MONTREAL TERMINUS PLAN CRITICIZED BY SPEAKER AT ROTARY CLUB MEETING

Most Absurd Feature of Project is That Trains From West Must Cross Canal Twice, J. G. Johnston, of Toronto, Tells Rotarians — Contends Ship Signalling System Unsound

"The most absurd feature of the present Montreal terminal plan is that all important trains from the west, both Chicago and Winnipeg, must cross the Lachine Canal twice," J. G. Johnston, Toronto financial writer, told the Westmount Rotary Club at a regular weekly luncheon meeting in Victoria Hall yesterday.

He ridiculed the fact that modern lift bridges and signalling apparatus and "mutual accommodations" between the railway and navigation interests would minimize delays. The difficulty of bringing water vessels to a quick stop would make it necessary for them to have the right of way over land traffic, he contended.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE S. E. MANOLSON

Dorchester Street Resident Died As A Result of Injuries Suffered in Accident

Final tribute was paid to Samuel Edward Manolson on Friday afternoon, when funeral services were held at his residence 4260 Dorchester Street West.

Mr. Manolson died in St. Mary's hospital last Thursday as the result of injuries received when he was struck by an automobile on Decarie boulevard the previous Sunday night.

The accident occurred when Mr. Manolson was crossing to one of the curb service restaurants on Decarie boulevard, after playing at a golf driving course on the opposite side of the road. The car was driven by Alcide Normandeau, 2114 Old Orchard avenue, who took Mr. Manolson to the hospital.

Mr. Manolson, who was in his 48th year, was born in Montreal and was educated at the High School of Montreal. He was the sales and promotion department manager of the Bruck Silk Mills.

In addition to his interest in charitable work, he was a keen follower of sports. As a mark of respect to him a one minute silence was observed at the start of last Thursday night's game of the Montreal Intermediate Baseball League, a similar tribute was also paid on Friday night before the City Senior Amateur Baseball League game.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Eva Gittleston; three children, Lewis, Felice and William; four sisters, Mrs. Sarah Lefko, of North Bay, Ont., Mrs. Rose Souf-rine, Mrs. Anne Stern and Mrs. Harry Cohen, all of Montreal, and by two brothers, Abe Schleifer of Montreal and Charles Manolson of Brantford, Ont.

Interment took place in Shaar Hashomaym Cemetery.

American Bittern, Badly Wounded, Is Destroyed

The American Bittern which A. Ditillo, of 4392 Decarie boulevard, captured on his front lawn on Sunday, has been destroyed on recommendation of the C.S.P.C.A. The bird, which was found to be suffering from a broken hip and bullet wounds, was put to death by Charles A. James, C.S.P.C.A. bird expert, at his clinic on Victoria avenue, on Tuesday.

Experts agreed that there was little hope of restoring the Bittern to health and it was humanely destroyed to end its suffering.

The situation was discussed with the society by J. D. Cleghorn, of the Province of Quebec Society for Protection of Birds, and it was decided to have the bird destroyed. Arrangements are presently being made to obtain permission from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to have the bird mounted and returned to Mr. Ditillo. It is against the law to keep, even stuffed, birds that are under the protection of the game laws. An exception is expected to be made

HIT-RUN DRIVER ADMITS GUILT BEFORE COURT

Peter Kusner, of Toronto, Will Be Sentenced In Montreal on Tuesday

Peter Kusner, 29, of Toronto, pleaded guilty yesterday when he appeared before Judge Monet on a charge of "hit-and-run" driving. He will be sentenced on Tuesday.

Kusner, who is wanted in Toronto on a charge of false pretenses, was arrested after the car he was driving on August 13 struck Ernest Brown, 15, at Atwater avenue and Dorchester street. The boy is still in the Royal Victoria hospital under treatment for a fractured wrist and broken leg.

Abandoning the car after the accident occurred, Kusner was later picked up at the home of friends in Notre Dame de Grace by Sergeants Prysky and Boileau of the Montreal Homicide squad.

The charge pending against Kusner in Toronto is based on the allegation that he obtained the car by false pretenses with a false cheque for $375.

Miss Annie McLarty, 70, of 2195 St. Catherine street, west, apparently escaped injury when she was struck by an automobile driven by Alton J. She was taken by Constables Talbot and Bridgen to the Western Division of the Montreal General Hospital in a patrol car, but refused treatment there.

