GERMAN DESTROYER SUNK

PRESIDENT AND CABINET PONDER BREAKING OFF RELATIONS WITH BERLIN

Have Already Queried Germany on Sinking of Packet Sussex—Believed Berlin Will Be Required Definitely to Disavow Sinking of Englishman and Sussex

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, March 28, 4:20 p.m.—Two American citizens, Arthur MacKenzie, of Savannah, and Tom Fifer, of Delaware, who were on board the British steamer Manchester Engineer, have made affidavits before the United States Consul that the steamer was torpedoed without notice, according to a Central News despatch from Queenstown today.

By Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The United States has inquired of Germany, through Ambassador Gerard, whether any of its submarines torpedoed the British Channel steamer Sussex.

The Secretary of State, Mr. Lansing, announced after the Cabinet meeting today that it had been decided to make such an inquiry, and later it was learned that the inquiry had been made.

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, March 28.—The British agents of the company which operated the steamer Sussex said today the total of casualties was not expected to exceed fifty.

Special Star Cable by United Press.

LONDON, March 28.—Fragments of metal picked up by British naval officers aboard the Sussex immediately after the explosion unquestionably were parts of a torpedo, the United Press was informed by an authoritative source today.

The Admiralty has not yet issued an official statement based on the finding of these metal fragments. It was stated, however, that there could be no possibility that the metal pieces were fragments of a mine.

By Canadian Press.

DOVER, March 28.—George H. Crocker, Joshua D. Armitage and Wilder Renfield, who were injured on the Sussex, have made such improvement that they are to be transferred from the hospital here to a nursing home.

U.S. GATHERS EVIDENCE

Special to The Montreal Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, March 28. —Complaint was made in the House of Commons this afternoon by J. A. C. Ethier, of Two Mountains, of the way in which he said enlistment was carried on in Montreal.

Mr. Ethier read a letter from E. Paquet, who charged that his boy, 14 years old, had been enlisted with the 150th Battalion and sent to Amherst. Mr. Paquet in his letter said he had called at the Battalion Headquarters and "was badly received. The officers threatened to have the boy arrested for perjury and put in jail for seven years if I insisted on having him back."

Mr. Paquet said that his wife had also called at the Battalion Headquarters and was "put out of doors." He wrote further that he already had one son in the trenches.

Mr. Ethier added that he had brought the matter to the attention of Sir Sam Hughes who had promised to have the boy brought back home.

The Hon. A. E. Kemp, acting Minister of Militia, said that apparently Sir Sam Hushes had given instructions that the boy should be returned. Evidently there must have been a miscarriage of instructions. Mr. Kemp promised to take the matter up and have it remedied.

A curious situation has arisen in connection with the Stevens resolution on prohibition. When the Bennett amendment was carried last night the Speaker ruled that the principal motion as amended need not be submitted to the House afterwards. Today, in a written opinion the Speaker revised this ruling, stating that the main motion as amended had not been disposed of. He had therefore given instructions to have it placed again on the orders of the day.

Special by United Press.

WASHINGTON, March 28. — Replying to a request from Consul J. Bender, of the United Press, for information whether the United States, on proof that the Sussex and the Englishman were victims of German torpedoes, will first allow diplomacy to take its course, or will break off relations with Germany immediately today, is being discussed by President Wilson with his Cabinet and with Senator Stone, his chief Congressional adviser on Foreign Affairs.

Both Cabinet members and Senator Stone were expected to tell the President he would be backed by Congress and the public if he should take the more drastic course.

Meanwhile the State Department is gathering every bit of possible evidence, in line with the determination of President Wilson not even to make an inquiry of the German Government until all phases of the question had been conclusively examined by this Government.

It seems likely that the attitude of Congress will make unnecessary a message from the President if he should determine to break off German relations. From being rather a drag on the Administration's foreign policy—as in the case of the armed merchantmen decree—Congress appears to have become a spur to urge the President on.

LITTLE DOUBT OF TORPEDOING.

Among Senators, who are more affected by public opinion perhaps than State Department officials, there is little doubt but that the public is convinced the two boats were orpedoed; and that even a disavowal of the act, and promises for the future, would be taken doubtfully.

If the President determines to break off relations, it is believed, he will send Congress a note announcing his intention, and explaining the incidents which determined his course of action. He will not seek from Congress authority to act; and it is possible his memorandum will come after, instead of before the act—as when he recognized Carranza. He will express the hope that Congress will approve his action.

While it is generally believed here that if Germany will disavow both attacks, if proof is made that her submarine commanders were responsible, the nature of the Kaiser's disavowal must differ from other German utterances, if diplomatic relations are to continue.

MUST PUNISH COMMANDER.

In view of other statements and promises, if German statesmanship is to be satisfactory, the submarine commander is believed responsible must be definitely named and punished to the world and the fact of his punishment established to the adequate satisfaction of the United States.

One course that has been given consideration is that of breaking relations with Germany, in case that torpedoing of the Sussex is established and then leaving it to Germany to bring about a restoration of such relations by her own acts.

Some officials incline to the belief that Germany would make her punishment of the submarine commander, her reparation for damage done and her assurance for the future so satisfactory that it would be proper to resume diplomatic intercourse.

ENGLISHMAN CASE DARK.

While the Sussex case appears today to be probable basis for any break with Germany, the reported torpedoing of the British ship Englishman, with one American crew member missing, serves to aggravate the Teutonic-American situation.

Reports on it are meagre. The State Department believes there is no attempt to withhold information and that all facts will be available soon. Cases involving American passengers always have attracted more attention than cases concerning American sailors. Actually, however, the loss of an American sailor's life is regarded as more serious than the death of a passenger inasmuch as a sailor's occupation requires him to travel on the sea.

EL PASO MAKES IT CRIMINAL TO SEND OUT FALSE REPORTS

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Juan T. Burns, Mexican Consul here, today received word from the Mexican Consul at El Paso, M. Garcia, that authorities of the border town, disgusted with alarmist reports sent from there, have passed an ordinance making it criminal to send out obviously false statements.

The penalty, Burns is advised, is a fine of $25 to $200. The ordinance becomes effective April 5.

Since the Columbus massacre El Paso has been the hub from which startling reports have come with regularity. Many of these have been found utterly without foundation.

WAITE A BIGAMIST STATES ATTORNEY ON INVESTIGATION

Murder Suspect Declared Confidential Friend of Four Fashionable New York Women—Outside Evidence Indicates He Was Married to More Than One Woman

Special by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Bigamy has been added to the list of Dr. Arthur Warren Waite's alleged crimes.

Announcement was made today by the District Attorney, that evidence gathered, outside of New Pork, indicates Waite was married to more than one woman. Swann would not say who the other wives of Waite were, or whether they were living. Waite is now known to have been a confidential friend or more to four wealthy New York women, whose names have not yet been mentioned in the case. Dr. Waite could readily gain the favor of women, it was pointed out, as he was one of the most polished dancers in New York, one of the best dressed men, and in addition was popular because of his tennis playing.

MRS. HORTON INTERVIEWED.

After her first conference with the District Attorney, Mrs. Horton, Waite's studio companion, faced a battery of cameras and questions frankly.

"My acquaintance with Dr. Waite was an innocent flirtation. I have the best husband in the world. In all my acquaintance with Dr. Waite I never knew him to do anything wrong," were among the things she told her questioners.

Mrs. Horton looked pale and distressed when she left the District Attorney's office. She made flat denial of the intimation that she had collapsed.

"Nothing in Mrs. Horton's connection with the case was wrong," her attorney, Harold Spielberg, told the newspapermen. During the interview Mrs. Horton patted her wavy black hair. Her large dark eyes sparkled.

EXTENSIVE POISON PLOT?

Dr. Waite's purchase of disease bacilli, it is now declared started last fall, about a month after his marriage. It is believed that he intended to inoculate his mother-in-law, his wife, and her brother Percy so that he would have had the Peck estate entirely in his own hands.

Guests of Dr. Waite are known to have become violently ill after dining with him. That he practised on them with his disease cultures is a theory now gaining strength. Many who were his guests will be questioned by the District Attorney.

TRANSPORTATION BY RAIL IN MEXICO IS ARRANGED BY U. S.

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, March 28. — The State Department, upon urgent call from War Department officials today wired the Consul at Queretaro, Mr. Rodgers, to make tentative arrangements with the Carranza Government for the transportation of supplies by railway from the border to the American Army.

...In the meantime the formal protocol covering complete co-operation between the Government is held in abeyance.

By Canadian Press.

FIELD HEADQUARTERS, American Expeditionary Force, Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, March 28 (by wireless to Columbus, N.M.).—Preparations for closing in on Francisco Villa by a quick cavalry drive are being pushed forward rapidly today at the field headquarters of Gen. Pershing, expeditionary commander.

A body of picked cavalrymen has been concentrated and is now in readiness to serve at the front, said to be somewhere south of Namiquipa, on the north-eastern edge of the Guerrero district.

These men are prepared to make a dash of indefinite duration as soon as the bandit chieftain is known as located. It is known that American leaders look to the cavalry for the capture of Villa.

Army reports indicate that quiet continues to prevail today that American line, and there has been no engagement in which American troops had a part.

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

SAN ANTONIO, March 28.—Supply trains between Columbus, N. M., and Gen. Pershing's field base at Casas Grandes were speeded up this afternoon as the problem of communication became more critical.

Two more companies of auto trucks, each consisting of twenty-seven machines, are being rushed to Columbus for immediate use. Further additions to available transportation equipment will be made immediately to main communication with the front.

The tremendous work of keeping the sand-logged road open requires the combined efforts of all the army engineers in the southwestern division.

Gen. Funston said today that his engineers are fighting under heavy odds against the possibility of a tie-up. The idea of using crude oil to surface the highway from the border to Casas Grandes has been suggested, but it is believed this is impracticable because of the difficulty of transporting the oil.

No reports were received from Gen. Pershing today, but the belief at Headquarters is that Villa is working south from El Oso. Reports of bandit raids near El Paso met with derision when called to Gen. Funston's attention.

"That's probably another product of El Paso's factory," he said.

"We have no reports of action or trouble at any point. All we can do is continue to wait, and hope that our line of supplies will be unbroken."

RAMMED BY THE BRITISH CRUISER CLEOPATRA IN NORTH SEA ENGAGEMENT

Entire Crew of German Warship Lost, it is Officially Announced by the Admiralty—Loss of Medusa Confirmed, but All Her Crew was Saved—Prisoners Taken from Patrols

Special Star Cable by United Press.

LONDON, March 28.—The British cruiser Cleopatra rammed and sank a German destroyer Saturday night in an engagement between a British cruiser squadron and German destroyers, the Admiralty announced this afternoon.

The engagement occurred in the North Sea.

The crew of the destroyer was lost.

The announcement follows:—

"All the ships employed in the operation off the German coast have now returned to their ports except the Medusa, which ship, as was feared, was sunk after all her crew had been taken off in very bad weather by the destroyer Lassoc without any casualty, a fine piece of seamanship.

"Our destroyers, while dealing with enemy patrol vessels, were themselves attacked by enemy aircraft. They received no damage of any kind.

"The following prisoners were rescued from the enemy patrol trawlers, which were previously reported sunk by our ships, viz: Four from the trawler Otto Rudolf, sixteen from the trawler Braunschweig.

"On Saturday night a divison of German destroyers was encountered by our light cruisers. One of these destroyers was rammed and sunk by H.M.S. Cleopatra. None of her crew were saved."

BIG ARTILLERY DUEL

Aside from this skirmish on the Lorraine front, the night was calm. An artillery duel in the region of Malancourt, northwest of Verdun, was the only activity on any of the fronts around the fortress.

The text of the communication reads as follows:

"Last night passed quietly to the east of the river Meuse. There was considerable activity on the part of the opposing artillery forces to the west of the Meuse, in the region of Malancourt as well as in the Woevre sector at the foot of the heights of the Meuse.

"In Lorraine, in the forest of Parroy, we delivered a surprise attack on a position of the enemy, the occupants of which were either killed or taken prisoner. In withdrawing we blew the position up.

AUSTRIANS DRIVEN BACK

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, March 28.—The infantry continues inactive before Verdun and even the notable artillery fire reported for some days in the Vaux-Douaumont region east of the Meuse has slackened.

The German guns have resumed a heavy fire to the west of the river, however, shelling the French lines south of Malancourt, in the sector where the recent German drive took the Crown Prince's troops south to the edge of the Avocourt woods, from which a new attempt to debouch may now be preparing.

A surprise attack by the French in the forest of Parroy, in Lorraine, is reported by Paris, a German trench being blown up, after which the attacking forces withdrew with some prisoners.

There has been nothing else of importance on the remainder of the front.

Bitter fighting is again taking place along the Austro-Italian front. The Austrians launched an attack on Val Piccolo, taking a trench, but in counter-attacks the Italian forces not only succeeded in reconquering the position but took Austrian trenches elsewhere on the front, according to the curent Rome Headquarters report.

Vienna declares that Russian activity in Galicia has slackened, the Russians having attempted no attack against the main army of Gen. Pflanger during the past week.

British airmen have made a successful raid on the Turkish advanced base at Bir-el-Hassanah, 100 miles east of the Suez canal, according to reports from Suez, the aviators dropping forty bombs and doing extensive damage.

London figures on the damage done shipping since Germany's new submarine campaign was begun show that in less than a fortnight, beginning March 15, vessels with an aggregate tonnage of 70,000 have been sunk, one third of this tonnage belonging to neutrals.

Today the sinking of the British steamer Empress of Midland, of 2,224 tons, is reported. The crew was saved. Casualties from the explosion which damaged the cross-channel steamer Sussex are not expected to exceed fifty, the steamer's agents announce.

Berlin despatches give the total subscriptions to the fourth German war loan as 10,667,000,000 marks.

TURKISH CAMP BOMBED

LONDON, March 28.—A successful aerial raid on the Turkish advance base at Bir-el-Hassanah, 100 miles east of the Suez Canal, is reported in a Reuter despatch from Suez. The raid was made by British airmen on March 24.

Forty bombs were dropped on the Turkish camp, which was set on fire. Other bombs hit the reservoir and the buildings erected by the Turks in the last few months.

One British airman routed single handed a body of Turkish infantry. Descending to within 200 feet, he approached the Turks from behind and opened fire with his machine gun. The Turks fled in panic.

All the aeroplanes returned in safety, having flown some 200 miles. It has become a practice of British airmen, when flying over the desert, to attack and disperse hostile patrols by spraying them with machine gun fire.

VIENNA MINIMIZES LOSSES

BERLIN, March 28.—(By wireless to Sayville). — Only outpost skirmishes have occurred in Galicia in the last five days, and the victories reported by the Russians on the Dniester were not gained over large bodies of Austrian troops, says an official report from the War Office at Vienna. The statement, under date of March 26, follows:

"The engagements near Latatche, on the Dniester, described in Russian reports, were merely vanguard skirmishes. Austro-Hungarian reconnoitreing detachments withdrew to the main positions when strong Russian forces advanced. During the last week the Russians have attempted no attack against the main army of General Pflanzer.

"Italian front: Italian artillery shelled Doberdo heights and the Folla district, as well as some points on the Tyrol front. East of Plocken Pass Austro-Hungarian troops entered an Italian position. Attacks of the enemy in the Sugana Valley were repulsed."

ALLIES PRESS TEUTONS

By Canadian Press.

BERLIN, March 28, via London.—The development of lively fighting on the Franco-Belgian front south of St. Eloi and also along adjacent lines, is reported by German Army Headquarters in today's official statement.

The text of the report follows:

"South of St. Eloi there were lively actions at close range around the craters sprung by the British and in the vicinity of connecting lines.

"On both sides of the river Meuse there was nothing new to report."

Regarding the fighting in Russia the official statement says:

"Eastern front: The Russians drove fresh masses of troops against our lines near Postavy. The heroic resistance of the troops of the Saarbrueck Corps enabled us to withstand all the enemy attacks in this neighborhood. There troops, supported on their flanks by Branbenburg, Hanoverian and Halle corps checked the repeated onslaughts made by the Russian divisions. The most severe losses were inflicted upon the enemy.

"Repeated enemy attacks under cover of darkness near Mokrzyce met a similar fate. There attacks were made in an attempt to recover lost ground.

Balkan theatre:

"In response to the enemy's aerial attack upon our positions near Doiran Lake, we conducted yesterday a similar raid upon Salonika. Our flying squadron dropped numerous bombs upon the new harbor and petroleum depot, and on the Entente encampment north of the town."

LONDON, March 28.—The portion of the German official statement relating to the western front, as received here, follows:

"Berlin, March 28, via London.—Western front: Lively fighting at close quarters developed south of St. Eloi, around mine craters formed by explosions of British mines. The action has extended to adjacent lines.

"On both sides of the Meuse, where fighting is taking place there is nothing new to report."

Mines of some description as found in twenty-six of the thirty-one States and territories in Mexico, and mining is the most productive industry of the country.

THREE KILLED, 20 BADLY HURT, ARE MINE CASUALTIES

By Canadian Press.

BLUE FIELD W.Va., March 28.—Three men were killed and twenty or more seriously injured by an explosion in the mine of the King Coal and Coke Company at Kimball, W. Va., at nine o'clock today. It was stated that a number of the injured could not recover.

The explosion, which shattered a section in the eastern part of the mine, blew down masses of coal and slate, and cut off from escape a large number of men. Rescue crews worked throughout the morning to reach them, and shortly after noon they were released. At two p.m. it was stated that all the men who had entered the mine had been accounted for.

State mine inspectors said the explosion was caused by a shot from the solid

TORONTO, March 28.—A gathering of toy manufacturers who hope to replace German toys in the Canadian market was held in the Royal Bank building today. It was decided to form the Dominion Toymaker's Association and hold an annual toy exhibition.

Sir George E. Foster, who presided, expressed the hope that toy-making might be taken up in convalescent homes.

NEW YORK, March 28. — The New York Evening Sun's financial review today said:

"There was no confirmation in the overnight Washington news regarding offers of apologies and reparation by Germany for the destruction of the Sussex, in the event later investigations disclosed that the Channel steamer had been torpedoed, but the incident lost some of its force and effect with professional traders and the recoveries in war stocks and specialties influenced by yesterday afternoon's rumors continued this morning.

"There was enough uncertainty, however, concerning the diplomatic situation and the course of Mexican affairs to hold the market under restraint and, aside from a few issues which found favor with pool operators in the early hours, improvement was confined to narrow limits.

"The war stocks opened about where they left off last night and developed a stronger tendency, the early features being Crucible Steel, American Locomotive, and International Nickle. U. S. Steel started a shade lower, but recovered and ruled for the greater part of the session at a small fractional advance, but the market leader was inactive.

"There was no material change in conditions in the late trading. Business contracted in volume and activity was confined to a very few issues which moved uncertainly within a narrow range. While a few specialties gained small fractions, the general tendency was heavy and some of the early afternoon improvement was lost. Bethlehem Steel declined twenty points on limited dealings.

"Banking discussions were divided between the submarine situation and Mexican affairs, both of which have imparted a large element of uncertainty into the public mind, and it is generally recognized that there is little chance of an active upward movement until matters are very much clearer than at present.

"Naturally, there was much confusion over the conflicting reports bearing upon Mexican affairs, and the unverified statement that Gen. Carranza had refused the use of the Mexican railways to the American troops to convey supplies and the like had a somewhat depressing influence on sentiment."

Mexico is 1,900 miles long from northwest to southeast; its width varies from 140 to 750 miles.

CANADA SHOULD PAY ATTENTION TO HER FORESTS

Interesting Address Delivered Last Night by J. S. Bates

CANADA THIRD AMONG NATIONS

Up-to-Date Methods Studied in Laboratories in Montreal

The statement that Canada stands third among the nations of the world as regards her forest wealth, was made by John S. Bates, Ph.D., Chem. E., before the monthly meeting of the Natural History Society last night. Mr. Bates is superintendent of the Laboratories which were organized in 1913 under the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior, located in Montreal, and worked in connection with McGill University for the scientific study of improvements and methods of utilization of wood and wood waste, the study of wood itself and the many products made from it. The commercial conditions in the wood using industries are also studied to determine what improvement in processes are favorable under Canadian conditions.

The forests of Canada, he explained, extend from the Pacific to the Atlantic. British Columbia and half the timber in the Dominion. Coming east one finds large forests on the northern side of the prairie provinces, while there are good forest lands in northern Ontario, extensive areas through Quebec, fairly well covered lands in New Brunswick, and rather limited ones in Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

It should be remembered, he said, that the amount of merchantable timber in Canada is only about one fifth to one fourth of what still remains in the United States and for this reason everything possible must be done to increase the Canada's forest resources. Canada, however, still stands third among the nations of the world as regards her forest wealth. Russia comes first, the United States second and then Canada. It is estimated that about 60 per cent of the land area of Canada is good for nothing else but the growing of trees, therefore the forest must be considered as a crop which can be made perpetual and immensely valuable by proper methods of handling.

CANADA'S GREAT WEALTH.

Forest products rank second among the industries of Canada and are worth $180,000,000 a year. The important uses for wood in Canada are for lumber, lathes, shingles, poles, railway ties, pulp wood, hard wood distillation, cord wood, hemlock bark for tanning, etc., etc. In the manufacture of lumber about 25 per cent of the tree is left in the forest, in the form of stumps, tree tops, branches, leaves, etc., while at the saw mill about 35 per cent more is discarded in the form of bark, sawdust, edgings, deal ends, shavings, etc. So that under the present conditions only 35 to 40 per cent of the original tree is converted into finished lumber or other useful articles or products.

Speaking of the work of the laboratories situated at 700 University street, Mr. Bates stated that there was a total staff of about thirty, with a technical staff of about twenty-four, eight of whom had enlisted up to date. In addition to the division of administration there are four technical divisions; timber physics, timber tests, pulp and paper and wood preservation.

Timber physics is concerned with the study of the physical properties of wood, such as weights, moisture contents, conditions of growth, minute cell structure and so forth. All the microscopic and photo-micrographic work of wood and pulp fibres is done in this division. In the division of timber physics the mechanical strength of wood is determined to give architects and engineers a basis for design when structural timbers are used. Now that the Dominion Government and certain private corporations in Canada have decided to use only Canadian wood in construction, reliable tests are valuable in pointing out the relative merits of Canadian woods. Tests have been made on Douglas fir for structural purposes; they have also been made on timber suitable for the mines of Nova Scotia.

PULP AND PAPER.

The division of pulp and paper has a well equipped experimental paper mill for studying Canadian woods now used for pulp and those which may be found suitable later on. Studies have been made on waste sulphite liquor and various grades of blotting paper have been made to demonstrate the possibilities along this line in Canada. The division of wood preservation is concerned with the preservative treatment of railway ties, telephone poles, fence posts and wood paving blocks, to determine the best means of lengthening the life of timber in service. The causes of decay have also been investigated.

It is interesting to note that in America there is more coal tar creosote used for preserving wood than there is gasoline used for automobiles and gas engines. Various other useful investigations are being carried on by these laboratories.

Calverley—Chisholm

At the residence of the Rev. and Mrs. John Chisholm, 319 Mackay street, at six o'clock on Saturday evening their elder daughter Florence Elizabeth, was quietly married to Mr. John Calverley, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Calverley, of Outremont. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, daffodils and yellow tulips being arranged in the drawing room where the wedding took place, and pink tulips and carnations in the dining room. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by the Rev. Canon Renaud. Miss Frances Chisholm played the wedding march and Miss Myrtle Cottingham, of Ottawa, sang "O, Promise Me." The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her father. She wore a gown of white taffeta silk and silver. After a trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Calverley go to Winnipeg to reside. Among the out-of-town guests were: Miss Nan MacArthur, of Pictou, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sloan, of Kemptville, Ont.; and Lieut. F. H. Mingay, of St. Johns, Que.

H.R.H. at Convalescent Home.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught visited the New Khaki Convalescent Home on McTavish street yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Brig.-Gen. Wilson, Major Patch, Major McTaggart, Capt. Martin, of the Headquarters Staff, and Lieut.-Col. Smith of the Hospital Commission. His Royal Highness was received by Mr. A. R. Doble, Mrs. Garth Bulmer, convenor of the Convalescent Home Committee; Mrs. Clouston and Mrs. Carrington Smith. The Duke was shown around the Home and expressed his appreciation of the arrangements, also speaking to the returned soldiers who are in residence. After this Mrs. Henderson, commandant of the V. D.'s, presented to His Royal Highness the nursing sisters Miss Musgen, Miss Rayner, Miss Morley, Miss Ethel Fraser, Miss Springett, Miss Blaiklock, Miss Workman, Miss Kerry, Miss Merrill and Miss Dorothy Newman.

Tuggey—Brooks.

The marriage took place recently of Miss Margaret Brooks, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brooks, of Bellrock, Ont., and Mr. William Gifford Tuggey, son of Mr. David Tuggey, Metis Beach, Que. The bride, who wore her travelling suit of blue serge and white satin, with hat to match, was attended by her cousin, Mrs. M. Cummings, of Syden ham, and Mr. Cummings acted as best man.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS TO

Freeman—Small

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Small, third daughter of the late R. W. Small, of Stafford, England, to Mr. James Freeman, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman, of Manchester, England, was solemnized in St. Martin's Church, Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Craig. The bride wore an ivory white silk gown, with wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Browning, Miss Florence Chandler and Miss Madge Chandler. The best man was Mr. Alfred Jenkins. At the conclusion of the wedding service a reception was held at 87 Church street, and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman left in the evening for a trip to the Maritime Provinces, before taking up their residence in Montreal. The bride intends to sail for England in three weeks to visit her brothers.

After a reception Mr. and Mrs. F[illegible] for New York and Atlantic City. Miss Sophie Myers, of Ottawa, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor at the wedding.

PROHIBITION FOR ALL CANADA IS DEFEATED 67-46

BENNETT MOVES WINNING MOTION

Does Not Think Time Ripe Yet to Enact Prohibitory Legislation

Special to The Montreal Star From Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, March 28.—The House early this morning declined to accept the Stevens motion calling for Dominion-wide prohibition. Last night, R. B. Bennett, of Calgary, presented an amendment to the motion calling on the Government to enact legislation along lines laid down in the Government Bill now before the House; and, after considerable debate, the amendment was carried by 67 votes to 46.

The following Liberals supported the Bennett amendment: Lemieux, McCraney, Proulx and Fortier. The following Conservatives voted for the motion: Stevens, Fowler, Wright, Broder, Achim and Thornton.

Submitting his amendmnt, Mr. Bennett made a strong defence of the policy declared in the Government Bill brought down a few days ago. Every man would recognize, he said, that restriction of the sale of liquor was necessary as a police regulation. It might become necessary that what was once a restriction should become a prohibition but that would be for democracy to determine for itself.

BILL PROVIDES REMEDY.

"I am not satisfied," Mr. Bennett said, "that there exists in the Dominion such a body of efficient public opinion as would enforce a national prohibition law. I am satisfied that, exercising the powers granted to them within the scope of their territory by the constitution, a little today—perhaps mildly—perhaps more drastically tomorrow, supplemented and implemented by the legislation which is to be placed on the statute books of this country you can have in every province of Canada prohibition within an area provincial in its boundaries which will have behind it an enlightened body of public opinion."

Mr. Bennett passed in comprehensive review the various temperance enactments of the Dominion Government with reference to decisions of the Privy Council in regard to jurisdiction. He asked how far the majority was entitled to rule in declaring prohibition. For instance, take the island of Montreal. Was a majority in the Prairie Provinces to decide that the Island of Montreal should be a prohibition territory although the majority on the island was opposed to it?

MUST NOT BE DRASTIC.

