Urge Ex-Premier To Give A Clear Lead To Party

Stated that Lloyd George Has Been Urged to Give His Party Definite Guidance in the Speech He Is to Deliver on Saturday at Glasgow—Latest Development in Electoral Campaign Is an Understanding Reported to Have Been Reached in Some Districts Under Which Conservatives Have Agreed Not to Oppose Coalition Liberals Under the Lloyd George Banner Who Will Pledge Themselves to Give Their General Support to Premier Bonar Law.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, October 27.—The latest development in the electoral campaign is an undertaking reported to have been reached in some districts under which the Conservatives have agreed not to oppose Coalition Liberal candidates under the Lloyd George banner who will pledge themselves to give their general support to Premier Bonar Law.

Several such bargains have been reached in London and neighboring constituencies, but in the northern districts it was said that most of the Lloyd Georgians had refused to enter into any such arrangement.

At Dundee, the Unionist Association decided to support Winston Spencer Churchill, who was Secretary for the Colonies in the Lloyd George ministry, and J. A. M. MacDonald, another Coalition Liberal.

Referring to these delegates, the Times says that the Coalition Liberal party is in danger of breaking in two, and attributes this condition to "lack of a distinctive lead by Lloyd George."

While in some places the Lloyd George followers are aligning themselves with the Conservative party, others, especially in the North, are seeking a union with the Free Liberals. The newspaper understands that Lloyd George has been urged to give his party definite guidance in the speech he is to deliver next Saturday at Glasgow.

Lloyd George made no reference to the question of these new inter-party deals in a message which he sent to the Daily Mirror today. In this message he said he had a "profound conviction shared by the most experienced and distinguished leaders in the Conservative party that manifold difficulties ahead of the country can best be solved by those who put the interest of the country above party considerations."

"I regret that the only appeal that the distracted state of Europe and the world makes to many is an appeal for further faction and disunity at home." The message said: "Such a path I cannot follow. The course I intend to take will be dictated by no personal considerations, and in no factious spirit. I shall continue doing my best to serve the country heedless of all personal advantages."

COMMENT ON PREMIER BONAR LAW'S MANIFESTO RATHER EVENLY DIVIDED IN THE LEADING LONDON NEWSPAPERS

LONDON, Oct. 27.—Comment on the manifesto and speech delivered yesterday by Premier Bonar Law is rather evenly divided in this morning's newspapers.

The Times has no hesitation in commending them to the public approval.

The Morning Post also urges the public to give the utmost support to the Bonar Law programme for bringing about rest and tranquility. That newspaper describes the manifesto "as the plain statement of an honest man backed by honest men."

Commentation of Bonar Law's speech yesterday as calm, restrained and reassuring is given by the Daily Express, but it urges the electorate to insist that the Government completely withdraw from the Near East.

The Daily Chronicle, supporting Lloyd George, says that the utterances of his successor do not show any reason why the new regime should have turned out the Lloyd George Government. It warns the electorate that the new programme contains "plenty of loopholes through which an unscrupulous die-hardism can break loose."

The Asquithian Daily News accords approval of the abolition of some "patently objectionable features of the Lloyd George system," but adds that nearly all the members of the new Government are deeply committed to "the blunders, hypocrisies, waste and tyranny" of the late Government.

The policy of the new Premier is regarded by the Westminster Gazette as "vague to the point of blankness—a caricature of a programme," while the Daily Herald views it as an "abstract confession of incapacity."

APPEAL WILL BE ENTERED IN THE BRODEUR CASE

Counsel for Defence Claims Irregularities in Selection of Jury.

Following the verdict of guilty returned by the jury yesterday noon in the case of Romil Brodeur, charged with the murder of Henri Royer on the night of February 9th-10th, 1922, and the subsequent sentence of death passed upon by Judge Demers, it is understood on the best of authority that an appeal will be entered.

It is claimed by Mr. L. A. Giroux, of Sweetburg, counsel for the defence, that there were certain irregularities in the selection of the jury, which was a mixed one, and the appeal is being entered along these lines.

ENVER PASHA, former Young Turk leader, was reported killed in Russia some months ago, but has staged a "come-back" and is reported to be active once more.

MEMORIAL FUND CAMPAIGN WILL START SHORTLY

Campaign for Funds for Memorial Will Be Inaugurated on Armistice Day.

The campaign for funds for the erection of a monument to the Sherbrooke soldiers who enlisted for overseas service during the Great War, and particularly in honor of those who paid the supreme sacrifice, will be opened officially on Armistice Day, November 11th, next.

A special meeting of the executive committee was convened for yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Quebec Central Railway, with a very satisfactory attendance.

The different societies, irrespective of creed or race, are being communicated with, regarding the appointment of at least one representative on the general committee, and the committee hope that every society in the city will lend its moral and financial assistance to the accomplishment of this great cause.

It was unanimously decided that the campaign should be inaugurated on November 11th, when a Poppy Day, under the auspices of the I.O. O.F.E. is already being arranged for.

It is hoped to have the members of several other societies co-operate with the I.O.O.F. and help to raise the nucleus of the monument fund.

The actual campaign will be started within the next few weeks, and it is confidently expected that each and every individual will realize his or her responsibility and, regardless of the amount involved, will subscribe according to ability to do so.

The campaign will be a thorough one, and will spread to the schools of the city, where every child will have an opportunity of subscribing its share.

All societies willing to co-operate in this great issue are requested to communicate with either of the joint secretaries, Messrs. J. O. Darce or A. W. Reid, furnishing the name of the official with whom arrangements must be made.

The work of organizing the campaign committee has been assigned to a very efficient and active worker, in the person of Mr. W. C. Cross, joint-treasurer of the committee, and it is expected definite arrangements will be under way inside a couple of weeks.

The question of the site was discussed briefly, and the matter will be left largely in the hands of the City Council as, whichever site is chosen, it will be on city territory.

The amount required for the monument is about $25,000, and in addition to public subscriptions, the City of Sherbrooke is being asked to donate $10,000 as its share.

The question has been before the City Council for some considerable time, but it has never received serious discussion and Sherbrooke continues to be classified among the few places which have not yet honored those who left to take part in the Great War.

THE WEATHER

MOSTLY FAIR

An energetic disturbance which has developed since yesterday is now centered near Sable Island and pressure is highest in the Middle Pacific States. The weather has been fair throughout the Dominion with the exception of heavy rainfalls in Alberta and a fair general rain in British Columbia.

Forecast: Mostly fair today. Saturday fair, not much change in temperature.

HON NICOL TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST DR. J. E. NOEL

(Associated Press Despatch.) QUEBEC, Oct. 27.—Hon. Jacob Nicol, Quebec Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Municipal Affairs, gave out a statement here last night that he had instructed his solicitors to take action against Dr. J. E. Noel, of Sherbrooke, in respect of alleged libellous and defamatory statements concerning the Minister.

"It is the first I have heard of the matter, and I know absolutely nothing about the action taken by Mr. Nicol." This was the remark made this morning by Dr. Noel when questioned as to the case of the libel action entered by the Hon. Jacob Nicol, Provincial Treasurer. It is understood the amount is for $999.

Premier Taschereau's Speech Regarded As A Forecast Of General Election In This Province - Premier Defends Liquor Laws

Quebec Premier Replies to Charges Made by Mr. Sauve, Leader of the Opposition—Proposal Offered by Brigadier General Smart Ruled Out of Order by the Speaker, and the Debate Adjourned Until Today—Claims Liquor Law Has Been Most Successful, Both from Moral and Financial Standpoint.

(Associated Press Despatch) QUEBEC, Oct. 26.—Premier Taschereau, speaking to the Legislative Assembly yesterday afternoon, replied to the speech delivered by Arthur Sauve, leader of the opposition on Wednesday, and also made an extensive review of the administration of his Government.

In political circles here the Premier's speech was taken as a forecast of general elections in the Province, in the near future.

The leader of the Opposition had stated in his speech on Wednesday that he wished in 1920 to become the associate of ministerial politicians in a secret liquor traffic he might have made a fortune.

Replying to this, the Premier said: "In the presence of my own party and that of the leader of the Opposition, I challenge the member for Two Mountains to name the ministerial politicians who offered to associate with him in a fraudulent and secret liquor traffic."

"I have not the right or privilege to tell him that what he said was untrue, but I have the right to tell him that an honest man would reject such an offer and would at once publicly denounce those who proposed it to him."

URGED ELECTIONS TO BE HELD AT FIXED DATES.

The Premier was followed by Brigadier General Smart, opposition member for Westmount, who proposed a motion that certain representation be made in connection with the main motion for the adoption of the speech from the throne.

General Smart's proposal blamed the Government for not having held elections to fill the vacancies in the Counties of St. Hyacinthe, Chambly, Napierville, Rouville and Rimouski, urged that elections be held at fixed dates; that procedures in the administration of justice be simplified and made less expensive; that the Government should work for a real and effective temperance law respecting the full liberty of commerce, the autonomy of municipalities and the rights of citizens, but very severe against intemperance; that the House also decide on better schools for the people, more protection for primary schools, and a better system of school inspection.

TOOK EXCEPTION TO PROPOSAL.

Premier Taschereau took exception to the proposal made by General Smart and quoted the rules of the House to show that the proposal as it was worded was neither an addition nor an amendment to the main motion.

The proposal was ruled out of order by the speaker and the debate was adjourned by Jos. Dufresne, opposition member for Joliette.

The crisis in the fuel situation and the new roads policy of the Government were the two principal reasons for the calling of an early session, Premier Taschereau said.

After a hearty welcome to the new members for Laballe and Sherbrooke, in the course of which Mr. Taschereau stated "infamous charges" had been made by the opposition during the election campaign in the former's constituency, the Premier dealt very fully with the past record of the Liberal party and delivered what is generally accepted as the Government's programme, as well as the Premier's own personal political manifesto.

REVIEWED WORK ACCOMPLISHED.

He reviewed what had been done in favor of colonization and agriculture since 1919, and said he understood that the Minister of Colonization intended asking for a further grant of $2,000,000 to be added to the $5,000,000 which had been appropriated in 1919.

LIEUT.-COLONEL A. H. M'GREER OFFICIALLY INSTALLED AS THE NEW PRINCIPAL AT BISHOP'S

Distinguished Gathering of Educationalists—Bishop Farthing, of Montreal, Officiated, Assisted by Bishop Williams, of Quebec—Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill University, Made Some Interesting Remarks—The Inaugural Address by the New Principal Was a Tribute to Those Students from Bishop's Who Had Paid the Supreme Sacrifice in the Great War, as Well as a Tribute to the Students Who Had Contributed to the Building up of a Cultured Nationhood for Canada.

THE formal installation of Lieutenant-Col. A. H. McGreer, M.A., B.A., O.B.E., M.C., as Principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, took place in the college chapel last night before one of the most distinguished gatherings of educationalists that has ever honored the University.

The service of the installation was held in the college chapel, at eight o'clock, with His Lordship Bishop Farthing, of Montreal, officiating, assisted by His Lordship Bishop Williams, of Quebec. The Rev. A. H. Moore, of St. Johns, was chaplain to the Bishop of Montreal and the Ven. Archdeacon Balfour, of Quebec, was chaplain to the Bishop of Quebec.

At the conclusion of the service in the chapel, the inaugural address and other addresses of welcome were delivered in the College library where His Lordship Bishop Farthing, of Montreal, presided over the meeting.

Bishop Farthing, of Montreal. In extending a hearty welcome to the visitors, His Lordship observed: "The college has had, in the past, a very useful career, and I feel that we can be proud of the fact. It has also rendered a very great service, through its work accomplished, not only to this Province, but also to the whole country. Bishop's stands for higher education with religious instruction, and this combination produces the very best characters for service in different fields of labor. You cannot have a strong character without the spiritual development, and this brings in the religious element which is an inspiration for work."

His Lordship commented upon the residential system, very favorably, observing that it helps to take the "hunks" out of young men, and concluded with a hearty welcome to the new principal. "I extend a hearty welcome, as president of the Corporation of Bishop's College to the new principal who is being installed tonight, and while I congratulate the College upon its new Principal, I think I can also congratulate the Principal upon the seat of learning he will be responsible for."

