Convertibility Of Currency Is 'Closer': Abbott

Back from a world conference on money matters that took him to the Antipodes — Canada's Finance Minister Douglas Abbott has told reporters that convertibility of currency is "very much" closer. In fact, he said, the world is closer to it today than at any time since the Second World War.

Steinberg's Move Across The Road

A new Steinberg's store will be erected across the street from the present market on Sherbrooke West at Victoria. This store will be unique in that it will have two entrances. There will be seven cash boxes at the Sherbrooke side and three at the Victoria entrance with checking stands at both. The selling area will be 13,500 feet with a modern freight elevator and endless conveyor belts to handle supplies. It will have 1150 feet of counters, about half as much again as the present store.

The front on Sherbrooke St. over the show-windows will be a massive decorative brick panel enclosed in a granite frame and supported by two stone pillars, capped with flower boxes.

Lighting will be recessed and semi-indirect, which will remove the glaring whiteness of the streamline fluorescent lamps.

The staff rest-room and lockers with other facilities will be on the mezzanine floor. The mechanical equipment will also be located on this floor.

Parking facilities are being enlarged for the convenience of customers.

This new market, with its many modern features and color scheme, will provide the finest shopping facilities in keeping with Westmount traditions, it is reported.

Government curbs, in Britain and other sterling area countries, preventing the free exchange of sterling and dollar currencies, have been one of the major postwar barriers to expansion of world trade.

Mr. Abbott, returning from a world circling air trip, said he could not predict just when the sterling area bloc will lift its curbs. But from what he had seen at the Commonwealth conference at Sydney, Australia, he was "quite optimistic."

Britain and other Commonwealth countries had increased their trade earnings. And they had made progress in building up their vital reserves of dollars and gold.

These developments showed the "wisdom" of Canada's Commonwealth partners in resisting temptations to place a "picket fence" around their trading areas.

One reason why Canada attended the various conferences was that it was of "vital interest" to get her partners away from restrictive trading practices and into the "collective" trading field.

Westmount Police Sergeant Saves Lives Of 2 In Fire

Sgt. Lucien Lauzon, of the Westmount Police Department, was credited with the saving of two lives in a fire that occurred Wednesday at the Charlie Foon Lee Laundry, 364 Victoria avenue.

He not only spotted the blaze and turned in an alarm, but assisted two young Chinamen to escape from the inferno.

The fire began in the rear of the laundry, and quickly spread to another downstairs store and a house upstairs, all owned by D. J. Finlayson, 366 Victoria avenue.

Under direction of Chief W. A. Cobb and Captain E. G. Durocher, the fire was quickly brought under control, despite an explosion which spread the flames throughout the area and gutted the two stores.

Sgt. Lauzon said he was on his way home, waiting for a street car about 2 a.m., when he thought he saw smoke coming from the laundry. He was unable to see it too clearly because of a blizzard, raging at its worst then.

A passing taxi driver confirmed his suspicion, however, and he tried to kick down the outside door. Failing in this, he notified the police and fire departments from a nearby garage.

Returning to the laundry, he managed to open the door and

Rehabilitation Good Investment Dr. Gus Gingras Tells Rotarians

Value of rehabilitation to the community was discussed Wednesday by Dr. Gustave Gingras, medical director of the Rehabilitation Society for Cripples at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club of Westmount.

He said that one of the main problems in dealing with cripples was the difficulty of recognizing disability — when and where did it start? The magnitude of the problem was shown by a rough estimate of 19 per cent — 2 million people, with some type of disability.

There is a considerable cost in carrying these people in welfare work, he stated, even on bare maintenance.

Studies show that to build and operate 100 beds and 300 out-beds, would cost $3 million for five years, he said. But rehabilitating these people would be worth it because of the dual purpose it served — they not only ceased to be wards, but became wage earners.

One of the problems most frequently met was overprotection, he said. Studied quite thoroughly now, it is a product of civilization. One does not find it in the jungles or retarded countries. This can take many forms, and only complete education is the answer, he said.

Dr. Gingras traced the growth of the Rehabilitation Society for Cripples since the time it began four years ago in a small locale at the Viger Hotel. At that time, some $18,000 was spent and 98 patients treated.

Now the staff has greatly increased, there are several specialized departments, and 700 patients have been treated to date this year. In addition, the society has been approved as a training ground. They have even initiated long term plans to train their own new staff.

He said that one of the most important developments is the teamwork that has grown at the Society. Work done in the clinic has brought it forward so that it is working as a unit, and everyone realizes that rehabilitation is a job that cannot be taken on alone.

J. J. Kingan Speaks To NOMA Members

J. J. Kingan, general manager of the Canadian Marconi Co., will be the guest speaker at the next meeting of the Montreal chapter of the National Office Management Association. It will be held in the Spanish Room of the Queen's Hotel at 6:15 p.m. Monday, Feb. 8.

Born in England, Mr. Kingan came to Canada at an early age, and is by training an engineer. In his earliest days with Canadian Marconi he installed and operated the wireless equipment of that day on ships.

Public Speaking More Important C. Kennedy Says

Public speaking is becoming more and more important in the world of today, some 60 members of the Westmount High School Current Events Club were told at their weekly meeting Tuesday by a former student there, Charles Kennedy of the Montreal Board of Trade.

Advising the club in the art of public speaking, he said that few decisions concerning the country, the province, or the city are reached without the knowledge of the people, and they are usually informed by public speech.

"There is a great need for people who are able to tell others logically and concisely just what is in their minds," he said.

Mr. Kennedy said that he realized that it is difficult to get up and speak in front of people, but that it is easier every time out.

The introduction is the most important part of any speech, he said. The speaker must introduce himself and his subject, but he must avoid a long, windy pre-amble.

