Fifty-sixth Year

World News In Brief

Vatican City, June 5.—(Reuters)—The Pope who has been suffering from a cold for the last two days, was able to resume his daily routine today. Although his temperature was still slightly above normal, the 76-year-old Pontiff said mass in his private chapel early this morning.

London, June 5.—(Reuters)—Britain will send a delegation to the sixth Commonwealth forestry conference in Canada from Aug. 11 to Sept. 13, it was announced today.

Copenhagen, June 5.—(Reuters)—Clement Attlee said here yesterday his British Labor party wants communist China in the United Nations. He thus endorsed a statement made here Tuesday night by Herbert Morrison, Labor party strategist, who said that when the party is returned to power it will press for China's admission into U.N.

The Hague, The Netherlands, June 5.—(AP)—Queen Juliana received Iran's Premier Mohammed Mossadegh in a audience yesterday. He brought her some Persian rugs as a present. Next Monday Mossadegh is expected to address the international court of justice here and contend the court is not competent to judge the law suit brought by Britain against Iran in the oil nationalization case.

Rome, June 5.—(Reuters)—Ingrid Bergman's expected twins are already four days "behind schedule," the father, director Roberto Rossellini, said today.

Rossellini, appearing every inch the worried father, said: "They should have been born four days ago. Every day the doctors say it will be today. I really hope that it will be today this time. The strain is killing me."

Los Angeles, June 5.—(AP)—Producer Walter Wanger has begun serving a four-month sentence for the jealousy snooting of Jennings Langan agent for his screen star wife, Joan Bennett. Grim and tight-lipped, the 57-year-old movie-maker surrendered last night at county jail. He turned a deaf ear to reporters' queries about a possible reconciliation with Miss Bennett. The two have been estranged since the shooting last Dec. 13.

Chicoutimi, Que., June 5.—(AP)—Rev. Arthur Fortier, 53, deputy minister for colonization in the Quebec government, died today.

Washington, June 5.—(AP)—The United States today halted the export of all steel-mill products except those "essential to direct military production of the U.S. or friendly countries, or essential to direct defence-supporting industries." The action was taken by the commerce department because of the strike which has cut off new production by the country's steel mills. It follows an embargo already placed on warehouse deliveries of steel to U.S. producers of consumer goods. The department's office of international trade said the order will be effective until further notice.

Living Costs Index Fell Two Points During April

Ottawa, June 5.—(AP)—A drop in the price of most major consumer goods sent the cost-of-living index down two points during April. It was the largest monthly point drop in 20 years and for the first time since last July, the Canadian index was lower than the United States index, on a basis of price change. The index dropped to 186.7 from 188.7 during March. It is based on 1935-39 prices equaling 100. The decrease was the fourth in the row announced by the Bureau of Statistics. The index slid from its peak of 191.5 last December by 4.8 points, the largest drop since 1931. The price of butter, lard, shortening, beef, bacon, veal and oranges dropped during April. Other price drops were seen in electrical goods, furnishings, footwear, men's wear, cleaning supplies, automobile tires, soap, magazines, tobacco products, barbers' fees and street-car fares. Price increases showed in fresh vegetables, principally potatoes, domestic gas rates and telephone

Eisenhower Opens Campaign Says Democratic Party Has Been In Power Too Long

Queen Elizabeth Observes Birthday

London, June 5.—(AP)—The Queen today took the salute at a traditional Trooping the Color ceremony today for the first time in the history of the British army. The colors honored by Royal review at the pageant, marking the official 26th birthday of the Queen, were those of the 2nd Battalion of the Scots Guards.

Elizabeth, proud and lovely in her uniform as colonel-in-chief of the Household Brigade, rode side-saddle from Buckingham Palace to the parade grounds a few hundred yards away an hour before noon. She was preceded, past a cheering throng, by the mounted band of the Horse Guards and escorted by two divisions of the Household Cavalry. With her uncle, the Duke of Gloucester, riding at her side, she guided her horse around the ranks of the 380 Scots Guardsmen, saluting the colors as she passed. Heading the colonels was Defence Minister Alexander, Colonel of the Irish Guards.

The Queen rode down the line of Scots Guards for inspection. The massed bands of the Guards then marched back and forth across the green-tufted parade grounds while the Queen sat erect, flanked by her escort. The rites lasted almost an hour.

Rhee Claims Exaggeration

Pusan, Korea, June 5.—(AP)—President Syngman Rhee today told President Truman the South Korean political situation had been exaggerated and that he would dissolve the national assembly only as a last resort, a reliable source said.

Truman had written Rhee that he was "shocked" at the political events in this provisional South Korean capital. He cautioned Rhee not to take any "irrevocable steps," such as dissolving the assembly.

Britain and Australia also sent similar messages to the ageing Korean political leader. The source said Rhee told Truman the situation here was not as serious as the U.S. chief executive thought. A reliable source said Rhee had agreed Tuesday to try settling the political difficulties through compromise. The compromise would give Rhee his demand for the popular election method of choosing the President and a two-house legislature.

General-Turned-Civilian Makes First Major Political Speech.

Abilene, Kan., June 5.—(AP)—Dwight D. Eisenhower, contending that the Democratic administration must be unseated, prepared today to spell out the details of the program he is advocating as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the Presidency.

"One party has been in power too long," Eisenhower said yesterday.

In his first major speech, on national issues, since he stepped out of uniform, Eisenhower made four main points:

1. A call for co-operation between the "economic elements of our country."
2. The necessity of battling inflation, bringing the national budget "under control," and taking "the first step back to a sound dollar."
3. Taxation—"it becomes doubly necessary to see that waste, duplication and extravagance are eliminated."
4. The charge that there has been a "gradual absorption by the central government of functions that belong to local communities and to individuals."

Reds' P.O.W. Demands Rejected

By GEORGE A. McARTHUR
Munsan, Korea, June 5.—(AP)—U.N. negotiators today accused the communists of insisting that thousands of allied-held war prisoners be chained or handcuffed and shipped back to the Reds like cattle.

Maj.-Gen. William K. Harrison told the communists their demand for forced repatriation of all allied-held prisoners "falls on deaf ears. The U.N. will not forcibly and violently drive to your side anyone who resists returning to you."

He reiterated that the U.N. screening program showed "incontrovertibly" that 100,000 prisoners would rather die than return to communism. The chief U.N. negotiator's address came after North Korean Gen. Nam Il charged that recent outbreaks of violence on Koje island have proved the allied principle of voluntary repatriation "utterly bankrupt."

Nam declared the U.N. plan violates the Geneva convention and added: "Our proposal which assures that all prisoners will return home and lead a peaceful life is in complete accord with the Geneva convention."

"Is it your desire that the United Nations command force these people against their will and at the point of a bayonet to return to you?" Harrison asked.

"Are you insisting that our side handcuff, chain, or otherwise bind these people and ship them to you like cattle? Are you suggesting that their human rights be disregarded, that the United Nations command force them to jeopardize their lives? Is this the humanitarianism you speak of in these negotiations?"

"If this is what you mean by your strident demands for unconditional repatriation of all, then say so, unmistakably and clearly so that the entire world will hear the barbarous and medieval price you are attempting to exact for an armistice."

Before the 29-minute session opened, communist staff officers handed allied officers a note requesting an accounting of 1,014 prisoners they assert are in allied camps. The names were on the original U.N. prisoner roster, but were missing from a revised list. Allied officials have explained previously that most of the names were duplications resulting from prisoners giving more than one name.

The communist note apparently was designed to match an allied request Wednesday for an accounting of nearly 1,000 U.N. soldiers believed to be Red captives. The negotiators will meet Friday at 11 A.M. (10 P.M. EDT Thursday) in Panmunjom.

Soul, Korea, June 5.—(AP)—Allied and communist patrols skirmished Wednesday through one of the lightest action days since the Korean war began 23 months ago. The biggest communist units met by United Nations patrols, on the central front, numbered about 30 or 40 men. The infantrymen traded brief volleys.

Allied divisions on the western front, usually the most active, reported no significant contact. Artillery inflicted about 58 casualties on about 155 Reds located in the Mundung and State valleys and near the punchbowl on the eastern front.

Fighter-bomber and Sabre jet pilots flew north today on their usual rail cutting and bombing runs. During the night, B-26 attack bombers destroyed 68 vehicles carrying supplies to the front.

S. Dakota Primary Indefinite

Washington, June 5.—(CP)—The way South Dakota's 14 votes will go at the Republican presidential nominating convention in July is still in doubt today.

Senator Robert Taft of Ohio holds a 591-vote lead over Dwight D. Eisenhower in the state's bitterly-contested primary.

But with 16 precincts still to report and the official count of ballots scheduled for Saturday, Eisenhower supporters refuse to concede.

The 14 South Dakota votes will go to whichever candidate polls the most support in the primary. Latest returns give Taft 64,700 to Eisenhower's 64,109.

The South Dakota primary is the last in which Eisenhower and Taft will oppose each other before the Chicago convention.

Nomination will require 604 votes and an Associated Press tabulation of pre-convention delegate strength based on known and conceded preferences gives the following standing:

Taft 420; Eisenhower 387; Governor Earl Warren of California 76.

Warren picked up almost all of his support in his own state's primary.

In the race for the Democratic nomination which will require 616 votes, Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee has widened his lead by winning in California and South Dakota. He now has 244 votes compared with 86½ for Senator Richard Russell of Georgia and 85½ for W. Averell Harriman, mutual security administrator.

Political developments today include Eisenhower's press conference in Abilene, Kan., and a White House meeting of President Truman and Senator Kefauver.

The President has shown no enthusiasm for Kefauver as Presidential candidate but he says he wants to remain neutral.

Barbed Wire Fence Splits Big Koje Compound In Two

Koje Island, Korea, June 5.—(AP)—Tank-led allied infantry and engineers split one of Koje island's big prisoner compounds in halves with a barbed wire fence today as 3,340 jeering communist civilians internees stood by chanting Red hymns. There was no violence.

Erection of the fence within compound 607 was ordered by Brig. Gen. Haydon Boather, the Koje commander, as the first step in splitting 17 big compounds into smaller camps for the island's 80,000 prisoners.

The heavily-armed troops marched into the compound shortly before Boather issued a statement acknowledging that rations have been withheld from three compounds on separate days.

Plane Strikes Minesweeper; 15 Killed

Den Helder, The Netherlands, June 5.—(AP)—A Dutch thunder jet practice-diving during N.A.T.O. air-sea manoeuvres crashed into a 112-foot British minesweeper today and 15 men were feared lost.

A Dutch naval communique said the pilot of the plane was killed and two survivors of the 65-ton British craft were rescued. In London the admiralty said the ship normally carried a crew of 16.

The accident occurred off this Dutch naval base, between the mainland and the west Frisian island of Texel.

The plane and the ship, a 16-knot craft powered by gasoline engines, were taking part in manoeuvres with Dutch, British and Belgian forces. The Dutch naval chief of staff, Rear-Admiral C. W. Slot, was in command.

Three Dutch fishermen witnessed the crash. They reported that two planes made a mock diving attack on the British muller launch.

One of the planes pulled out of its dive but the other crashed and burst into flames, setting fire to the British ship which sank immediately.

Dr. MacInnis Is Church Head

Toronto, June 5.—(AP)—Dr. John Angus MacInnis, minister of Orillia Presbyterian church, was elected Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Canada last night by the General Assembly.

Dr. MacInnis was born in 1886 at Mira, Cape Breton Island. In 1915 he enlisted with the Canadian army medical corps and served in France for three years. He was discharged in 1919 and obtained his theology degree in 1921.

Appointed to the British Columbia coast district that year, he later became an assistant minister in Edmonton. He was awarded a travelling scholarship to Union Seminary, New York, where he received a Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1923.

In 1923 he was posted to New Liskeard, Ont., in 1929 he went to Orillia and will have completed 24 years of service there in January.

Dr. MacInnis has been active in the Presbyterian church. He acted on the budget committee for 11 years and the board of missions for 12 years. Moderator of the synod of Toronto and Kingston in 1940, he has also been president of the Lord's Day Alliance and vice-president of the Dominion board. He was honored by Knox College with a Doctor of Divinity degree in 1947.

