UNIONIST CHALLENGES REFUSED; CHURCHILL TURNS DOWN Mr. LAW

Calls Bonar Law Lacking in Courage, But Will Not Meet Him in Fight in North-west Manchester—The Free-Trade Organizations Decline to Publish Their Subscription and Membership Lists—Pithy Points From Prominent Speakers' Addresses—Mr. W. T. T. Stead Summarises the Situation From the Extreme Radical Standpoint, and Makes an Amusing Prophecy of the Ultimate Outcome of Passing the Veto Bill.

By special cable from our own correspondent.

London, November 29.—(Copyright)—Challenge and counter-challenges now abound.

Realizing how deadly would be the blow to the Ministry if the Free-Trade citadel of Manchester fell before Mr. Bonar Law's spirited assault, Mr. Winston Churchill was sent hastily down to that seat, and made a bitter personal attack on Mr. Law.

Mr. Law replies with a challenge which greatly appeals to the sportsmanlike instincts of the Lancashire men. Mr. Law's opponent, Sir George Kemp, fought in the Boer war, and Mr. Winston Churchill taunted Mr. Law as wanting in courage in not also going to South Africa. Mr. Bonar Law replies:

"Courage can be shown in two ways, and I suggest a way in which Mr. Churchill may display it at this moment. The Liberal Association of Dundee, will be quite ready, if asked to make the exchange, to accept Sir George Kemp as their candidate, in which case Mr. Churchill may display his courage in coming into and fighting in North-west Manchester. (Cheers).

"If he will do that, I will give him a hearty welcome, and you Lancashire men shall have a lively time. I am even willing to make another offer which is at sporting odds, that if I am beaten in North-west Manchester I will not seek re-election in the new Parliament in any constituency, but will wait and fight it out here, if Mr. Churchill is willing to give the same pledge on his own behalf." (Cheers and laughter.)

Dundee is, of course, a safe Radical seat, but Mr. Bonar Law's challenge at least suggests what a good chance he now believes he has to win Manchester for the Unionists, otherwise he would be decreeing his banishment from political life. There is no sign, as yet, of Mr. Winston Churchill's acceptance of the challenge.

A Series of Unionist Challenges Unanswered.

This is the fourth challenge which as yet has not been accepted by the Radicals. The others, firstly, a challenge to send a joint Free-Trade and Tariff Reform deputation to Germany to see whether the German work-people are downtrodden under the tariffs and compelled to eat dog flesh and offal; secondly, a challenge to send an Imperial deputation to Canada to judge whether Canada is abandoning her tariff; thirdly, a challenge to show whence the Free-Trade organizations get their funds.

Lord Ridley, chairman of the Tariff Reform League, answering the challenge of the National Reform Union, offered to submit the League's bank passbooks to any firm of auditors and permit the publication of all the subscriptions received if the Free-Trade organizations would do the same. He also promised to pay one thousand pounds to any charity if one single subscription were found to come from a non-British subject.

Lord Ridley says:

"The Tariff Reformers suspect that the enormous funds at the disposal of the Free-Trade Union and other kindred organizations are recruited very largely from the subscriptions of foreign gentlemen, middlemen, and certain manufacturers whose interests lie in supporting Free-Trade for England and Protection for other countries. No doubt, the publication of the list would finally set these suspicions at rest, but as the records of the Budget League have been burned, I am quite willing to omit that organization.

Lord Weardale, the chairman of the National Reform Union, declines the challenge on the ground that he is not concerned with the other Free-Trade organizations, whose subscription lists, he believes, have been regularly published.

The net result is to discount greatly the supposed mystery of Tariff Reform funds. Mr. Bonar Law's assertion is that the total for the whole seven years of the existence of the League does not exceed the amount that Cobden's Anti-Corn Law League received in one year.

The Fight at Manchester—Fresh Issues.

London and Lancashire are the two cockpits of the fight. Mr. Balfour's speech to-night in London's largest auditorium, the Albert Hall, is eagerly awaited. To-morrow Lord Roseberry will address a non-partizan gathering of Manchester business men.

The Lancashire Unionist papers concentrated this morning on the maintenance of church schools and opposition to Welsh disestablisment, for Lancaster Unionists are desperately attached to Anglicanism.

Mr. Aitken, for instance, finds himself, probably to his own surprise and amusement, addressing a meeting nightly in the parish church rooms. Mrs. Aitken has now recovered from her chill, and is eagerly assisting in the campaign. The Radical local paper says her charm and grace have already won her many friends in Ashton.

WINDERMERE.

If Liberals Win Again Veto Bill Will Become Law, Says Churchill

Canadian Associated Press.

London, November 29.—Sir Edward Grey, speaking at Dudley, said the Colonial preference would be the most hollow, mistaken notion that the Unionists ever put before the country, as it would introduce discord.

Mr. Austen Chamberlain, in the course of an address at West Birmingham, declared:

"It will be a misfortune if the Colonial Conference passes off without our being able to come to an agreement to establish reciprocal trade arrangements with the overseas Dominions. The slight preference to be given the Colonies on the articles they produce would secure at least equal concession from them as regards our manufactures, and these material benefits ought to be considered at the Conference."

Speaking at Finsbury to-day, Mr. Winston Churchill said if the electors returned the Liberal Government to power the result would be that the

MR. BORDEN ON SIR A. MOND'S DECLARATIONS

Reciprocity Within Empire Aspiration of Canadian People, He Declares.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Mr. R. L. Borden was asked for a statement with regard to recent declarations of Sir Alfred Mond and other free traders of Great Britain respecting public opinion in Canada upon fiscal questions. He said:

"Within a few years the future destiny of the Empire will be determined. The problems that confront it are not easy of solution. Autonomy must be preserved, the natural resources of each dependency must be developed, but there must be also effective co-operation in trade and in defence. Free traders in Great Britain fail to recognize that Macdonald and Tupper in framing the National Policy of 1879 sought not only to develop our resources and to give employment to our people, but to maintain British connection.

"The present Government came into power in Canada in 1896 pledged to destroy the principle of protection in our tariff. In the face of this promise, they have constantly maintained that principle. Public opinion compelled, and it still compels, that course. Every one realizes that the people of the British Islands have the right and the duty of determining their own fiscal policy. To solve the larger problem of Imperial concern all the nations of the Empire must lend united efforts. Reciprocity within the Empire rather than with foreign countries is to-day the aspiration of the Canadian people. It is my profound conviction that its early accomplishment is not only desirable, but is even essential to the future solidity and welfare of the Empire."

A QUESTION FOR SIR WILFRID.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, November 29.—The Financial News says, editorially to-day:—

"There are mutterings about the secession of the Province of Quebec from the Dominion of Canada. How would Sir Wilfrid Laurier like it were the disloyal movement to be financed from this side, as he helped to finance Mr. John Redmond's parallel insult to England?"

The Auditor-General makes no comment, but some members are doing so. The items bought include a basket of flowers, $8; pipe case, $7; jardiniere, $5; chest of drawers, $5; bronze candlestick, $4; four cushions, $11; centre piece, $6; bags, three at $3; frame, $6; two shoe bags, $2.50; and sundries, $8.35.

Another New York Murder Mystery.

New York, November 29.—One of a group of four well-dressed men was shot down while walking along Harlem street early to-day, according to Vincent Plondo the only known witness of the shooting.

There was nothing about the murdered man to identify him.

The authorities have instituted a widespread search for the dead man's companions.

VARSITY WILLING TO ENTER HOCKEY

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 29.—Varsity is willing to re-enter the Inter-Collegiate Hockey League under certain conditions. The clubs considered the matter last night and decided to accept the proposal to play in a western section with Queen's and McGill, with the eastern section composed of Laval, of Quebec; Laval, of Montreal, and Ottawa College. Varsity, however, will insist on the constitution being changed so that provision is made for the playing off of ties and the settlement of some disputed points is left to the board of the Inter-Collegiate A. A. If these concessions are not granted Varsity decares it is through with the Inter-Collegiate.

Syracuse, N.Y., November 29. — Hank Griffin, a giant negro from the West, whom Con O'Kelly, Tommy Ryan's protege, recently met in a slashing go at Utica, had his shoulder dislocated in the second round of a second battle with O'Kelly here. The injury came during a hard clinch on the ropes. Griffin concealed the gravity of his injury from his second and went on with the bout.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL TEAMS PLAY MATCH

For what will be the first big basketball night at the Central Y. M. C. A., three good games have been arranged, and some fast basketball should result. The first fixture will be an Association Intermediate League game between the junior business men and the Harriers. Both teams are composed largely of new material, but should put up a good game.

The second game will be put on as an opening attraction, and the Cubs and Harriers will hook up in what should be a red-hot contest. Both teams are in tip-top condition and fit to play to the limit. The Cubs won the city intermediate championship. They have not met since early last season, so that the question as to which is the better team is practically at stake.

The third game will be the first game in the Intermediate City League schedule, to be played on the Central Y floor, and will be between the Westmount A. A. A. five and the Central team. This should also be a good game. The home team will have a strong line up and will endeavor to capture the opening fixture.

The games are billed to start at 7.30, 8.15 and 9 p.m.

MULLEN WITH TORONTO.

But Leafs Have Named Price for His Release.

Toronto, November 29.—Toronto has not disposed of "Jimmy" Mullen to the Utica Club as yet, but the local management has gone so far in the matter as to name a price for Mullen's release. Utica wants Mullen to manage and play second base.

No word has been received from the New York State club since President McCaffery named his figure, but the matter will be definitely settled one way or another within a few days.

SPORTING VIEWS and REVIEWS

The cadets of the Royal Military College, Kingston, have been doing so well this season against intermediate Rugby teams that the idea is occurring to some of them that, like Alexander of Macedonia, they should be looking for other worlds to conquer. There was a time when the R. M. C. Rugby team travelled in faster company than that of the intermediates, but they found the pace a little too swift and dropped out. Between football and war a number of analogies exist, which the Hamilton "Tigers," if called upon, could readily point out. For instance, one of the features possessed by both football and war is the liability of one party to the contest getting the worst of it. Young men in training to make war, next to the task of looking pretty, the serious business of life, ought to be invincible on the football field.

Practically from its inauguration the St. Patrick's Amateur Athletic Association has been coming on with wind and tide, and in one agreeable sense it sailed into port the other night when it opened formally its most comfortable, new club house. The new premises are so cosy and attractive and so well equipped with all that an athlete requires for indoor training or entertainment that there will never be danger of St. Patrick's boys wandering from their own fireside, except, of course, when they go out into the arena to meet and defeat their rivals in the athletic field.

"Battling" Nelson battled once too often, and as a consequence he had the melancholy experience of seeing his lightweight championship vanish into thin air, and his name written on the pension roll of the "has-beens" among those of Jeffries, Bryan and possibly Colonel "Teddy." Nelson had a fairly long day for a lightweight, and it may be that when the sun of his success was shining he managed to make some hay. The championship now passes to a sturdy lad from Birmingham, England, a place noted for its fighters of various sorts—"Fighting Joe," for instance.

When applying for a charter it is said that the Ottawa Football Club will ask for only a capitalization of five hundred dollars. There will be no watered stock about that, and this stock is to go into the hands of true Rugbyists, who are not looking so much for dividends as for good sport and championship honors. Of course, an incorporated Ottawa Football Club would be a limited liability company, but all the same its prospects of glory and entertainment might be quite unlimited, and its career as bright as the big seal that will be affixed to its charter.

Referee Phil McKenzie's First Official Statement About the Big Rugby Match.

Referee Phil Mackenzie, yesterday afternoon, gave the only official statement of his views on the big match, to the Star:

"The better team won. It was the best drilled aggregation I ever saw. The team work was perfect; there were no fumbles behind the line during the game, and they handled the pigskin at times like a baseball. They seemed to take great chances from an outside view, and yet were not, as the backs were all absolutely sure of themselves, and had perfect confidence in each other. There was nothing to choose between the backs—Maynard and Dixon were as good as Gall, with, perhaps, not quite so much to do. The light line held heavier Hamilton line well. The game was clean and hard, and there was no dirty play and no dispute of decisions by Varsity, and only in one or two instances by Hamilton. I warned Isbester repeatedly for disputing decisions before ruling him off. Simpson played a grand game and bore the brunt of the work on the back division. He ran well and stood a lot of hard tackles, especially in the last half. The Hamilton team was in the game at all stages, especially in the third quarter, but lacked the team play and the finished style of Varsity. All credit is due to Coach Griffiths. One thing I want to say and that is too much betting does the game harm and gives partizans distorted ideas as to the merits of the play. A man with money on the game thinks of that first, and the game itself as a secondary consideration, and is judged from a biased standpoint.

I thought Isbester might have been used oftener on the backs, for he is a hard man to bring down, for he has great speed and weight.

Mr. Slee made good arrangements to handle crowd. There was no trouble to speak of. There was one delay only, of about five minutes, due to the crowd. The police were of little assistance. Mr. J. B. McArthur made an able umpire and an excellent assistant."

HACKENSCHMIDT DEFEATED DR. ROLLER

About six thousand wrestling enthusiasts turned out at Sohmer Park last night, to witness the first meeting of Georges Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, who is out after Gotch's title, and Dr. Roller.

It was one of the most interesting contests that has ever been pulled off here, and the thousands of fans who occupied every seat in the big auditorium, went home quite pleased with what they had seen.

Men of all nationalities and all trades crowded to the Park to witness this star performance, but even the thousands of seats which were placed at the disposal of the tremendous crowd, could not hold all that were anxious to witness the contest between these two husky giants, and many had to make themselves at home on the floor around the ring.

The gallery was crowded to the limit, not an inch of space being left and those who could not see the contest to their own satisfaction by standing or sitting, climbed the rafters and took any other available spot of vantage in an effort to witness the bout.

The match itself was undoubtedly the best ever witnessed in Montreal, and the fact that it took Hackenschmidt forty-seven minutes to secure the first fall, alone tells the story of how evenly matched the pair were and how interesting the battle was.

Both men were in the pink of condition, and although Hackenschmidt did most of the attacking, his rival was more than his equal in breaking dangerous holds, and springing to his feet when the crowd thought him in a bad position. Those tactics alone greatly discouraged the man who is striving for Gotch's honors, and at intervals he became quite desperate, but was met mid-way throughout the contest by the doctor, who at all times was cool, and seemed to take things easy.

Time and again the Russian Lion had Roller in dangerous positions but to no avail, the latter seeming to have studied his opponent's methods thoroughly, and he would break away with the agility of a cat, to the delight of those present. But Hackenschmidt's strength and weight gave him the decision and although he had to work for forty-seven minutes to down the Doctor first, he secured the second fall in ten minutes, thus adding Roller's name to his already long list of victims.

It was a battle royal right from the start, and it took the pair over nine minutes of prancing around on the mat before either man was able to put his opponent down, and even when the men got to their feet again after eleven minutes had passed before the pair got really to business.

Both were very cautious during the earlier part of the contest, each man watching his opponent's moves, and anxiously looking for a chance to secure a useful hold.

The Russian finally downed Roller, and forced the battle, but his sturdy opponent showed that he was quite capable of looking after his own interests and just when the anxious and highly interested crowd had the idea that he was in a bad position, the Doctor would break away, in a very clever manner. Had Roller been a stronger man there would very likely have been a different story to tell, for not only did he possess great endurance power, but his tricks in breaking away were of a high class order, for which he received loud applause time after time.

Hackenschmidt's strength, undoubtably clinched the contest for him and he won after his man making herculean efforts to score an early victory. Although Hackenschmidt was on the top during the greater part of the contest, Roller deserves great credit for the way he stuck to his task, fighting desperately till the last.

After fifteen minutes of wrestling during which time the honors were about even, Roller got the toe hold on his husky rival and made a desperate effort to force him on his back, which task the doctor failed to accomplish, for the Russian Lion broke away so fast, that he in turn took the upper hand.

During the next few minutes of wrestling the crowd was kept in an uproar.

Hackenschmidt forced the pace and rolled his opponent into a dangerous position. Roller, however, had all sorts of tricks on hand and when the Russian would put his head anywhere near, the doctor would grab it in one arm and hold on in such a determined manner, that although Hackenschmidt tried hard to break away he had to work every inch before he could get free.

But even with his head free he was not at liberty to do as he pleased, and Roller several times got Hackenschmidt's leg between his, like a rat in a trap, and although his opponent tried hard to wriggle free his efforts were useless, and he had to give up his hold to set his limb free, during which time the doctor would squirm to the top.

Roller again tried the toe hold, and although he had one of his opponent's legs badly twisted, he was too greedy in attempting to get both in the same position and as a result lost his hold.

The minutes were now flying fast and the wrestlers were still at it, first one then the other having the upper hand.

Several times the Russian had his man in dangerous positions, but by clever bridging and squirming, all of which greatly pleased the crowd, Roller would break clear.

Finally, however, Hackenschmidt got his man pinned under him, and as a result of a clever roll he scored the first fall, in forty-seven minutes.

When the men entered the ring again after a brief rest, both looked as fresh as when they started.

After the usual prancing around, Roller finally downed his rival, amid loud shouts from the spectators, the majority of whom were anxious to see Roller score a victory.

They, however were sadly disappointed, for after squatting, squirming and turning the Russian got on top, and from this minute on forced matters until he finally forced Roller to admit defeat, when he pinned the doctor's shoulders to the mat for the second time. The time of the second fall being fourteen minutes.

In the preliminaries Hukof, a country boy, defeated Rory O'More, the British champion, and McDonald, in less time than it takes to tell the story, at catch-as-catch-can. Rory was no match for his husky rival, but was game, and although defeated he still persisted that he should be given a chance at Cumberland style.

As none of the wrestlers were familiar with this style, the Irishman was finally persuaded to withdraw, amid loud cheers from the crowd, who took great pleasure in encouraging him and telling him how to wrestle.

Deriaz and Zbysco will meet in a finish bout at the Park, December 7th.

Noted Hockey Players Show Last Year's Contracts as Proof They are Being Badly Treated

The old Wanderer players are amongst the men most worked up about the Five Thousand Dollar Salary limit in Hockey.

The utterances of Art. Ross and Ernie Johnson are a good indication of how they feel about it.

Ross showed the Star his contract with Haileybury. "People thought that we were not getting as much as we said we were last year. This contract shows it. I for one will certainy hold out till the end."

Ernie Johnson has this to say:

"I have had my nose broken twice; I have had my face cut up something terrible; I have been knocked out time and again; and do you suppos that I will submit to things like that for a measley five hundred dollars? Not me, and I know there are dozens like me who feel the same about it.

"Do you really thing it was fair that when last year we got over a thousand dollars for ten matches we should get only half of that this year for about eighteen matches?

"No I think the public will sup-port us, who have given it good hockey in the past, and if we don't play they won't come to see the games, and I can assure you that none of the first class players will take the risks they do take for twenty-five dollars a game."

Those who see the following contract, which is unique in its way, will no longer wonder why the players withreputations feel disgusted at the proposed salary limit.

AGREEMENT made in duplicate this 15th day of January, 1910.

Between:

ARTHUR ROSS,
Of the First Part;
— and —
HAILEYBURY HOCKEY CLUB,
Of the Second Part.

In consideration of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), paid by the Club to Ross (receipt of which is hereby acknowledged) and of the covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto mutually agree each with the other as follows:

Ross agrees to play hockey with and for the Haileybury Club for the entire season of 1910, and to give his full services to such Club, in accordance with the directions of the Club, and to conform to the requests of the Club, and to finish the said Season, playing League and Exhibition games, as requested.

The said Club agrees to pay Ross for such Season, the sum of Twenty-Seven Hundred Dollars ($2,700), of which One Thousand ($1,000) is acknowledged, and the balance of Seventeen Hundred ($1,700) Dollars to be paid Ross in weekly instalments of One Hundred and Seventy ($170) Dollars per week.

It is agreed that should such Season extend beyond the Ten Weeks from this date, that the sum above mentioned is to entitle the said Club to the services of Ross for the entire Season.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have set their hands and seals.

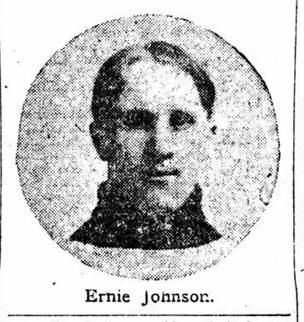
ENTICING BOWLERS FROM THEIR TEAMS.

According to reliable reports, Montreal bowlers are getting into bad habits, and all sorts of dodges are being resorted to, to steal good men from certain teams for the purpose of strengthening up others.

It is positively stated that presents, such as individual balls and even car tickets for the season are being resorted to to entice men away.

HE WILL FIGHT HOCKEY SALARY REDUCION TO THE END.



Ernie Johnson.

SPORTING GOSSIP UP TO DATE. NEWS AND NOTES.

A meeting of the Independent Hockey League will be held on Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. at 443 St. James street for the purpose of re-organizing the league. Any club wishing to join, please send delegates.

The water polo match between the Nautique and Laurentian clubs scheduled to take place last night at the Laurentian baths, was postponed until December 7, on acount of there being no water.

Draper leads in the aggregate of the M.A.A.A. fall series of swimming handicaps, with Hodgson second and McGill third. The second of the last series for the fall season takes place to-morrow evening.

The last of the M.A.A.A. swimming series will be held on Wednesday evening, December 7, which will be an open night, when ladies will be admitted. A special feature for the evening will be the aquatic procession, which has been arranged by Mr. Matthews, the swimming instructor.

Intelligent Economy

is the getting of value—real value; not simply what looks like value on the surface.

Most men judge clothes by their first appearance—by the outside—but men who know how to get the best value inquire as to the hidden parts—the underlinings and inside workmanship. This is where the selling points of "Stilenfit" brand Clothes come in, and it is intelligent economy for you to buy such clothes.

New lines for this winter season are here.

A HAMILTON OPINION OF FOOTBALL GAME

Special to The Montreal Star.

Hamilton, Ont., November 29.—The Spectator says the most spectacular and brilliant gridiron battle ever fought in Canadian Rugby history wound up in a glorious triumph for speed and youth adding but one more record to the ever present sporting claim that youth must be served. Saturday's great victory for the Toronto University fourteen was the most sensational ever won by a college team as well as the most deserved. The students outgeneraled and out kicked, and for fully two thirds of the entire game outplayed their opponents. It was a distinct personal triumph for Hon. Coach Harry Griffith and the Rugby machine that he had built up out of mere youngsters and the most formidable demonstration ever given that the perfectly trained team working as one unit is ever better than the outfit made up principally of individual stars. The better team won, and every Rugby enthusiast in Hamilton and district as well as in all parts of the Dominion doffs his hat in direct tribute to one of the strongest fourteen ever sent on the field in Canada. Both teams were out in full strength or practically so and in addition to this the others had the advantage of playing on their home grounds.

Varsity loomed up as one of the strongest machines that ever represented a university and the Tigers were one of the most formidable city teams that has played in some years. The game was played on a slippery field, the going was very slow and the ground decidedly soggy, but this as it turned out proved a direct detriment to both teams although it did not mar to any extent the brilliancy of a struggle which has never been excelled for strenuous speed and fierceness of conflict. The score amply shows difference between the two hosts and the points as scored, and the manner in which the conflict was carried on. Varsity having a wide margin on the play in the first half with honors even up in the second half, the collegians superb staying powers giving them the best of it in the last few moments of play. It was this great condition, combined with agressiveness and alertness to take advantage of opportunities coming on the top of perfect team work that gave the students the edge especially as the Tigers displayed little combined effort and above all displayed a deplorable lack of judgment that proved very costly at times, and lost points for them at critical moments which if scored would have turned the tide in the opposite direction. The entire Varsity team played to perfection.

MONTREAL CURLERS HELD SEMI-ANNUAL

A large number of members of the Montreal Curling Club were present at the semi-annual meeting last night, held at the club house. President H. B. Brainerd was in the chair.

It was decided that the president's and vice-president's prizes should be continued this season as in the past, and also that the points competition on Saturday evening with the regular Saturday luncheon, would be held as usual. The club's billiard competition is again on foot, and the bridge tournament which was commenced last week will be carried on throughout the season.

