DEFEAT OF FLEET DEFENDING COAST ALARMS ENGLAND

Although Double Strength of Attacking Fleet, it Met Series of Disasters—Raid After Raid Resulted in Capture of Coast Ports and Big Coalfields in District — Forts at Tyne Mistook British Cruisers for Enemy — Times Offers Some Consolation.

By Special Cable From Our Own Correspondent

London, July 28.—Unless Admiral Callaghan has a big surprise in store which will sweep Vice-Admiral Jellicoe and the attacking "Red" fleet from the sea, the naval manoeuvres are capable of carrying a grave warning.

The Daily Express takes a somewhat alarmist view, it says:

"Although the hostile "Red" fleet was only half as strong as the "Blue" defending fleet, the latter met disaster after disaster, raid succeeds raid. Defenceless ports wake up to find themselves in the hands of the enemy. The raiding of Grimsby and the defeat of an important section of the British fleet in a fierce battle off Humber has been followed by the capture of Sunderland, Blyth and all the coalfields in the district.

"To complete the chapter of catastrophes, the fort at the mouth of the Tyne, mistook the British cruisers and destroyers for the enemy's ships and opened fire on them, inflicting heavy loss."

DEFENCE ON SHORE ALL RIGHT, SAYS TIMES.

The "Times," however, warns the public to await the umpire's final decision before taking the raids too seriously. It suggests that the raiders would have been unable to retire after coming ashore and have been, therefore captured. The "Times" adds:

"Nothing could be plainer than that if the raids have been successful, it has been due to an insufficient protecting force afloat, not to any lack of defence ashore."

The "Times'" answer to local authorities at Grimsby and Hull, who fearful of raids in real warfare, are petitioning the Government to construct more forts at the river's entrance.

100,000 JAPANESE, SOME IN DISGUISE, READY IN MEXICO

Official Circles in Washington Are Startled by Information That the Yellow Men Are Prepared for Any Move in Mexico Their Government May Dictate — Offered to Protect President Madero.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Washington, July 28. Mr. Edward T. Bell, the well-known publicist, writing to-day, says: Official circles of the capital were startled to-day by information that more than 100,000 Japanese were quartered throughout Mexico and that 20,000 of them are in and about Mexico City in position to be concentrated within three days for any enterprise which may seem desirable to the Japanese ministry at Mexico's capital. There are 5,000 Japanese in Mexico City proper, 5,000 more in the outlying suburbs of the federal district, and 10,000 in towns, cotton mills and haciendas of easy access to the capital by rail, with 80,000 in the interior and in towns along the Pacific coast.

The information is that all are engaged in menial employments and that, when dressed as the usual Mexican peon, they are not at once distinguished from the natives with whom they mingle. The section through which the easily available 20,000 are scattered carries a normal population of 2,000,000, largely peons. Unobtrusive in act, servile in demeanor and accepted by the lower orders and all Mexicans as of a friendly nationality, these subjects of the Mikado enter into Mexican life with all its present dangers without exciting comment or giving hint of ulterior design. Some have even been seized by Huerta press gangs and forced to do service in the federal army.

Official records covering this insidious move on the part of Japan have been gathered by the Secret Service and by the consular agencies and have been accumulating in the voluminous files of the State Department to be examined at convenient opportunity. Sharp impetus was given to desire for information when it became known that an offer of the services of 2,000 Japs had been made to Madero on the 13th of last February, the proposed undertaking being to capture the arsenal in Mexico City, then the headquarters of the Felix Diaz revolt which broke out on February 9.

The offer was made to Gustavo Madero at a secret meeting held in the department of communications as the result of a call sent out by Sub-Secretary Urquidi of that department to 100 chosen adherents of Madero among members of the Chamber of Deputies and other Mexicans of consequence and standing.

MADERO REJECTED JAPANESE OFFER.

The object of the meeting was to form a dependable guard of 100 men of known fidelity to protect Madero then besieged in the National Palace, rumors of treachery having reached Madero's closest friends. To the meeting but forty-three came out of the 100 called. Among them was a member of the Chamber of Deputies accompanied by an attache of the Japanese legation, who calmly set forth to Gustavo Madero, brother of the president, that in twenty four hours he could muster 2,000 Japanese dressed as peons and armed with knives. In the darkness which reigned throughout the city these men, approaching from various directions, would [illegible] arsenal [illegible] night when fighting was suspended under the influence of pulque, the Japanese would quietly dispose of them with their knives, after which they would rush the arsenal where the troops were sleeping and knife the entire force, taking possession of the whole works in the interests of Madero and ending the revolt at once.

The offer was rejected, Gustavo Madero announcing that the Mexicans would fight their own battles. From one who was present at the interview it has been learned that the temptation to accept was strong, the feasibility of the plan being clear, but that Don Gustavo was held back by the fear that while the 2,000 Japs were taking the arsenal, 5,000 more which the attache had said he could produce in an additional day, might be occupying the National Palace by the same means and hold the entire government at their mercy.

The announcement that the Japanese government has requested permission of Mexico to establish a Japanese colony in the State of Morelos just south of the Mexican capital takes on peculiar significance when the temper of the Japanese towards Americans [illegible] and the question of intervention in Mexico in the interest of establishing order is likely any day, to come at a cabinet meeting for its serious consideration and decision.

The Japanese arrive in Mexico by the Toyo Kisan Oriental Steamship Company and the Hong Kong Steamship Company, both lines making regular trips to the Pacific coast ports of Mexico touching at Manzanillo, Acapulco, Salina Cruz, La Puerto and Mariscal as well as at two ports in Guatemala. At these points of arrival a few are landed at each port each trip, steadily augmenting the total to formidable proportions. It is estimated that more than 30,000 Japs have been landed in Mexico in this way during the past six months and the administration is now asking the pertinent question: What can we [illegible]

SAYS KING AND QUEEN COMING TO CANADA NEXT

London, July 28.—A report from Australia that King George and Queen Mary were to lay the foundation stone of the Australian Commonwealth Parliament House at Canberra next year is discredited to-day by the Pall Mall Gazette, which declares that Canada is to be the next British dominion visited by Their Majesties and adds:

"They take it for granted that while so near the United States they will cross the border, and it is thought probable that they may pay a brief visit to Washington and perhaps to New York."

RECOGNITION OF UNION DIFFICULTY IN WESTERN STRIKE

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Thomas, Ont., July 28. The Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labor, accompanied by Mrs. Crothers, returned to St. Thomas to-day after a four weeks' tour through the West to British Columbia, where the Minister went to investigate the circumstances attending the strike of coal miners on Vancouver Island, where four thousand men are out.

While he was there, many conferences, both with the mine owners and employees, were held, and much evidence was secured, but the situation was found to be a difficult one, as the miners are asking for the recognition of their union, the International Mine Workers of America, which the owners refuse.

While the Department of Labor cannot do anything to force a settlement, still Mr. Crothers is hopeful that the trouble will be adjusted in the near future.

Mrs. Crothers, who takes a deep interest in the work of the Minister, visited the wives and families of the miners, whom she found to be kind and intelligent [illegible] for their present [illegible] as many of the miners will lose their homes unless a settlement is soon reached.

ATTEMPT MADE TO ASSASSINATE LISBON'S PREMIER

Special to The Montreal Star.

Lisbon, July 28.—A delayed report filtered out of here to-day, showing that an attempt to assassinate Premier Dr. Alfonso Costa was made on Saturday. A man named Cunha Neves has been arrested. A strict censorship is being put on all messages.

Revolutionary activities are reported from many centres.

SERIOUS UPRISING REPORTED IN LISBON.

London, July 28. A rumor was current in Madrid last night that a serious uprising had occurred in Lisbon. The Daily Mail estimates that 1,600 bombs of various sizes have been found in the streets of Lisbon since the organized attempt at bomb-throwing was frustrated by the police there Sunday, July 20.

The paper adds that following the publication of a book last year giving directions for their manufacture, all the revolutionary societies have been busy making and hiding bombs of all sizes.

STATE LAWS COMMISSION TO MEET IN MONTREAL.

New York, July 28. The Commission on uniform State laws, which has been holding conferences regularly for twenty-three years, seeking the reforms which are obvious from its name, will meet in Montreal during the week beginning August 26. This will just precede the annual meeting of the American Bar Association.

Representatives from all of the forty-eight States, in addition to the District of Columbia and the two territories of Alaska and Hawaii and the Federal possessions of Porto Rico and the Philippines have been urged to be present.

Among the subject for discussion will be questions on a uniform Workingman's Compensation Act, pure food laws, and partnership and corporation.

TO REVISE SHIPPING ACT.

Special to Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 28. The Canada Shipping Act is to be thoroughly revised and consolidated, and will probably be amended. Mr. W. A. Henry, barrister of Halifax, has been appointed by the Government to attend to the work. The Act dates back many years and its numerous amendments make it [illegible] confusing. [illegible] The new provisions proposed will have to do with more effective methods of steamboat inspection.

Divine Sarah Designs Tomb

Paris, July 28.—Mme. Sarah Bernhardt is employing her vacation by carving a monument for the embellishment of her tomb, for which she has bought a desolate island off the coast of Brittany.

Mme. Bernhardt is working hard on a clay sketch of the complete conception, with a young Breton woman as a model. The latter is sworn to silence and the design of the monument is kept a profound secret. It is said, however, by Mme. Bernhardt's friends to be simple yet strangely moving in idea. The tragedienne is reported to have said a short time ago that she had a horror of entrusting the creation of the monument to anybody else.

DAUGHTERS OF EMPIRE PLEASED WITH VICTORY

Canadian Associated Press.

Bisley Camp, July 28.—The Duke of Connaught wires:—"Most sincerely congratulate Canadians on the great success of Private Hawkins in carrying off the King's Prize."

The Duke of Argyle wires: "The Princess and I send our heartiest congratulations on winning King's Prize."

Additional messages have been received from Colonel Greville Harston, the Hon. T. W. White, the Hon. Martin Burrell, Colonel Stimson, Mr. P. C. Larkin, Colonel Brock, Captain Chisholm, Captain McVittie, Lieut.-Col. Curry, Acting-Mayor Church, Toronto; Mayor Darling, Colonel Sherwood, Colonel Hendrie, Colonel MacDonald and Colonel Wilson.

Hawkins is not sure yet whether he can sail on the Virginian on Wednesday, but hopes to do so.

BAD WEATHER DELAYS SOME COMPETITIONS.

The bad weather during some days last week delayed a few of the competitions which were brought off today.

The Service Rifle Championship, which is open only to territorials, present and retired, and to members of Rifle Clubs, was won by Sergt. Ommundsen, of the Royal Scots, with Private A. G. Fulton, Queen's Westminsters and winner of the King's prize last year, second. Sergt. Carr, Victoria, was 47th.

The Association Cup, open to life members, with a cup or £25 as the first prize was won by Staff Sergt. F. C. Hawley, 90th Regiment, Winnipeg.

Private Denholm, Winnipeg, was twelfth, Staff Sergt. Freeborn, Hamilton, nineteenth, Sgt. Carr, Victoria, twenty-fifth, and Private Hawkins, Toronto thirty-second. Each wins forty shillings.

OMMUNDSEN GETS ANOTHER VICTORY.

The Territorial Aggregate, to which is attached the Belgian and Martins Challenge Cups, was won by Sergt. Ommundsen, with Sergt. A. T. D. Tipping, 4th Cheshire Regt., second, and Sergt. J. E. Martin, 9th H. L. I., third.

Sergt. Carr, Victoria, was nineteenth, and wins forty shillings.

In the All Comers' Aggregate, Corporal Rowland, North Staffordshire Regt., was first.

Staff Sergt. Freeborn was sixteenth, Lieut. Mortimer, eighteenth, Denholm twenty-ninth, Carr thirty-fourth, Crowe thirty-seventh, and Taylor forty-sixth, all winning bronze medals.

In the Grand Aggregate, in which the Dominion of Canada Challenge Trophy is included, and which was won by Sergt. G. McHaffie, 5th K.O.S.B.; Denholm was eleventh, Mortimer eighteenth, Carr twenty-sixth, and Steele twenty-seventh, each winning a bronze cross and £5.

Freeborn was thirty-fifth, Lee fifty-fifth, Hawkins sixty-third, and Steck eighty-second, each wins forty shillings.

In the B. M. M. C., open to all-comers, first prize a silver cup, Sergt. Sparks, of the 15th London, was first.

Claims German Principality

Special to The Montreal Star.

Berlin, July 28.—M. Corberon, who is said to be a Belgian croupier, has begun a legal fight for the throne of the German principality of Rhein-Walbeck and the title of Prince, and hereditary membership in the House of Lords and the Prussian Diet, on the ground that he is the rightful heir to the late Count Edgar De Lannoy Biervause.

Mr. Coberon's mother, who was born at Nancy, after a romantic career married in 1902 at the age of 60, Count de Lannoy Biervause, Prince of Rhein-Walbeck. Her son, who was born more than twenty years before that time, was recognized by the Prince as his legitimate child. Count Looz, another Belgian, disputes with M. Corberon, the title and inheritance.

Lord and Lady Bagot Reunited

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., July 28.—After a separation of five years, Lady Bagot, who was Miss Lily May, of an aristocratic Baltimore family, has become reconciled to Lord Bagot, aide-de-camp to the Marquis of Lorne when he was Canadian Governor-General, according to a cable received to-day from London. The disagreement which brought about the couples' separation was whether their daughter, Barbara, should be raised in the Catholic faith. Brothers and sisters of Lady Bagot in this city are jubilant at the news.

Lord and Lady Bagot are at the present time with their daughter Barbara at Blithfield, Rudgeley, Staffordshire. The reconciliation was brought about by Mrs. Bernard Shaw, wife of the English dramatist and writer, and sister of Lord Bagot.

The pair were married in London at the Brompton Oratory, July 25, 1903. A short while before the wedding Lord Bagot agreed that the ceremony should be performed under the rites of the Catholic Church, Lady Bagot being an ardent Catholic. It was also said they agreed that if any children were born they should be reared as Catholics. Barbara was born in January, 1905. Lord Bagot insisted that the child should be baptized in the Protestant faith. This met with the mother's objection, and she insisted that the agreement made before the wedding should be fulfilled. This caused the breach between the couple.

GAS UNDER HAMBURG BELONGS TO THE CITY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamburg, July 28.—By a decision of the Courts a flow of gas which was discovered here in November, 1910, represents a value to the city of $1,500,000. A company which was boring for water tapped gas and claimed 5 per cent. as the finders reward. This led to a lawsuit by the company against the city, the outcome being the decision above mentioned.

Says Athletic Girls Are Crude

London, July 28.—The girl champions of Princess Helena College, of Ealing, have suffered something of a shock to their athletic ambitions. When receiving their prizes at the hands of Colonel Sir Thomas Holdrich on Saturday, they were surprised by Sir Thomas' denunciation of athletic girls.

He declared that the girls of this type were not altogether worthy of imitation. There was a growing tendency in sports to mistake the means for the end, and games which were meant to make one happy and strong and to teach the value of good temper and courtesy fell short of their purpose, particularly in the latter respect.

"If a girl does not wholly succeed in getting in the front rank in sports, she is too apt to show disappointment." "She is not always as tidy as she might be; her methods are sometimes exceedingly crude, and she is entirely lacking in manners," he added.

REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION CONVENES IN WINNIPEG.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 28.—With more than one thousand delegates in attendance, the sixth annual Convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges opened here to-day. The Convention was called to order in the hall of the Industrial Bureau. This is the first time that the Association has held a Convention outside the United States.

Elaborate arrangements have been made by the Winnipeg Board for the entertainment of the visitors. One of the features will be a trip westward in special cars, covering a period of three days. The trip will include visits to the cities of Saskatoon, Moose Jaw, Regina, and Brandon, returning to Winnipeg by August 3.

The Association includes seventy real estate exchanges in all of the principal cities of the United States, and six exchanges in Canada. The organization was launched in Chicago in 1908, and the first Convention was held in Detroit, in June, 1909. The 1910 Convention was held in Minneapolis, the 1911 Convention in Denver and the 1912 Convention in Louisville.

Strange Romance At Coburg, Ont.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Coburg, Ont., July 28.—The gossips of this summer resort town are rolling a fine morsel under their tongues at the present time. A young man from St. Louis, spending his vacation alone at one of the summer hotels, became enamored of a pretty society girl from Toronto, and on Friday afternoon last, the two, entering a motor car belonging to a friend of the young man, were driven to the Methodist parsonage and there made man and wife.

Re-entering the car after the ceremony, the pair headed for Port Hope to catch the train there, when the bride, seeing a girl friend passing, called out: "We are married."

The latter promptly telephoned the news to the lady with whom the bride had been staying, with the result that when half-way up the hill the auto encountered a young man on a motorcycle, armed with a revolver, who announced, threateningly:—

"Turn back, you dog, or I'll shoot."

The auto at once stopped, the bride was taken possession of by friends, and the ten days' romance by the lakeside was ended—for the present.

Killed At Ontario Level Crossing.

Cobourg, Ont., July 28.—Dennis Martin, who resided at Precious Corners, four miles from Cobourg, was instantly killed at the C. N. R. crossing on Ontario street yesterday afternoon. He had been in town and was returning home driving alone.

WESTMOUNT'S NEW BAPTIST MINISTER'S BALTIMORE ADIEU

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., July 28.—The Rev. Dr. O. C. S. Wallace, for five years pastor of the First Baptist Church this city, and called to Westmount Baptist Church, preached his last sermon as Pastor of that church yesterday morning. He will be officially the Pastor until September 1, as August is his regular vacation month.

At nine o'clock this morning the Rev. Dr. Wallace left for his mother's home in Nova Scotia, where he will spend the greater part of the month. He will stop on his way at Lowell, Mass., and other cities in New England where he has preached or gone to school. Then he will go to Montreal.

LEAVES BALTIMORE WITH KEEN REGRET.

"It is with keen regret that I leave," said Dr. Wallace to-day. "I had thought to grow old in the work and die in this city. I like the First Church. I like Baltimore. I love the south. I have had splendid co-operation from the men and women of my church from the beginning. In the city itself there are a great many magnificent men.

"Why do I leave Baltimore? Do you know why the Greeks left Baltimore to go back home, paying their own way, to take up arms for their native land?

"I am a Canadian, and I have been persuaded that this nation, now a-borning, has need of me. My church in Montreal is small and in the suburbs. It is really true that I go at a sacrifice but Montreal is the gateway of Canada, the newest nation in the making. It will soon have, perhaps, a million persons, and eventually will be one of the world's greatest cities. The United States has taken away preachers from Canada, and I had thought that I would never go back to live, but I am going."

That he looks to do great things in Montreal is evident from Dr. Wallace's views. He says opportunities for great endeavor are awaiting him there, and he is anxious to get to the work.

AFFECTING SCENES AFTER FAREWELL SERVICE.

It was an affecting scene in the First Baptist Church yesterday morning after Dr. Wallace had preached his final sermon. The head of the deacons stepped to the pulpit and read telegrams from all parts of the country from former and present members of the congregation, expressing regret that he was leaving. Resolutions were also introduced deploring his departure.

When the last "Amen" had been said there was a steady advance to the pulpit. Weeping women and wet-eyed men crowded about the tall athletic figure of the Pastor, superb beneath his crown of white curls, to bid him farewell. Although the services closed at noon, it was almost two o'clock before the church was vacated.

Will Administer Muller Estate

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., July 28.—At the request of the German Consul in Toronto, the Toronto General Trusts Company has applied for letters of administration of the estate of Antoine Muller, the eccentric German, who died here some months ago, and whose body the German authorities refused to allow to enter his homeland.

The estate is valued at $36,461.26, and is held by several banks. The action is taken in the interest of three grandsons and one daughter, all of whom reside in Germany.

SAYS BURNS MSS. LOANED, NOT GIVEN

London, July 28.—A new turn has been given to the protests emanating from Scotland against the recent action of the Liverpool Athenaeum in selling the so-called Glen Riddel manuscripts of Burns, the purchase being understood to have been made indirectly by an American millionaire.

J. C. Ewing, one of the acknowledged authorities upon Burns's works, has raised the point that the Glen-Riddel manuscripts were loaned, not given, to Dr. Currie, who later presented them to the Athenaeum.

Mr. Ewing declares that Dr. Currie obtained a loan of them in 1897, when he arranged to write the life of the poet and edit his works, but he never returned the papers to the widow.

On this assumption it is understood that the Burns Federations and the Burns Clubs of the United Kingdom may test the legality of the sale of the manuscripts by getting Miss Annie Burns, of Cheltman Hall, who is a direct descendant of the poet, to set forth her claim.

LONDON MEN IN AUTO SPILL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, Ont., July 28.—Mr. W. W. Gammage, florist, was badly hurt and Harry Coleman and C. Fraser, all of London, were injured when an automobile in which they were going to Grand Bend to spend Sunday went over an embankment at Birwood and turned over twice before reaching the bottom.

Mr. Gammage, who was driving, had several ribs broken and was badly bruised by being pinned under the car. Messrs. Coleman and Fraser were hurled out and badly shaken up.

The accident was caused by the steering gear going wrong. All will recover, it is expected.

WOULDN'T TAKE FUNDS EXCEPT FROM HER SPOUSE

Girl Engaged to Hans Nybecker Refused to Come as Fiancee.

Although Miss Lena Van Stryker had not seen her lover, Hans Nybecker, for two years until she stepped from the gangplank of the Laurentic last night, she has been his lawful wife for the past three weeks. Mr. Nyat the wedding, which took place in a church in Amsterdam, on July 12. That there should be no danger of the brother's running away with his companion at the altar, the service was changed in its wording, and the bride swore to love, honor and obey "this man's brother," while Hans' proxy testified that Hans would love, guard and cherish Miss Van Stryker.

Hans came to Canada some two years ago, and by dint of industry was able to save enough money for his fiancee's passage on the ocean liner. She had promised to marry him before he set sail from Amsterdam, but to return to Holland and claim his bride would have entailed too much expense for the thrifty Dutchman. Miss Van Stryker was averse to receiving her passage money from any but her legal husband. She did not have funds of her own to bring her to Canada. A compromise was accordingly struck, in which the good-natured brother of the economical swain agreed to take a leading part, for the nonce.

The ceremony was performed without the bride falling in love with the young brother, and the happy couple declared when they met last night that they felt as fast bound as any other pair. Hans had prepared a neat little flat on Hochelaga Street, and Mrs. Nybecker started housekeeping this morning. Both say that they will not be parted again, as they have had enough of proxies, convenient as they may be.

Will Remove Huge Chimney At C.P.R. Station

The highest chimney in Canada, which stands in the rear of Windsor Street Station, and is sometimes called 'the forty thousand dollar folly of the Canadian Pacific Railway," has to be removed in order to facilitate the lines of track running into the new extension of the terminals.

The chimney stands on an immense cement base on the west side of the C.P.R.'s St. Antoine Street Power House, and it is said that the original intention was to build the massive structure some thirty feet nearer St. Antoine street. In its present position it stands directly in the way of preventing at least four lines of tracks entering the station.

This chimney is recognized as one of the most beautiful examples of commercial architecture on the continent. In symmetry of line it tapers gracefully from the base to the top, where it is ornamented by a classic design.

In removing the base, the contractors will be confronted with solid walls of cement from four to eight feet in depth.

ASSAILANT STILL FREE.

Inspector McMahon is exerting every means within his power to run down the man who assaulted Floreda Denis in front of her home at Notre Dame de Grace and believes that his men will be successful eventually.

Although the little girl is still in a very weak and nervous condition she is gradually improving and will be able to go about again in a few days.

THE WEATHER

PROBABILITIES.

Moderate winds, fine and warm today and on Tuesday.

The low area which was over Manitoba on Saturday has passed eastward to the Gulf of St. Lawrence, and another low area is now coming in over the Maritime Provinces, while between the two over the Great Lakes the pressure is high. A few local thunderstorms occurred in Ontario last night, but the weather since Saturday morning has been mostly fine and warm throughout the Dominion.

POLICE CHIEF FLARES UP; SAYS HE DOESN'T KNOW IF REPORT HAS BEEN SENT IN

Says He Doesn't Know What it Contains, or Will Contain, or if it Will be Sent Even to Attorney General — Expresses Candid Opinion of J. H. Roberts—North End Youth is Fined.

Chief Campeau broke loose this morning in regard to John H. Roberts, and in a burst of rage came out with his frank opinion of the temperance leader. The words "—— scoundrel," "loafer," figured in this opinion. While it has been known that the head of the Montreal Police Department has never entertained much affection for Mr. Roberts, he has hitherto refrained from expressing such a blunt opinion, but irritated beyond control by the bare mention of the temperance man's name by a Star representative, he said what he really thought.

"Don't talk to me about Roberts," he said angrily. "I don't want to hear his name. I am tired of him, the —— scoundrel, and you can say I said so."

As the chief strode away in a great rage he added "the loafer," referring to Mr. Roberts, and then called over his shoulder, "Let him pay his debts."

The latter reference is evidently to the claims being made against Roberts by Dr. Thanyette for medical attention necessitated by the two riots in the north end, and also to a claim against him by Riley Hern for clothing.

He Does Not Know.

There was little question from the Chief's attitude to-day that his patience has been entirely worn out over the Frisco case, and the troubles with Roberts.

So strong is Chief Campeau's aversion to everything connected with Roberts, that he could say nothing in regard to the report on the north-end disorders which Sir Lomer Gouin has asked for.

"Has this report been sent to Sir Lomer yet?" he was asked.

"I don't know."

Nor did he know whether it would be sent, or when it would be sent, or what it would contain, or, in fact, anything whatever about the case. He then ended the interview with his opinion of Mr. Roberts' character, general attainments, and financial standing.

Pleased at Change.

Controller Godfrey expressed his pleasure this morning that no further disturbances had marked Adventist meetings in the North End.

"We could not allow mob-rule," Controller Godfrey remarked to a Star representative. "I would have had it stopped if it meant going up myself. We must have the law respected. The Adventists have as much right to hold a meeting as anybody else, and they have as much right to police protection.

"I suppose the trouble has arisen from a lot of irresponsible young hotheads who did not realise the seriousness of their action. All the same, we could not tolerate that sort of thing."

Zepherin Cauchon, who was arrested last night by Lieutenant Savard when he refused to move on when requested to do so, when the crowd had gathered near the tent where pastor Vuilemuir was holding a meeting, was sentenced by Recorder Semple this morning to pay a fine of $2 or go to jail for ten days.

WANTS AID OF THE POLICE TO LEARN ABOUT GRAFTERS

Ald. Blumenthal Says He Cannot Tackle the Task All Alone.

ONE AFFIDAVIT IS SWORN UNDER OATH

Italian Says He Paid Dollar to Foreman and Was Asked for Two.

The assistance of the Detective Department is to be sought in the rooting-out of alleged grafters among the road foremen.

Ald. Blumenthal, who has been making investigations for some weeks past, announced this morning that the work was leading him beyond his scope.

"I am going to ask the Board of Control," he said, "to let me have the loan of one or two competent city detectives who will help me in the search. My office is flooded with men who claim that they have paid for their jobs, and it is far too big a business for me to tackle alone."

But there are only a few of the men who are willing to go on sworn record as having paid toll. Others declare that they have paid but will not make affidavits. They plead that they will lose their jobs and there are strange stories current of an even more drastic revenge having been threatened.

Paid One Dollar.

"Montreal, July 28,

"I, the undersigned, do solemnly declare that on or about the 15th June last I applied and obtained a job from a foreman whose name I do not know, but who handed me cheque No. 1306 and before obtaining such position I was obliged to hand him over the sum of $1. He subsequently asked me for $2, which amount I refused to hand over.

"Not being able to speak English, this affidavit has been translated to me and I fully understand its contents, and I make this affidavit knowing it to be true and as if made under oath as under the Canada Act of 1893."

Witness, M. Salmon. | his X mark
A. Blumenthal, J.P.

Controller Godfrey states that the Board will at once order an investigation if definite charges are laid by affidavit.

"If any foreman is found to be guilty of exacting money from applicants for positions," he said, "we shall quickly dispense with his services."

FIFTH DROWNING FOR WEEK-END IS AT CARTIERVILLE

REMAINS OF STILL ANOTHER ARE FOUND

No Trace of Two Women Drowned When Auto Plunged Off Ferry.

Swimming alone in the strong current at Katz Island, Cartierville, yesterday afternoon, a man whose identity remains unknown was carried down the river despite his efforts to gain calmer waters, and drowned before a skiff which put out from shore could reach him.

The body was carried into the swirling eddies of the river, and all efforts to find it have been futile. It was said this morning that a number of people witnessed the drowning, but none of them seemed to be acquainted with the man. Owing to the swiftness of the current around the island, it is practically impossible to drag the river, and probably will be necessary to wait until the body either comes to the top or is washed ashore at some point lower down.

Remains are Found.

With no means of identification on the clothes or body, the remains of still another victim were found in the river at the foot of Letourneau avenue. The man was dressed in ordinary working clothes, and the body, which was first discovered by Maxime Gros Louis, of 62 Panet street, was taken to the morgue, where no one has come to claim it. From the appearance of the remains, they had been in the river for about fifteen days.

All this morning two police boats worked with nets to raise the bodies of the two women who were drowned when their auto went off the ferry South. It is thought that the car turned completely over in its plunge and that the occupants will be found underneath. This afternoon an attempt will be made to raise the automobile.

London, July 28.—The Peruvian Legation here announced this morning that General Enrique Varela had formed a new Cabinet to take the place of the Cabinet under Dr. Aurelle Souza, which recently resigned.

General Varela takes the Premiership and also the Ministry of War and Marine, while Francisco Tudela Varela has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs, his old portfolio.

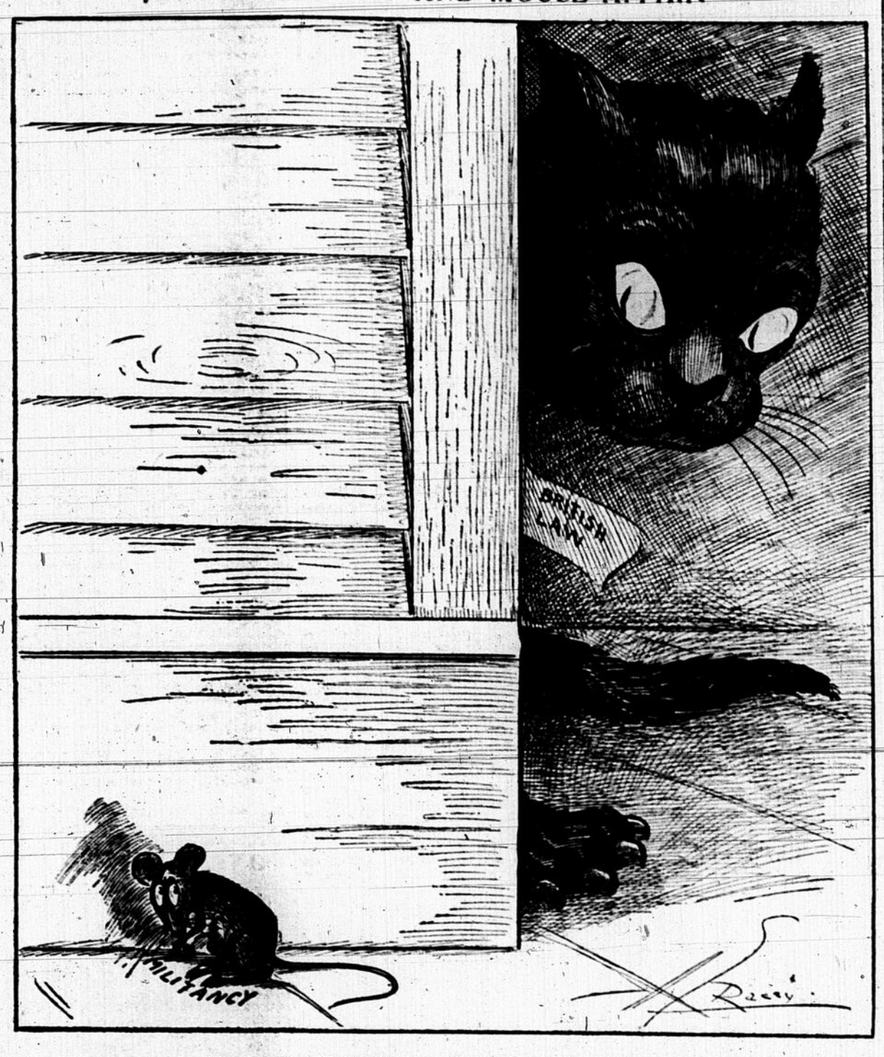
In the bow can be seen the opening through which the automobile went, breaking the barrier and causing the death of two women. To-day a heavy plank was put across the opening.—Also page 12.

JOHN BULL'S CAT AND MOUSE AFFAIR



The Mouse—"What's the Use; We Can't Beat the Cat."

LOSES ONE HE SAYS IS HIS WIFE AND IS SENT TO JAIL

This Was Joe Doyle's Unlucky Day—Man Named Smith Claimed Nellie's Hand.

It is not an unusual sight to see two women fighting for one "husband" in the local police courts. This morning, however, the case was reversed and two men appeared before Judge Lafontaine to swear that they each had a legal claim on the one woman.

One of the men, Joe Doyle, received a sentence of six months in jail for his part in coming to the front and claiming the girl. When women are going in the police courts in future Joe will not be there to make a bid.

The case being heard was that of Joe Doyle and Nellie Doyle, who had been arrested together on a charge of vagrancy by constables Tierney and Forget in a house at 88 B. Chenneville St. When the police took the pair in charge Doyle had a quantity of what is alleged to be cocaine in his possession. As soon as the drug has been reported on by specialists who are examining it he will appear before the recorder if it is cocaine.

When Doyle was taken to Headquarters he claimed the woman as his wife and this she did not contradict. Even when she appeared in court she testified he was her husband. Later, however, she denied this, but Doyle still maintained that they were man and wife, not knowing that a second man, who gave his name as Smith, had come forward and claimed the hand of Nellie.

Judge Lafontaine in passing judgment on Doyle this morning said that it was because he had committed perjury that he was sentencing him to six months in jail, and he made this all the more impressive by allowing the woman to go on suspended sentence.

CONTROLLERS HAVE NOT DISCUSSED PLANT YET

The filtration plant and the means to be adopted in completing the work will be considered at a meeting of the Board of Control to-morrow. It was intended at first to hold a special meeting on Saturday but this was found to be impracticable.

STEAMER GOES ASHORE.

New York, July 28.—The steamer Chalmette, from New Orleans for New York, went ashore during the night on the New Jersey coast, off Barnegat.

In response to a wireless call from the vessel early to-day, a tug was despatched from New York to her assistance.

The message said simply: Ashore off Barnegat. Send tug."

At the offices of the owners, the Southern Pacific Company, it was said that the steamer probably was not in a dangerous position, otherwise Captain Midloe would have made his message more urgent.

