

SOVIET FORCES DRIVEN ACROSS THE DNIEPER MacSwiney Enters Twenty-fifth Day Of Hunger Strike

GENERAL WRANGEL'S SUCCESSFUL COUNTER-ATTACKS DRIVE SOVIET FORCES ACROSS DNIEPER RIVER

The Fourteenth Bolshevik Army Suffered Severe Losses as a Result of Counter-Attacks by General Wrangel's Forces—Bolsheviks Are Making a Firmer Stand on the Taman Peninsula, Between the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov, Where an Expedition Landed by General Wrangel Was Driven Out.

(Associated Press Despatch)

SEBASTOPOL, Sept. 6.—The Fourteenth Bolshevik Army has been driven across the Dnieper after suffering severe losses as a result of General Wrangel's successful counter-attacks. The Bolshevik forces commanded by Commissary Eideman were decimated and forced to take cover under their big guns across the Dnieper.

The Bolsheviks are making a stronger stand on the Taman Peninsula, between the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov, where an expedition landed by General Wrangel was driven out. The Bolsheviks brought up a brigade of West Siberians, a Cossack division and other reinforcements taken from reserve regiments or half regiments of Moscow and centres near the Polish front.

THE SITUATION OF GENERAL WRANGEL'S FORCES IN THE REGION OF NOVOROSSISK IS IMPROVING

(Associated Press Despatch)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 6.—General Baron Wrangel's forces have made another landing at Soukum (probably Sukhum-Kale), a port on the east end of the Black Sea, according to advices received here. The landing was protected by the battleship General Alexiev.

The situation of General Wrangel's forces in the region of Novorossisk is improving, say latest reports. General Wrangel is securing the cooperation of bands which resisted the British, General Denikin's anti-Bolshevik troops and others a year ago. Cossacks found looting or requisitioning are promptly hanged by order of the commander, and the soldiers are not permitted to occupy towns or cities where they are tempted to live at the expense of the population. These disciplinary measures are giving a good impression, and there is much patriotism, which was totally lacking during Denikin's regime.

Further successes by General Wrangel are reported. It is declared he is throwing Bolsheviks back on Dnieper.

POLES PROTEST TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN REGARD TO ATTACKS LAUNCHED BY THE LITHUANIAN TROOPS

(Associated Press Despatch)

WARSAW, Sept. 6.—Protest to the League of Nations against attacks by Lithuanian troops upon the Poles north of Suwalki has been made by the Polish Government. It is pointed out that a state of war does not exist between the two countries.

Russian Bolsheviks are supporting the Lithuanians in advancing into the disputed region in North Eastern Poland, says an official announcement issued here today.

"Bearing down from the North," the statement says, "Lithuanian troops, supported by Bolsheviks, continue to attack Polish detachments, and are moving in the direction of Suwalki and Augustow."

In political circles the action of the Lithuanians is taken to indicate probably serious complications in peace negotiations, as it is virtually impossible for Poland to reach an agreement with the Russian Soviet Government regarding the North-eastern boundaries of this country without having an understanding with Lithuania.

LITHUANIANS PLACE BLAME ON THE POLES

(Associated Press Despatch)

WARSAW, Sept. 6.—Lithuanians, in reply to the Polish charge that Lithuanian forces had crossed the Curzon boundary line without declaring war, throw responsibility for the recent clash at Selnj, to the East of Suwalki, on the Poles.

The Lithuanians say they do not recognize the lines of demarcation fixed by Earl Curzon and Marshal Foch, but are ready to cease hostilities and negotiate a new line.

New Zealand's Late High Commissioner Criticizes System Of Trade Relations In The Old Country—"Times" Comment

Sir Thomas MacKenzie Says Improvements Could Be Made in System of Administering Dominions' Trade—London Times Criticizes Imperial System and Recommends Appointment of Agents-General with Salaries Which Would Guarantee Fulfilment of Duties in Satisfactory Manner.

