BROME RESIDENT DEAD IN SHOOTING

World News In Brief

Baltimore—(P)—Police continued the search today for three armed men who forced their way into a home here Monday and escaped with a reported $85,350 in jewels, furs and cash. The men forced their way into the home of Louis Mann, president of the Foust Distilling Co. of Glen Rock, Pa., and the Sherwood Distilling Co. of Westminster, Md. Mrs. Reva Mann and her maid, Mrs. Rose Williams, were alone when the holdup took place.

Naples, Italy—(AP)—Salvatore (Lucky) Luciano, one-time New York vice kingpin, was ordered today to appear before a Naples police commission to reply to questions upon his activities. The exact reason for the order was not known, but its intent evidently was to tighten restrictions on Luciano, whose name frequently has been connected with narcotic smuggling in Italy.

Andalusia, Ala.—(AP)—A veteran court reporter, watching a blaze that gutted a downtown building Monday night, was hurled to the ground and severely injured by a runaway fire hose. Earl King was taken to a hospital with head and chest injuries.

Scott Air Force Base, Ill.—(AP)—A 30-year-old airman was sucked up against the air intake of an F-84 jet fighter plane. The victim was identified by base officials as Sgt. Ora W. White of Carpenter, Ohio. It was the first such accident at the field.

Ramsey, N.J.—(AP)—A father and son were killed and 17 persons were injured, three of them critically, in a bus-fuel truck collision on heavily-travelled Route 17 Monday night. The rush-hour crash slowed traffic for two hours.

Bonn, West Germany—(Reuters)—West Germany will continue paying $143,000,000 a month until the end of the year to finance the Allied occupation, the Allied high commission announced Monday.

Seoul—(AP)—Fire today destroyed about 200 houses and left 1,000 persons homeless in Chunchon, 50 miles northeast of here.

Says Soviet Army Lacks Real Power

Washington — (Reuters) — Brig. C. H. Dewhurst, former chief of the British mission to Soviet forces in East Germany, says the Soviet Union's armed forces are weaker than they are believed to be. Dewhurst expressed his opinion in excerpts from his copyrighted book "Close Contact" printed in the U.S. News and World Report, an independent weekly news magazine published at Washington. The book is being published by the Houghton Mifflin Company.

Dewhurst said the Soviet air forces lacked the "know how" of strategic bombing, that its vast army was chiefly a highly vulnerable tank force, and that its navy, although of enormous nuisance value, probably would never be able to assume the offensive.

He said: "The strength of her army, etc., obviously eclipses that of the West and comprises, for the most part, tank armies. These must move by rail or road, oddly enough, Russia has no tank-transporters. "If tanks move by road, they 'use-up' their treads at an alarming rate, unless supported by even more elaborate workshops than we ourselves maintain—and for these Russia has not the technicians. "If they move by rail, than the bombing, or destruction by other means, of important rail centres will altogether hold up an advance. "In the air, she has not the technique, or know-how, of strategic bombing. . . Russia has never staged a raid on anything approaching the thousand-bomber scale to which we grew accustomed before the war was over. . . "On the sea, she has not a single aircraft-carrier. . . So far as we know, Russia is expending her resources on the construction of long-range submarines and light cruisers, and may end up with a fleet somewhat similar to Hitler's. It will be of enormous nuisance value, as was Hitler's navy, but it will probably never be able to assume the offensive. . . "Dewhurst also said the Kremlin must realize that little or no reliance could be placed on the armed forces of the satellite countries.

Police Detain Sixteen-Year-Old Youth In Slaying Of 24-Year-Old Marcel Dalpe Of Brome.

By WARREN SPAFFORD

Brome — A violent quarrel between two young brothers in this little village 50 miles south-west of Sherbrooke shortly after 5 p.m. yesterday afternoon, ended in the slaying of Marcel Dalpe, 24-year-old son of Brome garage owner Georges Dalpe, and the detention by Provincial Police of his sixteen-year-old brother Georges.

It is believed that the argument started over some trivial matter on the scene of the crime, a small room in back of a restaurant now closed for the summer season. After a fierce exchange of words between the brothers it is thought the younger boy picked up a .22 rifle laying on the dresser and fired one shot at Marcel. Immediately after the shooting the 16-year-old brother fled from the scene of the crime carrying the rifle, which he later left in a field approximately one thousand yards away.

The bullet struck the victim in the chin, piercing his throat and the top part of his spine. He then tried to wash his face in a basin in the room but he was bleeding too profusely to be successful in this act, as the blood-spattered room will testify.

The ex-air force pilot then staggered to the restaurant door some 20 feet further and made his way to his father's garage located parallel to the building which he had just left. He entered part way into the garage and told his mother, "my brother has just shot me."

After this the dying man staggered another 15 feet in front of the garage and fell to the pavement where he died.

The first police officer called to the scene of the crime was Sgt. Paul Provost, of the Provincial Police detachment in Cowansville. He was called by Mrs. Dalpe who told him in muffled tones that her son had just been shot. Following this practically every police officer in the district was summoned. They included Detective Merrill Lawton and Lt. Ubald Legault both in Sweetsburg for the Criminal Assizes, Constables Guy Baril, Plante, Saue and Laporte of the RCMP and Cpl. R. Graffard, in charge of the same detachment in the area and Police chief Granville McClure, of Knowlton.

Dr. W. S. Rodger of Cowansville was also called to the scene as well as Dr. Paul Rioux, district coroner. Marcel Dalpe was pronounced dead at 5:45 and the body was taken to the morgue at Perkins Hospital in Sweetsburg where Dr. Rosario Fontaine will perform an autopsy today. An inquest will be held sometime next week, according to Dr. Rioux.

After fleeing the scene of the crime, young Dalpe took to the fields along the Knowlton-Cowansville road. He was captured at 7:05 last night on the same road on route 52, seven miles from Brome, by Det. Merrill Lawton and Constable Guy Baril, of the RCMP. He was

Commission Hits Evatt Attitude

Canberra — (P) — A royal commission investigating Communist espionage said today charges against Dr. Herbert V. Evatt before the commission were calculated to cause "disquiet in Australia."

Evatt appeared at commission hearings as counsel for two of his secretaries named by former Soviet diplomat Vladimir Petrov as sources of non-military information for a Red spy ring.

In an interim report the commission said: "Apparently Evatt conceived the theory that he and the political party he leads had been made the victims of a political conspiracy and he proceeded to that in mind. After his permission to appear was withdrawn his juniors continued the same line. "Charge followed charge with bewildering variations. Suggestions were made of blackmail, forgery—fabrication, fraud and conspiracy. As day followed day all we heard was the constant reiteration of vague charges of infamy. . . "The report said these charges had been disproved. But it added:

Jean Drapeau, Sweeping Montreal Mayoralty Vote, To Oust Langlois

Montreal—(P)—Jean Drapeau, a 38-year-old lawyer with the reputation of a crusader against vice, Monday was elected mayor of Montreal, a city where judicial inquiry disclosed that prostitution, betting and gambling were tolerated by police for almost a decade.

Drapeau, whose fame grew out of his work as co-prosecutor at the vice inquiry, won by an overwhelming vote over eight other candidates in an election marked by such violence and disorder that police described it as one of the stormiest in years.

In a victory speech, Drapeau said that one of his first acts will be to suspend Police Director J. Albert Langlois, one of 20 members and former members of the police department convicted in the inquiry judgment of tolerating commercialized vice in the city between 1941 and 1950.

Langlois has appealed the conviction and claims the right to hold his post pending action on the appeal. He defied a city executive committee ultimatum that he either resign or take an extended leave of absence while the courts consider his appeal.

Drapeau said Langlois "has proved he is not worthy to remain in office." "I called him three times this afternoon for police protection and I didn't even get to speak to him." The calls were made after the Drapeau committee rooms were damaged in a series of violent raids by nomad gangs wielding sticks and baseball bats. In one case the gangs ignored a volley of revolver shots fire a constable in an attempt to summon help. "The next call Mr. Langlois gets from me will be to tell him of his suspension," Drapeau told a crowd of well-wishers, organizers and newspaper men in his downtown law offices.

The new mayor may be sworn in today to replace popular Camillien Houde who threw the mayoralty contest wide open when he decided not to seek re-election because of ill health after 18 years as chief magistrate.

Councillors whose election is unquestioned may also be sworn in immediately. In cases where recounts appear necessary, the swearing-in may be delayed.

In the voting, Drapeau was only 684 votes short of an overall majority over his eight opponents all of whom lost their $200 deposits. He obtained 76,188 out of a total vote of 153,068. His plurality over his closest opponent was 54,670. Approximately 52 per cent of the 294,032 eligible voters cast their ballots, compared with 35 per cent in the last election.

The mayoralty vote: C. O. Bousquet 923; Camille Dionne 2,695; Drapeau 76,188; Hector Dupuis 7,299; Senator Sarto Fournier 16,787; Charles Lafontaine 8,076; Adhemar Raynault 21,518; Dave Rochon 18,566; Jacques Sauriol 1,008. Drapeau was one of 35 candidates sponsored by the Civic Action League, an organization whose platform called for a cleanup of Montreal. In his victory speech, Drapeau promised to go deeper into corruption uncovered in the vice probe. "We are going to establish public morality in public office," he said. "We have been wrongly labelled. We don't want Montreal to be a closed town, we want it to be a lively town within the law. There is plenty of scope for Montreal to be a lively town within the law."

Standing beside him as he spoke was Pacifique Plante, co-prosecutor with him during the vice inquiry. Plante was fired as assistant director of police in 1948 by Chief Langlois and it was his dismissal that led directly to the vice probe.

Asked if Plante would be named police chief by the new administration, Drapeau replied: "If Mr. Plante is available we will see to it his services are used in a position where they will best serve the interests of the city."

Drapeau, a man of medium height and slight build, wears thick, hornrimmed glasses. He has a black close-clipped moustache. He is married and has two children. His favorite hobby is gardening. He made his first bid for municipal office a successful one. He was twice defeated at the polls in federal elections. He was defeated in 1942 as anti-conscriptionist candidate and in 1945 when he ran as a candidate for the nationalist Bloc Populaire.

In his sweeping mayoralty victory, Drapeau carried into office with him 27 of 34 council-

Prejudice Is Charged To Probe Head

By G. MILTON KELLY
Washington — (P) — Senator Joseph McCarthy (Rep.-Wis.) today hurled a "prejudice" charge at Senator Arthur Watkins (Rep.-Utah) and two other members of a special six-man committee which recommended that McCarthy be censured for certain of his actions as a senator.

This was the first time McCarthy has levelled a bias accusation directly at members of the censure committee, although he was indicated he felt Chairman Watkins and Senators Edwin C. Johnson (Dem.-Colo.) and Erwin (Dem.-N.C.) were against him. In his charge today, McCarthy mentioned only Watkins by name.

Watkins could not be reached immediately for comment.

With the climactic Senate debate on censure less than two weeks away, McCarthy made public a letter to Watkins in which he said:

"It is now unquestioned that three members of the committee, including yourself, indicated prejudice toward me before you were selected to act on that committee and failed to tell the vice-president of your statement in that regard before he appointed you to this committee. "This would appear to be a deliberate deception of the vice-president and a fraud upon the senate which obviously intended that an unprejudiced committee be appointed."

The special committee of three Republicans and three Democrats returned a report Sept. 27 recommending unanimously that the Senate publicly reprimand McCarthy on grounds that the Wisconsin Republican showed contempt for a Senate elections sub-committee which investigated his financial and other affairs in 1952; that he used "vulgar" language about a member of that elections group; and that he abused Army Brig.-Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker at an investigations sub-committee hearing. The Senate is to reconvene Nov. 8 to consider the recommendations.

No Defence Witness In Bell Case

Belleville, Ont.—(P)—The crown today rested its case at the trial of Mrs. Mary Bell, 46, on a charge of murder in the poison death of her 57-year-old husband, Percy, last Jan. 2. The trial started 11 days ago.

Ronald Cass, defence counsel, thereupon announced that the defence will not call any witnesses. Since the start of the trial, the crown called 79 witnesses, including pathologists, a druggist and friends and relatives of the Bells. A medico-legal expert who testified Monday suggested that the strychnine which doctors said caused Bell's death could have been placed in a sleeping powder capsule.