New Delhi, June 5.—(Reuters)—Communist members of parliament today protested against the sight of the Union Jack flying alongside the Indian flag over government buildings in honor of Queen Elizabeth's birthday.

"The phenomenon of a foreign flag flying over a sovereign parliament is a matter of great perturbation," declared Prof. Hiren Mukerjee for the communists.

Legislation Is Introduced To Reduce Debt Of C.N.R.

Ottawa, June 5.—(CP)—Transport minister Chevrier introduced in the commons yesterday legislation to reduce by half the staggering debt of the vast, government-owned Canadian National Railways system which for years has been operating in the red.

The complicated recapitalization plan, in effect a massive bookkeeping transaction, gained support from all sides of the house. It is based principally on recommendations made by the turgeon commission on transportation but Mr. Chevrier said he believes it is a simpler and easier-to-understand plan than the action suggested by the commission.

The minister, plied with questions, said he would leave it to Donald Gordon, C.N.R. president, to say if the plan will make it possible for the railway to operate at a profit.

Other main business in the short, Wednesday sitting was introduction by Labor Minister Gregg of amendments to the unemployment insurance act.

These will increase unemployment benefits by $3 a week in all categories, cut the "waiting period" before benefits begin to five days from eight, and lay down in law that the national employment service must make no distinction as to race, color or creed of an applicant applying for a job.

Mr. Gregg said increase in the rates will not affect the rate of contributions now paid into the unemployment insurance fund by employees and employers.

Opposition members, headed by Mrs. Ellen Fairclough (PC—Hamilton West) and Stanley Knowles (CCF—Winnipeg North Centre) said they welcome the changes. But all said the increases do not go far enough. Mrs. Fairclough suggested another person should be appointed to the three-member unemployment insurance commission, preferably a woman.

In the Senate legislation was introduced by Senator Wishart Robertson, government leader, to include cosmetics and therapeutic devices under the same control standards applying now to foods and drugs. Penalties for contravention of the control law are increased.

Progressive Conservative, C.C.F. and Social Credit members did not have the bill before them while discussing revision of the C.N.R.'s financial structure. They reserved the right to criticize later the government's methods of doing the job.

The government's plan will work this way:

1. The C.N.R. will be relieved of capital and interest payments of $736,385,000 owing the government. In return the line gives the government an equal amount of four-per-cent preferred stock shares but interest on these will be paid only years when the line makes a profit.

2. The C.N.R. will be relieved from interest payments for 10 years and principal payments for 20 years on another $100,000,000 of debt owing the government in return for more preferred stock.

3. The government will build a special account to be used for improvements and additions to the C.N.R. by buying preferred C.N.R. stock of a value up to three per cent of the line's gross revenues in any one year.

Thus the only mandatory interest the line must meet every year will be on the roughly $650,000,000 of debt held by the public.

Tension In Berlin Unabated

By RICHARD KASISCHKE
Berlin, June 5.—(AP)—The east-west tug of war in Red-tinged Berlin continued unabated today after a night of frontier kidnappings and shootings.

The Russians re-imposed their ban on American patrols operating on the super-highway from Berlin to West Germany and the communist press hinted at a further tightening of the Red Squeeze on the city.

West Berlin police increased protective measures along the perilous frontier areas bordering the surrounding Russian zone after two women were grabbed last night by Russian soldiers and German communist police.

In the British sector, British troops and German police continued their siege of Russian-operated Radio Berlin.

The radio staffed by German communists and guarded by 20 Red army tommy-gunners stayed on the air.

Red army guards turned back patrols at both ends of the Berlin super-highway, one of the city's principal lifelines to the west. Other traffic was normal, however.

The Russians had let an American military police jeep slip through to the highway yesterday for the first time in 10 days. Apparently it was just a mistake.

Russian soldiers in the divided city resorted to gun-play at least twice yesterday.

Eighth Atomic Blast Set Off

Las Vegas, Nev., June 5.—(AP)—The eighth atomic blast of the spring series flashed across the southern Nevada sky before dawn today.

The detonation was touched off at the government's Yucca Flat test site at 4:55 A.M. PDT (7:55 A.M. EDT) and was clearly visible here, 65 miles from the site.

The flash appeared to be more orange in color than most previous shots. Possibly this was because of clouds, which were clearly illuminated by the intense light.

The shot was believed touched off from one of the 300-foot towers similar to those used in some previous tests. No troop manoeuvres were scheduled.

The test was the 20th held here since the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission began using the Nevada site in January of 1951. The current series is believed to be near an end.

Because there was no advance public notice of this shot few persons were up to see the flash.

KEEFE CAST AS CANTOR, LOOKS LIKE EDDIE AT 24, SKOLSKY SAYS Hollywood. (NEA) - Guys and Dolls: "Everybody thinks of Eddie Cantor as he looks today. I can show you photographs of Eddie at 24 and Keefe Brasselle looks just like him." That's how Producer Sidney Skolsky answered Hollywood and Vine critics who lifted surprised eyebrows when glamor-boy Keefe was announced as star of "The Eddie Cantor Story." But Keefe was okayed by Cantor and signed by Warner Bros. for the role without a film test (he did an impersonation of Eddie singing "Whoopie"), and that's proof of Sidney's judgment, which wasn't wrong about Larry Parks as Al Jolson. As Sidney sees it: "Keefe has the same kind of vitality, drive and nervousness as Cantor. You can't do it just with make-up." There's not one worry line in Keefe's face about being pegged as a Cantor type after the film is released. He commented: "I look like Eddie as he looks today only when I pop my eyes and comb my hair his way."

GET IN THE ACT, GIRLS Hollywood's glamor queens have forgotten how to act - off stage. That's the word from Buddy Rogers, the screen's heart-throb of the early '30's, who short-circuited theater air-conditioned systems with his hot celluloid romancing of such fiery feminine stars as Clara Bow and Nancy Carroll. "Clara and Nancy were more vivacious than any of the modern stars," said Buddy. "They realized that movie fans wanted a perpetual show. They were always acting. They even acted in their cars going home." What happened to handsome Buddy's movie career? "I was the clean, polite type guy who was always winning the girl," he grinned. "Then Cagney came along and pushed a grapefruit in Mac Clarke's face, and I was washed up. The knock-em-down, drag-em-out lovers became the rage." Buddy's been touring supper clubs - "Every once in a while I get the urge to play the night" - starring on New York TV and now plans a series of TV films to be made with a mobile camera unit in Europe this summer. He and wife Mary Pickford sail for Rome on June 12. About his perennial youth, Buddy said: "I played golf yesterday with Richard Arlen. You should have seen him. He looks like my son." There's not as big an income tax break for stars involved in those 50-50 percentage deals with UI as people suspect. Alan Ladd just signed one and points out that the biggest revenue on a movie comes in the first year for a no-reduction tax rate. "But what is important," he said, "is that $100 a month 10

Lennoxville Is Thanked By Red Cross

The Lennoxville branch of the Red Cross heard a letter in praise of its efforts during the recent blood donor campaign, at the June meeting of the branch. Mrs. T. W. Saunders, clinic chairman, reported that a record total of 186 persons gave their blood. She read a letter of thanks from the chairman of the blood donor committee in Montreal, the letter reading in part as follows: "We wish to thank you most sincerely for your help and cooperation in connection with the mobile clinic held in Lennoxville. The results obtained are most encouraging and are a great tribute to your organization. We hope that you will express to all members of your committee and to the blood donors our warmest thanks and appreciation for their heart-warming response to the Red Cross appeal on behalf of the patients in our hospitals." A vote of thanks was also extended to St. George's Church for use of the hall, to the Maple Copse Chapter, I.O.E., who served a hot lunch to the clinic staff, to Hunting's Dairy for cream, and to the Lennoxville students who helped in the loading and unloading. The meeting was under the chairmanship of Miss G. Stevens, first vice-president. Mrs. M. Fowles, works' convener, reported that a rush order of 100 face cloths had been received to be hemmed and hand-finished and this had been completed in a week. Also, 2,000 swabs for use at blood donor clinics had been completed, the branch now having attained its quota for 5,000 swabs. The branch acknowledged a recent donation of four booties and one cap from Mrs. E. L. Atto. Mrs. Saunders asked the members to hold the next meeting on July 2nd and in the form of a lawn party, she and Miss B. Everette to be hostesses.

Illegal Entry Penalty Widened

Ottawa, June 5. - Stiff penalties are provided in the new consolidation of Canada's Immigration Act for persons, including immigration officers themselves, who wrongfully assist illegal entry into Canada. A bill amending, consolidating and clarifying the present act also tightens the classes prohibited from entering Canada, extending it to cover those suspected of intent to spy, engage in sabotage or in other subversive activity. The measure was introduced in the Commons Tuesday by Immigration Minister Harris. Under it the Minister will be relieved of the responsibility of dealing personally with every appeal under the act. It provides for the setting up of Immigration Appeal boards of "at least three persons." The inquiry officer who makes the deportation order being appealed against will not be a member of the board reviewing the case.

years from now could be very welcome." MAY MAKE BELLS RING Hollywood may frown on Mr. and Mrs. as romantic teams, but luscious Corinne Calvet and husband John Bromfield believe they can ring box-office bells with some celluloid smooching. Playing a dazed Navy flyer in "Flat Top" at Monogram, John declared: "We're working on everybody for a chance at a co-starring film. We've even got a plot idea—a G.I. who marries a French girl and brings her to his sun-baked home town in Kansas for their honeymoon." Bromfield just nixed a TV deal for 39 half-hour science-fiction films. He said: "The script was fine and the money was right but the role required that I'd wear a mask in all 39 films. I've always felt sorry for the Lone Ranger guy. Imagine a ham always hiding his mug."

Peppery Italian movie cutie Sylvanna Pampanini isn't popular with the over-40 boys back in Rome, either, since she lashed out at such mature movie lovers as Clark Gable, Charles Boyer and Spencer Tracy. Italian star Gino Cervi slipped the latest from Italy just before the local opening (at the Laurel theater) of an Italian version of "Les Miserables," now dubbed in English, in which he's co-starred with Valentina Cortesa. Sylvanna's quotes, he reported, put her in the dog house with Italy's older actors—and their wives. The Italian people, he reported, love Ingrid Bergman but Lia de Leo's career has slipped since she announced her "engagement" to Robert Taylor. Nobody, according to Gino, is engaging her for films. Glimpsed on a newsreel theater marquee: "Latest Flood Pictures. Also Johnny Ray."

Waterloo Legion Honors 4 Veterans Home From Korea

Waterloo, June 5. - The members of the Waterloo Branch of the Canadian Legion paid tribute to four members who had just returned from active duty in Korea. These returned soldiers are Pte. Mike Bockus, Pte. Kenny Basiner, Pte. Frank Luce and Cpl. L. L. Parker. President Dave Schaeffeld was in the chair and acted as chairman for the evening. He called on Rev. Harry Andrews for a few words of welcome followed by Rev. John Crewe, of Foster, and Rev. E. D. Mitchell, of Waterloo. The formal reception was preceded by a ride around town for the four lads in a convertible, and on all sides they were warmly welcomed home. Mr. Gerald Jackson, councillor, officially welcomed the party home on behalf of the mayor, who was unable to be present. Other speakers included Col. P. A. Pluze, of Foster, and the District Legion represented by Jeff Kruse, of Granby. The president, on behalf of the members of the Legion, then welcomed the boys home by name, and asked each one to accept a Ronson lighter and kit with the Legion crest on it. These were graciously accepted by the four boys. A social hour followed, when Monty Harris, of Granby, displayed his great art as a magician for the group present. This very delightful interlude was followed by dancing. There were people not only from Waterloo and Foster present but from Granby and Drummondville, to make up the largest crowd in the history of the Legion Hall being present. The members of the Women's Auxiliary served refreshments at the close of the evening to help make this a memorable one for the four boys in whose honor it was held.