TO RAISE VOLUNTEER UNITED STATES ARMY.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Washington, D.C., July 28.—A plan to raise a volunteer army was drafted in a hurry to-day, and introduced as a Bill into the House of Representatives by Mr. Hay, of Virginia, chairman of the Military Affairs Committee.

The jingo element, looking for war with Mexico, believe the Bill and its hurried action to be significant.

THREE CLAIMED AS HEAT VICTIMS WITHIN TWO DAYS

One Man Stricken on Street — Others Died in Their Homes.

Many fatalities are recorded at the morgue as a result of the oppressive heat experienced during the week-end. Three such deaths were recorded yesterday and Saturday, and in each the Coroner gave a verdict of death due to natural causes. One of the fatalities was that of Hebert Pendlebury, 17 Hermine street, who was stricken on the street, and later found dead in his home. He was 50 years of age.

The other deaths were those of W. T. Shannon, 199 Dorchester street west, who complained of feeling ill, and went to bed, where he was found dead yesterday afternoon; and Anna Elizabel, who was stricken in her boarding house at 225 Lagauchetiere street.

PREMIER WHITNEY GIVES GREETING TO THE BRITISH PARTY

Toronto, July 28.—On their trip across Canada, which ends when they sail from the Pacific coast for Honolulu on August 6, the party of British Parliamentarians headed by Lord Emmott, under-Secretary of State for the Colonies, arrived in Toronto early this morning from Ottawa.

Controller Church, Acting-Mayor, and other civic representatives, met the party at the station and extended Toronto's greetings, after which they breakfasted at the King Edward Hotel.

During the morning automobiles carried the distinguished visitors on a sight-seeing tour, which ended at the Parliament buildings, where Sir James Whitney greeted them on behalf of the Province of Ontario.

At 12.45 the visitors left for Port McNicol, whence they sail this afternoon for the Upper Lakes and Western Canada.

Barcelona, Spain, July 28.—In consequence of the employers ignoring the men's demands, representatives of the workers in ninety factories in this city have been notified to call a strike.

CITIZENS PETITION AGAINST NOISY BLOCKS

In an endeavor to prevent the further laying of scoria blocks on Cadieux street, a number of proprietors living between Prince Arthur and Sherbrooke streets declare their intention of presenting a petition to the Superior Court for a writ of injunction against the city. Their claim is that they do not want scoria, as it is too noisy.

A petition against the use of the blocks on this section of Cadieux St., signed by about twenty proprietors, has been forwarded to the City Hall.

CLOSING MONTH SHOWS INCREASE IN PORT REVENUE

Customs Officials Give Figures for July — Gain of $120,000.

Financial stringency has not affected the trade of Montreal's port this season, declare customs officials; and another record month is about to close, this July's returns showing a net increase in customs duties of over $250,000.

R. S. White, collector of customs, stated to-day that the first four months of the fiscal year would show a gain in revenue of $120,000.

"Collections for this port in the month of June," he said, "showed 55 per cent of the total increase in the Dominion. In July, the total to date is $2,193,600, as against $1,944,000 in 1912. An average of $100,000 per day has been struck for the first twenty-two working days, and this may be exceeded for the entire month.

Statistics gathered at the Lachine Canal Revenue office show a similar degree of prosperity there; 3,128,526 bushels of wheat since July 1 making an increase of over two million bushels. In flax seed the increase is over a million bushels, which is even the more remarkable in view of the fact that last July the total was only 20,462 bushels. In corn there is a slight falling off, but this may be made up by the time the final returns of the month are in, on the first of August. To date in July the canal traffic in oats has been 1,471,752 bushels, in barley 256,612 bushels, in flour 66,695 barrels, in cheese 34,870 boxes, in butter, 1,742 pkgs. and in eggs, 2,043 cases.

EVERY MERCHANT MUST, BY NEW ARRANGEMENT, BE HIS OWN CARTER

Business Methods of Half a Century Revolutionized by Severance of Relations Between Railroads and Big Cartage Companies.

How far-reaching will be the results of the breaking of the traditional relations between the railroads and the cartage companies, and the readjustment of commercial activities to another relationship is a problem which is worrying the merchants of Montreal not a little these days.

The entire system by which freight was delivered is to be changed and a new one or a variety of new ones substituted for it.

For nearly half a century, the railroads have had an agreement with the cartage companies by virtue of which all freight was delivered from the yards to the consignees. A large part of the fabric of business has been built up on this arrangement.

If present plans are carried out, an entirely different arrangement will have to be substituted after October 1st. On and after that date, the railway companies will refuse to accept any responsibility for freight of any kind after it has once arrived in the yards and notification has been sent to the people to whom it is addressed.

Merchants can either send their own teams and employes to handle it, or make arrangements in their own behalf with one of the cartage companies to do so.

MEANS HIGHER CHARGE TO MERCHANT.

"The action of the railway companies in severing their contracts with the cartage companies after a term of thirty years will undoubtedly mean higher rates for cartage, as the latter have been losing money," declared Col. G. A. Starke, managing director of the Dominion Transport, to a representative of The Star to-day.

"But there is another very important point that must not be lost sight of. Under the present arrangements, the cartage companies take the freight from the sheds just as soon as it arrives at the local terminals, and deliver it to the merchants.

"Then our collectors go around and collect not only the cartage but the freight charges for railways, and after taking our share, we turn the balance over.

"This system was brought into force after a great deal of experimenting, and with the severance of the contracts some new arrangement must be devised, which may not work so well for the merchant.

"Have you been advised that your contract with the C. P. R. is finished after October 1st?"

"Only through the circular which has been sent out to that effect, and which has also been sent to the merchants."

Must Part Company.

"Which means that the railway companies and the cartage companies part company?"

"Yes, but we cannot tell yet just what arrangements will be made. One thing is sure; the cartage companies are not going out of business. We will keep going and the probability is that the merchants will have to make some arrangement with us in order not only to get their goods on time as in the past, but because it will be compulsory for them to look out for their own delivery of the goods."

"The merchants fear, Col. Starke, that this change will add to their operating expenses?"

"Of course it will add to their expenses but it will also add to the expenses of the cartage companies."

"In what way?"

"Oh in many ways, that will depend on the arrangements that may be made in the future."

BOTH SIDES AGREE TO ARBITRATE U. S. RAILWAY TROUBLES

New York, July 28.—The threatened strike of 80,000 conductors and trainmen of forty-five eastern railways for higher wages and improved working conditions will not be called.

Articles of agreement to arbitrate under the Newlands Act the questions at issue were signed on Saturday by the employees' representatives and the conference committee of railroad managers.

The agreement was not reached until the managers had withdrawn the proposal that their own grievance against the men should be arbitrated.

This claim, the managers announced, they had relinquished to "protect the public" from the tie-up which the employees intended to force if the railroads persisted in pressing their point.

The conference committee of railroad managers have selected their representatives on the arbitration board, but since then they have not yet accepted the assignments the names will not be announced until next week.

Hearings must begin within thirty days after the completion of the board. The hearings will be in New York city, and probably start early in September.

The award of the arbitration will remain in effect one year, at the close of which period the railroads may give thirty days' notice if they desire a change.

CREW AT PUMPS TWO DAYS AND NIGHTS.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Canso, N.S., July 28.—The American fishing schooner Arethusi arrived here to-day, after having struck the southeast bar at Sable Island on Friday. Her rudder was unshipped and her keel torn off.

A temporary steering-gear was arranged and the crew stood to the pumps for two days and nights to work her to land sixty miles from where she struck.

MRS. PANKHURST AGAIN APPEARS TO DEFY POLICE

London, July 28.—Cheered to the echo and allowed to go free by the police, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militants, this afternoon appeared at the weekly suffragette meeting in the London Pavilion. She was conveyed to the place in an ambulance and wheeled to the stage in an invalid's chair.

Mrs. Pankhurst was received with a storm of cheers and thundering applause. Some of the women in the audience could not restrain their emotion, and sobbed aloud.

Unable to stand, the militant leader made a brief speech from the invalid chair in which she was wheeled on to the stage, despite the appeals of her friends and of the nurse who accompanied her. They told her not to excite herself, but she insisted on speaking.

"The end of the weary struggle is near," she said. Public opinion is turning in our favor. We will never stop militancy until its claim is granted."

Once during her talk Mrs. Pankhurst broke down, but resumed speaking after a stimulant had been administered to her by the nurses.

Her "Cat and Mouse" license was auctioned for $500, and after that Mrs. Pankhurst returned to her flat in the ambulance, the police making no attempt to stop her.

Miss Annie Kenney was re-arrested outside the hall after a desperate struggle. Mounted police had been summoned to disperse the suffrage sympathizers, who fiercely attacked the police.

SS. Canada and Officials Here

Admiral Kingsmill and his aide-de-camp, Lieut.-Gilchrist, were brought up to Montreal on the Government Fisheries ship Canada from Halifax, arriving in port yesterday.

The Canada, whose business it is to protect the rights of Canadian fishermen along the Newfoundland coast, is a cutter of an improved type, and carries several eight inch guns. She is berthed at the foot of McGill street, where she will remain until she sails on Friday for Halifax.

Making Your Dollar Do Double Duty

Our dollars come hard enough to most of us to make us interested in anything which will tend to give them greater purchasing power. And so our readers will appreciate our repetition of the same idea in these talks on advertising, when we call attention again to the daily possibilities for economy and saving offered by careful and intelligent buying of the year-in, year-out things that all of us must buy.

Clothes, food, recreation—all are better bought, more intelligently bought, more economically bought by those who read the advertising with care and understanding.

In saying how much a dollar will buy, it makes all the difference in the world who spends the dollar.

169 CHILDREN UNDER FIVE YEARS DIED DURING WEEK

One hundred and fifty children under the age of twelve months died in Montreal last week and 169 under the age of five years.

Terrible as they are, the figures show an improvement as compared with the two weeks preceding. For the week ending July 26, there were 214.

How the hot weather has taken its toll is seen by a comparison with the figures for a little over a month ago. During the week ending June 21, there were 59 deaths of children under five years of age.

The total mortality last week was 273, or 32 more than the 240 births registered. There were 27 deaths from contagious disease, one of these being a case of small-pox. It was that of a child a few days old whose mother is now in the isolation hospital suffering from small-pox. This makes the third death from small-pox since the beginning of the outbreak in the early winter. In each case the victim was a newly-born child. Last week, there were also six fresh cases of small-pox reported.

New cases of diphtheria were 15, with one death; scarlet fever, 20 with three deaths; measles, 7 cases; tuberculosis, 14 with 21 deaths.

DAVIS CUP GOES TO THE AMERICANS

McLoughlin Defeated Dickson in Three Sets, Making Three Wins for U. S.

Wimbleton, Eng., July 28.—The United States team today won the Davis lawn tennis cup.

Intense interest was shown in the deciding matches in the challenge round of the contest between England and the United States for possession of the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis trophy, in which the United States team had already placed two wins to its credit, while the English team had scored only one victory.

Only one further success out of the two singles matches still remaining of the series of five matches was necessary for the American players to capture the coveted trophy from the English holders and the close of the contest attracted a great crowd of lawn tennis enthusiasts to the famous courts of the All-England Lawn Tennis Association.

Summer skies and a high temperature greeted the players when they appeared on the ground.

Dixon, before play started, said: "The English team has had bad luck thus far, but I expect to go after McLoughlin baldheaded today."

McLoughlin won the first set in his match against Dixon by 8 games to 6.

McLoughlin won the second set from Dixon by 6 games to 3.

McLoughlin won the third set from Dixon by 6 games to 2, and thus carried off the match in three straight sets, 8—6, 6—3, 6—2.

The score by points in the first set was:

McLoughlin	41564151414154—44
Dixon	24540434241421—41

Second set:

McLoughlin	414441444—39
Dixon	1402422122—22

Third set:

McLoughlin	44442714—39

Toronto Polo Team Again Defeated Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 28.—Following closely upon their defeat of the Buffalo Polo Club at Toronto the team from the Queen City again beat Buffalo here on Saturday at the Buffalo Country Club by 5 goals to 3 3-4. The score at half time was 4 goals to 2 in favor of the Buffalonians, but the Canadians finished strongly, while the locals were penalized one quarter of a goal. Beautiful individual cups were presented to the members of the winning team. Teams:

Buffalo—Coleman Curtis, 1; Clarence Sidway, 2; Chandler Bleistein, 3; Ralph Sidway, back.

RESULTS AT BELMONT.

Belmont Park, N.Y., July 28.—Donald MacDonald, after masquerading for a long time as a selling plater, came into his own by winning the Long Beach Handicap, the feature of the card. There were only four starters and MacDonald carried 107 pounds, while Lahore carried 113 and Carmania 97. M. Miller, regarded as the best, had only 102. Lahore stayed right with the winner for five furlongs, then dropped back, but Jimmy Butwell stirred the golding up again and once more the gap between the two was diminished, but not enough to keep MacDonald from winning. M. M. Miller added diversity and excitement to the proceedings by making a game attempt to beat out the two leaders near the close.

First race, three-year-olds and up, $500 added, mile and an eighth—Kalinka, 102, Nicklaus, 6 to 5, 2 to 5, out, won. Stentor, 108, Butwell, 6 to 1, 2 to 1, 7 to 10, second. War Horn, 116, Wolfe, 9 to 2, 7 to 5, 1 to 2, third. Time, 1.46 3-5. Oakhurst and Jawbone also ran.

Second race, two-year-olds, $400 added, five and a half furlongs—Gallop, 106, Wilson, 7 to 5, 1 to 2, out, won. Notoriety, 106, Karrick, 6 to 1, 2 to 5, second. Disparity, 101, Brady, 8 to 1, 3 to 1, 7 to 5, third. Time, 1.06 2-5. Peeth Rock, Lady Orme, Ovation, Poly H., Mary Warren, Miss Cavanagh, Odd Cross and Ione also ran.

Third race, handicap, for three-year-olds and up, $600 added, seven furlongs, main course—Ocean Blue, 104, Butwell, 15 to 5, 7 to 5, 7 to 10, won. Sickle, 110, Grand, 5 to 1, 2 to 1, even, second. Perthshire, 112, Wilson, 3 to 2, even, 1 to 2, third. Time, 1.27. Senora, Dartmouth, Reybourn, Carroll, Reid and Lacliff also ran.

Fourth race, the Long Beach Handicap, for three-year-olds, $1,500 added, mile and a furlong—Donald MacDonald, 107, Wilson, 9 to 5, 2 to 10, out, won. Lahore, 113, Butwell, 5 to 2, 4 to 5, out, second. G. M. Miller, 105, Nicklaus, 5 to 2, 4 to 5, out, third. Time, 1.52 4-5. Guy Fisher also ran.

Fifth race, steeplechase, handicap, four-year-olds and up, about two and a quarter miles, $600 added—George Eno, 158, Booth, 105, out, won. Nosegay, 135, Chandler, 13 to 1, 6 to 5, out, second. Brosseau, 138, Clark, 8 to 1, even, out, third. Time, 4.45 4-5. Garth also ran.

Sixth race, three-year-olds, maidens, $500 added, five furlongs—Bunch of Keys, 118, Butwell, 11 to 5, even, 2 to 5, won. Rebound, 103, Brady, 7 to 1, 2 to 1, even, second. Dixon, 105, Beauchottom, 20 to 1, 8 to 1, 2 to 1, third. Time, 1.42. Chopin, Arran, Deerfield, Whisper Belle, Jim Gaffrey and Eutorpe also ran.

The Young Men's Hebrew Association baseball team defeated the Eurekas by 9 to 3, and thereby won the championship of the Senior Montefiore League.

SPORTING VIEWS and REVIEWS

Golf has invaded the Laurentians, having broken into the mountains at Val Morin, and is said to have gained a foothold that fishing or any other form of holiday occupation will never be able to snatch from it. A golf player always requires nerve, but especially so when it comes to playing in the mountains. That is easily understood. Suppose he misses his stroke and loses his balance, what then? When he recovers consciousness after the fall he will likely find himself in the next township, possibly in the next county. A mountain golf player should take warning from the Swiss farmer whose sad fate it was the duty of the late Mark Twain to put on record. One balmy spring day this Swiss farmer was ploughing in a field on a mountainside—one of those fields in which potatoes have to be anchored in the hills in order to prevent them rattling out and rolling into the next country. Any way the farmer was ploughing there, when thoughtlessly he took one hand off the plough-handle in order to brush a fly off his nose. That was the beginning, for by giving up half his anchorage, he lost his balance and fell into Northern Italy. He never made much of a success of farming after that. Let the mountain golfers beware.

The Australian cricketers the other day played a picked team of colored folks representing Bermuda. It was a dark day for the minstrel folks, who lost by an innings and 122 runs. Leadership in genuine sport continues to be part of the white man's burden.

The Tecumsehs have agreed not to play Yeaman when next they meet the Torontos. Yeaman has elected to be tried by jury on the assault case. It would be very convenient if that Tecumseh-Toronto match and Yeaman's trial could come off on the same day. In that way Yeaman would not be put to any unnecessary loss of time. He cannot take part in the match, so he might devote the day to the administration of justice.

On Saturday next St. Johns will once more see the regatta of the Canadian Canoe Association. Well, the historical, old Richelieu will once more welcome the paddlers and use them well, too, assuring each a fair field without favors. No paddler can ask for more. In its day the old Richelieu has seen many paddlers of many races, bent on many missions, most of which were not so peaceful as the mission of the canoe-men, who will have something to say about races on Saturday next. Those fond of aquatics will find on that day that all roads lead to St. Johns.

President Barrow, of the International League, is disappointed—sadly disappointed—in the attendance at the ball games at Atwater Park. He should bear in mind that these are busy times in this old burg. Half the streets are being made over, and some of them made under, judging from the holes and trenches that are being dug. Then quite a fair number of folks feel called upon to lose money at the horse races; and, furthermore, the week-end habit is spreading, which takes thousands away from their Saturday afternoon duty of reporting at the ticket-wicket at the ball grounds. Possibly another condition has a depressing influence on the attendance, and that is the quality of the ball being played. Is it the brand which the fans cheerfully earned money in order to see. The whole question resolves itself into this—give the people what they want and the game will not want spectators.

It is now announced that the new racing track at Dorval will be in use fairly early during the coming autumn. This will be a great convenience to the Lakeshore folks, for by the time they have finished with the regattas, along will come the ponies, and it will not be necessary, in order to find entertainment, to come back to town much before snow flies.

WITH THE CANADIAN BOWLERS

(BY C. O. KNOWLES)

(Copyrighted)

Edinburgh, July 12. — The anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne did not prove a lucky day for the touring bowlers. After three notable victories at Ayr, Uddington and Sterling, they received a severe drubbing at the hands of the Edinburgh and Leith Bowling Associations.

An adverse majority of 36 shots does not indicate the relative superiority of the victorious team over the Scottish teams that were defeated by the Canadians earlier in the week. Aside altogether from the fact that the team was one of exceptional strength, the Canadians had an off day and absolutely failed to find the heavy green after playing on one of lightning speed at Sterling the day previous.

The Canadian team has been performing in rare form and won rather unexpected victories at Ayr and Uddington. The tourists have been playing a much stronger game in Scotland than they did in England, and with reasonable luck bid fair to win a very fair percentage, if not a small majority of the games in Scotland. The wise ones call the Canadians to win two more games in this country, and if they do, they will have established a record.

To-day's game at Edinburgh was played on the poorest green we have seen in Scotland. It is not to be compared with the greens in and around Glasgow.

In other things, however, the Scottish capital does not suffer by comparison with the great industrial hive on the Clyde. There was more evidence of abject poverty and misery in Glasgow than in any place yet visited by the team. The difference between the two places is quite obvious, even to the casual visitor.

Glasgow with all its notable achievements in municipal triumphs, has more than its share of physical, mental and moral degenerates, victims of vice and drunkenness, victims branded into the third and fourth generations. Edinburgh, of course, like any old country city, is not free from blemishes of this kind, but they are not so patent as in the great metropolis on the banks of the Clyde.

The North British Hotel on Princes street, where part of the Canadians were quartered, is the first thoroughly modern, up-to-date hotel, judged by American standards, which the Canadians have seen in their travels. The Central Station Hotel at Glasgow, while a splendid place with spacious rooms, is sadly deficient in the modern conveniences which characterize American hotels of the better class. Of the 550 rooms in the hotel not more than a dozen are equipped with running water or bath rooms.

Princes street is reputed to be the most beautiful thoroughfare in the world and Edinburgh on a clear day is said to be the most beautiful city. This claim is not easy to challenge because a clear day in Edinburgh is a rare occurrence. The cloudy skies which we were promised in Scotland, were quite noticeable in Glasgow, although the air was never heavy enough to necessitate the postponement of a game. It was quite murky in Edinburgh all day, but the natives declared the weather to be fine and hot. The description would scarcely be applicable under similar conditions in Canada.

The tourists have been rather surfeited with sight-seeing, when festivities, pleasure jaunts, banquets, etc., sufficient to spread over six months, are crowded into six weeks. It is a rather indigestible dose and the worst glutton for pleasure is glad to retire and miss as much as he dare without being discourteous to hosts who are the soul of hospitality and generosity. Wearied as we were of investigating ancient castles, historic landmarks and famous battlefields, everybody rejoiced in the marvellous panaroma displayed from the walls of Sterling Castle. For magnificent, picturesque scenery nothing could surpass it. Bannockburn is only a few miles distant and it is said the scene of a hundred battles may be viewed from the walls around Sterling Castle.

It is a waste of adjectives to praise Edinburgh. It has been lauded to the skies by globe trotters, tourists and gushing Americans until there is little left to be said. Its rarely, picturesque setting gives it a distinctiveness which cannot be duplicated by the hand of man. Its buildings are massive and apparently designed for comfort. They are not showy and taken individually suffer perhaps by comparison with the more ornate and pretentious residences of the wealthy classes in Toronto. The reflection would be reversed by some people—it depends on the point of view. The dwelling-houses and public buildings are almost entirely built of stone. A brick building is a rare sight here.

In general appearance, despite radical differences there is a dignified solidity about Edinburgh which is more like Montreal than Toronto. Quite recently Sunday cars were introduced in the Scottish capital, and although the old-fashioned cable cars run very slowly they do keep things moving. Without them one can well imagine that Sunday in Edinburgh would be a real day of rest according to the definition of the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance.

There is little industry in Edinburgh. It is peopled by the better classes and those who have amassed fortunes in commercial pursuits elsewhere and come here to enjoy life. It claims to be the habitation of the most intellectual and cultured people in Scotland and rather looks down in a way on its big sister, the City of Glasgow, where one-fourth of the entire population of the country is hived.

THE WOOTTON LIBEL SUIT RACING SCANDAL; DETAILS OF TESTIMONY IN ENGLISH COURT CONTINUED

Lord Derby, in giving his evidence at the celebrated turf libel case in England, said that he was an owner of racehorses and a Steward of the Jockey Club from 1906 to 1908, when his father died, and again from 1909 to 1912, when his term of office expired. At Newmarket the Stewards of the Jockey Club acted as stewards of the meeting. At Epsom, Ascot, and Goodwood two Stewards of the Jockey Club acted in conjunction with another steward. At other meetings the Stewards of the Jockey Club constituted a Court of Appeal from other stewards. It was the duty of the Stewards of the Jockey Club to make inquiries as to the running of horses, as for instance, into any allegation of pulling. Since 1893 Mr. G. Lambton had trained his horses. He had trained for his father too. He was Lord Durham's brother.

The witness said he was a steward in May, 1909, at Newmarket. He had a horse in the Southwell Plate, Queen's Journal, which was ridden by Frank Wootton. Stanley Wootton rode Wiseacre in the same race. He had felt no suspicion and expressed no complaints as to the running of his horse. She did not run a good race. He had not the slightest suspicion then or now of Frank Wootton. There was not the slightest ground for saying that Frank Wootton had not done his best. The mare was not an easy one to deal with—none of her family was. He had afterwards engaged Frank Wootton for a year, and renewed the engagement for another year. It was a considerable retainer. He had not renewed the retainer of Frank Wootton, because he looked like putting on a great deal of weight, and at that time he had no suitable horses. He wished it to be known that he had nothing against him, and engaged him to ride Swinford. Stedfast was afterwards substituted for that horse. By a misunderstanding Frank Wootton had not ridden Stedfast in the Coronation Cup last year, but he had ridden the horse for him on other occasions.

Lomond in the Newmarket Stakes.

He had noticed Lomond had a cracked heel at the finish of the Newmarket Stakes. He had drawn Mr. Hulton's attention to it. That would account for the horse wobbling about during the race. The heel was still bleeding at the end of the race. As to the allegation that Frank Wootton had pulled the colt at Lincoln, he took part at the inquiry, which lasted three days, two in the country and one in London. The result was that Frank Wootton was absolutely absolved from having pulled this horse. The stewards went into all the bets that the plaintiff had made on the question of motive. Mr. Wilkinson was present at the inquiry. Mr. G. Lambton had expressed regret for having brought the charge. Mr. Wootton's bank-books were produced. No document which the stewards asked for had been withheld. He did not know that his attention was called to the attacks on the plaintiff in the "Winning Post." He read the articles. The Wootton boys had continued to ride for him after these articles had been published. If he had a suitable horse in a suitable race tomorrow, and his own jockey was not available, he would employ Frank Wootton; he would be very glad to get him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Sievier, Lord Derby said that he was a reader of the "Winning Post," and he thought the articles were reasonably sensible.

I am, of course, confining myself to the racing articles?—Oh, I read them all.

Do you believe that any article on racing in the "Winning Post" has been written otherwise than in a spirit of fair criticism?

Mr. F. E. Smith objected. After discussion, Mr. Justice Darling asked Mr. Sievier to put his question again.

Do you think that the articles in the "Winning Post" as a rule are written with fair criticism?

Are these articles in your opinion malicious?

The question was disallowed.

The first question was then read by the shorthand writer and disallowed.

Lord Derby then said:—I think on racing itself your comments are very fair. The Stewards of the Jockey Club did not punish a jockey for foul riding unless the charge was proved up to the hilt. They were there to mete out severe punishment when it was deserved. Dealing with the objection made to Frank Wootton at Newbury on the ground of foul riding, he said that was a serious offence, although he thought "pulling" was worse. "Pulling" might prevent a horse from winning. Foul riding was due to over-eagerness.

In this case was it over-eagerness or foul riding?—I think he was over-eager to win; he was perfectly determined to win and did not much mind how he got there.

The witness said that he only betted in small sums—"fivers and tenners." He was never in Tattersall's ring.

The Hon. Francis Lambton in the Box.

The Hon. Francis Lambton was then called. He said he had been training horses for ten years. He had seen the race between Queen's Journal and Wiseacre in May, 1909, at Newmarket. He had not the slightest doubt that Frank Wootton did his best to win. He would not have employed Frank Wootton if he had thought he had any tendency towards pulling. He had employed the plaintiff's lad Smyth during the last two years on many occasions.

Cross-examined by Mr. Sievier as to the race he had spoken of, the witness said that in his opinion if Frank Wootton had "strung the filly out" down the hill he might just have won.

Cross-examined by Mr. Marshall Hall.—If there had been an arrangement between the jockeys as had been suggested the odds would show a reason for it.

Re-examined.—He had not the slightest doubt that Frank Wootton had tried to win this race.

Mr. Wootton was then further cross-examined by Mr. Sievier. He said that he was unable to say how much he had won at betting since 1907, Messrs. Keene and Co., his auditors, could tell. His total earnings in this country had averaged £5,000 a year.

Mr. Justice Darling.—That is a very good sum to keep it at, as then you do not have to pay super-tax.

He had bought 13¼ acres at Epsom for £1,500. He had bought an estate in Australia that cost £40,000. He had about £2,000 income from house property in Australia. He had brought £19,000 with him to this country. He had 29 houses in Sydney. He owed some money, but in a short time that would be paid off.

The witness was then proceeding to deal with the career of Lomond when the Court adjourned.

ROYALS HAD NINTH INNING RALLY AND WON YESTERDAY'S ENCOUNTER AFTER BEING BLANKED ON SATURDAY

The best Mr. K. Bransfield could do in the two week-end contests with the aggregation of Mr. J. Dunn (the sweet-voiced soprano) was to declare himself in to the etent of fifty-fifty.

And to do this our sterling athletes had to manufacture a last act thrill at the National shambles during the intense heat of yesterday p. m.

Mr. K. Bransfield's flock of pill-tossers have found that Mr. J. Dunn's outfit is not quite as fat picking as the squad from Jersey City which recently performed in our midst.

A correct and exclusive summary of the result of the two grim struggles pulled off on Saturday and Sunday is as follows:

Saturday's Event:

Mr. K. Bransfield's Flotilla	0
Visiting Brigands	4

Yesterday's Engagement:

Our Peerless Brigade	6
Hated Foe from U. S.	5

A brigand named Cottrell hurled on Saturday for the hostile forces from Baltimore and had our willow-wielders looking like a bunch of soft ice cream in the stokehold of H. M. S. Dreadnought. There was nothing to it but the fade-away stuff for ours during the entire engagement, our pill-punchers connecting with only three swats during the battle.

If Mr. Cottrell has any more of this blend on his system, he is politely requested to keep it under cover until he has reached some other centre of industry and culture.

Another pirate to bring disaster on our unsuspecting lids was Mr. Maisel, also of the enemy's camp, who punched the pills sent over by Mr. H. McGraner, our gifted port-sider, for a double-decker and one into St. Catherine street.

Mr. Maisel (mentioned above) was there with the potent poke on Saturday, even if he did fall by the wayside during the struggle yesterday.

YESTERDAY'S ENCOUNTER FELL TO US.

Yesterday's affair at the East End yard had a little more gladness in it, our sterling athletes pulling off some bright stuff themselves at a time when there seemed as much hope of Mr. K. Bransfield's outfit getting the decision as there was for Mr. J. Yeager's Saturday selection finishing in the money.

The latter (viz: the Saturday selection of Mr. J. Yeager) ran thirteenth in a field of eight, and had to be helped across the tape with a derrick.

Mr. F. Smith (the expert piano-mover) was working out in our interests yesterday, and was there with the mystery material, the hickory-swingers from Mr. J. Dunn's camp breaking their backs in the endeavor to locate the pills sent over by the great hurler. Eight of the hated foe bit the coarse dust during the combat as the result of the heaving of Mr. F. Smith (the expert piano-mover) Mr. J. Esmond, the afflicted athlete with the bum pedal, pulled off a punch in the ninth session which pushed Mr. R. Demmitt across the platter with the winning count, after two of his comrades had been assassinated and the score five each.

The thanks of an admiring community is due Mr. J. Esmond for the material he provided yesterday.

Mr. W. Allen (the fond lover) was also in the money yesterday and came across with three hits that aided and abetted Mr. K. Bransfield's cause to an alarming extent. Mr. W. Allen didn't win many medals for his work in the outer garden, but he was there with the poke of the pill all right.

MR. E. BARROW HAS DEPARTED.

It is announced in select circles that Mr. E. Barrow, the great pill magnate, is peeved with the attendance at the ballyard this season, and states that there are several cities waiting to grab Mr. K. Bransfield's franchise unless the electors and suffragettes of this fair metropolis come across with more collateral from time to time.

The vintage of this brand of bunk is almost as ancient as the Chateau de Ramsay. The blend was first discovered by Mr. P. Powers (the gent who pinched T. Longboat's gate-receipts), who used to hand it out every time he blew into town; but local electors expected better things from a magnate of Mr. E. Barrow's intellectual standing.

There might, of course, have been more coin gathered in at the death-dealing turnstiles than there has been this season, but there also might have been some effort made to provide the free and independent electors with a real pill aggregation over which they could wax pleasantly eloquent.

Mr. E. Barrow knows—from his experience when head of our forces several years ago—just what is wrong at the present time.

If he doesn't he has lost a lot of class as an astute observer.

M. A. A. A. Weekly Handicaps.

The M.A.A.A. handicaps which took place on Friday last, were pulled off with great success, no less than seven events being decided. The best race of the evening was the 220 yards, which McKenna won from scratch in 22 2-5. Morel was only a few feet behind and Brebner, another scratch man, well up. The one lap race was also well contested, Rowlands winning from the 15 yard mark, Mackay just beating Corbett, a new boy, out by inches. W. Wallace a new boy, displayed great variety in winning the 100 yards intermediate and the 1 mile. Will Bailey won the three mile race, he overtook the handicap men in the early stages of the race, and after that had no trouble in winning.

100 yards, intermediate—First heat: Won by W. Wallace (5 yards); 2nd, D. Cairns (scratch). Time, 10 2-5 secs. Second heat—Won by T. G. Ireland (3 yards); 2nd, J. Corbett (5 yards). Time, 10 4-5 secs.

Final—Won by W. Wallace; 2nd, D. Cairns; 3rd, T. G. Ireland. Time 10 2-5 secs.

220 yard run—First heat: Won by P. McKenna (scratch); 2nd, W. I. Brebner (scratch). Time, 24 secs.

Second heat—Won by L. Morel (6 yards); 2nd, H. Walton. Time, 22 1-5 secs.

One-third mile race— Won by A. Rowlands (15 yards); 2nd, J. H. Mackay (scratch); 3rd, J. Corbett (25 yards). Time, 1 min. 15 secs.

One-mile run— Won by W. Wallace (125 yards); 2nd, E. A. Venning (160 yards); 3rd, W. W. Caven (150 yards). Time, 4 min. 45 secs.

Three-mile run— Won by W. C. Bailey (scratch); 2nd, B. Ellis, (200 yards); 3rd, A. Hans, (125 yards). Time, 16 min. 8 3-5 secs.

High jump—Won by C. E. Stanley (4 inches); 2nd, F. W. Evans(scratch); 3rd, J. A. Platt (7 inches). Height, 5 feet 8 inches.

Throwing the discuss— Won by L. Morel (26 feet); second, D. J. Cahill (scratch); third, D. Brokaw (20 feet). Distance, 108 feet 5 inches.

M. A. A. A. RUGBYISTS AT PRACTICE

Mr. Dan Gilmore is Looking for a Coach for a Crack Team This Year.

Football practice at the M. A. A. A. has already commenced and on Saturday there were quite a few of those who expect to make the rugby team this year out on the gridiron. For several days previous a few players had been kicking the ball around each evening in a desultory fashion, and it seems apparent at this early date, that there will be plenty of material to work into a strong M. A. A. A. team this season.

That a professional coach will be secured is practically decided, and Mr. Dan. Gilmore is looking around for some one capable of putting the M. A. A. A. in the top position before the season is over. No line can be secured yet as to whose hands the work of developing the team this year will be entrusted, but it seems altogether likely that an American College coach will be imported.

UNPOPULAR DECISION AT SYDNEY BOUT.

Special Cable to The Montreal Star.

Sydney, N.S.W., July 28.—After twenty rounds fast fighting at thee Stadium last night Morey, of West Australia was given the decision over Stagg, of England. The decision created a hostile demonstration. The Sunday press claim that Stagg out-pointed Morey.

The Mohyan-Wells contest on August 9, promises to draw record crowds. Both men are in good condition.

SENSE and NONSENSE

THE UMPIRE.

(One of the Bats that Kipling Overlooked.)

