ARRESTED FOR GIRL'S MURDER

Victim's Father Claims To Have Seen Vision At Grave-side

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 24.—Charles Edwin King, 21 years old, was arrested today charged with the killing of Arline May Stout, 17-year-old high school girl, who was found dead in her home, October 16, with a bullet wound in her shoulder.

The warrant for the arrest, sworn out by Freedman M. Stout, the girl's father, charges King with homicide. King was arrested in Bristol and brought to this city.

King today declared that he was innocent. He said he had been with her the afternoon before her death, but had left early and had heard of the shooting at Bristol, the following day.

When Miss Stout was found on a couch by her father, she was clad in a night dress. An army revolver, which Stout kept in a desk drawer in the hallway, lay beside her with one cartridge discharged.

At a hearing before the coroner, King was held in $3,000 bail for an inquest next Monday. The bond was furnished by his attorney.

A vision at the side of his daughter's grave, Mr. Stout said, led him to have the warrant issued for King's arrest.

"I went to my daughter's grave on Saturday, and while I stood there a vision appeared over the grave and Arline stood there. Father," she told me, "go to see Edwin. He can tell you all."

"She told me she had gone to Edwin several times and tried to induce him to tell the truth."

At the time of Miss Stout's death the police expressed the belief that either had committed suicide or killed herself accidentally.

RECENT DISCOVERY IS OF NATIONAL INTEREST

Government Suspends All Petroleum And Gas Regulations In Territories

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—Because of the discovery of valuable oil deposits in the Northwest Territories and the rush there of prospectors, the Government, on the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, has suspended all petroleum and natural gas regulations so far as they apply to the territories.

This drastic policy was announced today. The reason given is that the Government considers "the recent discovery of national significance and that the whole situation is now the subject of careful inquiry."

The Order-in-Council refers to the important oil discoveries along the Mackenzie River and sets forth the original regulations were designed to encourage search on the property of the Crown and may not be adapted to the new conditions which have arisen as a result of the discovery.

In consequence all the existing regulations have been suspended. It was stated at the Department today that the actual discoveries already made will not be prejudiced by the new order.

HON. A. L. SIFTON

BURIED YESTERDAY

Prominent Public and Businessmen From All Over Canada At Funeral

Ottawa, Jan. 24.—The funeral of Hon. A. L. Sifton, Secy. of State in the Meighen Government took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the Chateau Laurier. Services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Ross, of Douglas Methodist Church, Montreal. Prominent public and businessmen from all over Canada were in attendance. The honorary pall-bearers were Mr. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister; Sir James Lougheed, Sir Arthur Currie, Principal of McGill University; Sir James Lougheed, Minister of Interior; Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries; Hon. Mr. Justice Macdonald, Toronto; His Honor Judge Hays, of Peterboro, and Lt.-Col. O. M. Biggar.

STRIKE CALLED OFF.

Melbourne, Australia, Jan. 24.—The marine stewards here and at Sydney, at a mass meeting held today, called off their strike which had been in progress for some time. The strike was due to a dispute concerning working hours.

CHIEF FIGURE IN LEGAL STRUGGLE

Concerning The Ownership Of Chicago Property Dead In House-Boat

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 24.—Captain Geo. Wellington Streeter, chief figure in one of the most picturesque legal struggles ever staged in Chicago, concerning the ownership of a parcel of land on the lakefront known as the Billion Dollar Triangle, died Saturday night on a houseboat moored at a dock in the East Indian Harbor Canal, it became known today.

The houseboat had been his headquarters for campaigns against the City of Chicago which he staged in his repeated efforts to gain the lake shore property he claimed was his by right of first possession.

It was reported that his widow would continue the fight for possession of Streeterville, or the "district of Lake Michigan" at it was termed by Captain Streeter.

Captain Streeter had been fighting since 1886 to establish his claim to one of the most valuable sections of Chicago's lake front. In that year his schooner, the Reuten, stranded on the beach during a storm. Captain Streeter built a "breakwater" in Streeterville, a breakwater about the stranded vessel, 450 feet off shore and made it his home.

The rapidly shifting sands filled in the space between the boat and the shore and in time 193 acres was added to the city's area. It was this land which Captain Streeter fought for.

In 1915 the court ruled that Streeter had no title to the property and his brick dwelling which had succeeded the steamer domicile, was wrecked by deputy sheriffs.

The site of Captain Streeter's "district" is part of Chicago's famous "gold coast" and is now covered by more than a dozen skyscraper apartment buildings and hotels.

1902 Streeter and two friends were convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of John S. Kirke, killed in one of the frequent assaults on the castle. All were sentenced to life imprisonment, but after a few months were released.

WOULD HANG SOUL MURDERERS.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 24.—"When you get these ministers of vice, hang them on the highest gallows you can build. You hang ordinary murderers, why not hang these phony ministers of vice and poison bodies and souls?"

With this slashing attack on the subject of commercialized vice, Rev. Dr. Wm. J. Kerby, of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., electrified the Canadian Club, whom he addressed today at the invitation of the Committee of Sixteen, a body of ministers and prominent laymen of this city, which is fighting vice conditions in Montreal.

Father Kerby insisted that the laws should be exercised without option so that fines, at which people who lived on prostitution laughed, should be ended and imprisonment substituted. He regretted that under the law, people who murdered souls could not be hanged as were those who murdered bodies.

VILLAGE OF DENHOLM LOSES ITS CHARTER

Can No Longer Elect Council Owing To Loss Of Population

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—A peculiar situation has arisen in connection with the representation of the Village of Denholm, in the Gatineau Valley, on the Ottawa County Council.

This village has hitherto elected a mayor and councillors as a duly chartered municipality. The terms of its charter, however, stipulated that it is only in force as long as there are at least 300 residents there. Last week, when preparations were being made for the annual municipal elections, it was discovered that the residents in the village numbered only something like 250 and accordingly the elections were not held. In view of this, arrangements will likely be made for the annexation of the village to East Wakefield Township.

