750 PERSONS ESCAPE FROM WATERY GRAVE.

C. P. R. Steamer Mount Temple Wrecked on Iron Bound Island, Off Nova Scotia—Cable Stretched To Land And People Conveyed To Shore In Basket—Fierce Storm Raged.

Halifax, N.S., December 3.—The annals of the sea contain few stories of more remarkable escapes from death than that to be recorded of the Canadian Pacific Steamship Mount Temple, which Sunday night struck on Iron Bound Island, at the mouth of La Havre River, and which will be a total loss. The steamship had 600 passengers and a crew of 150 men, but, though in awful peril for many hours, and subject to the extremity of exposure and privation for many hours more, no one perished. Their lives were saved, but by only a hair's breadth.

The Mount Temple was bound from Antwerp to St. John. Off this coast a terrific southeast snowstorm raged. It caught the Mount Temple at its height, when at three o'clock the C. P. R. liner was off La Havre River, about sixty miles west of this port. The snow was so thick that it was impossible to see a half length ahead. Captain Boothby, who was in command of the Mount Temple, made the land at Lunenburg, two miles west of Iron Bound. He did not know just where he was, but he saw that he had no business there. He knew he must be many miles off his course. At once the ship was turned. The blinding snow becoming yet thicker as the Mount Temple got around, she struck again and remained hard and fast. As the steamship grounded, a tremendous sea washed over her decks, smashing the boats and leaving only half of them fit for service. But no boat could have lived in that sea anyway.

Guns were fired and rockets discharged, in the hope of attracting attention and getting succor from the shore. They were heard on the land but nothing could be done, either ashore or on board, and a long wait began till daylight. Then the precipitous bands of land were seen not more than 75 feet away. The captain made it out to be Iron Bound, an island at the mouth of La Havre, on which only two families live, and they about three-quarters of a mile from the wreck. The sea was running tremendously and the wind was yet high, but it showed signs of moderating, and it was deemed impossible to use the boats that were left in sending the passengers ashore. Their terror was great as they looked out on the broad Atlantic on one side and the great gulf between them and the high cliffs of Iron Bound on the other.

Captain Boothby saw that his living freight could not be got ashore by the boats. It was impossible to lower the passengers down the steep sides of the liner to the surging water below. He determined to try landing them by basket, rigged by a peaches buoy from the ship's rail to the top of the cliff. A brave crew manned one of the boats, and, with almost superhuman efforts, at last succeeded in getting a cable from the ship to the shore at the foot of the cliff. With eager eyes the 600 passengers watched the efforts of the seamen, hope mingled with fear, and when at last the men made the cable secure on the landward end, there was a cheer from the ship's passengers that mingled with the wind that still blew strongly, and with the roar of the surf on the rocky shore.

Quickly the cable was made fast. Suspended from it was a basket with ropes connecting with the ship and the shore. Captain Boothby ordered that the women and children should first go ashore by the basket, which was high above the waves and was, infinitely less perilous than making the passage by boats, for by this time it was found that the boats also could be used. Two women and a child were the first to make the passage on the aerial road to the shore, and safely. The inhabitants of Iron Bound had come to the help of the sailors and they worked the landward end of the basket road, while a score of sailors looked after the lines on the ship. To and fro went the basket, sometimes carrying two passengers, and when they were small carrying three. Meanwhile the boats were got to work. The sea was subsiding and the men were sent down the long ladder over the ship's side to the boat tossing below, and they were boarded with much trouble. Hour after hour this work went on, the officers and crew were at it from 10 o'clock till 5 yesternoon, and when the seven hours had passed the 630 men, women and children were on Iron Bound.

TAKEN FROM THE ISLAND.

It was only less difficult to get the people off the island than it had been to get them ashore from the Mount Temple. The steamer Trusty came down the river for the people, but she could not get within 100 feet of the island, and it was slow work getting them off by boats.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, thirteen hours after the steamship struck, the Trusty started up the river with 150 on board, leaving 480 to pass the night on the island as best they could.

The escape of all hands from death is simply owing to the fact that the Mount Temple struck so close to the island that it was impossible to stretch the life cable across to the top of the cliff, and that the steamship remained immovable. Had she slid off into the water, all must almost certainly have perished.

The Mount Temple is a four-masted steel twin screw steamer of 9,000 tons gross register. She was built in 1901 at Newcastle-on-Tyne by Armstrong, Whitworth & Co., and engined by the Wallsend Slipway Company, Limited. She is 485 feet long, 59 feet beam, and 30.4 depth of hold, and is classed 100 A.1 at Lloyd's. She was built for the Elder-Dempster Company, and was engaged in carrying mules and horses to South Africa during the Boer War. She was acquired by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company in 1903, and, with the exception of one season, when she was engaged in the Liverpool-Montreal trade, has been employed on the Canadian-London and Antwerp run. She is under the command of Capt. Boothby, an experienced navigator, and carried a crew of about 150 strong.

She has 2,500 tons of cargo on board.

NEWS FROM THE COURT HOUSE.

Judgment In Cookshire Case By Judge Demers.

PLAINTIFF WINS IN BONNALLIE MILLS CASE—ACTION FOR $10,000 TAKEN AGAINST C. P. R.

Mr. Justice Demers has rendered judgment in the case of Jules Leblanc vs. Phillipe Barbeau, both of Cookshire. This was an action whereby the plaintiff contended that there was a balance due him of $252.07 in connection with a contract that he had with the defendant for pulpwood. The defendant contended that there had been arrangement between the parties whereby it was agreed that the balance due was only $148, and the defendant tendered this amount before the action was taken. The plaintiff repudiated all knowledge of this arrangement and sued for the first named amount. The court held that the arrangement mentioned had been proven and that the tender of $148 was a good one, and dismissed plaintiff's action with costs.

H. BOSSIE VS. E. BACHAND.

This was an action whereby the plaintiff sought the defendant to sign a deed transferring a saw mill and other property at Bonnallie's Mills. A deed had been prepared by a notary, and the plaintiff had signed the same, but the defendant refused to do so, basing his refusal on the ground that after the deed had been drawn up a private arrangement had been come to between the parties whereby $1900 was to be paid before the property was transferred. The notarial deed states that the first payment of $500 was to be made on the 1st of May, 1908, and the final payment on the 1st of May, 1909. The Court held that the plaintiff's pretensions were proven and maintained the action with costs.

TAKES ACTION AGAINST C. P. R.

Mr. C. C. Capana, advocate, on behalf of the widow of the late Patrick Shannon has taken out an action against the C.P.R. for $10,000 on the ground that the plaintiff's husband came by his death through the fault and negligence of the company. It will be remembered that the late Patrick Shannon received such injuries while working in a sand pit belonging to the company at Milletta, that he died shortly afterwards.