A fool there was and he thought he knew
(Even as you and I)
How to boss the game as the umpires do.

(His powers of reason had gone askew,
But the fool thought muscle might pull him through,
Even as you and I.)

Oh, the cash he spent and the time he spent
And the hollowness of his cheek
Belong to the correspondence school,
Which taught the game to the willing fool
At so much every week.
A fool there was and his cash he blew
(Nothing like you and I)
For a two years' course and diploma, too,
Tied up with a ribbon of baby blue;
But you never can tell what a fool will do—
('Twould puzzle both you and I).

Oh, the game he played and the name he made
And the cuss words that filled the air
Belong to the players who raised the kicks,
Also to the rooters who aimed the bricks
And mangled his face, once fair.
The fool was stripped to his union suit
(Somebody blacked his eye),
And the pop bottles broke in a grand salute,
And his legs gave way when he tried to scoot,
And the rooters did everything else but shoot,
Nor heeded his pleading cry.

Oh, it isn't the name and it isn't the frame
That helps make an umpire grand;
It's the fishy eye and the foghorn voice
That oft makes the gloomiest fan rejoice—
And now you can understand.
—Charles R. Angell.

According to Professor D. W. Edgeworth David, of the University of Sydney, Australia, the deposits of coal discovered by the Shackleton and Scott expeditions in the Antasctic will perhaps prove to be one of the largest unworked coal fields in the world. Wild, of the Shackleton expedition, discovered seven seams of coal outcropping in a great cliff face of sandstone and shale. The thickness of these seams, inclusive of a few clay bands, was seven feet. Specimens chopped out by Wild with his ice ax have been analyzed at Sydney and show the coal to be of workable quality. Scott's geologists traced this field for a distance of 650 miles, extending northward from the head of the Beardmore glacier.

ROYAL ST. LAWRENCE YACHT CLUB BOATS BRING INTERNATIONAL CUP HOME TO DORVAL

There Were Many Protests at 1000 Islands, But Good Fellowship Prevailed.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Thousand Islands Yacht Club, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., July 28.—By a margin of only three points the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club won the series of International Races here between boats of the one design class. The contests were almost unique in the number of protests and misunderstandings of instructions which occurred, but withal the best possible feeling prevailed.

After Thursday's fiasco and Friday's close result, Saturday morning's race was eagerly awaited, more especially when it became known that two of the Canadian boats would carry a set of sails borrowed from the Americans. It has been evident all along that the sails used by the Thousand Islands Yacht Club were better cut and probably twenty-five feet bigger than those of the Canadians. The result of the race justified those who expected that the new sails would make a difference.

Baby Thorella's Gain.

The Baby Thorella sailed by Routh and Findley, which could do no better than fifth on Friday, finished first, just two seconds ahead of the Dorothy sailed by Duggan. The third Canadian boat, the Tot, sailed by George Eadie, fouled the third buoy on the first round and was disqualified. The disqualification of the Tot made the race all the more exciting as unless a Canadian won the race outright the cup would stay at the Thousand Islands.

The start was exceedingly pretty, only few seconds separating the six boats. They crossed the line as follows: Baby Thorella, Tot, Dorothy, Whistler, Whiff and Scallion. The Tot lost a lot on the first leg and was last to round the buoy. On the second leg the order was unchanged, but Baby Thorella and Dorothy began to draw away from the others with Whiff losing ground. So they raced for the next two legs and then Whistler and Scallion began to gain on the Canadian boats.

On the Last Leg.

It was a great race on the last leg, Dorothy and Baby Thorella fighting every inch of the way. There was a fine blanketting match between them, and it looked as if Whistler might come up on them while they were fighting one another. They dropped that game just in time with the Dorothy now slightly in the lead. When about fifty yards from the line Baby Thorella got a puff which just put her more in front and she passed the line a winner by two seconds. The order and times of finishing were:—

Baby Thorella	12.15.0
Dorothy	12.15.2
Whistler	12.15.10
Scallion	12.15.18
Whiff	12.17.0

Thus there were only eighteen seconds between the first and fourth boats.

The individual honors of the races went to the Whistler which finished first on Friday and third on Saturday, thus gaining ten points; Dorothy made nine, Baby Thorella eight, Scallion six, Tot five, and Whiff three. This made the totals, Canadians 22, Americans 19.

Claimed the Cup.

After the race the owner of the Whistler claimed the Cup on the grounds that it was given for the best individual boat and not for the aggregate points of the teams. There was a general impression that such was the final arrangement made, but the Regatta Committe decided otherwise and awarded the cup to the Royal St. Lawrence. After Thursday's fiasco this misunderstanding was very unfortunate, but there was further trouble over a cup presented by Commodore Gillespie for the best Canadian boat. The commodore was not explicit in saying whether the cup was for the boat doing best in the International races or for a special race. The skippers ultimately decided that the cup was for the boat doing best in the International races though the Commodore had declared at his dinner that the three boats should scrap it out. The Dorothy having got two seconds, the Baby Thorella first and third these two boats will race for the cup to-day. Graham Miles presented a cup for boats of the B class to race on Saturday afternoon.

The only boats to enter were from the Royal St. Lawrence, the Avocate and the Appris. Duggan sailed the Avocate and McLellan the Appris, the Avocate led from the start and won by seven seconds, but the Appris was closing on her at the end. The sportsmanlike action of the Thousand Islands Club in lending two suits of sails deserved great praise and they certainly strained a point in Canada's favor in their ultimate decision. It is only fair to say that they also offered a set of sails to George Eadie for the Tot, but Eadie thought the boats ought to sail as they came here and refused the offer while expressing his appreciation of it.

It is pretty generally agreed that the Canadians were as a team the better sailors, but the Whistler was undoubtedly the fastest boat and Covey who sailed her did the most brilliant work.

On the social side the trip has been very pleasant for the Canadians. At the Commodore's dinner on Saturday night thirty-five sat down There is little doubt that when the cup comes to be raced for at Dorval next year a big contingent will go down from here.

All-Montreal Were Pie for the Athletics.

Big Jim Moffat did not prove the enigma for athletics that he has been for other clubs, and Pat Kennedy's All-Montreal team were not able to dethrone the Athletics from the leadship. A fusillade of hits in the fifth inning, in which Billy Innes's clan scored seven runs, clinched the issue. Raymond Catter's home run to deep centre capped the climax, and thereafter the Irishmen were a beaten team. Voltigeurs found an easy prey in Hochelagas, who were minus the services of Paquette until the fifth inning. "Rick" was suffering from a lame ankle, but after Lorrain had been rapped for two homers in succession by Bill Whelan and Jerry Rochefort, the crippled twirler came to his rescue, and Voltigeurs found it hard to connect safety thereafter. AT THE IRISH CANADIAN TECUMSEH LACROSSE MATCH.

Roberts Scorer.

The First Goal for Tecumsehs.

DISGUSTED TECUMSEHS LOST EASILY

No Spirit to Their Game Most of Time Against Green Shirts.

The lacrosse match at the Mascotte Park, the pocket edition lacrosse field of Montreal, between Irish-Canadians and Tecumsehs, was a one-sided struggle, which was for the greater part of the afternoon uninteresting and ended in a score of 16 to 4 for the home team. The Irish-Canadians were in excellent trim, and could have beaten a very much stronger team, and the Tecumsehs seemed to be without any spirit, and to care not how they got through the match as long as they did get through.

It was not till the very end that they picked up enough energy to do some real strenuous work, and then as a matter of course it was too late.

Charley Querrie the still manager of the Indians, expressed the feeling of the team no doubt when he said:

"None of the boys can understand why one man like Fleming should dictate to the entire Big Four, and have things all his own way. It takes the heart out of the players."

Yeaman, was on deck, and behaved himself.

Howard Baker, the youngest of the Irish-Canadians who came from Dickinson Landing, near Cornwall, and Stanley Island, as usual showed up well amongst the older men of the team, even if at times he was a little too fiery.

On the whole it was a clean match, and it speaks well for the old game, notwithstanding the knocks it is getting not only from its enemies but from its own friends and the people who are financially interested in it, that there were over three thousand people present.

Made New Track Record at Hamilton Opening.

Hamilton, Ont., July 28.—The opening day of the Hamilton Jockey Club's summer meeting on Saturday was full of interesting features.

Hon. J. S. Hendrie's Rockspring beat Rustling a head in the Canadian bred race, with Caper Cauce third, and the favorites, the Gidding's entry never in the contention.

The African was beaten by Gun Cotton in the steeplechase after making the pace nearly to the end.

Ten Point after a rest of two months on account of sickness started in the six furlongs, but finished third.

Blackford was much the best in the Prince Edward Selling Stake.

The Oklahoma flyer U See It, ran away from her company in the 5 1-2 furlong race and made a new track record of 1.05 4-5.

First race, $600 purse; two year olds, five and a half furlongs — Black Toney, 118, Loftus, 3 to 5, 1 to 3, out, won; Emerald Gem, 101, Kederis, 20 to 1, 6 tol, 8 to5, second; Hodge, 107, Buxton, 5 to 1, 1 to 2, 1 to 5, third. Time, 1.06 4-5. Perpetual, Centaurian and Willie Waddell also ran.

A SOLEMN PLEA

July 26, 1913.

Sporting Editor Montreal Star.

Dear Sir:

It would not take much argument to convince anyone interested in professional baseball that if Montreal had a winning team it would prove one of the best paying cities on the International League circuit.

The greatest proof is that after having had a losing team for about fifteen consecutive years, and finishing a Chinese first, or thereabouts, during all that period, the long-suffering, baseball starved fans continue to turn out in such a loyal manner that on Saturdays and holidays it is difficult to procure seats in the grand stand and on several occasions this season standing room on the field was the only available accommodation. Even on week-days, after four o'clock, office boys and other important factors in our various industrial and financial concerns, may be missed in considerable numbers from their important or conspicuous positions.

Now comes an anouncement that "pressure is being brought to bear on the owners of the Montreal Baseball Club to sell the franchise, which seems to be the only one available, in view of the fact that it is such a poor drawing card in Montreal."

The fans in our city are a good-natured, law-abiding, down-trodden bunch, so do not let insult be heaped upon injury. The threat now hangs over our heads that if we do not give up business, and force our less enthusiastic friends and admirers to accompany us on a pilgrimage to Atwater Park every day in the week, we will be in danger of losing our pennant aspiring outfit.

If the management is not satisfied with the support they are getting, who is to blame? Let them cater a little to the comfort of the fans, give us a team with a little life, and then look for results. Put a winner in the field, and the game will grow in popularity, the faithful will have their reward, the knockers will be knocked, and all will be lovely.

Yours truly,

"SORROWING FAN."

Y.M.C.A.'S Were in Good Form.

The Y.M.C.A. and McGill tennis players met in a league fixture on Saturday afternoon and of the seven matches the Y.M.C.A. took four. The results were as follows:

Singles.

Jones, McGill, beat Hird, Y.M.C.A., 6—4, 6—1.

Lajoie, McGill, beat Hart, Y.M.C.A., 6—4, 6—4.

Smith, Y.M.C.A., beat Beckett, McGill, 6—1, 6—1.

Doubles.

Jones and Beckett, McGill, beat Hart and Bird, Y.M.C.A., 7—5, 2—6, 7—5.

Smith and Elliott, Y.M.C.A., beat Strang and Cleveland, McGill, 6—2, 6—3.

Birnie and Edgell, Y.M.C.A., beat Lajoie and Sinclair, McGill, 6—4, 2—6, 7—5.

Americans Now in Lead.

Wimbledon, July 28.—As the result of Saturday's victory by Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, and Harold H. Hackett, of New York, over H. Roper Barrett and C. P. Dixon, in the doubles match, the United States team leads by two matches to one in the struggle for the possession of the Dwight F. Davis International lawn tennis trophy, and requires only one more victory in the two remaining singles matches to carry off the cup.

The match went to its full extent of five sets, of which the Americans took three to their opponents' one, the score being 5—7, 6—1, 2—6, 7—5, 6—4.

IT is said that the Mineral Springs track has been closed for good. Presumably for the good of the public.

LACROSSE MATCH IN TORONTO WAS A JOKE

Nationals Went Off the Field and Pitre to Be Prosecuted

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—Saturday's game at Scarboro Park between Nationals and Torontos was full of lively features and just escaped being a complete farce.

Judge of play Tom Humphrey was in wrong with the crowd from the beginning, but in justice to the official it may be said that no fault could be found with his work. In the third quarter he imposed the penalties thick and fast on the Frenchmen. The climax came when he chased Manager Joe Cattarinch for hooking Donihee. Cattarinch claimed he did not commit the offence, and during the heat of the argument used words not found in Webster's dictionary. He was promptly ordered to the bench for the remainder of the game. He refused to go and ordered his players to leave the field. After a delay of thirty minutes the team returned to the field. Pitre's name was taken for hitting the judge of play with his stick and a prosecution will follow.

Nationals had it over the locals like a tent in the first two periods, the score at the end of that time being 5 to 2. The blue shirts came strong in the third period and scored four goals, while Nationals were unable to notch one. In the last period both scored one goal, making the final tally 7 to 6. The first two periods showed some fast lacrosse but when the blue shirts scored their fourth goal the play became rough.

The new penalty system tried out for the first time proved to be a joke. Every time a player was sent off he was replaced by another, regardless of how many had been penalized previously.

About one thousand persons witnessed the game.

The teams:—

Toronto—Goal, Holmes; point, Harshaw; cover point, Barry; first defence, Powers; second defence, Fitzgerald; third defence, Braden; centre, Dandeno; third home, Munro; second home, Donihee; first home, Barnett; outside home, Warwick; inside home, Kalls.

Nationals—Goal, L'Heureux; point, Cattarnich; cover point, Dückett; first defence, Decarie; second defence, Lachapelle; third home, Dulude; second home, Gauthier; first home, Pitre; outside home, Lamoureux; inside home, Boulllane.

THE GOLFERS

The New Champion of the West.

Chicago, July 28.—Warren K. Wood, of Homewood, is the new western golf champion. He defeated, 4 up and 3 to play, E. P. Allis, of Milwaukee, in the finals of the Western Golf Association tournament, played over the links of the Homewood Country Club.

Allis, one of the youngest players in the tournament, has the championship of Wisconsin to his credit and took the measure of such redoubtable golfers as former Western Champion Charles Evans, Jr., and former National Champion Robert A. Gardner, of Hinsdale, in the presenttournament. He gained fame at the opening by making a 300-yard hole in one.

In Wood, however, Allis met one of the steadiest tournament players in the United States, playing over his home course, and the Milwaukee lad was behind all the way.

Charles Evans, Jr., took the gold medal for low score in the qualifying rounds, turning in 78, 73, 151.

Friendlies at Outremont.

While many friendly matches were played on the Outremont greens on Saturday, only one scheduled encounter was staged, Dr. W. J. Paterson defeating H. W. Fairlee, in the club's singles competition by 21 to 16.

MOTOR-CYCLIST INSTANTLY KILLED AT TORONTO RACES

Benjamin Wilson Hit Fence Post Head First When His Machine Swerved.

Toronto, July 28.—After daring death scores of times, Benjamin Wilson, aged 32, a motor cyclist from Rochester and a former Toronto boy, was killed instantly when he lost control of his motorcycle and crashed into the fence at the races held at Exhibition Park on Saturday under the auspices of the Ontario Motorcycle Association. A crowd of six thousand people was present.

The accident occurred at the seventh lap of the five mile race. Wilson, who was demonstrating the Jefferson machine, and who was one of the last to come on to the stretch, tore down the track at 45 miles an hour and when he hit the curve his machine bore straight for the high board fence. He swung it onto the grass, when the machine swerved again and crashed into the fence. Four posts were broken off and 25 feet of fence was torn away by the impact.

When the machine hit the fence the rider shot into the air, turned a double somersault and hit one of the posts head first. The machine bounced into the air, somersaulted and struck Wilson as it fell. Death was instantaneous, the skull having been fractured in several places. The other riders continued the race, and at its conclusion the meet was called off.

An inquest was opened on Saturday night and the jury brought in a verdict of accidental death, expressing the opinion that a mechanical defect had occurred in the machine which caused Wilson to lose control of it.

SIX SWIMMERS RACE FERRY BOAT TO ST. HELEN'S IS.

One Arrives With Passengers—Other Swept Down Stream—One Washed Back.

Six members of the Montreal Swimming Club set out yesterday morning to show that they could breast the St. Mary's current and arrive at the Swimming Club on St. Helen's Island before the passengers from the ferry, who were starting at the same time.

The result of the race was that one of the swimmers reached the M. S. C. grounds just as the ferry passengers were arriving, four others were carried down stream and landed on Ile Ronde, on the city side of St. Helen's Island, and a sixth was swept back to Montreal by the current and picked up near the Longueil ferry wharf.

It was just ten o'clock when the swimmers took the water and the St. Laurent pulled out for the island. The men who volunteered to make the trip were John Lyons, Harry Benjamin, Alfred Beaupre, A. E. Kersey, Tom Parker and John Kerry.

Watchers Afraid.

They argued that by starting above the ferry wharf and striking out into the current, they could cross the river before being swept any farther down stream than the upper end of the passage which lies between St. Helen's Island and Ile Ronde. On the other hand, it was argued that passengers by ferry must walk six hundred yards after landing and further, that the boat does not make a direct crossing, but spends considerable time in manoeuvres which the current makes necessary.

The swimmers were not far on their way, however, when they discovered they had miscalculated the current, which was forcing them back to the Montreal shore. For a time, friends watching on shore feared the whole party would be swept down to the east end of the Island. As it was, the tug Varennes and the motor launch Munich were called into service to round up the party.

Kerry took the lead at the start and swam around the stern of the Andania just as the St. Laurent left her dock. He was across the current by the time he was carried down to the upper end of the channel between Ile Ronde and St. Helen's Island. It was a difficult matter to land here, as hundreds of sharp rocks are prominent; but he managed to do it.

Joe Woods and W. Graveley, who were on the ferry, realized that their friends were having trouble; and after landing at the Island set out in a rowboat; but as rowing was a difficult problem in this ten-mile-an-hour current, the Varennes was used. Kersey, Lyons, Benjamin and Beaupre were picked up on Ile Ronde, and Parker on the Longueuil ferry wharf, in an exhausted condition.

Had Parker not been an experienced swimmer he would undoubtedly have been drowned. Swept back to the city side, he was carried past the concrete and wooden wharves which lie below Victoria Pier. He was unable to grasp anything against their smooth surface, and was washed under a row of barges. At times the current forced him under water. Escaping from these, he was drawn under a tug, and it was not until he reached the Longueuil ferry wharf that he found anything he could grasp. There he caught an iron bar, and was able to drag himself up.

These units will be of similar size to those recently supplied by Boving & Co., of Canada, for Dams Nos. 2 and 5 in the Trent River, which have a combined capacity of 10,000 h.p.

HERE AND THERE

The Amateur Detective.

The Chinaman of supernormal intelligence, villainy, and hatred of the Western races is not new fiction. He appeared only the other day in Mr. M. P. Shiel's "The Dragon," where his evil powers were exploited to the shaking of civilization. Mr. Sax Rohmer's Chinaman keeps more within human limitations, but, perhaps for that very reason, he is the more terrible. His very presence is full of horror, and it is a tribute to the author's aptitude for sensation-making that in every new manifestation of Fu-Manchu's power the Chinaman's horrible presence is equally impressive. Certainly one can feel that he has been carefully constructed to horrify, and most of his evil deeds are likewise made as hair-raising as possible; but the point is that they really do have their effect. Against the Chinaman's machinations is pited one Nayland Smith, a Sherlock Holmes of infinite resource and courage, though more excitable in his language than Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's hero. The Watson of the business is Dr. Petrie: a more spirited and less blindly acquiescent Watson, who can strike a shrewd blow himself on occasion. The ever popular, perhaps ever-necessary, sensational story receives a useful addition in "Dr. Fu-Manchu."

Cape to Cairo by Motor.

A wonderful motor car has been dispatched to Buckingham Palace for the King's inspection. It has been made for the use of the Survey and Scientific Research Expedition from the Cape to Cairo. The body is detachable and can be used as a pontoon for carrying the chassis, engine, and baggage across rivers and lakes. The car carries a searchlight for bush travelling. Special provision is made for carrying the necessary big supply of petrol.

Workman's Find of Old Coins.

A workman who was laying pipes for the construction of an aqueduct at Imola, in the province of Bologna, discovered a small pot containing 545 Roman silver coins, dating from about 100 years B.C. The workman tried to secure the pot and the coins, but was arrested. The authorities have handed the coins to a local museum.

Treasure Hunt in Sacred Lake.

The hunt for treasure trove in the Sacred Lake of Guatavita, in Colombia, is to be pushed with greater vigor than ever. A new company is in course of formation, to continue the work, as only a very small part of the bed of the lake has yet been properly explored.

The lake has the reputation of being the repository of vast wealth, owing to the practice of the ancient Indians residing in the locality of casting vessels and ornaments of precious metals, and also offerings of gold dust and precious stones, into the waters as a religious rite.

A few ornments and jewels have actually been found, but the work of exploration has not proceeded far, owing to the presence of a deep bed of mud after the water has been drained off the lake.

Asks Mayor to Save Pets.

Mildred Sanford, a little girl living at No. 1702 North Rockwell street, Chicago, wrote this letter to Mayor Harrison:

"Dear Mayor Harrison:—I have a dog which I just love, but my mamma cannot get a license, as my papa has not worked and my mamma is the only one working, and, dear Mayor, will you kindly help me to keep my dog from getting shot; she has two little babies, and they are so cute. The policeman was here and said that I had to get a license or either go to court, and I thought maybe you could help me, and as soon as the letter reaches you I hope you can let me know some way, because I will be worried. I hope I can save my dog from being shot."

Instructions were quickly sent to the commanding officer of the police district not to kill the dogs.

Garter Knighthood—Lord Spencer.

King George has conferred a knighthood of the Garter on Earl Spencer. The new Garter Knight is in his fifty-sixth year. He succeeded his half-brother in 1910, but before that he had had a seat in the House of Lords, being raised to the peerage as Viscount Althorp (a title also borne by the heir-apparent to the Spencer earldom) in 1905 on his appointment as Lord Chamberlain. Earl Spencer resigned the post of Lord Chamberlain about eighteen months ago.

DESIRE FREEHOLD FOR DOMINION LONDON SITE.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, July 28.—Earl Grey, who recently obtained a three years' option on an Aldwych site for a building lease of ninety-nine years for the purpose of erecting offices for the Dominion Government writes now to say there is danger of an exception being taken to the site unless it is secured by freehold.

Accordingly, Earl Grey communicated the fact to the London County Council, who suggest that the site should be taken outright at a price of £6,500,000.

NEW WESLEYAN PRESIDENT.

London, July 28.—The Wesleyans have nominated as the next President of their Conference the Rev. Dinsdale Thomas Young, one of the most widely travelled preachers of the time.

During the last thirty-five years Mr. Young has covered on the average of 10,000 miles a year, and has composed thousands of articles, sermons, and lectures in railway carriages. The lectures were delivered for the most part in chapels and not limited to religious topics, but dealt largely with books by famous preachers and with questions of the hour.

Dr. Young was only eighteen, when he entered the ministry.

JAPANESE INCORPORATE TO EVADE LAND LAWS.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Sacramento, Cal., July 28—Japanese land-owners of California have found a loophole in the Anti-Land law which will enable them to establish practically perpetual ownership of land for themselves and their heirs, thus defeating that provision of the Act which was designed to force them out of ownership by death.

Incorporation is the weapon to which the Japanese farmer is resorting partially to nullify the new law. Oriental farmers are combining their farm land units and incorporating stock companies, in the belief that stock incorporations, on their death, may be transferred to their heirs.

Twenty-four Japanese land companies filed articles of incorporation yesterday, bringing the total for the last two weeks to more than fifty.

POWER SUPPLY FOR ORILLIA.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Orillia, Ont., July 28.—The town of Orillia, as the result of a visit from the Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals, has concluded a bargain with the Minister regarding its power supply.

Under this the Government will build a dam and power house at Swift Rapids, the new site, and pay the town a lump sum of $25,000 to cover the cost of the removal of the present plant, a new roadway and a transmission line.

Be Your Own Executor

Has it ever occurred to you that soon after your death your estate, however large, may dwindle away owing to the inexperience of your heirs in business matters?

You need have no apprehension that your dependents will thus come to want if you make adequate provision for them by means of an Imperial Life policy.

Because every such policy contains a provision under which you may specify that the proceeds shall be payable in equal yearly instalments for 5, 10, 15, 20, 25 or 30 years after your death instead of in one lump sum.

For instance, for each $1,000 of insurance you can direct that your heirs shall receive:

10 yearly payments of $113.80 each, or
20 yearly payments of 65.20 each, or
30 yearly payments of 49.50 each

Would you leave behind you tangible evidence of genuine parental affection? Then write for information about an Imperial policy to meet your particular needs. Don't wait—do it now.

LIEVES CANADA WILL TAKE SHARE IN EMPIRE BURDEN

d Emmott Expresses Confidence in Settlement of Naval Question.

TTER FOR CANADA TO DECIDE HERSELF

cial to The Montreal Star.

ttawa, July 28. — The spirit of ng Imperial unity was the key- of all the speeches delivered both he Canadian members and by those he British Parliament who replied, the brilliant banquet given by the minion Government on Saturday ht to the visiting Parliamentary ty from the United Kingdom. The ction was held at the Chateau Lau- and was attended by many dis- guished people.

The Hon. George H. Perley, acting me Minister, presided, and a mes- e of welcome from Premier Bor- was read to the visitors.

The feature of the banquet was the ech of Lord Emmott, Under Secre- y of State for the Colonies, in ich he referred to the question of perial Defence, and said that when Dominions shared in the defence the Empire they should also obtain oice in its councils.

The visiting party, who are on their y to Australia, arrived at the Capi- at noon. They were shown over Dominion Experimental Farm in afternoon.

Mrs. Perley entertained at a tea at Golf Club, and the official ban- et completed the entertainment, the y of the visitors being a short one. A very warm welcome was extend- on behalf of Canada at the banquet the Acting Premier, the Hon. C. J. herty, and the Hon. Sydney Fisher.

SIT OF IMPERIAL SIGNI- FICANCE, MR. BORDEN SAYS.

"I beg that you will convey to the embers of the British Parliamentary rty at the dinner my deepest regret at I cannot be present to join in ex- nding to them a warm Canadian lcome. I trust that their visit to he world-wide dominions of the Em- re may be not only enjoyable but nteresting and instructive. It is of ital importance that the vision of tatesmen, whether from the British sles or elsewhere within the Empire, hould not be so completely and ex- lusively fixed upon problems of pure- y domestic concern that the wider outlook escapes them. Thus visits uch as these are justly to be regarded s of the highest Imperial signifi- ance."

The Hon. C. J. Doherty and the Hon. Sydney Fisher submitted the toast to he visitors in appropriate speeches.

UESTION FOR CANADA TO SETTLE HERSELF.

Lord Emmott, speaking on the nav- l question, said:—"The part Canada hould take in naval defence is a quesa tion for Canada to settle herself, and ny unsolicited advice given by one elf-governing portion of the Empire o another is likely to cause friction and to defeat its own ends."

"If I read the situation aright, Can- da has decided to help, but Canada as not yet decided in what form that help shall be given. Canada will de- cide this in her own good time. We in the Mother Country await the de- cision with complete confidence in the patriotism of her people, in their loy- alty to the Throne and Empire, and in their firm determination to take a proper and adequate share in the bur- den we are called upon to bear."

WIRE FROM KING WHEN IN MID-OCEAN.

Lord Emmott went on to express the gratitude of the British party for the reception they had received. They regretted that their arrival had not been during a period when the Canadian Parliament was in session, a Parliament which had lately given such evidence of its close attention to duty. (Laughter.)

The effect of this tour was likely to be of great value to the Empire, continued Lord Emmott. Without any desire to magnify the individual importance of its members, it constituted a precedent. Never before had such a delegation from the Imperial Parliament visited the Dominions.

As illustrating the interest which the visit was awakening, Lord Emmott stated that when in mid-Atlantic the party had received a wire from the King wishing it bon voyage, and stating he would follow its tour with great interest. The Duke of Connaught had also sent his wishes.

Lord Emmott said he had always considered the best analogy for the British Empire was that of a family, and it was in that spirit that the parliamentarians had come. He pursued the analogy, comparing the status of its various components with that of the sons who grew up, after having been educated, trained, cared and paid for, acquired the idea of self-dependence, finally reached man's estate, married, migrated and started homes of their own.

PEOPLE NEVER MORE DEVOTED OR LOYAL.

"Wise parents did not attempt to continue that state of tutelage too long, lest friction should arise, which might conclude in separation," remarked Lord Emmott; "nor, on the other hand, did they let them go too soon, before they were able to take care of themselves. Canada had served as an object-lesson to the Mother Country, which had applied it to her other growing colonies.

"A most prosaically-minded man might well dream dreams of the future of the British Empire," continued Lord Emmott. There was never a time when the great mass of people in the British Empire was so devoted to union or more whole-heartedly loyal than to-day, for, contrary to the pessimists, autonomy had not led to separation. Twenty years ago there had been too much interference from Downing Street. That was not so now, but there was still a tendency to forget that the connection was one of human interest."

In conclusion, Lord Emmott referred to the question of employment. "It is a myth that there are crowds of unemployed at home," he said. "Never before has unemployment been so low. The question of immigration, I may tell you, is becoming a sore topic with us at home."

The party left for Toronto last night.

LIBERTY OF WORSHIP WANTED BY ADVENTIST

Large crowds assembled inside and outside the Adventists' tent on St. Hubert street last night, when Pastor Vuillenmier, after delivering an address on "God is love," thanked the audience for their patient hearing, and the police, who were in evidence, for their attendance.

When the meeting started at 8 o'clock, half a dozen uniformed men and others in plain clothes kept the crowds on the sidewalk in order, while another batch of police was within easy call. The address of the pastor was optimistic. He predicted that this age of suffering and wrong would soon end. In speaking of justice and mercy, the preacher said the laws of God and man must be obeyed, and that any government which allowed its rules to be set aside would soon be in a state of anarchy.

In announcing that the meetings would be held throughout the week, the pastor expressed a hope that freedom of speech and liberty of worship would be freely conceded in the district.

RESTRAIN COMPANY FROM MOVING GOODS

A contract involving two million dollars was under discussion in the Superior Court on Saturday, when the Norton Griffiths Company, Limited, who have undertaken the harbor improvements at St. John, N.B., secured an injunction against the Norton Griffith's Dredging Company, Limited, one of the sub-contracting firms, depositing $10,000 as a guarantee of good faith.

Messrs. Brown, Montgomery and McMichael, attorneys for the principal contractors, represented that the sub-contract was made on condition that during operations none of the Dredging Company's tugs or other equipment should be moved from the scene of action.

The Norton Griffiths Company claimed that this rule had been violated and found the work done unsatisfactory. They accordingly brought an injunction to restrain the sub-contractors from moving their equipment.

Mr. Justice Lane decided that the evidence warranted his issuing an interim writ, conditional upon an adequate deposit being made with the Court, which placed the amount at $10,000.

The writ holds till 4 p.m., to-morrow, a hearing of the case being set for 10.30 a.m. The proceedings recorded are merely a preliminary skirmish in what promises to be a big legal battle.

Light Can't Harm Schlitz in Brown Bottles

IMPORTANT

Our reason for using a case with lid is to prevent the sun or light from coming in contact with the beer.

Drinkables should be kept covered and protected at all times. When carrying for fishing, hunting and other outing trips a cover or paper lid should be placed on the inside of the case, the sun or light affecting the contents.

This case contains [illegible] cards with this notice. Please hand them to your friends, and caution your people accordingly, thereby greatly obliging

It concedes our claims — light bottles do not protect the beer from the damaging effects of sun or light.

Light starts decay even in pure beer.

WHAT ABOUT YOUR BATH

If "cleanliness is next to Godliness," it is certainly also a "first aid" to beauty and health, and while the inference may sound insulting, it is nevertheless perfectly true that not enough attention is given to the bath in this hurry rushing age of ours. A daily plunge and a dab with cold cream will not accomplish absolute cleanliness. There must be continued scrubbings and rinsings and some attention to special baths.

When it is considered that two pints of waste matter are thrown off daily through the sweat glands of a healthy body and that these same little glands help to maintain an equable temperature of the body, it will be understood how necessary it is that the skin should be kept scrupulously clean so that the glands may not become clogged. There is no danger, as many suppose, that frequent bathing destroys the oils of the skin. It is impure soaps that do this, but on the contrary, bathing with a rub-down afterward, by increasing circulation induces the oils to flow more freely.

CLEANLINESS BRINGS HEALTH.

of the room, which may be followed by a slightly colder shower after a thorough dousing with clear, tepid water to remove every vestige of soap. A coarse but soft towel is the best for drying purposes. Only the most hardened skins can safely stand friction with the harsh Turkish towels that are sometimes recommended. The best soap is a white castile, which contains less lye than most soaps, and, at that, it is better to shave the soap into the bath or to make a lather rather than to use it directly on the skin.

The warm bath, temperature 92 to 98 degrees Fahrenheit, causes a gradual reaction, which brings the blood to the surface and, unless one is in an absolutely healthful condition, is the only safe bath.

Hot baths, which means with the water at a temperature of 108 degrees Fahrenheit, or cold, in which the temperature is from 50 to 65 degrees, have violent and opposing effects upon the system, and should not be indulged in except at physician's orders. The cold bath is supposed to act as a tonic, and is in reality a very powerful one, driving the blood from the surface and affecting the whole nervous system, but unless reaction occurs quickly, which means that the blood rushes back to the surface, the effect is rather that of depression than of exhilaration and is apt to be extremely harmful.

Anyone of average health can safely take baths of a temperature from 85 to 95 degrees, followed by a shower of water at 65 degrees, or can gradually accustom herself to a cold shower by turning on the cold water faucet and shutting off the warm water gradually, so that the water grows colder by degrees. The cold shower should never be taken at night, as it would be apt to be too stimulative and to keep one awake.

Twenty minutes is long enough for the bath, inclusive of the time spent under the shower or rinsing or in drying. The drying process should be thorough. If it is possible it is a good idea to dry one's self by sitting dripping wet in front of a window through which the sun pours in, not however, in a draught.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

FASHION HINTS

By Lillian Young.

In colored materials this season favoritism is shown to the loosely-woven meshes and to those in which there is a mixture of tone, as, for instance, a gray woven over black or white, cadet blue over certain light shades of green, and cream with almost any color desired. Then a yard or two of solid color material is included in the pattern, or a few yards of embroidery embodying the color of the underweave. There are a number of fabrics of this nature that have come out since the season opened, many of them possessed of a peculiar color tint, in addition to distinction of weave. Probably no previous season has offered such an extended range of colors in cottons or of cotton materials.

Flowered and figured materials are very much in demand, for as they have been omitted from the fashion lists for several seasons, they are now counted among the novelties. Moreover, they are very much in keeping with the trend of styles just now, since they make up more or less picturesquely. They do, however, demand the introduction of a plain material to bring them up to standard or else wide bands of lace of a rather solid design.