JOHN BEARD NOMINATED C. C. F. CANDIDATE FOR ST. ANTOINE-WESTMOUNT

Nomination Convention Held Monday Night in Local Y.M.C.A. Branch — W. E. Walsh Withdrew in Favor of Mr. Beard — Goals of Movement Outlined By Speakers at Well Attended Gathering

John Beard was nominated Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation Candidate for the Federal division of St.-Antoine-Westmount at a nomination convention of the Westmount branch of the C.C.F. in the district Y.M.C.A. Monday night.

Mr. Beard's name was put forward by D. M. Kinnear. Mr. Beard agreed to carry the C.C.F. banner after W. E. Walsh, whom he had nominated, withdrew.

Following his acceptance of nomination the candidate told the gathering that the C.C.F. was part of a great labor movement. Contrary to conditions that existed in other parties C.C.F. leaders were not seeking monetary gains but were striving to reach a goal that would benefit the greatest number.

The C.C.F. had as its objective a decent living wage for all; old age security, honest government, and thorough social reform, he stated.

Mr. Beard, who has resided in Canada for the past 35 years, is a former Methodist minister. He is a member of the St. James Literary Society.

The principal guest speaker, Dr. J. Stanley Allen, nominated candidate in the N.D.G. division, admitted that Conservative Westmount would be difficult to win over to the C.C.F. folds. However the Commonwealth Federation held out high hopes for success here, he stated. The addition of the St. Antoine section to the old Mount Royal division will give the C.C.F. added strength, he said.

Dr. Allen declared that the movement planned to put up a real fight in the next Federal elections. Both French and English candidates, with strong party backing, will be in the running in this province. Paid organizers are already at work in many provinces.

Proof that his party is definitely on the march toward success is shown in the increased number of C.C.F. adherents, and candidates, he stated. Funds are now available to conduct a widespread election campaign, he told the assembly.

Following the opening address by W. E. Walsh, F. L. P. Anderson compared conditions today with those existing some years ago and stated that there was a definite change in the outlook of the people regarding the administration of the country. For this reason, he felt, the C.C.F. stood a better chance of winning public support than at any time in its history.

Miss Sheridan, prominent N.D.G. C.C.F. worker, spoke briefly following Dr. Allan's address. The success of the meeting in Westmount was but a further demonstration of the progress being made by the movement, she said. W. E. Walsh occupied the chair.

Mrs. Reid, who ran to the safety zone from the north side of Sherbrooke street to catch a west bound tram, failed to notice the bag. Police investigated the mishap, but upon their arrival the owner of the suitcase had left.

The event will be held at the Y.W.C.A., 1124 Dorchester St. The program will include mixed swimming from 9 to 10.00 p.m., and dancing and games will take place on the Roof Garden, where refreshments will be served. An alternative to the roof has been arranged for in the event of rain.

With local C.C.F. candidates nominated, many C.C.Y.M. members are now active on election campaign work.

THEATRICAL ATTRACTIONS

Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea In 'Union Pacific'

Barbara Stanwyck, in a role completely different from any she has previously attempted, and Joel McCrea, as a character strongly reminiscent of the one he portrayed last season in "Wells Fargo," are co-starred in the romantic leads of "Union Pacific," Cecil B. De Mille's grand-scale interpretation of the building of America's first transcontinental railroad.

Although the popular Miss Stanwyck has played roles as varied as Middle Western farm-woman, New England factory wench and Park Avenue debutante, her Mollie Monahan in "Union Pacific," which Paramount is now showing at the Snowdon United Theatre, marks something totally new in the Stanwyck repertoire. She is a daring, warm-hearted, fiery girl of the West, the daughter of the "U.P.'s" first engineer, the post-mistress of "end of the track" and little sister of the husky railroad-builder. She is equally at home outwitting Western sharpers, comforting the homesick Irish laborers, battling Indians on the war-path or engaging in high-powered romance.

Mollie's romantic interest in "Union Pacific" is one Jeff Butler (played by the handsome McCrea), a brave and reckless trouble-shooter whom the Washington government has assigned to help keep order along the right-of-way. The two meet at "end of track," the gaudy, brawling, settlement that moves ever westward with the railroad, and their romance moves as swiftly forward as the phenomenal railroad itself.

Mickey Rooney Gets First Taste Of Cafe Society

Young Mickey Rooney had the time of his life in his first night club scene for a movie. He promptly fell for Virginia Grey, who was one of the glorified beauties in "The Great Ziegfeld," although he was also drawn to her kid sister, Lorraine, who appeared in the chorus.