DAIRY BOARD SESSION AT COWANSVILLE.

Board Will Assist Factories in Claims Against C. P. R. for Loss Through Delay.

NO CHEESE OFFERED FOR SALE—850 PACKAGES OF BUTTER BOARDED — RULING PRICE 25¾c.

Cowansville, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—The last session of the Dairy Board for 1907 took place Saturday afternoon in the Town Hall with a good attendance, President Thomas L. Burnet being in the chair and Vice-President A. J. Bouchard, of Bedford, selling the goods.

There was of course no cheese offered for sale, but 850 packages of butter were boarded, and the most of it sold for 25¾c. per pound, while some refused these prices and some sold for a quarter of a cent less.

A discussion took place relative to the many claims against the C. P. R. for loss sustained by delayed delivery of goods during last summer months, and it was finally decided by the Board to encourage any individual factory, thus having suffered, to make a test case of one of these instances and this encouragement took the form of an offer of $30 towards costs in case of lack of success in the case to be undertaken.

THE DISTRIBUTION OF SEED GRAIN.

Annual Announcment is Made From Ottawa.

SAMPLES OF POTATOES WILL ALSO BE ISSUED.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—By instruction of the Hon. Minister of Agriculture a distribution is being made this season of samples of superior sorts of grain and potatoes to Canadian farmers for the improvement of seed. The stock for distribution has been secured mainly from the Experimental Farms at Indian Head, Sask., and Brandon, Man. The samples consist of oats, spring wheat, barley, Indian corn (for ensilage only) and potatoes. The quantity of oats sent is 4 lbs., and of wheat or barley 5 lbs., sufficient in each case to sow one-twentieth of an acre. The samples of Indian corn and potatoes weigh 3 lbs. each. A quantity of each of the following varieties has been secured for this distribution:

Oats—Banner, Wide-Awake, White Giant, Danish Island, Thousand Dollar, Improved Ligowo, all white varieties. Black oats are not recommended for general cultivation, a few samples, however, are available which can be sent if specially asked for.

Wheat—Red Fife (beardless); Preston, Pringle's Champlain and Huron (early bearded sorts; Percy and Stanley (early beardless varieties).

Barley—Six-rowed—Mensury, Odessa, Mansfield and Claude. Two-rowed—Standwell, Invincible, Canadian Thorpe and Sidney.

Indian corn (for ensilage) — Early sorts, Angel of Midnight, Compton's Early and Longfellow; later varieties, Selected Leaming, Early Mastodon and White Cap Yellow Dent.

Potatoes—Early varieties, Early White Prize and Rochester Rose. Medium to late varieties, Carman No. 1 and Late Puritan. These later varieties are as a rule more productive than the earlier kinds.

Only one sample can be sent to each applicant, hence if an individual receives a sample of oats he cannot also receive one of wheat, barley, Indian corn or potatoes. Lists of names from one individual, or applications for more than one sample for one household, cannot be entertained. The samples will be sent free of charge through the mail.

Applications should be addressed to the Director of Experimental Farms, Ottawa, and may be sent in any time before the 15th of February, after which the lists will be closed, so that the samples asked for may be sent out in good time for sowing. Applicants should mention the variety they prefer, with a second sort as an alternative. Applications will be filled in the order in which they are received, so long as the supply of seed lasts. Farmers are advised to apply early to avoid possible disappointment. Those applying for Indian corn or potatoes should bear in mind that the corn is not usually distributed until April, and that potatoes cannot be mailed from here until danger from frost in transit is over. No postage is required on mail matter addressed to the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

FIRE AT FARNHAM.

Milliner's Store And Dwelling Burned.

PROMPT ACTION OF BRIGADE SAVED OTHER BUILDINGS FROM IGNITING.

Farnham, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—What might have resulted in a most disastrous fire occurred Sunday evening about 8 a.m., when fire was discovered in the millinery store and dwelling occupied by Madame E. Choquette, immediately adjoining the Balmoral block. The brigade, under the leadership of Fire Chief Fairfield, responded quickly to the alarm, and by their good work succeeded in confining the fire to the building in which it originated. Had the flames got into the Balmoral block it would have been a serious catastrophe.

The tenants had gone for a drive in the country and were away from home when the fire was discovered. It is supposed to have caught from the stove pipe.

THINGS BOOMING AT FOSTER.

Foster, Dec. 3, (Special)— Owing to the exceptionally fine condition of the roads together with the fine weather, business is booming at Foster, and a stranger coming into the place would think it market day to see so many people and teams driving in all directions, some loaded and others looking for loads. Why cry hard times; so far I do not think that Foster can complain and it is very doubtful indeed if anyone in the Townships can really say that they are experiencing hard times. There are always some "croakers" ready to catch at anything disagreeable and try to paint everything black. Don't cry before you are hurt.

The prospects are that Foster station yard will be more crowded with wood this year than ever, as there are many men cutting great quantities of pulp and other wood for shipping. Amongst those who are doing business on a large scale are Mr. E. C. Inglis, Mr. J. S. Neil, Mr. H. S. Wing, Mr. H. A. Bullis, Mr. Ed. Doe and others.

HOME-MADE MEDICINE

Said to Relieve Kidney Trouble and Rheumatism

One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion;
One ounce Compound Salatone;
Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla;

Mixed and taken in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime, is stated by a prominent physician to give most excellent results in kidney or urinary afflictions, and also in rheumatism and sciatica. The mixture opens the clogged pores of the kidneys, thus assisting them in their work of filtering all waste and poisonous matter from the blood, and expels these in the urine. To allow this poisonous matter to remain means that it will settle in the muscular tissues or joints, and cause the untold misery known as rheumatism.

The mixture is composed of harmless vegetable ingredients which can be purchased at any good drug store, and mixed at home.

Anyone suffering from any of these afflictions will no doubt be pleased to learn of so simple and highly recommended remedy.

COMMENTS ON EASTERN TOWNSHIPS HAPPENINGS.

A petition is being circulated in Magog asking the government for aid towards carrying on a night school in that town during the coming winter.

It is to the credit of the people of Magog that such a petition is being circulated, and it will be to the credit of the government if it is granted. In a manufacturing town like Magog a night school is of great benefit. There is many a young fellow, and in fact some of quite mature years who can better their position in life through study. If there are those who are willing to study during the evening hours there should be some means for so doing put at their disposal. If proof of the benefit of a night school were needed that of Sherbrooke under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. would furnish the proof.

