COPENHAGEN, Denmark — (AP) — A Czech couple with two sons jumped overboard from an East German ferry in the Baltic port of Gedser today in the same way another Czech family of five defected Sunday.

As the ferry, out of Warne-münde, entered Gedser Har-bor this morning, a man and woman, each carrying a boy — one 5, one 8 — jumped overboard and began swim-ming. A pilot boat pulled them aboard. Taken to a hospital, they said they would ask for political asylum in Denmark.

The five who jumped Sun-day, and also sought political asylum, were a Prague engi-neer; his wife, a scientist; their sons aged 4 and 6, and the wife's mother, 62.

2,351 fight 300 blazes

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP) — A giant flying boat, dropping swim-ming pool size loads of water, joined the battle Sunday as 2,351 men fought almost 300 forest fires in central British Columbia.

Forest service officials said the four-engined Martin Mars flying boat, capable of dropping 7,000 gallons of water — roughly the amount used in a small back-yard swimming pool — at a time, appeared successful in fighting a 13,000-acre fire that is burning out of control 73 miles southwest of here.

All other flying was forbidden over the Spus Creek fire, that has kept more than 600 men busy for more than a week, as the flying boat made eight runs over it.

The 80-ton plane, loaned to the forest service by coast timber companies for trial purposes, scooped up water from nearby Nicola Lake and dropped it on "hot spots" of the fire that is burning through "very good" stands of spruce red cedar, fir and yellow pine.

Its water drop was said to be comparable to a heavy rain over an area 600 feet by 200 feet. It did the work done previously by three Avenger and one Flying Fortress aircraft.

The forest service said 137 bulldozers and 10 aircraft were helping men fight fires in the district. Twelve new fires were reported during the week end, most of them "sleepers" that were caused by a lightning storm July 13.

It said lower temperatures and higher humidity than during the last week eased conditions in the Kamloops and neighboring Nelson districts although the forest fire rating was still high to ex-treme.

Urge Britain join market

LONDON (Reuters) — Two sepa-rate political groups today urged Britain to join the six-nation Common Market before it is too late.

An all-party group of parliamen-tary member and business-men said this would improve the economic health of both Britain and the Commonwealth.

A separate statement from the Liberal party warned that Britan would suffer "all the pen-al-ties of growing isolation" unless it joined France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland and Lux-embourg in the Common Market.

Mixed Commons bag

Ghosts, honky-tonks

OTTAWA (CP) — Ghosts and visions, bears and honky-tonks. These were the ingredients of the Commons' first Saturday sitting of the session. The 1960-61 spending program of the northern af-fairs department provided the mixing bowl for all.

Resources Minister Hamil-ton struck out sharply at the attitude implied by two govern-ment backbenchers who called for commercial development in the national parks.

In exasperated tones, Mr. Hamilton asked "how can a min-ister stand up against the pres-sures of commercial interests who want to use the parks for mining, forestry and for every honky-tonk recreational device known to man, unless the people

Dominion-Provincial conference opens

Hopes for action next year

OTTAWA (CP) — Prime Min-ister Diefenbaker, opening the first phase of negotiations for new Dominion - provincial finan-cial agreements, told the 10 provincial premiers today he hopes a deal will be made in time for action by the federal Parliament next year.

He made no firm proposals as to details, but said the federal government regards the prin-ciples of equalization and help to the less wealthy provinces as paramount in new agreements to become effective April 1, 1962.

The new agreements should also strive to stabilize provincial revenues, the prime minister told the opening plenary meeting of the Dominion - provincial con-ference.

He said that since his govern-ment took office three years ago, it has embarked on new Dominion - provincial programs which are putting a strain on federal tax revenues. An aim of federal fiscal policy was to make more room available in the bond markets for provincial and municipal borrowings.

MORE MEETINGS

"The federal government hopes to be in a position to submit to Parliament in 1961 whatever legisla-tion may be required for the period following March 31, 1962," he said. The present conference will have to be followed by at least one and possibly more meetings.

"I wish to emphasize that the federal government remains firmly committed to the prin-ciple of equalization and of finan-cial assistance to those provinces in which incomes and taxable capacity are below those of the richer provinces," he said.

"The government believes that the principle of fiscal aid and equalization to assist the less wealthy provinces stands on its own feet, and is accepted on that basis, and is quite separate from the question of tax rental or tax sharing."

The Atlantic provinces adjust-ment grants, introduced by the Diefenbaker government, had carried equalization further than any previous arrangement. Total equalization and other fiscal aid grants last year amounted to $215,000,000, compared with $136,000,000 in 1957-58, the left year for which the previous govern-ment prepared the budget.

OTHER MEASURES

The prime minister listed other measures by which the federal treasury has relieved the burden on provincial treasuries, includ-ing increased assistance for un-employed, winter works, earlier inauguration of hospital insur-ance, roads to resources, Atlan-tic power development, the South Saskatchewan dam, the Trans-Canada Highway extension.

"These increased payments by the government of Canada have materially assisted many of the provinces to reach national standards in the services they supply."

"The question as to how far one government should go in fi-nancing the activities of another government warrants careful re-view of both policy and practice in the regard."

The tax - rental agreements had always been framed "with due regard to the financial need of the renting provinces as well as to their tax potential, by which I mean the capacity to ob-tain revenue through taxes."

"I think it is fair to say that to some extent, these arrange-ments have transferred the inter-est of provincial premiers and their treasurers from their own taxpayers to the federal treas-ury, and that from the federal standpoint this is one of the dis-advantages."

EASIER ACCOUNTING

Mr. Diefenbaker said the fed-eral government has agreed to simplify some of the accounting procedures for cost - sharing on joint projects. In brief, the fed-eral government was willing to make monthly interim payments to the provinces subject to de-tailed audit later, rather than requiring detailed accounting month-by-month.

"The federal government this year will be making greatly re-duced payments to the provin-ces."

Lodge claims proof against Reds

RB-47 put off course

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. —(AP)— The United States declared today it has proof that Soviet fighters deliberately pushed a U.S. RB-47 reconnaissance plane off its course and shot it down over international waters.

In a dramatic speech to the United Nations Security Council, U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said "this astonishing and criminal fact is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices."

Lodge produced charts to demonstrate his points, and denounced the Soviet Union for "flagrant disregard for the standards of international conduct."

He called the Soviet charges that the plane violated U.S.S.R. air space July 1 a "complete fabrication" which must be dis-missed as a poor attempt to cloak a wanton attack on a plane over international waters.

Lodge said he would introduce a resolution asking that the coun-cil call for an impartial investiga-tion of the incident.

FIGHTER PRESSED IN
Lodge declared:

"What actually happened was this: Before it (the plane) reached the point more than 50 miles north of Svatoy Nos, at which it was scheduled to turn northeast, a Soviet fighter pressed in from the seaward side and tried to force the plane off its course and into Soviet terri-tory."

"The Soviet fighter was suc-cessful in forcing our plane off its course and in delaying its planned turn to the northeast. It was not successful in forcing the plane into Soviet airspace. It caused our plane to make a de-tour. That detour is shown by the green line (on the chart). The prescribed course is shown by the black line."

"This astonishing and criminal fact is established beyond doubt by the evidence of our scientific devices, which followed the RB-47 through all the events I have described."

Somebody, Lodge said, lied about the incident.

"Only one conclusion can be drawn from this. The Soviet fighter was trying to make the RB-47 fly southward over Soviet territory. There it could have been shot down on land. This at-tempt failed."

"Now we wonder why the So-viets have presented so many dis-tortions about this. Perhaps the Soviet Air Force is reluctant to admit to Chairman Khrushchev that the aircraft could not be shot down over Soviet air space — for the good reason that it was not there — and therefore did not inform him of the facts."

129-year-old 'Three Bears' undergoes delicate repairs

TORONTO (CP) — A 129-year-old manuscript of one of the best-loved of all children's stories has undergone delicate repair work in Toronto's library restoration drive.

William Spawen, book restorer for the Philadelphia public libra-ries, took special pains with the manuscript of the 1831 version of "The Three Bears" by Eleanor Mure.

The book is one of 3,600 vol-umes of the Osborne collection being restored in the Toronto public libraries. Officials describe the collection as one of the world's best of antique children's books.

Mr. Spawen, 41, was in Toronto for three weeks to launch the library's program. He also un-dertook to teach the delicate art to Paul Young, a member of the libraries staff that will carry on the program.

Among Mr. Spawen's tools are surgeon's picks, a 50-year-old let-ter press, a hypodermic needle and 30,000 sheets of old paper he has collected. Each morning he brews a pot of special rice paste for the day's work.

He began book restoring as a hobby in 1938 but by 1949 the demand for his services was so great he went into it full time.

The oldest document he has restored here is the 1787 deed of purchase from the Indians for what is now the heart of Toron-to. The price for the 250,880 acres was £75 2s 6d.

A two-inch-square case was needed for the collection's small-est item — a 1789 edition of The Bible. And there is a 1565 See "129-Year-Old" Page 5

Railway opens probe into train collision

MONTREAL — (CP) — The CNR was to open an investigation today to find out why two of its trains collided head-on Saturday night, killing one woman and injuring more than 60 other passen-gers.

A commuter train and a 55-car freight ran into each other on a single track through a wooded area near Roxboro station in the suburbs northwest of Montreal, 13 miles from downtown central station.

The first, passenger car plun-ged into the rear of its diesel lo-comotive, buckling with the im-pact, and the two jack-knifed. Two other passenger cars were not derailed.

Marie Julien, 22, of Montreal was pinned in the twisted steel. Rescue workers with acetylene torches took three hours to free her body.