"I have no doubt," Mr. Bennett said in conclusion, "that in th fulness of time prohibitory legislation may be enacted by this Parliament. But as we pass the milestones that indicate progress in the reforms of government, it might not be forgotten that these milestones have not been passed in long strides.

The amendment was seconded by A. L. Davidson, of Annapolis; H. H. Stevens, of Vancouver, who made the original motion, congratulated the Government on their bill to strengthen the hands of the provincial Governments. So far as this legislation went, he thought it good. But he could not support the Bennett amendment in justice to his own attitude. Mr. Stevens further advocated that distilleries should be taken over by the Government for the manufactured of denatured alcohol.

The Hon. Chas. Marcil urged that prohibition was necessary especially in view of the crisis through which Canada was passing. "If you want to help Germany," he said, "maintain the liquor traffic." Mr. Hughes, of Prince Edward Island, continued the debate.

The Hon. A. E. Kemp, acting Minister of Militia, told Mr. Michaud that the travelling expenses of the Minister of Militia, Major-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes, totalled $15,586, since the outbreak of war, including $6,583 for special trains.

That the Government, though convinced of the desirability of technical education, is not prepared to accept the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Technical Education which it considers as impractical and unsatisfactory, was the statement made by the Hon. T. W. Crothers, in the House of Commons yesterday.

The Minister of Labor outlined the Government's attitude on this matter, in reply to the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who moved his resolution declaring that at the earliest opportunity measures should be taken to give effect to the report of the Royal Commission.

PROVINCES AGAINST.

The reply of the Minister of Labor was that the value of technical education was so well established that no arguments were now needed to establish it. As for the method of putting it into effect, however, he stated the Government did not consider the suggestions of the Technical Education Commission satisfactory.

Alphonse Verville, J. H. Burnham, S. F. Glass, G. W. Kyte, R. B. Bennett and [illegible] W. Nesbitt participated in the discussion, which was finally ended when Robert Rogers, Mr. Lemieux withdrew his motion.

PABLO CASALS RECITAL UNTIL THIS AUTUMN

As Pablo Casals is leaving very shortly for Europe, his recital in Montreal has been postponed to next autumn. All tickets held for March 26 will be refunded on presentation where they have been bought.

TORONTO SOCIAL NOTES

TORONTO, March 28. — Mrs. R. White, of Milton, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Sloane.

Miss Lottie Hepburn, of Rickaston, Picton, is staying with her sister, Mrs. Plummer.

Mrs. R. B. Nelles, arrived on Saturday from Bangor, Me., to join her husband.

Miss Jeanne Morisette, of Quebec, is visiting Mrs. T. G. McConkey.

Miss Muriel Wilson and Miss Constance McMahan, graduate nurses, sailed from New York on Saturday for overseas nursing in the Massey-Harris Convalescent Home at Dulwich, London.

HERE and THERE

Glasgow, Scotland, is suffering from a coal famine.

Berlin, Kansas, like Berlin, Canada, wants to change its name.

The United States shipped 675,443 horses and mules worth $131,914,000 to Europe for the allied armies in the last year and a half.

A bill to tax bachelors has been presented in the Maryland Legislature. It provides fines and roadwork if the fines are not paid.

Lord Mountstephen has donated £500 to the Russian prisoners of war relief fund, for providing food for Russian prisoners of war in Germany.

The Indian war budget increased the general tariff to 7 1-2 per cent, with a 10 per cent duty on sugar, and export duties were imposed upon tea and jute.

A disastrous fire destroyed the prison camp, Quartier Monplaisir, Lyons, France. There were, however, no casualties among the 1,000 German prisoners.

As the men of the Fire Department of Limbach, Germany, are all at the front, the Burgomaster has replaced them with boys, who are drilled daily to make them as efficient as possible.

Hungary has arranged to take care of severely wounded and incapacitated soldiers by educating them to be telegraphers. Recently 300 were appointed to the Government telegraph service.

All the scholars in the Liverpool elementary schools, a total of 120,000, have been invited to take to school all the medicine bottles they can collect. These will be sold by the local Red Cross society.

All the eligible sorting clerks and telegraphists connected with the South Shields, post office have joined the Army, a record probably unequalled in any other town of the same size and importance.

In view of the increase in juvenile crime in Saxony, the military authorities have forbidden boys and girls under eighteen to frequent restaurants, cafes, confectioners, cinema theatres, music halls, dancing halls and variety shows. After dark they may not be in public gardens or parks, except in the company of their elders.

ST. REGIS HOTEL TO CHANGE HANDS; OTHER TRANSFERS

Said That Ald. W. S. Weldon Will Soon Take Place in Hand

ANCIENT HOTEL QUITS BUSINESS

Tessier's Place on Decarie Boulevard to Close Up Soon

The License Commissioners have completed the list of the 350 persons who will continue in the business from May 1 next. They had granted 350 before when they gave Freeman's Hotel on St. James street a renewal, but they had announced at a previous sitting that they had one reserved for Mrs. Durand, of 387 St. Lawrence Boulevard. Subsequently her name was removed from the list and the Cafe Nice Limited substituted. Providentially, however, another license holder has decided to quit, and has appealed for the $3,000 compensation from the Government, thus creating a vacancy, into which the Commissioners this afternoon will place Mrs. Durand.

The license given up was held by the Hotel Jockey Club, Ltd., O. Tessier, president, at 299 Decaire boulevard. The company was notified by Antoine Decaire, the owner of the property, that he would not renew the lease, and the company then made application for a transfer to the large building on which the Italo-Progressive Club had previously cast its eyes in vain. But they found a majority of the electors in the district were opposed, so they have withdrawn and have applied for the $3,000 compensation.

ANOTHER WITHDRAWN.

The opposition by John H. Roberts to the transfer of a grocer's license by J. B. Therrien, of 251 Beaumont avenue, on the ground that under the Quebec License Law no additional license could be granted in the ward in which it was situated, and that there was a majority of electors opposed, has resulted in the application being withdrawn. The Commissioners at their last meeting reserved their decision, after proof had been given by Mr. Roberts. There will be one or two transfers granted at the meeting of the Board this afternoon, but the important work has been finished.

SALE OF ST. REGIS.

It is probable, however, that in a few weeks there will be a change made in the St. Regis Hotel Co., Ltd. on St. Catherine street. The Star is informed that the contolling interest in this property, which has been held by Frank Gallagher, manager of Freeman's Hotel, will be transferred shortly to Ald. W. S. Weldon, passing through the hands of Paul Turgeon, liquidator. It is further stated that there will be a change in the management, and that an application will be made to the License Commissioners to grant the transfer changing the name of the President of the Company. This will not mean the losing of the bar counter, as it has been ruled by the License Department at Quebec, that where the license continues in the name of a company a change in the manager's name may be made without involving the loss of the bar.

SELLER OF LIQUOR IS GIVEN TERM IN JAIL

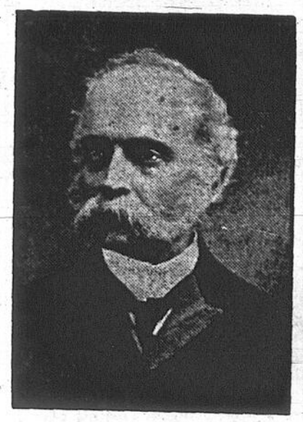
Flavie Racine, 74a Sanguinet st., was sent to jail for two months this morning by Judge St. Cyr, without the option of a fine for selling liquor in a disorderly house without a license.

Eighteen months in jail was the sentence passed upon Antoinette Chaput alias Archambault by Judge Lanctot this morning. She was found guilty on fifteen different charges of theft. It was her habit to make a pretence to look over a house to let, and while in the bedroom to suddenly faint. While the housekeeper was getting water she would annex any jewellery handy.

Charged with having caused Moise Robert, a city inspector, severe bodily harm by running him down with an automobile on October 12 last, Alfred Prevost, 92 Mentana street, pleaded guilty this morning and was allowed out on $1,000 bail to appear on April 4. Robert was only discharged from the hospital a day or so ago.

PROMINENT MERCHANT SAYS MONTREAL NEEDS LAPOINTE

L. J. A. Surveyer says:—



L. J. A. SURVEYER.

"Ald. L. A. Lapointe has been connected with the civic administration for 16 years and all that time I have followed his career in the City Council very closely. His stand has always been consistently for the best interests of the city, and he has always had the courage of his convictions, no matter what opposition he encountered.

"He has studied law like a lawyer, and I believe that as mayor he could avoid many of the troublesome and costly lawsuits that the city has been facing. His experience and his record are what Montreal needs today."

ENTENTE'S RING TO CLOSE ON TEUTONS IN PARIS TONIGHT

Historic Conference of Allies in "Hall of the Clock" Deciding Europe's Fate and Welding Entire Resources of Teuton Empire's Opponents

Special Cable by United Press.

PARIS, March 28.—The fate of Europe for many decades, if not centuries, will be settled before adjournment tonight of the Allies' great war conference.

The sessions were resumed today at the Foreign Office in the room called the "Hall of the Clock." In the same salon was held the historic congress of Paris in 1856, following the Crimean War.

The Allied chiefs at today's sitting will complete the pooling of their military, economic, and political resources. Before nightfall, the ring about the Central Empires will be tightly closed. The details of the plan worked out here may not be made known until years after the war has ended.

"The Allies," says the Temps, "are fully aware that harmony of operations on all fronts is the price of victory. They are willing to make mutual sacrifices."

TO HASTEN WAR'S END.

"When the conference adjourns tonight, the world's mightiest preparations for war will be complete. All our resources will be in play. The Allies will be able to hasten, under the best conditions, the end of the nightmare that has been weighing down civilization for twenty months.

"Germany is aware of her danger. The Verdun drive was her mightiest attempt to stave off defeat. Failing at Verdun she must now await chastisement."

One of those taking part in the conference is quoted in the Matin as describing the unique character of the gathering.

"I have seen many conferences at which statesmen and diplomatists took part," this delegate said. "Usually one received the impression that each person was carefully watching for an opportunity to turn to his own account the mistakes and weaknesses of the others and to obtain the maximum advantage for the Power he represented. But there was nothing of that kind at the present conference.

UNION GREATEST NEED.

"After a few words of welcome from Premier Briand, the discussion opened and a breath of high purpose and resolve seemed to pass over the historic assembly and to touch us all deeply. We felt at every moment that a work for humanity far greater than any national aspiration was incumbent on us, and guided us to a single end. The image of the enemy we must reduce was ever before our eyes. The absolute necessity for union and for sacrifices echoed in every word. There is indeed in this conference an unforgettable grandeur for those who have the honor to share in its deliberations."

Brig.-Gen. Leckie Not Out of Danger; Report on Wounded

Special Cable to The Montreal Star From Our London Correspondent (Copyright.)

MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur street, London, March 28.—The latest reports of the Canadian wounded are as follows:

Brig.-Gen. Leckie is still not out of danger; Major D. S. Bauld, 25th Battalion, suffering from wounds in the chest and thigh, is in hospital in London; Lieut. J. T. Lewis, 2nd Divisional Signalling Campany, with gunshot wound in the thigh, and Lieut. W. W. Davis, 2nd Pioneers, with a gunshot wound in the shoulder, are both in hospital in France. Lieut. J. Manson, the Engineers, suffering from shell shock, has been removed from France to hospital in London. Lieut. J. A. Delaney, 25th Battalion, has returned to duty.

"BRITAIN PREPARED"

Here is a photograph of a British battleship firing a broadside from her 12-inch guns. Notice the flash and the flame rings, also the cloud of "smoke" from the smokeless powder discharge. What appears to be smoke is really haze which dissipates in a moment or two after the guns are fired.

This photo is from "Britain Prepared," that marvellous collection of films of the British Army and Navy to be presented at the Princess Theatre the week of April 10 by The Montreal Star. Enlarged from the film for production here, it does not do justice to the clear photography of the original.

Besides the naval films of this character—and better—about half the two hour and a half performance is devoted to the Army, showing every detail of its work.

The films were taken under the authority of the British Government, and in Great Britain had the patronage of Their Majesties, the King and Queen.

WILL GO TO FRONT WITH IRISH RANGERS

Captain Knox-Leet, who has joined the staff of the 199th Battalion, Irish Canadian Rangers, C.E.F., has just been transferred from the 60th Battalion now at the front. He was one of the first officers of the 55th I.C. Rangers, and when the 55th gave a Company to the 60th, Capt. Knox-Leet went with them in command. He will be of great assistance to the 199th Battalion, due to the fact that he has just completed a three months' Military Course at Shorncliffe.

Capt. Knox-Leet, while born in Dublin County, really belongs to an old West of Ireland military family. An ancestor was one of the few Irish gentry who successfully held his castle for King Charles against Cromwell. He is a grandson of Capt. Knox-Leet of H.M. 20th Regt. of Foot, who was A.D.C. to Gen. Wyndham during the Crimean Campaign. He is also a nephew of Gen. William Knox-Leet, V.C., C.B., who gained his V.C. the same day and in the same action as did Sir Redvers Buller.

THE CHAMPION OF The English Minority

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—I notice that Ald. Lapointe is saying repeatedly in his public addresses that "if I believed that Mr. McDonald was the choice of the English-speaking people of Montreal, I would retire from the mayoralty contest. But he represents a clique only—not clique with a scheme."

That this is not mere election buncombe will be believed by those who recall one of the most dramatic and courageous incidents in Ald. Lapointe's career. Some years ago a majority of the City Council decided to make a striking change in the composition of the City Council committees, which involved reducing the English-speaking representation on most of the important ones.

Ald. Lapointe, though a French alderman, at once sprang to his feet and vigorously defended the rights of the English minority. Amongst other things, he referred frankly to the large proportion of the civic taxation paid by the English people and insisted that they should be left with their traditional strength on the committees. His whole attitude was plucky and high principled, and stands today as an example to those inclined to do unfairly by the minority.

So I think we may take Ald. Lapointe's present statement that he would retire to ensure the election of a real representative of the English-speaking people as entirely sincere.

IRISH-CANADIAN RANGERS HELPING IN BIG CAMPAIGN

Men and officers of the 199th Battalion, Irish-Canadian Rangers are out in force today to get members for the Y. M. C. A. which has shown the soldiers hospitality ever since the commencement of the battalion work. This evening, after the work is over, the building of the central branch, will be thrown open to the 199th, its members and their wives. An extensive program of sports and entertainments has been arranged, the evening to terminate with a supper.

The 199th continues to meet with success in recruiting for the N. C. O. class. Yesterday twenty men were taken on, including a number of veterans such as J. Welsh, who served twelve years with the 3rd Rifle Brigade of which five and one-half years were spent on active service in India. Others taken on included the following.

William Harris.
Alfred Taylor.
Frank Macintyre.
Harry Whitehead.
Arthur Tonks, one year with the 55th I. C. R.
H. Mather, Saskatoon.
Ed. Osburn.
Sam Halkyard, three years with the 4th Lance Fusiliers.

GREEK DYNASTY ROCKING BEFORE VENIZELOS' POWER

By Canadian Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A special cable to the World from Messina, Sicily, says:

"The treasury of Greece is absolutely empty. Athens merchants are refusing Government orders without cash. Half the automobiles lack tires. One regiment at Kavala and another at Salonika mutinied and returned home against orders. The Ministry is crumbling.

"Zaimis probably will be the next Premier, but Venizelos is expected to follow him. Venizelos alone is preventing a revolution. If Venizelos becomes Premier, Greece will enter the war. The dynasty is in danger in any event. Venizelos is determined to teach Constantine a lesson. Greece again is coming under Venizelos' power."

BROTHERS MEET AT THE TRENCHES

How Pte. Harry Cochrane, 42nd Battalion, Highlanders, met his brother, Pte. Hector Cochrane, 60th Battalion, on the firing line is told in a letter from Harry to his parents, who live at 1404 Clarke street, Montreal.

He says: "I was coming along through a town and who did I see but Hector. The soldiers were looking fine. They were on their way to the trenches. I can't tell you where we are, but it is a hot place. Hector is only a mile away. I was home from the trenches with the mail when I heard some one calling 'Harry.' I ducked as I thought it was a shell, but it was Hector."

Affidavits in the case of Charles Rosenberg, who was sent to the penitentiary for seven years by Judge Lanctot on Saturday for stealing $150 from telephone pay boxes, were filed with the court this morning. Argument on the motion for a reserve case, or new trial, made by Bernard Rose and James Crakshaw, Jr., was fixed for tomorrow morning.

THE CONTROLLERSHIPS

The confusing experience of the last elections is repeated this year in the case of candidates for the Controllerships. Nine candidates have been nominated for two positions—some of them unknown, as were many of the nominees last time, including the recreant Hebert and the precious Cote. This creates a difficult problem for citizens sincerely in earnest in their desire to choose trustworthy and capable Controllers.

There can be no doubt, however, about the wisdom of selecting Mr. A. Guy Ross. He is a citizen of good character and a keen critic, and, if elected, ought to make a good Controller. That he has an uphill fight is all too plain. The Citizens' Association—shot to pieces by the resentment of many of its members for the manner in which the unsavory McDonald nomination was railroaded through—is not giving Mr. Ross the active support he had reason to expect. We hope, however, he will be elected.

Mr. E. W. Villeneuve is making a vigorous campaign. He comes of good stock, but is so untried in municipal affairs that the most of us must take him on trust. He himself obviously feels the handicap of the endorsement of the Citizens' Association, and has most pointedly repudiated any association with the McDonald campaign. The rump of the once creditable Citizens' Association surely realizes by now that it cannot have it both ways—it cannot trudge in the Drolet mire with McDonald, and, at the same time, secure the company of candidates with decent instincts.

A good Board of Control is fully as important, however, as a good Mayor—to say the least—and it is to be hoped that the citizens will give careful study to the claims of the various candidates.

HUSH-H-H, HERE'S THE DE-TEC-A-TIVE BALOONEY HERE

His black slouch hat was pulled low over his eyes, which glanced swiftly and suspiciously around the room. Stealthily he closed the door, peered behind the pictures, under the carpet and behind the radiator.

"His-s-s-t" he sizzled so hard that he blew one side of his glossy black moustache completely loose.

His companion needed no such disguises. A shadow of mysterious gloom folded him as a garment. As if from a crevice of an underground cavern his eyes peered sombrely.

There was a little shuffling for a minute as each endeavored to take up a position where his own face would be shadowed and the others in the light. The man with the slouch hat lost out, and pulled the brim lower over his eyes.

"Well, what have you got tonight, Balooney?" growled the sombre one from the shadow.

"A-A-A-Ah!" whispered the sleuth—for indeed it was none other than the famous de-tec-a-tive—"I've got the goods on 'em this time! Trust Balooney! He'll get 'em! He'll show 'em up! He'll—

"Yes, yes, but what have you got?" rasped the other.

"Listen," (with the accent on the "s"), the famous de-tec-a-tive leaned closer. "Whadda y' think of this?" He pulled a big black book out of his pocket and began to read—"October 9, 1913, came on a Thursday, just one day before Friday which is a fish day. My operatives —and—, and—, shadowed No. 2 all day. He didn't come to work until 10:20 that morning. Note the significance! D'you suppose No. 1 would put up with a guy who came to work so late in the morning unless No. 2 had somethin' on him? Sure he has. Just you wait. At noon that same day No. 2 went out for lunch all alone. He went to the Cafe des Enfants. One of my men disguised as a waitress served him with griddle cakes and coffee and he tipped him with a nickel. Get that. A nickel! Sus-s-s-picious! Where 'd he get it? Don't you know that the tramways pays all their men with nickels? A-a-a-ah!

"He quit work that day at 4:21 1-2. That looks bad. Then he went along Craig to Victoria square, to St. James street and took a street car. Get that? A street car owned by the Tramway Company. And that night at 7:53, what do you suppose he did? Went to church! Isn't that suspicious? Do you ever go to church? No- Why did he go? A Presbyterian church too. No. 2 belongs to a Presbyterian church. Suspicious! Maybe there's a wireless gear in the organ loft."

"But say, when did this happen?" queried the gloomy one.

"October 9, 1913. I told ya!"

"But this is 1916! That's old stuff, three years old! Haven't you got anything new?"

"New stuff means new money," snapped Balooney. "But don't you want to hear what No. 2 wore to church that day and the streets he used on the way home?"

"I can write all that myself," grumbled the man in the shade, "and put a lot more pep in it than you do. Wait till you read the paper tomorrow."

CITY OFFICIAL IS SLATED FOR LEAK OF INFORMATION

Those seeking election campaign material against the City Hall administration would do well to apply elsewhere than at the City Hall departments. The lid is on tight.

Napoleon Lacroix, chief of the draughting department, is the latest to have the mayor's displeasure visited upon him for innocently providing powder and shot for the mayor's adversaries. He was let off with a warning that he would be "shown the door" next time he gave out any information to hostile aldermen. Similar orders have been sent about to the other City Hall departments.

It was all about that Drolet street deal. Ald. Jules Fournier, the gadfly of the City Council, requested Mr. Lacroix to prepare a plan of the properties expropriated in the Drolet street deal. The plan showed that, if the city were to open the street as it planned, further properties would have to be acquired at a cost of about $100,000. That is, lots at each end of the proposed new street section are still to be acquired. Ald. Fournier intended to use this plan on the hustings.

The work was finished, and one night Mr. Lacroix left the completed plan in his desk in the drawing office. That night the desk was forced open and the plan disappeared. Next day, however, it reappeared. Mr. Lacroix was summoned to the mayor's office, and Controller Cote was there with the mayor. So was the plan. Mr. Lacroix was solemnly warned that a repetition of such a "mistake" would cost him his job.

Ald. Fournier said this morning that he had no intention of having the mayor arrested on a charge of perjury, as the mayor has been announcing in his campaign speeches.

"I openly charged him in the City Council with having committed perjury in swearing that he did not know the names of the contributors to his gift of $10,000," said Ald. Fournier. "But I shall not do him the extreme pleasure of having him arrested on the eve of the elections. That would give him a fine excuse for proclaiming himself a 'victim.' My friends will not take any action in the matter, either."

EUROPEAN WORK OF Y.M.C.A. PRAISED

The work of the Y.M.C.A. in France was referred to in glowing terms in a letter which Mrs. W. Rutherford, Jr., read at this morning's meeting of the Westmount Soldiers' Wives' League, in Victoria Hall. The writer, a lady who had been to France to visit her sick son, said:

"The Y.M.C.A. is the Good Samaritan in France. The members help civilians travelling by military authority. On our arrival in France we were met by a khaki-clad girl, who conducted us past the authorities and to a lovely rest place where we were fed and afterwards directed to our destination. They meet and deal with rich and poor, high and low alike. They are always on the spot to help."

Mrs. Sidney Phillips announced a balance in hand of $392.80, and reports were given on the work of the forthcoming social and sale of aprons, underwear and home-cooked food, which will be held on Thursday, April 13, from 3 to 7, in Victoria Hall, Westmount.

WAITE TO ADMIT HE IS MURDERER, ATTORNEY HEARS

Prisoner Confessed All to His Brother — Official Confession Expected

NO GRAND JURY DECISION YET

Second Arrest of Alleged Blackmailer Hinted at—Mrs. Horton Happy

Special by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Dr. Arthur Warren Waite is today expected to confess to Mr. Swann, District Attorney, that he murderously poisoned his millionaire father in-law, John E. Peck, of Grand Rapids.

The confession will declare Waite's story of innocent participation in the poisoning, to which he has clung for several days, untrue. Unless Dr. Waite goes further in his confession than he indicated to his brother, he will not implicate others. Word that the confession would be made was given the District Attorney late last night by Frank Waite. The latter visited with Dr. Waite for two hours and persuaded him to tell all.

With practically nothing but an established case of insanity to save Dr. Waite, her "studio" companion, from the death chair, Mrs. Margaret Horton today began talking of flattering offers she has received to continue her stage work. "I have nothing to worry about now," she said. "I have told the District Attorney everything I know about Dr. Waite and am willing to tell it to the grand jury."

MRS. HORTON IS "A DOVE."

The fact that she was with Dr. Waite when he purchased the deadly cultures of tuberculosis and of typhoid did not disconcert her. Mrs. Horton still maintains the innocence of her relations with Dr. Waite in the Plaza studio. Her husband, Mack Horton, believes in her implicitly, referring to her as a "dove in a flock of crows."

Possibility of a second arrest in the case is imminent, according to rumor at the District Attorney's office. The person is a man. Dr. Waite is known to have paid out a lump sum of about $8,000 when he returned from Grand Rapids, March 18. It is a theory that this was given a man who had knowledge of the poisoning and who, with it, blackmailed Waite.

Mr. Swann today said flatly he would not ask a commission to examine Waite for mental soundness. "If the defence has testimony to that effect it can be brought out at the trial," he said.

Findings by the Grand Jury have been delayed by the continuous discovery day after day of new evidence. It may be the end of the week or even later, the District Attorney said today, before the jury reaches a decision.

Mrs. Horton was this afternoon summoned to the office of the District Attorney for a conference. Her attorney accompanied her.

BISHOP SPEAKS AT WAR-TIME MISSION

His Lordship Bishop Farthing was in charge of the war time mission service held at noon today in the offices of Fitzjames E. Browne, St. James street. The subject was "Christ and Temperance."

Bishop Farthing said the word "temperance" had a much wider application than it had come commonly to have through the movement against the use of alcohol. The real meaning of the term was self-control. The highest rule of conduct was a self-control that reflected the spirit of Christ in man.

The meeting was well attended.

OTTAWA, March 28.— The Hon. T. Chase Casgrain will leave this evening for Quebec, where he will confer with the mayors of his constituency, who are interested in the building and maintaining of a military road between the city and Valcartier Camp.

SS. MANCHESTER ENGINEER SUNK BY HUN TORPEDO

LONDON, March 28.—The British steamer Manchester Engineer, from Philadelphia March 11, for Manchester, has been sunk, according to information received by Lloyds. The crew were taken aboard a tug.

The Central News says that the Manchester Engineer was torpedoed yesterday by a German submarine. It was first supposed that the vessel was not badly damaged, but she foundered while making for port in tow. After the attack the Manchester Engineer sank by the bows and her stern rose considerably out of the water. Steamers came to the assistance of the injured craft, and began towing her by the stern, but her bulkhead apparently gave way, causing her to sink. Meantime the crew had been rescued.

PHILADELPHIA, March 28. The Manchester Engineer sailed from this port for Manchester on March 11, with a general cargo, including 200,000 pounds of meat, 120,000 bushels of wheat and more than 100,000 gallons of lubricating oil. She was in charge of Capt. Smith.

The Manchester Engineer measured 4,802 tons gross. She was built in 1902, and was owned by the Manchester Liners, Limited, of Manchester. She ran regularly between Manchester and Montreal for many years.

SUNK WITHOUT WARNING.

LONDON, March 28.—The British steamer Fenay Bridge, which was unarmed, was torpedoed without warning, says an Admiralty statement.

The Fenay Bridge was on a voyage from Philadelphia for Hull. The report of her sinking was announced Sunday.

BIGGEST SUBMARINE YET.

COPENHAGEN, March 28.—A German submarine, says the Christiania correspondent of the Politiken, bigger and speedier than any submarine previously seen, and carrying a crew of eighty, has appeared off Utsire, on the southwest coast of Norway.

The captain sent a wireless message that he had torpedoed the Norwegian barque Lindfield, on March 17, and had taken the crew of thirty on the submarine, where he kept them for four days and then transferred them to the Norwegian barque Silas.

The sinking of the Lindfield was reported from London March 23. This report gave the information that the crew of thirty had been put aboard the barque Silas, bound for Queenstown. The Lindfield, which measured 2,276 tons, left Portland, Oregon, on Nov. 7 for British ports.