Dr. Ward Smith of the provincial crime laboratory described

New York Preparing Warm Welcome To Elizabeth

New York — (P) — Delayed 11 hours by an Atlantic storm, Queen Mother Elizabeth arrives in New York this afternoon to begin a 23-day visit to the United States and Canada.

The arrival time of the liner Queen Elizabeth, originally scheduled to dock here early today, was postponed until 4:45 p.m. when the ship ran into a heavy gale Monday. At least five other ships were delayed by the storm, which arose about 1,200 miles east of Newfoundland with winds up to 72 miles an hour.

The Queen Mother is making her first Atlantic crossing on the ship which bears her name and which she christened in 1933. She is scheduled to be welcomed to New York at a ceremony in the liner's veranda grill at 8:15 p.m. Greeters will include Sir Roger Makins, British ambassador to the United States, representatives of other Commonwealth countries, and personal representatives of President Eisenhower and Mayor Robert Wagner of New York.

After the reception the Queen Mother will go by limousine to Wave Hill, the picturesque Bronx residence of Sir Pierson Dixon, permanent United Kingdom delegate to the United Nations. She will stay at Wave Hill during her nine-day visit to New York.

Three New York morning news papers — The Times, The Herald Tribune and the Daily Mirror — devoted space in their editorial columns today to welcoming the Queen Mother.

Each of them pays tribute to the Queen Mother's warmth and character. The Times says that ". . . There are few human beings today more constantly under the public eye than the Royal Family of Great Britain. To bear up under this scrutiny for three decades as Duches of York, Queen Consort and now, Queen Mother, and to emerge without a whisper of reproach or denigration shows a remarkable character."

In welcoming the Queen Mother, The Times says, "Americans are paying a tribute to hospitality to the constitutional head of our close and important ally."

The Herald Tribune recalls that on Aug. 10, 1941, "when prospects across the Atlantic looked exceedingly dark," the Queen Mother broadcast a message to the women of the United States in which she emphasized the sacredness of the ideals for which the two countries were then fighting.

"In the knowledge that these shared ideals still endure," says The Herald Tribune, "Americans will unite in the warmest of greetings to Queen Elizabeth, Queen Mother of England."

The Mirror in its editorial refers to the Queen Mother as "one of the friendliest and most popular persons ever to visit these shores."

SCENE OF MURDER — The boarded-up restaurant shown in this picture was the scene of a killing shortly after 5 p.m. yesterday afternoon in the Village of Brome. The shooting of Marcel Dalpe occurred in a back room of the restaurant where he made his living quarters. The arrow points to the path taken by the victim after his brother, Georges, had fled the scene. Marcel Dalpe then went to his father's garage to tell his mother, who lived in the rear of the building, that he had been shot by his brother. (Record photo by Gerry Lemay)

Eisenhower Claims Sharp Cut In U.S. Unemployment

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
Washington — (P) — President Eisenhower passed out new pre-election ammunition to fellow Republicans Monday night in saying that unemployment has dropped 400,000 to 2,700,000, below 3,000,000 the first time this year.

The chief executive, increasingly active in the home stretch for continued Republican control of Congress, also focused nationwide attention on the administration in the foreign affairs field a few hours earlier through the first telecast and broadcast of a cabinet meeting.

The White House described as "non-political" both Monday night's TV-radio cabinet session on the new European defence alliance against communism and the President's major speech 3½ hours later dealing in part with unemployment, a major campaign issue.

Privately, presidential aides were elated over Eisenhower's two nationwide appearances on radio and television in a single evening with the congressional elections just a week off.

The President's discussion of the unemployment situation, a theme of Democratic criticism of the administration in several congressional races, came in an address to members of the National Security Industrial Association.

Eisenhower called 1954 "our most prosperous peacetime year in history," but added that "in certain industries and localities some unemployment still exists as the aftermath of war and inflation."

He went on to say "good progress is being made" toward reducing joblessness. Then, departing from his prepared text, he said he had just received this "latest report" on unemployment:

"In this month, it (unemployment) has been reduced by 400,000 jobs.

"In that period unemployment has fallen from 3,100,000 to 2,700,000."

Then the President announced that Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell, in a nationwide telecast tonight, will "give to the public all of the facts we have on this employment and unemployment situation."

Eisenhower's speech was mainly a rosy account of the nation's economic health, coupled with this forecast:

"Drawing on the richly varied abilities of our entire citizenry, we can foresee that in less than a decade the national output will increase from today's $356,000,000,000 to $500,000,000,000. This would equal an average increase of more than $3,000 for every American family of today."

dy Ringtail's kitchen there at the monkey house.

Said Eany Meany to himself: "I'm the easiest, and the meanest, somebody in the whole forest!" He was, too, and he laughed his easiest and meanest laugh. He was looking at a plate of scrambled coconut cookies on the table.

Why, he was going to take a bite of this one, and take a bite of that one, until he had taken a bite of each and every one. No one would want a bite of any, when he had taken a bite of all. He was going to crunch and crunch those cookies with his teeth to cause all the mischief he could.

Yes, and I'll tell you here and now that Eany Meany has plenty of cousins and aunts and uncles all over the world. They aren't talking bugs, but it doesn't make a bit of difference. You'd better keep the doors and windows shut without any cracks at your house, so you won't be having bugs in your house. They often come in too if there are crumbs on the floor to invite them in.

And so there was Eany Meany on the table with his mouth all ready for him to be a cookie cruncher. But before his jaws could crunch together. "Psst! Psst!" And Eany Meany looked around to see who was making the noise. "Psst! Psst!"

There was a bug whose name was Ladybug, waiting close outside the window, wanting now to come in. Eany crawled over and opened the window, and in flew Ladybug, buzzing and making a loud noise with her wings.

Mother Ringtail heard it. She ran into the kitchen and kersmacked the very first bug she saw. She smacked him hard with a bug kersmacker. Out the window she dropped him to the ground where he couldn't cause trouble any more.

And Ladybug, who had kept very still through all this trouble she had caused, now crunched and crunched all the cookies on the cookie plate. Ah me, and bugs, bugs, bugs. May you never have any cause you trouble. Happy day!

W. M. S. October Meetings Held At Scotstown

Scotstown, October 26. — The October meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, was held at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Nicholson with a good attendance. Mrs. Alex Murray presided. The Thanksgiving service from the Glad Tidings was followed.

Plans were made for a food sale to be held on Saturday, October 30, in aid of the expense fund. Mrs. Kenneth was appointed to be in charge of the sale. The president requested that all donations of mittens for Indian children and small gifts for port worker should be brought in as soon as possible.

The Sectional meeting of Milan and Scotstown Auxiliaries will be held on November 6th, in the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Hall. Mrs. Philip Boy and Mrs. Angus A. MacIver were in charge of the Study period on Latin America. The meeting closed with prayer, after which the hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. D. D. MacLeod.

W. M. S. MEETS

The October meeting of the St. Andrew's Women's Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Angus A. MacKenzie with a very good attendance and Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. E. Rudd were welcomed as new members. The president, Mrs. Fraser, Mayhew presided.

The meeting was opened by the hymn, "All people that on earth do dwell", followed by a scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. Ross MacDonald read the minutes of the previous meeting, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. P. A. Sherman.

Mrs. A. MacKenzie reported that the Temperance study course was being cared for. Mrs. R. MacDonald reported on Community Friendship, and a very interesting report on the W. M. S. Sectional Meeting, which was held at worker should be brought in as soon as possible.

The mission study on India was taken by Mrs. A. MacKenzie assisted by Mrs. R. Waldron and Mrs. C. M. Smith. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Importance Of Definite Objective Told Waterloo High School Grads

Waterloo, Oct. 26. — "As you graduate tonight, the first thing is to know where you are going," stated Rev. Colin West in his address to the graduates of the 1953-54 class of the Waterloo High School. "That is the trouble with our world today," continued the guest speaker, "too many people do not know where they are going. They have no destination in mind, consequently they end up in the same place everywhere, no where. It is not easy to make up your mind when leaving school." Mr. West went on, "but there are considerations that you should bear in mind before you make decision."

In enumerating these considerations, the speaker stated that one must know the rules of the road, and follow them.

The first one would be the rule of honesty — honesty with yourself, having the courage to face up to one's own limitations and shortcomings. One cannot have a pleasant journey through life unless he or she can live honestly with himself, it was stated. We must play the game fair and square with others as well.

"How about the equipment one takes along the road of life?" Education is above all the most important piece of equipment one can take with him. Knowledge is the key that opens many doors, the door to happiness, to security and to success. Education prepares one for life,

Fabulous Oriental Handicrafts On Display At Treasure Van Exhibition

The fabulous and mysterious treasures of age-old crafts looked on yesterday as Mayor Levesque cut the purple and white ribbon to officially open the World University Service "Treasure Van" in the Champlain Room of the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

A $25,000 gold and silver chest, the gift of the Maharajah of Mysore gilded down from its carved pedestal; tiny ivory groups of three little monkeys soundlessly spoke their legend; silver filigree, the soft green of jade, blue of turquoise and purple of amethyst glowed and twinkled; graceful black ox-horn birds stretched their long necks and pointed at the riot of colour and glitter which transformed the room into a veritable maharajah's treasure room.

Several students of the sponsoring Bishop's University committee of the World University Service greeted the mayor in colorful costumes which set the mood for the Asian display, and mingled with the large opening afternoon crowd which followed the mayor, and his party of Lee Watson, Lennoxville Mayor, Canon J. N. Codere, Rev. F. C. Amery, and Rev. Lewis Clarke, of Bishop's University, into the eye-catching array of displays and goods.

The "Treasure Van," which is continuing this afternoon and evening, combines both the sales and exhibition of handicrafts from India, Greece, and the Manitoulin Island here in Canada, and is currently on a tour which will take it to some fifteen more colleges and universities in Canada.

In charge of the fabulous array is Mrs. Ethel Rodgers Mulvany, a woman who had been ushering the Van about its tours for three years now, and who is just as unique as the Van itself.

A prisoner of war during the Second World War in Singapore, Mrs. Mulvany has long been acquainted with the Asian continent, and goes about the business of speaking with the native craftsmen and procuring their wares for the World University Service with the ease of a native. Mrs. Mulvany, who speaks both Hindustani and Malay with complete fluency, as well as Hindi, the pure Sanskrit, said the aim of the Van has always been "trade, not aid."

"I just follow the exhibit around," said Mrs. Mulvany.

"It's the students who do all the work on it, selling and setting up the Van at each university." Proceeds of the sale go towards the international program of World University Service which aims at helping deserving students and educational institutions throughout the world.

During its stay here in Sherbrooke, the Van is operated by students from Bishop's University, under the leadership of Diane Reusing, chairman of the World University Service committee at Bishop's.

Besides the fascinating articles offered for sale, the Van features an exhibition of dolls from over 20 countries which were presented to the Van by the rulers and leaders of various countries. There is a solemn little doll from Japan, said to be the favorite of the Prince Yoshi of Japan, several resplendent ones from the various provinces of India, a life-like one from Norway, and a little brown Yemite doll with a face that seems to be looking out still over the bright burning sands of the Near East.

The many articles for sale include uncut bits of semi-precious stones, tiny, but fascinating ivory figures—intricately carved, silver filigree ornaments, shells, birch bark canoes, gorgeous shawls, spreads and embroidered handbags, pottery, and gleaming brass goods, inlaid in blazing colours.

And there are even elephants inside tree seeds. The red Menchadi seed from Travancore, South India is dried, hollowed out, and set with a crude ivory stopper. But inside each seed is a tiny, but complete ivory elephant, carved out of the discarded ivory chips of richer craftsmen by needy craftsmen. It is 10 times God's good luck to own one of these seeds with the elephant inside it, and 100 times God's good luck to give the seed as a present.

And the seeds certainly bring luck to the craftsmen, for the sale of a single one of these seeds supports seven people for one day—an outlay of thirty-five Canadian cents. It is symbolic of the whole Van that a small amount given in exchange for an article of handicraft will work a great deal of good.