The CNR listed five persons as seriously injured with skull frac-tures and multiple injuries. At least 55 others, including about a dozen with fractures, were listed as less seriously injured. All were from the Montreal area. HAD 100 PASSENGERS

The commuter train, carrying an estimated 100 passengers in three cars, was travelling to Montreal from St. Eustache, Que. The freight was heading for a gravel pit to load gravel. Three of its cars were derailed.

They collided about 5 p.m. on a blind curve.

The CNR said its lists of in-jured were probably incomplete because residents of the area rushed to the scene along a dirt road and had taken many of the victims to hospital by private car before police or railway of-ficials arrived.

A CNR spokesman said "these people behaved remarkably well and helped an awful lot of peo-ple."

But they were followed by curious sightseers, many of them vacationers from nearby sum-mer colonies along the Riviere des Prairies, who flocked to the area and hindered police and am-bulances.

Last rites were administered to some of the injured.

The track was cleared for nor-mal traffic Sunday night on the busy commuter run.

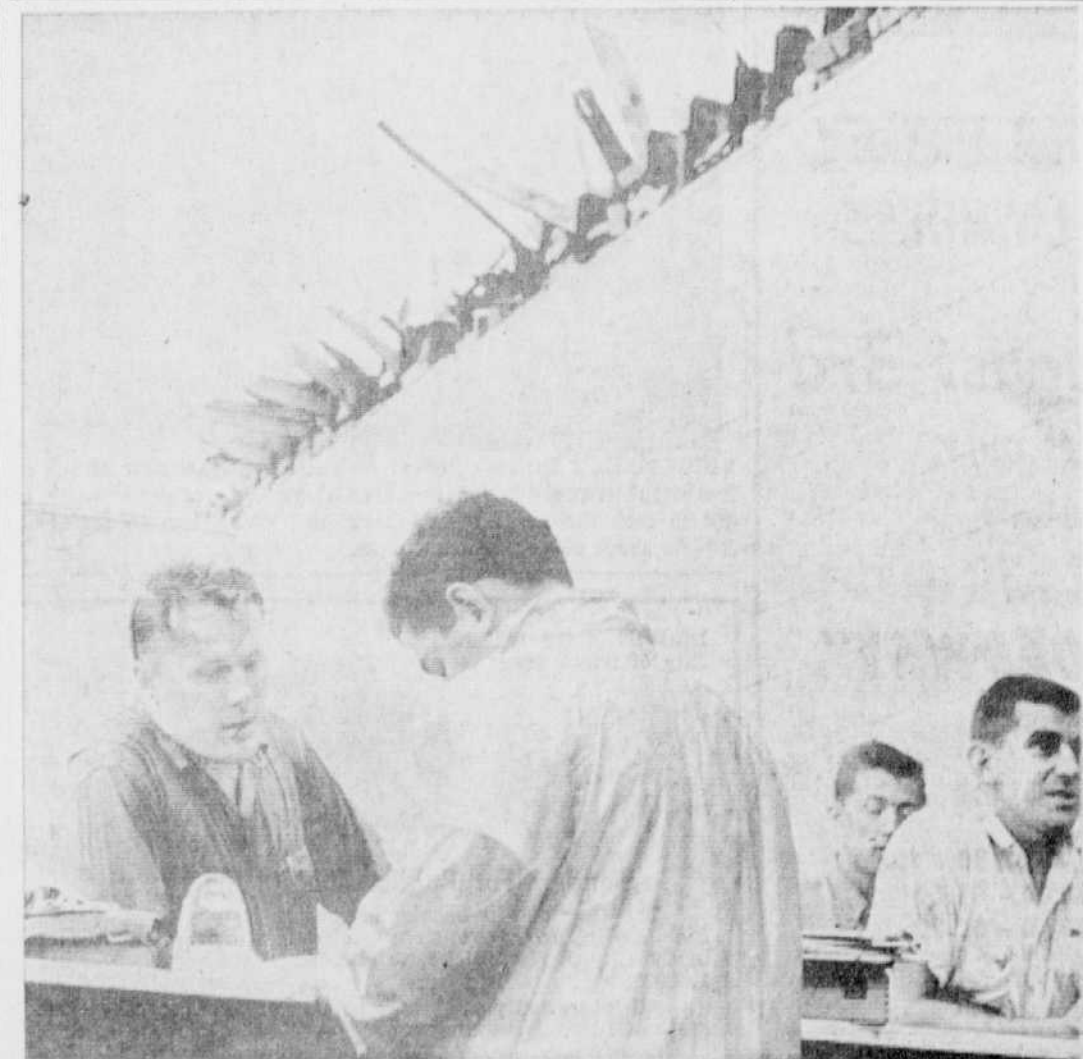

Seventeen-year-old Gary Hayes, returning to Montreal from an outing with other teenagers, said he leaned over the aisle to see what had excited the conduc-tor.

"Then there was a crash and everything went topsy-turvy."

"The car ahead of us where the engineer had been was twist-ed in half. The whole thing was almost unbelievable."

National library seen a need

MONTREAL (CP) — The Canadian Library Association adopted a resolution during the weekend urging an immediate start on a national library.

The proposal, in the form of a telegram to Prime Minister Diefenbaker, was among three endorsed by 250 delegates at the annual meeting.

The association voiced dismay at what it termed "the repeated postponement of the construction" of a national library building. It asked that funds be appropriated in the 1960-61 federal budget for construction.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE
Verner Clapp received the Joseph W. Lippincott award for distinguished service to the library profession at the first session of the conference.

Mr. Clapp, president of the Council on Library Resources, in 1945 organized the United Nations library and served as consultant. In 1947 he was appointed chief assistant librarian at the Library of Congress in Washington.

In that same year he headed the United States library mission to Japan and was instrumental in establishing a national library and bibliographic service in that country.

Split personality of Ghana

Politics not as nice as people

By SAUL PETT

ACCRA, Ghana (AP)—To a visitor, the people of Ghana appear more attractive than its politics.

Ghanaians are open, animated, simple, spontaneous, good humored almost to a point of perpetual hilarity. Even the cab driver, about to rob a tourist of his eyeballs, has a lifting charm that lends to make both victim and victimizer laugh.

But Ghanaian politics has its shadowy corners. Some are explained by the fact that this nation, the first Negro African colony to gain its independence from Britain, is only three years old. Some are explained by the special psyche of Africans. But in its darkest corners, Ghanaian politics still suggests the shadow of possible dictatorship.

Ghana has a split personality. It mimics the Western world but it also pushes its own cultural identity.

Accra is bustling with new construction—hospitals, office buildings, schools, apartment projects. But its sights and sounds still span the centuries, from the dark occult of the jungle to the smug new wisdom of the expanding university, from the old tribal chief grappling with modern government to the sleekly efficient young bureaucrat armed with a case full of optimistic statistics.

Tam, modern buildings of glass rise from a street flanked by open drainage ditches. Farther down the same street, commerce is carried on in small wooden huts.

Ghanaians have gained much under round-faced intense Kwame Nkrumah, who led them to independence from the British in 1947 in a peaceful turnover of power. Under his government, Ghana has built more schools, more roads, improved the standard of living and taken an influential role in the Commonwealth.

It is still tied to a one-crop economy — cocoa — and if the world market for cocoa drops the country is in trouble. But President Nkrumah is pushing a huge effort called the Volta River project, which, if the foreign capital is forthcoming, will provide cheap electric power and help speed industrialization.

Politically, however, Nkrumah's party, which controls 78 of the 92 seats in Parliament, has been accused of intimidation and violence in the last elections.

Opposition parliamentarians have, in some cases, been jailed. Under Ghana's Preventive Detention Act a man suspected of conspiracy against the government, can be jailed up to five years without trial.

More than 50 Ghanaians now are in jail under the act.

"Had they not been arrested," said a senior minister, "Ghana would have been torn by civil war, by the various factions which wanted to cut it up into several separate nations."

Ghana has several newspapers which are critical of the government. But Nkrumah's powerful and prosperous party press, backed by government money, is one bad joke in idolatry from front to back.

It frequently precedes the president's name with other titles: "osagyefo" (redeemer or liberator); "kamante" (supreme authority).

Students of African psychology say that dedication is essential for stability in electorates which for centuries has known only the veneration of tribal chiefs.

But other sources say that Nkrumah is embarrassed by the press and election day tactics of his party.

Egyptian Gnostics (Hollis and Carter, London), tells for the first time the full story of the discovery of the manuscripts and includes an English translation and critical evaluation of "the Gospel according to Thomas."

The author describes the texts as "far more revealing and perhaps also of greater historic consequence than those from the Judean desert."

But, he adds, "as soon as it becomes possible to make an exhaustive study of the 50 or so Gnostic documents lately recovered from the sands of Egypt and when the Qumran (Dead Sea) scrolls have yielded their last secret, we may even discover a more or less tenuous relation between the histories of the two religious movements to which these two finds of manuscripts belonged: the existence of such a link may enhance the interest of both."

Dead Sea Scrolls

Mystery whets public appetite

By MURIEL PENN

LONDON (Reuters)—Perhaps it is the mystery which still surrounds the Dead Sea scrolls and the Coptic manuscripts recovered from the sands of Upper Egypt that whets so much public interest in them.

Both sets of documents were discovered gradually, and, as it were, accidentally. There was none of the blare of publicity about their uncovering which often attends the discovery of major relics at a new archaeological site.

Although more has been heard of Dead Sea scrolls and their contents, the 50 or so Coptic manuscripts found in Egypt would appear to be at least equally important.