"There are three types of introductions which are effective. The first is the 'snap introduction', which simply tells the audience who the speaker is and what he is talking about. Then there is the humorous introduction, which is excellent if it can be done properly. This introduction, however, should not be attempted unless the speaker is sure it will be successful. The third and perhaps the strongest introduction of all, which most easily breaks down the formidable barrier between the orator and his audience, is the 'gimmick' opening. That is, the introduction of something unusual which will immediately attract the attention of the audience to the speaker."

The body of a speech should be interesting. Mr. Kennedy advocated the use of subtle humor to hold the attention of the audience.

He digressed slightly and gave the members some of the "Do's" and "Don't's" of public speaking. He said that a speaker's appearance should always be neat, and he should endeavor to keep the audience's attention focussed on his face, and thus on his speech.

On the other side of the scale, however, Mr. Kennedy reminded his audience that they should not keep changing their positions while talking, and to avoid using too many violent gestures. He told the students that a good speaker is distinguishable from a poor one by his ability to hide his nervousness.

In conclusion, Mr. Kennedy told the Club members never to say "in conclusion" and then continue their speech for another 20 minutes. To illustrate his point, he summed up his talk, and "in conclusion" said that the main thing a speaker should remember is to "Stand up! Speak up! Shut up!"

Rose Rochman thanked Mr. Kennedy for his address.

The chairman, Margie Klein, reminded the club members that next week six fellow-students would speak on current aspects of Canadian government.

Irving P. Rexford Spoke To Rotary

Rotary, its aims and ideals was the subject of a talk by Irving P. Rexford, president of the Crown Trust Co. given at the weekly luncheon of the Westward Rotary Club, on the occasion of their 14th anniversary.

"You are looking back over the last short 14 years," he said, "and naturally you are looking forward with great hopes and expectations."

Rotary, he explained, is the greatest organization of its kind in the world, and has nearly 400,000 members in 4,000 clubs, spread throughout 80 countries.

It was founded in Chicago by Paul Harris 49 years ago, and the International Convention of Rotarians will be held there next year, at which time the new building for Rotary headquarters and its secretarial work will officially be opened.

In speaking of the Ideal of Service, he noted that it is as old as human thought.

"Whatever may be the differences between religious and philosophical doctrines and theories, all agree that sacrifice of the self to the neighbor is an obligation of ethics and so of conduct in all the departments of life," he said.

Pioneer Canadian Broadcaster Vic George Goes To The U.K.

J. J. Kingan, General Manager of Canadian Marconi Company, Montreal, has announced the appointment of W. V. (Vic) George, Broadcasting and Public Relations Manager, to the position of United Kingdom Representative for the Company. Mr. George expects to leave for England toward the end of February and will establish an office in London.

The chief function of the new appointment is to facilitate the interchange of commercial and technical information between the two countries, particularly between Canada Marconi and the English Electric group, which includes Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company, Marconi International Marine Communications Company, Marconi Instruments Limited, and others. English Electric recently purchased a controlling interest in the Canadian Marconi organization.

Mr. George is no stranger to Britain. During the war, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, he organized and commanded the Canadian Army Show, and for two years worked from London as Officer-in-Charge of Entertainment of the Canadian Army Overseas.

He is one of the pioneers of Canadian radio, having entered the field in 1924 in Ottawa, where he was born. He staged and participated in the first transatlantic and transcontinental commercial broadcasts and introduced techniques, new at that time, which are now common practice in the industry. He joined Canadian Marconi in 1931, as manager of radio station CFCF. Of recent years he has been keenly interested in television, and has produced several televised demonstration broadcasts including the telecasting of a surgical operation at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. George has long been active in many civic and welfare groups. He is a director of the Better Business Bureau, a governor of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, a member of the advisory board of the Church of St. James the Apostle, and a member of the Canadian Film Awards panel of judges. He has also played an active part in the Red Cross.

He expects to be in the United Kingdom for several years, but will return at regular intervals throughout his stay there. Mrs. George will follow him to England in late summer or early fall.

Westmount High Thesians Plan Berkeley Square

"Isn't she supposed to walk off the stage now?" "He didn't sit then!" "What shall I do with my hands?"

If you look carefully enough, and if you are good at deciphering, you will see that in the background a play is developing, and these words could only come from an actor or actress striving hard for perfection.

Westmount High is presenting "Berkeley Square" (pronounced Barkley) by John Bulderston. It is the story of a young man in the 20th Century, who reads so much about, and becomes so engrossed with the lives of his ancestors back in the 18th century, that he is actually transported into that time.

What happens thereafter will be disclosed on the nights of March 10, 11, and 12 at the Senior High.

This complex hero is portrayed by John Seely with co-heroines and sisters Ilene Riddell and Nedra Salmon.

There is an intriguing love story, promoted by the sisters' mother Lady Ann Pettigrew, very well portrayed by Joan Fish. When we peek behind the scenes, however, and into the first week of real, strenuous rehearsals, love's definition is something turned away, and the song "Life upon the Wicked Stage Ain't Nothing What a Girl Supposes" becomes a reality. This work, believe it or not, is rewarding and all past quarrels and spots which occurred during rehearsals are forgotten on opening night.

F. R. ROAST was appointed sales office manager, paper division, Continental Can Company of Canada Limited, according to A. G. Bennett, general manager of the division. Mr. Roast will take up his new duties commencing February 15th and make his headquarters in New Toronto. Mr. Roast joined Continental in 1944 and has held various executive positions since that time.

A detailed prompt book is kept by Phyllis Allen, and John Lohead the assistant directors.

Under the patient and excellent directing of Miss King, the actors and actresses do their best.

