Coroner's Verdict Murder, Suicide In Rifle Slaying

A double shooting took place on Wednesday afternoon at 6 p. m. on the Clarendon Township farm of Lloyd Toner, about 1½ miles east of Portage du Fort.

Dead are Lloyd Toner, 44, and his wife Grace, 33. The coroner, Dr. Frank Cowley, concluded that Mrs. Toner had been shot by her husband, and that he had then turned the rifle, a .22, on himself.

The couple was at the barn along with their eldest daughter Ann, doing the evening chores. Mr. Toner told her to return to the house, which she did, and shortly afterwards she heard two shots fired from the vicinity of the barn.

On investigating, Ann found both her parents dead, her mother in the barn where she was milking, and her father outside. She went to Denzil Payette's farm, neighbours of the Toners who notified the provincial police. Messrs. Laxton, Bennett and Lapine of the QPP proceeded to the scene along with Dr. Frank Cowley, the coroner.

The victims were removed to Campbell's Bay by Ringrose Bros. There will be no inquest.

The Toner children, five in number, are being cared for by the Denzil Payette's. Ann, aged 14 is the oldest; next is Dolores, 13; Martin, 11; Mark, 5 and Lida, 1.

Pontiac Community Hospital

$61,107.45 Expenditures Over Revenues

Over 100 people attended the annual meeting of Pontiac Community Hospital last Thursday evening in the Anglican Church Hall, Shawville. Elected to the Board of Directors were Mrs. Fred Fraser,

Dr. S. E. McDowell; Leonard Horner, past president; Lawrence Moore, past vice president; and Rev. Ludger Emard. The last three of these were previously on the Board, while the first two were elected in place of two Directors whose terms had expired — Mrs. Graham and Dr. Hudson.

Reports were received from the Board President, Leonard Horner; from the Supervisor of Nurses, Mrs. McDougall; from the auditor, Mr. McLean, who read and explained the financial statement; from the Administrator, Tom Barley; from Mrs. Joe McGahren of the Central Hospital Auxiliary; from Mrs. Russell Elliott of the Shawville Auxiliary; and from Mrs. Hubert Hamilton of Radford Auxiliary.

Examination of the financial statements revealed an excess of expenditures over revenues from all sources of $61,107.45. This excess was up in value by about $38,000 from last year. Other unfavorable elements reflected in the financial statement were the overdraft of a little over $30,000 and accounts payable of over $29,000. The sum of these two items last year amounted to slightly under $5,000.

While no explanation of these serious advances in liabilities and operating deficit was offered by the Board or requested by the members present, it appears from the statement that the difficulties evidenced by these figures are in part attributable to an in-

A BEAUTIFUL PONTIAC MUSEUM

The Historical Society of Pontiac County has been invited by their Director from Bryson to use an abandoned church in that village for their permanent museum and archives.

The site of the building is one of Pontiac's beauty spots. The location is very accessible to the entire County. There is room for quite a large collection and the place could be made fireproof. Even a small living quarter is available under the same roof for a custodian.

What could be better? The Historical Society couldn't be more fortunate.

PUBLICITY AND THE HOSPITAL

There may be some who wonder why we made a motion at last week's hospital meeting requesting that the directors be directed to admit news reporters to their meetings.

We so moved in the hope that those present would support us in our efforts to report at first hand the decisions reached by the Hospital Board. Application was made to the Board some two years ago to obtain permission to attend, but the request was turned down. It seemed, this year, that the only recourse now open was to have the annual meeting reach a decision. This it did, but the decision was not, we feel, to its credit.

Our position is that although the hospital is incorporated as a private company of the province of Quebec, it operates in a public way, as evidenced both by its sources of revenue and by the method in use for sustaining its membership. Because it operates in a public way, its deliberations should be open to the public, and the best way for this to happen is to admit the press. However, because the hospital is set up as a private company by accident of incorporation, neither the press nor the public can be admitted to meetings of the Board as a matter of right. Admission would have to be by decision of the directors or, we presume, of the members at the annual meeting.

We made it clear at the annual meeting that we are now receiving news from the hospital board, but its content is subject to approval by the Board. Thus, while we can think of no particular case where the situation has arisen in the past, it would be possible for information which should reasonably be available to the public, to be suppressed. To avoid this possibility and as a matter of principle relating to freedom to publish the activities of a public institution our motion was put forward.

Do You Know?

by Edgar Mulligan

We did not always have the right to make a will and distribute our estates after our death. Historically the right to make a will is about the same age as the right to vote.

Our government has at different times in the past passed statutes or acts, which have outlined the manner in which we may distribute & administer our estates from the grave. These Acts have titles such as "The Devolution of Estates Act", "The Dependents Allowance Act", "The Wills Act," etc.

The law that governs Intestacy is strictly Legislative and the distribution and administration of your estate is coded. This means that your estate will be distributed and administered by an administrator who will be named by the courts, after a satisfactory application by your next of kin. Suppose there were no next of kin, then your estate would revert to the Crown. The point is that the person who worked and saved to build up an estate, would have nothing to say in dispensing of it.

Many persons are reluctant to take the step to initiate the making of a will. The common excuses are, "I haven't the time" "I'm afraid that I'll die if I make a will" I have no estate", etc. I submit there is no logical reason for not making a will (if you are 21 years old or over) in this country.