Like the Dead Sea scrolls, many of these documents are still being, or have yet to be, examined. The work is long and tedious, often entailing the fitting together of fragments of manuscript like a jigsaw puzzle.

While the full official story of the Coptic documents has yet to be told, unofficial disclosures have given glimpses of their contents.

One, in particular, has caught the public imagination — that claimed to be a Fifth Gospel —

Cattle breeders groups planning annual picnics

Field days and picnics organized by various groups of cattle breeders are the order of the day in the Eastern Townships, with at least three being scheduled for the immediate future.

The first of these is a joint field day organized by the St. Francis and Bedford Ayrshire Clubs to be held on Wednesday of this week at Mrs. Lucille Davis' Netherbrae Farm, R.R.1, Fulford, four miles from West Sheffield.

The program, which will get underway at 10 a.m., will include a demonstration of true Ayrshire type, heifer and cow judging competitions, a tour of the farm and a swimming party.

The guest speaker at the luncheon will be Dr. Paul Gervais, of the Lennoxville Experimental Farm. Visitors are asked to bring their own picnic baskets but beverages will be provided. There will be several prizes offered for various contests.

The directors of the Club extend a special invitation to all the Ayrshire breeders of the district to attend and bring their friends with them.

Joint service

15 churches in Cookshire service

COOKSHIRE — The second annual joint church service was held at the Cookshire Fair grounds on Sunday afternoon, July 24th, the guest speaker being the Rev. Murray Magor M.A., B.D., associate to the Dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal.

A large number attended this service, which was sponsored by the Anglican Churches of Cookshire, Sawyerville and Bury and the United Churches of Cookshire, Bury, Island Brook, Sawyerville, Randboro, East Clifton, East Angus, Bishopton, Birchton and Bulwer.

Mr. Magor preached an inspiring sermon, stating that many of today were similar to the time of Christ, and in His capacity as counsellor and psychiatrist He healed their mental illnesses, and gave them peace, and life took on a new meaning for them. He cited the example of the Apostle Paul and of his personal dedication to the power of God, through Christ, and urged all to follow in Paul's footsteps, and to dedicate anew their lives to God's work. Mr. Magor maintained that the joining of the different denominations in this type of service and prayer augured well for the union of Anglican and United Churches in future.

The congregational singing was led by a choir of 40 voices, representing the different churches, with Mrs. Morris Smith, of Bulwer, as organist, using the electric organ from the Bulwer United Church. The choir rendered two anthems, Mrs. Gilbert Nutbrown, sang a solo, and there was also a vocal quartette by Rev. C. Fraser, Lloyd French, Mrs. Phillips and Miss Amos.

Civil servants assured

Addressing a reception tendered by the Provincial Civil Employees Club Saturday, Louis Philippe Brousseau, recently elected MPP for Sherbrooke, repeated his earlier assurances that provincial employees who were competent and conscientious and who had not taken an active part in political campaigning had no reason to fear replacement.

Mr. Brousseau said that Premier Jean Lesage had said on several occasions that it was the hope of the Liberal party to end political patronage in Quebec, not only for civil service but in other fields of political activity.

He continued that before any action is taken against an office holder, affidavits must be received from at least two people proving one of the three points mentioned.

Mr. Brousseau promised to visit all government offices in the county to see if order or disorder reigned.

"You do not occupy political posts," he told the group. "You form part of the administration of the province. I have no order to give to officeholders. They depend upon the ministers, the deputy ministers and the division heads and it is not the duty of the deputy to give orders. If the deputy has any suggestions to make, he should make them to the minister, who will see that they are relayed through the proper channels."

The rules against civil servants taking part in political campaigns were for the protection of the employees themselves, Mr. Brousseau explained. Civil servants had the right to vote as they pleased and he insisted that no one had been discharged from office since the Liberal government took office simply because of his political beliefs.

Any charges made would be investigated fully, he concluded, and no man would be deprived of employment simply because of jealousy on the part of an enemy.

Local cars in better condition

The annual safety inspection held by the Sherbrooke Police Department from July 11-22 indicates that Sherbrooke residents generally are driving safer vehicles this year than they were last year.

Of 4,409 vehicles checked this year, 1,627 were found to be defective. Only 16 of these had faulty brakes and a large majority of the remainder had faulty lighting.

Last year, Police checked 3,693 vehicles and found 1,144 defective. However, nearly five times as many cars — 79 — had faulty brakes.

Lightning cause of outbreaks

ASBESTOS (Special) — The Asbestos Fire Department was called out on three occasions over the weekend, to combat fires started by Friday night's electrical storm which hit the district.

Friday evening the department was called to 401 Panneton Street and 152 St. Jacques Street where the blaze was quickly brought under control and with slight damage to the homes.

On Saturday morning at 6.50 a.m. the town was awakened by the fire siren blowing, which is only used when a big fire is evident. The brigade was called to the home of Ludger Viens, 230 Notre Dame Street, whose property is beside the Nadeau Hotel.

The second story of the building which was vacant, was filled with smoke and the firemen had a difficult time to establish the exact locality of the outbreak. Using masks they entered the building and soon localized the blaze. Several holes were cut in the roof and by 7.30 the fire was under control.

Mr. Viens stated that the fuses in his home blew out Friday evening during the storm and he changed them twice before the current was restored. It is believed that a bolt struck the power lines and carried into the house.

Twenty-five firemen under Chief Adrien Larrievie and Assistant Jean Chaperon answered the call.

Lumumba to hold more talks

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Premier Patrice Lumumba of the Congo holds more talks with United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld today. Lumumba is seeking trained personnel to help get his chaos-ridden country back on its feet.

The 35-year-old leader of the infant Central African country arrived in New York Sunday and after an initial 2 1/2-hour meeting with Hammarskjöld said he was "very optimistic" about the situation back home.

The secretary-general invited Lumumba to lunch today with the members of the UN Security Council, which last Friday called on Belgium to speed up withdrawal of her troops from the Congo.

Later today Lumumba was to talk with delegates of the 29-nation Asian-African group and hold a press conference. He winds up his talk with Hammarskjöld Tuesday.

CANADIAN TRIP PLANNED — Lumumba also plans to travel in the United States and Canada, but no itinerary has been worked out yet.

Lumumba told reporters he and Hammarskjöld in their first meeting had discussed the general situation in the Congo and the session had been "very fruitful."

"I express my satisfaction for the understanding which has prevailed during our conversation," the premier said, speaking in French.

An aide said Lumumba particularly wants the UN to send engineers and doctors to the Congo.

Declines to take tons of money

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)

John R. Carr can boast "some fellows came to the door Sunday to leave $1,500,000 to $3,000,000 in coin—but I wouldn't let them in."

The man, an employee of the U.S. mint here, refused to let in two huge truckloads of silver coins when they arrived ahead of schedule from Denver. So the truck's, and their treasure had to spend the night in the driveway of the mint just off Buchanan Street.

"There's nobody to sign for the stuff," the man told the truck drivers and their armored car escort when they arrived at the new mint about 3 p.m. Sunday.

Well-deserved honor

All Canadians will join with the rest of the Commonwealth in heartily endorsing the high honor accorded former governor-general Vincent Massey by the Queen on Friday.

He received from Her Majesty the Royal Victorian Chain, the highest personal honor a British monarch can bestow.

At present, the award is held by only 20 others. Mr. Massey becomes only the second Commonwealth citizen outside of Britain to receive it. The silver-gold chain with a diamond-studded Maltese Cross, has been awarded to only about 70 persons since it was established by Edward VII in 1902.

Normally, it is given to heads of state and members of royalty.

A palace announcement said the chain was awarded as "a mark of highest distinction and special favor."

For Mr. Massey, it is a well-deserved mark of signal recognition.

As Canada's first Canadian governor-general, he won the respect and affection not only of the Canadian people, but of all who had any contact with him, directly or indirectly.

He made great contributions to the cultural life of this country, and through his wide travels in the Dominion, created a warm bond of unity and strength.

As the traditional representative of the British crown in Canada, he did much, too, to bring home to Canadians the value and richness of our ties with Britain.

Not only as governor-general, but as a man, Mr. Massey ranks as one of our truly great Canadians. In honoring him, the Queen honors Canada.

A Doubtful Compromise

The agreement reached over the weekend between Vice-president Nixon and Governor Rockefeller on the eve of the Republican national convention in Chicago appears to have removed the New York governor as a serious contender for the presidential nomination this year. But it also places him in a strong position for honors in future years, especially if Mr. Nixon fails to make the grade in November.

The effect of the compromise that has removed Mr. Rockefeller from the presidential race is that the Republican party will accept the policies, both in the domestic and foreign fields, that he has been advocating for some time.

Whether the agreement will bring Mr. Nixon any additional strength in the November elections is open to question. Mr. Nixon always has been considered as a conservative, with the result that many Republicans have been hoping that he would appeal to the moderate elements of the country and would make inroads into the traditionally Democratic south.

By his accord with Mr. Rockefeller, he has pledged the party to a "progressive" policy which might cost him valuable support in many areas in return for so far limited endorsement of the New York governor.

One of Mr. Nixon's ailing has been his tendency to follow the course of expediency instead of adopting a definite policy. Perhaps this latest deal is representative of his traditional tactics.

Summer house guests

Summertime is vacation time, but nothing can spoil a vacation faster than the poor summer house guest.

The position of house guest is one that most of us occupy at one time or another and so it behooves us to remember a few rules of etiquette which can go a long way towards ensuring our stay is a breeze and not a burden.

One of the hardest things for a host to take is the guest who shows up at, say, a rustic cabin all equipped for a round of plush nightclub tours. So the first thing to get straightened out is your plans.