In many instances hand-embroidered flower motifs are worked on or appliqued to the solid-toned rough surfaced wash fabrics. The frock here sketched shows a most pleasing development of this idea. It is made of ratine in a mixture of shell pink and white, giving the effect of a very delicate shade of pink. The single rose motifs are worked in deep rose-colored washable floss, with foliage done in green. They must be rather heavily padded and stand out in bold relief.

The blouse has elbow length kimono sleeves, and fronts that cross each other, leaving a space at the neck to be filled in with a shirred yoke of net. There is a round collar of self-material and a rose worked below each shoulder on the outside of the arm.

The roses run around the tunic skirt near the knees. They must not be set close together or the effect will be lost. The tunic runs longer in back than in front, and has to be mounted to the waist with considerable fulness toward the back to allow sufficient material for the draping.

The sash on this dress is a novel feature. It consists of an ordinary girdle part crushed about the waist and two long separate streamers, each finished with a flaunting bow at either end. These are attached to the girdle in back below the arms and cross each other near the hip line running in diagonally opposite directions, and end below the draping of the tunic, partly serving to hold it in place.

All correspondence for t department should be addres to Mary Howe. Notice meetings should be so mark on outside of envelope.

On Tactful Dealing With C Relations-in-law.

In the first place do not treat in any special way. Do not profe fondness for them if you do not them; be straight. On the other it is impossible to totally avoid as some people attempt to do they do not happen to be congeni woman may be very fond of her da ter-in-law, a girl may be very fo her mother-in-law, and it may n reciprocated in the least. There course a lot of jealousy to be often with when a favorite member family breaks away and decides to perhaps a total stranger and it is love for that member that makes family receive the other with any s of feeling. The new-comer must r ise that it is not always a pers objection and try to put herself in place of those who are having t circle broken for the first time. a break and though in a great m cases it may eventually mean an addition to the circle at first, there i certain amount of natural resentmen

Then it is that tact and unselfishn come in. It is not well to lo one's dignity by useless attempts curry favor,—just be natural, they will probably understand you la on. After all you are marrying "Hi and not "Them," and as long as y have done your duty and have a cle conscience you may rest easy.

A Hint About the Danger of Idleness.

By Jessie Roberts.

Do you think that once in a while it is hard lines to have to work, and that it would be mighty nice to be able to lay off and laze the rest of your life?"

Well, the other day I ran across an old acquaintance of mine most unexpectedly.

The last time we met had been more than three years ago, at the house of a friend who was seriously ill. We left together, and found her limousine waiting at the door. She kindly offered to take me to my office, and as it was a drizzly day I accepted gratefully. I had had a hard day, and was doubly pleased to get the rest. So we sat in the big, comfortable car, and chatted.

It was a rather surprising talk to me. For of all the discontented, bored, ill-natured women I had ever been up against, my acquaintance struck me as about the most complete specimen of the lot. There she sat, wrapped in delicious furs, lolling back in her car, young, lovely, the world before her for handsome furs, lolling back in her car, couldn't put her finger on a single ameliorating circumstance to make life worth the living.

I separated from her with relief.

I didn't see her again till this meeting, in a small tearoom, where I had gone for a bite of luncheon. As I stopped to pay at the cashier's desk, I looked at the young woman who sat there and gasped.

She smiled. "I wondered if you'd remember me," she said. And then she asked me to come to dine with her the next evening. I took the address—it was not in a fashionable part of town—and promised to go.

She met me the following evening, a big apron hiding her dress.

"I get my own little dinners," she said, laughing. "But don't be afraid. They are good!"

This one was, anyhow. And it was jolly. After we had eaten and washed up I couldn't hold in any longer.

"Didn't you know?" she replied to my questions. Why, my father failed soon after I last saw you, and died a month later. I was practically alone in the world, with hardly anything. I really thought of suicide. Then an old friend, who knew I was clever at making little cakes and fancy dishes, asked me why I didn't start a small tea place. I decided to try. It was a hard pull the first year, better the next, and now, my dear, I'm making real money—and I love it."

She looked well, happy, confident. And I went away muttering the old proverb to myself that I've put at the head of this Hint.

JULY.

When the sun is very golden
And the sky is very blue,
When the wind blows very softly
Through the ivy-covered yew;
When the water's very still
And the grass is very dry,
When there's daisies in profusion
That means it is July!

HOUSEHOLD NEWS AND SCIENCE

Written for The Star by Miss Lillian B. Robins of Macdonald College.

FOOD COMPOSITION AND FOOD VALUES.

The race has apparently, by constantly experimenting, stumbled upon combinations of food that supply to the system the necessary substances for nourishing the body. Thus the wheat bread with butter, the bread and pork dripping or fat pork, bread and bacon, bread and cheese or biscuits and cheese, bread and milk, meat and potatoes buttermilk and oatmeal, bacon and eggs, fish and potatoes or bread and fish, typical race diets, supply the principal constituents of life sustaining and energy producing foods. "Poor fellow, just bread and cheese for his lunch," exclaimed a lady recently, in reference to the noonday meal of a laboring man. Yet the man had an excellently balanced diet. This food with plenty of pure, cold water would supply the necessary energy for heavy muscular work. Besides this man got a chance to know the real taste of bread and that of cheese. So many of our modern dishes seem designed to disguise the taste of our staple foods, instead of bringing out their flavor. What a race of enterprising men and women owe their strong bodies and clear heads to a generous diet of oatmeal and buttermilk or potatoes and buttermilk! Even the Italian laborer with his loaf of wheat bread and his pannikin of water may be better fed than the gourmand dining on nightingales' tongues.

Miss Robins.

The composition of all foods is pretty much the same, but the relative amounts of the various constituents vary very widely. These are of two classes, the organic compounds and the inorganic salts. The organic compounds are three in number, the proteids or albuminous or nitrogenous substances, the fats and the carbohydrates.

Of the first of these, the proteids, Professor Chittendin in his "Nutrition of Man," a standard work on dietaries says: "The vital part of all tissue is proteid and only proteid can serve for its growth or renewal. Every living cell, whether of heart, muscle, brain or nerve, requires its due allowance of proteid material to maintain its physiological rhythm. No other food stuff stands in such intimate relationship to the vital process."

Fats are represented by butter and various oils, but wherever the protein is found there also is fat present to some extent. The fats, along with the carbohydrates supply the heat and energy to the body.

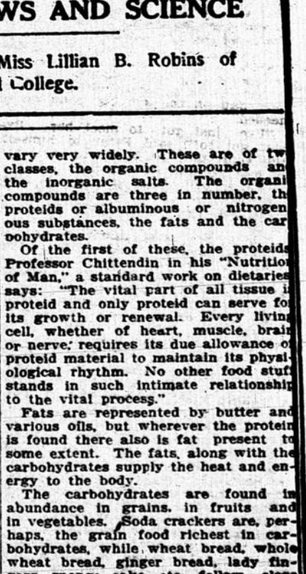
The carbohydrates are found in abundance in grains, in fruits and in vegetables. Soda crackers are, perhaps, the grain food richest in carbohydrates, while wheat bread, whole wheat bread, ginger bread, lady fingers, sponge cake, etc., follow close after. Of vegetables dried peas have the largest per cent. of the carbohydrates. Nuts are well represented by the peanut, and fruits by the yellow banana, of which 22 per cent. is carbohydrates.

Lovers of that common dessert, apple pie, will be pleased to know that it is an excellent representative of the carbohydrates, for both the apple and wheat flour, its principal constituents, have a large per cent. of the carbohydrates. Add a little bit of cheese and you have an ideal food. Meats and fish, butter and eggs have practically no carbohydrates in their chemical composition. The carbohydrates are sometimes called in everyday language the starches and sugars.

The value of the inorganic salts will be considered separately.

7949 Yoke Blouse or Shirt, 34 to 40 Bust.

WITH LONG OR THREE-QUARTER SLEEVES.



Undoubtedly the square yoke blouse is the favorite one of the season and this pretty model combines a plain back with full fronts. It is finished with an open neck and rolling collar, and, if liked, a chemisette can be worn with it. The regulation box plait is made dainty by the use of ruffles but there will be times when the plain waist will be preferred. Blouses such as this one are made from marquisette and voile and from crepe de chine and thin silk and from the net that is such an ubiquitous favorite. The sleeves can be made in full or three-quarter length, so suiting all tastes. In the illustration cotton voile is trimmed with plaiting of the same.

For the medium size, the blouse will require 3 yards of material 27, 2¾ yards 36 or 1¾ yards 44 inches wide.

The pattern of the blouse, 7949 is cut in sizes 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measure. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

Turkish Jelly.

Ingredients:
One cupful sugar.
One cupful rice flour.
Four or more cups water.
One-half cup coasted almonds.
One teaspoonful cinnamon.

Method—Mix the rice flour in water, add the sugar, and boil over a slow fire until well done. Stir constantly during boiling to avoid coagulation. Pour on to a suitable deep plate and cover the surface with the almonds, then sift the cinnamon over in form of decoration. Serve cold.

Turkish Paste.

Ingredients:
Five pounds of sugar.
One quart of water.
Half ounce cream of tartar.
Teaspoonful vanilla.
Ten ounces of wheat starch.
Half cup of almonds, roasted.
Half cup of shelled pistachio nuts.

Method—In a deep, concave-bottomed vessel boil the sugar and water over a slow fire, taking the froth away with a wooden spoon, until it becomes honey thick. Now pour the starch in gradually, first having blended it to a milk-thin consistency with some water along with the cream of tartar. Stir the mixture constantly and only one way until quite thick or until a drop will sustain itself on a plate, when it should be poured into a flat pan covered with powdered sugar. Vanilla or rose flavor may be added to taste. The pistachio nuts and almonds should be added about twenty minutes before the candy is taken from the fire. Cut, when cold, in small pieces and powder with powdered sugar.

PETER RABBIT HUNTS UP HIS LOOKING GLASS.

(Copyright, 1913, by J. G. Lloyd.)

For the first time in his life Peter Rabbit had begun to think about his clothes. Always he had been such a happy-go-lucky fellow that it never had entered his head to care how he looked. He laughed at Sammy Jay for thinking so much of that beautiful blue and white coat he wears, and he poked fun at Reddy Fox for bragging so much about his handsome suit. As for himself, Peter didn't care how he looked. If his coat was whole or in rags and tags, it was all the same to Peter.

But now Peter, sitting on the edge of his sunning bank in the far cvrner of the Old Pasture, suddenly realized that he wanted to be good looking. Yes, sir, he wanted to be good looking. He wished that he was bigger. He wished that he was the biggest and strongest rabbit in the world. He wished that he had a handsome coat. And it was all because of the soft, gentle eyes of little Miss Fuzzytail. He had seen them peeping out at him once, and he melt pretty sure that they had peeped out at him often.

He felt sure that it was little Miss Fuzzytail herself who had left the pile of sweet clover close by his sunning bank while he was asleep. The fact is, Peter Rabbit was falling in love. Yes, sir, Peter Rabbit was falling in love. All he had seen of little Miss Fuzzytail was her soft, gentle eyes, for she was very shy and had kept out of sight, but ever since he had first seen them he had thought and dreamed of nothing else until it seemed as if there was nothing in the world he wanted so much as to meet her. Perhaps he would have wanted this still more if he had known that it was because she had fooled her father, old Jed Thumper, the big gray old rabbit, who had made life so miserable for Peter, leading him to other parts of the Old Pasture, that Peter had been able to have the long nap on the sunning bank he so needed.

"I've just got to meet her. I've just got to!" said Peter to himself, and right then he began to wish that he was big and fine looking.

"My, I must be a sight!" he thought. I wonder how I do look, anyway. I must hunt up a looking glass and find out."

Now, when Peter Rabbit thinks of doing a thing he wastes very little time. It was that way now. He started at once for the bit of swamp where he had first seen the tracks of old Jed Thumper. He still limped from the wounds made by Hooty the Owl the night he came to the Old Pasture, but in spite of this he could travel pretty fast, and it didn't take him long to reach the swamp. There, just as he expected, he found a looking glass. What was it like? Why, it was just a tiny pool of water. Yes, sir, it was a quiet pool of water that reflected the ferns growing around it and the branches of the trees hanging over it and—why, Peter Rabbit himself sitting on the edge of it. That was Peter's looking glass.

For a long time he stared into it. At last he gave a great sigh. "My, but I am a sight!" he exclaimed.

He was. His coat was ragged and torn from the claws of Hooty the Owl, and the teeth of old Jed Thumper. The white patch on the seat of his trousers was stained and dirty from sitting down in the mud. There were burrs tangled in his waistcoat. He was thin, and altogether a miserable looking Rabbit.

"It must be that Miss Fuzzytail just pities me. She certainly can't admire me," muttered Peter as he pulled out the burrs.

For the next hour Peter was very busy. He washed and he brushed and he combed. When at last he had done all that he could he took another look in his looking-glass, and what he saw was a very different looking Rabbit.

"Though I am homely, lank, and lean I can at least be neat and clean," said he, as he started back for the sunning bank.

THANKSGIVING OF THE WAZIR.

Retold by Anne Bunner.

Once upon a time there lived in Hindustan two kings whose countries bordered upon each other; but, as they were rivals in wealth and power, and one was a Hindu rajah and the other a Mohammedan badshah, they were not good friends at all. In order, however, to escape continual quarrels, the rajah and the badshah had drawn up an agreement, declaring that if any of their subjects, from the least to the greatest, crossed the bounadry between the two kingdoms, he might be seized and punished.

One morning the badshah and his chief wazir, or prime minister, were just about to begin their morning's work over the affairs of the kingdom, and the badshah had taken up a pen and was cutting it to his liking with a soarp knife, when the knife slipped and cut off the tip of his finger.

"That is good hearing!" said the wazir in answer.

"Insolent one!" exclamed the king. "Take him away, my guards, and put him in the court prison until I have time to punish him as he deserves!"

Instantly the officers in attendance seized upon the luckless wazir, and dragged him out of the king's presence toward the narrow doorway, through which unhappy criminals were wont to be led to prison or execution. As the door opened to receive him, the wazir muttered something into his great white beard.

"What said the rascal?" shouted the angry king.

He says "he thanks your majesty," replied one of the jailers. And at his words the king stared.

"He must be mad," he cried, "for he is grateful, not only for the misfortunes of others, but for his own.

Now the king was very fond of his old wizir, and although the court physician came and bound up his injured finger he could not soothe the soreness of the king's heart.

Early next morning the king ordered his horse and declared that he would go hunting. A score of ministers and huntsmen stood ready to mount and accompany him; but to their astonishment the king would have none of them. So away and away he wandered. So careless was he whither he was going that he strayed without perceiving it over into the rajah's territory, and only discovered the fact when, suddenly, men stepped from all sides of the thicket. Then the poor badshah was seized and bound and taken to the rajah's prison, thinking most of the time of wazir, who was suffering a similar fate, and wishing that, like the wazir, he could feel that there was something to give thanks for.

That night the rajah held a special council to consider what should be done to his rival. The chief Brahman was sent for—a fat priest who understood all about everything, and what days were lucky and what unlucky.

"Well," said the rajah anxiously, "what have you advise?"

"A very unlucky day!" exclaimed the chief Brahman. "Oh, a very unlucky day! The god Devil is full of wrath, and commands that to-morrow you must chop off this badshah's head and offer it to him in sacrifice."

"Ah, well," said the rajah, "let it be done. I leave it to you to carry out the sentence."

Before dawn great preparations were being made whilst the rajah sat, nervous and ill at ease, among hundreds of courtiers and servants, wishing it were all well over. At last the time came for the sacrifice to be offered, and the poor badshah was led out bound to have his head chopped off.

The chief Brahman came along with a smile on his face and a big sword in his hand, when, suddenly, he noticed that the badshah's finger was tied up in a bit of rag. Instantly he dropped the sword, and with his eyes starting out of his head with excitement, pounced upon the rag and tore it off, and there he saw that the tip of his victim's finger was missing. At this he got very red and angry indeed, and he led the bahshah up to where the rajah sat wondering.

"Behold! Oh rajah," he said, "this sacrifice is useless, the tip of his finger is gone! A sacrifice is no sacrifice unless it is complete." And he began to weep with rage and mortification.

But instead of wailing likewise, the rajah gave a sigh of relief, and answered: "Well, that settles the matter. If it had been any one else I should not have minded; but somehow—a king and all—well, it doesn't seem quite right to sacrifice a king." And with that he jumped up and with his jewelled dagger cut the bahshah's cords. And so they embraced and each went his own way.

When the badshah got home that every evening he sent for his imprisoned wazir.

"Well, O wazir!" he said, when the old man had been brought before him, what think you has been happening to me?"

"How can a man in prison know what is happening outside it?" answered the wazir.

Then the badshah told him all his adventures. And when he had reached the end he added:

"I have made up my mind, as a token of gratitude for my escape, to pardon you freely, if you will tell me why you gave thanks when I cut off the tip of my finger."

"Sire," replied the old wazir, "am I not right in thinking that it was a very lucky thing for you that you did cut off the tip of your finger, for otherwise you would certainly have lost your head. And to lose a scrap of one's finger is surely the least of the two evils."

"Very true," answered the king, touching his head as he spoke, as if to make quite certain that it was still there; "but yet—why did you likewise give thanks when I put you into prison?"

"I gave thanks,' said the wazir, "because it is good always to give thanks."

A BATCH OF SMILES

"What a lively baby!" said Flaherty. "Have ye had his picture took yet, I dunno?"

"Not yet," said Fogarty, the proud father. "We thried to, but afther an hour's lost labor the photygrafter rayferred us to a movin' picture studio."—Lippincott's.

A well known judge was recently automobiling and his chauffeur was driving at a fast pace. They didn't see the dog, but suddenly they heard his "ki-yi" and the judge ordered the chauffeur to stop. Going back, they found an angry woman standing over a dead dog—one of the ugliest dogs imaginable. She saluted the judge in no uncertain terms, telling him what she thought of him and finished by calling him the "murderer" of her dog. The judge, thinking to pacify her, said: "Madam, I shall be glad to replace your dog."

"Sir," she said, in a freezing voice, "you flatter yourself!"—National Food Magazine.

The little girl regarded them ruefully for a moment. Then her face brightened. "No matter!" she said; "it'll all rub off in bed."

"Don't you think, dear," began Comfy, "that our next door neighbors, the Scrubbs, are putting on a great deal too much style, considering the fact that they never know from day to day where the next meal is coming from?"

"Well," replied Mrs. Comfy, "you see, the more style they put on the more likely they are to be invited out to dinner."

"We manage to sell our product without testing it."

"Dynamite."

A doctor was summoned to a police station to examine an unconscious prisoner. The prisoner, very muddy and dishevelled, lay on the floor of the cell. The physician bent over and examined him, and then, rising, said, in a loud, stern voice:

"This man's condition is not due to drink. He has been drugged."

A policeman turned pale, and said, in a timid, hesitating voice:

TWO DROWN AT OTTAWA.

Ottawa, July 28.—Two drowning accidents occurred here over the week-end, in which Claude Walsh, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Walsh, 34 Fulton avenue, and Thomas F. Kilmartin, a clerk in the Forestry Branch, Department of the Interior, lost their lives.

The Walsh boy was drowned in the Rideau Canal and Kilmartin in the Ottawa River two miles west of the city. Both bodies were recovered.

WANT AD HOROSCOPE

JULY 28.

A woman born on this date will have a great love for children. In the management of their children and in ordering of home affairs these women are especially happy and successful. Men of this birthdate have power to hold and sway great multitudes.

For instance, Ballington Booth, the organizer of the Volunteers of America, was born July 28, 1859. A study of this man's life and influence will assist others having a similar birthdate.

Women of this birthdate are angels in mildness and gentleness until someone of their family is maligned and attacked and then they become almost ferocious.

These women are hard to advise. They have a good idea of their own judgment and will not allow any question as to its being the best there is.

All musical trades are under favorable planetary conditions and musicians should both read and use the Want Ads for finding new positions and extra work.

PTE. HAWKINS, TORONTO, BRINGS THE KING'S PRIZE HOME TO THE DOMINION

DRAMATIC WIN WITH LAST SHOT OF CONTEST

Canadian Associated Press.

Bisley Camp, July 28.—There was a Sabbath stillness over the camp today, which was uncanny after the bustle of the last fortnight.

Other congratulatory messages were received from Premier Borden, Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes, Lord Strathcona, Sir Williams-Taylor and Private Clifford, Toronto, winner of the King's Prize two years ago.

After a magnificent uphill fight, Private William A. Hawkins, of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto, carried off the King's Prize, the most noted trophy of the meet, on Saturday. The money value is $1,250 and in addition the winner receives the National Rifle Association gold medal and badge.

VICTORY CAME WITH LAST SHOT OF ROUND.

The victory was a dramatic one, and came with the last shot at the last range. With a bull needed to win and an inner to tie, Private Hawkins displayed admirable nerve, and his shot netted him the five points necessary to capture the prize. His total was 330.

Col.-Sergeant Fenby, of the Royal Warwick Regiment, was second with 329. He had completed firing at the last range shortly before Hawkins and was standing by when the winning shot was fire.

Sergeant H. Ommundsen, of the Fourth Royal Scots, who led at the completion of both the first and second stages, shot poorly at the 900 and 1,000 yards ranges, which constitute the third and final stage, and his total was but 324. This netted him £10. Had he not made a miss, followed by a succession of inners among his bulls at the 1,000 yard range he would have landed first honors.

SIX CANADIANS IN THE THIRD STAGE.

Canada had six other members of its team in the hundred which qualified for the third stage of the King's Prize, but with the exception of Hawkins all fell away badly at the 1,000 yards range. All six won £5 each in the event. Their scores at the 900 and 1,000 yards ranges, together with the total score which each compiled in all three stages, and the place secured by each among the hundred riflemen who competed in the third and final stage are as follows:

Private Denholm, Winnipeg	62	63	315	36
Lieutenant Mortimer, Ottawa,	68	59	316	34
Sergeant Laman, Halifax,	65	57	310	52
Sergeant Lee, London	66	50	307	69

Sergeant Steel
Guelph	64	51	305	75
Sergeant Guthaus, Ottawa,	60	52	300	91

The King's Prize is shot for in three stages, and the aggregate possible is 355. The first stage is at 200, 500, and 600 yards ranges, seven shots at each. The second stage is at the 300 and 600 yards ranges, ten shots at each. The third is at the 900 and 1,000 yards rangs, fifteen shots at each. The first two stages serve to eliminate the majority of the entries and only the 100 high men enter the final stage.

1895—Sergeant Hayhurst, Hamilton.
1904—Private Perry, Vancouver.
1913—Private Hawkins, Toronto.

WAS NOT ORIGINALLY CHOSEN FOR THE TEAM.

Private Hawkins, who was not originally chosen a member of the Canadian Bisley team, but secured his place through withdrawals, did not figure prominently in the first stage, but improved at the second and third. At the three short ranges he made one hundred out of a possible of one hundred and five, and ended the first stage four points behind the leader, Ommundsen, who had put on 104.

At the second stage Hawkins cut down Ommundsen's lead by two, putting on 94 to the latter's 92.

At the two final ranges in the third stage the Canadian did some beautiful shooting, taking 68's out of possible 75's at both distances under poor conditions. This gave him the first prize by a majority of one. Fenby, the second man, won £50 and the N. R. A. silver medal.

1,000 yards.....5545555554544535—68

Lieutenant Mortimer shot well at the 900 yards range, also getting a 68. Starting with a magpie he put on eight bulls in succession, followed by two magpies, an inner and three bulls. At the thousand yards he fell to 59, however.

HAWKINS IS TENDERED A GREAT OVATION.

Private Hawkins' win was apparently a popular one and he was tendered a great ovation. He received the congratulations of Major-General Lord Cheylesmore, K.C.V.O., chairman of the National Rifle Association Council, Lieut.-Col. the Right Hon. Earl Waldegrave, V.D., vice-chairman, his comrades and many others.

The famous Bisley chair was brought into requisition, and Private Hawkins went through the customary ordeal of being carried round the camp, the band of the Royal Sussex playing: See the Conquering Hero Comes."

Hawkins was eventually conveyed to the Canadian quarters with Lieut.-Col. J. Duff Stuart, commander of the Canadian contingent, at the head.

The numerous prizes were distributed by the Duchess of Wellington in the famous umbrella tent.

Speaking of his success last night, Private Hawkins stated that he was extremely gratified at having headed the list of so many experienced shots, the more so as the wind had been very tricky, varying as much as ten degrees.

The officers and members of the team and a few friends entertained the victor at dinner last night. Major Birdwhistle, secretary of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, in complimenting Hawkins said that the association could now feel quite satisfied with the result of this year's Bisley visit.

WINNING SCORE WAS NOT UNUSUALLY HIGH.

Hawkins' score was not an unusually high one. Last year Private Fulton put on 336 in winning the prize, while in 1910 Sergeant Radice scored 340. In winning it in 1911, however, Clifford only scored 319. Previous to 1910 Hawkins' figure of 330 had not been passed.

Following Hawkins and Fenby the high men in the King's Prize this year are: Sergeant Allen, of the Royal Scots, who wins £25, with 325; Private Carr, of the Civil Service, 324; Sergeant Ommundsen, Royal Scots, 324; Lieutenant Blacklow, Australia, 323; Private Fulton, last year's winner, 321; Sergeant McHaffie, Scottish Borderers, 321; Sergeant Glumart, 2nd London Regiment, 321; Lieutenant Halliday, Australia, 321, each of whom wins £10.

In the final stage for the St. George's Vase three Canadians won £5 each. These were Sergeant Freeborn, Hamilton, who was twenty-third; Private Denholm, Winnipeg, twenty-fifth, and Sergeant Carr, Victoria, twenty-ninth.

Sergeant Hawley, Winnipeg, has won the Association Cup, following a shoot-off.

WINNER IS DRIVER FOR LUNCH COMPANY.

Toronto, July 28.—Private William A. Hawkins, the King's Prize winner, is 29 years old and was born in Orono, Ont., a little village 40 miles east of Toronto, but has been here most of his life. Hawkins is a driver for the Canadian Box Lunch Company, Adelaide and Church streets, and carries lunches to down-town workers at noon hour every day of the year.

"Am I proud? Well, I don't know how I'll wait till he comes home." At 29 Belmont street, Mrs. Hawkins, a good-looking young woman, met a reporter. She was so excited with the news of her husband's victory that she raced from house to house and told all the neighbors.

"I never thought that he would win," Mrs. Hawkins said. "But when I heard that he was leading, I was very anxious and waited impatiently for the result. No, Bill never imagined he had a chance. When he was going away, he said, 'I'll make a big try for it, but I don't think I have a ghost of a chance. Look at all of those cracks who have been trying for the King's Prize year after year and not getting near the top."

PREDICTED HAWKINS WOULD MAKE BIG WIN.

Hawkins joined the 48th Highlanders nine years ago. He was a perfect "bug" on shooting, and during most of his spare time he was at Long Branch ranges. Experts noticed that he was improving day by day, and predicted that he would win something worth while some day. His shooting at the O. R. A. last year and the D. R. A. at Ottawa last year won for him a place on the Bisley team, which he had been trying to land for several years. He excelled as a long shot.

After Hawkins joined "H" company of the Kilties, he secured a position as a hydro lineman, which kept him out of the city considerably, as the Niagara of Toronto transmission line was being constructed. On account of his inability to attend drills, he was forced to hand in his uniform. But the soldiering game, especially the shooting end, appealed to him so greatly that he quit the hydro and got a job in the city, so that he could return to the regiment. But as "H" company had demanded the return of the uniform, he joined "A" company.

Private Hawkins has not won much distinction at home as a marksman, but he has always been a steady shot, and during the last two years has finished near the top of the list in any event he entered. He won about five medals and one cup before he went to Bisley and had carried away a few sums of money from various rifle matches.

OTHER DEFAULTS GAVE HAWKINS PLACE.

At the selection shoot at Ottawa last year Pte. Hawkins was 27th man, and as the team sent by the Dominion Rifle Association comprises only 20 men Hawkins had little prospect of taking part in the Bisley meet this year. However, by default of others, Hawkins got his place to make up the team. Private Hawkins did not take any special musketry exercises. All the shooting he has done has been with the Highlanders. This summer, before he left for England, he put in a lot of practice at the Long Branch range, and his marksmanship then was very steady.

"I always knew Billy was a good shot," said Mrs. Hawkins. "He went to the ranges quite a bit and won considerable money. The happiest moment of his life was when he was selected to go to Bisley. One reason why he didn't think he had a chance in England was the fact that he took with him a new rifle equipped with new sights. He would have much rather taken his old rifle. Besides being a marksman, he is a good baseball pitcher, having for some years been connected with the Senior City Amateur League."

CAN WE BUILD "DREADNOUGHTS" TO-DAY?

It is not to be expected that the revelations regarding the condition of things in the Dominion Arsenal at Quebec will give the smallest pause to those amongst the Liberal politicians and journalists who are loud in the belief that Canada could begin, at the drop of the hat, to build and equip "Dreadnoughts" by a species of sublime instinct. Intelligences of that variety are not affected by facts or swayed by argument. They reach their conclusions by starting the band playing, and singing, "O Canada!" They assume that, what other people must learn through painful and costly experience, Canadians know to begin with, and that we can start in, this very afternoon, and accomplish anything which any other human beings have ever done at the end of decades of endeavor.

So when they read that our Arsenal has been turning out cartridges with the minor defect that many of them "blew back" toward the breech—that the eighteen-pounder shells for the quick-firing guns were more noted for an exciting variety of shape than for dull uniformity—that no one had taken the risk of firing any of them off—that, when tested, fifteen out of seventy-five rounds would not fit the guns at all—that the remaining sixty proved very erratic as to destination—that only an ingenious after-thought saved the waste of many hundred thousand dollars in rifle ammunition — these "build-your-Dreadnoughts-at-home" optimists will not turn a hair. They will still be quite confident that, though we may not be able to make, off-hand, a rifle cartridge, we can get a set of tools at the first "departmental store" and turn out that most intricate of modern fighting machines—a Super-Dreadnought.

Wiser and more modest Canadians are of the opinion that they must learn to do things like other people. They must walk before they can run. They do not feel entirely capable of commencing the first morning on the job to teach the experts of the British Admiralty, with centuries of experience behind them, how to build battleships and run a Navy. Nor do they insist that they can take over the delicate and dangerous diplomatic task of guiding the foreign policy of the Empire without any preliminary training. These marvellous "stunts" are successfully accomplished only in the mushy and milk-fed minds of our home-staying children of a boundless conceit, who make the humorists' typical "Yankee" of four decades ago, who was ready to "lick all creation," look like a retiring and modest brother.

LAW ENFORCEMENT AND THE POLICE.

The breaking up of public meetings in the city, which were within the law; the chasing through the streets of speakers at such meetings; the brutal assaults on inoffensive and unoffending men, shows that there is something desperately wrong with the management of the Police Department.

It is worthy of notice that through all the disgraceful, hoodlum tactics which have broken out of late, the police have not made a single arrest. What possible explanation can there be for this? On each occasion when rowdies broke up meetings and when one speaker was severely handled, there were policemen present. Under such circumstances the question naturally arises as to whether or not there is a latent sympathy among certain of the police towards those who so brazenly set law and order at defiance. In New York revelations have proven that the police have connived, openly and effectively, with law breakers. Is there beginning to be evidence of a similar condition of affairs in Montreal? What other explanation is there of the immunity from arrest of whole mobs who, under their ringleaders, publicly defy the law?

It should not be necessary to point out that no police force can possibly be satisfactory until it has acquired a thorough appreciation of the vital importance of enforcing the law with absolute impartiality. The Board of Control should certainly hold a searching enquiry into the causes of police apathy of which we have had such lamentable illustrations.

THE "CAUCUS" AND THE CONSTITUENCY.

THE perfect work of the party "caucus" is being demonstrated during these fine summer days in Washington. The Democratic party has a very narrow majority in the Senate, where its proposed Tariff Bill is now being considered. If but two or three Democratic Senators broke away from the party and voted against the Bill, it would perish. Yet much more than that number of the Democratic Senators are strongly opposed to certain features of the Bill. The upshot is that they must vote for "duties" in which they do not believe, or take the responsibility of rendering Democratic tariff legislation impossible. So what they have done is to "caucus" on the measure. That is, the Democrats met in secret session and considered the schedules, item by item, and every member of the "caucus" is bound to vote for every item which was adopted by a majority of the "caucus," even if he himself voted against it in "caucus."

We are having this openly confessed on the floor of the Senate. Senator Reed stated, when questioned by Senator Bristow, that, though he believed in "free lead and zinc," and voted for it in "caucus," he would now vote against it in open Senate. "Then you believe in caucus legislation?" interjected Senator Bristow. "No," Senator Reed replied, "but I believe in supporting a policy which all have agreed upon. If I would vote for nothing except what I favored, I would have to write the whole Bill."

This puts very plainly the issue which comes up in all legislative bodies touching most large measures. It would be a miracle if the majority in any case agreed entirely upon all the details. It would be an even greater miracle if the greater part of the country—which the majority almost necessarily represent—agreed upon these details. Yet the majority may very honestly agree that it is better to pass a measure whose basic principles and main features they unanimously support, even if it be spotted with imperfections, than to pass nothing at all. So they compromise. They "caucus" and abide by the decision of the majority.

What then should be the attitude of the people toward this sort of thing? Instinctively, it is one of dislike. We much prefer that every member of Parliament or of Congress shall freely represent the opinion of his constituency at every point. But would that opinion, in every case, be in favor of his standing steadily by the point on which they differ from the majority, if his so doing meant Parliamentary paralysis and final failure to legislate at all? For instance, a town might disagree with that item in a tariff which "protected" what was a raw material of its most valuable local industry, and yet it might prefer that a protective tariff, with that item in it, should carry rather than that no tariff at all should be enacted. In that case, the real desire of the town is that its member shall "caucus" and agree to vote for the will of the majority.

And that, we fancy, is the principle upon which popular representatives should act. They should endeavor to do what, on the whole, their constituents would desire them to do. They should fight for details as long as there is a chance for them to succeed; but they should not imperil the entire measure—which their constituents strongly favor—in order to kill a detail with the help of men whose purpose is to kill the whole Bill. Of course, another question arises when the Member finds himself out of harmony with his constituents. Should he then sink his personal judgment in that of his electorate? The answer to that is, we think, that he should not; but that he should promptly resign his mandate and permit his late constituents to choose another Member who can conscientiously voice their views.

WHICH CAT WILL "BELL" THE MOUSE?

THE Powers have begun to disagree at once as to the proper way of coercing Turkey. It looked at the end of the week as if Austria might possibly be permitted to apply a little gentle moral suasion to Servia and Greece, while Russia tried to bring Turkey to reason by invading Armenia. Still it hardly appeared probable that Russia would consent to direct and unaccompanied Austrian intervention with the Balkan Slavs, while she stood aside; and now we are told that neither does Russia want to invade Armenia because that would mean an Armenian uprising and the beginning of very grave complications in Asiatic Turkey. So Russia proposes a naval demonstration off Stamboul, to which Germany says "No!"