Mr. Justice Lynch in his address to the Grand Jury at the opening of the Criminal Court at Sweetsburg a few days ago, expressed the fear that the doing away with the necessity of kissing the Bible in taking the oath might also do away with something of its force and sanctity. While this should not be, I fancy that the Judge's fears are well grounded. The present form of oath is more formal that that which it replaced. Perjury is more common in this Province than it should be and much more common than it would be if it were more easy to secure a conviction for the crime. To get a man convicted of perjury the judge and jury must be convinced that he committed the offence wilfully, and there are so many ways in which a man's possible good faith can be proved that it is very difficult to get a jury to say guilty after having heard a charge of perjury.

I notice that a subscription list is being circulated in Compton to raise funds for the purchase of a force pump and other fire fighting equipment. At first thought one would wonder why private individuals are being asked to provide the funds for this apparatus instead of it being provided by the council. Second thought would suggest as a reason the fact that boundaries of the village are large and that a great many of the rate payers are farmers who would get no benefit from the fire protection. These would likely object to helping pay for the property of the village rate payers. The council would therefore likely hesitate before dispensing the funds of the municipality. And yet those concerned are doubtless wise in paying the money out of their own pockets to protect their own property.

And now the blacksmiths are combining. At a meeting of the leading blacksmiths of the County of Shefford held at Waterloo recently a blacksmiths' association was organized and bylaws and constitution adopted. A schedule of prices for all kinds of work was agreed upon and is to be printed and posted up in the blacksmith and carriage shops of the members. There is a better prospect of the rates agreed upon by the blacksmiths' association being lived up to by the members than of many other organizations who attempt a similar thing. In the country parts there is not generally more than one blacksmith's shop at each four corners and competition is not there so keen. The temptation to cut the price arises when there is competition.

I notice that three young ladies from Sherbrooke, viz., Misses Clara Hyndman, Doris Stevens and Alice Armitage have received the International certificate for successful work in last season's Knowlton Conference. Considering the rank of this conference such a certificate is no small honor. It may not be generally known, and yet it is a fact that this Knowlton Conference ranks among the great Sunday School Conferences of the continent. The executive has been very fortunate in obtaining the services of some of the most distinguished leaders in the realm of Sunday School work to deliver lectures and addresses at their annual conferences. I observe that the State of Vermont has been annexed for the purposes of this convention and next year provision must be made for visitors not only from Quebec but from this State across the border.

A contemporary announces that there was a panic in Granby a few evenings ago. It was caused by the going out of the electric lights and the circulation of a report to the effect that it would be three weeks before there could be light. There was also a somewhat similar panic in Coaticook about the same time, also caused by the burning out of a dynamo and a report to the effect that there would be no lights for three days. It is quite true that we do not always appreciate our blessings until we lose them. After having enjoyed the luxury of electric lights for a time it seems almost impossible to go back to the kerosene lamp. It is to the credit of both these municipalities that they arranged so quickly to restore light.

In Granby an expert from Montreal made the necessary repairs and the council has since installed a new dynamo. In Coaticook an old discarded dynamo was brought into use again and the council has since done what Granby did, that is, purchased a new dynamo. It is not likely there will be cause for panic from the same reason in either of these enterprising towns for some time to come.

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE MAGOG SEPARATION CASE.

Editor of Record:

Sir,—In your issue of Nov. 27th last you publish an item under the heading, "Court's Good Advice to Young Husband," which in my mind is not exact.

In the first place the Court did not as therein written state that plaintiff had no case, but on the contrary, after hearing the attorneys on the question of law, the Court ordered the case to go on, and it was upon an application made by my attorney that the case was put off until January to give defendant an opportunity to prove that she was sincere in her offer to join her husband.

In the second place, I wish to deny all statements made against me in this article, and more particularly that part of the article in which I am said to have used violence toward my wife.

I hope, Mr. Editor, that in justice to myself, you will give this letter space in your widely circulated paper.

Thanking you, I remain,
Yours,
E. A. AUGER.

Magog, Nov. 30th, 1907.

NORTH COATICOOK THREATENS TO SECEDE.

Editor of Record;

Dear Sir,—We understand that an application will likely be made to the Legislature in the near future for a charter to incorporate the Village of North Coaticook. It is regrettable that the ties of friendship and business that have existed for so long in the town of Coaticook should be so roughly torn asunder; but if you will kindly allow us space in your valuable paper for a few explanations of the treatment received by this ward, we think that all people will agree that we have indisputable grounds for divorce.

Some fifteen years ago all the streets leading to the ward from Upper Town, and the main streets in the ward, had good sidewalks. To-day with the sole exception of three or four hundred feet on Riverdale street, there is not a square foot of walk on Compton street leading to the ward or in the ward itself. Starting at the upper electric light station on Compton street leading to the north ward we first come to the Sash & Door Factory of Messrs. Cummings & Son, Limited. For perhaps one hundred feet along this part of the road a couple of planks have been laid down about two feet apart and the intervening space filled with clay. After a storm this makes a beautiful representation of a brickyard walk. From this piece of so called walk we have no other till we arrive at Messrs. Hopkins Bros. Mill, some 100 yards further down. Just below this mill there is a couple of hundred feet of board walk presumably put in to prevent the road shelving into the river. Below the Cascade Narrow Fabric Companies Plant a new piece of walk twenty-five or thirty feet long has been put in. This piece of walk is lower than the roadway with no means provided for the water to run underneath. After an ordinary shower of rain the mud and water are several inches deep on top of the planks. A little further down some two hundred feet of plank and gravel were put in making a fair walk, but by authority of the Road Committee a Mr. Durand, owner of property on the opposite side of the road from the walk, was allowed to grade his land into the road. This land being composed of fine garden soil simply made in the road about fifteen or twenty inches of the worst kind of mud. No teamster would drive through it, but drove on and over the sidewalk, so that now there is little of the walk left. Further down we come to the corner at Constable Keenan's. Here a wooden bridge was torn down and supposedly permanent work in the way of stone substituted. The builders, however, failed to provide a watercourse for the little stream that crosses the road at this point. The water has to percolate through the stone work and in consequence part of the wall has caved in from time to time it is necessary to dump in half a dozen loads of gravel to make the road passable at this point. To-day, there is a basin fifteen by twenty feet into which sleighs slide in turning the corner. A broken sleigh would mean damages for the town to pay. The lowest part of this basin or lake is the sidewalk. We now come to the entrace to the ward. We might go on ad-infinitum about the roads in the ward, We can't say anything about the sidewalks, because there isn't any to speak of. However, there is another grievance. Some time ago we petitioned the Council to remove the arc lights in our part of the town, and substitute incandescent as the arc lights were so situated that they cast more shadow than light. This they were kind enough to do, but through accident we were deprived of light for some four weeks. We bore this uncomplainingly, as we are always willing to carry our share of the burdens. But, Sir, an accident happens to the machine supplying lights to the other parts of the town. Immediately, we are again deprived of lights so that those parts of the town where there are arc lights can also have the incandescent.