If your host sounds vague about the weekend program, ask him what could be brought. Don't whatever you do, offer to help round out the guest list with five or six of your friends. This includes your lovable old St. Bernard, unless cleared beforehand.

Take the phone number of your destination (if there is one) and use it if you get hopelessly lost on the way.

As to fun and games: relax and be yourself, joining in on planned activities. Consider the kitchen out of bounds, unless your offer of assistance is accepted. Help around the house by keeping your room neat and tidying the bathroom after using it.

Try not to borrow anything like a tennis racket or a bathing cap. If you do have to be a borrower and something gets damaged, send a replacement as soon as you've returned home.

All of this should ensure that you're invited back. And if not, then at least, when you're a host, you'll have some basis on which to judge who you should invite back.

SIXTY YEARS AGO — This photo, copied from a glass negative shows Mrs. Iving Kennedy in her home at Stanbury, Missisquoi County, about 60 years ago. The lambrequin on the mantel of the parlor, the shade on the brass lamp held up by a cupid, the fruit compote on the table top, the picture album and the Bible on the table shelf were familiar fixtures in Eastern Townships parlors at the turn of the century.

Why join historical society?

Local history is valuable

By RUBY MOORE
(Record Correspondent)

Someone once asked me "What do I get out of a historical society membership?" Many things, I believe. Pleasant associations with people who are interested in their heritage and background, ideas gained and memories to cherish. History has ever been a fascinating subject, and local history in Brome County is just as intriguing and interesting as that of England and France.

Are you not interested in how our forefathers settled this county of ours? Their struggles, hardships and simple joys all make history. Would you not like to be able to say to your son, "I hope that you grow up to be like my grandfather. It was said of him. His word is as good as his bond. To me, that was far more important than if it was said of him he was worth $30,000 and had the best farm in the County."

Someone has said "What I am is a contribution from God, and the broad axes, that were used to prepare the logs for building purposes, the cradle, the sickle and the scythe, so they will realize that grain was not always cut by the mow and the combine."

Interest and activity in Eastern Townships history and the societies concerned with it has long been strong in this area. This article presents the case for the value of historical societies. The author is membership chairman of the Brome County Historical Society, but her words apply to all similar organizations.

What I make of myself is my contribution to God. ...

Deep down in the hearts of most human beings is a desire to give expression to self, to create something. If, in our children we can create a feeling of pride in their heritage we have at least imparted something to them from the past.

One is always shocked to hear the crude remark "I don't care or know anything about how my ancestors lived." How many children in our own County know the story of their community? The hardships and pain suffered by those who cleared the way for us? Are we treating this heritage with the respect which it deserves, or are we saying "For-history of our County. It was not all work. Music played on the melodeon, the fiddle and the mouth organ kept the toes of the young people tapping at their kitchen dances. Instead of the television the wonders of the world were seen through the stereoscope which was invented in England in 1838, and it was kept in a prominent place on the parlor table along with the Bible and the photo album. Show her the quilting frames at which our great grandmothers created the heirlooms which many families treasure today.

Local history, unless it is recorded for future generations will soon be lost in many communities. Perhaps, you hear some cynic say "The good old days, who wants them?" No, we would not want to go back to those days, but it will certainly enrich our present lives to learn of our past history.

Every generation has something fresh to offer, but in accepting all that we have today we should not overlook what was done for us in the past.

There is scarcely a spot in Brome County that has not some interesting story connected with it, but once all the old people have gone from the scene we will have no way of hearing about these things.

August 6 will be a red letter day in the history of the Museum and the Brome County Society. It is the annual meeting. Slides of Historic Sites which will be shown by Mr. Ferrabee, who will also speak on local historic sites. Many new exhibits have been arranged and the War Museum has been cleaned.

A CUBAN CONTRAST

(Ottawa Journal)

On the same day that an anti-Communist demonstration rang through the Roman Catholic Cathedral in Havana, Major Raul Castro, Cuba's Armed Forces Minister and brother of Premier Fidel Castro, flew into Moscow. The demonstrators in Havana shouted "Cuba yes, Russia no!" Major Castro was greeted by the chief of staff of the Soviet Union.

The two events dramatize the struggle which is tearing at Cuba. We must not make the mistake of thinking that all the Cubans who were undoubtedly behind Castro the revolutionary leader have followed him towards a deliberate and dangerous entanglement with Russia. Cubans cry out against Communism.

Yet the relative ineffectualness of the opposition towards the flirtation with Russia is abundantly demonstrated in

JACOBY On Bridge

Good bidding is a matter of percentage. You see your own cards. You hear the other bids and you try to reach the contract most likely to show the greatest profit if the hand belongs to you or the smallest loss if the hand belongs to the enemy.

In many situations you must find yourself flying almost blind in a fog. For instance, here is a hand from this year's Dallas charity game.

A couple of North players opened with two clubs, but at all other tables the bidding started one club, pass, pass, and West then on it was an easy matter for North and South to find their diamond fit and while no one got to seven, all pairs did reach either game or small slam.

Needless to say, everyone made seven. Two leads took care of the trump suit and South still had four trumps to take care of two hearts and two club ruffs.

Was West's spade bid a bad one? From a result standpoint it was. From a practical standpoint it was not.

From the standpoint of good bridge he had to bid. This time it cost him and there will be other times when similar bids will prove expensive. But for each case of a loss there will be several times when the bid will show a profit.

the contrast between Sunday's events, Raul Castro is not one to be moved by the emotional outburst of a few hundred Cubans. He is not in Russia on a sight-seeing trip. An Armed Forces Minister is interested in arms. Major Castro's travels give new substance to the worrisome reports that an arms-for-sugar agreement between Russia and Cuba is at hand.

Angola last Colonial bastion

LUANDA, Angola (AP)—Under the relentless pressure of African upheaval, the centuries-old isolation of Portuguese Angola is fast coming to an end. It is being replaced by a new kind of isolation. Instead of obscurity — an obscurity that has made this southwest African territory one of the great unknowns of the continent—Angola is taking on a lonely and unwanted prominence.

Together with Mozambique, its sister Portuguese province on the African East Coast, Angola is emerging as the last big stronghold of traditional European colonialism south of the Sahara.

"Thus far and no farther"—this is the answer to onrushing bilingualism that Portuguese officials repeat here with regularity.

They concede that the trend of events seems to be running hard against them. But they contend that the Portuguese are different from the other European colonizers who came to Africa.

Portugal is a dictatorship which stifles political opposition not only in the overseas provinces but in the mother country as well. Press censorship, a widespread network of informers and rigid clamps on education all discourage the growth of ideas about democracy and self-determination.

Africans in Angola and Mozambique have little chance to learn the precepts of liberty which, to the Portuguese way of thinking, undermined British, French and Belgian rule in Africa.

Because of Portugal's cradle-to-the-grave thought control, observers in many parts of Africa believe that organized black nationalism movements are practically nonexistent in Angola and Mozambique—at least so far.

When the slightest inkling of subversive activities is suspected, the authorities crack down hard.

VANCOUVER (CP) — So your typing is good, your shorthand adequate and you want to be a private secretary.

Fair enough, now you start your training. You must learn to bully your boss, inform him, chase him, jollycoddle him, be something of a valet and—like him.

It will help if you can make a good cup of tea at the right "psychological moment."

These qualities, included in a list of 16 qualifications compiled by Miss C. M. Goldring of Vancouver, who has as many as 40 private secretaries under her wing at one time, help make "the perfect secretary."

To be a perfect secretary a girl must:

1. Keep up to date and anticipate all business.
2. Fill in all omissions.
3. Interpret management statements to a bewildered staff.
4. Watch all staff potentials and relay such information to the boss as well as anything that will help him cope with unexpected staff situations.

5. Keep out people who disturb the tenor of his ways.

6. Soothe lacerated feelings and keep everyone in the office as good tempered as possible.

7. See that the boss doesn't leave with dust on his hat or coat.

8. Keep the boss replenished with cigarettes, matches and other personal needs.

9. Provide tea or coffee at the psychological moment when a storm may be brewing.

10. Keep newspaper and trade journals in a conciliated mood without giving them any information.

11. Find out what your boss' movements are likely to be and make covering arrangements, as he may likely forget to advise you.

12. Keep appointments organized, assuring neglected visitors.

MANNERS MAKE FRIENDS

In planning what her attendants will wear, a bride should consider what they can afford. Dresses should be within reach of those with the least money.

that undue pressure of business is the cause, meanwhile supplying newspapers or coffee to ease the situation.

13. Smile and appear calm no matter how infuriated you may be (as you will) at continual stupidities.

14. Produce the right arguments at the right time to convince him he is right, even though you know it was your idea in the first place.

15. Lie without qualm or restraint on your boss' behalf whenever necessary.

16. Run the business.

If you can do that you're perfect.

Salaries? Well, girls, there you are on your own.

MR. and MRS. MALCOLM RAYMOND McVETTY photographed cutting the cake at the reception following their wedding in St. Peter's Anglican Church, Cookshire. The former Susan Mabel Fraser the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fraser of Cookshire, the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McVetty of Eaton, Que.

McVETTY — FRASER

COOKSHIRE, Que. — Miss Susan Mabel Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fraser of Cookshire, became the bride of Mr. Malcolm Raymond McVetty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McVetty of Eaton, Que., on Saturday, June 25 in St. Peter's Anglican Church, Rev. Canon W. C. Dunn officiating.

