Duplessis Denies Rumor Of Retirement

PREMIER DUPLESSIS

QUEBEC— (CP) —Premier Duplessis said today a published report forecasting his retirement from politics for reasons of health was "not inspired by solicitude for truth nor by a desire to be loyal."

During a brief press conference Mr. Duplessis said his attention had been drawn to what he described as a 'rumor of which the least that can be said about it is that it is malicious."

"In accordance with a regrettable habit this was published in newspapers of today and broadcast over the radio yesterday."

After greeting the newspaper men in his office Mr. Duplessis read from a prepared statement his comments on the published report.

"Let me say first my health is infinitely better than the health of the opposition and its leaders.

"The gossip in question cannot be inspired by a solicitude for truth nor by a desire to be loyal.

NEVER FLED

"I have never fled from the battlefield, for I am not cast in the same mould as the present leaders of the provincial opposition."

Mr. Duplessis said the "insulting and reprehensible tactics" of the opposition leaders "are inexcusable, but can be explained."

From 1896 to 1957, he said, Quebec Liberals held the reins of power either in Quebec or Ottawa. But since 1957 they were not in power in either government.

"The thirst for power and the numerous unsated appetites now explain, without excusing them, the rage and the disloyal and reprehensible tactics of the provincial opposition and its leaders."

Khrush Proposes Aid Fund

MOSCOW (Reuters) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev suggested Tuesday night that underdeveloped countries should be helped through an international fund created with savings made by reducing armed forces and cutting military budgets.

Khrushchev, speaking at a reception here, rejected other suggestions for joint Western-Soviet aid to underdeveloped countries, and said Russia is ready to compete in this field with the West.

"We won't help them (the imperialists) so that they can further rob and impose a perpetual yoke on the Arab peoples," he told guests at the reception given for Soviet leaders by Marshal Badel Hakim Amer, vice-president and minister of war of the United Arab Republic who is visiting Moscow.

"We will help them ourselves and do it honestly with those countries with which we have agreements.

CAN'T COMPETE

"They (the West) cannot compete with us in this. The wolf and the sheep cannot live together because the wolf has fangs to eat the sheep with, not to help it."

The Soviet leader, in his first public appearance in Moscow after two months' vacation on the Black Sea, said the Soviet Union is friendly with the United Arab Republic because "We don't need your riches." He added:

"But the imperialists want to help you by giving you one kopek and getting 10 rubles back.

WANT RAW MATERIALS

"Why do they do it? Because they want your oil, your diamonds, your raw materials—not because they care for your welfare, but in order to subject you more, to squeeze the last drop of juice from you, which they have been doing for centuries."

Quebec Man Had Hotel Clerk Worried

DALLAS— (AP) —The hotel desk clerk, busy assigning rooms for the International City Manager's Association, looked blankly at the man standing before the desk.

"You are Rene Labrosse, city manager from Pointe Claire, Que?" he repeated. "And you wish your wife, Mrs. Labrosse, to be put into the double room with the Pointe Claire mayor, and you take the single?"

The visitor nodded. The clerk nervously drummed his fingers.

Finally the clerk asked: "The mayor—it is a woman mayor?"

"Of course," answered the visitor.

One-Man Rebellion

PARIS (Reuters) — Eight bruised and bandaged policemen told a court today how 26-year-old Claude Jubier pelted them with bottles when they tried to arrest him for taking part in a bar fight. He scored bullseyes as successive reinforcements arrived but eventually was overcome by sheer weight of numbers. Jubier, charged with "rebellion," was jailed for three months.

Squabbles Split UN — Lesage

JEAN LESAGE

QUEBEC (CP) — There are signs the Union Nationale party of Premier Duplessis is being wracked by internal squabbles, Quebec Liberal leader Jean Lesage said Tuesday.

His statement came at a press conference following two events—publication Monday of an article in the Ottawa newspaper Le Droit stating Mr. Duplessis was considering retirement and the premier's denial Tuesday of the story.

The story by the Ottawa daily cited a source close to the premier said Mr. Duplessis was thinking of stepping down for health reasons.

Denouncing the story as "gossip" without "solicitude for truth," Mr. Duplessis in his denial statement implied that the blame for it lay with Mr. Lesage's party.

But Mr. Lesage said he was surprised by Le Droit's article. He had seen the premier at mass Saturday and "he seemed to me to be in very good health."

He said the story could have come only from a source close to the premier—an indication of internal strife.

The Oct. 15 byelection in Roberval was another indication for Mr. Lesage that all was not serene with the high-riding party which holds 73 of the legislative assembly's 93 seats. The official Union Nationale candidate, Jean-Joseph Turcotte, defeated J. Augustin Fortin, former Union Nationale organizer, who ran as a Union Nationale independent in the two-way race.

The Roberval contest showed a "fratridical" struggle within the party, Mr. Lesage said.

Premier's 'Mania' Causes Trouble Liberal Claims

QUEBEC — (CP) — A mania for taking credit for the efforts of private industry in Quebec sometimes puts Premier Duplessis in hot water, Hon. Jean Lesage, said Tuesday.

Mr. Lesage said the premier had announced this month that Continental Paper Products Ltd. would build a new factory at Pointe-aux-Trembles, near Montreal.

But several days later, the Liberal chief told a press conference, the Trois-Rivieres, Que. daily newspaper Le Nouvelliste published a statement by president Vernon Johnson of Canadian International Paper Company, Continental's parent firm, which said the factory would not be a new industry.

The Continental plant was being moved from Cap-de-la-Madeleine, Que., to Pointe-aux-Trembles.

Woman Dies In Hotel Fire

ST. EMILE de MONTCALM, Que. (CP) — An unidentified woman died early today and two persons were seriously burned when fire destroyed the Mont Clement Hotel in this town 45 miles north of Montreal.

Police said the fire broke out about 4 a.m. on the ground floor and in half an hour had spread to the four floors of the stone structure.

Cow Accessory In Wife Murder

DETMOLD, Germany (Reuters) — Heinrich Huelsdonk, 54, told a court here how he murdered his wife—with the help of a cow.

Huelsdonk, sentenced Tuesday to hard labor for life, said he crept up on his wife while she was milking the cow and looped its chain around her neck.

The cow jumped to one side and she was strangled.

Convoys For Chiang

American Warning To Reds

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—State Secretary Dulles' visit to President Chiang Kai-shek neared an end today. The chief result visible so far was a new warning that the United States will resume escorting supplies to Quemoy if that becomes militarily necessary.

The American commander on Formosa, Vice-Admiral Roland N. Smoot, followed up with an announcement that convoy operations have not been resumed.

A spokesman for the U.S. defence command explained that the command didn't think resumption of convoying is necessary yet because the Nationalist islands just off the China mainland now are well supplied.

NO RIFT

Walter Robertson, assistant secretary of state, who accompanied Dulles to Formosa, told reporters the United States secretary and the Chinese Nationalist leader had made "very definite gains . . . in clarifying some of the confusions that existed in our country and in China." He added there had been "no rift of any kind."

Observers anticipated that at the most the meetings would produce a better understanding of each government's viewpoints and problems, and a joint declaration of their continued co-operation.

Robertson, at a press conference, denied that the offshore islands are being held by the Nationalists as a base for future invasion of the mainland.

NOT ATTACK BASES

"There isn't anyone above the intelligence of a military moron who thinks for one moment these islands are a base for an attack on the mainland," he said.

"The forces are there in strength (about 100,000 men) not for an offensive but for defensive purposes."

Until the Reds ended the cease-fire, Dulles had been reported hoping to get Chiang to withdraw a large number of them as evidence he did not plan to use the islands as the jumping-off point for invasion. Dulles had hoped this would induce the Communists to make their cease-fire permanent.

The Communist artillery bombardment of Quemoy and its smaller neighbors continued, but at considerably less intensity than on the worst days before the Red-invoked cease-fire of Oct. 6.

HOLD SECOND TALK

Dulles conferred with Chiang for nearly an hour this morning at the defence ministry in downtown Taipei. It was their second business session since he arrived Tuesday to discuss the situation in the Formosa Strait.

Aanother meeting was planned tonight, after a state banquet, and Dulles was expected to leave for Washington Thursday.

IKE CAMPAIGNS ON WEST COAST — President Eisenhower waves to the crowds which lined the route of his cavalcade through downtown Los Angeles.

American Election Campaign Warms Up, Two Weeks To Go

NEW YORK (CP)—President Eisenhower carried his vote-Republican offensive into the Middle West today after raking the Democrats in a California foray. Former President Harry Truman said Eisenhower and Vice-President Richard Nixon are jittery over prospects in the Nov. 4 congressional elections.

Eisenhower flew to Chicago Tuesday night from San Francisco, where he blamed Democrats in Congress for preventing enactment of his proposals to "fumigate" corruptly - run labor unions.

He also said Democrats have given impetus to what he called a "dangerous drift toward centralization" of government.

Truman told a party dinner at New Castle, Pa., that the Nov. 4 election will bring the biggest Democratic landslide since 1932.

Truman said he had been asked whether the Democrats had the jitters because Eisenhower and Nixon were on the campaign trail. It is Eisenhower and Nixon who have the jitters, the 74-year-old Democratic leader said.

Nixon was bound for New England today, with stops scheduled in Hartford, Conn., Burlington, Vt., and Providence, R. I.

Speaking in Baltimore Tuesday night, Nixon moved to woo what he described as Democratic moderates who back Eisenhower foreign policies. He singled out for special mention Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader.

RADICAL APPROACH

Nixon said he distinguishes between Democrats of the Johnson type and "the leadership which controls the Democratic national committee, which is radical in its approach to economic problems and . . . bitterly partisan in its criticism of the Eisenhower foreign policy."

With the election less than two weeks away, official sources estimated that 76,145,600 voters will be eligible to cast ballots, and that 48,131,226 will do so. Both would be records for a mid-term election.

US Coast Menaced By Storm

CAPE HATTERAS, N. C. (AP) A vicious northeaster with hurricane force winds and driving rains was due to move inland today after leaving its mark on coastal residents.

The U.S. weather bureau said the storm, which lashed the coast for more than 24 hours, probably will cross the Wilmington area south of here and move inland.

The northeaster Tuesday night lashed some areas with winds that reached 75 miles an hour, piling up flood ties across ocean-side highways, up inland rivers and into some coastal communities.

Four U.S. Atlantic Fleet destroyers caught in offshore waves that reached 25 feet were damaged.

The destroyers Rich and Moale, operating off the Virginia capes, reported deck and passageway damage and returned to Norfolk. Minor damage was reported on the destroyers Ellison and Sumner but they remained at sea.

Another $50 Million For Canada Highway

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament will be asked at its next session to vote an additional sum—perhaps $40,000,000 to $50,000,000—for construction of the Trans-Canada Highway.

This would increase the federal government's share of the 4,470-mile coast-to-coast road network to some $300,000,000, compared with an expenditure of $250,000,000 now authorized under the Trans-Canada Highway Act.

A works department official said the exact additional amount will be known in a few weeks. The department has asked the nine provinces that signed agreements under the highway act—all except Quebec—what mileage and other works they plan to complete by Dec. 31, 1960, target date for a paved highway from coast to coast.

COULD BE HIGHER

Once this was known the department could determine the additional funds the federal government would have to spend. The official said this now is estimated roughly at $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 but could be higher.

About 41 per cent — or some 2,000 miles—of the highway now has been paved. Construction started in 1950. There is an additional 1,200 miles paved to provincial standards but not to Trans-Canada specifications.

The official said parliamentary approval of the additional expenditure would receive top priority.

He said more money would have to be voted by Parliament to enable the government to keep pace with a faster rate of highway construction by the provinces. The provincial governments wanted to get as much work done as possible before Dec. 31, 1960, when the highway act expires.

PAY HALF COST

When the act was passed in 1949 it limited the federal share of construction costs to $150,000,000. The government agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost of new construction and half the expense of bringing sections of highway paved before the passage of the act up to Trans - Canada standards.

The act was amended early in 1956, increasing federal spending to $250,000,000. The 50-50 split in costs was continued but Ottawa also agreed to pay 90 per cent for the closing of vital uncompleted gaps up to 10 per cent of the total mileage within any one province.

Cumulative federal and provincial commitments for highway construction at Oct. 4 totalled $435,422,301. Of this total, Ottawa had committed $259,821,130—nearly $10,000,000 more than the amount authorized by the act.