"We would not think of competing with the larger Universities equipped for scientific researches, but we can play a very important part in the matter of 'Arts', and I am confident that our new principal will be able to demonstrate this important part of the small university. I trust he will have a very happy and useful career and to both Mr. and Mrs. McGreer I extend a most hearty welcome and sincere congratulations."

REGRETS RECEIVED.

The bursar, Mr. J. C. Stewart, gave notice that the following regrets had been received: His Excellency the Governor-General, the Hon. MacKenzie King, Premier; Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Lieut.-Governor; Sir Chas. Fitzpatrick, Premier; Taschereau, Hon. Cyril Delage, Hon. J. Nicol, Dr. Parmelee, Primate of Canada, Archbishop of Nova Scotia, Archbishop of Algoma, Bishop Gauthier, of the University of Montreal; Sir Robert Falconer, Toronto, Principal Bruce Taylor, Queen's; Principal of Western University, Principal of Stanstead Wesleyan College, Principal of Wycliffe College and others.

Bishop Williams, of Quebec. His Lordship Bishop Williams, of Quebec, was brief in his remarks, observing "I simply wish to say that from the very bottom of my heart I welcome the new Principal to Lennoxville. I have heard him say he was in love with it already, and I sincerely hope he will learn to love it still more and stay here all his life. In welcoming him we know who he is, and we know something of what he has done and accomplished, and with the ability, enthusiasm and optimism which he has shown to a marked degree, he will do great things. I welcome him as Bishop of the Diocese, as vice-president of the Corporation and as an old Oxford man."

Chancellor Extend Welcome.

Mr. John Hamilton, Chancellor, expressed himself as being glad to extend a brief but very hearty welcome to the new principal, and briefly commented upon the responsibilities associated with a position which necessitated the framing and the forming of the minds of the young generation.

The Chancellor reminded his hearers that if the principal is to do the good work, he is capable of doing he must be given fair play and must be afforded the assistance of the Corporation, the parents and the students.

In introducing the new principal, His Lordship the Bishop of Montreal referred to the fact that the Rev. McGreer had worked with him in the Cathedral and briefly related the incident relative to the new principal's enlistment, with the first overseas contingent, at less than a day's notice.

New Principal's Inaugural Address.

Lieut.-Col. McGreer was given a very hearty welcome and his address, unique, well conceived and splendidly delivered, was most fitting for the occasion. He observed: "It is with an awareness of bearing a great responsibility in a position endowed with a great opportunity that I venture upon an inaugural address as Principal of Bishop's College. The solemn words with which His Lordship, the President of Corporation, committed to me the administering the affairs of this seat of learning will ever be vividly in my thoughts to remind me of the character and importance of the task. Mindful of its true nature, encouraged by that common desire of the members, the graduates and the friends of this University which found expression in the prayers of the Service of Installation, and with a feeling of dependence on that Divine strength for which petition was made, I humbly and gladly accept the duties and the privileges which the office of the Principal confers upon its occupant."

"By those who are familiar with the careers of the past and present leaders in the life of this country no words of mine are needed to set forth the distinguished part which Bishop's men have played in the affairs of the Dominion. In the world of Literature, in the Professions of Law, Medicine, Teaching, and the Ministry; in the spheres of Politics, Industry and Commerce, they have made notable contributions to the building up of a vigorous and cultured nationhood for Canada. Where so many names have indisputable claim to recognition, it is perhaps not quite fair to discriminate amongst them, but I cannot forbear to remind you of a few of those whose service has brought honor to their Alma Mater and advancement to the cause which they espoused."

Bishop's Notable Contributions.

"It is but a few months ago that a Bishop's man was appointed to a position of high responsibility in one of the largest and perhaps the most important of the Transportation Companies of the world. Mr. Grant Hall, the Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway has won for himself a place of leadership in the industrial affairs of our country which only a man of great ability and devotion to duty could claim and it is a cause for profound satisfaction that notwithstanding the many responsibilities he has to bear, he still finds time to take a deep personal interest in, and to give valuable support to the cause of education."

"In the Profession of Law the names of Mr. G. H. Montgomery, K. C., and Mr. M. A. Phelan, K. C., stand high in the list of the leading Counsels of today, and we note with particular pleasure that amongst the more recent graduates of this College, Mr. W. B. Scott has won the distinction of being engaged as counsel in a case which was brought before the Privy Council only a few months ago."

"In the realm of Ecclesiastical Affairs, His Grace the Archbishop of Algoma, Canon Almond, and Canon Scott, in mission fields, on battlefields, and in the high positions which they occupy today, have made to the work of the church in this land contributions which we acknowledge with gratitude and pride."

War Record Not Excelled by Any University in the Dominion.

"In referring to those who so nobly upheld the best traditions of our race in the share they had in the Great War I cannot do better than quote from a most interesting resume of the history of this University by Prof. Vial, in the Mitre for the Trinity term of 1922. He wrote, 'The College was practically depleted of its young manhood in the years 1914-1918. The whole football team of 1914 enlisted, most of them in one unit, the famous 5th C. M. R. Twenty-five Bishop's men died on the field of battle, or of wounds received there. It is a subject not of boasting, but of reasonable pride, (Continued on page 12.)"

"I Had Terrible Backache From Kidney Disease"

Mrs. M. A. McNeill, Caanan Sta., N.B., writes: "I was troubled for years with terrible backache, resulting from kidney disease. At times in each month I remained in bed, the pain was more than I could stand, and to walk was almost impossible. I used about $50.00 worth of other medicines, but with little results. Now I am completely better, after using only five boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The funeral of Master Hugh Inglis Muir, sixteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Muir, who was accidentally shot Sunday a. m. was held at All Saints Church on Tuesday p. m., conducted by Rev. E. C. Russell, rector of the church. Mrs. E. Brownie rendered music during the service. The manager was Mr. L. O. Cass. The bearers were scout comrades in uniform, namely, Allan Pockock, Frederick O'Leary, Charlie Pockock, Clinton Shatto, Aubrey Woods and Ivan Lee. Master Hugh was one of the altar boys at All Saints Church and always ready with his kind words and deeds, and a great favorite with his comrades. The church was filled with sympathizing friends of the bereaved family. The many beautiful flowers bore silent testimony. He leaves to mourn his young death his father, mother, five sisters, Mrs. Varney, of Stanstead; Mrs. James Shatto of Beebe; Annie, Margaret and Mildred at home; three brothers, William and Robert, at home and Geo. Muir, of Beebe. The remains were laid to rest in the Woodside Cemetery.

DANVILLE

Tuesday evening, October 24th, was the occasion of a very pleasant gathering in the form of a Halloween party at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hamilton, where a farewell was given by the choir of the Federated Church for Mrs. Elmer Mathers, who is leaving shortly for St. Johnsbury, Vt. After Halloween games were played a fine programme was rendered by the members of the choir and their guests, consisting of a fine address by their Pastor, Rev. E. B. Warren, vocal and instrumental music. Able assistance was given by Mr. S. Gibson, who rendered the part of a Jew and his vast experience on a cattle ranch in Alberta. The choir leader, Mr. H. Sampson, in a few well chosen remarks presented Mrs. Mathers with a handsome silver case and an electric flat iron, as small tokens of the choir's appreciation of her untiring services amongst them. Mrs. Mathers thanked the choir for their beautiful gifts and kind remarks, and after dainty refreshments, the evening closed with singing "Auld Lang Syne."

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Creates Gas, Sourness and Pain. How To Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, nervous burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any drugist a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a "quarter glass" of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Ironized Yeast Will Ironize Your Nerves

To Produce Great Natural Nervous Strength, Yeast Should Be Ironized and Not Merely Mixed With Iron. There is Only One Ironized Yeast in the World

Now, Mr. Man, tighten your fist and clamp your jaws. Tighter. Now still tighter. As tight as you can. Notice how weak is the tightest you can go? Vitamins and iron in your body made it possible for you to do these two things. If you had still

Is He Run-Down, Exhausted? See That He Takes Ironized Yeast. More vitamins, ironized yeast, you could tighten your fist and your jaws almost as tight as a vice. Ironized Yeast will enable you to do it, because ironized yeast combines concentrated vitamins with natural organic iron, in such strength that it gives amazing power to nerves and organs in half the usual time. It is the most powerful reconstructive in the world today for tired, exhausted men and women. It is not a mere mixture of yeast and iron, but is yeast ironized, which is a substance all by itself. Give your nerves the natural food-strength they lack. They do not need stimulation, they need natural force. Here it is, Ironized Yeast! This will give you great blood power, great nerve power, an avalanche of energy, brain clearness, stronger muscle, firmer flesh, a clear eye and memory—and you'll still have the smile of health and power. Ironized Yeast is sold at all drug stores, at $1.00 a package. Each package contains 60 tablets, each tablet is sealed. They never lose their power. Harold F. "Nothing I Could Take Made Me Any Fatter." advertisement with text: "Up to the time I was seventeen years old, I believe that I was the most miserable and unhappy girl that ever lived. Honestly, I was a sight. I was the most ungracefully looking creature you ever saw. I was thin and scrawny—straight up and down. My height was five feet nine inches and I weighed exactly ninety-one and three quarter pounds. No matter what kind of clothes I put on I looked like a fright. I was clumsy and awkward. I used to stand before the glass and study my features. I found I had a good nose, good eyes and a good mouth, but my cheeks were sunken and my face looked like a skull with a piece of parchment stretched over it. But nothing I could do or take made me any fatter. Men rarely even glanced at me. When they did, they merely gave me a casual, amused or pitying look—an expression which I am sure meant, 'why is a being like that allowed to live?' I used to lie awake at night for hours at a time wondering why there were so many beautiful girls in the world and I was so hideous. I met a friend of mine one day, Elsie W. and I hardly knew her. While she had never been as thin as I was, a year or more ago she ran me a close second, but when I met her she had taken on flesh and had developed into a fine handsome girl with one of the prettiest figures I had ever seen. I asked her what had caused the big change. She said Carnal. She told me she had been taking it regularly for the last three months and that had begun to put on flesh. I was so encouraged by what she said that I couldn't get to the druggie fast enough. I bought a bottle and since then I have been taking it regularly. It has made the greatest change in me you ever saw. I now weigh 160 pounds and all my friends tell me what a wonderful figure I have and I know that I am 'showered'." Carnal is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.

The RED HOUSE MYSTERY

(Continued From Our Last Issue) From the beginning Antony had drawn back from it. For, if Mark had been killed, it seemed such a cold-blooded killing. Was Cayley equal to it?

Bill would have said "No," because Bill wouldn't have killed anybody in cold blood himself, and because he took it for granted that other people behaved pretty much as he did. But Antony had no such illusions. Murderers were done; murder had actually been done here, for there was Robert's dead body. Why not another murder?

Had Mark been in the office at all that afternoon? The only evidence (other than Cayley's, which obviously did not count) was Elsie's. Elsie was quite certain that she had heard his voice. But then Bill had said that it was a very characteristic voice—an easy voice, therefore, to mistake. If Bill could mistake it so successfully, why not Cayley?

But perhaps it had not been such a cold-blooded killing, after all. Suppose Cayley had had a quarrel with his cousin that afternoon over the girl whom they were both wooing. Suppose Cayley had killed Mark, either purposely, in sudden passion, or accidentally, meaning only to knock him down. Suppose that this had happened in the passage, say about two o'clock. Suppose Cayley there, with the body at his feet, feeling already the rope round his neck; his mind darting this way and that in frantic search for a way of escape; and suppose that suddenly and fearfully he remembers that Robert is coming to the house at three o'clock that afternoon—automatically he looks at his watch—had an hour's time. . . . Antony pictured to himself Cayley in the passage, standing over the dead body of his cousin, and working it out. How could Robert be made to seem the murderer, if Robert were alive to deny it? But suppose Robert were dead, too? He looks at his watch again. (Only twenty-five minutes now.) Suppose Robert were dead, too? Robert dead in the office, and Mark dead in the passage—how does that help? Madness! But if the bodies were brought together somehow. . . . And Robert's death looked like suicide? . . . Was it possible?