Truly, unto him that hath, it shall be added unto and unto him that hath not, even that which "he thought he had" shall be taken away.

In the face of the above facts if we are not granted a divorce with costs for the defendant, then, Sir, there is no law or justice for the down-trodden in the British Empire.

Thanking you, I beg to sign as one of the

The Gleaners Society of the Methodist church gave a very interesting entertainment Friday evening in the lecture hall of the church which was well attended. The programme consisted in part of several well rendered selections by an orchestra led by Dr. Bloomfield; vocal solos by Miss Alberta Campbell, and Miss Nellie Armitage, and a pretty violin solo by a little girl, Miss Gladys Howard. The piece of the evening, however, was entitled "Sunbonnets," being presented by ten or more young ladies of the society which elicited well merited applause from the audience. The "make up" of those taking part was very good and not overdone. The young ladies have been urged to repeat the piece by Princess Lodge, D. of R. some time about the middle of the month.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sherbrooke, S.P.C.A. was held yesterday afternoon at the Y.M.C.A. building, those present being Mr. F. P. Buck, President; Mr. W. S. Dresser, Vice-President; Mr. George E. Borlase, Secretary; Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Powers and others. Four cases of alleged cruelty had been brought to the attention of the society since the last meeting as follows: A complaint of a man in Huntingville, who was said to be beating and ill-treating his horse. Investigation showed that the animal was well treated and had a sufficiency of food. Another individual was accused of driving a horse with a large sore on its hip, and whipping it. The Secretary interviewed the man in question, warned him that the horse must not be used until quite well and obtained a promise that the instructions of the S.P.C.A. should be obeyed. The third case was that of a butcher who was said to be keeping cattle out of doors night and day during the recent cold weather. The man owned that he had more cattle than he could accommodate, but said that they were well fed, and that he was disposing of them as rapidly as possible, which appears to be the case. The last case was a complaint that several colts had been left out of doors too long and were suffering. On investigation the inspector was informed by the owner that the creatures were so wild that he had found it impossible to get them into the stable, but he expected to succeed shortly. This closed the list of complaints for the month and the minor nature of the offences is a proof of the good work of the society, which is becoming "a terror to evil-doers." Warning should be taken by men engaged in drawing wood, coal, etc., that their loads are not too heavy, and their horses not overworked, as the Inspector is constantly on the watch to prevent overloading. The Secretary stated that he had ordered a number of copies of "Prince Noir," the French version of "Black Beauty," and they would be distributed where they would be likely to do the most good. The meeting then adjourned.

NAVIGATION CLOSED.

ICE FORMING FAST AT DIFFERENT POINTS ON ST. LAWRENCE.

Montreal, Dec. 2.—Yesterday saw the final close of navigation on the Lower St. Lawrence, and the impression among shipping men is that it is high time that it should, for ice is forming fast at different points in the river, and it is expected that ships will have difficulty in getting out.

The Boergsted arrived Saturday afternoon loaded with coal for the Dominion Coal Company, and her unloading was hastened with all speed. As soon as she is emptied she will be rushed out and the harbor will then be completly cleared of all shipping.

ENGLISH BARMAIDS.

WILL NOT BE LEGISLATED OUT OF EXISTENCE—MR. GLADSTONE'S CONFESSION.

London, Dec. 3. — The English barmaid is safe. At least she will not be legislated out of existence by the present Liberal Government.

The report was circulated that Home Secretary Gladstone was contemplating the inclusion of a clause in his forthcoming bill relating to the reform of the license law, that should declare the employment of girls and women in bars illegal.

A deputation accordingly waited upon the Home Secretary for the purpose of showing him that such legislation would inflict a great harm upon a large and generally deserving class of women. The deputation consisted of twelve women, nine of whom are members of the Barmaids' Political Defence League.

As membership in this association is strictly limited to women, and the association is rather deficient in the matter of orators, three women connected with the Women's Reform Movement acted as spokeswomen. One of the trio informed Mr. Gladstone that barmaids, on the whole, were better paid and better looked after than women of any other trade followed by Englishwomen.

Mr. Gladstone, in reply, said the Government realized that any drastic provisions to check, diminish, or put an end to the employment of women behind the bar might have an immediate result far more disastrous than any mischief accruing from the present system.

The Home Secretary undoubtedly is not ignorant as to what the mischiefs he spoke of in a general way would turn out to be, for in an interesting chapter of his autobiography to which he treated the barmaids' "deputation," he said:

"I have lived in this world half a century and I have not been a teetotaller, and I certainly had my full share of experience of the conditions of employment in licensed premises at one time of my life—I am not, I would have you understand, alluding to my recent years. Speaking of these earlier days, I may say there were few queer holes or dark corners in London that I did not explore.

"Indeed, I may go so far as to say that in the search for truth—as I hope it was—and of legitimate knowledge, I was brought to a knowledge of conditions which perhaps are hidden even from those whom I have the honor to address. I do not wish to exaggerate anything, but I do think there are undesirable places which are licensed, and there are conditions in certain places which are morally, physically and economically bad."

CALEDONIAN SOCIETY BANQUET.

drink it." This toast was duly honored but owing to the lateness of the hour the response which was to have been given by Mr. G. S. McFadden, was omitted.

The chairman, Mr. Dinning, in announcing the first toast, spoke of the Caledonian Society and its objects and its growth in Sherbrooke. He, also, referred to the patron saint, St. Andrew, and offered an explanation of how he came to be selected by Scotchmen as their patron. The chairman, also, introduced Principal Peterson, remarking that it was twelve years since he had been in Sherbrooke. That was soon after entering upon his duties in Canada as the head of one of the world's great educational institutions, a position which he had filled so successfully.