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Sir Thomas MacKenzie, late High Commissioner for New Zealand, who is leaving London today to represent his country at the Chambers of Commerce Congress in Toronto, expresses the opinion that the Imperial parliament is overburdened and that there is lack of touch between the executive and the constituencies.

He is also dissatisfied with the way Dominions' raw materials and food stuffs are handled here, men at the head of affairs not being commercial experts. Sir Thomas admits the British people's splendid character, tenacity and perseverance. Nothing could outstrip the old land if it were a little more adaptable to necessary changes, he believes.

The London Times, discussing the position of the agents general in connection with the foregoing interview remarks that it is clear that so long as the Imperial system continues a thing of vague undefined ties with ambiguous constitutional relations and commercial relations which often have at least the appearance of being conflicting, so long will the personality of the men who fill what may be called "liaison" offices be extremely important. The "Times" thinks that at least the condition of possessing independent means by holders of such positions might be removed by general agreement among all states of the Empire and salaries be sufficient for proper performance of such duties.

QUEBEC MAN WAS FORCED TO GIVE UP HIS WORK, HE SAYS

Had Rheumatism So Bad He Had to Walk With Cane—Declares Tanlac Restored Him.

"Tanlac has certainly been a winner in my case, for it has restored my health and put me in fine condition again," said J. A. Lavoie, a well known employee of the Province of Quebec, living at 12 McMahon street, Quebec.

"I suffered terribly from a bad case of indigestion, and had rheumatism in one of my legs that troubled me very much. I don't believe anyone could have had a worse case of indigestion than I did, and after every meal I was simply miserable. My sleep was almost a continuous nightmare, and I would get up in the morning in an awful state of depression, and feel tired and sluggish all day long. Then rheumatism made its appearance, and I had to use a cane in order to get about. Nothing seemed to help me, and I got in such awful health I had to give up my work."

"Well, this was my condition when I started taking Tanlac and using the Tanlac rheumatic treatment, and they gave me such great relief that I just kept on taking them until I'm now feeling fine. My stomach is in such excellent order that I'm never troubled with indigestion, and I have to look at my cane hanging on the wall to remember that I ever had rheumatism, for all the pains have entirely disappeared. At night I sleep like a top, and I get up in the morning refreshed and energetic. I don't hesitate to add my endorsement to Tanlac, and I believe everybody in ill-health ought to try the medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Sherbrooke by Griffith's Drug Store and A. E. Dugger on the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. (Adv.)

The weather was all that could be desired, the grounds were most tastefully decorated with flags, bunting and Chinese lanterns, and the lighting was such, that it made the Farrar lawn the most attractive and certainly the brightest spot in Ivesville for that night, at least, and with the St. Johns Orchestra in attendance, under the leadership of our genial and ever obliging bandmaster, Mr. Nap. Boisvert, it proved an irresistible attraction, and the ladies who attended to guests at the tables where ice cream and cake were served, and the gentlemen who made such a success of dispensing ice cream cones to all and sundry, must surely have required no "rocking to sleep" that night, as the grounds were crowded from start to finish.

LOCALS BROKE EVEN WITH THE BERLIN TEAM

Sherbrooke Won Out in Eighth Inning of Yesterday's Game.

After dropping the opening game of the series on Saturday by the count of 11 runs to 5, the Sherbrooke Seniors came back strong in yesterday's contest, trimming the Berlin, N. H., nine to the tune of 5 runs to 1 and consequently getting an even break with the visitors. Although the Sherbrooke aggregation put up a rather miserable exhibition on Saturday afternoon, it was quite another story yesterday. While on Saturday the fielders failed to give Thormahlen the proper support, yesterday all the local lads were right on their toes and well deserved the honors of the day.

The visitors got away to a three run lead in the opening frame of the contest on Saturday, mainly with the assistance of misplays on the part of the local nine. However, Sherbrooke came back with two counters in their half of the second inning. With one down Baker got a life through an error and Doherty was also safe on an error. Chartier fanned, but Sniderhan singled and brought the two runners over.