The following members were elected on the house committee: Messrs. G. C Smith, G. H. Carter, H. Vallance, C. Tyre, W. Walker, G. Darling and W. I. Fenwick. Rink committee, Messrs. J. F. Mundle, W. A. Wilson, G. Darling, A. P. S. Glassco, and Dr. Morrison.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, a capital smoking concert was held, while full justice was done to the supper.

St. Andrew's Curlers.

The St. Andrew's Curling Club will be formally opened for the season to-morrow evening with a haggis supper, followed by a smoking concert, for which a fine programme has been prepared by the committee in charge.

Trouble Between an Athletic Federation and Union in U. S. Like They Used to Have Here

Chicago, November 29.—Officials of the Amateur Athletic Federation have given out a statement in reply to the interview by President Everett V. Brown, of the Amateur Athletic Union Friday in which the local organization says its intents and actions are apparently misconstrued by the national body.

The gist of the statement is that the A. A. F. has not applied for a settlement with the A. A. U., but merely gave its position in the local controversy to the latter body and the matter was allowed to stop there, as the A. A. F. did not care to go further on any different grounds.

The statement which was given out by Dr. H. F. Kallenberg, says the objects of the two organizations are widely different in that the A. A. U. is more for the individual stars who seek big prizes, while the A. A. F. plays to the "masses" who compete for sport's sake alone and for the sake of good competition.

The communication in full follows:

Although the A. A. F. officials are loath to engage in a newspaper controversy with the A. A. U., yet in justice to the federation a brief statement from the A. A. F. view point is in order.

It should be understood that the so-called "peace conference" of the A. A. U. and the A. A. F. last spring was called by Mr. Racey, the vice-president of the Central A. A. U., and held at the I. A. C. clubhouse. At that conference Mr. Brown himself made the request that the A. A. F. present to him suggestions as to how the A. A. U. might work in harmonp with the local situation.

In compliance with this request the A. A. F. did send in suggestions, which in substance were that there should be mutual recognition of each other's registrations, i. e., that A. A. F. athletes be allowed to compete in A. A. U. meets and that A. A. U. athletes be allowed to compete in A. A. F. meets without double registration and sanctions. Furthermore, it was suggested that each organization control and discipline in every way its own atiletes, and that there should be the same relation and freedom of intercourse between the A. A. U. and the A. A. F. as now, for example, exists between the various educational institutions in the different sections of the country.

The A. A. F. officials feel that these are not unreasonable propositions because the organizations in the federation are conducting strictly amateur athletics and all have a registration scheme of their own and a very close check on their athletes. Furthermore, some of the oragnizations, such as the high schools, turners, etc., have higher standards of eligibility than do the A. A. U.clubs. For example, the high school athletes must reach a certain standing in scholarship before they can compete for their high school; a turner must attend a certain number of gymnasium classes before he may represent his society, and a Bible class athlete must attend Sunday school a certain number of Sundays each month before he may represent his organization.

The history of the local athletic controversy clearly shows that the A. A. F. did not approach the A. A. U. in order to effect a reconciliation, nor has the A. A. F. at any time asked the A. A. U. for any concession whatever. The A. A. F. is willing to co-operate shoulder to shoulder with the A. A. U. for the promotion of clean sport, but does not propose to subordinate itself to that organization for the following reasons:

1. The field of competition is immeasurably greater outside of the A. A. U. than in. For example, in the central ten states, including and adjoining Illinois, there were last year, according to the A. A. U., twenty-six athletic clubs. Of this number seventeen were in Chicago and four in Milwaukee. On the other hand, there are ninety Y. M. C. A.'s, several hundred high schools and as many more colleges in thes states that are not affiliated in any way whatever with the A. A. U., but are in leagues of their own. The Amateur Athletic Federation has received the indorsement of the western conference, the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Missouri Valley conference, the Central Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Association and many other permanent organizations conducting athletics in the middle West. To affiliate with the A. A. U. would mean that the A. A. F. would shut itself itself out of competition with this vast field for the reason that those organizations will not register in the A. A. U.

2. The objectives of the athletic clubs differ from those of the organizations in the federation. The position of the A. A. F. in athletics is clearly stated in the platform which was adopted October 7, 1910, and reads:

"Recognizing the social and educational value of competition in physical activities, the Cook County Amateur Athletic Federation stands first and always for wholesome, formal and informal contests in gmynastics, athletics and aquatics for the many. The federation desires to serve those who stand for 'sport for sport's sake,' who desire to acquire those many virtues cultivated by sane competition and who furthermore will be loyal to the ideals of the organizations they represent. For the men who are looking merely for notoriety, for medals and cups, or are ever ready to shift their allegiance whenever offered suitable (to them) material inducement to do so, the federation has nothing to offer except to encourage such to come in and co-operate on this other higher basis."

To be sure, the Amateur Athletic Federation of Cook County is a local affair, but nevertheless it is of national importance, for the reason that there is widespread dissatisfaction in athletic circles and the Cook County federation is pointing out the way for the solution of some of the problems which have caused dissatisfaction. The fact is that the federation scheme such as we have here in Cook County is being copied all over the country, and we prophesy that within the next two years federations will exist all over the country independent of the A. A. U.

We have every respect for our fellow townsman, Mr. Brown, and are exceedingly sorry because of our personal regard for him that there should be any disagreement between the A. A. F. and the A. A. U., of which he is the national head. The Cook County Federation was not organized because of any personal feeling against any of the officials of the A. A. U., but, on the contrary, the men in the federation believed in and stood for certain fundamental principles of democracy which could not be realized under the present form of administration of the A. A. U.

De Oro Was Beaten.

New York, November 29. — Jerome Keogh, champion pool player of the world, defeated Alfred De Oro, the challenger for the title, in the first block of 200 points of their scheduled 600-point match here. The score was: Keogh, 210; De Oro, 180.

De Oro played a brilliant, spectacular game, and led up to the ninth inning, but Keogh's playing gave him the lead in the eleventh, and thereafter he was never headed. De Oro made a high run of 25, while Keogh's best was 15, but this he repeated several times.

Play will be continued to-night.

THE CRESCENTS WON MATCH

A very interesting basketball match was played between two teams of the junior B class of the Y.M.C.A. League. The Crescents, after a hard fought battle, were announced the victors, they defeating the Comets by 17 points to 15.

Neither team had any great advantage at any stage of the game. During the second period of play the score was tied several times, and only during the last minute was the result decided in favor of the Crescents by a two-point margin. The line-up of the teams:

Comets (15).	Crescents (17).
C. Patton (captain)	guards	Knowles
Holland	guards	Caron
Pascoe	centre	B. Macfarlane (capt.)
Montross	forwards	Norman
Williams	forwards	Holmes

Referee, H. C. Patterson; timer, Earl Wood.

Next Thursday, December 1, the opening game in the Intermediate City League will be played between Westmount and the Central Y teams.

The Thistle Curlers.

At the Thistle Curling Club's semi-annual meeting, which was held last evening in the club rooms, the following committees were elected to serve for the coming season:

Match—Messrs. W. D. Aird, J. W. Anderson, T. B. Reith.

Entertainment—Major Freeman, H. G. Wills and J. C. McDiarmid.

TWO CLIQUES OF GAMBLERS OPERATE HERE

Judge Choquet Astonished at Revelations Made

Gives O'Connor Benefit of the Doubt as to Ownership of the Roulette Wheel.

"Gambling houses are conducted openly in Montreal. There are two cliques of gamblers—one in high life and one in low life—and their quarrels have led to these revelations in court."
—Judge Choquet.

"Acquitted on the charge of stealing a roulette wheel from John Maloney's gambling house, at 110 Mansfield street," was the decision rendered by Judge Choquet to-day in the lengthy case which led to the revelation of gambling houses being conducted openly in Montreal.

In rendering his decision Judge Choquet expressed his astonishment at the revelations that were made during the hearing of the case.

"I will not make any remarks about the facts established during the hearing of this long case," said His Honor, "except that I might express considerable surprise that gambling houses have been run openly in the city of Montreal by apparently two sets, or cliques, of gamblers, one in high life and one in low life. These two cliques were unable to agree and their quarrels led to the revelations which have been brought before the public while this case was proceeding. My duty is to decide whether O'Connor was justified in carrying away this roulette wheel. Evidence on the side of Maloney showed some doubt as to who was the actual owner of the wheel, and with two sets of men in the same case swearing to different stories, I am inclined to give O'Connor the benefit of the doubt. I, therefore, acquit him on the charge of theft."

The case, which was thus disposed of this morning, has been pending in the courts for some time. O'Connor, in the first place, claimed that the roulette wheel was his own property, having been given him by Brady, who used to keep a gambling house in Montreal up to a few years ago.

He therefore entered Maloney's place one night and carried off the wheel.

Five charges were subsequently entered against O'Connor by Maloney—creating a disturbance, assault, stealing an overcoat, damaging property, and stealing a roulette wheel.

Judge Bazin at the preliminary investigation acquitted O'Connor on four of the charges, holding him for trial on the charge of stealing the wheel.

At the same time Judge Bazin instructed O'Connor to accuse Maloney of conducting a gambling house, but it does not appear that this was ever done.

CAUCUS STORY A PIPE DREAM.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29. — Enquiry was made here to-day among the French Canservative members as to the story that their caucus had decided to ask Dr. Eeland to repeat his request in the House for a show of hands on the question of protecting Canadian shores.

It was stated that there is nothing in it. If such a demand is made, it is by the Montreal Nationalists, not those here, it was stated.

HEAVY TORONTO SENTENCE.

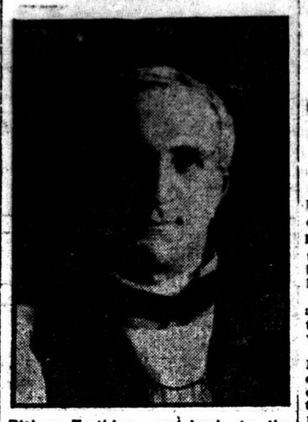
"Black Hand" Demand Resulted in Twelve Year Term.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 29.—James E. McCauley, who some time ago sent a "black hand" letter to Mr. J. C. Eaton, head of the T. Eaton Company, and who was captured as he took the money demanded, from its hiding place was to-day sentenced to twelve years in the penitentiary, by Magistrate Denison.

There were two other charges of theft against him. In his letter to Mr. Eaton he threatened to wipe out the latter's family unless the money asked was paid over.

BISHOP FARTHING HAS ANNIVERSARY ORDINATION SERVICE



Bishop Farthing, ordained to the deaconate twenty-five years ago.

The Right Reverend John Craig Farthing, D.D., Lord Bishop of Montreal, celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the Diconate, to-day in a quiet and private manner. The Bishop took the opportunity of the presence in Montreal of his old friend the Rev. Canon Wade, of Hamilton, to hold a special celebration of the Holy Communion in Christ Church Cathedral at 8 o'clock this morning, to which he invited the city clergy to join him in his thanksgiving and prayers. The Bishop and clergy subsequently breakfasted at Morgan's, owing to the lack of accommodation for so large a party at the Bishop's residence.

Bishop Farthing and the Rev. Canon Wade were both ordained at the same service in Christ Church London, Ont., by the late Right Rev. Bishop Baldwin, of Huron, who was at one time Dean of Montreal.

MARINE MEN TALK OF NEW CONDITIONS SET BY WEATHER MAN

Thirty Years Ago Ice Formed Early and There Were Wrecks in River.

The continued open weather has set some of the older marine men on the waterfront making reminiscent comparison with the experiences of years gone by, and the most striking comparison has been dug out of the reports of the port wardens.

In 1880, it is reported that "on November 21, the navigation season closed abruptly by the unexpected formation of ice on the river." The Dominion, of the Dominion line, when under the command of Captain Reid, who is chief port warden to-day, was in port on that date, and she made a hurried departure eastwards, but the ship got no further than Sorel where she was held up by the ice and there she was detained for the winter.

"This sudden and unexpected closing of navigation so much earlier than usual," the 1880 report states, "has had most disastrous effects. Among other serious losses might be mentioned the stranding of the ships Boyne and Ottawa, which left the port of Montreal on November 20. The stranding occurred at Cap a la Roche, and the ships' cargoes were almost a total loss. Two grain-laden vessels, the Scotia and the Cerise, which left the port on November 19 got no further than Quebec, where they had to remain for the winter. The former sustained considerable injury by the ice cutting into some of her planks.

The Dominion, referred to above, was the predecessor on the St. Lawrence route of the passenger ship of the same name, now sailing, and some idea of the progress that has been made in trans-Atlantic shipping since that date is found in the fact that such boats had a draught of eighteen or nineteen feet only. To-day a channel of thirty-five feet has become a necessity.

SUICIDE VERDICT AT SMITH INQUEST.

"Suicide" was the verdict of the Coroner's jury this afternoon at the inquest on the body of William Smith, the furnace man, who was found dead in his room in the basement of Mr. R. McDonald's residence, 216 Greene avenue, Sunday.

LEMIEUX IN CELLS AS BONDSMEN WERE NOT IN THE COURT

Emancipation Lodge Case Postponed Till Friday After Argument Between the Counsel.

A. J. Lemieux, charged with robbery by Mr. Ludger Larose, secretary of Emancipation lodge, spent a few hours in the cells of the Court House this morning, as the result of his bondsmen not being present to renew his bail.

The bail of Lemieux was only for his appearance in court this morning when the preliminary investigation in his case was to be resumed.

At the openng of the session, Mr. McAvoy represented that after a very close examination of the record, he had discovered that it was possible to attack the proceedings of the case, on the ground that the official stenographer who had taken the depositions in the case when it came for first hearing, had not been sworn before and after each deposition: "For that reason, said the attorney for the plaintiff, "I have reason to fear that the procedure in the case will be attacked before the Court of King's Bench and this is why I apply for a cancellation of the case as I wish to start it anew."

Mr. Alban Germain, who appeared for Lemieux, made opposition to the motion.

Magistrate Lanctot remarked that warrants for arrest were only intended to bring an accused before him and that no new warrant was required. "As he is before me," added Mr. Lanctot, "I hold him at the disposal of justice."

Mr. McAvoy declared that he would not be ready for preliminary investigation before Friday, which brought a new objection from Mr. Germain.

As the objection was ruled out, Mr. Germain asked that Lemieux be released on parole until two o'clock in the afternoon, to allow him to renew his bail.

Mr. McAvoy objected and asked that Lemieux be treated as any other accused which was ordered.

As the bondsmen of Lemieux were not in Court, the accused was taken to the cells, but released shortly after twelve, when his bail had been renewed.

MONTH IN JAIL FOR CARELESS SHOT.

Ferdinand Duchesne, who on Thursday last was found guilty of wounding Mr. "Andy" Hamilton, was this morning sentenced by Judge Choquet to one month in jail.

Duchesne was in the act of ejecting a man from a picture theatre on Windsor street, when a revolver was discharged, the bullet striking Mr Hamilton, who was passing at the time, in the leg.

LITERARY AGENT BLAMED FOR ALL

Count Tolstoi Says Malign Influence of Count Tschertkoff Responsible for Tragedy.

St. Petersburgh, November 29.—Count Leo Tolstoi publishes a bitter denunciation of Count Tschertkoff, the intimate friend and literary agent of the late Count Tolstoi. The son declares that Tschertkoff was the worst enemy that his father had in all educated Russia and the civilized world, and that he was directly guilty of the tragedy of Yasnaya Polinia.

"The malign influence of Tschertkoff," writes Count Leo, "caused the premature death of my father, his superhuman suffering and the separation from his family."

But for his literary agent, the son added, his father would have lived for many years peacefully at Yasnaya Polinia with the family who loved him and whom he loved so devotedly. The arrival of Tschertkoff was the beginning of the end.

Beauharnois Works Cause Dispute.

Ottawa, Ont., November 29.—Representatives of the Canadian Light, Heat and Power, and the Montreal Cotton Companies, will interview the deputy Ministers of Railways and Public Works to-morrow, regarding the trouble at Beauharnois Canal works.

The cotton company claims that the work of power development will interfere with the flow of water to its mills, and the matter has been pending for some months. The two sides will be heard to-morrow.

LICENSE RENEWAL CASES IN PRIVATE LATEST DECISION

Commissioners Believe That More Information Can Be Secured by Such Examinations.

When the License Commissioners re-open their investigation this afternoon into the conditions of hotels, they will be guided by a new line of procedure.

"There will be no more startling evidence in the open court," is their announcement. "We wil guide ourselves according to private information from reliable sources. It is easier to get information in private and it will be more reliable."

It was explained that when the astounding evidence was heard in open court about young girls drinking in the Laval, it was done for the purpose of making the hotelkeepers understand that the commissioners had started a rigorous campaign against immorality in hotels and roadhouses.

No decisions will be announced by the License Commissioners after the evidence is heard this afternoon. As a matter of fact, it was announced that there would be no decisions for two weeks yet.

"We are getting information all the time," they said, "and it is not wise to act too hastily."

Elaborate precautions are being made by the police to keep out the crowds that have hitherto thronged the courtroom at the License Commissioners' meetings. There will be a double guard of constables and nobody who is not directly interested in the cases being heard will be allowed inside.

New Steamer for Port Dalhousie Line

Toronto, November 29.—The contract has been let to the Collingwood Ship Building Company for a new steamer for the St. Catharines and Port Dalhousie line to cost $150,000. She is to be 200 feet long and is to have a 38-foot beam. Her carrying capacity is to be 1,000 passengers.

OFFER BIG PLAN TO BEAUTIFY CITY IN FUTURE YEARS

Noted Landscape Gardner Reported to Parks Commission on Montreal's Needs.

Montreal the sinuous and tortuous, and at times the crowded and congested, may, in the course of coming years, become Montreal the systematic, the well-planned and, in fact, the beautiful.

Such is the hint of the report of the Metropolitan Parks Commission of Montreal, which is on the eve of being sent to the Provincial Government.

If the Provincial Legislators allow the suggestion to pass, the ideas for improvement will have to be ratified by the City Council.

The compilation of the report for the Government is now in the hands of Secretary David, and without divulging the details of the plans of which it is composed, he gave a representative of The Star this morning, a few of the salient schemes which the Commission hope to have passed by the Provincial powers.

The Commision used the services of one of the best-known and highly-qualified landscape architects in America, Mr. Frederick Olmsted, of the firm of Olmsted Brothers, Brooklyn, N.Y., who had to do with the planning of Mount Royal Park.

This firm has a splendid reputation in the specific work it undertakes, and to the Olmsteds is due a lot of the credit of the new Philadelphia. Mr. Olmsted came to this city and worked for days in the planning of the improvements which he considered necessary, and, when all the suggested plans are made known, the people of the metropolis of Canada will have something to sit down and study.

Montreal is now anxious to have more open playgrounds for the children, where they may indulge in a little more freedom and the secretary of the Metropolitan Parks Commission said to-day that there should be a park in every ward in the city of Montreal of, at least, one hundred acres in extent.

The Government will be asked to sanction the building of a grand boulevard around the whole length of the island of Montreal, right at the water front, and which will be at least 125 feet in width.

Such changes will not be wrought in a year, or even all in half a score of years, but once the sanction of the general plans is given by those in authority, all structures erected after that date will have to conform to the great scheme, and in the process of time Montreal will be completely transformed in appearance.

STOLE WHEN DRINKING THIS MAN'S EXCUSE.

Almanzor Lemieux, Shearer street, was this morning found guilty by Judge Choquet in the Court of Sessions of stealing money together with a watch from the house of Mrs. Viau, 144 Shearer street.

Lemieux was discovered by Mrs. Viau before leaving the house and she swore positively that she was not mistaken in the identity.

The accused stated that he had been drinking.

CAPTAIN SCOTT'S TERRA NOVA SAILS.

Christchurch, New Zealand, November 29.—The ship Terra Nova, bearing the British South Polar expedition under the command of Captain Robert F. Scott, sailed from Port Chalmers for the Antarctic to-day.

The Terra Nova sailed from London on June 1, and gradually worked her way south. Captain Scott, who joined the vessel in New Zealand, hopes to reach the South Pole in December of 1911.

Ball Entrance on Dorchester Street.

To-morrow evening guests and subscribers to St. Andrew's Ball in the Windsor Hall, will enter by the Ladies' entrance of the hotel on Dorchester street, and take the elevator to the corridor floor.

Veto Bill would be embodied in an act of Parliament and would receive the assent of the Sovereign.

GRAVITY OF ISSUES MAKES EVENT EPOCHAL.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29.—The Tribune says:—

"Down to the very moment of the announcement of dissolution there was an earnest and persistent hope that a compromise of some sort would be effected, not merely for the avoidance of another general election within a year of the last, but still more for the settlement of a great issue by calm reason rather than through those appeals to passion which are too commonly made at the hustings. That hope is now dismissed, and the United Kingdom will immediately be plunged into the hurly-burly of a general election involving several of the gravest issues which have been presented to the people in a hundred years.

The simple question of the veto power of the Lords would be sufficient to mark this election as epochal. But that is not all. The question of the reorganization of the House of Lords is directly involved, and so is that of the virtual withdrawal of Ireland from the United Kingdom.

There are also others of no little importance. For, of course, it is understood that if the Lords are prevented from any longer exercising their old legislative power, various radical measures against which they alone have been an effective barrier will promptly be taken up again and passed.

MR. STEAD CABLES INTERESTING FORECAST OF ELECTION'S OUTCOME

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29.—Wm. T. Stead cables the American as follows: In one of the briefest speeches on record, the King has dissolved his short-lived Parliament. Once more the Liberal Government will appeal to the country for a verdict—this time a decisive one—on the prerogatives of the King. For the second time in the course of twelve months the country is to endure the turmoil of general election.

Nothing has altered since the last general election save the death of King Edward, and so far as that has altered the situation at all it has altered it in favor of the Liberals.

The new King did not venture to influence the course of political events as his father might have done. He followed the advice of his constitutional Ministers. They wanted dissolution; he has granted dissolution. If the election results in the return of a strong majority in favor of the Veto Bill, he will see that that bill is passed through the House of Lords.

By taking this course he cannot get into any trouble. If he took any other course he might make a great hit, but he might make a great blunder, and this is not the time for monarchs to play "double or quits" with their Crowns.

"There is only one good thing about this election, and that is that it will be soon over and it will be decisive. Usually elections hang on for months. The new election will probably be the cheapest and quickest—and perhaps the bitterest—that was ever fought. There is a single clear issue upon which the arguments of both sides have been repeated so often that if the election took place to-morrow without the utterance of a single speech it would probaly have much the same result as it will have after a campaign of eloquence.

Setting Aside Rules of Tourney.

The constituencies have to decide one and only one question, namely, whether or not the Lords or the Commons shall govern the Empire. At present the Lords have usurped the right of deciding not only what the Commons shall do or shall not do, but they have practically taken from the hands of the King the right of deciding when dissolution shall take place. They compelled the dissolution of tht last Parliament by rejecting the Budget. They have compelled the dissolution of this Parliament by refusing to accept any compromise that impaired their usurped authority over finance or their technical authority over all details of legislation.

Some people have questioned whether it was wise to assume the rejection of the Veto Bill before it had been sent up to the Lords, but in a fight to a finish such as this, nice tourney rules must be put on one side. Every one knows perfectly well that the peers would not accept the Veto Bill, and, that being so, the sooner the parties get into close grips the better.

As to the result, very little doubt prevails in either camp. I have never known a dissolution which has found the Opposition so dejected or the Government so confident. John Bull, although a patient creature and long-suffering, is getting restive under the perpetual blocking of the will of the people by the hereditary Chamber. He spoke with emphasis in 1905 and found himself baffled by a solid phalanx of Conservative powers. He again expressed himself with emphasis eleven months ago, and found the same insuperable barrier to the execution of his will. The third time he will probably make an end of it.

When Veto Bill Becomes Law.

Mr. Asquith before Christmas will have a compact coalition majority of at lease 100 in favor of passing the Veto Bill. Then the Peers will pass the bill, protesting that the ancient constitution of England had been destroyed. Before twelve months are over they will discover that the Veto Bill has left their powers practically unaltered. The Veto Bill is an extremely moderate measure. A bill must be passed twice over in the Commons before the third and drastic step can be adopted of overriding the veto of the Lords.

The Lords will argue that they have a constitutional right to reject any measure that they dislike twice over, and that they are not expected to give in until the third time of asking.