ANDES SANK GREIF.

LONDON, March 28.—The British converted cruiser Andes gets the credit for sinking the German raider Greif in the North Sea February 29, in additional details of the battle.

After the British armed merchantman Alcantara had engaged the Greif and been rendered helpless by a shell which shattered her rudder, one of her consorts, the Andes, appeared and made it impossible for the Greif to escape. Shells swept the deck of the German raider, driving the men from some of her guns.

The raider fired several torpedoes, which the Andes escaped through skilful handling. While thus engaged, a third British vessel of the light, cruiser type, attracted by the sound of firing, appeared on the scene. Although at a great distance the cruiser had already joined in the action, her gunners finding the range and hitting the target with remarkable precision.

But the Andes had the Greif afire fore and aft and the raider blew up with a terrific explosion, the theory being that she carried a cargo of mines which ignited when the fire reached them. The captain of the light cruiser congratulated the Andes and gave her the credit for sinking the Greif.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS KILLED.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., March 28.—Word was received by the Government last night that four Newfoundland naval reservists, members of the crew of the British auxiliary warship Alcantara, were killed in the recent fight between that vessel and the German raider Greif in the North Sea.

The men were John C. Tucker, Alfred Andrews, Nathaniel Mugford, and William Dawe, all of Port De Grace, Conception Bay.

WOMEN HEAR TWO CANDIDATES GIVE MUNICIPAL VIEWS

A hundred and thirty women and a score of men attended the mass meeting held in the Stephenson Hall of Emmanuel Church last night, when addresses were delivered by Duncan McDonald, A. Guy Ross, candidate for the Board of Control, A. Falconer, president of the Fair Franchise League, Maxwell Goldstein, vice-president of the Citizens' Association Committee, and others.

Dr. Grace Ritchie England presided, and referred to the work done in previous elections by the Local Council of Women, under whose auspices, she said, the meeting was held. They knew there had been great inefficiency at the City Hall—there had been corruption and the wildest extravagance. The voters of Montreal were very much like sheep without a shepherd, and if the Council could help the electors to decide they were at their service; they did not want to pledge the members to any candidates; they could decide for themselves, but if they wanted any guidance the Local Council would give it.

Duncan McDonald made his usual attack on The Montreal Star, and then M. Nantel spoke in French in his favor.

A. Guy Ross, candidate for the Controllership, said they had watched things go from bad to worse at the City Hall with disgust and disappointment, but that feeling was now giving way to apprehension as to what would happen. Who was to blame did not matter much now; the evil had been done, and what they had to do was to remedy it. The cure was to put a stop to the policy of extravagance and perhaps worse, to overhaul civic administration, and to root out obsolete methods.

A. Falconer spoke at length on the tramways question and in defence of McDonald.

Other speakers were Maxwell Goldstein, Prof. Carrie Derrick and Allan Smith.

WOMAN ATTACKED IN HER OWN HOME AND LEFT GAGGED

Attacked by two men who entered her home at 504 Cadieux street, about 9 o'clock this morning, Mrs. Heik, the wife of a Jewish rag-picker, was brutally beaten, gagged and tied hand and foot with stout ropes. She is at the General Hospital in a critical condition.

The attack on Mrs. Heik has mysterious features. All that is known of the affair, apart from the condition of the woman herself, is told by a child of six, who tells that the assailants were two in number, that they entered the house from the rear, taking the mother by surprise, and that they fled when the child escaped through an open door to give the alarm to neighbors.

From a description given by the child, one of Mrs. Heik's daughters, a girl of thirteen, has told the police the name of a man who is believed to be one of the guilty parties. A search is now being conducted.

British Columbia Places a Loan of Million Dollars

VICTORIA, B.C., March 28. — The British Columbia Government was gratified yesterday to place a loan of a million dollars, under the Agricultural Credits' Act, at 5.63 per cent. The loan will run for twenty-five years, and was handled by McNeill and Young, of Toronto.

Nine bids in all were received from American and Canadian firms. Following the New Zealand system, the money, which will be immediately available, is to be lent out to men on terms extending over twenty-five years.

THEATRICAL MEN FIGURE IN FIRE

Two families had narrow escapes from suffocation in a fire which broke out on the second floor of 346 St. Lawrence Boulevard, at 1:30 this morning.

Tom Conway, the manager of the Gayety Theatre, Lew Hilton and Bob Ferns, two of the company, were passing up Clarke street, when they noticed smoke coming from the rear windows of the house. Mr. Conway turned in the alarm and Hilton and Ferns awakened the family on the first floor. In the excitement the family on the floor above were forgotten and when they were safe it was learned a baby had been left behind. Hilton went back into the flat which was then filled with dense smoke, found the baby sleeping peacefully on the bed and carried it to safety.

The cause of the fire is unknown. It completely gutted the premises on the ground floor.

"INSANE" SAYS JURY OF DEAD CANADIAN

By Canadian Associated Press.

LONDON, March 28.— A verdict of "suicide whilst temporarily insane," was returned today at the inquest at Bramshott on Capt. Arthur Lionel Griffin, Paymaster of the 3rd Divisional (training) Army Service Corps, who was found dead in bed with a revolver grasped in both hands and a bullet wound through his head.

Capt. W. C. Arnold said the deceased officer, who was 34 years of age, arrived from Canada on March 13. He had been downcast and melancholy since arriving in England.

JOHNSON TO PLAY SAYS SAVAGE; NO WANDERER WANTED

Manager Savage, of the Portland Hockey Club, announced at three o'clock today that Ernie Johnson would appear on the ice tonight, no matter what statement Johnson might have made earlier in the day under stress of resentment.

Mr. Savage at the same time admits that he realizes the law may compel him to pay over Johnson's share of the Stanley Cup gates in Court.

It is said that Johnson yesterday offered to play for the Wanderer owner next season if the latter would drop the prosecution against him.

But the Wanderer owner said he did not want Johnson.

"Why not?" Johnson is reported to have asked. "Am I not good enough?"

"It is not that," replied the Wanderer owner, according to report, "but I do not want a man who does not keep his word."

Mr. Savage did not think that the Wanderer owner, if he felt sure that he was going to get Johnson's share of the Stanley Cup money, would prevent the player from going to New York and playing in the series arranged for that town with the Canadiens.

On the other hand, other people closer to the Wanderer end say that Johnson will surely be captured if he tries to get away, and that he is even now under surveillance.

This trip to New York, as stated in last night's Star, has created bad blood between the Wanderer and Canadien owners, the latter having made arrangements for the trip which the Wanderers claim will interfere with their trip to Boston, without even obtaining permission from President Quinn of the National Hockey Association.

The latter has called a meeting of the various owners for tomorrow morning, to thrash matters out, and pour oil upon the troubled waters, if possible.

267 NEW MEMBERS JOIN THE Y.M.C.A. ON THE FIRST DAY

The teams which started this morning to secure 1,000 members for the Y.M.C.A. within four days made a good get-away for at the mid-day luncheon in the St. Lawrence Hall it was reported that 267 members had been secured. Many of the teams did not report, but promised to do so tomorrow, these including all the East End workers.

The officers of the 199th Battalion, Irish-Canadian Rangers, headed the list with 30 members; the men's teams from that battalion, as well as the teams from the 148th Battalion did not report. The Central branch teams reported a total of 118 members; the Westmount Branch, 61; the North End Branch, 57; and the Railroad teams, 31.

W. H. Goodwin presided at the luncheon. There were also present Mayor Manning, Verdun; Ald. Corbin, Outremont; Capt. Campbell Stuart, 199th Battalion; Capt. Knox-Leet, 199th Battalion; Recorder Bissette, Lieut. Meighen, 148th Battalion; J. W. Know, Abner Kingman, W. L. Leslie, A. D. Anderson, H. R. Gray, Fred Whittet and Alfred Price.

A brief address was given by Abner Kingman, in which he urged the young men to fill in the gaps caused by those who had gone to the front, so that there should be no falling off in the work being done at home.

The reports by teams was as follows:

Westmount Branch, Board of management, team captain, J. Y. Glenn, 14; social, W. A. Sadler, 3; bowlers, G. B. Allison, 25; business men No. 1, E. W. Barlow, 8; business men No. 2, J. A. Shaw, 7; Young Men's Group, Frank Cuttle, 4.

Railroad Branch teams, 31.

Dormitories teams: H. Bermer, 2; F. Leroy, 4; S. L. Burns, 3; G. Carson, 4; C. C. Stewart, 3; C. L. Fletcher, 5; G. Finlayson, 3; gymnasium class, J. N. Kimlin, 5; gymnasium class, 2, R. S. Allan, 3; firms, G. Frame, 9.

Officers' team, 199th Battalion, 30.

North Branch teams — R. W Burry, 3; J. M. Tressider, 21; F. E. Lauer, 6; Morning Business Men's Class—Mr. Evans, 8. Senior Business Men's Class—Jas. Lang, 7; H. L. O'Donoughue, 2. Junior Business Men's Class—J. R. Melville, 3; Men's Evening Class—W. Taylor, 3. Bowlers' team—F. C. Orr, 1; G. L. Cohoon, 3.

Central Y. M. C. A. teams—Educational—G. L. McRae, 8; G. Price, 3; Business Men—C. H. Russell, 10; E. Roberts, 9; H. G. Boardman, 3; H. L. Smith, 6; J. C. Watson, 8.

ON LIST OF WOUNDED

Lieut. C. O. Dorval, of the 22nd Battalion, who is reported wounded.

LONELY HERMIT DEAD OF COLD AND HUNGER

Found almost at the point of death in a little wooden shack, his body clothed with pieces of carpet and sacking, with no fire and no food, Antoine Monte, sixty-five years of age, who lived alone in this little hovel on the border of a stretch of waste ground at the north end of Des Carriere street, was removed to the Hotel Dieu last evening and died there this morning of pneumonia.

FOUR DEAD, 100 MISSING IN MINE

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., March 28.—Bodies of four miners, victims of an explosion of gas in the King Coal and Coke Company mine at Vivian, W. Va., were taken from the workings today. Sixteen men, all badly burned, were rescued. It is expected several of the injured will die.

MONTREALER OUT OF ACTION FROM GERMAN DUM-DUM

Special to the Montreal Star.

HALIFAX, N.S., March 28.—Among the officers who returned from England to Halifax yesterday were:

Major Andrews Mahone, Lieut. Hirsch, 7th Battalion; Lieut. W. A. Campbell, Edmonton, 3rd C.M.R.; Lieut O. P. Hertburg, 5th Battalion; Lieut. J B. Mitchell, 10th Battalion; Capt. Griffiths, A.M.C., Manitoba; Capt. A. J. Losier, C.A.M.C. (Medical officer in charge of the party).

The captain belongs to Chatham, N.B., and will return shortly to the front.

A large number of the returning men may, after recuperating, return to their corps, but some forty of them have been declared permanently unfit for further military duty.

One of these is Pte. Douglas Haines, of Montreal, 24th Battalion. Six months ago, while with a "sniping" party, he received serious injuries, from which he has not as yet recovered, and he still has his arm in splints. He says that after he had sniped his man he was sniped himself with an explosive bullet. His hand and arm were shattered and his knee and one foot badly injured.

Mr. Haines in private life was an accountant, and he is fortunate that it is his left hand and not his right that was disabled.

TIME EXTENSION FOR C. N. R. ROADS

Special from our own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, March 28.—The session's most contentious bill respecting the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto, and the Toronto, Niagara and Western Railways were again before the Commons railway committee today and after a prolonged discussion was carried by a vote of 40 to 19.

The Hon. Dr. Reid intimated that the Hydro-Radial will get running rights over the C.N.R. line.

We Don't Give Two Dollars' Worth For One! Neither Does Any One Else!

LET US FIGURE A BIT

Our advertising expenses are small—just about one-tenth as much as some of the furniture stores—and still we're getting our share of the business.

We do not make rush days of Saturdays and Mondays under the pretense of special sales—rather we have a steady run of business every day in the week.

These Are Some of The Reasons Why Furniture Sells For 10% to 20% Less at Albert's. "Figure It Out" Yourself.

Our salesmen and delivery force keep fairly busy every day and we do not have to maintain a lot of extra men and extra motor cars in comparative idleness for four days a week in order to have them for the two rush days.

We save quite a bit on advertising—we save enormously by cutting out the special sale stuff on Saturdays and Mondays, and equalizing our work from day to day.

CARSON TO LEAD OPPOSITION TO COALITION GOVT.?

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, March 28.—The morning newspapers give prominence to the announcement that Sir Edward Carson is restored to health and that he will mark his return to Parliament by presiding today over the Conservative party's war committee.

The Morning Post believes that Sir Edward intends to form and to lead an opposition to the Coalition Government. The newspaper wishes him success in the venture and says:

"Nobody can say the country is satisfied with the way it is now governed. The coalition still has an obedient Parliament and the whole power of the nation at its back, but it is so weak that it exists only because no alternative has yet been organized.

"We attribute the debility of the Coalition Government to the fact that it has never touched the heart nor embodied the spirit of the British people. How can a nation show confidence in the Government which has never shown any confidence in itself? The nation is conscious of a certain lack of leadership."

Mexico's two famous mountains are Popocatepetl and Ixtacchuatl. The former means "smoking mountain, the latter "white woman." These mountains are both south of Mexico City. The former is 17,885, and the latter 17,343 feet in height.

NEW BORDER RAIDS WHILE U. S. TROOPS HOTLY CHASE VILLA

Cavalry Detachments Drive Away Bandits from Fabene Ranch in Running Fight — Official Mexican Reports Declare Villa Less Than Day's March from Pursuers

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—By a vote of 373 to 1, the House today passed an army deficiency bill carrying $8,600,000, to cover the cost of the Mexican expedition.

This will enable the War Department to recruit the army up to full strength and to buy aeroplanes, motor trucks and other equipment.

The vote is taken as an endorsement by the House of the Mexican expedition. Rep. London, of New York cast the negative vote.

Special to The Montreal Star by E. T. Conkle of the United Press.

EL PASO, Texas, March 28.—With official Mexican despatches locating Villa and his bandits less than a day's march from the advance lines of the American forces, word from field headquarters of Gen. Pershing's men is eagerly awaited here today.

The Mexican reports located Villa at El Oso yesterday.

On the heels of these messages came reports of another attempted border raid by Mexicans. A number of bandits were driven away from the Babene ranch of C. E. Kelly, ex-mayor of El Paso, by two small detachments of the Eighth Cavalry and Texas Rangers. About 100 shots were exchanged in a running fight before the Mexicans escaped across the border in the darkness. The raiders obtained nothing.

Gen. Gavira, of Juarez, made public the following message from Gen. Francisco Bertani, commander of the Carranza garrison at Madera:

"Villa is at El Oso. We believe that Col. Cano is one of our chief's closest to Villa. Both ours and the American forces harrassing Villa constantly."

REPORT VILLA IN FULL FLIGHT

The latest official advices from the American expedition tell of Villa in full flight southwest toward the foothills of the Sierras with American detachments in his wake.

Mexican residents in districts where Villa was once an idol gave his pursuers news of his route and supplied them with foodstuffs, at record high prices in American money.

United States army fliers, having established a base 10 miles south of the Dubian headquarters of Brig.-Gen. Pershing, are engaged in scouting with the vanguard of the expedition nearly 300 miles from the border.

The advanced base presumably is equipped for a considerable infantry and artillery force to support the vanguard.

The problem of transporting supplies to the base camps continues acute, with army officials here still in expectation of momentary permission to use the Mexican lines from Juarez.

Further word is anxiously awaited in El Paso of the situation at Torreon, where foreigners were last reported to be preparing for flight to the border. News that Gen. Reyes, and 1,500 Villistas had captured Viesca, thirty miles from Torreon, was reported to have caused a panic among the foreigners. Torreon's Carranza garrison numbers 400.

The Sheriff, Peyton Edwards, after an investigation announced today that he was unable to account for reports of the raid of the Kelly ranch. Edwards said the ranch was not molested.

Kelly insisted that his foreman, L. M Baker, saw bandits in the act of rustling cattle about dusk yesterday and summoned troops stationed at the nearby Wingo ranch, Kelly said his Mexican caretaker was assaulted by the raiders.

WASHINGTON PLANS SUPPORT.

WASHINGTON, March 28.— Administration officials today are taking steps to aid Gen. Funston in overcoming difficulties met with in keeping open a 200 mile supply line to the American forces in Mexico.

Realizing that it may require a week or more to perfect the proposed procotol with the de facto Government covering the use of Mexican railways and other matters concerning the international chase for Villa, officials are preparing, first, to press for prompt disposition of the railroad request as a separate issue, and secondly, to send Gen. Funston enough motor vehicles with which to maintain an adequate supply system.

It is planned to establish supply depots at intervals along the lines of communication, each to be fed by the one immediately in its rear and the border end of the supply line to maintain a constant level.

Gen. Carranza's suggestions as to modifications to the proposed procotol, as worked out here, are under consideration at the State Department today. It was stated that further interchanges with the First Chief may be required.

In the meantime, it is said, Carranza desires to delay replying to the request for the use of the railways until the procotol has been agreed to.

Latest official reports at hand indicate that Gen. Pershing's advance base is in the region of El Valle and that Villa, who is reported to have got through the network of Carranza troops, is far to the southward.

HUN CHANCELLOR IS NOW ON TRIAL, SAYS NEWSPAPER

By Canadian Press.

AMSTERDAM, March 28, via London.—The Vossische Zeitung, discussing the future of Germany's submarine warfare policy, says:

"The Imperial Chancellor will speak at one of the sessions of the Budget Committee which is to discuss the resolutions on submarine warfare proposed by the Conservative, the National Liberal and the Centre parties. He will explain certain questions and will perhaps thoroughly convince the representatives of the nation. It must be admitted that a responsible statesman is in a difficult position toward the great public, for there are things which it is impossible to make public, much less to discuss publicly. In such a situation the question of how much confidence a statesman enjoys is of vital importance.

"The near future will show whether Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the Imperial Chancellor, enjoys public confidence and to what extent. Among the politicians of Germany opinion regarding the Chancellor, is not by any means united."

The newspaper declares that military criticism is not directed against the military commanders or against the Emperor, but solely against the Emperor's advisers. It says:

"Regarding political successes opinions are divided. Only recently, on the occasion of the sinking of the Tubantia, many doubts arose as to whether what had been achieved politically corresponded to our great military success."

The Vossische Zeitung complains that the Dutch newspapers and those of other neutral countries show that "our political representation in those countries at least did not strengthen the weight of our military successes."

It adds: "The American danger, as viewed in German political circles, is always greatly exaggerated, but the importance of a rupture of relations with such a powerful nation should not be under-estimated."

Less Than $25,000 a Year Spells Ruin for This Gentleman!

Special by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Unless Lawrence Copley Thaw, 17, has an income of at least $25,000 a year from the estate of his parents, his carefully wrought and well-nurtured character will be ruined.

Such is the gist of a report made to the Surrogate Court. Lawrence is the son of Edward B. Thaw, half brother to Harry K. Thaw. Lawrence is to get the $25,000.

Of the items for which the money is to be spent, education, getting $1,500 a year, is the lowest. The youngster needs $5,000 for rent and lighting; $12,000 for household expenses; $3,000 for automobiles; $3,000 for travelling and incidentals; $1,200 for clothes, and $1,500 for small change.

Guests are Robbed Hosts Untouched But Now in Toils

Special to The Montreal Star by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 28.—A brand new style of robbery, on the "will you walk into my parlor, said the spider to the fly" basis is alleged to have been uncovered here in a complaint made to police by Raffino Lavin.

Luis F. Corea, former Minister from Nicaragua, and Lavin were dinner guests of Mariano Ramos and Russell Mark. Highwaymen came in and robbed the guests. The hosts were not molested. They are under arrest.

FREDERICTON, N.B., March 28.—Lieut. W. G. Harris, who left here with the first overseas draft from the 36th Battery, was married at Folkestone, Eng., today to Gladys Imogene Dewet, daughter of V. Douglas Dewet, of Folkestone.

The ceremony was performed in Holy Trinity Church, and a reception was held by the bride at 23 Clifton Grade after the wedding. Lieut. Harris is a native of Antigonish, N. S., and was one of the most popular officers with the 36th Battery.

ALLIES AGREE TO HELP EMPIRE TO REPLACE TEUTONS

France, Russia and Italy to Welcome British Empire Traders

Special Cable to The Montreal Star from our London Correspondent. (Copyright.)

MONTREAL STAR OFFICE, 17 Cockspur Street, London, March 28.—Mr. Asquith's absence in Paris delays the completion and announcement of the British economic policy which is of such far-reaching Imperial importance.

The decision that Mr. Bonar Law shall accompany Mr. Runciman to the Allies' Economic Conference in Paris next month is an index to other developments which, with the co-operation of Sir Robert Borden, Premier Hughes, and the other Dominion Premiers, will be designed to carry out the British House of Commons' resolution of January 10, to bring the whole economic strength of the Empire into co-operation with the Allies against the enemy.

ALL ALLIES AGREE.

It is understood that France, Russia, and now Italy, are favorable to the fiscal and administrative measures which place Canada and the other Dominions, as well as Britain, upon an entirely new plane in their markets, to replace German and Austrian influence and trade.

Under this stimulus and with the overwhelming popular approval given Premier Hughes' vigorous Empire speeches, British Ministers are being led to formulate measures, based upon joint inter-Imperial action, to complete the elimination of foreign control of the base metals of the Empire, and ensure that these Empire resources be used in building up the Dominion and British, rather than foreign industries.

BORDEN IS AWAITED.

Much satisfaction is expressed that Ottawa advices now indicate the early arrival of Sir Robert Borden in London, to participate in these developments which demand personal rather than telegraphic intercourse.

The announcement by the Daily Telegraph today that nothing like a definite trade policy can be settled until after his arrival is merely an echo of certain departmental and political obstructionists of a "Little England" type who do not yet realize the strength of the forces which are leading Mr. Asquith and his colleagues into definite action forthwith.

REDMOND OPPOSES IRISH FIGHTING NEW WAR TAXES

Declares Agitators are Pro-Germans and Want to Prolong War

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, March 28.—John Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, in a letter addressed to a prominent Nationalist, advises against the holding of a public meeting to protest against further taxation in Ireland.

Such action, he says, is characterized as an "Irish constitutionalist movement" by men who are hostile to the Irish party, men who are either pro-German or opposed to recruiting in Ireland and committed to the monstrous doctrine that Ireland should remain neutral in this war."

Such an agitation, Mr. Redmond says, is mischievous and dishonest and he advises the Irish people to have confidence that their leaders will see that they get just taxation. He adds:

"Ireland's highest interest is speedy victory in this war. The men who seek to prejudice Ireland in the eyes of the world by making a ridiculous claim for exemption from war taxes are the very men who, by their apathy, their so-called neutrality, their hostility to recruiting and their pro-Germanism, are doing their best to prolong the war."

Mexico's imports of recent years have consisted chiefly of railway material, machinery, hardware, furniture, mining supplies, drugs and chemicals, paper, wheat, Indian corn, cotton, woollen and linen textiles, and military supplies and equipment.

The Fight FOR CHEAP WATER

How Montreal's Water Rates Were Cut Down

Strong, Steady, Determined Fight With Victory at the Close

There have been some valiant fights in Montreal's City Council that have become historic.

The story of the five-year battle waged by L. A. Lapointe for cheaper water for the people of Montreal, is a story of determination which is worth the telling. It was a stubborn fight, stubbornly waged and stubbornly contested. The forces against the reform were backed by statistics and entrenched in tradition. The statistics were faulty and the tradition wrong, but to prove this was a great part of the battle. L. A. Lapointe proved it, and won his fight in the face of years of discouragement.

Until eight years ago water cost the ratepayers of Montreal more than it cost the people of any other city in America. Things are vastly better now and we may have forgotten about it a little, but it is worth while going back. Imagine the conditions which obtain in the poorer districts of a big city during July and August of a Canadian summer, when, to overcrowding, dirty and bad air, we add the awful burden of water so dear as to be almost a luxury. This is not an exaggeration; conditions somewhat similar to this actually existed in Montreal, and the records of the Water Department amply prove it.

L. A. Lapointe was in the City Council at that time, and becoming aware of thousands of cases of hardship owing to the price of water, he set out to find a remedy. In innumerable cases he interceded for the poor when the application of the law worked inevitable hardship. But no amount of individual exceptions could remedy a general wrong. Lapointe saw that he would have to go deeper than the individual; he went down to bed rock and attacked causes.

It was uphill work and slow, but he fought on.

The advance trenches of reactionaryism caved in after a time. Eight years ago came the first cut. It was hailed with joy throughout the city, but some may have forgotten that it was L. A. Lapointe who was the hero of the reform.

Surely it might have been expected that opposition would vanish after the benefits of the first reduction were made so apparent. But it didn't. It took Mr. Lapointe just five years more fighting to win his second and most conclusive victory. He was resolute in his determination to get it, and resourceful in marshalling his forces—strategy at the City Hall is necessary to success. It was not till three years ago that the water rate in Montreal came down to the present level, just one-half of what it cost when Lapointe took up the fight.

To well-off citizens it might appear to be a trivial matter, but what about the thousands of those for whom literally every $10.00 counts in the struggle for existence? Lapointe made the case his own. He did not triumph single-handed, but he was the senior counsel in the "case for the people," the commanding officer in the assault on the high water rate citadel. It was a good fight, fairly fought and fairly won, a record of which any candidate for any office may well be proud.

JOHNSON THINKS TO FOOL ENEMY BY NOT PLAYING TONIGHT

FIGHT FOR PLACE U. S. SOCCER SECY. TO BE SEVERE ONE

Special to The Montreal Star.

BOSTON, March 28. — Although the annual meeting of the United States Football Association is nearly two months away, there is even at this time evidence of one of the liveliest scrambles for office and district recognition in the Association's history.

The North Massachusetts and New Hampshire State Association, which has control over local soccer, is mentioned as one of the most prominent affiliations that will seek to place one of its representatives in office at the national council. George M. Collins, the secretary of the association, is mentioned for secretary of the United States Association.

Since the council meeting was held here February 13, Collins's name has been mentioned more than once and in more places than Boston as a candidate against Cahill for secretary at the next annual meeting. In New York and Philadelphia his name has been linked with Cahill's for the most important position on the executive of the U. S. F. A.

Cahill fears no one more than the Boston man, and there is no man better qualified to know of Collins's ability than Mr. Cahill, as a great deal of correspondence passes between them. It is not yet known whether Cahill intends to retire from the secretaryship; in fact, soccer men in close touch with national affairs firmly believe he should retain office another year at least, as it cannot be denied that Cahill of all men has done wonderful work in placing soccer on its present high basis among the sports of the country.

He has a few personal feelings towards some of the council members that do not meet with the approval of the majority of the members, and this has lost him some of his popularity; but still, no one who knows anything of his work on behalf of soccer will say that he has been anything but a capable and hard working secretary.

Collins will not say that he is out for the position, nor will he deny the report. The general belief is that while he will not refuse the office, if elected, he will not campaign actively for it.

SOCCER NOTES

C. P. R. Juniors held a very successful annual meeting last Friday, elected officers for the ensuing year, and have to date signed on ten players, with more in the "offing."

The officers to guide their fortunes are: Patron, H. Craig Campbell; president, J. D. Fairbairn; vice-president, S. McKellar; secretary-treasurer, A. Bevand; league delegates, A. Bevand and S. McKellar; committee, H. Morton, J. Gow, J. McLeod, S. McKellar and A. Holloway.

