

RUSSIANS ADVANCE FURTHER INTO BUKOWINA IN PURSUIT OF GENERAL PFLANZER'S FORCE

More Villages Along Rumanian Border Are Taken By Muscovites - Germans Carry First Line Trenches Near Verdun But Attack At Fleury Is Repulsed

The Germans have gained another step in their progress toward Verdun by capturing French positions northeast of that fortress.

Fierce fighting marked the advance toward Verdun, Paris declares in admitting the loss of the trenches and the Thiaumont work.

South of the Damloup battery in the sector of Moulainville, and on the left bank of the Meuse, in the region of Hill 304 and Le Mort Homme, the French positions are being heavily bombed by the German guns.

The Russians have advanced into Bukowina in pursuit of General Pflanzer's forces, but farther north in east Galicia and Volhynia their progress apparently has been arrested by the violent attacks and counter-attacks of the Teutonic Allies.

French aeroplanes have bombed German stations and cantonments in the Verdun region and Austrian aeroplanes have attacked Venice dropping bombs on forts Nicolo and Alberoni, the gas works and the arsenal.

RUSSIANS OVERRUN BUKOWINA.

London, June 23, 10.55 p.m.—Tonight's Russian official communication of what already had been learned from Austrian admissions, that the Russians are overrunning Bukowina and are making a dash for the passes to the Carpathian mountains as they did 18 months ago, when they reached Kirilbaba Pass, overlooking Austrian Transylvania.

The information that the Germans and Austrians are bringing up reinforcements from the French and Italian fronts is also given in the communication from Petrograd. According to speculations in Paris, the tornado of artillery fire on the Verdun sector and the attacks in Champagne are supposed to mask the transfer of troops from this front to the Russian front in view of the necessity of stemming the Russian advance towards Kovel.

By means of forced marches along the Rumanian frontier, the Russians have reached the extreme south of Bukowina, and at Kutu, on the north and Gura Humora on the south have approached the thickly forested spurs of the Carpathian mountains.

The Russians in their pursuit of the Austrians thus far have crossed four rivers—the Dniester, Pruth, Sereth, and Suczava. Two days sufficed to cover the fifteen miles between the Sereth and the Suczava.

"DIE-HARDS" AGAINST HOME RULE.

London, June 23, 11.30 p.m.—Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Lord Cromer, the Earl of Halsbury, Viscount Midleton and the Marquis of Salisbury, who represent the extreme anti-Home Rule party, have issued a manifesto deprecating the attempt to settle the Irish question by negotiations at a moment "when a sanguinary rebellion has just been repressed."

The signatories of the manifesto declare it to be their conviction that the proposed settlement is fraught with infinite danger to the state.

TINO WRITES THE KAISER.

Geneva, Switzerland, via Paris, June 23, 7.14 p.m.—A special messenger carrying an autograph letter from the King of Greece to the Emperor of Germany has passed through Logano, Switzerland.

ON THE EASTERN FRONT.

Petrograd, June 23, via London, 8.10 p.m.—The Russian forces which are cutting their way through Bukowina in an effort to capture the Austrian army there have made further advances.

The villages near Radautz captured by the Russians are Gura Humora, Strazia and Saraech. The Russians also have taken Vianitz, near Kutu.

This announcement shows that the Russians have traversed almost the entire length of Bukowina. The town of Gura Humora is ten miles from the Rumanian border.

Vianitz is on the border between Galicia and Bukowina, 35 miles southwest of Czernowitz.

DUKE WILL LEAVE HERE IN OCTOBER

CURZON OF KEDESTON IS MENTIONED AS A POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR.

London, June 23—King George has given his sanction for the Duke of Connaught, whose term as Governor-General of Canada expires next October, to return to England, says an announcement issued by the Colonial Office.

Nothing is known officially concerning the reports that Earl Curzon of Kedleston, former Viceroy of India, will become Governor-General of Canada.

The Times states that the rumor that Earl Curzon is to succeed the Duke of Connaught is incorrect.

Ottawa, June 23—At Rideau Hall tonight Lieut.-Col. Stanton, Military Secretary to H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, confirmed the London despatch as to the Royal Governor's departure from Canada.

His Royal Highness leaves shortly on a tour of inspection which will cover the whole Ontario and the Western Provinces. It is likely the Duke will issue a message to the people of Canada before leaving.

And this merely indicates the general saving in every item of upkeep in which the Ford possesses a big advantage over any other make of car.

An assembly of Ford spare parts—enough to build the touring car complete—costs only $40 more than the standard list price of the car, while on the average car priced around $1000 and less a complete set of spare parts costs $941 more than the car—over twenty times the Ford excess cost.

And yet tests conducted by one of the most authoritative Government laboratories in the world have shown that the quality of Ford constructive material is actually superior to that in most of the best cars made.

BURTON HOLMES VISITS QUEBEC

DISTINGUISHED TRAVELLER AND AUTHOR IS WRITING UP DOMINION.

Recent arrivals at the Chateau Frontenac include quite a distinguished writer in the person of Mr. Burton Holmes, lecturer and author, who arrived in the city on Monday in Baron Shaughnessy's private car the Metropedia.

Mr. Holmes is accompanied by Mrs. Holmes and by Mr. Allyn O. Seymour, General Tourist Agent of the Canadian Pacific Ry. The well-known author, who has travelled through Europe, India, Africa, Siberia and other places of interest, is at present making a tour of the principal cities, etc., along the line of the Canadian Pacific Ry. His itinerary will cover points along the line from the Atlantic to the Pacific and will occupy about two months.

During this tour Mr. Holmes is taking pictures to be exhibited during the course of lectures abroad, and for this purpose has with him Mr. Lewis H. Moomaw, as operator. Since reaching Quebec the author has taken numerous views. In an interview yesterday he expressed himself as charmed with the city's wealth of historical points of interest which would always appeal to the traveller.

It is not the first time that Mr. R. Holmes has been in Quebec. As a young man he came here over thirty years ago. Since then, he finds the Ancient Capital has undergone many changes in a commercial way. New buildings have sprung up and innumerable other changes have taken place, but to him the city has not lost any of its attractiveness from a historical point of view. He says here are to be found many of nature's most glorious works not to be encountered in any other part of the world.

On Monday pictures of Quebec and environment were taken by Mr. Holmes and party. On Tuesday they visited Montmorency Falls, Kent House and St. Anne de Beaupre; Wednesday the Saguenay trip to Chicoutimi and return by boat was taken in, and yesterday, besides points in the city, the party also inspected the Quebec Bridge. While at the bridge site they were the guests of Mr. Porter. They returned to the city last evening and were greatly impressed with what they had seen.

Before coming to Quebec the party visited the Maritime Provinces also Montreal and Ottawa. While in the Capital Mr. Holmes was entertained at luncheon by H.R.H. the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

Today the noted travel author will leave for Montreal, and from there will go through Ontario visiting the summer resorts along the line of the C.P.R. From Ontario he will go to Port Arthur to see the large grain elevators. The itinerary includes, Banff, Lake Louise, etc. The trip between Calgary and Vancouver will be made by day in order that the scenery along the line may be viewed. Later Victoria and Vancouver Island will be visited.

The return will be made over the new C.P.R. Kettle Valley line to Nelson. It is possible that the Thousand Islands will be visited on the return tour.

One hundred and twenty lectures have been delivered by Mr. Holmes per year for the past twenty-three years and in that time he has had the distinction of only missing three lectures. A severe cold was the cause of him having to postpone these three appointments.

During their sojourn in Quebec the party was shown over many points of interest by Mr. G. J. P. Moore, General Rail Agent of the Canadian Pacific, Quebec.

WITH CANADIANS ON FIRING LINE

GERMAN CASUALTIES WERE VERY HEAVY IN RECENT FIGHTING.

Ottawa, June 23.—The following communique has been received from the Canadian general representative at the front:

Canadian Corps Headquarters in France, June 23, via London.—The consolidation of the positions recaptured on the morning of June 13 was carried out by our troops during the past week under difficult and trying conditions. Our original lines were found practically obliterated. The ground has been churned into a sea of mud. The remains of former trenches and shell holes were all deep in water. The weather continued cold and wet.