The members of the class include the Misses Rosemary Martin, Jean Maynes, Rita Neilson, Doris Hanna, Shirley Ledoux, Irene McElroy, Betty Thompson, Shirley Hallam, Carl Mann, Roy Atkins and Roger Burnham. Music was supplied by Martel's Orchestra, of Granby. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and was in keeping with the occasion of graduation, with mortar boards, blackboards and the like. On the reception committee were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Pickford, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Buckland. ST. LUKE'S P.W.A. The P.W.A. of St. Luke's Anglican Church was held in the church hall on Thursday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Harry Andrews, in the chair. The meeting was opened with a hymn followed by a prayer. Twenty members and four visitors were present. It was decided to hold a food sale and novelty table in the Northern Canada Power building, on Friday afternoon, June 13, at 2:30 p.m., and plans were made and committees were formed for this occasion. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Nellie Irwin, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. W. Graves and Miss Edith Hanna. At the tea hour, birthday cakes were presented to Mrs. R. B. Moyssey and Mrs. Kenneth Wallace, with all members joining in the singing of "Happy Birthday."

St. Andrew's Mission Band held their closing meeting for the spring season in the form of an indoor picnic, at which a large number of children were present in the St. Andrew's Church Hall. The children were divided into two teams, and a series of games, and contests were played. The winners being the blue team. A picnic satchel made of paper was constructed and decorated by each child. The enjoyment of the children was evidenced at the supper which was arranged on a long and gaily decorated table. Each child on departing took home a gift appropriate to its age. Those assisting the leader, Mrs. Adams in a most successful event were Mrs. G. Stevenson, Mrs. G. Jobel, Mrs. I. Arbery, Mrs. R. Norton and Mrs. R. Smith.

Local Hospital's Psychiatric Clinic Has Become Affiliated With U. Of M.

Dr. Wilbrod Bonin, dean of the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Montreal, has announced that by a decision of the federal and provincial government authorities, the psychiatric clinic of the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital in Sherbrooke has become affiliated with the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Montreal, both for scientific and administration purposes.

Dr. Fernand Cote, the director of the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Montreal, has praised very highly the work of Dr. James O'Neill, who is head of the psychiatric clinic at St. Vincent de Paul Hospital.

Dr. Jacques Olivier, Director of the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, announced the affiliation here simultaneously with the statement made by Dr. Bonin.

The real foundation for the psychiatric clinic system dates back to 1947 when the federal government voted a sum of $150,000,000 to promote a vast national health program, this sum to be spent over five years at the average rate of $30,000,000 a year.

The sums appropriated for mental hygiene in each of the five years were as follows: 1948-49, $4,000,000; 1949-50, $4,000,000; 1950-51, $5,000,000; 1951-52, $6,000,000; and 1952-53, $7,000,000.

In distributing this money among the provinces, it was decided to grant $25,000 to each province and divide the balance on the basis of population. The Provincial Health Ministers control the administration of the federal funds under the supervision of the Dominion Minister of Health. The Quebec Government entrusted three universities, Montreal, Laval and McGill, with the task of using the federal subsidy for the organization of psychiatric clinics and the training of psychiatrists and specialized nurses.

One of the purposes of the grants was to prevent mental illnesses and to extend progressively free treatment services.

In addition to improving knowledge of psychiatry in all its branches—medicine, social service, institute of psychology and school for nurses — expanding libraries and providing study bursaries, the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Montreal has been actively engaged in extending psychiatric clinics, both by establishing new clinics and improving the services of those already existing.

Illustrating the growth of this work, nine institutions, clinics or services were aided in 1949-50, 14 in 1950-51, 17 in 1951-52 and 18 in 1952-53.

After functioning for some time under the control of Laval University at Quebec, the St. Vincent de Paul psychiatric clinic now becomes one of a number administered by the Department of Psychiatry of the University of Montreal. It comprises a medical doctor, a nurse and a social service assistant. It is an external as well as internal clinic and is designed to meet all psychiatric service demands from the Eastern Townships.

Dr. James Joseph O'Neill is the doctor in charge of the clinic. Perfectly bilingual, he received his diploma in medicine from Laval in 1943 and served internships at St. Michel Archangel and Hotel Dieu at Quebec. He also took a Canadian army course in psychiatry. At various times he has served on the staffs of the Verdun Protestant Hospital, the Ste. Anne de Bellevue Military Hospital, Toronto Psychiatric Hospital, National Hospital for Nervous Diseases of London, England, National Heart Hospital, London, and the Royal Infirmary, Edinburgh, Scotland.

Dr. O'Neill devotes his entire time to the neuro-psychiatric service of St. Vincent de Paul Hospital.

Spring Concert At Milby

The old Church Hall at Milby looked as if it had undergone a transformation last Saturday night. Apple blossom boughs and lilacs adorned the stage and made a perfect setting for a spring concert.

The concert was under the auspices of the Friendly Evening Club of Milby and was put on by the Lennoxville High School Junior Choir with Miss Thelma Crawford as soloists, and Mrs. R. J. Bell directing the choir. It was refreshing to see the happy looking children as they filled up the stage, framed by the apple blossoms. One felt that they were enjoying the concert every bit as much as the large audience which filled the hall.

The concert was opened and the audience welcomed by the chairman of the club, Mrs. F. H. Allcorn of Milby, who expressed her pleasure of seeing so many town and country people together, all there for a happy evening.

The choir opened with a selection of three numbers, "Spring Time," "My Dream," and "Early One Morning." Miss Crawford then sang "Life's Lovely Things," and "Little Yaller Dog," the latter especially delighting the younger members of the audience. Another three numbers by the choir were sung with confidence and enjoyment. They were "Nurses' Song," "Over in the Forest," and "Little Butterfly." Miss Crawford then took over again and sang the lovely old song "The Second Minute," which was very much enjoyed but she really brought down the house with her rendition of "The Egg." Wave after wave of laughter swept the hall as grown-ups and children alike enjoyed her song. The choir then ended up with two selections, "A Star Child" and that beautiful song, "Bless This House, Oh Lord We Pray," solemn and beautifully sung.

It would be hard to pick out any special numbers the children sang, as they were all equally well sung and were certainly very much enjoyed by the audience. One could not help thinking what a lot of hard practicing must have gone on before a program such as was given could be put on. Miss Crawford, as soloists, really delighted the audience with her songs, so appropriately chosen.

The Chairman then closed the concert by thanking the very capable Director of the Choir, Mrs. Bell, for all the hard work she had put into the choir in directing them and Miss Crawford for her valuable part in the program. Miss Crawford was then asked for an encore of "The Egg," which she gracefully did. "God Save the Queen," was then sung by choir and audience. A most delicious tea was then served downstairs by the members of the club, the tables were also decorated with lovely apple blossoms.

Irish Women Invited W. I.'s To Summer Course

A notice of the annual summer school, sponsored by the Irish Countrywomen's Association, has been received by the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada. Coupled with this was a cordial invitation to any Institute member to visit this school, which is being held in two sessions, July 1-12 and 16-28, at Dunarvan, on the south coast of Ireland, not far from Cobh where the American liners come in.

Courses are planned in hedge-row basketry, patchwork, Irish dancing, singing, and talks and demonstrations on many topics of interest.

In this letter the secretary, Miss Dorcas F. Smith, expresses the hope all Canadian W. I. members will hear of this invitation and concludes by saying, "We can assure you that we would give any visitor from Canada a warm welcome."

Political Campaign Starts Here With Meeting For Hon. J. S. Bourque

The first major barrage of the 1952 provincial election campaign insofar as Sherbrooke County is concerned will be fired this evening when Union Nationale supporters gather in St. Jean Baptiste Church Hall in East Sherbrooke to request Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Hydraulic Resources, and present Member of the Legislative Assembly for Sherbrooke County, to stand for re-election.

The presenting of the request is expected to be a mere formality as it is generally assumed that Mr. Bourque is ready to stand for re-election. In the 1948 campaign, Mr. Bourque was gravely ill and the campaign was conducted by his friends, his only appearance being for a few minutes at an election eve rally. Since that time his condition has progressed steadily and he has indicated on several occasions recently that he is ready to wage another fight.

Compton County Liberals are meeting in Bury this afternoon to select a candidate to oppose Hon. Charles D. French, Minister of Mines, for whom Prime Minister Maurice Duplessis requested an acclamation during the course of a speech at La Patrie. The Premier said the acclamation was warranted because 67 per cent of the electors in the county promised support for the Mines Minister.

The Liberals, as might be expected, did not take the request too seriously and indicate the best chance of success would be to sign the petitions did so as a matter of discretion, reserving the right to vote as they pleased when the time came around for them to mark the ballots.

No one will offer any definite indication as to the person to be chosen at today's convention, although there is strong talk that Payson Sherman, of Stouffville, may enter the fray. Mr. Sherman was a one-time Union Nationale Member for Compton but in recent years has changed his allegiance.

Family Wedding Keeps Director From Halifax

Because of the marriage this Saturday of his daughter, Director W. P. Donahue of the Fire Department is unable to attend the Dominion Fire Prevention convention which opened at Halifax, N.S., yesterday.

Director Donahue had been chosen to represent the Quebec Fire and Police Chiefs Association at the all-Canada conference when the Association held its spring meeting at Granby, May 6.

Because of this family commitment, Director Donahue has since informed the Association chairman, Director Maurice Vincent of Drummondville, that he would be unable to attend.

Fire Chief Francis Premont of Arvida was named alternate and is in Halifax today.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Donahue to George Blanchette takes place at 9:30 this Saturday morning in St. Patrick's Church.

Orient Hosiery Agreement Is Renewed

The labor agreement between the Orient Hosiery (Sherbrooke) Limited and the Full Fashioned Hosiery Workers Association of Orient Hosiery (Sherbrooke) Incorporated, which terminated as of May 31, 1952, has, after most amiable negotiations between the management and representatives of the workers' association, been renewed for the twelve-month period ending May 30, 1953. A. A. Munster, president and treasurer of the company announced this morning.

The agreement provides that additional fringe benefits be included in the new contract and that all employees covered by the agreement receive a wage increase in the form of a cost-of-living bonus as determined by the cost-of-living index issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Mrs. Jewitt Elected To I. O. D. E. Post

Mrs. A. R. Jewitt of Lennoxville was elected War Memorial Secretary of the National Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire yesterday, at the closing session of the 52nd annual meeting, held at Niagara Falls, Ont.

Mrs. John H. Chipman of Toronto was re-elected National President.

The National Chapter urged the Federal Government to encourage and assist British immigration to Canada by whatever means will prove most effective.

The resolution said the percentage of British persons in relation to total immigration to Canada had fallen off.

The Chapter also asked the Federal Government to prepare and distribute a simple, one-sheet record of the contribution made by Canada to world peace and of Canada's position in foreign affairs.

A resolution dealing with Canada's ties with the Commonwealth said: "It is increasingly clear that our ties with Britain are being weakened and that Canadian and British traditions are not being made paramount in Canadian life."

Delegates voted to offer 11 war memorial bursaries in 1953, one for each province and one for the Yukon. The bursaries, valued at $2,000, will be awarded to enable Canadian students to do post-graduate work in History, Philosophy, English or French Literature at any university in the British Empire overseas.

The 1953 annual meeting will be held in Edmonton.

Steel Talks Will Resume At The White House Today

By NORMAN WALKER
Washington, June 5.—(AP)—The White House renewed steel peace talks today with the industry for a fourth day and Congress studying new strike curbs.

A half-dozen top industry leaders and Philip Murray, head of the C.I.O. and of the striking United Steelworkers of America, were summoned to White House negotiations with John R. Steelman, assistant to President Truman.

Those invited to today's White House meeting, besides Murray, were Benjamin J. Fairless of U.S. Steel Company, Benjamin Morrell of Jones & Laughlin, Frank Funnell of Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Charles M. White of Republic Steel, A. B. Homer of Bethlehem and Clarence Randall of Inland Steel.

Government stabilization officials said they knew of no fresh plan Steelman might have for settling the steel dispute. The amount of a steel price increase, as well as a wage increase, is at issue.

Nearly 750,000 workers have been made idle by the strike. These include the 650,000 steel workers, along with almost 100,000 others furloughed in coal mines, railroads, shipping and docks serving steel mills.

Unemployment resulting from the strike climbed toward the 100,000 mark today as some 9,000 employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad were laid off.