Balloon Satellite

WASHINGTON (AP) — An inflated balloon of aluminum foil and plastic film may be the next United States satellite to go into orbit. Such a sphere is to be included in the next army satellite-firing attempt. It is to be sent aloft in a modified Jupiter-C rocket and inflated automatically with nitrogen hundreds of miles above the earth.

Collision Over Town In Italy

NETTUNO, Italy —(Reuters) — A British European Airways Viscount and an Italian jet fighter collided today, killing all 30 persons aboard the airliner.

The collision of the four-engined turbo-prop Viscount and the Italian Air Force F-28 Sabre jet took place over this little fishing port 30 miles south of Rome.

Twenty-six passengers and four crew were aboard the airliner.

The Italian fighter pilot parachuted safely.

Both the Viscount and the jet fighter crashed on land between Nettuno and the nearby port of Anzio where allied forces landed in the Second World War.

The Viscount had taken off from London Airport for Malta.

The collision took place in bad flying weather.

Exporters Told:

Undeveloped Nations A Challenge

SEIGNIORY CLUB, Que. (CP) Sir Saville Garner, United Kingdom High Commissioner to Canada, Tuesday night challenged Canadian exporters to help raise the living standards in underdeveloped countries and so tap promising markets for goods.

He told the closing dinner of the two-day annual meeting of the Canadian Exporters' Association:

"The African villager, the Indian peasant and the West Indian laborer — who at present make almost no demand on the world's goods—present a stimulating opportunity.

GREAT VICTORY

"If we can meet it, we shall not only have achieved a great victory in the battle for men's minds, but we shall also have set up new demands."

Referring to the September Commonwealth trade conference in Montreal, Sir Saville said:

"We all recognize that in today's world all of us are interdependent. But at Montreal there was a new directness and a new conviction that prosperity is indivisable and that it is not healthy for world peace or international stability that some countries should have so much and some so little.

DEMOCRATIC DANGER

"We also know that if the hopes of the less-developed countries are too long deferred, the democratic institutions may be in danger."

Sir Saville said Britain today is strong and is reaping the rewards of restraint in the last year.

"Our (foreign exchange) reserves have been steadily rising and the last six months saw the first surplus in trading since the beginning of the century. I believe the prospects for an upsurge in Anglo-Canadian trade are good."

ANSWERS DOUBTS

In reply to expressed doubts about British concessions announced at Montreal, H. Leslie Brown, assistant deputy minister of trade and commerce, said:

"Britain is sincerely and positively anxious to get rid of trade restrictions. British statements at Montreal were not made lightly."

He suggested the next year would tell how far Britain would be able to go in removing all restrictions against imports.

This year she had at last broken the post-war two-year cycle of recurring financial crises and if she could continue this for another 12 months, then full convertibility of sterling might be "at hand."

Douks Deadline Passes, 50 Sign

VICTORIA (CP) — An official statement was expected today to clear up uncertainties surrounding the projected move of the Sons of Freedom Doukhobors to Russia.

The deadline set by the federal and British Columbia governments for the filing of application forms by Freedomites who wished to go to Russia passed at midnight Tuesday.

At that time, the provincial government had received fewer than 50 forms.

Freedomite leaders said, however, they were holding another 2,264 signed forms. They wouldn't release them until the two governments agreed to certain new conditions.

BONNER TRAVELS

B.C. Attorney-General Robert Bonner flew to Vancouver late Tuesday afternoon to talk with a Sons delegation and said before he left Victoria he expected to make a statement sometime this afternoon.

The Vancouver meeting was classed as unofficial, and the Freedomite delegates were to meet with Mr. Bonner in his office here today for an official conference.

Justice Minister Fulton was expected to be in telephone contact with Mr. Bonner today, probably to discuss the latest demands made by the radical Russian religious sect.

Monday night, scarcely 24 hours before the deadline, the Freedomites announced they wanted further negotiations with the governments.

They said the completed application forms, which would account for most of the Sons of Freedom population in B.C., wouldn't be handed over to the governments until the talks were held and until certain extra conditions were met.

THE DEMANDS

They were that:

1. The governments indicate how much money will be assigned each of the emigrants.

2. Freedomite children at the provincial welfare school at New Denver be released, "at least for the period of time when the government of the U.S.S.R. will take them . . . and look after the until we arrive."

3. A deadline extension to Nov. 15 to be granted immediately.

The second point in the demands concerned the 100 or more Sons of Freedom children being held and educated at the welfare school because their parents refused to obey B.C. laws and send them to school.

CAUSING "FARCE"

Mr. Bonner, when advised of the new demands, said the Freedomites were turning the proposed move to Russia into "a farce."

"I don't think either the federal or provincial governments have to scurry around to participate in that kind of nonsense. This is reducing the matter to a farce."

Asked about the possibility of success in the venture, he replied: "The facts speak for themselves."

The short notice given by the Doukhobors concerning the extra negotiations and demands, Mr. Bonner said, was "not the way we can deal with this type of thing."

"We can't deal in this casual way . . . this is a last-minute manoeuvre."

SAYS JUSTIFIED

Lawyer Harry Rankin of Vancouver, retained by the Freedomites, said the new negotiations are "fully justified and no reason for anyone getting difficult."

"The Sons of Freedom simply want a concrete contract now that they have gathered 2,264 signatures of intent," he said.

The two levels of government, when they initially agreed to help the Doukhobors out of the country, indicated they were prepared to spend about $2,000,000 for transportation, relocation fees and property settlement.

Government officials have indicated they will count the money well spent if they succeed in moving the Freedomites to Russia, their homeland.

BLAMED FOR BLASTS

The sons of Freedom, an offshoot sect of the Doukhobors, preach against militarism and violence, but have been blamed for more than two decades of dynamitings, burnings and terrorism in the Kootenay and Okanagan areas of the province.

The CPR's Kettle Valley line has been a frequent victim of dynamite blasts. Power poles, bridges, line shacks and equipment have also been destroyed.

Barns and buildings belonging to other Doukhobors have been burned to the ground, presumably for some infraction of the Freedomites' code.

Their favorite form of protest, however, remains the nude parade. This manoeuvre, performed by men and women of all ages, can take place anywhere, at any time, and in any weather. It's usually accompanied by an eerie, wailing chant.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

ST. GEORGE, Utah (AP) — Amid these rocky buttes you can find a new Rita Hayworth — relaxed, radiant and, although she is marking her 40th birthday, as beautiful as ever.

The reason for all this appears to be her fifth and apparently most successful marriage.

While Rita was lunching in the shade of her trailer dressing room here on the rocky Utah plain, Gary Cooper, Van Heflin, Richard Conte and Tab Hunter were emoting before the camera. Rita is the lone actress in the cast of They Came to Cordura.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Her conversation was easy, contrary to what it usually is on the Hollywood stages. It was noted that she was observing a birthday. Does she like birthdays?

"Sure, doesn't everyone?" she said in an un-actresslike reply. She smiled as she reflected on her return to the outdoor epic.

"I got my start in westerns," she said. "I was 14 or 15 at the time and I did about a dozen of them at Republic and other studios."

Their formula: Golf and the quiet life.

PLAY LOTS OF GOLF

"We don't go out much at all," Rita said. "We like to stay home and entertain a few friends now and then and maybe see a movie. Jim and I also play a lot of golf together."

This golf routine sounded off beat for Rita, who was once one of the queens of the Hollywood night life. But their linking on the links was all her idea, she said.

"I had taken two months of lessons once and then gave it up," she said. "When Jim and I were dating, I suggested we try some golf. He had been a baseball and football player, but had never played much golf. We tried it and liked it."

Debate Is Highlight Of H. And S. Meeting Held In Cowansville High

COWANSVILLE.—A debate on the topic, "Resolved that Home and School should take an active interest in the school curriculum" was the main feature at the meeting of the Cowansville H. and S., held in the gymnasium. Upholding the affirmative were Mr. D. Bradford and Mrs. Donald Quilliams, representing Cowansville. In their argument they stressed the responsibility of parents to promote and secure an adequate curriculum, to investigate the reasons for pupils dropping out, particularly at the grade 7 to 9 level, and to ask of themselves questions such as, "Are we too lenient with children?"

Two members of Farnham Home and School, Mr. J. Leat and Mrs. R. A. Clark, presented the negative side of the question. School boards, they pointed out, are the proper authorities to make changes, owing to financial obligations. Furthermore, few parents understand modern methods. Many would be disqualified by lack of membership in H. and S., and lack of attendance at meetings. They feared that the proposal might place too much control in the hands of an unqualified few.

In his final rebuttal Mr. Bradford pointed out that the purpose would be to broaden, not to criticize.

The judges, Mrs. M. S. McCaw, Mrs. A. Rider and Mr. Lee Martin, of the Bedford Association, complimented all speakers and rendered a close decision in favor of the Affirmative. Also from Bedford was the chairman, Mrs. Sinclair MacIntosh.

To the three associations concerned went the thanks of Regional President Gilbert Brown, who pointed out that the evening's program had been a regional effort. Mr. Brown also announced a conference to be held in Cowansville High School at 8 p.m. on Monday, November 3, to which everyone is invited. A panel of four speakers will discuss the general topic, "What Price Competition." This will be considered under the headings: On the playing field; in the classroom; after graduation; in the community. Principal Tyler spoke on marking arrangements and reports for this school year. From Grade IV up marks, not letters, will be used. At the end of this month each teacher may send out a personal note about any pupil who shows trouble signs. Results will be sent December 1, the end of February and the end of April. There will be the customary interim comment form in late January.

Mrs. MacIntosh, vice-president of Quebec Home and School Federation, stated that that body sends a representative to the PAPT Curriculum Committee. It has also four sub-committees to consider the retarded child, the gifted child, bursaries and the curriculum.

Rev. John Peacock, chairman, announced that the executive meeting would be held in the school at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, October 28.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. T. Forster, Mrs. A. Dryden and Mrs. W. Goettel.

Hong Kong Speaker Condemns United States Stand In Formosa

"Eisenhower is ideologically right in taking a firm stand in the Middle East on the grounds that no country should yield to force, but in a more natural and practical sense the use of force is the predominant method of settlement," Rev. Reginald Trueman, Dean of St. John's College, Hong Kong, told a small group of students and professors at Bishop's University Tuesday night.

Mr. Trueman, reviewed the events leading up to the Formosa crisis. Opposing the United States stand, he said the civil war between the Communists and the Chinese Nationalists, led by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, was not allowed to come to its natural end due to interference by the Western powers which prevented the Communists from occupying the offshore islands and Formosa.

Drawing examples from Toynbee, Mr. Trueman drew a picture of the normal civilization pattern. In the beginning there is a period of steady expansion and increasing power, followed by a period of civil war out of which a strong man emerges to lead his nation down a peaceful, and sometimes productive, period of decline, ultimately ending in complete degeneration and chaos. The Chinese cultural patern, he said, differed from Toynbee's example in that there existed more continuity in the various fluctuations of civilization which have occurred throughout the centuries there. The reason that the successive conquering civilizations were themselves conquered and absorbed into the cultural life of the preceding civilization. Such a continuity, he pointed out, is important in understanding the minds of the Chinese now.

For over six centuries, he told his audience, the Western Powers, led by Great Britain, have exploited Oriental culture and wealth at the expense of the Chinese. In the last century the Chinese have become more and more humiliated by Western dominance and control.

Mr. Trueman observed that Western civilization may have entered a period of decay and degeneration characterized by nationalist revolution and that a new civilization represented by the three independent Communist countries, Russia, China and Yugoslavia, may emerge to take its place.

He said that in decadent periods such as the lowest period of Roman civilization, there usually emerges a universal religion which may preserve the good points of a crumbling way of life. At that time, he pointed out, Christianity emerged to preserve the better points of Greco-Roman culture.

Mr. Trueman asked whether Christianity could rise again and become a predominant feature of the new civilization if and when it arose, adding.

"This is why I feel that missionary work is important. This is not a last ditch stand. Hong Kong will probably fall to the Communists, but Christian work is important there because it may profoundly influence the Communist way of life."

Asked whether Christianity and Chinese Communism were compatible, Mr. Trueman said the Communists do not actively try to extinguish Christianity although they oppose it ideologically because they oppose supersition. He went on to say that Christianity was not compatible ideologically but that in a more practical sense it may be. Mr. Trueman said that some Anglican Church leaders now accept Communism as the best way for mainland China because there is no possible alternative.

Mr. Trueman told of Hong Kong's acute social problems. The population increases by 140,000 each year, 60,000 of whom are refugees from Communists China and 80,000 by Natural increase.