The "Treasure Van" is here for only one more day. It will be open this afternoon from 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and this evening from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

HOBBY SHOW AND TEA—Shown above are the nine "sixers" of the 1st Lennoxville Brownie Pack as they stand near their hobby displays at yesterday's tea in the Gertrude Scott Hall, Lennoxville. Included in their exhibit were collections of dolls, animals, soaps, and sea-shells; scrap-books, paper-dolls, dolls' clothes, plants, home-made candy and miniature china dishes. There are 50 Brownies in the Pack, under their Brown Owl, Mrs. Harold Way, and Tawny Owl, Mrs. Howard Peterson. The Girl Guide Troop of Lennoxville was in charge of the tea, with some of the thirty-five girls, under the guidance of leader, Mrs. Gordon Herring, working for their hostess badges. ## Women Better Students Than Men, Principal Of Bishop's Maintains Montreal.—The principal of Bishop's University of Lennoxville, Que., said Monday women make better students than men and predicted the day is not far off when a women's college will be established in Canada.

Dr. A. W. Jewitt, also vice-chancellor of the Eastern Townships college, said women "are far-sighted enough to be determined to get as much education as they can for the money they spend on it."

"And they are more likely to understand that the pursuit of knowledge is an end in itself and not just a means to an end," he told a meeting of the Montreal Women's Club.

He said one of the most frequent complaints heard about colleges is their failure to train women for marriage and home-making.

"The best way to study marriage is to get married," Dr. Jewitt said. "There are certain occupations that should be learned on the job and marriage is one of them."

A college campus was not a marriage mart and statistics seemed to indicate a college girl has less chance of marrying than any of her feminine counterparts.

But once married, he said, 91 per cent of college-educated girls were happy about it, while only 78 per cent of less-educated women were reconciled to their lot.

Missing Woman Reported Seen At Sawyerville

Provincial Police reported yesterday that Mrs. Adrien Tessier and her three-year-old son, Richard, missing since July, were seen by two women in the Sawyerville area a short time ago.

According to Detectives Roch Dandenault, of Montreal, and Rene Coupal, of Sherbrooke, Mrs. Ivan Dugre President of the Club Lapointe maintain they saw a "savage woman" who might fit the description given of Mrs. Tessier some time ago.

Mrs. Lowry says that about two days ago she was driving toward Sawyerville when she saw a woman and her child walking on a sidewalk. When she returned from Sawyerville, she saw the same woman walking along the road with no hat on her head, shivering from the cold and apparently sick. She stopped and asked whether she could give her a ride to where she was going. She no sooner said this when the woman ran off towards the woods dragging her child behind her.

At about the same time and in the same area, Mrs. Lapointe was going toward Sawyerville about 8 o'clock in the morning when she saw a woman bent over a brook trying to fish. She was shabbily dressed and wore a short-sleeved sweater as she sat shivering by the stream. Mrs. Lapointe at first paid no attention to this, but later thought that this strange woman might be Mrs. Tessier, so she called the Provincial Police to tell them her story.

Detectives Dandenault and Coupal ask that anyone having any information about the woman and her child to please call LO. 2-4707.

Club Activities Are Reviewed As Optimists Meet

Reports on the various activities of the Sherbrooke Optimist Club featured the regular meeting of the club last evening.

George Garard, New Club building chairman, reported on the possibility of formation of another Optimist Club in Richmond. He also gave a brief report on the recently chartered Lennoxville Club.

A report on the celebration of International Optimist Week which will be observed from Nov. 6-13 this year, was given by Henry Crochetiere. Some of the activities planned for this week include: Free movies for the kids, free admission for youngsters to attend an exhibition game between the Sherbrooke Intermediates and a team from Montreal, a meeting with the Sherbrooke Kiwanis Club at which Dannie Gallivan N.H.L. Sportscastrer, will be guest speaker. The annual Optimist Oyster

Seven Days Go And No Lucky-$ Finder

One-hundred sixty-eight hours have elapsed since we had our last Lucky Dollar winner. How many more will go by 'til we can announce our 22nd winner?

This length of time is the longest we have ever had between winners, except for ten days elapsing between winners number four and five way back at the beginning of August. It is funny how things come in groups, isn't it? During the month of September, we had 10 of our twenty-one winners. Here it is nearly the end of October and we have had only four bills brought back to us.

After all, there are thirteen dollars out—the greatest number of bills we could possibly have out at one time. They are spread all over the countryside and some in pretty obvious places, so there is really no excuse for all these long hours between winners. The next time we write this little story, it will be twenty-four hours later. Surely with 192 hours in all to hunt, someone will come up with a winning bill.

Mrs. Joseph Booth, Ex-Sherbrooke Resident, Dies

The death occurred at Stoneham, Mass., last evening of Mrs. Joseph Booth, the former Alice Jewett, in her 85th year. Mrs. Booth was a resident of Sherbrooke for many years, her husband being the manager of the Paton Manufacturing Company. He was also a member of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club and is the only organizer member of that organization.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son with

Local Firm Expanding

Superheater Company Announces Early Start On $1,500,000 Plant Extension

Marking one of the most important industrial developments in Sherbrooke for several months, the president of the Superheater Company of Canada, Ltd., C. A. Odell, in an official statement to Mayor J. Emile Levesque, this morning announced that his company has authorized an immediate start on the construction of two new extensions to the company's plant on Roy street.

The additions, to be built at an estimated cost of $1,500,000, comprise two buildings each measuring 80 feet in width and 260 feet in length, containing approximately 42,000 feet of floor space.

The new buildings and the existing plant at Roy street, which also comprises 42,000 feet of floor space, will be used for the fabricating of boiler components and other steel plate work.

The exact effect of the new extension on the local employment cannot be estimated at this stage of development as company officials point out that the move is being taken to provide the firm with additional products to replace its one-time main line—the production of locomotive superheaters—which is rapidly disappearing with the rapid change of the Canadian railways from steam-powered locomotives to diesel engines.

It is expected that actual construction work will get under way within the next few days.

Noted Lecturer Guest Of Women's Canadian Club

Phoebe Erskine MacKellar, renowned entertainer and lecturer in Great Britain and the United States, will give one of her recitals, entitled "Canada in Lore and Legend" for the Women's Canadian Club of the Eastern Townships at a dinner meeting on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, in the Mayfair Room of the New Sherbrooke Hotel.

Although widely acclaimed abroad, where she spends part of every year giving lectures, Mrs. MacKellar was born in Montreal, and educated there and in the Maritimes, attended McGill University where she took leading roles with the Players Club, and also spent a year in England finishing her education.

Monologues, as well as excerpts from Shakespeare, illustrated lectures and recitals in costume are all part of a varied program which Mrs. MacKellar presents. The particular group which she has chosen for her appearance here includes one monologue, several character sketches and

Eugene St. Pierre Dies In 57th Year At Quebec

The death occurred in Quebec City yesterday of Eugene St. Pierre, for many years a resident of Sherbrooke, where he practised law. He was 56 years of age. Since his removal to Quebec he had been a special officer in the attorney-general's department.

He was educated at St. Hyacinthe Seminary and the University of Montreal, where he graduated in law in 1924.

Mr. St. Pierre is survived by his wife, the former Eliane Gadois, and one daughter, Louise; five sisters, Therese, Mrs. Phil Fournier, of Stanstead, Margaret, Mrs. Burpen, of Montreal, Josette, Mrs. U. Leger, Cecile, Mrs. D. W. Beaudry, and Leonie, all of Sherbrooke, and two brothers, Hector, of Ottawa, and Georges, of North Hatley, and the following brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Dr. Y. Gadois and Mr. and Mrs. P. Charest, of Montreal, and Mgr. Grandbois, P.G.A., of Quebec.

The body is resting at Lepine Funeral Parlors, St. Foye Road, Quebec City, and the funeral will be held at St. Sacrament Church on Friday morning at 10 o'clock with interment in Quebec.

Teacup Readings For Relief Fund

During the next few days, Sherbrooke citizens will have an opportunity of making their contribution to the Ontario Hurricane Relief Fund. M a d a m e Zelma, well-known local teacup reader, will hold a series of sittings at the Luxor Grill each afternoon this week, the entire receipts of which will be forwarded to the relief fund.

Drapeau -- Now What?

Jean Drapeau, who aided Mr. Justice Caron in Montreal's vice-probe and has campaigned on a clean-up program, has been elected Mayor of Montreal. From which it may be expected that the further tenure in office of Police Director J. Albert Langlois will be a brief one. For the prompt sacking of Director Langlois has been one of the chief planks of the Drapeau platform.
Mr. Drapeau, running under the banner of the Civic Action League, is committed primarily to improving the city's moral conditions as reflected by the open existence of gambling houses and brothels.

In this he will, despite a large measure of determination, have no sinecure.

The young lawyer has also advocated a special department to tackle the housing problem and another to handle the traffic and transportation problems.

Jean Drapeau conducted an energetic, unsparring drive for the mayoralty with the slogan: "Only a fresh team can bring a real change." The citizens of Montreal, or a sufficient portion of them, evidently want such a change.

The "action man" has been elected. It will be interesting to watch the result.

"Republican Luck" Again?

When General Dwight Eisenhower took over the Presidency of the United States almost two years ago he was known, primarily, as a successful soldier. But he was more. He was essentially a man with his feet on the ground. He had a sense of perspective far superior to that of the brilliant MacArthur. He had none of the iron-clad inflexibility of a Wellington.

The genial "Ike" was an organizer, an administrator. He knew how to make men work together; knew when to compromise. He brought to the White House a prestige as great as that of Grant and was without that general's disabilities; as great as that of any president since Washington with his transcendent gifts.

What kind of a team did this man assemble? He chose John Foster Dulles, the Christian statesman, long known as an expert in foreign affairs, the party's representative in the bi-partisan policy, as his Secretary of State. He made Charles Wilson, the great General Motors' executive, his Secretary of Defence. He persuaded George Humphries, the energetic and visioned head of the M. A. Hanna Corporation, to become his Secretary of the Treasury. And he conscripted Ezra Benson, the praying Mormon, to take over the difficult role of Secretary of Agriculture.

The outlooks of John Foster Dulles and of Ezra Benson might well be characterized as sanctified. Those of George Humphries and Charles Wilson were, and are, no less earnest.

These and the other able men in the cabinet tackled their jobs with zest and imagination. They were out to give the country a business administration.

Yet what is the outlook faced, in a political sense, today by this administration at whose inauguration it might be thought the Good Fairies had contributed for more than their usual share of gifts?

It faces the prospect, increasingly apparent, that it may lose control of Congress in the elections next month. It has already had difficulties in securing certain legislation; there difficulties promise to be greater at a time when the unity of the country has never been more essential.

Governments, under our democratic system, the best so far evolved, have a way of securing far less — sometimes far more — than their just deserts. It does not take the tornado of a depression; the chill wind of a recession is enough to unseat, or handicap, an administration which may have no more to do with the arrival of that recession than it has with controlling the atmosphere of the moon.

Mr. Truman, many believed, saw the approaching shadow before he left office. The Republicans, never better dowered to administer a country than they are today, may once more, it seems, be the victims of "Republican luck." And it will be, intrinsically, through no fault of their own.

Gulf Widening?

The belief appears to be growing in Britain that co-existence with Communism is possible. Lord Swinton, Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, gave it utterance the other day in Ottawa.

"I don't at all despair of peace," he told the Canadian Club. "I don't think we are going to convert the Communists but that doesn't mean the two systems can't exist together."

Professor Arnold Toynbee, in his latest volume of his Study of History, comes to the same conclusion. He foresees a long period of "missionary work" by both sides, a time when the "West must hang on using self-restraint, patience, fortitude and tolerance." He believes this peaceful partition will see the East and the West growing less unlike each other.

There has been no sign, however, of any corresponding relief in the United States. The Americans are more than doubtful and do not pretend otherwise.

Britain has likened herself to a bridge more than once lately. This willingness to act as broker was the announced purpose of the Eden stand at Geneva. It is a useful attitude — if there is any hope for a settlement. But it was useless, as it turned out, in dealing with the Nazis and if the Communists are more amenable they have yet to show it.

A bridge is convenient but sometimes it may get more bombing than either of its ends.