It is estimated some 28,000 coal diggers — employed in mines owned by steel companies — are out of work. More than 30,000 railroad-

37th Annual Meeting Of Stanstead Co. W. I.'s Was Held At Ayer's Cliff

Ayer's Cliff, June 5.—The thirty-seventh annual meeting of the Stanstead County Women's Institutes was held in the United Church vestry, at Ayer's Cliff, on May 8, at 10.30 a.m. The president, Mrs. Bernard Holmes, of Way's Mills, was in the chair. The minutes of the 36th annual meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Reginald Conner, and also the minutes of the last quarterly meeting at Way's Mills. Over 30 delegates were in attendance, a smaller number than usual.

The secretary reported that there were nine branches in the county, and one not functioning at the present time, but it was expected that a new branch would be formed shortly. There were 192 members in these branches, and the largest with 42, and Minton the smallest with 12 members. During the year $2,073 had been raised and $2,515 spent. Three county meetings had been held. There were three radio broadcasts and the Estella Holmes Scholarship had been awarded to Muriel Corey.

The treasurer, Mrs. R. G. Bray, reported on the amounts received and paid out during the year, showing a balance of $206.10. It was moved and seconded that the usual honorarium be paid to the secretary and treasurer for the coming year.

Reports of conveners dealt with the activities in the various branches. Mrs. Lyle Thomson, of Welfare and Health, reported that several branches had given donations to add the hot lunches for children, and that Miss Hodgeman, the county school nurse, had given talks on children's diseases and their prevention. Beebe and North Hatley had worked with a health unit and blood donor clinic, and several branches had given old cotton and linen for the use of the Canadian Cancer Society and had taken out memberships in that society. It was suggested that more use should be made of the pamphlet library at Macdonald College.

Mrs. Henry Blackford, of North Hatley, county education convener, had many fine recommendations in her report. Four branches had contributed to the Estella Holmes Scholarship this year and three branches gave school prizes. A new Home and School Association had been formed at Beebe. She felt that the kind of education provided for our children is determined largely by the kind of men and women qualified for teachers and it was not possible to estimate the value of the service a good teacher performs in the community. Too much money is often spent on school buildings and too little on teachers. How many Institutes members visited their schools, invited teachers to their meetings and sent representatives to their local and county school boards? The need for more home and school associations was also stressed. It had been recommended by the provincial education convener that more branches should take advantage of the services of the Bookmobile or travelling library which would come into any community wanting them. Adult education short courses are held from time to time at Bishop's College University, and Q.W.I. members were asked to attend these courses as much as possible.

Mrs. Holmes spoke of the problem arising from the high school curriculum and said that a committee had been appointed to deal with the matter. The subject of further consolidation of the schools in Stanstead County was another issue that had been discussed with delegates from the various branches, and was a matter of some concern at the moment, as there was a possibility that eventually the only high school in Stanstead County would be the new high school at Magog.

Mrs. John Smith, of Way's Mills, convener of Home Economics, reported on the demonstrations and discussion held in her department, cooking, gift giving and food sales. Beebe had a three-weeks course in handicrafts attended by 44, and on the closing day tea was served to 65 interested persons. Members had been asked to observe a thrift campaign and to increase their membership in the Canadian Association of Consumers.

Miss Mary Flint, of Stanstead North, Citizenship convener, reported that pamphlets on citizenship had been distributed. May 23 is to be observed as Citizenship Day and October 23 as United Nations Day.

Mrs. Thomas Ride, of Hatley, Agricultural convener, reported on exhibit of plants and flowers. This year there was a scarcity of seeds for distribution to school children, and only one-tenth the amount that had formerly been available for this service could be procured. It was hoped that turkeys would be distributed by the Agricultural department this year to Institutes, which had failed to receive them last year.

The president thanked the conveners for their very excellent reports and referred to the world convention of the Associated Country Women of the World, of which the Q.W.I. were a part, to be held in Toronto, Ont., in August 1953. Lady Nuthall, an honorary member of the Ayer's Cliff branch, who had represented the Q.W.I. for years on the board in England, would accompany the delegation to Canada.

The delegates then adjourned for lunch, which was served by the Ayer's Cliff branch, during which a musical program was presented.

Mrs. Grant LeBaron, president of the Quebec Women's Institutes, spoke to the delegates in the evening and dealt with the A.B.C. and First Aid course for nurses to be held later in the year, at Sherbrooke, in connection with Civil Defence. It was hoped that nurses in the district would be able to take this course and later teach it in their communities and it

Tension In Berlin

A U. S. military policeman was seared on the left leg by a bullet fired by an East German border guard.

In a letter to the Soviet political chief in Berlin, U. S. commandant Maj-Gen. Lemuel Mathewson demanded punishment of the German guard.

Russian soldiers also fired warning shots into the air to drive a detail of West Berlin police from a disputed cemetery on the French sector border. After French military police moved up, the Russians agreed to submit the dispute to the big four commanders in the city.

who cross our border each year, getting to know us and, apparently, to like us, and leaving behind millions of American dollars which supposedly we value.

We suggest, too, that this business of Americans trying to find out about us and sometimes getting to know us better than many of us know ourselves has been going on for a long time. After all, it was an American, Francis Parkman, who wrote what remains our best history. And, within the past three decades, who wrote the best historical novel about our early story? We think it was Willa Cather with her "Shadow on the Rock."

In any event, are Canadians so juvenile, so unsure of themselves, that they must sit up at nights worrying over what other countries think of them? Surely if we follow the right paths, keep our country a place of justice and decency, other peoples will find out in due time.

We think, ourselves, that our American neighbors, the best neighbors in the world, know a great deal about us; sometimes, in fact, we think they over-praise and over-rate us; and that what is said foolishly by some two-by-four Congressman from Illinois (Mr. Saunders, curiously, referred to him as a "Senator") doesn't rate a tinker's curse from us.

In short, this business, in which too many Canadians engage, of becoming cry-babies over other peoples not knowing or praising us enough, isn't a sign of confidence or strength; it is but a sign that we haven't yet grown up.

INDUSTRY EXECUTIVE FORECAST END OF FREE BARGAINING IN '49

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington — (NEA) — Clarence B. Randall, 61-year-old president of Inland Steel Co., looks more like a college professor or a minister than the Harvard lawyer and iron master that he really is. Yet he is something of a teacher and a preacher, too.

The lesson and the sermon he delivers most often is on saving the free enterprise system. He thinks it is on trial before the world and possibly fighting a rear-guard action.

Mr. Randall first leaped into national prominence as the new apostle and philosopher of American business during the 1949 steel strike over pensions. Appearing before a three-man presidential board named to investigate this dispute, Mr. Randall declared:

"When the President announced this board, it was an industrial revolution in America. Collective bargaining has been destroyed. It has been repealed by the President.

"And if this union strategy works this time, collective bargaining will never come back. The precedent here established, reflecting similar attempts made in 1946, would commit us to boards and government wage fixing forever."

How right Mr. Randall has been in that prediction thus far is shown by recent experience in the new steel wage case. In this dispute, Mr. Randall was radio and television spokesman for the entire steel industry in answering President Truman's fireside chat to the nation on seizure of the mills to prevent a strike.

Mr. Randall says he has received a great deal of mail since his appearance over the air waves. Nearly all of his letters have been favorable. Complete strangers who have recognized him from his TV appearance have come to him and told him how much they approved. He has been surprised, he declares, at the understanding of the constitutional and fundamental freedom questions involved.

Expounds Views In Speech And In Print

Clarence Randall has been expounding and developing his ideas on management and labor relations over the past five years. He has written a number of articles for magazines. He has a book coming out soon, collecting his best pieces and adding some new ones.

A review of his public utterances — which he insists on writing himself, without benefit of a ghost — can be made to show that he is an extreme liberal on some things, an extreme conservative on others.

"We know so little about the mass behavior of human beings," Mr. Randall confessed in a speech before Controllers' Institute two years ago. "Why will a fine American, who loves his family and goes to church . . . take two feet of gaspipe and lay it across another's head on the picket line? . . ."

"The old school of thought in industry was that an increase in pay did it all. It doesn't. All of the great area of motivation as distinguished from pay is almost a closed book to us in industry."

Writing in the Atlantic Monthly, Mr. Randall has declared earlier: "Those who champion the right of free workers to strike must likewise champion the right of free men in management to say 'No!' in the face of a strike."

And in a 1950 speech before Congress of American Industry he declared, "The thing which today . . . threatens freedom in industrial relations is the annoyance of the public with strikes."

Must Have Free Bargaining Or Abandon Fight

The idea of "Why don't we have judges to resolve these disputes?" Mr. Randall declares to be false thinking.

"We must either bargain freely as free men, or abandon the fight and let the state enter the relationship," he said.

If there had been free bargaining in the present steel dispute, without government interference, Mr. Randall believes that steel prices might have advanced about $5 to $8 a ton, had the unions accepted management's best offer of a 12½ cents-an-hour increase. But he does not believe that steel price rise could hold for long.

"There is no shortage of steel," he asserts. It will take some time to absorb present over-expanded steel production capacity. Warehouses are full of consumers' goods that have been over-produced.

Is the country headed for general deflation? Will there be another depression to readjust prices and wages on a lower level?

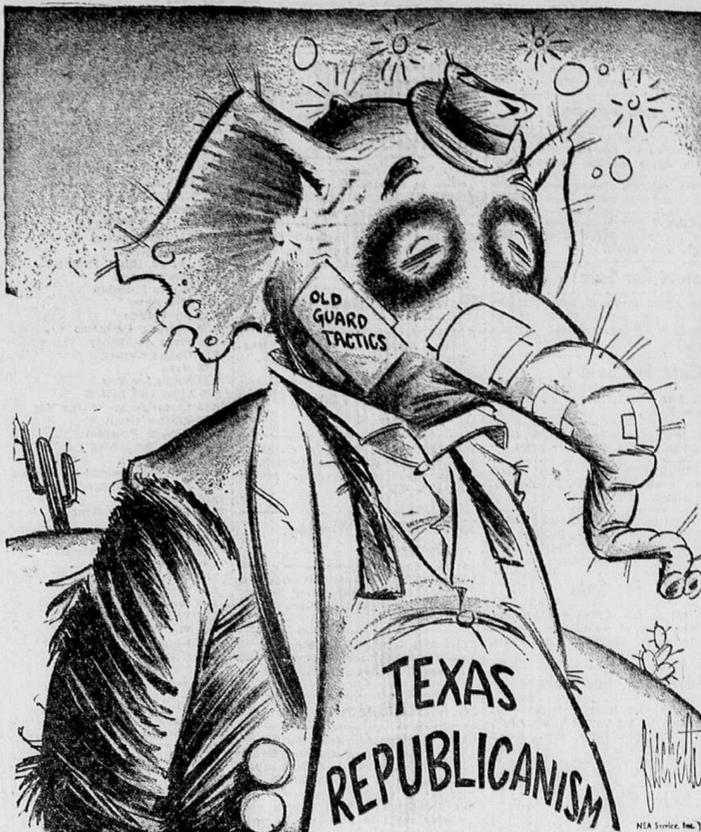

Mr. Randall says these are searching questions to which he does not know the full answers. He points, however, to the fact that textile workers have voluntarily taken wage cuts.

Stores in many steel towns, he says, have been hard hit. Families haven't been spending. They have been saving — partially through fear of another strike, like that of 1949, which shut down the industry for seven weeks. To Mr. Randall, these are signs that people don't want strikes, particularly those forced on them by union leaders seeking only to expand their power.

For management, however, Mr. Randall seems perfectly willing to take a strike in the steel industry to defeat the union shop demand.

"This is the ultimate showdown," he declares.

Quebec Studies Family Union Scheme To Guard Home Life

By TOM McCUSKER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Quebec province is about to organize families into "unions" seeking such benefits as improved family income and housing in the cities.

The aim is to meet conditions rising from the growth of city living in this once predominantly agricultural province, a spread which some authorities feel threatens to stunt family life. For centuries, stability of family life has been the foremost concern in Quebec church pronouncements and social legislation.