Madness again. Too difficult. (Only twenty minutes now.) Too difficult to arrange in twenty minutes. Can't arrange a suicide. Too difficult. . . . Only nineteen minutes. . . . And then the sudden inspiration! Robert dead in the office, Mark's body hidden in the passage—impossible to make Robert seem the murderer, but how easy to make Mark! Robert dead and Mark missing; why, it jumped to the eye at once, Mark had killed Robert accidentally; yes, that would be more likely—and then had run away. Sudden panic. . . . (He looks at his watch again. Fifteen minutes, but plenty of time now. The thing arranges itself.)

Was that the solution, Antony wondered. It seemed to fit in with the facts as they knew them; but then, so did that other theory which he had suggested to Bill in the morning. "Which one?" said Bill. They were sitting in the cove above the pond, from which the inspector and his fishermen had now withdrawn. Bill had listened with open mouth to Antony's theory, and save for an occasional "By Jove!" had listened in silence. "Smart man, Cayley," had been his only comment at the end. "Which other theory?" "That Mark had killed Robert accidentally and had gone to Cayley for help, and that Cayley, having hidden him in the passage, looked the office door from the outside and hemmed on it." "Yes, but you were so dashed mysterious about that. I asked you what the point of it was, and you wouldn't say anything." He thought for a little, and then went on, "I suppose you meant that Cayley deliberately betrayed Mark, and tried to make him look like a murderer?" "I wanted to warn you that we should probably find Mark in the passage, alive or dead." "And now you don't think so?" "Now I think that his dead body is there." "Meaning that Cayley went down and killed him afterward—after you had come, after the police had come?"

"SEE ANYTHING?" SAID ANTONY AT LAST.

"Well, that's what I think from. Bill. It's so horribly cold-blooded. Cayley may be capable of it, but I hate to think of it." "But, dash it all, your other way is cold-blooded enough. According to you, he goes up to the office and deliberately shoots a man with whom he has no quarrel, whom he hasn't seen for fifteen years!" "Yes, but to save his own neck. That makes a difference. And I think that Mark's dead body is in the passage now, and has been there since, say, half-past two yesterday afternoon. And tonight Cayley is going to hide it in the pond."

Bill pulled at the moss on the ground beside him, threw away a handful or two, and said slowly, "You may be right, but it's all guess-work, you know." Antony laughed. "Good Lord, of course it is," he said. "And tonight we shall know if it's a good guess or a bad one." Bill brightened up suddenly. "Tonight," he said. "I say, to-night's going to be rather fun. How do we work it?" Antony was silent for a little. "Let's put ourselves in Cayley's place," said Antony, puffing slowly at his pipe. "He's got the body, or whatever it is, in the passage. What will he do next?" "Come out again," said Bill helpfully. "Yes; but which end?" Bill sat up with a start. "By Jove, you mean that he will go out at the far end by the bowling-green?"

"Don't you think so? Just imagine him walking across the lawn in full view of the house, at midnight, with a body in his arms. He can get out by the bowling-green, and then come to the pond without ever being in sight of the house at all." "You're right. Now, what's the next thing?" "The next thing is to mark the exact place in the pond where he drops—whatever he drops." "So that we can fish it out again." "If we can see what it is, we shan't want to. The police can have a go at it tomorrow. But if it's something we can't identify from a distance, then we must try and get it out. To see whether it's worth telling the police about."

"—yes," said Bill, wrinkling his forehead. "Of course, the trouble with water is that one bit of it looks pretty much like the next bit. I don't know if that had occurred to you." "It had," smiled Antony. "Let's come and have a look at it." They walked to the edge of the cove, and lay down there in silence, looking at the pond beneath them. "See anything?" said Antony at last. "What?" "The fence on the other side." "What about it?" "Well, it's rather useful, that's all."

"Said Sherlock Holmes enigmatically," added Bill. "A moment later, his friend Watson had hurried him into the pond." Antony laughed. "I love being Sherlock," he said. "It's very unfair of you not to play up to me." "Why is that fence useful, my dear Holmes?" said Bill obediently. "Because you can take a bearing on it. You see—

"Yes, you needn't stop to explain to me what a bearing is." "I wasn't going to. But you're lying here"—he looked up—"underneath this pine-tree. Cayley comes out in the old boat and drops his parcel in. You take a line from here on to the boat, and mark it off on the fence there. Say it's the fifth post from the end. Well, then I take a line from my tree—we'll end one for me directly—and it comes on to the twentieth post, say. And where the two lines meet, there shall the eagles be gathered together. Q. E. D. And there, I almost forget to remark, with the usual, deigns, Beverly by name, do his famous diving act. As performed nightly at the Hippodrome."

Bill looked at him uneasily. "I say, really? It's beastly dirty water, you know." "I'm afraid so. But it is written in the book of Jasher." "Of course I knew that one of us would have to, but I hoped—oh, well, it's a warm night." "Just the night for a bath," agreed Antony, getting up. "Well now, let's have a look for my tree." They walked down to the margin of the pond and then looked back. Bill's tree stood up and took the evening, tall and unmistakable, fifty feet nearer to heaven than its neighbors. But it had its fellow at the other end of the cove, not quite so tall, perhaps, but equally conspicuous. "That's where I shall be," said Antony, pointing to it. "Now, for the Lord's sake, count your posts accurately."

"Thanks very much, but I shall do it for my own sake," said Bill with feeling. "I don't want to spend the whole night diving." "Fix on the post in a straight line with you and the splash, and then count backward to the beginning of the fence." "Right, old boy. Leave it to me. I can do this on my head." "Well, that's how you will have to do the last part of it," said Antony with a smile. He looked at his watch. It was nearly time to change for dinner. They started to walk back to the house together. . . .

At midnight the pond was waiting for them, more solemn in the moonlight. The trees which crowded the sloping bank on the far side of it were ungratefully silent. It seemed that they had the world very much to themselves. Almost unconsciously Antony spoke in a whisper. "There's your tree, there's mine. As long as you don't move there's no chance of my seeing you. After he's gone, don't come out till I do. He won't be here for a quarter of an hour or so, so don't be impatient." "Righto," whispered Bill. Antony gave him a nod and a smile, and they walked off to their posts. (Continued in Our Next Issue)

ST. FRANCIS GOLF CLUB.
The club house of the St. Francis Golf Club will be closed for the season on Tuesday, October 31st. Members are requested to remove the contents of their lockers before that date.

DO IT NOW.

This is the time to start Mandolin, Guitar or Banjo. Why not learn to play when the Peate method makes it easy? $25.00 includes the instrument and ten lessons. Mr. B. R. Thomson, of the Peate School, Montreal, is in Sherbrooke on Monday and Tuesday of each week. Call up H. C. Wilson and Sons for full particulars. We can arrange easy payments if preferable.

FINAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS
Individuals and concerns who elected to pay their income tax in four quarterly instalments have four more days in which to make their final payments, and one of these days is only half a day, namely Saturday.

Next Tuesday, the 31st of October, will be the last day on which payments of income taxes can be received without the addition of the interest and penalty, which will come to ten per cent per annum additional on all overdue taxes on the morning of November 1st. But, of course, the usual provision will be made that all payments mailed before Tuesday midnight and arriving at the taxation offices on the following day, will be accepted as having been made within the prescribed time.

MOTORISTS PROTEST AGAINST REDUCTION IN SPEED LAWS

The Montreal Motorists' League have made a strong and emphatic protest to the Quebec Ministers against any reduction of speed on the highways. The League feels that the present rate of twenty miles in the towns and villages and thirty miles on the highway is most useful and reasonable, and these rates of speed are acquired to enable motorists to use their cars with advantage.

Every driver exceeding these reasonable speed limits must be severely dealt with and the officials of the League are co-operating with the Government to help put a stop to the abuses that these senseless speeding road dogs cause.

Mr. Peter Bercovitch, K.C., M.P.P., will watch the interests of the Montreal Motorists' League during the present session of Parliament and will protest any reduction of the speed laws.

Two of the many requests now being made by the League are: A reduction of automobile license fees, and lights on all vehicles.
A big mass meeting of Montreal motorists will be called by Secretary-Treasurer T. C. Kirby during

LENNOXVILLE

INTERESTING W.C.T.U. MEETING.
The monthly meeting of the W.C.T.U., postponed from last week on account of one of its members, was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Paige. The attendance was unusually large, a number of visitors being present in addition to the regular membership. Mrs. G. G. McCurdy, president, was in the chair, the programme for the afternoon being in charge of Mrs. Allan Ayer.

Following the reports of work accomplished during the month, Mrs. J. McCaw, of Sherbrooke, was asked to give a report of the recent Provincial Convention held at Huntingdon, at which she was a delegate from Sherbrooke County. Mrs. McCaw's report was full and inspiring, and embodied the chief pronouncements of the convention, on Government control of the liquor traffic to which it was very much opposed; dissatisfaction with the gambling laws of the Province, and with the establishing of a license at St. Anne de Bellevue among the disabled soldiers. The local Union expressed itself as being in fullest accord with these opinions.

REV. W. H. MOORHEAD RECEIVED TOKEN OF ESTEEM.

The Rev. W. H. Moorhead, M.A., for a number of years curate of the Church of the Ascension, Montreal, and formerly curate of St. Peter's Church in Sherbrooke, who has received the appointment as rector of St. Stephen's Church at Grand Mere, was presented with a travelling bag and an illuminated address at the annual harvest festival of the Church of the Ascension, Mrs. Moorhead, formerly Miss Mabel Wilson, of this city, was presented with a brooch of pearls and emeralds set in platinum.

C. W. Batho, church warden, made the presentation to Mr. Moorhead on behalf of the church vestry and various societies. Mrs. M. Peterson presented the brooch to Mrs. Moorhead on behalf of the ladies of the church.

Speeches were delivered by the rector, Rev. Canon J. L. Flanagan, W. Perry, C. W. Batho, and W. C. Wilson. Emphasis was laid on the good work performed by Mr. Moorhead and the loss the church would sustain in his leaving. Thanks were tendered the rector, officers of the church and the congregation by Mr. Moorhead.

burg was planned for the next meeting. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Bellam, Mrs. James Paige and Mrs. Wm. McMullin, served a delightful tea which the cold afternoon rendered very acceptable.

A pleasing incident of the afternoon was the present of Mrs. Rose Henderson, of Ottawa, president of the W.M.S. of the Montreal Conference, who was passing through town, and was brought to the meeting by friends.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. McCaw and also the hostess, concluding one of the most successful meetings of the year.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM JAMIESON.

Mr. William Jamieson passed away at his home on Main Street, last night, after a lengthy illness, the last year of which was spent entirely in his room. Mr. Jamieson has been for about twenty years a resident of Lennoxville, and is well known in the town and vicinity.

General Notes.

Mrs. Rose Henderson, of Ottawa, was a guest at the Methodist Parsonage on her way to Bury, on Thursday.

Mrs. C. E. White is confined to the house owing to illness.

Next Sunday being the Sunday nearest to All Saints Day, the special hymns will be sung at the evening service. During the offertory, Mrs. Stevenson will sing a solo, "Lead, Kindly Light." (By request of Canon Wright.)

The Misses Twose, Queen Street, have returned home from Toronto, where they attended the Dominion Board of the Women's Auxiliary held in that city, and also visited friends in Montreal.

Mr. Charles A. Peterson, of Lennoxville, arrived home today from Hartford, Conn., where he was called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Alfred Peterson. Mrs. Peterson was formerly a resident of Lennoxville, and her many friends there will be pleased to learn that she is slightly improved.

The weekly tea held in St. Patrick's Church Hall yesterday afternoon was well attended and very much enjoyed. The hostesses were Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Wm. Tobin, Mrs. Weldon Kenalty and Mrs. T. M. Hawkins. Bridge and 500" were played, the prizes in the former being won by Miss Corinne Denault and Mrs. J. A. Wiggett; and in the latter by Mrs. T. Lothrop and Mrs. Charles Stenson. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. D. J. Steele and Mrs. G. W. Murphy. Pink carnations were used effectively in the table decorations, and the refreshments were most appetizing.

many for the elected officers took place.