$19,000 Raised Calvary Reports

Some $19,000 was raised for the local work of the congregation of Calvary United Church, according to church treasurer L. H. Corbett. The report was presented recently at the 77th annual business meeting, held under the chairmanship of Rev. Walter J. Spence, B.A.

Missionary, maintenance and nevolent funds were given a total of $5,287, according to treasurer A. H. Modler.

The secretarial report of the year's work was presented, and showed a year of great activity and work well-done, under the inspired and consecrated leadership of the Rev. Walter J. Spence. During the year a memorial window was unveiled to the late Very Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones.

The reports given by the elders, stewards, trustees and all major organizations indicated a very encouraging outlook for that year: The Women's Missionary Auxiliary reported they had raised $896, exceeding their allocation. The Elizabeth Read Auxiliary raised $335, which included Mission Band and C.G.I.T. The Women's Association reported a total of $1,750 for the year. Other organizations reporting included the Sunday School, Young Adult Group, Business Women's Club and Men's Club.

Officers for 1954 include: treasurer, L. H. Corbett; missionary and maintenance treasurer, Albert H. Modler; clerk of session, E. M. Roberts; chairman of Stewards, Arthur J. West; chairman of Trustees, J. D. Ross; chairman of music committee, F. N. Stephen; president of W.M.S., Mrs. E. M. Sisson; president of Elizabeth Read Auxiliary, Mrs. Bruce T. MacRae; president of W.A., Mrs. A. E. Robinson; junior W. A., Mrs. K. Munro; choir, H. S. Laws; young adult group, G. A. Ducross; business women's club, Miss Isabel Shephard; men's club, John P. Rivard.

EVERYONE IS CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND

Mrs. A. T. Stikeman Buried Tues., Prominent In Community Life Here

Final tribute was paid Tuesday to Mrs. A. T. Stikeman, of 4250 Sherbrooke street west, a leading figure in municipal and provincial chapters of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. She died here Saturday after an illness of several months at the age of 63.

A devoted social worker, Mrs. Stikeman had also served as president of the Montreal branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals since 1949.

She first joined the I.O.D.E. as municipal secretary in 1931 and in 1938 became municipal regent, a position she held for eight years. In 1946 she was elected provincial president and remained at the head of the provincial chapter until 1949. She also served in the capacity of councillor for the national chapter.

In recognition of her efforts she was presented with life memberships in both the provincial chapter and municipal chapter.

Her devotion to public welfare found expression in the aid which she gave to numerous groups. She broadcast an appeal for funds for the Welfare Federation; she served as general chairman of the 1951 Animal Shelter Fund by the C.S.P.C.A., and was general convener of the I.O.D.E. tag day in 1941.

Tribute was paid her in an editorial by the Montreal Star:

"It was however for her indefatigable work for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals that Mrs. Stikeman was best known in Montreal. For years she was a driving force in the organization. Her encouragement and tireless efforts were often badly needed when the future of the Society looked dark enough. Inadequate payment by the city for the important work done in the collection and disposal of stray animals and — for a good many years — discouraging indifference on the part of the public made the work of the Society hard and its outlook uncertain. Happily Mrs. Stikeman lived to see better days ahead. She will be missed, and remembered in many a good work to which she gave herself for so long."

In 1935 she received the Coronation Medal from King George VI. The former Isobel Dorothy Robertson, she was born in Montreal, the only daughter of Andrew Scott Robertson and the former Annie McIndoe.

She attended Montreal High School and Macdonald College following which she taught kindergarten classes in several Montreal schools until she married Alfred Thomas Stikeman in 1921.

During the First World War she served with the Canadian Patriotic Fund and in the Y.M.C.A. Canteen. She was also connected with the Canadian Association of Consumers and was a member of the Canadian Club and the Ladies' Morning Musical Club.

She had been a member of the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul all of her life.

She is survived by her husband, A. brother, Norman H. Robertson, was killed in 1915.

Service was from the Church of St. Andrew and St. Paul.

The Cock and the Jewel

A COCK, scratching the ground for something to eat, turned up a Jewel that had by chance been dropped there. "Hol!" said he, "a fine thing you are, no doubt, and, had your owner found you, great would his joy have been. But for me! give me a single grain of corn before all the jewels in the world."

The Boy Scouts' Appeal

Adult Interest, Financial Aid Needed Now By Movement

The annual appeal for funds of the Boy Scouts Association in Montreal started this week and will continue until Feb. 13.

It is well that the public should know that the adult individuals who manifest an interest in the Boy Scouts and give the movement leadership, locally and nationally, are making a contribution to the development of good citizenship.

They are doing this without hope of reward except that which comes from a realization that they are helping boys to adopt courses of conduct that will make good men of them. But they must also have the financial support of the public to do this work.

Men prominent in public affairs everywhere have spoken of the Boy Scout movement as one of the finest influences on juvenile character in the world. The strange thing is that, where its objects are so wholesome and where its effects are so immediate and general, more parents are not personally interested in its work and give it more personal encouragement.

The ideals of loyalty, comradeship and good citizenship so simply but so well taught by Baden-Powell's code are indispensable.

Someone once said: "Baden-Powell's idea of the Scout good turn has made an incalculable contribution to neighborliness . . ."

The Scout Movement is playing its essential role to a fuller degree than at any time in its nearly 50 years of existence and it is deserving of the fullest interest and support in every city, town and village where the familiar uniform is seen.

The Boy Scout movement is one that is truly world-wide in character, embracing every continent and 57 countries. Throughout the world today there are a total of 7,750,000 boys and girls enrolled in this, the greatest youth movement in the world, in Wolf Cubs, Boy Scouts, Rover Scouts and Girl Guides groups.

In Canada, there are 154,000 boys enrolled in the movement.

In the west end of Montreal alone, there are 1,250 boys and 85 leaders.