So, when the Liberals carry their Veto Bill, they will have to be content with it for a time. It will probably take them ten years before they discover that after all the fuss and flurry, the House of Lords is still doing business at the old stand.

FRESH CANDIDATES ARE CROPPING UP.

Canadian Associated Press.

London, November 29. —There will be a contest in every division in London, with the exception of the "City." It is stated that the unopposed returns will approach one hundred in number, but it is doubtful, if they will reach so high a figure, as many candidates are appearing in places where a contest has up to now been regarded as unlikely.

The Liberals are even putting up a fight in Westminster and the Strand, two boroughs hitherto overwhelmingly Unionist.

Mr. Joseph Martin is being opposed by a second Liberal candidate, Mr. Levi Jacobs. This election will be held on Monday.

Liberal workers canvassing find that Home Rule has come too much to the front for them. Some of the canvassers report that many who voted for the Budget a year ago are not so disposed to-day.

About the only people who so far seem to have become excited over the forthcoming conflict are the professional politicians and the "stand-pat" partisans, and even among these classes there is much relative limpness.

The feeling is that it will be no surprise if the contests still threatened come to naught on nomination day.

MAN IN THE STREET SEEMS UNAFFECTED.

The man in the street does not seem to be affected, no matter how hysterical the declamation may be, and he thinks twice before giving his forecast.

The net results up to now indicate that there is an absence of anything in the nature of a landslide, and what wagering is being done is at even money.

Insurance has been effected at Lloyd's to recover the payment of a claim should the Unionist party be restored to power.

Mr. Lloyd George, at Newport Railway Station, in response to the people's cheers, said he hoped Newport voters would do their best. "Another push, and the Lords will topple over," he concluded.

Mr. Balfour speaks at Grimsby for Sir George Doughty on Friday. Mr. Winston Churchill speaks the same evening.

MORE AMERICAN DOLLARS FOR IRELAND.

Boston, Mass., November 29. — The members of the United Irish League of America have issued an appeal for funds to be sent to Ireland to assist the Home Rule party in the campaign just begun for the election of a new British Parliament. This action was taken at the direction of a meeting held here by the Boston members of the National executive committee of the league, including T. B. Fitzpatrick, National treasurer, and John O'Callaghan, National secretary.

In its appeal the committee says:

"Ireland's claim for Home Rule stands in the forefront in what is destined to be the most memorable general election in the political history of the last two centuries in Great Britain. The demand for Irish home rule is linked inseparably with the demand of the masses of the British people for the reforms which they have so long and so vainly demanded."

Deserted Domestic Service.

Florence McWilliams, a Scotch domestic servant, was to-day fined $20 or three months in jail for deserting her employment without the proper notice. She is one of the recent importations brought to Canada by the Montreal Domestic Guild, who pay all the girls' expenses from the time they leave the old land until they are placed in good homes in Canada.

Palpitation of The Heart.

When the heart begins to beat irregularly or intermittently, palpitate and throb, skip beats, beats fast for a time, then so slow as to seem almost to stop, it causes great anxiety and alarm.

The least excitement or exertion seems to effect it.

Many people are kept in a state of morbid fear of death, become weak, worn and miserable, through this unnatural action of the heart.

To all such sufferers Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. John Thompson, Mill Cove, N.B., writes:—"Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I have been troubled with weakness and palpitation of the heart; would have severe choking spells, and could scarcely lie down at all. I tried many remedies but got none to answer my case like your pills did. I can recommend them highly to all suffering with heart and nerve trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

OBSTACLES TO THE CENTRALIZATION OF RAILWAY TERMINALS

Montreal Railway Men Point Out Difficulties in Way of Union Station.

Monrtreal Railway men who heard Professor Zueblin's lecture at the Canadian Club luncheon yesterday express themselves to-day quite in agreement with him theoretically, in his declaration that a city of less than 500,000 population ought never to have more than one railway station, and also in the further statement that having two railway stations belonging to one company in a city is —theoretically—a joke.

But it is pointed out that ideals have to be adapted to circumstances, and the great natural obstacles heretofore met with in Montreal have prevented the ideal of one great central station being carried out. The mountain has proved not the least of the obstacles which have had to be reckoned with in the linking up of the C. P. R. eastern and western lines, and but for this all the company's trains would probably have been running into Windsor street station long ago.

For one company to have two stations, the same as the C. P. R. has in Montreal, is admitted to be an inconvenience to the public, but it is also a great inconvenience to the railway company itself, since trains which have to be transferred from one station to the other have to make an 18-mile detour round the mountain.

Would Take Piles of Money.

"The time will come," said one C. P. R. official to-day, "when the railway terminal facilities of Montreal will be centralized—there is no doubt of that. Already schemes have been discussed for tunnelling whereby we shall have direct connection between the Place Viger station and the Windsor Street station, but these schemes take time and money—and plenty of the latter."

On the subject of a union station for all the railways entering Montreal no enthusiasm among railway men could be found. It was contended that the public got better served by a little wholesome competition, and to prove this the case of Toronto, with its Union station, was cited. Something like eight million dollars are now being spent by the C. P. R. in improving its terminal facilities in the city, and the Grand Trunk is also completing schemes for spending huge sums in the same work. When these schemes are completed, officials claim that Montreal will have centralized railway facilities equal to the public conveniences to be afforded to any city on the continent, taking into consideration the peculiar geographical position of the city.

RAILWAYS OBJECT TO MILEAGE TAXATION.

A delegation from the Grand Trunk, Canadian Pacific, and Great Northern railways have waited on the city attorneys, in regard to the custom of the city assessing companies tracks in Montreal on a basis of $3,500 a mile. The contention of the companies is that the city shall assess each company on a lump sum valuation and not assess by mileage. The present system of assessing is considered burdensome.

Died While at Work.

LARGE INCREASE, NOT A DECREASE.

Owing to a typographical error, a misrepresentation appeared yesterday in the season's passenger traffic returns of the Allan Steamship Company. By the transposition of one line, the figures of 1910 were printed under the head 1909, thus showing a decrease in westbound traffic, when there was actually a big increase. The actual returns are:—1907, 58,670 passengers carried to Canada; 1909, 87,141; 1910 62,785. The year 1907 was a banner year, but the season just closed showed an increase of 4,115 over that record.

Bread Case Decision Postponed.

Toronto, Ont., November 29.—Judgment was reserved by the Court of Appeal in the stated case arising from the famous question as to whether "small bread" could be sold in separate loaves of together when the weight exceeded twelve ounces.

USUALLY ONE DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION

Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia, Sourness and Headache vanish and your Stomach will feel fine.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash, or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas which sours your entire meal, interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no diferent—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the stomach, Nervousness, or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out of order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

STANDING OF PARTIES AND RECORD OF BYE-ELECTIONS, LATEST CAMPAIGN FEATURES

Liberals Have Not Lost a Bye-election Since January, Out of Twenty-one Held—Their Net Majority is Two, Without Detachable Allies—Mr. J. L. Garvin Proposed Referendum Over Tariff Reform — The Ulster Unionists Breathe Defiance to Any Home Rule Parliament at Dublin—Randolph Churchill's Famous Slogan Revived—A Male Suffragette Candidate Announced—Mr. T. P. O'Connor's Little Slip of the Tongue.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29.—The Tribune says:—It is of interest to recall the standing of parties in the House of Commons just dissolved as determined by the general election of January last. There were then elected 273 Unionists, 275 Liberals of all shades, 40 aborites, 71 Nationalists, followers of Mr. Redmond, and 11 Independent Nationalists, followers of Mr. O'Brien. There have been twenty-one by-elections since that time, which have resulted, however, in no change of party representation. Of the total of 670 members, then, 335 were needed for a bare majority, the Speaker being counted out of divisions and remaining neutral. The Unionists fell 62 short of a majority, and the Liberals 61 short of it. There were no possible allies for the Unionists, so they were doomed to be the minority. All other factions were ready to ally themselves with the Liberals, for a consideration, but the Nationalists alone had enough votes to give the alliance a majority. Therefore the saying was uttered and gained some credence that the Liberals and Nationalists had entered into a compact whereby the former were to be enabled to "mend or end" the Lords and the latter were to get Home Rule.

No Changes in By-Elections.

The election of last January was not fought on exactly the same issues which are now at the fore, and the division of the electors over the new issues may be quite different in December from what it was in January. It is, however, significant that while these new issues have been much debated during the year and have evidently been steadily coming forward for predominance in the next election the by-elections, as stated, have shown no change in a single seat. That fact is quite unique in parliamentary history, at least since the second Reform bill. The five preceding Liberal Parliaments and the four Conservative or Unionist Parliaments since 1868 invariably showed changes, and invariably those changes showed net losses for the party in power. The greatest losses in by-elections in all those years were suffered by the Liberal government of 1868-74 which had a total loss of 36 and a net loss of 24. Even the short-lived Liberal administration of 1885-'86, only half the length of the Parliament which is now presumably closing, suffered two losses and no gains. That the present Liberal government should within less than a year pass through twenty-one by-elections without a single loss is certainly extraordinary and may—or may not—indicate a notable solidarity and fixedness of the Liberal vote, portending a practical repetition of last January's result.

December Elections Rare.

The present crisis is unique at least in modern times, in its involving a general election in December. Never before, since the first Reform bill at any rate, has an election been held in that month. Of the seventeen dissolutions in that time, before the present, three occurred in January, two in March, one in April, three in June, four in July, one in September, two in November, but so early in the month that the elections, or most of them, were ended before December, and one in December, but so late that the elections did not occur until the following January. What political effect will result from the holding of this time remains to be seen.

The general election of January was precided. It is true that the returns have polled, but in Birmingham and Westham—only the three largest constituencies—will be polling then the whole of the votes cast by these great constituencies, together with those polled at the two previous elections will afford a trustworthy gauge as to how the election will go as a whole.

I have made it my duty during the last few days to ascertain exactly from the headquarters of the various parties what they expect will be the result of the general election. At the Liberal headquarters the calculation is that the Government will lose seven seats and gain nineteen, making a net gain of twelve seats, or twenty-four votes in a division. This would bring the Liberal majority up to 148. The Opposition, which is fearfully depressed, will be greatly relieved if they do not lose twenty-five seats altogether, which will bring the Liberal majority up to 174. The Labor party will return weaker than it is to-day.

Redmond is most confident that he will hold his own in Ireland, but the general expectation is that O'Brien will succeed in winning a few seats. If he is not mistaken, Redmond will have a party of seventy behind him at the general election.

Present Standing of Parties.

London, November 29.—The present House of Commons has a Ministerial majority of 124, and the present standing of the various elements is as follows:

Liberals, 275; Labor members, 40; Nationalists, 71; Independent Nationalists, 11; Unionists, 273.

Of the foregoing, the first four are generally counted as supporters of the Ministry, giving a Ministerial strength of 397 as against the Unionist strength of 273, or a net Ministerial majority of 124.

The last general election followed the dissolution of January 10 last. Prior to that the Ministerial majority was 334, and as a result of Unionist gains in the election the Ministerial majority was reduced to the 124 of the House just dissolved.

PROPOSES REFERENDUM OVER TARIFF REFORM.

A feature of the situation worth noting is J. L. Garvin's suggestion in the Observer on Sunday that the Unionists should promise a referendum on the question of tariff reform if returned.

Then Mr. Garvin opined they might "sweep Lancashire." The main organ of the militant tariff reformers scouted the suggestion this morning.

Lord Cromer now asks the Unionist free traders to support their party, because he little doubts that the force of circumstances at any rate will compel the party to put the larger issues of the fiscal question such as the proposed taxation on food, to a referendum.

The Daily Mail publishes Lord Cromer's letter with editorial approval and says: "The Unionists, we are sure, would be perfectly prepared to accept this suggestion. If the Unionists get the solid vote of their free trade colleagues, it would make an important difference in their strength."

Another "Unionist white flag" is the way Liberals describe the proposal to send tariff reform to a referendum if the party is successful at the polls. It meets with considerable support in Unionist circles.

The Daily News, which estimates that the result in January will be "as in 1906," publishes an estimate prophesying a Government increase of 20 seats.

The Times says the Unionist solution of the second chamber question provides abundant guarantees and that tariff reform is not to be passed by any coup de main. It must have the assent of the great bulk of the nation.

ULSTER UNIONISTS TO FIGHT HOME RULE.

The Unionists of Ulster are fiercely agitated over the renewed prominence of the home rule movement, and are breathing threats of fire and slaughter. The Ulster Unionist Council had a series of meetings at Belfast yesterday at one of which, which was private, it was agreed, according to the Unionist papers, to draw up a solemn declaration refusing to pay taxes or rates imposed by any Dublin Parliament, or to obey any decrees issued by such a Parliament.

It is added that the meeting appointed an emergency committee to organize Ulster men into regiments. The sum of $50,000 was subscribed for the purpose of buying arms. This, it is declared, is no bluff. The Orangemen are in deadly earnest. If the Liberals return to power to Irish home rule Ulster will become an armed camp within a few weeks.

Whether not this picture is overdrawn certain that the antipathy of Unionists to Home Rule is based on past occasions, the prominent plank of the Randolph Churchill's Slogan.

There was a great Unionist demonstration in Belfast last night and an overflow meeting displayed excited enthusiasm that had not been paralleled since Randolph Churchill raised the famous battle cry, "Ulster will fight and Ulster will be right." The Marquis of Londonderry presided. He read a message from ex-Prime Minister Balfour, saying: "If Ulster stands firm a Home-Rule-Radical coalition will never succeed in forcing the disruption of the United Kingdom upon a hostile and determined people."

The Marquis of Londonderry declared that Home Rule meant the placing of the Protestant neck under the Roman Catholic heel, and he predicted that Ulster would never obey a Home Rule Parliament.

Some of the minor speakers said that sterner measures than not paying taxes would be employed if necessary in resisting a Home Rule Parliament.

FIRST SUFFRAGETTE CANDIDATE NAMED.

The first independent woman suffrage candidate is announced in the person of a prominent advocate, Wm. Mellis, who will contest a division of Glasgow. The Socialist party has decided to run a third candidate in Battersea, thus seriously endangering John Burns' chance of re-election.

Suffragists created serious disturbances at a meeting at Lambeth tonight, at which Winston Spencer Churchill was speaking. After several men had been thrown out Mr. Churchill strongly denounced the suffragists' tactics and said, "I am told that individuals are to be singled out for violence. If that is their language, there is only one answer, and that is 'come on.'"

MR. T. P. O'CONNOR'S ASSERTION INCORRECT.

Toronto, November 29.—A Canadian Associated Press despatch from London reports T. P. O'Connor, speaking at Peckham, as saying that a Conservative Premier occupied the chair at his Toronto meeting and spoke in favor of Home Rule, besides giving fifty dollars. This is an error. Mr. O'Connor undoubtedly meant "Minister," not "Premier." Hon. J. J. Foy, Attorney-General in the Ontario Cabinet, was chairman at the Toronto meeting addressed by T. P. on September 30.

THE ONLY REMEDY.

AUSTRALIA OBJECTS TO AUCKLAND AS A PORT OF CALL

Commonwealth Government Refuses to Accept Suggestion of Canadian Premier.

Special Cable to the Montreal Star.

Melbourne, November 29.—The correspondence relating to the Union Steamship Company's contract for a Canada-Australia mail service has been placed before the Senate.

In a communication to the Government of the Commonwealth, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Canadian Premier, takes a firm stand in regard to the Canadian proposal that a call at Auckland, New Zealand, should be included in those made by the trans-Pacific steamers.

The Canadian Prime Minister says the Dominion is prepared to accept a nineteen day service to Auckland, and twenty-three day service to Sydney.

The steamers, it is stipulated, must be able to maintain a speed of fifteen knots. The subsidy offered is £85,000, per annum, for four years.

The Australian Cabinet, however, is resolute in its opposition to a call at Auckland, as previously cabled. The matter is to be re-opened when Sir James Mills, head of the Union Steamship Company, returns from Europe.

REV. MR. SHEARER TO APPEAR

Will Attend Winnipeg Segregation Investigation.

Western Associated Press Special.

Winnipeg, November 29.—The feature of the enquiry into the Shearer charges were communications from Rev. J. G. Shearer to the effect that he will appear, and requesting the commission not to close until he is able to appear again. The judge takes the stand that he is not required to report on the motives which caused the establishment of a segregation area, but simply to report on the state of affairs existing.

Aldermen McMeans, Willoughby, MacDonald, and ex-Alderman Cox were examined, but nothing essential was brought out, except the admission that the leaving of the affair in the hands of the Chief of Police virtually established segregation.

Canton Party Struck by Train.

Canton, Ohio, November 29.—Three persons were killed and two badly hurt when a Wheeling and Lake Erie train struck a crowded surrey at the Maple avenue crossing.

The dead are Mrs Jos H. Meyers, Morris Ress, 24; Jacob Ress, 16.

The injured: Miss Fannie Meyers, daughter of Jos. Meyers, leg broken, internal injuries, probably will recover. M. Levin, 13 years old, scalp wound, possibly fractured skull, probably will recover.

Miss Meyers and Morris Ress were to have been married on January 1.

EASTERN ONTARIO AND QUEBEC

Gillies Bros.' lumber mills, Braeside, Arnprior, Ont., have closed down after a continuous run of over seven months.

D. M McIntyre, K.C., city solicitor of Kingston, Ont., has been recommended by Hon. W. J. Hanna as a member of the new parole board for the Central Prison. He will likely accept.

One of the oldest and most respected residents of the Ottawa Valley passed away, when the widow of the late Robert Kemp, of Shawville, Que., died at the residence of her son, Mr. J. B. Kemp, of Pembroke, Ont., at the age of 90. She leaves her son, Mr. J. B. Kemp, and three daughters, Mrs. Hugh Coburn, of Edmonton; Mrs. Carson, of Edmonton, and Mrs. Lane, of Gladstone, Mich.

George Thomas Ramsay, 21 years of age, was killed at the G. T. R. round house in Belleville, Ont., on Monday. He was operating a turntable when he was caught between two engines moving in opposite directions, the buffer beams of which crushed his life out. Death was instantaneous. The victim was the eldest son of Thomas Ramsay, engineer of the G.T.R. pumphouse at Belleville.

At Algonquin, a small village a few miles west of Prescott, Ont., a deer made its appearance in a field back of the village hall. Two local Nimrods started after it with guns and a dog and succeeded in killing it. Another villager came along and offered $1 for the hide. His offer was accented, but shortly after he received a notice to appear before the justice of the peace at Prescott to answer a charge of breaking the game laws. His deal in hides cost him $5 in addition to the original $1. When the two men who killed the animal are located it will cost them at least $20 apiece for killing deer out of season.

Mr. C. E. Bradford, Sherbrooke's new industrial commissioner, arrived in town to take up his work on Monday. A business men's luncheon was held at the Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, and over a hundred Sherbrooke citizens were present. For the next three days an extensive campaign for a greater Sherbrooke will be carried on. The City Council is to be asked for a yearly grant of $2500 to carry on the work.

Mr. Joseph Chevalier, a resident of Wickham, Que., while out on a hunt on land recently, about two miles from the village, was attracted by the barking and growling of his dog at a certain spot, and running up at once he came in contact with a large black bear, which was in his winter quarters. The bear was only a few feet away when the hunter saw him, and he killed Bruin right on the spot. He was a very wicked-looking old fellow, one of the red nosed bears. He measured over six fet long and weighed about 400 pounds. Wickham is becoming quite a place for hunting bears and deer.

Robert G. Herron, in his day a railway contractor and promoter, is dead at his home in Maitland, near Brockville, Ont., aged 70. As a young man he studied law and civil engineering, then entered upon the business of a contractor. He constructed many skating rinks at different points in the United States, and also built several lines of railway, one of them the Brockville & Westport road, running 45 miles out of Brockville. When he undertook the construction of this road, it was with the intention of making it a link in a proposed transcontinental system, which did not go through. At the time of his death he had almost perfected a peat gas production engine, and had secured an option on a large bog. He leaves three daughters and one son.

Through the death of Mr. Henry Jones, mayor of Grand River, Que., the County of Gaspe has lost one of its best and most useful citizens. He was drowned while crossing the Grand Pabos River at night. His body was found next morning some distance from the body of his horse. Mr. Jones was an active business man and widely known throughout that section of the county. He always took an active part in public affairs, and was highly respected for his sterling integrity.

Mr. William Taylor Gibbs, who has long been prominent in the business life of Buckingham, Que., died there suddenly of heart failure on Monday. He was born near Bath, Eng., 43 years ago, and was educated at Bristol and at the Royal College of Science, London. He went to Buckingham in 1889, in connection with phosphate mining, and had resided there ever since. For the last fourteen years he was managing director of the Electric Reduction Company. He was also interested in and a director of the National Electrolytic Company of Niagara Falls. He married in 1892 Miss Margaret Watson, of London, Eng., and his wife and two sons and a daughter survive him.

The scheme of the Ottawa Electric Company, in co-operation with the merchants, to create a "great white way" on Sparks street, is warmly approved by the people of the Capital generally. The management of that company had seen the success of the plan in United States cities, and they got the idea that it would be a good thing for Ottawa. They figured out the problem, and finally produced a scheme which they submitted to every occupier of property on Sparks street. The scheme appealed to the merchants, and, in a very short time, every business man interested placed himself under obligation to contribute toward the cost of maintaining the "white way" for a period of three years. The approval of the City Council is all that is wanted now.

Plans and specifications have been completed for the new plaza which is to be constructed by covering over the space between the Sappers' and Dufferin bridges in Ottawa, and tenders will be called for about January 1. The estimated cost is between $90,000 and $100,000. The plaza, in conjunction with the Chateau Laurier, will effect a transformation of that section of the city and be a very noticeable improvement. The original plan contemplated steel supports, but this was abandoned, and the flooring will now be supported by ornamental arches of reinforced concrete. The flooring will be of either asphalt or wooden blocks.

Two brothers, named Delore and Martin Sabourin, of Alexandria, Ont., aged respectively 21 and 25 years, who were arrested last week at Canton, N.Y., by Provincial Constable Stone, of Prescott, appeared before A. A. Miller and R. W. Duff, Justices of the Peace, at Avonmore, and were committed to Cornwall jail for trial, on a charge of stealing a horse and rig and several head of cattle, the former at Avonmore and the latter near Apple Hill. They appeared before Judge O'Reilly and pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing the cattle, and were sentenced to serve three years each in Kingston penitentiary. On the horse-stealing charge they pleaded not guilty, and will be up later for sentence on that score.

N. D. MacKenzie, B.S.A., of Galt, formerly connected with the Agricultural Office at Morrisburg, has succeeded Mr. Nunnick as representative of the Ontario Department of Agriculture for the eastern section of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, with headquarters at Alexandria. Mr. Nunnick has been transferred to the office of Mr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, at Toronto.

Calgary, Alberta, is to have a central abattoir, according to a despatch from that city.

THE BEST COUGH SRPUP IS EASILY MADE AT HOME

Costs Little and Acts Quickly—Money Refunded If It Fails.

This recipe makes 16 ounces of cough syrup, saving about $2 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It stops obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—in a hurry, and is splendid for sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix two cups of granulated sugar with one cup of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a 16-oz. bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this recipe although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe. The plan has often been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equalled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

WESTERN ROMANCE ENDS IN SUICIDE

"Buffalo Bill" Moore Takes His Life While Held on Abduction Charge.

Special to The Montreal Star

Victoria, B. C., November 29.—The tragic culmination of a short lived romance is indicated in a telegram to Attorney-General Bowser, announcing the suicide at Athalmer, of "Buffalo Bill" Moore, a well-known character of the Kootenay Mountains, who for years had led the adventurous life of a prospector, trapper and hunter's guide for many distinguished visitors.

The suicide occurred in the jail, where Moore was awaiting trial for abducting fourteen-year-old Evelyn Towersan who was madly infatuated, although her lover had long passed the age of forty. When she left home she pinned to the gatepost a note reading, "I am leaving with Buffalo Bill, the only man I have ever loved."

The couple took to the hills on horseback, the girl in boy's clothing, which Moore had purchased in anticipation of their flight. They had three horses. So long as they kept to the hills, search for them was futile, but upon the exhaustion of their supplies and a visit being made to Fernie to replenish, Moore and his young companion were arrested, and taken back to Athalmer.