In the fifth the visitors tallied another run, and to their total added three more in both the sixth and seventh frames. Sherbrooke managed to tally three more runs, one in the sixth on Baker's single and Doherty's three base blow, another in the eighth when Thormahlen lined a terrific smash which went for a circuit drive, and the final one in the ninth, when with one down, Chartier singled, stole second, went to third on Savage's out and tallied on an error.

It was a different story from the Sherbrooke point of view on Sunday afternoon, when a large gathering of fans journeyed to the Exhibition grounds to witness the fray. Thormahlen was in fine form and held the visitors well in check throughout, while he was given excellent support by his team-mates.

The game developed into a pitchers' battle between Thormahlen and Lafayette. Berlin managed to squeeze over a run in the second inning, and Sherbrooke evened up the count in the seventh. Then the visitors' defence broke down and the locals put the game away by sending four men over the pan in their half of the eighth. The box scores:

CLOSE RACES IN BOTH THE BIG LEAGUES

Three Teams Running Neck and Neck in Both the Big Leagues.

(Associated Press Despatch)
NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Five of the six major league teams engaged in the struggle for the leadership of the American and National Leagues yesterday and the sixth, the New York Yankees, who did not play, were ousted from their second place position by Chicago. The Brooklyn Nationals led Cincinnati by a safe game, and New York by two games, while the Cleveland American leaders have only a one game advantage over their two rivals, who are virtually tied.

The National League contenders are beginning to gather up speed for the final push, with only about twenty-five games to play. The Chicago Americans, whose slump cost them their advantage over Cleveland and New York, are beginning to keep step again with the other leaders.

In the American League Cleveland seemingly has an advantage over New York. The Indian twirlers are only two games last week by close margins. The Yanks were forced to call upon Mays for rescue work twice, in addition to pitching two full games. New York is not batting as hard as earlier in the season, but Ruth's two more home runs on Saturday, breaking all league records with a total of forty-four for the season, indicate that his eye and arms have not been affected by his lay off.

Chicago's slump of seven straight losses after a wonderful climb to top place ended Saturday, and this week the White Sox hope to take revenge on Boston, which has been playing mischief with the pennant chasers.

STEAMER SUNK IN PATRIOT WAR STILL ON VIEW

Remains of Canadian Boat Are Still to Be Seen on the St. Lawrence Bank.

Thirty miles east of Kingston, Ontario, in the St. Lawrence River, lies the hulk of the Canadian steamer, Sir Robert Peel, which was fired and sunk during the Patriot War of 1837-38. It was on the night of May 30, 1838, that this steamer, en route from Prescott to Toronto, Ont., with nineteen passengers and $20,000 in specie for paying the troops in Upper Canada, was taking on wood at what was then called McDowell's wharf, when a company of men led by "Bill" Johnston, known as the hero of the Thousand Islands, and armed with muskets and bayonets, rushed about shouting: "Remember the Caroline!" The night was dark and rainy. The passengers who were asleep in the cabin, together with the crew, were ordered ashore and had to leave. The Peel was then pushed out into the river and burned and sunk. All the attacking band escaped punishment. Several were tried at Watertown, N.Y., for arson, but were acquitted.

Johnston kept an hotel for years at Clayton, N.Y., formerly known as French Creek. He was a native of Lower Canada and claimed to be a confidential friend of William Lyon Mackenzie, leader of the rebellion in Upper Canada in 1837. His daughter, Kate Johnston, furnished the band with supplies while they were outlawed and in hiding among the Thousand Islands.

Perhaps fifteen years ago the anchor of the Peel was secured, and for a while it lay imbedded in the coast, an object of interest. It is understood now to be in a New York museum. The Peel wharf is situated just two miles below the Thousand Island Park in United States waters, and is of interest to the tourist who revels in historical events of the past century.

NICHOLSON IS LEADING THE HARD HITTERS

Has Taken the National League Leadership Away from Hornsby.