Rev. Gonzales Poulin, director of Laval University's school of social service, said congested housing and low wages are causing a declining birth rate and the breakup of the family.

A committee was set up by the provincial government four years ago to study establishment of urban credit to workers wishing to build homes. As yet, nothing has come out of the inquiry.

A recent survey by Laval's school of social science showed the average Quebec city family with children has an income of $2,400, supplemented by $156 in family allowances. It also showed a steady decrease in the number of families owning their own homes.

The situation set Quebec's council of social agencies studying possibility of organizing families to take collective action. The plan would unite families in the same manner as labor unions or associations of professionals. They would study problems threatening integrity of the family and, for the first time in Canada, take action as a body.

Membership would include politicians, lawyers, doctors, business men and workers, regardless of race or creed.

The group studying operations of unions here includes a banker, journalist and chamber of commerce official as well as trained representatives from Laval's school of social science.

A similar study is underway in Montreal. The idea is in its infancy here. Next fall it is expected to spread through all of this city's 40 parishes.

It is not new. France has had family unions since shortly after the first world war. They now have grown to the point where the French government, through the efforts of some 6,700 locals, has appointed a ministry of families and has given family unions exclusive administration over social welfare acts, such as unemployment insurance and family allowances.

Other European countries—Belgium, Italy and Switzerland—have seen the same rise of family unions. An international body—the International Union of Family Organizations—embracing 28 nations, co-ordinates their activities.

Father Poulin sees family unions in Canada going far beyond acting as a pressure group to lobby for legislation favoring the family. "It will serve to unify Canada," said the Franciscan monk who has studied the movement in France.

"Canada is dotted with conflicting economic groups, each out for their own end. Family unions, with the purpose of stabilizing families—the heart and bones of the nations—would bring together representatives from every walk of life," he added.

He thinks the movement will spread across Canada eventually, even though it will require skilled organization. It took 20 years for the idea to mature in France.

Wild horses and wild burros still roam unrestricted in some of the more remote sections of Arizona.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

REMARKABLE PLAYING WON THIS CONTRACT

What does a travelling salesman do when he isn't travelling or selling? If he's a bridge player, he drops into a bridge club wherever he happens to be.

Charles H. Sanders, of New York, travels quite a bit as sales manager for a cigarette company. On a recent trip to Cincinnati, Mr. Sanders, one of the ranking players in the country, had to find a remarkable play to fulfil the contract in the hand shown today.

West opened the jack of diamonds, and Mr. Sanders won in dummy with the ace. He promptly led three top clubs from the dummy, discarding low diamonds from his hand.

The average player would probably try to draw trumps next. Mr. Sanders, however, saw no reason to give the opponents a chance to defeat the contract if the distribution happened to be freakish.

His opponents happened to be two of the best players in the country, and he knew that they would take a great delight in harrassing the visiting expert, if they could.

After running the three top clubs, Mr. Sanders proceeded to lead out the top hearts. The ace of hearts was safely cashed, but West ruffed the king of hearts.

West could not afford to lead two rounds of trumps, since then Mr. Sanders would make his contract with four trump tricks, two hearts, a diamond, and three clubs. He therefore returned a diamond, forcing declarer to ruff.

Declarer now made the key play of leading his low heart. East won with the ten of hearts and could not find a way to defeat the contract. If he returned anything but a trump South would surely be able to ruff his queen of hearts with dummy's queen of spades.

If East returned a trump, two rounds of trumps would permit declarer to draw all of the trumps

The Record Short Story

A FAREWELL KISS

By ISABEL JOHNSTON

The kiss just happened. Neither Alva nor Paul were expecting it. They had spent a glorious afternoon bicycling in the park. Then Paul had taken Alva to a delicious dinner in a little French restaurant. Paul wouldn't even let Alva go home to dress and put on fresh make up. He said the fresh air had given her better color than any rouge could. During the meal Paul talked about his dream of having an architect's office of his own. After mutual consent they went back to Alva's little apartment and sat talking beside her. As Alva put on another log with Paul's help, their hands touched. And then Paul had kissed her.

They stood staring at each other. Neither of them knew the kiss meant farewell.

Paul was different from most of the sophisticated young men Alva had met in the city. Most of them kissed her the first or second time they took her out and the kiss never meant a thing. Most of them gave her a rush, and fun though it was, none of them ever seemed to have any intention of getting married.

Paul had taken Alva out for six months without kissing her. He made Alva feel he was serious. She liked the way he wanted to get to know her before he thought about love. A love founded on mutual interests, a love founded on friendship, was a fine foundation for a happy marriage, Alva thought.

His kiss made Alva's heart beat wildly. She stood there, waiting, sure Paul was going to ask her to marry him.

"You know, the reason I—like you—so much," Paul began.

"It's because you're so different from most girls. Most of them are obviously on the hunt, out to snag a husband."

"I think it's nicer the other way around," Alva said, and it was true, she hated the idea of tricking a man into marriage. She wanted her husband to win her.

"I like you're having a career," Paul said.

"Painting greeting cards isn't much of a career," Alva answered, wondering if all men proposed in such a roundabout fashion.

"But I like the way you're so absorbed in it."

"If you want to make a living designing greeting cards, you have to work hard."

"You see, it takes time for an architect to get established," he went on, "but meanwhile a man needs a woman friend, someone who is sympathetic, congenial, inspiring—"

Alva wished he would kiss her again. So much talk seemed to make it harder and harder for him to get to the point and tell her he loved her.

"Most girls, if I kissed them, would take it seriously and first thing you know I'd be saddled with a wife and never get my own office."

"Saddled with a wife," Alva repeated in a faint voice.

"But you're so crazy that—kiss doesn't mean a thing!"

The fire crackled cheerfully in the silence—and Alva turned away from Paul to stare into it. She pushed a log with her foot before she spoke.

"We've been friends for six months," she managed to control her voice and the anger rising within her, "but I'm afraid you know very little about me."

"Maybe none of us know much about each other," he admitted, "but I know you have a marvelous color sense. I know you are going places in your career."

His confidence was suddenly too much for her.

"What makes you think I want to spend the rest of my life painting sticky, sentimental greeting cards?" she demanded.

"Not greeting cards, maybe, but with your talent—" and cash his queen of hearts safely at the end.

CARD SENSE

Q—With both sides vulnerable, the bidding has been:

South West North East
1 Heart Double Redouble 1 Spade

You, South, hold: Spade 5, Hearts K-Q-J-9-4-2, Diamonds A-J-8-6, Clubs 7-3. What do you do?

A—Bid two hearts. Your partner has asked you to let the next bid come around to him unless you can double for penalties. Your failure to follow instructions indicates that you are not interested in doubling spades. It is clear that you have a sound heart suit in a hand that is much better adapted to offense than to defense.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spade 5, Hearts K-Q-J-9-2, Diamonds A-J-8-5, Clubs 7-3. What do you do?

Answer Tomorrow

"I don't want to drag some unwilling man to the altar. No! That's not what I want," Alva cried. "But what I want more than anything else in the world is a home!"

Paul stared at her, stunned by her outburst.

"I'm going to get a home! And I'm going to be happy in it, even if I haven't a conceded, egotistical husband to share it with!"

"Why Alva," Paul stammered. "I've never seen you so angry."

"And if you want to know what that kiss meant to me," Alva disregarded him, "that kiss meant—"

Her voice choked up. She paused for a moment to control it and then went on:

"It meant," she managed to say it icily, "that kiss meant—good-bye."

"You mean," his voice sounded a little shaken, "you're in love with me?"

"I mean—I hate you! And I never want to see you again!"

Alva was so angry she only had a confused idea of how Paul made his exit. She had a vague recollection of refusing even to shake hands with him and then an acute, painful memory of the door closing after him for good.

Spurred by anger and humiliation, she took an early train next morning and found a little house. Luckily she could do her greeting card designing at home. Luckily she had saved enough money for a down payment.

It was 10 days before she could move in, but she never knew whether Paul telephoned or not. The telephone in her apartment rang a number of times, but she simply never answered it. She left instructions with the greeting card company not to tell anyone her new address.

For a while her house, her own little home, kept her from dwelling on how much Paul had hurt her. It was fun to mix colors and paint the walls a beautiful, unusual shade. She made harmonizing drapes and couch covers and pillow cushions. She turned the cottage into the most charming place a girl could be unhappy in. She told herself she didn't miss Paul—much. But during the long solitary evenings she couldn't help wondering whether he had ever phoned.

Alva told herself that out here in the country she'd meet some man who would appreciate a wife. She went to church and civic meetings and joined the garden club. She went to luncheons with the girls. She was invited to family dinners and entertained couples in return. But she soon found out the only men in town were schoolboys or other people's husbands. You couldn't expect a bachelor to come.

Then winter settled in—and the fuel bills made her budget a headache. When the roads grew icy, there wasn't as much visiting back and forth. It grew dark early. The evenings grew unbearably long.

Then, late one night, something went wrong with her oil burner. It simply wouldn't get started. She had to call a plumber. She turned off the water so the pipes wouldn't freeze. Somehow she managed to drag a mattress close by the fire on the hearth. All night long she got up and down, replenishing logs. She didn't freeze, but by morning she decided it had been a mistake to acquire a home alone. And if she ever wanted to get married, the country was no place for her.

The real estate agents told her there wasn't much chance of her selling in midwinter. So Alva ran an ad in the city papers all week long, offering her house for sale, giving her name and address. All day Saturday no one came. On Sunday she lit a fire, made the house as attractive as possible and sat down to wait. Surely some prospect would brave winter in the country and come.

Shortly after the 12 o'clock train came in, there was a knock at her door. She went to answer it. There on her doorstep was Paul! She stared at him, speechless.

"I saw your ad," he began awkwardly.

His embarrassment made it easy for Alva to recover herself.

"Come right in and see the house." She invited him with the cordiality of a real estate agent. Then she added lightly, "Don't tell me a confirmed bachelor like yourself is getting married?"

"I've changed my mind about marriage," he said.

Chattering gaily about the beautiful view from her picture window, the splendid draft in the fireplace and the advantages of an oil burner, Alva didn't let herself wonder if another girl had changed his mind. Paul simply stood there and looked around.

"You do have a talent for home-making," he said at last.

"Thank you," replied Alva briskly. "Now, if you'd like to see the kitchen, it has all the modern—"

He stepped forward, took her in his arms and stopped her real estate chatter.

"Oh Alva, I've missed you so," he murmured.

Then he kissed her—and this time nobody had to explain what the kiss meant.

THE END

When the last Ice Age was at its height, approximately 12,000-000 square miles of the earth's surface was covered with ice, or about twice the area so covered now.

PRESS COMMENTS

AMERICANS AREN'T SO DUMB

Ottawa Journal

Mr. Robert Saunders, able hard-working, fast-talking chairman of Ontario's Hydro-Electric Commission, told the province's mayors and Reeves last week the time had come for Canadians to "toot their own horns." Mr. Saunders' reason for wanting the horns tooted is that, in his view, Americans don't take enough notice of us, or don't know enough about us, consequently say foolish, uninformed things hurtful to our pride.

Mr. Saunders, we suggest, is unduly and wrongly excited about the wrong thing. For it does seem to us that Americans, or a great many of them, know a great deal about us, as witness the fact that enough of them knew so much about us and thought so well of us as to invest billions of their dollars in our country. Mr. Saunders, we must assume, has heard of all the American dollars that are going into development of Alberta's oil, of all the American dollars going into development of Ungava's iron ore, of American dollars going into Steep Rock, of the thousands of American branch factories that dot our industrial landscape, of the millions of American tourists

The Doctor Says!

CURE AND TREATMENT OF RARE MUSCLE DISEASE ARE IMPROVED

By Edward P. Jordan, M. D.
 Myasthenia gravis is a rather uncommon disease. Its cause is still unknown but its treatment, if not cure, has been enormously improved upon. It is generally evidenced by a combination of fatigue, weakness and frequently wasting of the muscles, particularly those in the upper part of the body.

Although the disease does not act upon any two patients exactly alike, a vivid description was given by an anonymous patient a few years ago in a British medical journal.