There, a local special officer, inexperienced in police duty, was indirectly responsible for the tragedy being possible, his revolver being snatched away by the prisoner and the fatal shot fired before he could intervene.

Since the apprehension of Moore, the girl has allegedly been in constant communication with him, sending him notes daily assuring him of her loyalty, and that whatever might happen she would wait for and be true to him.

Tied Child Upon Horse's Back — Animal Ran Away.

Stroudsburg, Pa., November 29.—Tied to a supposedly gentle farm horse by her mother, five-year-old Lulu M. Nash met a horrible death here when the animal ran away, and the child, who slipped from its back, was dragged a quarter of a mile along a rocky road.

The frenzied mother, on another horse, started in pursuit in a vain effort to save her baby, whose head was beaten by the animal's hoofs as well as the stones along the road.

ALBERT CHEVALIER IN COMEDY MAKES BIG HIT IN PRINCESS

Delights Large and Enthusiastic Audience With His Impersonation of "Daddy Dufard."

For once at least the play was not the thing, with the result that last night's entertainment at the Princess developed into a personal triumph for Albert Chevalier in which the player was the outstanding feature. Think not by this that "Daddy Dufard" fails in interest, but rather understand that this famous visitor is so welcome in his own right that his presence alone was sufficient in itself to please the audience no matter what material was being offered.

To many persons who saw Mr. Chevalier in this comedy it was their first introduction to him in a serious role; to them he was the singer of old established favorites and to them he caused keen disappointment when he failed to perform more generously in his own particular metier. Not many appreciate, perhaps, that Mr. Chevalier has for many years participated extensively in dramatic productions of a legitimate character. However, the Chevalier best known is the Chevalier of the Halls, more particularly on this side of the world where his previous visits found him singing those coster songs famous wherever the English tongue is known. On his last stay in Montreal, Mr. Chevalier shared a programme with Yvette Guilbert. This combination was a strong pair and their performance here was something to be long remembered by those so fortunate as to have witnessed it. Mr. Chevalier has hitherto been accepted as the singer of a class and a type and in that he is inimitable, no one now on the English stage can approach him because of the rare artistry of his characterizations. It may, perhaps, not be considered rare art to thoroughly portray a class of people whose place in the social scale is not high but Mr. Chevalier's characters are so thoroughly human that they level social barriers and are as welcome, more so, in fact, as any impersonations of the polite type would be. Fortunately, one writes fortunately advisedly.

Audience Refused to Leave.

Mr. Chevalier has not altogether departed from his special province in "Daddy Dufard," and very thoughtfully arranged his comeedy so that an opportunity was secured for a display of some of his old familiars, "Mrs. Enery Awkins," "The Workhouse Man," and a new composition of a coster song entitled "Right as Ninepence." It is to be recorded that these offerings were gladly accepted, but there appeared to be a general regret that there were not more. But it was in vain that the auditors like Oliver Twist wanted more. It was a persistent audience, but persistance did not avail. When the curtain had fallen on its final descent the audience, almost to a man, sat tight and applauded with a warm earnestness that fully signified their appreciation. From above there were sounds of cheers, while one enthusiastic occupant of a stall cried out for "a song." Mr. Chevalier bowed acknowledgements to many recalls, but he was mute and the people were perforce compelled to leave without another contribution from the player. It was the most unusual and enthusiastic ovation given in a Montreal theatre for many a long day and it was thoroughly deserved.

It was evident that last night's audience wanted to hear the performer sing, and when towards the curtain on Act 1 it was announced that the character he was representing was about to sing there was a wave of applause. Mr. Chevalier did sing a smart little chanson a boire in the original tongue, which was thoroughly delightful.

Chevalier is Whole Show.

In "Daddy Dufard" Mr. Chevalier plays the role of an old French actor, who has ambitions for his daughter, and on this foundation a four-act comedy is raised. It is a pleasing entertainment, but its success is due almost entirely to the presence of Mr. Chevalier in a role written exclusively for himself and played by him in a manner which few, if indeed any, actors on the English stage to-day are qualified for temperamentally. Naturally, one would expect such excellent results as Mr. Chevalier achieves from one of mingled Celtic and Continental blood—Mr. Chevalier is of Welsh, Italian and French origin—yet is must be remembered that this man who is now so cleverly portraying a continental type is the most accurate impersonator of characters entirely English. Mr. Chevalier is truly a versatile performer.

The characters in "Daddy Dufard" are clearly drawn and are admirably portrayed by several capable members of Mr. Chevalier's support. One character needs must speak broken English because of his supposedly French origin, and when it is necessary to bring these two characters together there is a very clever ruse used to explain why two Frenchmen should converse in a tongue other than their mother tongue.

Mr. Arthur Brankston succeeded admirably in the role of Joseph Fontaine, while Mr. Louis Hendricks was equally excellent as an old German.

Miss Violet Hemming played Rose Dufard cleverly, and the Mme. Poulard of Miss Mary E. Barker proved a veritable character.

The cast throughout was excellent.

MR. CHEVALIER AT THE PRINCESS.

ORPHEUM PRESENTS A LAUGHING BILL.

The well filled house at the Orpheum last night laughed and applauded all through a varied performance.

From the opening comic acrobatic act of the Royal Colibris, in "The Baby, the Nurse nd the Girl" to the closing turn of John B. Hymer and Company in the miniature extravaganza "Tom Walker on Mars," every act was, according to its strength, well received. The Chadwick Trio offer a sketch "For Sale, Wiggins' Farm," in which is presented Miss Ida May Chadwick, in some clever dancing, when she has time to get away from her "hee haw" character. An episode entitled "Drifting" was portrayed by Agnes Scott and Henry Keane, who finished to the satisfaction of an accommodating moon. Will Fox, comedian and trick piano player, was cordially received and had to respond to calls. The Uessems were clever in their balancing and general acrobatic work, including, as it did a series of smart and eccentric juggling. The Olivett Troubadours in selections on the violin and double guitar, were accorded a favorable reception. Selections by the Orpheum Orchestra, under James H. MacDougall, from the popular London production "The Girl in the Train" were heartily applauded.

VAUDEVILLE AND GUESSING CONTEST AT THE FRANCAIS

The Great McGarvey, who, in feminine garb, gave impersonations of the gentler sex, including a serpentine dance which was highly appreciated, hystified the audience for nearly half an hour.

Mr. Vincent Van Dyck made a hit with his piano act. The Three Alexis are gymnasts of powerful muscles and many of their stunts are unique.

In addition to the attractions of the programme the management are running, this week, a bean guessing contest, which cannot fail to attract considerable interest.

NEW DEPARTURE AT ROYAL THIS WEEK.

Miner's Americaps provided the entertainment at the Theatre Royal this week and there is much in it that is new and enjoyable. An effort has been made to get away from the regular burlesque performance. The song Hits of the Season" in which a number of well-known actors and actresses are introduced made a decided hit. In a little playlet written by Teddy Simons and entitled "A Golden Wedding" several members of the company showed dramatic talent and the vocal work was capital. "The Hicksville Minstrels" are a novelty and many encores followed their singing. The Doherty's have a dancing and talking skit that is also out of the trodden lines. The chorus is large and numbers some good looking girls

FIVE TIMES FINED FOR LIQUOR SALE.

Costa Michalidaquis, a Greek restaurant keeper, was fined $100 and costs for keeping and selling liquor without a license. Charland and St. George, of the morality squad, saw six dozen bottles of beer brought into the restaurant at 22 Vitre street, when they raided the place they could not find the six dozen beer, but there were several men in the place, and they found glasses on the tables with beer in them and numbers of empty bottles. Michalidiquis pleaded not guilty and several witnesses testified that he used beer for his personal use at meals. This is the fifth time Michalidaquis has been fined for the same kind of offence, he has paid fines aggregating $365.

Mount Royal Literary Society.

To-night at the rooms of the Society, 92 Union avenue, (Royal Arcanum Rooms) a lecture will be given on "Dante" by the Rev. Dr. H. Symonds, at 8 o'clock.

MME. ALDA, AS MIMI, PLEASES THE OPERA GOERS

Her Interpretation of the Role Instinct With Youth and Naive Charm.

It is a good thing for Montreal to hear the leading opera singers of the stage in their most distinctive roles. The coming of Mlle. Lipkowska last week did more to help forward the movement for a permanent grand opera season in this city than years of mere talk. The appearance last night of Mlle. Frances Alda is likely to have a similarly beneficial influence. Lovers of grand opera gain an approximate idea of what may be Montreal's in ample measure, once this city follows in the wake of the operatic centres in the United States. For there is no reason why Montreal should not enjoy what Boston enjoys; none whatever.

Mlle. Alda appeared last night as Mimi in "La Boheme." What she has achieved in that role elsewhere does not concern Montreal, save that it serves to create, perhaps, unreasonable anticipations. No critic, however, will permit such anticipations to prejudice final judgment.

* * *

Mlle. Alda's Mimi is instinct with youth, freshness, naive charm. It possesses a frank and irresistible appeal. It is in large measure a conventional Mimi, though it does not lack certain definite notes of originality. Its chief attraction lies in its simplicity and its genuine romantic glamour.

The personality of the artiste goes far to win distinction for her impersonation. She radiates the genuine Bohemian spirit. Youth and the dreams of youth, its exaggerated viewpoint, its light-heartedness, its recuperative powers—all this finds expression through Mlle. Alda's personality. She invests the role with all the qualities one expects, and something more. She lends to it a delicacy, a refinement, a suggestion, at times, of the spirituelle, which one may or may not approve, but which one finds none the less a feature of considerable attractiveness.

One could wish she were a little more boisterous in the second act. There is a suggestion of repression slightly out of keeping with the scene. In the death-scene the note of ultra-refinement is slightly over-accentuated. Its absence would lend a poignancy where there is at present only sentimental pathos. It prevents her from sounding the more vivid and moving note of passionate humanity. It is very pathetic, very beautiful; but it just fails to atttain the deeper, stronger, psychological value.

* * *

Mlle. Alda's voice is a delight. It is a pure soprano of individual timbre, rich and full in the lower register, of a peculiar melting quality in the middle, and sweet as bird music in the upper tones. She uses it in a manner that stamps her as a mistress of vocal art. The ease with which she produces high notes is remarkable.

Sh sang most of the music in the death-scene lying on her back or her side, and did not raise her head to deliver the final broken phrases. She sang with rare beauty of phrasing, not alone in this scene, but in the third act. In fact, the third act saw Mlle. Alda at her obst. She is an actress of quiet method, but she obtains the precise effects "she wants just the same. At times, perhaps, she inclines towards the obvious, —singing at the audience seems a well-nigh ineradicable fault,—but this is not marked.

Her gestures are few, but singularly expressive. She was a pathetic little Mimi as she sat, sobbing in the cold at the close of Rodolpho's declaration to Marcel. But when the two had sung their adieux, only to find that they could not bear to part, it was a rejuvenated and increasingly winsome Mimi whose voice rose, thrilling and glorious, in the superb duet, "Murmur the silver fountains."

* * *

In the cafe scene there was one little touch that bespoke the polished artiste. When Marcel, overcome by Musetta's presence, starts up with violent gesture, his comrades rush to his side to restrain him. Mlle. Alda joined them last night, and Mimi patted Marcel's hand with a delightful suggestion of mothering sympathy. It was a trifle, but of such trifles is the complex art of the grand opera stage composed.

* * *

Signor Colombini has never been heard to better effect here. At times he sang as one inspired. His voice was fuller and stronger. It seemed, than during the past week. Certainly he rose to the requirements of Mlle. Alda's standard. In the duets their voices blended admirably, and though at times Mlle. Alda's penchant for extending a musical phrase for the sake of effect weakened the climax, it cannot be denied that it appeared to leave her audience wishing she had not stopped even then.

Signor Pimazzoni was superb as Marcel. His singing of the passage, "Ah! Golden Youth," in the second act, thrilled the whole audience.

The chorus did well. As for the orchestra, Signor Jacchia is accomplishing more and more every week.

To-night, "Les Contes d'Hoffmann." Wednesday night, Signor Torre will sing Canio in "I Pagliacci." It is one of his strongest roles, and his singing of the famous Clown's Lament is something not to be missed.

Last Post Fund.

Besides many Generals of the British Army, General Otter and Colonel Steele have recently been approached as to their idea of the "Last Post Fund" scheme, and have, it is stated, expressed themselves in favor of the project, together with the hope that it would receive the support which it deserves.

Will Speak of Brazil.

Mr. M. P. de Boucherville, a native of Quebec, and since 1886 a resident at Grandetta, Brazil, will deliver an address before members o fthe Council of the Chambre de Commerce, at their regular weekly meeting to-morrow. He will dwell on the commercial resources of the great South American republic

A Quebec despatch states that Frank Murphy, said to be really George Ranger, by the Quebec police, has pleaded to having stolen money in his possession. Murphy was held in connection with the St. Pacome bank robbery.

A FORMER MINISTER DEAD.

Death of Mr. George F. Seward Announced from New York.

New York, November 29.—George F. Seward, president of the Fidelity and Casualty Company, is dead at his home here, at the age of 70 years.

Mr. Seward was former United States Minister to China, and was a writer on political and financial matters.

It was in 1876 that he was sent to China, and he remained there until 1880, when he was recalled, on declining to undertake the negotiation of a treaty restricting Chinese immigration to the United States.

Previous to his occupation of the Chinese diplomatic post he spent several years in the consular service in that country and in 1869 he was offered the post of Minister to Korea, but at his suggestion the sending of a mission to that country was deferred. During his service in China he was active in suppressing piracy. He was president of the North China branch of the Royal Asiatic Society in 1865-6. He became vice-president of the Fidelity and Casualty Company in 1887 and president in 1893.

German Steamer and Crew Missing.

Stettin, Germany, November 29.—The German steamer Berlin, from Sunderland for this port, has not been reported for seventeen days, and is supposed to have foundered in the North Sea. She carried a crew of 17 men. Her cargo was coal.

REGINA MAN IN TOILS.

Held in Toronto Charged With Passing Worthless Cheques.

Toronto, November 29.—Claiming to be about to come into an English estate worth about two million dollars, William Butt, who is in custody on a charge of passing worthless cheques on the Holt-Renfrew Company, has accumulated a series of charges of the same nature.

The Hamilton police department has asked for him on three charges of worthless cheques and Constable Wilkshire, of the R.N.W.M.P., will arrive here from Battleford, Sask., to take Butt back to Regina, where he is wanted on three warrants for making free with about $3,000 worth of civic funds. Butt was employed by the city of Regina.

Railway Rate War a Possibility.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29.—The Erie Railway, Baltimore and Ohio, and Grand Trunk Railways, it is stated, will shortly begin a fight against the Michigan Central Railway's differential rate on Chicago-New York traffic.

Ottawa Plaza Plans Complete.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—Plans for the new plaza between the Sappers' and Dufferin bridges, to cost $90,000 to $100,000, are now complete.

The supports as planned will be of reinforced concrete.

WINNIPEG RAILWAY LOSES.

May Not Erect Power Poles Without City's Sanction.

Western Associated Press Special.

Winnipeg, November 29.—The Manitoba Court of Appeals has dismissed the appeal of the Winnipeg Street Railway against the judgment declaring the company had no right to erect poles for the distribution of light and power without the sanction of the city.

The Court also dismissed the appeal of the city, which sought to force the company to generate all its power within the municipal limits.

Quebec Bridge Decision Deferred.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—The Quebec Bridge Commission is taking its time in making a recommendation regarding the acceptance of tenders for the bridge. Hon. G. P. Graham, who returned yesterday from New York, where he attended a meeting of the Commission, stated that he expects no decision for a considerable time yet.

Missouri Prohibitionists Defeated.

Jefferson City, Mo., November 29.—Prohibition was defeated in Missouri at the recent election, according to official announcement, by 218,154 votes.

It received 207,281 votes, with 425,406 against it, and carried only 37 of 115 counties.

A SOAP FOR WASHING FLANNELS AND SOFT GOODS

EVERY soap is compounded in a general way from similar basic materials; the significant difference between Sunlight Soap and other soaps is that Sunlight is a correct compound made scientifically exact by expert chemists—and that it is absolutely free from injurious ingredients of any kind.

There is no free alkali or chemicals in Sunlight Soap; there is just sufficient to render the process of soap-making complete, to leave the fats so that they dissolve readily in either hard or soft lukewarm water, so that they make a soft, quick suds and do away with rubbing and hard work.

Sunlight Soap may be safely used on any kind of underwear, flannels, merino, cashmere and any other soft materials without fear of shrinking or hardening them. It leaves them soft, fleecy and clean-smelling—no greasiness, no oiliness, no yellow color or no musty odor.

5c

Use Sunlight Soap This Way

Wet the clothes well and soap thoroughly all over with Sunlight. Then roll the garments, put them into soak in lukewarm hard or soft water and go away for thirty minutes while Sunlight Soap does its work. Rinse well in water of the same temperature, take special care to get out all the dirty suds, and then wring out.

Use Sunlight Soap according to directions—try it just once—and convince yourself that it will do twice as much as other soaps.

Tea at the Chateau.

The last of the autumn teas given by the Women's Branch of the Antiquarian Society at the Chateau de Ramezay yesterday afternoon was highly successful. The guests were received by Mrs. Wurtele, Mrs James Ross and Madame Desbarats. An enjoyable musical programme under the direction of Madame Arthur Vaillancourt was contributed to by Madame de Martingy, who delighted the audience with her singing. Violin selections by Mr. A. Dansereau, and a vocal solo by Mr. A. Arthur Plamondon were also much appreciated. The accompanists were Mesdames Arthur Vaillancourt and Arthur Plamondon and M. Hector Dansereau. Mr. E. Fabre-Surveyer read an essay on the Rebellion of 1837, written by the late M. Hector Fabre. At the conclusion of the programme tea was served; the tables being prettily decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. T. Chase Casgrain, assisted by Mrs. Klock, Mrs. Domville, and Miss Pinsonnault. The convener of the coffee table, Miss de Bellefeuille Macdonald was assisted by Mrs. Lansing Lewis, Mrs. R. A. E. Lyric Hall.

Lyric Hall has by far the best show of the season his wteek.

The feature is Bert Swan, England's swimmer and his alligator. Swan hyptonizes, wrestles, and subdues monster Alligator and also performs a series of remarkable underwater endurance feats in a massive tank.

Swan has six Alligators in all in his exhibition and one man-eating Crocodile; weighing nearly 300 lbs., and is seven feet long.

Swan remained under nearly four minutes; in fact he seems as much at home under the water, eating and drinking as if he was above.

Willis and Lewis two pantomimists provide fifteen minutes of laughter, as well as doing some startling acrobatic feats.

Lucille Angers is again heard in new songs and the picture programme is a specially interesting one this week.

For High Grade Watches go to Hemsley's, Jeweller, 255 St. James.

Good?
Well, I should say . . .

ORINOCO is a revelation in pipe tobacco. It is one of the finest of the Tuckett brands. Fifty years of experience and skill have combined to produce in ORINOCO, a tobacco of perfect blend. It really is a "bully" good smoke. Try it in a college man's bull dog, in your "old reliable," or the long church warden, and it's cool, sweet, and fragrant.

Orinoco

burns freely and evenly. Tastes good and will not bite the tongue. Fine, old-fashioned, sun-cured, Virginia leaf—pure and unadulterated—is what ORINOCO is made of. It's simply great. Try it. Stake 10c o nthe Tuckett reputation and the Tuckett experience and get a package to-day.

In Tins and in Packages.
Sold by most every dealer in Canada.

The St. John, N.B., City Council has appointed a committee to confer with the Federal Government regarding the taking over of the wharves and warehouses on the west side of the harbor by the Dominion.

WOMAN'S AIMS and WOMAN'S INTERESTS

All correspondence for this department should be addressed to Agnes Chesley.

Our Handicrafts

Every woman who reads this paper—and they run into the many thousands—should make a point of visiting Our Handicrafts Shop on St. Catherine street, just west of Drummond, on the lower side of the street. It is necessary to climb one short flight of stairs, but it is well worth the trouble, especially with Christmas just a month away. We are all trotting around from shop to shop trying to find something new and pretty for Christmas gifts when many of our difficulties could be solved by a trip to this modest little place. In the first place it may be said by way of preface that the Handicrafts Shop is not run to make profits but to help the women of Canada by selling the home products and cover the bare expenses of so doing.

Consequently there is no margin for advertising nor for paying big rents and everyone woman who spends her dollars there knows she gets her full money's worth.

In the first place let us look at the Canterbury weaving just imported from England. This Canterbury weaving is well-known in England, but out here not so well. The little English lady in charge sits at her old-fashioned loom and sends the shuttle flying through the cotton threads. Both warp and woof are cotton, but the side that shows is mercerized and gives a beautiful silky effect. Weaving has a distinct fascination for all womenkind, doubtless due to the endless string of bygone female ancestors whose lot in life it was to weave and spin and not agitate for votes nor go to women's clubs. It is well worth while going to the Handicrafts Shop simply to see this weaving. The articles woven comprise cushion tops in beautiful soft green and brown shades which would please all artistic persons and cost only two dollars, and runners for various purposes from one fifty to one seventy-five. These runners are white cotton with a conventional stripe at intervals in colors. There is practically no wear-out to these hand-woven articles, and is there ever a woman who has enough side-board, bureau and wash-stand covers?

In our own home-made catalogue there are the usual tempting varieties of colors and articles from bath-room mats from one-twenty-five up, to material by the yard. This is being more and more used, especially for country houses. The hand-woven hangings that harmonize so well with the floor-coverings come in every color and a number of patterns or no patterns at all. An exquisite shade of wood brown, all wool, hand-woven, is only seventy-five cents a yard and could be used for curtains lined or unlined. A pretty herring-bone in greys, white and black is ninety cents and would make just the sort of suit most fashionable at present. In Irish lace made in Canada there were many pretty things and Miss Stein, who is in charge of the shop, said it was impossible to keep up with the demand for jabots. There is also some lovely pillow lace made in the Indian School in British Columbia. The leather articles are most alluring as are the hammered brass and pottery.

Marriages

Dodds—Tyre.

The Church of St. James the Apostle was the scene of a pretty wedding at four o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Jean Tyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tyre, was married to Major W. O. H. Dodds. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Ellegood. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of ivory satin with court train, veiled with old Limerick lace, and embroidered in silver and pearls. A necklace of diamonds was her only ornament. Her veil of old Limerick lace was arranged over a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Lottie Tyre, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Marion Scott Dodds, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Violet Desbarats, wore white cloth gowns embroidered in white and gold, with large black velvet hats with willow plumes and carried bouquets of pink roses. The best man was Mr. John Lewis, and the ushers, Mr. Cecil Tyre, Mr. T. Walter Dodds, Mr. Charles Routh, Mr. J. L. Woods, and Mr. Donald Cameron. Mrs. Tyre, mother of the bride, was gowned in silver grey satin, the bodice embroidered in gold and silver, with a black hat with grey plumes, and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Tyre, aunt of the bride, was in an amethyst satin gown with toque to match. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 33 St. Luke street. The bride's travelling costume is of dark blue broadcloth with sable furs and a velvet hat to match, trimmed with yellow plumes.

Mrs. W. F. Brass, formerly Miss Mona Vipond, will receive for the first time since her marriage at her home, 93 Laurier Ave. West, on Tuesday afternoon, December 6th, and afterwards on the third Tuesday of each month.

TUCKED OVER-BLOUSE

6813 Tucked Over Blouse, 34 to 42 bust.

The over-blouse that is laid in tiny tucks and cut with short kimono, or Mandarin, sleeves, is a very smart one, greatly liked. This model is distinctive, being trimmed with a shaped trimming portion, yet it is so simple, that it can be made without any trouble whatever. The kimono sleeves do away with all necessity of fitting the sleeves to the arm-holes, and reduce labor to the minimum. Any guimpe can be worn beneath. Chiffon makes this blouse, and the trimming is Bulgarian embroidery.

The blouse is made in one piece, there being only under-arm seams to be sewed up. The tucks are tiny, laid on indicated lines, and the trimming portion can be made as illustrated, or without the extension at the front.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 1¾ yards 36, or 1⅝ yards 44 inches wide, with ⅝ yard 18 inches wide for the trimming portions.