In "The Hardy's Ride High," showing at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday, sixth picture of the series, Mickey moves from the mythical town of Carvel to Detroit, where the family inherits a fortune. For the first time the son of Judge Hardy sees the night life of a big city and is frightened by it, although he tries to conceal his fear.

Loretta Young Has Major Role In Bell Picture

The immortal role of the woman whose love inspired one of the most thrilling achievements in America's past is brought to life by Loretta Young in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Story of Alexander Graham Bell," now at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday.

The popular star has the greatest portrayal in her career in this stirring romantic drama as Mabel Hubbard, the beautiful deaf girl who loved the young dreamer, and out of whose affliction was inspired the invention of the telephone.

Don Ameche is starred opposite Miss Young in the title role of this Cosmopolitan production for 20th Century-Fox, which depicts in simple, human and inspiring terms the hopes and struggles of the handsome young man whom people called mad because he believed it was possible for men's voices to span continents through a copper wire. Henry Fonda shares stellar honors with the pair as Thomas Watson, Bell's tireless assistant and ardent admirer.

KINSMEN CLUB RELEASES LIST OF REGULATIONS

Model Car Coaster Classic Scheduled to be Held on Sept. 16

With September 16 and the annual Kinsmen Club Coaster Classic fast approaching, executives of the club have issued a list of regulations which will govern the 1939 running of Montreal's famous model car race. Proceeds of the Classic go to further the Kinsmen's work among underprivileged children.

"The Kinsmen Coaster Classic is strictly a boys' event," emphasized Sam Jamieson, club president, "and the model car must be entirely the work of its driver. Wheels, bearings, tires, axles and steering wheels are the only manufactured items allowed in the car's construction, and no car may cost more than $10.00. In this way we hope to put wealthy lads and their less fortunate playmates on an even footing."

No car will be allowed to carry more than one boy, Mr. Jamieson said, adding that rope steering is to be barred in the interests of safety. All cars must be equipped with a steering wheel and chain or wire cable steering cables must be used. Car and driver together must weigh not more than 250 pounds, and all of the car's weight must be built into it. No special starting devices will be allowed. The cars must be of wood, with a covering of tin, wood, fabric or sheet metal. There are also safety regulations concerning brakes, which must be inspected.

Mr. Jamieson warned that boys entering the race must not practice in the streets without special Club permission. Proceeds from the race are realized through sponsorship of the cars by prominent firms or clubs or individuals — there is no entry fee for the young racers. Locale of the course for the 1939 Coaster Classic will be announced shortly before the race date.

BASEBALL BOMBSHELL

Casting a bombshell into the ranks of network broadcasters, the Mutual Broadcasting System, youngest and most amazing hookup in America, yesterday signed an exclusive contract with the Gillette Safety Razor Company whereby MBS will broadcast the World Series this fall over the largest commercial network in the history of broadcasting. If permission is granted the Marconi Company by CBC, commentaries on the classic of swat will be aired locally by CFCF-CFCX. The Series is expected to get under way October 4.

Gillette's contract with Mutual gives the network exclusive rights to the Series, excluding both the National Broadcasting Company and the Columbia Broadcasting System. The contract also marks the first time in 15 years that the games will be aired exclusively over any one network.

While actual figures are as yet unannounced, your correspondent has learned on good authority that Gillette will pay approximately $100,000 for radio rights to the Series. The broadcast costs have also been kept secret, but it is known that MBS will run wires to all parts of the continent where member stations do not exist in order to guarantee nationwide and international coverage. MBS has only one member post in Canada, CKLW at Windsor-Detroit, but the network has occasionally used CFCF locally and is expected to do so again. Well over 150 stations will be linked daily for the duration of the Series, with short wave transmitters sending the broadcast to Mexico, Cuba, Hawaii and Europe.

The Mutual Broadcasting System is undoubtedly the most unusual network in America. Organized several years ago as a four-station group to accommodate sponsors desirous of limited network facilities, the web experienced a phenomenal growth and today numbers over 100 full-time stations. Mutual employs less than forty people—including a publicity department of one—and maintains offices in New York and Chicago. In fact, it is a network without studios, for member stations supply all necessary broadcast facilities for regular and special event coverage and also provide all programs carried by the network. Mutual's exclusive rights to the autumn sports classic are perhaps not an unimaged blessing, for not only are devotees of baseball assured of efficient coverage of the Series, but those of us who mutter strange phrases when baseball floods the kilocycles to the exclusion of all other afternoon entertainment are guaranteed alternate programs of music and commentary should the World Series get on our nerves!