The D. F. A. president will look in at the next meeting of the P. Q. F. A. and endeavor to clear away some erroneous impressions that prevail concerning the Connaught Cup games and the International with the U. S. A. F. A.

Chris. Gallacher and Jack Richmond have signed on for Peter Lyall's.

The Second Division League, P. Q. F. A., will meet on Wednesday first, the 29th instant, at 8 p.m., in the Central Y.M.C.A., Drummond street. The schedule for the coming season will be presented at this meeting.

At a recent meeting of the above club, it was unanimously resoved that they should hold a euchre and dance prior to the commencement of the football season.

The date was fixed for Tuesday evening, April 25th inst., and will take place in the Auditorium Hall, 229 Ontario street west.

It is hoped that the many friends of this club will endeavor to keep this date free, and also to bring others with them, as a most enjoyable evening is anticipated.

Notices will be issued at a later date.

The Lachine Football Club held a successful reorganization meeting, and got togeth-er a capable and hard-working executive to take charge during the coming season under the presidency of Norman Wilson, with Dick Foster as Secretary.

Several useful players have already been signed and prospects are good for a better shooting than ever in local and Dominion-wide football.

The "Scenery" and "Fresh Air" out Lachine way are better than ever before and the secretary would be pleased to hear from one or two players of ability. Address 145 2nd avenue, Lachine, or N. Wilson, 174 18th avenue, Lachine, Que.

Preparations for the coming soccer season will be further advanced this week, as every league has a meeting scheduled. The Third Division meets tonight. Tomorrow night the Second Division will meet in the same place at 8:15. At this meeting the schedule will be adopted. On Thursday at 8 p.m. the Boys' League will meet at the Central Y. M. C. A., this meeting being followed by the P. Q. F. A. board's session at 8:30.

WILLIE LEWIS ILL.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Willie Lewis, who trained Frank Moran for his bout with Jess Willard, suffered a nervous breakdown at his home in the Bronx after he returned from Madison Square Garden Saturday night, and today was seriously ill. More than a week ago, right at the most critical period of Moran's training, Lewis' seven-year-old son died. Since that time the trainer has endeavored to hide his grief from Moran.

FIGHT RECEIPTS.

NEW YORK, March 28. — The official receipts of the Willard-Moran bout here last Saturday night were $150,608, of which the state will receive $11,295, Chairman Fred A. Wenck, of the State Athletic Commission, said tonight. Wenck expressed complete satisfaction with the way in which the match was conducted.

PATERSON, N. J. Larry O'Brien has to roll a peanut a mile because his Irish friend Frank Moran failed to knock out a man known as Jess Willard.

THE LATE THOMAS H. CROSSLEY.

Westmount cricketers lose a valuable friend in the death of Mr. Thomas A. Crossley, who for many years has been the honorary president of their club, and a staunch supporter of the Westmount A.A.A., and of all clean amateur sport. His son Archie, who was well known in football, was drowned a few years ago, while on a cruise with the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club. As a memorial to his son, the late Mr. Crossley donated a trophy to the Westmount A.A.A., to be held each year by the Westmount member, who, in the opinion of the trustee, best upheld the interests of the association, both on and off the field. This trophy has so far been held by Mr. Stanley A. Cornell (now at the front), Mr. Walter Stenhouse, president of the Westmount C.C., and Mr. Percy Robertson, now enlisted for overseas. Gordon Crossley, his youngest son, is also in England with Cape's Battery.

PITTSBURG TAKES THREE IN A ROW FROM ST. PAUL

Special to The Montreal Star.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28. — The Pittsburg hockey team made good its boast of taking three games in a row from the crack St. Paul septet when it won its third game tonight at Duquesne Garden 4 to 2.

Tonight's struggle was probably the most strenuous of the series and more rough playing was apparent than in the two previous encounters. McCrimmon, for the local team, and Conroy for the visitors, were the chief offenders, each drawing two penalties of three minutes each.

The Pittsburg team lost no time in starting the scoring. J. McCormick registering the first tally on a pass from his brother, Larry, who was behind the St. Paul net. Cooper, the hero of the opening game, shot the second goal on a pass from Larry McCormick. This ended the scoring for the first half, but not the strenuous play. In the second period the visitors showed their best form of the series and played the Pittsburg seven to a stand still, each getting two goals.

Henderson is credited with the first goal for the visitors. This score came shortly after the start of the second half, after this player had been sent in for Conroy. Any hopes the visitors might have had of evening up the score were blasted a few minutes later when Capt. Larry McCormick shot a goal on a pass from Manners, who had brought the puck up the entire length of the ice. He shot his second goal one minute later from scrimmage after the local forwards had brought the rubber up the ice in a spectacular manner. The last score of the game was made by Wellington after Goheen had taken the rubber from behind his own net and passed to the "Duke."

Line-up:

St. Paul.		Pittsburg
Haugh	goal	Thibbetts
Ryan	point	Manters
Goheen	cover point	Gorman
Wellington	R. J.	J. McCormick
Whalen	E. W.	McCrimmon
Conroy	L. W.	Cooper
Kahler (capt.)	C.	L. McCormick (capt.)

Goals—L. McCormick, 2; J. McCormick, Casper, Henderson, Wallington.

Subs.—Bawlf for J. McCormick; J. McCormick for Bawlf, Henderson for Conroy, Connor for Cooper.

Referees—Richardson and Gustin.

Alley Bowling

TOLEDO, Ohio, March 28.—Chicago cleaned up a quarter of the prize money offered for the five-man prize winners of the American Bowling Congress tournament, according to a resume of the prize list this morning, landing nearly $1,200 out of the $12,000 offered. Chicago has three bids left in the events that will be decided today. Sykes Thoma and Hank Marine topping the doubles with 1,279, Thoma being high in the all-events with 1,919, and Frank Shaw having the tall mark in the singles of 685, but having two men tied with him in Ben Huesman of Cincinnati, and Sam Schliman of Toronto.

The final standing five-man event showed the Commodore Barrys of Chicago with a total score of 2,905, winning the $800 prize; Heinie Riehls, Columbus, was second with 2,895, winning $550; Wittmans, Rochester, third, 2,892, $700; Journals, Detroit, fourth, 2,879, $650; Jose Comez, Chicago, fifth, 2,864, $600; Capitol Alleys, Indianapolis, sixth, 2,863, $500.

BASEBALL MATERIAL.

Dan Howley is angling for outfielders Cathers and Moran of the Boston Braves. Purtell, the former Jersey City infielder and Claude Rossman, a first baseman. Smyth, Stevenson, Goodbread and Priest are practically certain to come here from the Dodgers, while it is also likely that Jimmy Dowd will be sent back to the Royals by the Cincinnati Reds.

NO ADVANCE MONEY FOR SMALL STABLE OWNERS THIS YEAR

Apropos of the reports emanating from Juarez, Mexico, where several horsemen are reported "marooned," comes the announcement of the powers that be of the Canadian Second Circuit, that they have tightened their purse-strings and will not advance the horsemen funds this season. Innumerable "S.O.S." calls have been received in Montreal, but the answer reverberated, "We will take no horses off the cars." It is said the sudden change in the attitude of the promoters may be attributed to the ingratitude of the horsemen themselves.

A small group of horsemen who campaign their stables on the minor circuit each season, drifted into town a few days ago from Juarez, and brought back stories the like of which were never before heard. "The situation at Juarez is indescribable," said a returning horseman." To wager on your horses at the track was suicidal, for the modus operandi of the Juarez management, was too enigmatical to fathom" concluded the turfite. The returning party, in unison, all vowed they'd never return again to Juarez.

The stable of Ike Striker, who races one of the largest establishments on the minor circuit, arrived from Juarez a few days ago. He took "French leave" when Uncle Sam's "punitive" force entered the war torn republic to hunt down Gen. Francoise Villa and his band of outlaws, and lost no time heading for the International bridge with his stable. There were thirteen thoroughbreds in the Striker consignment. Included in the lot were Sharper Knight, Hasson, Rose O'Neil, Tower, Hearthstone, Col. McDougall, Spirella, Louis Des Cognets, Thomas Hare and four others.

Jockey Driscoll, who has been riding for the Striker stable, accompanied the establishment.

Cecil Knight brought a mixed carload, his car preceding that of Striker's a few hours. Knight's string consisted of two, Odd Cross and Ortyx. Hardy, the property of George Glink, Weyanoke and Jefferson also inhabited stalls in the car.

The Lachine Soccer Club held a successful reorganization meeting and got together a capable and hard-working executive to take charge during the coming season, under the presidency of Norman Wilson, with Dick Foster as secretary.

HARRIMAN FOR STROKE.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 28. — Roland Harriman is now the likeliest candidate for stroke in the Yale 'Varsity shell. His work there in the first real tryout the crew has had is particularly pleasing to Coach Guy Nickalls. Harriman has the weight and strength for the job.

COURT HOUSE ALIVE WITH PROMINENT FIGURES OF PRO. HOCKEY WORLD DRAWN THERE BY WRITS OF WANDERERS' OWNER IN $2000 JUDGMENT AGAINST ERNIE JOHNSON

Geo. Kennedy, Manager Savage of Rosebuds, Arena People and Others are Making Sworn Declarations About Their Connection With Moneys Derived From Stanley Cup Matches as Result of Legal Action Announced in Last Night's Star—Interests Opposed to Wanderer Owner Claim Latter Can Get Nothing if Johnson Refuses to Play Tonight—Court Proceedings and U.S. Trips May Create More Bitter Hockey War Than Ever

E. H. SAVAGE,

Manager Portland Rosebuds.

OFFICIAL CRICKET MAY BE STOPPED DURING THE WAR.

There will be a meeting of the Montreal and District Cricket League tomorrow evening in the Lion Club on Phillips Square.

It is understood that an attempt will be made to have all official cricket abolished for the season the same as all official soccer and to let the League lie low.

BASEBALL NOTES

At a special meeting of the Spalding Junior Baseball League, held at 371 St. Catherine street west, the following clubs were represented: Hochelaga, Shamrock A. A. A., Mascotte and Verdun A. A. A. It was decided by the delegates that the Junior League would be known this year as the Spalding Intermediate Baseball League. As other clubs not represented at the meeting have expressed a desire of entering this new league, it is probable that two more clubs will be admitted to membership at the annual meeting of the league, which will be held on April 7. Any other clubs wishing to join the Spalding Intermediate Baseball League can do so by sending a written application to C. Provencher, 371 St. Catherine street west.

WENCK FAVORS NEGROES.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Fred A. Wenck, chairman of the State Athletic Commission, is not deeply impressed at the ability of Jess Willard and Frank Moran as heavyweight boxers.

When he was asked what he thought about Saturday night's bout, Chairman Wenck, said that it was a pretty fair bout for a heavyweight affair, but in his opinion, Sam Langford or Sam McVea, the negro heavyweights, could beat either of them.

The Court House was alive with prominent figures in professional hockey circles of Canada.

Not since George Kennedy and Geo. Dandurand had their spat, and Alf. Smith, "Baldy" Spittall and other Ottawa people were arrested for assaulting Hod Stuart, have there been so many roaming around the corridors.

They included George Kennedy of the Canadiens, Manager Savage of the Portlands, the Arena people, Ernie Johnson's brother and others, all accompanied by their lawyers, and all busily engaged in making sworn declarations as to whether or not they have any interest in the receipts of the Stanley Cup matches, in connection with the $20,000 claim made by the owner of the Wanderer Hockey Club against Ernie Johnson on the strength of a judgment obtained against the Portland player.

AS ANNOUNCED IN STAR.

The presence of the Hockey notables was caused by one of the most wholesale attachments that has ever been made by process of law in Montreal, and which was announced in last night's Star.

It was not merely an attachment on any money Johnson might have to his credit, but upon everything and everybody in the slightest way connected with any money coming to Johnson, and the magnitude of it can be imagined, when it is stated that George Kennedy was served with no less than three of these, one for himself, one for the Canadien Hockey team, and one of the Club Athletique Canadien.

As each of these writs cost something over four dollars, and as lawyers are not very modest in their charges, the law costs of the action will be something frightful, particularly as writs-of-attachments were also sent to Ottawa and Quebec, where the Portland team is billed to play after the Stanley Cup series.

As will be remembered Johnson while the first Hockey War between the East and the Coast was going on, signed a contract to play with the Wanderers.

AGREED TO LOSE $2000.

As there has been much jumping of contracts about that time, the Wanderer owner asked Johnson, what guarantee do I have that you will play when the time comes, and thereupon a clause was entered in the contract that if Johnson did not keep his agreement, he would forfeit two thousand dollars.

He did not keep his contract and a lawsuit followed with a judgment as the result in favor of the Wanderer owner, who claimed then that he did not so much bring the lawsuit for the purpose of trying to get the two thousand dollars which Johnson had forfeited as to make an example that would frighten other would-be contract jumpers. The cost of obtaining the judgment, it is understood amount to around thousand dollars.

From the talk around the Courthouse it was announced that a "saisie arret"—Seizure before Judgment—had been taken out last week, but had been kept quiet till the most advantageous time for serving it upon Johnson arrived.

OTHER WRITS SERVED.

The writs-of-attachment in regard to the other half dozen of hockey notables were not issued till yesterday, however, when the "Saisie Arret" was served on Johnson.

Johnson's friends, and those who side with the Portland team, at first thought that since Johnson owes Manager Savage of the Portland team about three hundred dollars, such debt, would get the first chance, but that idea was exploded by the lawyers, and after that the Johnson interests decided that the best way "to queer the game" of the Wanderer owner would be for Johnson not to play tonight, which would break his contract with Portland for the present trip, so that there would be no money coming to him at all.

How this scheme will work out is difficult to say; but it is most likely that the Wanderer owner, even if this happens is not yet at the end of his legal resources to "get satisfaction" for the manner in which he has been treated.

WHAT REPLIES STATE.

At one o'clock this afternoon replies were filed in proper legal manner to the writs served upon them by the Montreal Arena Company, and George Kennedy, for himself and the Canadien Athletic Club, denying that they owe any money to Ernie Johnson.

The Portland Hockey Club, through Manager Savage, replied to the effect that: "They did not know how much they owed Johnson as his share of the Stanley Cup winnings had not yet been made up, and might not be made up till next week."

From general conversation in the Court House it was understood that the Stanley Cup money affair may be tied up for ten days anyhow.

JOHNSON'S STORY.

Here is what Johnson authorized The Star to say: "I speak to The Star because it has always been fair with me, and because I have known the people on it for many years. The stories circulated to the effect that I knew that a seizure on my money had been made last week, is a lie. If I had known it I would not have played at all, and I want to tell the people of Montreal that I will not play tonight unless I get a guarantee that I get paid all that is coming to me for this trip. Neither will I play in Ottawa or Quebec, where I understand other writs of seizures have already been served. I will, however, play in the United States, where I understand a writ of seizure cannot be served."

The two teams that are playing their fourth match for the Stanley Cup tonight are said to be in the best of shape otherwise.

ERNIE JOHNSON,

Former Wanderer Player, now of Portland.

BIG BOXING BOUTS READY FOR TORONTO

TORONTO, March 28 — The entries for the Riverside's big International boxing tournament, which takes place at the Arena on Friday and Saturday nights, do not close until tomorrow, but Secretary D. McDonald, of the local club, is already in receipt of forty-three entries, many of them new to local fans. Detroit, Pittsburg and Buffalo are well represented.

Seven classes, with the 118-pound class omitted, are down for decision, and the prizes will be the choice of diamond rings or solid gold wrist watches in each class. The second prizes will be silver wrist watches. For the battalion or club scoring the greatest number of points a championship shield will also be donated. A win will count six points and a second three points.

JESS WILL TAKE ON ALL THE SCRAPPERS

CHICAGO, March 28. — If Frank Moran wants a twenty-round scrap with Jess Willard, he can get it—providing the promoters will put up sufficient coin. The champion made this announcement today. "I'm not going to retire," said Willard. "After my circus engagement of forty weeks, I'll take on the scrappers."

Jess is to get $1,000 a week from the circus. He will start on the tour after a two week's rest.

U. S. THREATS AGAINST HOCKEY CLUBS IN CANADA

Special to The Montreal Star.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 28.—Julian T. Fitzgerald, of Chicago, president of the Western Skating Association, and secretary-treasurer of the American National Hockey Association, conferred here yesterday with the president of the organization, Roy D. Schooley, of this city, to formulate further plans to bring hockey in the United States under one governing body.

Fitzgerald and Schooley conferred with Ray C. Johns, manager of the St. Paul team, who is also a vice-president of the United States Hockey League, and who had power to represent that organization at the conference. At the conclusion of the meeting Fitzgerald announced that prospects are very bright, and that the officers of the new organization are highly elated over the progress which has been made.

"We have received assurances from Mr. Johns that his league will go into this movement to bring all the hockey clubs in the United States into one organization," said Fitzgerald.

"The principal object of the movement now under way is to organize all the hockey interests in the United States so that we will have some power when we act and that one club will stand back of the others. An American hockey team, the St. Paul team, won the Art Ross Cup fairly and squarely. The Canadian hockey authorities have refused to turn it over. If we were all allied together it would not take long to bring them to their senses.

PRESENT PRIZES FOR WINTER SPORTS

A large audience gathered at the Mount St. Louis College Saturday afternoon to view the presentation of the prizes won recently at the winter sports meeting. A. Desjardins, of the senior class, was presented with a handsome silver cup, while A. Goertin won a handsome medal, donated by Henry Birks for the hurdle race. R. Garceau, who won the senior backwards race, secured a silver cup.

"PADDY" LAVIN SHOT.

BUFFALO, N.Y., March 28.—"Paddy" Lavin, a former boxer, was shot and seriously wounded early this morning. In a statement to the police, Lavin said he was warned yesterday that a New York gunman had been hired to kill him.

Last September Lavin was indicted on a charge of attempted murder for the shooting of William Kennedy, a saloon keeper, but was acquitted by a jury.

It is reported that the U. S. Department of Agriculture is experimenting with wire grass as a source of supply for pulp for making paper, in place of poplar or liriodendron. This variety of grass grows on the Pacific Coast and in western Mexico, possesses the desirable property of toughness and can be reduced by the soda process.

Brilliant Butterfly Skating Ballet to Enhance Attraction of Amateur Patriotic Hockey Match at Arena Tomorrow

The Ross Challenge Trophy was captured by the Sons of Ireland of Quebec last night, and as there is apparently nothing irregular about the Quebec team, they are liable to keep it till next year.

Tomorrow night, however, these new cupholders are going to play a three period match against the strong Loyola College team, College champions, for the benefit of the Patriotic Fund.

Not only may an excellent match be expected, but the public will be able to witness what thus far has only been divulged to the members of the exclusive and fashionable Winter Club, namely the grace and artistic finish of the work on ice of four well known society young ladies who are considered amongst the most accomplished fancy skaters in Canada, and are going to perform the celebrated Butterfly Skating Ballet for this particular occasion.

The band of the Fifth Royal Highlanders will also be in attendance.

SONS OF IRELAND BEAT LACHINE AND TAKE ROSS TROPHY

Outplaying their opponents in every stage of the game, the Sons of Ireland, of Quebec, defeated Lachine at the Arena last night by a score of 6 to 1, and as a result the Art Ross Trophy goes to Quebec. Lachine were without the services of Liffiton and Chamaillard, but their places were ably filled by Leger and Penny, the absence of the men not weakening the team sufficiently to account for the defeat. The Sons of Ireland are a speedy aggregation of youngsters, who have everything that goes to make a hockey player.

The game was clever and fast throughout, and there was almost a complete absence of rough play, but the Lachine players were not able to stand the pace set for them.

From the commencement of the play Sons of Ireland were the aggressors. They tallied the first goal and, although it was tied by Leger before the expiration of the period, the locals could never show in front. During the second period the visitors bewildered their opponents with their speedy skating and their back-checking, which soon had a telling effect on the defenders.

Shortly after the commencement of second period McNaughton scored the goal that broke the tie existing at the conclusion of the opening period. This started the winners on their victorious march, and they piled up their total to 4 to 1 before the finish of the second session. Changing over for the final twenty minutes, McNaughton again started the scoring, while Lonergan added another before the call of time. Lonergan is a lad who played with the champion Loyola College team this season.

The teams, summary and penalties:

Sons of Ireland.		Lachine.
Fuller	Goal	Penny
McDonald	Defence	Norton
Lonergan	Defence	Leger
McNaughton	Centre	O'Grady
Carey	Wing	Penny
Laroche	Wing	Tannahill

Referee—Harry Hyland.
Judge of play—Cooper Smeaton.

SUBSTITUTES.
Sons of Ireland — Chris. Malone, Shink, Thompson, Staton, Delaney and Brophy.
Lachine—Godel, Roberts, Lavalee and Anderson.

THE SUMMARY.
The following is the way the goals were scored:

First Period.

1—Sons of Ireland	Carey	7:55
2—Lachine	Leger	1:05

Second Period.

3—Sons of Ireland	McNaughton	7:20
4—Sons of Ireland	Carey	3:30
5—Sons of Ireland	McNaughton	8:40

Third Period.

6—Sons of Ireland	8:25
7—Sons of Ireland	10:05

Final score—

AMERICAN BOXERS CAPTURE CUPS IN DANISH CONTESTS

By Canadian Press.

COPENHAGEN, March 27, via London, March 27.—The American pugilists who are taking part in a series of tournaments in Scandinavia, and last week won the American-Norwegian championships in all three classes, fought their second bouts in Copenhagen today.

In the 125-pound class John Maloney, of Philadelphia, knocked out Cleveland Holm, a Dane, in the first round.

In the welterweight class, John Karpenski, of Cleveland, won from Harald Bahnson, a Dane, in a close match.

In the heavyweight class, William Spengler, of New York, was defeated by Valdemar Jensen, who also won from the American in their match here two weeks ago.

Maloney, after knocking out Holm, won a bout from Emanuel Jacobsen, who gave him a hard fight.

All the winners received silver cups from the Sparta Club.

SPALDING MONTEFIORE ASSOCIATION BASEBALL LEAGUE HELD ANNUAL MEETING. TERDAY.

The annual meeting of the Spalding Montefiore Association Baseball League was held last week-end at the Y. M. H. A. club rooms on St. Urbain street.

The meeting was largely attended, and was a great success in every particular, the different clubs which will represent the several sections of the association, being represented by business-like delegates who got right down to work as soon as the meeting was called to order, the result being that the election of officers and all other preliminary business was soon disposed of. It was decided at this convention that the meeting to arrange the different schedules, will be held on April 9, at the same place of meeting.

During an informal discussion in regard to the coming season and the plans for same, it was stated that there will be three leagues, viz., Senior, Junior and Juvenile.

The utmost enthusiasm already prevails among the clubs and their friends and supporters, and the final winners of the Spalding Silver Medals, will certainly earn their honors.

Following is the officers elected at the meeting:
Hon. Patron, Ald. L. Rubenstein.
Hon. president, Ald. Blumenthal.
President, Champlain Provencher.
Vice-president, Robert Silverman.
Treasurer, Mr. T. Wall.
Secretary, A. Schwartz.

The following clubs were represented: Y. M. H. A., Montefiore Popular, Young Canadian, Maccabean and Juvenile City.

As other clubs not represented at the meeting have expressed a willingness to join it is probable that two or more clubs will be admitted in the next few days.

It was suggested by President Provencher that a Midget League composed of players under fifteen years of age be organized in connection with the association, as every one knows there are lots of first class ball players of that age among the Hebrew boys in Montreal, but some of them have joined other clubs, and others are not playing at all, because there has been no properly organized, properly scheduled league for them. Mr. Provencher's object is to get hold of these boys and get them again thoroughly interested in baseball by enrolling them under the Spalding Banner and offering them the same prizes for competition as are being given to the other Spalding Montefiore Association Baseball Leagues champions.

Any clubs wishing to join any of these leagues can communicate with Mr. Provencher at 371 St. Catherine street west, during the coming week.

Only Two Teams Represented at Can. Ball Meet

Special to The Montreal Star.

LONDON, Ont., March 28.—London and Guelph alone were represented at the meeting of the Canadian League Magnates called to discuss the prospects for next season. Little progress was accordingly made, but another session is to be held on Thursday next in Brantford in response to a request of Tom Nelson.

The scheme to bring some of the clubs of the old South Michigan League in with the west end clubs of the Canadian circuit was discussed. One of the London directors argued that the Canadian League should be allowed to rest for a year under the arrangement proposed a year ago by the governing body. Players in the meantime would be allowed to sign up elsewhere, but would be compelled to return to their owners in the Canadian League upon resumption of operations here.

Hamilton wired after the close of the meeting stating that the desire there is to lock up the circuit for a year, in the hope that the war would terminate before another season comes around. Nelson, of Brantford, in his message requesting a meeting in his city, Thursday, promised attendance of delegates from Brantford, London, Guelph and Hamilton. It is expected that the Michigan plan will be offered in definite form. Notwithstanding this move, there is a pretty well defined idea in London that there will be no pro-ball here this year.

TORONTO, March 27.—President J. P. Fitzgerald resigned on Saturday as head of the Canadian League. His chief reason for taking this step is that he has not time to look after the position on account of his military duties.

Leafs Arrange Games.

TORONTO, March 28.—President McCaffery announced Saturday the following arrangement of dates for the spring training trip of the Toronto Ball Club:

April 3.—Report at Jersey City. April 10—Brooklyn Club at Brooklyn. April 12—Easton, Pa; April 14 and 15—Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; April 19—Springfield, Mass., (two games); April 20—Hartford, Conn; April 21—New London, Conn; April 22 and 23—Bridgeport, Conn; April 27 — Opening season at Newark.

CLOSE CALENDAR OF CURLING IN SOCIAL MEETINGS

The dates for annual meetings and smokers or banquets are now appearing on the bulletin boards of the various curling clubs. Heather's annual meeting is called for this week, Thursday, March 30, with a ladies' night and card party on Monday, April 3.

Thistle's annual meeting is also on Monday, April 3. The annual banquet of St. Lawrence is called for April 6. St. Andrews will hold a card party and smoker on April 8. Caledonia has selected April 11 for the annual meeting.

The business of the annual meetings is extremely important, including the presentation of prizes and the selection of officers for the coming year. The year has been a busy one, and the appearance of many new and young faces in the fighting lists, who have been lucky enough to capture their share of the prizes, has gratified the club executives.

The war has hit the curling clubs as hard as any, and more members are needed to carry the overhead charges along on the comfortable basis of pre-war days.

Additional members and more privileges to the green curlers is now the general slogan. This partly accounts for the splendid showing some of the green curlers have made in the big contests this year against more experienced players.

MORAN FIRST TO SEE FIGHT PICTURES

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The most interested spectator at the first showing of the pictures of the Willard-Moran fight was Frank Moran.

He watched the mill on the screen without betraying either approval or disapproval until the seventh round. It depicted him in a sensational rally, after Willard had battered him around the ring. The crowd cheered. Moran looked pleased.

He and his party slipped into the theatre unobserved. Moran's face is now almost without a blemish.

MINERAL WELLS, Tex., March 28.—Terry's four-base swat with two men on in yesterday's game has boosted his stock, and Manager Rowland plans playing the Rookie star at third regularly.

TEX RICKARD ALL SMILES.

Tex Rickard, the tall and quiet Westerner, who let no thought of cost stand in the way of his determination to bring Willard and Moran together, was naturally elated Saturday night over the result of his labors.

Smiling contentedly as he sat in his box and looked out over the brilliant assemblage that crowded the Garden, he said:

"Naturally I am delighted that this bout should have proved such a success. It took a lot of hard work to get everything ready but at the same time most of it was a sort of work that is fun.