Mrs. Phyllis Gill presided at the organ, and the soloist, Miss June Mogensen, sang the Lord's Prayer and Because, and the choir, O Perfect Love. White shasta daisies adorned the altar and satin bows designated the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a floor length gown of white nylon lace and net over taffeta. The fitted bodice was embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and had lively point sleeves. Her scalloped edged veil of tulle, trimmed with sequins, fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins, and she carried a cross of red roses and white gardenias. She wore a silver cross, a gift of the groom.

The bride's attendants, Miss Louise Bennett, maid of honor, and Mrs. Charles Fraser of MacKayville, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Ivy Dunn of Montreal, as bridesmaids, were gowned alike in blue nylon and lace over taffeta cocktail length dresses fashioned with matching boleros and long sleeves. They wore white velvet hats with blue trim and their bouquets were of pink carnations.

Mr. James McVetty was best man for his brother, the ushers were Charles Fraser, brother of the bride, and James Hall, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother was in blue nylon lace over taffeta with matching accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother chose dusty rose with white accessories and a pink rose corsage.

At the reception held in the Parish Hall following the ceremony, the bride's table was arranged with a four tier wedding cake, silver bowls of white shasta daisies and pink carnations and a large wedding candle. Special guests at the bride's table were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson of Ayer's Cliff and Mrs. Louisa P. Craig of Stoneham.

Later Mr. and Mrs. McVetty left for a wedding trip to New Hampshire, Vermont and Montreal, the bride wearing a beige dress with matching bolero and hat, a black velvet coat and a corsage of Orange Delight roses. The young couple have taken up residence in Eaton, Que.

Guests from out of town were

McVETTY — BOWKER

SAWYERVILLE, Que. — The marriage of Florence Verna Bowker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Bowker of Sawyer-ville, to James Arthur McVetty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McVetty of Eaton, took place on Saturday, July 2 at three o'clock in the Sawyerville United Church. Rev. Howard Fraser officiated at the double ring ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. L. French. Upon the arrival of the bride the soloist Mrs. Claris Phillips sang Because, and, during the signing of the register, the Lord's Prayer. The church was decorated by the bride's sister, Mrs. Theodore Buck with baskets of mock orange blossoms with red roses and white bows marking the guest pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was in a street length dress of white embroidered organza over taffeta with a round neckline in the front, dipping to a V at the back. Her short tulle veil was held by a small organza headband and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Gloria Phillips of Sawyer-ville, as maid of honor for the bride wore a similar styled gown in blue organza over white and blue printed taffeta with a matching headband. Her nosegay was of white carnations.

Mr. Malcolm McVetty acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were the bride's brother, Norman Bowker, and Herbert Loveland, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother chose a rose shaded brocade nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A reception was held in the church hall where a profusion of summer flowers were used to decorate. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Lyle Rand. Red roses and white tapers completed the attractive decor. The guest book was in charge of the groom's cousin, Miss Marion Macdonald and Mr. Wells Bishop acted as master of ceremonies at the reception.

For a wedding trip to the New England States, the bride travelled in a mint green sheath dress with matching duster and white accessories, with which she wore a corsage of white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. McVetty have now taken up residence in Eaton, Que.

Guests were present at the wedding from Cookshire, Bury, Bulwer, Eaton, Randboro, Kingsley Falls, North Hatley, Sherbrooke, Waterloo, Howick, Kinross, L'Abord, a Plouffe and Montreal, Que., and Mattison, Me.

Joe won scholarships and bursaries each year to cover his fees. Last summer he was a railway sleeping-car conductor. The summer before that he took contracts for lawn-mowing and drain-tile installation.

Mrs. Smith, a graduate nurse, could have made more money in shorter hours nursing than in keeping a boarding house but decided she would rather be with her children at home.

Before studying law, Joe taught three years in Vancouver schools. Previous to that he interrupted his college career for a one-year mission in England for the Church of Latter Day Saints. His wife served a similar mission in Minnesota.

Throughout three years at law school he taught Sunday school. Referring to his scholastic success, he says "she made it possible." But it's not over yet. The family now goes to New Haven, Conn., where Joe will study for his Master's degree in international law on a fellowship at Yale University.

Film Rental Service Now Provided By Coaticook Public Library

COATICOOK — The facilities of the Coaticook Public Library have been extended with the addition of a rental service of movie films, together with projector and screen, which will be available to local groups and also to individuals who join the rental scheme.

Films will be available in both English and French and will be exchanged for new series frequently so that members will be ensured of a varied program during the year.

The membership fee will be ten dollars per year, for those who wish to use the service frequently, enough to warrant a yearly membership, or two dollars for each occasion the projector, screen and speakers are borrowed. In addition there will be a rental fee of 50 cents for a colored film and 25 cents for black and white films.

Membership in the Library itself is also increasing, 650 now holding membership cards. Last week 710 volumes were borrowed by 400 members, an increase of 170 books over previous weeks records.

SCHOOL COMMISSION

Jules Thibault was elected chairman of the Coaticook Catholic School Commission, replacing Dr. Gustave Lajoie.

Two members recently were added to the Commission, Mr. Dupuis and Mr. Robitaille, so that the group is pretty well in new hands.

Biggest problem facing the new commissioners is the need for providing additional classrooms.

Plans are already being completed for a new secondary school and the group also has the task of finding sufficient teaching staff for the opening of the present schools.

PARK PROJECT

Taking advantage of the fact that local manufacturing plants are on annual vacation, and therefore the power demand is considerably less than normal, the gates of the dam have been opened and the level of the Coaticook River reduced to a minimum flow. With this situation aiding them, workmen of the Couillard firm, using heavy machinery are presently proceeding with a major project along the banks of the river of the Park Laurence area.

A great many of the huge willow trees which lined the river bank have been cut down, the banks are being built up and filled in where required, the old, unused horse sheds of the park have been torn down and the whole area is being leveled and graded.

Plans are to make this the future site of a municipal sports and recreation center, if hopes of many local citizens are realized.

FINAL TRIBUTE

The funeral of Paul Gerin was held July 16 and was attended by a large number of Town officials, business men and leaders of community groups paying their last respects to one who was very well known in the town, having served as Judge of the Municipal Court for many years, and also as judicial advisor for the local Caisse Populaire.

Mr. Gerin leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, the former Germaine Dionne, two daughters Therese and Celine, a son, Marcel, was accidentally killed at the age of sixteen, six years ago at Mount Orford. Three sisters, Mrs. Bernard Berube, Mrs. E. Savard and Miss Helene Gerin, also survive him.

Local All-Stars Lose Out To St. Johns 12-10 In Little League Playoffs

Jeff Planche, Jacques Pelletier Are Standouts In Thrilling Playoff Tilt

By TED ANDERSON

ST. JOHNS — A big six run second inning was the issue between the Sher-Lenn Little League All Stars and St. Johns Little League All Stars in Saturday's play-off game at St. Johns. Three walks and an infield error built up the runs for St. Johns in this inning. The remainder of the game was fought on level terms by the teams.

The Sher-Lenn boys, though going down to defeat, outthit their opponents and if given a few breaks, would have taken this game. Faulty base umpiring also had a hand in the teams defeat. Winners of this game meet Kiwanis South on Wednesday evening at Montreal.

Each team came up with a single run in the first inning. St. Johns got theirs on two walks issued by Begbie — the starting Sher-Lenn pitcher — and a single by Perron, the St. Johns leftfielder. Hits by Cabana and Farrell pushed home the Sherbrooke tally.

Begbie, who was in trouble in the opening inning, gave up two hits in a row in the second inning and three walks before he was replaced by Vincent. Vincent also ran into trouble in the frame, and before it was over, six runs had crossed the plate.

A double by Jeff Planche, who was a standout in both of the play-off games, started off the locals in their half of the second. This was followed by singles from Pelletier and Vincent — these hits accounting for two runs.

St. Johns went scoreless in the third while Sher-Lenn, in the same inning, crept closer to their rivals. Planche, Stewart and Lacaille brought in two more runs making the score at the end of three innings stand at 7-5 for St. Johns.

An infield error and three hits in a row in St. Johns part of the fourth added three more to hosts total, giving the locals a bigger hurdle to surmount. Though Sher-Lenn did get two hits in the fourth but they could not get a run across the plate.

St. Johns were kept off the score sheet in the top of the fifth and, making a bid in this inning to get back in the game, the Sherbrooke boys came up with three runs. Jeff Planche came up with his third double of the game while Farrell, Lacaille and Stewart also connected in the inning. With one away and two runs across the plate in the top of the sixth Vincent was replaced on the mound by Farrell who retired the side before any more damage was done.

Coming to bat in the last of the sixth it was the last stand for Sher-Lenn and, trailing by a score of 12-8, Cabana went out, Lacaille got on with a single while Stewart, getting his second hit of the game, sent Lacaille home with one run. Planche then lined out to first, Pelletier came up with a double and stole third on an overthrow, then stole home on a passed ball.

Gilbert then flew out and with that went any hopes that Sher-Lenn had of advancing further in the play-off race.

In a game that was pretty close most of the way St. Johns rose to the occasion and surprised their home town followers by their display. They were worthy winners and were well served by pitcher Ostigoy who did not walk one man in the game and by Lussier who had three hits. Standing out for Sher-Lenn was Planche with three doubles, Lacaille with a double and two singles, and Pelletier who was good in the field.

Eleven older horses were lined up today for the $100,000-added Sunset Handicap making the close of the Hollywood Park season, but the big money race is only the beginning of the richest week in the history of the thoroughbred sport.

Next Saturday, for the first time, there will be four $100,000-plus races with total purses worth half a million dollars. Here's the program:

Delaware Park—The $150,000-added Delaware Handicap, 1 1/4 miles for fillies and mares.

Aqueduct—The $100,000-added Brooklyn Handicap, 1 1/4 miles.