'Back to School Days' at Belmont Park Next Week

With the summer season fast drawing to a close and with the weatherman still "putting-on" the heat, young and old alike are naturally thinking of making the most of the few remaining days of glorious sunshine that's left before Old Man Winter announces his arrival with cool weather. With this in mind, the management of Belmont Park has arranged a week of gala festivities starting next Monday, until the following Saturday inclusive.

The entire week will be known as "Back to School Days" and one of the many features to be offered will be Chief "Red" Eagle and his Indian Tribe who not only will be seen parading the grounds in their native costumes of multicolored colors but will also provide novel and interesting entertainment including native dances and songs to the accompaniment of War Whoops, etc. This feature will appeal to adults as well as the youngsters.

Stars, History Combine To Make 'Juarez' Picture

"Juarez," Warner Bros. brilliant new production starring Paul Muni and Bette Davis, will have its local premiere on Saturday at the York United Theatre. Supporting Mr. Muni and Miss Davis are such stellar names as Brian Aherne, John Garfield, Claude Rains, Joseph Calleia, Gale Sondergaard and a host of others.

From an historical standpoint, "Juarez" is extremely important, for it depicts the only widespread efforts on the part of a European government to infringe upon the Monroe Doctrine. Napoleon III of France sets up a puppet empire in Mexico, with Maximilian and Carlota as innocent and hapless pawns, in order to collect the debts owed to France, but cancelled by Juarez, president of the Mexican republic. This turbulent but significant period in the history of America forms the background for "Juarez," a picture which is destined to be one of the great films of all time.

Chemicals Yield Enormous Crops

Dr. W. F. Gericke, the University of California pioneer in growing plants without soil, told the Pacific Science Congress how he had produced prodigious yields in small basins of water treated with chemicals necessary to plant life.

In one basin in which corn and potatoes were raised simultaneously, Dr. Gericke said the proportionate yield per acre would be 1,500 bushels of potatoes and 285 bushels of corn. He said the cost of chemical to produce 1,500 pounds of potatoes was $1.45.

The Way To A Man's Heart

Appetites Will Do Capers Over Peach Turnovers

Peach Turnovers, warm and fragrant, are ideal treats for August luncheons.

Peaches and cream is the ultimate in summer desserts. But at times, even perfection is improved by a change. Peach turnovers, warm and delicately browned, are an experience in perfect eating never to be forgotten.

Peach Turnovers
(Makes 8 turnovers)
Two cups sifted flour, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 cup shortening, 2 packages cream cheese (1/2 cup), 1-3 cup cold water, 4 whole peaches or 1/2 of 1 can No. 2, 3 tablespoons orange marmalade, 3 tablespoons butter.
Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder. Cut in shortening and cream cheese until mixture is like coarse meal. Add water in small amounts, stirring lightly with fork to form ball of dough. Roll pastry 1/8 inch thick and cut in 4-inch squares. Place half of peach on each pastry square and fill hollow with 1 teaspoon of orange marmalade and a piece of butter. Press edges together with floured fork and place in a 12-inch heat resistance glass utility dish. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 20 minutes or until pastry is brown and peach is tender.

Sponge cake from yesterday can be reborn to excellence with the blessing of fresh peaches and custard.

Fur-trimming on velvet or leather models (a formal of semi-formal style) receives its impetus from the vogue which fur hats and fur-trimmed hats will have this winter. Already these are being modeled with fur coats and accompanied by the most sumptuous gloves which fashion has ever presented. Gorgeous in color, to contrast with the prevailing brown of the fur wrap or to dramatize white, grey or black, such gloves are often of velvet with long, crushed wrists and are trimmed with all the flat felts and also with tails.

The slip-on is still correct for casual morning wear, but the three new silhouettes, that of the flared wrist, that of the gathered wrist, and that of the crushed wrist—the mosquetaire—carry on into the ceremonial hours. It may seem curious that the longer glove arrives at the same time as the longer sleeve; but the idea is to pull it up over the fitted wrist portion of the sleeve, or with a bracelet length sleeve, also in style, to soften the effect of the bangles or ornamental bands, which can be quite hard by a touch of drapery.

A factor contributing to the winter chic is the coloring. It is increasingly apparent that tones are rich and shadowy for formal

RED PEPPER COLORING
Secret of the red-gold coloring of an outstanding canary at the bird show at Woodstock, disclosed the bird was fed small doses of red pepper while moulting.