The patient was 18 years old in 1925. She first noticed seeing double and felt fatigued. After several months of this, while she was ironing a dress, she suddenly found that she could not hold up her head, which kept drooping forward.

Soon thereafter her knees started giving way underneath her at odd times and her eyelids would droop as soon as she became the least bit tired. She became weaker and weaker. Many drugs were tried and many doctors consulted without any real improvement. This went on for 10 years, and as she said, "I had no real hope of recovery, but I eventually became resigned to my fate."

Ten years after the first symptoms began, the patient's fiancé, who was a medical student, told her that he had something new for her to try. Her first thought, she said, was "Oh bother! Another injection and another false hope."

"I submitted to the injection," she said, "and within a few minutes began to feel very strange. When I lifted my arms, exerting the effort to which I had become accustomed, they shot into the air. My upper eyelids were strangely retracted (pulled up), and every movement I attempted was grotesquely magnified until I had learned to make less exertion."

"I had simply regained relatively normal strength. It was strange, wonderful, and at first very frightening."

The drug was neostigmine which the patient continued to take almost every day for the next 14 years.

Drug Offers Relief

In the summer of 1947 the patient married her medical fiancé. With an additional drug started in 1949, she began to work in a tank factory.

"During my three years at a bench in the view room," she said, "I was often picked out by the foreman for a heavy job, on the grounds that I was 'one of the tough ones.'"

Although myasthenia gravis does not always respond as well as this, the medicine which this patient took, together with others, is offering a great measure of relief to many sufferers from this curious disorder.

West Shefford Family Moves To States

West Shefford, June 5. — With the best wishes of Sheffordians for every success in their new home in Groton, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Dutilly accompanied by their daughter, Marilyn, and four sons, John, Michael, David and Gregory, left here on Wednesday last. For more than 25 years Mr. Dutilly has lived and worked here at his trade of plasterer; latterly he has functioned as a contractor. Mrs. Dutilly, the former Isabelle Roberts, has roots that go deep in Shefford's history. Her sustained interest throughout the years in the Red Cross Society and kindred movements is well known. Those in need and adversity found

Barbara Buys AND WHYS

MONTREAL, June 5th—What's your most important "fashion accessory" in the summertime? Don't you agree—it's your hair! That's why so many beautiful women are singing the praises of the new NESTLE LITE Shampoo Lightener. It makes a shimmering, golden "glory" of your hair, no matter what colour it is. Nestle Lite is different. It cleanses, lightens and conditions your hair at the same time. It contains nothing to make your hair brittle—leaves it soft, silky, glowing with life and natural-looking colour. Ask for Nestle Lite—$1.75—re-touch size—75c. And if you'd like a descriptive pamphlet—write to me—Barbara Brent, 1411 Crescent St., Montreal, P.Q.

"Even The Best Make-Up will look colourless and lifeless if you put one 'face' on top of another," says lovely Kim Hunter, co-star of Paramount's "Anything Can Happen". That's why it's so important to use a cleansing cream that gets to the bottom of stale make-up and grime. Try WOODBURY COLD CREAM with Penaten. Thanks to Penaten the rich cleansing and softening oils in Woodbury penetrate the skin at your cleansing tissue—see how much more dirt you remove... feel your skin softer and smoother. "Bright lights—night lights—they're all flattering when your skin is luminous and soft," says Kim. And I agree. Let Woodbury Cold Cream with Penaten give your skin the cleansing-care it needs for luminous loveliness! 23c, 46c, 78c and $1.15.

As Far As I Can See, the only really bothersome thing about these lovely spring and summer days, is that no one wants to spend any time in the kitchen. At least, all the kiddies do! And often, mothers have to be downright cross to get the youngsters in to meals. But there is an easy way. Just say "Jell-O Pudding for supper," and watch the kiddies come scrambling in. Milk-rich JELL-O PUDDINGS are so delicious and flavorful the children love them. Mothers too, appreciate the smooth nourishment Jell-O Puddings provide, and the speed and ease in preparation... no double boiler is needed. Keep several packages of the favorite Jell-O Pudding flavors on hand. There are four Jell-O Pudding flavors, and three Jell-O Tapioca Pudding flavors. Economical as they are satisfying.

Here's a "Surprise Salad" your family will love. It's another wonderful way to serve HEINZ OVEN-BAKED BEANS... HOT BEAN SALAD. Brown 4 strips cut-up bacon with 1/3 cup chopped onion. Add 1/2 cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup, 2 tsp. Heinz Cider Vinegar, 2 tsp. Heinz Prepared Yellow Mustard, 1/2 oz. tin Heinz Oven-Baked Beans in Tomato Sauce. Simmer 10 min. Serve hot—plentifully garnished with lettuce or dandelion greens. Serves 4 and makes a wonderful Sunday-night supper. Keep a supply of Heinz Oven-Baked Beans always on hand for wonderfully good, economical, meatless meals to please the family. And treat the folks to Heinz Cooked Spaghetti often, too. They'll be thrilled by its tantalizing tenderness—its spicy-good tomato sauce.

A Baby's Enthusiasm is fun to watch. That's just one reason why I like to see a baby enjoying "CREAM OF WHEAT". Yes, babies love tempting 5 Minute "Cream of Wheat"—and it loves them. For it's brimming over with good things that babies need for normal growth and good health. It provides iron to help maintain good red blood—and Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. What's more, mother—5 Minute "Cream of Wheat" is so easy to prepare. It cooks to baby-ready digestibility in just 5 minutes of boiling. So give it to baby often... and enjoy it every morning yourself. It's a whole-family favorite!

Don't You Love A Lively Tune like "Oh What a Beautiful Morning!"... particularly when the tempo is gay and bright. And it's the same with food. The flavour of food can be flat or it can be bright. What makes the difference? WINDSOR SALT. That's why I make a point of using it—both in the kitchen and at the table. It brightens the flavour of almost all my favourite foods—makes all the difference between "dull" and "delicious". Salads, for instance, respond deliciously to a dash of Windsor Salt. Yes, whether it's a crisp concoction of tossed greens—a simple salad of lettuce and tomatoes—or a jellied fruit salad—this famous, free-running salt does wonders to brighten the flavour.

Baking A Lemon Pie for dessert tonight? Well, you'll want lots of fresh lemon flavour in it—and of course that means S U N K I S T L E M O N S—the finest, juiciest grown. And another thing you'll want for your pie is really good meringue. Try this!

For tender meringue, combine 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. lemon juice, 2 egg whites. Beat until frothy, then add 4 tbsp. sugar gradually, beating constantly. Continue beating until meringue holds a peak and looks satiny smooth. Cover pie. Brown in moderate oven (325 deg. F.) for 15 min. For a deeper meringue on a larger pie, use 3 egg whites and 6 tbsp. sugar.

I'm Putting It On My Shopping List right now. I don't want my supply of INSTANT CHASE & SANBORN COFFEE to run low... you see, it's a "must" in our house. For a "quickie" cup between household chores, there's nothing like it. It takes no longer to make than boiling the water. And it's a hostess' "best friend"... it's as easy to make a potful as one cup. But the real reason I like to have a supply of Instant Chase & Sanborn always handy is that it's just plain good. That's because it's made by folks who "know their coffee"—it's the result of over 100 years of coffee experience. The flavour's there—and the real coffee lift. Try it! I know you'll like this economical, delicious instant coffee.

Most People Lock their doors when they set out on vacation. It's an elementary safety precaution. But windows, they tell me, are easy to "jimmy", and doors can be opened even when locked. That's why it seems to me that the best of all ways to protect your valuables is to keep them in a Safety Deposit Box at the BANK OF MONTREAL. It costs so little—less than two cents a day—and it saves so much worry and trouble. Another safety measure I've found while on holiday is BoM Travellers Cheques. They're extra-safe, so simple to cash... and only you can cash your cheques. And by the way—why not start a BoM Sunshine Account for your vacation next year? I've found it the easiest way there is to pay for a better holiday every year. You just put away a definite part of every pay-check—get used to living on a little less—and are you glad when holidays come round again, and you can at last afford that dream-trip! Why not open your Sunshine account today?

R.C. EPISCOPAL VISITATION

The R.C. Parish of the St. Francis Xavier, has been honored with the visit of the Auxiliary Bishop to Bishop Douville, of St. Hyacinthe. On Tuesday afternoon, May 26, the Bishop administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a large class, which Abbe St. Pierre had prepared. During the two days, there were special services. On Wednesday afternoon, the Bishop and his entourage left for the next parish.

FORMER DOCTOR, A VISITOR. Dr. McIntyre, who left here 35 years ago, returned on Sunday last for a brief visit. Since leaving here the doctor had seen service overseas and latterly has been practising in Vankleek Hill, Ont. Sheffordians remember him as a clever painstaking, tactful man, interested in people irrespective of race, creed or social status. By this visit he has honoured Shefford and, listening to people roll back the years, it was abundantly evident that there is always a welcome for Dr. McIntyre here.

General Notes. Mr. Harold Enright, of Sherbrooke, whilst en route to Cowansville on Wednesday last, called on his brother, Mr. Stuart Enright here. Mrs. N. J. EDSON WARNER OF LENNOXVILLE TO SHOOT IN OLYMPICS

To Represent Canada At Helsinki In Rifle And Pistol Events And Also At World Matches In Norway

Edson Warner of Lennoxville has been selected a member of the four-man Canadian shooting team to represent Canada in the 1952 Summer Olympic Games.

Mr. Warner will leave for Europe by air from Dorval, July fifth. He will shoot at the Olympics in Helsinki, Finland, July 25 to July 29 but previous to that will compete in the World Championship Matches at Oslo, Norway, July 10 to 16, the latter events being sponsored by the International Shooting Union.

The announcement of his selection to the Canadian team was made by the Canadian Civilian Association of Marksmen of which Mr. Warner is a director.

Other members of the shooting team are Lieut. Gilmour, 48th Highlanders, Toronto, who won the King's Prize at the Commonwealth Service Rifle Matches at Bisley England, last year and also the Canadian Closed Small-Bore championship at Connaught Ranges, Ottawa, George Genereux, 18, of Saskatoon, Sask., and Roy Cole, of Hamilton, Ont.

Genereux last year won the North American junior trap shooting championship at Vandalla, Ohio.

Lieut. Boa and Sgt. Warner, secretary of the Sherbrooke Regiment Rifle Association, will represent Canada in the rifle shooting while pistol trials, making two scores of 579 out of 600, only one point less than the World's Record set by Takacs of Hungary in the 1948 Olympics.

In rapid-fire pistol shooting, one has to shoot five shots at five different man-sized silhouette targets at 25 metres, four strings of five shots each in eight seconds, four in six seconds and four in four seconds. The 10-ring is about the size of a dollar bill.

In rifle shooting, the 50-metre 10-ring is about the size of a small penny. The 300-metre bullseye on the service rifle and big bore free rifle target is 3.97 inches.

Mr. Warner, who is 22 years of age, is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Warner, of Lennoxville. Born in Sawyerville, he moved to Lennoxville with his parents in early childhood.

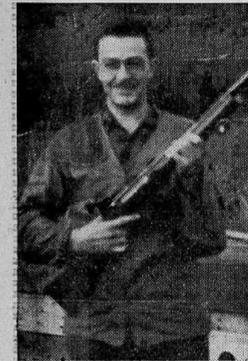

He is a graduate of Lennoxville High School and in 1951 received his Bachelor of Commerce degree from McGill University. At present he is with the firm of McDonald, Currie and Company, chartered accountants.

Mr. Warner didn't get really interested in shooting until December, 1946, when the Lennoxville Rifle Club was formed and he became one of the original members.

He attributes his prowess in this field to lots of practice and the help and advice of the older shots with whom he has come into contact, notably Fred Glass of Lennoxville, a former Bisley team member and former president of the Lennoxville Rifle Club, the late Arthur Westman, of Lennoxville, and Elwin Patton, of Lennoxville.

Besides being a director of the Canadian Civilian Association of Marksmen and secretary of the Sherbrooke Regiment Rifle Association, Mr. Warner is a member of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, Province of Quebec Rifle Club, McGill Graduates' Society, and the Lambda Chi Alpha Society.