"When I first started to promote this show I had no idea that it would amount to such dimensions, but when I once got into it I was bound to put it through.

"I have done everything in my power to give the spectators their money's worth and I hope that they are satisfied.

"Every one has been mighty kind to me here in New York and the city seems like home to me now.

"I want to express my appreciation of the manner in which I have been treated by the public, the newspapers, the Show Corporation and the Boxing Commission, and to extend my thanks to all of them."

Jess Willard Will Not Stop

CHICAGO, March 28. — With the heavyweight title and a wad of currency tucked away in his vest pocket, and his right hand in bandages, Jess Willard came home yesterday.

A crowd of male and female fight fans and a flock of photographers met him at the Union station. He paused long enough to deny New York reports that he will retire from the fight game, and then hurried for his home in Rogers Park, to give Mrs. Jess and the kids first hand news of the fight.

"Dave Lewisohn doesn't know anything about my affairs," Jess said when told Lewisohn had stated Willard would retire. "I'll fight again all right if they can coax me."

"How much will it take to coax you?" the reporters asked. Willard laughed but refused to answer.

WHITE AND WELLS MATCHED.

NEW YORK, March 28. — Charley White, of Chicago, and Matt Wells, of England, were matched here yesterday for a fifteen-round bout to a decision, with Edward Smith, of Chicago, as referee, at Kansas City, on April 6.

Spalding Knickerbocker League.

BEHRER WON AT BILLIARDS.

Behrer was the winner of last night's match in the Belmore Pocket Billiard tourney last night, scoring a victory over St. Jean by 150 to 73. A run of 28 aided Behrer in obtaining an early lead. Tonight Belleheumeur meets Lajoie in a 150 point game.

THE WEEK AT THE THEATRES

"WHITE FEATHER" GERMAN SPY PLAY VERY WELL ACTED

The man on the street cannot tell whether "The White Feather" holds the mirror up to nature or not, owing to his ignorance of the German terms with which the play deals; but if the man on the street was well represented at the Princess Theatre last night, he seemed to find the piece dull, for enthusiasm was not violent.

The story runs like a combination of Saturday supplements and a safe novel for the young. The hero, Christopher Brent, a British secret service agent, poses as an idiot, the better to expose a group of Germans who are smuggling important information back to their country. Because he can give no good reason for not enlisting, he is presented with a white feather.

Exit white feather and enter more talk, complications and explanations, of which there are abundances. The machinations of the spies are laid bare, as is their wireless apparatus hidden in the fireplace; delicate situations for the English are safely got through, or over; and finally the piece ends.

What makes it endurable are certain individual characterizations, the cast having been chosen with an almost religious fidelity to type, or what is commonly accepted as type. Albert Brown as Brent is really brilliant in the star part. Arthur Elliott as the pzomous, stodgy parliamentarian is equally accurate in a smaller role. Louise Muldener as Fraulein Schroeder is an adept at stage business, even as Olive Temple and Vira Rial show technical skill as Miriam Lee and Mrs. Sanderson, English and German agents respectively; more than skill these artists have no opportunity to exhibit. Geraldine Beckwith is artificial as Molly Preston and Stapletoe Kent as Carl Sanderson is inclined to rant—but possibly spies do in real life. Philip Hall is a natural Corporal Atkins and John Burkell as Fritz looks like a waiter, which he is obviously expected to do.

The program says, "The action of the play passes in fifteen hours." It really is not quite so long.

FUNNY ANTICS ARE FEATURE AT GAYETY

Burlesque in its most genuine form is to be seen at the Gayety this week in the presentation of "The Million Dollar Dolls." There are a host of funny antics performed in the lobby of the "Hotel de Gink" and a number of special vaudeville turns do not detract from the general performance but prove a pleasing and highly amusing diversion.

Lew Hilton and Lester Allen as Shimky, a nuisance and a tramp respectively, are the backbone of the show and are as untiring as they are successful in keeping the fun going. The weird and wholly unexpected antics of Allen are especially comic. The songs are catchy and somewhat out of the ordinary and are well sung. The costumes and chorus are attractive without being extravagant or vulgar.

Francis St. Clair, Edie Meadows and Adele Ranney are among the chief attractions of the female side, while Grant Gibson, Bob Ferns and Savo are indispensable on the other side.

GRAVEURE PROGRAM IS VERY ATTRACTIVE

The program which Louis Graveure, Belgian baritone, will sing in Windsor Hall on the evening of April 4, is herewith given. The concert is for the benefit of the French Red Cross and Serbian relief funds. Tickets are on sale at the music rooms of Willis & Co., Ltd., St. Catherine west and Drummond streets.

COURT SCENE IS LEADING TURN ON BILL AT ORPHEUM

The top liner in the Orpheum bill this week is undoubtedly Charlotte Parry, who gives remarkably clever interpretations of five different characters in a court scene which calls for quick changes of costume, voice and emotions. The scene is darkened with a circle of light in which Miss Parry appears on the witness stand, being examined and cross-examined by unseen voices representing the court and counsel. She has a great deal of ability, and the gift of showing it to the best advantage, while the climax in which there is an unexpected denouement, is cleverly done.

Jack Wilson, the black face comedian, is as amusing as ever. His brisk patter, in which he alluded to every preceding turn as well as introducing many topical allusions to the coming elections, kept the audience highly amused yesterday. He has two excellent members in his company, who both sing well. Marion Weeks, a young coloratura soprano, has a charming voice. Her notes in the higher register were exceptionally clear and flute-like, and she was encored again and again.

Ed Lavine, in a travesty of a soldier's life, does some clever juggling tricks, while Jack Ryan and Harry Tierney contribute several catchy songs which they have written and composed, and which found much favor. Schreck and Percival are good tumbling comedians. Evans and Wilson have a lot of fun with a baby carriage. Bicknel the clay modeller, knows his business well, and is clever, while the Pathe British Gazette contains pictures of Viscount French inspecting British troops, and also good views of Russian troops.

GREAT TALENT IS SEEN IN CONCERT OF YOUNG ARTIST

In the Y. M. C. A. Hall last night Germaine Malepart, still in her teens, came through the trying ordeal of a debut in piano recital with such a marked degree of success as to make one hope for great things from her in the future.

Miss Malepart's program opened with the Mendelssohn "Variations Serieuses" but, probably owing to a very natural nervousness, she did not quite succeed in this piece. In doing either herself or the music justice. The (six) Philipp "Fantasmagories" which followed, exactly suited the young pianist's style and it was in these that one first realized the beauty of her touch. Each one of these little sketches was given a clever and individual interpretation and one must not omit to mention the delightful pedal effects which she introduced into several of them.

The Rachmaninoff Prelude in G minor, Debussy's "Jardins sous la Pluie," Chopin's G minor Ballade and some Saint-Saens pieces all served to confirm the high estimate already formed of Miss Malepart's talent. As an encore, she played a Sibelius "Romance."

Miss Malepart was assisted by Honore Vaillancourt, tenor, who sang Diaz "Benvenuto," Moussorgsky's "Le Chef d'Armee" and an encore to the very evident satisfaction of the large audience.

Mme. Laurendeau was the accompanist.

The lowland region of Mexico, lying along the coast on both sides, is unhealthy. This section is known as the "Tierras Calientes."

"RETURN OF EVE" IS UNIQUE DRAMA AND WELL-PLAYED

There is something particularly appealing about "The Return of Eve," the play presented this week by George Driscoll's players at His Majesty's. The play is unique, original and charming, and offers a new turn to the versatility of the company, and one which they take with unbounded success. If congratulations were ever due to this company, they are due now.

"Eve" is a psychological and philosophical play based upon the theme that present day civilization is falling into decay and that a new race is needed for its salvation. There is no preaching from the next, the audience is told what pure love is, and how much better and more acceptable than the "thing which calls itself love" in the majority of the various "sets" in society.

THE STORY.

Adam and Eve are being brought up together under the tutelage of Old Winter in the depth of a forest, where no one from the outside world has ever penetrated. Those two, who since their early childhood have seen no other human but Old Winter, are young, innocent and happy as the day is long, glowing with joy in the free and wild life. "Love is life," they are told by their tutor, and they love each other without knowing the meaning.

Comes a stranger to the forest. Eve thinks he is beautiful. He wheedles her with stories of the great world beyond. Adam wants to kill the stranger—the serpent. For two acts then the audience follows the course of Eve through the drawing rooms of society—then Eve returns to Eden and finds the truest and purest love in Adam.

Under the direction of Mr. Webb, no pains have been spared with the scenic effects. "Eden before sunrise," with its gaunt rocks and running brooks is a wonderful picture. The other scenes are equally as good and pleasing.

Nothing more purely delightful can be imagined than Miss Templeton's Eve. In Eden she was wild and untamed, she was the same in the forefront of society when she forsook Eden for the world. She was joyous and happy in her innocence, but what a change when the serpent bit her and she tasted of sorrow for the first time! —she was fiery, dangerous, self-pitying.

Mr. Dix, as Adam in Eden, was as happy as his Eve. Of the world he was sceptical, almost hateful; powerful in his appealing to Eve to return with him.

Mr. Webb, as Old Winter, the tutor of the two children in his care, was all that a guardian could be. Spurning the world himself, Old Winter thought Adam and Eve should do so also, and to this end he fought hard.

Mr. Arnold as Seymour Purchwell —the serpent—was good. Miss Davis as Mrs. Bellamy Tupper gave a true impersonation of the haughty society woman. Miss D'Arcy as Clarice, her daughter, and the betrothed of Seymour, was pleasing. Miss Preston as Trixie, was the genial, jovial "sport" the character is meant to be.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up an existence on gluten products, should try a meal of any food or foods in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid excess which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and ant-acid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. Do not dose an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs but get rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and note remarkable results.—Advertisement.

The Storing of Furs During Summer

It is surprising what very little attention is paid to furs with the object of keeping them clean and fresh. The vast majority are quite willing to wear such articles so long as the lining is in the least way respectable. They allow dust and grime to accumulate to such an extent that the end of the Winter sees most furs in a deplorable condition. The average person has no idea how really dirty a muff is after constant use for a season, yet a great many people pack such furs away in the Spring with little or no attention to properly cleaning them. The first warm weather acting on the natural oil in the skins of such furs causes rapid generation of the moth worm, and the gradual destruction of the garment slowly follows. A thorough cleaning is absolutely necessary before muffs are stored away, and a cool, dry place to keep them in is a further requirement. During the Summer they demand attention and inspection to preclude damage by moths, as once the little worm gets any headway, it is very difficult to eradicate.

Very few private individuals can give proper attention to furs during the Spring and Summer months. Thorough cleaning and freshening and storage in cold, dry vaults is entirely beyond them, and added to the care is the continual danger of loss by theft or fire.

Our charges are modest; for which we collect your furs, clean and freshen them up, store in cold, dry vaults, insure against loss by theft or fire and deliver them on production of storage receipt whenever you desire, while charges need not be paid until you are prepared to wear your furs.

LARGE BEQUESTS BY GEORGE HAGUE TO CHURCH WORKS

Late Manager of Merchants Bank Provided for Various Institutions

Bequests to charitable and philanthropic institutions figure in the will of the late George Hague, for many years general manager of the Merchants Bank, who died in August last. The will was drawn up on November 29, 1906, and was made public yesterday.

The late Mr. Hague left an estate of about $200,000, and after the bequests outlined below, the residue goes to the five sons. The estate is made up of stocks and bonds and the family residence.

Following the ratification of a settlement made upon his wife, Dame Mary Frances Mitcheson, special legacies are made as follows: Montreal General Hospital, $1,000; Olivet Church, Toronto, $100 a year for three years. Then follow particular bequests: George Edward Hague, $15,000; the Rev. Dyson H. Hague, $13,500; Henry John Hague, $13,000; Frederic Hague, $13,000; Lawrence Hague, during his lifetime the net interest and revenue from the sum of $10,000, to be invested for the benefit of said son; Marie Beebe, wife of Lawrence Hague, $1,000; Henry John Hague and Frederic Hague and testator's son-in-law, Frank Scott, $10,000, to be held by them in trust for the benefit of Bertha Rachel Hague Scott, granddaughter; to his niece, Marillita Hague, $2,500; Minnie and Agnes Hague, each $1,000.

To the Rev. Dyson Hague, son, is bequeathed the family Bible, which was printed in 1588, and the testator requests that the Rev. Dyson Hague finish the publication of his (testator's) studies in Scripture as well as his literary efforts on the subject of capital and labor and other secular and ecclesiastical subjects.

The sum of $500 is left to a sister, Mrs. Mary Higgins, of Toronto. An old gardener, Robert Taylor, is granted a pension of $6.50 a week, for life, this amount to be payable also for a year after his death. The testator proceeds:

"I also bequeath the sum of $1,500 to the endowment fund of Wycliffe College, Toronto, in memory of my son's education there and his connection therewith. I bequeath $1,000 to the Canada Congregational Foreign Missionary Society, Toronto, specially to be used for the West Central African Mission of Chisamba; $2,000 to the Y.M.C.A. of Montreal for foreign work under the direction of the international committee of New York; $1,000 to be spent in India and a like sum on China and Japan."

The testator also expresses the desire that out of $25,000, the amount of his wife's settlement under marriage contract, and which reverts to the estate following her death, the following legacies be paid:

CHURCH SOCIETIES.

To the Church Missionary Society of England, $2,000; the London Missionary Society, $2,000; and to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, $2,000.

The will proceeds: "I hereby bequeath to the Art Association of Montreal my oil painting, 'The Entrance of a Ship Into Havre.'

Will Name Curator of Children Whose Parents Were Killed

Echoes of a double tragedy wherein a wife, learning that her husband had been killed at his work, is supposed to have thrown herself before an incoming train, were recalled in the courts yesterday, han the petition of Antonio Mercuri, asking that he be named curator to the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Caruso, was granted. Mercuri is the father of the godfather and godmother of the children.

Caruso, while at work in the Toilet Laundry Company, was caught in a machine and suffered such injuries that he died a short time later. His wife, distracted over his sudden demise, lost her mind, it is supposed, and a few days later threw herself in front of an incoming Grand Trunk train and was crushed to death.

Mercuri claimed that both the Toilet Laundry and the G. T. R. were liable in damages for the death of Caruso and his wife. As their children were infant minors, it was expedient that a tutor be appointed to settle or compromise the claims against these companies. Hence he asked that a meeting of relatives be convoked to name such a tutor.

The petition was granted.

Headache

Stomach Trouble, Biliousness, Dizziness

Sick Headaches. Always trace them to lazy liver or a sick stomach. Poisonous matter, instead of being thrown out, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, awful throbbing, sickening pain. CASCARETS remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the poison move on and out, and purifying the blood. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies whose sensitive organisms are especially prone to sick headaches need not suffer for they can quickly

TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1916.

A BRITISH VICTORY — RUSSIA AND THE DARDANELLES.

THE British have succeeded in "mining" and capturing the German salient at St. Eloi. This is a valuable gain, looking to the coming spring offensive. It closes one gate through which the Germans might have debouched, and "wipes something off the map" whose erasure was a necessary preliminary to a British advance. We may assume that the ground is drying up a bit in this area, though the fact that our gain was made by mines rather than by mobile artillery prevents this movement from being an evidence of that fact. But the spirit of advance was shown—the eagerness of our boys to come to the help of the French at Verdun. When the ground really dries, so that artillery can be moved, then look out!

* * * * *

The fascination of the Verdun struggle still draws the eyes of the world, though dramatic incidents are becoming rarer. The Germans continue to hammer all the French positions with artillery, possibly to leave them in doubt where the next serious attack will arrive. But they are shelling Verdun itself—always a wanton gesture of despair. The fact, however, that they can drop incendiary shells into the residential and commercial districts of Verdun, shows again that they can harass the sole railway that supplies the gallant garrison holding out in the ring about that venerable city; and this is the only dangerous gain they have made with all their fighting.

* * * * *

Our cables are burdened these days with the news of the sinking of unwarned ships. It is nearly always a matter of debate—though seldom of real doubt—whether or not they have been torpedoed. One thing is proven, however, and that is that the Germans have genuinely begun their murderous and cowardly campaign of stabbing from the ocean's depths at the vital parts of unsuspecting merchantmen. There could not thus suddenly and simultaneously occur such an epidemic of mine accidents. The fiends are at their dastard deeds; and unarmed and non-combatant passengers, men, women and children, are strangling in the cold waters. This is not war—it is pure pagan savagery. How a great Christian nation, like the United States, can stand aside and watch it without protest, we cannot imagine. We do not, indeed, believe that our good neighbors can or will.

* * * * *

The statement of M. Sazonoff, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the Duma yesterday, touching the future status of the Dardanelles, is most important. M. Sazonoff says that there is no agreement between the Entente Allies for the neutralization of the Dardanelles, adding that no such agreement would satisfy the Russian people, who felt that it was absolutely necessary that Russia should have a free exit to the Mediterranean. There is nothing new in this. We have always known that Russia fought for no other one object more determinedly than for her outlet from the Black Sea to the wandering waters of the whole wide world.

But there have been rumors of late that Russia had made a voluntary sacrifice of this objective in order to quiet the apprehensions of the Roumanians and the Bulgars. It was even hinted that she might be making peace with the Turks on some compromise over Constantinople. We have never credited these rumors in the "Star." Our readers will recall that. And now we have M. Sazonoff's positive denial. It would be wholly unreasonable, we have always contended, to expect Russia to make the enormous sacrifices which have been and will be necessary to win this war, and then expect her to forego her more coveted privilege of free access to an ice-free sea—to say nothing of her traditional longing for the City of Constantine.

* * * * *

There are some things that the Allies cannot give up to please any possible recruits. The neutralisation of this vital artery of commerce might be all very well on paper; but naturally a Great Power like Russia feels that so vital an outlet to her trade must be guarded by Russian guns. "Scraps of paper" have a habit of getting torn up when the guns begin to speak. An unfortified Dardanelles would be at the mercy largely of whatever people chanced to dwell on its banks; and an international police would fall to pieces under the explosive disruption of another great European War. Even the pacific Americans insist upon fortifying their Panama Canal, which is by no means so vital to them as the Dardanelles will be to new Russia.

TO HELP THE WOULD-BE FARMER

IT is an encouraging sign that prominent men in Western Canada are concerning themselves seriously with the problem of post-bellum land settlement west of the Great Lakes.

We have as yet no definite means of estimating what the West may expect in the way of an increase to her agricultural population following the war. Commissioner Lamb of the Salvation Army and other emigration experts from Great Britain assure us that the numbers of Britishers who come to Canada after peace is declared will be largely a matter of our own choosing. If we seek them in the right way they will come and make their homes in this country; if we do not the other Dominions or foreign countries will get the men who might have become Canadians. There is no reason, however, why not only the west but the east of Canada should not see a substantial return "to the land" from among our own ex-soldiers, very many of whom are either the sons of farmers or have themselves served their apprenticeship in the fields.

But as Mr. J. S. Dennis, of the C.P.R. Natural Resources Department in the West, points out, merely putting a man "on the land" does not make a farmer of him. Indiscriminate colonization of men without experience spells disaster rather than prosperity, and it is likely that many of the men who will desire to secure for themselves homes on Canadian farms will need training and at least some measure of experience to enable them to make a success in their new calling. It is here that the country should be able to render needed assistance. We have an excellent system of schools and colleges for the teaching of the science of agriculture in all its branches. Would it not be possible for the Government to make arrangements whereby special courses, terms and accommodation could be provided for the discharged soldier anxious to take up a Canadian farm? The suggestion has already been advanced that this should be done for the west. It should be of equal value to the east.

According to the Autobus element The Star two years ago elected Martin by opposing him too hard, and elected Hebert by not opposing him hard enough. So they get us going and coming.

Up to Friday Uncle Sam had registered only five hundred and seven volunteers to help catch Villa, and this, on the face of increasingly grave news from Mexico. What then becomes of Mr. Bryan's "million men between sunrise and sunset" doctrine?

On Mr. McDonald's own admission, his part in the Drolet street deal, considered in the best possible light, was that of a "spotter" who incites and participates in crime in order to make a case against a suspected criminal. While honest public opinion will never approve this kind of business, it is occasionally found necessary in the interests of justice. But there is no case on record where the "spotter" was thereafter elected to a position of honor and trust.

The mayoralty fight today is clearly between Lapointe and Martin, with the issue depending on the extent of the vote-splitting McDonald can accomplish. He can't cut into the solid Martin vote, and every ballot he takes away from Lapointe strengthens Martin's chances. The only sure way to defeat Martin is to vote for Lapointe. Even those who would favor McDonald, if he had any chance of election, will admit that Lapointe would make a better Mayor than Martin, and that it would be better to vote for Lapointe than to help elect Martin by voting for McDonald.

The letter in today's papers from Mr. A. W. Stevenson, accountant, is worthy of special attention. Mr. Stevenson has brought to the attention of the English citizens a fact which many might have forgotten. Mr. Lapointe has stood manfully in defence of the rights of the English minority in the Council. Although a true-hearted French-Canadian, Mr. Lapointe has never feared to stand for justice and fair play to the minority. By English Aldermen in the Council he is highly respected, and it is said of him that he has never given a vote that could in fairness be assailed. That is a great record.

A DUBLIN FUSILIER.

As he came down from the hills that mornin'
And head uplifted, he passed us by,
Did he hear in his heart the banshee's warnin'?
Did he mind the tear in his father's eye?

As he came marchin' from Gurth-na-meinen
Brave in his khaki, erect and tall,
He turned and saw, as he passed Kilsynon,
The hurling-field where he oft played ball!

He heard once more at the cross of Garted
The haunting lilt of a piper's tune,
Where he had danced with one long departed
A night long-vanished, in leafy June!

Mother of God! as he went to slaughter,
Clad in his khaki, so young and gay,
Did he hear the lappin' o' the blood-dyed wather,
Who died a hero at Suvla Bay?

—James B. Dollard.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

A Crime Against Civilization.

St. Louis Star.—The time is coming when neutrals will rise up in a body and demand that torpedoing of ships be stopped. It is a crime against civilization, not only in the inhumanity of it, but in the destruction of the agencies of commerce upon which the world must rely for commercial interchange. It is indefensible from every point of view save the ruthless subordination of everything in war to the demands of success.

Wanted, a Cromwell.

London Telegraph:—If certain members of Parliament believe it to be their duty to start with the assumption that everything must be wrong, and that our rulers are a pack of fools, we can only wish them a truer discernment and a better supply of brains. But if they persist in their foolishness, insist on their dubious right to speak, and waste the time of Parliament by their ignorant braggadocio, then they become a public danger to us and a help to our enemy. One sometimes wishes that a latter-day Cromwell might rise to curb by his masterful methods the exuberance of too voluble Parliamentarians.

A Spring Prospect

Washington Post:—Astronomers tell us that the strongest evidence of life on Mars is that presented each year by the appearance of a slowly spreading patch of green color, which they conceive to be due to the vegetable growth of the Martian summer. Equally striking, no doubt, would be the same annual miracle on this planet if it could be witnessed from a suitable distance. That mighty band of green seen continually in the tropics has already begun its expansion northward, and soon will sweep into this portion of the temperate zone, in which verdure of the forest will match the hues of the grain fields. And then will come garden making.

Shipping a Speculation.

Detroit News.—The end of the war will release the German vessels interned in many ports all over the world, and will restore the requisitioned British ships to commerce. The value of vessels will immediately fall. Competition for cargoes will be keen, and rates will go down correspondingly. Unless the purchaser of vessels has already made a profit on his investment he is likely to lose heavily. So much depends on the duration of the war. If it is to last for several years longer, buyers of vessels are likely to become rivals of Croesus. If it comes to a sudden end, they will lose enormously. Shipping is a speculation in which only those of large wealth are eligible to take a part.

Madness Dethroned.

New York Times:—Hegel believed that nothing was proved historically until it had repeated itself. Well, then, this was not the first time the Lord had sent out a great wind into the sea so that there had come a mighty tempest in which the ship was like to be broken up, nor the first time terrified mariners had cried out, saying: "Come and let us cast lots that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us." The lot was cast and it fell upon Grand Admiral von Tirpitz, father of German frightfulness at sea, architect of outrage, destroyer of Lusitanias, priest of horror. He was the exponent of Teutonic madness. His dethronement is a mighty victory for the forces of sanity, moderation and civil intelligence, which, by this sign, are rising in Germany.

Lord Derby's Position.

Westminster Gazette:—Lord Derby's complaint of the number of starred men is already finding many echoes. We have great sympathy with his point of view, which is that of the fisher of a stream who finds that all the best runs are preserved water. It would probably tend to a clearer grasp of the respective points of view if Lord Derby sat in the Cabinet and were responsible in the same sense as other Ministers not only for obtaining the men for the Army but for the entire carrying on of the nation in time of war. Lord Esher pleads that the Earl of Derby be given a free hand, amounting to a practical dictatorship If we are to contemplate any such thing it is certain that the man exercising dictatorial powers must be in the inner circles of the Government, and be cognisant of the whole position. A policy which is founded on the free hand without full knowledge would speedily lead to the very disasters it is sought to avert.

The Union Jack a Safeguard

Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph—The British boast that the Union Jack is a safeguard to their citizens the world over is exemplified in Mexico. One American woman testifies that the Mexican desperadoes not only have no respect for the Stars and Stripes, but that the sight of our emblem actually has the effect of inciting them to outrages. "I am utterly ashamed to admit it," she says, "but whenever trouble started we began to hunt for a Union Jack. It was by no means a bullet-proof shield, but it was the only flag I ever saw that Mexicans paid any deference to." In illustration she cites the case of a young Englishman who had committed suicide. Thinking he was an American, the Mexicans hurriedly dug a shallow hole and were about to put him away without ceremony when they learned he was an English citizen. The officer in charge immediately stopped the burial, ordered the body preserved, and for four days tried to get in touch with an English consul.

A Commercial Entente.

United Empire:—Sir George Paish has recently pointed out the financial strength of the United Kingdom, and has rightly remarked that, if we are selling our American securities, we are investing the money in our own Dominions and in Russia and France. That is true, and it urgently needed saying. But there is a corollary of the statement, and it is this—that the Dominions and our Allies have borrowed money from the British Government, and they will have to pay interest on those borrowings. (Belgium and Serbia, to whom money has been given unconditionally, are excepted from this statement.) Now if Russia, for example, has to pay to Britain year by year certain large sums of money until the debt is redeemed, she will also require to send us goods both in order to equalize the exchange and to cover her payments on the loan. She could pay in sugar, or agricultural produce; but this would mean an agreement as regards international commerce between the Allies, whereby we agreed to take Russian and not German sugar for the future. The policy of a commercial entente between the Allies must receive attention; it will be necessary not only to discourage German goods but to encourage Allied goods, and a fortiori, Dominion goods.

The Attitude of America.

London Morning Post.—The people of this country and the people of America are the inheritors of that common civilization which is the object of Germany to destroy. Upon its ruins Germany desires to construct a hideous prison of German clay, ribbed with German steel, and patrolled by German armed savages. It is the fate of America, whether she will or not, to make her choice between her own gods and the idols of Germany. The spiritual decision must be made, for there is no possibility, in the face of so gigantic a crime as the German crime, of suspending judgment. It is for this reason that the Allies look toward America with a natural and anxious curiosity. The practical test may come, or perhaps has come, in respect of a point of the law of nations. President Wilson has sufficiently defined the situation; and in so doing he has earned the respect of the civilized world. Those who believe that all war is the ultimate result of the pressure of purely economic causes, or, in other words, of the lust for gain, may here contemplate the spectacle of a great nation plainly warned by her President that she is confronted with the possibility of a war out of which she can obtain no conceivable material advantage.