"Thousands of children are not in school," he added. The problem of overcrowding affects every aspect of life including housing and hospital space. Many people are not living in houses at all and these people are a menace to the rest of the population due to their unsanitary conditions. Over 20 people die in the streets every week. The problem is so great that it is hard to know what to do."

Limiting the population growth, he continued, would be a valuable contribution to the problem, but the Roman Catholics, who comprise five of the ten per cent Christian element of the colony oppose any form of birth control on the grounds of natural law.

Manhattan Concert Group Opens Bishop's Program

The Manhattan Concert Orchestra under the baton of Harry John Brown will be the first concert to be presented at Bishop's University this season. The group of 21 musicians will present a program of music on the lighter vein, ranging from the perennial classic favorites to the popular conductor's own arrangements of Broadway show tunes, in Bishop's Memorial Gymnasium on Monday, at 8.30 p.m.

On its first tour last season, the Manhattan Concert Orchestra and its conductor won wide acclaim in over 50 appearances within two months. A similarly crowded schedule will take them through United States and Canada this year. Wherever they played, the group was praised for concerts "charged with fire, sparkle and spontaneity."

The young maestro started his conducting at an early age, organizing a brass band among his playmates. His musical studies were interrupted by the war but it wasn't long before he was directing his regiment's (the 66th) choral group, the Gleemen, who performed more than 500 concerts before Allied troops. Later, his work as Director of the famous G.I. Symphony led to guest appearances conducting Nuremberg, Munich and Vienna orchestras.

After the war, he completed his studies at Eastman School of Music, won his M.A. from the University of Chicago and studied summers with Koussevitsky at Tanglewood. He continued his conducting with various groups in the mid-west and later was engaged as Associate conductor for the Boston Pops tour orchestra for two seasons. Following this experience the Manhattan Concert Orchestra was formed for him.

As a composer, Brown's compositions range from musical comedies to the larger symphonic forms. He is a noted musical arranger and recently completed the sound track for a film series on the dance.

Tickets for this concert are available to the public and may be obtained from the Porter's Office at the University, Clark's Drug Store, Lennoxville or H. C. Wilson & Sons, Sherbrooke.

Construction Courses For Home Builders

Construction courses for veterans planning to erect their own homes under the Veterans Land Act and other prospective builders, whether veterans or not, will be given under the auspices of the VLA office early in November.

Applications for those wishing to take the course should be placed at the VLA office, 315 King St. West, not later than Nov. 1.

Depending upon the number of applicants, the course will be held either at the Institute of Technology or the office of the VLA administration.

Discussing recent operations of the VLA administration in this district, a spokesmen stated that considerable progress has been registered on the Rock Forest housing project located on the outskirts of Sherbrooke.

Twelve new houses, of which five are already inhabited, will be completed this fall and applications indicate that many more veterans will take advantage of a long term loan next spring to acquire single family dwellings.

A gravelled road and water works system have been installed by the municipality of Rock Forest and other public services such as electricity and telephone are now available.

City Defers Action On Airport Charters

Sherbrooke will not grant concessions to chartered airline companies until the municipal airport is in full operation nor until the companies asking for rights have been investigated.

This is the conclusion that can be drawn from a city council decision this week with regards to a demand for exclusive operating rights by the Sherbrooke Air Service Limited, a North Hatley based outfit.

Council also agreed that such a policy would give the Federal Transport Board a chance to weigh the various demands.

The aldermen decided on the "no concessions yet" principle after a study of the Sherbrooke Air Service proposed service and rates.

Service would be provided on a non-scheduled or chartered basis from Sherbrooke-Megantic-Quebec-Montreal. The average rate for such service is 35 cents a mile.

The company holds permits to operate multi-motored craft, to schedule international flights for travel the United States especially and to run an aviation school.

Flights from Sherbrooke-Megantic-Quebec vary from $70 for 40 minutes to $50 for 50 minutes depending upon the class of flight.

Sherbrooke Air plans eventually to add a 10-seater passenger plane and a helicopter service for which it has obtained Ottawa approval.

A telephone pole at the intersection of King-Murray and Papineau Sts. in the East Ward will be moved two feet to make way for the enlargement of the corner.

Council decided on the move following a recommendation by Director of Services Charles Langlois that there would be minimum of delay in displacing the pole as compared to the second solution of eliminating the pole completely and burying the wires.

Cost to the city of burying the wires would be between $400 and $500 and would prevent paving the corner before the winter.

Mr. Langlois announced that enlargement work would begin today.

The council granted permission to the province to clear and grub a municipally-owned lot at Rock Forest near the Magog River, the site where a new bridge will be erected.

Permission was granted to the Combustion Engineering Company to construct a building on Cabana St. so that the front wall will be along the street line.

The zoning laws forbid that new constructions be built along the street line.

Council decided that the permission should be given on the grounds that the street would never be enlarged to its proper width.

A demand for permission to open an automobile repair shop on the southside of Hertel St. was not granted but will be reconsidered by the aldermen when the new zoning laws for that area are submitted by Mr. Langlois and Town Planner J. C. Lahaye.

Mr. Langlois said the side of the street in question would be in an industrial zone.

Council approved an asking price of $75 a mile by the contracting company of Maurice and Claude Limited to remove snow from highway No. 5 to Bromptonville on the part which is within the city limits. The company had hiked its price from $675 to $750.

The 1958 municipal grants to the Community Chest, $500, and to the Rotary Club for annual fair, $106.73, were approved.

City Treasurer Pierre Bachand will address the Quebec Union of Secretary Treasurers Friday morning at a session of the annual convention in Quebec.

Mayor Nadeau, as president of the Union of Municipalities, will also attend as a special guest.

Praises Work Of Lennoxville Optimist Club

Mayor Ernest Gilbey and Councillor Cecil Dougherty, of the Lennoxville town council, were guests last night at the regular weekly meeting of the Lennoxville Optimist Club.

Mayor Gilbey, in a brief address folowing the supper, congratulated the club for its initiative and hard work in developing a new town park site.

The mayor said he was pleased with the installation of a Little League baseball diamond and with the plans for a playground and for a large picnic area which would include tables and barbecue pits.

Optimist Dr. M. Salvas was named to the town parks committee which administers the project.

Other guests included R. Dionne, Sherbrooke Optimist, and Harold Robinson, of Waterville.

Actonvale Victimized By Engineer

ACTONVALE, Que. — (CP) — Provincial police are searching for a young man who posed as a CBC engineer in a summer-long hoax that cost his victims about $15,000.

Police said the man, posing as an engineer working on television relay towers, disappeared recently, leaving a trail of bouncing cheques.

They said he lived at hotels, took an option on farmland in the area, hired five laborers to work on the land, ordered dynamite and a new car— and paid for them all with fake cheques.

Detective Lieutenant Paul Benoit of the provincial hold-up squad, said the fraud suspect collected about $15,000 in goods and services before he vanished.

Actonvale is about 40 miles northwest of Sherbrooke.

Rotarians Told Of Problems Of Ticket Agents

Leopold Pinard, city passenger agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway, gave his fellow Rotarians a streamlined talk on the pleasures and pitfalls which are part of the everyday routine of a passenger agent, last night at the Club's weekly meeting.

Mr. Pinard, who started working as a morse telegrapher in Montreal with the Great Northwest telegraphs, and later in Sherbrooke with the C.P.R., started in passenger work shortly after. He spoke of a passenger man as a public servant in whom patience is an invaluable ally. A friendly smile and a cool head will often ease the tension of a delicate situation he said.

The speaker mentioned the constant changes in travel geography and the new developments in transportation, of which a passenger agent must keep informed. But the problems which arise are more than compensated for by the pleasure of satisfied customers he said.

John Knutson introduced Mr. Pinard and he was thanked by Eugene Lalonde.

Vice-president Lyman Tomkins chaired the meeting and welcomed a new member to the club, Jean Pankert, who has transferred from the club in his home town in Belgium.

Rotarian Bert Lyon, chairman of the rural-urban committee, called the members' attention to the meeting next week which will be held in the Brompton Road Community Hall when farmers of the district will be their guests.

Elson Dollivier of Lennoxville and Rotarians Lloyd Squier of Waterbury, Vt. and Edward Cutting of Rockland, Maine, were guests at the meeting.

Two Youngsters Slightly Hurt In Traffic Mishaps

Two Sherbrooke youngsters suffered minor injuries in traffic accidents yesterday.

Nicole Monfette, 6, 42 Windsor st., was taken to the Hotel Dieu last night after she was bumped by a car on the corner of Windsor and King st., E. She suffered only scrapes to the legs and a mild shaking up. She was released after examination.

Five-year-old Gilles Guay, of 8th Ave., Sherbrooke, was hit by a car yesterday noon at the corner of King st., E., and 7th Ave., as he was on his way home from school. The youngster was taken to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital where officials say his condition is good. He suffered lacerations to the forehead and upper lip.

Customs Laws Menace Individual Liberty

Once again a Canadian judge has condemned certain provisions of the Customs Act which strike at the very principles of the tradition concept of the administration of British justice. Clauses in the Customs Act place upon the person accused in certain offences the onus of proving himself innocent, whereas the basic idea of British justice is that a man is innocent until he is proved guilty.

In freeing a Montreal man of charges of illegal possession of three United States watches upon which the duty had not been paid, Judge Redmond Roche condemned RCMP officers for seizing the goods at will and forcing the accused to prove his innocence. This, said Judge Roche, is not the spirit of law in our free and democratic country.

Judge Roche has not been alone in condemning this assumption of guilt which is too prevalent throughout the entire customs and excise regulations. Not so long ago a Sherbrooke judge dismissed a smuggling charge against a district resident and at the same time rapped the tactics of the law enforcement officers in laying complaints which he held were obviously unreasonable. Within the past two weeks, the Supreme Court of Canada, studying another Eastern Townships case, set aside a seizure after rejecting a Crown contention that anyone selling a car on time should ascertain that it would not be used for smuggling until it was paid for.

In none of these cases were the officers criticized for breaking the law, but the law is subject to criticism for undermining the basic rights of the citizen. Action should be taken at the next session of Parliament to protect the citizen against unreasonable prosecution under laws designed to "facilitate anti-smuggling enforcement."

Peace In The Middle East

For the first time in more than five months, the prospect of genuine internal calm exists in Lebanon. If the situation holds, it will amount to the most hopeful improvement in the Middle Eastern picture in a long time.

Originally it was felt that the departure of the controversial former President Chamoun from office in mid-September would signal the end of Lebanon's turmoil. It did not.

The new president, Fuad Chehab, touched off fresh outbreaks by naming Rashid Karami, one of the rebel leaders, as premier. Thereafter a cabinet heavily weighed with Moslems was established.

The Christian supporters of Chamoun took to the barricades, fostered political strikes and otherwise acted to continue the chaos and paralysis which had plagued the country through the troubled summer.

Since Lebanon is sharply divided in population between Christians and Moslems, the situation suggested that the strife might drag on without a solution satisfactory to either element.

Just when a note of hopelessness seemed to be creeping in, however, there was a sudden flurry among Lebanon's leaders. First it was reported Karami had resigned, but this proved false. What has happened is that he has reorganized his cabinet to produce an even division of Christians and Moslems, all of them moderates.

After so much bitterness and violence, it would be foolhardy to predict that this move will surely bring lasting internal peace. Yet the early signs are good.

If good sense can indeed prevail at last in Lebanon, a tiny country where religion so clearly divided the people, men may find renewed hope for solution of the Middle East's larger problems embracing the Arabs and Jews and the relation of the whole region to West and East.

All that would seem to be needed now is for President Nasser of the United Arab Republic to keep his hands off to allow time for this newfound peace to became a habit among the strife-weary Lebanese.

Pity The Reader

The U.S. Air Force has admitted that it made a blunder at the time of launching of the moon rocket a week or so ago. Shortly after the launching, a spokesman informed the press that the rocket was "the first man-made object to escape the earth's gravitational field."

Now it turns out that it wasn't. Moreover, it wasn't intended to do such a thing. It was going too slowly, the mathematicians say.

Most people just don't have the scientific knowledge to understand what the blunder was all about, but it was a blunder nevertheless. And the implications will bring a chill to the thoughtful newspaper reader.

This incident was a mere misunderstanding of some rudimentary science. But how is the average newspaper reader in the future to understand what is going on when: (1) Scientists are talking in really tough mathematical terms; (2) they are being interpreted by writers who need translators at their elbows; and (3) they are being read by a public which can't all be engineering graduates?

