(Extract from Act 8, Ed. 7. Chap. 52.)

"R.S.—3778. The Inspector may require that there shall be a night guardian in every hotel and boarding-house having fifty occupied rooms.

"The passages and staircases shall be lighted throughout the night. The lamps indicating the safety exits shall be supplied with glasses of glass colored differently from that of other lamps.

"The proprietors shall post in each room, a notice in French and in English, containing the information necessary to enable the occupants to find their way to the supplementary exits and to use the extinguishers and safety appliances.

"There shall be a sounding gong or other alarm appliance to wake the occupants at night in case of fire.

"Proprietors of hotels which can accommodate at least fifteen boarders shall have their houses inspected and obtain a certificate attesting that all the precautions for the safety of the boarders and employees have been taken, as required by law and by the regulations. The certificate shall be issued in duplicate, and the proprietor after having posted one of them in a conspicuous place in his house shall keep the other at the disposal of the collector of provincial revenue of the district. Such certificates shall be given by the inspector free of charge, and the collector of provincial revenue shall not grant a license until after the certificate has been obtained."—R.S.Q. 2988 N; 8 Ed.