In the village of North Masham the electors chose one of its residents in his absence but as soon as he heard of his selection he refused to accept the majority and another election will have to be held.

Reports from Kensington have not yet been received.

HEARD MILITARY EXPERTS' VIEWS

Supreme Allied Council Conferred As To German Failure To Disarm

Paris, Jan. 24.—The Supreme Council, composed of representatives of Great Britain, Italy, France, Belgium and Japan, today heard the military experts, and later conferred together regarding the failure of Germany to disarm as provided for by the treaty of Versailles. The experts were asked to make a detailed report on the question with recommendations regarding measures to insure execution of the disarmament clauses of the treaty. The experts will meet to-morrow morning while the council will, contrary to expectation, take up the situation of Austria, instead of reparations.

Mr. Lloyd George and the President of the French Council, Aristide Briand, desire an opportunity to talk over the different phases of the reparations question before the subject comes up for discussion at the Council. Thus the change in the Council's programme.

In this connection the Premier is said to be considering whether it is favorable and advisable to have the German representative sit with the Council before the final decision on reparations is taken. The British Delegation is believed to favor inviting the Germans to take part in the discussions after the Allies to come an understanding among themselves.

The Premier are understood to be greatly alarmed at the situation of Austria and will endeavor to find some way for the continued existence of that country. The Eastern question, Greece and the treaty of Sevres, will be taken up after the Council has finished considering the Austrian situation.

NEWFOUNDLAND ASKS SPECIAL CONSIDERATION

In Case The States Impose Duty On Importation Of Fish

New York, Jan. 24.—Special consideration in favor of Newfoundland in case a duty is imposed on imports of fish by the forthcoming administration was asked today by John M. Devine, Newfoundland Trade Commissioner, here. In a statement supplementing testimony he gave last week before the Ways and Means Committee in Washington, Mr. Devine said he thought last year's $10,000,000 balance in favor of the United States, in commerce between that country and Newfoundland, should have special weight in the formation of the tariff scale, especially on fish.

Newfoundland, he said, buys a great deal more goods in the United States than in Great Britain or Canada. Last year's purchases from the United States, he said, amounted to approximately $16,000,000.

The Greatest Ocean depth so far recorded is 30,330 feet, near the Kennedy Islands, in the Southwest Pacific. The greatest depth known in the Atlantic Ocean is 27,860 feet, to the north of the West Indies.

PUBLISH TERMS OF PRELIMINARY TRADE COMPACT

Between Britain And Russia Taken By Krassin To Moscow

NO PROPAGANDA

Soviet To Refrain From Encouraging Asiatic Peoples To Revolt

London, Jan. 24.—The terms of the British-Russian preliminary trade agreement, which Leonid Krassin, the Soviet Representative, has taken to Moscow for consideration, has been published. The most important terms follow:

Each party agrees to refrain from hostile action or propaganda outside its borders against the other's institutions. The Soviet particularly agrees to refrain from any encouragement of Asiatic peoples to action against British interests, especially in Asia Minor, Persia, Afghanistan and India.

British subjects in Russia and Russian subjects in Great Britain will be permitted to return to their homes if they so desire. Each agrees not to impose any form of blockade against the other or any discrimination against trade not imposed on other foreign countries. Ships in the other's harbors shall receive the treatment usually accorded foreign merchant ships by commercial nations.

The agreement provides for the clearance of mines from the Baltic and the approaches to Russia and the exchange of information regarding mining. It provides for the admission to both countries of persons appointed to carry out the agreement with the right to restrict them to specified areas and the exclusion of any who are persona non grata and also free communication and exemption from taxation. A renewal of telegraphic and postal facilities, including parcels post, will be arranged.

Great Britain agrees to refrain from attaching any gold securities or commodities, not identifiable as British Government property, which may be exported from Russia in payment for imports or securities for payment and to refrain, as well, from legislation against the importation of specie or bullion from Russia, and from requisitioning such.

The preamble sets forth that the agreement is necessary, "pending the conclusion of a formal general treaty between these governments, whereby their economic and political relations shall be regulated in the future."

"The agreement shall continue in force until the treaty is arranged except that either may, after a year, give six months' notice of its termination. Infringement by either government free the other from its obligations, but the aggrieved party shall grant the other a reasonable opportunity of explaining or remedying the fault."

"The Russian Government recognizes in principle that it is liable to pay compensation to private persons who have supplied goods or services to Russia. All claims of either government or its nationals against the other in respect of obligations incurred by existing or former government, shall be equitably dealt with by the treaty."

GERMANY WILL HAVE TO IMPORT GRAIN

To Meet Home Needs During 1921 According To Official Claim

Berlin, Jan. 24.—Germany will be obliged to import 3,000,000 tons of grain to meet home needs in 1921, according to an official reply today to a question put by the Italian delegation in Brussels, concerning the country's immediate requirements of foodstuffs from abroad.

The Government admits the appraisal submitted at the Spa Conference will prove inadequate, owing to the failure of last year's crop which did not come to the expected yield.

Fodder amounting to 1,500,000 tons will also be required in addition to the wheat, while 1,000,000 tons of raw products for the manufacture of oleo-margarine during the current year constitutes a further item on the Government's list of food commodities to be imported.

The requirements of meat and bacon are estimated at 150,000 tons.

The gold mark value of the above commodities, based on their present market prices, is estimated at 3,200,000,000.

HAS HIMSELF ONLY TO BLAME

For Unfortunate Condition Is Report On Soldier Farmer's Case

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—(Canadian Press)—That the unfortunate condition of a soldier settler and his family at Conception, Que., as reported in the morning papers, is due to the settler's lack of effort to provide subsistence for his family and his livestock during the winter, is the statement handed out by Major Barnett, Chairman of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, this morning, upon hearing the report of a supervisor sent to investigate. The statement follows:

"The case was reported to the Board on Friday and it was stated that some of the man's livestock had died of starvation and that his family were in a deplorable condition. The facts are these: On November 17, a Board Supervisor visited this farm and found only sufficient feed for his stock for about a month and a half but the man declared that he had made arrangements whereby he could easily procure feed. The supervisor advised him to dispose of a horse which he had purchased privately and which was not the property of the Board. The man states that he was unable to sell this horse. He was advised also to send a team of horses to work in the bush for the winter.