Those installed were Marion MacDonald, president; Verlie Oughtred, vice-president; Velma Doyle, secretary, and Elizabeth Bonner, treasurer. The four officers appointed by the president for the standards were Gladys Doyle, Bertha Butterfield, Marguerite Archer and Margaret Gillen. Phyllis Forrest, the past president, was appointed pianist for the ensuing term, and was made a presentation on behalf of the group. The gift was a ring, accompanied by words of appreciation for her service while in office.

The meeting was held under the supervision of Mrs. McCallam, leader, and after the completion of business the group went to Woodward's for refreshments, thus completing a happy evening.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVITIES BEGAN LAST EVENING.

St. Paul's Mission hall presented a gay appearance last evening when the Girls' Club held a Masquerade and box social. Orange and black paper, in festoons and fanciful designs, formed an attractive background for the cats and bats, witches, broomsticks and Jack-O-Lanterns which were here, there and everywhere. The permission to "dress up" for the occasion was hailed with delight by the fair sex, especially, and resulted in some pretty and unique costumes. The young men were more timid about appearing in other than regulation attire, but a few had the needed courage, and competed for the prize for the best costume.

Games were played during the early part of the evening, and the awarding of prizes for the best costumes was an exciting feature of the event. These were won by Miss Irene Doiron as an Indian girl, and by Mr. Roland Bonner, who represented Mephisto.

The president of the club, Miss Nichols, and the members were assisted in looking after the comfort of the visitors by Mrs. Cuthbert and Mrs. Robinson.

The lunch boxes were auctioned by Mr. Patton, providing a good amount of anticipation and merriment. The attendance was most gratifying, and all entered into the spirit of the festive occasion, the result being one of the happiest of many happy evenings spent by the club and its friends. The proceeds were also quite up to expectations.

Among those who were present at the installation of Lt.-Col. the Rev. A. H. McGreer, M.A., B.A., O.B.E., M.C., as Principal of Bishop's College, held last evening at Lennoxville, were the Right Rev. Lennox Williams, Bishop of Quebec; the Right Rev. John Farthing, Bishop of Montreal; General Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill University; Dr. Siefert, Canon Scott, Dr. Welsh, representing the Presbyterian Theological College, Montreal; Inspector Hunter, representing McMaster University; Dr. J. W. Parmalee, Quebec; the Rector of Loyola College; Professor Brodie Brockwells, of the Presbyterian Theological College, Montreal; Dr. Hamilton, Quebec, Chancellor of the University; Mr. S. P. Smith, Headmaster of Bishop's College School; Archdeacon Balfour, Quebec; Archdeacon Longhurst, Granby; Rev. G.H.A. Murray, Three Rivers; Rev. and Mrs. R.W.E. INSPECTION OF RE-ORGANIZED CAFE.
Yesterday was a gala day for Steel's Cafe, when, after entirely renovating the interior and making many improvements, they opened their cafe for the inspection by the public. The establishment is under an entirely new management, and many improvements have been made. The staff is almost entirely new and is now made up of perfectly trained waitresses, nicely uniformed, and in charge of a head waitress. A rest room has been installed in one end of the room, in which easy chairs and a carpet have been placed. New silver and china have been procured, and the interior has been attractively decorated.

AID FOR PRIMARY EDUCATION.

The following paragraph appears in the Speech from the Throne, given at the opening of the Quebec Legislature this week:

"With a view to realizing its programme of giving all possible development to superior and university education, the Government has liberally endowed our universities and colleges. In order to further stimulate the advance in public education, it proposes to make this year large grants to primary schools."

The details of these proposals will be awaited with interest. Some time ago in public speeches, members of the Government intimated that very soon something would be done in a large way for elementary education. It appears that the programme in this connection is to be announced as a Government measure at the present session of the Legislature.

Very serious problems are associated with the elementary schools of the Province. Not only are revenues insufficient, but teachers are not available and in mixed communities pupils are not in sufficient numbers to warrant the maintenance of the district school. As a remedy to this consolidation is offered, but prejudices and many difficulties arise to prevent this solution from being applied.

It is sincerely to be hoped the Government's proposals will work out to the real advantage of the sorely tried district school.

The trend of population from the country to the city is not because the children of the country are getting too much education, as some contend, but to some extent at least because educational facilities are not available in many country districts.

The Quebec Government has never concerned itself with a more important question than that of the elementary school to which it is now giving its attention.

GENIUS.

How could John Lillie, New England farmer and carpenter, produce a master painting as his first effort with the brush? How could he in one season spring to a permanent place in the American artistic world? Lillie is a man of mature years, and until last summer had never seen an oil painting.

The phenomenon is one of those which occur once or twice in a century, and it is such as to give thinking people pause. All his life, unconsciously, John Lillie had been drinking in the beauties of New England landscapes. It was not until a group of artists happened to stop at his house for a few weeks that he knew he could express the pictures in his soul.

The poet Keats, who died young, produced the most beautiful verse in English. It was an intuition for the right combinations of words, a special sense for musical values, apparently inborn in him.

To most human beings nature gives no such genius. When they attain a measure of perfection in their work, it is the result of long, heart-breaking labor. When Gray sang of "mute inanimate Miltons," the poets who never express their souls in rhyme, the unfortunate whose genius never blossoms, it was no dream. Such men and women are all about. The lack of happy circumstance, the denial of the accident which might give them an opportunity, spells for them a humdrum, ordinary life, while if education were better developed, if the pinch of poverty were eradicated, the world would have many more artists.

BILL'S SECOND WIFE.

It is proverbial that men treat their second wives better than the first. That should be a note of solace to the Princess Hermine whose nuptials with that funny specimen of the lover, Bill Hohenzollern, soon are to be celebrated.

Bill's first wife had to listen to him talk about himself. She had to hear his boasting, watch his strutting, try to keep from laughing at his vain attempts to hide the shrivelled hand. Hermine is luckier. If she has any sense at all, she knows Bill for what he is.

It was a tragedy for the late empress. Her life mate had assumed to one of the most powerful places upon which an unworthy human ever was allowed to remain. She had heard his hoarse vauntings of world empire. And then she was to see him run like a whipped cur, deserting his country and the soldiers who, whatever may be said against them, certainly had served him well and bravely. She was to see him betake himself to Doorn, an unlovely and unheroic spectacle. It was enough to end her days for her.

Bill got over the mourning period quickly. He looked about, and his eye fell upon Hermine. From the meager estimate that may be made of her from news despatches, it seems that she is not one to take any of Bill's smartness. The chances are that she will rule the roost. She can't make Bill any more ridiculous. And in return, Hermine will have a doddering old Ex-Everything to care for. Cheer up, Hermine. They say the second wife always is treated the better.

TODAY'S A HOLIDAY.

October 27, 1922.

Roosevelt Day.

The growth in momentum of the movement to commemorate Theodore Roosevelt has been remarkable since his death. One of America's most brilliant statesmen, he left a deep impression on his generation. Already today, the anniversary of his birth in 1858, is widely being celebrated as a holiday.

The Roosevelt Memorial Association has done a great deal in devising propaganda for keeping alive the Roosevelt movement. The Boy Scout organization also has lent itself to this purpose, for Roosevelt's career was particularly appealing to youth.

The motto: "Over and through, never around," has been adopted as a slogan by many schools named in Roosevelt's honor. At his tomb today appropriate memorial services are planned, and in many cities Roosevelt programmes also will be held.

The number of books about Roosevelt published since his death has been large. The awarding last year of an annual scholarship by Lord Lee, to the writer of the best essay on "Roosevelt's Gospel of Public Service," has acted as a further stimulus to study of his career.

PRESS COMMENT

LEADERSHIP.

(Windsor Star.)

Those who are capable of leadership will push their way to the top, no matter where they start, no matter what the standards of their more plodding fellows. This was true in the pioneer days when the log cabin produced Abraham Lincoln. It is true today, when the workshop has produced leaders like Henry Ford. There may be such a thing as an "aristocracy of brains," but it will never be an aristocracy dependent on birth and tradition. It cannot be hand-picked. Nature will do the culling.

NEAR EAST SITUATION.

(Peterboro Examiner.)

The world's interest will now shift from the Near East situation to Lloyd George's fight to save himself from those who are bitterly striving to drag him down. The political situation in England, is of course, closely allied with the Turkish trouble, and it remains to be seen whether the Premier can weather the storm. His past records indicate that he will, for he has thrived upon crises in the past.

WHERE RUSSIA MUST BE HEARD.

(Christian Science Monitor.)

For more than four years Russia has been an outlaw among the nations. The world may be pardoned for having treated her as an outlaw. But in the present circumstances Russia is giving voice to a demand that is reasonable, legitimate and in consonance with the sense of justice among the nations. Moscow demands that its spokesman must be admitted to the council that is to settle the Dardanelles Straits. Russia is vitally interested in those straits. They are her natural outlet to warm water. They constitute her road to Europe.

LAW.

(Vancouver Sun.)

A law once set down must be fully observed until it is replaced by another law quite as workable.

A law set aside temporarily is a law destroyed.

To pardon offenders, suspend laws and nullify decisions is to admit that the laws affected are not based upon necessity and an inherent righteousness; that they are, in fact, restrictive and vexatious. The law-giver of all-beings most owes the law allegiance. He of all men should behave as though the law compelled.

Every citizen is a law-giver by the force of his vote. He must respect his own laws, for unless he does, they cannot in all justice be respected by subnormal criminal intelligence they were made to control.

WHAT IS THE WORLD COMING TO?

(Toronto Globe.)

Edison paid a visit a few days ago to the research laboratories of the General Electric Company at Schenectady, the outcome of his own factory established forty years ago for the manufacture of incandescent electric lamps. His inventions have revolutionized modern life in many respects, but in these laboratories were more surprises. He saw a mercury boiler so much more efficient than steam that when it is perfected it will mean a saving of one-third of the coal used to produce power; a machine for registering the voice by light on a moving-picture film that has wonderful possibilities, including talking movies; and also vacuum tubes that are expected to revolutionize the present methods of generating, transmitting and utilizing electric energy.

Dr. Steinmetz, chief electrician, took the Wizard of Menlo Park into one laboratory where a current of 120,000 volts was used to test insulators and lightning arresters.

JUVENILE COURT HISTORY.

(Christian Science Monitor.)

Through the children's bureau of the United States Department of Labor, there has recently been issued a survey of the activities of the Juvenile Court of Chicago during the last twenty-one years. The court is said to have been the first to be given exclusive jurisdiction over juvenile offenders and delinquents, and it is interesting, because of this, to observe its methods while contrasting them with those of similar tribunals since organized, some of which have seemed to benefit by the absence of limitations which have fixed the jurisdiction of the Chicago Court. While the work in Chicago marked a commendable departure from the system which compelled youths who had not offended seriously to be classed and dealt with as hardened criminals, second offenders and social delinquents, it would seem that elsewhere there has been opportunity to avoid some of the restrictions, constitutionally imposed, which have made impossible the fullest realization of that guardianship or paternalism which is everywhere sought and which many juvenile courts have been able to extend.

FOSTER NEWS AND PERSONALS OF INTEREST

A General News Budget of Interest to Residents of Foster and District.

FOSTER, Que., Oct. 27.—The United Young People's meeting will be held on Monday evening next at the home of Miss Ruby Luce. It is hoped every member will be present, and visitors will be very welcome.

Mr. Harve Wing is moving his family this week into Mrs. Hollingsworth's house for the winter.

The supper at Mrs. Lena Quilliams' on Wednesday evening was fairly well attended in spite of the downpour of rain. Seventy-five people took supper, and the proceeds totalled $18. Those who ventured out spent a most enjoyable evening.

The new house at the factory is up and nearly inclosed. Mr. Carr, of Sutton, is here nearly every day superintending the work.