This is an organization doing a work of tremendous importance and one that deserves and must receive the full support of the public.

Rev. B. B. Brown, wife Given Bermuda Trip

A large number of the members attended the annual congregational meeting of St. James United Church when reports from the many church organizations were submitted and enthusiastically received and approved. John Smiley, Clerk of the Session, reported that many new members had been added to the roll during 1953. There have been many important developments including the well attended St. James night gatherings (every Wednesday). There have been many visitors. On one Sunday visitors representing at least 16 outside points signed the visitors register, sometimes called the 'Book of Friendly Remembrance'. A generous sum was allotted for missions in Canada and elsewhere.

The members of the church extended a call to Rev. Norman Rawson of Hamilton, president of the Hamilton Conference, to become general minister at St. James. Silver medals, commemorating the 150th anniversary of the church were presented to several of the members who have for many years loyally served and attended to the important church work. A very pleasant feature of the evening was a surprise gift of a holiday in Bermuda by air and including best accommodations while in that beautiful summerland, to the devoted and loved interim minister, Rev. B. B. Brown and Mrs. Brown, who at all times supported him and her church. Mr. Brown, taken completely by surprise and much moved, thanked friends, after which all retired to the Ladies Parlours where refreshments were served and a very friendly get-together was continued until a late hour.

Success soon falls. The joyous time is when the breeze first strikes your sails, and the waters rustle under your bows. — Charles Buxton.

The programme included Israeli songs and dances. A treat of fruit was provided by the Parent-Teachers' Association. Pupils of the Hebrew-Religious School viewed films strips about the Festival and were taught special Israeli songs for the occasion. Due to their successful efforts 143 trees were planted by pupils of the school in the Rabbi Herman Abramowitz Memorial Forest. This was the largest number of trees ever planted in one year.

MacRae Wins Title, Bye Beating NDG Regents 4-0

The fight for the Dr. Rondeau Trophy begins this Saturday afternoon at the St. Laurent Arena with the opening playoff game in the St. Laurent Intermediate Hockey League schedule between the N.D.G. Regents and Royal Pharmacy, the winner to meet the Westmount MacRae Electric, who get a bye into the finals.

In last week's action, MacRae Electric copped the league championship once more by trouncing the N.D.G. Regents 4-0, while in the second game, Royal Pharmacy held off the St. Laurent Laurels long enough to squeeze a 5-4 victory to tie the Regents for second place.

The Regents and the Druggists now battle in a best of three semifinal series with the winners meeting Westmount MacRae Electric in another best of three series for the Dr. Rondeau Trophy. MacRae Electric are the current holders.

Bussiere Top Scorer

Don Bussiere, in his first year in the league, took the individual scoring championship in a close race with Jimmy Campbell, also in his first year. Bussiere, who plays for Royal Pharmacy, collected 14 goals and 10 assists for 24 points, while the Regent's Campbell notched 12 tallies and assisted on eight others for 20 points. Jimmy Slater, president of the loop, announced that plans are all set for the play-offs and that the Westmount squad will keep their aim sharpened during the semifinals by playing exhibition games.

Three-goal Spurge

In last week's opening game, a four goal spurge in the third period game MacRae Electric their third straight league championship. Up to the mid-point in the final canto, both teams fought without a score. The first goal proved the upset for the Regents, after which the Electricians coasted to their white wash victory over the Regents.

In the second game the St. Laurent Laurels almost tied up the game, but lost out to the clock in their battle with Royal Pharmacy. However, it did allow Bussiere to collect one goal and two assists to lead the individual scoring race. The Laurels are to be given credit for their showing despite the fact that they were no longer in the race for a play-off berth and had nothing to gain or lose in the game.

Starting time for this week's action is set for 2.00 p.m. at the St. Laurent Arena.

found one of the two Chinamen sleeping there. Sgt. Lauzon picked him up and turned him over to a passing resident, George Apostolatos.

With sign language, the scantily-clad inmate had been able to tell Sgt. Lauzon there was another man inside, and he entered the building to search for him. Not being able to find the basement stairway, he hollared a warning to get out of the building.

Captain Durocher then arrived with the fire department, and both were searching inside when a back draft forced them out. They later found the second man near the back of the laundry.

The Finlaysons, who occupied the upstairs, all got out safely. Police took the other two men to the station.

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 5th — Daily it appears more certain the British Broadcasting Corporation will follow Canada's lead and permit commercialization of TV programs. The BBC's current policy caters too much to the intelligentsia and ignores the basic fact that TV is essentially a medium of mass communication. There's a happy meeting ground but the BBC seems not yet to have found it.

Criticism of the BBC has been mounting in recent months. One press observer wrote: "As usual the BBC is off to a flying stop!"

Whether this be a little extreme or no, there are many who had hoped the BBC would influence American video more than vice versa. As it is, the best network show on the American air today is Omnibus, presided over by the BBC's Alistair Cooke. But such a program, bringing the finest in ballet, drama, and excursions into various realms of thought and controversy, would be impossible without the financial backing of four sponsors who split its costs.

With proper control, the BBC may find its horizons actually broadened and its capabilities increased by sponsorship of some of its shows.

TICKETAPE — Gary Cooper, who has spent the greater part of his time outside the States the past two years, will do "Don Quixote" in Spain starting next month . . . Fletcher Markle, the Canadian radio and TV producer who once deserted Hollywood in a cloud of rhetoric, has returned and will make his home here . . . Forthcoming on Columbia Records is a release of Doris Day doing the 23rd Psalm . . . While Bing Crosby is selling most of his television interests, Bob Hope has finally received government okay on his purchase of a channel in Denver. Crosby tells me he has no film plans after "The Country Girl," which goes before the cameras in March, and he'd like to spend at least six months each year traveling. On his distant future book is a plan to take an apartment in Montreal or Vancouver and spend half a year in Canada.