The pattern 6813 is cut in sizes for a 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust measure, and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage, which ensures more prompt delivery.)

The drum-shaped muff, much larger, though, than the shap ou grandmothers carried, will be one of the fashions of the coming season.

Health and Beauty

Witch hazel is an excellent lotion for large pores; also for red, veiny patches.

The eyes should always be bathed carefully every morning. Nothing is more repulsive than eyelashes that are not clean and dusty corners.

Combing and brushing the hair every night is of the greatest importance for its growth. After being shaken down a comb should be used to separate the strands and a thorough brushing given, a few drops of oil being first sprinkled upon the brush if the hair and scalp are dry.

A large number of children suffer indigestion and irregularities of the stomach because they are allowed to eat between meals. The little ones often ask for food without really requiring it, and the mother will unwisely hand them over biscuits, cakes or sweets. It is, of course, necessary to have "a between meal" snack, but these are only the occasions when breakfast is taken early and dinner late. Then a little pure milk and a biscuit plain is permissible—or a slice of bread and butter. Good wholesome sweets do no harm to a child so long as they are eaten in moderation, but cheap, colored candies must be avoided. Plain chocolate is a healthful sweet for the young child.

SOCIETY AT THE OPERA

Although the attendance at the opera at His Majesty's Theatre last evening was not as large as on some former occasions, a number of prominent persons were noticed in the audience, including: Sir H. Montagu Allan, Lady Allan, wearing a black charmeuse satin gown with diamante on the corsage; Mrs. Lionel Guest, in a white satin gown with real lace; Miss Lucy Dodge, in a chantecler red tulle gown with lace sleeves; Mr. Arthur Abbott, Miss Marjorie Clouston, in a gown of Saxe blue Liberty silk with embroidered net yoke with touches of gold; Miss Marguerite Shaughnessy, in white chiffon over pink with gold embroidery; Mrs. Thornton Davidson, gowned in pale pink crepe de chine; Mr. Travers Allan, Mr. Armand Chevalier, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Paton, the latter, in a white gown with gold embroidery; Mr. Colin Campbell, Mrs. Campbell, gowned in pale pink satin embroidered in white silk; Mr. H. Vincent Meredith, Mrs. Meredith, wearing a white lace gown; Miss Geraldine Paterson, in white satin veiled in white ninon; Miss Mabel Hickson, in pink satin; Lady Shaughnessy, wearing a black satin gown; Miss Alice Shaughnessy, in a gown of pale pink satin veiled in ninon; Miss Edith Shaughnessy, in white satin with tunic of pale blue chiffon; Miss Hester Peck, wearing black; Mr. Fred Shaughnessy, Mr. Edgar Macdougall, Mrs. Macdougall, gowned in white lace; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Drummond, the latter in a pale blue gown with overdress of white net trimmed with opalescent sequins; Mrs. Percy Rae, wearing a black jetted gown; Captain Newton, Col. F. THE CATHOLIC SAILORS' CLUB FINAL CONCERT.

The programme for the closing concert at the Catholic Sailors Club tomorrow night is being arranged by St. Patrick's Amateur Athletic Association, whose orchestra will open the musical proceedings and a humorous sketch, "The freedom of the press," will follow, those taking part being Messrs. L. F. Dillon, E. Lynch, E. Dawn, G. F. Asderson, T. J. Power, L. E. Burns, E. Roach, and L. C. O'Brien. Songs will be sung by Miss B. Kelly and Mr. V. F. Kearney, a recitation by Mr. L. C. O'Brien, a violin solo by Mr. R. M. Poole, a cornet selection by Mr. J. Holland, and musical selections by Messrs. Bowden and Butler. Miss Edith Marchand will introduce an Indian novelty entitled "My Queen," composed by Miss Agnes Lynch. Miss Eva Mack and the "Thepanniers" will contribute character songs and dances.

The sailors will be represented by Frank Hardcastle, and Alex. Wilson. Miss Agnes Lynch will be the accompanist.

WOMAN, MAN'S EQUAL AND SHOULD VOTE, PROF. ZUEBLIN TELLS M.W.'s CLUB

"Like as in the Garden of Eden woman, took the initiative, so is she now doing," said Professor Charles Zueblin of Boston, in an address to the Montreal Women's Club, at the Y. W. C. A., yesterday afternoon. The professor quite approved of feminine activities such as are shown in the women's suffrage movement, and the demands of women to be allowed to take part in civic and political affairs, and be placed on an equal footing with man in all mundane matters.

The idea that women is the inferior of man, he said, is a survival of the days when the fashionable way of getting a bride was to hit her on the head, and take her home. This was not done to-day, he pointed out, not even in the United States. Time has flown since then and human nature had changed. We no longer thought it right to eat our brethren. Slavery had been abolished. Yet the old superstition regarding women died hard. One could not find a man in the street who did not think himself superior to woman, and this view colored men's conduct. The philosophy that regarded women as the inferior sex was held because in a way women were responsible. They were susceptible to flattery and to the flew that they were unable to do certain things.

Professor Zueblin mentioned the good work that had been accomplished in the direction of social service by women, instancing the organization of a civic service league at St. Paul, Minn., where feminine enthusiasm for the public weal had risen to such a height that the women had sat up at the council meetings until one and two o'clock in the morning, knowing that the councillors would not pass had measures so long as the fair sex were present. Then there was Harrisburg, in Pennsylvania. "A regular hades of a place" as regards corruption until woman's magic influence got to work. To-day Harrisburg, was qualifying for the medal in Godliness and it was all due to women's work.

They had practically to overcome the long established results of preconceived ideas, proceeded the Professor. For instance, the view that women were the weaker sex was contradicted by their ability to bear pain much better than would the average man. In the last hundred years a big change had taken place in regard to the popular attitude toward the education of women. It was only a century ago that women were first admitted to the high schools at Boston. Of course the number of women that received the higher education was still comparatively small.

Professor Zueblin observed that all women are divided into two classes. (1) The economically independent woman and (2) the economically dependent woman; and then explained how men and women are dependent on one another in domestic and everyday life. He spoke of there being about 12,000,000 women workers in Great Britain and on the American Continent and the serious fact of these occupations either precluding or interfering with motherhood. It was untrue, he said, that politics in Canada and in the United States are hopelessly rotten and corrupt, and the popular fallacy should be treated as rank treason. It did not follow that because men had been once beasts that they would always remain beasts.

Never has there been in the history of the world a body of people so well qualified for enfranchisement as the Anglo-Saxon women of to-day, concluded the Professor, and the equality of men and women must be recognized.

Professor Dale, of McGill, also addressed the meeting.

Miss Kathleen Parlow Arrives

Brilliant Young Canadian Violiniste Will Open Her Tour in New York Thursday.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29.—Kathleen Parlow, the young Canadian violinist, who has for the last six years been in Europe, has arrived aboard the steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. Most of her time in Europe has been spent under the tuition of Leopold Auer, the famous Russian master.

During the past year Miss Parlow has played frequently in concert in Scandinavian cities and in Holland and Germany and has achieved extraordinary success. Since September 1st, she has had forty-eight concerts, the last being on November 19th, the day before she sailed. She had to hurry to catch the steamship at Southampton.

Miss Parlow's first appearance here will be as soloist with the Russian symphony Orchestra at Carnegie Hall on Thursday. She will then go to Ottawa, where she will appear under the patronage of the Earl and Countess Grey.

Miss Parlow plays with the Montreal Musical Society orchestra at His Majesty's theatre on Saturday afternoon, this week.

Funeral of Mrs. John Corbett.

The remains of Mrs. John Corbett wife of the foreign freight agent of the C. P. R., were interred in the Mount Royal Cemetery yesterday afternoon, only relatives and intimate friends being present. Mrs. Corbett died at her home at Back River on Saturday. She was 54 years of age, and leaves six children. Mrs. Corbett was a daughter of Mr. W. L. Ritchie, of Edinburgh.

St. Lawrence Granulated
It would not matter so much if you only used sugar in one or two articles of food. But when you think how many of the dishes and drinks you serve, owe much of their goodness to sugar, you see how important it is to get the very best sugar.
By actual analysis St. Lawrence Granulated is 100 per cent pure cane sugar, with no impurities whatever. Being cane sugar, it is much whiter and sweeter than the ordinary beet sugar you so often get.
Because it is all sweetness, St. Lawrence Granulated goes farther and is most economical.

MR. GILBERT TAKES SEAT IN SILENCE

Nobody to Welcome the New Nationalist Member in the Commons

Every Conservative Silent as the Grave.

Sir Wilfrid Relieved Tension By Plunging into Routine—Mr. Paterson's Chaff.

Special Staff Correspondence.

Press Gallery, House of Commons, Ottawa, November 29.—There was silence in the Green Chamber yesterday afternoon for the space of one minute. It was the minute which immediately followed the introduction of Arthur, Gilbert, the new member for Drummond-Arthabaska.

The introduction was made by Mr. F. D. Monk and Dr. Paquet. As soon as the speaker had given the new member permission to "take his seat," silence that could be felt fell upon the two hundred members.

Conservatives and Liberals alike were engulfed under the cloud of stillness. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden alike gazed steadily at notes on the business of the day.

This silence lasted while Mr. Gilbert with impressive deliberation shook hands with the speaker and walked slowly back to his seat at the extreme edge of the Opposition seats. Then Sir Wilfrid broke into it with a routine resolution regarding the standing committees. At this signal of release suppressed amusement at the Conservative silence rippled over the Liberal benches and rose into a swell of sound until the speaker was compelled to appeal for order. Covert smiles exchanged among a few Conservatives completed the reception given to the first Nationalist member, a reception which is unique in, at least, the recent history of the House of Commons.

Mr. Gilbert's seat bears marks of careful selection. He sits at the back of a tier which, generally speaking, is devoted to Conservatives. Just in front of him, however, sit two Liberals. His desk-mate is a Conservative, and across the aisle from his sits a Liberal.

The Fag End of the Debate.

After Mr. Gilbert was quietly settled in his seat the debate, which nominally relates to the speech from the throne, but has really concerned itself with him, was again taken up by Mr. Martin Burrell, and the first words which the new Nationalist member heard were devoted to standing clear of Nationalism:

"In so far as any Liberal or Nationalist has made any unpatriotic or unworthy statements in that election," said Mr. Burrell, speaking for the Conservative party, "we repudiate them."

Dr. Neely, of Humbolt, who came next, scarcely mentioned the Drummond-Arthabaska contest and thereby furnished a distinct contrast to most of the other speakers in the debate. He devoted himself to western questions, and made an appeal to eastern members to listen to their discussion sympathetically.

Dr. Sproule, who followed, characterized the Liberal opposition to an appeal to the people as "undemocratic." The member for East Grey further described the result in Drummond-Arthabaska as "chickens coming home to roost"; and declared that the Liberals could not "take a licking like men." He added a prediction that if the Government went to the country on the naval issue, they would lose seven out of ten seats in Quebec.

Mr. Paterson Chaffs Opposition.

Hon. William Paterson had a good time with himself over the contrast between the attitude of the Conservatives in 1909 and now. In March, of 1909, when the unanimous resolution was passed, Mr. Borden had suggested the insertion of the word "speedy" in the Premier's resolution which committed the House to action. Then, he wanted "speedy" action; now he wanted, said Mr. Paterson, amid much Liberal laughter, to do nothing but appeal to the people.

"Talk about devious ways and divers policies," said Mr. Paterson. "If in the history of this Legislature anybody ever saw a party occupy such a position as they occupy on this question, I cannot recall it. They have even dropped the proposal to vote $25,000,000 to the Admiralty. It is true they beg to assure His Excellency of their loyalty but they have issued so much of that paper currency out of the bank of Tory loyalty that the people are beginning to find out that there is no gold basis of action."

Mr. Richard Blain retorted on the Minister of Customs for his chaff of the Conservatives as "the speedy party."

"That is not an adjective," said he, "which the people would apply to the Liberal party, especially in the matter of fulfilling promises."

Mr. G. W. Kyte, of Richmond, N.S., the last speaker of the day, made a brief excursion into the field of reciprocity and declared himself in favor of any measure which would reduce the burden of the tariff upon the consumers.

Public Accounts Inquiries.

Before the debate was resumed, the Opposition leader raised an issue which may add much to the interest of the Public Accounts Committee. In the past many investigations have had to stop short of finality because the inquiry affected accounts of earlier years which were not before the committee. Mr. Borden's suggestion was that with a view to meeting this difficulty the reports of the Auditor-General for two in place of one year be referred to the Public Accounts Committee. Mr. Borden added that the Government had agreed to the suggestion last year. The Premier replied that in these matters he had in the past been guided by Mr. Fielding. However, he promised to look into the question.

Dr. Black, of Hants, N.S., introduced a bill to provide for Dominion medical registration. Under this bill a doctor qualified in one province would be qualified throughout the Dominion.

The name of C. D. Sheldon, the Montreal financial wizard, figures in the Order paper of the House of Commons to-day. Mr. Armstrong, of Lambton, will enquire:—

"What action, if any, has the Government taken with a view of putting a stop to the use of His Majesty's mails for the furtherance of "get-rich-quick" schemes such as the one conducted by Mr. Sheldon in Montreal, and the numerous wild-cat ventures that have been foisted on our people during the past few years? Has the Government made any effort to prosecute the guilty parties?"

Mr. Monk enquires if the Pecuniary Claims Convention with the United States signed on the 18th of August last, and awaiting ratification include the claims commonly known as the Hay claims. He also wishes to know what is the cause of the delay in ratification, and have any claims under the convention been received.

Mr. Magrath wants to know if Senator Halbot made an application for the purchase of a block of Government land to be developed by irrigation.

Mr. Stanfield will ask if it is the Government's intention to publish the list of unclaimed balances in the savings banks.

Mr. Schaffner gives notice of a resolution favoring Government-owned terminal and transfer elevators.

Canadian Railway Has Received Many Tokens of Esteem in Australia.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Melbourne, November 29. — The Queensland government proposes to establish a number of model towns along the routes of the new railways that are building, or proposed to be built, in that state. The object of government is that towns and buildings, particularly hotels and hospitals, are to serve as a standard for private enterprise.

Mr. Thomas Tait, who recently resigned his post of Commissioner of the Victorian State railways, whose work in the Commnwealth has been praised in nearly every quarter, is to sail for India to-morrow. He has been in receipt of many tokens of popular esteem and regard. It is understood he will return to Canada at a later period.

THE LESSON OF THE NEWARK DISASTER.

The rapidity with which fire burns under favorable conditions must be seen to be appreciated. Within ten minutes twenty-four girls were burned to death or killed by jumping from windows during the fire which took place in a factory at Newark, N.J., on Saturday. Fifty other girls were taken to the hospital. The fire was caused by the explosion of one single tin of gasolene in a brick-built factory.

In Montreal we have, for months, tolerated an automobile garage in a wooden building, used as a place of amusement; with gasolene presumably in nearly all the cars, and with a gasoline tank under the sidewalk. The removal of the garage has now been ordered, but why should such scandalous conditions have been tolerated so long? There was nothing secret about the affair. It was an open and flagrant defiance of the law. The ordinary permit for a garage was not even asked, the proprietors of the Forum evidently regarding such a proceeding as a useless formality, an opinion apparently shared by the Building Inspection Department, until it was fairly forced to take notice and to act.

At the City Hall considerable importance is attached to the new Building By-law which we are going to have—some day. What on earth is the use of by-laws which there is scarcely a pretence at enforcing? There would be more hope for the good time coming, if in the meanwhile, some real effort were made to enforce such law as we already have. The present by-law is weak in spots, it would almost seem to be designedly weak in some spots, but it is not such a fool instrument as it is commonly and conveniently assumed to be in certain quarters. Surely we do not need a local repetition of the Newark disaster to impress us with the idea that building laws are something more than a civic joke! If the civic authorities are not awake to the danger of the conditions now prevailing, we can assure them that the people of Montreal are very much awake to them. A continuance of these conditions must not and simply will not be tolerated.

We are not putting the whole blame upon Mr. Chausse by any means, although he cannot be held entirely free from responsibility. While his department is so badly crippled for want of money the responsibility attaches primarily to the City Council. The excuse that there is no money available for such an emergent necessity is the merest rubbish. If money were wanted for any imaginable tomfoolery it would be forthcoming. The Star has pointed out how the Building Department can be made self-sustaining. The contention that we must wait for the new Building By-law before attempting to put the Building Department in order can only be justified on the assumption that you should never do anything to-day that you can possibly put off until to-morrow. At the present rate of progress it will be years before we get the new law, and in the meantime the jerry-builders are more active. If the aldermen are alive to the situation they can revolutionize the Building Department in a week. If there are a few glaring weaknesses in the by-law which prevent the Inspector from acting, pass a new by-law, supplying the amendments and increasing the tariff of fees for permits. Almost simultaneously they could raise the money for immediate necessities, increase the Building Department appropriation temporarily, and authorize the appointment of the necessary staff. A big business house would not allow itself to be hampered by red tape or circumlocution in such an emergency. Why not try the experiment of running the city of Montreal on business principles for a week or two? The closing of the Forum garage—when it is closed—will show that the Building Department can act effectively if it is forced to do so. Our impression is that the force will be forthcoming.

There is such a thing as law enforcement in Montreal, but its ways are past finding out. Keep a dog without a license, sell a toothbrush on a Wednesday evening, allow one of your water taps to leak, use roller skates on the city's asphalt paving, and you will speedily find that the majesty of the LAW is something that cannot be trifled with in Montreal! If you must break the law, break it on a big scale—imperil the lives and property of other people. Your audacity will hypnotize the guardians of the LAW to such an extent that they will be afraid to do anything to you. They will say to themselves: "This fellow must be a devil of a fellow; he must have a pull somewhere. Let us sleep over it." They will awaken like giants refreshed with wine, and they will go for the druggist who profanes the sanctity of Wednesday evening by selling a tooth brush, or for the little boy who robs the rink by skating on the street, without gloves. The majesty of the LAW must and will be vindicated, and petty offenders command neither sympathy nor respect. The motto seems to be "Look after the little law-breakers and leave the big ones to the gnawings of conscience." The only trouble is that to judge by appearances, in most cases conscience doesn't gnaw worth a cent. It is as slow as the Building Department.

OUTREMONT AND ANNEXATION.

Outremont's position in the matter of enforced annexation differs in many important respects from that adopted by Westmount. The northern suburb, while quite as proud of its municipal achievements as its western neighbor, is not prepared to go so far in asserting that its destiny is to remain independent and outside the city proper for all time. Outremont people do not relish the thought of becoming a part of the Greater Montreal unless Montreal becomes better as well as bigger as it expands, nor are they enamored of the idea that the goodness of the suburbs is to be the only source of improving influences and tendencies. With some amount of logic they argue that a desire for improvement is valuable in proportion to its manifestation and that some tangible evidences of an intention to govern the city on better and more modern lines than in the past is worth many hours of aldermanic promises.

Up to this point, Outremont and Westmount go hand in hand. Then Westmount refuses to budge another inch; she does not want to think about annexation before the millennium, nor send delegations to talk over the possibility of it, nor in any way to encourage the belief that, if Montreal ever does succeed in capturing her it will be without a life-and-death struggle. Outremont, on the other hand, is far less pessimistic. Her council realizes that the work of the Board of Control has meant a start at the regeneration of our city government and that, provided proper scope is given for the development of the executive powers of this body, Montreal may, within a few years, become a well-regulated city. When this time comes, or even when it is clearly in sight, Outremont is willing to consider the advisability of throwing in her lot with her powerful neighbor. All she asks is that, for the next few years, she may be allowed to work out her own development in her own way.

OUR UNREVISED MUNICIPAL CODE.

Alderman Lapointe is generally looked upon as having a very accurate insight into what happens at the City Hall, but there are things which even the leader of the Council confesses his inability to explain. For instance, it is eleven years since our municipal code was last revised. In that time there has been important legislation on almost every conceivable subject that has to do with the life of the city, yet the only record of these new by-laws and amendments is in a collection of dog's-eared slips of paper in the possession of certain City Hall officials. If a citizen wants to know what is or is not permitted, he must first single out the proper person to ask from the hundreds employed at the City Hall and then induce him to hunt through his dusty papers until he finds whether the accumulation of a decade's municipal legislation contains anything to supplement the code. It need not be pointed out that this process is cumbersome and destructive of time as well as temper, though this is not in itself a characteristic which will differentiate it from other City Hall processes.

So far as the responsibility can be traced, it rests solely with the City Council. The Legislature has given the city power to vote what money is necessary to have the code revised and the Legislation Committee of the Council has recommended that the work be undertaken at once. That is the last that has been heard of the project. Whether it struck one of those sunken ledges of self-interest which have by no means been cleared from the path of the city's progress or whether the quest for the oratorical and the spectacular which has, so far, been the chief characteristic of the present Council, crowded this essential bit of legislation into some forgotten nook, is not of vital importance. The chief point is that purely routine work which is demanded in the interests of the city is being held up because of aldermanic interest or aldermanic apathy. All traces of the habits and customs which made the last City Council a disgrace to Montreal have, apparently, not yet been eliminated.

ACTUAL NOT COMPARATIVE INEFFICIENCY.

To a certain extent, the gloomy hue of our militia outlook is neutralized by the report of Major-General Wood, chief of the staff of the United States army, which has just become public property. If there were a call to arms to-morrow, we are assured that there would be a shortage of more than fifty per cent. in the field artillery equipment and almost as great a deficiency in the ammunition supply for all branches of the service. Other little things which require attention are the passing of a bill to raise a volunteer army in time of war, the creation of a reserve of not less than three hundred thousand men who have already seen service either in the regular army or in the militia, the concentration of the army proper in large posts, and the acquisition of aeroplanes. With these exceptions, the United States is moderately prepared for emergencies—provided the possibility of war with a first class power is not included among them.

We can boast almost that much of our own preparations. Barring such eventualities as carry with them the necessity of real fighting, our militia are quite prepared for whatever may happen. General French admits this, at least by implication. A general scheme of mobilization is not necessary for the holding of successful church parades, nor does a lack of any inteligent proportion between the different branches of the service in any special district prevent picturesque and attractive reviews. If we lack field artillery, ammunition columns and a general staff capable of anticipating and preparing for what would eventuate should the Dominion ever be involved in war, we have the satisfaction of knowing that the United States army has been officially informed that it is in somewhat the same situation. This will not make us any more valuable as an aid to Great Britain, should she ever require our services; it is merely adduced as being the only visible source of consolation in an extremely unpleasant situation.

THE PROSPERITY OF THE UNITED STATES.

It is occasionally very difficult to keep a neighbor's blessings and afflictions in their proper perspective and proportion. This is especially apt to be the case when the neighbor in question is a large and flourishing republic whose incidental ills loom very large and whose essential prosperity is divided among ninety million people. The statistics of the growth of trade in the United States during the last five years furnish an excellent case in point. We in Canada, in common with many other observers, have had a large share of our attention taken up by the revelations of how the control of thousands of millions of dollars has worked itself into the hands of a few men by the exposure of the existence of corruption in high places as well as in low and with the indefinite but no less stimulating suggestions of how the great trusts were continuing to keep up the price of the necessaries of life. These are all serious symptoms; they indicate the existence of dangerous conditions and call for careful and immediate attention; but they do not tell the whole story. In spite of them the United States is prospering as never before in her history.

In the last five years, the foreign commerce of the United States has increased by $640,000,000, or twenty-five per cent. Imports have shown the greater proportionate growth, largely through the purchase of raw materials; exports have failed to keep pace with imports because of the falling off in the export of foodstuffs. Last year $400,000,000 more was imported and $240,000,000 more exported than in 1905. Coupled with these figures are some statistics as to savings bank deposits. In 1905, there was deposited in 1,237 banks the sum of $3,090,000,000; in 1910, there were 1,759 banks and they held $4,670,400,000 of the people's money, an increase of 35 per cent. Dividing this total among the 9,142,000 depositors gives an average account of $4,422.22, which is in itself no inconsiderable evidence of general prosperity.

