THE COLONIAL
Life Assurance Comp'y.

HEAD OFFICE,
EDINBURGH, No. 5, GEORGE STREET.

Capital, One Million Sterling.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE DIRECTORS of the COLONIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY request attention to the advantage of joining the Company before the clo e of the Books for the present year on 25th May, with reference to

The Second Division of Profits.

The Fund to be divided will be derived from the Profits which arise between 1854 and 1859, and those persons who effect Assurances at this time will secure an advantage at that division over later entrance equivalent to one year's bonus.

The Company's Income is upwards of SIXTY FIVE THOUSAND POUNDS STERLING per annum, and its accumulated Funds are invested at favorable rates of interest, partly in the Colonies and partly in Great Britain.

From the wide basis on which the Company has been established, from the extensive field of business which it is cultivating, and from the success which has attended its operations, the Directors look forward to large Profits available to Policy-Holders, and they do not think they over-estimate the advantages of the Company, in stating that no office affords so many facilities, and at the same time holds out the prospect of so many advantages to assurers.

The First Investigation and Division of Profits took place as at 25th May, 1854, and the Addition to Policies was at the rate of £2 per cent per annum of Reversionary Bonus. Thus the Bonus added to a Policy for £1000, granted in 1847, now amounts to £160.

Further information will be supplied at the Company'y Offices and Agencies.

☞ SEE FOURTH PAGE.

Two interesting questions still remain to be settled amid the crowd of Acts already passed, and Bills destined to be strangled by the approaching close of the present Session of Parliament. We mean the re-organization of the Legislative Council and the determination of the Government about the future site of the Legislature. Whatever might be the consequences of changing the existing state of circumstances with regard to either question, it is quite certain that no great harm can accrue from leaving the Council for a time, constituted as it is; and that much inconvenience and expense will be avoided by keeping the Government for the present at Quebec. The trouble and risk alone of moving the public documents from one end of the Province to the other, afford sufficient cause for remaining quiet till a permanent abode shall be determined on and prepared. To defend the Legislative Council against crude constitution mongers, and to prevent as much as possible the rash alienation of the public resources for the maintenance of religious administrations, were two of the few political questions which we openly professed to undertake. Time has certainly served to soften down the operation of sequestrating the Clergy Reserves, and the prudent firmness of the present Ministry in carrying out the Legislative enactments which were deemed unavoidable for the peace of the Country, has done much to soothe the bitterest opponents of secularization. There is even less occasion for violent change and rash haste in dealing with the Legislative Council. It was by no means wonderful that this branch of the Legislature should feel discouraged and degraded by the treatment which it received in recording its voice against perambulating Parliaments, or in having its majorities swamped by reckless additions to its numbers. And it has of late begun to raise its head,—as we have repeatedly had cause to notice during the current Session,—and to manifest a quite respectable species of energy which the Assembly might do well to imitate.—Much had been promised by the late Ministry and the present, and too much has been attempted for one Session in speculative measures. A constitution for an Upper Chamber is a matter which requires more time for discussion than can be assigned to it during the few last days of the Session. If the Hon. Members are expected to commit suicide, they should at least be allowed time to do so with due decency and deliberation. If they must fall at the base of Pompey's statue, give them time to wrap their cloaks with dignity around them. The measure which has just passed through the Lower House is a great improvement on the crude and sweeping changes at first proposed. But it has been hastily adopted; by postponement and consideration, the whole may be duly matured, and in the meantime the Council can jog on pretty well as it is. Objection has reasonably been taken to the proposed frequent walking out and walking in of Honorables every two years. The title will be rankly spread over the country. To do away with the biennial change, and to be satisfied with a quadrennial exit, would give more stability the organization of the Council, and this period would only then assimilate with the legalised duration of the Assembly. We hope the Call of the House, will this day, be fully attended to, and that the Honorable members will deal with the question, not merely as a personal measure, but one by which the welfare of succeeding generations may be seriously affected, and the constitutional character of the Legislature and the Government of this free and loyal country compromised for ever.

PARLIAMENTARY.

On Friday, the Report of the Central Board of health was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Murney, from the Select Committee on the Megantic Election Petitions made the following Report:—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY,
COMMITTEE ROOM,
16th May, 1855.

The Select Committee appointed to try and determine the matter of the Petition complaining of an undue Election and Return for the County of Megantic, beg leave to report the following Resolutions as their final determination:

1°. Resolved—That the time required by the Statute, to be given by the Returning Officer, between the day of nomination and the first day of polling, was not so given in the County of Megantic, but in the opinion of the Committee, evidence was not adduced to show that the said election for the said County of Megantic, was affected by such non-compliance on the part of the Returning Officer with the direction of the Statute.

2°. Resolved—That in the opinion of this Committee, the allegations in the Petitions, of bribery, corruption, and treating on the part of the sitting member, are not sufficiently proved to avoid the election.

3°. Resolved, That William Rhodes, Esqr., the sitting member for the said County of Megantic was duly elected at the last election for the said County.

4°. That neither the Petitions, nor the defence of the sitting member, are frivolous or vexatious.

The whole nevertheless humbly submitted.

(Signed) EDMUND MURNEY,
Chairman.

The order of the day for the House again in Committee of Supply, being read:

Hon. Mr. Cayley moved, that the Speaker do leave the Chair.

Mr. McKenzie moved in amendment, that it be resolved, that the best interests of Upper and Lower Canada, would be promoted by an immediate repeal or dissolution of the political or Legislative Union now subsisting between these sections of the Province of Canada.—Yeas 20. Nays 54.