Professor Henri Chretien, inventor of Cinemascope, stands to make as little as $15,000 through sale of his rights to 20th Century-Fox . . . While Montreal's Reuben Ship was deported from the United States as an "undesirable alien" he has reportedly been reinstated as a member in good standing in the Screen Actors Guild. Ship was accused of being a Communist Party member by the House Un-American Activities Committee before which he refused to testify . . . Richard Burton's remark in a recent interview concerning the British actor's regard for Hollywood: "Yes, I've been in Hollywood a year and enjoyed every dollar of it."

FINALE — Maude Adams, whose Peter Pan is remembered as a theatrical classic though she retired from the stage many years before her death last July, will not soon be forgotten. Show business is at once a sentimental and a crassly commercial industry, but the former side took the spotlight in a recent full page ad in a theatrical trade journal. Beside a photo of Miss Adams was this verse, author unknown: "All I know is that she can perfectly bewitch a man; How it is, or what her art Never troubled my fond heart."

As it questionless in trust Lay before her in the dust, All I know is there in line Waits this jostled heart of mine."

Fine tribute to an artist who, at 81 years of age, still cast an inspirational spell. Show business could use more such personalities today.

George Raft To Handle Puerto Rico Gambling

Hollywood, Feb. 4.—George Raft flew to Puerto Rico last Tuesday to look over the New Normandy Hotel with an eye to investing in or operating its casino. Gambling is legal in this U.S. commonwealth. He would run opposition to the Caribe-Hilton, who has had no real gaming room opposition for the past two years.

If and when Raft goes through with this deal he plans to book name floor shows as a lure for the tourists and in opposition to the Caribe-Hilton.

Eddie Cantor Has Daughter Marilyn On TV With Him

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 4. — Eddie Cantor, beloved and well remembered for his outstanding musical comedies produced by Samuel Goldwyn and released by United Artists some years back, — and later on the radio, with hardly a program going on the air that he didn't make some reference to his family, can now bring his daughter Marilyn Cantor who opened an engagement yesterday at the El Rancho Vegas, Las Vegas, more than even to the fore as she appeared last Sunday with her father on the "Colgate Comedy Hour," NBC-TV.

A New Star Is Born

Laurence Harvey At Kent 2nd Week

Handsome South African in "Innocents in Paris"

Very much in demand these days is the new British film star, tall dark, attractive 21-year-old South African Laurence Harvey. While appearing at the Stratford Shakespeare Memorial Theatre where he has acquired such an outstanding reputation, Laurence Harvey was offered a starring role in the Anatole de Grunwald comedy hit "Innocents in Paris" which is being held over a Second week at the Kent Theatre.

Normally it would have been a difficult decision to make, for acceptance meant that he had to travel each day to and from Elstree; but the tribute to his success in being asked to star in a production which has one of the greatest casts of any British film ever made, offset any inconvenience. It was a wise choice, for the part enables him to demonstrate that he is able to hold his own even when starring in the same film as Alastair Sim, Ronald Shiner, Margaret Rutherford, Claire Bloom, Claude Dauphin and Jimmy Edwards.

Queen Elizabeth Hospital WA Tells What Goes On Behind The Scenes

Most people think of a hospital as a place where you go when expert surgical or medical attention is needed, where babies are born, and operations performed. Few are aware that behind the scenes an endless series of activities have to be carried on to make this hospital service possible. Internes learn hospital routine and are instructed by senior members of the staff; nurses have to be trained; laboratory technicians are at work; records have to be kept for every patient admitted; a house staff has to keep every corner of the building spotless clean; thousands of pieces of laundry have to be handled every day; a staff is employed to keep the building at a constant and comfortable temperature; electricians must be on hand to service the lights and appliances, and see that even if the power goes off the emergency equipment is ready to function, and there are no delays either in operation rooms or other parts of the building.

Running a hospital is a complicated business, calling for trustworthy and efficient help, constant service both day and night, and the supply and care of all those marvels of science which go to make up the equipment in every modern hospital.

And this is not done without heavy expense, and a lot of voluntary work, such as that carried on by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Queen Elizabeth Hospital. This organization supplies workers for the out-patient department from their service group, re-decorates and re-furnishes rooms, visits the sick, and supplies new equipment for the nursery, and for other parts of the hospital.

On Saturday, February 13, this auxiliary will hold its annual dinner and dance in the ballroom of the Sheraton Mount Royal Hotel to help to raise funds for its numerous activities. For sixty years this organization has been continuously active, ever since the hospital first opened its doors in 1894. And so this will be the Diamond Jubilee Dinner and Dance of the Woman's Auxiliary. We hope that many of our readers will come to their support and join in the fun. This annual event has been known for many years as one of the most enjoyable functions of the winter season in Montreal; and not only will you have a good time, but you will have the satisfaction of supporting one of the most important and necessary assets of our local community and city. Tickets may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. C. N. Knowles, ticket convener, at EL. 4617.

Scouting Projects Aired At Meeting Of Aux. Executive

The Executive Board of Ladies Auxiliaries of the Metropolitan District met on Thursday, January 28, at Scout Headquarters, Bishop Street.

Plans were discussed for the Spring Conference on March 31, with details to follow. An urgent appeal was made for any unused or repairable furniture to be placed in the three empty cottages in the Cub Camp, one to be occupied by a doctor.

A short talk by Mrs. M. C. McQuiggan, organizer for the Ladies Division of the Scout Financial Campaign outlined the part they would contribute in supporting this fine effort.