"On December 8, another official visited this settler. At that time he had ten pigs, two of which he has since killed for home consumption, and eight were sold for $100. He was again recommended to go to work, and he said he was willing, but his wife did not want him to leave her alone.

"He refused an offer of one dollar a day and feed for a team of horses. Since then two horses and one calf have died and another horse is in a dying condition.

"The family was reported in need of clothing to the Home Branch of the Board and a parcel was sent at Christmas. Obviously the condition in which this settler finds himself is due entirely to his own lack of effort and his refusal to carry out the Board's advice. The family and stock are being properly cared for, pending readjustment."

INVESTIGATION TO BE DEFERRED

Regarding Warrenton Double Lynching Until Popular Feeling Has Subsided

The Weather.

Warrenton, N.C., Jan. 24.—All efforts to apprehend members of the mob which last night broke into the jail, removed two negroes held there after an armed clash with whites early Sunday and shot them death, were set aside today in the anxiety of the authorities to forestall a recurrence of violence.

Seven of the nine negroes left in the jail by the mob were today transferred to Raleigh for safe-keeping, and this afternoon five additional arrests were made and the prisoners also rushed to Raleigh. Four other negroes, for whom warrants are held, have escaped.

The Warrenton home guard, ordered out by Governor Morrison last night, was under arms all day and the Henderson Home Guard also stood in readiness to respond to any call. However, tonight no further outbreak was regarded as probable. The Coroner held an inquiry this morning and quickly returned a verdict of "death at the hands of unknown persons". All witnesses testified to inability to identify any members of the mob.

Solicitor Garland E. Midgett arrived today and assumed control of the situation. After a conference with local citizens he announced that he would defer an investigation until feeling has subsided.

SITUATION MUST BE FACED WITH COURAGE

Retiring President Of Toronto Board Of Trade On Business Conditions

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 24.—At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade this afternoon, the retiring President, Mr. C. Marriott, in his address to the members, stated that the present business situation was one which must be faced with courage and determination. "No person can tell but it would seem evident that one of the principal conditions must be that the prices of what our farmers require to buy must come down to correspond to the prices of what they have to sell. The equilibrium must be restored or there can be no confidence in the situation. Until a basis of fair exchange for the products of industry is reached trade will languish and the production and distribution of goods must be curtailed."

REV. J. A. IRWIN IS INTERNED IN A PRISON CAMP

Military Authorities Refuse To Give Any Information Regarding Arrest

LECTURED IN QUEBEC

Presbyterian Minister Brought To City By Self-Determination League

Belfast, Jan. 24.—The military authorities refuse to give any information concerning the arrest of the Rev. J. A. Irwin, a Presbyterian minister, who delivered addresses in the United States when Eamonn De Valera was touring that country. Headquarters has warned all the military commands to make no communication to the press concerning the Rev. Mr. Irwin. The minister has been sent to the Ballykinlar internment camp, where he probably is the sole non-Catholic prisoner.

Interest in the case has been heightened by an interview with "Gypsy" Smith, the evangelist, published in the Belfast Telegraph. Smith ridiculed the reception given to De Valera and the Rev. Mr. Irwin in Georgia, to which the Rev. Mr. Irwin wrote a long reply, testifying to the enthusiastic nature of the reception accorded De Valera.

Attacks Continue.

Dublin, Jan. 24.—Civilian attacks upon the police and the military in various sections of the country continued Sunday. Early today there was a simultaneous attack of one hundred civilians on the police and military barracks, which adjoin each other in the center of the town of Fermanagh, County Cork. There was severe fighting for nearly one hour which resulted in the attacking party being beaten off. The Crown forces suffered no casualty but one civilian is known to have been killed. There was a fierce battle Sunday when a large body of armed men attacked the Glenboater police barracks near Glommel. The civilians were beaten off. No casualties were reported as a result of the fighting.

One civilian was killed and one wounded when an attack was made upon a small body of police near Kells, County Meath. The attacking party withdrew after having captured a motor car and arms.

A police and military patrol was ambushed today near New Birmingham, Tipperary. A sergeant and private of the Lincoln Regiment were shot dead and three constables were wounded.

Are Once More Obtainable in Canada.

For years these delicious French peas were the favorite in many homes.

During the period of the war they were unobtainable. Now they can be secured again, and those who used to enjoy this delicious dish can again surprise and please their guests by serving them on their table.

Petits Pois "Soleil" are pre-cooked—just open the can, drain the contents, heat slightly, add a little butter and they are ready to serve.

A YOUTHFUL SKIRT OF NAVY WOOL VELOUR

(By GERTRUDE BERESFORD)

The separate skirt is a very useful addition to any woman's wardrobe, for by combining it with different waists she may have many distinctive costumes. The skirt illustrated is made of navy blue wool velour in a light-weight weave. It shows an interesting combination of box and knife pleatings. A pleasing touch of color is also introduced on alternative box pleats, for striped velour is used for them. These stripes show pale blue, brick and citron. The costume blouse has a practical arrangement, at the waistline. However, if you wished you might use a tailored waist with the skirt, for it is finished with a belt of the wool velour.

Frocks For The South

(By RITA STUYVESANT)

While the warm Spring breezes are luring pleasure-seeking folks to the warm Southland the better shops are displaying exquisite finery to clothe them. It seems strange to wander through the shops at this season and, when all the world is wrapped in fur, find delicate organdies, homely gingham and stunning sport fabrics piled high to display their beauty to an admiring audience. And then to discover these materials fashioned into dainty dresses or smart sport frockery, it is indeed to ponder upon the colorful beauty the Southern resorts must represent.