THE PASSING HOUR

Two witnesses were at the Waterford Assizes in a case which concerned long continued poultry stealing. As usual, nothing could be got from them in the way of evidence until the nearly baffled prosecuting counsel asked:

"Will you swear, Pat Murphie, that Phady Houligan has never, to your knowledge stolen chickens?"

"Bedad I would hardly swear, but I do know that if I was a chicken and Phady about I'd roost high."

PREPAREDNESS AT HOME.

"Johnny Smith, why didn't you bring in that wood as you promised to do?" demanded Mrs. Kenworth Allston Smith of her young hopeful. "Because," replied Johnny, "I changed my mind; President Wilson changed his mind on preparedness and papa thinks he did perfectly right." "Changed your mind, did you?" said Mrs. Kenworth Allston. "Well, you just get busy, or I'll show you that I am always prepared."—From the Atchison Globe.

"Papa," said the hopeful youth, "can you tell me what is natural philosophy?"

"Of course I can," said papa, proud and relieved to find that there was at last something he could tell his offspring. "Natural philosophy is the science of cause and reason. Now, for instance, you see the steam coming out of the spout of the kettle, but you don't know why or for what reason it does so, and——"

"Oh, but I do, papa," chirped the hope of the household. "The reason the steam comes out of the kettle is so that mamma may open your letters without you knowing it."

"What profession do you think your boy Josh will choose?" "Law," replied Farmer Corntossel. "Josh kin talk louder an' longer when he's got the wrong side of an argument than anybody I ever heard."—Washington Star.

"Are you going to the musicale at the Robinson's tonight?"

"I don't know. Are they going to have music or is Josephine going to sing?"—Pittsburg Post.

Story telling was in progress in the village pub., and the next in turn was a railway plate layer. Round him gathered an expectant audience.

"It was just such a night as this," he began, "bright and clear, with a touch of frost. I was going down the line, when I saw before me, lying right across the rails, a great beam! For a moment my heart stood still. Then a distant rumble warned me that the midnight mail was approaching. With a great effort I flung myself between the obstruction and the line, and the great train passed unharmed."

There was a thoughtful silence after he had finished speaking. Then somebody said:

"If you couldn't lift the beam, how did the train get over it?"

"Yes," another interposed, "and if you flung yourself between the obstruction and the express, why didn't you get killed?"

"Both questions are easily answered," said the plate layer, sidling toward the door. "The obstruction was a moonbeam, and I jumped forward as that my shadow took its place. Then——"

He got outside just in time.

An easterner who had bought a farm in California had heard of his neighbor's talent for raising large potatoes, so sent his farmhand over to get a hundred pounds.

"You go back home," answered the talented farmer to the messenger, "and tell your boss that I won't cut a potate for any one."

The late Li Hung Chang

Shanghai, March 28. — Li Hung Chang sailed from here today on his journey via San Francisco to Russia, whither he goes to attend the coronation of the Czar."—From The Montreal Star, March 28, 1896.

The late Li Hung Chang (1823-1901) showed marked ability from his earliest youth, taking the highest degrees in the Imperial Hanlin College.

He organized a regiment which did good service to the Imperial cause when the central provinces of the Empire were invaded by rebels, and for subsequent military exploits he was made governor of Kiangsu, decorated with the yellow jacket and created an earl. Later he was appointed viceroy of Hukwang and then, the same post to the metropolitan province of Chihli, justifying his appointment by the energy with which he suppressed the anti-foreign sentiment among the people.

To his duties of viceroy were added those of the superintendent of trade and for many years he practically conducted the foreign policy of China. In 1900 the suppression of the Boxer movement was mainly owing to his exertions for peace.

He was a scholar of wide attainments and a fluent linguist.

"Victoria, B.C., March 28.— British Columbians had hoped to enjoy the distinction of being pioneers in the practical employment of horseless carriages, but so serious an objection has been developed since the bill in this connection has been laid before the Legislature that its fate appears to be sealed."— From The Montreal Star, March 28, 1890.

"London, March 28. —'Oxford wins! Dark Blue a winner! Oxford forever!' These and like cries told of the result of today's race. Oxford won by quarter o' a length. Betting had been in favor of Cambridge."—From The Montreal Star, March 28, 1896.

Mr. Law's Imperial Parliament

By Henry Dalby.

The Colonial Secretary, Mr. Bonar Law, expresses the hope that as the direct result of the war there may come an Imperial Parliament in which every one of the Dominions will have its full share of representation allotted in accordance with population and resources, and its corresponding voice in the Government of the Empire. There will be a very general sympathy with this idea throughout the Empire; but the devising of this Imperial Constitution will be a task compared to which the framing of the United States Constitution or the British North America Act, was child's play. This is not said to discourage the idea by any means; but it is just as well to look the difficulties in the face. Something of the thing is essential to the preservation of the British and the principles for which it stands. None of the difficulties are insuperable if a certain amount of common sense is presupposed, and if a reasonable elasticity is provided for. A British Constitution without anomalies and departures from fixed principles is unthinkable. The parliamentary franchise of the United Kingdom is theoretically suffered to be allotted on the principle of representation by population. But if that were rigidly adhered to, it would play the mischief with the Irish parliamentary party. Then if the new constitution is to be based upon military and financial services rendered, or upon recognition of the respective needs of different parts of the Empire for defensive purposes; it is impossible to deny to India its fair share in the representation It is still more impossible to concede to India a share of the representation proportioned to her population. That would be to swamp all the rest of the Empire. Fortunately the average East Indian doesn't care a button about the electoral franchise. Government by debating society does not appeal to him. He can understand the rule of his native prince; he has confidence in the British Resident, and is loyal to the Empire of India. But the ruling classes of India are clearly entitled to recognition and to representation in the new Imperial Parliament.

It is clearly a case for give and take rather for too rigid adherence to logic and rule. Mr. Law himself evidently has some notion of this kind, because while he speaks of every one of the Dominions having its full share of representation, he is careful to add "in accordance with population and resources." Other qualifying considerations will naturally suggest themselves; such for instance as education capacity and habit of thought. I have always taken the ground that any form of Imperial Federation must come as a growth, rather than as ready-made or cut and dried scheme. The ideal for imitation is the unwritten constitution of the Mother of Parliaments giving as it does such constant facilities for revision and development. "broadening out from precedent to precedent." We must bear in mind that it is absolutely impossible to make an allotment of representation which shall be at one strictly in accordance with population and strictly in accordance with resources that is obviously out of the question.

But obstacles are like pie crusts when they are in the way of important reforms; they are made to be broken. Some form of Imperial Union is necessary not only for the common defence, but in the interest of the trade and commerce of the whole Empire The scheme will call for a high order of statesmanship, but surely that can be found, and Canadians with their experience in federation and in the working of a federal constitution should be able to do their share.

The Call to Arms

Dominion men, young, brave and strong,
Abjure with scorn the listless throng,
Stand by the flag that shields the free,
And hurl the Hun back from the sea!

II.

His legions face the British Isles,
From London Bridge not four score miles,
But British Tars and Soldiers brave,
By Heaven blest, are strong to save.

III.

Canadians stand not idly by
When o'er the sea there comes the cry,
"We want more men like those now here,
With lion hearts that know not fear."

IV.

Throughout the Empire's vast domain
The call "To Arms" comes not in vain.
The Fiery Cross flies far and wide
And millions march to Britain's side.

V.

Oh God of Battles! bless our cause!
And save us from the Demon's jaws,
For should he win, then Freedom dies,
Dies—never more again to rise.

VI.

Command the Angels of our race
Whose presence with us oft we trace,
To guard our Jacks and Tommies dear
And all our lads that khaki wear.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM A MAN WHO HAS TRIED.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—I am a victim of circumstances, and unable to help my fellow-citizens in the trenches, and it is on this subject that I would like to publish this small note in your valuable columns, so that it may be taken up by someone, and something may be done, and so show up the slackers who are loafing around the pool-rooms of this city. Now, I want to say since the outbreak of the war, August, 1914, to May, 1915, I tried to enlist for overseas service fifteen times, in which time I did six weeks' training in No. 4 Field Company Engineers, and also two months in 55th Company Irish Rangers; I was rejected from these, and also the remaining number of times through a defective right eye. Finally, seeing that I could not do my bit in the trenches, or home guard, I went to England to work on munitions; I stayed there six months, and at the end of which time, thinking that the eye standard had decreased, owing to the great demand for men, I came home to Montreal, December last, and in January I went once again to headquarters of the 148th Battalion, but was rejected again, making a total of sixteen times rejected. Now, what I want to come to is, why can't us fellows who have tried so hard to do our bit have something to show for it, such as a badge to wear on our coat, or something to that effect? I believe if these steps were taken it would increase recruiting a great deal, as these slackers then could not make their excuse that they have been rejected. I must confess that I have got a paper to show that I am rejected, but, of course, I can't wear that on my coat, and so save myself from being looked on as one of these slackers.

C. F. W., BRITISH BLOOD.

NO FLAGS FLYING.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

The Duke of Connaught honored our city Monday by an official visit, both as Governor-General and Field Marshall of the British army, to wish farewell to the 73rd Highlanders, one of the finest regiments that have left Montreal. I had the pleasure of standing very close to him, under the shadow of our City Hall. On looking back at the building, I saw the top surrounded by flag poles, but not one inch of bunting flying.

What reason for this?

GEO. T. GRIFFITHS,
1025 St. Catherine St. W.

Nearly every city and town in Germany is erecting some kind of a memorial of the present war. In the town of Unna, a 42-centimetre shell, made especially for the purpose by the Krupps, has been placed on a granite pedestal in the public square.

The Montreal Daily Star is printed and published at 143, 145, 147 and 149 St. James street, Montreal, by The Montreal Star Publishing Company, Limited, Montreal. E. R. Whitred, Secretary-Treasurer.

LITTLE STORIES for Bedtime
By T. W. Burgess

MRS. QUACK HAS A GOOD MEAL AND A REST.

(Copyright, 1916, by T. W. Burgess.)

There's nothing like a stomach full
To make the heart feel light,
To chase away the clouds of care
And make the world seem bright.

That's a fact. A full stomach makes the whole world seem different, brighter, better and more worth living in. It is the hardest kind of hard work to be cheerful and see only the bright side of things when your stomach is empty. But once fill that empty stomach and everything is changed. It was just that way with Mrs. Quack. For days at a time she hadn't a full stomach because of the hunters with their terrible guns, and when just before dark that night she returned to the Smiling Pool her stomach was quite empty.

"I don't suppose I'll find much to eat here, but a little in peace and safety is better than a feast with worry and danger," said she, swimming over to the brown, broken-down buiruswe on one side of the Smiling Pool and appearing to stand on her head as she plunged it under water and searched in the mud on the bottom for food. Peter Rabbit looked over at Jerry Muskrat sitting on the Big Rock and Jerry winked. In a minute up bobbed the head of Mrs. Quack, and there was both a pleased and a worried look on her face. She had found some of the corn left there by Farmer Brown's Boy. At once she swam out to the middle of the smiling Pool looking suspiciously this way and that way. "There is corn over there," said she. "Do you know how it came there?"

"I saw Farmer Brown's Boy throwing something over there," replied Peter. "Didn't we tell you that he would be good to you?"

"Quack, quack, quack! I've seen that kind of kindness too often to be fooled by it," snapped Mrs Quack. "He probably saw me leave in a hurry and put this corn here hoping that I would come back and find it and make up my mind to stay here a while. He thinks that if I do he'll have a chance to hide near enough to shoot me. I didn't believe this could be a safe place for me, and now I know it. I'll stay here tonight, but tomorrow I'll try to find some other place. Oh, dear, it's dreadful not to have any place at all to feel safe in." There were tears in her eyes.

Peter thought of the dear Old Brier Patch, and how safe he always felt there, and he felt a great pity for poor Mrs. Quack who couldn't feel safe anywhere. And then right away he grew indignant that she should be so distrustful of Farmer Brown's Boy, though if he had stopped to think he would have remembered that once he was just as distrustful.

"I should think," said Peter with a great deal of dignity, "that you might at least believe what Jerry Muskrat and I, who live here all the time, tell you. We ought to know Farmer Brown's Boy if any one does, and we tell you that he won't harm a feather of you."

"I've Seen That Kind of Kindness Too Often to be Fooled," Snapped Mrs. Quack.

"He won't get the chance!" snapped Mrs. Quack.

Jerry Muskrat sniffed in disgust. "I don't doubt you have suffered a lot from men with terrible guns,' said he, "but you don't suppose Peter and I have lived as long as we have without learning a little, do you? I wouldn't trust many of those two-legged creatures myself but Farmer Brown's Boy is different. If all of them were like him we wouldn't have a thing to fear from them. He has a heart. Yes, indeed, he has a heart. Now, you take my advice and eat whatever he has put there for you, be thankful, and stop worrying. Peter and I will keep watch and warn you if there is any danger."

I don't know as even this would have overcome Mrs. Quack's fears, if it hadn't been for the taste of that good corn in her mouth, and the empty stomach. She couldn't, she just couldn't resist these and presently she was back among the rushes hunting out the corn and wheat as fast as ever she could. When at last she could eat no more she felt so comfortable that somehow the Smiling Pool didn't seem such a dangerous place after all, and she quite forgot Farmer Brown's Boy. She found a snug hiding place among the rushes too far out from the bank for Reddy Fox to surprise her and then with a sleepy "Good night" to Jerry and Peter she tucked her head under her wing and soon was fast asleep.

Peter Rabbit tiptoed away and then he hurried lipperty-lipperty-lip to the dear Old Brier Patch to tell Mrs. Peter all about Mrs. Quack.

Today's Household Affairs
By MARY LEE.

Did you ever glimpse such fine courage that tears have come from a deeper source than those drawn by pity or sympathy?

Such tears came to me when I read a letter from a woman whose lot in life even the casual observer would call a hard one.

She had been a city girl, the product of a typical home, where the present, with its luxurious living, was the only thing that appeared to matter. She made a typical marriage in her circle, and for three or four years lived a typical life, with its round of good times—interrupted only by the birth of her babies.

Suddenly it seemed as if some spiteful fate resented this unbroken happiness. Her young husband fell ill, and the verdict was "serious weakness of the lungs, only hope of life in a dry climate." Her father was found dead at his desk, and it was discovered that he had lived up to his large salary, saving nothing. The mother died a few weeks later of heart-break and dismay at the outlook. Now, here is the letter which came to me:

"You will be wondering how we are getting on away off here in the hill country. My last letter was so unsatisfactory, but I confess that when I wrote it I felt just about as old and capable and unafraid as our young John would feel if placed in a like position of responsibility; that is, with an invalid and two small children on his hands. However, that is all over, if not forgotten, and we are doing splendidly. We found a little house about a mile out of town, with a big garden space in the back yard; and let me say right here that if the climate and soil live up to certified reputation we shall be practically living off the 'products of the farm' which I planted with my own hands. Dear old Jack was not up to much for the first few months, but now he is beginning to be really interested in things.

"You will be pleased to learn that I am called a 'notable housewife' in these parts. This is such a joke that I should love to be there to see your face when you read it. But I really do get on amazingly well. This is the way I manage. A woman in the neighborhood gives me one day a week, and we wash and iron and clean in that day. There is not much ironing done, for I have invested in cotton crepe even to the extent of pillow slips; and the only ironing is napkins and tablecloths.

"The other days I have it easy. I make the beds and get the house straightened early in the morning while Jack and the boys are getting breakfast. Then we feed the chickens and do some work in the garden. After dinner is over, and the work done up, I reserve an hour for myself and rest. I want to keep young and healthy and happy for the sake of my three boys, so I am going to take good care of myself.

"We all get supper and do the dishes. Even tiny Traddles, who is just three, helps. We are growing to love the life, and so, when you think of us, remember that we are very thankful and happy."

A SMART SPRING COSTUME

By MAY MANTON

8970 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Belted Coat for Misses and Small Women, 16 and 18 years.

8915 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance) Two-Piece Skirt with Yoke for Misses and Small Women, 16 and 18 years.

Whipcord is one of the best liked materials for spring suits. Here it is shown in a pretty shade of brown with trimming of tan colored broadcloth. It is a very smart costume and a practical one as well. The coat with plaits at the side and a belt holding them is essentially new and interesting. The skirt is made in two pieces with a box plait at the front and one at the back and with a yoke over the hips. All the suiting materials are appropriate.

For the 16 year size will be required, 2¼ yards of material 36 inches wide, 3 yards 44 or 2¾ yards 54 for the coat, with ⅝ of a yard 54 for the trimming; 3 yards of material 36, 2⅝ yards 44 or 2¼ yards 54 for the skirt. It is 2 yds. and 28 inches in width at the lower edge.

The patterns of the coat 8970 and the skirt 8915 are cut in sizes for 16 and 18 years. They will be mailed to any addres by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of 15 cents for each.

WHAT GIRLS MAY DO
BY JESSIE ROBERTS

HER JOB OR HEALTH?

"Dear Miss Roberts—For a number of years I have held a responsible position in a lawyer's office as stenographer and secretary. But overwork has told on me, and I must find something less exacting. Can you advise me whether I could hope to get a place that will pay a fair salary, but not take so much of my time? I thought that perhaps a position as social secretary, or a club position, or work in an office where the hours were easier and the kind of work less exacting, might suit me, and would not pay less. Only, how am I to secure such a place? Sincerely yours, RESTCURE."

My advice would be for you to change your work completely, even at a loss of income. There is no manner of use keeping on at the same sort of work if you are threatened with a breakdown. Even if the hours or the labor are less strenuous the mind, working along the same grooves, will not recuperate, nor will the body either.

Besides, the difficulty of getting a position if you are not in firstrate health is considerable. A social secretary, moreover, usually has a deal of hard work to face, and a club position cannot be described as a sinecure. No, you had better make up your mind to leave any notion of keeping along as you are out of the range of possibility.

Since spring and summer are at hand, why do you not try for a job that will keep you out as much as possible in the open air? A woman I konw who had your experience, and who realized that her future well-being as a healthy woman was probably at stake, sought a position on a farm. There she took care of the dairy and the chickens. She got her board and lodging and a small salary, and she learned all there was to learn of the business. She was outdoors most of the day, and the work she did was good, strenuous labor that brought her muscles into play and left her mind at rest.

She is back at her old work now, at an advanced salary, and strong, clear of mind, and fresh in energy. But she has learned a useful sideline, and she means, when she has a little more money saved, to follow it for her own profit.

Don't play any tricks with your health. Sacrifice a whole lot if necessary to get it thoroughly established. There are many outdoor jobs to be got, or even work with babies or children, that will take you out. Drop the office for a year or two.

LENTEN DINNER MENUS.

(Arranged by Margaret Currie.)

Clam Bisque.
Fried Frogs Legs,
with Tartar Sauce,
Boiled Potatoes.
String Beans.
Snow Pudding.

CLAM BISQUE—One can minced clams, three cups milk, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour, one teaspoon scraped onion, one teaspoon salt, one tablespoon chopped parsley, a dash pepper. Heat the milk, when it boils, make white sauce with butter and flour. Drain and rinse clams and put through food chopper, put into small saucepan with onion and heat. Add clams, seasoning and parsley to thickened milk, boil one minute, serve at once.

TARTAR SAUCE. — To a good oil mayonnaise, add a teaspoon each chopped pickles, parsley and capers.

SNOW PUDDING — Beat whites of four eggs until stiff, add one-half tablespoon granulated gelatine dissolved in three tablespoons boiling water, beat until thoroughly mixed. Add one-fourth cup powdered sugar, and flavor with one-half teaspoon lemon extract. Pile lightly on dish, serve cold with boiled custard.

We have the new Silk Taffeta Skirts, made with shirring at belt and trimmed with buttons to match. Taffeta is to be the "whole thing" this season, as you all know by this time, of course.
One big feature about these Skirts is that they are inexpensive. Mind you, I look at these things from your point of view as well as my own, and I think the cardinal point in everything is quality with price a close second. A combination of the two I call value, or in other words value is "what you get for what you pay."
Would you think me egotistic if I were to say that you get "most" in Almy's. Perhaps you would, but anyway I'm going to say it. You do, so there!

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENCE

MORE ABOUT CATS.

Referring to your correspondent asking about castor oil for her Angora cat, I would suggestthat she change the cat's diet completely and stop giving oil, as the after effects are bad. A little chopped, cooked liver twice a week alternating with canned corn, until the bowels are working regularly, then liver once a week will usually keep them in good shape. Cats are very fond of water, and a dish of fresh, cool water should be placed where they can always get at it. They should also have all the catnip they want. This can be picked fresh up on our mountain in the summer, and in the winter may be gotten for 5c a package at a druggist's. Angora cats are always most particular about themselves, continually licking and fussing, and they swallow large quantities of their long hair, which forms "hair balls" in the stomach and causes no end of trouble. To overcome this I keep a few oats growing in a window box, and when the little green blades are about three inches high give the cat nine or ten frequently, and this will cause them to vomit the hair, and pussy will show her gratitude in a dozen different ways. Let her have the oil whenever a box of sardines is opened. She will enjoy this, and it is particularly good for the stomach.

A CAT LOVER.

Ed. Note.—Many thanks.

HER PECULIAR MANNER.

(1) When an engaged girl refuses a birthday present offered to her, don't you think she is very odd not to explain her peculiar manner?

(2) Is it proper for a young girl of fourteen to attend a racecourse with her brother? He does not approve of her going too often, because she is very keen on it, and must have money in every race or she does not see the pleasure of going.

(3) Is there any harm in a party of friends going for a swim together? It is not a private affair at all. There are lots of nice people who go to the same place.

HONEST.

Ans.:—(1) As you do not tell me who offered her the present or what it was, I cannot answer the question satisfactorily.

(2) I should say it was a very dangerous habit for a girl that age to acquire.

(3) I should not think so.

SLAB-A-DOOR.

Your first five questions will be answered in "Notes and Queries."

(6) If the young man was introduced by your brother, ask your brother's advice about going out with him.

(7) Do not be in too big a hurry to call a man by his Christian name.

WHAT IS LOVE?

Letters on the above question have been received from C. Bradford, "Dina Jane," "Valentine," and "An American." I am grateful to all of these correspondents for their interest, but I have decided not to publish any more letters on the subject.

Actress Tells Secret

A Well-known Actress Tells How She Darkened Her Grey Hair and Promoted Its Growth With a Simple Home Made Mixture.

Miss Blanche Rose, a well-known actress, who darkened her grey hair with a simple preparation which she mixed at home, in a recent interview at Chicago, Ill., made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their grey hair and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound, and ¼ oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the required shade. This will make a grey haired person look 20 years younger. It is also fine to promote the growth of hair, relieves itching and scalp humors; and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair."—Advertisement.

McDONALD HAS SINISTER PLANS, SAYS LAPOINTE

Wants to Be Mayor to Help Newspapers Supporting Him and a Few Cronies—Ald. Lapointe Recalls His Plans to Load $53,000,000 on City's Debt

In the most aggressive speech of his campaign to date, Ald. L. A. Lapointe, candidate for the mayoralty, presented his program last night to a large crowd of electors of St. Joseph ward in St. Joseph's Hall, 141 St. Martin street, and incidentally presented the records of his two opponents.

Ald Lapointe eliminated Duncan McDonald as a serious contestant, on the ground that he was a schemer and promoter rather than a controller. The crowd agreed with him. As for the present mayor, the candidate said that he had been a humiliation to the French-Canadian nationality, with his "buffoonery," and his spectacular court actions.

"It is high time for a change," declared Ald. Lapointe. "Perhaps I will not be a great mayor, but I assure you that in changing Mr. Martin for anybody you are taking no risk at all."

Ald. Lapointe was very warmly received by the audience, but towards the end of the meeting supporters of Mayor Martin were in evidence, with interruptions and a few real questions. The speaker held the crowd, however, and ended a speech of more than an hour in a storm of applause. Other speakers were John Bumbray and Oscar Gladu, ex-M.P., who supported Ald. Lapointe, and A. Guy Ross, candidate for the Board of Control. The joint chairmen were Azarie Choquette and Edmond Sawyer, citizens of the ward.

IF HE WERE SO GREAT.

"I never dreamed that Duncan McDonald could be a candidate for the mayoralty," said Ald. Lapointe, dealing first with this opponent. "His two year record at the City Hall had not led me to regard him as a proper candidate. I am convinced that if he had not drawn an unlucky number in the controllers' lottery he would not have presented himself in this fight. Now I contest his right to do so.

"If he were such a good controller as his friends seek to make out, if his friends thought him indispensable to the city, they should have had him present himself for the Board of Control. But as a controller he had not left a very clear record, and you are aware that his election as controller in 1914 is still being contested in the courts. He is a candidate because of his ambition, or because of some new schemes either his own or those of his friends, or which make it desirable in their interests that he should be mayor.

"I eliminate McDonald in this contest, and I will ask you to eliminate him too. (Chorus of voices: "We will"). He is not the candidate of the citizens, but of a small group, an interested group, two newspapers, and a few contractors.

"Everybody knows that he is a promoter and not a controller. Why, during his term on the Board of Control the aggregate of money involved in his schemes against the city was $53,000,000. You know the names of these schemes—they are household words—the Aztec, where he voted for the highest tenderer, the Simplex, sister of the Aztec, Autobus, subway, tunnel under the St. Lawrence, etc., etc. And how many others did he work up with his lobbists about him?

"I do not wish to be too severe, but this is a fight, and I mean to tell the truth. I never saw a man with so much energy and determination to pass so many schemes at the City Hall, a man so unscrupulous, a man so fearless. (Applause). But the people will punish him.

NOT PEOPLES' CHAMPION.

"He, the man who is responsible for much of our trouble with the Tramways Company, since he made many of the contracts for the company with municipalities now included in the city of Montreal, is now posing as the champion of the people of Montreal against the Tramways Company. Now, if we did not know that he has in the back of his head the interests of another company, the Autobus, we might do him the credit of believing him sincere. But he did not pretend to study the Tramways question when that was up before the Board of Control. He just opposed blindly. He did not give the city the advantage of that experience in street railway transportation that he is supposed to have. His steady, automatic opposition was intended simply to make the scheme of the Autobus Company successful.

"There is plenty of proof. The scheme to have the city guarantee $3,000,000 bonds of the Autobus Company afforded proof. The debentures were worthless, and some of them were in the pockets of our controllers. Had the city fallen into the basket on that occasion what a rake-off there would have been for the speculators! For the lobbyists! For it was a speculation and nothing more. And McDonald was its promoter.

"What else did he do as controller but make bargains and compromises? One day he said to one of our controllers: 'Mr. Ainey, we must give the aldermen something to eat. They're famished.' Naturally, every alderman wants to get as much as he can for his ward, and that is what he meant by 'famished.' When money is spent so blindly it is only natural that an alderman should try to direct the expenditure towards his own ward. But that is a sample of McDonald's policy, always a compromise. Mr. Ainey repudiated the suggestion at once, and indeed he often disapproved of McDonald's proposals and voted against them. McDonald is not a real candidate for the mayoralty. The fight is between Mr. Martin and me. That is well known."

REGARDING MEDERIC.

Ald. Lapointe then dealt for a time with Mayor Martin, and especially with the charge made by the Mayor that Ald. Lapointe is a "Tramways candidate."

"My friend Mederic says that I am a candidate of the Tramways, but he says that as he says many things, without deliberation. It is quite evident that the Tramways Company cannot have two candidates for the mayoralty, and it is just as evident that he has been the representative of the Tramways. For two years he tried to pass his Tramways project.