(Associated Press Despatch)
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—Outfielder Nicholson, the Pittsburgh slugger, has taken the lead among the National League batters from Roger Hornsby, of St. Louis. Nicholson experienced a great stride at bat during the week, and is on top of the list with an average of .381. Hornsby did not do so well with the willow, and dropped to .365. However, he is well ahead of Eayers, of Boston, who is in third place, with .338. Hornsby, however, increased his lead in total bases with 254.

G. Williams, of Philadelphia, seems to have struck a hoodoo in thirteen, as he has not added to this number of circuit drives in the past two weeks, but still he is three in front of his team mate, Meusel, who has cracked out ten homers. Max Carey, of Pittsburgh, stole three bases in the past week, and is showing the way to the base stealers with 48. Burns, of New York, has taken the lead from Bancroft, a team mate, as the best run-getter. Burns has registered eighty-seven times to Bancroft's 81.

Other leading batters: Young, New York, .378; Roush, Cincinnati, .336; Stock, St. Louis, .372; J. Smith, St. Louis, .324; King, New York, .323; Hollocher, Chicago, .318; Wheat, Brooklyn, .316; Konetchy, Brooklyn, .316; Fournier, St. Louis, .313; Myers, Brooklyn, .311; Williams, Philadelphia, .311.

American League Averages.
George Sisler, the St. Louis star, who is topping the batters in the American League, ran into a batting slump when the Mound City Club invaded the East on the last jaunt, and as a result "Tris" Speaker is heading the procession with an average of .395. Sisler is the runner-up, however, only one point behind, with .394.

Eddie Collins, captain of the Chicago White Sox, has greatly improved his batting mark and is pressing Jackson, a team mate, and Ruth, of New York. Jackson is batting .377, Ruth .374 and E. Collins .367. Ruth has played only three games since the last averages were compiled, and in these contests he cracked out three more home runs, bringing his total to date up to forty-six. His total base record was brought up to 325 and his scoring record to 136. Ruth is out of the game because of an infection of his arm, but is expected to be back in the line-up shortly.

George of the Washington team, was not able to steal any bases during the past week, but his 45 gives him a big lead over his nearest rival, Sisler, who pilfered 28.

Other batters: Meusel, New York, .348; Murphy, Chicago, .347; Jacobson, St. Louis, .341; Hendrix, Boston, .341; Rice, Washington, .340; Judge, Washington, .339; Weaver, .335; Pelach, Chicago, .329; Cobb, Detroit, .326.

Stage and Screen Attractions At Local Playhouses This Week

At His Majesty's Theatre.

Will Rogers in "The Strange Boarder," for today and tomorrow, is welcome news to all movie fans. Here is a real comedian who has won hosts of admirers through his screen work. "Will" has not much to commend him in looks, but he puts up the real stuff when it comes to honest-to-goodness comedy. He has a vehicle in "The Strange Boarder," that should be amusing from start to finish. Even though he pays for his simple faith in men by a tremendous loss and a situation that leads him to the very shadow of the gallows, he clings with a smile to his philosophy that "the other fellow will come through."

On Wednesday, patrons are going to have the pleasure of witnessing one of the very best dramatic entertainments in the French language when "Le Duel," will be presented by the classical French actor, Edgar Beckman, and a company of artists from Paris. This play is from the pen of M. Henri Lavendard, of the Academie Francaise, and is sure to please all the lovers of dramatic art.

For the balance of the week, Marion Davies will be presented in a big special, "April Fool," a story by Cynthia Stockley. The plot combines a mystery and love story and the scenes are laid in South Africa and Canada.

Constance Talmadge in "The Perfect Woman" will also be shown on the same dates, but this arrangement has not been fully consummated, but will be announced through the advertising columns.

At the Premier Theatre.

"Easy to Get," with Marguerite Clarke in the star role is the attraction for today and tomorrow. The story centres around a little lesson which a young wife seeks to teach her husband, who has said that all women were "easy to get."