For the younger set organdy promises alluring possibilities, if one is to judge from the lovely colorings and dainty, youthful models fashioned from this crisp material. A brilliant flame organdy is tucked into a charming frock for a debutante or bride-to-be. Truly Parisienne is the abbreviated skirt, which makes up in its width at the hem. A simple bodice, with tiny puffed sleeves and round neck tops this full skirt, and a great sash of the organdy, with an enormous bow at the back, lends a piquant charm.

An elaborate little creation, frilled for the occasion, is of orchid-tinted organdy and black velvet ribbon. There are two loose panels of the material on either side of the skirt, ruffled from the top to the bottom. The underskirt is comfortably scant, and a girlish lettuce-green satin joins the skirt to a quaint bodice, laced in peasant style with narrow black velvet.

For morning wear there are some unusual frocks in gingham, plaids, and blacks and tiny checks in reds, green, pumpkin and lavender combinations. White pique or linen are used as trimming, and it is surprising to note the steep figures some of these homely gown assume.

But it is the sport clothes that are attracting so much favorable attention at this time. Cream, ivory and pure white rough silks are created into pleated skirts to accompany gay wool sweaters, or perhaps fashioned into a becoming one-piece frock. Norfolk suits, beautifully tailored, are well-liked for trotteur wear, and are smart when worn with the white satin sailor hats.

Gayly-colored sport silks find their way to country clubs, tennis courts, golf links and verandas, where the smart set assemble. Silks of all weaves are being used for outdoor wear, with Canton crepe in the lead. Scarlet and flame shades are much sought after, but orchid, pumpkin, jade, citron, raspberry, rose, turquoise and liberty blue are in close following. Sometimes, it is the sweater that will lend the colorful note and sometimes a bit of trimming on a cream silk that distinguishes one's costume.

NO MORE SPOONING.

Vineand, N.J., Jan. 24—There is to be no more spooning behind shady vines at the Old Soldiers' Home here. The summer trysting places in the grove in the rear of the home known as the summer cottages are for sale. Some person complained to the Board of Directors. It is said, that there was much courting going on. One of the veterans said that this talk of "Lovey Doves" business is all bosh and he regretted the order. The inmates are all over 75 years of age.

The Commercial Academy.

His Grace Archbishop Begin paid a visit to the Commercial Academy on Wednesday and was shown over the whole of the extensive educational establishment by Brother Eugene Abel, the Director. The High Church dignitary examined the pupils himself and had the teachers do so as well. All the children acquitted themselves splendidly although taken on a moment's notice. His Grace finally gave the youngsters a holiday for one day in carnival week.

City Council.

At a brief meeting of the City Council last night, it was decided to settle for $3,000 the claim of damages against the corporation by Mr. Tremblay, mill owner of Lorette, and also to purchase the necessary strip of land for widening Dalhousie street from the Chouinard estate for $18,500.

Obituary.

In another column we announce the death of an old resident, who for 41 years has lived in the Baileys of Quebec, mostly in Wolfe's Cove and latterly nearer Champlain toll gate. Abel Howkins was a good type of the old English sailor, who for the last 35 years kept a ship chandler's store and restaurant. No more familiar face was known in the neighborhood. A man of strict integrity and very abstemious habits, he commanded the respect of all who knew him. He leaves an adopted daughter to mourn his loss, and was cared for and attended during his long illness by her loving and devoted hands and to whom his memory will long be green.

THOUGHTLESS WOMEN?

QUEBEC, TUESDAY, JANUARY 25, 1921.

CURLERS INVADE ANCIENT CAPITAL IN LARGE NUMBERS
FROM MANY OUTSIDE CLUBSSplendid Start Made In Big Quebec Bonspiel—First Round
In Centenary Cup Completed—Curlers Pay Respects
To Mayor Who Presents Them With Key Of City

A magnificent start was made in the Quebec Curling Club's Centenary, which opened yesterday morning and continued throughout the day when thirty-one clubs in the Centenary Cup and twenty-four in the Chateau Trophy were played off. Several of the games were won by teams defaulting, but the remainder were won and lost on the ice. Of the Quebec teams the rinks skipped by Frank Stocking and Major R. B. Whyte, still remain in the competition. Victoria still has a chance in this competition, winning from Montreal, No. 7 in the morning and from Heather in the afternoon.

Several very close games were played during the day. Three Rivers, E. L. Wilson, Skip, won from Lachine No. 17, W. S. Johnson, Skip, by one shot, on the last stone played, by 8 to 7. One of the hardest fought games of the day was that between Caledonia No. 5, Dr. Novinger, Skip, and Quebec No. 37, skipped by Major Bob Whyte. In this game Whyte was one down with one end to play. Before he played his last stone, Caledonia was lying shot and in order to win out, Whyte had to play a running shot through the same port, which he did by taking the shot out and lying in himself, thus giving him the end by two and the match by one point.

During the course of the morning, Mr. T. Delany, President of the Quebec Curling Club, accompanied by Alderman Louis Rubenstein, of Montreal and some forty local and visiting curlers called upon His Worship the Mayor to pay their respects. Mr. Delany introduced the members of the delegation to His Worship, who received them very graciously. Alderman Rubenstein, also conveyed the greetings of the Montreal Curlers and those of His Worship Mayor Martin, to President Delany. In thanking the deputation for their courtesy in calling upon him, Mayor Samson handed over the key of the city, which entitled all the curlers to the freedom of the city during the Bonspiel, to President Delany, who with the assistance of the other members of the delegation, conveyed it to the Quebec Curling Club, where it now occupies a prominent position at the end of the rink.

During the course of the evening, Mayor Samson paid a visit to the Quebec Club and was extended a hearty welcome by President Delany, the officers and the members of the Club.

The Bonspiel Entertainment Committee, Messrs. J. J. Marnell, Geo. J. Stetson, Mr. R. C. Murphy, C. V. Norris, J. A. McManamy, P. Judge and G. L. Doak, extended every hospitality to the visitors and in every way maintained the reputation of the city in this respect.