DENTAL MILLENIUM?

(The Edmonton Journal)

Some persons are braver than others and some are less sensitive to pain but it is doubtful if anyone likes to have his teeth drilled. Of interest to all mankind, therefore, is an announcement at the American Chemical Society convention in Chicago that a major U. S. industrial concern has developed a plastic for filling dental cavities.

It takes a 680 - page book merely to enumerate the scientific discoveries in the field of chemistry during the past year but surely none could prove of greater benefit to humanity than the new-found dental plastic. According to the report, the plastic, in liquid form, is poured into a tooth crack or cavity and, in a matter of seconds, forms a hard, easily-cleaned surface. The important thing is that the cavity doesn't require drilling because the plastic seals so effectively that it halts decay.

So often in the past, great boons have been heralded to the world and then nothing more is heard of them. Remember the anti-histamines that were going to eliminate the common cold and the carburetor that would give a hundred miles on a gallon of gasoline? One can only hope that bugs do not develop in the case of the dental plastic even if it does put the manufacturers of dental drills out of business.

HULA HOOPS

(Windsor Daily Star)

The present hula hoop fad is healthy. It offers ample opportunity for kids to work off excess energy and the gyrations essential to the art should be excellent exercises for their muscles.

The kids may think they are quite modern, and they are, as they go through their acrobatics. They perhaps do not know, however, that their grandparents also had fun with hoops.

The hoops then were of a more primitive sort, taken off a barrel. Lacking that, the tire of a cart or buggy would suffice. And they weren't used in the modern manner.

The game was to get the hoop rolling then, keep it going by tapping it with a stick. It was quite a trick to keep it upright, especially on a rough lane or a rutty road.

It is a queer thing but kids of any generation often get the most fun out of the simplest of contrivances. It's difficult to imagine any plaything more simple than a hula hoop—though we wouldn't say it is simple to keep the thing revolving around the body.

HOW WILL THEY SELL?

(Toronto Financial Post)

How well Canadians like the new cars now coming off the assembly lines will have an important effect on the whole economy.

There are some 42,000 people employed directly in the Canadian auto manufacture and assembly plants when they are running at peak capacity; an estimated 55,000 are employed in auto dealerships and another 22,000 are engaged in parts manufacture. Directly and indirectly about 185,000 earners in Canada are dependent on the market for their pay cheques.

Sales of Canadian-built automobiles began declining as long ago as April 1957. They have been running at a greatly reduced rate ever since.

This date is meaningful. If the car-markers guessed wrong as to what kind of cars and what kind of styling the Canadian wants in the fall of 1958, remember that the basic designs of these cars were decided early in 1956.

All three companies of the Big Three have smaller and more economical cars ready to go into production for 1960.

Popular Guitar-Playing Franciscan Friar

French Canada too has its guitar-playing singer but unlike the current crop he doesn't wear long hair.

He wears his cropped like a friar's, because he is a friar.

Rev. Bernard de Brienne, now 33, discovered two years ago it was possible to reconcile his talent for music and his calling. He splits his time between teaching and preaching, and booming out folk songs in a rich baritone at concerts throughout Quebec province.

Father Bernard, born in Montreal of French immigrant parents, displayed musical talent almost from birth. Before he was six years old, he had begun mastering the violin and cello. For 18 years, he studied piano and organ.

He studied poetry and literature at University of Montreal, then painting and sculpture at the Beaux-Arts schools in Montreal and Quebec City. His religious vocation did not come to him until rather late in life—he had already served a term in the Canadian Army and finished all his studies before deciding to forsake the worldly life.

Entering the Franciscan novitiate at Sherbrooke, Father Bernard easily went through his philosophy and theology courses and was ordained. He was appointed a teacher and chaplain in Sherbrooke, specializing in fine arts and rhetoric.

As chaplain to a youth group affiliated with the Franciscan order, Father Bernard tried to introduce his charges to classical music. Instead, they won him over to popular music. Since it didn't sound right on the piano, they asked him to learn the guitar. He did, and a new career was launched.

He gave his first concert in Sherbrooke, playing songs of his own composition. Since then he has become a prolific composer—putting together more than 300 songs. One day, inspired by the peaceful scene around a woodland cabin where he was meditating, he composed 23 songs in one day.

He has composed songs about fire and rain, sun and snow, anything that strikes him. Many are composed so swiftly one after the other that he has no time to find titles for them.

Father Bernard hopes to be able to hold a joint concert in the Montreal Forum this winter with Father Duva, a Jesuit troubador from France. Later he hopes to tour Europe with Felix Leclerc, popular French - Canadian folk singer who has become a favorite in France and Quebec.

But no matter what he does, he can never hope to get rich. All the money he makes on concerts goes to the Franciscan order, whose members are sworn to an oath of poverty.

Matter of FACT

The word "academy" is derived from the olive grove of Academe, the name given to the philosophic school founded by Plato, situated in the suburb of the Ceramicus on the river Cephissus about a mile northwest of Athens. It was said to have belonged to the ancient Attic hero Academus. Plato taught at the "Academe" for approximately 40 years until his death in 348 B.C.

INDIA REDS ON RISE

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

Disquieting press reports from New Delhi tell of the steady political gains of India's Communists. Correspondents write of the exuberant spirit of confidence apparent among India's Reds—in striking contrast with a year or so ago when the wisdom and power of Prime Minister Nehru's Government was unchallenged.

The Congress party, it is true, still enjoys an overwhelming majority in India's Parliament. But even the most vigorous opponents of Communism feel that another election will see further substantial gains for the Communists. The possibility of the Reds being able to force a "popular front" Government coalition is openly mooted.

Why this sudden rise in the fortunes of India's communists? There are several explanations.

For one thing, there is the widespread disillusionment with socialism because of the failure of Prime Minister Nehru's Five Year Plans in accomplishing what had been promised.

For another, there is Prime Minister Nehru's own political blunder of extending as cordial a welcome as he did to Khrushchev and Bulganin when they went on their barnstorming tour of Southeast Asia a little over a year ago. Congress party supporters of Nehru outdid themselves in voicing friendship for the USSR. The beneficiaries of this misplaced cordiality are members of India's Communist party.

CROSSED SIGNALS WINS TOURNEY

"My opening spade bid was due to the fact that I was playing in an individual tournament and wanted to bid the major suit first. My partner's four no-trump response was a typical individual bid and the fact that I showed just one ace did not encourage him in the slightest.

"As he explained later, he was a great believer in the law of symmetry and since he was void of one suit, he was sure that I was void of another. Of course, I can't be sure that he simply miscounted our aces by one, but that is neither here nor there.

"East doubled. He had two aces and sort of felt that we had our signals crossed. Fortunately for us, his partner also held an ace, and it happened to be the ace of clubs. He smiled happily and laid it down. I ruffed in dummy, drew trumps, discarded his one diamond on my king of clubs and conceded a heart trick.

Insurance Talk At Richmond Board Of Trade

RICHMOND — "What is Insurance?" was the subject of a talk given by Norman McDonald, at the regular supper meeting of the Richmond and Melbourne Board of Trade held Monday night at the Richmond Hotel.

Mr. McDonald, of Public and Industrial Relations Ltd., of Montreal, spoke on the subject of insurance cost, stressing automobile insurance.

Mr. McDonald said insurance is a means of indemnifying the few for their losses by the contribution of the many, of assuming the risks of others and spreading the resulting losses over all insured, thereby transforming a future uncertain event into a present determinable amount.

He noted that Canada is divided into some 70 different areas for insurance purposes and the rate charged in each area is entirely dependent upon the accident experience in that zone.

No other type of private enterprise is subject to such stringent government regulations as the insurance companies operating in Canada.

The speaker said that 1957 proved to be the worst in automobile insurance history, with 229 out of 314 companies in the fire, automobile and casualty business in Canada showing underwriting losses. The average cost per accident to private cars covered by public liability insurance reached $290 in 1957 after a steady upward climb from $198 in 1952, an increase of approximately 46 percent. These figures are the actual average cost of claims excluding all adjusting and operating costs. He said that 1958 looks better, however.

Personal factors affecting rates include accident free years, under age drivers and frequency of accident.

Mr. McDonald noted that one Canadian is injured in an automobile accident every eight minutes and one person dies every three hours. An accident occurs every forty-eight seconds. During the past 20 years over 40,000 people, approximately the population of a medium-sized city have been killed in automobile accidents. In that same period, over half a million people have been injured. There are only two centres in Canada with a population greater than that figure.

Four violations, speeding, drinking and driving, driving on the wrong side of the road and failing to cede the right of way are responsible for nearly 80 percent of all automobile deaths, he said. Excessive speed was the basic factor in four out of ten traffic fatalities last year.

Traffic accidents are the leading cause of death among teenagers in America, the second highest killer in the 20 to 25 age group. Canadian traffic-accident figures are higher than in the United States and Quebec has the worst record in all North America. Hundreds of lives are lost every year in Quebec alone through traffic accidents and the toll will mount sharply in the next ten years. The teenager is eleven times more deadly a driver than a man of 45, according to accident statistics. More than one out of every three drivers under the age of 25 are involved in serious accidents each year. Fifteen per cent of drivers who are under 21 cause thirty per cent of all accidents.

Mr. McDonald concluded by saying that a curb can be put on unnecessary accidents with the teaching of young drivers in the ways of safety.

The speaker was introduced by Arnold Healy and thanked by Paul Delaney.

Seated at the head table were Rev. H. I. Apps, Anglican minister; Mr. McDonald; Mr. Healy; G. R. Stewart, secretary of the Board; L. P. Labrosse, president; Rev. J. L. Dean, United Church minister; H. Filiatreault, of Richmond Plastics; J. O. L. Michaud, Mayor of Melbourne; L. Raymond, new member, proprietor of the Myra Theatre. Ald. Jean-Paul Brouillette, represented Mayor C. W. Armstrong.

Before the talk, Mr. Labrosse presided at the short business session where committee reports were made.

$816,122 Deficit At Quebec City

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebec City ended its 1957-58 financial year with a deficit of $816,122, $116,122 more than the forecast deficit of $700,000.

The report, released Tuesday by treasurer C. R. Fontaine, says wage increases granted after the budget was adopted were responsible for the deficit being greater than estimated. The city will refinance to cover the forecast deficit and carry the $116,122 excess over to the next budget.

Contractor Rejects City Claim

Repairs to the Municipal Market ceiling and roof will be charged to the contractor who undertook the construction, the City Council decided last night.

A few months ago, the market ceiling caved in at two places. An investigation disclosed that water had seeped through from around parking meters on the roof-top parking lot after special protective buffers had been installed without city authorization. Cost of the damage was estimated at $50.

The contractor, Adelard Jacques, in a reply to a demand by Municipal Attorney Albert Rivard, denied connection with the buffer installation and refused to make repairs.

Last night, the council went ahead with a decision taken several weeks ago that should the contractor refuse to make repairs, the city would do the work and bill him for it.

ALD. JEANSON

Ald. J. M. Jeanson said "as far as construction goes, it is the contractor's and architect's headache and trouble. The contractor is master of his construction and if anything is not to his liking he should write a letter to the proprietors freeing himself from all responsibility."

Mr. Rivard, in answer to a question, said the work done on the buffers could not be traced directly to Mr. Jacques but that the contractor's foreman was known to have been involved.

Ald. Jeanson said that the contractor and architect are responsible for any construction up to five years after its erection.

Mayor Nadeau said the council should proceed with its original decision to order the contractor to pay damages.

"If he doesn't want to agree, then the judge will decide," he said.

Plan To Present Municipal Brief On Unemployment

Mayor Nadeau, as president of the Quebec Union of Municipalities, has announced in a special bulletin that the Union memorandum on unemployment would be presented to provincial authorities shortly.

The final decision on the date the memorandum will be forwarded to Quebec will be taken at a meeting at the Union's headquarters in Ville St. Laurent.

News of the announcement was released by the Union's secretary Gaston Duquette.

In his statement, Mayor Nadeau said the major resolution adopted at the Union's convention this year urged the federal government to take urgent measures to help the unemployed in order to lift the burden from the municipalities.

He said the resolution received the unanimous support of all mayors who attended last week's federal municipal meeting in Ottawa.

"Our resolution could not have been presented under more favorable patronage. The petition of the Quebec municipal administrators was, in other words, supported and doubled by the recommendation of all the provinces of the country.

Further, he noted "I hope these steps will bring the most wished for results. I eagerly hope this for the good of our unemployed and for the rational easing of our responsibilities as administrators of our respective communities."