Marguerite Clarke's portrayal of Milly Morehouse is remarkable for its vivacity and joyous appeal. Whether engaged in arousing the jealousy of Dick Elliott's girl, Pauline, or prettily fibbing to Talbot Chase, the bewildered geologist, she is equally fascinating and convincing. Her impish exploits are executed with such apparent sincerity and beautiful regard of consequences that the most rigid of moralists would be inclined to yield to her charm without caring about the ethics of the case. Harrison Ford contributes in no small degree to the whirl of gaiety by his light-hearted interpretation of the deluded husband role of Bob Morehouse. Bob is a very likeable character, if a bit bumptious in the beginning, and one rather sympathizes with his sufferings at the hands of his little madcap wife.

The famous morality play, "Everywoman," has been made into a motion picture and will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday. The story is declared to have been filmed on an extremely lavish scale and to abound in beautiful settings, lovely women attired in handsome gowns, and spectacular effects. Against this extravagant background Walter Browne's celebrated allegory of life and its temptations is acted by an extraordinary cast of players. The role of Everywoman is played by Violet Heming, a beautiful actress well known on the stage and the screen. The programme for Friday and Saturday will be announced later.

At the Casino Theatre.

The old characters and the entertaining story that nearly every person young and old remembers have been brought to life in the filmization of Robert Louis Stevenson's "Treasure Island," which will be shown today and tomorrow.

There is no doubt but that people will revel in the fights between the blood-thirsty pirates and the expedition in search of the treasure. There will be many who will be thrilled at the trying adventures of the popular fiction character little Jim Hawkins.

The screen version of Hall Caine's novel, "The Woman Thou Gavest Me," is a desirable picture drama. Briefly, the story is one of a beautiful young girl sold into marriage by the laws of the church, and refusing to live with her husband, goes freely to the man she loves and to the man she considers her husband before God. This man, an explorer, is later reported dead and the girl seeks the streets as the only means of getting money for her baby. Fate wills that the man return in time to prevent a sacrifice and the story ends pleasantly. This picture is showing on Wednesday and Thursday, with Miss Katherine MacDonald in the title role.

On Friday and Saturday, Gladys Brockwell will be seen in "White Lies," a novel by Charles Reade.

At the Princess Theatre.

The picture today and tomorrow, is all Dorothy Gish, but that is quite sufficient. This lively little star has developed the knack of being side-splittingly funny to perfection and as a screen comedienne of a new and delightful type she stands alone. "Turning the Tables," her latest vehicle, is quite a few steps this side of the custard pie school of picture comedy, but in rapid-fire fun it rivals some of those old-timers that Charlie Chaplin used to make.

"Everywoman" will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday. Ethel Clayton's latest photoplay, "Crooked Streets," will be on Friday and Saturday. It is an adventure-romance of China and was adapted from an original story by Samuel Messing.

Miss Cayton has the role of Gail Ellis, who, answering an advertisement, becomes secretary to an antiquarian on a trip to China in search of rare vases. In Shanghai, Gail becomes suspicious that her employer's errand is not an honest one. Venturing alone into the native section of the city, she is involved in a brawl between some Chinamen and roistering French sailors on leave. An Irish adventurer named O'Dare rescues her with

MANY WALKED IN THE LOCAL LABOR PARADE

Floats, Automobiles and Clown Added to Long Procession of Workmen.

Local workmen today celebrated Labor Day by the usual annual turnout in which several hundred members from the different local unions took part.

The various branches met at the Parade Grounds, whence the parade started at ten-thirty. Headed by the Harmony Band and Marshal on horse-back, the long procession proceeded through the principal streets of the city.

Two very attractive and characteristic floats containing machinery products of some of the city plants, the Jencks and Ingalls Band, were at the head of the line of the International Association of Machinists, in orderly line of march, and these were followed by Sherbrooke Local, Number 1684, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

A clown riding a bicycle backwards and doing sundry other stunts furnished no little amusement.

Several well decorated automobiles brought up the rear of the procession.