Today's competition will be confined to the Chateau and Senator Cup.

Skips are requested so that in order to permit of games being properly checked off and reported, it is absolutely essential for them to write on their cards the Bonspiel number allotted to their rink, the time they played, as well as the name of the competition. A certain amount of confusion was caused yesterday by the omission of one or several of the above mentioned details. The Bonspiel Committee again emphasize that no information will be given by telephone as to the progress of the games.

Yesterday's Games.

CONFERENCE ON
PROPOSED LAWRegarding Liquor Traffic Held
By Ministers At Montreal
Yesterday

Montreal, Jan. 24.—An important conference on matters affecting the proposed license legislation of the Quebec Legislature was held this morning at the government office here. Premier Taschereau, Hon. J. L. Perron, Hon. W. G. Mitchell, Hon. L. A. David and Hon. Napoleon Seguin attended the conference, while the crown prosecutor, J. C. Walsh, and Judge Choquette, chairman of the Montreal License Commission were called in for consultation. It is understood that the liquor bill will be brought down for formal first reading on Wednesday and that the details of it will be made known to the caucus of the Liberal Party on the same day, so that when the measure comes up for second reading on Thursday, it will be generally known how the individual members stand on the question.

A delegation composed of officers and members of the Grocers' Section of the Retail Merchants' Association, waited on the Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Premier of Quebec, and the Hon. Walter Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer, today, to ask that the present system of granting licenses for beer and wine be adhered to. The Premier answered that he could not divulge his views on the matter until he had consulted with his colleagues.

DENIED RUMORS
OF FRENCH LOANOf Hundred Millions About To Be Negotiated In United States

New York, Jan. 24.—Rumors that a loan of $100,000,000 was about to be negotiated in the United States by the French Government, were denied here tonight by M. Maurice Casenave, Minister-Plenipotentiary, Director-General of the French services in the United States, who in a statement said there was no necessity for such an operation at this time.

M. Casenave said the French Government has made arrangements to pay on February 1 of this year $10,000,000 to the United States Treasury, being semi-annual interest on the $400,000,000 bonds of the French Government delivered in payment for United States army materials purchased after the signing of the armistice. He also said France would pay to Kuhn, Loeb and Company $23,800,000 or the balance of a loan of $45,000,000, which the cities of Lyons, Marseilles and Bordeaux jointly placed on the United States firm.

The French Government arranged with Kuhn, Loeb and Company to purchase whatever portion of the loan was not absorbed by February 1, 1921.

SOME FAIRLY
STRONG TALKCharacterized Address Of Toronto Counsel In Telephone Rates Case

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—(Can. Press)—Some fairly strong remarks as to the course pursued by counsel and officials of the Bell Telephone case in connection with the inquiry into the application were voiced this afternoon by Mr. G. R. Geary, K.C., corporation counsel for Toronto, shortly after he commenced his address in opposition to the company's application.

According to the views expressed by Mr. Geary, with some show of indignation, the company had done nothing to assist experts employed by opponents of the application to place before the Board reliable data relating to the company's experience. Such assistance, he asserted, would have been of use in helping the Board to arrive at proper conclusions, but the company had preferred to discredit all statements submitted, even when they were in their own favor.

Arguments by Mr. Geary, Mr. F. H. Chrysler, K.C., counsel for the Union of Municipalities; Mr. Chas. Laurendeau, for Montreal City, and Mr. A. C. McMaster, counsel for the Toronto Board of Trade, occupied the day's sitting. Argument will not be concluded before Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday.

MAJOR GRIFFITH ARRAIGNED
Montreal, Que., Jan. 24.—Following usual legal procedure, Major Robert Matthew Griffith, accused of the murder of W. A. Holland, manager of the stock brokerage firm of Macdougall Brothers, on January 14, was arraigned before Judge Lett today and remanded for voluntary statement on January 27.

MAYOR OF HULL
SEEMS DEFIANTWill Not Boycott Whole City
Of Ottawa Over Vaccination

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.—The proposed quarantine against Ottawa people entering the Province of Quebec will not be put into effect if Mayor Louis Cousineau, of Hull, can prevent it. Mayor Cousineau stated this morning that he had strongly advised the Provincial Health authorities against taking any such action, and had pointed out to them that it would be almost impossible to enforce such a regulation in view of the fact that the Ottawa River is now bridged with ice, as well as the steel bridges. The Hull City Council will discuss the matter at its regular meeting this evening and it is quite probable that a resolution against the proposed action of the Provincial Health authorities will be passed. A recommendation will be made that the citizens of Hull accept voluntary vaccination and to assist them a doctor will be available at the City Hall at certain hours.

Mayor Cousineau said that he did not think small-pox was sufficiently prevalent in Ottawa to warrant such drastic action.

"If they ask us to boycott the whole city of Ottawa, we will not do it," he added, "and I think the whole of the Hull City Council will back me up in that."

Nothing Serious
Montreal, Jan. 24.—That nothing serious has developed as yet in the small-pox situation so far as Hull is concerned, was intimated by Dr. Hector Palardy, Provincial Health Inspector for the District, who was in consultation with the Superior Board in Montreal today. No new cases had been reported in Hull, he said, during the past few days and those already existing, were on the way to recovery. A few cases had been reported in adjoining districts.

Two fresh cases of small-pox were reported in Montreal Saturday, making a total of six since January 1, three of which are of persons coming directly from Ottawa.

Notifications have been sent to employers in the City that the vaccination by-laws must be complied with.

ROOM FOR RECIPROCITY.