"I think he is really their candidate, but disguised, of course. He was squarely against the people in his famous contract which must 'make or break.' But let me tell you that he never wrote or even dictated that project. It came to him from somewhere. As leader of the City Council he gave me the first copy. It was an honor. But I left it in my library unopened. He had to give up his project, and then he supported Mr. Cote's project. This for one reason and another, was abandoned, and then Mr. Hebert brought one forward. Then all three tried, in spite of the people, the newspapers, the aldermen, the Board of Trade and public bodies, to pass the plan. One day in the face of an injunction of the Superior Court Mayor Martin put the Hebert project through, all three voting for it. If he now comes and tells you he is a victim, it is a victim of his own folly."

His solution of the Tramways difficulty Ald. Lapointe outlined as careful and public study of any proposal made by the company, with the concurrence of public bodies, and experts, and a final referendum for the citizens. An increase in revenue to the city, cheaper fares, and extensions of lines for the outlying wards.

REGARDING MALONEY.

"De-tec-a-tive" Maloney was referred to by Ald. Lapointe.

"Lapointe is perhaps a Tramways man,' Maloney quoted a civic official as saying, 'but he declares that he will never pass a Tramways contract unless we have eight tickets for a quarter? Tell that to your famous detective, and tell him that the city official in question sued a newspaper that published the stuff and won his case.

"The Tramways question is one requiring a great deal of study" continued the speaker. "We should have experts if necessary, and perhaps we will even call in Duncan McDonald, who says in his campaign literature that he is an 'expert on street railways.'"

A voice: "Expert on Autobusses." (Laughter.)

Ald. Lapointe: "He was an expert with the Tramways Company when he maltreated the employes of that company and drove them to the point of a strike. The men demanded an increase of pay and McDonald fought them, and received the thanks of the company. When he left the company the employes were making trouble for more pay. They received their increase later, after he had left."

Ald. Lapointe returned to Mayor Martin again.

MEDERIC ONCE MORE.

"If you want the sort of thing you have been having at the City Hall, elect Mederic Martin," he declared. "If you want buffoonery he is your man. Look at his record. His name was mentioned in Judge Cannon's report as one of the aldermen who were involved in the great conspiracy to give all the contracts to one company."

Ald. Lapointe will address a meeting tonight in the old City Hall, Ste. Cunegonde.

"WOULD ARREST ME," SAYS MAYOR TO HIS AUDIENCE

Gives Unique Version of City Council Scene—Other Meetings

Mayor Martin has a nightly sensation to offer the audiences that assemble for his meetings. Last night speaking in Duvernay and Ahuntsic Bordeaux, he announced that some people were trying to have him arrested on a charge of perjury. During the Fournier trial the mayor gave evidence regarding the men who subscribed to his $10,000 gift; and now it was charged, said the candidate, that he had sworn falsely.

"They say they will arrest me Saturday," said the mayor.

An unique version of the scene in the Council Chamber after nominations last Saturday was given by the mayor. He declared that the hall had been "packed," and said that most of the hooting which appeared to be directed against him was really directed against Ald. Fournier. The audience last night appeared surprised to hear this.

An attack on Escar Gladu, ex-M.P., who is stumping for Ald. Lapointe, was a feature of one of the mayor's meetings. In 1914, he said, Mr. Gladu came to him and asked him to put through an expropriation for a park in Hochelaga, stating that if the thing did not go through, he would not be re-elected to Parliament, as the people would be against him.

MR. VILLENEUVE.

E. W. Villeneuve, candidate for the Board of Control, speaking in Duvernay Ward last night said that the Board of Control had had no right to call for tenders for stone on the eve of an election.

"Since they advertised for tenders to be opened tomorrow, it is reasonable to suppose that they intend letting the contract before election day," said Mr. Villeneuve. "They are about to commit another act of bad administration at least. Why should the city buy its supply of crushed stone when it owns one of the finest quarries on the Island of Montreal, where a plant that cost $75,000 is lying idle?"

Rodrigue Langlois, candidate for the Board of Control, spoke at two meetings in St. Denis Ward last night.

Gold, silver, copper, coffee, sisal, textile and other fibres, rubber, hides and skins, tobacco and sugar, form Mexico's chief exports.

ONCE MORE CROWD WOULD NOT ALLOW McDONALD SPEAK

Pertinent Questions Too Much for Candidate at St. Henry

SAYS HEBERT WAS WITH HIM

Discredited Controller, He States, Recommended Autobus Guarantee

It was a determined and hostile crowd of six hundred odd that Duncan McDonald faced in the old St. Henry town hall last night, and for about half an hour he tried in vain to speak above the voices of the crowd, while in the intervals came pointed questions about the Autobus Company and the Drolet street deal.

On two occasions the crowd turned their attention away from the candidate for about ten minutes, the first diversion being caused by a man fainting, the second by the efforts of two policemen to remove a too enthusiastic questioner, who had entered into fistic argument with his neighbor. So much time was lost at this meeting by the candidate trying to make himself heard that his second meeting in Ville Emard Hall was a very brief one. There Alban Germain took nearly half an hour to pacify the crowd, the majority of which went away as Mr. McDonald began to speak, leaving about a hundred odd to listen. His speech in Cote St. Paul the candidate had to omit altogether, for it was not until close to midnight that he finished in Ville Emard.

As soon as Mr. McDonald mounted the platform at St. Henry trouble began.

"I am not afraid of a storm in a tea cup," he shouted from the front of the platform, trying to make himself heard above the din. "Those who are interrupting me are fed at the tainted trough of the Tramways Company."

The shouts continued for a long time, and cries of "Drolet street" and "autobus" were heard all over the hall, while some cheered heartily for Mayor Martin.

Mr. McDonald picked out members of the audience, and challenged them to come upon the platform,—but finally went on with his now familiar story of the reign of good pleasure at the City Hall, "which began with a feast, and will end with a wake."

WANTED TO TELL A STORY.

He went on to say that forty years ago he did pick and shovel work for $1 a day in St. Henry Ward, but the crowd did not enthuse on the fact. When he mentioned Mayor Martin's proposed twenty-five per cent cut in the civic salaries, someone shouted, "But it didn't go through," and as in his customary way Mr. McDonald tried to humor the crowd by telling a joke, someone cut him off with "Lets get to business," a cry which was taken up at large.

"All right," said the Controller, and went on to give his time-worn explanation of the Drolet street deal. "I caught a whale with a fly," he repeated, and there came derisive boo's and cheers.

"How many of you are citizens of St. Henry?" asked Mr. McDonald. "You are all paid by The Star, the Tramways Company, and Marsil."

A man got up in the back of the hall, and called for silence,—and obtained it. "Mr. McDonald," he said in penetrating accents, "you are out of it. Go home, and leave Martin and Lapointe to fight it out. They are two Canadiens."

There was an outburst of shouting which lasted for ten minutes odd. "Gentlemen, when you've finished fooling——" said Mr. McDonald.

"Oh, no, we're not fooling!" replied a bass voice from the front row.

"Gentlemen, I challenge any one of you to come up on the platform and make a serious argument——"

"Bah, go and get Martin!" came back the answer.

A man rose in the middle of the hall. "Mr. McDonald," he said, "just now you called us all ignorant, that is why you can't get a hearing."

"I called my interrupters ignorant, and fed at the Tramways tainted trough," answered Mr. McDonald.

SOME WARM RETORTS.

He went on to appeal to that old French politeness for which Canadians are famous. "Go to Ontario for it," came a voice, while two others called out: "How's the Citizens' Association? He is sent down here by the big bugs." (Les grosses poches.)

As the Controller went on to speak of "the charge which you gave me when you elected me Controller," there was a cry of "Not us, here, don't blame us," and another outburst of cheering.

Mr. McDonald managed to deliver his hymn of hate against The Star, until a man at the edge of the platform produced a copy of the paper, and pointed to an editorial. "It tells us all about it here," he said.

"Tell us about the autobus," called out another. "Yes, what about the three million guarantee?" "You recommended that guarantee."

This last remark Mr. McDonald denied, stating that it was ex-Controller Hebert who recommended it. By this time a large number had left the hall, and others were filling out every minute. The Controller wound up his history of the autobus franchise before this fastly waning audience, some of whom still asked him questions, and then left.

Just before he concluded Mr. McDonald, in reply to questions, stated that he was absent in Europe when the Street Railway strike had taken place.

At Ville Emard speakers had a hard time humoring the crowd until Mr. McDonald arrived. It was Alban Germain who quieted them by sheer power of voice. But as soon as the candidate began speaking a large number left the hall, until at about 11:15 there were only one hundred odd left.

A STRIKING EPIGRAM

At a meeting on Thursday night, 23rd inst., in the Stanislaus School, there were two short sentences in L. A. Lapointe's speech with reference to the Board of Control which were unanswerable, and elicited loud applause. Here are the epigrammatic words which put the facts in a nutshell:

"The Board of Control was created to CONTROL expenditure by stopping schemes and dealing honestly with tenders. We will have to give a new name to the Board. McDonald is not a CONTROLLER. He is a PROMOTER, and a PROMOTER OF SCHEMES AT THE CITY'S EXPENSE.

"In the Drolet street deal he gave a pretty fair idea of the business he is in. McDonald has had schemes before the Board aggregating over $53,000,000. Tunnel for $20,000,000, Autobus bonds $3,000,000, railway under river some $30,000,000. He must have visions of 'get rich quick' for somebody. Is that the kind of a man the taxpayers want to entrust the city to when we are face to face with the necessity for retrenchment or higher taxes? There can scarcely be two opinions among people who are not carried away by hysterical appeals and who give any serious thought at all to the question."

N. B.—The schemes referred to were McDonald's own schemes.

REGINA PROBERS HEAR EVIDENCE AGAINST J. F. BOLE

By Canadian Press.

REGINA, Sask., March 28.—When the Edward Brown commission resumed after lunch yesterday, a charge against J. F. Bole, former member for Regina City, was taken up.

This concerned the alleged stifling of prosecutions entered against the Victoria Hotel Company, in consideration of the political support of Andreas Ehmann.

Ehmann was the chief witness and stated that in 1912, just before the election, two prosecutions for infractions of the liquor law were entered against him, and then, later, another two. Witness went on to see Mr. Bole, who told him that he was going to have his licence taken away because Ehmann was a Conservative. Witness said Bole remarked he had nine other prosecutions to enter.

Mr. Bole, on the stand, stated that Ehmann was bothering him for some time before the election with regard to prosecutions entered, and that he told him that he had nothing to do with them, and could not, and did not, take any action regarding them whatever.

Frank Brunner was called in rebuttal of Mr. Bole's evidence and related a conversation with Mr. Bole over the long-distance telephone at Winnipeg, when Bole said he was going to put Andreas Ehmann out of business. This concluded the case.

VOTES PROVE THE MAN

It is the voting record of members which is the acid test of their fitness for re-election! These official minutes demonstrate at a glance whether or not an alderman, or a Controller, has kept his election pledges and been careful to cast his votes absolutely in the public interest.

* * * *

It was at the meeting of the City Council on February 9, 1909, that the notorious "23" high-tender city fathers banded themselves together. At this same meeting the various civic committees were appointed for the ensuing year. Having a majority vote under their control the "23" proceeded to form the various committees in a way that they would be sure to pass reports which would suit the "23" in Council. The first step taken was to remodel the representation on the Finance Committee; The English members were cut down to two instead of three. Against this action Ald. Lapointe protested in the most indignant manner, on the ground that it was unfair to the minority. In a counter committee slate which he proposed, Ald. Lapointe aimed at punishing a number of members of Council who had been tainted with public scandal. This slate was voted down. All through the regime of the "23" Ald. Lapointe was found its most bitter enemy. He never lost an opportunity to fight their reports in the Finance Committee and in the City Council. Many of his votes in this connection are well worth recalling.

On July 5, 1909, the Road Committee sent a report to Council asking that various contracts for paving material be given to the highest tenderers. In reply to the request Ald. Lapointe denounced it as pernicious in principle to slight the low tenderers, and he for one would never give his support to any such way of conducting the city's business. He got a large number of aldermen to vote against the reports, but the solid "23" stuck together and the asphalt contracts were carried.

At the same meeting Ald. Lapointe voted against another report granting contracts for sidewalks to those who sent in the highest prices.

July 12, 1909, Lapointe made a motion in Council that the City Attorney be asked as to the legality of granting a contract to the highest tenderer for many thousands of bricks. The "23" voted it down.

July 14, 1909. The "23" faction made a motion that the closure be applied in order that a vote could be taken, without any more discussion, awarding contracts to various high tenderers. Ald. Lapointe voted against it, and entered a strong protest characterizing the action as an astounding act of force.

In Sept., 1909, he strongly supported and led the move for a Royal Commission to probe into the City's affairs. For this attitude he drew on himself the bitter enmity of the "23" which, later on, was so much besmirched by the Cannon Royal Commission.

July 3, 1912, at the meeting of Council, he voted against a proposal that Mount Royal Park should be so diverted that a portion of it would be used as a site for a civic library.

Oct. 10, 1912. Voted for the appointment of Mr. Laurendeau as City Attorney, and this despite strong efforts to divert his vote for another.

Jan. 19, 1913, a motion was made in Council asking a vote of condemnation against public bodies which had passed resolutions finding fault with the aldermen and their methods. Ald. Lapointe voted against the adoption of the resolution. He held it was the privilege of taxpayers to express any opinion they deemed wise on the conduct of those they had elected to Council.

March 10, 1913. He voted on this date and on various other occasions, against the widening of St. Joseph Boulevard. He produced figures proving that the proprietors were being paid immensely more for their lands and buildings than was justified.

Dec. 22, 1913, voted against another motion to divert Fletcher's Field.

Feb. 24, 1914, voted against a motion that new negotiations be opened up with the Tramways Company. The contention of Ald. Lapointe was that so important a matter should be left to the new City Council which would soon be in office.

March 10, 1914, cast another vote against the paying of an excessive sum for the St. Joseph Boulevard properties.

Dec. 23, 1914, voted against a motion asking increased remuneration for aldermen, and extending their terms of office.

Dec. 23, 1914, voted that the full Board of Control be asked what reasons they had to give, for a report by the Mayor, asking that the tax rate on realty be increased.

July 3, 1914, voted for reports being sent back to the Board of Control which demanded that various expropriations be undertaken. He was angrily assailed for this vote, by Ald. Menard and other city fathers who wanted expropriations to go through.

Nov. 5, 1915, voted against a motion asking that work be done on a public market without the calling of tenders.

March 9, 1915, voted against a motion that a protest, from the Trades and Labor Council, against the operation of automobiles on the mountain, should be sent back to that body. Ald. Lapointe contended that any organisation had perfect right to try and safeguard the park for the public.

April 12, 1915. Voted against a proposal that $184,000 should be paid for land in Drolet street. It was his contention that the widening of this street was not necessary, and that it was outrageous to waste such a large sum when the city needed money so badly.

May 29, 1915. Voted against another motion to purchase the Drolet street land. Speaking of this scandalous deal Ald. Lapointe declared in Council: "This land is worth nothing like four dollars a foot which is being asked from the city. I say it is not necessary that this land should be bought at all. The assessed value of the land is but $47,000, while a few years ago it was assessed only at $10,000; now we are asked to pay almost $200,000. It is outrageous. Let me inform this Council that in this final vote, today, you are doing something that will injure the whole city. Your votes may lead to the abolition of the City Council. The whole affair is a speculation, nothing else."

Oct. 6, 1915, Ald. Lapointe was one of the four, out of the entire City Council, who voted against the purchase of the Amherst Bath site which had been a subject of scandal on account of the high charge the city was asked to pay.

COMPLIMENTED AT ROYAL COMMISSION.

At the famous Royal Commission, presided over by Mr. Justice Cannon in 1909, to probe into the many scandals, the Royal Commissioner complimented the Finance Department with L. A. Lapointe at its head on the manner in which it had been conducted. Apart from the Finance Committee the whole committee system had been a failure.

In part, the words of the Judge were: "The proof adduced shows that the Finance Department is well organized and works satisfactorily." Ald. Lapointe was chairman of the Finance Committee at the time.

VOTERS, WILL YOU RECOGNIZE LAPOINTE'S PLUCK?

STEEL STRONG AND ACTIVE--MAPLE LEAF TORONTO FEATURE

STEEL MADE GOOD LEADER TONE STRONG

The local market started with a strong tone and despite the absence of any support worthy of the name from Wall Street, mostly maintained it throughout the first session.

Yesterday the tone was strong apart from a brief period of weakness in the forenoon, and the market is developing along the lines expected.

The steel group continues to absorb the bulk of public interest, and of that group Steel of Canada went far to the lead. Opening at 44 3-4 compared with 44 1-2 at the close yesterday, it worked up to 45 1-2 on active buying, the final transaction of the session being at 45 3-8.

There has been a superabundance of bullish material to put this stock higher, but there seems an ample supply to meet the demand on every advance. The stock, from the market standpoint, has been a consistent actor, and on the present showing of earnings is regarded as attractive. It is not a matter of surprise, therefore, that the Street will be keenly disappointed if it does not cross 50.

Scotia was more erratic in its price movements, opening at 104 3-4 and going to 106 1-4. After the first hour the advance melted away as far as 104 3-4, closing firmer at 105. The range yesterday was 104 to 105.

Iron made a good start at 46 3-4 to 47, but did not hold it, later selling at 46 5-8. The margin between Iron and Steel of Canada is now at the narrowest, and the old prediction that Steel would cross Iron appears easier of realization at the present than at any time.

Elsewhere throughout the list the dealings were restricted.

Cottons hardened again to 43 on the appearance of a few buying orders, after having reacted from 43 to 41 within the past few days.

Power was fractionally stronger at 233. The arrival of President Aldred here was associated in the Street with the long-talked-of Power deal, but there was no disposition to trade on the strength of this, although some announcement of the plans are expected shortly.

Other features were Textile 79 1-2, Detroit 88, Penmans 62 1-2, Ames 28, Cement 53, Steamships 19 and preferred 78, Quebec Ry. 18 1-8 and Spanish River 8. C. P. R. was steady in Wall Street at 167 3-4.

There was no trading in Bridge excepting in a couple of odd lots, but it closed firmer at 208 1-2 bid.

Opinions from Wall Street

Laidlaw & Co.—A general disposition to realize profits pending more definite developments in Europe and Mexico is still largely offset by t demand for stocks based on the prosperity in various leading industries.

Jenks, Gwynne & Co. — Pending a clearer international outlook we look for dullness to prevail, with occasional drives by floor traders who are bearish. We therefore believe setbacks accruing from these operations will offer excellent opportunities to buy stocks for quick turns.

Shearson, Hammill & Co.:—The market is liable to have narrow swings, but we cannot see much prospects of any real advance from present level at this time.

Burnett & Co.:—Covering by shorts caused sharp gains in the war stocks, notably Crucible, Baldwin and American Locomotive.

E. & C. Randolph:—The belief is now reported to be held in official quarters in Washington that the European War will continue for a long time yet, but that England is willing that there should be peace talk because of the effect that it will have in keeping munition prices down.

SHARP ADVANCE FOR MAPLE LEAF SHARES

There was a lively market for Maple Leaf Milling shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning as the result of the declaration of a dividend at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum and the announcement of an interim dividend of 3 per cent., making a distribution of 5 per cent. in all.

Yesterday the stock sold as high as 84 and closed at 83 1-2. This morning it opened almost ten points up at 93 and through the forenoon session touched 96 but later reacted to 92 closing at noon at 93.

Financial Personals

J. E. Aldred, New York, president of Shawinigan Power and Cedars Rapids Power, is here today conferring with head office officials.

Major Carsley and Lieut. Sheppard, of the 73rd, visited the Stock Exchange to bid good-bye to their fellow-brokers.

Can. Westinghouse Had Prosperous Year

HAMILTON, March 28.—The Canadian Westinghouse Company enjoyed a prosperous year, according to the reports submitted at the annual meeting held here today. The financial statement to December 31 of last year showed net earnings of $860,628. The company now has a surplus of $2,570,444 and is in a strong condition financially. A dividend of 9 per cent was paid during the year. Net earnings for 1914 were $386,113.

The following directors were elected: H. H. Westinghouse, L. A. Osborne, P. J. Myles, T. Ahearn, Sir John M. Gibson, J. F. Miller, W. Y. Soper, C. S. Sise, Charles A. Terry and G. E. Cripp.

LA ROSE PROFITS WERE SOMEWHAT BETTER

The ninth annual report of the La Rose Consolidated Mines Co. shows combined surplus of holding and operating companies at the end of the year at $937,490.

Results of 1915 operations compared with the previous year is as follows:

	1915	1914
Production silver, ounces	1,135,142	1,368,247
Net value	$526,996	$637,555
Cost production per ounce	31.64c	37.2c
Net selling price per ounce	50.88c	53.92c
Net profit	$230,662	$217,979
Dividends	(4%)299,725	(10%)749,313
Surplus	937,490	1,040,380

A year ago the total silver in sight under ground and in the dumps was estimated at 860,000 ounces. During the year the production amounted to 1,135,000 ounces. The only high grade ore in sight at present is a small amount contained in pillars in the La Rose mine; but in the extraction of this ore and in the general cleaning up of the mine, it is probable that other small bodies will be discovered.

The mill ore, of which there was 44,000 tons at the beginning of the year, has been reduced to about 10,000 tons. In addition to this, there are certain portions of the dumps which, while lower grade, may yield a small profit.

The net profit of $230,662 for 1915 year is considerably better than was anticipated a year ago. On a smaller production the profit was larger than in the previous year, and the cost per ounce was less. This larger proportion of profit was because of less money spent in exploration.

The price of silver went as low as 46 1-4 cents per ounce, and the average received during the year was only 50.88 cents—the lowest record in the company's history.

TONE STRONG BUT LEADERS LACKED FORM

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, March 28. — The stock market opened with irregular and slight price changes today, traders still showing uncertainty in the face of the Mexican and international developments. U. S. Steel was off ⅛ at 84⅛. War stocks were practically unchanged.

Crucible sold up to 88⅝, then dropped back to 87⅞. Sales for the first hour were 169,000.

Further uncertain tendencies were manifested, although advances outnumbered declines. Gains of 1 to 2 points were made by Continental Can, International Nickel, National Cloak and Suit and Phila Companies, while Crucible Steel and American Beet Sugar rose fractionally.

South Porto Rico Sugar scored a new high record on its rise of 5 to 195. Losses of a point were recorded by Mercantile Marine pfd., and Maxwell Motors, while Studebaker and Baldwin and American Locomotives as well as Western Maryland were nominally lower.

Trading quickened and broadened at higher levels before the end of the first hour, and speculation sought new channels. Such issues as Goodrich and a few relatively obscure specialties wrested leadership from U. S. Steel and other former favorites, Goodrich making a gain of 1¾ to 77¾. Later Crucible, American Locomotive and American Car assumed some of the recent prominence.

Elsewhere noteworthy movements included United Fruit up 3 and Cuba-American Sugar, up 16 to 245. Wabash pref. "A" was the active feature of the rails, and a general improvement was shown in that quarter. Bonds were steady.

Canadian Revenue Exceeds Estimates

Special to The Montreal Star.

OTTAWA, March 28.—When the fiscal year terminates at the end of this month, Canadian revenue derived from special war taxes will have reached the total of $175,000,000. This is about five million in excess of what the taxes were estimated to produce when they were brought down in Parliament.

PARIS CONGRESS GAVE LONDON STRENGTH

Special to The Montreal Star.

LONDON, March 28. — The market here for American stocks was steady and quiet, with prices ruling moderately under parity. United States Steel was ⅜ lower. Union Pacific and Southern Pacific and Atchison were fractionally lower while Southern Railway was ¼ higher. Consols were quoted at 57¼ and British 4½'s were steady at 96⅞.

Although a storm interrupted communication with provincial exchanges and caused a reduction in business on the Stock Exchange the tone was good on the prospective results of the congress of eight nations now in session in Paris.

Gilt edged securities, Argentine rails and rubber shares were steadier, but other speculative issues declined under realizing.

American securities opened below parity and closed uninteresting after narrow dealings.

Money and discount rates were quiet. Money, 4 to 4½ per cent. Discount rates, short and 3 months bills, 4⅝ to 4¾ per cent.

Dividends

TORONTO — Imperial Bank regular quarterly 3 per cent payable May 1. Books close April 16 to 30, inclusive.

TORONTO—Maple Leaf Milling placed the common stock on an 8 per cent per annum basis by the declaration of a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable July 1. In addition an interim dividend of 3 per cent was declared on the same issue, payable April 18. The usual quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock was also declared.

ROCHESTER— Eastman Kodak Co. has declared an extra dividend of 5 per cent on common stock, payable May 1 to holders of record April 10.

MAPLE LEAF MILLING ON 8 PER CENT BASIS

As announced in yesterday afternoon's late edition of The Star, the $2,500,000 common stock of the Maple Leaf Milling Co., Limited, was placed in the dividend-paying class when the directors, at a meeting held in Toronto yesterday afternoon, declared an interim 3 per cent out of last year's earnings, and announced that the stock would go on a regular 8 per cent per annum basis in July next.

The first dividend yet declared on the common shares, the interim 3 per cent will be paid on April 18, as the company's year ends on March 31. The first regular dividend at the rate of 8 per cent per annum will be paid in July and will cover the first quarter of the company's new fiscal year.

During the past year, dividend action by the company has been more or less expected from quarter to quarter. The withholding of a dividend apparently resulted in a policy more liberal than was anticipated a year ago, when the belief was that if dividends were then started the rate would probably be 6 per cent.

Press Opinions on N.Y. Situation

Special to The Montreal Star.

NEW YORK, March 28. — Sun: — After an early display of all around weakness, the stock market hardened yesterday and closed with a recovery which constituted a distinct display of basic strength in comparison when the first hour declines were considered. Trading was active at the beginning and end of the day with a long stretch of dullness in the interval.

Tribune:—After an early reaction, in which the more speculative stocks went down one or two points, there was general recovery in the late afternoon that made up most of the early losses and left prices irregularly changed at the close.

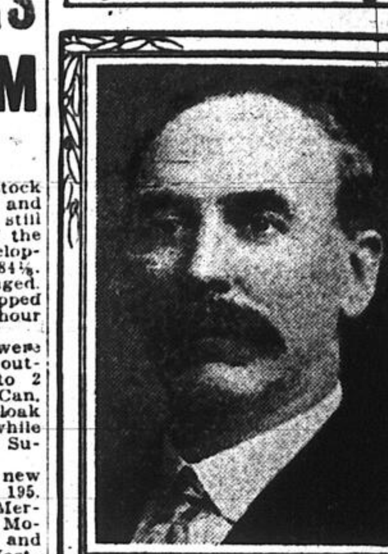
Times:— Conflicting news regarding the actual facts in the Sussex case and uncertainty over the consequences should it be definitely established that a German submarine attacked the cross channel passenger ship with a number of Americans on board, were the controlling considerations around which yesterday's stock market moved.

American:—A report was current in high banking quarters yesterday that a large loan for the Allies had been arranged by Morgan and Company, American railroad stocks to be used as collateral. This report was denied, but it was responsible for heavy buying of stocks in the last hour.

World:—When the Sussex disaster wore its darkest aspect yesterday morning the operators for the decline who have been raiding stocks a fortnight attacked all the most vulnerable points in the market in the hope of forcing liquidation, but with negligible results.

Press:— On a volume of business which was made up to a great extent of the operations of the professional element, stock market prices yesterday fluctuated according to the varying views in the street of the importance or significance of the latest marine murder in European waters and of the apparent lack of progress in the hunt for Villa.