Mirror Of Opinion

NUMBER ONE

(T.R.H. in Toronto Telegram)
Somebody sent us a copy of The Chinese Pacific Weekly. We don't know exactly why because, although we marvelled at the complexity of the Chinese characters, we could not read them.

It was a large paper with only an occasional word of English. One of these lines in English surprised us. It was a Chinese advertisement with an English message saying: "World's Largest Lincoln & Mercury Dealer."

There was also a message from Japan in our mail. Yoshiaki Onuma, 804 Kagahara-Ots-ku, Tokio, Japan, is a 16-year-old boy who writes: "I think that we Japanese youths must strive to maintain world peace. To that end it is necessary for us to understand many things about foreign countries. I would like to correspond with Canadian boys and girls."

WORKING MOTHERS

(Windsor Star)
Students of sociological problems have been concerned by the current trend of wives accepting jobs outside the home. They fear some of the consequences may not be good.

That these fears may be justified is indicated by experience in New Zealand. There juvenile delinquency became so obvious an investigation was made into it, and legislation passed in an endeavor to diminish it.

The investigation committee found several causes, but it emphasized one. A third of all delinquency cases came from homes where mothers are absent at work. The results of lack of parental supervision were evident. This doesn't imply all children whose mothers work out become delinquent. But there is a greater chance of them doing so.

Most mothers who take jobs do so to help provide a better material standard of living. They find their husbands wages not sufficient. It is better, however, to have a poor but decent home than one more prosperous financially into which delinquency enters.

WAY FOR THE WESKIT!

Ottawa Journal
We see by the Cornwall Standard-Freeholder that there are signs of a "revival" of the vest as an item of apparel for the well-dressed male — read that in the stain and stress of war-time shortages and post-war prices the weskit had "almost disappeared" from the sight of man.

This is interesting evidence of a return to sanity, and of the triumph of the practical over the theoretical.

Easy to argue that the vest is as out of date as the lace sleeves, with which the Stuart

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the Record of October 26, 1934

Deranged by over-worry, sickness and unemployment, a Quebec war veteran and former post office worker ran amok and slew five members of his own family and a post office official, and critically injured two others in what has been described as a "rain of blood," yesterday.

The Sherbrooke branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society has been temporarily disbanded after twenty years of service. An announcement from headquarters says "lack of funds" made it impossible to continue further operations.

TEN YEARS AGO

cavaliers adorned their persons, that it is not needed for warmth nowadays and that it adds nothing to the natural male charm. But the point such an argument overlooks is that it adds four pockets to the storage facilities which in the case of a female are provided by a capacious handbag.

A man has ordinarily four or five pockets in his trousers, four more in his coat, but the pressure is terrible. He has to find room in them for his keys, his pen-knife, a bottle-opener, his money, a wallet, the usual accumulation of letters and bills, two or three road-maps, his liquor permit, his car licences, a handkerchief, an assortment of pencils and pens, his cheque book, a note book or diary, an assortment of memoranda having to do with birthdays, anniversaries and sundry domestic celebrations, a pipe or cigarettes and matches, and other articles depending on the temperament and occupation of the individual.

Consider then the relief offered by four extra pockets — reduction of bulges and humps as the contents of eight are distributed among 12.

THE GREATEST SURPRISE

In Germany a motorist was sentenced to four and half years in prison on a traffic charge. He had allowed his girl friend to drive his car, although he knew she could not drive, that the brakes did not work, and that the car was not insured. He fell asleep as the young lady drove along and finally crashed head-on into an oncoming car, killing three persons.

The astonishing feature of the story is not the stiff sentence, but rather that although fully aware of the girl's incompetence and of the condition of the car, he could go to sleep

What Other Papers Say

MIS-APPLIED LABEL CAN PROVE DAMAGING

Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph
A name can be very important. At least, that is what a Japanese member of parliament discovered. In last year's general election, Takeshi Hirayashashi was mistakenly listed as a communist on the ballot. He was defeated, and demanded a special by-election, and won when he was listed correctly as a leftwing socialist.

We would gather that the Japanese in this particular constituency do not take kindly to communist candidates. In many parts of the world to call a man a communist is tantamount to insult. We can recognize Hirayashashi's reluctance to be known under this label. Whether there is much of a distinction between a communist and a left-wing socialist, we do not know. We do know some who claim that there is no distinction.

The reason for the reluctance of persons to accept this label lies in the fact that nowadays the term communist is accepted as a synonym for a Russian or some person of another country under the domination of Moscow. No one is anxious to be considered in that category — unless, of course, they are in Russian or one of its satellites.

Thus we feel the need to be careful in the use of such labels. Certainly Hirayashashi found out that a name means much. All of which is quite true, for a name is what a man is known by. And it is important that people who aspire to position of responsibility must have a good name. Apparently the people of Japan do not like the name "communist" any more than we do.

TO GET THEIR MONEY BACK

(Calgary Herald)

The indefatigable (and, let us hasten to add, consistently admirable) Dominion Bureau of Statistics has kindly provided us with a further proof of Alberta's superiority over other, and less-favored, regions. The birth-rate in this 49-year-old demiparadise is, according to the official figures, the highest in Canada.

While we are preening ourselves with just pride over this unexpected achievement, we may well ask ourselves how it happens.

Has it anything to do with the climate? We can see certain impediments in the way of claiming that the Social Credit government is responsible for the rising birth-rate.

Much more likely, we think, that Albertans, reflecting on differential freight-rates, the iniquities of agreed charges the cost of the tariff and the other way in which the East has exacted tribute from the West all these years, have seen in the baby bonus the one sure way of getting their money back.

Little Old Mills Still Turns While Slump Hit Textiles

By ALAN DONNELLY

Ottawa—(P)—Although the Ottawa valley's traditional textile industry has hit a slump, a 119-year-old water-powered mill is still grinding grain at Wakefield, Que., and a new factory is manufacturing records at Smiths Falls, Ont.

The two firms are typical of old and new small industries in eastern Ontario and neighboring areas of Quebec which are keeping economic life humming despite the textile business recession.

The Wakefield mill, 25 miles north of here, grinds out a daily average of 8,000 to 10,000 pounds of coarse grains to feed western Quebec livestock herds. It is powered by the same heavy water wheels, churned by the waters of La Peche creek, which were turning generations ago.

The two-foot-thick stone walls were built in 1835 by a Scottish-born millwright. Later the mill also powered a woollen mill built nearby. In 1910 both buildings burned but the grist mill was rebuilt and during the First World War milled prairie wheat for Britain. Now it is operated by Kenneth and Ernest Young for its owner, J. P. Henderson, who works in the time service of the Dominion observatory.

The Smiths Falls record factory was opened recently by the RCA Victor Company, which moved its records division from Montreal. Lynn Jamieson, secretary of Ottawa's board of trade, points to two factors—lots of room and good workmen—as eastern Ontario's biggest drawing cards in the bidding for new industries.

The St. Lawrence river seaway and power project will boost the industrial hopes of eastern Ontario and there have been moves to make Morrisburg the seaport for Ottawa, the only large city in the area.

Ottawa valley towns contain many of the 30 textile mills which have been closed in Canada since 1951. Other mills are working on a part-time basis.

But throughout the towns and villages are small industries tied more closely to the local economy — milk and butter plants, cheese factories and wood-working plants. A creamery at Cobden turns out upwards of 500,000 pounds of butter a year, and a hardwood flooring mill at Granville, Que., sells its product across the country.

However, a series of new speciality industries are growing up alongside the long-established, local processing plants. The textile town of Arnprior now has a plant of the Plasecki Helicopter Corporation. A Morrisburg precision instruments and a new branch of an English company in Perth turns out valves for oil wells and petroleum refineries. A company in the village of South Mountain makes nothing but date-filled oatmeal cookies which are sold in many provinces.

In Ottawa itself, the federal government is the main industry. It owns one-quarter of the property in the city and employs some 50,000 of its citizens. But there are many small industries here, and a recent trend has been the establishment of several electronic plants, apparently to be close to the research work done by the government's national research council.

Typical of Ottawa's industries are Crawley Films Ltd., which turns out about 28 per cent of all film production in Canada; Spartan Air Services, which has done aerial mapping all over the world; Sperry Gyroscope Ottawa Ltd., which manufactures aviation instruments, and Ashton Press Ltd., the only firm in Canada making rotary presses for the printing of continuous business forms.

"Any industry in Ottawa today is doing well," says Mr. Jamieson.

written and composed long before he became famous — John Peel.

John Peel was a farmer in Cumberland, but was such a keen fox hunter that he neglected his farm to chase foxes. Another farmer-friend of his, John Graves Woodcock, took the words of a tune he knew and without thinking much about it wrote words to match, beginning with "D'ye ken John Peel with his coat so gray." For many years it was sung at farmers' gatherings in Cumberland without benefit of printed word or music. Thirty-seven years after Woodcock's death a music publisher took a fancy to it and had it published. The rollicking tune, the words of which are so easy to remember and the music so easy to sing at social gatherings, soon swept over England, and in course of time became known all over the world, not only at social gatherings, but as a favorite of choirs.

John Peel died at the age of 78, and hunted until almost the day of his death.

Beavers Proving Real Headache To Road Crews

Prince Albert, Sask. (CP) — The road around Round lake, 40 miles west of here, is probably flooded again by now, giving a dauntless bunch of beavers another chisel-toothed chuckle.

They are "the most pig-headed things you ever saw," said Fred Arnold, of the Saskatchewan natural resources department, after he broke open their damming dam recently for the umpteenth time.

Beavers first caused flooding in 1952 when they built a dam on the Shell river, a mile upstream from a bridge.

"We make a check every two or three days to guard against road flooding," says Mr. Arnold. "We've pulled out that dam at least 20 times this summer."

We tried live-trapping, but as fast as we trapped one, two more moved in.

ACCURACY IS MARK OF EXPERT PLAYER

It's unusual to squeeze an opponent in three suits, but it's even more unusual to do so when you still have a trick to lose. Peter Leventritt, president of the American Contract Bridge League, executed this rare feat at the recent summer national championships.

West opened the king of clubs, and Pete won with the ace in the South hand. There wasn't much question about making the contract, but in tournament play overtricks are of the highest importance. Accurate play was therefore necessary.

At the second trick Leventritt led his singleton diamond towards the dummy. He didn't really expect to set up a diamond trick, but he was providing a way of getting out of the dummy after he eventually ruffed clubs. West played a low diamond, and East topped dummy's jack with the king.

East didn't see any enticing returns, so he led back the eight of clubs, as good a choice as any. Declarer ruffed in dummy, ruffed a diamond in his hand, and ruffed another diamond in his hand. He then led a trump to dummy's ace.

Leventritt was surprised and disappointed, naturally enough, when West discarded a club on the first round of trumps. It was clear that East had a natural trump trick. West noted this reaction and smiled in joyous expectation.

After brief thought Pete led dummy's last trump to his king. West's smile became a bit nervous as he discarded the ten of diamonds.

When Leventritt then led the queen of spades, West's smile disappeared entirely. If he discarded his last club, South's ten of clubs would be good. If West discarded the ace of diamonds dummy's queen would be good. The only chance to escape was to discard a heart in the hope that East held the jack.

This discard didn't help West. His take-out double of one spade had marked him with strength in the unbid major. Hence declarer cashed the king and ace of hearts, dropping the queen. Now Leventritt could cash the jack of hearts, giving up the last trick cheerfully to East's jack of spades.

CARD SENSE

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Diamond Double ?
You, South, hold: Spades 8-6-3, Hearts 7-5-4, Diamonds 5-4-2, Clubs 9-6-5-2. What do you do?
A—Pass. This is a horrible hand, to be sure, and all you can do is pass and hope for the best. At least you have a few trumps for your partner.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 9-8-6-3, Hearts 7-5-4-2, Diamond 4, Clubs 9-6-5-2. What do you do?

Party will take place on Nov. 11th at the Arena Hall. Optimist Week will close with a masquerade at the Arena on Saturday, November 13. Amedee Roy was named chairman of the Oyster Party.

Vitol Schein, in his report on hockey activities planned for the coming winter, mentioned the possibility of the Optimist sponsoring a four team "Mosquito" League made up of youngsters under 11 years of age. The possibility of holding a four week Hockey School is also under consideration.