Miss Lyons left her home presumably to accompany friends to West Charleston for the evening, but after starting she was blindfolded and taken to the Spencer building.

In the cafeteria, the bride elect was escorted to a chair decorated in blue and white, near which her sister, Mrs. Donald Young, Miss Gloria Lyons, and aunt, Mrs. E. J. Barnes, were seated, along with her fiance's mother, Mrs. Ella Arsenault, and grandmother, Mrs. Cayer.

The gifts, all attractively wrapped and beribboned were arranged on a decorated table before this group, and when opened revealed a lovely assortment of pyrex, linens, and other useful articles for her new home, also a wrought iron telephone table and chair combination and a service table, from her co-workers at Spencer Supports.

For these gifts, Miss Lyons thanked her friends in English and in French.

A hula hoop contest proved to be amusing and entertaining.

Refreshments were served buffet style by the hostesses, Miss Joyce Johnston, Miss Mary Jane Joyal, Miss Janet White and other co-workers of Spencer. A shower cake made and decorated by Miss Therese Rondeau, was presented to Miss Lyons who made the initial cut.

Bridal Shower At Fitch Bay For Miss Edna Wood

FITCH BAY — Mrs. Webster, Misses Frances and Donna Embury of Tomifobia, assisted by friends were co-hostesses for a delightfully arranged shower, honoring the approaching marriage of Miss Edna Wood, of Tomifobia.

Despite a pouring rain storm relatives and friends, assembled at the Legion Hall, where Miss Wood was brought, after being taken from her home, blindfolded, and not realizing where she was until the blindfold was lifted.

Miss Wood, her mother, Mrs. K. Wood, and the groom-elects mother, Mrs. C. Rediker, of Graniteville, were each presented with a corsage of autumn flowers and escorted to chairs arranged beside a table covered with a white damask cloth upon which was displayed a wide variety of prettily wrapped and ribboned parcels. Other guests occupying special chairs were the groom-elect's grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Eryou and Mrs. Rediker.

With the assistance of Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Rediker, the gifts were opened by Miss Wood and revealed an assortment of linens, kitchen articles, china and other articles for her new home in Ontario. As these were being opened inflated balloons were burst showering the group with confetti.

The guest of honor thanked all for their thoughtfulness and assured them if they ever came to Ontario she and Mr. Rediker would have the welcome mat out.

Refreshments were served and included a lovely shower cake, made and decorated by Mrs. E. Dubois in white and silver and topped with a bride doll wearing a blue taffeta gown and tulle veil. The cake was cut and passed by Miss Wood.

Guests attending were from Rock Island, Graniteville, Fitch Bay, Beebe and Tomifobia.

Girl Guide News

THETFORD MINES

A corn roast was held by the First English Girl Guide Company on Mr. and Ms. Hooganbyke's farm at their invitation.

The Guides left Thetford Mines at five o'clock in the afternoon by automobiles and arrived at the farm about a half hour later. The automobiles were parked in the farmyard and the Guides hiked approximately half a mile to the camp site. The hike took the girls over some rough terrain and a brook, which had to be crossed by stepping from stone to stone.

On arriving at the camp site, the girls gathered and chopped wood, and got three fires going. All present had a wonderful time roasting and eating corn and apples, as well as joining in the sing song. At nine o'clock the Guides sang Taps, broke camp, put out the fires and returned home.

The first Girl Guide meeting of the season was presided over by Mrs. C. Kenney, the captain, and Miss G. Doyle, lieutenant. At this meeting the training program of the Guides was discussed and planned for the coming year.

The Girl Guides were pleased to have two new recruits join the company at this meeting. An invitation is being extended to girls of twelve years, or over, who wish to join. For the present all meetings will be held every Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. C. Kenney, 166 Clavet Street, Thetford Mines. For further information please call FEderal 5-2220.

GOODSELL - LYONS

DERBY LINE — The marriage of Mary Lou (Mickey) Lyons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Lyons, Stanstead, Que.; to Mr. Roger Goodsell, son of Mrs. E. Arsenault of Rock Island, and the late Mr. Arthur Goodsell, took place at half-past ten o'clock, Saturday morning, October 18 at St. Edward's church. Rev. Father Armand Fortin, parish priest, officiated at the double ring ceremony. The wedding music was played by Miss P. Gaudreau and vocal selections were rendered by the Sacred Heart convent girls' choir of Newport, under the direction of Rev. Sister Edmund.

White and pink gladioli were used to decorate the altar, with baby chrysanthemums and asters used in the sanctuary.

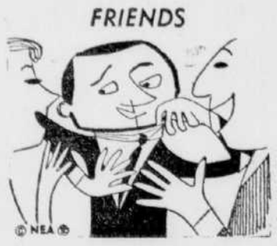
MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS



If you make a mistake, like a slip of the tongue, and others laugh, don't look embarrassed and start stammering out a correction. Laugh along with the others.

Nothing will make you seem so much at ease as the ability to laugh at your own mistakes.

Homemaking

Brides-to-be are ahead of the game when they take advantage of sales to stock up on much-needed linens. And the clever caricature dish towels are good buys for a bride's own shelves as well as providing a supply of gifts for her friends.

Washable paints and wall coverings offer a colorful variety for decorating children's rooms. And wall tiles, used more or less as kickplates by rambunctious boys, can be worked in novel patterns with some planning.

EARLIER FASHION

Bunting, the light woollen material now used for flags, once was popular for women's bathing suits.

Ruth Millett

Daughter's Later Happiness Begins With Mom's Wisdom

Any mother should teach her daughter—

Never to become completely dependent on any one person.

Never to forget that a boy's feeling and his pride are as easily hurt as a girl's.

Always to remember that the more feminine she is, the easier life is for a woman — and the more rewarding, too.

That whether she is beautiful or plain, her looks are NOT the most important thing about her.

That gentleness is a quality worth cultivating.

That neatness is a great help to any girl who expects to have her own home some day.

That boys respect the girl who respects herself, but have little respect for the girl who chases after them or is willing to date just anybody rather than not have a date.

That loudness in a girl or woman never attracts the right kind of attention.

That making the most of her looks is a duty any girl owes to herself.

That picking others to pieces is a common feminine failing, and one that should be guarded against by any girl or woman who wants to keep her friends.

That limiting one's friends to a small closed circle is not only selfish, but is as harmful to those who are shut in as to those who are shut out.

That the little mistakes she makes aren't nearly as important to others as they are to her.

That she will never be happy if she can't be satisfied with what she has simply because someone else has something a little bit newer or a little bit better.

That the important thing is NOT to be as nearly like everyone in the crowd as possible, but to be herself, so that she stands out a little from the crowd.

Women's Groups

PHILATHEA GROUP

The Philathea Group of the Woman's Federation of the Lennoxville United Church met in Douglas Hall, Queen St., with the president, Mrs. H. Robertson in the chair.

The treasurer, Mrs. L. Parker, reported satisfactory returns from the recently held turkey supper.

Business included plans for the Christmas Bazaar on November 26 and 27, and conveners were named as follows: Mrs. F. Ross, knitting and Mrs. H. L. Wallace, fancy work. Assisting at the various tables are, aprons, Mrs. G. Sutherland and Mrs. R. Pariseau; Christmas decorations, Mrs. A. Raycraft; fish pond, Mrs. H. Robertson; mystery, Mrs. W. Stanford. This group will also serve a chicken patty supper on Thursday, November 27, and with Group 1 will be responsible for the food sale on Wednesday the 26.

The members were asked to bring all donations and finished articles for the sale to the next regular meeting on October 28. Mrs. H. Worster also asked the members to bring in their box tops and ideas or materials for Christmas decorations at that time as there will be a work period for the bazaar at the meeting.

Notice was given of the W.A. meeting to be held in Sawyerville on October 23.

The members regretted to learn of the illness of several members and of the prolonged hospitalization of the pastor, Dr. L. M. Outerbridge.

One new member was enrolled.

A white elephant auction took place with the president acting as auctioneer. A most satisfactory sum was realized. Members also turned in their talent money which added greatly to the funds.

Lunch was served by Mrs. A. W. Rowe, Mrs. L. Parnell and Mrs. W. McCurdy, with Mrs. T. F. L. Cohoon presiding at the lace covered tea table centered with fall flowers in a crystal basket.

TRINITY W.M.S.

At the October meeting of the Trinity Church W.M.S., Mrs. A. W. Seaton, of Ayer's Cliff, gave an interesting talk on "Canada's Abundant Harvest." She stressed that in our abundance, we neglect to share enough with foreign countries, less fortunate. Only one-third of the people of India are reasonably fed, said Mrs. Seaton, the rest are allotted a ½ mug of gruel and 2 slices of bread daily, and many children die of starvation. She spoke of a recent announcement that the government will shortly open a food bank, where surpluses may be directed to those in need. Our greatest need among people today is true love and spiritual interest, and we must learn to rededicate ourselves to help others, the speaker said.

The speaker was introduced by the president, Mrs. M. Fuller and thanked by Mrs. W. E. Hodge.

During the devotional period conducted by Mrs. Graham Barr, the members stood in silent prayer in memory of the late Mrs. E. C. James, of Cookshire, whose death occurred recently.

A poem entitled "October" written by Miss Robina Stevenson, was read by Mrs. B. Crawford, and the soloist, Mrs. C. M. Currie, was accompanied by Mrs. E. Howland.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. W. E. Hodge, Mrs. C. Drummond and Mrs. K. Burbank. Mrs. Graham Barr presided at the tea table.

Following the meeting, a gift of love and appreciation was presented to Miss R. Stevenson, at her home, for many years the pianist and devoted member, who has resigned due to ill health. Members of the executive made the presentation, expressing the loss the members felt at such a valued member.

Lew Hyman, Argos' Boss, Plans All-Out Drive To Get Ronnie Knox Back But May Run Into Troubles

TORONTO. —(CP)— Lew Hayman, managing director of Toronto Argonauts, is planning an all-out attempt to get passing wizard Ronnie Knox back for the 1959 Big Four football season.

The 24-year-old quarterback, on loan from Chicago Bears of the National Football League, has been the key to an amazing Argo comeback, passing and leading them to whopping shutout victories in their last two games.

Argonauts swamped Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Ottawa Rough Riders 37-0 and 41-0 respectively as Knox completed 41 of 59 passes and emerged as a brilliant offensive tactician.

The victories were Toronto's second and third of the Big Four football union season against eight defeats and left the club with a mathematical chance of making the three-team playoffs in their last three games.

HOLLYWOOD MAY BECKON

Knox wants to come back with the club for 1959 but George Halas, owner of the Bears, may have other ideas. And so may Hollywood.

Halas holds Knox's football contract and if he wants to keep playing he may have to do it for the man he squabbled with last year.

Knox was drafted by the Bears in 1957 but left the club after a dispute with Halas and was suspended.

The movies may also lay claim to the services of the handsome player. Knox is bound for Hollywood as soon as Argos play their last game and he says football must take a back seat to his acting ambitions.

"I am freelancing and waiting for the big break," he says about his acting. "I hope it comes."

VETS ANSWER CALL — The above photo was taken last night at the Sherbrooke Arena when the Beavers held their first workout under Coach Gilles Dube. The locals are slated to practice this evening and the rest of the week. Shown are Bob Bedard, Pierre Langlois, Normie Dussault, Reynold Beaudoin, Ray St. Cyr and Coach Dube. In the rear are Lionel Robidas and Real Rousseau with R. Jutras, assistant trainer of the team. Coach Dube had several newcomers on hand and is hopeful that the rest of his squad will be on hand soon. Maurice Parr is still doubtful and may decide to hang up his skates while Frankie Reid and Marcel Benoit are slated to attend tonight's workout. (Photo by Gerry Lemay)

Coach Frank Clair Calls On Pair Of Rookies As Rough Riders Face Danger Of Elimination In Big Four Race

OTTAWA (CP)—Ottawa Rough Riders, stumbling badly in the late-season scramble for playoff berths in the Big Four football league, Tuesday called on a couple of Canadian rookies to move them to safer ground.

They are Russ Jackson, who got the nod from coach Frank Clair to start at quarterback in Toronto Saturday against Argonauts, and halfback Ron Stewart, who will spell 60-minute man George Brancato at flying wing.

The two changes, as Riders drilled to avenge the 41-0 drubbing they suffered at the hands of the resurgent Argos here last week, came as Ottawa faced the necessity of winning one of their three remaining games to make sure of a playoff spot. Two of the games are away from home.