Hon. Mr. Cayley moved that the bill to amend the Act amending the Act granting a Civil List to Her Majesty, by increasing the salaries of certain Judicial and other officers therein mentioned; and to fix those of certain other public officers, be read a second time.

Mr. Laberge moved in amendment, that the bill be read a second time this day three months. Yeas 24, nays 43.

Notice being taken that the Hon. Mr. Cayley, Hon. Mr. Spence, Hon. Mr. Attorney General Drummond, Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Mr. Solicitor General Ross, Mr. Solicitor General Smith, Hon. Sir Allan N. Macnab, Hon. Mr. Cartier, Hon. Mr. Attorney General Macdonald, and the Hon. Mr. Cauchon have a direct pecuniary interest in this question, their votes cannot be allowed.

Hon. Mr. Cayley was heard in his place; and stated that he looked upon this Bill as a general measure, appropriating a Salary for the office, and not for the individual; and that he claimed the privilege of voting.

Mr. Mackenzie moved that the vote of the Hon. Mr. Cayley be disallowed; yeas 23, nays 40.

Similar divisions were arrived at in the other cases.

Notice having been taken that the Bill was not in accordance with the Resolutions in the Committee of the Whole on which it was founded, no Resolution having passed for augmenting the salary of the Admiralty Judge,

On motion of the Hon. Mrt Cayley, the main motion was amended, by the Order of the Day for the second reading of the Bill being discharged; and the Bill withdrawn.

Hon. Mr. Cayley then introduced a Bill to amend the Act amending the Act granting a Civil List to Her Majesty, by increasing the salaries of certain Judicial and other Functionaries and Officers therein mentioned, and to fix those of certain other Public Officers; second reading to day, and to be the first order of the day.

On Saturday afternoon, a Message came down from the Governor General, enclosing the following despatches from Downing St.:

WAR DEPARTMENT, March 31, 1855.

(Copy.)

SIR,—I am directed by Lord Panmure to request that you will intimate to Secretary Sir Geo. Grey, that his Lordship has reason to believe that it would tend very much to facilitate enlistment under the Foreign Enlistment Act if Her Majesty's Government were enabled to hold out to the officers and men a promise of settling them hereafter on lands in a British colony.

His Lordship is aware that the control over the waste lands of the Crown in the colonies has been surrendered generally to the local Legislatures; but he has been informed that a large tract of country in Upper Canada, lying between the Ottawa River and the Georgian Bay on Lake Huron, and extending from the countries fronting on Lake Ontario, to Lake Nipissing and the French River, comprising an area of about 11½ millions of acres is about to be opened up for colonization.

One million of acres would suffice to enable Her Majesty's Government to offer ample settlement terms to such foreign legionaries according to some such scale as the following, viz:—

50 acres to each private; 100 acres to each non-commissioned officer; 200 to each officer; 500 to a few superior officers.

From the loyal and patriotic sentiments expressed by the inhabitants of Canada generally in reference to the present war, and from the best information he can obtain, Lord Panmure has every reason to believe that a ready spirit of co-operation may be expected from the Canadian Legislature in any matter falling within its authority. The additional surrender of a tract of country of about one million acres, or of an equivalent in separate allotments for the purpose of enabling Her Majesty's Government to offer the highly coveted boon of land in the British Colonies to the officers and men of the Foreign Legion, would be an important inducement to the men to enlist, while his Lordship hopes it would furnish the means of ultimately supplying the colony with a class of German emigrants of a very valuable character. He would suggest to Sir Geo. Grey that the Governor General should be instructed to make an application to the Provincial Legislature on the subject.

I have, &c.,
FREDERICK PEEL.

No. 1.

DOWNING STREET, April 13, 1855.

SIR,—In connection with my despatch No. 16 of this date, namely the military defence of Canada, I wish to consult you on the following subject:—

You are aware that Her Majesty's Government are endeavoring to enlist soldiers in some foreign countries to serve in the present war, and that an act of Parliament has been passed to confer the necessary powers. It would afford a considerable inducement to many to join the standard, if, in addition to present pay, they could be offered a location on Crown Lands in some of the Colonies. And it would be an inducement of peculiar value because attractive chiefly to that class which it is most desirable to enlist, men of steady habits and honorable character.

There is perhaps no colony where men of this class would more willingly find a home than Canada, and none which so extensively possesses the means of satisfying such a demand. But Her Majesty's Government have, as you are aware, no power to make an offer of this kind.

It is, therefore, proposed to the Canadian Legislature and Government, on whose sympathy with them in the present struggle the people of the United Kingdom have such strong ground to rely, to take into consideration the means of assisting Her Majesty's Government in this project.

It is an additional reason to induce me to make this suggestion that experience has shewn that settlers of this class form often a very valuable accession to the population of a new country not only for the purposes of industry, but for those also of defence.

I have, &c.,
GREY.

Governor Sir Edmund W. Head, Bart.

Mr. Papin moved the printing of the petition of the Censitaires of Vercheres against the employment of Mr. Archambault as Seigniorial Commissioner, till he had cleared himself of the charges brought against him, as Returning Officer and Postmaster. The government opposed the motion but said that Mr. Archambault should clear himself before proceeding with the valuation.

His Excellency the Governor General, on Saturday afternoon, went down in state to the Legislative Council Chamber, and assented to 84 bills passed by Parliament since the recess. His Excellency was saluted when he entered and left the building by a Guard of Honor from the 16th Regiment, drawn up in front of the Court House, and by the Artillery from Durham Terrace. We shall to morrow publish a list of the Acts sanctioned.

The Balt ic's mail arrived here yesterday morning.