Principal Peterson, in reply, spoke briefly, but eloquently. He presumed that all present were his Scottish kinsfolk. Some might be Canadian born, but they were no worse for that. All persons of Scottish birth and kinship were held together in a bond of unity. Why were Scotchmen so patriotic? No matter where they roamed, Scotland was with them still. They were inclined to believe, as the Romans, that Scotland is the whole world and all the world is Scotch. The Scottish people were distinctive, they had their kilts, heather, pipes, and some their whiskey, too. The Scotchman combined worldliness and piety, stinginess and generosity, prejudice and open-mindedness. There was never a finer land under the sun, than Scotland. It must have taken a lot of planning to produce Scotland. Her glens, rivers, lochs, valleys, fields, were unrivalled. Scotchmen could not break the bonds which held them to the old land. They were sometimes accused of excessive self laudation but this was forced upon them owing to the failure of other peoples to appreciate their merits. The Scotchman was undemonstrative and he was clannish. Scenery, poetry, song, history, had all gone to mould the national character. Principal Peterson proceeded further to analyze the Scottish character, and concluded that all these characteristics combined to make them not only loyal to the land they had left, but to the land of their adoption, Scotchmen were citizens of the world. The Romans had built a wall across Britain to keep the Caledonians back. It had long since crumbled away and after annexing England, the Scotchman had extended to Canada, the States, Australia, Africa and all were his.

Mr. P.S.G. Mackenzie, in proposing the toast to Canada, spoke at length of the work Scotchmen had accomplished in Canada. Everywhere was noticeable the imperishable imprints of their footsteps upon our soil. Without diminishing the luster and grandeur of names of men of other nationalities in Canada, he was bound to conclude that Scotchmen had taken a prominent part in the work of Canadian development. Mr. Mackenzie stated that he had been commissioned to convey to the Caledonian Society of Sherbrooke, the greetings of the St. Andrew's Society of Richmond, which held their celebration last week.

Dr. Worthington, in reply, felt obliged to admit that he was not a Scotchman, but pleaded that it was not his fault. At any rate, his father was born in Cork, a term dear to the heart of every Scotchman. He had noticed that the pastor, at the opening of the banquet, had prayed only for Scotchmen. He supposed it was taken for granted that the Irishmen did not need it. Dr. Worthington referred to the Scotchmen on the battlefields of the Empire, where they had ever been steadfast in the firing line.

The speeches in connection with the other toasts were brief but eloquent, and suitable to the occasion.

The special programme included songs by Miss Elleda Perley and Mr. F. D. Carter, Montreal, which were all encored, and Scottish dances by the Misses Bell, to music furnished by Piper Brockie. These were among the most popular features of the evening, and elicited much applause and vigorous encores.

A member of the Perriot family which gave an entertainment in Sherbrooke some time ago, was present in the person of Mr. Leo, and gave several comedy song and dance acts, which proved an amusing and popular diversion from the regular programme.

The event as in whole must be regarded as a remarkable success. Mr. Joncas, of the Chateau Frontenac, was the caterer.

The present officers of the Caledonian Society of Sherbrooke, are as follows: President, Neil Dinning; Vice-Presidents, D. H. McLeod, John A. Cameron; Secretary, A. S. Dunsmore; Treasurer, W.W. Shaw; Executive Committee, J. Mackinnon (chairman), T. M. Cowan, R. I. Dean, J. P. Watson, A. W. Sangster, A. Lamont, G. S. McFadden.

BOY'S EXPERIENCE PROVES COSTLY

THREW DYNAMITE CARTRIDGE INTO THE FIRE.

Rutland, Vt., Dec. 3.—While playing Nov. 20th, around a fire made to boil swill, Willie Tibbets, of Marshfield, thought he would throw into it a cap used in exploding dynamite which he had found. The mother heard the explosion, but thinking her husband was firing his rifle, did not go out until she heard another boy crying. When she reached the scene of the accident, she found her boy upon the ground, bleeding from the eyes and nose and, she thought, dead.

Upon investigation it was found that particles of the cap were in the face and each eye, one piece having gone through the lid and entered the ball of the left eye.

CITY NEWS

The new firm of Ewing and Cross, successors to R. A. Ewing, wholesale leathers dealers, Sherbrooke, is registered. The members of the firm are R. A. Ewing and W. G. Cross.

The concert of the Lennoxville Music Club last evening was well rendered and thoroughly enjoyed, an excellent programme being furnished. The opening number, piano duet, from "Dinorah," arranged by E. Humperdinck, was brilliantly played by Hon. Mrs. Aylmer and Mrs. McKindsey. Miss Edwards of Sherbrooke sang Hawley's charming ballad, "Greeting," very sweetly and was appreciatively received, and Mr. Grant was very successful in his two selections, "Drake's Drum," and later on "The Devout Lover." For an encore he gave a comic song, which was vociferously applauded. A piano solo, "Morceau Brilliant," (L. Streabbog) was interpreted by the Misses Jones, White and Mallory, with fine spirit and true expression. Mr. Gibson's musicianly rendering of the exquisite "Moonlight Sonata," (Beethoven) will not soon be forgotten so perfect was it of insight and poetic feeling, and his second number, "Petit Berceau," (Robina) displayed his versatility and mastery of the instrument. (a) "Heidelberg," and (b) "Goodnight Ladies," vocal quartette was accordingly sung by Messrs. Black, Heppenstall, Harding and Lewis. "God Save the King" closed the evening.

on congratulations on the occasion. Mr. Elkins' recollections extend back to the early days of Sherbrooke when it was a handful of fifty wooden buildings surrounded on all sides by dense forests. He has lived to see it a flourishing enterprising city, the Queen of the Eastern townships and has always taken a lively interest in all the questions affecting the welfare of the city, his influence always being on the right side. Mr. Elkins is still vigorous in mind and body and now in the honored evening of his days, esteemed and respected by all who know him, is enjoying the peace and happiness that follow a well spent life.

REV. DR. SHAW ON THE STAND.

Testifies In Connection With Hochelaga Fire Case.

FIRE ESCAPES, WITH SYSTEMATIC FIRE DRILL, NOT NECESSARY, REV. DR. SHAW HOLDS.

Montreal, Dec. 3.—A dramatic examination in rebuttal by Mr. F. W. Hibbard, K.C., one of the counsel for the plaintiff, of the Rev. Dr. Shaw, the chairman of the Protestant School Board, in which the reverend gentleman held that a systematic fire drill, and even an ordinary ladder extemporized in time of emergency with men to assist, afforded better protection than permanent fire escapes, such as the Baron de Hirsch Institute is provided with, constituted the chief interest at yesterday afternoon's session of the hearing of the Anderson case before Mr. Justice Davidson, in the Superior Court.

The evidence of Rev. Dr. Shaw showed that although the Protestant School Board had been ordered on two separate occasions by the civic authorities to equip Hochelaga School with fire escapes, namely, on the 11th of December, 1902, and on the 16th of November, 1906, or only a few months before the calamity, nothing had been done in compliance; but Rev. Dr. Shaw said the matter was referred to a committee composed of the aldermanic members of the board, whose only action had been to make a "report of progress" on a couple of occasions. When pressed in rebuttal by Mr. Hibbard, who wanted to know how the civic orders had been dealt with by the board, and what steps had been taken to put them into effect, Rev. Dr. Shaw answered that Ald. Yates had in the last instance failed to do "what he desired or what he intended to do" in the matter.