He hopes to return to Canada in time to shoot in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association matches at Ottawa, August 11 to 16.

the other two marksmen will compete in the shotgun events. Sgt. Warner will also represent Canada in the pistol matches.

There have been no Canadian shooters at the Olympic Games since 1924.

The rifle team was picked on the basis of 22 calibre free rifle scores over the Olympic course of fire, forty shots in the prone, kneeling and standing positions. The Lennoxville marksman placed second to Lieut. Boa in the rifle trials and first in the rapid fire

New Magog Cops Southern Eastern Darts League Playoffs, Downing Connaught Inn In Deciding Tilt

The New Magog darts team last night won the final playoffs of the Southern Eastern Townships Darts League, defeating Connaught Inn 23-17 in the fifth and deciding game of the best-of-five games final round.

Playing before a large crowd at Connaught Inn, New Magog came from behind to defeat the North Hatley players who had finished first in the regular season play. New Magog was the runner-up team during the season.

The teams played on even terms for the first half of the game last night but Connaught Inn then forged ahead and was leading 15-13 at one time. New Magog then put on a spurt and won seven consecutive games to take a 20-15 lead before Connaught won another game.

Following the game, League President Doug Amaron presented Bert Johnson, New Magog's captain, with the Dominion Textile "Double Top" trophy, emblematic of playoff supremacy, and announced the New Magog will be hosts for the provincial championship which will be played on June 14.

Armand Simard and Romeo Langlois of New Magog were the top combination of the evening, winning all five games.

G. Labelle and G. Lavoie and L. Dubois and G. Doyon won four games apiece for New Magog, while Connaught's best pairs were Larry Allen and Russ Kezar and Russ Leslie and Dick Gordon, with three wins apiece.

A league meeting will be held Monday night at Connaught Inn at 8:30 to discuss the possibility of holding a windup banquet at which there would be formal presentation of trophies.

In addition to the Dominion Textile trophy presented last night, there are two awards for the Connaught Inn team, one for winning the league championship and the other for taking the runner-up spot in the playoffs.

In gaining their final berths in the playoffs, New Magog defeated the Legion and Riverview, while Connaught Inn defeated Bellevue-Rand.

Ezzard Charles Will Try To Make Ring History Tonight In His Bid For Title Against Jersey Joe

Philadelphia, June 5.—(AP)—Favored Ezzard Charles defies ring legends Thursday night at Municipal Stadium in his bid to become the first former heavyweight boxing champion to regain the crown.

Standing squarely in his path is 38-year-old Jersey Joe Walcott, of Camden, N.J., making the first defense of the title he wrenched from Charles on a seventh round knockout last July.

Promoter Herman Taylor now predicts a crowd of 35,000 and a gate of $250,000, plus another $175,000 for television and radio rights for the championship scrap.

Fair weather is predicted. The betting price was reported dropping from an early 3 to 1 favoring Charles to about 2 to 1 with Walcott money putting in an appearance.

Charles, heaviest in his career at about 192 pounds, loosened up briefly at his Pleasantville, N.J., training quarters today. Walcott took a walk at Atlantic City, N.J. Both will remain at their seashore camps until they drive in for the weigh-in.

All right tradition says Charles can't do it. Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Jim Jeffries, Max Baer, Jack Dempsey and Joe Louis failed before him in their bids to win back boxing's richest prize. But most of them were old men when they tried it. Charles, 30, is eight years younger than the slope-shouldered old daddy of six children.

It is ironic that Walcott, the underdog every time he fought for the title, should be in the position of proving "they never come back." Jersey Joe's career, dating back to 1930, was crowded with comebacks, retirements and comebacks in the cold, hungry days before he hit the jackpot on the fifth try.

Duke Of Edinburgh Named To B.A.A.B.

London, June 5.—(AP)—The Duke of Edinburgh was selected as president of the British Amateur Athletic Board yesterday. The Board picks Britain's Olympic teams.

In sports the Duke is best known as a yachtsman and polo player.

He and Queen Elizabeth plan to attend the national track and field championships at London's White City Stadium June 21. The British Olympic track squad will be picked after this meet.

Rae Milligan Named Alberta Ladies' Champ

Edmonton, June 5.—(AP)—Rae Milligan, 18-year-old Jasper, Alta., golfer, will go into the books as 1952 Alberta Women's Golf Champion without swinging a club.

An announcement yesterday said the Alberta Women's Championship Tournament, originally scheduled at Calgary, has been called off because of the National Women's Open and Closed Tournaments here in August.

Miss Milligan won the Provincial Championship last year when she outclassed Alberta's best in her first try. Mrs. Ruth F. Michaels of Edmonton, president of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, said Miss Milligan will hold the crown until she is defeated in Provincial competition.

Stellarton Cops Opener From Dartmouth Club

Stellarton, N.S., June 5.—(AP)—Stellarton Albions yesterday defeated Dartmouth Arrows 8-6 in the opening game of the Halifax and District Senior Baseball League which was marked by heavy hitting on both teams.

Three hurlers gave up 21 hits, of which nine were good for extra bases, including a home run by pitcher Johnny Duarte of Dartmouth.

Syd Roy was the winning pitcher although he gave up 10 hits. Duarte gave way to Custer in the fifth but neither could halt Albions' timely batting sprays.

Helen Fletcher Named To British Wightman

London, June 5.—(AP)—Helen Fletcher, the left-handed tennis player, has been added to Britain's Wightman Cup team to play the United States at Wimbledon in July.

Leonard to play in open again. Vancouver, June 5.—(AP)—Stan Leonard of Vancouver, Canadian Professional Golfers' Association champion, said yesterday he will play in the Canadian Open at Winnipeg in July.

Leonard was low Canadian in last year's Open at Toronto.

Avity of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association has repeatedly tried to get confirmation of these dates from Mexican officials but has heard nothing yet. However, should the Americans and Canadians win their earlier matches, the tie is definitely set for Aug. 8, 9 and 10.

The situation in Mexico as far as tennis is concerned is complex. There are two warring factions, the Mexican Lawn Tennis Association and the Federation of Mexican Lawn Tennis. The former is recognized by the International Lawn Tennis Federation in London and is considered the ruling body there. However, the Federation claims control of Mexican tennis nationally, and that's where the fun begins.

The situation is on the agenda of the I.L.T.F. meeting in Paris, July 8.

The Davis Cup selection committee's task this year should be easier. Prior to the tie, three tournaments are being held in Eastern Canada and from these the committee hopes to get a line on the team. The tournaments are Ontario Senior, June 23-28 at Toronto; Quebec Senior, June 28-July 5 at Montclair Tennis Club; and Eastern Canadian, July 7-14 at Quebec.

Murray Henderson To Coach Hershey Bears

Hershey, Pa., June 5.—(AP)—John M. Henderson, defenceman for Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League, has been named coach of Hershey Bears of the American League, Lloyd S. Blinco, Bears' manager, announced last night.

Blinco said Henderson's contract has been purchased by the Bears and that the N.H.L. star has signed a two-year contract to pilot and play defence for the Hershey team.

Henderson, a native of Toronto, succeeds Johnny Crawford, who resigned at the end of last season to devote full time to his Boston paper business.

NO CANADIAN DOCTORS REQUIRED, SAYS DOWNES
Montreal, June 5.—(CP)—President A. Sidney Downes of the Canadian Olympic Association said yesterday no Canadian doctors will be needed to accompany the Canadian team to the summer hospital and medical services at Helsinki, Finland, are assured. He said general applications had been received.

Irish University To Tour Canada And U.S.

Belfast, June 5.—(AP)—The Queens University Rugby Football Club of Belfast will tour British Columbia and Northern California next spring. Four matches will be played against college teams in Canada and four against California colleges.

The team will leave Northern Ireland March 20 for a tour of about eight weeks.

Writers Back Charles To Cop Title Tonight

Philadelphia, June 5.—(AP)—By almost a 5-to-1 margin, boxing writers believe Ezzard Charles will make boxing history tonight and regain the heavyweight crown from Jersey Joe Walcott.

A poll of writers here to cover the title fight showed 38 favored Charles while only seven predicted 38-year-old Jersey Joe would repeat. All seven who selected Walcott picked him to win by a knockout.

Suffield Upsets Textile While Railroaders Edge Rand And Domil And Machinery Battle To Stalemate

Suffield upset the apparent last night in the Sherbrooke Industrial Softball League when they downed the league-leading Textile 6-4, for their second consecutive win. In the other games Domil and Machinery tied 5-5, while Railroaders defeated Rand 8-7.

Fern Bouchard's pitching for Suffield had the Textile batters guessing all the way and they could do nothing with his deliveries, holding them to five scattered hits, two of them home runs. R. Pepin and Gaumont connected for the circuit clouts. Taking a 5-3 lead in the first three innings, Suffield held onto their lead and added one more run in the fifth inning to win out on the long end of a 6-4 score.

Suffield are by far the most improved team in the league and were value for their win, though Textile did not seem to play their usual game.

Domil and Machinery fought it out all the way in their game. Machinery got four runs in the first two innings, but Domil came back with three runs in their half of the third. Machinery made it 5-3, getting one more run in the fifth, a homer by catcher Dubois doing the trick. Domil fought back and in their half of the 7th tied the game at 5-5 on Breton's two-base hit scoring Edmiston and Woolley.

Railroaders were ahead 6-0 in the first half of the 3rd inning, but Mike Farrell's men got to young Dorey's deliveries for six hits, scoring 5 runs and bringing the Rand team back into the game.

Scoring two more runs in their half of the fourth inning, the Rand team went ahead 7-6. Railroaders, fighting back, squeezed the tying and winning run in the fifth inning. Both these teams are playing good ball, and will be in the running all season.

Olympic To Replace Cold Command In 84th Belmont Stakes Saturday

New York, June 5—(AP)—The 84th Belmont Stakes gained an additional starter today. Olympic, but lost Cold Command and there is a chance Master Fiddle will be withdrawn from the big One Hundred Grandee because of an injury to his left front foot.

Latest developments from the sprawling Long Island race course showed a field of eight will go in the mile and one-half "test of the champion" Saturday afternoon. Olympic, Fred Hooper's English-bred colt, was declared ready after a good workout this morning.

Nothing has developed, however, to disturb the favorite's role held by Arthur W. Abbott's Blue Man, winner of the Preakness and third back of Hill Gail and Sub Fleet in the Kentucky Derby.

Actually, Cold Command never had been seriously considered as a Belmont starter, said Trainer Syl Veitch of C. V. Whitney's colt.

"He's not big enough to carry that kind of weight against those other horses," Veitch declared. All starters in the Derby-Preakness-Belmont triple crown pack an equal 126 pounds.

Right after Cold Command finished ninth in the Derby, May 3, Veitch withdrew him from the Preakness two weeks later and said he also would miss the Belmont. There had been persistent reports for several days, however, that Cold Command would go Saturday, until Veitch spiked the idea.

Master Fiddle, from the Myhelyn Stable of Nicholas Martina and Meyer Mazar, apparently bruised his foot last Saturday in the Peter Pan Handicap—won by the Cain Hoy Stable's Armageddon.

"He had a little soreness, but it seems to be improving," said Martini after watching the colt gallop a mile at Jamaica this morning.

"He may have stepped on something and bruised his foot. Dave Gorman (his jockey) said the horse was trying to lug in a little Saturday, apparently trying to keep the weight off that front foot. If he's right Saturday, he'll put up a big race. But, I won't run him if he isn't one hundred per cent. We can tell more by Friday.

Ivan Parke, Olympic's trainer, said the British invader was a certain starter after working out a mile and one eighth in 1:56 flat. The chestnut son of Big Game, once raced by the late King George VI, finished strongly. He was an uncertainty after running fourth in the Peter Pan.

14 Top U. S. Stars Will Compete In Canadian Open Golf Championship

The Canadian Open golf championship is still six or seven tournaments away as far as the United States Golf Trail circuit is concerned, but already there are indications that a particularly strong American contingent will be on hand in search of $15,000 prize money and the Seagram Gold Cup in the four-day test over Winnipeg's St. Charles course in July.

So far, 14 prominent U.S. stars have put their names down for the Canadian event—a remarkable number so long in advance because many of the circuit players are inclined to keep their intentions to themselves until the last possible moment.