The sultry air of Saturday was exchanged for boisterous, cool east wind yesterday. It blew a perfect gale throughout the day, and there was a perpetual cloud of dust in the streets.

FIRE ON THE RAILWAY.—Passengers by the Richmond Railway inform us that the Station House at Stanfold narrowly escaped destruction by fire on Friday morning. The fire was supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Lay, the station master, is said to have contributed much by his exertions towards the saving of the building.

LAKE SUPERIOR MINING ASSOCIATION.—A sale of shares in this stock, now in active demand, will take place at the Company's Office, Commercial Chambers, at 11 o'clock, to-morrow forenoon.

☞ Mr. Flanagan, offers for sale at his establishment, at Cape Cove, a large and superior lot of Spars, received by him last week. See advertisement.

SALE OF BROWN-WARE.—A general assortment of Brown-ware will be sold by auction at the Stores of Mr. J. J. Lowndes, Buteau's Wharf THIS MORNING at TEN o'clock.—See advertisement.

BALTIC.

Ten days later from Europe.

Third Report.

NEW YORK, May 19.

The forts on the north side of the harbor had taken part in the cannonade, carrying their shots clear over the town into the lines of the allies.

During the first week of the bombardment the English fired about 2,200 tons of shot and 500 tons of powder, so that the total consumption by the allies for the week amounted probably to some 6000 tons of shot and 1500 tons of powder.

The telegraph between London and the Crimea was perfect, except a small portion across the Danube. Despatches reached the British Government in a few hours, but were not generally communicated to the public although, nightly, questions were asked in Parliament as to the news.—Ministers declared that they should exercise due discretion in the publication of the news.

The Vienna negotiations are, of course, at an end.

Lord J Russell had re-appeared in his seat in Parliament, and Drouyn de L'huys had returned to Paris. Lord J. Russell stated that the substance of the negotiations and the protocol would be submitted to Parliament.

The following are the latest despatches from the seat of war:—

A sharp engagement took place on the night of May 1st in the front and left attack. The whole of the Russian Rifle pits were taken, 8 light mortars and 200 prisoners. The whole affair was brilliant for the allies.

PARIS 4th.—It is reported to-day that on May 2nd the besiegers took possession of some very important Russian works of counter approach after a fierce engagement.

On the 3rd, the Russians attempted to take the position, which still remains in the hands of the allies.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 2nd.—Lord Stratford de Redcliffe has returned to Constantinople. Mahemet also is recalled from exile.

Canrobert speaks to his troops of immediate operations. Orders have been received to prepare transports.

Before Sebastopol, May 4.—On Wednesday night the French, under Gen. Pellissier, attacked the advanced works of the Quarantine Bastion, and carried them at the point of the bayonet, taking 12 mortars from the Russians, and establishing himself in the position.

FLOUR.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune makes the following estimate of the number of barrels of flour in the country at the opening of Lake navigation, reckoning five bushels of wheat as equivalent to one barrel of flour: Lake Michigan, 656,000; Lake Erie 300,000; Canada 500,000; total 1,456,000. This affords little prospect for famine. The Tribune adds:

Suppose 456,000 barrels to be absorbed by the destitute points in the interior, and we shall then receive at tide-water one million barrels—enough at the rate of winter consumption, 8000 barrels per day, to last one hundred and twenty-five days, or until the middle of next September. With a favorable prospect of a good crop all over the country, there is not a shadow of reason for any alarm about a short supply.

Several barges are now loading at the Mills of Norcross, Phillips & Co. with sawn lumber for the American market. This is the first shipment from this place.—Three Rivers Inquirer.

MARITIME EXTRACTS.

LOSS OF THE ODESSA.—We have been favored by Capt. Darling, with the following report of the loss of the bark Odessa, hence last Fall for Limerick:—

The Odessa sailed from Quebec on the 21st November, and, on 6th December, having encountered a gale of wind from S E, ship sprung a leak. The pumps were kept going, but the water continuing to gain on her, we bore up for Gaspé. It soon after came on to blow a heavy gale of wind from S W, and we were obliged to heave the ship to. On the following day, made Anticosti Island, took to the boats, and abandoned the vessel. The chart indicating that a provision post was located at Fox Bay, we proceeded there, and being unable to discover the depot marked, camped in the bush. On the 12th, left for the S E point; during the same night a heavy gale of wind blew from the eastward, driving the long boat ashore among the rocks. The crew took shelter on some shelving rocks which projected from a cliff, and remained there all night The master and mate were twice washed off the rocks but succeeded in reaching them again; the mate's wife was also washed off and, unfortunately, drowned. When daylight came, we saw no prospect of escaping from our perilous situation, for the cliffs surrounded us on every side. The long boat's oars and masts had been washed ashore, and having lashed these together, such of us as were least exhausted, climbed up by the spars, and then hauled our companions up. To our inexpressible regret we were compelled to leave on the cliff the Doctor and one of our men; they had been severely frost-bitten and were unable to travel. They both died shortly after our departure. We were obliged to remain in the bush that night; there was then about 2½ feet of snow on the ground, and we were without the means of lighting a fire. On the morning of the 14th, started for the East Point, and the master, mate, and three men reached there that evening. One man had both his feet frost-bitten, and died in consequence. Every attention was paid the survivors by Mr. Julyan, the Light House Keeper, but being unprovided with medicine of any kind, he had some difficulty in affording relief to the sufferers by the cold and frost.

The Erromanga, from Glasgow, and the Triton, from Marseilles, with general cargoes, and the schr. Messenger, left here last Saturday evening, for Montreal, in tow of the Alliance.