Under a constant, and at times, intense bombardment by the enemy new trenches and works had to be constructed. All our battalions engaged on this arduous duty displayed the greatest courage and endurance. Throughout they received splendid assistance from our pioneers and engineers.

As the result of indefatigable labor our hold on all essential points was confirmed and a strong defensive establishment built.

No further counter attacks were delivered by the enemy. From time to time the volume and concentration of his shell fire suggested preparation for an assault but the prompt and vigorous retaliation of our artillery on these occasions effectively checked any such attempt.

A great deal of patrol work had to be done during the period, not only to determine the positions and attitude of the enemy but also for the purpose of recovering our own wounded and any wounded or unwounded Germans in the area affected by the fighting.

The total number of prisoners taken now amounts to five officers and 186 other ranks of whom three officers and 39 other ranks are wounded. Twelve complete machine-guns with spare parts were found to have been abandoned by the enemy, together with considerable quantities of small arm ammunition, hand grenades, colored flares and other trench stores. The prisoners state that both in their attack on June 2 and throughout the ten days period of our preparation for the counter-attack the German casualties were exceedingly heavy.

While engaged in reconnaissance our patrols more than once encountered parties of the enemy. On the second day after our counter-attack when the enemy's position at a certain point was still undetermined three scouts, Sergeant Lesueur and Privates Lane and Waldron, each from a separate unit, went out as a patrol in the early morning and made a close examination of a considerable area of ground in front of our trenches. Many German dead were found in shell holes or the remains of trenches. At one point our patrol surprised a party of four Germans in a dugout. All four were killed. After an absence of about seven hours our patrol returned safely, bringing in much valuable information.

On the following night a patrol of one of our Ontario battalions under Lance Corporal Northey bombed and drove off a strong enemy patrol and at another point Lieut. Heron took out a patrol of a Toronto battalion and made an important reconnaissance of some enemy saps.

"On another night a patrol of three men under Sergeant Grey of a New Brunswick battalion followed up a disused trench leading towards the enemy lines. A party of fifteen Germans was encountered and driven off with bombs.

On more than one occasion on patrols of a French Canadian and Brunswick battalion successfully located enemy working parties which were substantially dispersed by our fire.

GOOD SUPPORT FOR KHAKI CLUB

COMBINED SHOWER AND TEA AT LADY PRICE'S A GREAT SUCCESS.

The combined shower and tea which was held at the residence of Lady Price, Grande Allee, yesterday afternoon for the purpose of securing funds to aid in the establishment of a branch of the Quebec Khaki Club at Valcartier Camp, was a great success from every viewpoint. There was a large attendance and great enthusiasm was manifested generally in the event. Not only was there a sum of about three hundred dollars realised in cash through gifts of money, sales of teas, flowers, badges etc., but, so generous was the public response to the appeal on behalf of the club that a large quantity of jugs, cups, tumblers, cups and saucers, plates, cigarette, tobacco, kitchen utensils and other useful and necessary articles was given in and there is every indication that the new branch of this club, which has done such splendid work in Quebec City, will start out under the best of auspices.

During the afternoon the raffle took place of a grandfather's clock donated by Miss Penney. The clock, which realised $80, was won by Mrs. Nesbitt and the proceeds will be divided between the Red Cross and the Navy.

A large number of gramophone records were presented to the club which has already collected some forty dollars towards defraying the cost of the gramophone itself.

Prior to the shower Mrs. Huestis had already collected something like one hundred dollars for the benefit of the branch which will be started up next week. One hundred dollars of this was made by the sale of badges in the Ross Rifle factory.

Lady Price desires to return thanks to the public for their very generous answer to the appeal on behalf of the club and will give out a complete list of the articles received in the course of the next few days.

The committee of ladies in charge of the branch will be composed of Mrs. Huestis, Miss Edith Burstall, Lady Price and Mrs. Gorrie.

HAGUE CONFERENCES.

In The London Chronicle, Sir Harry Johnson writes of the failure of past peace congresses at The Hague and regret as dangerous the suggestion that when the Allies have won they should commit civilization and the rights of small nations to a third conference at The Hague or to the safekeeping of an International Police Force, which might be dominated by the Huns.

Sir Harry Johnson says: "No Hague Conference availed to rescue Belgium from a fate more shocking than has befallen any other country in history. No Hague Agreement has saved the Lusitania, the Appam, or the Falaba; or the many babies and women shattered by Zeppelins; or the inhabitants of Great Britain and Ireland from a future taxation which will long deprive our lives of opportunities and reasonable pleasures. No Hague Conference of the past checked the race in armaments, nor could it do so in the future; nor should we be wise in trusting for one moment our destinies to an International Police Force, or to an International Board of Trade able to impose an economic boycott; for sooner or later the inevitable German would come to the top in any such international arrangements, either by the direct route of German representation or the indirect way through the United States, Scandinavia, Switzerland or Holland."

The conclusion is that the British Empire and its Allies must stick together in self-defence, and that the peace, happiness, and liberty of the world for long years to come depend upon their doing so. And it may be that later on neutral countries such as the United States and Spain might join the League of Liberal Powers in the support and promotion of world peace and free institutions. There is already a strong movement within the American Republic in favor of a defensive understanding between the United States and the British Empire.

TRIBUTE TO CANADIANS.

"Good Fighters" is the heading of an editorial article in the Buffalo Express, which says:

"As a result of some recent engagements along the front 29 officers and men of the Canadian regiments engaged have been decorated. By the time the war is over a good many Canadians will bear the evidences of their valor not alone in wounds and disabilities, but in some form of valued trinkets, for the Canadians have proved themselves to be good fighters."

"Every account of fighting in which the regiments from across the border have been engaged has contained records of valiant defence or successful offence, and sometimes both. Every time the Canadians have been in a fight the Germans have known that it was a fight and not a play spell. The record which these men from this side of the ocean have made is one that compels respect from everyone who respects bravery."

The article is very characteristic of what has been published in American newspapers about Canadian troops since the beginning of the war. Even those newspapers which have remained neutral with regard to the great issues now being decided upon the battlefields of Europe and Asia, or have been rather pro-German, have not withheld from Canadian troops the recognition their gallantry has merited. There is no anti-Canadianism in the United States, if we are to judge by its press. Some of the papers have expressed astonishment that Canada should have so enthusiastically responded to the Empire's call; others have modestly put forth the notion that Canadians fight so well because they are, in a sense, Americans, and have interpreted Canadian gallantry as an indication of the sort of gallantry that United States troops will display if ever they are put to the test. These tributes to our troops are prized by Canadians; could prevail upon Ald. Fiset that Ald. Collier had the floor, and all the time the hands of the clock were sliding towards midnight. Three minutes remained to complete the eleventh hour and still Ald. Collier had the floor in spite of interruptions from all parts of the Council and continued cries of "Order, Order!"

DEFENDS CHAMPLAIN WARD'S INTERESTS IN CITY COUNCIL

Minutes wore down to seconds and finally Ald. Dussault (Belvedere) found a solution. He drew the attention of the Mayor to the fact that Ald. Collier had no written motion before the chair and was consequently out of order. At the same time he handed in a written motion, seconded by Ald. Pettigrew, that the Council adjourn to Saturday night.

Ald. Collier had never resumed his seat and continued to protest, disregarding the shouts of "Order" and the general confusion in the midst of which the Mayor was waving him to his seat. Just as the disorder was at its height the clock struck, as the City Hall clock sounded the hour of midnight and the Council automatically adjourned.

Ald. Fiset's anger can scarcely be described. "Tu vas nous payer ca, Collier," he shouted, glaring at the representative of Champlain Ward, as the latter and Ald. Madden smilingly retired to the cloak room to get their hats, with Ald. Fiset following in their wake with grim countenance forbidding days of darkness and desolation for Ald. Collier.

Ald. Dinan Called Away.

Ald. Dinan, who had been present at the early part of the meeting, was called away and consequently was unable to take part in the discussion when matters became strained.

PARADIS GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

St. Hyacinthe, Que., June 23.—Polycarpe Paradis, a young man charged with having shot and killed Francois Frechette, a farmer of St. Cesaire, on December 27 last, was found guilty of manslaughter at the court here this afternoon. The accused claimed the killing was accidental.

The general impression that the Ypres salient is untenable is not shared by the Canadians who are holding it.