Continuing in the same vein, Mr. Earle T. Moore, president of the Montreal region, spoke earnestly on the necessity for a successful campaign, mentioning a 10% increase in Scouting each year, with more financial aid needed in the maintenance of both the Cub and Scout Camps; replacement of articles in use; increase in taxes, and the training of a competent staff to do missionary work in outlying districts. As a further illustration, Mr. Moore observed that during Brig.-Gen. Spry's appointment as Chief Executive Commissioner, Scouting grew from 95,000 to 150,000.

Mr. Charles Downey, Assistant-District Rover Commissioner, spoke on his work with handicapped boys at the Julius Richardson Hospital, describing it as a mixture of Cubbing and Scouting, in a careful, mild way, as they are all convalescents, but ready and eager to learn.

Mrs. A. E. Anderson, president of the group, was in the chair and tea hostesses were Lord Alexander and Willingdon Auxiliaries.

Three Weeks Touring In Beautiful Bermuda

The sort of weather that the citizens of Montreal have been experiencing the past month or so, has made a large number of people think about having a winter holiday in a warmer and more equable climate. Tobin's Travel Bureau have arranged a very interesting three weeks' all expense party to Bermuda via New York (with four day's cruise on the Queen of Bermuda, and eleven days in that beautiful island).

The party will stay at the luxurious Hotel Bermudiana, which is famous for its lovely setting, its fine food and its accommodations. The tour will leave here on Thursday morning, March 25, by rail to New York, having two days at the Hotel Roosevelt and embarking on the S.S. Queen of Bermuda on Saturday afternoon. The stay in Bermuda will be made even more interesting by several sightseeing tours and visits to other parts of the island.

It will be the season for the famous Easter Lillies, and also a riot of color of the other blossoms, the hibiscus, the oleanders, the prickly pear and orange. They should all be at their best then. The party will be accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Pope.

As the party will be limited as to numbers, it is necessary to make your reservations at once. Any further information may be had by phoning Tobin's Travel Bureau, 1240 Peel Street.

Vitamin C In Fruits Is Help In Fighting Colds

WINTER COLDS TAKE A BEATING when youngsters are fortified with juices. These youngsters have theirs after school.

One of the safest and sanest things that everyone can do every day to keep the system toned for colder, changeable weather, and to prevent winter colds is to get an adequate amount of vitamin C daily.

Citrus fruits, the best natural source of this vitamin, are right at their peak now. They represent one of the cheapest and most pleasant ways to good health and adequate vitamin C.

This year's crop of oranges, grapefruit and tangerines is setting a record. Right now you can find plenty of the handy, little zipper-skin tangerines. Grandma called them "punkin' oranges." They're ideal for lunch box use.

The big juice oranges most plentiful this month are the Pineapple variety, and you're sure to get at least a quart of juice from every five pounds of these oranges. Easy to ream, it's a good idea to juice a dozen or more and keep the juice covered in a container in the refrigerator for mid-day snacks. There are good supplies of Temple oranges, too, this year. They are the ones that peel easily like tangerines.

The Florida grapefruit crop alone is a whopping 37,000,000 boxes. You can buy either the white or pink fruit.

The seeded grapefruit is probably the least costly, and you needn't fear the chore of fixing it. When serving halves, take a sharp knife and cut around all the seeds in one motion, removing a cone-shaped piece from the center of the half, core and seeds all at once.

This leaves a small cavity which you can garnish with cranberry sauce, grapes or cherries, if you wish. Grapefruit halves cold or hot, are wonderful first courses, and with the emphasis on low-calorie diets, they're getting more and more attention as desserts.

B and P Women's Club Hears German Consul

Private enterprise and free competition are the best guarantees for sound and prosperous economic conditions in Germany as well as in Canada, Dr. A. Reifferscheidt, Consul General for the Federal Republic of Germany told the Business and Professional Women's Club at a tea causerie recently.

The monetary reform put into effect in June, 1948, was the most decisive event in the postwar history of Germany, he said. This measure ended inflation and created a money with real purchasing power. Then began the development of economic reconstruction and recovery that has been called, "The German Miracle."

The consul said that Dr. Konrad Adenauer is not only a good German but a good European. He wants most to secure an everlasting and genuine friendship between France and Germany. He believes that all free European countries must stand together against the common enemy, World Communism.

Dr. Reifferscheidt took his Doctor's degree in law and political and economic science at the Universities of Berlin and Cologne and entered the service of the Federal Republic of Germany two years ago.

Blizzard Stops Mosquito Play, Whites Still Lead Pee Wee A

There was no action in the Westmount Municipal league Saturday due to the blizzard. Next Saturday will see the final scheduled games run off, and the play-offs will get under way Feb. 13. Queen's Knights trimmed Unity Boys Club 4-1 to move up to a tie for second place in the Pee Wee A loop. Bobby Gaylor was the big gun with 2 goals; Bob Coyne and Bob Eby notched 1 each; Frank Robinson scored the Unity marker.

Westmount Junior High Whites, the only unbeaten squad in the "A" circuit, swamped the hapless Guards 8-1. Ray Lawson and Eric Peterson were best for the Whites, picking up 3 scoring points each. Bobby McLean scored for Guards.

St. Leo's Best
Mike Lunny's St. Leo's crew are still showing the way in the bantam league. Johnny Farrell and Pierre Meyer combined their talents to edge Junior High Panthers 3-1 in a four point game. George Christie spoiled Dick Robinson's shutout attempt as he finished off a nice play set up by Chuck White.

The hitherto unbeaten Bulldogs came to grief on Monday as Ken Hill's hard-working Beavers beat them 3-2. Most of the credit for this win should go to Bobby Dorken, a real eager beaver. Bob scored one goal and gave it everything he had as he repeatedly broke up the Bulldogs' plays. John Wynn and Hugh Palmer helped the cause by scoring one each. Jim Fryer was best for the Bulldogs, counting both their goals.