The Maranham, which was stranded at Kamouraska last fall, arrived here yesterday.

The bark Home, from Glasgow, with a general cargo, left here for Montreal on Saturday afternoon, in tow of the North America.

Barque Woodbine, McAllister, from St. John, N. B., for Cardiff, W, put into Portland, 14th, in distress. On the eighth day out, experienced a heavy gale, & sprung a leak, and the crew refused to do duty. A survey is to be held upon her.

New York, May 14—Cleared—Ship Oregon, O'Flaherty, for Quebec.

AWFUL CASE OF SHIPWRECK.—Captain Button, of the bark Clara Windsor, arrived at New York, from Port au Prince, reports that on the outward passage, March 19th, lat 32, long 66 38, a fresh breeze from S S W, saw a wreck to leeward, with two men standing on the bow and waving their hats; hove to and got out a boat, and succeeded in taking them off. The wreck proved to be the schr. John Clark, Captain McKay, hence for Jacmel. The men stated that they were all that were left out of seven who had sailed in the above schooner from New York on the 3rd day of March, bound to Jacmel; that on the 7th, 9 p. m., while under double reefed topsails, wind W S S, a squall struck the schooner from W S W, and throwing on her beam-ends, occupying an hour before they succeeded in cutting away the weather rigging, when the mainmast and foremast went close by the deck and she righted. The hatches were broken and the vessel found full of water —without provisions; the next day they obtained a keg of crackers wet with salt water, a bucket of vinegar, some shark liver oil, and camphean; the latter made them stupid, feeling as if on fire. The fifth day after the catastrophe the captain, mate, steward, and two men died; and they, the two remaining men, had nothing to eat eight days previous to being taken off. Those who died went crazy previous to death. They also state that they saw two different vessels; a fishing schooner that came close to them they could see the man at the helm; the other within what they considered hailing distance, and the vessel hove to and came close up under their lee, and after surveying them put their helm hard up and bore away without offering any assistance. All were living at that time, but it being before daylight, could not make out her name, as the letters were but indistinctly visible; the weather was good, and nothing prevented them from saving all hands. The names of two saved are Robert McKay (captain's son), and Charles Lowell.

[The John Clark, Captain McKay, cleared at this port on the 1st March for Kingston, J., not Jacmel.]—N. Y. Courier.

LOSS OF AN INDIAMAN.—By telegraph from Trieste to London, in anticipation of the overland mail from India and China, advice is received of the loss of ship Living Age (of Boston), Capt Holmes, from Shanghae for New York, on the Pratas Shoal, about 150 miles south east from Hong Kong, and far from any other land. She was laden with teas, &c, valued at upwards of $300,000.

DIED.

On Saturday morning, the 19th inst., aged 63, Mary Donaldson, a native of Caithness, Scotland, widow of the late Mr. Alexander Fraser.

Friends and acquaintances are requested to attend the funeral, which will leave the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. E. Poston, Stadacona Terrace, this day, (Monday) at 2 o'clock, P. M., for Mount Hermon Cemetery.

We take from the Mayo "Telegraph," April 11th, the following deserved tribute to the memory of one of the Sisters of Mercy who accompanied Miss Nightingale to the Crimea. The deceased lady, beloved and respected by all who knew her, was nearly related to M. A. Higgins, Esq., of this city, and died after her return to Ireland, on account of ill health, from the effects of fever contracted in the Hospitals at Scutari:—

DEATH OF SISTER MARY AUGUSTINE OF THE CONVENT OF MERCY, WESTPORT.—On Saturday, the 7th instant, expired, at the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy, Westport, after a short but severe illness, Sister Mary Augustine, a member of that most meritorious order. This deeply lamented young lady was the second daughter of Captain Fitzgerald Higgins, and sister of Colonel Higgins, M. P. for the county. An innate piety and love of virtue, cherished by an exemplary and pious mother, had marked the deceased from her earliest childhood. She soon forsook the open path to the enjoyments and pleasures of this world, and early consecrated herself to religion and the service of the poor. The grief of the public in Westport surpasses, if possible, the deep affliction of the pious sisterhood. The melancholy event was made the subject of most touching and salutary instruction at each of the Masses on Easter Sunday; and the interment on Monday last, in the Convent grounds, was a scene which none that saw can ever forget. Animated by a holy zeal, the deceased was one of the three devoted ladies whom the Convent of Mercy in Westport supplied for the arduous service of ministering to the sick and wounded in the Crimea.

QUEBEC, May 17th, 1855.

MEDICATED INHALATION!!

New and Very Wonderful!!!

HYGEANA

BROUGHT HOME TO THE DOOR OF THE MILLION.

A wonderful discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of he Lungs. We refer to " Dr. Curtis' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method, Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor—the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole arial and ties of the lungs, and thus escape the manycavivaried changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the druggists' throughout the country.

[New York Dutchman, of Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of cases of CURES like the following might be named. One package of the Hygeana has cured me of the Asthma of six years' standing.

JAS. F. KEESBERRY,
P. M. of Duncannon, Pa.

I am cured of the Asthma of ten years' standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.

MARGARET EASTON, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Paul, of No. 5, Hammond Street, N. Y. was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana.

My sister has been cured of a distressing cough of several years' standing, and decided to be incurable by her Physicians. She was cured in one month by the Hygeana.

J. H. GAUBERT, P. M., Richmond, Me.

The Rev. Dr. CHEEVER, of New York, testifies of our medicine in the following language:—

NEW YORK, Nov. 15, 1854.

Dear Sir:—I think highly of Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, as a remedy in diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had some opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the inhaling application to the chest.