Had a Nervous Breakdown, Could Not Sleep or Work

Now Cured and Attributes His Recovery to the Use of Dr. Chase's Medicines.

Some splendid results have been reported to us from the combined use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. In complicated cases they work together with great success.

While the Kidney-Liver Pills arouse the action of liver, kidneys and bowels, and so overcome derangements of these organs, the Nerve Food enriches the blood, strengthens the nerves and builds up the system in a general way.

Mr. R. B. Hillman, Purbrook, Muskoka, Ont., writes: "About four years ago I was all run down and could not work, and as to writing a letter, I could not do it on account of my hand shaking so badly. My nerves were straining and I was troubled with a nervous breakdown. I could not sleep soundly and would start up so suddenly as to almost jump out of bed. My kidneys were bad, too, and I had awful pains in the back all day. I doctored with our family doctor, but he did not seem to know what I needed. I was recommended to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and could sleep well three nights after starting the use of the Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills. I take great pleasure in recommending these medicines, as I have proved that they do all that is claimed for them."

When used together the Nerve Food should be used after each meal and at bed-time, and the Kidney-Liver Pills only as often as is necessary to keep the bowels in healthy condition. Dr. Chase's medicines are for sale by all dealers, or Edimanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

ULSTER NATIONALISTS FAVOR LLOYD GEORGE'S SCHEME

Settlement of the Situation Seems Virtually in Sight — Redmond Had Staked His Position On Acceptance of Terms

Belfast, June 23, in London, June 24, 2.54 a.m.—A Nationalist Convention of representatives from the six counties of Ulster which would be excluded from the operation of Home Rule for the period of the war under the plan of David Lloyd George met here today, and by a vote of 475 to 265 accepted Mr. Lloyd George's scheme.

This striking vote on the part of the Nationalists from counties especially affected by Home Rule means that a settlement of the situation is virtually in sight, as the Ulster Unionists already have accepted Mr. Lloyd George's plan.

Speeches denouncing partition were more effervescent in tone than those which supported the recommendation of acceptance. Priests, who formed a large proportion of the seven hundred delegates, were almost all for rejecting the plan.

On the other hand Dillon said he would not shed a tear if the Convention rejected the proposed settlement but that in view of all circumstances and the changed situation which the rebellion had brought about, he felt certain that it was for the advantage of the cause of Ireland.

DEFENDS CHAMPLAIN WARD'S INTERESTS IN CITY COUNCIL

Aldermen Collier and Madden Defeat Attempt of Majority To Ignore Champlain Street For Street Railway Extension

Aldermen Collier and Madden championed the rights of Champlain Ward at the meeting of the City Council and, for the time being at least, were victorious in a one-sided fight against the remainder of the members present.

Seeing that the majority of the Council, alleging that there was urgent need for hasty action, were prepared to set Champlain street aside in the proposed street railway extensions agreed upon between the City and the Merger, Ald. Collier and Madden stood up for their rights and despite all that the other members of the Council could do to prevent them they forced the Council to delay the consummation of the agreement until the next meeting.

It is well-known that for years past the residents of Champlain street have been demanding a street car service, yet when the special committee was formed recently to meet the directors of the Merger and place the demands of the City before them, neither Ald. Collier nor Dinan, was named to that committee, and when the interview took place with the directors of the Street Railway, there was not a word about Champlain street.

At a subsequent meeting of the Road Committee, Ald. Dinan drew the attention of Mayor Lavigneur to the fact that while all other Wards had been provided for in the matter of street railway extensions, Champlain street had been ignored.

Mayor Lavigneur at the time stated that he had forgotten about Champlain street, but promised to include it among the City's demands to the Merger when he submitted them in writing.

At the meeting of the Council last night the report of the Special Committee was made, and included Champlain street for street railway service as the Mayor had promised. The Council was also in receipt of a letter from Mr. T. G. Matthews, general manager of the Q. R. L. H. & P. Co., outlining what the Company was prepared to do for the City, but at the end of the letter, Mr. Matthews stated that he noted in the Mayor's draft of agreement which he had received, street railway extensions on Champlain street. He remarked that it had not been considered at the interview between the City's representatives and the directors of the Merger, and the latter not having had the opportunity of studying it, he had consequently not included it in the report which he was submitting to the City.

HARVARD WON BOAT RACE

New London, Conn., June 23.—Rowing the course in record time, the Harvard Varsity crew defeated Yale here late this afternoon, in the four mile race, the feature event of the fifteenth regatta between the two universities.

The official time was: Harvard 20:02 Yale 20:17 that the report be sent back to the Special Committee for study. A long debate ensued, in the course of which most of the members gave their views, the majority arguing that there was need of haste, and that if the tentative agreement with the Merger were not ratified by the Council, it might come to pass that the Merger would soon be in a position to ignore the demands of the City.

Ald. Dussault (Belvedere) moved, seconded by Ald. Pettigrew, in amendment to Ald. Madden's motion, that the report of the Special Committee be adopted, striking out the reference to Champlain street, which had not been considered in the interview and would only cause additional delays.

Some members of the Council questioned the reason for including Champlain street in the report of the Committee and asked why it had not come up before.

Ald. Collier replied that the question of the street railway on Champlain street was not new, and it had been demanded in the Council for the past eight years. It was plain to him, however, that some members of the Council seemed to be representing the interests of the Merger rather than those of the City.

Ald. Fiset said that it was impossible to run the street railway on Champlain street, as there was an engineer's report on record, which had been made during the Parent regime, stating that the vibration of the street cars would undermine the rock and constitute a menace to public safety.

A vote was then called on Ald. Madden's motion to refer the report back to the Committee for further study, and it was defeated on the following division:

For: Aldermen Glode, Fiset, Collier, Theriault, Bourre and Madden — 6.

Against: Aldermen Gauvin, Bedard, Gallois, Bois, Buchard, Martin, Verret, Paquet (Jacques Cartier), Dussault (St. Louis), Lockwell, Lantier, Pettigrew, Mercier, Dussault (Belvedere), Bertrand and Paquet (St. Sauveur). — 16.

Just as a vote was being called on the Dussault amendment to pass the report after eliminating the refer-

QUEBEC, JUNE 24, 1916.

THE GRAIN TRADE.

The second ocean steamer to take a cargo of Manitoba wheat from the Transcontinental Railway finished loading yesterday, and was loaded at the New Louise Dock elevator of the Harbor Commission, with great rapidity, as before. The third steamer is due next week. Notwithstanding these shipments, the elevator is full, and half a million bushels more are now on the way from Winnipeg. Unfortunately the storage accommodation is altogether too limited, other demands for storage have had to be refused, and we are also likely to lose the loading of four large steamers, which were intended to have loaded grain here for the Government. All this goes to show the wisdom of the repeated suggestions of the Quebec board of Trade, during the last four years, that storage accommodation should be provided here for at least ten million bushels. This suggestion was turned down by Major Leonard—of unhappy memory—who stated that one elevator of a million bushels was ample for all the grain trade that Quebec was likely to have for many years to come. Some of our own wise people predicted that the Transcontinental Rail way would never do us any good, and others, equally wise, said that grain would never come here except by water. Fortunately for us, these predictions have now been amply disproved, and it now remains for us to show a united front and to back up the Board of Trade in urging upon the Government to give the railway ample grain storage at Quebec.

The experience of the last three months proves that this storage should be first on the St. Lawrence deepwater front, west of Lampson's. Modern trains of fifty freight cars or more are two thousand feet in length. The station ground at the Palais is only one thousand feet long. The consequence is that every attempt to shunt one of these long trains means the blocking up of Bridge street and even the street as far as Crown street, for perhaps half an hour at a time, to the great inconvenience of the large volume of city traffic, which throngs these busy streets. Quebec seems to be bound to suffer from the work of well meaning amateurs in railway terminals, and the people at that end of the city are growing in consequence.

THE IRISH CRISIS.

As will be seen from a despatch appearing in this morning's issue the extreme anti-Home Rule party in England has issued a manifesto deprecating the attempt to settle the Irish question at a moment when a sanguinary rebellion has just been repressed, and when the concessions proposed will be regarded in Ireland as "a premium on rebellion and as a vantage ground for further demands."