SENDING FARMER DELEGATES

Immigration Department Planning Active British Campaign.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—Mr. E. Blake Robertson, assistant superintendent of immigration, left to-day for Great Britain. He goes to arrange for the placing of farmer delegates, who, to the number of twenty the Government is arranging to send over.

The party will be made up of immigrants who have, "made good" in Canada.

They will go back to the districts of the Old Country from which they came and tell of their experiences in Canada, and the opportunities which it offers.

It is anticipated that from the campaign which is thus to be carried forward, immigration will be decidedly stimulated. Experence has shown that the best missionaries of immigration are those who are on the ground and are consequently able to speak from their personal knowledge.

It is stated at the Department of Immigration that the total influx during the calendar year now closing, will be 325,000 people. It is expected to materially increase this next year. This fall has seen a large arrival of women and children, who were preceded last spring by the heads of the family.

MILLS' HEIRS ASK DIVISION.

Request Court for Decision re D. O. Mills' Fortune.

San Francisco, November 29.—Ogden Mills and Mrs. Elizabeth Mills Reid, wife of Whitelaw Reid, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, filed a petition in the Probate Court here yesterday asking for partial distribution of the estate of their father, D. O. Mills, who died in San Mateo last January.

The California holdings of the estate are about $2,200,000. Their father's will makes Ogden Mills and Mrs. Reid the executors, and the entire property was bequeathed to them, share and share alike.

THE TILT OF HIS CIGAR.

You can fathom a man by the cut of his jib,
By his actions, his bluff and his talk;
You can tell him quite well by his ebb and his swell,
You can judge him somewhat by his walk.

There are numerous ways you can judge a man,
But I think that the best way by far
To get a right line and gauge him down fine
Is by the tilt of his long cigar.

When the cigar points down the spirits are down,
The drooping is plain to be seen;
When it points straight out he is flound'ring about
And isn't quite certain, I ween.

But there's no mistaking his innermost soul
When it points to some overhead star;
You can easily tell that his life is "all well"
By the tilt of his long cigar.
—Boston Herald.

FRANKNESS.

"Would it be conceited for me to tell my friends that I made this dress myself?"

REVOLT IN HONDURAS.

Manuel Bonilla Reported at Head of Rebellion.

San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua, November 29.—Advices to-day from Tegucigalpa state that the Atlantic ports of Honduras, and the department of Comayagua have been captured by revolutionists, under the leadership of former President Manuel Bonilla. Government forces sent to re-take the territory joined the enemy.

General Bonilla brought about an unsuccessful revolt against the Government of President Davila last summer.

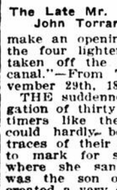
FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY



The Late Mr. John Torrance.

"The last despatch regarding the S.S. Ottawa received by Mr. John Torrance, of David Torrance & Co., is that all hopes of salvage has disappeared. Mr. Torrance has telegraphed for any further particulars. The Department of Marine and Fisheries have one hundred men engaged at Lachine in cutting ice so as to make an opening large enough to allow the four lighters (which have been taken off the river) to get into the canal."—From The Montreal Star, November 29th, 1880.

THE suddenness of the close of navigation of thirty years ago surprised old-timers like the Torrances, and they could hardly believe that only a few traces of their fine new ship were left to mark for several years the place where she sank. Mr. John Torrance was the son of David Torrance, who created a very extensive business in the early days of Montreal's commerce, and from him inherited the belief in a shipping creation for the island port of Montreal. He strongly advocated a free port here for the Dominion, and it was fervently hoped that he would have lived to see his hope accomplished. His efforts upon the Harbor Commission and the Board of Trade were always aimed at accomplishing the advancement of the commerce of the Dominion in a broad and not a local sinse.

"St. Andrew's Society.—At the last meetnig or the General Committee of this society, Mr. James Stewart was elected president for the ensuing year in place of Mr. Hugh Mackay, resigned. Mr. George Macrae, Q.C., was elected first vice-president. General Committee:—Ewen McLennan, chairman; Peter Fulton, secretary-treasurer. Sub-committees: Music and Dancing—George Macrae (chairman), R. M. Esdale J. Reid Wilson, Robert McGibbon, D. McMaster, Fred. McIndoe, Alexander Stewart, W. S. Walker, Hector Mackenzie, Walter Wilson, John F. Cotton, Charles Cassils, John Allan, George Kay.

The Reception Committee had a splendid old-time chairman in James Stewart. To those who had the privilege of meeting the late Mr. James Stewart and of knowing him must remember with kindly thoughts the forceful worker for our country's and our city's best interests as he understood them.

MR. A. S. HAMELIN, ONE TIME ALDERMAN, DIES AT 73

Mr. Anante Simeon Hamelin, of the Provincial Bank, died yesterday at his residence, 222 Berri street, at the age of 73. He was once a prominent figure in civic politics, being from 1886 to 1892 Alderman for the Centre Ward, and from 1899 to the end of his municipal career, chairman of the hygiene committee. A native of Portneuf, Mr. Hamelin came to Montreal in 1856. He took employment with Mr. J. L. Beaudry, the ex-mayor of the city, and later became connected with the firm of Victor Hudon, as a partner. In 1883, he severed his connection with that firm and started in finance. He was closely connected with the building of the Montfort Railway and the organization of the Merchants Telephone and the Banque Provinciale, of which latter he was the auditor.

His funeral will take place Thursday, starting from the late residence, at 222 Berri street, at 8.30, for St. James' Church, and thence to Cote des Neiges cemetery.

LATE EX-ALD. HAMELIN.

CHEAPER TO TRAVEL HERE THAN IN EUROPE.

That ordinary passenger fares in North America are considerably cheaper than in Europe is the deduction made by a writer in the November number of the "Official Railway Guide." The calculations are made as follows:—

Travelling first-class, 2,154 miles in Europe, at 30.4 miles per hour, with an average of 168 pounds of baggage, cost $95.97, or 4.46 cents per mile.

Travelling first-class, 2,154 miles in North America, at 38.6 miles per hour, with an average of 168 pounds of baggage, including reserved seat in parlor car, would cost $61.56, or about 2.86 cents per mile.

The cost of travelling 2,154 miles second-class in Europe, at 30.4 miles per hour, with an average of 168 lbs. of baggage is $69.26, or 3.21 cents per mile.

The cost of travelling 2,154 miles first-class in America, at 38.6 miles per hour, without parlor car seat, with an average of 168 pounds of baggage is $51.86, or 2.41 cents per mile.

HOW OLD PEOPLE

May Prolong Their Lives.

At an advanced age waste is more rapid than repair. The organs act more slowly and less effectually than in youth. The circulation is poor — the blood thin and watery — the appetite poor and digestion weak.

We want to say to every aged person in this vicinity that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil) will prolong life. It creates an appetite, aids digestion and makes good blood. In this natural manner Vinol retards waste and replaces weakness with strength, giving new life to the worn system.

If people in this vicinity only realized how Vinol invigorates old people we would not be able to supply the demand.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Robert H. Bryson, Druggist, Cor. t. Catherine and Peel Sts., Montreal.

Value $1.75 to $3.50

Without a doubt this colossal sale is the greatest waist economy event ever recorded in Montreal. Every waist is new, stylish and beautiful, they are quality garments, productions of the best Canadian manufacturers. We shall put 5,000 of these waists on our tables to-morrow morning; and if a single waist remains when the store closes we shall be much surprised. You cannot conceive from a printed description the rare value this mighty sale represents. Just imagine waists worth and regularly sold for $2.00 to $3.00, being offered to-morrow at $1.00. Don't fail to take advantage of the extraordinary under price purchase. Remember, we have sizes 32 to 44. Some of the materials we have in black and colors. In others we have white. In others various colors only. Altogether this phenomenal sale is worthy of your immediate investigation. It may be timely to suggest that Christmas is only a few weeks off, and these waists would prove ideal for gift purposes.

TOYLAND IS A BIG WORLD FOR LITTLE PEOPLE

In the eyes of childhood our great department on the third floor is a world in itself—a fascinating Land of Joy and Mystery—a part of which they hope to have Santa Claus transport to their own playrooms Xmas morning, indeed there will be little excuse for not gladdening little hearts this Christmas time, for never before have we quoted such low prices on toys and playthings. Parents can save from 5 to 15 per cent. of the average store's prices by buying here. We couldn't begin to give the price details. The number is so vast, the values so extraordinary that it would be a gigantic task.

The best evidence anyhow is your eyesight, therefore come.

THE CHRISTMAS TRAFFIC TO OLD COUNTRY BEGINS.

The first run of Christmas passenger traffic from Canada to the Old Country will commence on Saturday next, when the White Star-Dominion liner Laurentic will sail from Portland for Halifax, leaving the latter port on Sunday for Liverpool with a full complement of passengers. The Canada of the same line, leaving for Liverpool the following week, has also had all her accommodation booked up.

The Allan line is preparing for a big rush on the Victorian, sailing east on December 9, two days after the departure of the Royal Edward of the Canadian Northern line, which steamer already has a big list booked of holiday passengers.

In previous years Montreal has had a fair proportion of those mostly third class passengers who return to England and Scotland for the winter months, after a season's hard work in the West, but the openness of the season has kept many at work up to a later date than usual, and so their return trip has been delayed a few weeks.

THESE TWO MEN HOLD INTERNATIONAL RECORDS.

Wm. Giguere and "Benny" Dreek, two pickpockets of International reputation, were arraigned before Judge Leet this morning on a charge of vagrancy and after pleading not guilty were remanded until to-morrow.

The accused were arrested last night by Detectives Georgian and Lepage in a rooming on Dorchester street. They had been under the eyes of the detectives for some days, who decided that it was advisable to take them in charge.

Both men have jail records in many of the United States cities as well as in Toronto, Ottawa, and Montreal.

DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY ADVISE MERCHANTS

Shop early and avoid the rush.

Now is the time to begin Christmas buying.

Early buying is an advantage to the purchaser, to the storekeeper and to the clerks. The early buyer receives better attention and has a much wider choice of articles to select from. Later on the stores become crowded and shopping is difficult. Moreover many lines suitable for Christmas gifts become exhausted.

The Star has secured expressions of opinion on the subject from a number of merchants, several of which follow:

HENRY BIRKS & CO.—"While, of course, we lay in our extra stock of Christmas articles with the idea of filling, so far as is possible, individual needs, it is the early shopper who has the advantage over the later one in that he has the whole stock to choose from. Our engraving and manufacturing departments are already busy working on Christmas orders and will be so for the time intervening between the holidays and now, but the customer who has his order in first is the one who is most certain of getting his presents on time.

"We expect that this season will be a record one and have laid our plans out in anticipation of this. There seems to be general prosperity prevailing; in fact, we have noticed this for some months now."

HENRY MORGAN & CO.—"If the public realized how much it was in their interests to do their Christmas shopping early, so far as this is reasonable, merchants would have a comparatively easy time of it. The rush and bustle that characterizes the week before the holiday would be done away with to a great extent, to the advantage of all concerned. We do our best to please everyone, but the early shopper is the one who gets the best choice and attention.

"Indications, as we read them at present, point to a record Christmas business. Money is plentiful and the novelties of the season are greater than ever before. We look forward to the best trade we have yet experienced."

JOHN MURPHY & CO.—"We feel certain that our Christmas trade this year, will establish a high-water mark in our business. Certainly, we have laid our plans to accommodate this, as our stock this year is far above what we have ever carried before. The season's modes and novelties lend themselves readily to attractive Christmas display, and the demand for them already indicates what we may expect later on.

"It is a wise shopper who sees the advantages to be gained by an early choosing of his or her requirements for gift-giving. If this were realized more widely by the public, all concerned would be better off in the end. We do our best to accommodate the Christmas rush and usually succeed; but we could much better if the business was spread out over a little longer period."

MR. JOHN OGILVY, OF JAMES OGILVY & SONS.—"There is, I think, an increasing tendency on the part of the public to get their shopping done early, in order to avoid the worry and rush of shopping during the last few days previous to Christmas. We cater as much as possible to these early shoppers; in fact, we already have all our Christmams goods on display, and our daily returns show that our customers are appreciating this advantage. My advice in this matter is not only to shop early, but to shop, when possible, in the mornings, when the staff is always less rushed than in the afternoons. I know a number of families who already have all their Christmas shopping done, and they say that shopping thus early has been a pleasure instead of a worried rush. As to the prospects of trade, they are very bright. The public generally has had a very prosperous year, and this is naturally reflected in the shopping."

JOHNSTON BROTHERS, 483 St. Catherine street, Jewellers, state that their Christmas shopping has started already and are strong in their advice to customers to do the inevitable buying of presents early, for stocks such as are handled by them are at their best, beginning about the first week in December, when the English and foreign shipments are opened out, and appear in their entirety for the selection of the purchasers. Buyers of jewellery thus avoid the worry and rush consequent on leaving the purchases till the last moment, and it was pointed out that there is not so much likelihood of any person for whom presents should be bought being overlooked. Articles too which have to be engraved must be selected some time beforehand, in order to give the dealer time to execute the order.

G. W. CLARKE & CO. — "Early shopping is a thing that we all look forward to. Naturally we are averse to late shopping. People should embrace every opportunity for early shopping, and thus secure the best things; late comers have a poor chance and go away disappointed. In order to assist the shoppers we are keeping open evenings at inconvenience to ourselves, but we want to assist those who cannot get out during the day.

"We anticipate a far better trade this Christmas than last year. Money does not seem wanting, for we have had a great many enquiries for novelties, and for better class goods. Indications do not point to the lack of money for Christmas shopping."

GEO G. GALES & CO.—"It is our desire that the Christmas shopping be done early; as we can then give our customers a better assortment, a better range of sizes and a better service. It is entirely to the interest of the purchaser to shop as early as possible.

"The outlook for trade this Xmas is very favorable. Money appears plentiful, and people are buying a better class of merchandise every day. We were never better equipped for Xmas trade than we are this year and people appear to know and appreciate this fact."

DUPUIS FRERES, Limited.—Mr. Dozois, general manager of Dupuis Freres, interviewed about the prospects for the Christmas, said that it was a little too early to say anything definite. Business had not been what it should and could have been, and the latter part of December was expected to make up. They expect a big rush near Christmas. "That is why we are urging our customers to come early if they wish the first choice."

ANTI-NAVY MEETING ARRANGED FOR WEEK-END

The Nationalists will hold an anti-nevy meeting in St. Johns, at two o'clock, next Saturday afternoon. According to circulars widely distributed this decision was arrived at last week, after Mr. Jacques Cartier, of St. Johns, and Mr. Bruno Nantel, M.P., for Terrebonne, had been refused a hearing at the Brodeur meeting of last Saturday.

Vancouver, B.C., November 29.—Because two swords and one revolver were stolen from H. M. C. S. Rainbow, by souvenir hunters, the after end of the ship will hereafter be closed to visitors.

"Pneumonia"

Pneumonia is nothing more or less than "Lung Fever," or as it used to be called, "Inflammation of the Lungs" and the results come entirely from a local source; such as taking a violent cold.

There is more or less difficulty in breathing: a cough, at first dry, but soon accompanied by raising a thick, sticky, rusty-colored matter, composed of a mixture of phlegm and blood.

There is only one way to prevent Pneumonia, and that is to cure the cold just as soon as it appears. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will do this quickly and effectively.

Mrs. G. W. Bowman, Pattulo, Ont., writes: "Three years ago I caught a cold which ended in a severe attack of Pneumonia. Since that time, at the beginning of each winter, I seem to catch cold very easily. I have been so hoarse that I was unable to speak loud enough to be heard across the room. Last winter, however, a friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, saying it had helped her. I bought a bottle and before it was half used I was completely cured. I also find it a good medicine for the children when they have colds."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; the price 25 cents.

HILL'S VIEWS WHICH BROKE STOCK MARKET

Conversation Between Jas. J. Hill and President Taft Reported

On his return to St. Paul, James J. Hill confided to reporters that he had amazed President Taft, at their recent conference at the White House, by telling him that the business outlook is for a year of reduced operations, with a great many thousand men unable to find work.

This is practically what the railroad man said at the Great Northern office in New York a few days before he went to the Capitol. He explained his statement on the ground that the country has been going too fast with its Government regulation and extravagance, and that it must now pay the penalty with a few months of smaller trade.

Mr. Hill declares it would be futile to discuss the untoward things that confront the American people; that the country faced no panic, and that matters would finally adjust themselves, after experience and much money lost had contributed to the solution.

"When I told President Taft a few days ago," Mr. Hill went on, "that there would be many thousands of men thrown into idleness next year, he was almost incredulous of my sincerity. But I am not making a guess; it will be a fact.

"The trouble with Mr. Taft is," he continued, "that he lives in a political atmosphere. He can't get away from it. It pervades Washington, and the President's view of conditions is limited in a large measure by those who surround him."

Mr. Hill declared that the American people were too complacent. They spent too freely, and were greatly inclined to take a rosy view of things entirely unwarranted by circumstances.

"Extravagance has been our great fault," he said. "We have been wasting entirely too much in non-productive undertakings.

"We have gone to considerable expense to dig the Panama Canal. I presume now we will have to fortify it. It's all very well to make appropriations for such purposes — it's easy to contract debts, but the real difficulty arises when we come to get the money with which to make payments.

"If a man buys a farm and cultivates it, he contributes to the material wealth of society. If he permits the land to lie idle, he has subtracted from the general wealth by withdrawing his money from commerce and investing in a non-profitable enterprise. The latter illustration serves best to indicate our trend in all departments of our Government."

Disclaiming any intention of posing as a calamity prophet, Mr. Hill insisted, however, that it was not a guess which he hazarded, but a statement of an absolute certainty what awaits the country to-morrow or the next year, when business activities becomes dormant.

"Do you hear of any generally systematic plans for improvements during the next year?" he asked. "There are none. Factories and such other enterprises, which are productive in their nature, and which contribute to wealth, are not contemplated by those who have the money to invest. This means that those who have nothing to sell but their time will be without employment. There will have to be a shutting down of the mines, because iron and coal and other minerals that go into the production of commercial articles will not be in demand. The same might be said about the lumber business and other forms of activity. As a result of all this, there will be many thousands of people without employment."

McGILL FINANCES DISCUSSED AT MEETING

A campaign for improving the financial position of McGill University was under consideration at a long meeting of the Board of Governors of that institution yesterday afternoon, but at the conclusion it was stated that the plans were not sufficiently matured for any announcement to be made.

Recently there has been some discussion in the college publications because the authorities have discouraged schemes on the part of the students for raising money for students' purposes, and a letter written in answer to this discussion on behalf of the governors states that the gentlemen who form the board know best when the time is ripe for them to take action.

Connell's foundry, Woodstock, Ont., was destroyed by fire last night, causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

CANADIAN HOME STRENGTH OF LAND, PREACHER ASSERTS

Rev. Dr. Elliott Says Cause of Demand for Canadians is Due to Their Good Home Life.

"The Canadian home is the strength of this country to-day. The reason why Canadian men and women are so highly valued in the United States for their sobriety, their morality, their reliability is because they bear the impress of Canadian home life," said the Rev. Dr. Elliott, in the course of an address on "The Secret of a Happy Home Life," in Fairmount Avenue Methodist Church last night.

"God pity Canada," said he, "if ever she drifts from the old-fashioned home where Christian influences prevail."

Choosing as his text the scene of the calling of Zaccheus to come down from the tree whence he had climbed to gain a view of Jesus, Dr. Elliott made the words "To-day I must abide in thy house," the basis of a powerful appeal for the preservation of the sanctity of marriage and the home life. Recalling the incident of a patriotic American exclaiming on his first view of the capitol at Washington, "there stands the home of the nation," Dr. Elliott entered an emphatic disclaimer. The capitol at Washington was not the home of the nation, nor were the Parliament buildings at Ottawa the home of Canada. "The home of the nation may have been the little old log house where father and mother brought up the family in the knowledge and fear of God," said the preacher.

Dealing with the changed conditions of home life as we have it in cities —life in flats and apartments,—Dr. Elliott emphasized the point that even under these strenuous conditions which tend to destroy home life, we may have real homes if we but carried with them Christ, which alone could redeem and sanctify the home. It was a sad day in any home when the hurry and rush of the day was allowed to push aside the family worship.

With all the exacting demands on one's time, notwithstanding the anxieties and worries of life in these days of big rents and high cost of living, it was still possible to have a real home. Wealth and luxury and ease did not make a home; Christ makes the home, whether it be a palace or the humble cottage. Not beter surroundings, but Christ in the home was what was needed. Jesus could transform any home.

Dr. Elliott closed with a fervent and impressive appeal to his hearers who may have drifted away from the old sense of an abiding Christ in the home to reconsecrate themselves to God's service. Preferment, position, influence were fleeting. God alone abides.

Following the sermon Mr. Noftzger sang "God Give us Homes," to the tune of "Home Sweet Home."

The subject of Dr. Elliott's address for to-night is "Cheap Souls."

Virginian Had Rough Passage.

The Virginian, the first passenger steamship from Halifax for Liverpool this season, sailed yesterday, after a very rough passage from St. John, N. B., to Halifax, the journey having occupied forty hours. This journey is usually accomplished in twenty hours. The Virginian has 46 saloon, 90 second cabin, and 366 third class passengers on board.

TO STOP LECTURES GIVEN BY LEMIEUX IS PETITION PLEA

City Council Asked to Prevent Further Discussion of Emancipation Lodge in Public Meetings.

The Emancipation Lodge affair was brought up again yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the City Council. A petition was presented praying the city to take steps so that Mr. J. A. Lemieux should be prevented from delivering lectures concerning this matter.

In the petition it was said that the lectures were being given in the basement of churches, and that they were supposed to be in the interests of morality; while they were otherwise. It was held that the lectures were even apologies for theft and falsehood.

The petition asked Council to put an end to such a scandalous state of affairs.

Council decided to send the petition to the chief of police for a report.

A motion was presented by Ald. Lapointe, and seconded by Ald. Dandurand, that the Council petition the Government to build the Georgian Bay Canal, as such waterway would be in the interests of Canadian ports. The motion was adopted.

A committee was appointed to see the Ottawa authorities in regard to the application of the Lachine Jacques Cartier and Maisonneuve Railway Co., to instal level crossings in the east end of the city. The delegation will protest against allowing any more of such crossings.

To Confer with Street Railway.

It was resolved, upon motion of Ald. L. A. Lapointe, that a committee composed of Controller Wanklyn, Ald. Turcot, Gauvin, Prudhomme, Tetreau, Boyd, Emard, Monahan, Dandurand, Bastien, Lartiviere and Garceau be named to confer with the Montreal Street Railway Co. regarding the settlement of all questions pending between the city and the company.

A committee was also appointed to confer with outside municipalities in regard to the question of annexation.

The controllers were asked to report on the scheme of putting sand on sidewalks this winter instead of using ashes.

A resolution of condolence with the family of the late Ald. Resther was adopted. Also one condoling with the family of the late ex-Ald. Hamelin.

A Question of Interviews.

At an earlier part of the meeting the subject was brought up by Ald. Emard in regard to interviews were said to have been given by some of the Controllers in regard to larger powers that the Board of Control should possess. It was the opinion of Ald. Emard that Council got along very well with the Board of Control, and he thought such interviews would cause friction.

Controller Dupuis said that in the interview with him his words had been misconstrued. The sense of his remarks had been changed. He had not stated the Council was too large and that it should be abolished.

SUGGESTS EXTENSIVE ADVERTISING.

Thinks All Canadians Should Know of The Star's London Office.

Mr. Frederic H. Blair, of the McGill University Conservatorium of Music, in speaking of a recent visit to London says:—"The offices of the Star were a great convenience to me. They are very centrally located, and the clerks are without exception both obliging and careful. The only suggestion I could offer would be to advertise the offices to such an extent that everyone going to London would know of their existence, and profit by that knowledge.

Special Notice.

The Opinion of a Celebrated Conductor.

Sir Alexander MacKenzie, Principal of the Royal Academy of Music, London, England, and conductor of the great Canadian Musical Festival wrote:—Rich in tone, quick responding touch, firm mechanism, are the requisites of a fine piano—in the Mason & Risch Piano you have secured these.

Allow me to congratulate you and the Dominion of Canada on the production of such fine pianos. Layton Bros., 550 St. Catherine St. W. (cor. Stanley street), Sole Representatives.