Prof. S. CENTER writes us as follows:—

Gentlemen:—I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygean Vapor in a case of Chronic Sore Throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me that, whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no imposition, but an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all.

Dr. JOHNS, one of the most celebrated Physicians in New York, writes as follows:

Dr. Curtis—Dear Sir:—Having witnessed the excellent effects of your Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, in a case of chronic Bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter-irritation in affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Medicated Apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying anything of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies.

I must here be allowed to confess that I am opposed to prescribing or using secret compounds, but this little neatly-contrived article, and its effects in the case above alluded to, have induced me to speak in its favor.

You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper. Respectfully, yours, &c.,

C. JOHNS, M. D.,
No. 609, Houston Street, New York.

Price three dollars a package,—sold by CURTIS & PERKINS and BOYD & PAUL, No. 149, Chambers Street, N. Y.—4 packages sent free to any part of the United States for ten dollars.

N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE ARTICLE; all others are base imitations, or vile and INJURIOUS counterfeits. Shun them as you would POISON.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT.

[Reported for the Morning Chronicle.]

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

Monday, May 14.

CONCILIATION COURTS.

Mr. McKenzie moved the second reading of the bill to establish Conciliation Courts in Upper Canada. On two former occasions he had introduced the bill. Once it had been thrown out the second reading, and the second time, after carrying it by a good majority through that reading, the lawyers in the House rallied, and threw it out in committee of the whole, which rose without reporting, and he had not even the satisfaction of seeing the names of those voting against it recorded. The object was if possible, to keep the people out of the law courts, with their enormous expenses. It was no new principle, but had been in force these many years in Denmark and France.

Attorney General McDonald opposed the bill, and moved it should be read a second time that day three months. All that was sought to be gained by that bill could be obtained now much more easily by arbitration in Upper Canada. Some slight alteration in the law of arbitration would render it almost perfect, and but for the length of the session and the burthen of other business brought before Parliament, he would have introduced a bill on the subject. Courts of this nature should be like arbitration, quite voluntary. The provisions of this bill amounted to a denial of justice, for every man had a right to appeal to the Courts of law to obtain justice if he chose—this bill said he should not do so except at a disadvantage, unless he first tried the conciliation Court. The certainty respecting the law and the mode of its administration was almost better than good laws themselves, for men at least know how to conduct their affairs according to law. But these conciliation courts would destroy that certainty.

Mr. Brown thought there was much truth in the remarks which had fallen from the Attorney General; but, perhaps, if a second reading were taken and the bill referred to a select committee, it might be so altered as to make a more perfect system of arbitration.

Attorney General McDonald said they could do nothing of that sort with this bill. The system of arbitration was, as he said, now almost perfect. Any two men having a dispute, could refer it to a third party, whose decision would be binding, and might, by a simple motion, without the formalities or expenses of a suit, be made a rule of one of the Superior Courts and executed by it. A simple verbal reference or one written in the most informal manner was sufficient between individuals. Of course, between Corporations such references must be in writing with their seal attached. What was wanted to perfect the system was, reference by the Courts of matters in dispute to parties versed in such affairs, instead of as now, referring them to juries quite ignorant of them—such as a case concerning commercial transactions to a jury of farmers, or agricultural matters to town-bred jurors.

Hon. Mr. Cameron said he believed there was no more fruitful source of litigation and expense than these attempts at Arbitration Courts.—They had once a fair trial in Upper Canada. The act which provided for the appointment of boundary line Commissioners to decide questions respecting disputed boundary lines, had created such a system. It had been found most expensive to work it, even when legal men were not employed. In one case the costs rose as high as £500. At last there was a general outcry for its repeal: it was repealed, and no one has ever thought of reviving it. This was a fair trial of the system, showing it was not possible to work it.

Mr. Loranger said the Courts of Conciliation in France, were Courts presided over by lawyers of standing, not such as those proposed by the hon. member. The reference to their decision was purely voluntary, and their decision not in any way binding. If, as a lawyer, he resided in Upper Canada, and desired to promote expensive litigation, he was sure he could not promote it more effectually than by aiding to pass this bill. Besides the endless trouble always attending such arbitrations, this bill was so utterly unworkable in its details that it would promote suits, not repress them.

REPORTING DEBATES.

The adoption of the Report of the Select Committee, appointed to inquire into the propriety of procuring reports of the debates of the House, and the best means of doing so, being moved.

Mr. Loranger moved in amendment that the reports should be taken verbatim, and corrected and cut down by the several speakers. He went on to complain that the newspaper reports were got up by party men for party papers. They were right enough to do so, perhaps, but those who had no party organ at their command never had their views properly laid before their constituents.

Mr. Ferres was of the opinion, on the whole that the report should be adopted. He believed some such course was necessary. For some years past there had been no honest debate in that House. (Cries of ho! oh!) He would say no honest debates reported. (Oh! oh!) To change his expression—no honest reporting of the debates of that House for the newspapers. When he reported some years ago, and afterwards when he had reporters in his employ, he had endeavored always to give a faithful report, to convey to readers a faithful idea of the debates and instructed his reporters to do so. The Globe's reports, as far as he had examined them, were the most correct of any—faithful enough perhaps, but the others were anything but faithful. It was only a short time since that the gallant premier had been grossly misrepresented by one of the reporters, and made to say, concerning the last change of ministers, that there was no principle in it—a most unfair distortion of language—which did the Government no small injury at the time. He hoped the report would be adopted, and the power left in the hands of the Government to employ a staff of reporters in the recess for the coming session.