SIX MEN DROWNED.

TWO OF PARTY OF EIGHT ESCAPE DEATH IN UPSET IN RAPIDS.

Vancouver, B.C., December 3.—Upset in the boiling waters of one of the rapids of the upper Fraser river, dashed over falls against the knife-like edges of protruding rocks, until his tortured nerves and failing strength almost made him resign himself to death, clinging all the while to a fellow woodman, whose arms were locked about him in life's last clasp, were a few of the experiences of H. McLaughlin, a timber cruiser, just returned after a summer in the wilds of interior British Columbia. That he is alive to tell the story he considers a miracle. As it was, six men were drowned. McLaughlin and his partner, John Evans, were the only survivors out of a party of seven white men and one Indian. The names of all those lost are not known to Mr. McLaughlin. They were all employed by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company in survey work, and were on their way west at the time of the catastrophe.

ZULU RISING IS FEARED.

Cape Colony Authorities Preparing To Meet Trouble.

CAPE COLONY AUTHORITIES PREPARING TO MEET TROUBLE —CHIEF HAS A STRONG FORCE WILLING TO BATTLE WITH THE WHITES.

London, Dec. 3—There is a growing belief that the measures projected against the Zulus will be come operations on a large scale, and that Cape Colony is faced by a general rising of of Dinizulus' followers. Despite their quiescence for some time past, the Zulus, according to recent visitors to South Africa, who are in a position to judge, can still render a good account of themselves as warriors no less brave than bloodthirsty. Durban despatches say elaborate preparations are being made by the Government to impress the public with the belief that there are serious reasons for the secrecy maintained about them. In addition to the militia, the first reserves have been called out, and horses are being commandeered wholesale. Dinizulu is officially said to be at the royal kraal at Usutu surrounded by police and practically a hostage, but this statement doesn't find general acceptance and an authority like Major-General Dartnell, who took part in the last Zulu rising, says there is reason to believe that al Dinizulu's young men have been flocking round him since October, and that the chief has a strong force at his command. Dinizulu is implicated in several murders that have recently occurred. The Zulus whose loyalty to the head of the royal house is one of their strong characteristics, will fight to the last man in his defence.

PREVENT ALL IMMIGRATION.

ISHII ON SETTLEMENT WITH THE UNITED STATES.

Tokio, Dec. 3.—Baron Ishii, chief of the Bureau of Commerce of the Japanese Foreign Office, who visited America and Canada for the purpose of investigating the immigration problem, arrived in Tokio Saturday. Baron Ishii said: "My visit to America and Canada convinced me that the opposition to the Japanese is based partly upon race prejudice, though considerable of it is due to labor troubles instigated by agitators. I found Japanese residents in America and Canada who resent the incoming of their countrymen from the Hawaiian Islands and Mexico, which is disliked. While it is proper for Japan to conserve the interests of the Japanese now residing abroad, many of whom are prospering and living peacefully in America, in my opinion it will be necessary in order to keep absolute faith with the United States to prevent immigration of laborers thither altogether, because an exclusion act would be disagreeable. We should send laborers to Canada in great moderation."

The Foreign Office is investigating the representations of the American ambassador, Thomas J. O'Brien, concerning the character and number of emigrants. The indications are that the Japanese Government will give formal, but verbal assurance of a future rigid exclusion of all that can be termed strictly labor immigration to the United States, being careful also in limiting the number moving for Canada.

A. STILLMAN STEVENS, ST. LAMBERT.

Alva Stillman Stevens entered into his rest on November 28th, 1907, at the residence of his son, Collins, in St. Lambert, Quebec. He had formerly resided in Coaticook, Waterville and Lennoxville, and had been employed by the Grand Trunk Railroad for forty-five years. He was born in Windsor, Quebec, and died at the age of 74 years, 9 months.

He was married to Mary, daughter of Captain Samuel Pierce, of Windsor Mills, fifty-one years ago. Mrs. Stevens died in Lowell, Mass., Jan. 27, 1899, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. D. McRitchie. Mr. Stevens made his home with Mrs. McRitchie for some years and had many friends in Lowell who sympathized with him during his long illness. He had been in failing health for ten years and was a constant sufferer. Mr. Stevens was a man who made the troubles of others his own and was always ready with home, heart, hand and purse to help any who needed his assistance. No one ever asked him for kindness and was refused and most of his kind acts are unrecorded except in the grateful memory of the recipients.

Six children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, a son, Fred, and a daughter Florence, died some years ago. The children remaining are: Collins, of St. Lambert; Nelson, of Coaticook; Mrs. Mary Bassett, of Alberta, and Mrs. Alice McRitchie, of Lowell, Mass. The burial was in Lennoxville, P.Q.

THE LATE JAMES MITCHELL, OF BOSTON.

The funeral of the late James Mitchell, of Boston who passed away after some weeks' illness at the home of his sister, Mrs. Eustace Smith in Lennoxville, took place yesterday morning at St. Anthony's parish church. A large number of friends were present, and a solemn requiem mass was sung, Rev. O. Martin, parish priest officiating, assisted by Rev. A. Maltais, of the Seminary St. Charles, Sherbrooke, and the Abbe Bonin, as deacon and subdeacon.

The music rendered by a choir from Sherbrooke, was unusually fine, Mr. Emile Rioux singing the "Misereri Mei," as a solo at the offertory. Professor O. Cartier presided at the organ. The hymns "Lead Kindly Light," and "Nearer My God to Light," were sung beautifully by a quartette, composed of Miss Doherty, Miss Mullins, Mr. J. N. Matte and Professor Cartier, Miss Teresa Doherty accompanying.

The bearers were Messrs. C. S. White, F. C. Wiggett, W. J. A. McKindsey, W. H. Abbott, R. Findlay and N. Martin, and the mourners were Mrs. Eustace Smith, the Misses Mitchell, sisters of deceased and Mr. John Mitchell, brother.

Messrs. Keefe and Grimm, of Boston, represented the department of the Boston General Postoffice, to which the late Mr. Mitchell had belonged for 25 years. The remains were borne to Malvern Cemetery and there laid to rest.

DEBATE ON ADDRESS IN COMMONS.

Premier Refers to the Japanese Question.