Ken Ross, reporting on the annual Christmas Basket project mentioned that the Club would look after 35 needy families at Christmas.

Vice-President George Garard inducted two new members into

For the past few winters Mrs. MacKellar has taken her colorful dramatic recitals of "Canadiana" in Great Britain, where they have been enthusiastically received. While in Europe, she has taken the opportunity of visiting the birthplaces in France of our early Canadian heroes, whom she portrays in some of her monodramas; the most noteworthy being "Blessed Mother Bourgeois," who was the foundress of Congregation de Notre Dame, 1640-1700.

It is easily understandable from the foregoing biographical notes that Phoebe Erskine MacKellar will present a lively program and bring to us a clearer picture of our Canadian forebears, who pioneered so that our country might grow and become the land of opportunity that it is today.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the "LIGUE DES PROPRIETAIRES DE LA CITE DE SHERBROOKE," body corporate of the City of Sherbrooke, district of Saint-Francois, will apply to the Legislature of the Province of Quebec, at its next session, for the passing of an Act amending the Charter of the City of Sherbrooke, 1 Georges VI chap. 105 and amendments, as follows:

1.-By replacing section 23 of the Charter of the City of Sherbrooke by the following:

23. Section 173 of the said Cities and Towns' Act is replaced for the city, by the following:

"173. The general election for mayor and aldermen of the municipality shall be held every three years, on the fourth Tuesday of March, or on the next following judicial day, if such day be a non-judicial day."

2. By adding after section 23 thereof, as enacted by the said act 1 Georges VI chap. 105, the following section 23a:

23a. The aldermen for seats No. 1 in each ward shall be elected for three years by the majority of the electors who are real estate owners in the ward and who have voted, and the aldermen for seats No. 2 in each ward, by the vote of the majority of all the municipal electors of the ward who have voted."

the Club, namely Andre Charest and Gordie Breen.

It was announced that the meeting scheduled for Monday next would be postponed until Wednesday due to Monday being All Saints Day.

One guest, Peter Gougeon, was introduced by Optimist Bob Drury.

lor-candidates backed by the Civic Action League. The group included his father, Joseph N. Drapeau.

Also included Pierre Desmarais, a possible choice to head the city executive committee, and Charles Mayer, well-known French-speaking Montreal sports writer.

The council has 99 members, 66 elected and 33 appointed by business, industrial and educational institutions. A total of 180 candidates sought election to the 66 seats. Among the defeated were 28 former councillors.

The seven-man executive committee is elected by the council from among council members. The committee elects its own chairman.

Since the 1940s when the city ran into financial difficulties the committee has held the major administrative powers. The mayor must still obtain its approval for many things.

J. O. Asselin, chairman of the committee since 1940, was re-elected to council. Also re-elected was Frank Hanley, vice-chairman of the committee and a man sharply criticized in the vicinquiry judgment.

Georges Guevremont, who testified at the inquiry that he was unaware of gambling in a house he visited regularly, was defeated.

The voting was marked by violence in committee rooms of different candidates and widespread attempts at impersonation in the polls. Approximately 80 persons were arrested.

then taken to RCMP headquarters in Knowlton and later transferred to Sgt. Provost in Cowansville where he was detained for questioning.

Later in the evening Detectives Arthur Gagnon, Roger Payment, Jules Arsenault, Aime Bertrand and Roch Dadenault, of the Provincial Police homicide squad in Montreal arrived and young Dalpe was transferred to Montreal. Before leaving D a l p e brought detectives to the scene where he left the .22 rifle used in the slaying. It was found lying against a telephone post a few hundred yards from the highway.

It is not known yet what charge will be laid against the younger man and this will not be revealed until the coroner's inquest has been held. He is being detained for questioning only.

He said the type of capsule found takes only about five to 10 minutes to be absorbed.

Previous evidence showed that Mrs. Bell purchased 120 grains of strychnine last fall "to kill rats."

On Monday, the tenth day of the trial, an analysis specialist, Prof. Ross Baxter, Toronto, said he found cocoa in samples of Bell's stomach and gullet.

Another witness, David Duff, said Mrs. Bell casually mentioned to him on the telephone the day after Mr. Bell died that she had given her husband a cup of hot chocolate before he went to bed.

Meeting And Tea Held By W. M. S. In Ayer's Cliff

Ayer's Cliff, Oct. 26—The Women's Missionary Society of Bethulah United Church held its autumn thank-offering meeting and tea in the church hall on the afternoon of October 12, with a good attendance of members and friends.

The president welcomed those present and called on Mrs. W. P. Berwick to conduct the worship service. A solo by Mrs. Nelson Pierce and a duet by Mrs. Pierce and Mrs. R. G. McHarg were very much enjoyed. Mrs. Walden was the accompanist.

Mrs. MacVicar presented Mrs. F. A. Johnston as the speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Johnston recently attended the General Council of the United Church of Canada, held in Sackville, N. B. She spoke of the gracious hospitality received in the Maritimes, and told of the enjoyable trip to Prince Edward Island, where they visited "Anne of Green Gables" as well as other parts of the island.

Mrs. Johnston, in a very graphic and interesting manner, stressed the missionary aspects and interest gleaned at the General Council and her address was entitled "Wide Windows." She took them on a trip in her talk, across Canada, where they visited mission schools and hospitals, and heard of the work in the different overseas missions. She stressed the need of our interest and support and threw out a challenge to us all to do more in our missionary work.

The president thanked Mrs. Johnston for her splendid address and all those who took part.

The offering was taken and dedicated by Mrs. Berwick, and the meeting closed with a hymn and benediction. Salad tea was then served, under the convener-ship of Mrs. Boomhour, Mrs. Slack, Mrs. McHarg and Mrs. Astbury.

CARD PARTY

The first in a series of four "500" card parties was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall, when cards were played at eight tables.

Prizes were won by Mrs. Le-

A large crowd of some two hundred and fifty people Saturday night attended the annual Harvest Hop held by the Admiral Sir Dudley Pound Chapter of the local I.O.D.E. at the Hillcrest Lodge.

The hall was attractively decorated in Halloween motif with black and orange streamers and pumpkin table favors. Black cat and witch cutouts adorned the walls. Decorations were carried out by a committee headed by Miss Jackie Roberts and Mrs. G. R. Courcy.

Mrs. Earl Caunter, Regent of the Admiral Sir Dudley Pound Chapter, I.O.D.E., and Mrs. E. B. Sims, Regent of the Sherbrooke Municipal Chapter, received the guests at the door.

Music for the evening was supplied by the Lou Carter Quartet, with Jack Lenaghan at the piano. Dick Varney, CKTS radio announcer, was also on hand to conduct several novelty dances which were much enjoyed by all.

Conveners of the various committees for the very successful dance were: Mrs. H. R. Vine, Mrs. John Turnbull, Mrs. B. D. Allanson and Mrs. J. T. Morrison, publicity; Mrs. James Anderson, Miss Susan Batrie, Miss Marion Cassar and Mrs. N. W. Stafford, tickets; Miss Pauline Steben, Miss Maureen Kenalty, Mrs. David Turnbull and Mrs. F. W. Clark, entertainment.

Among those who attended the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Crotty, Mr. Arthur Lessard, Miss Pat Bray, Mr. Angus McElrea, Miss Eleanor McBain, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Caunter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shutt, Mr. and Mrs. John Turnbull, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beaudry, Mr. Garth Bishop.

DINNING—WRIGHT

Thetford Mines, Oct. 26.—The marriage of Patricia Kathleen, youngest daughter of Mr. Alfred Wright and of the late Mrs. Wright, to Mr. William Glenn Dinning, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dinning, of Maple Grove, Que., took place at 4:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, September 11, in the Church of St. John the Divine, Thetford Mines, the Rev. M. H. W. Seeley officiating. Mrs. Archie Kinnear played the wedding music. "O Perfect Love" was sung during the ceremony and played during the signing of the register. The altar was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Baskets of pastel gladioli were used to decorate the front and guests' pews were marked with white satin ribbons.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was in a cocktail-length strapless gown of Guipure lace and net, having a jacket of the lace with pointed collar and long sleeves ending in points over the hands and a bouffant skirt over crinolines. She wore a tiny lace hat encrusted with seed pearls and sequins. Her nosegay was of white gladioli, centered with blue carnations.

Miss Phyllis Wright, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was in a princess-line frock of pale pink shantung over a crinoline. She wore a matching hat and elbow-length lace mittens. Her nosegay was of white gladioli and carnations.

Mr. Gerald Dezan acted as best man for Mr. Dinning.

Mrs. J. W. Dinning, mother of the bride, was gowned in beige wool with mauve velour hat and black accessories and wore a corsage of bronze 'mums.

Mrs. Gerald Dezan, sister of Miss D. Price.

Mrs. Frederick Fleming and Mrs. William Marshall entertained recently at the home of the latter, Walton avenue, in honor of Miss Winnifred Booth, of Melbourne Ridge, when twenty-five guests were present at a charmingly arranged shower.

Mrs. Marshall presented the guest of honor with a corsage and Mrs. Fleming led her to a decorated chair and made the presentation of a table lamp, a large wool blanket and a pair of flannelette blankets on behalf of her friends. Miss Booth expressed her thanks.

Tea was served at a lace-covered table, centered with varicolored cut flowers and lighted pink candles. Mrs. Leslie Booth, cousin of the bride-to-be, poured tea and the hostesses were assisted by Mrs. G. Bradford and Miss Shirley Bradford.

the bride, who accompanied her father, Mr. Wright, was in a two-piece frock of peacock blue nylon plisse, with rose velour hat and black accessories.

The reception was held in the Commercial Hotel, where white gladioli were used to decorate. Guests present were the Rev. and Mrs. M. H. W. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dinning, Mrs. Luey McReynolds, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Dinning, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nugent and Mr. John D. Bennett, of Maple Grove, Mrs. Fred Rowden, of Groveton, N.H., Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tibbitts, of Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wright, of Thetford Mines, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Murphy, of Drummondville, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kinnear, of Thetford Mines.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Dinning left for a trip through the northwestern states and to Boston, Mass., the bride travelling in a two-piece dress of powder blue wool, with white velvet hat and black accessories under a black seal jacket, with a corsage of white carnations. Upon their return they will reside in Maple Grove.

JAMES STEWART HUNTER OF ROCK ISLAND

Rock Island, Oct. 26 — The funeral service of James Stewart Hunter, of Rock Island, who passed away very suddenly on Wednesday morning, September 29, was held the following Saturday morning at St. Luke's Anglican church at Waterloo at two o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Andrews, of Montreal, formerly of Waterloo officiated and the bearers were Alec Bacon, Donald Bronson, Ernest Viger, Kenneth Barlow, Gordon Laberee and Lionel Cote, all of Rock Island. The remains were laid to rest in the family lot in Knowlton cemetery.

Mr. Hunter was born at Bondville, on February 18, 1910, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hunter. He resided in Bondville, Knowlton and Foster and came to Rock Island in 1942.

On September 22, 1928, he was united in marriage to Gladys Irene Mooney, of Knowlton, and to this union three children were born, Elaine, Glenn and Stewart, by whom he is survived. Mr. Hunter was employed as foreman on the drill floor of the Union Twist Drill Co. Canadian side, of the Butterfield Division and was well liked by the men and the company. He was also an excellent carpenter and during his spare hours was employed in this manner.

Suffering from thrombosis, he was stricken while at his work and died before anything could be done to help him. As the remains laid in repose at the funeral home, numerous friends called to offer sympathy to the bereaved family. The lovely floral offerings, totalling some thirty-five different pieces from relatives, employees, neighbours and friends, were silent tokens of esteem.

Besides his family he is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hunter, of Waterloo, and three sisters, Miss Alice Hunter, of Waterloo, Mrs. Frank Millinchamp, of St. Anne de Bellevue, and Mrs. Robert Millinchamp, of Waterloo, as well as more distant relatives.

Attending the funeral were relatives and friends from Rock Island and vicinity, Waterloo, Knowlton, Bondville, Foster, Montreal, St. Anne de Bellevue and Sherbrooke.