It is pleasant to note the increasing frequency with which distinguished citizens of this Province are being invited by various public bodies in the neighboring Province of Ontario to deliver addresses which afford them an opportunity of interpreting French-Canadian thought and sentiment to English Canadians. On the other hand we could wish that speakers from Ontario and other Provinces, who are not active politicians were more often heard in Quebec. To obtain direct and closest contact with the general trend of English-Canadian feeling throughout the Dominion, it is not enough to depend upon intercourse with the English-speaking residents of this Province, whose view-point is necessarily somewhat modified by their environment and associations. We recognize that it may be more difficult to find speakers from Ontario capable of delivering addresses in the French tongue, than it is to find spokesmen from Quebec capable of expressing themselves fluently in English, yet the task is by no means impossible. Indeed, were the attempt made, it might cause surprise to many Quebecers to find how creditably men of culture from Ontario would acquit themselves.

The people of this Province are properly desirous that their viewpoint should be understood but it is scarcely less important that they should accurately appreciate the view-point of others and this can best be done by a frank exchange of ideas by representative spokesmen. Referring to the address recently delivered by Mr. Horace Gagne before the Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton, the Spectator declares that such speeches are the most valuable sort of contribution to the cause of Canadian unity. It continues:

The two races can only be brought together, to work out with a common zeal the great destinies of the country, through a perfect understanding of their respective temperaments and aspirations. Mr. Gagne well interpreted the French-Canadian point of view to his Ontario audience, and there is much that is attractive in that point of view. The picture of the little hamlet, with its devout, industrious, simple people, is an appealing one in these days of strident discontent and industrial perplexity.

Twenty-two percent of Quebec's population goes voluntarily to school, according to Mr. Gagne. It may seem a poor showing compared with what is accomplished under the compulsory system; but, however, superior we may consider our methods, it is undoubtedly true, as the speaker slyly hinted, that we are confronted with certain economic and labor problems from which the people of Quebec are free.

After all, it is their loss, if it be a loss. We have no right to impose our ideas or methods upon them, any more than they have a right to impose their system upon us. Though differing in our opinions, we can be the best of friends; our very diversity should make us all the more interesting and attractive to each other. We can each gain something profitable from a study of the other's way of life. Both sides "gagnent a etre connus."

"That is the mission of the apostles of reconciliation—to clear up misunderstandings, prejudices and misjudgments. What they say, perhaps, is not new; but it cannot be repeated too often. The French-Canadians are making a most praise-worthy effort to put themselves right with their English-speaking compatriots, and their efforts are meeting with reciprocal advances on our side. It only remains for the general public to think and to act in the spirit of these spokesmen, to bring about an enduring entente, which will mean so very much for the national harmony and welfare."

THE TRUTH ABOUT MONTENEGRO—No. VII

The only plea upon which Serbia has ever attempted to justify her annexation of Montenegro or to explain the supposed assent of Montenegrians to the new regime have been firstly, that owing to common nationality the present Union has been the dreams of both countries for centuries; and secondly, that his subjects had become alienated from King Nicholas and the Montenegrin dynasty, through acts of treachery committed during the war. As we have seen in an earlier article the first plea contains a minimum of truth and a maximum of falsehood; let us now briefly examine the second.

The acts of which the King has been accused are these: leaving a younger son behind at the Capital during the famous retreat in order to make terms with the enemy; surrendering Mount Lovchen, a very strong and important position, during the same retreat; and conveying his personal fortune out of the country when he was compelled to evacuate it with his Government by the Austrian occupation. These are all charges that originated from Serbian propaganda subsequently to the conspiracy of 1917 at Corfu between Trumbitch and Pachitch and have never been formally proved or publicly substantiated by any sort of valid evidence. We hold no brief for this Monarch who may conceivably be quite as black as he has been painted, but even the worst criminal is entitled to impartial justice and even the worst criminal is innocent until he has been proved guilty by regular process of law.

King Nicholas himself has asked for such a trial but without success. With the consent of his Government he wrote to M. Clemenceau, then President of the Peace Conference, August 26, 1919, as follows: "I am convinced that this investigation will prove that Montenegro and myself have performed all our obligations as a loyal and faithful Ally, even to extreme abnegation and the greatest sacrifices. I do not doubt it will prove that, for sole recompense, those even from whom we have least merited it have acted towards Montenegro and its official representatives in a manner contrary not only to justice but also to the fundamental principles of international conscience for which millions of human lives were sacrificed and respect of which was the constant anxiety of the Peace Conference. Whatever may be the findings of this investigation I am prepared to accept the consequences fully." No reply was given by the Conference to this legitimate appeal.

If his Majesty had sought to make terms with the enemy, it is evident that he must have been singularly unsuccessful, since he was obliged to share in the retreat of his army throughout the whole extent of his Kingdom and eventually found shelter in France. There were few armies, if any, that were not obliged to yield important positions during the war and the pressure brought to bear against that of Montenegro was tremendous to say the least; even if there had been some weakening of morale, was Montenegro the only offender? What of Italy to name but a single example? Supposing King Nicholas did take his personal fortune out of the country, was that not wiser than leaving it to enrich Austria? Certainly in view of the fact that all financial assistance was withdrawn from his Government long ago by France and Britain, it is a fortunate thing if he has had private means of support.

The alleged treason to which we have referred must all have taken place prior to 1916, yet for over two years thereafter King Nicholas was accorded every mark of honor and respect by every Allied Government, every Allied Statesman, and every Allied General. Even after the conclusion of the armistice, diplomatic representatives were maintained at Neutly, where his Government was established, and the Great Powers have never formally departed from their professed anxiety to restore him to his Kingdom. This man may be a criminal but the Allies have behaved towards him like rogues. Either he should have been repudiated and tried or faith should have been kept with him, yet neither course has been pursued.

Finally even supposing the Montenegrin Dynasty to have been guilty of treason, is that any reason for partitioning the State? Is Nicholas worse than Constantine? Why then is Greece still free and Montenegro a thing of the past? Tomorrow we shall outline the present position of affairs in the latter country as we are able to see them.

UTOPIA OR CHAOS.

The League of Nations continues to arouse the most conflicting comments in all countries from all sorts of men. Those who have taken part in its councils, as Messrs. Foster, Doherty and Rowell have done, appear to be most optimistic regarding its future sphere of usefulness but there are many Canadians whose attitude is still frankly sceptical.

