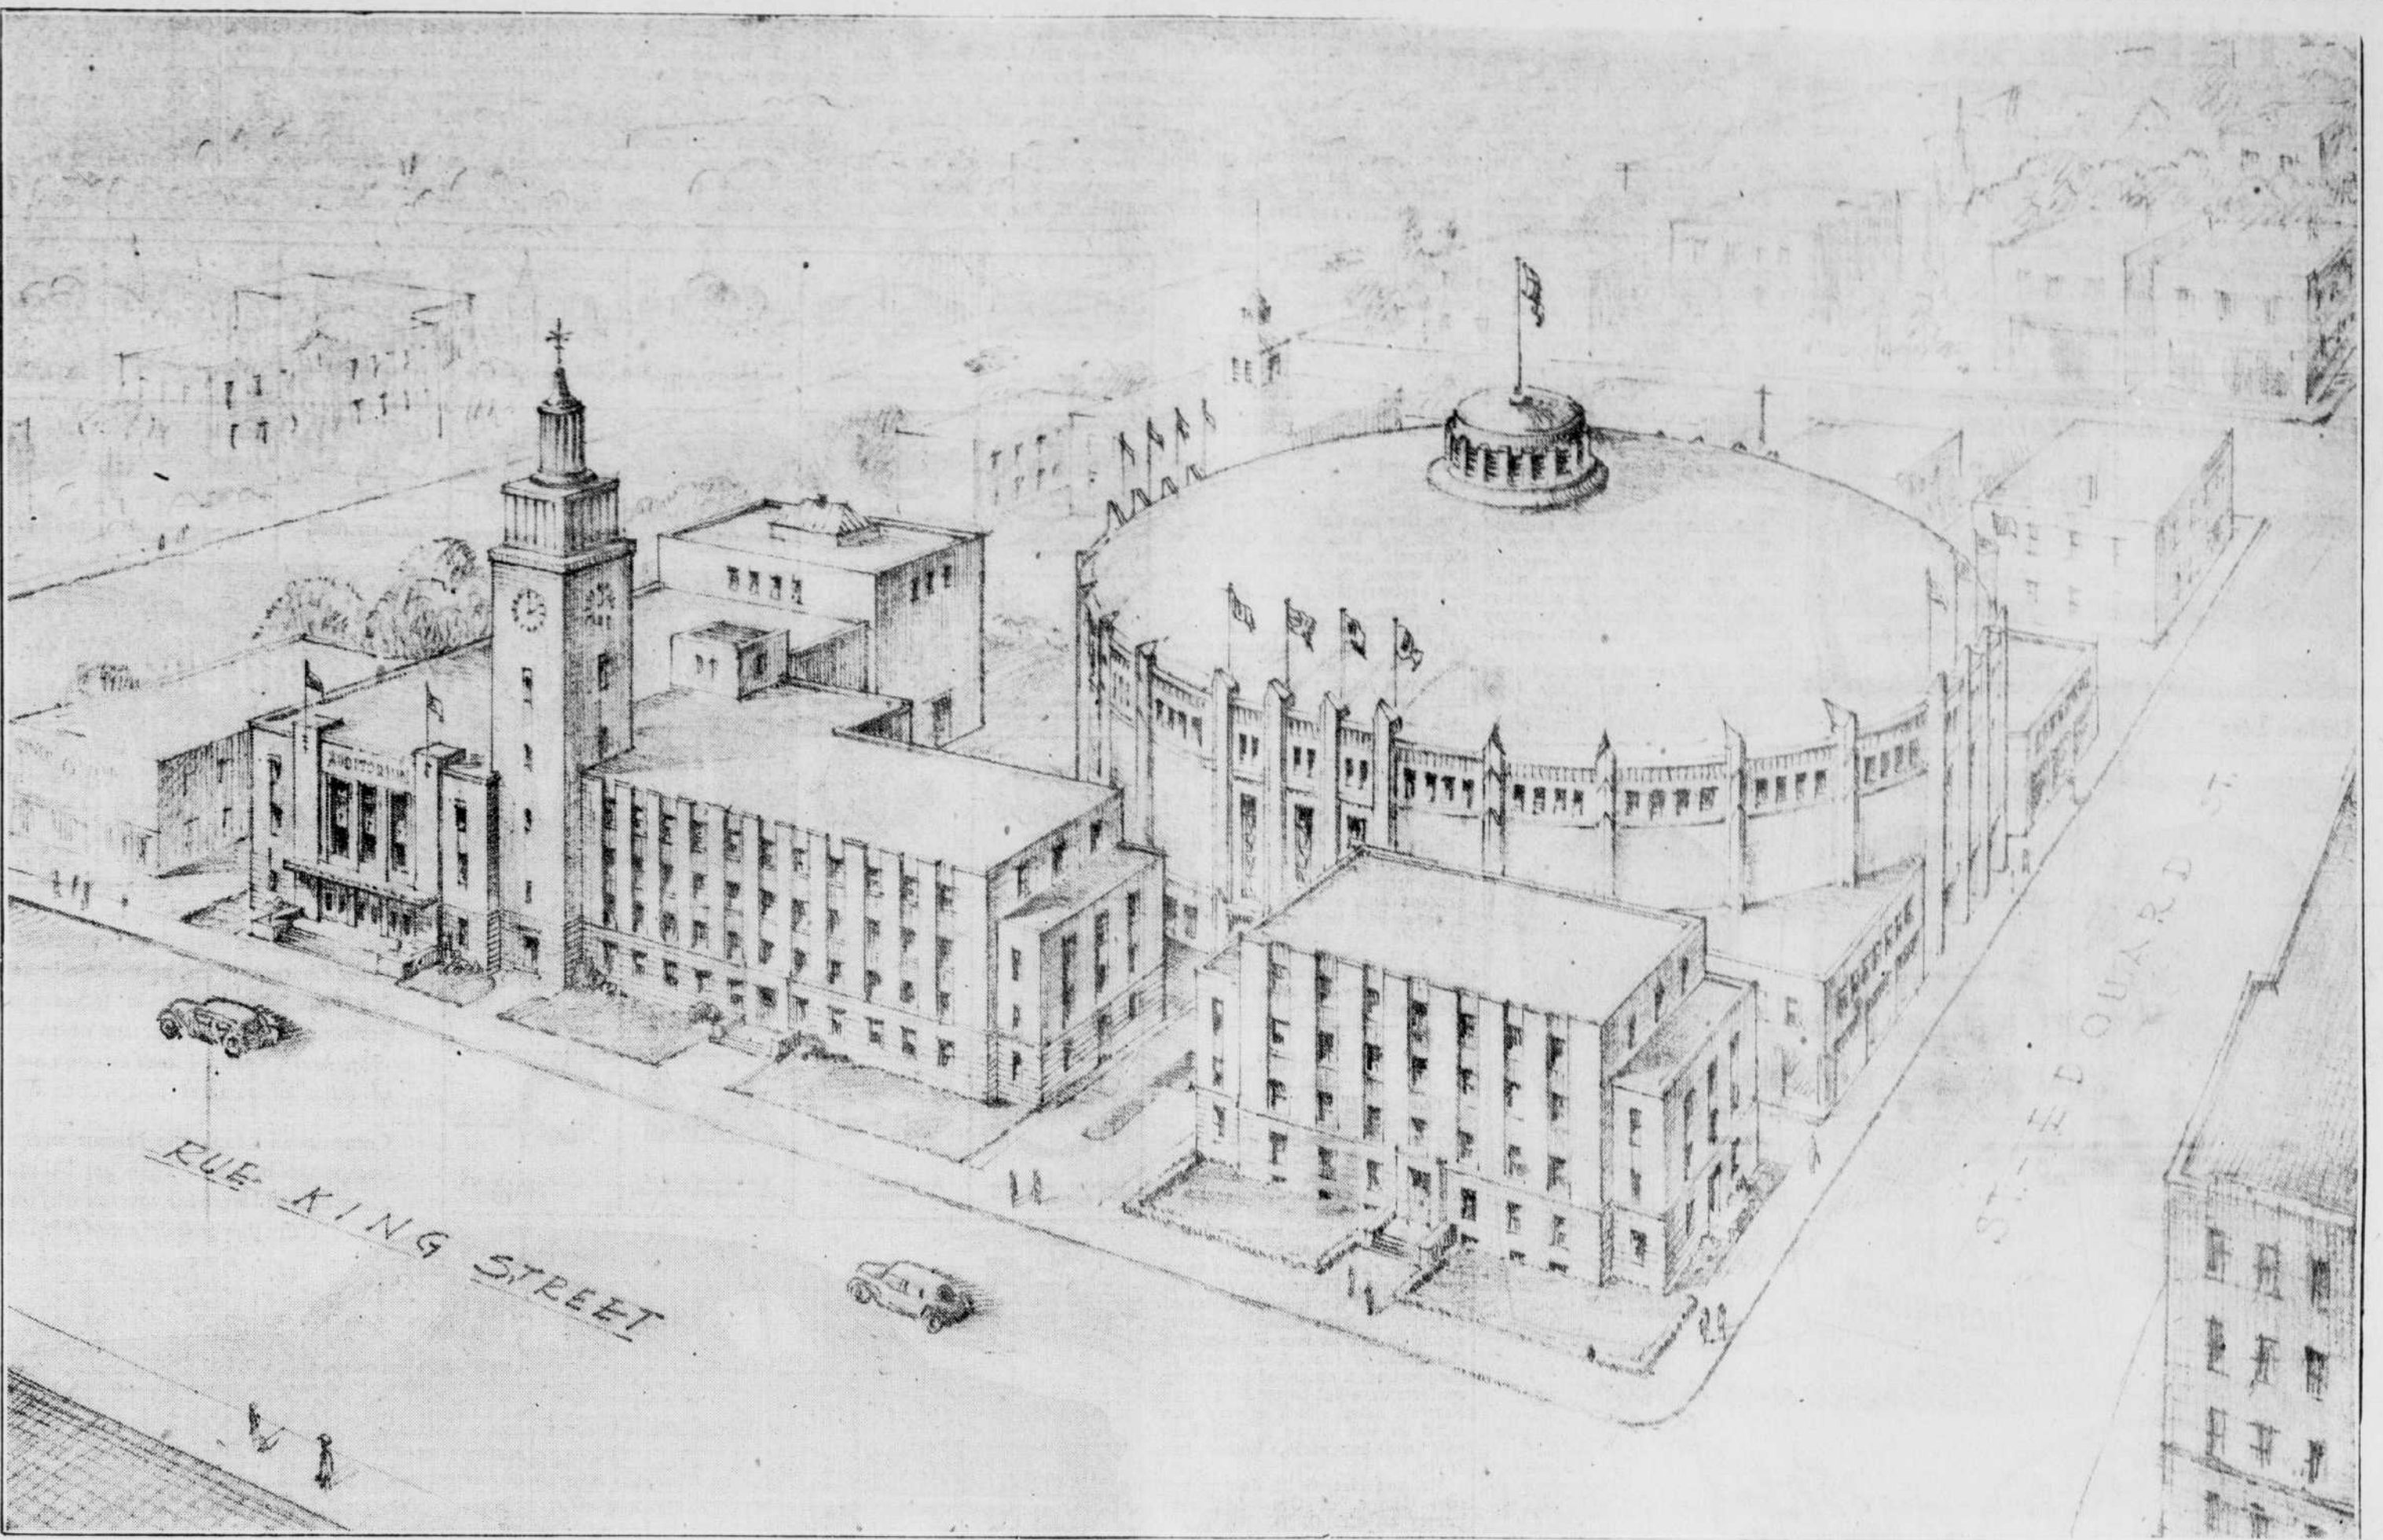

This warm and essentially simple human being is the real St. Laurent, the product of the small town, of humble beginnings, hard work, a big family and the friendliness of country neighbors.

