UNITED STATES.
METEOR.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—A large meteor fell and exploded last evening near Winchester, Nevada, with a shock that was felt to be a belief that it was an earthquake. No one was hurt.

THE FRENCH BAND.
CHICAGO, July 19.—The French Band left for Cincinnati on Saturday, after giving two well-received concerts, both of which were attended by immense crowds. The band will give two concerts in Cincinnati, and from there they will go to New York and sail on the 27th inst. for France.

CITY ITEMS.
—The bridge at Talbot's Dock is ready out of repair, and either ought to be repaired, or a new bridge made.
—The Montreal Telegraph Company have moved their offices at the following address: Province of Ontario: Graven, Hurst, Bracco, Ross, and P. J. Sound.

ACCIDENT.—We are sorry to learn that Mr. A. Barton, of the Longueville Boat Club, was killed by falling from the highway at St. Lawrence and St. Catherine streets, and breaking his neck.

RECENTLY.—The premises of Henry Mason, tavern-keeper, corner of Murray and Wellington streets, were entered last night by burglars, who obtained access to the cellar, and stole $25. The burglar was arrested and will be brought up in Court to-day.

ANOTHER NUISANCE.—The creek which passes through the upper portion of the city through Ontario street is very much polluted. An attempt was made some time ago to remedy the evil, but has lately failed through. In view of the high temperature and unhealthy condition of the city generally, this nuisance should be attended to without delay.

DEATH.—On Saturday afternoon an infant was held by Mr. Corneille Jones on the body of the young man Gilbert Lacombe, who was killed by falling from the roof of Mr. White's house in Notre Dame street. After being buried the evidence, the jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death." The deceased was 21 years of age, unmarried, and came from Joliet.

First.—On Saturday night, about nine o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded from Box 14, corner of Vile and Sanguin streets, and on the result of the alarm, the fire was extinguished. The fire was caused by a lamp which was left burning in the room.

TESTIMONY.—On Saturday night, about nine o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded from Box 14, corner of Vile and Sanguin streets, and on the result of the alarm, the fire was extinguished. The fire was caused by a lamp which was left burning in the room.

STAMPA. Generalissimo, July 21.—A general stampede was caused in the Sanitary Department of the city by the entrance of a man known only by mail-por.

PERSONAL

London, July 20.—Mr. J. M. G. has arrived here from China.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

London, July 21.—The London Observer's correspondent at Geneva writes, if the award of damages made by the Board of Arbitration is substantial and liberal, England and the United States will be friends; if trivial, a dangerous state of ill-feeling in America will be the result.

No passengers were killed in the railroad disaster near Belfast.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY.

Paris, July 20.—The French Assembly has adjourned until the 24th of August.

R. B. ACCIDENT.

A mail train on the Mulhouse and Paris Railway ran off the track near Belfort today. The dispatches announced the occurrence that the engine and several passenger cars were derailed, but no mention of passengers, of whom there were a number on the train.

NEW FRENCH LOAN.

Paris, July 21.—The new French loan is issued at the official price of 85.50.

THE BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

Geneva, July 21.—The board of arbitration with the Board of Arbitration will preserve the most profound secrecy on the subject of its proceedings. The Council for the Government of Great Britain and the United States refuse to answer any communications on the questions pending, in order to prevent interference of newspapers exercising any influence on the minds of the public. The board will hold five sessions per week, sitting every day except Saturdays and Sundays.

MURDER.

Geneva, July 21.—Mr. Warner, correspondent of an English newspaper, was robbed of 700 francs and murdered yesterday. Most of the money was recovered, but the murders are unknown.

THE ATTEMPT UPON THE KING AND QUEEN OF SPAIN.

Madrid, July 21.—Three of the would-be assassins of the King and Queen were shot and killed yesterday. The King and Queen escaped unhurt.

Admiral Togo warned the authorities against dangerous demonstrations.

The escape of the King was narrow; one of the horses attached to the royal carriage received seven pistol shots.

Rome, July 21.—There is great rejoicing in Italian cities at the escape of the King and Queen of Spain from the hands of assassins.

Rome is covered with flags, and manifestations of sympathy and joy were made yesterday in front of the Spanish Legation.

UNITED STATES.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Six Francisco, July 20.—Detective Anzures and Smith, were committed for trial today, the former for libel and the latter for perjury in the case of Edith O'Grady, the captured nun.

DEAD.

Mr. Mulleard, reporter of the Morning Call, who was shot by McCanalan ten days since, died yesterday.

DASTARDLY ACT.

The house kept by Miss Anne Woodard, at the corner of Pine street and Quincy place, was wrecked by the explosion of torpedoes, which were thrown into the hall at midnight last night. The explosion was caused by a party of men who were in the house at the time. No person was injured, but the doors and windows were thrown half-way across the street, and the furniture was ruined. No discovery has yet been made by the police.

CHARACTERISTIC.

Boston, July 20.—Clement, the leader, and 15 members of the Irish Band left yesterday on their return to Ireland. The members who remain have claimed the title of the Band, and it is reported that they refused to follow their captain, who had been replaced by a new one, and will make a tour of the United States before returning to Ireland. Unpleasant relations have existed between the members of the Band and the police since the revolution in Cuba.

REVOLUTION IN CUBA INCREASING.

New York, July 20.—Private Havana advices represent that the revolution is beginning to show fresh indications of strength. In his farewell proclamation Count Valdes says he hopes to see the revolution completely suppressed before his departure. He does not think, however, that it can be suppressed in less than four or five months longer.

EARLY CLOSING.

The Brooklyn dry goods dealers have agreed to close their stores at 7 o'clock after next Wednesday.