WILLIAM SHAW

William Shaw passed away at the Sherbrooke Hospital on September 22, in his 77th year, after a lengthy illness.

Mr. Shaw was born in London, England, coming to this country as a child. He went to Island Brook, where he received his early education, and where he lived most of his life. His later years were spent in Lennoxville, where he was employed by the Philip Carey Co. Limited, until he had to retire because of ill health.

He was married to Isabella Edith Simpson, of Island Brook, daughter of the late James and Nettie (Severson) Simpson, who predeceased him three years ago.

Mr. Shaw was a member of Ascot Lodge No. 30 A.F. and A.M., Lennoxville, and Golden Rule Chapter No. 1, R.A.M., Sherbrooke, and was keenly interested in Masonic work. As a young man, he travelled as a lecturer, using slides to illustrate his subjects.

Later, with the advent of motion pictures, he travelled during the summer for many years with this form of entertainment throughout the small towns and villages of the Province of Quebec, Eastern Ontario and parts of the Northern United States bordering Quebec. Possessed of a fine tenor voice, he was active in choir work for many years.

The funeral was held at St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke, Rev. Canon W. C. Dunn officiating. The bearers, all Masons, were L. H. Stafford, C. Squire, R. Johnston, G. Lessard, G. Ogsten and L. Moore.

Interment took place in the Island Brook Cemetery. A Masonic Service was held the night before the funeral at Johnston's Funeral Chapel.

Mr. Shaw is survived by four sons and two daughters: William, of North Hatley; Henry, of Island Brook; Herbert, of Montreal; John, of Windsor, Ont.; Edith, Mrs. T. R. Edney, of Sherbrooke; and Thelma, Mrs. Earl Marshall, also of Sherbrooke. He is also survived by six grandchildren, Isabelle Edney, Diane Marshall, Lynn and Betty Shaw, and Gerald and Kevin Shaw.

The many beautiful floral pieces and cut flowers were a silent tribute to his memory.

Why ASPIRIN is Important to Your Well-Being When You Get a COLD!

Here are the reasons millions take Aspirin the moment they feel a cold coming on!

When you have a cold, chances are you have a fever, too—for a fever usually accompanies a cold. And it's important to your well-being that you reduce the fever as quickly as possible.

Aspirin will do this. Its ability to reduce fever has long been one of the medical world's most valuable weapons in the war against illness. And it reduces fever quickly.

In addition, Aspirin also brings wonderfully fast relief from the muscular aches and pains and the headachy feeling that almost always go with a cold.

So the moment you feel a cold coming on, take two Aspirin tablets right away... before you do anything else. If your cold symptoms persist, get medical advice. And for soothing relief of sore throat due to a cold, gargle three times daily with three Aspirin tablets dissolved in one-third of a glass of water.

Reveals Wonder Polish!

"A shoe store manager like myself gets to know a lot about leathers," says Sid Wiggins. "For instance, polishing leather isn't enough — you have to 'feed' it. So, when customers ask me to recommend the best shoe polish, I always say KIWI."

"You see, KIWI's more costly waxes penetrate deep into the pores of the leather — nourish the leather as they clean and polish. Yes, KIWI actually helps keep leather alive for years! And it works fast — gives a brighter shine in half the time other polishes take. KIWI costs a few cents more — but it's well worth it!"

Parish Of Nelsonville Centennial Observed At Banquet In Cowansville

Cowansville, Oct. 26. — A banquet to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the Parish of Nelsonville took place at the New Ottawa Hotel in Cowansville on Thanksgiving Day, October 12. A buffet dinner was served, after which an informal hour was spent in renewing friendships.

The Rt. Rev. Ernest Reid, the Bishop of Ottawa, a former rector of the Parish, was the guest speaker of the evening and his address was enjoyed by everyone. This was followed by a few words from Canon W. P. R. Lewis, who was rector at the time of the 50th Anniversary. Rev. A. T. Love, Rev. F. T. Norman, Rev. G. Addie, all former rectors of the parish, and Rev. J. O. Peacock, the present rector. Mr. J. J. Bertrand M.L.A. was also a speaker.

There were four members at the banquet who were present at the 50th Anniversary celebrations. These were Canon W. P. R. Lewis, Mrs. J. J. Barker, Mrs. H. Ashness-Wells and Miss May Bulman. During the evening, Mrs. J. J. Barker was presented with a corsage, being the oldest member present.

Other guests of honor were Mrs. J. J. Bertrand, Mrs. E. Reid, and family, Mrs. A. T. Love, Mrs. G. Addie, Rev. W. White, Rural Dean of Bedford, Mrs. W. White, Mr. and Mrs. C. Buchanan, who represented the United Church in Cowansville, and Rev. F. Beale of Dunham.

The evening was brought to a close by the singing of The Doxology.

General Notes

Miss McKell, of Montreal, Leadership Trainer of the Montreal-Ottawa Conference Young People's Union, was in town on Sunday and was the guest speaker in the United Church, where she gave a very interesting talk on their work.

Rev. Mr. Booth, of the British and Foreign Bible Society, will be in Cowansville, on November 2, at 7:30 p.m., where he will show pictures and give a talk in

STANBRIDGE EAST—

The Champlain Milk have built an addition to their building here and it will be used for a drying room for casein. New machinery has been installed for the purpose.

The road leading from the town over Tree Hill is being widened seven feet and will finish at the Stanbridge Ridge Road near the farm of Fred Cooke. This job is under the direction of the municipal council and is being overseen by Mr. S. Short. When the Government road department covers it with a new coat of gravel this two and a half mile of road will be greatly improved.

The chicken pie supper held in St. James Church Hall was largely attended and highly spoken of by all who came from the surrounding towns.

The service in St. James Church on Sunday was conducted by Mr. C. B. Gittens, of Dunham.

The Thanksgiving Service in the United Church was conducted by Rev. T. F. Duncan. The full choir music added to the service in leading in the hymn singing and rendered a fine anthem.

The Ladies' Aid was entertained at the home of Mrs. Leslie Lackey. Mrs. F. Corey, the president, was in the chair. Reports were read by the secretary, Mrs. Kidd and treasurer, Mrs. Tomkinson. The business under discussion was the electricity to be installed in the kitchen and Sunday School room, and the changes to be made. Plans were made for the anniversary supper to be held on Saturday, November 6, which will be followed by an anniversary service on Sunday, November 7, at 2:30 o'clock. Refreshments were served before the meeting closed.

Mrs. A. Knight has gone to Montreal where she and her son, Page, have an apartment.