It is to be hoped that the representations of this small faction of "die-hards" will carry but little weight and that they will not delay the settlement which is so much desired by those who have the interests of not only Ireland but also of the Empire and the Allies at heart.

That settlement has been too long delayed already. Colonel Maurice Moore, the Commander of the National Volunteers, put certain aspects of the case very clearly from the Irish standpoint in the following paragraphs:

"War was declared early in August, and it seemed impossible to carry on a foreign war with rebellion threatening at home. On the National side Mr. Redmond relieved the situation by making a public and unconditional offer of the services of the Volunteers for the defence of the country. As usual, the Government hesitated what course to pursue, and tried to do nothing. Day after day speculation was keener and controversy grew louder as to the signing of the Home Rule Bill. I was travelling all over the country reviewing Volunteers, and everywhere I found the anxiety growing more intense. It was freely stated that Carson had made his bargain, and that Redmond had shown his cards and was being cheated by the Government. The Sinn Feiners took full advantage of these fears and preached the doctrine of "perfidie Albion." Lord Kitchener sent over an officer to raise an Irish Division, and the inclination of many people was to wait till the Government declared itself; the Sinn Feiners said, "The English are humbugging us, they want our recruits, and when they have them safely bagged they will snap their fingers at us and tear up the Bill. That is how the English have always treated us." It could not be denied that their history was true, and their forebodings had every appearance of being true also. Week after week passed by with no sign, only the call for more recruits. The time was agonizing, and nerves began to give way; I am confident that the weeks elapsing between the passing of the Bill and its signature by the King coupled with the demand for recruits, estranged the people of Ireland as much as the Bill itself had conciliated them. When at last the Bill was signed the enthusiasm was gone, and the fact that it was not to be put in force till after the war, with the threat of an undefined Amending Bill, left the uncertainty as great as ever. Nobody believed in it."

The duty of the hour, then, is for the British Government to keep faith with Mr. Redmond, for, as the London Chronicle very neatly expresses it, "The aftermath of the rebellion, rekindling old passions and suspicions, has spread a misgiving in Ireland and in America that faith will not be kept with Mr. Redmond."

The Dublin Freeman's Journal expatiates on this. It says:

"It was because the Sinn Feiners were left the power of evil prophecy, were able to assert without the contradiction of incontrovertible operative fact that Ireland had been tricked and would be betrayed in its trust that they gathered followers. Their lies needed the disproof of concrete truth. Because they were left to deal with a Government that had tolerated armed sedition they were able to pursue their way unchecked. A national Government would have prevented their growth. Such a Government could have disarmed them in twenty-four hours with the help of the Irish Regiments and National Volunteers, and the entire approval of the masses of the nation. No Irish Minister would have been as ignorant as Mr. Birrell is forced to confess that he was after his nine years in Ireland. The disaster befell because the policy that would have destroyed the forces of disloyalty and disorder forever was arrested at the moment when the nation's hopes were about to be fulfilled. Ireland's history contains the story of many tragedies springing from delay; but of them all this is the blackest."

The Sinn Fein rebellion, while criminal, was weak, hasty and inconsiderate. But it called for more deliberation and clemency and these would have been the greatest political virtues at such a time. Had the civil authorities intervened earlier, things might have been better handled but unfortunately the military power had control of the situation too long and the consequence was that their continued executions won over many sympathizers to the Sinn Fein cause. As someone has said, the government should have considered the warning of Irish history against the creator of the martyrs of one rebellion as the seed of the next. The British Cabinet, while taking every precaution against the reurrence of the rebellion, should avoid retribution for the sake of retribution. The argument of Cromer, Halsbury and the other irreconcilables is faulty. The present is a golden opportunity to keep faith with Redmond. We do not want the great majority in Ireland to turn Sinn Fein through distrust of England's pledges and thus to undo the arduous labor and travail of years to obtain Home Rule by constitutional methods. The mass of the Irish people has kept faith with England. It is they who should be considered and rewarded in like manner.

A TRIBUTE TO TOMMY ATKINS.

Tommy Atkins found an ardent admirer and friend in James Normar Hall, an American who served in the British army until incapacitated by wounds. Mr. Hall writes that "in England before I knew Tommy for the man he is I said to myself, 'How can I endure living with him?' and now I am thinking, how am I to endure without him; without the inspiration of his splendid courage; without the visible example of his cheery, unselfish devotion to his fellows."

Mr. Hall came to know Tommy and when he acquired this firsthand information, he could not find words that fully expressed his admiration. The British soldier, he relates, would charge the enemy with fixed bayonets while singing dolorously, "I don't want to fight, I want to go home," and fight viciously as he lugubriously chanted the phrase.

Another tribute by Private Hall will be emblazoned on the tablets of fame. He says: "Heavy fighting occurred throughout October, and daily I saw Tommy Atkins at his splendid best. He looked like a beast; he acted like a god. His body was the color of the sticky Flanders clay in which he lived, but his soul was clean and fine. I saw him rescuing wounded comrades, tending them in the trenches, encouraging and heartening them when he himself was discouraged and sick at heart."

Little has been heard as to the strength of the British and French armies on the Saloniki front. The quarter-million men removed from Gallipoli six months ago are for the most part there. Many of the British regiments went first to Egypt in expectation of a Turkish attack on the Suez Canal, but the advance of the army of the Grand Duke Nicholas over the mountains of Armenia in midwinter and the capture of Erzerum put an end to the fear of an invasion of Egypt. British troops stationed there have been withdrawn for service elsewhere in large numbers, and the bulk of them are undoubtedly now at Saloniki. The number concentrated there—French, British and Serbs—is estimated at 600,000 men, an army that would seem to be large enough to walk through any force the Bulgars can put in the field. On the Bulgars the brunt of the fighting will fall. There are no Austrians in the Valley of the Vardar, and only four German divisions—some 80,000 men—are known to be on the Saloniki front. There was a formidable Turkish force in western Thrace during the winter, but this has been moved to Armenia. The advance of the Bulgars to Fort Rupel, in the Struma Valley, and to the south of Monastir, will almost certainly be followed by a move by the entire force under command of General Sarrail. Only enough men will be left in Saloniki to guard the base of the Allies against possible Greek treachery.

IN AND ABOUT TOWN

SGT.-MAJOR BYRNE QUEBEC, WOUNDED

BROTHER OF LATE PTE. W. BYRNE IN HOSPITAL AT BOULOGNE.

Sergt.-Major Robert Byrne, of this city, brother of Pte. Walter Byrne, who was killed in the memorable battle at Langemarck, is confined to the General Hospital at Boulogne with shell wounds.

His mother, Mrs. James Byrne of Champlain street received notification from Ottawa last evening. No mention as to the seriousness of the wounds, is made in the telegram from the Record Office at Ottawa.

Sgt.-Major Byrne left for overseas with the First Canadian Expeditionary Force. Having had considerable experience in the militia, gained chiefly in the 8th. Royal Rifles. Sgt. Major Byrne was retained in England where he spent some time as instructor in one of the big training camps. He went to the firing line in France recently. He is now in hospital where a number of other Quebec boys are patients. His numerous friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

SILVER JUBILEE.

A quiet, but pleasant entertainment, was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Brophy, on June 19th, in honor of their "Silver Jubilee." The addresses written for the occasion were read by Miss Brophy and J. P. Cantin, N.P., who expressed in well chosen language the pleasure they felt in greeting the happy jubilants, and wishing to the relatives and many friends present, a hospitable and warm welcome.

A sumptuous repast was served at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Brophy were the recipients of many costly and valuable presents, among which was a magnificent silver tea set. Beautiful flowers were presented by the little ones, who found suitable terms to express their love and gratitude.

BRITAIN WOULD GLADLY GIVE POLAND RELIEF.

London, June 23, 8.48 p.m.—Lord Cecil, British Minister of War Tard, told a representative of the Associated Press today that Great Britain was ready to resume the negotiations if a basis could be secured, by which it had been attempted to obtain for the Belgian Relief Commission the opportunity to extend relief to Poland. The negotiations have halted since Germany refused to accept the British stipulations, (Which called for the provision of the Austrian occupied districts of Poland and of Serbia, Montenegro, and Albania and although the officers of the Commission, with the assistance of Ambassador Page in London, and Ambassador Gerard in Berlin have done their utmost, they have been compelled to abandon all hope of success. "But," said Lord Robert, "I consider the German refusal an outrageous proceeding. The action does not appear accidental, but is in accord with the German principles of warfare which they boldly publish. This matter is a result of a calculated policy, just as their striking medals to commemorate the sinking of the Lusitania. There has been horrible suffering in Poland, but the Germans outery in behalf of humanity is merely designed to get food for their own army."