A naval demonstration off Stamboul might result in the occupation of that city, and that would be getting too near for comfort to Germany's proposed reserve in Asia Minor. Thus the old brake once more bites the wheel of European action. The Turk is saved for the thousandth time by the fact that the Great Powers cannot agree upon the method of his chastening. It was upon this that Abdul Hamid calculated, and played with such skill. Probably Turkey-in-Europe could have lived along under the shelter of this impotence of the Powers for many a year to come, if it had not been suddenly confronted by the power of the impotent—of the four little Balkan Kingdoms, no one of which dared have undertaken the task alone.

Now Turkey is in Adrianople again; and the Russian plan of patching up the Balkan Alliance, and adding the cement of Roumania, looks like the only feasible plan for getting her out again. But the patching is yet to do. The Bulgarian atrocities have stirred the indignation of the Greeks to the pitch of demanding her obliteration, and seem as well to have precipitated the revenge of the Turkish irregulars. Fighting goes on all along the line. Even armistices are refused. Certainly if the Balkan Alliance is patched together again, it will not be under the leadership of Bulgaria; and yet it is only Bulgaria which would gain directly by the recapture of Adrianople.

"Who is Sylvia? What is she?" Premier Asquith, please answer.

Could you cheer for the "New Zealand" without blushing for the "Niobe" and the "Rainbow?"

* * *

Politics is a dangerous commodity to introduce into a cartridge factory—even if the Government owns it.

* * *

The Chief doesn't believe there were any automobiles when Mr. Roberts was mobbed. Have the police found out who owns them?

* * *

It may not be out of place in connection with the visit of the "New Zealand," to recall that Canada's contribution to the Navy still consists of lusty cheers and loyal toasts.

* * *

If Chief Campeau had seen that Mr. Roberts was protected from the friends of the police, the Secretary of the Dominion Alliance would have had fewer difficulties and no bruises.

* * *

By the way, has it occurred to you that the Senate's idea of defending the Empire is very much like Chief Campeau's idea of protecting John H. Roberts?

* * *

To round out the picture, the Senate should have been anchored at one pier and the "Rainbow" at another when the "New Zealand" steamed into Vancouver harbor—our defenders of the Empire!

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

The Late Wm. McLea Walbank.

"The Montreal members of the Board of Management of the Provincial Land Surveyors, who have been holding their semi-annual examinations at Quebec, have returned to the city. The following were present at the session: Charles Baillargé, C. E., P.L.S., Quebec; H. McLea Walbank, B. A., Sec. P.L.S., Montreal; D. C. Morency, P. L. S., Levis; James Addie, P. L. S., Sherbrooke; Messrs. P. Gastonguay, Arthabaska; F. McLachlan, E. P. Fletcher, Quebec; P. Dutremblay, Three Rivers."—From The Montreal Star, July 28th, 1883.

THE late Mr. Wm McLea Walbank was a Newfoundlander by birth, the son of M. W. Walbank, Q.C., of St. John's. He was educated at Queen's University, Ireland, after which he came to Canada and studied at McGill, obtaining the degree of B.Sc. in 1878. Mr. Walbank was admitted a member of P. L. S., of which he subsequently became vice-president, and was one of the founders of the Canadian Society of Engineers. He also took up architecture in partnership with his brother-in-law, Mr. J. A. P. Bulman, who had a thorough training in that best of all schools, the north of England. This association, however, was not of long duration. The foundation of Mr. Walbank's greatest success was in connection with the late Mr. Thomas Pringle, who had been well known as the foremost hydraulic engineer in practice. With him Mr. Walbank studied the development of water powers and was employed to assist in carrying out Mr. Pringle's long-cherished plans for harnessing the Lachine Rapids, a feat accomplished under the name of the Lachine Rapids and Land Company, of which he became vice-president and managing director, thus coming in close touch with the late Mr. George Burland. His great business ability had scope from that date. Through him, first one company, then another was absorbed, until in the formation of the Light, Heat and Power, of which he was the head, all opposition was removed.

McDonald, one of those who tendered for the drain contracts, expressed his surprise and dissatisfaction this morning at his tender having been rejected, contending that as his was the lowest, and he was perfectly responsible, he was in justice entitled to secure the work."—From The Montreal Star, July 28th, 1883.

"There is a great demand for laborers in different parts of the country. Messrs. Scobell, Vuller & Co., of the Employment Bureau, have furnished over two hundred men this week, and have orders for over seven hundred more."—From The Montreal Star, July 28, 1883.

Admirers Slap King on Back

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—The King and Queen of Spain, who arrived in London on Saturday night, passed yesterday in calling on the King and Queen of England at Buckingham Palace, with an automobile drive in the afternoon to Windsor, returning to dine at Kensington Palace with Princess Henry of Battenburg.

When King Alfonso arrived on Saturday night he had to make his way as best as he could through a throng of admirers, some of whom slapped him vigorously on back. King Alfonso took this most good-humoredly and turned round and saluted the throng.

CLOSING UP STEEL ON THE TRANSCONTINENTAL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Fort William, Ont., July 28.—That only forty miles of steel remain to be laid on the Transcontinental railway between Winnipeg and Quebec, was the announcement made to-day by Mr. H. A. Woods, assistant chief engineer who has returned, from a trip of inspection north-east of here.

The gap is some two hundred miles east of Cochrane, and Mr. Woods said the entire road from Quebec to a point west of Tete Jaune Cache, Alta., will be closed up in about six weeks.

Owing to unexpected delays in obtaining steel for permanent bridges, trains operated by contractors are being runacross temporary structures.

Fatal Letter For MacNamara

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vancouver, B.C., July 28—The names of all the jurors who tried John McNamara at New Westminster in connection with the great robbery of the Bank of Montreal, began with the letter "G." They found him "guilty."

All the petit jurors who tried all the cases at the recent Assizes were possessed of surnames which began with the same letter. It is a notable fact that every man who was charged was found guilty. Not a single one out of ten got off.

The explanation of the circumstances of the presence of the "Gees" on such large numbers is that the officials, in drawing jury panels, proceeded in alphabetical order. Next year it will be the turn of the "H's," and it is certain that some of them will be dropped.

HOW POOR PEOPLE AT CHAMBLY HOME ENJOY FRESH AIR

ROMPING IN FIELDS WOULDN'T OTHERWISE SEE

Kiddies Thrive and Flourish Mentally as well as Physically.

There are few in Montreal, and not many throughout the length and breadth of Canada who have not heard of the Fresh Air Fund. At the same time there are few who realize fully the importance of the work being done. A few are inclined to consider it a good work carried on in a small way, and are willing to let it go at that.

To the hundreds of women and children who are given an outing each summer as a result of this Fund, it means a great deal more. Instead of being a small institution which shelters a couple of dozen children, the Fresh Air Fund has a summer camp in operation at Chambly, sheltering 350 persons. It is through this institution that hundreds of women and children, who otherwise would be unable to take a holiday, are enabled to spend a couple of weeks in the country, where they can splash about in the waters of the Richelieu River and can also enjoy romping in the green fields, which they would otherwise never see.

Coming from the most crowded districts of the city, after existing for a couple of months in the sweltering heat in lanes and back yards, it is a wonderful sight to watch these children thrive and progress, both physically and mentally, once they get away from their surroundings in the city. At the end of the first week officials in charge of the institutions say that a tremendous difference can be seen.

Saw Chambly Home.

A representative of "The Star" paid a visit to the home of the Fresh Air Fund at Chambly on Saturday. Beside Dr. Powles, who lives on the premises to look after the physical ailments of the visitors, the resident staff is composed of Mrs. Miller, the superintendent; Miss Miller, assistant superintendent; Miss Patterson, secretary; Miss Anderson, teacher of the kindergarten class; and Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. French, and Mrs. Colehan, who provide the "eats" for the guests.

There are upwards of two hundred and fifty women and children in the camp, which includes houses in what was once the residence quarters of the old "Fort Pontchartrain, St. Louis."

"We are playing to capacity now, and could hardly find room for a dozen more," explained Dr. Powles, when asked if there were lots of applicants for admission. The children romping about the large grounds could hardly be recognized as the group of picknickers who had left Bonaventure station a few days before.

"One of the strictest rules of the institution is that residents must keep out of doors at all times. They are never allowed inside unless while eating, sleeping, or doing the few chores necessary to keep their rooms in proper order.

Must Stay Out.

"Even on rainy days they have to keep in the open as much as possible. They are not forced out into the rain, but a generous allotment of spacious balconies provide shelter and yet afford ample opportunity to enjoy the outside air. Another strict rule is that all windows must be kept open at night. This same rule applies to the doors, which leaves every opportunity for the circulation of fresh air.

"Although the residents are not allowed to go off the grounds surrounding the building, they are not hampered in any way by this rule and there is lots of room at all times for the big party to enjoy themselves. Swings are provided on the grounds and there is lots of room for all the different games which the children wish to take part in." Judging from the way they were romping about the inmates were enjoying themselves to the fullest.

"The strictest investigation is made in the city before anyone can come here," explained Dr. Powles, "and no one is accepted, except the most deserving."

Anyone taken at the camp is kept for two weeks, without one cent of expense. In some extreme cases one is allowed to remain three weeks. Every Wednesday one party leaves the camp, and a new crowd comes every Thursday.

Can Do Sewing.

Another feature of the camp is the opportunity given to mothers to do sewing and such work of this kind as is required for the home. Large quantities of materials are kept and this is disposed of to those who want to buy it at wholesale prices. Water has been installed in the building, which is also equipped with electric lights from top to bottom.

The first question asked by a visitor is: "Well, what does it take to feed a crowd of this kind?"

This feeding grows into pretty big proportions when it is considered that the inmates spend all their time in the open and that they arrive hungry and ill-nourished.

"In the first place," said Dr. Powles, "everything that comes here in the shape of food is the very best and everything comes fresh every day."

Miss Patterson said 70 large loaves of bread were used daily, with 90 lbs. of meat, 32 gallons of milk, 1 bag of potatoes and 100 pounds of butter.

It was about three o'clock in the afternoon when The Star representative reached Mrs. Hogan's quarters, and she, and her two assistants were still busy cleaning up the kitchen after the mid-day meal.

Get Up At Four.

"We were up at four o'clock this morning and have not been off our feet since," said Mrs. Hogan. "Now we will have about half an hour, and then we must start getting supper." These three do all the cooking for the household. All the guests at the Home sit down to their meals at the same hour in one large dining-room.

Saturday was an off day in the kindergarten, so The Star man missed an opportunity of seeing the children at work; but Miss Anderson explained that a great deal of interest was taken in this. While it is not compulsory, most of the younger kiddies took advantage of the opportunity of attending and seem to consider it part of the picnic. The kindergarten hours are from 10 to 12 and from 2 to 4.

Little is required in the way of work from the guests. On their arrival the rooms allotted to them are clean and ready. During their stay, they must keep these rooms in order, and do their own washing in the laundry. They must also wash up the section of the corridor immediately in front of their rooms, wash up their own rooms, take the clothes off the beds and fold them up carefully for the laundry on the day of their departure. This is all that is asked.

No children are accepted unless accompanied by their mothers, or by some grown woman who takes the responsibility of caring for them.

Dr. Powles added that the demand for cold cream for sunburned faces and arms is enormous.

A preacher married a couple and said to the groom: "This is the end of your troubles."

After a year or two, the man came to the preacher and said: "You told me my marriage was the end of all my troubles; why, my troubles have just begun."

"Well," said the preacher, "I didn't say which end."

The Naval Contribution.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star.

Sir:—Of all the curious proposals ever made to an intelligent public that of "The Week" of B. C. endorsed by "The Freeholders", of Cornwall takes the prize, viz: that Hon Mr. Borden should produce a policy that would not take "money" out of the "farmers." This is a direct insult to the farmers. The farmers are a thrifty law-abiding people and they do not wish themselves ranked with embezzlers gamblers and thimble-riggers who are generally on the lookout for something for nothing. Farmers can and will pay their way and are the last of all men in Canada to object to Mr. Borden and his policy. Better buy a few gingerbread dreadnoughts and send them to the Editors of "The Week" and the "Freeholder" for they can hardly yet have cut their wisdom teeth and must still be on the borderland of babyhood. In the name of all that is sensible let us forego making Canada a laughing-stock among the peoples of the world.

TO-DAY IN CANADA'S HISTORY.

JULY TWENTY-EIGHTH.

On July 28th, 1783, Sir Guy Carleton, commander-in-chief of the British forces, issued instructions to Colonel Morse—"chief engineer in America"—to make a report on the resources and defences of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, which were just about to be put under separate governments. The report is interesting for many reasons, not the least being that, over seventy years before the accomplishment of Confederation, it recommends uniting the Maritime Provinces with Canada "that by establishing the same laws, inducing a constant intercourse and mutual interest, a great country may yet be raised up in America, to facilitate which it may be found proper to establish a seat of general government and protection." It occurred to Morse that Cape Breton Island would be a favorable situation for the capital, as it might "be said to lie in the centre of all that remains to Great Britain upon the continent of America," whilst "a good and wise government" appeared the only chance of saving "these remains" to England, and of building up "a formidable rival to the American States." He hoped by the way, that the attractions of this excellent government might draw the inhabitants from the States.

WILL WAIT

Mackay Edgar Wants to Meet U. S. Boats.

New York, July 27.—The Motor Boat Club of America has cabled the Royal Motor Yacht Club of England, the present holder of the Harmsworth cup, that owing to engine troubles, encountered in the boats during the trial races, that America is unable at this time to send a team of challengers for the cup. It has asked for a postponement of the races, which were to have taken place early in August. This announcement was made here.

E. Mackay Edgar, of Montreal and London, owner of the high-speed motor boat Maple Leaf IV, winner of the cup at Huntingdon last year, who is in New York, now has given the American club assurance that he will back it up in its request for a postponement, for he says that he is the one most interested and that he wants a race if he has to wait until next November for one.

CRICKET

Westmount Wins from M.A.A.A. Saturday.

The Westmount Cricket Club on Saturday easily defeated M.A.A.A. on the Westmount Park in a game that from start to finish never lacked interest.

Montreal won the toss and batted first, Bradley and Watson facing the bowling of Small and Beacock. Watson was shortly dismissed by a good ball from Beacock—one wicket for one run. Croker joined Bradley, and commenced to liven things up, and save for two chances off Beacock's bowling, played a splendid innings for 39 runs. Jones, replacing Bradley, was a good partner to Croker, and played well for 31. The Westmount fielding was good, apart from two catches dropped, and resulted in Hart and Motherwell being run out. M.A.A.A.'s innings was closed for a total of 104. Westmount, with but an hour and a half to play, sent in Anthony and Quirk to face Godwin and Hart bowling, and it was not until the score was 27 that Quirk was dismissed. Howlett joined Anthony, who, together, gave a good exhibition of play, their forceful "cutting" being a treat to watch. With the score at 89 Howlett was dismissed by Hart for a well earned 30. Osborne and Knight fell early prey to Hart's trundling, and it was shortly after Small went to the wickets that Anthony was taken in a good catch by Croker. White joined Small, who was smartly taken by Jones for 13. Collier joining White, stumps were shortly drawn with the score standing 132 for six wickets.

ROYAL ROVERS

Won from Montreal Professionals at Mascotte Park.

At Mascotte Park on Saturday, in blazing weather the Royal Rovers and Montreal professionals had a soccer bout, in which the Rovers came off victors, scoring two to one.

In the first half the Rovers had much the best of the game, which was not conspicious for speed or vim. Bennett, Menlove and Reynolds were particularly active on the winning side, and time and again Woodside had sharp work to keep clear, and was eventually beaten by the two former, who scored the only brace of goals secured in the first half.

In the second half play was of a more spirited character, and the Montreal team made a much better showing in every way. Menlove and Bennett were again much in evidence round the Montreal defence, some head work of the former being of a particularly brilliant character, equalled only by the excellent defence of Woodside. Time and again the Montreal men carried the ball into the Rovers' quarters but the shooting was not too effective, and Smith had little difficulty in keeping his port intact. Save on one occasion when Leitsch got through, placing the score 2-1 in favor of the Rovers, which pretty well represented the balance of advantage on the day's play.

The line-up was as follows:

Referee, James Ryder.

NORTHERNS

Qualifying for C. C. A. Dominion Regatta.

Ottawa, July 28.—The qualifying meet of the Northern division of the Canadian Canoe Association was held at Carleton Place Saturday. The course was choppy and as a result no good time was made. Carleton Place won the half-mile war canoe race, while the New Edinburgh took the mile.

The following are the results, the first three in each event qualifying for the championship finals, which are to be held at St. John's, Que., on Saturday next:

Junior Singles — First, Bennett; Carleton Place; second, Lavalley, Rideaus. Time, 4.45.

Senior singles—First, Murphy, Carleton Place; second, Fournier, New Edinburghs; third, Bradley, New Edinburghs. Time, 4.50.

Half mile war canoe — First, Carleton Place; second, New Edinburghs; third, Ottawas. Time, 3.15.

Intermediate tandem — First, Theasider and Slade, Rideaus; second, Short and Clarke, New Edinburghs; third, Sladen and Bouchette, Britannias. Time, 4.18.

Junior Fours—First, Short, Clarke, Short, Purney, New Edinburghs; second, Sladen, Pritchard, Ballantyne, Mitchell, Britannias; third, Stalker, Erskine, Bunnell, Vanasse, New Edinburghs. Time, 4.06.

Senior tandem—First, Miller and Stimpson, Britannias; second, Fournier and Gerard, New Edinburghs; third, Gibson and Campbell, Britannias. Time, 4.11.

Intermediate fours — First, Short, Clarke, Short and Purney, New Edinburghs; second, Sladen, Pritchard, Ballantyne, Mitchell, Britannias; third, Findley, Hughes, Neilsen, Wall, Carleton Place. Time, 4.52.

GRAND TRUNKS CELEBRATE OPENING WITH VICTORY OVER THE M.A.A.A.; SONS OF ENGLAND'S CLEVER WIN

S. O. S. Snatch a Point from Locos—Two More for Valleyfield —Overseas, Jenkins and Highlanders Victorious.

In taking up the thread of the season's story, the P.Q.F.A. leagues were extremely busy, and furnished a couple of surprises in Saturday's games. Sons of England's victory over Lachine, and Sons of Scotland's draw at Locos were not the results anticipated by the homesters, yet such occurred.

The leading game of the afternoon was Grand Trunk vs. M.A.A.A., and Trunks celebrated a double event, victory and the opening of their new ground. The opening of this new pitch, at the top of what will be a Magdalen street cul-de-sac, and at this point is the entrance to the ground, was not the occasion of any ceremonies, as originally intended, owing to the absence of Mr. Maver, the superintendent, from the city. But Mr. Tom Dalrymple and his executive received the congratulations from their friends at the magnificent result of the club's labors. And as the end of play saw Grand Trunks the winners over M.A.A.A. by 4—2, what more was wanted to complete the feeling of justifiable satisfaction.

As to the game, Trunks played as perhaps never before this season. Not that there was anything brilliant about them, but infinitely more dash was seen than in previous displays. First thing they did was to win the toss. Now, as far as the sun is concerned, this offers no advantage either way, as the field runs east and west. The wind, however, helped some, though at times blew across. It was early evident that Peto was to have a very busy afternoon, and in ten minutes Ritchie scored. M.A.A.A. were kept in check without much trouble, and their visits to Lane were brief and few. Dundas made Watkins "bite the dust," which is absolutely literal, las there was any amount knocking about. The penalty that ensued was just judgment, but McGinnis, who took the kick, shot wide, and hit the upright and danger was cleared, by Dundas sending up field.

Then from the first real visit to Lane, Taylor got through and shot, but hit the far upright. Ted Bushell seeing an opening between half a dozen, equalized with a shot out of Lane's reach. The next item was a doubtful penalty given against Albert Jude for handling. Orr, who took this, made no mistake, and Trunks took the lead, and kept it to half-time.

The second half saw Trunks still in the ascendant, and scoring two more to M.A.A.A.'s one, finished as said, 4—2. There was only one unpleasant incident; Watkins of Trunks being ordered off. The result strengthens G.T.'s league position, and if they will stick to Saturday's team, it will take a lot to knock them off their perch. M.A.A.A. disappointed, never looking like winners, and their chances for league championships are almost extinguished.

For Sons of England or, in fact, any other team, to win at Lachine is a performance of great merit. And more, to prevent Lachine from scoring on their own ground, is another fine bit of work. All this happened on Saturday, when S.O.E. won by two goals to nothing. It was a sad blow to Lachine, but they are well able to stand it, even if out of the league running ,for isn't there such a prize left as the Quebec Cup. As to the Sons of England, they are playing like champions, with a team that is working into almost perfect understanding. Their record thus far shows, that whatever men they lost to the professionals, almost as good have taken their places, a tribute to watchful and careful management. S.O.E. are now a stronger tip than ever for the league. Joe Wright and Feathers scored the goals, in the first and second periods, respectively.

Sons of Scotland took one point from Locos at Longue Pointe, and did a remarkably smart thing in the doing. Both sides admit the game to have been a particularly good one and a clean one to boot. Ferguson scored for Locos and Fleming for Sons of Scotland.

Valleyfield defeated C.P.R. 2—1, but not without going all the way to do it. C.P.R. scored first, but Valleyfield soon equalized, and went one ahead. Half-time it was 2—1 for the home team. No more scoring took place, and one more victory went to the Cotton boys. At the close, C.P.R. protested that the referee had played five minutes short, but that official, Mr. H. S. Lyons, is confident that the prescribed period was given.

Fairmount had a blank afternoon, but Grand Trunks paid a neat compliment, by sending fifteen tickets for the players and committee to witness the Grand Trunk-M.A.A.A. encounter.

Jenkins, still at Highlanders' heels in the league race, won handsomely from Shamrocks by 4—1. The scorers were: Greenwood, Morris, Davidson and Finney, for Jenkins; Moran for Shamrocks.

Overseas got the better of Cote St. Paul by 4 to 2, and Highlanders had a very easy trip putting it through and over St. Thomas, by 7 to 0.

LOTS OF LACROSSE AT CORNWALL SATURDAY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cornwall, Ont., July 28.—In the Cornwall Manufacturer's Lacrosse League on Saturday afternoon, a large crowd witnessed the three contests run off. The Storment Mill team had little trouble in disposing of the McGill Chairs team, the final score being 10 to 3 for Donald Smiths' Stormonters.

The Ives Modern Bedstead Co. team and the Beach Furniture Co. team then took the field and put up a great game, the Ives men eventually winning by 4 to 2 but they had to work hard.

The Canada Cotton Mill and Toronto Paper Co's. teams wound up the afternoon in a blaze of glory. The first half ended 2 to 0 for The Cotton men and the teams broke even with one goal in the second half, the final being 3 to 1 for The Canada Mill team.

J. E. Macphee acted as referee and J. J. McCutchon judge of play for the three contests.

GEO. HODGSON MAY NOT SWIM NEXT SEASON

Returned from Europe Last Night—Did No Swimming While Away.

On his return from Europe by thee Laurentic last night, George Hodgson, the crack M. A. A. A. swimmer, announced that he had not entered in any swimming contest since his departure in May, and that it was possible he might not swim for McGill in the intercollegiate meets in which he starred last season.

"I have been in the water hardly twice since I left home," he told The Star last night. "I have not entered any contests during my trip, and I am not sure whether I will compete in the contests for McGill next season or not."

It was generally rumored at the time of Mr. Hodgson's departure in May that he was to defend the Kaiser's Cup, which he won while in Europe at the Olympics last year. Some surprise was evinced when it became known that he had not entered in any swimming events during his stay.

SAILING

Pointe Claire Boat Club Started Weekly Series.

The high wind and choppy sea on Lake St. Louis Saturday afternoon made the sailing races at the Pointe Clair Boating Club very thrilling, but everything went well with the boats that ventured out. The first of a series of weekly races for the miscellaneous class was held and Major Parke handled the Unnamed in such good fashion that she was the first on time allowance, to round the finishing buoy over the L-shaped course. J. Grieve's Habitant was second and Mr. Frank Mills' Wa-Wa, third. A beautiful challenge cup is the trophy for which the boats in this weekly series are competing, and the next race will be held on August 9th.

Mr. Campbell Clouston was the winner of the dinghey race, with E. Groves second and Winslow third. Other starters in this event, were boats handled by Messrs. Ferrier and Hencker.

BENEFIT SOCCER MATCH ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

The soccer match for the benefit of E. Ramsbottom which was postponed last week, will be played on Wednesday of this week when the Sons of England meet the Locos at 6 o'clock on Alexandria Park, Point St. Charles.

HYDROPLANE RACE FURNISHED THRILLS ENOUGH FOR ALL AT SATURDAY'S REGATTA AT CHAMBLY

E. E. Kent's "Jovial" Was Winner and Same Owner Won the Free-for-All Race with "Norma."

Hydroplane racing, which is practically a new form of sport in this district, was the feature of the Chambly regatta on Saturday, and the performance of these boats was a revelation to many who have never had an opportunity of witnessing this form of craft in operation before.

It was the first annual regatta of the Chambly Boating and Social Club, and weather favored the event, except that there was a heavy wind blowing, and the day proved a decided success, there being upwards of a thousand visitors from the city.

A special race between a hydroplane and an aeroplane had been advertised, and many who had come especially to see this event had to return disappointed, as the heavy wind made it unsafe to attempt such an event.

The Hydroplane race, however, provided lots of excitement, the "Jovial," owned by Ernest E. Kent, winning in easy style, with the Marie II., which had been reputed to be the fastest boat in the province, finishing second, and the "Loew Victor" third.

Dr. Kent also won first prize in the "free for all" for displacement boats with his "Norma," the "Margot," owned by J. Tasse, of Iberville, finishing second.

"Whiz II.," owned by Mr. C. Broseau, won the silver cup offered for the championship of the Richelieu River, with the "Calypso," owned by Mr. N. Cucharme second.

Winners of the other events on the card, were as follows:

Four more names have been added to the already long list of drownings that have happened this summer. Two of the victims are women and two men.

The accident in which the two women, Mrs. Charles Morrison, 927 Tupper street, and Mrs. J. Cheyne, 44 Beaudoin street, lost their lives, was a most peculiar one. They were seated in an auto which was run onto the ferry, South, when the machine started to move in some way not accounted for yet, and before the occupants had time to escape, crashed through the slender scantling that served as a barrier, and plunged into the river.

The two women were accompanied by their husbands, and by Peter Reaton, of the Economic Realty Company. W. H. Copping was the chauffeur. The automobile was a seven passenger Cadillac, self-starter, and belonged to the real estate company represented by Mr. Beaton.

Mr. Morrison and Mr. Cheyne were going out to examine real estate. On their way through the city they discovered that they were both lately from Edinburgh, Scotland. Meanwhile their wives had also found topics of interest about Scotland and all were chatting gaily.

Car Forced the Barries.

The automobile embarked on the ferry at the wharf behind the St. Lawrence Sugar Refineries. There were already three cars on board the ferry. The Cadillac was placed about the centre of the boat, facing sideways and it is said skids were placed to prevent the wheels from moving in case the ferry gave a lurch.

Morrison and Cheyne got out of the car and went aft. The two women were happily recalling incidents of their lives in Scotland and preferred to remain in the automobile. Mr. Copping, with another chauffeur, stood close by.

Suddenly when the ferry was coming close to Longueuil the car started. The women shrieked and gave a terrified glance behind. The chauffeur started to run forward, but he was too late. The car crashed through the deck rail and disappeared.

From their place on the upper deck the husbands saw cushions and other paraphernalia. They did not know their wives had been drowned until they descended and then the tragic appearance of the chauffeur told its tale.

Lifebuoys Thrown.

Captain Roty saw the car go over and immediately ordered life buoys to be thrown but they proved of no avail. Some of those on the steamer thought they saw one woman come to the surface. Mr. Morrison thought that he saw his wife's hat, but was not positive. The belief of most of those on the boat was that both woman had been unable to extricate themselves from the car. The probabilities are that as the front wheels left the deck the car turned turtle pinning the women beneath.

The Husband's Story.

Sitting with his motherless baby boy on his knee, Mr. Morrison, who is caretaker of the Albert Apartments, reproached himself for having gone on the fatal journey.

"We had not expected to go yesterday," he remarked. "In fact I had arranged with another real estate agent to go next Sunday. This car just happened along and as the day was pleasant I allowed my wife to persuade me to take the trip.

"I can tell you nothing about how the accident happened for I didn't see it, but I do think something should be done to prevent a repetition of this kind of thing."

"Oh, no I don't blame anybody," he added. "I don't know how the car started or how she was braked. If I was blaming anybody it would be the ferry company. I believe the car was started by a lurch when we were trying to clear a large steamer. Once started there should have been a strong rail to prevent it going over."

"It's a good thing I didn't take this kiddie," he asserted. "We thought of taking him but he was sleeping too peacefully. That's what saved his life."

"I didn't see my wife after she disappeared. She must have been under the automobile without a chance to escape. Otherwise she would have come to the surface, as she was a strong swimmer."

Narcisse Lavoie and Adonais Dansereau were close by on shore and rowed out in rowboats on seeing the auto fall.

Saw a Hand Appear.

"We were only fifty yards from the ferry when we saw the car go overboard. We seized rowboats and got over in record time," asserted Dansereau.

"When we were within ten feet of the place where the car sank I saw a hand appear for a moment and disappear again. I rowed fast but was too late. The hand had sunk and the person gone."

Beaton, the real estate agent, disclaimed any knowledge of the accident this morning. The hood of the car was apparently folded behind when the accident occurred, so there was no reason why the women could not have jumped.

Mrs. Morrison leaves three young boys, the oldest eight years old. Mrs. Cheyne was childless.

DROWNED TEACHING FRIEND HOW TO SWIM.

Allan Reid, of 180 18th Avenue, Lachine, was drowned at the mouth of the Chateauguay River shortly after the noon hour on Saturday while bathing with a companion whom he was teaching to swim.

Reid was in the water with James Anderson, also of Lachine, when the latter, who could not swim, got beyond his depth, but after a struggle regained his footing. His fears of another such incident were allayed by Reid, who told Anderson "not to be frightened as I will take care of you." Hardly had he uttered the words when he was seen to throw up his hands and disappear. Anderson started immediately for the shore to give an alarm to the picnic party of which the young men formed a part. Gordon MacDonald swam to the spot where Reid was last seen, but the time consumed in getting assistance, and the speed of the current made it impossible to get any sight of the victim, who was carried down stream in all probability. The search was continued during Saturday and Sunday under the supervision of Chief Roberts, of Lachine, but without success.

Was a Fair Swimmer.

Reid, it is stated, appeared quite at ease in the water, although his dip on Saturday was only the second this year, and he had not done any swimming for the past few years. He was a fair swimmer and his friends are at a loss to understand how he met such a sudden fate. It may be accounted for by the fact that since he was operated on for appendicitis, couple of years ago, he has not been very strong.

Reid was employed by the Dominion Bridge Company, and on Saturday the employes held their annual picnic. However, James McCord, of the company decided to take a private party in his motor boat, instead of joining in the general holiday. Accordingly his two nephews, David and James Anderson, nineteen and twenty-one years old, respectively, invited Reid to be one of the party. They left Lachine Saturday morning for Maple Grove, but owing to the rough condition of the water, decided to stop near the mouth of the Chateauguay River. The water was to shallow to allow the motor boat getting to the shore and Mr. McCord rowed Reid, McDonald, and the Anderson boys to the land in a flat-bottomed boat they had brought with them. Reid, McDonald, and the two Anderson boys, decided they would have a plunge before lunch, Reid telling the elder Anderson boy he would show him how to swim. McDonald and the younger Anderson boy had left the water and Reid and the elder Anderson were enjoying the "dip" when the accident happened.

Reid, who was twenty-three years of age, came from Kirkintulloch, Scotland, about fourteen months ago, and lived with his parents in this city. He was the fourth of six boys, and also left behind two sisters.

GEORGE CUTLER LOSES LIFE AT THE SLUICES.

George Cutler, 19 years of age, who lived with his parents at Montreal South, was drowned shortly after noon Sunday at a spot on the south shore below the Victoria Bridge, commonly called "The Sluices." Though attempts at rescue were made, and the young fellow was twice brought to the surface by a companion, Russell Robertson, his efforts were so desperate that each time he brought his rescuer under water. He finally sank when almost near the river bank. Cutler's body was located in twelve feet of water about two hours afterwards by Chief of Police Gravel.

The victim, in company with other young men of St. Lambert, had enjoyed the forenoon playing baseball, and after the game decided to go swimming. Cutler had been swimming about in the rapids and the eddies, when near sluice No. 6, the furthest away from the shore, he cried for help. As this cry was often indulged in by the boys in order to fool their comrades, little attention was paid until it was seen that Cutler really needed assistance.

May Have Taken Cramp.

Charles Adams, of St. Lambert, helped Robertson in the attempt at rescue, and diving, caught Cutler by the leg, but the current was too strong.

Robertson, undaunted, tried a second time to save his companion. He caught Cutler and turned him on his back; but just when near the shore the boy was seized with a sudden fear and again sank, this time catching Robertson by the leg. Robertson had to struggle desperately to save his own life. Cutler did not reappear.

The town officials were notified, and Chief Gravel and C. Adams started a search which was rewarded.

Cutler was able to swim, but it is thought that he was seized with cramp while going into the water in an overheated condition.

SYLVIA PANKHURST'S OUTBURST LANDS MILITANTS IN COURT

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—Twenty-four men and women were to-day fined or ordered to furnish bonds to keep the peace, as the result of the exciting riots of yesterday when Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the militant leader, tried to lead a mob to storm Premier Asquith's house in Downing street.

The demonstration surpassed all previous Sunday afternoon affairs of the sort. The meeting, which was held in Trafalgar Square by the Men's Federation for Women's Suffrage and the East End Branch of the Women's Social and Political Union, had been announced in advance, and this fact, and also a rumor that a charge upon Premier Asquith's residence with resolutions was planned, brought enormous crowds into the square.

When the huge crowd, Miss Pankhurst leading it, moved down Whitehall toward Downing street, a platoon of police which had come at double quick from Scotland Yard formed a cordon across the road and they effectively aided a blockade of wheeled conveyances. Mounted police then rode into the crowd, scattering it and driving the people down various streets, while officers in plain clothes got possession of Miss Pankhurst after a fist fight with her bodyguard of East End youths.

SYLVIA PANKHURST PUTS UP A FIGHT.

Miss Pankhurst was driven to Holloway jail to serve the remainder of her sentence or to stay until she is again released through a hunger strike. In the station house she struggled desperately with the officers and smashed a window with a ruler which is used to measure prisoners.

During the rioting in the square, and along the line of march, several policemen were badly injured by kicks and blows.

SUFFRAGETTE HITS OUT AT HECKLER.