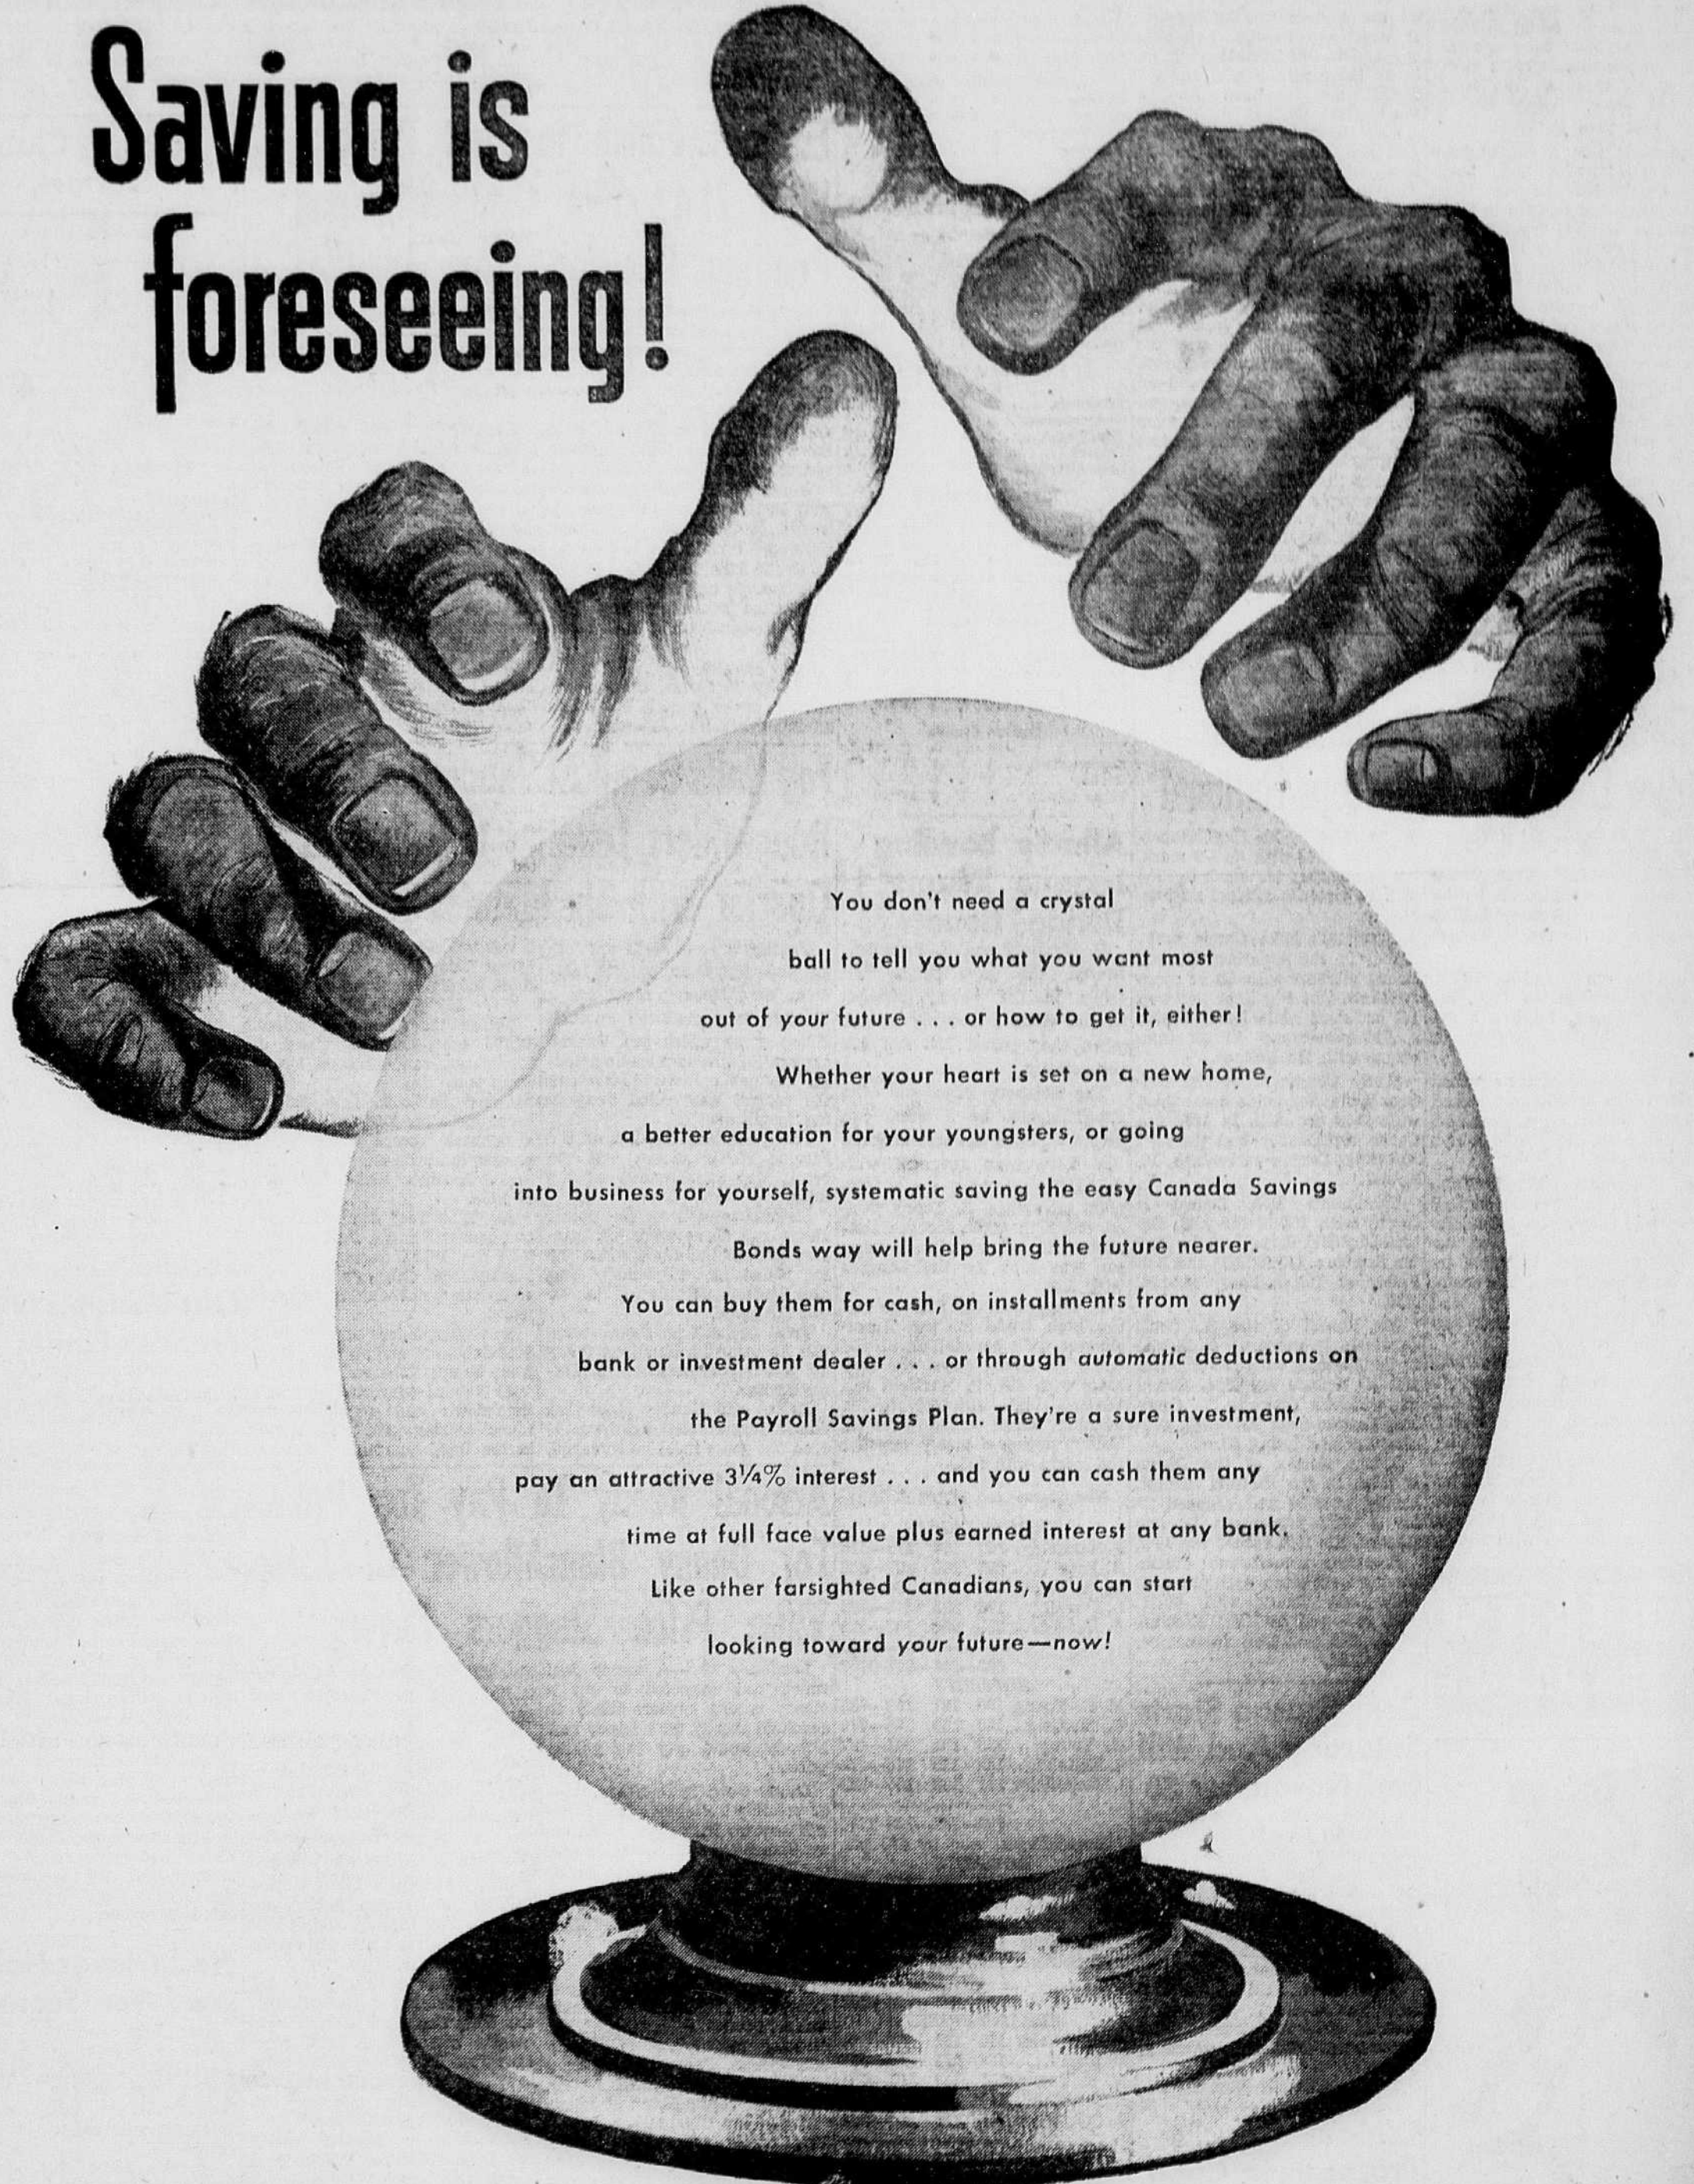

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lackey were in Montreal on Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Lackey.

The Steward board of the United Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fortin to consider many items of business, such as improving the electric system and drafting the order of service for the anniversary service. Mayor Roy Fortin was in the chair. Rev. T. F. Duncan, the pastor, Mr. T. Tomkinson, Mr. Neil Baker, Mr. E. N. Hodge, Mr. Bruce Kidd and Mrs. Fortin were among those present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Blakeslee, of Montpelier, Vt., were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fortin. Mrs. Blakeslee will spend a week here.

Canadiens Still Retain Top Spot Despite Poor Showing

Geoffrion Leads Scorers While Rangers' Thin Man Makes Biggest Gain; Harry Lumley Holds Low Spot

Montreal — (CP) — The seeming anomaly of Montreal Canadiens, with just about the worst record for the week, retaining their one-point margin at the top of the heap crops up today in the National Hockey League's official standings and statistics.

The reason is two-fold: The varying number of games played by the teams in the week's skirmishing and the inability of Detroit Red Wings to grab what appeared to be a duck-soup game.

But with the lower-motored teams making definite motions of going somewhere, the Montrealers find themselves in double jeopardy. They have played two more games than any other club, three more than a couple of them.

When the teams get even on a games-played basis there may be a decided realignment. The same situation may also apply to the current scoring leaders.

Montreal's Bernie Geoffrion, Maurice Richard and Ken Mosdell are prancing along in front. But the margin of none is so fat that other aspirants can't shove one or all three of the Montreal trio lower.

Lost Two In Week
Canadiens won a single game and dropped two last week. Only the Boston Bruins fared worse. They had one tie in three starts and dropped from a third-place tie to a tie for fourth.

Detroit Red Wings split even in two starts, while New York Rangers put on the best point-counting show of the week with two wins and one loss and took over sole possession of third place. They are only three points behind Montreal and two behind Detroit.

Toronto Maple Leafs shook off their lethargy with a win and a tie in two games played and Chicago Black Hawks, playing only one game, came up with their first win of the season—a surprising victory over Detroit.

Geoffrion's seven goals—three last week—stand as tops for the

Whitey Ford Of Yanks Boasts Best Lifetime Pitching Percentage In Major League; Maglie Tops National

New York—(AP)—Ed (Whitey) Ford, stylish New York Yankees' southpaw, has only three American seasons under his belt, but he boasts the top lifetime pitching percentage in the major leagues today.

Ford has won 43 and lost 15 for a 741 percentage. In 1950, his freshman season, he had a 9-1 record and then was drafted into the army.

The 25-year-old hurler returned to the Yanks in 1953 and picked up where he left off with an 18-6 won-lost mark. He posted a 16-8 record in 1954.

Sal (The Barber) Maglie of the New York Giants has the highest percentage among the active National League pitchers, 669, according to figures compiled by The Associated Press. The crafty righthander has won 86 and dropped 37 in six complete seasons with the Giants.

Maglie had a 5-4 slate in 1945, his first full season with the Polo Grounds. He jumped to the Mexican League the following year and wasn't eligible to play in the majors for four seasons.

The 37-year-old curve ball artist rejoined the Giants in 1950 and won 18 while losing but four. He followed that up with 23-6 in

Allatt's Bowling League Teams Divide Honors

G. Maxfield and B. Page registered the high single and triple in the weekly matches of the Allatt's Bowling League when they posted 238 and 603 respectively.

The Hotshots edged out the Breadslingers by a slim two points while in the second game the roles were reversed with the latter chalking up a 413-point advantage. E. Young posted the high triple for the Hotshots with 520 while A. Henderson was tops for the Slingers with 562.

In the second tilt B. Page was the high triple for the Breadslingers with his all-high of 603 while E. Young paced the Hotshots with 497. P. Maxfield had the top single with 210 for the winning Bread squad with E. Young setting a merry clip for the losers with 225.

RANGERS RECALL LOUIS FONTINATO

New York—(AP)—New York Rangers Monday called up defenceman Louis Fontinato, 22, from Vancouver Canucks of the Western International League. He will replace Allan Stanley, regular defenceman, who suffered severe lacerations of the right leg Saturday night in a game with Montreal. Stanley will be out a month.

"THE ROCKET" HOLDS CONFERENCE — Maurice "The Rocket" Richard is shown talking things over with two of his ardent supporters, Don Loughheed, is seven-years-old, while Richard Fortier, on the right, listen to what "The Rocket" has to tell them. He was in town to attend the official opening of the Aime Morin and Bill Laverdiere Fina Gas station.

Eskimos Finish In First Place With 21-12 Win Over Winnipeg Pending Decision From League

Edmonton—(CP)—Edmonton Eskimos have finished in first place for the second consecutive year in the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

They made the grade with a 21-12 victory over Winnipeg Blue Bombers Monday night and are assured a bye into the finals.

Whether they will have company in the top rung depends on league commissioner G. Sydney Halter of Winnipeg who was expected to rule today on Monday night's game in Vancouver which was called because of fog with Saskatchewan leading B. C. Lions 15-9.

Saskatchewan will have 22 points for 16 games, same as Edmonton, if the game is not ordered replayed. But Eskimos' better points-for-and-against record will give them the bye. Riders and third-place Bombers then will meet in a two-game total-point semi-final, starting Saturday.

The Bombers held a 12-9 lead at half-time but majors by Jackie Parker and Bernie Faloney in the third and fourth quarters salted the game away for Edmonton.

A Faloney-to-Rollin Prather pass was good for another touch-down. Tackle Bob Dean booted all three converts, to run his season's string to 35, and added a field goal.

Winnipeg half Jess Thomas and Tom Casey scored majors with Buck Rogers doing the converting.

Fog Halts Game At Vancouver With Roughriders Leading 15-9 In Fourth Quarter With Six Minutes Remaining

Vancouver—(CP)—It was foggy and soggy at Empire Stadium here Monday night for a Western Interprovincial Football Union game which saw Saskatchewan Roughriders leading British Columbia Lions 15-9 when the contest was called deep in the fourth quarter.

The game was the last of the regular WIFU season and the result was as shrouded as the field.

Saskatchewan was six points ahead and there were six minutes left on the clock when the fog rolled in over muddy Empire Stadium, forcing officials to call the game.