The Porcupine Syndicate, Limited, is formed for the purpose of exploring, examining, sampling and developing properties in the newly-discovered gold-bearing areas known as the Porcupine District of Northern Ontario, and to secure for the purposes of the Syndicate such properties as may, on the approval of the most competent engineers, seem worthy of development.

The Syndicate then advances the funds:

1. To judiciously develop these properties for the purpose, when the values are reasonably established, of organizing companies to mine them, retaining a proper amount of shares in the newly-organized company, and securing a cash compensation to reimburse expenditures made, and providing a generous profit;

2. To buy and sell properties;

3. To develop and dispose of claims;

4. To carry on mining operations, and to conduct its business with the dominant purpose of taking advantage of the opportunities presented in the development and growth of the Porcupine District.

Irrefutable evidence is rapidly piling up as to the wonderful deposits of gold in the Porcupine District, and the tale of millions made by the famous gold mines of the world is about to be rewritten.

Advantages of the Syndicate

It is an established fact that syndicates of this nature seldom fail to prove of immense profit to their members, while a great many ordinary mining companies, being limited in their scope of operations to one particular property, are often doomed to failure—perhaps as the result of this feature alone.

A Conservative and Sane Mining Investment

This Syndicate will appeal at once to the thinking investor as being free from the undesirable features of many mining companies. While having a broad charter enabling it to secure and develop mining claims, and to conduct the business of this industry in general, it is organized without the common encumbrances of promotion stock or pooled shares. Each and every share is to be sold at par. None have been, nor will be, given for properties, services, etc., and the Treasury receives cash for every share disposed of, the money being deposited in the Syndicate's Bank for its chartered purposes.

These methods establish the Syndicate on a sound and business-like basis, mark the way to success in any line of industry, and commend the Syndicate to those desiring to invest in mining securities, as holding out the smallest possibilities for loss together with strongest probabilities for gain.

Early Returns to Shareholders

It is expected that as soon as any properties under development will justify the organization of subsidiary companies, this will be done, and the shareholders of the Syndicate will receive a disbursement in the shape of a cash dividend from the profits or a proportion of shares in the new companies, perhaps both.

Extensive plans are laid for the immediate commencement of active operations, and a number of claims having promising locations are being considered. In a short time properties should be under development, and the full winter season taken advantage of to transport supplies necessary to carry on work until better facilities, which are now under way, are provided for getting freight into the Porcupine region.

The Syndicate is securing the services of the best mining engineers and experts that can be obtained, and no properties will be taken up except under the best advice available. Only persons with unlimited capital have been able to do this in the past, and it will be readily recognized that the smaller investor is given the means by this Syndicate of being placed in the same position as the experienced and wealthy mine operator.

As soon as a generous distribution of the shares have been made, application for listing of the stock on the various mining markets will be made. With the splendid possibilities of the Syndicate, and its operations in full swing the stock should then sell at a good premium.

Owing to the fact that the entire Capital will not be required immediately, only a portion, 20,000 shares, are now offered at par, $10.00, and for the same reason the shares may be paid for 50 per cent. with application and balance in payments of 10 per cent. per month. This offer of arrangement for monthly payments is, however, subject to withdrawal without notice, as it is expected, owing to the high character of the investment, and the great interest already shown by those already having knowledge of the Syndicate and its purposes, that the above offering will be oversubscribed.

Asbestos Tangle On The Mend--Evans' Oil Concern--Stocks Little Better

'MEX' POWER 86 SHAWINIGAN 106 CONVERTERS 39

Wall Street regained some of the ground lost yesterday, but locally the best that can be said of the market was that it held fairly steady.

Mexican Power made some headway, and sold at 86, a gain of ½. Rio, on the other hand, was a little easier at 102.

Ottawa Power made a new high mark at 129.

Montreal Power sold at 137, and then 136½, while Shawinigan was 106.

All the steam is out of Converters. It fell back to 39, after reaching 42 the other day.

Cement common sold at 23.

Quebec Ry. was unusually quiet, only 75 shares changing hands.

BUYERS AND SELLERS.

Steel buyers—Burnett & Co., Scott & Co., Craig & Luther, Davidson & Co., Burnett & Wilson, McDougall Bros., Meredith & Co., Forget & Co., Strathy & Co., Weir & Son, Marler & Co.

Steel sellers—Oswald Bros., Beaubien & Co., Burnett & Co., McDougall & Cowans, R. Forget, Weir & Son, Marler & Co., Greenshields & Co., Pitblado & Co.

Power buyers—McDougall & Cowans.

Power sellers—McCuaig Bros., Weir & Son, McDougall & Cowans, McCurdy & Co., Beaubien & Co.

In Wall Street

A wire to E. & C. Randolph said:—Although stocks were supplied in large volume, and the Street and room were extremely bearish, stocks not only held advances as the first fifteen minutes ended, but made further substantial gains. Content sold 25,000 shares of Steel and 10,000 shares selling orders were executed in Smelting, Reading, Union Pacific and a number of other stocks by the same group of brokers that sold heavily yesterday afternoon. Buying scattered and there was no evidence of open support with about the only vigorous demand coming from covering of shorts by some of the room traders. But prices moved up at times, when the pressure was most pronounced, and even while some of these large selling orders were being executed, advances were recorded before the selling was completed.

Sales to noon, 358,036 shares.

WHY BUY BONDS? BUY WILD-CATS!

(Wall Street Journal.)

With good bonds going begging, gullible Americans have squandered $100,000,000 on get-rich-quick mining stocks in the past few years. Wall Street is a heavy loser, and will be blamed, as usual, for what it would have made any sacrifice to prevent.

DECLARES FIRST DIVIDEND.

The Detroit and Mackinac Railway Co. has declared a dividend of 2½ per cent on its common stock.

Pay-as-You Enter Cars In Toronto

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 29. — The Toronto Street Railway is now trying the Pay-As-You-Enter-Car.

"I am certainly very well pleased with the results so far," declared Mr. R. J. Fleming to-day when asked what he thought of the pay-as-you-enter system. "It worked very well yesterday, and so far as I have heard, it went very well this morning. The people themselves seem to be well pleased with it."

CLOSING PRICES IN LONDON.

RAILWAY ACTIVITIES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Mr. R. Marpole, executive assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific with headquarters at Vancouver, is in Montreal to-day conferring with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, regarding next year's developments in British Columbia. Mr. Marpole has charge of all the company's operations in the Pacific Coast Province, and is directing an aggressive development policy.

One of the most important works being carried out in the interior of the province is the building of the Kootenay Railway, which will extend from Golden, on the main line of the C. P. R., to Fort Steele, on the Crow's Nest Pass line, a distance of 175 miles. This line, which Mr. Marpole expects will be finished next year, will skirt the shores of Lake Windermere, in which the Kootenay and Columbia rivers have their rise. It will open up a good fruit farming and mineral area, as well as being one of the grandest scenic routes in the Rockies.

On Vancouver Island the company will greatly extend the scope of its operations. New lines are being planned, and a big impetus is to be given to the colonization movement, but the plans will not be announced till later.

R. M. AITKEN NEW DIRECTOR OF ASBESTOS

English Shareholders Represented and Directors Cut Their Own Fees

At a three-hour meeting of Amalgamated Asbestos directors yesterday, Mr. R. M. Aitken, of Kitcat & Aitken, London, Eng., was elected a director, representing large English interests.

There were present at the meeting Mr. Thomas McDougall, in the chair; Hon. Robert Mackay, H. E. Mitchell, H. H. Melville, Percy P. Cowans, J. McIntyre, Hon. James Beck and R. M. Aitken.

The organization is now being gradually whipped into shape, and, as forecasted some time ago, it will be the aim of the directors to not only extend the scope of the company's operations, but put the pruning knife into the expense accounts. The directors decided to begin upon themselves, and directors' fees were reduced to the vanishing point.

Among other things it was decided to change the company's fiscal year in order to make it end December 31st instead of May 31st, as at present.

Mr. Aitken expresses the hope that the coming year will show a marked change in the company's fortunes.

SOLD 25,000 SHARES STEEL.

At the opening in Wall Street to-day, Harry Content, the well-known broker, sold 25,000 shares of U. S. Steel.

Hill Denies It But Newspaper Men Say Yes

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29. — The alleged interview with James J. Hill, in which he portrayed the country as entering upon a prolonged period of trade stagnation, due to national extravagance, sent a cold chill down the spine of business men yesterday, and started a bear raid in Wall Street.

Hill sent the following telegram:

"St. Paul, November 29. — Interview as reported did not occur. I see no present cause for alarm. Outlook for new enterprises does not indicate great activity, but general conditions of business are on whole sound.

"(Signed), "JAMES J. HILL."

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Paul, November 29. — The Hill interview DID occur, say the newspapermen, and they are willing to swear to it. Some men, they say, have a habit of repudiating interviews when they wake up and find they have talked too much.

Echo of the Swindle By Cassie Chadwick.

Detroit, November 29.—A. B. Spear, former cashier of the Oberlin National Bank, looted by Cassie Chadwick of $300,000 or more, died here last night.

Less than a year ago Mr. Spear was discharged from the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, after serving a seven-year term for his share in the Chadwick swindle. Almost immediately he came to this city and began working for the Michigan State Telephone Co.

$50,000,000 NEW BONDS.

It is believed that the Union Pacific will issue $50,000,000 bonds early next year.

OPINIONS ON THE MARKET

Oswald Bros.—While there is but little to encourage the trader to more new commitments, Atchison around par, paying 6 per cent., looks inviting.

Charles Head & Co.: We feel that ultimately prices will be higher, but see nothing more than a traders' market ahead for the present.

Porcupine Syndicate Shares are $10 Par.

The Porcupine Syndicate, Limited, is the name of Montreal's newest mining company. This concern offers something entirely new in that there are no promotion shares, it having reserved all stock for treasury purposes.

It is the first mining company to operate in the Ontario district with shares of $10.00 par value. The directors of the company are well-known gentlemen, and expect to conduct its operations on a high business standard.

The 20,000 shares are offered for public subscription at par, and the management announce that they have interested a large number of important and substantial mining interests in their enterprise. The company will open an office, and expect to do a considerable business in buying and selling claims, as well as exploration work on those it decides to operate.

The action of Grace and Company, Toronto, contractors against Messrs. Osler, Hammond and Nanton, in which the contractors claim $48,000 for balance of construction has been begun at Winnipeg before Chief Justice Mathers. There is a counter claim for $100,000.

C.P.R. NET GAIN IS OVER $118,000

The C. P. R. net statement out yesterday afternoon showed net profits in October of $4,505,000, an increase of $118,863.

The Atchison exceeded this gain, but most of the big roads these days are in the decrease column.

For the four months C. P. R.'s net profits are $15,593,000, an increase of $2,330,000. These figures are highly encouraging.

The Break

Attack is to Be Made On Sugar Trust

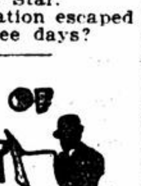
Special to The Montreal Star. New York, November 25.—Within ...

Star-Nov 25th

The widely circulated statements at the close yesterday that the break in the market was due to the sudden news of the investigation into the Sugar Trust rather puzzled those who read the Sugar Trust news in last Friday's Star.

Can it be that the information escaped Wall Street's notice for three days?

TOPICS OF THE STREET



A lot of people have been puzzled at the persistent strength of Cement common.

Some time ago the stock was freely bought by people who put it away for a long pull, but this buying naturally had its limitations.

"The only way I can explain it," said a broker, "is that money is very tight and Cement is the easiest thing on the list to buy. The client puts up 10 points; we put up 13, and there you are. You buy it and do not have to call upon the banks."

Wall Street has been pegged at the same level for so long that people begin to think that stocks could neither go up or down. It was shown yesterday, however, that they can go down without much trouble.

There is no question but that bank clerks are underpaid, and, in consequence, they cannot be blamed if they are now seeking more generous recognition from their employers.

The popular theory that bank clerks have nothing to do but keep a set of books dusted is altogether wrong. Bank clerks have an immense amount of responsibility, and they work hard.

The branch bank system naturally gives them greater opportunities for promotion, but at the same time means the removal of many to uncongenial places.

Any person who thinks the life of a bank clerk is a sinecure is entitled to another guess.

Hetty Green works eleven hours a day trying to keep what money she has—and make more.

Senator Forget left for New York in excellent spirits, and the doctors claim that a winter in the Sunny South of France will restore him to something like his old-time form.

He left with the best wishes of everybody for a full recovery.

One of the most frequent questions heard around the "Street" is:

"Will Power go any lower?"

Stock market profits pale into insignificance compared with the haul the Holt-Gordon Syndicate has made in two real estate deals in Montreal inside of two years.

19,000 Holders Sugar Stock, Half Women

New York, November 29. — James M. Becker, general counsel of the American Sugar Refining Co., made this statement with reference to the Government suit against the company:

"The company's reply to the various charges will be seen when its formal answer is filed in court.

"The company has no monopoly in the sugar industry; it produces no raw sugar, and does not, and cannot, control the price of the raw material; it has no agreements direct or implied with other sugar companies, and is subject daily to competitions of the keenest character; it has, including its beet sugar interests, about 51 per cent. of the country's sugar trade, and it requires a liberal stretch of the imagination to call this a monopoly. It does not seek to stifle competition or oppress the consumer by advancing the cost of a necessity of life.

"The company has over 19,000 stockholders, many of whom are fiduciaries, and nearly one-half of whom are women. The average holding of its stock is about 50 shares, and its shares have long been held by thousands of investors, chiefly in New England, because of their stability and intrinsic value. These investors may be assured that, whatever the outcome of this litigation may be, this company cannot be deprived of its property."

DR. PEARSON RETIRES FROM DIRECTORATE

New Interests Now In Rock Island—An Echo Of the July Break

Dr. F. S. Pearson, Percival Farquhar, D. G. Boissevain and E. D. Kenna have resigned from the Rock Island Co., and are succeeded by James Douglas, James McLean, A. J. Miller and Arthur C. James.

With the exception of A. J. Miller, the new directors represent the Phelps-Dodge interests.

This change in the board is the result of the taking over of the bulk of the Pearson-Farquhar syndicate holdings of Rock Island by Kuhn, Loeb & Co., in the panic last July.

Subsequently Kuhn, Loeb & Co. turned over these shares to the Phelps, Dodge & Co. interests.

LA ROSE OCTOBER PROFITS.

The October La Rose Company operating profit was $138,571. This is a very satisfactory showing.

Mr. W. M. Aitken Makes Reply to His Critics

By Special cable from our own correspondents.

London, November 29.—(Copyright.)—Speaking last night at Ashton, Mr. W. M. Aitken, the Unionist candidate, said:—

"Criticisms have been levelled at me that I am a stranger in the country, and that I have cornered cotton. I have lived in England for some months and have visited this country often, and I understand the English conditions quite as well as many Radical members.

"I have never cornered cotton nor wheat, nor engaged in any speculating or gambling enterprises in them. I have not engaged in anything even bordering on it. I hope my opponents, therefore, will leave the matter severely alone in future.

"I have every confidence in the result of Saturday's poll. The electors realize the necessity for changed conditions."

Other charges levelled at Mr. Aitken are that he has the wealth of John D. Rockefeller or Andrew Carnegie, to which he replies smilingly, "I wish it were true."

Mr. Aitken puts Tariff Reform in the forefront and dwells forcibly on the danger of always saying 'no' to Canada's offer.

The Morning Post, commenting on Mr. Aitken's candidature, says that though he has only been in his constituency a week his attractive personality has caught on in a really remarkable way, and adds that perhaps his Canadian accent has something to do with it, or it may be his tireless energy.

The Liberals admit that Mr Scott, his lawyer opponent, will have to look out.

GREAT INTEREST IN CIRCUSING OF BOB EVANS

What Will Be Future of Oil Concern Headed by Rear-Admiral?

In view of the many exposures of fake oil companies, great interest is being taken in the California Consolidated, of which Rear Admiral (Fighting Bob) Evans is president.

Evans has allowed the promoters to circus his name all over the States and Canada, and no doubt thousands of shares have been sold on the strength of the fact that the popular U.S. naval hero is at the head of the concern. It is hoped for his sake that it is a good one.

There have been reports recently that the U. S. Post Office authorities were going to investigate the concern, but Mr. Evans gave out denials yesterday.

A Montreal broker interested in the promotion sent this to The Star to-day:

"I have received a copy of a lettergram received by the Lincoln Stock & Bond Co., New York city, from a gentleman who went with Admiral Robley D. Evans' party on the 18th to inspect the properties of the California Consolidated Oil Co. in California. It reads as follows:

"'I have examined the oil properties of the California Consolidated Oil Co., and will be prepared to conclude the purchase of one million dollars worth of the stock for my London and Paris firms upon my arrival in New York. I found the statements of your company, Admiral Evans and Mr. Theo P. Gilman, conservative.'"

If the concern does not pan out, Admiral Evans will have to take to the tall timbers.

Wheat Exports Best in Weeks.

Exports of wheat and flour from Canada and the United States, while less than last year, were 285,117 bushels more than a week ago.

	1910-9.	1909-8.
November 26	4,014,610	4,347,438
November 18	3,729,493	6,185,598
November 10	3,080,123	5,535,474
November 3	3,877,367	5,397,455
October 27	3,427,169	4,200,339
October 20	2,844,675	5,694,466

HAY SUPPLIES SMALL.

Hay supplies are on the small side, and, as the demand is good, prices are steady.

No. 1 hay, $11 to $11.50; extra No. 2 hay, $10 to $10.50; No. 2 hay, $9 to $9.50; clover, mixed, $7.50 to $8; clover, $7 to $7.50, car lots.

WHEAT NEWS WAS ON BEARISH SIDE

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, Ill., November 29.—Wheat for December delivery sold at 89⅝ to 89¾ to 89⅞c; May at 95¼ to 94⅞c, and up to 95⅛c, July at 92⅝ to 92¼ to 92⅜c. Closings yesterday were at 89⅝ December, 95⅝ May, and 92⅞ July.

There was considerable in the news that was favorable to the bear side of the wheat market. Kansas is being visited to-day by a coating of "the beautiful" in sections where moisture was needed. There was a weak situation at Winnipeg, and advices from Balcarres, Saskatchewan, were to the effect that every farmer in that section of the prairie provinces was hauling wheat to the nearest railway station.

Reports from Minneapolis said that Winnipeg was again a heavy seller of wheat there, and there were selling orders at Chicago from Winnipeg, Minneapolis and Duluth.

Conditions in both Australia and the Argentine Republic were more favorable and those countries were offering wheat more freely.

Liverpool wheat was ¾ to 1d lower, and Paris was off 2½c; Berlin was unchanged.

The European visible supply decreased 2,112,000 bushels last week, compared with an increase of 2,036,000 bushels for a like period one year ago.

The European visible is 123,736,000 bushels, compared with 80,000,000 bushels one year ago.

The world's available supply decreased 2,750,000 bushels past week, compared with increase of 2,112,000 bushels the week before, and 1,748,000 bushels last year.

Primary wheat receipts were 605,000 bushels, compared with 1,585,064 bushels one year ago.

Clearances wheat and flour from seaboard 299,000 bushels. North-Western wheat receipts 390 cars and Winnipeg 305 cars, compared with 612 and 546 cars respectively one year ago. Minneapolis stocks increased 160,000 bushels three days, against 175,000 bushels increase one year ago.

Action Against Elevator Men.

Fort William, November 29. — Action has been taken against several local elevator men by Warehouse Commissioner Castle for failing to take out a Dominion license for terminal elevators. These are not big elevator concerns, but are purely local firms, with limited storage accommodation for their own purposes. They point out that to take out such a license would convert them into terminal elevators and disqualify them under the ... from doing other than storage business, for which their plants are not designed. The penalty for not taking out a terminal license is $50 per diem, and the license necessarily restricts other business than storage, and, should the decision go against them, the lake ports will be deprived of a promising industry, and an adverse judgment will be a death-blow.

Big Increase in Corn Shipments.

Bradstreet's figures of last week's corn exports compare as follows, in bushels:

RANG AN ALARM FOR CURIOSITY.

Excitement was caused at the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, on St. Denis street yesterday afternoon, by the arrival of a section of the fire brigade. As the buildings cover quite an area, it took many minutes before it could be found that there was no fire at all and that the alarm had been given by one of the old inmates who was, for quite a while, burning with the desire of seeing the inside of the red plain box.

Woman Must Stand Trial.

Mrs. Gagnon, who was held responsible for the death of a child, found on Papineau street, appeared this morning before Magistrate Choquet and was sent to the King's Bench.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

"Bank Clerk."—The strength in Bank of Commerce shares indicates, we should say, an early rise in the dividend. 2. Have heard no current gossip of an advance in Merchants dividend.

"F. M."—Cement pfd. is regarded as a business man's investment. At present the company is earning a good margin over dividend requirements. The tariff question is always a consideration.

"Shakespeare."—We have no reliable information on the property.

"W. H. W."—Dominion Steel preferred dividends are payable April 1st and October 1st.

"J. B.," Quebec.—Getting information for you.

"Anxious Enquirer."—North American Wireless is not a "safe" investment, nor, for that matter, are the other wireless stocks.

"Star Reader," St. James St.—No dividend is likely for some time, and the growth of company will be more or less gradual. As the shares do not yield a return on the money, they can hardly be regarded as a poor man's investment.

"S. C."—The Star has already answered your question. There will not likely be a Christmas bonus on Crown Reserve.

"Investor."—At 86 Cement pfd. would give you 8.13 per cent. on the money invested. The bonds would be a better nivestment for a woman. 2. Population of the United States is a little over 90,000,000.

N. Y. Post on Stock Market In Wall Street

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, November 29. — The "Evening Post," financial, says: "The memory of yesterday's sharp break in prices led traders to proceed cautiously this morning, and business was considerably restricted. In general the tone was unsettled and price changes were irregular. The early decline gave place to a moderate rally, after which prices moved uncertainly upward and downward. For the leaders there was some support offered, and the end of the first hour found the majority of these a small fraction above yesterday's closing level.

WINNIPEG WHEAT A SHADE LOWER

Winnipeg wheat closed ¼c lower, and the Liverpool cable was 1d off to-day.

Quite a lot of cash wheat has been worked for export, and trading in future deliveries on the option market has been active and of large volume, although often erratic in fluctuation of prices. There is also an increase in the milling demand. Movement from the country, while not so large as a year ago, continues liberal. Lake navigation is expected to close unusually early this year, probably by December 1.

To-day's prices are as follows:

WALL STREET CLOSED NEAR BEST PRICES

In Wall Street an extension of the early rise developed a rather hesitating tone and prices sagged.

The volume of business and the action of the market were suggestive of last week's inertia. New York Central, Northern Pacific, C. and O., and a few other stocks advanced 1 and Rock Island prd. 1 1-2.

The close was firm and at about the best prices of the day. Steel was 77 3-4, Reading 150, Lehigh 182 7-8, Union 176 3-8, Mexican Ry. 2nd pfd. 35 7-8, "Soo" 131, C. P. R. 195 1-4, Copper 67 5-8.

MORE MONEY ASKED FOR ALEXANDRA AND ST. PAUL'S HOSPITALS

At the meeting of the Board of Control to-day, a delegation from the Alexandra and St. Paul's contagious diseases hospitals informed the controllers these institutions could no longer be run on the small amount they were receiving from the city. At the present time they are allowed about $25,000 a year each from the corporation, and $1 a day for special beds. The request was made that each hospital get $35,000 a year each and $2 for special beds. If this was granted the hospitals would then be able to continue their work.

Controller Lachapelle—"My sympathies are with the hospitals in this connection. They are doing a noble work in the city, work that is highly appreciated by the public."

Other members of the Board also spoke in high terms of the work these hospitals had in hand, and when the deputation withdrew the feeling was that the Board would report to the Council in favor of the increased grant.

Protest About a Stable.

Ald. Marcil complained to the board that a resident of Notre Dame de Grace had been given a building permit by the city to put up a stable, costing $400, in one of the prettiest parts of this new ward. He said the structure was an eyesore. He further stated that since Notre Dame de Grace had been annexed to Montreal a lot of small structures were being put up. The contention of Ald. Marcil was that the city should take special steps to see that no unsightly shacks were erected in the ward. He held this could be accomplished by having a mounted policeman constantly riding about the ward.