RETRIBUTION.

Wilmington, N. C., July 20.—Tom Lowry, one of the Robeson County outlaws, and brother of the notorious John Lowry, was killed near Moss Neck this morning by Robert Whitaker. The younger brother of Col. Whitaker was killed by the outlaws some months since.

CANADIAN.

(From the Morning Post.)

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, July 20.—Last evening about 8 o'clock, as a boy was drawing a load of logs and blocks from the lumber yard, a fire broke along the side of the chain, gave way, and the horse and driver were precipitated into the Devil's Hole, a fall of between fifty and sixty feet. The boy was saved, but the horse was broken in two places. The horse and cart were sucked under by the whirlpool, and disappeared beneath the slide and sand.

RETRIBUTION.

A telegram just received announces that Mr. McGee has withdrawn from candidature in Essex, and the Hon. Mr. O'Connor will be unopposed.

THE FOUR MEMBERS OF THE CABINET.

The four members of the Cabinet from the Maritime Provinces will probably be returned to the House of Commons by acclamation.

STAMPA. Generalissimo, July 21.—A general stampede was caused in the Sanitary Department of the city by the entrance of a man known only by mail-por.

PERSONAL

London, July 20.—Mr. J. M. G. has arrived here from China.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

London, July 21.—The London Observer's correspondent at Geneva writes, if the award of damages made by the Board of Arbitration is substantial and liberal, England and the United States will be friends; if trivial, a dangerous state of ill-feeling in America will be the result.

No passengers were killed in the railroad disaster near Belfast.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY.

Paris, July 20.—The French Assembly has adjourned until the 24th of August.

R. B. ACCIDENT.

A mail train on the Mulhouse and Paris Railway ran off the track near Belfort today. The dispatches announced the occurrence that the engine and several passenger cars were derailed, but no mention of passengers, of whom there were a number on the train.

NEW FRENCH LOAN.

Paris, July 21.—The new French loan is issued at the official price of 85.50.

THE BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

Geneva, July 21.—The board of arbitration with the Board of Arbitration will preserve the most profound secrecy on the subject of its proceedings. The Council for the Government of Great Britain and the United States refuse to answer any communications on the questions pending, in order to prevent interference of newspapers exercising any influence on the minds of the public. The board will hold five sessions per week, sitting every day except Saturdays and Sundays.

MURDER.

Geneva, July 21.—Mr. Warner, correspondent of an English newspaper, was robbed of 700 francs and murdered yesterday. Most of the money was recovered, but the murders are unknown.

THE ATTEMPT UPON THE KING AND QUEEN OF SPAIN.

Madrid, July 21.—Three of the would-be assassins of the King and Queen were shot and killed yesterday. The King and Queen escaped unhurt.

Admiral Togo warned the authorities against dangerous demonstrations.

The escape of the King was narrow; one of the horses attached to the royal carriage received seven pistol shots.

Rome, July 21.—There is great rejoicing in Italian cities at the escape of the King and Queen of Spain from the hands of assassins.

Rome is covered with flags, and manifestations of sympathy and joy were made yesterday in front of the Spanish Legation.

UNITED STATES.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Six Francisco, July 20.—Detective Anzures and Smith, were committed for trial today, the former for libel and the latter for perjury in the case of Edith O'Grady, the captured nun.

DEAD.

Mr. Mulleard, reporter of the Morning Call, who was shot by McCanalan ten days since, died yesterday.

DASTARDLY ACT.

The house kept by Miss Anne Woodard, at the corner of Pine street and Quincy place, was wrecked by the explosion of torpedoes, which were thrown into the hall at midnight last night. The explosion was caused by a party of men who were in the house at the time. No person was injured, but the doors and windows were thrown half-way across the street, and the furniture was ruined. No discovery has yet been made by the police.

CHARACTERISTIC.

Boston, July 20.—Clement, the leader, and 15 members of the Irish Band left yesterday on their return to Ireland. The members who remain have claimed the title of the Band, and it is reported that they refused to follow their captain, who had been replaced by a new one, and will make a tour of the United States before returning to Ireland. Unpleasant relations have existed between the members of the Band and the police since the revolution in Cuba.

REVOLUTION IN CUBA INCREASING.

New York, July 20.—Private Havana advices represent that the revolution is beginning to show fresh indications of strength. In his farewell proclamation Count Valdes says he hopes to see the revolution completely suppressed before his departure. He does not think, however, that it can be suppressed in less than four or five months longer.

EARLY CLOSING.

The Brooklyn dry goods dealers have agreed to close their stores at 7 o'clock after next Wednesday.

RETRIBUTION.

Wilmington, N. C., July 20.—Tom Lowry, one of the Robeson County outlaws, and brother of the notorious John Lowry, was killed near Moss Neck this morning by Robert Whitaker. The younger brother of Col. Whitaker was killed by the outlaws some months since.

CANADIAN.

(From the Morning Post.)

OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, July 20.—Last evening about 8 o'clock, as a boy was drawing a load of logs and blocks from the lumber yard, a fire broke along the side of the chain, gave way, and the horse and driver were precipitated into the Devil's Hole, a fall of between fifty and sixty feet. The boy was saved, but the horse was broken in two places. The horse and cart were sucked under by the whirlpool, and disappeared beneath the slide and sand.

RETRIBUTION.

A telegram just received announces that Mr. McGee has withdrawn from candidature in Essex, and the Hon. Mr. O'Connor will be unopposed.

THE FOUR MEMBERS OF THE CABINET.

The four members of the Cabinet from the Maritime Provinces will probably be returned to the House of Commons by acclamation.