Riotous scenes occurred last night at the Marble Arch end of Hyde Park, where a number of suffragette meetings were held. One of the speakers, after a heated argument with a man who was heckling her, struck him. This incident led the mob to rush upon the platform, and the police were compelled to interfere to protect the women seated near the speaker from the angry crowd. All the meetings in the park were then broken up.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst is rapidly improving as the result of an operation for the transfusion of blood to her from a healthy young suffragette. The operation was made necessary by the weakened condition of Mrs. Pankhurst, following her hunger strike in Holloway jail, from which she was released last week. Many suffragettes volunteered themselves for the operation.

HUNGER-STRIKERS' SENTENCE REDUCED.

Lady Sybil Smith, daughter of the Earl of Antrim, Mrs. Pethick Lawrence and Miss Evelyn Sharpe, militant suffragettes, were released from jail to-day, the Home Secretary, the Rt. Hon. Reginald McKenna having reduced their sentecnes to four days, instead of the fourteen for which they were sent to prison on July 25 on a charge of disorderly conduct during an attempt to hold a meeting at the entrance to the lobby of the House of Commons on July 24.

They had gone on a hunger strike immediately after being taken to jail.

VANCOUVER GIVES SUNDAY WELCOME TO "NEW ZEALAND"

Vancouver, July 28.—Vancouver's Sunday welcome to the battleship New Zealand made up in quiet enthusiasm yesterday what it lacked in noise. Not a gun was fired and the rattle of the chains as the big battleship came to anchor was the loudest feature of welcome here. She made a fine run up from Victoria, and at 2.30 o'clock was met in English Bay by a fleet of three hundred pleasure launches, which conveyed her through the Narrows to her anchorage off the C.P.R. docks.

There was a great crowd along the beaches of Stanley Park and the roads were jammed with hundreds of automobiles. It happened that two of the C.P.R. Princess liners were docking at the same hour and the harbor never presented a more brilliant or impressive scene.

The battleship was preceded into port by the Glenartney, a collier which brought out from Cardic a supply of Welsh coal for the war vessel by two days. To-day and to-morrow will be devoted to coaling the ship and for the remainder of the week she will be thrown open to visitors.

RECEPTION EQUALS ONE AT AUCKLAND.

Sir Richard McBride came from Victoria yesterday aboard the vessel Mayor Baxter went aboard within a few minutes of her arrival and extended the city's welcome to Captain Halsey.

Captain Halsey expressed to Mayor Baxter this evening that the reception accorded to the New Zealand was equal to, if it did not surpass that given at Auckland, and added that he intended cabling home to that effect.

On going aboard the vessel the Mayor handed to the captain a magnificent floral tribute in the form of a Union Jack as well as a number of others. While here the officers will be the guests not only of this city but also of North Vancouver and New Westminster, and the Navy League.

REPORT MIRACLES AT STE. ANNE SHRINE

Quebec, July 28.—Never in the history of the famous shrine of Ste. Anne, have so many pilgrims and specially organized excursions visited there as during Saturday and yesterday. It is estimated that eighteen thousand were there yesterday, and of these many came from hundreds of miles away. The Montreal parishes furnished their quota, and train after train packed to the full discharged passengers into the crowds that already thronged the little country town.

It is said that seven miracles have been performed since Thursday last, but it is difficult to confirm this as the Priests follow up the cases and make sure whether the cure is effective before giving out particulars.

Two names, however, are mentioned. One is the case of a girl named Rose Allen, from Fairview, Ont., who is said to have been afflicted with paralysis from early childhood and is now reported to have left her crutches at the shrine.

Another case is said to be that of a Rochester boy, aged eight years, named Wilson, who had also suffered from paralysis of the legs, and walked without crutches after the benediction.

According to other reports, a dumb man is said to have recovered his speech.

To Leave Great Seal in Custody

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—The Lord Chancellor, Lord Haldane, is to deliver the annual address of the American Bar Association at its meeting in Montreal on September 1. This will necessitate his absence from England from August 23 until September 8.

As Lord Chancellor, Lord Haldane is keeper of the King's conscience, the outward and visible sign of which is the Great Seal, without which no Act of Parliament can receive the Royal assent.

The Great Seal travels with Lord Haldane in this country. But it must not leave the United Kingdom. Therefore, it is to be placed in the custody of three Commissioners.

TAYLOR-FORBES LAWNMOWERS

MADE BY THE NATIVES, FOR THE NATIVES

—"Made in Canada."

—The phrase is familiar. You read it many times in the course of a year. But it has a new significance as applied to lawnmowers.

—Canada is a country of lawns.

—A country that has 750,000 lawns is under the necessity of producing a native-made lawnmower that will outclass any lawnmower made anywhere else in the world that may possibly reach Canada.

—Taylor-Forbes lawnmowers are made for the natives, by the natives.

—They embody all the native ability for mechanical construction, along with the native ability for doing things honestly.

—The knives all made of genuine imported Sheffield Steel.

OUR MOUNT ROYAL NOT VERY ACTIVE BUT OLD VOLCANO

Treatise Read by Mr. Buchan Gives History and Formation.

RECORD SWEPT AWAY BY ACTION OF ELEMENTS

Difficult Matter to Obtain Much Evidence Bearing on Subject.

The question as to whether Mount Royal was an active volcano at one time is one that has excited the interest of many learned men. With the advent to Montreal of famous geologists from all parts of the world, a treatise on the question recently read by J. S. Buchan, K.C., before the Natural History Society of Montreal will be found of interest to those interested in the matter.

Mr. Buchan declared that his efforts to bring together evidence bearing on the subejct was a matter of difficulty as the records containing the story of the mountain have been generally swept away by the action of the elements during the immense period of time since the forces that brought the mountain into being were in action, estimated to be about 7,000,000 years ago.

Mr. Buchan's treatise tended to prove that while Mount Royal was not an active volcano, but a lacolite, or mass of hardened trap, there was at one time great volcanic activity connected with it.

Following is an extract from the paper read:

One of Family.

As it stands to-day, Mount Royal is only the root or remnant of a very old volcano. It is one of a series of similar mountains, which are located on the line of a great fracture which was traced by Logan for a distance of 180 miles and on which are situated the mountains of Brome, Shefford, Yamaska, Rougemont, Beloil, Montarville, and Mount Royal, while Mount Johnson, or Monoir, situated at the south of Beloil, apparently belongs to the same series, although out of the range of those first mentioned. It was until recently thought that Rigaud Mountain was also a member of the Monte Regian family, but from an examination made a few years ago by Professor Leroy it is now considered a part of the Laurentian system.

SHOWING THE VOLCANO.

The Cemetery is the Crater.

"Along the line of this fracture, which may have resulted from some movement of subsidence or elevation in the service of the land by which the overlying Silurian strata were weakened or torn apart, liquid or visoid matter was forced upwards until the cavities in the strata were completely filled. Where the fracture reached the surface an active volcano was the result. If it did not reach the surface it formed a lacolite which was only revealed when the overlying strata were removed.

A Hardened Trap.

The evidence on the whole, and particularly the nature of the Essexite forming the mountain, which indicates that it was cooled at depth tends to show that Mount Royal, or at least that part of it which now forms the mass of the mountain, was not an active volcano; but the Mountain as we see it to-day was a lacolite, a mass of hardened trap, which, while in a state of fusion filled a great subterranean cavity, or to be more exact, several distinct cavities which did not reach the surface, and which owing to its greater hardness remained when the softer limestone by which it was covered had disappeared, through the action of the elements.

In support of this opinion, it seems to me the evidence still stands, as regards the great mass of the mountain as it appears to an observer from what may be called the outside; but when it is examined from certain points on the summit there is room for the opinion that there may also have been active conditions present, that what we know as the Mountain now was only part of the movement, and that there may at some time have been great volcanic activity connected with it.

The Boundaries.

"The Mountain may be described as being bounded by Sherbrooke street on the east. On the west by a line about a quarter of a mile beyond the electric railway at Outremont. By Park avenue on the north, and the electric railway on the south, the area thus enclosed being about 16,000 feet or a little over three miles from north to south, and 11,500 feet or over two miles from east to west. In shape it is a somewhat irregular oval with a superficial area of about five square miles.

"To assist in this description I prepared a rough sketch which shows the general outlines, and the divisions between the trap and the limestone. In this sketch the heavy black line marks the division between the limestone, which still remains in place on the sides of the Mountain and the trap which rises above it, the latter being shown by the perpendicular lines at the top, and which, except at a few points consists of Essexite, the hard black chrystalline rock of which the Mountain is almost wholly composed. At the Outremont quarry there is an outbreak of Nepheline Syenite, from which large quantities of excellent road material have been taken by the city of Montreal, this being the only important sample of a different material in the composition of the Mountain.

Much Limestone.

From this sketches it will be seen that the limestone extends well up to the top of the mountain around its entire circumference and as it is still in place it shows the enormous erosion of the surface which has taken place.

"The map shows the Essexite, the part enclosed by the black line. This is 8,000 feet in length by 5700 feet in width, or about a mile and a half in length by a mile in width, which includes the whole of the space covered by the main body of the Trap, but does not include the Syenite, and the large number of dykes which are found in some cases extending to a great distance beyond the limits above mentioned. One very large dyke on the line of the C. P. R. near the St. Rose station, which I examined was about thirty yards in width.

"This brings us to a consideration of what may be called the further evidence bearing on the question. To an observer placed at certain points on the top of the Mountain it will be seen that there are three principal peaks, one on the north eastern side, one to the south west and the Westmount or Little Mountain, which is still a covered lacolite; and that these elevations enclose a practically level plain, over two hundred feet below their present summits, in which are included the Mount Royal and Cote des Neiges cemeteries, the field near the Park Ranger's house, including a small depression near the road leading to the lookout, and the Cote des Neiges Valley, in all an area about a mile in length by half a mile in width.

Sides Rise Steeply.

"Except at the northern end, which evidently received the full force of the Arctic currents, and the ice fields which they carried, the outside of the mountain slopes more or less from the summit, but to the observer viewing the interior plain, it will be seen that the sides rise somewhat steeply from the plain thus giving it generally a crater or cup-like appearance, except at the western entrance, the Mount Royal cemetery, and the south western end of the Cote des Neiges Valley, where the rim of the cup has been broken down and carried away by the heavy currents with their floating ice-fields which evidently flowed through them, the force of which by the worn surface of the rocks, where the covering of the drift is removed.

"If we examine the bottom of this cup, we find it is a solid bed of Essexite except where a few fragments of limestone are found which have evidently been subjected to intense heat and changed to a form of marble.

A Great Puzzle.

"To the thoughtful observer viewing the landscape from some point on the summit, this plain in its centre presents one of the puzzles of the Mountain. Lying as it does about 200 feet below these summits, the question naturally arises,—by what means was this great basin excavated, and what became of the tremendous mass of materials which was removed from it? It is scarcely possible that it could have been removed by the action of the water, or if it had been, that it would have left the depression in the form which it has to-day, since, although the fierce currents which swept through it have left their marks deeply graven in the rocks, the channels through which they flowed into it are comparatively small and narrow, which would not have been the case if they had been of sufficient strength and volume to remove this great mass even if it were the softer limestone, and much less so if the contents were the Essexite which now form its sides and floor.

If, on the other hand, we assume that the solid masses of trap, which now stand on each side of the Valley, were formed by the intrusion of liquid matter, from some great subterranean reservoir, into two great cavities which existed where they now stand, with a considerable wall or mass of limestone between them as shown by the sketch, which also shows a section of the mountain from east to west, which may have been fractured in many places, but was of sufficient strength to contain it until the lava had been hardened, we have the conditions under which the elevations on the two sides of the valley could have formed.

Long Quiescent.

"We may also assume from the well known general conditions present in volcanoes that the energy which projected the lava into these cavities may have for the time, spent itself, and that the mountain remained in a quiescent condition a sufficient time, possibly for long ages, as in the case of Vesuvius before the eruption of A.D. 79, and so allowed the melted matter to become cooled.

"If then, as is also frequently the case, there was a renewal of activity at a later period, there would be nothing improbable in supposing that the already fractured and weakened limestone between the two rigid masses of Trap was blown out of its bed, not probably at once; but by a series of long explosions, until there was formed an immense crater, a mile in length and half a mile in width. The fact that the ground at Cartierville is strewn with huge blocks of limestone and Essexite, may have some bearing on this point, although it is possible they may have been carried there by ice.

"It is to be noted here that at the Westmount end of the craterix the conditions are somewhat different from those which prevail in the walls surrounding the other part of it, which are of solid Essexite. At this point the wall, especially at the north eastern end, is principally limestone, but it shows for a large part at least that it has been subjected to the action of intense heat, while in some places where excavations have been made there are comparatively thin sheets of Essexite, which appeared to have been laid up against the limestone, as might have been caused by a moderate volume of lava flowing against it and perhaps held in place by some obstruction until it cooled.

A Small Plain.

"At the other end of the Valley, near the Cote des Neiges cemetery gates, there is a small plain, which forms the deepest part of the crater. At this point the wall and the floor consist of Essexite but in a brecciated condition, and of a finer and less chrystaline character which would indicate that it had cooled more rapidly on the open floor of the crater, and included in it the broken fragments produced by the exploding gases.

"If this is what occurred we have in it an explanation of how this great depression was formed, which explanation is otherwise difficult to find.

"No remains of lava streams are found, so far as I am aware, in the neighborhood of our mountain, and had they existed it is scarcely probable that they would have been altogether removed, especially when much softer materials have survived.

We may thus fairly assume that any volcanic activity which may have taken place on Mount Royal, after the opening of the crater, was confined for the greater part at least, to explosions of gases, throwing out ashes and cinders and such lighter materials as may have formed a cone of great height, but so loosely laid down that it was easily removed by the waters of the glacial sea, which afterwards swept over its summit. At the same time it need not be assumed that these operations were of a minor character or on a small scale as even in the absence of a true lava flow, the eruption may have been attended with tremendous violence.

Will Mountain Awaken?

The question has naturally been asked, "Will Mount Royal Awaken Again?" To such a question it is obvious that a positive answer could not be given, unless by one endowed by the gift of prophecy. At the same time if we can form any conclusion from the evidence before us we are I think fully justified in saying that it is very unlikely that there will be a recurrence of active conditions.

In one respect the life of a volcano may be compared to human life. It has its period of youth, of maturity, of old age, and then death. In its old age the only evidence of life shown by a volcano is a slight escape of gases and possibly warm springs in its neighborhood. In the case of Mount Royal nothing of this kind so far as I am aware has ever been observed. Besides this, the evidence shows that there has been no eruption during or since the Pleistocene period.

At various points in the crater there are beds and banks of sand and gravel washed up by the glacial sea of that period, which beds have not been disturbed, as they would undoubtedly have been if there had been an eruption since they were formed, all of which goes in support of the opinion that in all probability Mount Royal will not again become an active volcano."

MRS. EMMA CURRIE, AUTHOR OF LIFE OF LAURA SECORD, DIES

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Catharines, Ont., July 28.—Mrs. Emma Currie, widow of the late Hon. J. G. Currie, former Speaker of the Ontario Legislature, died here last night in her 84th year.

Mrs. Currie, who before her marriage was a Miss Harvey, of St. David's, had many literary works to her credit among which was the "Life of Laura Secord." She was mainly instrumental in inducing the Dominion Government to erect the monument at Queenston Heights to the noted heroine, the memory of whose remarkable deeds Mrs. Currie had done so much to perpetuate by her pen.

Mrs. Currie had been an invalid for nearly thirteen years, yet she never ceased to work for the recognition of Laura Secord's exploits, and carried on correspondence with the government with this end in view when it was necessary to wheel her about in an invalid's chair.

Mrs. Currie, who is survived by one daughter, has been prominent in many historical projects, and for many years had been active in W. C. T. U. work, not only in the city and districts, but throughout the whole Dominion.

Fighting Union For All Drivers

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—A big scheme is afoot here to form a fighting union of taxicab drivers, street carmen, bus men and all other drivers of vehicles in order to prevent "scabbing" when the railwaymen or members of other passenger-conveying organizations are on strike. The scheme, when completed, will enable Unions to tie up the entire passenger traffic of England.

WANTS SCOTT ACT IN MUSKOKA

Special to The Montreal Star.

Huntsville, Ont., July 28.—Mr. H. M. Lickley, president Muskoka Temperance Association, has presented notice of intention to deposit a petition signed by one-fourth of the electors of the judicial district of Muskoka, praying that a vote be taken on the question of bringing the Scott Act into force on the district of Muskoka.

CHINESE REVOLT IS CHECKED

ARMISTICE BETWEEN OPPONENTS ARRANGED

Shanghai, July 28.—In accordance with a proclamation issued Saturday, the municipal police, reinforced by a fighting body of Shanghai volunteers, marched yesterday to the rebel headquarters at Chapel, immediately north of the foreign settlement boundary, where they disarmed three hundred soldiers and twelve officers and took six three-inch guns. There was no actual resistance on the part of the rebels, but for a brief period there appeared to be the prospect of a conflict. The rebels, however, were overawed by the firm attitude of the municipal police.

All was quiet here on Sunday afternoon. Detachments of British, American, Japanese, French and Italian bluejackets are patrolling the settlement and the Chapel boundaries.

The rebels on Saturday captured the launching, a Chinese Admiralty yacht, which, it is believed, was bringing despatches to Shanghai.

[illegible] During the last thirty hours all has been quiet, and the northern soldiers have been employing their leisure time in constructing wire entanglements on the roads.

Wu Ting-Fang is engaged in negotiations for peace, but the northern generals are not empowered to treat with him, as Shanghai forms only an item in the general revolt. Thus far, however, the negotiations have been successful, as the northerners have resolved to fight only if they are attacked.

Owing to the escape of all the prisoners from the city jail, lawlessness in the native districts surrounding the foreign settlements is increasing.

There have been not a few cases of incendiarism for the purpose of plunder.

DENOUNCE JAPANESE FOR AIDING REBELS.

The Chinese are loud in their denunciations of the Japanese, whose assistance is held to have been mainly responsible for the success of the revolt, from which the business community, unlike in 1911, has markedly abstained from taking part.

There are wild rumors in circulation that concessions have been promised Japan by the rebels, and it seems undeniable that some material assistance in the way of money and military instructors has been lent the rebels in unofficial Japanese quarters.

The Japanese government's attitude, however, seems most correct and it is doing its utmost to remove all grounds for reports that it expects to benefit through the success of the rebels.

Philanthropists already have organized efficient relief measures, and fugitives will be given free food and shelter.

RED CROSS SOCIETY FIXES ARMISTICE.

London, July 28.—The Morning Post Shanghai correspondent says the Red Cross Society has arranged an armistice between the government forces and the rebels which probably will last eight days. The report says that 800 southerners have surrendered.

A despatch to the Daily Mail from Peking says:

"The rebel leaders, disheartened by defeats and dissensions in their ranks, besides approaching President Yuan Shi Kai with a view to negotiating peace, are transferring their funds to Japan. Since martial law was declared here a number of 'Dare-Dies' who flocked to Peking when the revolt started, bringing large supplies of bombs, have been arrested and executed. Many of them were women."

Telegraphing from Peking, the correspondent of the Times says that the strategical position of the Nanking rebel army, in view of the likelihood of rear attacks from up and down the Yang-Tse River, is decidedly dangerous, and that nothing short of a decisive victory can save it from being completely surrounded and defeated.

NO DECISIVE BATTLE HAS YET BEEN FOUGHT.

Shanghai, July 28.—The landing of sailors from the foreign warships at this city on Saturday greatly relieved the foreigners and better class of Chinese, and the country people are beginning to return to their homes.

The country districts around Shanghai present a picture of desolation. Houses have been burned and the crops ruined. Rotting corpses are lying everywhere.

After a fortnight of rebellion, the northern or Government forces have had the better of the fighting at the three main points of contact, namely, Shanghai, Kiu-King and along the Tien-Tsin Pukoi Railway. While much ammunition has been expended by gun-firing lasting whole days, there has been no decisive battle, which foreigners believe is essential to Provisional President Yuan Shi Kai's ultimate success.

The size of the armies engaged are small compared to those fighting in the Balkan war. At Shanghai the northern troops on shore number 2,000 while pitted against them are 4,000 southerners. The army of General Chang-Hsun, which repulsed the rebels above Su-Chow-Fu, numbers less than 5,000 officers and men. The largest northern army consists of probably fifteen to twenty thousand men and is now in the Province of Kiang-Si.

British, German and American sympathy in the Yang-tse-Kiang ports, as well as at Peking, is overwhelmingly in favor of President Yuan Shi Kai, while the Japanese and Russians apparently favor the southerners.

CHINESE IN STATES WANT TO AID REBELS.

New York, July 28.—Nine Chinese business men of New York are on their way to-day to Boston, Chicago and other cities to raise money among their fellow countrymen for support of the revolutionary party in China. It was said that similar action had been taken among the Chinese leaders in San Francisco, who were sending out men to-day to raise money among the Chinese residents of western cities.

A committee of ten, formed at a meeting yesterday, has established headquarters in New York for the aid of the rebel cause.

They declare that the Chinese in this country are overwhelmingly for the rebels, and they denounce provisional President Yuan Shi Kai as ambitious to become an Emperor.

GEOLOGISTS ARE HAVING A GREAT TIME AT COBALT

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cobalt, Ont., July 28.—After three strenuous days in the nickel belt of Sudbury, the first excursion of geologists arrived in Cobalt last night. Under the direction of Prof. Coleman, who has made a personal study of the nickel field, they were up at six o'clock in the morning and some of them survived to the end of the Board of Trade banquet at half-past one the following morning. All of them are so delighted with the arrangements made that they have not wilted under the strain. So far they have revelled in nickel and to a smaller extent, in iron. They saw the great pit at Creighton, the giant furnaces and smelters at Copper Cliff, the Mond nickel plant at Coniston and the Murray mine at Sudbury. Afterwards they were taken out to Mackenzie and Mann's iron mountain at Moose Mountain.

They had one and all developed a penchant for fresh-water bathing, and wherever conditions permit of it the savants take a dip in the cool waters. To-day they climbed Nipissing Hill to see the spot where $200,000 was taken out to pay the first Nipissing dividend. Later those who are more concerned with the mining of ore than rocks will see the high-grade smelter at Nipissing, where there are 50,000 ounces of molten silver in one furnace.

The language question has been solved. It has been discovered that all Russians, Hungarians, Australians, and Norwegians speak German, and a Teuton representative interprets for them.

For some time difficulty was experienced with the Italians, but Dr. Miller had a happy thought that French Canadians and they, had a common Latin origin, and he set a French-Canadian to interpret. The scheme works passing well.

Mr. Chas. McDermid, who was here five years ago, is astounded at the progress the town has made in that time. "And I can well believe that the mines have gone ahead as fast," he said. Mr. McDermid is secretary of the Institution of Mining and Metallurgy, London.

TWO MEN WOUNDED IN BRAWLS AT CARDS

Two men occupy beds in local hospitals to-day as a result of week-end quarrels, while the police are scouring the city in an effort to find their assailants.

Mike Tozzo, 27 years of age, was taken to the General Hospital from his boarding house, 100 Lafayette lane, off St. Andre street, last night, with a bullet in his chest. Tozzo told the police he was playing cards when an argument arose and one of the players drew a gun and shot him. Investigation at the house did not give any clue of what had happened, as no one would acknowledge having seen the fracas. The police are looking for Dominic Dilallio.

Pietro Antonio was taken to the Hotel Dieu, with two deep wounds in his back, inflicted by a razor in the hands of one of his companions. The two had been playing cards for beer and the row followed.

Neither of the patients are said to be in a dangerous condition.

Inspects Trent Valley System.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 28.—The Hon. Frank Cochrane has just finished a thorough inspection of the Trent Valley canal system. The tenders for the Severn River section, the finish of the work, will be called for in a few days. Mr. Cochrane has gone to Kennebunkport, but will return to Ottawa at the middle of the week.

CHOLERA ON SERVIAN FRONTIER

Budapest, Hungary, July 28.—A case of cholera which occurred at Temessziget, Hungary, near the Servian frontier to-day, was notified to the Minister of the Interior, who in accordance with the provisions of the International Convention informed all foreign governments.

TURKEY WANTED TO TAKE PART IN PEACE CONFERENCE

All Balkan States Will Send Delegates — Ottoman Request Denied.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—All the Balkan belligerents except Turkey will be represented in the peace conference which will meet in Bucharest on Tuesday, if the Premiers of Greece, Servia and Montenegro arrive in time.

The Roumanian and Bulgarian delegates are already in the Roumanian capital. The Turks sought to be represented, but their request was denied. The suggestion of simultaneous meeting at Nish, Servia, was not adopted.

RUSSIA UNABLE TO ACT ALONE.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—The proposal made by the Russian Government that a joint naval demonstration be made off Constantinople to coincide with the mobilization of Russian troops in the south western provinces has been abandoned. Germany flatly declined to consider the plan and Russia's allies, Great Britain and France, replied evasively.

Russia is unable to assume the task single-handed of bringing pressure to bear on the Turks in Europe and she is unwilling to do so in Asia Minor, realizing that such a course would encourage an Armenian uprising which would only further complicate the Turkish problem.

Owing to the breakdown of the European concert, the Russian Government sees no hope of arresting the Turks by force. No military or naval preparations are proceeding at present. Russia, however, may land a force of Burgas, a Black Sea port 75 miles northeast of Adrianople, for the protection of lives and property of Russian subjects, if the Turks march in that direction.

At a Council of Ministers held to-day it was agreed that the Russian Government had done its utmost to avert further bloodshed in the Balkans, and that if the progress of the military operations led to wholesale massacres in that region the responsibility would rest on the other powers.

The Russian policy, it is understood, is now entirely concerned with patching up a new Balkan league, including Roumania, as the sole means of arresting the Turkish force.

The Concert of the Powers seems as powerless as before to adopt any united action against Turkey. The Porte, however, has disavowed the action of its troops in penertating Old Bulgaria and no further advance of Turkish troops has been reported. The Turks claim their spoils at Adrianople consisted of 150 guns, 50,000 rifles and 1,000,000 sacks of corn.

TURKS TAKING A TERRIBLE REVENGE.

A Constantinople message says:—Trustworthy reports of appalling massacres and devastation by Turkish irregular troops came from districts in Thrace which the Turks are re-occupying. The country about Malagra, a short distance northeast of Gallipoli, according to the reports, has been converted into a human slaughterhouse. The Bulgarians pillaged and burned the Moslem villages and massacred their inhabitants, and now the Turks are wrecking dreadful vengeance on the Christian villages which the Bulgarians had spared.

The Turkish troops who first advanced behaved comparatively well, only inflicting whippings and committing a few murders. The hordes of irregular Turkish troops and Kurdish regulars who followed them, however, worked their will on the Christians of Malagra and eighten villages in the neighborhood. The villages were devasted and the inhabitants who made their escape are pouring into the large towns or fleeing across the frontier.

The Turkish Government, realizing the need of the good opinion of Europe at the present time, issued the strictest orders to the officers to avoid reprisals by the troops, but they have been unable to restrain the men, who were inflamed by the stories of Bulgarian savagery upon Musselmans.

Admission of Turkish massacres of Armenians at Malgars and Rotosto comes in a report from Constantinople that a number of Moslems had been sentenced to death or to long terms of imprisonment for implication in the massacres.

FIERCE FIGHTING STILL GOING ON.

The Balkan peace confere ce is expected to open at Bucharest next Wednesday, but meantime serious fighting continues. The Greeks refused Bulgaria's request for even a three days' truce and after heavy fighting with great difficulty got through Kresna Pass, inflicting a defeat on the Bulgarians at Elmekie, capturing three siege guns and driving the Bulgarians back on Djuma.

The Greeks claim that they annihilated the whole left of the Bulgarian army, and that they have forced the Bulgarians back along the Struma Valley, by which they successfully invaded Macedonia, right up to Djuma, on the Bulgarian frontier. Unless peace speedily is negotiated another great battle is likely to occur at Struma.

No news has been received to-day of fighting on the Servian frontier, but the large numbers of wounded men arriving in Belgrade indicate that severe actions are taking place.

A Bucharest despatch says:—

A report is current here that the Servians have captured the fortress at Vidin, Bulgaria. Vidin is on the Danube, 13 miles south of Belgrade. It has a population of 15,000.

HOMESTEADERS' REWARD FOR TEN DAYS' VIGIL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Saskatoon, Sask., July 28.—After a ten days' vigil, in which he braved many different temperatures, a homesteader reaped his reward at the land office this morning when he filed a quarter section about ninety miles from here in the Goose Lake line.

According to the homesteader, the land he filed on is worth about $2,500 now, and figuring it out that way, he was making $250 a day for the time he waited. This, he considers, is not bad wages in the face of the "hard times" cry.

Mrs. J. Campbell Dead.

Mrs. John Campbell died early this morning. She was the wife of the city accountant and is survived by her husband and two children. Mrs. Campbell had been in delicate health for several months. The funeral will be held from Mr. Campbell's house, 1156 Delorimier avenue at half-past two o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

THE MAN WHO DEFEATED McLOUGHLIN

J. G. PARKE.

J. G. Parke, the Irish champion at tennis, who defeated McLaughlin, the best American player in the international contest in England yesterday. McLaughlin had defeated Parke before in the Open English Championship. McLaughlin says Parke is better in ground strokes than he and the match he won depended largely on these strokes.

EARLY CLOSING LAW COMES INTO FORCE THIS WEEK

Sharp Watch to Be Kept for Infractions—Re Public Holidays.

The early closing bylaw adopted by the City Council on July 7 comes into force this week, and a sharp watch is to be kept for infractions.

The chief provision of the by-law is that:—

The shops, in the City of Montreal shall be closed at 7 o'clock in the evening, on Wednesday and Thursday of each week, and the same shall remain closed until 5 o'clock in the morning the following day. This provision shall not, however, apply to the day preceding the following holidays, viz.: —Epiphany, Good Friday, Empire Day, Dominion Day, Thanksgiving Days, All Saints Day, Immaculate Conception and Ascension Day, nor to the last days of the month of December, in each year, from the 15th of said month, inclusive, nor shall it apply to the day before the eve of the following Jewish holidays: New Year's Day, the day of Atonement and the day of the Passover."

The word shop is held to include sales by auction.

The by-law does not apply to tobacconists, establishments where only newspapers and periodicals are sold; hotels, etc., where alcoholic liquors to be drunk therein are sold retail; fruit and confectionery, stores where no groceries are sold or kept for sale; drug stores, with regard to the sale of drugs and specified articles.

TEN BOYS ARRESTED, CHARGE IS VAGRANCY

Ten boys ranging in age from 17 to 20 years were arrested in a stable on St. George street late Saturday night by Detectives Connors and Faucault. When taken before Judge Lafontaine this morning they entered a plea of not guilty to a charge of vagrancy. The police are endeavoring to connect them with a number of thefts from express waggons which have been reported at Headquarters of late.

The boys gave their names as follows:—Eddie Bablin alias Hanley, Willie Bablin, Bob Buckley, Willie Upwood, George Miller, Henry Found, alias Knox, Fred Hughes, Charlie Jones, Eddie Vaughan and Frank Morrow. They appeared this morning in the Recorder's Court on charges of vagrancy and loitering in a stable.

Stole Two Tons of Coal.

Albert Nadon, alias "Punch," pleaded guilty this morning to the theft of two tons of coal from C. Dallaire, coal merchant, St. James street. Nadon delivered the coal, collected the money and kept it. He was remanded until the 30th for sentence.

FOURTH FATALITY IN RAILWAY YARDS WTHIN PAST WEEK

Employe of G. T. R. Struck by Train While Walking on Track.

Another fatal accident in the Grand Trunk yards was investigated by the Coroners' jury this morning. Arthur Verville was struck by a train on Saturday night, and carried to the General Hospital, where he died. The verdict given was "Accidental death." This is the fourth fatality on the G. T. R. tracks in the past week.

According to the evidence of trackmen, Verville, who was an employe of the G. T. R., was walking westward. Two trains bore down upon him, one eastward and the other westward.

Verville went from one track to the other to avoid the oncoming western train. He was struck by the train from the east, and barely escaped being thrown under the wheels of the train he was trying to avoid.

Verville was a middle-aged man. He is survived by relatives in the city.

ISSUE NEW FRENCH GRAMMAR FOR ONTARIO SCHOOLS

Toronto, July 28.—The Ontario Education Department has sent out orders superseding the High School French grammar lately in use by a revised French grammar, which must be exclusively used by July, 1915. Until that date the old grammar may be used under authority of the Boards of Education.

The new book costs sixty cents, which is forty cents less than the old, and the reader in connection costs eleven cents.

Notice is also given that a revised edition of the public school spelling book, somewhat similar than the one now in use, will come into use in July of next year.

A new High School history of Canada, which was to have been ready in September, will probably be somewhat delayed.

The Department will insist upon its regulations being carried, and if necessary will withhold grants from schools using unauthorized books.

ARCHBISHOP ATTENDS MR. LEVEQUE'S BURIAL

The funeral of the late Adolphe Leveque, the veteran architect who died on Thursday evening at the age of 83, was held this morning from his late residence, 10 Laval avenue, to the parish church of Notre Dame, and Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

The Rev. Father Legrand, was the celebrant at the requiem high mass. He was assisted by Abbe Trole, an old friend of Mr. Leveque and until recently pastor of Notre Dame Church, the Rev. Father M. Bedard and the Rev. Father Jodoin. Archbishop Bruchesi was also present.

Many Hurt When Train Upset.

Boulder, Colo., July 28.—Twenty-seven passengers wer einjured, six probably fatally, when five coaches of the Denver, Boulder and Western train overturned when making a turn near Eldorado, Colo., yesterday. In the five coaches were 125 persons, mostly tourists from the east, who were viewing the scenery of the mountain trail.

Those most seriously hurt were injured internally and taken to a hospital here. Physicians state that it will be impossible to determine their exact condition for another twenty-four hours.

A relief train was hurried from Boulder to the scene of the wreck, bringing back the wounded. The injured were taken to Denver and placed in hospitals.

SITE FOR STATUE TO HONOR CARTIER WAS WELL CHOSEN

Mr. Villeneuve Replies to Letter Written By W. Ormiston Roy.

to the Mayor by W. Ormiston Roy, relative to the site chosen by the Committee for the erection of the memorial to Sir George Etienne Cartier, E. W. Villeneuve has the following to say in a letter sent to the City Hall to-day:—

"Without wishing to enter into controversy with Mr. Roy on the suitability of the site in question, may I point out:—

"1—That the site was chosen only after athe most careful and conscientious examination by the very best judges, and that furthermore, the location itself was approved by every one of the competing sculptors.

To Enhance Park.

"2.—That the proposed site for the monument has been published through the medium of the public press and otherwise for over a year past, since when Mr. Roy might well have taken an opportunity to express his opinion.

"3.—That far from destroying the magnificent legacy of Mount-Royal Park, it has been the object of the Committee to do everything in its power to utilize its beauty so as to enhance that of the Memorial itself.