Twice-champion Jim Ferrier will be back, of course, seeking his third straight Seagram Gold Cup. And there is little doubt that Jack Burke, Jr., at present the top of the heap in winnings and in Ryder Cup points in the U.S.—will be on hand too. Burke looked like a winner last year in Toronto until he blew up on the last round.

Doug Ford, standing 4th in U.S. winnings to date, is a definite entry, and so is Ted Kroll, who is running sixth, and Skee Riegel, who is in 9th position. And then there is Tommy Bolt, winner of the Los Angeles Open, Dave Douglas, winner of the Greensboro Open, crowd pleasing "Porky" Oliver who placed third last year, and such steady performers as Marty Furgol, Bill Nary, Julius Boros, Bob Toski, Dick Mayer, Jim Simpson and Al Zimmerman.

Frank Stranahan, the wealthy amateur who plays golf for the fun of taking the measure of his professional opponents, says he will be on hand too—which is going to make it tough for Canadian amateurs to take the amateur honors but which at the same time will add quite a bit of golfing drama to the event.

Lloyd Mangrum is listed as a possible starter at this date, and Sam Snead is considered a possibility. Neither are playing in many tournaments these days, but Mangrum at least is due for a few hot rounds in the Canadian event—in the past his luck in Canada has not been of the best. Snead, on the other hand, still ranks as the only man to win the Seagram Gold Cup three times but he was not impressive when he shot straight-par golf in the Open in Montreal two years ago and he didn't come back last year.

ONE-MINUTE NEWS FROM JOHNS-MANVILLE

J-M SALES TRAINING HELPS ASSURE HIGH PLANT EMPLOYMENT

What are some of the things Johns-Manville is doing to help assure job stability in its plant here in the Eastern Townships? For one thing J-M gives an intensive training program to prepare new salesmen to offer improved services to customers and the public. This also means more job stability in J-M plants.

These men will lend their efforts to the rest of the company's sales force in selling the products manufactured in J-M plants. They will help keep the plant at Asbestos humming with orders and able to offer more jobs.

Sales training to create new markets for Johns-Manville products is just part of the company's broad program to safeguard this future. Other parts of this program are intensive research to develop new and improved products and careful attention to the building of financial strength.

J-M believes that it is in the best interests of employees and the community at large to give its salesmen a thorough training. The result is increased productivity, greater stability of the company, and more security for the employees, which in turn is a great benefit to the community where a J-M plant is located.

This is one of a series of articles in which Canadian Johns-Manville hopes to call attention to interesting and significant facts about the company or about conditions affecting our national economy. J-M

Compton County Women's Institutes Held Annual In Canterbury Hall

Canterbury East, June 5 — The annual convention of Compton County Women's Institute was held in Canterbury Hall, on May 9, at 10.30 a.m., with Mrs. Ray Waldron, the county president, in the chair and who opened the meeting with the recital of the W.I. Creed, and asked all to bow their heads in memory of a great and good King, while she read his message to all. "I said to the man, who stood at the gate of the year, give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown, and he said put your hand into the hand of God, that shall be to you greater than a light and safer than the known way." This was followed by the Salute to the Flag the singing of "God Save the Queen" and the recital of the "Lord's Prayer," in memory of departed members of 1951-52.

On behalf of Canterbury W.I., Mrs. Lindsay Groom extended a cordial welcome to the members and guests, and Mrs. Waldron replied.

The minutes of the last annual and semi-annual meeting were read. Ninety-nine members answered the roll call.

Mrs. Waldron voiced her regrets that Mrs. Ellard and Mrs. Harvey were unable to attend, but said that they were fortunate in having Mrs. Parsons, the provincial treasurer with them.

The correspondence included a generous donation of $35 from the Hon. C. D. French, also thank you letters. Scholarships were discussed and it was decided to add the $35 to that fund.

Regarding Dental Clinics, Mrs. Kirby reported that a letter had been presented to Mrs. Ellard at the semi-annual but no action could be taken until the May reports came in. It was decided to send a letter of appreciation to Rev. Mr. Cameron for his untiring efforts for the Clinic.

Fair exhibits: Mrs. Sharman reported that all the branches were making children's clothing for the Fair, which are to be sent afterwards to "Save the Children Fund." A letter received from Mr. A. Khatih, who received garments from the Fund. A note was put inside the clothes from East Clifton W.I., which received this letter. Bury W.I. received two letters from two girls from Oslo, who had received socks in the same way.

Dinner was served at 12.30. The afternoon session opened with the recital of the "Mary Stewart Collect."

The conveners reports were heard as follows:

Scottina Lawrence gave a very interesting report on the Bury Junior W.I. All are proud of the Juniors. A sing-song was enjoyed with Mrs. Hunt at the piano.

Mrs. F. G. Bennett read a poem written by Mrs. Donald Murray. The title, "His Dominion Shall Be From Sea To Sea."

Radio Broadcasts: It was voted to send Mrs. W. T. Pearson, of Lennoxville, a gift in appreciation of her help in this time.

Historics: Each branch was asked to write up their branch history and it was decided to have the Book of Memory brought up to date.

Mrs. Parsons, the guest speaker, brought greeting from the provincial president, Mrs. Parsons extended thanks to the out-going officers and the incoming officers, saying that it was an honor to hold office and that one must be willing to do her duty and that the success of an organization depends on its conveners. She advised members to follow the outlines and advised all branches to have one or more members in the Consumers Association to protect them in buying.

The Watt Memorial is to be in the form of a Bird Bath to be built inside the cairn at the Peake Garden. At present, there are no Federal grants to keep up the Peake Garden and the Americans are to attend to it.

The W.I. Theme is "Thrift and Conservation." Thrift ideas are to be sent to the Q.W.I. office. The Board is considering raising the Provincial fees to sixty cents per member and has asked the county presidents to contact the branches.

The Junior Group may have several new branches. Miss Campbell is their organizer.

The Provincial officers names are found in the Report Book. The Civil Defense Course will be available on Citizenship Day. Material may be obtained from Ottawa. Canadian citizenship cards may be obtained on coming of age. Young

Stanstead Pupils Admitted To Actors' Society

Stanstead, June 5 — Fifteen students of Stanstead College were admitted to membership in Troupe 1056 of the National Thespian Society in an impressive ceremony held here Sunday. The ceremony was conducted under the leadership of Wilson Collins, Trinity Bay, Que., president of the Dramatics Club, and he was assisted by secretary, John Mackay, Town of Mount Royal, and the Stage Manager, Laurie Tilton, Rock Island. The qualifications of the initiates were presented by Mr. Lloyd MacPherson, the Sponsor of the Troupe, who also administered the pledge of membership.

Those accepted into membership were: Blair Borden, Town of Mount Royal; Louise Cameron, Montreal; Elaine Clough, Ayer's Cliff; James Cramer, Cowansville; Douglas Currie, Montreal; James Galbraith, Montreal; Jean Gatehouse, Montreal; Kay George, Mansville; Eleanor Kyle, Montreal; Frank LaFleche, Town of Mount Royal; Joan Lemelin, Montreal; Barton MacArthur, Montreal; Nancy Pugh, Toronto; Ian Thomson, Georgetown, British Guiana; Michelle Vanier, St. Lambert.

Six of the members of the Troupe were also presented with their letter in dramatics, symbolic of advanced work in the club. These were Wilson Collins, Eleanor Kyle, Joan Lemelin, John Mackay, Laurie Tilton, and Ian Thomson. Miss Kyle was also named the "Best Thespian" of the year and presented with a special crest to mark the honour.

After the new members were accepted they were addressed by the principal of the College, Dr. E. C. Amaron. He spoke of the connection between drama and the church, and outlined the way in which the church had kept the drama alive through the miracle and morality plays. To those who will shortly be leaving the College and taking their places in dramatics in their own communities, he suggested that their experience in the school theatre might well help them to distinguish between the worthwhile in drama and the froth of lesser plays.

Stanstead College is the only Canadian School to have a troupe of the National Thespian Society.

people may receive their certificates then.

Mrs. Parsons reminded the branches about the July 1st floats. The Blue Cross people are formerly a new policy.

The average cost of fares to the Convention is $12 if pooling fare is passed. This would be continued each year and each branch would pay $12.

The Tweedsmuir Contest: No essays were sent in this year. A quilt is to be made, instead of rugs. Mrs. Parsons urged all to write up their village history. The final date is to be announced later.

The annual Provincial Convention will be held at Macdonald College, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, on June 23-26, 1952.

Mrs. Ellard has suggested that each member pay ten cents for two months to help entertain guests at the A.C.W.W. Convention in Ontario, in August. This is the largest organization in the world. This conference will be held in Toronto, Ont., on August 12-23, 1952. Scrapbooks and small Canadian gifts for presents to the guests across the sea, are to be sent in special. This year to events took place, one of happiness and one of sorrow. The visit of the Princess and the Duke of Edinburgh, and the death of our beloved King.

Mrs. Parsons was thanked by Mrs. Waldron, who in her closing address said that we could hear no better news than that there would be no more wars, and to be an Institute member, certainly keeps one busy in thought and deed, and that all need to read almost everything and keep our ears and eyes open. Our motto for the year is "Thrift and Conservation." The women of Compton County can hold their own in this as the past and present bore testimony.

She said that she enjoyed being the president for the past two years and wished to thank the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Hurley, conveners of all departments and Church Boards for the use of their churches and invitations to branches and wished the new officers every future success.

Mrs. Parsons then took the chair for the election of officers for 1952-53, which resulted as follows: Past president, Mrs. Waldron; president, Mrs. Samuel Coates, of Brookbury; first vice-president, Mrs. Hurley, of Sawyerville; second vice-president, Mrs. W. Ladd, of Scotstown; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Leonard, of Brookbury.

Conveners: Agriculture, Mrs. R. Hodge, of Cookshire; Canadian Industry, Mrs. G. French, of Sawyerville; Home Economics, Mrs. G. French, of Sawyerville; Education, Mrs. MacRae, of Bury; Citizenship, Mrs. H. Loveland, of Sawyerville; Publicity, Mrs. Justin Sharman, of Canterbury; Welfare and Health, Miss McLellan, of East Angus.

Mrs. Waldron introduced the new president, who took up the new business. A vote of thanks was ordered to the Canterbury branch, for its hospitality. The semi-annual is to be in Brookbury; and the annual in Scotstown, in 1953. The broadcasts are to be made in August and December.

An article made by Mrs. Ashworth was sold.

Tea was served before leaving and a most interesting convention was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

an organization with over 1,200 troupes. Membership in the society is given to those high school boys and girls who demonstrate, by their participation in school plays, interest and ability in all phases of the dramatic arts. The National Thespian Society has its aim the advancement of high school dramatics. This it does in many ways, one of the most important being by recognition of outstanding work.

Boundary Rotary Heard Fine Talk On Education

Derby Line, June 5. — "Your education continues long after you leave school," said Dr. K. R. Willis, of Magog, in the course of a very interesting talk on education at the regular Monday evening meeting of the Rotary Club of the Boundary, held at the Del Monty Hotel.

"We know of the good work done by Rotary for under-privileged and crippled children," said Dr. Willis, "for we have seen how many times they step in to pay for an operation, to furnish needed medicines, glasses, or other help. I should like to express the thanks of all of us for this assistance, and for the willingness with which it is given."

"There is more to education than the famous three R's. Education is preparation for life, and reading, writing and arithmetic are simply the basic bits of knowledge. The stimulation of thinking, awakening the desire for more information, and teaching the fact that education continues throughout your life, are the tasks of a teacher, and no good teacher is satisfied unless he or she can inculcate all of these ideas into as many pupils as possible."

The speaker gave a short description of the differences in the various Provinces of Canada, in the way education was handled, and then spoke of the increase in central school boards and consolidated schools, "Consolidated schools, especially high schools," said Dr. Willis, "have been very successful. There is not only a saving of funds, but also better facilities, better teachers, and accordingly better education for the young people."

"The Kellogg Foundation in co-operation with the Canadian Education Association has set up a fund of $230,000 to study central school board functions, to try and find ways of making them more