Tigers eked out a 2-0 win over Cougars in the other bantam encounter this week. Larry Pascal and Cameron Grout were the goal-getters. Capable Ron Steltzer ruled with an iron hand as he handed out 11 penalties, including a misconduct.

Rovers Win Ninth
Coach Basil Stark's invincible Rovers won their ninth consecutive game 2-1 despite a determined bid by the Huskies under the guidance of Morley Oke, in midget A play. The Huskies were an inspired squad as coach Oke unveiled new strategy. He also took the blanket off Paul Hamilton who played a bang-up game. Bryn Wakely opened the scoring early in the game as he knocked home a pass from Art Scott. Scott put the winner in late in the third, on a play laid down by Wakely. Paul Hamilton scored the Huskies' lone tally assisted by Eddie Flegg.

Kev. Dunnigan scored a hat trick as Academites dumped Lions 4-2. Pierre Carriere counted twice for the Lions.

In midget B action, Millionaires, led by Bobby Anderson and Bobby Robinson, blanked the Purples 6-0. Bud Selby injected some fire in his squad as they won two in a row over Unity Boys Club. Ken Lyon was the hero Monday as he broke up a 2-2 game by blasting home his second goal of the night after two minutes of sudden death overtime. Howard Hickey scored both Unity goals. Freddie Simms, the youthful Unity netminder, drew raves from the railbirds as he stopped the Purples cold time after time. Fred is only 13 years of age and has been playing in midget company for two seasons.

Millionaires Take Lead
Weredale Braves and Millionaires opened a best of seven playoff series Saturday at Westmount Park. Braves took an early lead on a pair of goals by Butch Miller. Millionaires couldn't cope with the back-checking Braves and not until late in the second period when George Robillard scored did they come to life.

Hard-working Dick Christensen made it a new game as he banged home Robillard's pass to even it up. With less than a minute to play, Christensen cradled the rubber at his own end and his solo dash ended with the puck behind the bewildered Jimmy Collins. Assistant coach George Todd standing in for Bill Biddulph, was well pleased by the Braves' showing.

Seven Straight For Unity Boys
With southpaw Dave Barnard turning in his most scintillating game of the season to spark the victors, Unity Boys Club made it seven wins in a row in intermediate Montreal Basketball League play Saturday night when they hammered out a 67-43 triumph over Immaculate Conception. The one-sided fixture was reeled off on the IC's home Papineau avenue court.

Barnard, stealing the ball from right under the proboscis of the amazed Conception club on several occasions, shook himself loose often enough to pot 20 points.

Dick McGrail, who, like Barnard, toils in the Snowdon Fastball League during the warmer months, wasn't far behind with 16 points while George Cochrane was number three man on the scoring totem pole with nine points.

Wilkins and Ditner led the losers in the point-getting realm with 11 points apiece.

Unity led 18-10 at quarter time, increased the margin to 30-19 by half-time. The IC brigade rallied at the start of the third stanza to reduce Presho's Phellows lead to a scant three points but then the Unity larrigans went on a scoring spree that lasted right up until the last minute of the ball game.

Unity Bantams Beat Kinsmen At New Club

In a regular M.B.B.L. scheduled game Unity's bantam cagers defeated Kinsmen 32-11. This game was played at the new Point St. Charles Boys' Club.

Coach Bob Byford's midget team edged Point St. Charles 24-22 and Pat Baker's junior ladies team lost another close one to Y.W.H.A. 41-36.

In an exhibition game with the R.M.R.'s of the Services League Unity's intermediate squad easily beat the soldiers 65-36.

Juveniles Play Point

Unity's juveniles will play host to the Point St. Charles team tonight with the game scheduled to start at 7 p.m. If plans materialize a doubleheader will take place with the intermediates meeting some strong team in an exhibition game

WESTMOUNT BARBECUE ENTERTAINS: Currently tied for the junior C hockey lead, Westmount Barbecue Millionaires take their rewards from sponsor Marc Legeault, owner of the new chicken house. Westmount Barbecue Split Two Matches, Take Four Points

With only one game left to play, a postponed clash against Notre Dame des Neiges, Westmount Barbecue Millionaires still are unsure of their ultimate position in junior C play. This week Snowdon and Notre Dame will battle their way through a three game series.

During the past week, the Barbecue boys picked up four of six points, leaving them tied with Snowdon for the league lead. They kept their scoreless streak on Snowdon ice intact losing 3-0, then walloped Trenholme 6-0.

Their three game win streak was snapped Sunday, when Snowdon showed an edge all the way to win. In a rough contest, the locals were slowed down considerably. Snowdon drew three penalties, Westmount two. Jerry Apostolatos and Ritchie Bell were the occupants of the sin bin.

Both Goalies Good

Both goalies turned in fine efforts, and Alex Gilbert of Snowdon stopped 16 shots in turning in his second shutout of the season. Bob Robertson handled 35.

The first period was scoreless, and Dave Mott opened up for Snowdon midway through the second, followed four minutes later by Peter Mitchell. Ian Moore notched the lone tally in the final canto.

● WESTMOUNT WANDERINGS: The end of the line seems to have arrived for Westmount school teams, while for the city squads it's just starting. At the Senior High, coach Ross Firth's senior B hockey squad dropped their third game and are all but mathematically eliminated. Chambly County, chalking up their fourth win with only one draw marring their record, are winging away, while St. Thomas and St. Leo's still have a chance with unbeaten teams. Andy McGillis' crew is the only school squad that still has a good chance left for an interscholastic title.