In blood, language and instinct he combines the qualities of two great races.

To the voter it is equally important that St. Laurent is the leader of a truly national party, with proved strength from coast to coast, the only party which can hope to form a stable government after the election. His character, his ability and his achievements have made him the leader of all the Canadian people.

SHERBROOKE'S FUTURE CIVIC and SPORTS CENTRE

Let's Face The Future With Confidence!

- Our city is growing, and growing rapidly! Sherbrooke's possibilities are tremendous.
- It is the hub of 20 thriving Township Centres. Here is the way to speed-up progress by concentrating social and sporting activities in Sherbrooke.
- Statistics indicate that Sherbrooke's population will double within twenty-five years.
- We must be ready for this growth, and must be prepared to offer potential Sherbrooke citizens and industries everything they could find elsewhere.

The above picture will give you an idea of the appearance of this civic project upon completion. The arena, according to the plans, will have a diameter of 275 feet, will be completely FIRE-PROOF and will seat 7,500 people. There will be stores on the St. Edward Street side. The suggested auditorium will seat 2,000 people and there will be a large stage. The illuminated MEMORIAL TOWER will be 50 feet in height and house a large clock. The buildings comprising the City Hall will be a public library, a lecture hall, a gymnasium, swimming pool, etc.

Property Owners!

A vote for the Civic Centre
is a vote for progress!

Why This Civic Centre?

- Because our young people need it, have asked for it, and are counting on us to give it to them!
- Because the rapid economic and commercial development of our city demands it!
- Because no important town is able to develop as it should develop without encouraging cultural activities and sports.
- Because your property values increase as your city grows.

A Word About This Special Tax:

A sales tax of 1% will have to be imposed locally to make this proposition financially sound. This tax will not apply, however, on food, clothing for children under 16 years of age, medical necessities, patent medicines, rent, etc. This revenue, plus the revenue realized by the arena, will enable us to pay off this debt in seven or eight years, after which period arena revenue will be used to build the new civic centre.

The General Public Is In Favor Of This Project!

Some anonymous individuals seem to be against this project. No public group has, however, voiced any objection. On the contrary, all groups which voted on this project were in favor of it. These people are all taxpayers; taxpayers who realize the urgency and necessity of this project.

Why Be Satisfied With A Makeshift Arrangement?

Directors of the E. T. A. A. have already made enquires to ascertain if the City of Sherbrooke would guarantee the loan necessary to finance the promised enlargement of the present arena.

Would you like the City to construct their own arena on their own land, in the centre of town, instead of backing the E. T. A. A., who will continue to ask for taxpayers' money, in the form of grants and loans who operate as a private company?

VOTE for the FUTURE! VOTE for the CIVIC CENTRE!

The Civic and Sports Centre Civic Committee.

A'S TAKE TWO FROM ST. HYACINTHE; ST. JOHNS HERE TONIGHT

Harry Feldman To Toe Mound Against Braves This Evening; New Player To Arrive In Town For Tomorrow

Sherbrooke Athletics copped their first doubleheader of the season when they downed St. Hyacinthe 8-3, 12-6 Sunday and moved up the ladder to take over fifth position in the league standing.

In the afternoon fixture, at St. Hyacinthe, Fred Martin chalked up his third win of the season when he gave up eleven well spaced hits, while his mates came through with some timely hitting and runs to post a 8-2 lead for him to work on.

In the evening game the Athletics pounded out a total of fourteen hits off of three St. Hyacinthe hurlers and after the first inning the locals were never behind. Adrian Zabala limited his opponents to five safeties, including a round tripper by shortstop Reed, in the initial frame with two mates aboard. In the second frame Zabala gave up one more singleton, and then shut them out until the seventh, when the Saints bunched three hits for two more runs.