Arlington Park—The $100,000-added Arlington Futurity, two-year-olds, six furlongs.

Monmouth Park—The $100,000-added Gross Sorority Stakes, two-year-old fillies, six furlongs.

Dotted Swiss Favored
C. V. Whitney's Dotted Swiss, four-year-old son of Countpoint, heads the field in the Sunset Handicap over the tough mile and five-eighths route.

The top weight with 122 pounds is Howard B. Keck's Bagdad, Eddie Burns rides Dotted Swiss, (122 pounds) while Willie Shoemaker handles Bagdad.

The Brooklyn may see a renewal of the battle of the big three—The Brookmeade, Stable's Sword Dancer, Can Hoy Stable's Bald Eagle, and C. T. Cheney's First Landing. Weights for the race were to be announced today.

The Delaware Handicap, world's richest race for fillies and mares, will be a supreme test for Bill Macdonald's Royal Native under 129 pounds.

At Monmouth, the Meadowbrook Stable's Little Tumbler—one of the fastest juvenile fillies to be seen in years—will be favored in the Sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heff's Intensive, who won the recent Hyde Park Stakes in Chicago, is the probable choice for the Arlington Futurity.

Reginald N. Webster's Quill, champion two-year-old miss in 1958, qualified handsomely for the Delaware handicap by beating Indian Maid and Temple in the $35,800 ew Castle Handicap Saturday at the Delaware Track. Temple was the champion last year.

C. R. McCoy's T. V. Lark, 1959 winner of the $212,000 Arlington Futurity over Bally Ache, went back to the same track Saturday and capped the $135,600 Arlington Classic. John William ran second, while the favored Venetian Way—winner of the Kentucky Derby—was third. T. V. Lark collected $86,500 for his California owner and paid $35.40 to those Chicagoans who hadn't forgotten him a year ago.

Pappa's All, owned by Grover King, captured the $143,200 Hollywood juvenile championship for two-year-olds. He paid $7 and earned $87,100, as Sullivan's Bud was second, with Big Smoke third.

The Harbor View Farm's Francis S. ($6,200) outgated favored Irish Lancer in the stretch to win the $54,100 Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct. Fred W. Hopper's Teacoon scored a length and quarter victory over Refute in the $57,900 Monmouth Oaks. Teacoon, running as an entry with Confuse, paid $21.60.

No. 54 — Stroke Putt

By JIMMY DEMARET
Work on a putting stroke that is constant in its tempo.

You don't tap or poke a putt. You stroke it. Anything but an evenly progressive stroke will influence the position of the putter's face too suddenly and destroy all hope of getting the club to contact the ball at the proper right angle to the intended line.

You'll keep hearing theories that the putter remains at a right angle to the intended path throughout the backstroke. Some fine putters put this way, but I don't recommend it. Why not make a putt a miniature swing?

The putter face will open on the backstroke and close as it returns.

Learn to make the backstroke only as long as necessary to provide a power base for the stroke back.

This way you'll never have the tendency to take the putter out of the putt.

NEXT: Reading the breaks in greens.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

Buenos Aires—Juan Carlos Rivero, 149 1/2, Argentina, stopped Charlie (Tomstone) Smith, 146 1/2, Los Angeles, 9.

Chicago, Yanks Split Double-Header; Baltimore Pushes Into Third, Edges Tigers 2-1; Kansas, Washington Split

Eli Grba is a name not calculated to strike terror into the hearts of American League hitters, yet this 25-year-old right-hander, recalled from the Richmond farm in early June, has saved the New York Yankees at a crucial stage.

The Yanks were moaning, low Sunday after losing the first game of a doubleheader to Chicago 6-3. The White Sox came into town in second place and proceeded to win three straight from New York. One more defeat and the proud Yanks would have been three games back.

Desperate after the failures of Bob Turley, Whitey Ford and Jim Coates, the Yankees called on Grba. He came through with the first complete game of his brief major league career and his second victory over the White Sox 8-2. As a result the White Sox's lead was cut to one game.

In fact, he has a total of four victories over two seasons in the majors and three of them have been at the expense of Chicago.

Baltimore Orioles sneaked into third place, three games back, by edging Detroit Tigers 2-1 in 11 innings on Jackie Brandt's fourth hit of the day. Boston Red Sox dropped Cleveland into fourth place by taking two from the Indians who spent most of the day jawing with the umpires.

The scores were 10-6 and 7-6. Washington came within one error of a major league record by making five in the seventh inning while losing the first game to Kansas City 6-3. The Senators snapped back 10-2 behind Camilo Pascual.

Saturday, Detroit and Baltimore split a doubleheader, Detroit winning the first 4-3 and losing the second 3-1; Washington walloped Kansas City 8-3. Chicago shaded Detroit 5-3 and Cleveland defeated Boston 4-2.

The Yankee-White Sox double drew the season's largest Yankee Stadium crowd, 60,002. The fans saw Billy Pierce whip the Yanks with relief help from Turk Lown and Frank Baumann as the Sox pounded York pitching for 12 hits, including Roy Sievers' 16th homer.

MANTLE'S 24TH HOMER
Grba went all the way in the second game while New York ruined Herb Score's comeback hopes by knocking him out in the fourth inning. Mickey Mantle hit his 24th homer off Russ Kemmerer, the first relief man, in the fifth.

Bill Monbouquette and Mike Fournieles, working in relief of Frank Sullivan, were the Boston winners on a day of unorthodox developments at Fenway Park. Ted Williams beat out a bunt and Jimmy Piersall, fined $100 and called on the carpet for Saturday's argument, hid behind the flag-pole in centre field during one of the many arguments between Indians and ump. Gary Bell and Jack Harshman were the Cleveland losers although the Red Sox were outthit in both games.

Chuck Estrada turned in a five-hitter against the Tigers for his 10th victory.

In that wild inning at Washington, shortstop Jose Valdivielso made three errors. Second baseman Bill Gardner and right fielder Dan Dobbek each made one. The Senators lashed out with 16 hits in the second game, won by Pascual with eighth-inning relief from Ray Moore.

Milwaukee Braves Take Over First From Pirates, Whip Chicago Twice Sunday; Dodgers Blank Phillies 9-0

For the first time since May 23, the National League has a new leader. Pittsburgh Pirates have given way to the charge of the Milwaukee Braves.

Just before the all-star break, the Pirates lead measured 5 1/2 games. The wise men along Broadway had tabbed the Bucs as 1 to 4 favorites to win the pennant.

Milwaukee closed the gap Sunday by whipping Chicago twice 7-5 and 1-0 behind a couple of familiar names, Warren Spahn and Bob Buhl. The Pirates, trailing 6-0, scored San Francisco with three runs in the ninth and had manager Tom Sheehan digging deep into his bullpen for three pitchers before the Giants finally nixed down a 6-3 victory.

PHILS BLANKED AGAIN
Los Angeles, blazing hot with 29 consecutive innings of shutout pitching (27 against the Phillies), blanked the Phils again 9-0. Stan Musial's homer cut the edge to one run in the eighth and the Cards pulled it out with a rally against Jay Hook and Bill Henry in the ninth. McMillan's error let one run in and White's double scored the other. Bob Gibson was the winner on relief and Hook was the loser.

Jay Hebert Fires 281 To Win PGA Championship

Jim Ferrier Second; Sam Snead And Doug Sanders Deadlocked For Third

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Jay Hebert finally got even with his kid brother.

The 37-year-old former marine stormed out of a four-way crush Sunday, to win the United States Professional Golfers Association championship by a stroke, leaving 1947 champion Jim Ferrier, three-time champion Sam Snead and Doug Sanders deadlocked for third.

That should stop the needling Jay has been getting around his Bayou home in Lafayette, La., since his brother Lionel, 32, won the same title three years ago.

The Hebert boys, on the tour only five years, are the only brother act to grab a big-time title since the Smith brothers, Alex and Willie, did it in the U.S. Open in the early 1900s.

The Heberts hit the heights on Ohio courses. Lionel won at Dayton's Miami Valley layout in 1937, the last time the feature was at match play. Jay won at the Firestone Country Club's 7,165-yard "monster" over which par was bettered only 13 times in four days.

ONE OVER PAR

Hebert wound up with a par 70 and a 72-hole total of 281, one over par, with birdies on two of the last four holes. Ferrier, a native of Australia, was second at 282. Snead and Sanders were deadlocked at 283.

Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., famed for his finishes in winning the Masters and U.S. Open crowns this year, couldn't make up a stroke on the final 18 holes with a par 70. He was tied for seventh place with former champion Doug Ford at 283.

Snead, 47, held a stroke lead with two holes to play. But he went over par on the 14th two holes to lose three strokes to Hebert.

Hebert picked up $11,000 of the record $33,000 purse, boosting his year's earnings to $35,002. Ferrier won $5,500, Snead and Sanders $3,250.

The two Canadians in the tournament, Mike Parco of Fort Erie, Ont., and Winnipeg-born Bill Ezlinicki of North Reading, Mass., were eliminated in early rounds.

Ben Hogan, once-mighty man of golf, was ousted after 54 holes with 225, 15 over par.

Bill Thompson Fires Eagle Two On 18th To Win Millar Golf Tournament

TORONTO (CP)—The victory hopes of a 51-year-old veteran in the twilight of his golfing career was shattered in the $5,500 Millar Trophy tournament Saturday with a ball that sailed 175 yards, landed on the green and rolled 20 feet into the cup.

The fantastic shot defeated Bob Gray of Toronto Scarborough, four-time Millar king, and gave Vancouver's Bill Thompson the crown and $1,000 first prize.