INCREASED SHIPPING
In spite of the worldwide decline in maritime traffic, shipping movements in Italian ports are increasing.

ICE-COLD FOWL
Quick-freezing is to be tried in Germany for the conservation of wild fowl.

TEA TIME TOPICS

This is a notable year for gloves, particularly in the all-occasion types. Political changes abroad have resulted in the exodus to this continent of skilled designers and technicians and also the importation of machinery. Manufacturers are offering to the public well-constructed and interestingly styled models for casual and sports wear in new and luscious colors, designed to pep up the basic fall costume which is likely to be of brown, green or black and in need of bright accessory notes.

The style points which date the fall gloves are: first, combinations of leather and fabric. Second, combinations of leather and fur. Third: Longer tops (from two to eight buttons and in this connection a "button" is synonymous with an inch). Fourth: Increasing interest in the thumb section. Five: brighter colors.

In the working out of leather and fur alliances, the favorite leathers are doeskin and capeskin. A trend is evident toward a monotone palm and a back in which shades and tones of color of the palm are introduced through stitching, cording, lacings, embroidery, or a row of little bows. This idea is expressed also by the use of plaid, checked or striped fabrics on the back.

The slip-on is still correct for casual morning wear, but the three new silhouettes, that of the flared wrist, that of the gathered wrist, and that of the crushed wrist—the mosquetaire—carry on into the ceremonial hours. It may seem curious that the longer glove arrives at the same time as the longer sleeve; but the idea is to pull it up over the fitted wrist portion of the sleeve, or with a bracelet length sleeve, also in style, to soften the effect of the bangles or ornamental bands, which can be quite hard by a touch of drapery.

A factor contributing to the winter chic is the coloring. It is increasingly apparent that tones are rich and shadowy for formal

P. E. Dean Succeeds Late C. Guillo

Mrs. C. Guillo wishes to thank the citizens of Westmount for their patronage which they have given to the late Mr. C. Guillo, and it is much to her regret that she has to abandon contact with them all.

Mr. P. E. Dean, who is the successor and whose advertisement appears in this paper, is not unknown, having worked previously with Mr. Guillo at Tavannes Watch Co., and for the past ten years with Edmund Eaves Ltd., as certified watchmaker. Therefore he is fully qualified to give entire satisfaction to all who will grant him their confidence, for which he sincerely extends his thanks.

Wool for Daytime Is Regaining Favor

Wool is being extensively introduced for daytime. Cloques, croques and faconne silks also are liked. Many dressy silk daytime tailleurs have been noted. They are of satin, taffeta and moire. Maggy Rouff has outstanding models in silk. Schiaparelli likes striped colored silks for her longish evening jackets worn over dinner dresses. Generally the jackets are embroidered and the dresses black.

EXAMINER EDUCATIONAL PAGE

Amusement Area of Fair Found Also Educational

Following is the fourth article in a series contributed by Ross Cameron, of 4775 Sherbrooke street, west, outlining his impressions of the New York Fair:

Now that the introductory generalities have been dispensed with and all other necessary information helping towards a clearer idea in the imagination's eye of what the Fair is and what it looks like, we may proceed along more methodical lines and in a little more detail.

To escape the pangs of mental torture and physical collapse brought on by confusion, the Fair has been divided, as a pie, into a number of sections. There are nine of these divisions all radiating, hub-like, from the theme centre—the trylon and perisphere. These distinct divisions are best known as: Amusement, Communications and Business Systems, Community Interests, Food, Government, Medicine and Public Health, Production and Distribution, Science and Education and Transportation. It is to the Amusement Zone we go first.

Everybody goes to the World's Fair to be amused and in this they massacre two birds with one stone, for, quite unknowingly, they are also being educated. The educational values alive in the multitudinous concessions of the Amusement Area can hardly be underrated and this is particularly revealed in the Sons of the American Revolution Building. Placed on the eastern border of Fountain Lake (the entire Amusement Area is built around Fountain Lake) this building is in close touch with the purposes of the Fair; to celebrate the 150th Anniversary of George Washington's inauguration as the first President of the American Republic. On display, here, are the priceless relics and personal belongings of the beloved soldier-statesman. This is the only exhibition hall in the building, the other rooms being reserved as private meeting chambers for members and delegates of the various patriotic societies. All the attendants are garmented in typical Virginian, old-colonial costume and round out the atmosphere of the scene. All eyes eventually become fastened on the General's coach resting delicately on the front lawn. This is the vehicle which carried General Washington on his historic journey from the estate at Mount Vernon to the inaugural seat at New York in 1789.