CUSTOMARY OUTDOOR SERVICES — PROCESSION FROM NEW ST. PATRICK'S AT 9.45.

The feast of Corpus Christi will be observed in Quebec as elsewhere tomorrow with the customary outdoor processions.

As in the past the different parishes will hold separate processions. St. Patrick's parish will have its own this year from the new church, Grande Allee.

Following the 9.30 o'clock Mass in the new church the procession will form in the following order.

- Boys of the Parish
- Girls
- Hibernian Cadets
- Single Men
- Band
- Married Men
- Flower Girls
- Sanctuary Boys
- Sacred Host
- Choir
- Single and Married Women.

The men are urged to attend in large numbers. They will assemble on the North side of Grande Allee not later than 9.45. The girls will meet in St. Bridget's Home. The women are to follow the officiating priest.

All who are to join in the procession are kindly asked to attend earlier Mass than that at 9.30 so as to avoid confusion and delay.

The route will be down de Salaberry, St. Cyrille, Clair Fontaine and Grande Allee to the Church. Along the line of march Benediction in the open air will be given at two alters to be erected.

RUSSIAN ORCHESTRA TO VISIT QUEBEC

CONDUCTOR ALTSCHULER WITH FAMOUS ORCHESTRA WILL VISIT HERE IN FALL.

A Chronicle representative interviewed Mr. H. G. Robey, business manager of the Russian Symphony Orchestra at the Chateau Frontenac yesterday afternoon who paid a visit to Quebec in order to find out the prospects of success in bringing this Orchestra to Quebec. Mr. Robey spent the day yesterday with Mr. J. Albert Gauvin, the well-known impresario and is now convinced that the public of Quebec will be ready to show their appreciation of a visit from the Orchestra.

The Russian Symphony Orchestra is one of the greatest musical organizations that has ever toured United States or Canada, and as Quebec will be the first Canadian city to have the pleasure of hearing such a splendid aggregation its music lovers should feel highly pleased at being thus favored.

The music played by the orchestra will be entirely the work of Russian composers and nothing like it has ever been heard on this continent before.

Owing to Quebec being out of the way of the theatrical circuit, the cost of bringing this Symphony to Quebec will be enormous, but Mr. Gauvin has given Mr. Robey such a guarantee, that the latter had no hesitation in accepting the invitation to come to Quebec.

The famous and world-renowned orchestra leader, Mr. Modiste Altschuler, will conduct the concerts throughout the tour. The orchestra is composed of 60 members, all highly trained and talented musicians, whose interpretation of this hitherto unknown music to Quebecers will enthrance those who hear them with the beauties of Russian music.

The orchestra will only play one night in each city. It will play in Quebec early in the Fall, and will travel during its tour in Canada over the Transcontinental Railway. As such an opportunity of hearing such a splendid organization as the Russian Symphony Orchestra will be extremely rare, it is anticipated that the music loving people of Quebec will be eager to book their names as subscribers to the concert.

TRIDUUM SERMON AT ST. PATRICK'S

FATHER HEALEY DELIVERED INTERESTING DISCOURSE LAST NIGHT.

The second night of the Triduum services witnessed another large congregation at St. Patrick's Church last evening. The special sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Healey who in a logical way treated his subjects, Mary Mother of God and Mary Our Mother.

Father Healey devoted the early part of his discourse to the part played by the Virgin Mother of God in the life of the Divine Saviour. He showed by quotations from scripture the tender love of the Mother for the Son and the affection of the son for the Mother from the time of the Birth of Jesus until His death on the cross. The reverend speaker described how that love of Mother for Son and Son for Mother was never more beautifully illustrated than on Calvary when the Saviour on the Cross appointed His Mother Our Mother by the words "Mother, Behold Thy Son" and to St. John "Behold Thy Mother."

After reviewing the life of the Redeemer and His Mother upon earth, Father Healey concluded a very interesting sermon by telling his listeners that we should be grateful to God for making Mary His Mother and appreciate the fact that He endowed her with so many graces, especially for having entrusted her with the treasury of His graces. We should glorify Mary, he continued, because she is the holiest creature that ever sprung from the hand of God. We should increase our confidence in her in her power to help us because of the lesson she learnt at the foot of the Cross. This lesson refers to the value of the soul. Conscious of these facts we should be inspired to seek more frequently Mary's aid in working out our eternal salvation, the speaker concluded.

Rev. Aug. Smith, C.S.S.R., was the celebrant at the solemn Benediction assisted by Rev. Fathers McCandlish and Meehan.

This evening, the second last of the Triduum, the special sermon will be preached by Rev. Father McCandlish.

The Toronto Mail and Express is chided for suggesting Kitchener as a name for Berlin, Ont. by its highly-respected contemporary the New York Times.

JUNIOR BASEBALL.

Manager Johnny Caron, of the Red Rose club, states that while he is not sure of winning, he is sure his team won't be beaten by Tipperary tomorrow.

The Tipperary club will practice this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, on the Cove Fields. Manager Chasse is confident that his team will not only win, but will hand the Red Rose a good trimming.

The Sillery Club will play in Levis against the Voltigeurs.

The big event of the Junior "A" League tomorrow, will be the clash between Standards and Celtics.

Belvederes meet Young Vics in a league game also.

Legace will be missed from the Voltigeurs against Legace played with St. Romuald against St. Patrick's.

Sporting Notes

Baseball this afternoon at four o'clock, on the Exhibition Grounds. Laval will meet Napoleons in a league game which will decide, temporarily at least, the leadership of the local circuit.

Frank McLaughlin, who manages the Emmets in his spare time, states that if his team cannot beat St. Romuald, they may as well drop from the league. But, of course, Frank was only kidding, for he knows he has a big job on tomorrow afternoon trying to stop the speeding Redskins.

Talking about cold weather, we met "Billy" Sharpe, the well-known heavy-weight timekeeper, yesterday. Of course Billy had a story to tell us and whether you've heard it before or not doesn't cut any ice with Billy. "I had a terrible dream last night," he began. "Yeh! I dreamt that somebody stole my watch. In fact, I was so sure that it was true, that I jumped out of bed to look at it. Well—it wasn't gone, but it was going." Isn't that pretty raw?

St. Patrick's have practically closed a deal with the Laval baseball club by which they will secure Amedee Maurais, the brilliant young pitcher, whose case caused much discussion in the City League circles at the beginning of the season and who wanted to be released to the Levis club. Maurais is willing to play with St. Patrick's and he will probably play in their next game.

The C. B's and Patricias play the first game of the double header on Sunday. Rick Paquette will pitch for Patricias.

The Laval team intends to stick on top of the league now that it has begun so well. Paul Drouin says it has been a very long time since Laval won its first game of the season. "Mike" Picard will be opposed to Leo Desjardins on Sunday. Both these pitchers have done good work in all the games played. It looks like a good pitcher's battle.

Harold Walsh is still practising. Last night he "covered" second base. He covered it so well, you couldn't see the base at all.

Tom Kelly continues to grab off the hard drives in St. Pat's practices.

"Big Chief" Jocks is very sure that the Braves will annihilate the Emmets on Sunday. The Bridge boys will be down in force, and a great game is bound to result.

Giants played away from home yesterday. Not far away, to be sure. They only travelled a distance across the Brooklyn Bridge, but it was far enough for them to recover their winning habit and they managed to trim the Robins 7 to 4. The leaders contributed five errors which greatly aided McGraw and his satellites to register a victory.

Montreal won yesterday. Strange things happen in the International. Last Saturday we read an article in the Montreal Standard about Sammy's Royals. The writer deplored the fact that Lichtenhein had a winner in a bad year. And right away the Royals go out and get trimmed four or five games in a row.

Neither Emmets or St. Romuald have uncorked much hitting to date. But a switch in batting orders, especially in the case of the Emmets, may make a big difference in the run getting.