The A's started from the first inning and managed to get two runs across the plate, and in the second they added three more on two hits and two walks. In the third Manager Gladu's boys kept at the second Saint hurler and pushed five runs across the platter on four hits, including doubles by Bianco and Paul Dyke.

Eddie Thomas Hits Homer In the fourth Eddie Thomas, after one away, lifted one of Washburn's pitches over right-field fence to continue the local's barrage on the Saints' tossers. It was the final tally for the A's, although they connected for hits in the sixth and seventh.

In the seventh Howitz, the Saints' third hurler, started off with a lousy triple and came home on Azzone's single. Malfara then connected for a double and Azzone came racing home with the second run of the inning, but it was all as Zabala then bore down and retired the side. In the ninth the locals came through in fine style and after Howitz was given a walk Azzone hit into a double play to retire his side and end the game.

Eddie Thomas and Normie Dussault were the big guns for the A's with three hits apiece. Thomas has a circuit blow and two singles while Silvio Garcia poked out two doubles with Bianco, Dyke and Gladu had one apiece.

Tonight, weather permitting, the Braves of St. Johns move into town to tangle with the Athletics in a regular fixture under the lights at 8:30. St. Johns are at present in second position behind Stan Beaud and his Cubs. Harry Feldman has been assigned the job of trying to stop the Braves.

Stanstead Wins Eastern Townships Girls' Track Meet

Adrian Zabala And Harry Feldman Apply For Reinstatement; Martin And Lanier To Still Press Suit

New York, June 7.—(AP)—About recovered from the impact of Commissioner A. B. Chandler's "amnesty" pronouncement, organized baseball wondered today what to do with the score of players tossed back in its lap.

It seems certain the Major Leagues will be able to find regular employment for no more than a half-dozen—10 at the most—of the athletes now forgiven for running off to the Mexican League in 1946.

St. Louis Cardinals stand to reap the best profit here, getting back a couple of potentially great pitchers in Max Lanier and Fred Martin and a capable infielder in Lou Klein.

Brooklyn Dodgers also should gain some benefit from Mickey Owen, the 33-year-old catcher whose persistent pleading with Chandler had much to do with getting the ban lifted, and Luis Olmo, an outfielder who hit .313 in 1945.

Roberto Ortiz, 32-year-old outfielder, may be a welcome addition to Washington Senators. The Giants possibly could find use for infielder George Hausmann and pitcher Harry Feldman.

But the rest of the list of reinstated talent provides a largely unknown quantity, with most not figured to have a look-in today's stepped-up Major League play. Many of them were wartime replacements or veterans already on the road down.

Other factors enter into the picture. How many of the banished players will make the necessary bids for reinstatement?—Chandler says they must apply formally. How sharp will they be after three years of virtual inactivity?

In Drummondville, Que., where he has been playing in the Quebec Independent Provincial League, Lanier acknowledged he was "not in good shape."

"I've been living in Florida and I'm not used to the late spring here," he said. "But I haven't got a sore arm and I figure I'll be in top shape soon."

Other players who have been in enforced idleness probably will run into similar conditioning problems. Most of the men may not find their true grooves until next year.

Lanier, however, praised two other Mexican League jumpers now playing in the Quebec League with him—Sal Maglie and Roy Zimmerman, former Giants. He said they were ready to step into the majors now.

Maglie is a pitcher. Zimmerman is an infielder who has 10 home runs in the League.

Condition of the returning athletes raises no immediate problem for the club owners, however, because the Commissioner has fixed it so they won't have to make a quick decision.

The 25-player limit will be made elastic for the benefit of the wanderers. The clubs may keep their roster, plus the reinstated talent—for a "reasonable" period of readjustment.