Viscount Grey of Fallodon speaking not long ago in Glasgow observed that the state of Europe before the war was one of alliance and counter-alliance and competition in armaments. The Triple Alliance made by Germany after 1870 brought into existence the Franco-Russian Alliance, which led to competition in armaments. "If we let these things take the same course again," he declared, "in spite of the warnings of this war, we shall have the same result. It is absolutely necessary to keep some Council of the Nations together. Keep them in touch; keep your relations with your Allies, but watch for any tendency to this growth of competition in armaments and when any nation is beginning to force the pace in the competition of armaments then let the Council of the Nations prevent that competition growing up as before the war."

"To do that you must have something which keeps nations in touch and keeps them together. Some people say that in a League of Nations there will not be any certainty. There will not be a certainty, but I am quite convinced if you have another war war 20 years hence it will, in a sense, be like this war, but it will be infinitely worse and there will be a certainty that it will destroy the civilization of Europe. If you tell me the League of Nations is Utopia the answer I give is: 'I prefer the chance of Utopia to the certainty of destruction.'"

Decidedly original and outspoken, even if somewhat unpleasantly pessimistic, is the view taken by Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the well known Indian poet and philosopher, that the League of Nations is no more than a league of robbers. He says:

"It is founded on force—it has no spiritual foundation. Humanity is not yet ready for it. A new machine is of little advantage if it is run by the old power and for the old ends. Organization is not brotherhood, and God cares more for a brother than He does for an empire. The great war was one of the blows of God seeking to break down our materialism, our selfishness, our narrow nationalisms. It made a dent, but only a dent, in the crust. Other blows will fall before. Until we learn to live together by the real law of our nature—the Law of Love—a veil will hide the beauty and wonder of the world, leaving us to wander alone or struggle together in confusion and strife."

In every land Sir Rabindranath finds men who seek the truth but they are outcasts for the most part—as Jesus was in his day. They are the keepers of the soul of humanity. There is need of a League of Vagabonds, some kind of fellowship between these men of God.

What is wrong with the world, in the poet's view, is that it does not know the truth. "It has forgotten. If it ever discovered, that down below race, rank, religion, there is a fundamental humanity—man as man—which is universal and everywhere the same—I am a man of India as to my origin, training, and outlook, but I am something else, I am a human being, a man of humanity. Humanity will be perfect only when diverse races and nations shall be free to evolve their distinct characteristics, while all are attached to the stem of humanity by the bond of love. All imperialism—except the imperialism of love—is wrong. It brings little nations and various races together, like chips in a basket, but they do not unite they are simply held together. There is no bond of union."

"Hereafter my life and all that I have—which is only a little—is to be devoted to establishing first in India, and then elsewhere, if possible, a university in which the better minds of all races, to whom we must look for leadership, may mingle, and the culture of the East and the culture of the West may be united in fellowship. It is men of world mind that we need, men of the spirit, who see that we are all citizens in the Kingdom of Ideas. In this way, long after I am gone, when in the purpose of God the time does come for a real League of Humanity, there will be men large enough to see the human race as a whole, who understand that the good of humanity as a family actually exists, and we shall not suffer such a bankruptcy of constructive faith and vision as we have in our day."

Few people probably think of this Dominion in connection with salt and yet the production of Canadian salt in 1919 amounted to 148,302 tons, valued at $1,388,968. This was obtained almost entirely from the salt fields of southern Ontario.

SEEMS VERY WELL INFORMED

N. Y. Correspondent of London Paper Ignores Denials of Two Governments

New York, Jan. 24—(Canadian Press)—Despite denials issued both in Ottawa and Washington, P. W. Wilson, United States correspondent of the London Daily News continues to assert that discussions have been carried on between representatives of Canada and the United States regarding Oriental immigration and the defence of the Pacific Coast. A recent cablegram which Mr. Wilson sent to his paper reported that the war vessels recently acquired by the Canadian Government would be sent to the Pacific to co-operate with the United States fleet there. Official denial of this was issued in Ottawa, but Mr. Wilson maintains that his information was correct. In an interview printed in a local paper he said:

"The approaches between the United States and the British Dominions are—despite denials, which are usual in such cases—amply confirmed, and I may now tell you frankly how the present situation arose. When the Pacific Ocean came under special notice at Washington, Canada had to decide whether she would safeguard her coast line or leave its defence to her southern neighbor."

"With characteristic independence the Dominion concluded that she must play her own part in the Pacific, and her acceptance of the British squadron was merely common sense. For her to build such ships when Britain was scrapping them would have been folly. Also the experience of British officers was an important factor and may prove of assistance also to the United States. "Acting alone, the Canadian fleet would be useless against a first-class naval power; for it contains neither capital battleships and battle cruisers nor the facilities for docking and repairing them." Association with a fully organized navy was therefore essential, and this navy must be either British or United States. Lord Fisher had concentrated the British navy in the North Sea, and in the East there are neither the ships nor the bases for the fleets required to consort with Canada and Australia."

"Britain would therefore have had to build somewhere in Asia or the Pacific Ocean a base as big as Rostov or Portsmouth, to which there were two objections: first, expense, and second, the certainty that the United States would regard the development as a challenge. Hence the decision of the British government that the Pacific must be left to the dominions, acting with the United States if such cooperation should develop."

Discussing the building of Japanese battleships in British yards, Mr. Wilson says:

"It is manifestly difficult for the British government to press for a reduction in the programme of the United States navy unless there be a guarantee that Japan shall have no more warships from British yards to be used potentially against British Dominions."

GERMAN AIR SYSTEM MAKES RAPID STRIDES

Berlin, Jan. 24—The daily air mail between Berlin and Gelsenkirchen is now linked up with the important manufacturing districts with a 20-mile radius of Essen by means of a regular service of motor-cycles, to which the local mails and parcels are transferred from the aeroplane by the postal authorities on arrival at the terminal aerodrome. The air mail leaves Berlin at 10 a.m. daily and Essen is reached in two or three-quarters hours as compared with 10 hours by rail. The German Air Ministry is endeavoring to make arrangements for the establishment of an air port at Cologne with a view to linking up at that city with direct air services to Paris and London.