Thompson, 36, beat Gray two up. The shocker came on the par-four, 409-yard 18th when he canned a three-iron shot for an eagle two.

Gray, who had scrambled back from the brink of extinction all day, was dead. His second shot was in a trap beside the green and he had no chance of winning. Gray picked up $850 for second place.

SHEER LUCK

"That shot was sheer luck," said Thompson in what could be the understatement of the golf season.

Moe Norman of Kitchener and Toronto took third-place money of $475 by beating Murray Tucker, of Toronto 4 and 3 in consolation play Saturday.

Fifth place and $300 went to Al Balding, touring pro from Toronto who was beaten on the 19th hole Friday by Tucker.

Mike Barber Downs Larry Perry To Win Quebec Amateur Golf Tournament

MONTREAL (CP)—Mike Barber, 21-year-old businessman from suburban St. Lambert, Sunday won the Quebec amateur golf championship with a 2 and 1 victory in the final over gritty Larry Perry of Cowansville, Que.

Barber, who was a promising junior golfer, is having one of his best seasons. He needed his best game to turn back the 26-year-old former Nova Scotia junior who now is an accountant in Cowansville.

Perry suffered a pulled rib muscle in his semi-final round earlier in the day when he sprang a real upset in defeating favored Brian Powell of the host Mount Bruno club on the 21st green.

Driving off the 18th tee, Perry pulled the muscle as he swung. He continued on despite pain and won at the third extra hole where Powell three-putted.

Barber meanwhile had come through a tough semi-final battle with 17-year-old Gordon LeRiche of the Montreal Hampstead club to win one up.

The new champion, who succeeds Eliot Godel of Montreal Elm Ridge, is in the magazine distribution business with his father and is a member of the country club. Until Sunday he had never been as far as the quarter final in the Quebec amateur.

Perry won the Nova Scotia junior title in 1951 while a resident of Halifax. He went to Cowansville in 1953 but was out of competitive golf until four years ago. He had reached the quarter finals twice before.

Barber played a steady game, particularly on the front nine when his iron display had a big part in giving him a three-hole lead at the turn.

Perry went into the final round with his chest tightly taped because of a pulled rib muscle suffered in the semi-final. The painful injury gave him some trouble in the final but essentially could take nothing away from Barber's fine game.

Perry supplied an upset in the semi-final by defeating Brian Powell of the host Mount Bruno Club on the 21st green. Barber defeated 17-year-old Gordon LeRiche of the Montreal Hampstead Club one up to make the final.

Ontario Junior Tennis Tourney Starts Today

TORONTO (CP)—An entry of 147 players from five provinces start competing today for 10 titles in the Ontario junior tennis championships.

Among the favorites are John Fraser of Victoria, winner of the Quebec junior men's singles last week, Della Fredboff of Toronto, Quebec junior women's champion, and Veronica Holdup of Toronto, Canadian closed junior women's titleholder.

Indians Edge Fuller 2-1 In Junior League

Sherbrooke Indians edged Fuller 2-1 last night in a thrilling Junior Baseball League tilt at the Municipal Stadium. Highlight of the game was the two homers that the Indians racked up for their win, one by Rod Pelletier and the second by pitcher Jean-Guy Mathieu.

Hurler Mathieu turned in one of the best games seen yet this season as he whiffed 18 men and allowed only one hit. In addition, his homer in the bottom of the eighth frame broke the 1-1 deadlock and won the game for the hosting Redmen.

Rod Pelletier's out-of-the-park four-bagger came in the sixth inning, equalizing the one-run advantage set up by Fuller in the first. It was the first home run this year that has been hit completely out of the park.

Roger Duquette was on the mound for the visitors and turned in a fine game. However, the Indians were just too strong in the hitting and pitching departments and took the fixture on superior skill.

In other Junior League action, Coaticook Canadians posted a 3-0 decision over Brompton Royals in the tilt in Windsor Sunday afternoon. Sunday night in Coaticook, Ruel's squad dropped a close 3-2 decision to the hosting club.

Cleroux Says He Will KO Harris

MONTREAL (CP)—Bob Cleroux, buoyed by two knockouts administered to sparring partners during training Sunday, says he will defeat Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Tex., the same way.

Cleroux, a Montreal battler, and Harris square off Wednesday night in a 10-rounder at DeJorimier Stadium.

The Montrealer knocked out sparring mates Floyd McKay and Larry Renault in three rounds during training Sunday.

He put McKay away in the second round and Renault about a minute after the start of the first.

After the bouts he said he feels he can beat Harris, 10th ranked heavyweight in the United States, with a KO.

Wilf Greaves To Meet Dick Tiger For Empire Title

EDMONTON (CP)—Wilf Greaves of Edmonton and Detroit will meet Dick Tiger of Nigeria here Aug. 26 for the British Empire middleweight boxing title.

Promoter Morris Gunderson announced Sunday night that a 15-round rematch between the two fighters has been arranged.

In their first match here June 22 Greaves took the title from Tiger, who now lives in New York, on a decision.

Six World Records Fall In Swimming Meet Over Weekend In Toledo, Ohio

TOLEDO, Ohio — (AP) — A weekend of record shattering performances that stunned even the most optimistic of the experts has buoyed the United States' Olympic swimming hopes.

Six world records fell during the Amateur Athletic Union men's national outdoor swimming and diving championships, American and meet standards were toppled in all 14 senior swimming events.

"It's unbelievable," said Gus Stager, the youthful University of Michigan coach who will lead the U.S.A. swimmers into Olympic competition in Rome later this summer. "... our country has come along at a truly fantastic pace."

The Olympic swimming team will be selected during trials in Detroit Aug. 2-5.

LARGE ENTRY LIST
Some 350 swimmers and divers competed in the AAU meet at Scott Park pool. The platform diving competition Sunday was moved in Brennen Pools in Detroit, site of the Olympic trials.

Here are the world records set in the AAU meet:

400-metre individual medley, 5:04.5, by Dennis Rounsaville, a junior at the University of Southern California.

200-metre butterfly, 2:13.4, by Mike Troy, 19, from Indiana University.

800-metre freestyle relay, 8:17.0, by the Indianapolis Athletic Club team of Pete Sintz, George Breen, Alan Somers and Troy.

200-metre backstroke, 2:16.0, by Tom Stock, a freshman-to-be at Indiana.

100-metre butterfly, 0:58.7, by Lance Larson, a University of Southern California swimmer.

400-metre medley relay, 4:09.2, by the Indianapolis Athletic Club team of Frank McKinney, Chet Jastremski, Sintz and Troy.

Stock, a recent graduate from Bloomington, Ill., high school, and 23-year-old Jeff Farrell, just muscled out of the navy, were double winners.

In addition to his world record in the 200-metre backstroke Stock won the 100-metre backstroke in American record time. Farrell won the 100 and 200-metre free-styles, setting American records in both.

Indianapolis Athletic Club won the team trophy with 107 points to 72 for runner up Los Angeles A.C. Somers and Larson tied for individual points.

Bob Cunningham, Footballer Turned Golfer, Says Golf Is Much Easier

Bob Cunningham is a big, good-natured chap who studiously avoids arguments.

He leaves his golf game in the locker room, but out on the course he belts the ball with the same authority he used to hit the line in professional football, so he hits the necessary credentials to back up any statement about the two games.

"Football," he says without any ideas of provoking an argument, "is far and away a lot easier to play than golf."

If there are any who wish to argue the point, they should deal with this 225-pounder from Toronto who made quite a name for himself in the Big Four Football league and whose tee shots, usually around 300 yards, are probably the longest in the country.

"Let's look at it this way," the 32-year-old Cunningham said the other day when someone brought up the subject of football versus golf. "If you make a mistake in football, you've got a few chances to make up for it. Make a mistake in golf and you're dead. The ball goes in the hole or it doesn't."

"In football when you carry the ball and miss a hole in the line or there is no hole there you've got two more chances. Number one: you're not going to miss that hole the next time; and number two: you're going to give the lineman hell if he doesn't make a hole for you."

"In football, you'll see a bunch of guys cake-walk when they get three or four touchdowns in front. In golf, the pressure is always on and no one ever gets so far out in front that he can relax.

"There is no such thing as being three putts down and 10 minutes to go. You're a loner out on the course and you never know who's going to come along and catch you."

Cunningham knows what he is talking about. He played senior football with the old Toronto Balm Beach club in the Ontario Rugby Football Union when he was only 17, which must be something of a record in Canada.

He played four years with Montreal Alouettes of the Big Four, 1948 to 1951, and was a terror in the Montreal backfield in 1949 when the Alouettes beat Calgary Stampede 28-15 to win the Grey Cup.

He sat out the 1952 season because of a knee injury, switched to Ottawa Rough Riders for 1953 when he won the Jeff Russell trophy as the outstanding player in the league, a rare honor for a Canadian since imports of Americans started on a large scale in 1950.

He turned to golf as a business in 1954, with a "resounding financial flop," and rejoined the Riders for one season, 1955.

Since then he has concentrated solely on golf. He spends most of his time giving lessons although he did take a fling at the golf trail in the spring of 1959. He tied two course records, a 65 at the Lakeview club in Los Angeles and a 65 over the Wigwam course in Phoenix, Ariz.

Sally Hirsher, Gillingham Win Water Ski Titles

CALEDONIA, Ont. (CP)—Donald Gillingham of St. Catharines, Ont., and Sally Hirsher of Rochester, N.Y., Sunday won the Eastern Canada Water Ski Association open championships.

Gillingham, winner of the senior men's slalom, outpointed David Ott of Port Colborne, Ont., who won the trick event, and Claude DePuis of Lac Ste. Joseph, Que., jump champion.

