

THE MISCHIEVOUS BEE,

The favorite Song

Sung by Miss Duncan,

TIME'S A TELL TALE,

at the Theatre Royal Drury Lane,

WRITTEN BY H. SIDDONS ESQ^R

Composed by Mich^l Kelly.

Ent. Sta. Hall.

Price 1/6

Printed & sold at Kellys, Opera Saloon Pall Mall.

ALLEGRO

1st Verse Little Cupid one day o'er a Myrtle bough stray'd, And a-mong the sweet 2^d Verse His Mother then laugh'd at the sto-ry he told, On his fore head of blos-soms he wanton-ly play'd Plucking ma-my a leaf from the buds of the tree, He snow strok'd his ringlets of gold, Now when you wound a-no-ther my Lad answer'd she, Ere your felt that his fin-ger was stung by a BEE, He felt that his fin-ger was ar - rows are point-ed you'll think on the BEE, E're your ar - rows are point - ed you'll stung by a BEE, Lit-tle Cu-pid then whim-per'd he sobb'd and he think on the BEE, A les-son of love let the sto--ry imsigh'd, Then ran to his Mo-ther and pet-tish-ly cried, Ah!

The

-part, When the beam of the eye lights the flame of the heart, Ye

Ve-nus dear Mo-ther I'm wound-ed you see, And I ask for re-fair ones re-mem-ber while yet you are free, The ROSE holds the venge on the mis-chie-vous BEE, And I ask for re-venge on the THORN and the MYR-TLE the BEE, The ROSE holds the THORN and the mis-chie-vous BEE, And I ask for re-venge on the mis-chie-vous MYR-TLE the BEE, The ROSE holds the THORN and the MYR-TLE the BEE, And I ask for re-venge on the mis-chie-vous BEE.

 BEE. The ROSE holds the THORN and the MYR-TLE the BEE.