Wingo may play for St. Romuald tomorrow with a clear conscience. He has been given permission by the league to play out the season with the St. Romuald team in the present season's run.

Masse will pitch for Laval this afternoon with Pepin behind the bat. The Naps will have no easy time getting the pitcher who whiffed quite a few of St. Pat's leading sluggers.

Secretary Lepine says there were other reasons for starting today's game at four o'clock. One is that the contractor who is building the new stand is said to have stated, that amusements during the week interfered with and reared the work of construction. Are his workmen ball fans?

BOXERS ARRESTED.

Montreal, June 23—Frankie Fleming, Canadian featherweight champion and Eddie Wallace, of Brooklyn, who engaged in a ten round contest at the Gayety Theatre on Wednesday night, pleaded not guilty before Judge Saint-Cyr today to a charge of having engaged in a prize fight, and the promoter of the fight, entertainment, George W. Kendall, also known as Kennedy, denied that he had promoted a prize fight, as charged by J. H. Roberts, a citizen of Montreal. They were remanded for a week.

The fighters may go to the Superior Court for the adjudication of a dispute over a deposit of $500 made by Fleming with Police Chief Campeau, to guarantee a fight with Wallace in aid of the 163rd regiment, the deposit having been seized by J. T. Molsan, who claims to have signed up Flem-

EMMETS AND ST. ROMUALD ON EXHIBITION GROUNDS.

Harry Filiatrault announces that Charlie McCarthy and Sammy Taylor will be the main attraction in the next bouts before the St. Roch's Club which will be held in the club rooms on St. Joseph street, on July 7th. The bout will be over the fifteen round distance and ought to be a good fast mix.

In the semi-windup, Bud Daley and Soldier Legare will go ten rounds, and Young Charlie White is booked to fight in the preliminary.

Bernard Edmunds called into the office last evening and seems rather anxious to meet Dan Harris, of the 8th R. R., who agreed to meet him some time ago, but seems rather backward about coming to the front.

It is possible that Frankie Fleming and Johnny Schiff will meet in Quebec soon, over the fifteen round course.

Sammy Taylor who meets Charlie McCarthy here on the 7th, has fought some good boys. He beat up Billy Kramer, who fought a great battle with McCarthy here last year.

SOCCER SHOTS.

Montmorency and Frontenac United will play at the Falls this afternoon, after all, and the game will be a hummer.

Capt. Mills will choose his team from the following: McDonnell, Page, Dawes, Mills, Mackie, H. Warner, F. Warner, J. Lovett, Pugh, Redman, Grant, McKee and McGrath.

Sergt. Thomson will referee this important game.

Charlie Pike will handle the whistle in Levis tomorrow, when the 8th R. R. and R. C. E. meet.

"Billy" McGrath will be very useful to the Falls team.

The United are confident of winning the game, no matter where it is played.

Frank Warner is due to uncork one of his old-time games some of these days, and when he does—look out!

Alev McLean will be on hand to lead his team tomorrow. Alec didn't play last week, but he cannot afford to stay out of this affair.

BASEBALL TODAY AT FOUR O'CLOCK

NAPS vs LAVAL—TOMORROW

EMMETS AND ST. ROMUALD ON EXHIBITION GROUNDS.

This afternoon Laval and Napoleons will meet in a City League fixture on the Exhibition Grounds. The game will begin at four o'clock, thereby giving somebody ample time to get down to see it.

The Laval team just now is topping the league with one win and no defeats, while the Napoleons are right behind with three victories and one defeat. Laval's showing against St. Patrick's last Sunday when they held the champions to a draw shows that they have improved greatly and as the Napoleons are always formidable the encounter bears all the earmarks of a lively one. Masse, Laval's new twirler will again ascend the mound for the Students, with Pepin, a new backstop at the receiving end. For Napoleons, Marcotte and Pilon who have been giving smart exhibitions of battery work this season will be in the points for the team from over the river.

Sunday's Games.

Tomorrow a double header will be staged at the Exhibition Grounds, the first game being between the C. B's and Patricias, and the second between Emmets and St. Romuald.

While C. B.'s and Patricias have yet to win the confidence of the fans, yet they have so greatly strengthened their line-ups that there is every indication that they will be right up amongst the leaders soon. Rick Paquette is slated to pitch for Patricias, and Rick has all his old stuff with this season. Besides Paquette the Patricias and C. B.'s have a collection of new faces which will surprise the fans.

Of course, the second game which will bring together for the first time this season, St. Romuald and Emmets, will be the real head-liner of the afternoon and it certainly will be a sizzler. The Indians will bring down their best line-up, which include Wingo, Desjardins, Nelson, Jocks, Jackson and other stars from the vicinity of the Quebec Bridge, and they will have a host of followers with them who will cheer them on to victory.

Emmets will be materially strengthened with West-Calkins back in line, and he may just add the missing wallop which was sadly evident by its absence when the Rebels succumbed to the Naps in Levis.

Saturday's game will be umpired by Messrs. Harry and Jos. Ledden, and Sunday's double-header by Messrs Geo. E. Cartier and Jos. Ledden.

METAGAMA DUE EARLY THIS EVENING

C.P.R. LINER WITH PASSENGERS, ETC.—SICILIAN ARRIVES AT LIVERPOOL.

The C.P.O.S. SS. Metagama was reported at South Point at 2.40 p.m. yesterday en route to Quebec. She is due here about 7 o'clock this evening.

Of the 438 passengers only a few are returned soldiers. The steamer is bringing 1,994 bags of mail and 735 baskets of parcel post. These totals include 263 bags of mail and 77 baskets of parcel post for the Maritime Provinces; 24 bags of mail and 13 baskets of parcel post for Quebec. 1,707 bags of mail and 540 baskets of parcel post for Western Canada and 105 sacks of mail for Japan.

The Allan liner Sicilian from Quebec arrived at Liverpool at 9.30 p.m. Thursday. She carried 546 passengers, 188 of them cabin and the remainder third class.

CONVERTING THE CALGARY.

The Canadian motor ship Calgary, recently purchased from Mr. James Playfair of Montreal by the Standard Oil Company, has just been converted into an oil-tanker at the works of the Baltimore Dry Docks & Shipbuilding Company, Baltimore, Md. This vessel, which was built at Newcastle in 1912 for the transportation of coal and ore and other bulk cargoes on the Great Lakes is 245 feet long, 42 1-2 feet in beam and 19 feet deep. Shipping Illustrated, in describing the process of conversion, says in part: "She is of the usual lake type with machinery at the propelling power in her case being furnished by two sets of four-cylinder Diesels. The method of conversion consisted of building inside the hold four cylindrical tanks on the Jack system. Three of these tanks are 38 feet diameter and one is 36 feet diameter, the intention being to carry cargo oil in these cylindrical tanks, in the double room under the tanks, and in the space between No. 2 and No. 3 tanks, which is divided off from the rest of the hold by bulkheads. One large Wilson-Snyder pump, 16x13x24 in., has been fitted in the forward hold, forward of No. 1 cylindrical tank, with suction aft to each of the different cargo oil tanks and discharge to a hose connection on deck. Steam for this pump is supplied by two Cochran boilers aft of the engine room. These boilers also supply steam for the electric generator, bilge pumps, steering engine and windlass and for heating quarters. Provision is made by steam coils in the bottom for heating the contents of the cargo oil tanks so that heavy oil can be satisfactorily handled by the pump. A new wireless house has been built just aft of the pilot house and the vessel fitted with wireless. In addition to alterations made necessary by the installation of the cylindrical tanks, a large amount of repair work was done on the vessel, she having been aground on her trip around to the coast from the Great Lakes. Considerable additional structural work was also required by the American Bureau of Shipping to enable the vessel to be classed. Under her new name of Bacoi, this vessel will probably be employed for the transportation of oil between Tampico and New Orleans or Northern ports."

The Bacoi was a constant visitor to this port for two or three years.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Gallia left Quebec yesterday for the lakes with a full cargo of deals.

Steam barge Algonquin with coal arrived down from the lakes yesterday and is discharging her cargo in the inner basin.

The steam barge Georgetown passed here yesterday bound for St. Siméon for a cargo of pulp.