Mr. Sanborn thought an objectionable feature in the report was, that it was proposed to put the reporting and printing in the same hands. Now, as reporters were not generally capitalists, who could undertake the printing, this was dealing unfairly with them.

Mr. Brown said in order to insure correctness and speedy execution the responsibility must not be divided else the blame would be constantly shifted between the reporters and printers. It was necessary that the whole business should be in the same hands. His own opinion was this new plan of reporting was not wanted. He believed that the reports at present published by the newspapers was all that were required. It was quite true no doubt that now the speeches on both sides were not given at equal length, because the newspapers could not find room for them, and those speeches not agreeing with the views of the paper publishing were most cut down. Where there was a long debate of two or three nights, it was not desirable to report at length. No one would wade through them. He believed that the length of the parliamentary reports in the "Globe" had done it an injury because the public did not desire to read them at that length. While however the reports were cut down, he did not believe that any hon. members were dishonestly mis-represented.

Mr. Ferres.—Yes I have been.

Mr. Brown,—It was all very well for hon members to talk of verbatim reports and to deride the reporters, but most members were much more indebted to the reporters, than the reporters to them. Few would like to see their speeches in print after they had been reported verbatim.

Mr. McKenzie.—I would.

Mr. Brown—Well I can tell the hon. gentleman he would be astonished at the amount of trash he talked. (Laughter.) Col. Prince was perhaps one of the most correct speakers they ever had in that House—and in consequence of some complaints of that hon. member about the reporters, one of them named Sheppard had reported one of his speeches verbatim, and nothing could have shown up the hon. gentleman in a more ridiculous light. A ten hours' debate would fill about fifty columns of the "Globe" if reported verbatim. Now who, he asked, would wade through that. It would be too voluminous even for convenient reference. As for the reporters themselves, he had necessarily been brought much in contact with them, and he believed a more honorable upright set of men were not to be found any where than among them. He knew no reporter of first-rate standing would tolerate any interference with his reports by even the proprietors of journals for whom he worked. At Quebec the circulation of the newspapers was necessarily small, the English population was not large, and the French not the best patrons of newspapers—consequently they could not afford to keep up the large staff required, such as was maintained by the Toronto and Montreal papers. When they got to Toronto they would find that the newspapers would give them the reports full enough. Now an additional reason for shortening them was that they were old news before they reached the West. The telegraph had anticipated the result. If the speeches of one party were not found at length in one paper they would be in another, and so all parties would be heard through their respective organs. He thought therefore that the better plan would be to leave the reporting as now to private competition. If however the House decided to have the reporting done at the public expense, he was satisfied that the mode proposed by the Committee after a careful consideration of the question was the best that could be adopted.

Hon. Mr. Spence concurred with much that had fallen from the hon. member for Lambton and other members. He could not agree with the remarks of the hon. member for Missisquoi. He did not believe that the reports were dishonestly got up. On the contrary, he was happy to bear witness to their general accuracy. The reporting conferred a favor on members by not reporting all they said. He believed, with the hon. member for Lambton, that this reporting should be left open to competition like any other business. He would move that the further consideration of the report should be postponed for three months.

Mr. Ferres knew this was an excellent opportunity to make a little bunkum capital, and that most hon. members desired to be on good terms with the reporters and the press generally. He thought the speeches of hon. members on this subject hardly accorded with their private conversations. For his part, he was so much in the habit of dealing frankly with all subjects, and speaking his mind openly on all occasions, that he could not help doing so now. He might limit the downright dishonesty to one reporter—though none of the reports were correct—but one had purposely misrepresented him, and he had proved it. He continued to speak against the present reports, and in favor of the new scheme.

Mr. Bellingham said, admitting all that was said by the member for Missisquoi, the dishonesty of one reporter was no reason for condemning the whole. The body of reporters would themselves condemn any one who disgraced their calling. He was much struck with what had fallen from the honorable member for Lambton, who was perhaps the most competent authority on this point in the House. What effect would the new system have in an economical point of view? Would it tend to strain unnecessary talking, or would it not on the contrary rather promote it? He thought the better plan was to leave it as now to newspaper competition.

Mr. Loranger said it was very well for the Postmaster General and the member for Lambton to deny the scheme of having careful reports prepared, for they had special organs of their own through which they would make themselves heard by their constituents. But other members who were not so fortunate should have the same opportunity. They did not come there to talk to each other alone or to the galleries, but to the country. In the States, in New Brunswick, and in Great Britain, they had official reports. Why not here in Canada? Surely they heard enough eloquence in that House to render the debates worth reporting and preserving; and members who were not reported by party newspapers ought to have some opportunity of sending what they did say before their constituents. The English reports might be fair enough; he had nothing to say about them; but all the French speeches, except one party, were cut down, if not absolutely distorted.

Mr. Patrick would support the report if he thought it would serve to curtail the speeches instead of increasing them. That would be a benefit to the country. But believing this plan of reporting would have the opposite effect, he should oppose it. He had his patience sufficiently taxed in the House by listening to speeches, without taxing his own pocket or that of the country for reporting and printing them.

After some farther discussion, the House divided on Mr. Spence's motion.

Yeas, 41; nays, 15.

After transacting some farther business the House adjourned.

IMPERIAL DESPATCH ON COLONIAL DEFENCES.

(No. 16.)

Downing Street, 13th April, 1855.

Sir,—Her Majesty's Government have long had under their consideration the necessity of establishing a clear understanding with the Government of Canada on the subject of the measures mutually to be taken for the Military Defence of the Province and the subsidiary arrangements requisite to that end.