Also, Chandler must have had an eye on the calendar Sunday night when he lifted the ban. The deadline for trading is June 15. That gives club owners more than a week to make some deals for their surplus manpower.

Meanwhile, applications for reinstatement are coming in. President Ford Frick of the National League reported yesterday he had received word from pitchers Fred Martin, Harry Feldman and the Giants' Adrian Zabala.

There will be no reinstatement request from Danny Gardella, the former Giant outfielder, said Lawyer Fred Johnson.

The lawyer said, Gardella is going ahead with his $300,000 damage suit against baseball, now pending in federal courts, and will forego Chandler's "welcome home" sign in the meantime.

The $2,500,000 suit filed by Lanier and Martin also will be pursued said John L. Flynn, their lawyer, who added he planned to push for a quick trial.

The three former Major Leaguers are contesting baseball's reserve clause, which binds a player to one club for life or until the club disposes of him. They argue in their suits this violates the Anti-Trust Laws.

Federal Judge Learned Hand said last week the suits "should be brought to trial as soon as possible."

President Lagasse's Squad Cops Initial Event At Country Club; Fred Kirby Wins Low Gross With 76

President Jacques Lagasse guided his team to a 1-0 victory over Vice-president Bert Keeler's squad to cop the annual event played over the Country Club Saturday afternoon.

Thirteen foursomes took part in the match, which was a close battle the whole way. Vice-president Keeler's side was ahead when half of the field posted their scores, but President Lagasse's late starters swung the battle in his favor. One point was allotted for the win, with the usual three-point system being used to decide the winners.

The list of players for the match follows:

Wilson's Miss Canada Favored To Cop Race

Gravenhurst, Ont., June 7.—(AP)—The men who helped build Miss Canada IV gave Harold Wilson's speedboat a strong chance of capturing the Harmsworth Trophy when the International Championship race is contested for the first time since 1933.

Both Jack Brinsmead, technical advisor to the designer, and Tom Greavette, boss builder, admit they're prejudiced. But each backs his choice of Canada's representative in the challenge race with logic.

Brinsmead, technical advisor to designer Doug Van Patten of Flint, Mich., figures on paper Miss Canada will be good for 140 miles an hour. On that speed he rates her a top threat against the other four boats—one Italian and three from the United States.

It's a big advance from the speeds averaging 90 miles an hour turned up by Car Wood when the United States speedboat king last won the trophy in 1933, completing a reign started in 1920.

Brinsmead's interests are divided. His boss, Van Patten, also constructed the Astraea, a United States entry designed along the same lines as Miss Canada. She's powered by a 1,500-horsepower Packard engine instead of the 2,500-horsepower Rolls Royce Griffin that Wilson obtained from Britain.

Greavette, a veteran builder, says Miss Canada IV will be in the water in two weeks. That gives Wilson, native of Ingersoll, Ont., plenty of time to try her out in Lake Muskoka before the Harmsworth is run on the Detroit River July 30-Aug. 1.

The new craft, just getting its finishing touches, is a larger edition of Miss Canada III, which holds the world's record for the Gold Cup class with 119.9 miles per hour. She's 33 feet long and 11 feet nine inches across, about 10 feet longer and two wider. The new engine also adds 1,400 horsepower.

Charlie Keller Starting Comeback With Bears

Charlie Keller, erstwhile slugger of the New York Yankees, has begun the long climb which he hopes will land him back in the major leagues.

The convalescing outfielder, who was optioned to Newark of the International League three weeks ago, made his first appearance in a Bears' lineup since 1938 last night, and didn't fare badly at all.

Keller played the whole game in left field and cracked out a single in two official times at bat. He grounded out to first and walked on another occasion. He had no chances in the field.

Keller had no direct part in the Bears' 2-1 victory over Toronto Maple Leafs. Young Hank Workman blasted his sixth home run with one man on in the sixth to account for all Newark's runs off Nick Strincevich. Duane Pillette held the Leafs to five hits including a home run by Skippy Roberge.