Voluntary arbitration was declared by the Republican nominee to be the real solution of labor troubles, and he advocated joint committees of employees and employers not to "run the business," but to promote mutual understanding. WALL PAPER IS EFFECTIVE IN MANY WAYS

Nerves and Temper May Be Adjusted by Better Choice of Wall Coverings.

(Saturday Night) "It isn't your digestion which is wrong, it is your wall paper!" may possibly be the exclamation of the doctor in the near future. Instead of sending round to the chemist for salts and senna, the man who feels his nerves to be jangled, his digestion to be impaired, and a taste in his mouth like pennies, will call in the men with the ladders, the paste bucket and the slap-dash brushes.

Many a man thinks he is bad tempered and takes himself seriously to task as he reads his paper in the train for having left behind him a family in tears, when, really, he is perfectly innocent.

In the days before wall papers were invented, the world bred quite a large and regular crop of saints. The reason no new saint ever appears on the horizon is due to wall papers. Who could be a saint and live with the atrocities, convolutions, evolutions and pyrotechnics of the modern wall paper?

The thing is impossible. A wall covered with a fruit salad of cherries, cherries, with leaves to match, may be borne with for a day, or even a week, but when it comes to living with it a whole year, and often much more, it gets on the nerves and frays the edges of the nervous system.

Then there is the flower paper, a few degrees worse than the fruit salad contraption. A little red rose or two scattered broadcast on a nice creamy background may be all right, but when it comes to what the Covent Garden porter calls a "Mawket-bunch" repeated all over the wall five hundred and twenty times, it is calculated to send a Galapagos tortoise into hopping madness.

Then it is a funny thing how wall paper designers love big flowers. They wouldn't be seen looking at a daisy or a primrose, but put a sunflower, or a dahlia, or a rhododendron, or a prize chrysanthemum or some mixture of all these which makes a flower no one ever saw outside an optical dream, and they go for it with avidity, and reproduce it by the hundred gross!

Paper hangers will be well advised to change their method of advertising their craft. It is no use to put up a sign simply saying that you are a house recolorator, "estimates free," and that sort of rot. Say, rather:

"N. O. Arsmik, Professor of Rest Cure. Are you jumpy? Do you tremble when you see a job of work? Are you given to language? Do you assault the gas-meter man and set the dog on the tax gatherer? What you want is a new wall paper or two—something in low tones, restful and soothing."

PERSONAL AND GENERAL NEWS FROM DUNHAM

Pleasant Surprise Party Given in Honor of Tenth Wedding Anniversary.

DUNHAM, September 6.—A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doherty last Tuesday evening, the occasion being their tenth wedding anniversary. Friends to the number of thirty proceeded to the house, where they found both Mr. and Mrs. Doherty busy with in and outdoor duties. That they were genuinely surprised was evidenced by the fact that neither Mr. nor Mrs. Doherty had completed the day's duties, and the thirty or more relatives found them thus engaged. The evening passed very quickly and pleasantly with social chat and with cards and dancing. After refreshments had been served by the ladies, Miss Stella Doherty, on behalf of the assembly, presented them with a purse of money, to which Mr. Doherty fittingly responded. Among other gifts was a beautiful aluminum steam cooker from Mrs. Doherty's sister, Mrs. Hunter, and a wedding cake handsomely decorated and lighted with ten candles, also the gift of Mrs. Hunter.

The "bride's" family was represented by her father, Mr. Alex Talbot; two brothers, the Messrs. Talbot and the Misses Talbot, of Savage's Mills, and Mrs. Hunter, of Derby, Vt.; the groom's family by his father, Mr. Geo. Doherty, Miss Sadie Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Martin and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Doherty, with their respective families, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Doherty and family.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Linstead, Mr. Harold Linstead, Messrs. Harold Hawthorne and Hamiton Mount, and the Misses Jean and Grace Hawthorne, who motored out from Brigham, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Manson, West Sheffield.

Mrs. Mary Garrick has returned from Alberta, where she has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Longway.