David Lean of Apsley, Ont., came third in both truck and jump.

Miss Hirsher won the senior women's trick and jump events, and was second to Joan Fydel of Toronto in the slalom. Miss Fydel was second in tricks and third in the jump.

Judy May of Toronto was declared overall champion in the junior girls events while Pat Shearer of Toronto was junior boys champion. Shearer won all his events except tricks in which he was bested by Harold McDonald of Belleville, Ont.

Thirty-Six Men Eliminated In First Round Of Quebec Open Tennis Tourney

MONTREAL (CP)—Thirty-six of 114 entrants in the men's singles of the Quebec open tennis championships were eliminated during the weekend in first-round play.

No seeded players saw action in the first round, intended mainly to whittle down the unwieldy field. The round will be completed today, as will the first round women's singles. There were 32 entries in the women's.

Most of the ranked players are included in today's draw but are expected to breeze through their opposition with little difficulty. The tournament continues until July 31 on the clay courts of the Notre Dame de Grace Club.

Doubles play, with 48 men and eight women's teams participating, also begins Monday.

Top-seeded native players are Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., and Susan Butt of Victoria, B.C., both ranked No. 1 in their classes in Canada.

Meanwhile Bedard warmed up to the open by winning the St. Lawrence Valley championship during the weekend at Trois-Rivieres, Que. He beat second-seeded Francois Godbout of Waterloo, Que., 6-4, 6-4 in the final.

Marion Boudry of Montreal won the St. Lawrence Valley women's singles championship by beating Shirley Harit of Montreal 4-6, 7-5, 6-3. Miss Boudry is seeded third in Canada. Miss Harit is second.

REMEMBER WHEN . . .

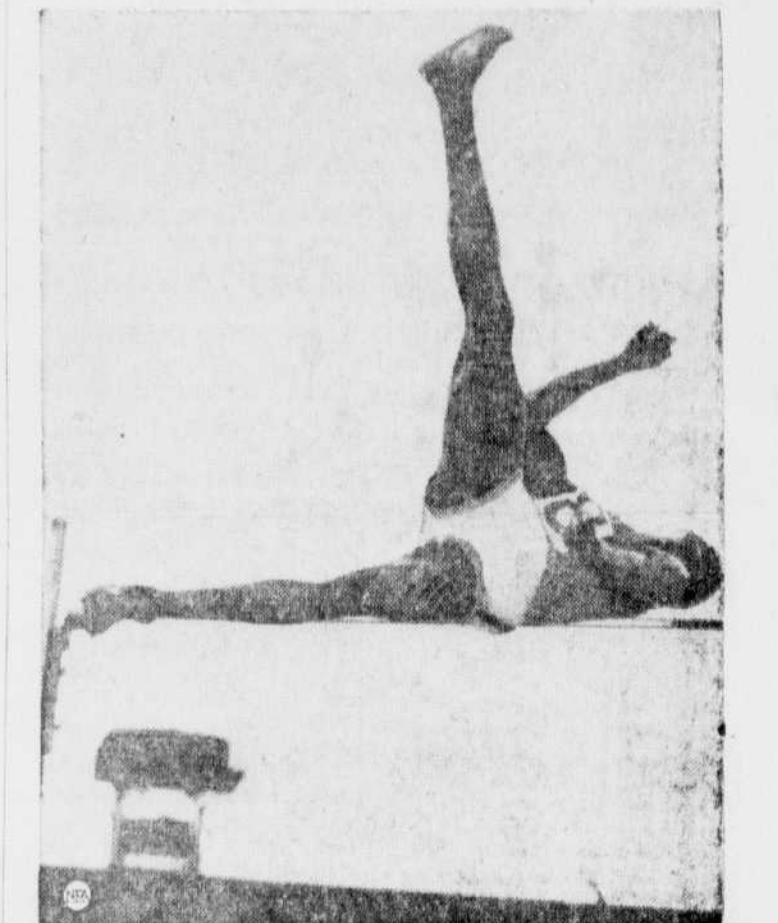

Byron Nelson totalled 269 for 72 holes—19 under par—to win the All-America open golf tournament 15 years ago today. It was the ninth straight tournament victory for Nelson, the All-America event replacing the regular U.S. Open from 1942 to 1945.

A BACKCAST CAN BE DANGEROUS

NEVER MAKE A BACKCAST BEFORE LOOKING FIRST TO SEE IF ANYONE IS BEHIND, OR WITHIN RANGE OF A SWEEPING SIDE-CAST. A FLYING LURE OR RAISED HOOK CAN CAUSE A PAINFUL INJURY, OR THE LOSS OF EYE-SIGHT TO THOSE WHO ARE ACCIDENTALLY SHAGGED. ALWAYS BE EXTREMELY CAREFUL OF OTHERS WHEN CASTING FROM LIMITED CONFINES OF BOATS; BOAT ANGLERS SHOULD MASTER THE OVER-HEAD CAST, BACKHAND CAST, AND SIDE CAST TO USE THE ONE SAFEST AT THE MOMENT.

Barry MacKay Blasts Bernard Bartzen To Win National Clay Courts Title

CHICAGO (AP)—Barry MacKay Sunday blasted his United States Davis Cup teammate Bernard Bartzen 4-6, 7-5, 6-4, 6-0 to win the National Clay Courts tennis championship.

Mrs. Dorothy Head Knobe of Panama City, Panama, took the women's singles title by trimming 19-year-old Gwyn Thomas of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 6-3, 6-3. The top-seeded 24-year-old MacKay overpowered his 32-year-old southpaw opponent by scoring 13 service aces, three of them in a row, during the second set.

In the last set MacKay had four service aces and broke Bartzen's service in the second and fourth games.

HEADED FOR MEXICO

Bartzen was seeing his third straight National Clay Courts title and fourth over-all.

MacKay today headed the U.S. Davis Cup team toward Mexico City.

The four-man squad of MacKay, Bartzen, Chuck McKinley and Earl Buchholz, are to arrive in the Mexican capital tonight.

They will have nearly two weeks to get acclimated to the high altitude before opening the second round of American Zone Davis Cup competition.

The U.S. team trimmed Canada in the first round before arriving at the River Forest Tennis Club here.

The Australian duo of Bob Hewitt and Marty Mulligan captured the doubles championship here Sunday by downing Martin Riessen of Hinsdale, Ill., and Ramsey Earnhart, Ventura, Calif., 6-3, 6-2, 11-13, 6-4.

Fiery Jim Piersall Is Called On Carpet By AL President Joe Cronin

BOSTON (AP) — Fiery Jim Piersall, Cleveland's explosive, high-strung outfielder, has been called on the carpet by American League President Joe Cronin to explain his antics and umpire-baiting tactics.

"Sure I'm going," Jim said Sunday after receiving Cronin's telegram ordering him to the conference in the American League office today. "I've got to go. It's an order."

"I'm just going to speak my mind," Jim said. "I've got a lot to tell him."

Cronin, in an unusual move, also told Piersall to bring his wife, Mary, to the session. But on that angle, Piersall balked.

"That's utterly ridiculous," he snorted. "I'm not going to take her. She's pregnant and not feeling well. She's upset about this whole thing and I'm just not going to do it."

A SOOTHING INFLUENCE

She is regarded by close friends of the family as a soothing influence on Piersall, who once spent some time in the violent room of a suburban Boston hospital.

Piersall, who was fined $100 by Cronin for his actions in Saturday's game with Boston, faces possible drastic disciplinary action. Cronin has the authority to suspend him indefinitely.

"They all think I'm nuts," Piersall said. "I'm just high-strung."

Then he turned to umpires who give the team "a lot of bad calls. They're hurting the team. I wonder if they are doing it to me to get at the team, or if they're doing it to the team to get at me? I wonder what their point is?"

The fine was levied for actions during a violent, red-necked argument between Piersall and umpire Ed Hurley in Saturday's game. Cronin watched it on television.

JIM THUMBED OUT

Jim was thumbed out of that game, along with two other Indians and manager Joe Gordon. Gordon and two others also got the heave during Sunday's doubleheader, for a variety of protests.

Piersall escaped banishment Sunday, but had a part in the proceedings, alternately jeering and chatting with fans, harranging umpires and squatting cross-legged behind the flagpole in centerfield.

He has had a running fight with umpires all season and his antics have been the talk of the league. Cleveland General Manager Frank Lane ordered him to take a rest earlier this season.

Hurley, the object of some of Piersall's taunts, was disgusted with the whole affair.

"I feel like quitting," the umpire said. "They pay that guy $32,500 a year. And how much do I get for taking his abuse?"

Canada To Send 124 To Olympics

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Olympic Association, still searching for $36,000 to meet its budget, will send a total of 124 athletes to Rome for the Olympic games next month.

President Ken Farmer told an association meeting Saturday $36,000 is needed to meet the $211,000 bill for sending the athletes and officials to the games.

Farmer said response to appeals for money had been helpful on the federal, provincial and civic levels but was not as high as was hoped from the general public.

The team leaves Montreal Aug. 17, on a direct flight to Rome.

During the meeting, swimming, weightlifting, rowing, wrestling and fencing representatives all put in spirited bids for increases in their rosters.

After much discussion which was at times heated, a resolution was passed that no additions would be made.

However, the fencing association, which was originally informed it would have no representation in Rome, will send Carl Schwende of Montreal.

Schwende was a medal winner in the last British Empire games and is a frequent Canadian champion.

The association voted to set up a committee to pick a location which can be proposed to the International Olympic Committee as a site for the 1968 Winter Olympic games.