OPPOSITION LEADER CHALLENGES INQUIRY INTO ELECTION CAMPAIGN FUND MATTER.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—There was a full-dress debate on the address from the throne in the House yesterday, and there is every appearance of the talk lasting for the next three or four days. The chief item of interest was Mr. Borden's challenge, to Mr. Pugsley and the Government to bring on an investigation of the campaign funds. The sooner the better, added the Opposition leader. Sir Wilfrid merely touched upon the matter lightly.

Sir Wilfrid was in his best form. His speech consisted of an attack on the Halifax platform of Mr. Borden, and he left the speech from the throne practically untouched. He announced that the Railway Commission would be increased, and its jurisdiction extended to control telephone and telegraph rates. The Japanese immigration question came in for some discussion, Sir Wilfrid arousing Mr. Foster's sarcasm by contending that the Japanese were too big and powerful a nation to be treated as the Chinese.

Mr. Fielding has the floor and the debate will be resumed to-day.

Mr. R. R. Hall, of West Peterboro, moved the address.

Mr. Lanctot, of Richelieu, seconded the address, in French.

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION.

Sir Wilfrid briefly touched upon Japanese immigration. Conditions were different to the Chinese question, Japan was no longer a country to be treated with contempt, but Japan was an ally of the King. This question was not merely one for British Columbia. It interested the whole people of Canada. He did not share the race prejudice against the Japanese which seemed to exist in the West. However, the situation could not be ignored. What was the duty of the Government? It was told to put a head tax on Japanese. He refused to do so. Japan in 1900 had agreed to restrict immigration to Canada. Since 1900 few had come, but this year there had been an influx of several thousand. Mr. Lemieux had been sent to Japan. Sir Wilfrid did not think Japan had gone back on the treaty. The immigration came from Japan to Honolulu, and thence to British Columbia, not direct to British Columbia. Mr. Lemieux would endeavor to effect a settlement of the problem.

SAD AFFAIR AT THREE RIVERS.

Mother Leaves Six Children In Burning House To Get Assistance.

FOUR OF CHILDREN DEAD — THE MOTHER IN CRITICAL CONDITION FROM EXPOSURE TO COLD.

Three Rivers, Que., Dec. 3.—(Special) —Last night about ten o'clock, Mrs. Dupont, living on St. Marguerite Road, some three miles out of town, noticed that the house was on fire. She ran out, clad in her night dress, to get assistance from neighbors, leaving six children sleeping in the house with the result that four of the children are dead.

The woman is in a very critical condition from her exposure in the cold.

The origin of the fire is unknown.

DID NOT TURN OUT AS EXPECTED.

Foreigners Huddled in Houses Without Money or Food.

LURED HERE BY GLOWING REPORTS AND SENT HOME BY COUNTRYMEN.

Toronto, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—About four hundred and fifty men, principally Bulgarians and Macedonians, are huddled together in a group of houses on Eastern avenue, without money and with but little food, waiting, Micawber-like for something to turn up. Seventy of them are living in one house and fifty each in two others. The men came here, so they saw, because of the glowing reports sent home by some of their country men who preceeded them earlier in the year and because of the sums of money they had seen the wives and families of these men receive.

MRS. BBADLEY IS ACQUITTED.

VERDICT IN FAMOUS CASE IN WASHINGTON, TO-DAY.

A despatch received at Mr. F. W. White's office announces the acquittal this morning, of Mrs. Bradley, on trial at Washington for the murder of Senator Brown.

This trial has been almost as sensational as the Thaw trial and excited great interest throughout the United States.

Mrs. Bradley shot Senator Brown, with whom she had lived, in Salt Lake City. He had promised to divorce his wife and marry her, and his delay and the knowledge that he was apparently about to desert her, brought about the tragedy.

Insanity was the plea of the defence.

"PRINCE ALBERT" IS ARRESTED IN VERMONT.

Mistaken For Kemp The Washington Embezzler.

CLAIMS TO BE OF ROYAL DESCENT AND A POET OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

A Vermont exchange says: "A good-talking man styling himself "Prince Albert," spent a short time in Chittenden county jail recently, having been arrested on the strength of belief that he was James Arthur Kemp, alias J. H. Henderson, formerly of Washington, D.C., who is wanted to answer the charge of embezzling from $4,00 to $7,500 from the Metropolitan police department of the District of Columbia. Some people of Milton, in which town the Prince was working, rather liked the looks of $200 which the Government offered for the arrest of the alleged embezzler, and got the strange fellow jailed. Saturday night he was let out.

"There was something in "Prince Albert's" appearance to correspond with the description of the man wanted in Washington.

"For six weeks the fellow has been working on the farm of Heman A. Allen, in Milton, and his appearance so roused the curiosity of the people of that town that they jumped to the conclusion that he must be Kemp. Hence the arrest.

"'Prince Albert" told that he was born in London of royal parentage, but that he was taken to Germany, being brought up in Leipsic. He is even now pressing a claim to a large heritage. He said that he came to the United States in 1896, and for some time thereafter he was employed as a farm hand at the Moody school in Northfield, Mass. He also claims to be a poet of the old school."

JAMESTOWN FAIR CLOSED SATURDAY.

Attendance Was Far Below Expectations.

ABOUT THREE MILLION PEOPLE PASSED THROUGH THE TURNSTILES, BUT THIRTEEN MILLION WERE EXPECTED.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 3.—Bright sunshine greeted the closing day of the Jamestown Exposition. It was a day of partings and farewells among the exhibitors, concessionaries, state building hosts, employees and officials. Thousands of spectators crowded the grounds.

Saturday evening in the auditorium, President Tucker delivered a speech reviewing the Exposition and setting forth its hardships and its successes, and Director-General Martin made a financial statement.

At midnight President Tucker turned off the lights and the big fair closed.

Director General Martin on Saturday authorized a statement showing the total attendance at the Exposition since the opening, April 26th, to have been about 2,800,000, of which about 1,500,000 were paid. The directors had expected 13,000,000 at least.

EDALJI REINSTATED.

NAME OF MAN SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE BEFRIENDED RESTORED TO SOLICITORS' ROLLS.

London, Dec. 2.—George Edalji, the victim of British injustice whom Sir Arthur Conan Doyle has so stoutly befriended, has had his name restored to the rolls of solicitors and will therefore from this time on be allowed to practice his profession and to appear in the discharge of his professional duties in the courts of his country.

It cannot be said that with the bestowal of this act of justice upon him Mr. Edalji has come into a full measure of reparation for the great wrong inflicted on him through his punishment for a crime of cattle maiming of which he was guilty. He has not as yet received any financial compensation for the injuries he has suffered through his conviction and imprisonment. But it means a great deal to him to have his right to practice as a solicitor restored to him, and he is a very happy man despite the fact that further reparation is due him.