DENIES CLAIM WITH REGARD TO DRUG HABIT

Rev. Dr. Shearer Says Drug Habit Not Due to Suppression of Liquor Facilities.

(Associated Press Despatch) MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—Denial of the assertion recently made that the drug habit was largely due to suppression of liquor facilities was made here yesterday by Rev. Dr. J. G. Shearer, of Toronto, general secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, in discussing a resolution moved at the annual meeting of the Quebec Provincial Social Service Council.

In support of this contention the speaker stated figures showing that importation of drugs into Canada had fallen from 12,333 ounces of cocaine in 1919 to 2,352 ounces for the last fiscal year, with proportionate fall in the figures for allied drugs.

Convictions for offences against the Narcotic Act were, he said, as follows up to March 31st last: Prince Edward Island, nil; Nova Scotia, 9; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 15; Ontario, 36; Saskatchewan, 88; Alberta, 101; Quebec, 237; British Columbia, 315.

Thus the two provinces not under prohibition supplied 552 of these cases.

MASONS HELD A MEETING AT MANSONVILLE

Many Were in Attendance—Banquet Proved a Great Success.

MANSONVILLE, Que., Oct. 27.—The Masonic District meeting for the Districts of Shefford and Brome, which includes five lodges, was held with St. John's Lodge, Mansonville, on Wednesday evening, and the attendance was very large. During the afternoon and evening three degrees were exemplified.

The Women's Institute had been asked to serve the six o'clock supper and also the banquet at eleven o'clock. This seemed like quite an undertaking, as there are so few workers. However, once undertaken the work was splendidly done. There were about eighty-five at the first supper and considerable over a hundred attended the banquet. The Town Hall was used, and it was a pretty sight to see the tables laid for one hundred and thirty guests. There were three long tables the length of the hall, and one head table. The table committee members are especially to be congratulated upon their work. The decorations and general effect was beautiful indeed.

In the absence of Rt. Wor. Bro. J. H. Holmes, D.D.G.M., who was unable to be present on account of illness, Wor. Bro. Charters, of Sutton, presided at the banquet.

Following the toast to the King,

Bro. Charters proposed the toast to the Grand Lodge, which was responded to in an able address by Rt. Wor. Bro. Rev. Canon Shatford, of Montreal. Rev. Shatford is a forceful speaker and his address was appreciated by all present.

Then followed speeches by the following gentlemen: Rt. Wor. Bro. J. G. Fuller, of Granby; Wor. Bro. W. G. Bradford, of Granby; and Rt. Wor. Bro. H. Jenne, of Sutton.

During the evening God Save the King and Auld Lang Syne were sung.

The members of the Women's Institute are very grateful to all who helped in any way to make their part of the day's work the success it proved.

CRANBERRY

The Ladies' Guild of Trinity Church was entertained on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Atkinson at the Rectory. There was a good attendance of members and a few visitors and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mrs. Thomas Wood, of Maple Grove, has gone to Woodsville to see her brother, who is sick in the Hospital at Woodsville, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward and family of St. Ferdinand, motored to East Angus and were the week-end guests of Mrs. Ward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cowling.

Mr. Irwin Amadon while hunting the other day had the good luck to shoot two fine deer.

Miss Eva Porter, of Thetford Mines, spent the week-end a guest of her mother at New Ireland.

Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Butler, of East Angus, went to Lower Ireland to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. T. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Porter and Mrs. J. Kimball went to Thetford Mines on Monday.

Mrs. R. Bean, of Sherbrooke, is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. J. Sealy.

UNCLE JIM'S LETTER

Dear Boys and Girls:—

We are glad to read about William's kind act to a little bird. Those are the little things that often lead to bigger things and help to make the club a success. You see, when you are wearing a badge you often think of it, when without it you might not be so thoughtful. That is right, Francis, put up bird houses, and show your friends how to do the same. I read a nice story the other evening in the Red Cross magazine about bird houses, and I will tell you something about it tomorrow.

Some ladies went to the Central School one day this week, and had a nice meeting with the pupils. I will tell you something about it.

Uncle Jim heard that there was going to be a Junior Red Cross meet at the Central School, so he decided to send a message to the school children. The message was this: That there were about seven hundred members now in the B. P. Club, and he hoped there would be as many in the Junior Red Cross groups. The messenger also told the boys and girls that Uncle Jim had pledged assistance in any way that would help to make the Junior Red Cross a success.

You have been told that the badge cannot be bought with money, it must be earned through service, and that is just the same as our little gold bird pin is won, is it not? You are doing service to a wonderful part of Canadian outdoor life when you protect the birds, and are then worthy of the badge. Win the pretty J. R. C. badge in the same way, and Uncle Jim will say, hurrah! for the school boys and girls who are always ready to do their duty. I will ask for some news about the Toy Market the Central school children are going to have, and will tell the Corner folk about it in one of my letters. Until tomorrow. Yours faithfully,

UNCLE JIM.

Your mouth tightly close,
Then all the fresh air
Will pass through your nose.

LETTERS FROM THE CORNER FOLK.

Dear Uncle Jim—
This is my second letter to your page. Excuse me for my delay in writing. I received my pin and my little brother also, and thank you very much. I go to school every day, and like it. I will close now, wishing the club success. Good-bye, from your niece, ALBIA MORIN,

Stanbridge East.

Dear Uncle Jim:
I pledge myself to do all I can to protect the birds and to learn all I can about them. I will not rob birds' nests, and I will do all I can to make the club a success. One day when walking to school I saw a little bird in the bushes with his legs tangled in some grass. I picked him up, took the grass away, looked him over to see if he was hurt, then let him fly away. I am twelve years old and am in grade five at school. I would like a pin, and would also like to see my letter in print. Good-bye. Yours truly,
WILLIAM PENTICOST,
Bulwer.

Dear Uncle Jim—
My brother and I live on a farm. We have eighteen cows, three horses, sixty chickens, one dog and two cats. We had fifty-five bushels of potatoes and a nice lot of vegetables and apples this fall. I am sending my brother's and my pledge. We are both very much interested in birds. We had two bird houses. I had two nests in one of them. Your nephew,
FRANCIS N. FLEMING,
Melbourne.

RESIDENTS OF BROME TOOK A PART IN HUNT

Little Child Became Lost—General Draper Took Command of Searching Party.

BROME, Que., Oct. 26.—This little town was thrown into a great state of excitement on Monday night, when news came over the wire that Mr. and Mrs. William Emerson's little daughter of two and a half years, had strayed away from home and was lost. The last seen of her was between three and four o'clock when Mr. Gerald Rhicard returning by auto from Sutton, passed the child on the road, her little collie pup being with her. The male population turned out en masse from here as well as Sutton, with lanterns, under the leadership of General Draper, of Sutton Junction. They formed a brigade and began the search in the pouring rain and wind storm, which never ceased until near morning, when snow began to fall. All kept up the faithful search, marching in a body about ten feet apart, one gang starting from Patch's Corner and this side of Mr. Emerson's farm, where the child was last observed, and the other party of a hundred and fifty men the other side of the farm, near Enlagna. Towards midnight their search was rewarded when Mr. Emerson her father was the one who first came upon his child utterly exhausted and lying in an unconscious state near a fence beyond Mr. Cedric Hasting's pasture. She had travelled probably four miles or more. Dr. McDonald was already on the scene when they returned with the child who was quickly made comfortable and at time of writing seems to be none the worse for the outing. All rejoice with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson in the recovery of the little one.

Rev. Joseph preached a splendid sermon in St. John's Church on Sunday evening from the words of St. Paul—"Seek ye all men the truth of your neighbor."

Service in St. John's Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, Sunday School at ten o'clock a.m.

Work is progressing well on the government road from Lacelle to Knowlton, and will soon be completed from Gilman to Owen's Corner.

Another snow storm fell here on Tuesday, followed by rain.

Messrs. Henry Vail and son, James, and Sherman Frizzle have each purchased a car load of grain and are now busily engaged in unloading same.

Mrs. George Rabator and family, of Knowlton, are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. M. P. Rhicard.

Messrs. Curley and Stowell were in town on Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Ware and daughter, Frances, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Peasley were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, of Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Rhicard, of Bolton, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ware.

Mrs. John Westover, who has been in Sutton sometime, confined to her room through injuries received in an auto accident on her way here from Manchester, is now so much improved as to be able to visit her friends in Brome, and is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Foster, at "Echo Hill Farm."

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Libby and family, of Richford, were recent guests of Mrs. Mary Westover.

MARRIAGES

WILLIAMS—YOUNG.
A very pretty and largely attended wedding took place on Wednesday, October 18th, at six o'clock in St. George's Church, Lennoxville, when Miss Annie Leola, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Young, of Lennoxville, and Mr. Wilbur Coit Williams, of Bulwer, were united in marriage by the Rev. Canon R. W. E. Wright, rector of St. George's Church.

The bride, who wore a beaded gown of white satin and georgette crepe, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and maiden hair fern, was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Archie Campbell, of Compton, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Archie Campbell, as matron-of-honor, who wore white satin and georgette. Miss Helen Barter acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in pale yellow crepe de chene. Both attendants wore large black picture hats, and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations, with maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by Mr. Parker Tabor, of Pittsburgh, and the ushers were Messrs. W. A. Ward, of Sherbrooke, and M. L. McGilton, of Eaton Corner. Mrs. Guy Ward, of Lennoxville, played the wedding march.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party, accompanied by the immediate relatives, motored to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Archie Campbell, of Compton, where a sumptuous repast was served to over thirty-five guests. The table was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers and sweet peas; the wedding cake occupying the centre of the table. Mrs. Campbell was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Wm. Parkinson, Mrs. W. A. Ward and Miss G. Campbell.

The bride's gift to the groom was a gold tie pin set with pearls. The groom's gift to the bride was a coat of Hudson seal trimmed with sable, to the organist, matron-of-honor and bridesmaid, gold pins. The best man and ushers received gold tie pins.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Williams and Miss Nina Williams, mother and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Prescott and sons, Randall and Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. Aylon Williams and son, Basil, of Bulwer, Mr. and Mrs. Varney, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ward, of Sherbrooke, Miss G. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parkinson and daughter, Mabeth, of Waterville, Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. Coates and Mr. Parker Tabor, of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McGilton, of Eaton Corner, and others.

The wedding gifts were many and costly, indicating the esteem in which this young couple are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left later in the evening for New York City and other U. S. points. Going away the bride wore a navy blue tailored suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside in Bulwer.

PARSONS—BALDWIN.

COATICOOK, Que., Oct. 27.—At St. Steven's Church, Coaticook, on Wednesday afternoon, October 25th, the marriage was solemnized of Miss Lucy Jenks Baldwin, only daughter of the late Claude Baldwin and Mrs. Baldwin, to Mr. John H. Parsons, of Barnston. The Rev. Cecil Stevens, Rector, officiated. The church was prettily decorated with ferns and asters.

The bride, who entered the church with her brother, Mr. John Baldwin, was gowned in satin ivory and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses with chiffon streamers.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Spriggins, of North Hatley, was gowned in white charmeuse and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Wright Parsons, of Barnston. The ushers were Messrs. John Baldwin and Albert Parsons. During the signing of the register Miss Natalie Chandler sang very sweetly, "O Perfect Love."

The reception was held at the brides home, the color scheme being carried out in pink and white. The guests numbered about forty. Delicious refreshments were served by girl friends of the bride.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl bar pin. The bride's going away costume was brown pique tulle with hat to match.

The numerous and beautiful wedding gifts included cut glass, silver and several substantial cheques.

Mr. and Mrs. Parsons left by motor amidst a shower of confetti and good wishes for Boston and Springfield, and next week leave for West Palm Beach, Florida, for the winter.

O'BRIEN—MARTINEAU
THETFORD MINES, Que., Oct. 27.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Parish Church of St. Deserise, Black Lake, when Mr. Albert O'Brien was married to Miss Alma Martineau, daughter of Mr. Charles Martineau, both of Black Lake.