Final decision on the outcome will be made in Winnipeg today by WIFU commissioner G. Sydney Halter.

Halter said Monday night that despite league rules that a weathered out game must be replayed, it was unlikely a replay would be called this time as the result could hardly affect the standings.

Philadelphia Athletics Prepare For Final Act Thursday; League Meeting Of Club Owners At Chicago

Philadelphia — (AP) — The long-drawn out drama of the Philadelphia Athletics and their future today was in rehearsal for the latest act to come — a meeting of American League owners at Chicago Thursday.

At that meeting, called by league president Will Harridge, the club owners will be asked to approve or reject the sale of the Philadelphia franchise to an eight-man syndicate. But that won't ring down the curtain.

The following day the syndicate members are scheduled to meet with Roy Mack, his brother, Earle, and their father, Connie Mack Sr., to exchange nearly $4,000,000 for all but a one-ninth share of the A's stock.

There is every reason to believe the stock-cash transfer will all but end the play.

Anybody's Guess
However, the A's tragi-comedy has been extended so many times beyond the expected final curtain that it's anybody's guess whether there will be further postponements, delays or what have you.

Here's how matters now stand: Monday, the eight members of the syndicate put in a hectic afternoon in a meeting which was supposed to complete the deal as stated, in a clause in the preliminary purchase agreement. That stipulated that the sale was to be consummated by 2 p.m. EST Monday.

The syndicate members said they didn't want to hand over their money to the Macks until the league had approved them and their offer for the franchise.

When the delay in league approval became known, the syndicate began efforts to have Roy agree to an extension. Earle and Connie Sr. had agreed to the extension previously. But Roy hedged.

Takes Recess
After the late afternoon portion of the meeting, Roy took a one-hour recess to confer with his attorney. Then he came back and announced he was willing to give the eight syndicate members until 3 p.m., EST, Friday to turn over the cash and accept receipt of the stock.

At one point in the earlier session, newspaper men sitting in an ante room could plainly hear syndicate members voicing strong disapproval of Roy's attitude. Out of the meeting came such remarks as:

"If he wants to back out, let's give the story to the press."
"I'm so mad I'd like to walk out of this thing right now."
At that stage the franchise seemed closer to Kansas City than it had since Arnold Johnson, Chicago businessman, walked away from a league meeting in Chicago Oct. 13 under the impression he has bought the A's franchise to move it to the Missouri city.

Johnson has announced he is planning to sue the syndicate and Roy Mack to recover losses he said he sustained in connection with his negotiations.

Coach Annis Stukus Denies Story That Other Clubs Deliberately Injured His Players; No Action

Winnipeg—(CP)—The commissioner of the Western Interprovincial Football Union said Monday night that coach Annis Stukus of B.C. Lions has denied saying that other clubs deliberately injured his players.

G. Sydney Halter of Winnipeg said that, in view of the denial, "no disciplinary action is warranted," against Stukus.

The commissioner said in a statement that he checked Stukus on a Canadian Press item from Vancouver Oct. 20 which quoted the coach as saying at a luncheon that "We'll get even with certain clubs for the scores, the injuries and the things they did."

It also quoted him as saying that tackle Arnie Weinmeister was hurt "because he disobeyed my orders. . . I warned Arnie never to turn his back while playing on a Western Conference playing field."

Writer Wasn't There
Halter said he received a letter from Stukus denying that he made the statements "or that he made any remarks from which there reasonably could be inferred such a statement."

Halter said he found that the CP report was based on a story in a Vancouver newspaper and that Stukus had informed him that the writer of the story was not at the luncheon.

Halter said Stukus would have been fined had the investigation found he made the statements.

SHS Downs SWS, Dufferin Park To Turn Over 1-Day's Proceeds To Fund

Sherbrooke High School football team chalked up 10-1 verdict over Stanstead College Saturday afternoon at the Border Town in their annual visit.

Tomorrow afternoon at the Parade Grounds the local squad will be hosts to Bishop's College School at 4.00. It will be the last game for the Sherbrooke High aggregation.

On Saturday Ogryzlo and McCrea tallied the touchdowns while both converts were blocked. Ellis registered the lone point for the Border team.

Stanstead had things pretty much their own for the first half but in the last part the SHS crew took over and posted their scores on some classy backfield play. Barrett and Ellis played well for Stanstead while Seigneur, Reid, Ogryzlo and Williams were the pick on Sherbrooke's front line.

Milwaukee—Ernie Durando, 160½, Bayonne, N.J., outpointed Bobby Dykes, 158¾, Miami, 10.

Saddler Pounds Out Decision Over France's Famechon

Paris—(AP)—World featherweight champion Sandy Saddler, still turning his back on a National Boxing Association order to defend his crown "or else," is looking for some more non-title bouts in Europe today after disposing of France's Ray Famechon in an over-the-weight match.

The 28-year-old New Yorker said he simply wasn't worried about the NBA ultimatum—not if he could line up some money-making matches in Europe. He added that the schedule might include a title bout, but only if the purse was satisfactory.

Saddler had little trouble with Famechon, the European feather champ, Monday night and was well ahead on points when the Frenchman's handlers refused to let him answer the six-round bell. Each fighter weighed 128½ pounds—just 2½ pounds over the division limit—for the scheduled 10-round.

Fred Glover Holds Lead For Scorers

New York—(AP)—Fred Glover, veteran right winger of the Cleveland Barons, holds the scoring lead in the American Hockey League today with a goal-a-game average in eight games.

Glover's eight goals, coupled with five assists, make him the point leader, too, with 13.

Two Providence standouts, Paul Larivee and Zello Toppazzini, share second place with 12 points each.

CHICO VARONA BATTERS BRATTON

New York—(AP)—Chico Varona swarmed all over a dull, ring rusty Johnny Bratton Monday night to win a unanimous decision in a 10-round match at St. Nicholas arena. Varona weighed 150¼, Bratton 155¼.

Bury W. A. Plans Grand Bazaar And Demonstration

Bury, Oct. 26.—The Women's Association was entertained by Mrs. H. Tallon, it being the regular October meeting. There was a fair attendance of members, with the President, Mrs. James D. Harrison presiding.

Mrs. C. Sutherland conducted the devotional period. After the minutes had been read and adopted, the correspondence was dealt with and some minor bills ordered paid. Final plans were completed for the Grand Bazaar and Nancy Nylon demonstration, which is to be held on the afternoon and evening of October 27th.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to purchase all Christmas gifts for each member of the family, as there will be several booths, including fancy-work, aprons, toys, home-made cooking and candy, etc., and the ever popular fish pond for the children. The members have worked diligently throughout the summer to make this sale one of the best.

Two members made their contributions to the birthday box. The calling of the roll, and then the meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction and a very dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

STANDARD EQUIPMENT ON 1955 CARS

NEW Firestone SAFTI-TUBELESS TIRES

AT NO EXTRA COST!

35% Safer!

The new 1955 cars will headline many new features, but none of them will be more important to your safety, your comfort or your pocketbook than tubeless tires as standard equipment at NO EXTRA COST! This great new tire—completely new in design and construction—sets entirely new standards of safety, riding comfort, mileage and silence.

Automotive Engineers Acclaim Its Many New Features

When the new Firestone Deluxe Champion Tubeless Tire was first offered to car manufacturers, they subjected it to their most severe and exhaustive tests. And this new tire passed every test with performance far beyond all expectations. They found it ran quietly and refused to squeal on the sharpest turns; took the danger out of blowouts; abolished roadside delays and provided greater riding comfort and steering ease.

You Can Have This Great New Tire On Your New 1955 Car or On Your Present Car

When you buy a new model car of any make, you can have it delivered on new Firestone Deluxe Champion Tubeless Tires. Or, if you continue to drive your present car, you can have these new tires put on it at no extra cost... no special rims are needed. See your nearby Firestone Dealer.

PACKED WITH NEW FEATURES FOR 4-WAY SAFETY

NEW SILENT SAFTI-GRIP TREAD runs quietly and refuses to squeal on even the sharpest turns. It gives greater protection against skidding and greater traction than any tire ever before offered. And its revolutionary new design makes it a real champion for long, trouble-free mileage.

SEALS PUNCTURES AGAINST LOSS OF AIR
If a nail or other sharp object should penetrate the extra-tough tread and cord body, the SAFTI-LINER prevents loss of air, minimizing the danger and annoyance of punctures. Most likely you'll never know you have a puncture... and there's no need to stop and change the tire.

TAKES THE DANGER OUT OF BLOWOUTS
The new SAFTI-DIPPED CORD BODY and the new SAFTI-LINER and tubeless construction make this tire extra strong and takes the danger out of blowouts. Damage which might cause an ordinary tire to blow out becomes as harmless as a slow leak.

NEVER BEFORE SUCH RIDING COMFORT... SUCH STEERING EASE
You'll immediately notice its sensational riding comfort and steering ease. It absorbs bumps and road shocks and provides a super-soft cushion of rubber and air which smooths out even the roughest roads. Extra-tough CURB GUARD which protects white sidewalls.

INSTALL A SET ON YOUR PRESENT CAR... NO SPECIAL RIMS NEEDED!

Upper Melbourne Church Observes 112th Anniversary

Upper Melbourne, Oct. 26.—A large congregation gathered in the Presbyterian Church of St. Andrew's on Sunday, October 10, to commemorate the 112th anniversary of the opening of the church building.

Services were conducted by the Rev. Sidney Garland, M.A., of St. Andrew's Church, Sherbrooke, who in his sermons exhorted the people to thankfulness for the mercies of God and gratefulness for His many blessings. He urged them to be thankful for the building, which has such an honored place in the community.

Special music was rendered by the choir at both services. Three young ladies, the Misses Joan Levitt, Judith Converse and Carol Converse, also rendered delightful musical numbers, while solos were sung by Mrs. Green.

For over a century men and women have worshipped together in this ancient building, the Rev. Mr. McMorine coming from Sanguhar, Scotland, in 1842 to become the first minister of the congregation. It is the oldest centre of Presbyterianism in the area and has an honored place in the hearts of many far and near.

Visitors always find their way to this ancient church to pay their respects and to view the quaint, old-fashioned seats and other relics of the past.

THANKOFFERING MEETING
The Fall thank-offering meeting of the W.M.S. Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Upper Melbourne, was held Oct. 20 in the Kirk Hall with a good attendance of members and visitors.

The president, Mrs. J. H. Greene, opened the meeting with prayer and gave a reading entitled "The Cross by the Side of the Road." The devotion was taken by Mrs. J. Smith, who read the Scripture lesson and Miss E. McMorine, who led in a Thanksgiving prayer.

Mrs. G. Douglas, of Sherbrooke, read a very inspiring address prepared by Mrs. Walker, who was unable to be at the meeting, on the text, "Let your light so shine before men." She also read a very interesting and informative letter from a missionary in the field.

Mrs. Greene conveyed the thanks of the Auxiliary to Mrs. Douglas and the meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and the Lord's Prayer.

The ladies served lunch following the meeting.

ST. ARMAND—

UP TO 1 GALLON IN EVERY 5

8¢ PER GALLON

OF GASOLINE!

IT HAS BEEN PROVED! . . . Independent road tests, made under toughest supervised stop-and-go driving conditions, prove that multi-grade motor oil can actually give you up to one-fifth more gasoline mileage. This means that MOTORTONIC, Fina's new Multi-Grade Motor Oil—first of its kind in Canada—saves you up to one gallon of gasoline in every five. At today's prices, that's just like chopping eight cents per gallon off your gasoline spending!

By drastic reduction of friction drag, MOTORTONIC frees your engine to develop greater horsepower, which means extra mileage. This is accomplished by:

- 1 MOTORTONIC'S ABILITY to overcome the abnormal friction and wear in your engine during the warm-up period . . . by providing a free-flowing, tough film to all parts of the motor the instant you start.
- 2 MOTORTONIC'S ABILITY to clean up your engine and keep it cleaner than ever before—your whole engine—spark plugs, combustion chambers, piston rings, cylinder walls, valves and bearings.

For greater engine protection — PLUS increased gasoline mileage — CHANGE TO MOTORTONIC TODAY!