CLINCH TOP SPOT

Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Canadian champions, already have clinched first place. Ottawa is second with 10 points, Montreal Alouettes third with nine and Toronto Argonauts last with six.

Three straight Ottawa losses, combined with an Alouette win over Hamilton at Montreal Saturday and three Toronto victories would knock out the Riders.

After Saturday's game in Toronto, Riders play Hamilton twice while Montreal and Toronto meet twice.

The Riders, yet to defeat Tiger-Cats this season, have lost their last two games by humiliating scores. Before last Saturday's whitewash by Argos, Ottawa was trimmed 34-13 by the Als in Montreal.

In another Ottawa lineup change import half Gerry Nesbitt, used mainly as a corner linebacker on defence, will see more action on offence.

MUST MAKE CHANGES

"After watching the movies of Saturday's slaughter, I decided to make some changes," Clair said Tuesday. "We've got to do something if we want to stay in the race."

The Riders' injury list is fairly long, but the only doubtful starter Saturday is Bill Sowalski, a Canadian end who has been a Tiger as a linebacker. He has ligament trouble in the left knee and it will not be known until later this week whether he can play.

Ranking Australian Tennis Official Warns Jack Kramer He May Be Stopped From Presenting His Pro Matches

MELBOURNE (AP) — A ranking Australian tennis official Tuesday night warned professional promoter Jack Kramer that he might be prevented from staging his pro matches anywhere in Australia.

The official, Victorian Lawn Tennis Association president R. M. Vroland, was commenting on reports that Kramer was planning matches in Melbourne and Sydney outside official tennis venues.

Vroland said Kramer had objected to granting free admission to members of the Victoria, New South Wals and Western Australian Lawn Tennis Associations in return for the right to rent their courts for his matches.

But apparently Kramer found the terms offered by South Australia and Queensland acceptable, because they wanted only a concession rate for admission of their members.

Vroland added: "There is much more to this Kramer business than that. Unless Kramer agrees to the terms of Victoria, New South Wales and Western Australia he will find himself out altogether in those states.

"Furthermore, as Queensland and South Australia need the approval of the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia he could very well find himself out everywhere."

7,000 Watch Tennis Match In Vienna

VIENNA (AP) — Tony Trabert Tuesday night defeated Pancho Gonzales 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 before 7,000 fans—a record for a tennis match here.

In the second single of the touring professional troupe, Ken Rosewall defeated Pancho Segura 6-4, 5-7, 6-1.

Pat Supple Signs To Meet Dower In London On Oct. 28

MONTREAL (CP) — Pat Supple, Canadian bantamweight boxing champion, has signed to meet Dia Dower of Wales in a 10-round bout at London, England, Oct. 28, it was learned Tuesday.

Eddie Supple, father of the 21-year-old Montrealer, said he was notified of the bout by telephone call from England. Supple is on a European tour.

Dower is the former world's flyweight champion. A native of the Welsh community of Abercynon, he now campaigns as a bantamweight. He's 25.

Supple was outpointed by Scotland's Peter Keenan at Glasgow Oct. 16 in a 15-round match for the British Empire bantamweight title.

The champion lost ground steadily in the first six rounds, but then took command and piled up a sufficient lead to win the decision although he suffered two knockdowns in the final round.

Richmond, Calif.—Sixto Rodriguez, 171, San Anselmo, Calif., outpointed Willie Gilbert, 162, Los Angeles, 10.

Chicago Black Hawks May Rate Second Look In NHL

Chicago Black Hawks' brief reign atop the National Hockey League last week wasn't taken very seriously by the average fan. But if you looked closely you could have found a few worried looks among NHL coaches.

When Hawks dropped two games in a row on the weekend and slumped to second it was easy to dismiss them as a Cinderalla club on which the midnight curfew had rung.

But Hawks deserve a little closer look. The rebuilding program launched by general manager Tommy Ivan when he came to the club in 1954 is starting to show results.

Ivan inaugurated a farm system and set aside a big chunk of the James D. Norris - Arthur Wirtz bankroll for player purchases.

EARLY PRODUCTS

Three current Hawks — centre Bobby Hull, defenceman Elmer Vasko and rookie Johnny McKenzie — are early products of the farm system.

At NHL draft meetings this summer, Ivan collected defencemen Al Arbour from Detroit, Jack Evans from New York Rangers and Dollard St. Laurent from Montreal Canadiens. Each bore the $15,000 draft price tag.

Later he acquired Tod Sloan from Toronto Maple Leafs for $15,000 and picked up Danny Lewicki on waivers from Montreal after being drafted from New York. In six games the two have produced seven of the Hawks' 18 goals.

The newly arrived defencemen have helped goalie Glen Hall post a 3.17 goals-against average, best in the league.

Old hands are producing well too. Ed Litzenberger is tied with Montreal's Henri Richard for the NHL scoring leadership and centre Bobby Hull was produced a respectable three goals and two assists to rank among the top dozen.

Ivan isn't making any boasts about Hawk prospects — "right now they're playing beyond my expectations"—but he's obviously gearing to stay in the upper division.

Black Hawks Ship McKenzie To Stampeders

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Black Hawks of the National Hockey League Tuesday assigned rookie forward John McKenzie to the Calgary Stampeders of the Western League on 24-hour recall.

General manager Tommy Ivan said the Hawks were overstocked with forwards with 13 on the roster. Another forward may be dropped from the Hawk roster he added.

Ontario Curling Association At Last Defines Professional Curler

TORONTO (CP) — A professional curler was defined for the first time Tuesday by the Ontario Curling Association.

There haven't been many pros in Canadian curling—two notable ones were Saskatchewan's Campbell brothers, Don and Garnet. The ink wasn't dry on a new OCA bylaw Tuesday when Don announced he was quitting his job as instructor at the Royal Canadian Club here. He will still be secretary - manager at Tam O'Shanter.

The OCA annual meeting sought to define professionalism with this rule amendment:

"No registered member who acts as an instructor or teacher of curling and receives payment or other remuneration for such services, shall play in any association competition."

There is no prohibition on teaching for free. The bylaw also excludes physical education teachers who may coach schoolboy curlers.

Any pro who resigns can return immediately to amateur status without penalty or waiting period.

Tony Anthony Signs To Meet Chicago's Ray

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Anthony, New York's No. 1 light heavyweight title contender, was signed Tuesday to meet Sonny Ray of Chicago in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden Nov. 14.

Anthony has won his last six fights. Ray has won nine in a row. The match was made by the International Boxing Club.

Pop Ivy's Canadian Football Tricks Pay Off For His Cardinals In NFL

CHICAGO (AP)—This is the year of varied formations and the Chicago Cardinals are adding spice to the already hopped-up National Football League.

Coach Frank (Pop) Ivy, who took over this season after winning three Grey Cups in four years with Edmonton Eskimos in Canada, has introduced the double wing-T and triple wing-T in the pro loop.

His success is a matter of record. Cardinals are tied for second place in the eastern division and lead the entire league in total offence. They have lost two of their four games only because of failings on defence.

Ivy's innovations are hand-me-downs from Canadian football.

These wing formations enable a team to exploit the passing game—as attested by the Cardinal record of 63 completions in 119 attempts for 1,023 yards and 8 touchdowns.

WIDE SPLIT

In the double wing-T, Cardinals split their ends as wide as desired. The quarterback and fullback remain in regular T-formation positions. The two halfbacks, however, are a yard behind the line of scrimmage and directly behind or a step outside the tackles.

This gives the halfbacks an advantage of several yards if they are used as pass receivers. Also, they can pull back and block for the passer.

In the triple wing-T, there is only one difference. The fullback leaves his regular position and moves in between the split end and the halfback. This way the Cardinals have five pass receivers who can move into the secondary quickly.

The system is proving to be a real crowd pleaser.

Gaspar Ortega And Don Jordan Clash Tonight In Los Angeles With Winner Meeting Virgil Akins

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Boxing goes slightly black tie tonight when Gaspar Ortega of Tijuana, Mex., and Don Jordan of Los Angeles meet in a 12-round rematch. The winner is set for a title fight against world welterweight champion Virgil Akins.

The setting will be the grand ballroom of the Lafayette Hotel, where in July beauties gathered for the Miss Universe contest.

Black ties and stiff shirts are not mandatory but about 1,000 socalities figure to be on hand. They will pay $25 for the fight and dinner. The bout will be televised by ABC starting at 10 p.m. EDT.

Jordan scored a decision over Ortega Sept. 17 and in July attracted attention when he whipped ranking welterweight Isaac Logart of Cuba. He fights as a lightweight and a welterweight.

The ratings are a little confusing. Ring magazine has Ortega No. 3 as a welterweight and Jordan No. 1. The National Boxing Association ranks Jordan No. 2 lightweight but doesn't rate him as a welterweight. Both fighters are 23.

Belleville McFarlands Will Return From World Hockey Championships Fed Up After Playing 90 Games

Belleville McFarlands probably will return home from the world amateur hockey championships in Czechoslovakia next spring on rubber legs and fed up to the gills with the game. They've got a tough, long winter ahead of them.

The Allan Cup champions will have played about 90 games in 10 countries before they tackle the Russians, Czechoslovakians and other top-flight hockey-playing European countries in the March 5 - 15 tournament at Prague. Fifty of these will be crammed into 98 days—Oct. 24-Jan. 30—in their Eastern Ontario senior league alone.

Their first league game is scheduled for Friday night, coming on top of exhibitions around Ontario and the Eastern United States.

FLY TO EUROPE

On Sunday, Feb. 1, they are scheduled to leave Toronto by air for the overseas trip. Seventeen games are scheduled in Europe — Scotland, England, Sweden, Germany, Italy, Norway, Switzerland and Finland—before the tournament proper starts.

Too much hockey? The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association doesn't seem to think so.

"They'll be able to recuperate from their league games while in Europe," says CAHA secretary-manager George Dudley of Midland, Ont. "Those European games aren't too strenuous. The McFarlands aren't taking on too much."

One thing appears fairly certain: The team sponsors aren't likely to drop a bundle on the excursion.

The team's share of receipts from the games in Europe should pay all expenses from the time the Belleville players get off the plane at Prestwick, Scotland, Feb. 2 until the world tournament ends nearly 2½ months later.

THOSE BLACK HAWKS

Frank Selke, general manager of Montreal Canadiens, is a keen judge of the game although Chicago Black Hawks haven't been making him look too good. Just before the National Hockey League season opened, Selke was talking to Elmer (Montreal Star) Ferguson.

"Those Black Hawks," Selke said to Ferguson, "could be dangerous, if it wasn't for one thing." And what would that be?

Nine American-Owned Horses Invade Toronto For $50,000-Added Canadian Championship Stakes On Saturday

TORONTO (CP) — Nine American-owned horses, lured by the big money at stake, are almost certain starters in Saturday's $50,000 added Canadian championship stakes, it was announced Tuesday. This is the greatest invasion of foreign-owned horses in the modern history of Canadian racing.

The Ontario Jockey Club, proprietor of the suburban New Woodbine track where the mile and five-furlong race will be held, said a field of at least 13 horses will go to the post for a purse of more than $60,000.

The latest starter for the rich autumn classic is One-Eyed King, four-year-old colt owned by Harry F. Guggenheim of Philadelphia, second in the $30,000 New York Handicap at Belmont Monday and winner of more than $80,000 this season.

The Hasty House Farms of Toledo, Ohio, is planning to start a three-horse entry of Ekaba, Mahan and Jack Ketch.

Other American-owned horses likely to start are:

Inside Tract, owned by fruit growers Ray Debrino and Joseph Martino of Valantie, N.Y., and winner of the two-mile $75,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park Saturday; Civet, owned by E. Austin Byrne of Mt. Kisko, N.Y.; Andrew Alan, trained by the celebrated Hirsch Jacobs; Spinney, 1957 winner of the classic owned by Louis Rowan of Los Angeles, Calif., and Bell Hop, French-bred horse owned by J. M. Schiff of New York.

Terry Gray And Kenny Mosdell Top QHL Scorers

MONTREAL (CP) — Rookie rightwinger Terry Gray and veteran centre Kenny Mosdell, both with Montreal Royals, lead the Quebec Hockey League scoring race with seven points each.

Mosdell, 37, and Gray have the same scoring records — three goals, four assists for seven points.

Behind them are Skippy Burchell of the Royals, with one goal and five assists for six points; Willie O'Ree, Quebec Aces, Bill Sutherland, and Jean Paul Denis, both of Montreal, all with five points each.