The bride's wedding gown was of gray satin, and her going away gown was of navy blue tricotine, with hat of navy blue and sand trimmings.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple left by motor for various points of the United States. On their return Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will reside in Black Lake.

BENNETT—WALLACE

A very pretty wedding took place on Monday afternoon, October 9, at the Anglican Church in Gleichen, Alta., when Miss Gladys Wallace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wallace, of Brome, was united in holy matrimony by the Rev. Canon Cornish to Mr. H. J. Bennett, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, of Calgary, Alta., son of Dr. Lee Bennett, of London, Eng. The church was prettily decorated by the ladies of the congregation with potted plants, cut flowers, and greenery. The bride, who was unattended, wore her travelling suit of navy blue broadcloth, with grey embroidery, with hat to match, and carried a bridal bouquet of American Beauty roses. She was given away by Mr. W. R. Lindsay, of Claresholm, Alta.,

formerly of Waterloo.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, the color scheme in the dining room being carried out in yellow, many yellow chrysanthemums and greenery being in evidence. The bride and groom left in the evening, amidst showers of confetti and best wishes, for a wedding trip to Banff and Lake Louise. They were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, including a handsome oak serving tray from the bank staff of Gleichen, of which the bride was a member, and a handsome oak clock to the groom from the bank staff at Calgary.

Your Corsets and Theirs—

For many years Warner's Rust Proof have been the largest selling corsets in the United States. For many years also they have been worn by discriminating women in all corners of the civilized world. At the outbreak of the War they were sold in 56 different countries or Dominions, and were made only in the United States.

To-day they are also made in Canada, cut from the same carefully designed patterns, and made to the same standards and specifications as the United States models. Corsets which are imported by other nations are offered to women of the Dominion without the costs of duty, ocean freight, etc.

PROTECTION OF BEES DURING WINTER MONTHS

Outside Wintering Gaining in Popularity, but Cellar Wintering Will Give Excellent Results
In all parts of Canada bees require protection from the wind and cold during the winter months. There are two methods by which this protection can be supplied; either by packing the colonies in special outside wintering places or by placing them in a cellar. Although outside wintering is gaining in popularity, cellar wintering will give excellent results in any part of Canada where the conditions in the cellar are such that they will prevent the bees from wearing themselves out with too much activity; and is advisable in the more northern localities where the winter weather is usually very severe.

Bees to be wintered in the cellar will require less stores than those wintered outside, but these stores must be of the best, containing as little indigestible matter as possible or the bees may die of dysentery before the spring. Clover honey or sugar syrup is the best food for cellar wintered bees. The bees should be brought into the cellar immediately after the last good cleansing flight which is usually about the first week in November. It is far better to put the bees in a week or two before the last opportunity of a flight than to leave them exposed to the cold that is not followed by a cleansing flight. If the temperature is sufficiently low there will be no need for closing the hive entrances when bringing them in. The hives should be carried as carefully as possible, with little disturbance to the bees, and they should be placed on empty hive bodies or other stands of similar size in tiers of four high. The covers of the hives need not be removed. The entrances should be left open full width, but if there is a danger from mice getting into the hive the entrance may be covered with screening with 1/2-inch mesh. No white light should be used in the cellar. Dead bees may be cleaned up from the floor at intervals, but there must not be any disturbance to the colonies at any time. If the cellar is properly constructed the bees will require no further attention during the winter.

DIRECTORS OF PROVINCIAL JERSEY ASSOCIATION HELD MEETING.
The regular quarterly directors' meeting of the Quebec Jersey Cattle Breeders' Association was held on October 24th, at the New Sherbrooke House. President E. O. Baldwin was in the chair and Messrs. C. O. Edwards, Geo. C. Poole, Henry E. Lowry, F. E. M. Robinson, F. G. Gale and R. L. Gale were present.
The Secretary reported twenty-two new members during the year making the total strength of the Association seventy-seven members.
The Jersey Census now being taken shows a large increase both in the number of breeders and animals owned within the Province and it was decided that the essential details of the Census would be tabulated in the form of a report which would be mailed to the Association's mailing list along with the 1922 report of the Association immediately preceding the Association's annual meeting of the latter part of January.
The financial situation of the Association was reported upon and found to be very satisfactory, the balance in the bank together with contributions made at the meeting being more than ample to meet all the Association's obligations to the end of the year.
The Royal Winter Fair to be held in Toronto the latter part of November was discussed and Messrs. Robinson and Edwards each announced their intention of sending a carload of stock to the fair.

GREAT PROBLEM THREAT ISSUED BY LEADER OF THE FASCISTI

Says Country Must Be Given Peacefully to Fascisti or They Will Take It by Force.
(NAPLES, Oct. 27.—"I take a solemn oath that either the Government of the country must be given peacefully to the Fascisti or we will take it by force," was the farewell statement made by Prof. Benito Mussolini, leader of the Fascisti prior to leaving Naples at the end of the party's congress held here.
The gathering of the Fascisti passed off without any grave incident. The only notable event was the invasion of the Naples office of the Rome newspaper Mundo, which published an article favorable to former Premier Nitti, against whom the hatred of the Fascisti is chiefly directed.

fect upon them to prevent injury altogether. The following method of poisoning has been found fairly successful for mice, but rabbits are very difficult to deal with.
Make the mixture of one part by weight of arsenic with three parts of corn meal. Nail two pieces of board each six feet long and six inches wide together so as to make a trough. Invert this near the trees to be protected and place about a tablespoonful of the poison on a shingle and put it near the middle of the run, renewing the poison as often as is necessary.

FOND OF DISPLAY.
"You should advise your daughter against marrying in a haste."
"There's no danger. It will take at least three months to prepare any trousseau she would consider fit to marry in."

Now Comes the World's Fastest Shave! 78 Seconds from Lather to Towel

We've processed a barber's edge—the keenest cutting edge known—on a safety razor blade!

That's the story in few words.

Now we offer you the world's fastest shave—a velvet shave in 78 seconds from lather to towel.

We talk in terms of time, because the only way to get a quick shave is with a super-keen blade.

Old-time ways won't do it. Put your watch before you and prove it to yourself.

Valet Auto-Strop Razor

REG. IN CANADA

Sharpens Itself

We recommend your using our famous strop for the same reason a barber strops his razor. It keeps up the keenness. It works as a part of each razor—there if you care to use it, or, if you choose, you can just insert new blades as you feel the need.

$1.00 or $5.00

The four dollar difference is in the superior finish of the latter. The 78-second shave, you'll find in either one you choose.

Pick up a Valet Auto-Strop Razor at your dealer's. Then give it a whirl to-morrow. Shave with your watch before you.

Note the time—78 seconds for a velvet shave!

BUSY SESSION HELD BY W.M.S. AT WATERLOO

Officers for District Were Appointed—Other Notes and Personals of Interest.

WATERLOO, Que., Oct. 27.—Miss Ora Berry, of Montreal, spent the week-end with her parents.

Mrs. Robert Hill left recently for St. Johns to join her son, Mr. Gordon Hill, and his family, who are going on a motor trip through the Adirondacks.

The addition of a large verandah is a great improvement to Mr. C. W. Candlish's residence on Western avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Savage were in Montreal recently, visiting their daughter, who has undergone a very successful operation.

Mr. J. A. Baira, of Montreal, is spending a week at "Pine Arbor," the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith.

Those who were privileged to attend St. Luke's Church Sunday evening, October 2nd, were given a rare treat in listening to the Rev. Canon Shatford, of Montreal, who occupied the pulpit. The Rev. Mr. Howitt, pastor of the Methodist Church, withdrew the evening service, and that gave the congregation an opportunity of attending St. Luke's, the occasion being the annual Masonic church parade.

The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost. However, the unusually large congregation was made very comfortable by the supplying of additional seats. Canon Shatford spoke of the pleasure he felt in being privileged to address the members of the Shefford County Lodge, and delivered an eloquent and most inspiring discourse, taking for his subject that portion of scripture found in Exodus, fourth chapter and second verse, which reads, "What is that in thine hand?" and likened the rod used by Moses, in delivering the Israelites, to the Masonic grip, showing the power of small things in bringing about great movements.

Special music was well rendered by the choir. Mrs. C. W. Candlish presided at the organ.

The Guild of St. Luke's Church was entertained this week by Mrs. Neil.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Savage and little daughter Jean, of South Roxton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Eddy, of Ottawa, were guests of Mrs. Gilmore and Miss Saxby.

Mr. Neil Jones has secured an excellent position in Toronto.

Mr. Ormond Middleton, of Ottawa, is spending a few days with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Middleton.

The citizens of Waterloo have sustained a great loss in the death of Mrs. John Macfarlane, who passed away in the early hours of Wednesday morning. The funeral service took place Thursday afternoon at St. Luke's Church.

The choir of the Methodist Church was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Berry on Wednesday evening.

The district convention of the Women's Missionary Society met here on Tuesday with a good representation from the local auxiliaries. Very good reports were given of the work done throughout the district. Mrs. Solomon, of Granby, gave a very full report of the missionary conference held at Knowlton last August. Towards the close of the afternoon session twelve little girls of the Mission Band sang very sweetly the hymn entitled "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." Tea was served in the school room of the church at six o'clock. The evening session opened with singing, the Rev. Mr. Howitt presiding. Then followed a fine paper, given by Mrs. (Rev.) Brown, of Granby, who dwelt upon the aspect of the work in western Canada, where the large influx of foreigners is fast becoming a problem to be dealt with. Mrs. Morgan Knowlton, of Knowlton, gave a reading, which was much to the point, after which Mrs. Henderson, president of the Montreal branch, was introduced, and in dealing with her subject, which was both interesting and instructive, she confined her discourse largely to the work of foreign missions. A very appropriate recitation was given by Mrs. Leola Booth of the Waterloo High School. Vocal numbers rendered were a pleasing duet by Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Campbell and a quartette by Mrs. Berry and Mrs. England and the Messrs. W. Parmer and J. Smith. The officers for the ensuing year are: Mrs. Marshall, of Abbotsford, district superintendent; Mrs. (Dr.) Blake, of Waterloo, assistant superintendent; Mrs. J. Smith, of Waterloo, secretary-treasurer. Miss Lenore Harvey, of Montreal, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bresce.

Miss E. L. Baker, of Dunham, is a guest of Mrs. W. A. Watson.

The anniversary services of the Methodist Church will be held on Sunday and Monday next, October 29th and 30th. The programme gives promise of a most interesting one. The Rev. Prof. Rose, D.D., ex-pastor of St. James', Montreal, will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning, while the Rev. L. M. England will speak at the evening service. The choir will have the assistance of Miss Hoffman, violinist, of Farnham, and Mr. Dudley Carlton, of Dunham. On Monday evening the Rev. Dr. Chown, general superintendent of Canadian Methodism, will be the principal speaker. Supper will be served in the Sunday school room of the church at six o'clock.

ANNUAL IS HELD BY LADIES' AID AT INVERNESS

Fine Work Accomplished During the Past Year—Officers Were Elected.

INVERNESS, Oct. 27.—The Lower Ireland Ladies' Aid Society was pleasantly entertained at the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday of this week. The members arrived at about 10.30 o'clock and carried on their usual work, sewing, etc., until noon, when lunch was served, the guests numbering fourteen. In the afternoon the regular business meeting was held. The day proved a most enjoyable one to guests and hostess alike. The ladies were deeply grateful to Rev. and Mrs. C. Adey for their kind hospitality.

This society was organized about a year ago, with the following officers: President, Mrs. Robert Crawford; vice-president, Mrs. George Davidson; secretary, Mrs. James Henderson; treasurer, Mrs. Fred Cox, and is to be commended for the splendid work accomplished in so short a time. The society has supplied the church with the new hymn books and the Canadian hymnals for the Sunday school.

The Women's Institute will hold a Halloween social in the I.O.O.F. Hall on Tuesday, October 31, at 7.30 p.m. A short programme and games will provide amusement for the evening, also a witches' booth, where fortunes will be told. The ladies will serve refreshments.