A will provides a person with the right of distributing his estate in the manner of his choice, with the exception of two limitations. 1. You are bound by certain acts, such as the Dependents Relief Act. 2. You cannot give the lower rights of your wife away. A will also entitles you to choose who will administer your estate in your absence. Caution should be taken in the choice of an Executor, a person or a Trust Company who will carry out your wishes. A will may be defined as a written statement, duly witnessed, which determines the distribution of

He attended the Ottawa Press Club Ball last week, was also a guest of the Australian Ambassador at the Australian Embassy, and, accompanied by his wife was the guest on Monday of Governor General and Madame Vanier to meet the President of the Republic of Tunisia and Mrs. Bourguiba.

The cut lines appearing under the pictures in The Equity last week dealing with the bank robbery make reference to the abandoned car, but omit mention of the man appearing at the far left of the picture, and peering out from between the branches of a tree. He is Sylvester Kluge of Vinton.

the deceased's assets. It speaks from death only, and includes all properties and possessions owned at death only. In Quebec a holograph (handwritten) will is legal, subject to being duly witnessed.

The basic components of a will are—1. Date. 2. Appointment of an Executor. 3. Specific bequests. 4. Residual Clauses of Testator, which must be signed before two witnesses who in turn must sign as witnesses of the signature of the testator, who also must see the witnesses sign.

A will can be amended or changed by Codicil, which means the amendment must be made adhering to the above five rules.

Wills may be revoked in several ways. 1. By a new will. 2. By a written statement adhering again to the above rules. 3. By a new marriage. 4. A Testator may destroy a will personally as long as it can be proven.

There are many other considerations, such as Taxes, Succession Duties, Probating a will, Passing of accounts by Executor, Charitable Donations, etc. These could be the topic of another discussion.

The important thing to remember after you have decided to go to your legal advisor is to make all specific bequests percentage wise instead of definite dollar values, because your estate could be less than you think, and you may cheat your most favoured beneficiary.

What I would like to know!

Do you have a will? Would you like your estate to be mis-handled by others? If not! Don't forget we could lose the Right, that others fought for, because if a thing becomes obsolete or unused it is no longer considered a Right.

Hospital

crease in pay to nursing staff in May 1960 not offset by a corresponding increase in hospital rates. The increase in salaries and wages amounted to over $25,000, while revenues from room and bed rates increased by only $3,000 over 1959.

Other factors apparently involved were additions to fixed assets to the tune of $40,000, covered by grants to the extent of $30,000; and to an increase in the inventory and prepaid insurance of nearly $9,000.

The question was raised as to whether the Ladies Auxiliary was actually welcome to use the doctors' room at the hospital for meetings. The question was raised because there had been mention on two occasions in 'The Equity' of the fact that this room was being so used. Mrs. McDougall made it clear that the ladies were most welcome there. This was ably confirmed by Dr. Bruce Horner. An explanation of the comments on this subject which appeared in 'The Equity' was offered by David Dickson who stated that the subject was brought up, not as a criticism of the ladies for using the doctor's room, rather as a small suggestion that it would be a good thing if the doctors themselves would use it for the purpose of holding medical meetings.

One motion only, relating to new business, came before the meeting. It was moved by David Dickson and seconded by Rev. E. N. McColl, that the members direct the Directors to permit the attendance of press reporters at their meetings. He explained that application for permission to attend had been made a couple of years ago to the Directors, and that permission had at that time been refused. After much discussion, mostly in opposition to the motion a vote was taken which showed 23 uncounted, against. The motion, for, and a much larger group, therefore failed to carry.

In Memoriam

HAHN — In loving memory of a dear dad and grandfather Eddy Hahn who passed away May 9, 1947.

Many a day his name is spoken
Man an hour he is in our thoughts

A link in our family chain is broken

He is gone from our home, but not from our hearts.

—Ever remembered by
—Wife & family x

IRELAND — In loving remembrance of our little boy Miles Ireland who passed away so suddenly May 4, 1960.

We are sad within our memory
Lonely are our hearts to day
For the one we loved so dearly

Has forever been called away
We think of him in silence
No eye may see us weep
But many silent tears are shed
When others are asleep.

—Mother & Dad b

IRELAND — In fond and loving memory of a dear wee grandson, Miles Ireland who passed away so suddenly on May 4, 1960.

He has gone to be an Angel
Secure in our fathers care
And his dear little feet now patter along.

The beautiful streets up there.

—Ever remembered
Grandparents, Lloyd & Evelyn
& Aunt Mona. b

IRELAND — In loving memory of our dear little nephew, Miles Ireland, who passed away so suddenly on May 4, 1960.

Flowers bloom and fragile petals fall,
A child is born and then the angels call,

Transplanting him to realms of glorious days,

The child is safe, but we are sad this May.

—Aunt Beverley, Uncle Graham; cousins Glenda & Duane b

IRELAND — In loving memory of little Miles Ireland who passed away May 4, 1960.

A little childish voice is stilled
Two little hands are crossed,
Two little eyes forever closed,
His pattering footstep lost,
And though we miss him dearly,

We know he is at rest,
We know that when the Saviour comes,

He always takes the best.