Magog Blanks Bishop's University 5-0 In E. T. Soccer To Hold Slim One-Point Lead Over Sherbrooke

In the only Eastern Townships Soccer League fixture played Saturday Magog defeated Bishops University by 4-0 to move to the top of the league, one point ahead of Sherbrooke. However Magog have now completed all their league games where as Sherbrooke has still two to play.

Magog's goals were scored by Hine, Barlow, MacAlpine and Lee.

Play was fairly even during the first half with Magog turning on the pressure during the second half claiming about seventy per-cent of the attacking. Bishops shaped up well, curbing their impetuousness apparent in earlier games and never gave up. Trying. Outstanding for them were right back Wilson, goalkeeper Flavell and centre forward Mellor.

The game was played at high speed throughout with Bishops having slightly more of the attacking in the first half while the strong wind at their backs kept Magog on the defensive.

Magog came into the picture shortly afterwards and at the 32 minute mark inside left Hine collecting a pass from the left wing, cut in and placed the ball past the advancing Bishop's goalkeeper. The first half closed without further scoring with play switching from end to end.

The second half opened with Magog having the advantage of the wind.

After ten minutes play Magog was two goals up when Barlow scored. Five minutes later, with Hine again the instigator, a pass from Melling down the left was chased by Hine who stopping it just on the deadline passed back to MacAlpine and he had no difficulty in beating Bishop's goal tender from the six yard line.

The play then switched to the other end and Magog had quite a fright when shot after shot were blocked by the Magog defence in a desperate melee around the goalmouth. Lee finally clearing with a tremendous kick.

Magog's fourth goal came with approximately 12 minutes left. A long clearance kick was trapped by Lee who pushed the ball ten or fifteen yards before shooting from about thirty yards, his shot bouncing over Flavell's outstretched hands.

The game then finished with both sides coming close in the final minutes. A fast improving team, Bishops was unlucky not t. score as their efforts were worth at least two goals, but experience told and Magog won at a center.

The league standing follows:

	P	W	L	T	Goals A	Pts
Magog	8	5	3	-	19 22	10
Sherbrooke	6	4	1	1	30 16	9
Celanese	6	3	3	-	14 13	6
Bishops	4	2	2	-	2 10	4

Bishops receive 4 points as Asbestos withdrew from the League before their fixtures with Bishops had been fulfilled.

Community School Courses Popular At Cowansville

COWANSVILLE — At the first session of Missisquoi Community School which meets at 8 p.m. Wednesdays, October 8 to December 3, in Cowansville High School, 95 students registered and more are expected. The age limit in the dancing class has been lowered from fifteen to fourteen years. Classes, eleven in all, include Eastern Townships history, language smocking and badminton. Two popular new courses are geography and hobbies.

The two instructors for the history courses are Miss M. Phelps and Mrs. Gerald Hawke, both experts on the subject. Mr. Hawke began the session by lecturing on "Shed-chamber Historians." The shed chamber was, he explained, in old houses often a large unfurnished room above the woodshed where dwelt 'he hired man, or where unused articles were stored, attic fashion. There one might come across a pair of wooden skates hangting from a rafter, a candle mould, numerous calendars, an old tin lantern, or a flax spinning wheel. Besides evoking memories, these all can help to weave family history.

Mr. Hawke outlined the life of George Adams, (1813—1885) a man who made Community history, gave his name to Adamsville, and who has no living descendant to build legends around his memory. To add to the interest of the story of this business man, "who combined in himself the qualities of the dreamer and the builder" the speaker showed a photograph of George Adams, his pocket book, his Certificate of Loyalty to the Crown, his deed box, its contents, and a surveyor's map of the village which he created.

Miss Marion Phelps discussed sources and provided her students with an excellent bibliography, not only of books, but also of directories, maps and newspapers. Included in the last named category were the Cowansville Observer which began in 1870, Cotton's Weekly, Gibson's Monthly, both of Cowansville. Especially recommended was the "History of the Eastern Townships" by Mrs. C. M. Day, Catherine Matilda (Townsend) Day (1815—1899), who was born in East Farnham Township, and whose daughter, Mrs. W. K. Knowlton, lived all her married life in South Stukely. Miss Phelps told and read excerpts including a graphic description of difficulty of pioneers on one occasion crossing the Yamaska, the local river.

Information regarding smocking class may be obtained from Miss Lucienne Bessette before 5 p.m. Tel. 94 or 27. and in geography Mr. Milton Kastello talked about the earth and its place in the Universe and will next week begin the study of the continents. In the hobby class, Rev. Carl Gustafson introduced the guest speaker, Rev. T. F. Duncan, of Bedford, who spoke on "Coins" and who had with him fine evidence of the value of this hobby.

ARE THEY OR AREN'T THEY?—Flying saucer aficionados have again been given bad news by the Air Force. Investigating a record 1,270 saucer reports during a 13-month period ending July 31, it lists the statistics shown in sketch above. Natural phenomena, man-made objects, or just plain hoaxes, answered the bulk of the sightings as far as the Air Force was concerned. Reports on another 14 per cent were too sketchy to permit evaluation. Less than two per cent were listed as "unknowns," which the Air Force explains will always be present "due to high altitude phenomena strange to the untrained eye."

FINLAY G. BENNETT, OF CANTERBURY

CANTERBURY — This community mourns the loss of one of its oldest and most highly respected residents in the death of Finlay G. Bennett, which occurred at his home here on September 25, after a long illness.

In his 88th year, he was one of the few surviving members of his generation. Mr. Bennett was born in 1870, a son of the late George Bennett and his wife, Ellen Jane Parsons, both of pioneer families who came here from England in 1836. He was born and spent his entire life on the farm settled by his grandparents in 1836 and which has been in continuous possession of the Bennett family since.

On October 25, 1902, Mr. Bennett was married to Eva Kerr, of Inverness, the ceremony performed by her brother, Rev. I. N. Kerr. Five children, all of whom survive, were born of their marriage: Ralph K., of Ottawa; Helene, Mrs. A. E. Godioin, of British Columbia; Newton G. (Teddy), on the home farm; Patricia, Mrs. Eric Purdie, of Pointe Claire, and Annie Joy, Mrs. R. F. Foxworth, of Norfolk, Va.

As a farmer Mr. Bennett was keenly interested in all phases of agriculture. He kept informed of modern trends and made good use of his knowledge, evidence of which was apparent in his fine stock, which with the help of his son Teddy, he frequently exhibited at county and regional fairs, receiving outstanding awards for his champion cattle, sheep and swine.

He was for some time president of the Compton County Agricultural Society No. 2. He took an active interest in municipal affairs and served for several terms as councillor. In politics he was a staunch Conservative. As an Anglican, he was a steadfast adherent and and supporter of Christ's Church.

In his home life he was a kind and indulgent husband and father. Their home was ever a center of hospitality where friends, or strangers, were always assured of a warm welcome.

G. Bennett; three sons-in-law, Rev. A. E. Godwin; Eric Purdie and Col. R. F. Foxworth; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Erastus Bennett, of Lennoxville; and brother-in-law, W. A. Bown, of Lennoxville; also numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was predeceased by his three brothers, Marcus and Erastus, of Lennoxville, and Victor of Bown; two sisters, Mrs. Sam Lake, Augusta, and Mrs. Thomas Harrison, Mabel.

By special request, the funeral service was held at his late home and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. W. Walker, of Scotstown. With Mrs. Milton Goodin at the piano two familiar hymns were sung, "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Abide with Me", the Nunc Dimittis closing the service.

The profusion of beautiful floral offerings was eloquently expressive of esteem and sympathy.

The remains were conveyed to the cemetery at Bown where many of his forbears lie. Bearers were five nephews, D'Arcy and Cecil Bennett, Herbert and Robert Mayhew, Douglas Harrison, and a close friend, Shirley Bennett.

All his children attended the funeral, with the exception of Mrs. Godwin, who was prevented by distance from coming. The Doctor Says

Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

HEALTHY, OBSTINATE CHILD NEEDN'T BE FORCED TO EAT

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

I suppose millions of parents have worried and fussed over children who would not eat the food the parents thought they should. In this connection, I always remember one of my much loved teachers in pediatrics in medical school, who said, "Treat the only child as though he were one of seven."

By this he meant that if there were seven children in the family there simply was not time to coddle and coax each one of them into eating. Just put the food on and, if not eaten, take it away again.

A similar position has been taken by a recent writer in the Journal of Pediatrics, based on a study of over 1,000 otherwise healthy children who "just won't eat." The writer found that in many of them there was a history of forcing and physical punishment which led to a feeling in the youngster that all meal times were intensely unpleasant.

The treatment suggested was based on several principles:

"That no reasonably healthy, normal child will starve if food is available; that anything made hard to get would be more desirable; that a child's inherent negative mechanism (desire to say no) is increased by efforts to make him eat more than he wants, and that this negativism can be made useful by reversing the previous approach."

The standard program recommended for children under six was as follows:

First day: fruit juice and water in unlimited amounts, but nothing else.

Second day: add fresh fruits, also in unlimited amounts.

Third and fourth days: at each meal, one teaspoon each of protein, such as meat, eggs or seafood, fresh fruit or vegetable; and a starch, such as rice potatoes, white bread, etc. Fruit and fruit juices are still given without limit between meals.

On the fifth day these foods are increased to two teaspoons of food at each meal, and on the sixth day to three. From then on until the child returns to the doctor the youngster is given as many helpings of each food as desired, but only one teaspoonful at a time. Extra helpings are given only when the child so requests.

It was pointed out that the child's reaction to this regime is always the same. "The child's surprise at having food denied instead of urged, plus the unfamiliar sensation of hunger, which is kept just above hunger cramps by the calories from the fruit and juices, combine to have him 'begging for food' by the fourth day."

Children over six, the doctor suggested, must be handled somewhat differently. Once their appetite is well established they are told they must take the responsibility for their own eating. This consists in letting the child serve his own plate, choosing the kinds and amounts of food he wants with the stipulation that if the plate is not cleaned no dessert is allowed.

A word of caution is in order. A child can have eating problems as a result of disease, and before embarking on any program it is important to make sure that the child is "otherwise healthy."

New Blais Super Market Has Grand Opening Tomorrow

Modern Equipment Prominent In New Store

J. Armand Blais, proprietor of the striking new super market on King Street East, which has its grand opening tomorrow morning, is justly proud of his Supreme store, a store which has doubled in size from the time it was started eight years ago.

Now one of the largest Supreme stores in the city, the Blais Super Market is modern in every way, from the sparkling glass front exterior, to the new aisle-long refrigeration units.

Tomorrow morning marks the grand opening of the newly renovated store and for the occasion all customers will be remembered with gifts — roses for the ladies, cigars for the men and suckers and Hallowe'en balloons for the children.

In the pastel toned interior, the layout has been carefully planned to put full use to the enlarged area. Refrigeration units run both sides of one aisle and along the back of the store. Fruits, vegetables, frozen foods, meat and dairy products are spaced along this area. Roomy aisles separate the long islands of canned and packaged goods which fill the remaining space and identification markers on top of each unit make shopping that much easier. One section of smoked meats and hors d'oeuvres will be of interest to party givers. New automatic check-out stands line the front of the store.

Mr. Blais, who for the past five years has been provincial treasurer of the Quebec Retail Food Merchants Association and is a director of the National Food Board, was born in Sherbrooke in 1912.

He started in the grocery business in 1944 with a small store 18 by 24 feet, on the corner of 7th Avenue, in back of a hardware store. In 1950 he moved to his present location, 565 King East, and opened the first store there with an area 34 feet by 40. Enlargements were made in 1952 and 1955 and again this year when extensive renovating work was done. The present store measures 70 feet by 80 feet. He has been with Supreme Grocers since they came to Sherbrooke.

Mr. Blais credits much of his success to the understanding and assistance of his wife, the former Jeanne Saulnier. They have two children.

Grand Official Opening Of New Cocktail Lounge Thursday, October 23

Thursday, October 23, marks the grand opening of the new Cocktail Lounge of the Grand Central Hotel in Richmond, owned and operated by Mr. Clifford J. Gunter.

For a period of some 22 years, from 1925 to 1947, Mr. J. S. Gunter, of Richmond owned and operated the Hotel before finally retiring and turning over the management of the establishment to his son, Clifford Gunter.

Since Clifford Gunter took over the hotel in 1947, many modern changes and alterations have been made. Noticeable among these changes is the automobile parking lot which has been built at the rear of the Hotel for the convenience of patrons and guests.