Wes Westrum, husky Jersey City catcher, broke the league record for home runs with the bases full in a season when he crashed his fourth grand-slammer of the campaign to lead the Giants to a 10-0 victory over Buffalo. The 31-year-old catcher's first 9-year margin over the Bisons to four full games.

Only three other players in the long history of the circuit had ever hit three jack-of-homers in a single season, but Westrum already tops that with less than one-third of the campaign over.

Westrum drove in five runs to increase his league-leading R.B.I. total to 51. He has 13 home runs, one less than Ed Sanicki of Toronto.

Baltimore's 25 Widmar won his eighth game as the Orioles defeated Rochester, 8-6. He allowed eight hits as the Orioles got 11 off four Redwing hurlers.

John Hetki led Montreal Royals to seven hits in hurling Syracuse Chiefs to a 5-3 victory. Dan Bankhead, who started for the Royals, was the loser. Ed Shokes drove in the winning runs for the Chiefs with a pair of singles.

Gaby Ferland Dropped By Bert Linam In 7th

New Orleans, June 7.—(AP)—Bert Linam of Austin, Tex., knocked out Gaby Ferland of Montreal last night in the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round welterweight match at the Coliseum Arena.

Linam came from far behind to save the game Canadian. Ferland, outboxed and outgassed the Texan for the first five rounds.

Ferland's terrific pace caught up with him and he began to weaken. Linam's first winning round was the sixth and he pounded the Canadian's body and jaw, staggering him and reaping a cut over his left eye.

Linam weighed 147 1-2, Ferland 144 1-2.

Eight Schools Participated In Meet Sponsored By Sherbrooke Hi-Y Club; Seven New Records Established

Stanstead, paced by two aggressive champions, took unchallenged honors in the annual Eastern Townships Girls' Track Meet, sponsored by the Sherbrooke Hi-Y Club and held at the Parade Grounds on Saturday.

Seven new records were established and all 18 events on the program were closely contested.

Eight schools, Stanstead, Sherbrooke High, Richmond, Knowlton, Drummondville, Lennoxville, Cowansville and Windsor participated in the meet.

Stanstead walked off with the team laurels accumulating a total of 61 points, while Sherbrooke High placed second with 20 closely followed by Richmond and Knowlton, with 19 and 18 respectively. Drummondville and Lennoxville picked up 10 points each, Cowansville notched 7 while Windsor scored 5.

Two new records were set in the midget class, Stanstead winning the 220-yard relay in 31.2 seconds while J. Davio leaped 13' 4" in the broad jump.

The juniors set three records and C. Reglin of Knowlton broke two. Miss Reglin cleared 4' 4-1/2" in the high jump and then leaped 13' 8-3/4" in the broad jump. V.

TURNING THE PAGES OF "CANADA UNLIMITED"

When Canada was growing up, hewing a living from the virgin forest left little time for holidaying. By the 1790's, visits to distant friends were popular. Settlers would travel three hundred miles by sleigh in winter to see their friends.

Picnics were popular in 1835. While the men fished, the women picked berries, and all joined for lunch. In Springtime, excursions to the woods for "maple-sugar making" were greeted with delight.

With the arrival of the automobile about 1900, and improvement in the roads, people began to travel to "see the sights". Touring to Niagara Falls, Muskoka or the Laurentians, became a common holiday pastime.

Today, tourists are big business: Canada is a vast wonderland, with countless surprises for the sightseer—and each year millions of Canadians and visitors tour our land. The opportunities that exist in the tourist industry are many—for there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited.

Just how much room is told in "Canada Unlimited", an illustrated 144-page book published by the O'Keefe Foundation. You may obtain your copy by sending 25c in cash (no stamps or cheques, please) to "Canada Unlimited", Dept. NS-8, O'Keefe House, Toronto, Ontario. Please print your name and address clearly. All monies received will be donated to the Canadian Citizenship Council.