JAPANESE HELD AT VICTORIA.

CAN'T LAND, HAVING PASSPORTS TO UNITED STATES.

Victoria, B.C., Dec. 3.—The Japanese steamer Tosa Maru, is detained here owing to a dispute between her agents and the United States and Canadian immigration officials regarding the landing of one hundred and eleven Japanese booked to Victoria, but holding passports to the United States. The United States immigration officials have received instructions not to examine those with passports to the United States and the Canadian officials insist on these Japanese being carried through to Seattle. This the steamship agents are unwilling to do, and the vessel is detained in consequence. Meanwhile, telegrams are being sent to Washington and Ottawa authorities, seeking adjustment of the difficulty.

HUNTING DEER IN VERMONT STATE

ILLEGAL TO KILL ANY WITH ANTLERS LESS THAN THREE INCHES LONG.

Burlington, Vt., Dec. 3.—Dr. E. I. Hall, one of Rutland's most prominent homeopathic physicians, was fined $100 and costs in the city court last week for shooting during the open season a buck fawn. Dr. Hall pleaded guilty and paid his fine. The deer, which he killed in "Michigan" a lumber camp in the town of Pittsfield, had antlers which barely pricked through the skin. County Game Warden B. H. Stickney heard of the case and visited Pittsfield, collecting sufficient evidence to convict. The law says that all deer shot must have antlers at least three inches in lehgth.

CATTLE SHIPMENTS FROM MONTREAL.

Final Statement For Season Is Issued.

COMPARISON FOR TWO YEARS —) CATTLE SHOW FALLING OFF. —CATTLE SHIPMENTS FROM MONTREAL.

Montreal, Dec. 3.—The final statement of Canadian live stock exports show that for the week ending November 24th, 1907, 4,167 cattle and 2,383 sheep were exported from Montreal, and 486 cattle and 598 sheep from Portland. The greater part of the shipments were to London, the balance going to Glasgow, Manchester and Liverpool.

There has been a great falling off in the live stock shipments this year, the cause being the long continued severity of the weather last winter.

The figures for the last two years are as follows:

1907—11,585 sheep, 96,977 cattle, 174 horses.
1906—10,791 sheep, 128,160 cattle; 641 horses.

FARNAM'S CORNER.

Mrs. Knott, of West Shefford, who has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Farnam, was accompanied recently to Shefford by her daughter and grand-daughter, for a short visit.

On Friday evening, Nov. 29th, a large party of young people invaded the home of Mr. Ira Scott, Dunboro, for a social evening. Mr. Scott, who recently brought his bride here, and settled on the home farm, were completely taken by surprise but welcomed the guests in a hearty manner. The party broke up at a late hour after a very enjoyable time.

Mr. W. M. Farnam has returned home for his holiday vacation.

The annual Christmas tree and exercises will take place in the Church on Monday evening, Dec. 23rd.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Harvey were the guests of L. Reynolds, West Sutton, on Friday.

The many friends of Mr. Walter Farnam are sorry to know he continues in an extremely poor state of health. He is not able to leave his bed without assistance. All hope for his speedy recovery.

The ladies have had the old wooden gate to the cemetery replaced by a fine iron one and the fence painted. Special praise is due Mrs. D. L. and Mrs. E. Ingalls, Dunboro, and Mrs. Lusher Harvey, who were the moving spirits in the enterprise.

The factory at East Dunham has closed for the winter and Mr. E. Vanselette of that place, will do the separating here again this winter.

BURNS WON EASILY.

KNOCKED OUT GUNNER MOIR IN THE TENTH ROUND OF ONE-SIDED FIGHT.

London, Dec. 3—Tommy Burns, of Canada, knocked out Gunner Moir, of England, in the tenth round before the National Sporting Club here last night. Englishmen never had great hopes of the ability of their representative to regain their lost honors in the boxing arena, and in a somewhat unexciting contest the American champion had a comparatively easy task in disposing of Moir's pretensions, and securing for himself, the title of heavyweight champion of the world.

After the fifth round Burns' victory was certain, and in the tenth round when Gunner failed to rise to the call of time, and was literally cut to pieces Burns left the ring with scarcely a mark. Moir owes his right to participate in championship matches more to influence than to merit, and his defeat therefore, was not a matter of general surprise. Burns proved himself superior in every detail. He displayed greater science and infinitely better generalship, and his blows were delivered with much more power than were those of the Englishman.

SPORTING NOTES.

McGill and Laval Universities are much disappointed at the rejection of their application for the admission of intermediate teams in the Inter-Collegiate Union.

Percy Sillen, of the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club, won the Royal Canadian Bicycle Club's distance race, on Saturday, at Toronto. He covered the ten mile course in 56 min., 35 2-5 seconds.

Percy Roberts, of the Montreal Club, who was operated on for appendicitis, on Saturday, is doing well.

The Parkdale Canoe Club, Toronto, winners of the Junior O.R.F.U. championship, easily defeated Toronto Varsity III., intercollegiate champions, at Toronto, on Saturday, by 16 points to 0.

Terrible riots occurred at football matches in New York on Thanksgiving Day, as the result of bitter rivalry. Three players went to an hospital.

The wrestling match between Gotch and Rogers, at Sohmer Park, Montreal, on Friday night ended in an easy win for Gotch. His friends now begin to fancy his chances with Hackenschmidt if that encounter comes off. From Rogers to the world's champion is a big call however.

William Fitzgerald, of Brooklyn, defeated Amby McGarry, of New York, in a boxing contest in Baltimore on Friday night.

The bout was stopped in the 11th round, McGarry being [illegible] finished.

12 DIRECTORS HELD FOR TRIAL.

FALSE STATEMENTS OF UNITED STATES GRAPHITE CO. ALLEGED.

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—Twelve directors of the United States Graphite Co. which went into the hands of receivers last July, were held in $5000 bail each for court Friday. It was alleged that the investors had been paid quarterly dividends out of money they had paid in, and that the property which the company owned had not been improved and that false statements were made as to the financial status of the company.

A former superintendent and three directors turned State's evidence, and Philip Goldsmith, an accountant, testified that while a statement issued for the company in 1906 gave the surplus and profits as $123,110.60, the sales up to that time amounted to less than $44,000. He declared the company never had any surplus and undivided profits, and when it went into the hands of the receiver it owed $28,000. The directors held were Paul Morris, William S. Darnell, Howard W. Bush, H. H. Missimer, August J. Hess, William A. Donnelly, Ed. S. Fritz, Charles A. Welsh, M. W. Watkinson, J. C. Conrad, N. H. Hollaback and Malion and Van Booskirk.