This year more radical changes have been made with the construction of a new cocktail lounge and office. In addition to this, a great number of rooms have been refurnished and changed about for added appeal to the guests.

The hotel is now open to the public.

AUTUMN SCENE

Mere words cannot express the beauty and the loveliness
Of the stately trees, so tall and grand that decorate our Native Land.
The hills and mountains seem to call —
Look at the Beauty of the Fall!
Soon all those trees will be bare
Nature now has done its share.
In Summer they shelter us from the Sun
And in the Autumn one by one
Don their dress of many colours,
Each one differs from the others.
Jack Frost does his work so keen,
And never by a soul is seen.
He comes at night when we are at rest.
And does his work as he thinks best.

I love to watch the branches sway:
They wave in such a graceful way.
They seem to beck, and seem to call:
Admire us one; admire us all.
No sight more beautiful than these Variegated Autumn trees.

Successful W. I. Work Shop Held At Way's Mills

WAY'S MILLS — The Union Hall was the scene of much activity for two weeks when a Work Shop was held by the Women's Institute.

Twenty-five ladies and seven girls attended the afternoon or evening classes, some taking in both sessions. Five women came in periodically to observe the work. Tea, served picnic style each afternoon, with each one doing her share, created a friendly atmosphere.

A social hour was enjoyed at the closing session, while some finished last minute work on slippers, hats and weaving. Gifts were presented to Miss Ruth Runnells and Miss Janet McOuat in appreciation of their help.

During the classes, 37 hats were remodelled, 10 pair of slippers made, many more being taken to do at home. Six belts, nine place mats, eight hot dish mats, one head square and three scarfs were made on the box looms.

Thetford Mines H. And S. Assoc. Hears Principal

THETFORD MINES — The Thetford Mines Home and School Association held its first meeting of the fall season. In the absence of President C. G. Bourne, Vice-president George Moad was in the chair. The minutes of the April meeting were read by Mrs. H. Griffiths, secretary. The treasurer, Mr. W. R. Cooling gave his report.

Principal S. L. Hodge, took as the topic for his address, "How the Home and School Association Can Work With The Teaching Staff" and in the brief time at his disposal covered the subject both adequately and interestingly. He complimented the Home and School on the work it had accomplished in the brief two and a half years of its existence.

Among the accomplishments mentioned were the Library Fair, which he believed, had led to the grant of $100 from the Department of Education for more school books, and a marked increase in understanding between teachers and parents, this effectual interest resulted in the addition of three more teachers and contractors were already working on a new school building.

Having pointed out how the Home and School Association had led to changes for the teachers, he explained a number of ways in which the parents could help the teachers. Among points suggested were cleanliness of the children, providing Kleenex for a snuffly child, teaching good manners, seeing that small children were taught to dress themselves in their winter suits, regular attendance or the providing of a note for an absent child, making certain that their child is vaccinated and providing the school with a record of same.

Keeping a watchful eye on the homework and encouraging their girls to wear tunics in preference to jeans was also mentioned while seeing that their boys did not come to school in black jackets or with duck-tailed haircuts was also important, Mr. Hodge said.

Mr. Hodge suggested parent-education, a car pool for transportation of the basket-ball teams etc., support of he magazine sale, by which money was made for the High School Athletic Association. He also suggested that parents might look into the question of hiring a Physical Education Director for the city, and finally that they might do something for the young person beyond high school age.

He pointed out that while we go to great lengths to keep the school-age children occupied, we tend to forget them once they leave high school, with the unfortunate result that they often make mistakes which might be avoided.

Mrs. G. W. Riley said a few words on behalf of the UNICEF campaign and $15.00 was voted by the Home and School Association for the children's Hallowe'en party or to be contributed directly to the UNICEF fund. Members were asked to fill out the papers signifying their desire for their children to take part in the UNICEF campaign and if anyone could offer transportation for the children, he was asked to get in touch with Mr. Frank Thurston.

It being "Meet the Teacher" night, the parents visited classrooms for a talk with the teachers and a look at the children's work.

Refreshments brought the evening to a close.

1959 FORD

IN EVERY WAY SO BEAUTIFULLY RIGHT

Beauty queen of the hardtops—the new Fairlane 500 Town Victoria.

Ford's new flat roof line is as practical as it's beautiful, provides added headroom for back-seat passengers. Trim lines and tasteful styling are the trademark of the 59 Ford.

SIX or V-8
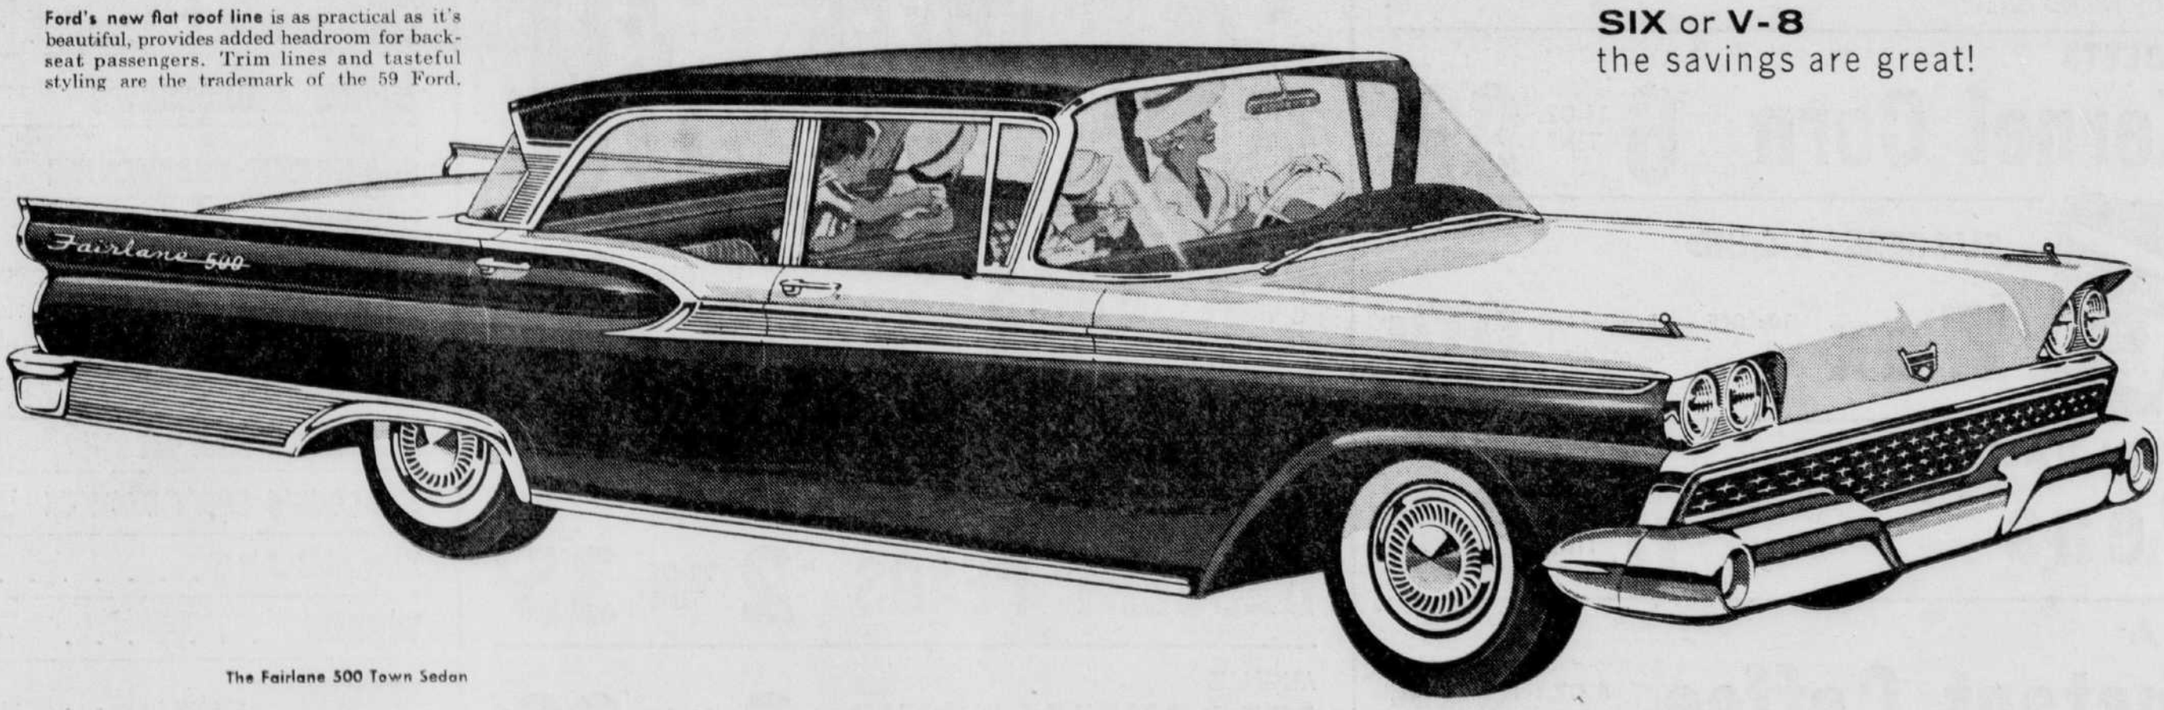
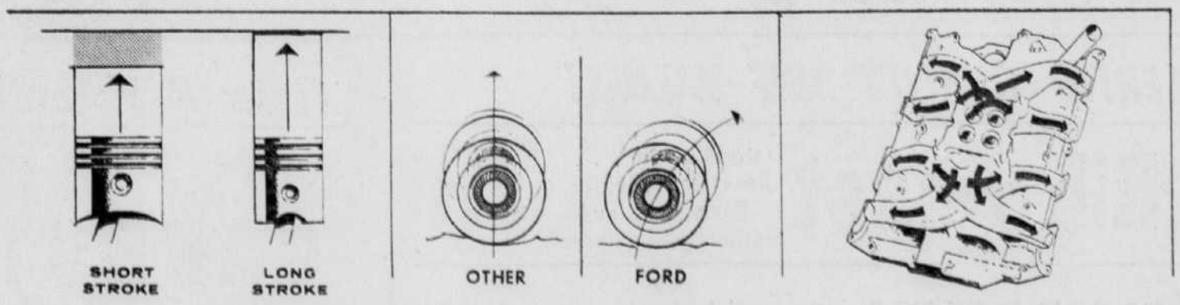
the savings are great!



The Fairlane 500 Town Sedan



Short Stroke Design cuts engine-wearing, power-wasting friction for longer engine life with gas savings up to 10%. Ford V-8 and 6 cylinder engines are both short stroke design. In fact, Ford and only Ford builds a true short stroke 6 cylinder engine in Canada.

The coil springs of Ford's front suspension are angled forward and the lower control arms are swept back so that the wheels can move up and back when they strike a bump. They "roll with the punch" . . . absorb shock far better than a suspension that only moves in one direction.

The Expressway Intake Manifold on Ford V-8's delivers fuel to each cylinder by the shortest, most direct route for smooth, even power without waste. In other V-8's, fuel must travel through long, winding passageways, so some cylinders get too much gas, others too little.

This is the car designed to meet every kind of driving need today. And it does. Beautifully.

The new Ford, completely restyled for 59, has a clean, crisp look with dignity and good taste in every line. There isn't an ounce of waste fat on it. Yet there's room enough inside for the whole family to travel in big car ease and comfort . . . comfort that just starts with the foam-cushioned front seats (they're standard in all Fords).

Power? Ford's come up with just the right combination of pep and economy in a thrifty Six and two Thunderbird V-8's. For 59, standard engines, both Six and V-8, run on regular gas—save you up to five cents per gallon! And now Ford gives you a standard oil filter so efficient that oil changes are 4,000 miles apart.

That's just the beginning of the new Ford story. In addition to proven Cruise-O-Matic Drive there's a new Fordomatic Drive, quiet, smooth, economical because it's lighter, simpler and has ⅓ fewer parts. The new Blendaire heater blends warm and cool air to give you the exact temperature you want, instantly, regardless of car speed.

As a matter of fact, Ford's new right down to the muffler. It's made of aluminized steel to resist corrosion, last up to twice as long.

There are 17 handsome new Fords to choose from and they're priced Ford-low. See your Dealer and take a discovery drive. In every way, you'll find the new Ford is beautifully right for you.