"It might be pertinent to ask whether the really magnificent Monument projected could ever hurt the prospect. The cutting of a few trees to help the general effect could surely never mar the whole landscape. And the greatest care is being taken in the competent hands of Mr. Henderson, Park-Ranger, (who has already reported favorably on the site,) that none of the trees which really constitute the beauty of the park shall be ruthlessly destroyed. Just as the beauty of a picture is enhanced by its frame, so will the Cartier Memorial rise above the City that he loved so well with a back ground that cannot be surpassed.

"The glories of Mount Royal can never be diminished by the Cartier Memorial, its historical interest must necessarily be augmented, as it was a Cartier, one of his ancestors, who gave it the name it bears to-day.

FEW SIGN PETITION AGAINST THE HAT-PIN

"It would appear that Montrealers are not afraid of the "deadly hat-pin" which has been the subject of special legislation in several American and European cities.

A hat-pin crusade was started here not very long ago, and a petition was prepared to be presented to the city fathers asking for a by-law imposing a fine of $5 on those who wear hatpins in such a way as to endanger the eyes and heads of the public. Such offenders seem to be comparatively rare in Montreal, unless it be that the Montrealer is too gallant to sign any petition concerning that affects the freedom of women.

Be that as it may, the little labels which have been stuck on car windows and on lamp posts, announcing the proposed law have kindled but little enthusiasm, and comparatively few signatures have been put to the petition.

Should the reader ever have suffered from a vicious jab in the eye from the hat-pin in front, now is the time for him to assert himself. B. F. Brown, of 115 St. Henry street, is securing the names.

ABANDONED YACHT IS FOUND AT CLEVELAND.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 28.—Her mainsails set square to the fresh breeze from the south, her tiller swinging with the roll of Lake Erie and none aboard to trim the sails or steady the rudder, the Ripple, a 20-foot sloop-rigged racing yacht, was picked up on Sunday morning in the lake, sixteen miles northeast of Cleveland, by fishermen.

The Ripple is an unknown craft in this port. Her nameplate bears the stamp of the Weir Boat Company, Hamilton, Ontario, but no knowledge of the craft can be obtained there. An old sweater, a watersoaked bag of provisions and a couple of empty bottle, all that was found aboard, offer no clue to the owners or late crew. That they have gone to the port of missing men or are marooned in some desolate patch of the lake shore is the conjecture of boatmen.

The neatly coiled ropes and anchor secure in the bow show the Ripple did not break from her moorings. No broken ropes were aboard. For the past two days the wind has blown steadily from the south.

COUNCIL TO HEAR ABOUT QUESTION OF PERCENTAGE

Ald. Emard Says He Will Bring Matter Up Right After Vacation.

MAINTAINS COMPANY SHOULD GIVE MORE

City Has Granted Privileges Recently for Which it Receives Nothing.

Ald. Emard made the statement today that just so soon as the vacations are over he intends to bring the question of the meagre percentages which the Montreal Tramways Company is paying to the city before the City Council.

"The articles in The Star," said Ald. Emard, "showing that the city of Toronto last year received in percentages over three-quarter of a million dollars, while the Tramways Company here paid only four hundred thousand, reveals a surprising state of affairs. So long as the Tramways Company is permitted to treat the city in this niggardly manner just so long shall we be short of funds for administration purposes.

"In order to get proper percentages from the company it will be necessary to take up the question of an extension of contract. Seven years ago the company was most anxious to get this extension and made an offer to the city, of eght millions of dollars in bonuses, in addition to percentages, if it was given an extension for thirty-two years. If the company could afford to give this large amount in percentages then, the fact is made plain that it is making huge profits and is in a position to give the city a greater amount on its earnings to-day.

Company Gets Best of it.

From recent happenings it is seen the company is getting the best of the corporation in every way. Before they would take any steps to lessen the congestion of traffic it demanded the city should turn over to it a large number of new streets.

"There was nothing to do but comply with the request, but for these new privileges the company has not come forward with a single offer of larger remuneration. In other words the company is put in a position to greatly increase its earnings without saying it will give a decent percentage on such increased profits.

"It is well known that even with the new streets which the company has got that the relief in the congestion will be but temporary, and in the very near future we shall be compelled to call upon the company to build either overhead or underground lines. Before any such new privileges are granted the City Council must demand a decided increase in the rate of the percentages. If we had a proper agreement with the company we ought now to be getting from it close upon a million a year. With an income such as this from the company the city would no longer be in the position of having to take up the question of increasing the real estate tax, so sufficient funds can be secured.

"That the company has not played fair with the city was shown by the manner it went to Quebec three years ago, and got the exclusive rights to construct underground lines. It was solemnly promised that the line should be built without delay. Of course the promise was broken. When Council, later on, demanded the construction of the lines the company's cool reply was that the city was not large enough to warrant the building of underground roads.

"The sentiment of the City Council to-day is such that greater percentages will certainly be demanded when the question of an extension is taken up in September. We can prove the company's profits are such that it can very well afford to double the amount it gives the city. We have been at the mercy of this company for years past; but conditions are going to be drastically remodelled. The citizens are entitled to some decent remuneration for the vast privileges they have given the company."

Ottowa, July 28. — The story sent out from Ottawa that the Government here has been informed that the Panama Canal tolls question is to be referred to The Hague Tribunal for adjustment has no foundation in fact. It is learned that no such advices have been received.

The Hague is the arbitration course Great Britain has suggested in connection with his protest, and which it hopes to have conceded. There has been no official intimation, however, that the matter will go to arbitration, though powerful influences are undoubtedly being exerted in that direction.

Spanish River Takes Turn--Market Tone Continues Better--Trading Dull

RALLY FOR SPANISH RIV. THE FEATURE

The rally in Spanish River was the outstanding feature of the market to-day, and instead of being a weakening feature, as it was all last week, developed strength after a decidedly weak start.

Whether the confirmation of the Lake Superior deal at the special shareholders' meeting in Toronto had anything to do with the sudden change in sentiment remains to be seen, but the fact remains that from being the weakest feature of the list, the tide turned and a good part of the past week's loss was regained.

There was very little trading here to-day, but in Toronto a new low level was reached at 33½, compared with 35 on Saturday.

There appears nothing to account for the break beyond Toronto's weak speculative position in the stock due to the uncovering of stop orders. Now that the pressure of liquidation is over the natural result was a rally.

There was some trading here in Nipissing at 8.58 to 8.70, the first in a considerable time.

LONDON KEPT UP ITS BETTER TONE

London, July 28.—Money was in better demand and discount rates were firm today. The Bank of England took most of the $5,700,000 new gold offered in the open market.

The stock market was firm, but business was restricted by settlement. Consols, Mexican rails, and Grand Trunk shares advanced, but Kaffirs declined, owing to renewed labor troubles in the Rand.

American securities opened steady and advanced during the forenoon under the leadership of Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Amalgamated Copper. The gains were well maintained until Wall Street opened, when another advance occurred, and the closing was steady.

Broker's View of Spanish River Deal

McCuaig Bros. & Co. in their market letter say of the Spanish River deal:—"This transaction will result in the capital of Spanish River being increased to $6,700,000 preferred, and $7,000,000 common, and application will be made to increase the authorized issue of each of these classes of stock to $10,000,000, which will leave a considerable margin unissued. It is not as yet possible to estimate the effect of the merger on the proportion of earnings, but the combined bond interest and preferred stock dividends will make a heavy fixed charge."

TWIN CITY GAINS.

Twin City net earnings for June showed an increase of $34,688, a gain of 9.73 per cent., making the gain for the six months of 1913 $186,792, or 9.95 per cent.

SOUTHERN RY. BONDS.

The Southern Railway Co. has sold $5000000 first consolidated mortgage 5 per cent. bonds due 1994 to Kean Taylor & Co. This makes $2000000 of the issue that has been sold in the immediate past. The proceeds from the issue are to reimburse the treasury for moneys already expended for improvements and betterments etc.

Record of Ottawa Power Since 1909

Listed Montreal Stock Exchange, Oct. 13th, 1909.

	Low.	High.
Opening price		102
Fluctuations in price—
1909	100	108⅛
1910	109	131
1911	127	165
1912	146	175¾
1913	127	165
Present price, ex-rights		150

In 1911 a bonus of one new share of stock was given free with each four shares.

This year two new shares of stock were given to the shareholders at par for each five shares.

Therefore a purchaser of 100 shares in 1913 for	$10,000
Received in 1911, free 25 shares
Bought in 1913, 50 shares at par	5,000
Total cost, 175 shares	$15,000
Present value at $150 per share	26,250
Profit	$11,250

The question naturally suggests itself "What will be the value in another five years?"

Dividends Declared

Cincinnati.—The Ohio Traction Company declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent. on the preferred stock, payable August 1 to stock of record July 26.

New York. — International Harvester Corporation regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent. on the preferred stock, payable September 2.

Short Notes of Interest

South Dakota's new valuation assessment raises railway property in that state from $22,000,000 to $124,000,000.

STRONG TONE IN WALL ST. MAINTAINED

Wall Street, Noon.—In the first hour of to-day's stock market a decided broadening of activity was seen, together with a further advance in prices. Virtually all the leaders were up a point or more, with greater gains in some specialties.

Trading was largely professional, however, and no small part of the rise resulted from a retirement of the short interest.

With the approach of noon, business slackened in marked manner, but without much effect on prices.

A favorable factor was the withdrawal by the eastern railroads of their grievances, thus opening the way to amicable arbitration of matters now in dispute. Bonds were steady.

Observers who are not impatient for a rapid rise in stocks and for quick profits say that they regard the market as normal, and believe that it will continue to show improvement. The more cheerful sentiment that is being reported from London is having considerable effect here. The buying for European account is still more influential.

These observers say that the position of the market would be completely upset by an attempt on the part of any group of interests to force it by bringing out an active speculation in stocks for a brief period. If the gradual improvement that is now in progress can go on they are confident that within a reasonable time there will be very good speculative market. The more general investment demand is paving the way for such a development.

PAPER DEAL RATIFIED.

MR. HORNE-PAYNE'S BOYCOTT ADVICE

In a report of Mr. R. M. Horne-Payne's speech on Canadian municipals, reprinted in The Star on July 5 from an English newspaper, a vital sentence was omitted, which considerably softened the attack.

In order to give the sentence its full importance the following report is printed:

Extract from official report in the Times of June 19 of British Empire Trust Company meeting, London, June 18. Mr. R. H. Horne-Payne, chairman of the company, in his presidential speech, said: "It is being made increasingly evident that British investors will take no more city bonds, and when this is once realized on the other side of the Atlantic there will be no more expensive attempts to force issues on this market, and other Canadian investments will gradually recover their popularity and their prices on their merits. With the exception of these difficulties in city finance, and the troubles of a few small enterprises, there is nothing to cause the least anxiety in connection with Canada. On the contrary, the prosperity of the Dominion is very great, and my advice to you is to leave municipal securities severely alone, and to take this opportunity of investing all the money you can in those sound Canadian railway and industrial investments which have recently fallen most heavily in price. I repeat that there will be a more favorable opportunity of investing money at a high rate of interest with a certainty of a great increase in capital in the course of a few years."

LOAN WENT POORLY.

The South Australian Government million pounds issue in London has met an extremely poor reception here, 78 per cent. of the amount having been left with the underwriters. Scrip was quoted at ½ discount.

India's Remarkable Gold Absorption

In the 33 years ended with March, 1892, India imported and kept in gold and silver somewhat over 356 millions sterling. Now, if that vast sum had been invested at what is for India a moderate rate of interest, 5 per cent., ever since the beginning of 1892—that is, for the last 21 years—it would have been yielding over 17½ millions sterling per annum.

But India was an importer of the precious metals from time immemorial; and since the closing of the Indian mints, though she was checked for a time, she has imported at a larger rate than ever.

Furthermore, it is to be recollected that 33 years is not quite a third of a century. Even at the rate of those 33 years she would have imported during the hundred years ended to-day over 1,068 millions sterling, and if the whole sum had been invested at the rate of 5 per cent. it would now yield not far short of 53½ millions sterling per annum.

War Expenditure 250,000,000 Sterling

Every one is agreed concerning the conflicting elements in the outlook. Thus, Sir Felix Schuster, this week, boldly proclaimed that recovery in high-class home stocks is probably approaching, whereas other high authorities hold that improvements is likely to be deferred by Balkan troubles, requisitions of active trade, and the aftermath of war expenditure: which the Telegraph to-day estimates at £250,000,000 sterling. This is still to be financed by the Continent.—N. Y. Post London cable.

Opinions from Wall Street

Chas. Head & Co.:—We would still differentiate between the investment and the speculative position in the market. Dividend paying stocks are cheap and can safely be purchased to lay away.

Jenks, Gwynne & Co.:—Whole market at present is governed by European conditions. Balkan situation being better, market is strong. Only professional interest taken here on any considerable advance this week, strongly advise profit-taking.

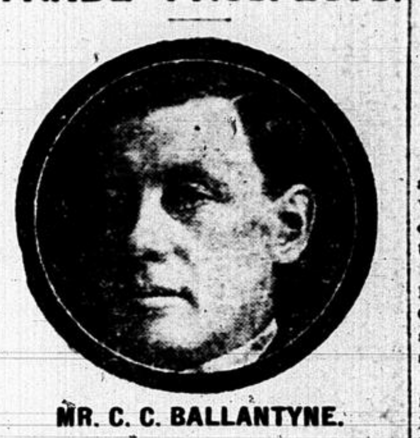
J. S. Bache & Co.—The market shows some hesitancy, but undertone is still good, and would start afresh with good leadership in Steel.

E. & C. Randolph. — There has been hardly any reaction, the market has paused and been dull for a day at a time, but that is all. The indications are that the market will have a further advance, atended by more activity before the movement culminates.

Laidlaw & Co.—What with the sustaining power that has been upholding our market lately, it will probably be carried further through the means of favorable progress in the railroad strike matter, financial and trade conditions.

R. M. Bauer.—Notwithstnding the temporary ease of call money, sooner or later the world's credit resources will be called upon to finance the cost of the war in the Balkans and to repair the losses incurred in those conflicts.

TAKES CHEERFUL VIEW OF TRADE PROSPECTS.



MR. C. C. BALLANTYNE.

Topics of the Street

Pa is the One Who Soothes the Kiddies

American railway managements are insisting in season and out of season that the only salvation for their systems, to meet the increased cost of operation, is the right to increase freight rates.

At the same time the labor unions are insisting that still higher rates of wages are their due.

The latter have been more successful than the railways have been in their pursuit of their object.

But no matter whether the railways secure the right to charge the public higher rates or the unions secure higher wages, the cartoonist in the above develops the idea that it is the general public that foots the bill in the long run.

Investigators Find Things Satisfactory

Attacks on this country's financial position some time ago, which were instigated, it is believed, for the purpose of helping the bear raiders of C. P. R. in particular, appeared in various American quarters.

A number of the conclusions drawn from trade figures received the attention of Canadian bankers, and it was shown that the construction placed upon them was unwarranted, some offseting conditions being either purposely ignored or overlooked through ignorance of their significance.

It is interesting to note that the tone of the enquiries which have been made by the Wall Street Journal, and Financial America are satisfactory, that fundamentals are found to be in the main sound, and that there seems to be no question of the future so soon as the present monetary disabilities are overcome.

Finale of the War Drama the Big Need

Financial authorities abroad continue to talk confidently about the war in the Balkans being effectively consigned to the market discard.

It may be true that fresh developments from day to day fail to produce the scares which at one time sent a chill down the back of the market, but it is admitted that until peace is an assured thing complete confidence will not return and the hoarded millions of Europe become released.

The hastening of that happy consummation is what the great financial centres desire before the great repairment of the universal market position can be proceeded with, so as to give permanency to any improvement which may take place in anticipation of the finale of the war drama, which is so earnestly desired.

Mr. Elliott to be Chairman of Board

New York, July 28.—Following the announcement of the selection of Mr. Howard Elliott as president of New Haven Railway, it was announced that Mr. Elliott would become chairman of the board of directors in control of the entire New Haven as soon as the by-laws of the company could be amended to create that position. This probably will be at the stockholders meeting in October. President Mellen will continue in office until September 1.

SEES NOTHING AHEAD BUT PROSPERITY

Mr. C. C. Ballantyne, vice-president and general manager of the Sherwin-Williams Co. of Canada, in an interview on the trade outlook in connection with the company's business, said:

"The Sherwin-Williams Co. of Canada, Ltd., and their subsidiary companies in Canada and England, have all had a very satisfactory year so far, both as regards sales and profits.

"The English company reports business not only exceptionally good in the United Kingdom, but their export business also has also been most satisfactory. The companies in Canada have all done very well.

"The company's fiscal year ends August 31st, and the annual meeting takes place the 15th of November.

"During the past year a large three-storey warehouse has been built at Calgary in order to give our customers in the Province of Alberta better service. The manufacturing capacity of the factory at Winnipeg has also been doubled and additional facilities added to the linseed oil mill there.

"All of the plants have been kept up to their high state of efficiency and the company is looking forward to a good fall business and 1914 being a very good year.

"The crop reports received from the West are most favorable and the money situation ought to be much easier this fall and next year, so I see nothing ahead of Canada but continued prosperity and progress along sound conservative lines.

"I have just returned from a business trip to the Maritime Provinces, where I found business conditions all that could be desired and our company has under contemplation at the present time further extensions to our already large business in the Maritime Provinces."

Paris, July 28.—Prices were strong on the Bourse to-day. Three per cent. rentes, 85 francs 7½ centimes for the account. Private rate of discount, 3¾ per cent.

Havana Docks Co. Offer New Issue

The Port of Havana Docks Company is offering in London, through the British Bank of Northern Commerce, £200,000 first mortgage 5 per cent. 30-year bonds at £86 15s for each £100 bond.

The bonds are part of an authorized issue of £800,000, of which £400,000 were sold in 1911, making £600,000 now outstanding.

MISSISSIPPI BONDS.

Stone & Webster are offering Mississippi River Power first 5s at 81 and interest. The circular says that in addition to $18000000 Mississippi River Power 5 per cent. bonds outstanding $2000000 are held to issue at 80 per cent. of cost of additions under the terms of the mortgage. The firm is now offering $1,500,000 of these, subject to previous sale.

BUTTER AGAIN DECLINES.

Butter prices continue to weaken in sympathy with lower prices in the country, which showed a decline of ⅝c to 1c per pound. Local quotations:—Best creamery, 23⅝c to 24c; good, 23c to 23¼c; dairy, 20¾c to 21¾c per pound.

Duluth-Superior earnings for the third week of July increased $1,962, making the gain for the month $9,519.

$500,000 SHIPPED TO N. Y. LAST WEEK

New York, July 28.—A sharp advance in New York exchange at Montreal has caused renewed receipts of gold here from the Dominion, but it is uncertain how far this movement will extend.

Money in Canada is in active demand for crop purposes, and this may militate against any large receipts of gold, although $500,000 was received last week.

HAVE TURNED THE CORNER.

Henry Clews says:—"We have turned the corner and may look for reasonable improvement, but over-buoyant optimism for the present at least should be rigidly frowned down."

COBALT SHIPMENTS

Cobalt ore shipments for the week ending July 25 were:—La Rose, 105,780 pounds; Crown Reserve, 4,500; Cobalt Comet, 78,500; Dome Reduction, 89,200; Townsite, 46,400; Cobalt Lake, 126,590; total, 491,390 pounds.

WINNIPEG SHOWED AN EASY FEELING

Winnipeg, July 28.—Exporters report there are no cables passing on Manitoba wheat, owing to the trading having come to the conclusion that it is useless quoting on same at present prices. Duluth No. 1 northern is offering to United States points at only 1½c per bushel over the price Manitoba No. 4 wheat is held at.

New York exporters are congratulating themselves on the fact that the holding of Winnipeg July wheat around 98c has enabled them to do an enormous business in Duluth No. 1 northern. This grade is offering freely at 5 to 6c per bushel under Manitoba No. 2 northern.

Weather is still perfect over the spring wheat belt. Rain was needed in Southern Alberta, and this district had good rains Saturday and Monday. The crop is looking exceptionally well.

Our market took on an easier tone after the opening, declining ¾c for the future months. July held fairly steady at about ¼ under Saturday's close.

STEEL PRICE WAR LIKELY.

A steel price war will likely be inaugurated in Scotland and England within a few days. A Glasgow despatch says the Steel Makers' Association, made up of Scotch and English steel manufacturing firms, is on the verge of dissolution. Several members have signified their intention to withdraw, claiming that methods of fixing prices have proved a menace to their business.

STEADY PRICES BETTER CATTLE SLOW TRADE

While the actual prices paid for butcher cattle at the West End Stockyards today were about the same as those of last Wednesday, at the East End the grade of stock which was bought was better, and for this reason the tone of the market could be classed as easy.

At the opening of the market drovers were rather inclined to advance prices to offset the better offerings, but as this only caused trade to drag, the large receipts, coupled with the light demand during the hot weather, caused them to ease off on their prices and sell at a lower level. This was the immediate cause for quick buying of the best stock and these were cleaned off the market in less than half an hour at the break.

Sheep and lambs were about steady, and there was no change in the price of calves.

Receipts of butcher cattle, 1,150 head. Market steady. Few odd head of choice steers, $6.75 to $7; good, $6.25 to $6.50; fair, $5.75 to $6; medium, $5.25 to $5.50; butcher bulls, $3.50 to $5.25; butcher cows, good, $5.25 to $5.50; fair, $4.85 to $5.15; poor to medium, $3.25 to $4.50.

DAIRY BOARDS.

St. Hyacinthe, July 28.—At the meeting of the board Saturday there were offered 250 packages of butter and 500 boxes cheese. The butter sold at 22¼c and the cheese at 12 11-16c.

Cowansville, July 28—There were offered for sale on the Cowansville board Saturday 901 boxes butter, 154 boxes sold for 23⅛c, 679 boxes for 23c, and 68 boxes remained unsold.

CANADIAN GOLD RESERVE.

The N. Y. Post's London cable said:—"It is believed here that the new Canadian bank law is lokely to cause your market to lose gold annually at a most inconvenient season, and, therefore, it is considered that if conditions improve in America, you will soon need to replenish your gold reserves.

CHEESE PRICES ADVANCE.

On increased foreign demand there is a stronger feeling in the tone of the cheese market and prices have advanced 1-16c to ½c per pound. Present quotations:—Best western, colored, 13⅛c to 13⅜c, and white, 13⅛c to 13¼c; best eastern, colored, 13c to 13 1-16c, and white, 12¾c to 12⅞c; seconds, 12½c to 12⅝c per pound.

LIVERPOOL MARKET CLOSING.

LONG WHEAT HELD AT LOSS

From the Special Correspondent of The Montreal Star on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, July 28.—Had it not been for the strength shown by the corn market, which was a help to wheat early, the latter would have been a great deal lower than that shown by the following figures:—July sold at 85 to 84⅞; September at 86¼ to 85⅝ and December at 89⅞ to 89⅜.

The outsider was still viewing the market from a safe distance, not caring to "sit in" as either a buyer or seller, and with the first car of new spring wheat at Minneapolis this morning and the fact that cutting is general in the southern sections of the spring wheat belt, the feeling was quite bearish. The situation at the moment is quite discouraging to the bulls in wheat, as all the long wheat now held at Chicago shows a loss.

It is expected that the new wheat in the Northwest will move quite rapidly, as the growers up there are doubtless in debt and there will be a heavy first run in consequence.

Commission houses were on the selling side in a liberal way, while the buying was scattered.

According to public and private cables received from abroad this morning, the weather is more favorable in Europe and reports from Russia were ideal. In the latter country the harvesting of wheat is progresisng rapidly. In Germany, however, rain was insufficient over a large and prominent area and many complaints were received of rust and other deterioration.

Liverpool was ¼ to ½d lower, and there were declines of ⅛c at Berlin and 1c at Budapest. Advances were shown of ⅝c at Antwerp and 3¾c for July wheat at Paris, while the other futures were unchanged.

John Inglis, the crop expert, estimates the winter wheat crop at 475,000,000 bushels, spring wheat at 225,000,000 bushels, a total of 700,000,000 bushels compared with 730,000,000 bushels for last year. He places the Canadian crop at 170,000,000 bushels this year, although there are many up there who claim that the promise is for 200,000,000, and under the best conditions 225,000,000 bushels.

World's shipments of wheat were smaller at 9,300,000 bushels; there was a decrease of 2,538,000 bushels in the amount on ocean passage. Liverpool stocks increased 152,000 bushels for the week. Northwestern receipts of wheat were 257 cars to-day and Winnipeg 84 cars, which compare with 293 and 108 cars respectively a year ago.

George M. Lecount's message to Finley Barrell, dated at Devil's Lake, N.D., is a partial reflection of conditions in Western Canada. It follows in part:

"The weather continues very favorable. Wheat is spotted, but there is great improvement in this country from Dakota here. There is lots of very good wheat, also lots of poor fields, but the general average is much better than when I was last here. I believe this section will average about ten bushels."

The Simplex Sales Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs—About a month ago I had you equip my car with a set of puncture-proof Tubes. When the tubes were installed your Mr. Shaw drove a nail into one of the tires six or seven times, to test the self-healing qualities of the tube for some friends of mine, who were present at the time. Since then I am pleased to state that the pressure in the tube has remained the same, and I have no trouble whatever with my tires. I now feel c[illegible] that I can go as far as I like and [illegible] without stopping on the road to repl[illegible] a punctured tube.

Wishing you every success with the new tube, I beg to remain, yours truly.

GEO. A. SPEAR.

Why not investigate? It costs nothing to do that, and we guarantee to cut down your tire bills. Ask your dealer, or call, write or 'phone.

Municipal Securities

Due to the exceptionally great demand for money, sound Municipal Debentures are now selling on a more favorable basis than has ever before prevailed in Canada. With the return of normal financial conditions the prices of these bonds should show a substantial advance in price, giving present purchasers a good profit as well as high interest returns in the meantime.

TRADING AT LOW VOLUME AFTER NOON

Spanish River, the rally in which figured out prominently in the forenoon dealings, changes, held its return to 88. Montreal, on the other hand, was sold freely in small lots at 37 1-2.

The balance of the trading was of little importance. Richelieu was 104, Ogilvie 73 7-8, Crown Reserve 9.15, Nipissing 8.75.

Bank of Nova Scotia sold at 263 1-2 compared with 263 3-4 on Saturday.

SHORT OF CEMENT.

A temporary shortage in cement is stated to have been responsible for considerable delay in street work in the city last week. A large consignment has, however, been received and no further delay is emticipated.

TWO THOUSAND MEN ON INTERCOLONIAL THREATEN STRIKE

Ultimatum Goes to General Managers for More Pay and Revised Rules.

REFUSE TO ACCEPT COMPROMISE OFFERED

Would Be First Strike in Forty Years History of the Railway.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 28.—If the threatened strike on the Intercolonial Railway is called it will be the first that has ever occurred in the forty years history of the road.

The dispute between the management and the men is not being dealt with at all from Ottawa as the new manager has complete authority in the administration of the Government railways.

SEND ULTIMATUM TO GENERAL MANAGER.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax, N. S., July 28.—An ultimatum was sent to Mr. Gutelius, General Manager of the I. C. R., to-day by the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway employees, which calls for a strike if its terms are not met with.

The strike will effect clerks of all departments, freight handlers, round house and shop laborers, station and baggage masters, parlor, sleeping and dining car employes all over the road from Halifax and Sydney to Montreal, and will include about 2,000 men. They have asked for a 12 per cent. increase in pay, and revision of rules.

The negotiations have been going on for months. Recently meetings have been held in Moncton, but the discussion of the questions came abruptly to an end. On Saturday Mr. Gutelius demanded the ruling out 500 members of the organization so that they would not be affected by the new schedule of wages and privileges. On the refusal of the committee to the demand all agreements which had been previously arrived at were rescinded and the questions at issue stood where they were at the beginning.

Mr. Gutelius offered as a compromise on the wage question six per cent. in most cases. The increase asked for by the men is equal to two cents per hour. Mr. Gutelius offer was for one cent per hour.

COMPLAINS MEN WERE UNFAIRLY DEALT WITH.

Mr. A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Railway Brotherhood, says: "For the past four years we have had an agreement, but with the cost of living increasing fourteen per cent, they asked for an increase of twelve per cent."

Mr. Mosher complains that the men were unfairly dealt with in the May meeting, and that the offers of Mr. Gutellus in many respects were nothing less than ridiculous. Except in one or two cases he wanted to give less than six per cent, and wanted to take away some of the privileges they now enjoyed.

Mr. Mosher adds:—"Among the grievances we wished changed was the establishment of a maximum day, so that the men would not be compelled to work fifteen to twenty hours a day, and only receive a days pay for it, and the question of overtime pay. Among the privileges that Mr. Gutelius threatened to take away was the time-and-a-half allowance and public holidays. Then followed his request for 500 men to be ruled from the organization. The Canadian Brotherhood of Railway employees, is the only organization of railwaymen in Canada, purely Canadian.

MEN NOT IN FRAME OF MIND TO DALLY.

"This brought the deadlock," Mr. Mosher says. "These matters have been delayed and trifled with for now almost a year, and to-day the man are in no frame of mind to dally further, and unless we are met fairly in the matter by the management and the Government, the men will go on strike. We are putting the matter up directly with Premier Borden, the Minister of Railways, and are sending them copies of the ultimatum.

"We will not accept Mr. Gutelius' offer. Absolutely and unqualifiedly we refuse such a compromise."

"MIGHT HAVE BEEN ANOTHER BINGHAMPTON."

Toronto, July 28.—"Might have been another Binghampton," said deputy-fire chief Noble, speaking of a fire which caused damage of $6,000 to a small factory building occupied by three smalll concerns on Saunders avenue this fornnoon.

Twevе girls were working on the third floor, and they made their way down the smoke-filled stairway in safety, the blaze not having got beyond control.

SECRETARY OF AMERICAN IRISH LEAGUE DIES.

Boston, Mass., July 28.—Mr. John O'Callaghan, secretary of the United Irish League of America since its founding in 1901, died at a hospital here yesterday after an illness of two days. He was 48 years of age. The exact cause of death has not been determined.

Mr. O'Callaghan had been on the editorial staff of the Boston Globe since he came to America from Ireland in 1887.

MILITARY HONORS FOR THE LATE MR. CONMEE.

Port Arthur, Ont., July 28.—The body of the late James Conmee, ex-M.P., arrived here this afternoon and was met by the officers of the 96th regiment and members of the City Council.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday with military honors.

BEOTHIC DUE AT SYDNEY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Halifax N.S., July 28—The steamer Beothic, which recently ran ashore off the coast of Newfoundland, is due at Sydney from Hawkes Point. She is proceeding under her own steam.

Nothing definite has yet been decided as to the future plans for the steamer.

MEXICAN AND UNITED STATES EMBASSY HEADS AT PRESENT TIME.

Senor Don Angel Algara, First Secretary of Mexican Embassy at Washington, who will act as Mexican Ambassador if President Wilson decides to recognize the Huerta Government.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, First Secretary of the United States Embassy at Mexico City, who is acting as Ambassador during the absence in Washington of Mr. H. Lane Wilson.

CARR GOMM WINS. DIVORCE CASE.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—Mr. Carr Gomm, member of Parliament, to-day won his suit for divorce. He had named Elliot Crawshay Williams as co-respondent. The latter resigned from Parliament after the filing of the suit. The action was not defended.

FLOW OF BRITISH EMIGRATION GROWS

Canadian Associated Press.

London, July 28.—During the year ending March 31, 407,729 persons of British nationality left the United Kingdom for places out of Europe. The destinations included:—

Canada	185,349
Australia and New Zealand	92,629
United States	94,176

Among the immigrants to this country were 71,275 British subjects, who came from Canada (18,813), Australia and New Zealand (10,443), British S. Africa (10,063), United States (16,819), and other places.

Sixty per cent. of the male emigrants were from eighteen to thirty years of age. The occupations were classed as follows: Skilled trades, 32 per cent.; Laborers, 26 per cent.; Agriculturalists, 19 per cent., and Commercial and professional, 15 per cent.

The total number of passengers by sea direct between the United Kingdom and countries out of Europe was 997,531. Liverpool continues to be the premier port for outward and inward passenger traffic.

Queer Weapons Figure in Court

A Japanese dagger was the most bizarre of a collection of weapons which figured in the Recorder's Court this morning. Pietro Costello, was found drunk on Lagauchetiere street on Saturday night by the police, and when he was searched the dagger appeared in his trouser leg. Costello, could give no residence, and refused to state how he came into possession of the knife. He was fined $10, with an alternative of one month in jail.

Michael Yacek, charged with creating a disturbance in a dance hall on St. Lawrence boulevard, was found to have a blackjack, consisting of a rubber tube filled with lead, in his pocket. He was given a similar sentence.

Arthur Leduc, and Frederick Caron, both whom carried loaded revolvers at the time of their arrests, were each given a fine of $25, or a jail sentence of two months.

READY TO TAKE WOMEN AND CHILDREN FROM CANTON.

Hong Kong, July 28.—The British river steamers at Canton have been ordered by the Consul to have steam up in readiness if necessary to embark the women and children from the suburb of Shameen, of the better class of Chinese from Canton to Hong Kong.

TWO NEW J. P.'S.

George E. Williams, insurance manager, of Westmount, and William Bissett Smith, general manager of the Dominion Transportation Company of Montreal, have been appointed Justices of the Peace.

THE LATE J. B. DENIS.

Jean Baptiste Denis, father of Ernest and J. O. Denis, of the Denis Advertising Signs, Limited, and Arthur Denis, of the Eagle Sign Co., died at his home, 423 Mount Royal avenue east, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Denis was seventy-two years of age. He was born in Montreal and followed his trade as a printer, until a few years ago, being connected for some time with the old and well known publication "La Minerve." He married Miss Caroline Bourgeois, of St. Johns, Quebec, who survives him with four sons: Ernest, Arthur, Joseph and Henri, and three daughters: Mrs. Edmond Paquette, Mrs. Auguste Grignon, and Miss Ernestine Denis.

MAY RECOGNIZE HUERTA AND THE FEDERAL PARTY

Mexican Embassy Officials Convinced This Will Be President Wilson's Solution.

Special to The Montreal Star

Washington, July 28.—Ambassador Wilson's plan regarding the troublesome condition in Mexico will be probably found to be a straightaway recognition of President Huerta and the Federal Government. In fact, this is so strongly believed at the Mexican Embassy here that there is no qualification attached to the statement by Embassy officials that President Wilson has already found that out by reading Ambassador Lane's papers and will discuss it this afternoon when the Ambassador calls at the White House.

The President was backed into a corner and asked hundreds of questions concerning the Mexican squabbles this morning when he held his regular semi-weekly talk with the corps of Washington correspondents.

The outcome of the duel was victory for the President, and the only authorized statement from him was to the effect that he and his aides are diligently inquiring into the situation, and that the attitude of this Government toward Mexico has not changed in the last ten days.

COMPLAINT AGAINST AMERICAN CONSUL.

Complaint was made to the Secretary of State, Mr. Bryan today, that Mr. Thomas Edwards, American Consul at Juarez, Mexico, is failing to relieve American refugees at Madera, the information being taken to the State Department by Representative Smith, of Texas, who said he had been getting continued complaints against Mr. Edwards.