The steamer Cascapedia with a large list of passengers and a heavy consignment of cargo, left port at 11 a.m. yesterday morning. She will call at Natashquan, Summerside, P.E.I., and Pictou, N.S. The Cascapedia has on board a large number of Canadian and American tourists.

This trip has been advertised extensively by the Canada Steamship Lines Limited.

The barge A. D. is taking on 500 cords of pulpwood in the basin.

The Maskinonge and Kalturnern, passed yesterday.

SS. Tusconan, Dominion Line, SS. Hurona, Thomson Line and SS. Greenbank passed up yesterday bound for Montreal.

The revival in the building of wooden ships due to the general scarcity of tonnage in the coastwise trade brought about by the employment of many coasting vessels in the ocean trade, and the shortage of steel with the impossibility of getting deliveries promptly from the makers, is confined mainly to the United States and Canada. Nova Scotia and Shipping states that one Nova Scotia yard alone has eleven such vessels on hand, the gross tonnage of each being about 1,200. One four-masted vessel will cost $65,000. They are being equipped with up-to-date cargo-handling gear.

NOT SURE.

The recruit, who had a strong desire to escape service, was being examined in the eyesight test. The size of the type was increased continually but it was no use. He couldn't see the words.

Then a seasoned campaigner entered, and held up his mess tin.

"Can you see that?" he shouted to the recruit.

"Of course, I can," he replied, disdainfully, "but I'm not quite sure whether it's a two-shilling piece or a half crown!" Despair of examiner!

QUEBEC CURLING SOCIAL CLUB

QUOIT COMPETITION FOR THE "STAY-IN-TOWNS" PROVES ATTRACTIVE.

As advertised several weeks ago, the Quebec Curling Club have opened their handsome club house near Park avenue, for use of the members and their friends, whose families have now gone to the country, having left their poor "hubbies" to eke out an existence in town, similar to that of their pet cat, who, during the winter months, occupied the best chair in the sitting room, but now squats on the back door stoop, howling in unison, with the shrieking motor horns, both of which seem to take a keen delight in disturbing the midnight slumbers of the less fortunate ones, who stay in town.

The game of quoits has proved a drawing card to the several members who have taken up this game, there being from 20 to 25 participants every fine evening, and as there are three courts in operation, it seldom happens, that you are disappointed in not having a game. From the energy exhibited by several of the members, in their anxiety to be on the grounds before the opening hour of 7.00 p.m., and the keenness with which they measure, and dispute each shot, we can safely say, that some of the members with aldermanic propensities will be somewhat reduced before the summer season is over.

We understand, that through the kindness of Mr. H. Lewis, of the Quebec Engineering Company, that enterprising firm, is offering a very appropriate prize, to be competed for in the Quoit Competition which starts next week.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

At the Court of Sessions yesterday a man named Daigle was fined $20 and costs for selling liquor without a license.

Dr. Moffett was fined $5 and costs for automobile speeding. Lorenzo Martinec for leaving the cut-out of his automobile open was condemned in a similar amount. J. M. Heinrich for making and attaching his own automobile number to his machine, instead of obtaining one from the automobile bureau was fined $5 and costs, the total sum amounting to $10.50.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Eleven prisoners appeared at the Recorder's Court yesterday charged with drunkenness, and were fined in sums ranging from $2 to $10 and costs with the usual alternatives. A man named Joseph Rochette, a trader on the Jacques Cartier Market, was before the Court on an alleged charge of having sold tubs of butter which did not contain the weight mentioned on the outside of the tubs. Judgment was reserved until Wednesday next.

Two women, residents of St. Saviour were before the Court on account of a quarrel arising out of a children's fight, and the Deputy Recorder, after hearing the evidence dismissed the case with costs.

STUDEBAKER REPAIR COST $11 PER CAR

Sales of Replacement Parts During 1915 Totaled $3,121,966 or 5.5 Per Cent. of Total Sales—Better Service From Each Car.

(Extract from the Automobile Topics June 17th, 1916.

As a valuable indication of the growing reliability of medium-priced pleasure cars, and the particular dependability of Studebaker cars, the Studebaker Corporation, Detroit, points with justifiable pride to its 1915 record in repair parts sales. During that year the total value of replacement parts for Studebaker cars amounted to $3,121,966, or about 5.5 per cent. of the value of the cars sold. On December 31, 1915, there were estimated to be in actual use 192,225 Studebaker cars; the average repair cost for each car was therefore a fraction over $11.

This average repair figure per car has steadily declined in the past three years, reflecting the improvement in design, the development of materials formulae, and better workmanship, which have characterized the recent growth of the automobile industry. The following table is presented showing the number of Studebaker cars in use at the close of each year for the past five years, the amount of sales of repair parts, and the average amount per car in use:

Table with 4 columns: Year, Cars in use, Sales of repair parts, Average amount per car. Data for 1915, 1914, 1913, 1912, 1911.

The last column showing the sharp decline in the amount of repairs per car, is most significant as reflecting the mechanical perfection of the motor vehicle generally.

Stone Limited, vs. Usines de Chars and Machineries, Ltee. Plaintiff claims $517.71 damages arising from the nonexecution of a contract for the making up of ten thousand calendars at a price of $800, that defendant was bound to pay plaintiff; defendant denies the contract and asks the dismissal of the action; the defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $461.16, with interest and costs, but plaintiff is condemned to pay the costs occasioned by the amendment of its declaration.

Gamache vs. Roy & vir. Action brought by plaintiff asking the annulment of a deed of promise of sale by defendant in October last, of an immovable, forming part of lot No. 584, of the official cadastre of the parish of St. Augustin, plaintiff alleging that he signed the deed under the false representations of the defendant and of her husband; defendant denies all fraudulent agreement and false representations; the learned judge dismisses the plaintiff's action with costs.

Lachance and vir. vs. Arcand. Plaintiff claims $300 damages, alleging that the defendant is a plea to an action, accused her of being a woman of ill repute; defendant pleaded that he was justified in making this plea seeing the informations he had received and he reaffirms again the truth of the facts alleged in said plea; nevertheless the defendant filed a confession of judgment for $50, with costs of the action as brought; the confession in question is declared insufficient, and the defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $150, with interests and costs.

Eugene Julien et Cie., vs. Bureau. Delibere discharged.

Judgments by Hon. Justice Malouin.

Laroche vs. Ross. Seeing the consent of record, the defendant is condemned to pay plaintiff $150 and the costs of the action as taken.

Letourneau et al. vs. Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd. Plaintiff alleged in substance that in October last, having goods to be sent by defendant company to the Saguenay, a horse attached to a vehicle conveying these goods was injured on the company's wharf. The accident was claimed to be due to the fault, negligence and carelessness of the defendant, and damages were claimed to the amount of $161. Defendant pleaded that the alleged accident was due to the fault of the teamster, who was driving the horse. The court, however, declared the action well founded and maintained plaintiff's plea for full amount, with interest and costs.

APPEAL OF LADIES OF S. P. C. A. GRANTED

Everything Possible Will Be Done By City to Aid Dumb Animals.

At a recent meeting of the Quebec Women's Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, it was decided to appoint delegates to present to the members of the Police and By-laws Committee a petition and suggestions that would be to the benefit of all dumb animals, especially the much abused horse. Miss Eva Flood and Mrs. E. S. Stocking were the ladies chosen and the reply to their demands has just been received through the Secretary of the Police and By-law Committee, Mr. Theo. Dube, as follows:

Recorder's Court of the City of Quebec, City Hall, Quebec, June 12th, 1916.

To Miss Eva Flood, 37 St. Genevieve Avenue, Quebec.

Miss.—In response to the demands and suggestions which, on the 31st ultimo, you and Mrs. F. Stocking as delegates of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, presented to the Police and By-law Committee, I am instructed and respectfully beg to inform you that they have been carefully considered and that the Committee has decided as follows:

Hereafter the pavement of the roadway (chaussee) of our unlevelled or steep thoroughfares shall be made with materials causing less fatigue in the hauling of heavy loads by horses. For that purpose, St. Olivier street is actually being paved with the same materials as the alleys of the National Battlefields Park.

Special attention shall be given to the levelling and paving of corners of streets considered as dangerous to the circulation of horses and vehicles.