In junior B basketball, not unexpectedly, coach Ron Sharp's team is waging a battle with Lachine for the cellar. Currently they are losing as Lachine has lost one more game, but their last was 69-53 to Mount Royal, powerhouse of the league. The Purple and White might make that bottom after all.

Westmount Junior's Red team is right behind Mount Royal in the bantam section, along with Westward and LCC. But Mount Royal has faced all the tough opposition and seems to be home free now. Baron Byng was the only other team rated a chance to upset them, and the Byngers didn't. The White squad is still hunting its first victory.

City teams are doing very well, though. MacRae Electric snapped out of a slump to end up in top spot of the St. Laurent Intermediate hockey league, and win a bye into the final against the winner of the Royal Pharmacy-NDG Regents series. Westmount Barbecue Millionaires, though erratic, are tied for top spot in City of Montreal junior C play and stand a good chance of ending there, then taking the loop title.

In basketball, Unity Boys Club ran through an undefeated season, winning eight straight, and getting stronger every time out. Dow Brewers, not as successful in senior B MBL play, are in the playoffs and have the potential to knock off the top-running Giants and MAAA. They have a lot of good boys, a lot of experience, and if they all get hot at the same time there is not enough marked superiority by any team to show that the Brewers can't upset them.

● SPORTS PROFILE: He's still a student at Westmount Junior High School, but the mark of big league stardom seems to be reaching out to him already. His accomplishments are many, and they are spread over a variety of sports. Besides the talent, there is also an ability to take praise as well as criticism which marks him with the correct temperament. He takes part in many school activities, including the gym team, leaders corps, referees course, and intramural basketball and volleyball.

Running through his sporting accomplishments, he played baseball for Westmount Maroons in the City of Montreal midget league during 1952 and 1953. He plays shortstop and center field and led the loop in stolen bases both years, stealing 24 in 12 games last campaign. In football, he played flying wing for the Junior High city champions in 1952, halfback for the Westmount Junior team in 1953.

Starting his hockey career in 1951-52, he played for Westmount Maroons midget entry, Westmount champs, and won the league scoring title. Next season he played for the midget Comets, again city champs, and again repeated on the scoring title. This year he is playing for the Westmount senior B team, and with the midget Huskies in the Municipal league. He plays center, has a deceptive shift, and is a fine playmaker. Toronto Maple Leafs scouted him in 1953.

He played basketball in 1953 for the Junior High bantams, soccer for the bantams in 1951. He also left his mark in track, as a member of the Westmount Track and Field Club and on the Junior High team. In 1953, he was third in the hop, step and jump in the Eastern Canada Track Meet at St. Lambert, with a leap of 36 feet, 8 3/4 inches. He placed second in the broad jump in the Eastern Canada interscholastic meet at Molson Stadium, leaping 17 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

He has tried his hand at swimming and tennis, and in his first attempt at golf over the Hampstead course, shot a 105. Johnny Garland, to whom we are indebted for most of this history, rates him the most promising athlete he has seen.

He's still mighty young, but remember the name of Paul Hamilton when you're picking the sports stars of the future.

Unity Cagers Conclude Undefeated Schedule

George Presho's hoopla artists are the toast of the Unity Boys Club today. The hard-driving crew downed Sir George Williams College Owls 70-62 Monday night in a bitterly fought game reeled off on the collegians' home court.

The win was the Unity larrigans' eighth in a row in league play this season, which means that the fast-stepping Westmount aggregation has gone through its schedule without once being compelled to taste the bitter dregs of defeat.

Just who Presho's Phellows will be meeting in the post-schedule playdowns has not yet been announced by Montreal Basketball League authorities.

Jack McKissock, Unity's flashy forward and captain, might be sitting out one or two of the Unity Boys' playoff contests. The McCoose felled the Georgians' Hodgman early in the second half of Monday's battle with a vicious right that dropped the college lad to the floor where he lay for a full five minutes. He returned to the game in the fourth quarter with a badly puffed and discolored eye.

Presumably the referees have made a report to league authorities on the incident. What punishment will be meted out to McKissock is something that coach George Presho and the rest of the Unity mob are anxiously waiting to hear about.

McKissock's version of the affair is as follows:

"Georgians had the ball in our end. We were playing zone at the time and this guy shoved his rear into me and then gave me an elbow. The refs didn't call anything and I just blew up and socked him."

In the first half Hodgman was involved in a minor altercation with Unity's Johnny Reddon. The two were racing for a ball that was on its way out of bounds when Hodgman, according to Reddon, gave him a hip that sent him reeling into the wall and resulted in an injured back.

Dick McGrail, playing one of his hard-driving games, emerged as top scorer of the night with 21 points. He turned in his best game of the campaign.

Matter of fact, the entire Unity club played inspired ball on Monday, an indication that they will be a plenty tough gang to handle in the playoffs.

Grant "Oscar" Peterson was second high man for the winners with an even dozen points while Teddy Rice was next in line with 11. Teddy has reduced the business of drawing fouls to a fine art. He had 11 free throws Monday, made good on nine of them.

lionaires, but luck wasn't running shot in front of the net but missed their way. Agnew had a clear the twine completely. Bell, after sidestepping two defencemen, broke into the clear but was stymied by Gilbert.

Jerry Apostolatos, Bob Brown, Bud Agnew and Ritchie Bell were best for the losers, while Bruce Wilson and Tom Grant showed well on the blueline.

Coach Cliff Gill was absent Tuesday and co-captains Jim Beasant and Ritchie Bell led the team to a 6-0 victory over Trenholme Royals at Staynor Park. The game was worth four points, due to a cancellation during the regular schedule.

Mickey Anderson, Bud Agnew, Tom Grant, Ritchie Bell, Bob Brown and Ross Southward were the marksmen for the Barbecue, as goaler Bob Robertson racked up his third whitewash of the season.