The annual meeting of the Inverness Ladies' Aid Society was held on Wednesday afternoon in the Sunday school room. After the regular routine work the election of officers took place, resulting as follows: President, Mrs. Peter McKenzie; vice-president, Mrs. E. Walker; secretary, Mrs. D. A. Appleton; treasurer, Mrs. Bennett; re-elected, Meetings have been held regularly, and the financial report was very satisfactory.

The Anglican Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Graham on Saturday, when arrangements will be completed for the annual chicken pie supper, to be held Armistice Week.

LITTLE CHILD LOST HER WAY AT SUTTON JCT.

Large Number Took Part in Search—Other General News Notes of Interest.

SUTTON JUNCTION, Oct. 26.—Monday evening little Marion Emerson, aged two years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emerson, strayed from her home and was lost for over six hours. The family on missing her, made a thorough search of the premises, and being unable to find her, an alarm was sent out, and the whole vicinity was quickly ready for service. The world reached Sutton and Brome and fully two hundred men, each with a light, were searching. It seems that she had gone with her father to the barn and in attempting to return to the house, in some way missed going right, and as it was nearly dark, she soon lost all idea of her whereabouts.

The night was cold and rainy and when found by her father, she was numbed and nearly exhausted.

Both Mrs. Macdonald and Benlais were there aiding the searchers and succeeded in reviving her to normal condition about midnight, and at present writing no bad effects have developed from her exposure.

The family are deeply grateful to the people that responded to the call for help, and did all they could for comfort to the men who were wet and cold, providing hot coffee and smokes for all.

General Notes. Dr. A. W. Westover returned Sunday from New Brunswick with a good bag of game.

Three large boxes of warm clothing and shoes were shipped from here on Tuesday to Northern Ontario, when so much is needed.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Safford were here for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Clifford and sisters motored to St. Albans on Sunday and returned on Monday.

Mr. F. J. McCarthy is moving into the house she recently purchased from Mr. Lionel Cote.

Mrs. Peter Royea is so far recovered as to ride out each day.

UNTROBBLED. Young wife—Now what would you do if you heard your husband was taking his stenographer out to lunch? Her friend—I wouldn't believe it. My husband's stenographer is a man with a broken nose.

PRINCESS FAMILY THEATRE. TODAY. First time shown in Sherbrooke. 'ROBINSON CRUSOE'. W.M.S. DISTRICT CONVENTION AT STANSTEAD. Mrs. H. Mick Was Elected District Superintendent—Several Papers Were Read.

STANSTEAD, Oct. 27.—A District Convention of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the Cenenary Methodist Church on Wednesday, October 25th. Mrs. Henderson, the District Organizer, of Ottawa, presided. At 3.30 the meeting opened with a hymn followed by the Lord's Prayer. The Bible reading by Mrs. Matthews was most inspiring. A solo by Mrs. Irvine, "I think when I read that sweet story of old," was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Henderson spoke of the purpose of the convention, of the inspiration in such a gathering, and of the joy of service. Miss Pearl Taylor read a paper entitled, "Inlaid with gold." She asked, are our gifts that we bring to Jesus good enough? They must be the very best that we have, they must be "inlaid with gold." A paper entitled "Leaking valves" was read by Mrs. Layhew, in which were pointed out the many places in a Mission Circle that leaks might creep in, resulting in a loss of power in the organization.

How to secure better attendance at the monthly meetings was discussed.

A paper prepared by the Association Home Secretary of the Women's Missionary Society on "Glimpses of the Home Field," was read by Mrs. (Dr.) Ross, and a poem in praise of girls by Miss Irene B. Cunliffe.

As a result of the balloting Mrs. H. Mick was elected District Superintendent. The meeting adjourned and a delightful repast was served in the parlors of the church.

The evening meeting was well attended. Rev. Mick presiding. Miss Lelia Ball, of Stanstead College, rendered a vocal solo. A very interesting address on "China" was given by Mrs. (Dr.) Allen, returned missionary from China. Many interesting curios were exhibited by Mrs. Allen. A splendid address was given by Mrs. Henderson, which covered the work of the Missionary Society in Canada, China, Japan and all of the fields.

It was moved by Mrs. T. A. Halpenny and seconded by Mrs. Layhew that a vote of thanks be tendered to Mrs. (Dr.) Allen and Mrs. Henderson. It was regretted that the President, Mrs. John McIntosh, was unable to be present. Delegates from Beebe, Hatley and other places were present.

General Notes. Mrs. John McIntosh, who has been very ill at her home for the past few days, is now improving.

Mrs. (Dr.) R. O. Ross left for Danville, Que., on Thursday. She was called there by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lodge and two children, of Newport, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Saunders, of Melbourne, Que., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brock on Sunday.

Mrs. J. Lean, of Ottawa, is a guest of Mrs. T. A. Halpenny at the college.

Mrs. Henderson, of Ottawa, District Organizer of the Women's Missionary Society, was in town for the District Convention held in the Methodist Church on October 25th. Mrs. Henderson was entertained at Mrs. Mick's.

MEGANTIC CO. HAPPENINGS. Budget of News from Various Sections of the County. BLACK LAKE. There will be Divine service in St. Peter's Church on Sunday next at 3 p. m. and Sunday School at 2.30 p. m. THEIFORD MINES. On Sunday next, October 29th there will be Divine service in St. John's Church at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School at 9.30 a. m. Miss Hope Williams gave an informal dance Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. Skelton, of the Martin Bennett mine. A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served, at ten-thirty o'clock and the dancing continued until one. Those present were Miss Hazel Briggs, Miss Hazel Dean, Mr. Skelton, Mr. Cowling, Misses Nita and Bertha Hammerick, Mr. Hesler, Mr. McCloud, Miss M. McCaffrey and Mr. S. Ferguson. The friends of Mrs. E. O. Bennett will be glad to hear that she has returned home from the Sherbrooke Hospital, and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Johnston. Miss M. McCaffrey has returned home from her holidays to Sherbrooke and Montreal. The Ladies' Guild of St. John's Church met at the home of Mrs. Alcorn on Wednesday last. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, tea being served at five o'clock by the hostess, assisted by Miss Adele Pharo. A Halloween supper will be held in the hall of St. John's Church on Tuesday next. All are invited to come. The evening will be spent in games, fortune telling and other Halloween sports.

ST. SYLVESTER EAST. Rev. M. Mooney, of Burlington, Vt., was visiting his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mooney, of this place recently. The news reached here last week of the death of Rev. Mother St. Adalaid, at the Good Shepherd Convent, Quebec. She was much loved and respected by the people of this parish as she spent thirty-five years of her religious life in St. Sylvester being Superioress for many years, and it was with regret when she had to retire to the Mother House in her declining years, she having reached the age of eighty-one years. She spent fifty-four years in the frequent coughs.

MAPLE GROVE. Mr. Clayton Wood has returned home from spending a couple of months in the West, where he went for the harvesting. Mr. O. F. McCutcheon, School Inspector, made his semi-annual visit this week, inspecting Cranberry School on Wednesday and Maple Grove on Thursday. Mrs. Omer Gardner has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kerwin. Mr. Ralph Denery returned on Tuesday from the West. Mrs. Jonas Kimball is confined to her bed with a severe cold. Mr. Clayton Wood spent Sunday a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Wright, of Hendersonvale. A THOUGHTFUL YOUTH. "Would you rather your mother or myself whip you, Robert?" "I don't like to show favoritism, father. I think you and mother better toss for it." OH, DEAR, NO! You are probably mistaken as to the cause of the moral laxity in our movie colonies, Roger. Actors and actresses do not kiss every time they make up.

A NEW CLUE IS DISCOVERED IN MURDER CASE

Claimed Prominent Churchman Witnessed Murder of Rev. Mr. Hall and Mrs. Mills.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 26.—Wilbur A. Mott, special deputy attorney general, who has taken over the inquiry into the Hall-Mills murder mystery, expected to interview a prominent churchman today in an effort to corroborate statements of Mrs. Jane Gibson, eye witness of the double slaying.

Mott indicated that he intended to cause the churchman's arrest unless he agrees to become a witness for the prosecution. Failure of the man, said to have been near the scene of the murder, to acquaint the authorities with his alleged knowledge of the affair, has laid him liable to arrest, prosecutor Mott believes.

Mott is said to be in possession of data showing that this same man had discovered the letters of Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, slain choir leader, to the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, who was killed with her, and to have shown them to Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the clergyman's wife.

His car is said to have been parked near the crab apple tree on the old Phillips place, and its headlights made it possible for Mrs. Gibson to see the battle that ended in the death of Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills.

Attorney Pfeiffer, representing Mrs. Hall, denied last night that either Mrs. Hall or her brother, Henry Stevens, were present when the clergyman and his choir singer were killed. He reiterated that Mr. Hall did not leave her home that night between 8 p.m. and 2 a.m., and that Henry Stevens was fishing in the ocean at Lavallette.

Mr. Pfeiffer's statement followed the disclosure that Mrs. Hall and Mr. Stevens were the persons named in the sworn statement of Mrs. Gibson.

Prosecutor Mott indicated that arrests were imminent, but that he preferred to wait until he had an "ironclad" case. Persons under suspicion are being closely watched.

The following schedule has been adopted for the Industrial Basketball League:

OLD ENGLISH ESTATES TAKEN BY NEWLY RICH

Aboyne Castle Is Purchased by James Mearns for the Sum of £120,000.

(Associated Press Despatch.) LONDON, Oct. 27.—The newly rich continue to take over ancient country estates from Britain's old aristocracy. The latest instance is Aboyne Castle, with nearly six thousand acres of picturesque grounds near the famous Balmoral Castle, the Scotch residence of the British sovereigns.

James Mearns, who began life as a counter clerk in Aberdeen, and who is now the owner of a dry goods store in that city, is the new owner of Aboyne. He bought the estate from Marquis Huntley, premier Marquis of Scotland, who was married last summer to Mrs. James McDonald, of Washington, D.C.

The castle, more than 250 years old, was the home of the Marquis' ancestors.

The price Mearns paid for it was reported to be £120,000.

BRISK TRADING TODAY ON THE MONTREAL EXCHANGE

(Associated Press Despatch.) MONTREAL, Oct. 26.—Trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning was brisker and more exciting than it has been on any opening for some weeks, although the early trading yesterday indicated that the market was at length awakening from the lethargy in which it has been immersed since the present downward movement secured its first foothold a little over a fortnight ago.

The E. T. Live Stock Report

SHIPMENT FROM FOSTER. FOSTER, Que., Oct. 27.—A shipment of ten head of cattle was made from this district this week by Mr. H. A. Tillison. The prices paid were one-half to one and a half cents per pound. Milk fed calves brought six cents a pound, and calves, grassers, two and a half cents a pound.

STATED EVENTS OF IMPORTANCE ARE IMMINENT

Foreign Policy of Fascisti Will Be Sincerely Cordial and Friendly with Allies.

(Associated Press Despatch.) NAPLES, Oct. 27.—The Fascisti congress, which has been in session for several days, adjourned yesterday. All the orators prior to adjournment agreed that events of capital importance were imminent, namely that either the Fascisti would assume power legally or by force, and that therefore the present was not the time for discussion, but for obedience.

During the concluding session Signor Dudan, deputy for Rome, outlined the foreign policy for the Fascisti, saying: "Our foreign policy will be sincerely cordial and friendly with the Allies, but it will be firm in order to obtain a more just valuation of Italian interests and greater respect for Italy's rights, especially in the Mediterranean, which is our sea, and in the Adriatic, which is our lake."

BURNING EACH OTHERS DAIRIES

(Associated Press Despatch.) ROME, Oct. 27.—The Communists and Fascisti have been burning one another's dairies. The Communists set fire to dairies belonging to Fascisti near the boundary between the provinces of Milan and Pavia.

WHEAT TOOK UPTURN IN PRICE TODAY AT CHICAGO

(Associated Press Despatch.) CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Wheat took a decided upturn in value today, opening a half to 1/4 cent higher and quickly scoring material further gains. The fresh impetus to advance came from a continued rise in quotations at Liverpool, where there was said to be a very large milling demand with stocks of wheat very small. Bulls here took the position that heavy European purchasing of grain from North America could hardly be much longer delayed.