Zoo Concessions
Other places where we might see education and amusement combined are in the concessions operated by the New York Zoological Society and the American Museum of Natural History. In the former you become intimate with the miracles of nature. The fantastic-looking bathysphere in which the world-renowned Dr. William Beebe descended into the impenetrable mysteries of the ocean depths is in full view of the public. You gaze in awe and wonder at the strange creatures he has so daringly recovered from unwilling seas. The spiny, scaly sea-horse of tropical waters, the slow-moving electric eel with death hidden in its ugly tail, the silent and danger-filled things which twist and turn in dark, unexplored places are all visible in tanks embedded in the fancily-designed walls of the exhibit. In another room, artistically caged, are the richly-plumed birds of hidden forests of the Dark Continent. These gorgeous creatures strut about in regal fashion, eyes sparkling, plumage mirroring the effective tube lighting of their new and frightening habitat.

Interesting fossils unearthed from their firm position of ages past are on view in super-modern show cases where a formerly ignorant public may study their fascinating history and gaze at their odd shapes and tiny markings.

Time and Space
A short distance from the Independent Subway station gate and adjacent to the Little Miracle Town where midgets abound, we meet the attention-compelling

A dramatic forecast of the eclipse of the horse in war is suggested in these pictures, taken at the giant army manoeuvres near Plattsburg, N. Y. Above, tanks of the "mechanical cavalry" of the future clank roughshod over a field to plunge into the woods. Below, troopers of the 101st Cavalry return from a sham battle.

Theatre of Time and Space. This extravagant domain of rocket ships and whirling planets is sponsored by the American Museum of Natural History. The exterior of the edifice is the type which lures you in and once you're inside you don't want to leave. Its front entrance lies beneath a great smooth wall in which our earth with its western hemispheres and the words Time, Space radiating from it in streamlined style is pictured. Behind this main facade is the arched structure itself. Upon entering and after attending to the admission fee (which is twenty-five cents) you pass into the theatre shrouded in darkness. Directly before you a portion of New York's skyline is silhouetted by a brilliant sunrise. An unseen voice breaks the quietness announcing that a trip to the edge of space is commencing. A soft, amber-like illumination fills the huge dome overhead and the vibrations of a powerful engine fills your ears. A tide of wind moves your hair and very suddenly you're looking far below you with New York rapidly fading into the background. The scene below is obscured completely. With the disappearance of the earth a blazing noon-day sun comes out of nowhere. The lights then fade and without warning

MOUNT LOUIS COLLEGE OPENS SEPTEMBER 5TH

Classes Open First Tuesday In September — Scientific Course Recognized Anywhere

The school year at Mount St. Louis College begins on the Tuesday following Labor Day and from present indications this institution promises to add again to its ever-growing enrolment.

This college is one of the most modern of its kind in the country. Its study courses are divided into three departments: preparatory, intermediate and senior. The senior department comprises either a commercial or scientific course.

The aim of the commercial course is to familiarize young men with different commercial careers. Its economics division is given close attention and a good grounding is given in commercial law and cost accountancy.

Its scientific course has grown to such proportions in recent years that it has earned the recognition of educationists throughout the country. Its laboratories of physics, chemistry and biology which are at the disposal of the students, are well equipped with the most modern testing tubes and devices.

A diploma given to a student who completes this course admits him to the second year at the Montreal Polytechnical School, corresponding classes at McGill University, faculty of science at the University of Montreal, the school of Higher Commercial Studies, the Department of Commerce at McGill and to various universities in the United States.

clusters of twinkling stars dot the spaces above. Out of nothing appears a white sphere which, after a number of dark spots appear here and there, you recognize to be the moon. The planet of the God of Beauty, Venus, is next on the list and after passing a flashing comet, showers of sparks supposed to represent meteors hurtling towards earth dash at you. Then Mars makes itself visible with its red hue and conventional topography. After a remarkable journey over the Milky Way and right through a number of other celestial constellations the familiar rings and satellites of Saturn present themselves. The rocket boat you imagine yourself in turns homeward and before long you see earth as the moon-dwellers do. Finally you glide back to good old terra firma amid a glare of lights. You ask yourself what it was all about. The answer ultimately resolves itself into the fact that it was just a lot of foolishness but you had fun and what else matters.