Representative Smith also urged the State Department to prevent the Huerta Government from receiving any more arms or ammunition from American sources.

Mr. Smith told the Secretary of State that as long as the United States does not recognize the Huerta Government there should be no shipments of arms from this country to permit that end of the revolution to prosecute its forms of Government. He also said that the United States should not allow arms to be shipped to the Constitutionalists.

Mr. Bryan did not intimate to Representative Smith what action would be taken by this country either as to the shipment of arms, recognition, or as to consul Edwards.

The Texas Congressman's complaint was based on a series of telegrams. One of them states that thirty-five Americans are in danger at Madera, of these 21 being women and children.

It is charged that the Consul refused to permit a rescue party to go to the rescue of these supposedly helpless people.

He is also charged with concealing information and "leaning" toward the Federal Government. Representative Smith also has information that 85 railroad bridges between El Paso, Texas, and Madera, Mexico, have been burned.

PROSPECTOR LOST LOOKING FOR GOLD AT KIRKLAND LAKE

H. R. Griffiths, of New Zealand, Missing Since July 1st.

SOME GOOD SHOWING THROUGH THE COUNTRY

Work of Development Still in Early Stages, Says Mr. Ross.

The Montrealers in search of gold and adventure might well take a trip to the Kirkland Lake district and be reasonably certain of finding one, if not the other. J. G. Ross, of the Milton Hersey firm, who returned to the city on Saturday after a fortnight's inspection and examination of claims undertaken on behalf of clients, says that there is every appearance of a big boom, but whether gold is to be found in paying quantities or not cannot yet be stated with any degree of accuracy. He says there are some good showings but the work of development is still in the early stages. A large number of prospectors are already on the spot, practically all of the men with large experience.

One from Montreal.

So far only one Montreal man has been up, although Cobalt Mines representatives, through whom Montreal mining firms are interested, are heavily engaged, the district being only about 100 miles north of Cobalt. The country is well timbered, and has a top covering of from 2 to 4 feet of clay.

To-day a number of geologists attending the International Congress are visiting the district, and a second contingent will make an inspection early in August.

One Man Lost.

Mr. Ross reports that a New Zealand prospector, H. R. Griffiths, brother of the Minister of Labor in the Southern Continent, got lost in searching for gold. Mr. Griffiths was employed on Mr. Muir's claims in Maisonville Township and, leaving the camp on July 4 to get some tools, has never been seen since. Mr. Griffiths had no food, no firearms, nor compass with him, so that if he did not know how to take his bearing by the sun he ran great risk of being "bushed."

Prospectors on the spot cannot understand how the New Zealanders can have disappeared so completely, since the country is well travelled one a wide radius, except in the north of Maisonville, where there is a big swamp.

Are Still Hunting.

Parties of prospectors are still looking for the mining man, but so far without result.

Mr. Griffiths went up to the north country in 1906 in answer to an advertisement for an assayer inserted in the Montreal papers by Mr. Lamble. He served in the Natal Mounted Police at one time, but is not used to the bush.

Great Quantity Of Opium Seized

A quantity of opium which the police claim is the largest ever seized in this city was found Saturday night in an alleged opium den on Lagauchetiere street.

A family of Chinamen who gave their surname as Ham, were arrested by a police lieutenant. It is said they were in the act of smoking opium. They made no resistance, and this morning pleaded not guilty to a charge of keeping and infesting an opium resort. White men and negroes are habitues of this place, say the police, who claim to have evidence that the drug is being sold to regular customers.

FORMER POLICE OFFICER SAVES MAN FROM DEATH.

A daring rescue was effected last night by Albert Bezeau, 22 Forfar street, a former member of the police force, when he pulled Edward Mellovaine ont of the water. The latter was bathing near the Victoria Bridge, about 300 feet from the shore, when he was noticed to be in difficulty, the current carrying him along. Two men who were nearby made an effort at rescue, but unsuccessfully, and Bezeux throwing his clothes off, jumped in, and pulled the drowning man to land.

VALUABLE FOX CARGO.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. John, N. B., July 28.—A shipment of sixty-six foxes, valued at $100,000 arrived in St. John to-day from British Columbia, Yukon and Alaska for a company operating in the suburbs of St. John.

Despite the long journey every fox arrived in good condition, and there were no losses on the way.

PARKE BEAT WILLIAMS IN DAVIS CUP MATCHES.

Wimbledon, July 28.—J. C. Parke added another point to England's score in the Davis Cup tennis matches by beating R. Norris Williams in the second singles match, which was naturally in the nature of an exhibition match.

Parke had thus won both singles matches, in which he had played, as he bet McLoughlin on Friday. His victory made the total score in the series three matches to two in favor of the United States.

Parks won the first set of his match against Williams by 6 games to 2. The score by points in the first set was:—

First set—
Williams	54154441—28
Parke	76471624—37

Williams won the second set from Parks by 7 games to 5. The score by points in the second set was:—

Williams	4023415741 44—35
Parke	1445243514 01—34

Williams won the third set from Parke by 7 games to 5. The score by points in the third set was:

Williams	5744624141 44—46
Parke	3526841414 01—40

Parke won the fourth set by 6 games to 4, the score by points being:—

Parke	2142141444—30
Williams	4104024020—21

Parke won the fifth set from Williams by six games to two, and thus was the winner of the match by 3 sets to 2, the score being 6-2, 5-7, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

The score by points in the fifth set was:—

Parke	55444426—34
Williams	33216244—25

OPPOSE RAILWAY SUBWAYS FROM LINE OF HIGHWAY

Ottawa July 28.—"I am opposed to the construction of subways which necessitate diversion from the straight line of the highway.

The above interesting sentence appears in a judgment handed down by Assistant Chief Commissioner, of the Railway Commission, as regard the crossing of the Kingston road by the Campbellford, Lake Ontario and Western Railway Company and the Grand Trunk.

Mr. Scott makes several observations of general interest in his judgment. As regards subways which necessitate diversions, he says:

SEEKING TO MAKE CONSTRUCTION CHEAP.

"I believe they are apt to be dangerous unless the angle is sufficiently obtuse to permit of a view through the subway from a reasonable distance at each end. Usually diversion in the highway is asked by the railway companies in cases of subways where they desire to put the subway at right angles to the railway track and thus make construction of as cheap a character as possible.

"I do not see why people travelling an old-established highway should be called on to submit to inconvenience and danger of a diversion in the highway to save the railway companies' expense."

What Food shall I give Baby?

Every mother must sooner or later ask herself this question, and in the case of the young mother with her first baby it is one which must involve a good deal of anxious consideration. It may be that on the advice of friends, various foods are tried to see if baby takes kindly to them.

Now, is it not reasonable to assume that an infants' food that has been in general use for upwards of fifty years, and that has been used in preference to others, in most of the Royal Nurseries of Europe, is likely to prove a suitable diet for the average infant? Such a food is Savory & Moore's, and all mothers who decide in its favour may be congratulated on the wisdom of their choice.

Infants reared on Savory & Moore's Food are characterised by strong, sturdy limbs, firm flesh, plenty of bone and muscle, easy teething, freedom from infant ailments, and that happy disposition which is the surest sign of perfect health. Ask your Druggist to get you a tin.

MOTHER'S GUIDE FREE

Much useful information on the Feeding and Rearing of Infants will be found in Savory & Moore's booklet, "The Baby," which will be mailed, Free, on application to Savory & Moore, Ltd., Chemists to The King, New Bond Street, London, England.

Arctic Party In High Spirits

Teller, Port Clarence, Alaska, July 28. — Vilhjalmar Stefansson, commander of the Canadian Arctic exploring expedition, arrived here on Saturday from Nome on the steamer Corwin, accompanied by Oceanographer Murray. Topographer Wilkins and Scotty Allen, the dog team expert, who brought with him the remainder of the fifty dogs, purchased by him at Nome.

The dogs were loaded on the whaler Karluk. Steffansson visited the Karluk, the power schooner Mary E. Sachs, and the power boat Alaska.

PROMINENT WINNIPEG BUSINESS MAN DIES.

Winnipeg, July 28.—D. R. Dingwall, one of the most prominent and influential business men of Winnipeg, died yesterday morning at his residence, after a long illness.

Mr. Dingwall was president and founder of D. R. Dingwall Company, Ltd., and was also intimately associated with many financial and commercial enterprises during his western career. Born at Halkirk, Caithness, Scotland, in 1851, he migrated to Canada.

Mr. Dingwall's first business venture was at Port Hope, Ont., whence he later moved to Lancaster, and after a while to Montreal. Thirty years ago he came West and founded the present Winnipeg house.

ASK STEEL SHIPBUILDING PLANT FOR LEVIS DOCK.

Quebec, July 28.—The Quebec Board of Trade has forwarded a memorial to the Minister of Public Works advocating the establishment of a modern steel shipbuilding plant at Levis in connection with the new drydock that is to be built by Messrs. M. P. and J. T. Davis.

The memorial points out that in order to ensure the proper working of the dock it will be necessary to maintain a staff of competent shipbuilders and ship repairers and that these men must have constant work.

SIXTEEN KILLED IN EMIGRANT TRAIN SMASH.

Copennagen, July 28.—A train bearing a large number of emigrants bound for the United States was derailed on Saturday near Esbjerg, a seaport on the North Sea.

Sixteen persons, including M. Sabroe, a member of the Lower House of the Danish Parliament, were killed. Many other occupants of the train received serious injuries.

KABYLE TRIBESMEN AMBUSH SPANIARDS.

Madrid, July 28.—It is announced that Kabyle tribesmen between Tetuan and Ceuta, Morocco, yesterday ambuscaded and attacked a carriage containing a party of Spanish works officials.

Secretary Gutierrez, Senor Mazano, a servant and a coachman and a babe in arms were killed and three other members of the party were wounded, including Senora Gutierrez.

A three-year-old child was the only person in the carriage to escape injury.

Special to The Montreal Star.

London, July 28.—"I spoke to a boy about twelve years old who had attended a motion picture show in a little country town a week or two ago, and he positively trembled as he reported what he had seen. He said: 'I shall never go again. It was horrible.' I said, 'What was horrible?' He said: 'I saw a man cut his throat.'"

"This is no exaggeration," says Canon Rawnsley, a well-known poet and minister, who is heading a big agitation in England against unwholesome motion pictures. "It was told to me personally, and is really only one of a number of incidents that have come under my notice this month, proving that there is passing over England a real craving for scenes of horror.

Amongst the titles of films which are being, or have recently been, exhibited he instances the following:—"Massacre: A Terrific Tragedy." "The Wheel of Destruction." "The Auto Race." The auto when going at a prodigious rate overturns and buries its living occupants." "Dogs Killing Rats in a Rat Pit." "Champion Prize Fight." "A Public Execution in the East."

ITEMS OF HORROR OR FIERCE EXCITEMENT.

To those picture proprietors who maintain that their exhibitions are for the moral improvement and amusement of the masses, Canon Rawnsley replies: "Look at your posters and the items of horror or fierce excitement or degrading sensationalism which, in spite of the British censorship, are still being exhibited up and down the country to the detriment and discouragement of the nobler feelings of gentleness and compassion.

"The worst of it is," he adds, "that neither the police nor the agents of the motion picture firms who are sent out as exhibitors are sufficiently educated to know what is horrible and what is not.

"What the public really need is that in every town where motion picture halls are springing up like mushrooms there should be trained inspectors, men or women, who should know at a glance a downgrade or demoralizing film and should at once report it to headquarters."

OVERTAXING BRAIN ENERGY OF THE YOUNG.

"If," he adds, "the English people wish to commit race suicide they can do it by overtaxing the brain energy of the very young; and never has human ingenuity invented a device more efficacious for this sinister end than the motion pictures.

"Further, I have seen it stated by a scientific expert that one of the results we must look forward to is a development of a disease of the eye, already known as the motion picture eye; and he incidentally mentions that one of the symptoms of this pleasing complaint is an increased activity of the lachrymal glands.

"If this is true—and it is quite credible—let us contemplate the England of the next generation as peopled by men and women who have had their nervous systems spoilt, their imaginations ruined their curiosity crushed, in order to learn one thing only, viz., how to weep at nothing at all."

NEW CUNARD SHIP, THE ANDANIA, HAS ARRIVED IN PORT

Decorated with flags and streamers, the new Cunard liner Andania arrived in port yesterday on her maiden trip, and attracted a large number of sightseers.

It is seventy-three years almost to a day, since the first Cunarder arrived in America, an event celebrated by a public dinner and a presentation of plate to Samuel Cunard, the founder of the line. Since then, the Cunarder has become world-famous. The Mauretania and Lusitania, the greyhounds of the New York trade, are popular as ever.

The Andania is the first Cunarder built especially for the Canadian service and is claimed to be the most magnificent example of the one-class steamer afloat. She will be followed in a few weeks by the sister ship, Alaunia.

Built at Greenock.

The Andania was built at Scotts Yards, Greenock. In the planning and construction of the vessel, no expense has been spared in making her up-to-date in every respect. She has twin screws; her tonnage is 13,000 tons, and length 540 feet. She has accommodation for 2,130 passengers; 530 seconds, and 1,620 thirds. On her maiden voyage she carried 392 cabin and 874 thirds, which is a very large number for this time of the year.

The general style used in the decoration of the passenger accommodation is colonial. The dining-saloon, which extends across the whole breadth of the ship, is in a soft grey tint, producing a restful and artistic effect; and has seating accommodation for 250. The lighting has been especially designed to enhance the attractiveness of the decoration, without being in any way obtrusive. The chairs are beautifully upholstered in grey, and the seating capacity is broken up into various small tables, capable of seating from four to twenty people, so that family parties can have a table exclusively for their own use.

A New Venture.

The lounge is a new venture in the Cunard Canadian service. Its attractiveness was first proven in the Caronia and Carmania. To-day the lounge on the Cunard boats is a favorite haunt of passengers in wet weather and every evening. It is a rendez-vous for the women for their afternoon tea, and the gentlemen for their coffee and cigars.

Immediately aft of the lounge is the gymnasium, which is the first of its kind on any steamer in the Canadian trade. It is fitted for all tastes and pursuits, and will have riding horses, cycling and rowing machines.

Comfort in the third class accommodation has not been overlooked, and steerage passengers are assured of the best possible accommodation at very moderate rates.

HELPLESS CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

4 Home Place, Toronto, Dec. 15th, 1909.

"I was a helpless cripple from Rheumatism for nearly a year. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful and I could not move for the agony. I was treated specially but without benefit. I saw "Fruit-a-tives" advertised and decided to try them. After taking one box, I was much better.

When I had taken three boxes, I could use my arm and the pain was almost gone.

After taking five boxes, I was entirely well again. The cure of my case by "Fruit-a-tives" was indeed splendid, because all others failed to even relieve me. "Fruit-a-tives" cured me."

Weakness Overcome

Every wineglassful of "Wincarnis" creates a definite amount of new strength, new vigor, new vitality, and new life. And this is the reason: "Wincarnis" (the wine of life) is a tonic, restorative, blood-maker and nerve food. Its first effect is to promote a feeling of invigoration. Then it enriches and revitalises the blood, soothes and feeds the nerves, rebuilds the wasted tissue of the body, and surcharges the whole system with renewed vigour and vitality. That is why every wineglassful of "Wincarnis" makes you stronger and healthier than you were before. If you suffer from Anaemia, Sleeplessness, Brain-fag, Weakness, Debility, Exhaustion, Lowered Vitality, Nervous Disorders, or if you are merely "run-down" or "out of sorts" we urge you to commence taking

Ill-health Banished

"Wincarnis" to-day. Remember that "Wincarnis" has an unrivalled reputation of nearly thirty years' standing—that it is recommended by over 10,000 doctors—and that countless thousands of sufferers have proved, beyond question, that it gives new life to the invalid—renewed strength to the weak—increased vigour to brain workers—and a wealth of health to everyone.

WOULD HAVE BULGARIA NOT CALLED "CIVILIZED."

A declaration that Bulgaria should not be classed among civilized nations, was made at a meeting which followed service in the Greek Orthodox Church on St. Lawrence Boulevard, yesterday. It was decided to present a petition embodying the resolution to the Canadian Government.

Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Agathodorus Papageorgopulos, who denounced "the atrocities committed by Bulgaria." Mr. Papamanolis, principal of the Greek school on Clarke street, followed.

The resolution was read from the altar steps. It sets forth that the Bulgarian race is of Asiatic Mongolian origin, and only holds its place in Europe by the outward adoption of civilization. After the deliverance by the Balkan States of thousands of Christians from Turkish suzerainty, Bulgaria has become intoxicated with conquest, and tried to take all the spoils of battle, fighting her own allies in the endeavor.

SPECIAL TENT SERVICES OF CALVARY CHURCH BEGUN

The opening services of the fortnight's special mission conducted by the Calvary Congregational Church in a large tent, near the corner of St. Antoine and Brewster streets, were largely attended both morning and evening yesterday. The preacher was the Rev. W. Gilbert, of Liverpool, Eng., a leader in the Brotherhood Movement. Service will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. W. A. Wuxsbury Woods, of Ramsgate, a well-known figure in English Congregationalism, conducted the service in Calvary Church in the morning at which there was a large congregation.

Statler Hotel For Toronto

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—The Statler interests of Buffalo are said to have finally secured a site in Toronto for the erection of a monster hotel upon the plan of the Hotel Statler, of Buffalo. The site selected is the south-east corner of Bay and Front streets.

There have been reports from time to time during the past year that the Statler people were negotiating for a site. This time, it is rumored, the deal has been definitely closed.

CANADIAN PASTOR DIES GOING TO CONGRESS.

St. John, N. B., July 28.—A cable from Falmouth, England, announces the death of the Rev. Reginald J. Flint, Baptist pastor at Chipman, N. B. He left here to attend the Sunday School Congress at Zurich, Switzerland, but contracted pneumonia on the voyage and stayed with relatives in Falmouth.

STEFANSSON STARTS FOR ARCTIC TO-DAY

Teller, Port Clarence, Alaska, July 28.—Viljalhmur Stefansson's Canadian Polar exploration expedition, which will spend three years in scientific research work in the Arctic, set out for its destination early to-day, when the old whaler Kariluk sailed from Port Clarence Bay.

The Kariluk was accompanied by the gasoline schooner Mary Sachs. The power boat Alaska, which will be used by Dr. R. M. Anderson's southern party, remained at Port Clarence to complete repairs, and probably will not leave until Wednesday.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN NEW ZEALAND.

Special Cable to The Montreal Star.

Wellington, N.Z., July 28.—The New Zealand House of Representatives has passed the second reading of the Daylight Saving Bill, which proposes to put back the clocks one hour in the summer months.

WESTERN GIRL MISTAKES POISON FOR CANDY.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Saskatoon, Sask., July 28.—Mistaking gopher poison for candy, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erhardt, residing in the village of Duval, Sask., filled her mouth with the deadly drug and died shortly afterwards.

At the time the little girl ate the poison she was playing with some other children and, seeing it on the table, thought it to be candy.

HELD ON KIDNAPPING CHARGE.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—Joseph Neville, aged 28 years, was arrested last night on the charge of being the man who kidnapped Imar Rubenstein, aged 5 years, from his home at 239 Simcoe Street on July 8, and kept him in a barn all night. The arrest was made after the little boy had recognized Neville as the man who took him away. Neville is believed to be insane.

Russia's Annual Jew Baiting On

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Petersburg, July 28.—Never has Russia witnessed such a persecution of Jews as is now being carried on. Nightly round-ups of the poorer Jews are a common feature in Kieff, Odessa and other towns of the Empire.

Squads of police raid stables and outhouses in their searches for Jews, who are forced to seek such shelters because they are not allowed to reside outside of the pale.

FIRST BIG HARVESTER EXCURSION TO WEST.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—The first trains of this year's special harvester excursions probably will leave for Western Canada at the end of the week. The railways have about completed all arrangements for the specials, and it is expected that the numbers to leave will be a great deal larger than in many previous years. Railroad officials estimated that fully 50,000 laborers will be required to harvest the western crops this year.

MANY IMMIGRANTS FOR ONTARIO.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—Over one thousand immigrants arrived in Toronto last night in a special Grand Trunk train, containing 13 coaches. This is the largest single train carrying immigrants to come into the Union Station so far this year. Although there was a large number of Russian Jews as passengers, the majority were from the British Isles. These were all well supplied with money.

Lighting Stations Inspected.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 28.—Mr. Alex. Thurton, Deputy Minister of Marine, Col. Anderson, Chief Engineer of the Department, and J. G. MacHall, Commissioner of Lights, have returned from an official tour of inspection of all lighting stations as far east as Belle Isle.

Everything was found in proper order.

"It is remarkable," observed Mr. Johnston, "how the government is able to secure the services of so many fine and competent men who are willing to spend their lives at places that are isolated and desolate and with little communication with the outside world."

ALPINERS TO RACE IN CLIMB FOR PEAK OF MOUNT ROBSON

Special to The Montreal Star.

Edmonton, Alta., July 28.—Seventy five members of the Alpine Club of Canada, and twenty-five members of the English Alpine Club will start a fortnight's engagement at Mount Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies to-day. Most of the members arrived in Edmonton on Saturday and left for the encampment the same night.

Mount Robson is 13,068 feet above the sea level, and has only once been climbed. The climb has been made by The Rev. G. B. Kinney and Donald Phillips, who are attending the present camp.

Two members of the English Alpine club, Capt. G. P. Farrar, editor of the English Alpine Journal, and Mr. A. L. Mumm, another member of the English Alpine Club, will race for the summit, making the ascent from opposite sides.

FORMAL OPENING OF MOUNT ROBSON PARK.

In 1911 the Alpine club of Canada had an expedition to Mount Robson and surveyed about twelve hundred square miles of the country in this region. On the present occasion they will find the safest and least difficult ascent of the peak.

The present camp also sees the formal opening of the park to tourists, and Mr. W. W. Foster, deputy Minister of Public Works for British Columbia, is attending the camp with the intention of directing subsequent survey work which will be done to open up roads in the park for tourists.

GHASTLY TRAGEDY ON ALBERTA FARM; FAMILY KILLED

Rumsey, Alb., July 28.—At noon on Sunday George Robinson, a prosperous farmer, of the Rumsey district, was found lying in his own home with the top of his head blown completely off. Across his body was a Winchester shot gun. Opposite him on the floor was the body of his wife, shot through the right breast, her face bruised and beaten almost beyond recognition.

In the kitchen the 12-year-old son of the couple was found shot to death, while on bed in the rear bedroom was the body of their 3-year-old daughter, her head blown completely off. Three empty shells were found on the floor of the house and a fourth in the gun.

Furniture was overturned and there was evidence of a fierce fight found in every room.

SITE FOR CANADA'S FIRST MORMON TEMPLE.

Lethbridge, Alta., July 28.—The site for the first Mormon temple to be built outside the United States was dedicated at Cardston yesterday by some of the leading men of the church of Utah.

The main theme of President Smith's address during the day was the assurance to the world that nothing would be carried on in the temple that would be contrary to the law of the land. He also strongly emphasized the excellence of British institutions, British government, British law and British justice.

Alarming Results of Hair Neglect

Accept the Help of Seven Days' Free "Hair-Drill."

"The results of hair neglect are most alarming"—so says Mr. Edwards, the leading Court Toilet Specialist of the day, and inventor of "Harlene Hair-Drill," regarding which he makes an extraordinary free offer.

Secondly, it is situated in the most exposed part of your body and feels the full attack of the destructive germs which fill the atmosphere.

THE DANGER.

The result of neglecting to "drill" your hair daily is that deposits of scurf and greasy matter accumulate on the scalp.

Here they set up a diseased condition of the hair-growing structures and squeeze the hair roots to death.

Then it becomes either dry and brittle, or greasy, dull and dead-looking.

The third stage in the disorder generally is that your hair begins to lose its color and rapidly turns grey.

The fourth stage is the falling out of your hair in large quantities every time you brush or comb it.

Further, you are probably tormented by an almost intolerable itching of the scalp, due to the presence of irritating greasy matter and decaying debris in the hair follicles, while steadily your hair is getting worse, scantier, thinner, and more unattractive looking every day.

These are the results of hair-neglect. To care for your hair properly and scientifically is so easy, and its results are so gratifying.

Everybody has heard of "Harlene Hair-Drill." Over a million men and women practise it every day from Royalty downwards.

Applied to scanty, thin hair, within a few weeks the lady or gentleman or child who uses it is surprised with the result.

To prove the value of Harlene "Hair-Drill" to you, Mr. Edwards will send you a complete outfit for practising it free!

This Free Trial Outfit includes:—

1. A trial bottle of the world-famous tonic dressing for your hair—Edwards' "Harlene."

2. A packet of the exquisite "Cremex" Shampoo Powder for cleansing the scalp, dissolving surf deposits.

3. A copy of the "Harlene Hair-Drill" Manual containing full directions for practising 2 minutes daily Hair Drill. Harlene and Cremex may be obtained from all chemists, or sent direct, on receipt of P. O. money order.

FREE COUPON.

Dear Sirs—Please send me a Harlene Hair Drill" Gift Outfit, for growing healthy hair."

To the Lady who Always Dresses in Black

On Tuesday we are going to place on sale just 350 yards of Silk and Wool Dress Materials, which up till quite recently were $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75.

Now, these are not mourning goods, because they are a little too fancy for mourning, but there is a dignified class of women, who by preference wear black all the year round, and to that class we want to appeal.

These materials are cool, beautiful, good in their designs and permanent in their dye. We feel that there has not been anything just like them ever offered before at so very humble a price as .45. They are Black Striped Voiles, Black Striped Marquisette, Black Embroidered Marquisettes, Black Spot Marquisettes and Black Striped Voiles.

Remember, they are worth to-day as they were yesterday $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75.. WHILE THEY LAST ON TUESDAY A YARD, .45

—Ground Floor, West Centre Division.

QUEBEC ARSENAL AFFAIRS IN BAD STATE OF NEGLECT

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 28.—Further details have been given out with regard to the report, recently summarized in the Star, of the investigation by a board of officers into the conduct and operations of the Dominion arsenal at Quebec. As stated at the time, twelve million rounds of ammunition were found defective and condemned, involving a financial loss of $300,000, while conditions of a wholly unsatisfactory character, with respect to the institution and its methods, were disclosed. A reorganization of the staff has since been made, Col. Gaudet, the director of the Arsenal, retiring and being replaced by Major Lafferty.

More detailed information in regard to the Commission's report, now available, shows that for several years there were suspicions that the Arsenal was not wholly satisfactory, but events occurring in September of last year brought the matter to a head.

It was then discovered that the Arsenal, which should have had a six months' supply of cordite in advance, had run out of it altogether. This was not replenished till March last. In the meantime, however, the Arsenal continued to manufacture other component parts—cases and bullets and enough to fill seven million rounds were made at a cost of $175,000. When the cordite was eventually secured and inserted there were very frequent "flow-backs" to the breech. The ammunition being obviously unsafe, Lt.-Col. E. W. B. Morrison., D. S. A., Director of Artillery, was sent to Quebec to investigate.

It soon became apparent that there was carelessness in the manufacture, while the machines were not properly kept up. The examination showed very perfunctory methods of examination of the output.

SHELLS WOULD NOT GO INTO GUNS.

Defects were next discovered in the making of the 18-pounder shells for the new quick-firing field gun. Seven thousand of these shells had been made up without a round being fired. Instead, the British-made shells were used wholly at practice. On examination it was established that not one of the shells would pass the prescribed guage tests and there were obvious defects as to size and make up.

In consequence, a firing test was held at St. Joachim on ranges of 1,000 and 2,400 yards only, though the new guns are well able to fire 5,500 or 6,000 yards. The British shells acted perfectly, but of the Quebec-made article, of which seventy-five were tested, fifteen shells could not be got into the guns at all and the remaining sixty, despite the short range, were exceedingly inaccurate in flight.

The conditions in the shell factory were thus disclosed to be as bad as in the small-arm ammunition department, where $175,000 worth was unsafe.

At this juncture the Minister of Militia secured the assistance of Col. Sir H. W. W. Barlow, Superintendent of the Royal Laboratory, and Capt. Gordon Ogilvie, Inspector of Arms at Woolwich. These officers came out to Quebec and their enquiry fully confirmed Col. Morrison's discovery.

Steps were then taken to ascertain how long the dies had been in bad condition, and sample boxes of ammunition were sent in from different depots.

The tests, which were conducted by Col. Harsten and Major Swift, Inspectors of Small Arms Ammunition, showed unsatisfactory conditions of the bulk of it and led to the condemnation of twelve million rounds.

The rest of the supply was saved by a technical design of Mr. Sydney Newton, of the Arsenal staff, which obviates the danger of a blow-back. There will thus be a salvage of several hundred thousand dollars' worth of material.

DISREGARD OF SPECIFICATIONS.

Carless disregard of the specifications of manufacture of blank ammunition was also established. Instead of the outer edge of the cartridge being crimped over it was tamped down to an unusual extent and would have been exceedingly dangerous to use in case of sham battles, for which, nominally, the supply is intended.

As stated previously, it is expected to save considerable of the Artillery ammunition by regrinding and otherwise improving the shells, and they will be tested at Petewawa next month. Hereafter, all the packing of cartridges will be done outside the Arsenal. It has been the custom, hitherto, to box the cartridges at the factory and to send out for test what ammunition was selected. The inspectional staff will now choose itself what cartridges are to be tested.

Mayor Lafferty, the recently appointed Superintendent of the Arsenal, served in South Africa with distinction and recently spent two years in an advanced course at Woolwich.

THREE MEN FALL 3,500 FEET TO DEATH.

St. Maurice, Switzerland, July 28.—A terrible sight was seen from Salvan last night. Three Alpine climbers were observed to be in difficulties and then to drop 3,500 feet off the Salliores tower of the Dent-du-Midi. The mountain climbers are believed to have been Frenchmen who ascended the peak without a guide, despite warnings of danger.

BEATS ATTITUDE RECORD.

Bath, N. Y., July 28.—Frank Burnside, flying in a biplane, on Saturday broke Lincoln Beachy's American altitude record of 11,680 feet, made in Chicago two years ago, by attaining a height of 12,950 feet.

Burnside, who lives in Oneonta, was in the air for an hour and forty-six minutes, flying over a six miles course from Bath to Savona. He wore winter clothing, but suffered intensely from cold.

The temperature in Bath was 92 degrees, but Burnside's thermometer showed 30 when he was at record height.

Workman's Death Accidental.

The Coroner's jury found on Saturday that Michael Lamelli killed by a boiler explosion at the Canadian Car and Foundry Company on Friday, died an accidental death.

MRS. VANNALTON INJURED WHEN AUTO HIT TRAM

Was Thrown to Pavement — Other Accidents Over the Week-end.

Several automobile and motor boat accidents were recorded over the week-end.

One happened on Ontario street, near the corner of Joliette street, yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Vannalton was thrown from her husband's motor car to the pavement.

At first it was thought she had received but minor injuries, but during the night she became delirious, and it was found necessary to remove her to Hotel Dieu to be operated upon. She sustained several broken ribs and injuries to her head.

Mr. Vannalton, who keeps a liquor store at 2108 Ontario street, east, was slightly injured.

The car collided with a trolley of the Ontario line with such force as to throw Mrs. Vannalton to the street. Two of the wheels were torn from the auto.

Paul Gascon, living at 731 Henri Julien street, suffered a bad cut over one eye, and other slight injuries yesterday morning when knocked down by an automobile at the corner of St. Denis and Rachel streets. The motor car was driven by its owner, Louis G. Remington, of 421 St. Hubert street. The victim of the accident was taken to his home in the car, but the physician who attended Gascon stated his injuries were not serious.

Edward Laballe, of Lachine, was badly burned about the face and arms by a fire which started on his motor boat, the Lachine Roy, yesterday morning. He was working under the deck, emptying the gasoline tank, at the time. The Lachine fire brigade, under Chief Robert, flooded the boat.

SOUTH AFRICA NOW FACES GENERAL STRIKE.

Johannesburg, July 28.—The mine situation here again has become grave. There is a danger of a general strike throughout South Africa, the miners being completely dissatisfied with the concessions offered them by the mine owners and the government. It is feared now that a settlement of the trouble is impossible.

Brockville Boat House Burns.

Brockville, Ont., July 28.—A Saturday night fire resulted in the destruction of a large boat house on the river front owned by George Marron, of Owen Sound and occupied by Booth Bros. A launch and several skiffs were also consumed, together with a portion of the C.P.R. pier, which extends out into the river at that point.

CITY SWELTERED IN CLAMMY HEAT DURING WEEK-END

Montreal sweltered during the week-end in a clammy heat that sent thousands to the parks and open spaces. Fletcher's Field was like a monster picnic ground. Every seat was taken and several hundreds used the tables scattered among the trees, for their outdoor refreshments.

But the day was not the hottest of the year. The maximum temperature was 84.6 as against 91 degrees on July 4 of the present year. Nor was the humidity—53—so heavy, as one might have been led to believe. But there was an almost total absence of wind in the hotter times of the day. The strong breezes of Saturday had died down to a calm that left the Montrealer gasping. On Saturday too, the maximum temperature was 76, or eight degrees lower than yesterday's figure.

The later hours yesterday showed an improvement. The wind rose again and touched as high as sixteen miles an hour, while the temperature fell until at 8 o'clock this morning, the down-town thermometer registered 78.

At only two points in Canada was a higher temperature registered. Kamloops gloried in a variation between 60 and 90, and Moose Jaw stewed between 75 and 96.

Minimum and maximum temperatures were: Victoria 54, 70; Vancouver, 54, 74; Kamloops, 62, 90; Calgary, 42, 82; Edmonton, 42, 75; Battleford, 46, 76; Moose Jaw 75, 96; Regina, 36, 73; Winnipeg, 48, 72; Port Arthur, 50, 78; Toronto, 55, 80; Kingston, 60, 80; Ottawa, 54, 84; Montreal, 58, 84; Quebec, 58, 76; Halifax, 54, 64.

AUSTRIA TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT TORONTO THIS YEAR.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 28.—Word has been received at the Canadian National Exhibition office that the Austrian exhibit was shipped from Trieste on July 20. The exhibit, which has been arranged by the Vienna Chamber of Commerce, and which will be in charge of Messrs. J. Landau and A. Von Liebscher, will consist of the products of sixty Austrian factories, and will occupy a space of 75 by 32 feet in the industrial building.

MANIFESTATION OF IMPERIAL UNITY.

Toronto, July 28.— The Canadian branch of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society, has sent the following telegram to Capt. Halsey, of the battleship New Zealand, at Victoria, B.C.

"Canadian branch of the British and Foreign Sailors' Society sends hearty greetings. Your coming is a splendid manifestation of Imperial unity, of which your ship is an effective symbol."

Killed When Hydro-Aeroplane Falls.

Toulouse, France, July 28. — M. Chambenois, an aviator, was killed on Sunday near Hauterive when a hydro-aeroplane he was driving fell.