RATHER STRONG TONE ON WALL STREET EXCHANGE

(Associated Press Despatch.) NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—(Wall Street Noon.) Prices generally held up well above yesterday's closing levels. When some of the active issues had registered net gains ranging as high as 7 points, a fresh supply of stocks came on the market, representing further short selling and profit taking which was influenced by renewed liquidation of United States government bonds and a higher renewal rate for call money.

that the percentage of voluntary enlistments, and the percentage of those who paid the supreme sacrifice is not excelled by the war record of any University in the Dominion of Canada.

Professor G. Abbot Smith
For many years the name of Prof. G. Abbot Smith has had a place in the first rank of scholars and teachers of theology throughout Canada. His recently issued Dictionary of N. T. Greek has enhanced this reputation, not only amongst ourselves, but also among the scholars of Europe. This great book is likely to be the Standard New Testament Dictionary for students for many years to come, for it is much more than a mere compilation from larger books, containing, as it does, in a convenient form the results of vast amount of study of modern biblical literature, and proves abundantly the soundness of the judgment of one of the world's leading scholars of the New Testament who recommended that this important work should be entrusted to this distinguished graduate of Bishop's College.

"In the interests of trinity I must be content with mentioning but three more names, names which will be for ever revered where scholarship is prized or the fearless search for truth is approved. I refer to Rev. Prof. G. Abbot Smith, the late Rev. C. W. Mitchell and the late Dr. Harold Hamilton. Of Mr. Mitchell I have heard from men who knew him intimately and whose opinion deserves the highest respect that he was a man of exceptional brilliance, who gave promise of doing valuable work in the Department of Semitic languages, and who would have made for himself a place amongst the leaders of the men of learning had not his career been cut short by an early death, the result of wounds received in the battle line in France.

Dr. Harold Hamilton
"Of Dr. Harold Hamilton I can speak perhaps more definitely for with many thousands in whose reading theology has had a large place, I owe him much for his volume "Discovery and Revelation," and his two volumes entitled, "The People of God". He was elected to deliver the Bampton Lecture in the University of Oxford for the year 1920, and thus was the recipient of one of the highest honors which can be conferred upon a theological scholar. But his sudden death in December 1919 forbade the fulfillment of a duty which he would have discharged with distinction to himself and lasting benefit to the cause of theological research. The lecturer chosen to take his place was Dr. A. C. Headlam, Regius-Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford, and one of the greatest theological scholars of the English speaking world.
"In the preface of his Bampton Lectures on "The Doctrine of the Church and Reunion," Dr. Headlam writes, "It will be impossible within the limits of this preface to express my obligations to all those from whose books or whose teaching I have learned, but there is one who has lately passed away of whom I should like to say something. Dr. Harold Hamilton, a son of the late Archbishop of Ottawa, had devoted himself for many years to the cause of reunion. His book on "The People of God" is one of the most thoughtful and stimulating presentations of the religious meeting of the Old Testament, of the development of the New Testament from the Old, and of the fundamental principles underlying the rise of the Christian Church. His death is a great loss to the cause of Christian theology and of Reunion, and I am glad to have this opportunity of paying some small tribute to his memory."
"No principle of judging men or institutions has higher sanction than the one which was formulated thus, "By their fruits ye shall know them," and if that principle be applied to the record of its work this University may and does rejoice in the conclusion to which it inevitably leads.
Number of Students Larger Than Last Year
"As I pass from the records of its achievements to the situation which now exists within the college I find abundant evidence to support the conviction that Bishop's men will continue to maintain the splendid traditions which their predecessors have handed down to them. The interest taken in every department of our collegiate life is characteristic of that virile type of Canadian manhood which is worthily represented amongst the Bishop's students of today.
There is ground for satisfaction too, in the fact that while other Universities are reporting a decrease in the number of new students admitted this year, the entry for this college is one more than the number admitted at this time a year ago, and that was, I believe, one of the largest entries in its history. We are still dealing with applications reading with us, and if they are accepted, the increase which we have from men who wish to begin their mented.
"Further, we have, even at this early date the assurance of a considerable number of new students for the Academic year beginning in September next, and if the present indications are a safe guide as to what we are to expect, we may look forward to an entry for the year 1923-1924 unprecedented in the history of this University.
"This leads me to the concluding section of this address which must deal with the future.
Steady and Even Rapid Progress and Expansion
"It is easy and sometimes unprofitable to speculate about the future, but, however, that may be, I cannot resist the conviction that the future of this University is to be one of steady and even rapid progress and expansion. That conviction is based upon a number of facts which are fully recognized by those who have studied the problem of University work in this country carefully, and who know this University through intimate associations with its life and surroundings. From these facts I should like to select one which is perhaps the chief amongst them.
"It is generally agreed that University training is at its best where the individual student, and not just students in the mass, is the real concern of the University authorities and has the guidance and the help of the trained University Professor or Lecturer. Like work in every other department of life, work within the University accomplishes most where it is most intensive, and it is in the comparatively small residential college that conditions are found which make such intensive work practicable. The proportion of Professors and Lecturers to students is regulated so that individual attention may be given. Careful consideration of the students' inclinations and intellectual and spiritual endowments enables the tutor to guide his development along the course in which he is likely to make his greatest contribution to the well-being and the progress of society. In the intimate personal intercourse of tutor and student individuality is fostered; in the varied associations of college life the nature and the value of those social obligations which are essential elements in all good citizenship are learned.
Extensive Group of Colleges on Present Site
"Who can measure the debt which great men have acknowledged to the training they have received in the residential college? The lasting friendships which are formed there, the discussions that take place wherein, the common beliefs in politics, religion and morals are renewed by succeeding generations of students—these are the refreshing springs from which new currents of thought and practice flow out into the nations creeds and life. Until a more potent agency for the dissemination of culture can be discovered the residential college is assured of

E. BROUGHTON MINERS STILL REMAIN BURIED

Three Shifts Working Hard at Rescue—Inquest to Be Held Today.

With gangs of men working in three shifts of eight hours, efforts are still being made to recover the bodies of Mathieu, Grosseau and Breton, which lie buried under a mass of some two thousand tons of rock. Arrangements were made to secure another steam shovel but this was found impossible for some time and the men are now busy erecting a derrick to remove some of the larger pieces. A certain amount of blasting will also have to be done. Reports from the mine state that it will be at least three or four days before the bodies are finally recovered.
Joseph Boucher, whose body was recovered on the day of the accident, was buried yesterday, special permission having been secured from the coroner. The inquest will be held this afternoon at East Broughton.

BOLDUC HEARING ADJOURNED

The preliminary hearing in the case of Louis Bolduc, charged with attempted murder of the Rev. Father Belleau, has been postponed, at the request of the Attorney-General, until next week in order to determine exactly the nature of the charge. Father Belleau is still in a serious condition and is by no means out of danger.

a place of supreme importance in the university life of every country.

"This is the ideal upon which this University is founded and it is the ideal which will continue to govern its work for all the future. As our growing numbers require it, new colleges will be built, each developing its own distinctive character and traditions, each with its own organized student-life, each pursuing the same purpose of producing a type of Canadian manhood in which strong individuality is happily combined with an equally strong social sense.
"I look forward to the day when upon this glorious estate of more than two hundred acres, which rejoice in a wealth of natural beauty possessed by few districts in this country, there shall arise an extensive group of colleges, staunchly upholding the highest standards of scholarship and Christian character, and united in a common allegiance to the faith enshrined in the words on our University crest, Recti Cultus Pectora Roborant."

Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill

In introducing Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill University, the Bishop of Montreal referred to his splendid work during the war which was now being continued during peace.

Sir Arthur Currie was given a rousing reception and in his opening remarks he congratulated the University of Bishop's on securing such an able principal and also congratulated Col. McCreer on being so happily situated at Lennoxville.

"McGill rejoices with me that Lieut.-Col. McCreer has come to this college. We are all aware of the splendid contributions made by Bishop's and although I have not seen Col. McCreer since 1919, I always picture him in khaki and with his tin helmet. He was one of that splendid body of padres who served with the forces. We did not think of these men as representative of different churches; they were pilgrims of love and were welcome wherever they went and they were often in hardest places with the men.
Col. McCreer Tried and Tested
"I have seen men face to face and known them as they were. I have known Col. McCreer for four years and I have seen him in the face of tests he was subjected to. I tell the Corporation that they have at its head a man who has been tried and tested. He is earnest and patient enthusiastic and just.
"I have every reason to feel satisfied that the era of progress, already outlined, is coming to this University. I am sure the new principal has the right ideal; there are many ideals of education but I am sure the one encouraged here will bring results.
"Col. McCreer is a blazer of new trails and not a follower of beaten tracks and I am glad to associate myself with the welcome accorded to both Mr. and Mrs. McCreer and I extend to them my very best wishes."
Dr. Seiger, Provost of Trinity College, Toronto, extended to the new principal the greetings of his Alma Mater and assured him that his old college was following his career with keen interest. Dr. Seiger referred to the similarity between Bishop's and Trinity and commented upon the excellent work being accomplished by the smaller residential universities.
Dr. Welsh, of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, expressed the catholicity of spirit in the commonwealth of knowledge, and referred to the old saying, "A liberal college like Queen's at Kingston produces orthodox thinkers, while an orthodox college like Knox, Toronto, produces liberal thinkers." Dr. Welsh observed that while in past years there had been a dearth of applicants for the ministry, he was pleased to state that at present there were more applications than had ever been received during the past thirty years.
Mayor Wm. Morris, K.C., of Sherbrooke, extended a most hearty welcome to the new Principal on behalf of the City of Sherbrooke, and emphasized the importance of the teaching of French, particularly insofar as this province was concerned.
At the conclusion of the addresses refreshments were served in the College Hall.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., LL.D.,
the Special Preacher on Sunday.

Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., LL.D.

The Seventy-sixth Anniversary of the Sherbrooke Methodist Church will be celebrated next Sunday with the Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., LL.D. as special preacher.
It is a signal honor that the Church enjoys this year in having a visit from the distinguished head of the Methodist Church in Canada and Newfoundland, Dr. Chown was re-elected General Superintendent at the recent General Conference by an unanimous standing vote. He has supervision of the work of the whole Church through the Dominion with its 406,933 communicants, the largest of any Protestant Church in Canada. There are 2,536 Methodist Ministers. Last year these ministers, working in co-operation with the consecrated lay workers, received into the Church on profession of faith 19,360 new members. Under Dr. Chown's wise and strong leadership the Church has made progress and made a large contribution to the development of a high Canadian national ideal. His theme in the morning will be "The Pith of Methodism," and in the evening "The Conversion of a Pessimist." The services will be in charge of the present pastor, Rev. B. B. Brown, who is serving his third year as minister of the local church. An exceptionally good musical service has been prepared by the choir, under the leadership of Prof. R. Havard and Mr. E. O. Grundy, with Mrs. F. W. Bradley and Mr. A. Blier as soloists.

The original plan of the Official Board was to have had a public reception for Dr. Chown on Monday evening next, but owing to the fact that the Ladies' Aid members are having their chicken pie Thanksgiving supper on the following Monday night, it was deemed wise to cancel the social function.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS.
LONDON, Oct. 27.—An official despatch was issued in Rome this morning on the serious situation there. The rival elements are apparently tampering with the telegraph, as the first two sections of the official statement has not been received here, although filed at Rome.

A Period Model Without a Peer

EVER since Sonora was awarded highest score for tone quality at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, its tone has been steadily improved. The present-day Sonora, typified by the Queen Anne, is so far superior in tone to the Sonora which won official recognition, that no comparison is possible.

The Queen Anne model is the happy medium of the Sonora line. Its construction, latest improvements and finishing touches which represent expensive labor but mean so much to those who carefully choose a phonograph, the astonishing, improved tone quality and serviceable motors, are logical reasons why the Queen Anne satisfies all as to merit, superiority and value.

The Sonora is made in many other period and upright styles.