Rev. Mr. Pratt, of Fairmount Avenue Church, also complained of the stable in question. He held the commissioners should order it to be pulled down. The controllers promised to enquire into the matter. It appears that a building permit for the stable was issued by the city a few days after Notre Dame de Grace had been annexed.

JAPANESE START FOR SOUTH POLE.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Yokohama, November 29.—The Japanese Antarctic expedition, under Lieut. Shirase, started yesterday afternoon from Shinagawa Bay aboard the 150-ton schooner Kainan Maru.

In the opinion of foreign experts the preparations are wholly inadequate and the expedition is doomed to failure possibly disaster, but Lieut. Shirase is confident.

NEW CIVIC BUILDING IS NOW PROJECTED

A big project has practically been decided upon by the city controllers. It is that money shall be voted with the budget, in December, for the erection of a new civic building which will house the Police Department, the Recorder's Court and the new municipal library.

Owing to new annexations there are so many clerks at the City Hall that the entire building is congested. The police department is badly overcrowded; the cells are unsanitary, and the guardroom is not healthy.

WILL PLAY FOR ROYALS.

It was stated on good authority today that Lealivet, of Washington or Hoffman, of St. Louis, would play in the outfield for the Royals next season.

Buried in Fall of Coal.

Moise Lapointe was at work on the river steamer Three Rivers, which was being loaded with coal yesterday afternoon, when one of the hooks holding a large bucket slipped, causing the bucket to tip. Lapointe was buried under the coal, and when pulled out by fellow workmen, was found to have been badly hurt. He was taken to Notre Dame Hospital.

WILL OPPOSE MR. BORDEN'S AMENDMENT

French Conservatives Hold Quebec is Against Navy

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—The French Conservatives, it was announced today, will not support Mr. Borden's amendment regarding the naval policy of the Government. They take the stand that the sentiment of Quebec is against the navy, and they are very loth to support anything that may be construed as inconsistent with the stand they have taken against the project or leave them open to attack.

Mr. F. D. Monk said that he would make a brief statement to the House before the vote is taken and in announcing that he and his colleagues would vote against the Borden amendment he intimated that he considered his amendment preferable to it, inasmuch as it has in view consulting the people not only with regard to the Government's programme, but also in connection with the proposal of a direct contribution.

BEHAVING LIKE SUFFRAGETTES.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Paris, November 29.—Messrs. Almereyda and Merle, editors of the Guerre Sociale, who are in prison charged with having provoked "sabotage" in the recent strike, demand that they be free or treated as political prisoners. They say they will refuse all food until satisfaction is accorded them.

BUILDING OFFICE REORGANIZATION IS NOW DEMANDED

The Citizens' Association has taken up the question of the necessity of the city adopting more adequate means for the inspection of buildings in the interests of public safety, and to-day a delegation of its members waited upon the Board of Control and urged their case on the lines of the following resolution which has been unanimously adopted by the association:—

"That this association, having considered the numerous complaints it has received from its members from the building trade and other citizens interested in the question of building construction in Montreal; and having further considered that the lack of proper inspection of buildings was endangering the lives and properties of the citizens of Montreal, it was unanimously resolved to draw the attention of the Board of Control to the absolute necessity of properly reorganizing the staff of the building inspector's department by having a much larger force of competent men engaged in the work than is contemplated.

"The association feels that the building inspector is seriously handicapped in his work, the growth of the city having attained such proportions that it is advisable to consider at once this question in order to meet present and future requirements of the city and citizens."

Messrs. H. Laporte, Peter Lyall, S. T. Valliers and H. E. Chapleau formed the delegation. The three first-named were the spokesmen, and Controller Lachapelle, speaking for the Board, stated that provision for some change would have to be made in the civic Budget, and as this matter was now under the consideration of the Controllers, the important recommendation urged by the delegation should have immediate attention.

ATTEMPTED MURDER IS CHARGE AGAINST JOHN HANRAHAN.

Suffering from the effects of a number of ugly wounds about the face and neck, Mrs. Nellie Irwin, 40 years of age, 20, Little St. Antoine street, was taken to the General Hospital early this morning, and John Hanrahan, her assailant, was hustled off to the Chaboillez street station, and in court today was arraigned on the charge of attempted murder. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded for a week.

Constables St. Pierre and Harvey, who were on duty on Craig street about 1 o'clock, were attracted by a woman shouting, "Police!" and "Murder!" and after the woman had been located at the corner of Craig and Little St. Antoine, she directed them to 20 St. Antoine.

When the constables entered the house they found the walls and floor spattered with blood, and Mrs. Irwin in one of the rooms with blood flowing from wounds in her neck and face.

Mrs. Mary McMullen, a roomer, had her right hand badly lacerated while trying to prevent Hanrahan from slashing Mrs. Irwin, and she also was taken to the hospital.

The police were unable to ascertain the cause of the trouble, as those in the house refused to give any information. Hanrahan, who was found in another room of the house, was taken to the police station, but the only information procurable from him was the fact that he had been drinking for a couple of weeks, and that he did not have a very clear idea of what had happened.

It was stated at the General Hospital that the woman's condition was not serious, and that she would be able to return home to-day.

The Football Champions.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 29.—The Mayor proposed at the meeting of the Board of Control to-day that the city tender some recognition to the 'Varsity champions. A civic reception at the City Hall was suggested and the reception committee instructed to make the necessary arrangements. The champions are also to be presented with souvenirs either gold watches or medals to be donated by the citizens. It is not being legal for the city to appropriate money for this purpose.

THREE HUNDRED SWEPT TO DEATH IN CASPIAN SEA

Astrachan, Russia, November 29.—During a sudden tempest in the Caspian Sea to-day, a landing stage, on which were 300 Persian dock workers, was dragged from its moorings and swept out to sea.

The storm was so violent that attempts at rescue were futile, and all hope that any of the men will be saved, has been abandoned.

TEN VESSELS CAPSIZED IN SUDDEN STORM.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Berlin, November 29.—That 280 Russians and Persians have perished in a storm in the Caspian Sea is the statement made to-day by the "Tageblatt," which bases its report upon the statement of an eyewitness of the disaster.

The Tageblatt's correspondent declares that ten vessels went down in a sudden hurricane and that the passing steamship witnessed the tragedy, unable to render effective aid, so many vessels were sinking at the same time. The passengers on the steamship saw 280 die, they declare, while only 20 were saved by the steamship's crew.

The disaster is said to have occurred near Astrachan.

MONTREALERS MENTIONED FOR NEW JUDGESHIPS

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—It is stated here in well-informed circles that Mr. Robert Taschereau, K. C., and Mr. F. Frederick, K.C., are slated for two W. Frederick Ritchie, K.C., are slated for two of the three additional Circuit Court judgeships to be created at Montreal.

Mr. W. F. Ritchie, K.C., mentioned in the foregoing despatch, is connected with the legal firm of Davidson and Ritchie, and is at present one of the fire commissioners of Montreal, having sat for several years jointly with the late Ernest Desrosiers, who died a couple of years ago. Mr. Ritchie is at present associated with Mr. Rodolphe Latulippe as fire commissioner.

Mr. Robert Taschereau was born in 1874. He is a son of the late Sir Henri T. Taschereau, ex-chief justice of the Province of Quebec. He made his law studies at Laval University, where he now occupies the chair of history of law, succeeding the Hon. R. Lemieux.

He is a nephew of the Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Minister of Public Works in the Provincial Cabinet, and a grand-nephew of the late Cardinal Taschereau.

The trial of E. J. Perry, charged with the murder of Mrs. Maud Wright last August, commenced at Truro, N.S., to-day. The first panel of talesmen was exhausted, but the jury was finally secured by 12.30. The trial will last about three days.

USED CITY LAND FOR RIGHT OF WAY AND BUILT TRACK

When Contractor McGovern was building the big lateral water conduit for the city, from Montreal to the river at Lachine, the Grand Trunk was given permission by the corporation to build a line of tracks along the whole length of the aqueduct from the city to Lachine. The track was used to aid in construction work, and locomotives were used on it. Now the conduit has been completed the Grand Trunk refuses to remove the tracks, contending that having been given permission to lay rails they can remain. The company says that it is willling to pay the city for the land.

The city recently sent a message to the Grand Trunk that if the tracks are not removed the city will tear them up and throw them way.

Now the city attorneys will ask the Railway Commission to compel the company to remove the rails.

SAYS ILLEGALITY OF LODGE MAKES INQUIRY LEGAL

City Attorney Prepares His Objections to the Writ of Injunction in Emancipation Case.

Assistant City Attorney Lavallee completed an important report to-day in regard to the Emancipation Lodge affair, the report having been prepared for submission to the Superior Court. The Assistant City Attorney draws up his objections against a special committee of the City Council being forbidden to make a report as to the connection of the Medical Health Officer of the city and a police official having been connected with the lodge.

In the report Mr. Lavallee contends that Emancipation Lodge was illegally founded in the city, and numerous acts are cited to show that this lodge was contrary to the laws of the country; that it was a branch of a foreign society and that its aims were not in the interests of the peace and well-being of the country.

Being illegally constituted it is held by Mr. Lavallee that members were also acting illegally, and that there was no justification for the civic officials being members of it.

It is finally held that the City Council should not be debarred from acting as it deems fit towards the officials in question.

A campaign has been inaugurated in Niagara Falls, Ont., and vicinity to obtain $10,000 to erect a King Edward memorial nurses' home.

BAILIFF'S SALE—Province of Quebec, District of Montreal. No. 8203. Circuit Court. A. Brownstein, Plaintiff, versus Louis Ladouceur, Defendant. On the 10th December, 1910, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the domicile of the said Defendant, 648a Drolet Street, in the City of Montreal, will be sold by authority of Justice, all the goods and chattels of the said Defendant, seized in this cause, consisting of household furniture. J. E. DESMARAIS, B.S.C. Montreal, November 26th, 1910.

MONTREAL CENSUS OFFICIALS NAMED

Two for Each Electoral Division — One French and One English-Speaking.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—Twelve census commissioners will be appointed for Montreal—two for each electoral division. One will be English, the other French. The regulations provide that where twenty per cent. of the population is either English or French there shall be a commissioner of each language, and it seems that all Montreal constituencies come up to requirements in that regard.

The appointments will be made upon the recommendations of the sitting members, but all have not yet been submitted.

For Maisonneuve the French-speaking commissioner is to be Mr. Albert Gingras, real estate agent; for St. Lawrence division, Messrs. Edward Earle, and L. P. Pigeon; for Hochelaga division, Messrs. John Taylor and Raoul Tourangeau. The others are not yet announced.

Parliamentary Committees Costly.

Ottawa, November 29.—Parliamentary committees sometimes come high. The special commitee which investigated the operations of the various race tracks in Canada last session cost the country in witness fees and reporters' fees $1,242. The legal expenses in the Lumsden investigation involved the expenditure of $3,117.

DREXEL'S RECORD WILL NOT STAND

The Late Ralph Johnstone Created World's Record for High Flight.

New York, November 29.—The National Council of the Aero Club of America has found that J. Armstrong Drexel is still beneath the world's altitude record for an aeroplane established at Belmont Park by Ralph Johnstone. The corrected barograph readings of his flight at Philadelphia last week give only 9,450 feet, against Johnstone's mark of 9,714.

Drexel had hitherto been credited with 9,970 feet. The ink gave out in his barograph and he believes himself that he went higher than 10,000. It is understood that he will try again.

Dirigible For Passenger Traffic.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Atlantic City, N.J., November 29.—Melvin Vaniman, chief engineer of the Wellman airship expedition, has been asked to assist a Boston syndicate, which proposes to build a dirigible capable of carrying twenty persons to be used on regular route between Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

Charles J. Glidden, of the Aerial Navigation Company, it is intimated, already has asked for bids from balloon builders in Germany, France, America, and England for a 200,000 cubic foot capacity spherical balloon, of a composition of cotton and rubber.

Geological Survey Staff Moves.

Ottawa, November 29.—The transfer of the staff of the Geological Survey, now domiciled on Sussex street, to the new Victoria Museum, has commenced. One or two members have moved to their new and decidedly more commodious home.

The move was necessary, as the present quarters of the survey on Sussex street, always crowded, have been rendered still more so by the return of the men from the fields. The new building will be occupied by the Geological Survey, Museum, and National Art Gallery only.

The Mines Branch of the Department of Mines will not be transferred there.

Earl Grey Presented Prizes.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, November 29.—His Excellency Earl Grey yesterday visited the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, and presented the prizes won at the annual sports.

He gave an address to the students on Citizenship, urging upon them high ideals and love of country.

His Excellency afterwards inspected the Collegiate Cadets.

Toronto's Sobriety is Questioned.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, November 29.—Rev. B. H. Spence, general secretary of the Dominion Alliance, is credited with the statement that one man in every four in Toronto drinks intoxicating liquor, and that there are two thousand men drunk in that city every night.

PREMIER WARD'S IMPERIAL PROGRAM

Will Propose Universal Penny Postage, an All-Red Mail Route and Cheaper Telegraphy.

Canadian Associated Press.

Wellington, November 29.—The motions which Premier Ward proposes to bring forward at the Imperial conference include universal penny postage, the development of telegraphic communication within the Empire, an All-Red mail route between England and Australia via Canada, reconstruction of the Colonial Office, an Imperial Council, extension of the powers of high commissioners, and an Imperial court of appeal.

These proposals will be discussed in Parliament.

ALL QUIET IN TEXAS NOW.

Madero Reported Reassembling the Shattered Rebel Forces.

Laredo, Texas, November 29.—According to reports received on both the American and the Mexican side of the border, everything is quiet to-day. Neuvo Laredo, postal and customs officers yesterday seized 300 revolvers which came from the United States by registered mail. The weapons had been accumulating for several days. They were returned to this country with the statement that they constituted prohibited importations into the Republic of Mexico.

San Antonio, Texas, November 29.—That Francesco I. Madero, leader of the Mexican revolution, is safe and uninjured is the news brought direct from Madero to San Antonio. The courrier said that Madero is now gathering his forces in the Laguna district near Ierdo and Parral. This district lies in a fertile valley, surrounded by mountains.

PITTSBURG MAN ACQUITTED.

Surrendered, Was Arraigned, Tried, and Freed Within Six Hours.

Pittsburg, Pa., November 29.—A fugitive from justice since September 27, 1907, Thomas Jordan, a wealthy fruit dealer of McKeesport, who was alleged to have shot and killed Paaquale and Giovanni Rizzo, on that date, surrendered, was arraigned in Court, pleaded not guilty, was placed on trial, and within six hours was acquitted on the murder charge, without his attorneys calling witnesses in his defence.

Newark Fire Inquiry Thorough.

Newark, N. J., November 29.—"If I find any city or state official guilty of negligence in the inspection of this building," said Prosecutor Mott, today, as he stood by the ruins of the factory in which 24 girls lost their lives by fire last Saturday, "there will be the bitterest sort of prosecution."

"I do not mean to imply that I have before me any evidence of criminal negligence, but I do mean that the investigation which begins to-day shall be in earnest."

A coroner's jury of six was sworn in, the first of its kind that has sat here in twenty years. Ordinarily such inquests are left to the county physician. There will also be a separate enquiry by the Grand Jury, which visited the scene to-day, by the State Labor Department, and the City Building Department.

Massachusetts Cashier a Suicide.

Rockport, Mass., November 29.—Geo. W. Tufts, former cashier of the Rockport National Bank, who was recently indicted for the alleged larceny of about $8,000 from the bank, has committed suicide by shooting himself. He was out on bail pending an examination as to his sanity.

Vermont University President Dead.

Burlington, Vt., November 29.—Ending a service of nearly forty years Matthew Henry Buckham, 78 years old, president of the University of Vermont, died at his home early to-day of bronchial trouble.

Government Aid to Flood Victims.

Paris, November 29.—The Government has asked Parliament to appropriate 8,300,000 francs for the sufferers by the recent floods. This includes 5,000,000 francs for the wine growers, whose crops were ruined.

Wainwright's Fast Growth.

To show the growth of a town in Western Canada, it is stated that Wainwright, Alberta, which is not more than two years old, is negotiating for a $5,000 steam fire engine. They have also authorized the employment of an engineer to run the level of the entire town preparatory to the installation of a complete drainage system.

How I Made My Hair Grow

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed; many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair. After my long list of failures, I finally found a simple prescription which I can unhesitatingly state is beyond doubt the most wonderful thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it, and obtained wonderful effects therefrom. It not only is a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc., and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in first-class condition. It also makes the hair easier to comb and arrange in nice form. I have a friend who used it two months and during that time it has not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but it practically restored all of his hair to its natural color. You can obtain the ingredients for making this wonderful preparation from almost any druggist. The prescription is as follows:

Bay Rum, 6 oz.; Menthol Crystals, ½ drachm; Lavona de Composee, 2 oz. If you like it perfumed add a few drops of To-Kalon Perfume, which mixes perfectly with the other ingredients. This, however, is not necessary.

Be sure to ask the druggist for all the enclosures in the Lavona de Composee package. One of them entitles you to a handsome tree sprinkler top for your hair tonic bottle and, you are also entitled to receive the free advice of an expert on the hair by simply writing to the address you will find enclosed in the carton.

Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp.

Go to your druggist and ask for an eight ounce bottle containing six ounces of Bay Rum; also one-half drachm of Menthol Crystals, and two-ounce bottle of Lavona de Composee. Mix the ingredients yourself at your own home. Add the Menthol Crystals to the Bay Rum and then pour in the Lavona de Composee and add the To-Kalon Perfume. Let it stand one-half hour and it is ready for use.

You Do Not Walk Straight

Your drooped shoulder, your crooked spine, and your ungraceful carriage is a result of weak instep, fallen arch, or "flat-foot."

If the arch of the foot, where your body's weight is carried, is supported properly, you will have symmetrical lines—you will walk gracefully and indicate thorough foot comfort.

The Scholl "Foot-Eazer"

properly supports the arch or instep of the foot, equalizes and bridges the body weight from heel to toe, thus giving an even balance to the whole body.

Any troubles, such as tired, aching feet and limbs, weak ankles, rheumatism and painful callouses or bunions, are an inevitable result of a weak instep.

The Scholl "Foot-Eazer" instantly relieves all these ailments and permanently cures the trouble.

The Scholl "Foot-Eazer" is self-adjusting to all feet, fitted into any shoe and can be worn by anyone without discomfort.

It is made of German Silver springs, with leather top. Not harsh, rigid or uncomfortable.

Made in all sizes, for men and women. $2.00 per pair. Your money promptly returned if they do not help your feet.

All shoe dealers and druggists sell the Scholl "Foot-Eazer" or sent direct prepaid. Booklet FREE.

WILL WAIT ON PREIMER TO URGE NEW JUDGES.

The members of the Council of the Montreal Bar wait on Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Minister of Justice on Friday to urge the immediate appointment of three more judges for the Circuit Court. At the last session of the Provincial Legislature an Act was passed increasing the number of members of the Circuit Court Bench by the number mentioned. By a curious anomaly, however, it is the Federal Government alone which has the power to make the appointments, and the pleasure of paying the salaries. The Council will further urge an increase in the salary

The following are mentioned as among the names from which choice will be made: Messrs. Robert Taschereau, Victor Cusson, S. Letourneau, A. Delisle, and J. Demers, M.P. The Circuit Court was created in 1893 to take the smaller cases. In that year 11,139 actions were taken. In contested cases 939 judgments were rendered and 1,582 in non-contested cases. By last year these figures had grown to 25,758 actions taken; judgments rendered in contested cases, 1,647, and in non-contested, 7,203. There has been no increase in the number of judges since the establishment of the Court. It is estimated that, owing to the pressure of business, a case inscribed to-day cannot possibly be heard earlier than a year and five months hence.

Prince Von Wildenburg's Heir.

Berlin, November 29.—Count Hermann Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, in consequence of the death of his cousin, Prince Fritz Von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, inherits the title and immense properties of the latter. The Count's mother was Helene Isabelle Susanna Moulton, an American, born in Paris.

Count Hermann is now German Minister at Cairo, and was formerly first secretary of the German Embassy at Washington, and in charge of that Embassy during the last illness and for a time following the death of Ambassador Speck Von Sternberg.

EARLY MORNING FIRE DOES MUCH DAMAGE IN THE GLEN YARDS

Blaze in C. P. R. Storehouse Gives the Fire Dept. a Keen Tussle.

Fire, which did damage to the extent of $30,000, broke out at mid-night in one of the large store houses of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., at the Glen yards, and it was after 3 o'clock this morning before the fire was finally gotten under control.

The shed, a two-story structure 200 feet long by fifty feet wide, is used by the company for storing supplies for the sleeping and dining cars, and also as an office building.

A yardman discovered the fire and the company's own fire department, which was on the premises responded to the alarm, however, they asked the Westmount brigade for assistance, and under the supervision of the Westmount chief, they combined forces to fight the fire.

The north eastern part of the building suffered most, as the fire originate in the news department which is at that end, the cold storage department prevented the fire reaching the other end.

The office fixtures and a lot of silverware, linen and other car supplies are the chief sources of loss.

Cigars, fruit, magazines and all such articles are floating about on the floor of the building which is flooded with water.

A defective flue is thought to have started the fire.

FALSE ALARM NEARLY CAUSES POLICEMAN'S DEATH IN RUSH HOUR

In jumping out of the way of a salvage waggon descending Bleury street, Constable Napoleon Taillefer, of the Chenneville street station, got in front of the galloping horses of another fire brigade vehicle and was knocked down and trampled over. The wheels, however, did not strike him.

The accident occurred at 9.45 o'clock last night, when the central division of the fire brigade was responding to a false alarm turned in from the box at the corner of St. Alexander and Lagauchetiere street west.

As a result of the accident Constable Taillefer is lying at the General Hospital with his right shoulder dislocated, anl many cuts and bruises about his face and body where he was struck by the horses' hoofs.

It was while straightening out a congestion of cars, vehicles and pedestrians at the crossing of St. Catherine and Bleury streets, where Constable Taillefer was stationed, that he met with the accident.

ARTISTS CO-OPERATE IN ART GALLERY WHENCE NONE ARE EXCLUDED.

The Allied Artists' Association, of 67 Chancery Lane, London, W.C., has completed two years existence. Although founded such a short time ago, the Association has won for itself a permanent footing. The Association is not run for a profit, but is purely co-operative, and was founded with the idea of enabling all artists to exhibit their work, if they themselves think it of sufficient merit.

All members participate in profits according to their shareholding. Membership is obtained by taking out one fully-paid ten-shilling share, and by paying an annual subscription of one guinea. This is the sole liability of members.

The subscription entitles members to show three works at the Fourth London Salon of the Association to be held next July, and to have one of them placed on the line if desired. Referring to the last Salon, The Studio said: "There is every chance that the scheme will resolve itself into an annual event of much importance, with a character all its own, and a purpose not to be fulfilled under any other conditions. These shows do not depend upon the attitude of the critical and expert world of art towards them at all; they depend puon the discrimination of the public, who are the jury to whom the works are referred and whose encouragement is essential if the movement is to be a success."

"The merit of the idea," said the Manchester Guardian, "is that no Manet, nor Whistler, nor Degas, can be excluded from the public view. It is entirely our own fault if we do not recognize them."

Big Blaze in Berlin Suburb.

Berlin, November 29.—Four tanks containing 2,500,000 gallons of benzine exploded last night in the suburb of Rummelsburg. There were no fatalities. The whole city is lighted up by the flames.

The damage is estimated at $750,000. Other tanks, holding 2,000,000 gallons were endangered.

No Woman Can Do Her Best Work in Physical Discomfort. That is why the

W. T. CORSET

(WONDER TEST)

Has Helped So Many Women to Success.

Whether it be housework, business or society, a woman must have no nagging physical discomfort to prevent her from concentrating her mind on her work. Of all such discomforts the torture of a stiff, badly-fitting corset is the most incessant. It brings crowsfeet to the eyes and a discontented look to the mouth.

The W. T. Corset insures that width through the diaphragm which is the first qualification of comfort. Many models for housework are cut low under the arms so as to permit absolute freedom of the body. We are sole agents for this perfect Corset. Wednesday ... $1.98