In another room of the same building the Longines-Whittauer Watch Company exhibit their products: watches, chronometers, chronographs, and the time pieces and instruments used in the pilot lofts of great ocean-going giants. Other intricate mechanisms which have played their necessary part in the evolution of aviation and astronomy are also attractively arranged in view of everyone.

Japan will have women mail carriers.

Extermination Of Fleas

A timely article on the dangers of allowing fleas to breed and the means that should be taken to remove them, was prepared this week by the Westmount Health Department. The article follows: Fleas are more troublesome in houses during the late summer and autumn. They are small, hard-bodied, active insects, wingless, with powerful legs for jumping. The Cat Flea and Dog Flea are the two species most troublesome in Canada.

These insects infest cats and dogs and will attack human beings when hungry.

People returning from summer vacations will often find fleas in their houses that have been closed several weeks and not cleaned or dusted.

Their small white, oval eggs are deposited loosely among the hairs of cats and dogs or in their sleeping places. Cat and Dog Fleas multiply rapidly and are among the species of fleas that can carry diseases from animal to person or person to person.

Control
As cats and dogs are the usual source of infestations, we should take precautions to rid them of fleas.

This may be done by dusting the animals, over newspapers, with fresh pyrethrum insect powder, which kills or stuns the fleas and causes them to fall on the paper, after which they can be burned.

Another method is to wash the animals with a solution of Creolin 2 per cent for cats and 3 per cent for dogs, followed by a bath of soap and warm water.

The sleeping places of cats and dogs should be kept scrupulously clean and dusting with fresh pyrethrum powder will prevent the fleas from breeding.

To remove them from a house, spraying the rooms with pyrethrum, kerosene-spray, followed by a thorough housecleaning and scrubbing the floors with soap and water to destroy the immature fleas and eggs that may be in the floor cracks.

A vacuum cleaner used on floors, carpets and rugs is advised.

WESTMOUNT BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. John B. McLaurin, D.D., of India, will conclude his summer ministry at Westmount Baptist Church Sunday. In the morning his subject will be "The Gospel Unhindered" and in the evening he will speak on "The Two Witnesses."

Dr. McLaurin will also speak at the open air Song Service at the Y.M.C.A. grounds, Royal avenue, on Sunday evening, his subject being "India." He was born in India and has held positions of high responsibility there in civic life as well as in the administration of Canadian Baptist Missionary activities, and is qualified to speak with authority on conditions in that country.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist throughout the world on Sunday August 27th.

The Golden Text is from John 1: 14. "The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Behold a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us." The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook

"Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus was the son of a virgin. He was appointed to speak God's word and to appear to mortals in such a form of humanity as they could understand as well as perceive. Mary's conception of Him was spiritual, for only purity could reflect Truth and Love, which were plainly incarnate in the good and pure Christ Jesus." (Page 332.)

ROYALS TAKE SECOND GAME IN SENIOR PLAY-OFFS

DOWN GRANITES 7-5 IN CLOSE CONFLICT AT WESTMOUNT PARK; TEAMS MEET AGAIN ON MONDAY

Winners Will Gain City Championship If They Win Third Match — Losers Led Game Until Second Half of Sixth Inning — Royals Scored Five Runs In Last Half of Stanza

Royals defeated Granites 7-5 at Westmount Park last night in the second game of a best three-out-of-five series to decide the Westmount Senior Municipal Softball League championship.

Royals have taken both matches played thus far, having downed Granites 7-2 in the initial conflict of the series on Monday night. Grads, third team in the league, were eliminated in the semi-finals.

The third game in the series will be played next Monday on the park Diamond, and if Royals again come out on the long end of the score, will wind up the season as city champions. What other league leaders the local champs will play against has not been decided upon.

Royals defeated Granites only after a hard fought battle last night. The losers led by five to two at the first half of the sixth inning and the general opinion was that they would emerge easy victors.

Royals, however, turned the tables at that point and managed to gain the remainder of the runs from then on, scoring five points in the last half of the stanza.

The winning squad managed to hold Granites scoreless in the seventh.

H. Maher starred for Royals in pitching, while D. Maher made a triple with two on base in the last half of the sixth. C. McCloy was

A DOUBLE DEAD HEAT . . . RACING RARITY THRILLS

Oldest racegoers could not recall ever having seen one before when this double dead heat was reeled off in claiming sprint for 2-year-old maidens at Thistle Down, outside Cleveland. Photograph at left shows Precious Toy, on inside, and Giggle Lee finishing as team for show money a half length behind leaders. The event drew field of 12.