2. Although Canada is happily remote from the direct influence of those hostilities in which the country is at present engaged, it becomes now, even more necessary than before, that the available military resources of the empire in general, and the purposes to which they are applicable, should be fully ascertained.

3. Relying on the loyalty and patriotism of the inhabitants of Canada, no less than in their rapid advance in all that constitutes the strength of a community, Her Majesty's Government have not scrupled to reduce the military force stationed in the Colony in time of peace much below the amount which in former times had been thought advisable. And the result of the measures thus taken has hitherto fully justified their confidence. The course of events of recent years has more and more fully developed the settlement of the Canadian people to the institutions under which they live; the gratifying proofs which have so lately been acknowledged by me of the deep interst which they take in the success of the arms of Great Britain and her Allies in the present contest, have been strongly felt by all classes throughout these Kingdoms; and it is with a feeling of deep satisfaction that we are enabled to congratulate ourselves on the union thus cemented between communities so far severed by local position, but joined by the ties of common freedom and of loyal attachment to one Sovereign.

4. Her Majesty's Government propose to make no change in the principle of the relations now subsisting between this country and the Province as regards its military defence. The Imperial Government will remain charged as before with the supply and maintenance of military force for the defence of Canada, as of every other part of Her Majesty's dominions, in the event of its being menaced by foreign arms. They propose also to continue to maintain the force now existing in Canada, or whatever force may be strictly required for the military occupation of the few posts of first-class importance, so as to form a nucleus for the defence of the Province.

5. For all beyond this they propose to rely on the loyalty and military spirit of the Province itself. They are fully aware that if the contingency, now happily remote, should ever occur of an invasion of Canada by foreign arms, the most valuable aid to the reinforcement of troops which could be supplied from this country would be afforded by the courage and numbers of an organized militia, such as her great population might now enable her to supply; and they are equally persuaded that if the tranquillity of the community should be menaced from within, the necessary force for the maintenance of order, both civil and military, if the latter should be required, will be best provided by the Province herself.

6. With respect to the lands now held by the British Government for military purposes, much correspondence has at different times taken place between this Department and the Colonial Government; and I was in hopes to have received before this time a report from the Province, which Lord Elgin was requested to furnish, classifying these lands in such a manner as might enable Her Majesty's Government to arrive at some positive decision as to their ultimate disposal. Although this report has not yet been received, I have, within the last few days, been placed in possession of a printed "Report of the Commissioners appointed to investigate and report upon the best means of reorganizing the militia of Canada," which goes far to supply the deficiency. Having consulted the Home authorities in more immediate charge of these lands, I believe that the information in the possession of Her Majesty's Government is already nearly sufficient to settle the details of the plan when an agreement has been established as to its outlines.

7. These ordnance lands are by no means all of them Crown Reserves; but, as I find noticed in the documents before me, many of them have been purchased at considerable cost to the Imperial Treasury.

8. It is not, however, the intention of Her Majesty's Government to make any distinction between reserves and purchased lands. They wish to deal with the entire property solely with a view to the permanent interests of the Province.

9. With this view, it appears to them that the ordnance lands at Quebec, Montreal and Kingston should be retained for purposes of defence in the hands of the Imperial Government. There may perhaps be portions of these lands not required for present or future military use, in which case these may be the subject of future arrangement; but of this I cannot, with the information as yet before me, speak with certainty.

10. There is a second class of lands not situated at these ports, and which will not be permanently occupied by her Majesty's troops; but which, in the opinion of military judges, will be of importance for the defence of the Province, in case of invasion. On some of these considerable sums have been expended with this view. Lands of this class it is proposed to make over to the Canadian Government for occupation and present use, but with a stipulation that they shall be kept available for military purposes, together with any buildings really requisite for similar purposes, in case they should be required at any future time for the defence of Canada.

11. There is lastly a third class, comprising lands which it is not important to retain for military purposes. These it is proposed to make over at once, and unconditionally, to the Canadian Government.

12. Should your Government think proper to devote the funds which may arise from their sale or other use to internal defences, as proposed in the report to which I have referred, Her Majesty's Government would regard such an appropriation of these funds with much satisfaction, but they do not wish to impose it as a condition of the transfer.

13. I have already said that Her Majesty's Government are now in possession of materials which may go a long way towards enabling them to effect this classification; but it would be more satisfactory if they had your assistance in such a manner as you may yourself, with the advice of your Executive Council, suggest towards the settlement of the details.

14. Whenever final instructions on this subject are conveyed, pending questions touching the disposal of military stores may also be arranged.

15. It is necessary to add, that any surrender of these lands by Her Majesty's Government must of course be subject to existing arrangements respecting them; such as those entered into, in some few instances, with pensioners for their locations.

I have, &c.,

(Signed,) G. GREY.

A Lady of the first respectability writes:

Dear Sir:—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficacy of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of what it is represented to accomplish. Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not rest, and at night by his cries would not permit any of the family to do so, I purchased a bottle of the Soothing Syrup, in order to test the remedy; and when given to the boy according to the directions, its effect upon him was like magic; he soon went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since, and the little fellow will pass through with comfort, the excruciating process of teething, by the sole aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children should possess it.

AYER'S PILLS.

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A

FAMILY PHYSIC.