Financial Men in the Public Eye



HEDLEY SHAW

Managing director of Maple Leaf Milling, whose shares have been placed on an 8 per cent. dividend basis.

Topics of the Street

The Canadian dividend record for the year to date has been a record breaker.

It keeps on growing from day to day and there will be a great many disappointed people if some non-dividend shares they are interested in do not get into the dividend news one of these days.

Yesterday's bear raid in Wall Street was about the weakest effort they have put up for some time.

Getting a little groggy, are the bears now. Slugger Bull will get in a knockout one of these days.

Nothing seems strong enough to wrest the leadership from the local steel group at present.

Maple Leaf has broken into the "toney" milling dividend class by making its rate 8 per cent. All the nice milling people pay that rate; it seems to be a standard with them.

The local market acts as though it was impatient to get away on that bull movement so much talked about.

Lots of people are just as anxious as the market even though they do not want to buy; perhaps they want to do the other thing.

While it has been easy to get rid of stocks it proves to be quite another matter to get them back, remarks the Wall Street Journal.

Can you pick the next stock to break into the dividend news column?

Some of those Wall Street brokers who have been rubbing into President Wilson rather hard over his submarine policy may get a severe jolt one of these days.

Perhaps he may refuse to write another note. Horrors, what then?

The rise of Maple Leaf in milling "society" is one of the industrial romances of the time.

Three to four years ago its earnings were under 4 per cent and its shares were selling around the 25 level. Recently the stock has been selling in the eighties and will, of course, go higher on an 8 per cent basis.

OUR FISCAL CONDITIONS HELPED LOAN

Special to The Montreal Star.

OTTAWA, March 28.—A number of Canadians have subscribed to the new loan for Canada, which has just been placed in New York, to the extent of $75,000,000, and which has been greatly ovre subscribed.

The terms were regarded as particularly favorable, especially in view of the tension of the international situation and the possibility of further complications as affecting the Pnited States.

The announcement is made here that the flotation had been a pronounced success, and that the loan had been over subscribed.

The Minister of Finance in going upon the New York market at this time was able to take advantage of an opportunity which might not be available again in the near future, especially in view of possible further complications as affecting the United States.

The financial statement for the fiscal year closing at the end of this month will show a total revenue in excess of the amount estimated in the budget speech a year ago. The war taxation, then introduced, has produced financial returns to an extent even greater than was anticipated when the measure was introduced. The estimated revenue, including that from the special taxation, was given at that time as $170,000,000. The amount will exceed that total by several million dollars.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Bankers announce that the subscriptions for the $75,000,000 Canadian Government 5 per cent loan, which were opened on Thursday last and were to have remained open until today, had been closed on Saturday because on that date the offering had been largely over-subscribed. In same quarters it was declared the over-subscription had amounted to four times the total loan, but at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Company, the head of the banking syndicate here which underwrites the offering, the only official statement that could be obtained was that the offering was over-subscribed. The firm declined to make public the exact amount of the subscriptions.

IMPERIAL BANK MEET

The annual meeting of the Imperial Bank, whose fiscal year closes April 30, will be held at Toronto on May 25 at noon.

NICKEL REFINERY WILL LOCATE IN NOVA SCOTIA

NEW YORK, March 28.—A. H. Monnell, president of the International Nickel Company, states that the company is advised by the Canadian authorities that an export license will be issued to them, and that there is nothing in the recent order-in-council that will affect their operations as now conducted.

OTTAWA, March 28.—The International Nickel Company has informed the Government of its intention to begin the erection of its Canadian plant immediately. The company is understood to have under consideration a site on the Atlantic Coast somewhere in Nova Scotia, although the exact details in regard to this have not been given. The building of the plant has been delayed by the unfavorable weather conditions in Nova Scotia caused by the exceptionally late spring and heavy snowfall.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT IN WINNIPEG WHEAT

(From the Winnipeg Office of James Carruthers & Co.)

WINNIPEG, March 28. — There was a marked improvement in the action of the wheat markets this morning. In the early trading, both Winnipeg and Chicago advanced over 1½c per bushel for the May option.

Public and private cables were better and the public showed more disposition to take the long side of the market. Bear news has been pretty well discounted and the market heavily liquidated. With a renewal of crop damage reports, prices would advance easily.

The demand for Manitobas continues and some further round lots were worked today for export.

British Treasury and American Stocks

LONDON, March 28.—Although no prices were quoted yesterday for the common stocks in the revised list of American securities which the treasury desires to purchase, it is announced that this must not be taken as indicating that the treasury is not disposed to purchase these stocks at present. On the contrary, the committee in charge declares that it is ready to consider any offer to sell or to lend any American stock or bond, whether included in its regular list or not. In fact, a large amount of securities has already been bought by the treasury in this way.

WHEAT ROSE ON BULL NEWS AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, March 28.—Wheat rose in value today, influenced largely by higher prices at Liverpool, where the market was bullishly affected by chances that submarine activity would interfere with supplies. War risk rates on the Atlantic showed a material advance. There were also reports that rains had failed to remedy damage to the domestic winter crop, notably in Illinois.

Opening prices, which ranged from 3-8c to 1c higher, with May at $1.10 1-4 to $1.10 5-8, and July at $1.08 1-4 to $1.08 5-8, were followed by moderate additional gains.

Wheat traders show more disposition to watch crop reports and are less inclined to sell short. Reports from local operators who were in Indiana and Illinois over Sunday were given more weight. Several of the big local shorts covered late yesterday and the pit element followed. Many operators are off the bear side and some setback from yesterday's top prices would not be surprising; but most traders favor the bull side on breaks. They believe that all bearish news has been discounted and that accidents favor theh bulls.

Corn bears said stocks here of over ten millions are above the average for this time of year, with the exception of last year. They assert that the advance of three cents from Friday's low was enough for the present, as most of it has come from covering by shorts.

Commission houses who were bearish last week, said the buying side now appears safest to them. The country is bullish and is not selling, and is not expected to, as farmers will be busy in the fields from now on.

FRENCH INDUSTRIES' PROGRESS RENEWED

A bulletin issued by the Chamber of Commerce of Paris on the revival of economic and financial activity, says in part:

"Our agriculture, which was assailed by fierce aggression in the midst of peaceful labor, was able from the outset of hostilities, and in spite of innumerable difficulties, to organize things in such a way as to preserve one of the most essential elements of our national wealth. Thanks to the mutual assistance rendered to one another by the rural populations in an admirable spirit of solidarity, field labor has been carried on everywhere, even on the outskirts of the firing line. Consequently the grain crops in 1915 were but little below the average. Nevertheless, the absence of the usual quota supplied by our northern and eastern departments, especially with regard to sugar and wheat, compels us to apply abroad for a considerable part of our foodstuffs.

"Manufactures and trade have likewise benefited by a renewal of industry; signs are not lacking as a proof of the progress made in this direction. For instance, the railway companies' returns, for those lines running outside the fighting zone, show an increase in business traffic gradually equalling the figures realized before the war. The inquiries made at different times by the Ministry of Labor testify to a very remarkable reduction in the number of factories and firms not having resumed work."

Burnaby is situated between the Cities of Vancouver and New Westminster, the former having a population of 106,100 and the latter 16,000. It is served by three distinct lines of the British Columbia Electric Railway, which provides an excellent inter-city and local service. The municipality has over six miles of water frontage on Burrard Inlet which is Vancouver's harbor, and as the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway passes through this portion, the natural development of Vancouver in an industrial way must be along this front.

Financially, Burnaby is in excellent shape, its bonded indebtedness being only 43% of its statutory borrowing powers

Maple Leaf Stirred Activity in Toronto

Special to The Montreal Star.

TORONTO, March 28.—Local brokers' predictions of par for Maple Leaf common as soon as it was placed on a sound dividend basis appeared today as if they would have swift fulfilment. The stock jumped to 96. After this the market eased somewhat, but the greater part of the last twenty sales were made above ninety-three. The market closing strong at noon at 94⅝. The preferred stock was strong at 99⅝ to 99.

The general Toronto stock list moved higher in sympathy with Maple Leaf's big jump, Steel of Canada common went up 45¼, closing near the top. Steamships common sold up to 19⅝, and mostly above 19 with the preferred closing at 78⅛. N. S. Steel sold up to 106 and Iron common at 47. The market for all stocks was the broadest for a long time, and large sales were made. Maple Leaf's activity constituted nearly a third of the market's business.

STRENGTH IN STERLING

NEW YORK, March 28.—One of the largest dealers in foreign exchange is so confident of continued firmness of sterling exchange that he has invested several million in long term exchange and expects to get profits from the interest thereon. Sterling exchange in London is even stronger than it is locally.

WINNIPEG WHEAT CLOSE

The Winnipeg wheat market closed today: May, $1.11⅝; July, $1.12⅛; October, $1.07⅛.

Post & Flagg.—The German submarine issue has been with us so long that people are getting hardened to it. Otherwise the new issue caused by the sinking of the Sussex would have had more effect. Despite this grave aspect of affairs, the market continues very steady and has shown more activity and strength.

MARKET RACE STEEL WENT ABOVE IRON

Steel of Canada crossed Iron this afternoon going to 46 1-4 against 46 for Iron. Iron was 46 3-4 to 46.

The market for Steel continued the feature of the market and from 45 1-2 reached 46 1-4. This compares with a record of 48 last November.

Lyall was a feature, touching 66 on its rally from last week's slump to 62.

Cedars was easier at 74, Scotia held at 105, Locomotive was 58 to 55 1-2, Laurentide 181, Cement 53, Ames pfd. 74, Steamships 19 1-4.

199th BATTALION SOLDIERS ENJOYING Y.M.C.A.

Men of the 199th Battalion, Irish-Canadian Rangers, with Sergt. George Kelley in charge. This picture shows the men grouped about the big room just after they had been taking exercises in the gym. The 199th Battalion is helping the Association get 1,000 new members in the whirlwind campaign going on this week.

ROYAL HIGHNESS LENDS HIS AID TO LOCAL Y.M.C.A.

Duke Compliments Association on What it Has Done in the War

"I know that your Association has done much to raise the tone and morality of the rising generation. I know that your Association has warmly supported our military efforts in Canada to take an honorable part in the terrible struggle in which we are at present engaged. I thoroughly recognize the good work you are doing and I urge you to continue it in every way."

In these words His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, one of the oldest members of the Montreal Y. M. C. A., showed his interest in their work, and wished them every success in their four days campaign to add a thousand members to the roll to replace those who have gone on active service.

The gathering at the big building on Drummond street was a very large one, there being between four and five hundred workers for the campaign present under the chairmanship of W. H. Goodwin, among them being Sir John Kennedy, Sir H. B. Ames, Dean Adams, Lieut.-Col. A. A. Magee, Capt. Campbell Stuart, K. W. Knox, John Murphy, David Bentley, D. A. Budge, G. L. McCrae, L. Cushing, R. B. Lindsay, A. D. Anderson, L. C. Webster, J. Nelson McKim, Geo. Lyman, C. K. Calhoun, W. J. Holliday, F. B. Whittet, F. Max Hill, Geo. S. Rorke, D. Morrow, J. O. Lough and G. A. Corbet.

After lunch Mr. Goodwin gave a brief address, followed by G. L. McCrae, chairman of the campaign committee, Sir Herbert Ames, Lieut.-Col. Magee and Capt. Campbell Stuart, all of whom spoke of the splendid response made by members of the Y. M. C. A. to the call for recruits and urging those who could not go to work hard to obtain recruits both for the overseas battalions and the association.

DUKE AN OLD MEMBER.

His Royal Highness, who arrived at the Y. M. C. A. about nine o'clock, accompanied by Col. Stanton and Major Duff, his military secretary and aide, was welcomed by Mr. Goodwin, who remarked that it had been discovered by J. R. Dougall, a former secretary of the association, that the Duke had become a member of the Montreal branch in 1870 when he visited Canada as Prince Arthur of Connaught, the association at that time having its headquarters on the corner of Craig and Alexander streets.

The speech of His Royal Highness was a lengthy and encouraging one. "For a great many years past I have witnessed the splendid work done by your Association," he said. "In the many commands I have held in England and elsewhere, I have always received warm and generous assistance from the Y.M.C.A. They have especially always held out the right hand of fellowship to our soldiers, both regulars and auxiliaries. I can assure you that the good they have done in this way has been most marked, and the feeling of good will and respect for your Association is well known in England as it is here.

"I have seen a great deal of your Association's work in Canada, and I must congratulate you on the generous friendship and help always shown to those who required some assistance to keep them running straight. I do not think you have ever failed in this work, and I know that your Association has done much to raise the tone and morality of the rising generation.

HELPED THE MILITARY.

"At the present moment, I know that your Association has warmly supported our military efforts in Canada to take an honorable part in the struggle in which we are at present engaged. You have recognized that taking so many men away from their civil avocations and families has placed them in a position where they are naturally more open to temptation than they would otherwise be.

"You have done all possible to make them at home in your splendid institutions. Your Association has done everything possible to help them, both in cities and camps, and I fully appreciate the immense amount of good you have done. I know that it is the universal feeling of the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the Canadian Overseas Forces that they are deeply indebted to the Y. M. C. A. for the splendid hospitality and kindness they have always met with at your hand.

"This is a service of real value to the men and to the Dominion, and I hope that you will all do what you can to promote the interests of the Y.M.C.A., and continue the good work you are doing amongst our Canadian soldiers. We have every reason to be proud of the work they have done in this great war. We read day by day of the good work they are doing; of their pluck and intelligence, and of the splendid spirit of courage and devotion to duty that animates them.

CONTINUE GOOD WORK.

"Many of you who cannot go out yourselves are now in a position to show your sympathy by helping this movement which is so helpful both for the civilians and the soldiers. It has been a great pleasure to me to come amongst you this evening, and I am sure you recognize that I speak from my heart in this. I thoroughly recognize the good work you are doing, and I urge you to continue it in every way. I hope my presence will show my sympathy with the objects of your meeting, and I can assure you I wish you every possible success."

The commendatory remarks of the royal member were greeted with much enthusiasm, and the campaign workers felt that with such a wholehearted expression of support from the Governor-General their task during the four days of securing a thousand members would be considerably lightened.

The band of the 148th Battalion, C.E.F., played selections in the rotunda of the Y.M.C.A. last evening, and the 199th Battalion are today working in teams under officers obtaining recruits for the association.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

THE sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. Applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any Dominion Lands Agency (but not Sub-Agency), on certain conditions.

Duties—Six months residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres on certain conditions. A habitable house is required except where residence is performed in the vicinity.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section along side his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre.

Duties—Six months residence in each of three years after earning homestead patent, also 50 acres extra cultivation. Pre-emption patent may be obtained as soon as homestead patent, on certain conditions.

A settler who has exhausted his homestead right may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.

The area of cultivation is subject to reduction in case of rough, scrubby or stony land. Live stock may be substituted for cultivation under certain conditions.

W. W. CORY, C.M.G., Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

NOTES AND QUERIES

CAN BE PROSECUTED.

Q—Is there not a law compelling proprietors of moving picture places, etc., to refuse admission to children under a certain age? If so, why is it not carried out? One place you will find crowded with children of both sexes any day of the week, some of them not more than six or seven years old, all unaccompanied by guardian or parent. Another flagrant breaking of law is crowding of corridors of some of those places; Saturday and Sunday afternoons and evenings are the worst times, places being packed with a solid mass of people waiting their turn for a seat; we can imagine what is likely to happen in case of panic. Cannot steps be taken to compel the people running these houses to obey the law? SAFETY FIRST.

A—The theatres can be prosecuted by anyone who has enough time and public spirit to take action.

A CANCELLED DEAL.

Q.—A man goes to real estate office to see about some lots; real estate man wants to sell lots, although man has never seen them; man buys some lots at low price and real estate man says he can go and see them after and he will find them just as represented; man gives $2 cash and signs note to pay $90 two weeks later and balance by month; induces buyer to have them construct a house on lots, value of house and lots about $800; buyer is not able to make $90 payment in time; real estate man sends him a few letters asking for delayed payment; then he sends letter telling buyer they are cancelling deal; four months later buyer receives a lawyer's letter calling for rest of money. In reply that they have cancelled bargain. Can they come and collect wages from me where I work or seize wages? — A CONSTANT READER.

A.—No.

DIRECTORS ARE RESPONSIBLE.

Q.—Worked about a year for company without receiving salary monthly, as agreed; asked remittance, but they always promised to pay me later on; Company have now failed. Could I make them pay full amount they owe me for salary?—A. Reader.

A.—The directors are responsible for arrears of salary.

A MONTH'S NOTICE.

Q.—Have been living in a flat for a number of years; never had any agreement with landlord, verbal or otherwise. Can I vacate premises when I wish? If not, what notice am I obliged to give landlord?—"Ted."

A.—If you pay by the month, a month's notice is sufficient.

It's Bovril they want

Bovril makes other foods nourish you. It has a Body-building power proved equal to from 10 to 20 times the amount of Bovril taken.

CANNOT BE HELD FOR HOUSE.

Q.—Living at present residence for three years, having lease with option of moving each year, expiring May, 1916, signed by father. At beginning of February, as father was out of town, mother told landlord she was not certain whether we would remain or not; landlord did not request definite answer till about three weeks in February; as father was still out of town, mother then told him we would remain another year; this was only verbal; two weeks later father returned home in very bad health; doctor advised that we should live further up, near mountain, as present residence did not allow him enough air; father said we would have to move; mother told landlord he was kind of angry, but consented to let us move, and hung up a "to let" which is still on; I, having been there with mother, was witness to this; incident then closed, and we parted in a friendly manner; later landlord told a neighbor that if our house is not rented by May 1 he would make trouble for us, and hold us responsible for house. Can landlord now hold us responsible? We have already taken another house.—"Puzzled."

A.—No, he cannot.

MUST CARRY OUT AGREEMENT.

Q.—A sold lot to B in Ontario in 1913; agreement of sale specified that if B was not punctual in payments, B would forthwith deliver up possession of premises to A, and all payments previously made, principal or interest, would be forfeited to A; B made payments for some time, and later became backward; A has written to B several times, occasionally receiving a small payment; now B has not paid anything for some time. Can A take possession of property, or has A broken agreement of sale by urging payments in trying to be lenient?—H. R. W.

A.—He can take suit to have the agreement carried out.

A NATURALIZED DANE.

Q.—1. I am a Dane, residing in Canada last seven years, naturalized last six years. If conscription becomes law in Canada, am I obliged to serve? 2. Is there a law in Quebec forbidding teamsters or cabmen to feed his horses in city streets, if circumstances require him to do so, and he is not obstructing traffic? 3. Went to see a house; promised to lease it for one year, dating from May 1, 1916, to May 1, 1917; paid $5 as part payment for month of May; signed no lease; now find house more suitable. Can landlord keep me to verbal agreement?

A.—1. Yes. 2. We know of none. 3. Yes.

BROKEN WINDOW IS STORY.

Q. — Must I pay for my window if broken by some one on the street? I keep a store; window is not insured by me, but landlord has it insured; man who broke it is working for an express company; I know who he is; he will not pay and men who employ him refuse. Landlord told me it was insured but he wants me to pay for premium of policy, which is $12; says if I do not pay he will sue me. Can he sue me? Must I pay? Or will insurance company replace glass?—McD.

A.—If you can prove what you say, you are not liable.

INTEREST ON A PIANO.

Q.—Purchased a piano from company at $350; if paid in forty months $50 would be taken off; got no lease; kept up payments as agreed to end of February, when on receiving statement found company charging interest at 7 per cent. on whole amount. Is this legal? Can company charge insurance when we informed them that we wished it cancelled?—"Lachine."

A.—No interest can be charged unless you agreed to pay it. It all depends on what is contained in the agreement you signed.

AN ABSCONDING DEBTOR.

Q.—I have a debtor who has absconded to the States to avoid payment. What steps can I take to put a seizure on him? Is it a very big performance? —A. B., Montreal.

A.—You would have to take suit against him in the United States.

TUTOR FOR MINORS.

Q.—Two girls, aged 18 and 12 years, left a small legacy. Can father or mother be legally appointed tutor or tutrix?—Old Subscriber.

A.—Yes.

HOME OF LIBERAL CREDIT

No matter what your income may be, our credit plan opens up an easy way to home comfort.

We accept the easiest possible time payments and our prices are the lowest. We can afford to sell much cheaper than many because we are out of the high rental district. And again our big business necessitates buying in large quantities, which means a saving in discounts to us, which we are willing to share with our customers. These reasons and the fact that we are satisfied with a fair living profit means lower prices to you.

Come and see us, whether it is one article of furniture you want or the furnishings for the whole house.

Recent Deaths.

FUNERAL OF LATE THOMAS A. CROSSLEY

The funeral of the late Thomas Adams Crossley was held this afternoon from the Westmount Baptist Church. Mr. Crossley died on Sunday after an illness of two years. He was born in England sixty-eight years ago. Before coming to Canada in 1852 he was a member of the London Stock Exchange, and after taking up residence in Montreal, was accountant to the Witness and later bookkeeper for the Ames-Holden and A. W. Marsh Companies. In 1897 he joined the accounting department of the Sun Life Assurance Company.

He was a member of the Westmount Baptist Church and also took an active part in temperance work. He was a member of the Royal Arcanum.

He is survived by several children, two of his sons being at the front. The children are: Gordon Crossley, Cape's Battery; H. Crossley, Canadian Army Medical Corps, Cliveden Hospital; T. Linsey Crossley, J. T. Donald & Co., and Frank L. Crossley.

Archie Crossley was drowned in the Richelieu River in 1909. There are also three daughters.

DR. JOHN McBAIN PRACTISED IN CITY

Dr. John McBain died yesterday at his home, 1019 St. Catherine street west, after an illness of several months.

He was sixty-five years of age and was born at Glengarry, Ont., the son of the late J. C. McBain. He studied medicine at McGill University and was graduated in 1874. He practised in Martintown, Ont., before settling in Montreal. He is survived by his widow and three children.

CANADIAN TONNAGE ON THE INCREASE

OTTAWA, March 28.—That shipping of Canadian register decreased from 1885 up to 1905, since which year it has grown almost fifty per cent. was the information given by the Hon. J. D. Hazen to J. H. Sinclair, of Guysboro, in the House of Commons yesterday.

In 1875 the tonnage of Canadian register was 1,405,666. In 1885 it had grown to 1,231,865. By 1895 it had dropped to 825,776 and in 1905 to 669,825. Now it is again on the increase and according to the latest figures is 929,891.

THE 148TH HAS RECRUITED OVER NINE HUNDRED

"Recruiting yesterday was not as encouraging as one might expect, the strength being increased by only six men," said an officer of the 148th Battalion today.

"From the appearance and general bearing of the men on the march as well as from the inspection by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, yesterday it is evident that the Battalion has recruited a very good type of man; and we feel satisfied that with the change of weather, and the Battalion becoming better known throughout the city by its marches through the streets, it will attract the attention of those who are still wavering.

"The Battalion is now over the 900 mark; and from the manner in which the men are being drilled; and also from the care and attention which is being given by Lieut.-Col. A. A. Magee to the welfare, both in and out of barracks, those who join are assured of working and playing with genial companions."

A team of the 148th is working with the Y. M. C. A. during the next few days, aiding them in their campaign for 1,000 new members.

The present road conditions are rather trying to the men, but they are showing keenness and cheerfulness.

Amongst those who joined yesterday are:
G. E. Conway, Montreal.
T. H. Swinwood, Montreal.
W. Ward, Montreal.
G. A. Ward, Huberdeau.
R. Morrison, Shrewsbury.
A. Butler, Brownsburg.

RIGHT OF ALIEN TO BRING ACTION IS BEFORE COURT

Another Austrian case which has arisen in the local courts will be discussed in full before Mr. Justice Dugas next Monday.

Paul Hahn claims $180 from Laird Tedford. The latter claims that Hahn, being an Austrian, has no right to sue. Since the opening of the war, Hahn has been a peaceable alien, reporting regularly to the military authorities once a month. It is submitted on his behalf, that he should be accorded all the rights of a full-fledged citizen in the matter of taking suit, and that he has a right to the full protection of British law.

Tedford claims that Hahn is an enemy alien, has never been interned, and has not the right to seek recourse before the British courts.' An exception to the form as well as an inscription-in-law has been filed, asking that Hahn's suit against Tedford be suspended till the end of the war.

These motions have been set for hearing on Monday next.

FIRE DESTROYS ST. JOHN HOSPITAL

Special to The Montreal Star.

ST. JOHN, N.B., March 28.—The fine old building, originally erected by the Hon. James I. Fellows, at one time agent-general of New Brunswick in London, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

Since a small-pox epidemic in 1901 the building has been owned by the municipality and used as an isolation hospital. No patients were in the building when it burned.

DR. ROSE ACCEPTS OTTAWA CALL FOR ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The Rev. Dr. S. P. Rose, of Dominion Methodist Church, has decided to accept the call of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Ottawa, for 1917.

The congregation of St. Paul's, which is situated in The Glebe, meet in the basement at present and their minister is the Rev. Basil W. Thompson. The new church, which will be erected by 1917, will cost $200,000.

Thirteen years ago, Dr. Rose was minister of Dominion Methodist Church, Ottawa.

LITERARY CLUB.

The Young Ladies' Literary Club has recently been formed. The officers are: President, Miss L. Kalmanovitch; vice-president, Miss M. Hershon; Treasurer, Miss A. Rovinovitch; secretary, Miss E. Herzig; member without portfolio, Miss E. Herzig.

Alaska's 1915 mining output was valued at $32,000,000.

TONY MORENO TO LEAVE SING SING TO CURE ILLNESS

Special by United Press.

NEW YORK, March 27.—"Tough Tony" Moreno, who forfeited a chance for freedom so that he could "keep square" with Thomas Mott Osborne, warden and the Mutual Welfare League of Sing Sing, will not die within prison walls.

It is reported that he is soon to be pardoned from his cot in the tubercular ward so that, with the aid of plenty of sunshine he may try to fight off the "white plague."

Tony, sent up from New York in boyhood for a gang fight in which a man was killed, ran away from the prison when Osborne went on leave to be tried. His friends on the outside told him that his act would hurt the Warden and the Welfare League. Tony, then on his way West with plenty of money, turned back and surrendered.

A campaign has been started in Philadelphia to train 40,000 citizen soldiers in that city.

NOON HOUR PRAYER FOR BUSINESS MEN

Noon-day prayer meetings under the auspices of St. John the Evangelist Church, and open to business men of all denominations, were inaugurated yesterday in the auction rooms of the House of Browne, 248 St. James street. The Rev. C. O. Warner, of the Trinity church, conducted the half hour service which opened at 12:15 o'clock.

Reading from the 12th verse of the 13th chapter of St. Luke containing the parable of the rich man who tore down his barns to build greater and prepared to "eat, drink and be merry," the Rev. Mr. Warner digressed into the theme of his address, "Christ and Business."

Sheets of paper pass for money in Corfu. One sheet buys one quart of rice and twenty sheets a piece of hemp cloth.

PLAN SHACKLETON RELIEF EXPEDITION

LONDON, March 28.—At a meeting held yesterday in connection with the Shackleton Antarctic expedition, it was decided to take immediate steps for the organization of a relief expedition to rescue the explorers left at Ross Sea.

The question of despatching a second relief vessel to Weddell Sea will be decided as soon as the ship Endurance, which took the Shackleton party south, is spoken, and it is known whether Lieutenant Shackleton is on board.

TORONTO MAN DIED HERE.

John Wilkinson, of Toronto, died suddenly at 49 Osborne street Saturday afternoon. He was identified by a bank book found in his pocket. The case was disposed of by the coroner as one of sudden death.