WESTMOUNT TO MEET ROVERS

Royal Rovers have been challenged to a track meet with the highly touted Westmount Club. The Rovers are considered strong opposition, and have an even chance of piling up enough points to win the aggregate. The meet will take place some time next week.

Last Thursday at the handicaps, the Rovers kept their record clean in the sprints. Gordon King ran a beautiful race, breaking the tape in 10-1 seconds. In the quarter mile, Captain Hutton led the pack to win, beating out his club mate, Harold Kirkwood in a blanket finish.

Bill Smallcombe, who recently became the Provincial Marathon champion, ran a great mile to clinch second place.

The junior and senior Provincial championships have been set for September 9, while the inter-meet will be held on the 17th.

CAR NAMED "DUKE"

To Stage Treasure Hunt On Tuesday

A municipally-organized "treasure hunt" open to all boys of Westmount will be held on Tuesday afternoon starting at 2 o'clock. The first clue will be given at the band stand at Westmount Park.

As this will be the last treasure hunt of the season many entries are expected.

BOTH CRICKET TEAMS ENTER FINAL GAMES

Must Show Outstanding Prowess in Order to Win Respective Divisions

For the rest of the season, both Westmount cricket teams will have to be just about perfect if they want to finish at the top of their respective divisions in the Montreal City and District League. Should the "A" team win all their remaining matches, they will be champions, regardless of the outcome of the other games in which their opponents are involved. The condition is not so clearly defined in the "B" division, as the likelihood of the championship being won by the "B" team will also depend on how successful their nearest opponents are in their matches with the other teams.

The "B" team was idle last Saturday, but the "A" team was far from being so, having been engaged in a full-time (5 hour) match with Maisonneuve at Westmount Park. The best that Westmount could do, was to split the points with their opponents.

Capt. Ed. Jemmett won the toss and sent Maisonneuve to the wickets. One hundred and ten runs were on the board, when the first wicket fell; Scruton, who had amassed 64 runs, having stepped in front of a straight one from Jemmett, was the first batsman to return to the sidelines. Maisonneuve declared their innings closed at 188 for 4 wickets, leaving Westmount less than two hours, and very poor light to make the score.

Westmount responded with 107 runs for 3 wickets, Jim Robinson playing very carefully for 50 not out, and Fairley contributing a quickly made 30. With the ball, Ken Pentecost was the best for Westmount, having captured 2 wickets for 41 runs.

Allan Robinson, although not taking any wickets, was also in fine form.

Next Saturday, the "A" team will travel to Royal Avenue, and the "B" team will be at the W.A.G. opposing Verdun.

Ready for the Role
The actor had been out of work so long that he looked like a pauper. He neglected his appearance—his clothes were untidy, his shoes unshined, and his face unshaven.

Came the day he galloped into the house and took his wife in his arms. "I finally received a break!" he cried joyously. "The Gigantic Studios have hired me to play a small part in their new film. In this picture I play the part of a bum. But what a bum! It calls for superb artistry on my part, for this fellow is a tramp who wears the worst set of rags you have ever seen."

His wife nodded. "That role is right for you," she asserted. "All you'll have to do is tidy up a bit."

WESTMOUNT FOOTBALL CLUB WILL PROBABLY PLAY HOME GAMES ON ATHLETIC GROUNDS

Norman Smyth, Director of Municipal Recreation, is Presently Drawing Up Set of Conditions to be Presented to Jimmy Riddell and Fred Porter — Decision Means That Montreal Will Again Have Three Senior Teams

In all probability, the Westmount Football Club will have the use of the Athletic Grounds for its home games this fall, it was announced this week. The local squad is taking over for the Nationals in the O.R.F.U.

A set of conditions to be submitted to Fred Porter and Jimmy Riddell, sponsors of the team, are presently being prepared by Norman Smyth, director of municipal recreation.

As there is practically no doubt that they will be accepted, it is expected that Westmounts will make the ground their headquarters well before the start of the season's play.

The plan, if carried out, as it no doubt will, will again give Montreal three senior football teams. McGill and Royals will operate from Molson Stadium and Westmounts will play on the local grounds.

The former M.A.A.A. site will once again be the scene of football frays, for which it was so noted in years gone by.

Clary Foran will coach the Westmounts, and Johnny Macdonald, erstwhile mentor of the late lamented Cubs, will act as manager.

First practice of Westmounts is called for Monday night next at 6 o'clock. Fred Porter, John Pritchard and Jimmy Riddell along with other members of the executive will be present to get things underway.