As to the passing of a by-law establishing a specific maximum weight of the loads to be drawn by horses in our city, the Committee fails to see its practicability, because of the various weight and strength and training of these animals; the vehicles used; the condition of the

"COLONIAL DAYS," A MUSICAL SPECIALTY OF UNUSUAL QUALITY AND QUANTITY

THE AUDITORIUM HAS BOOK-ED IN THE FIVE ACTS OF VAUDEVILLE AS STRONG
AN ATTRACTION AS CAN BE SECURED WITH MONEY.

As an American contemporary put it, "Colonial Days" which are to appear at the Auditorium next week, is a musical specialty of unusual quality and quantity. There will be five women and five men on the stage representing a Virginian plantation party with the guests in rich English court costumes, with wigs, laces and knickerbockers. An old man dozes on the piazza while his daughter at a spinning wheel carries on a mild flirtation. A bugle sounds and a coaching party draws up. They do a minuet and suddenly produce brass instruments from mysterious sources and play a medley.

There is a tenor and soprano duet and dance and a string ensemble. The old man wakens and sings several character songs. These are followed by an operatic trio, "The Lover's Quarrel." The finale is a medley of patriotic and southern melodies, both vocal and instrumental.

This short description shows what a pretentious act this is and what a wonderful attraction it should prove to all theatre lovers.

Four other first class vaudeville acts are booked on the same programme for the whole week.

AT THE OLYMPIA FOR LAST TIME TODAY

Victor Moore in "Snobs" a Famous Player Production.

Today will be the last opportunity to see Victor Moore at the Olympia Theatre in "Snobs" a Famous Player Masterpiece. All lovers of good high class comedy, should make it a point to attend the Olympia Theatre today.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Dorothy Bernard and George Soule Spencer will be offered in "The District Attorney" A Dramatic Political Intrigue, which is bound to please, even the most fastidious taste.

Under the new management of Messrs. H. S. Quart and J. Metivier arrangements have just been completed, wherein some of the best productions procurable will be offered at the Olympia Theatre.

For the three last days of next week "Lord Kitchener's Last Farewell to England and France" also "The Sinking of the German Cruiser Emden" will be offered, features being by the Famous Player Company.

HENRY WALTHALL AT THE EMPIRE TODAY.

Next Monday, Clyde Fitch's Work
"Capt. Jinks of the Horse Marines."

"The Raven" featuring Henry Walthall, still draws large houses at the Empire Theatre and those who failed to see this remarkable photoplay have only today in which to make good their last opportunity.

On Monday the Empire will present a film which has made a decided hit everywhere it has been shown. It is based on Clyde Fitch's novel "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines." This latest Essanay production is a satire on the politics and frivolities of the early seventies. Captain Jinks, the leader of a political marching club, is a dashing young blade. He falls in love with Mme. Trenton, the beautiful and talented prima donna. His path to love is beset with obstacles, but he wins at last. Ann Murdock and Richard C. Travers have the leading roles in this comedy.

It is a clever, pleasing feature and will be shown at the Empire only two days, Monday and Tuesday of next week.

GRANDE ALLEE GARDENS.

Will Be Open Tomorrow—Admission
Is Free to the Public.

The Grande Allee Gardens which has been re-opened this summer under a new management is proving to be a popular place just now. To further increase the popularity of this theatre and amusement place, the Gardens will be open, free to the public tomorrow. Moving pictures of high-class order will be shown, refreshments may also be procured and a splendid orchestra will render choice music in the special dance hall which has been constructed in the rear of the moving picture theatre patrons of the rink.

2 VAUDEVILLE PERFORMANCES AT THE KENT HOUSE

Opening of the Rustic Theatre Tomorrow at That Popular Place of Amusement.

The vaudeville performances at the Kent House Theatre tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night promise to be a great attraction for that popular place of amusement. The ride to the Kent House and return is in itself a fine and healthy enjoyment, but some people wanted more amusement once they had reached this unique summer resort.

The vaudeville performances the management have decided to put on every Sunday will no doubt prove the required complement of the afternoon's or the evening's programme.

The price remains the same as in the past years, 10 cents and you choose your seat.

WASTED.

The coal supply of the earth is limited," said the scientist. "No one can say how long it will last."

"Great Scott!" exclaimed the man in the back row. "And here we've gone and wasted more'n a sack of it heatin' the hall for this lecture."

Hearst papers have received an eloquent tribute to the propriety, impartiality and Americanism of their anti-British editorials and general policy. Signed Von der Ahe.

Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders, Says Doctor

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Power of Athletes

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make
Delicate, Nervous, Run-down People
200 Per Cent. Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

New York, N.Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a well known Specialist who has studied widely both in this country and Europe, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the fray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well-known to druggists and whose iron constituents is widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent. or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by L. E. Martel, Dr. Ed. Morin & Cie., and all other druggists.

PRESS COMMENT.

War between Mexico and the United States will mean a long, difficult and costly campaign, for which the Americans are lamentably unprepared. When Carranza tells a Mexican audience that the United States Government is trying to drag him into war he says something as far from the truth as can be said. There is no question that the Americans can ultimately beat Mexico, but the thing they will have to do is to beat the Mexican people. Mexico is a big country and her people are inured to guerilla fighting. The proposition that will confront the Americans in the event of war will be an intangible one. It will be a question of beating the Mexican army or armies and then establishing and consolidating the victory by policing the country. That this should have been done long ago is an opinion that has been expressed times without number, but Mr. Wilson's policy has been one of diplomatic side-stepping. Now, he has been put in the position of a man with a chip on his shoulder by his action in sending a punitive expedition into the country in search of Villa. He cannot withdraw it without a crushing loss of dignity, and Carranza says he cannot continue it without bringing on war. What has helped to bring on the present crisis over Mexico is the psychological atmosphere created in the United States by the approach of the Presidential elections. This is a time when no President who is standing for reelection can afford to take backwater from a little country like Mexico. Mr. Wilson must pursue the original line of action without deviating from it, for the political consequences of a withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico at the bidding of Carranza would be serious. Were the atmosphere not charged with political electricity, it would be simple enough for Mr. Wilson to withdraw the Villa expedition until the international situation could be cleared up. Conceivably, he might still do this, rather than give Carranza an opportunity to bring on a costly and needless war. The United States is big enough to do the common sense thing, even at an apparent sacrifice of dignity. If the United States and Mexico go to war, it will be a war brought about by Carranza for his own political purposes. The punitive expedition sent after Villa before the way had been prepared for it will be the direct cause of it, and neither country can expect any benefit. From our standpoint, it will be deplorable, as involving a waste of energy that should be available to go into the balance against the common enemy of civilization.—Montreal Mail.

But it is General Gouraud who more than anyone else perhaps has touched the sentiment and the imagination of the army. This is due in some measure no doubt to the pathos of his figure. In Gallipoli he lost his right arm, had both legs broken, and as he limps rapidly along the parade, leaning heavily upon a stick, he looks like the visible symbol of all that France has suffered in these tremendous days. But much more than the physical appeal is the spiritual appeal of a personality of extraordinary sweetness and strength that looks out through the bluest eyes I have seen with a candor, a comprehension, and a sympathy that are strangely moving. "I seem to see all Africa in those wonderful eyes," said a French officer to me, referring to the fact that it was in Mauretania and Morocco that Gouraud made his reputation. But there is more than Africa there. It is the soul of France that looks out from those eyes—the soul of a nation which is measuring its passion for humanity against the passion of might.—A. G. G., in London News.

THE MARTIAN TONGUE.

Mr. H. G. Wells is clearly not of opinion that English can become the language of the world by sheer survival of the fittest. But one recalls the ingenious argument whereby another novelist, having landed his hero in the planet Mars, got out of the difficulty of communication between the Earth man and the Martians. It was found that the Martians spoke English! And the explanation was that the Martian brain, working on the same lines as our own, had already attained to the complete triumph of the language towards which the brain and tongue of a progressive human creature naturally moved! What would be inevitable some day throughout the earth had already taken place on Mars. That novel has not been translated into English.—London Chronicle.

A LITTLE OTTER.

Mr. Sharp—Oh, I say, Mr. Dense, what animal do you think you'd like to be on a cold day?

Mr. Dense—Um, er, ah—let me see—I think I should like to be a little otter. Anything else?