There has long existed a public demand for an effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all pills—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is acrimonious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pills produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Appetite, Listlessness, Irritability, Bilious Headache, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Scurvy, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blood; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singularly successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Erysipelas, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely taken in the spring of the year, to purify the blood and prepare the system for the change of seasons. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, and restores the appetite and vigor. They purify the blood, and, by their stimulant action on the circulatory system, renovate the strength of the body, and restore the wasted or diseased energies of the whole organism. Hence an occasional dose is advantageous, even though no serious derangement exists; but unnecessary dosing should never be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated here, but they suggest themselves to the reason of every body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has hitherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a cathartic medicine. Being sugar-wrapped they are pleasant to take, and being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

For minute directions see wrapper on the Box.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy has won for itself such notoriety from its cures of every variety of pulmonary disease, that it is entirely unnecessary to recount the evidences of its virtues in any community where it has been employed. So wide is the field of its usefulness, and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. And not only in formidable attacks upon the lungs, but for the milder varieties of Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, &c.; and for Children it is the pleasantest and safest medicine that can be obtained.

As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best that it ever has been, and that the genuine article is sold by—

JOSEPH BOWLES, and J. MUSSON & Co. Quebec. Also, by Druggists generally throughout Canada.

G. W. STONE'S
COUGH, CONSUMPTION
AND Bronchitis Elixir.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs, and begs of those who are undecided what to select from the numerous medicines advertised and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a preventative and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal. It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion, that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones; it will at the same time purify the blood, and completely expel all humors from the system. Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle; also a Seal, with his name upon the cork, without which none will be genuine.

Principal Agent, WILLIAM JOHNSON, 106, Hanover Street, Boston, Mass.

Sold in Montreal, by WILLIAM LYMAN & CO., St. Paul Street, General Agents for Canada East; price 50 cents per bottle.

G. W. STONE'S
Mesmeric Nerve Restorative.

MR. STONE need not inform the public that his Biological Experiments, which have interested all classes of society, both in Europe and America, during the past six years, together with his experience and success in the treatment of nervous affections, have afforded him ample opportunity to make himself thoroughly acquainted with the various diseases of the nervous system, and discover some remedy which will afford relief in those cases that have hitherto baffled the skill of the most eminent Physicians. This, he is happy to say, he has succeeded in accomplishing by the assistance of a Clairvoyant, whose powers of Second-Sight were developed by Mr. Stone in London, England, during the Spring of 1851. This remedy may be relied upon for the cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Tic Douloureux, Headache, Epilepsy, Nervous Debility, &c., &c., &c.

Price 50 cents per bottle. For Sale as above; and by JOHN MUSSON & CO., Druggists, Quebec.

USE HOWE'S
HYGEIAN HOREHOUND AND LIVERWORT
COUGH CANDY.

NEVER since the Science of Medicine first dawned upon the world, has any compound gained such extraordinary popularity, in so short a period of time, as Dr. HOWE'S HYGENIAN HOREHOUND and LIVERWORT COUGH CANDY, in curing Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Bleeding at the Lungs, Pain in the Side and Breast, Sore Throat, Croup, Bronchitis, Hooping Cough, Influenza, Hoarseness or any other symptom of that distressing malady—Consumption. The Hygeian Horehound and Liverwort Cough Candy cannot be equalled by any liquid mixture of the day; and, in proof of my assertion, I am able to present to the public the certificates of ladies and gentlemen whose standing in society is well known, and whose veracity cannot be doubted. I would also state that there is nothing in this Candy that can possibly injure the most delicate in health; but may be taken at all times with perfect impunity, both by children and adults.

You will observe that its color is not brown or yellow—the result of some preparation of mercury or other mineral being in its composition—but is perfectly white, its medicinal qualities being purely vegetable. Be particular, then, in noticing the color. See that it is white; you will then obtain the genuine article.

Price—5, 10 and 20 cents per package.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED

German Bitters

PREPARED BY

DR. C. M. JACKSON,

GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

No. 120 Arch St., one door below Sixth, Philada.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of Invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of the liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching power in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

READ THE TESTIMONY.

Rev. T. P. Pfister, New Brooklyn, New York, October 5, 1853, says:—Dr. C. M. Jackson, Dear Sir: "I request you to send me by the first opportunity, three bottles of 'Hoofland's German Bitters,' and I am pleased to state that the Bitters have cured different persons of my acquaintance, when Physicians' help was without effect, especially in Hemorihoidal cases (bleeding piles,) the effect and cure was sure and certain."

Wm. Post, Jamestown, N.Y., Sept. 15, 1853, says: "The Great popularity of 'Hoofland's German Bitters' and my confidence in their efficacy, induce me to solicit from you an agency for my father, A. Post, South Bainbridge, New York."

Henry C. Sheldon, Troy, N.Y., Dec. 30, 1850, said: "From careful observation, I am convinced that your Hoofland's German Bitters is a better article, than H——'s, K——'s, W——'s, B——'s, &c., &c. One gentleman, troubled with dyspepsia, who had purchased half a dozen of the bitters, says: 'It is the only article he has found that has afforded him relief.' Now he is in a fair way of recovery."

Rudiongi& Saunders, Buffalo, N. Y. Dec. 20, 1850, sad: "We know from experience, having used it in our own families, that Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters are all and more than they are recommended to be."

Isom & Holt, Skaneatalis, N.Y., August 23, 1853, say: "We think the German Bitters give the best satisfaction of any article about us."

S. A. Meriam, Adams, N.Y., April 15, 1853, says: "Your German Bitters are invaluable."

Hartshorne & Maydole, Hamilton, N.Y., April 15, 1853, says: "We are nearly out of your German Bitters, it takes well and is considered a very valuable medicine."

The Bitters are entirely vegetable, always strengthening and never prostrating the system.

Sold by dealers in medicine and storekeepers everywhere, and by JOHN MUSSON & CO. and G. G. ARDOUIN, Quebec.