The German postal authorities have contracted with the Bayerische Rumpferwerke Aktien Gesellschaft for a regular daily air mail service between Augsburg, Munich, and Frankfurt-on-the-Main. The capital of the company has also been increased from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 marks. A regular daily air service has also been decided upon between Koenigsberg, Munich and Riga for the carriage of passengers and freight. Trial trips have already been made, the whole distance being covered by aeroplane in five hours as compared with three days by the present rail service. The regular air mails, it is stated, will commence next spring.

Illuminating gas was in early days regarded as dangerous. It was supposed to be on fire in the pipes, and even when it was introduced into the British House of Commons the members were seen feeling the pipes and showing surprise at finding them cool.

The chemist then went into an exhaustive analysis, bringing himself up to the molecule which he traced with eight circles and then showed how it broke into two triangles of three circles each, the positive and negative poles, with the two free molecules of oxygen between.

"You must confine yourself to a light diet," said the doctor gravely. "No fear," said John junior. "I knew a man who died through putting himself too much on a light diet."

"Really?" said the doctor. "Yes he ate the phosphorous ends of matches."

National Chorus CONDUCTOR

Dr. Albert Ham, conductor of the famous National Chorus, says:—"PEPs are excellent, and you are at liberty to publish this expression of my opinion."

Madam Clara Butt, writing on behalf of herself and husband, Mr. Kennerley Rumford, says:—"We have formed the very highest opinion of PEPs after using them regularly for some considerable time. They are quite unique in their invigorating effect upon the throat and chest."

PEPs strike directly at the seat of lung and throat troubles. As they dissolve, they release rich, healing pine fumes, which are breathed down right to the lungs. Cough mixtures, syrups, etc., only go to the stomach. For hoarseness, sore throat, coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all ailments of the throat, chest, and lungs, PEPs are best. IN AND ABOUT TOWN

ARRESTS MADE IN GARNEAU CASE

Claimed Two Prisoners Are Now Held In Montreal—Further Developments Soon

Feverish interest was aroused in this city last night when a despatch was received from Sudbury, Ont., announcing that an arrest had been made in the Garneau murder case.

The despatch read as follows:—"Sudbury, Ont., Jan. 24.—An important arrest had been made here in connection with the Garneau murder case which stirred Quebec last July. The arrest was made by the local police working in conjunction with the Quebec Provincial officers. Further developments are expected."

No Official Confirmation. Mr. Charles Lanctot, Deputy Attorney General, when told about the Sudbury despatch said that he had not been informed of the fact that an arrest had been made there. He expressed confidence that within five or six days his detectives would have everything cleared up.

Prisoners in Montreal. Later last night the Chronicle was informed from an authoritative source that the Government detectives had two prisoners in Montreal, who would be arraigned in a few days to answer the charge of the murder of Blanche Garneau here on the 22nd of July last.

An attempt was made to have this version confirmed by Mr. Lanctot, but he could not be reached. It has been known for some time that one of the parties alleged to be connected with the crime was in safe-keeping in Montreal, and this was even intimated by Premier Taschereau when he stated on the floor of the Legislative Assembly last week that the Government knew the names of the guilty parties and one of them could be reached any time.

The general belief is that the Government will confront the two prisoners and when a full confession has been obtained the men will be arraigned in court.

ELECT TRUSTEES OF ST. PATRICK'S

Meeting Of Parishioners Was Held In St. Patrick's Church On Sunday

At a meeting of the members of St. Patrick's Congregation, held in St. Patrick's Church, MacMahon St., on Sunday afternoon, the triennial election of trustees was held.

Mr. Edward Foley was called to the chair, while Mr. P. W. Barnard acted as secretary. The scrutineers were Messrs. P. Devine, R. O'Connor, Martin Egan and John Noakley.

The trustees were elected as follows:—

Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Mr. Edward Foley, Mr. D. D. O'Meara, Mr. Patrick Hogan, and Mr. R. Timmons.

After the election a vote of thanks was passed to the Rector and Fathers of the parish for their able administration of affairs of the parish. A vote of thanks was also passed to the chairman, the secretary and the scrutineers.

A short address was given by Rev. Father Costello, Rector of the Parish, who was accompanied by Rev. Father O'Sullivan.

Did you hear Mr. Prevost and his Jazz Band at the Montcalm Dansant? He's a dandy, and has "some banch" with him. Tonight at 9.

REV. FATHER HOLLAND GRATEFUL TO FRIENDS.

Rev. Father Holland, C.S.S.R., of St. Patrick's parish, wishes to thank all his Quebec friends for the sympathy extended to him in connection with the death of his brother in Montreal, recently.

THOUGHTLESS WOMEN?

The Colored Jazz at the Montcalm Dansant will delight more crowds tonight, starting at 9 o'clock.

MR. G. B. RAMSEY MADE PRESIDENT

Elected At Annual Meeting Of The Citadel Brick And Paving Co., Ltd.

The Citadel Brick & Paving Block Co., Limited, held their Shareholders Annual Meeting on Wednesday the 19th instant.

The Directors' Report, for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31st, 1920, was submitted to the Shareholders and was very satisfactory. The sales for 1920 show an increase of 90 percent over those of 1919.

This increase in the business is due to the large extensions, which were made during the year, in the Company's plant.

These extensions have increased the capacity of the Company's plant to 100,000 bricks daily, besides a large quantity of Terra-Cotta Blocks. The prospects for the coming year are very encouraging, and judging by the many enquiries there is every reason to believe, that construction will be very active during the coming year.

The death of the late Hon. S. N. Parent was referred to and the following resolution passed: "Moved by Mr. G. E. Tanguay seconded by Mr. Thos. Parent, That the Shareholders of the Citadel Brick & Paving Block Co., Limited, have learned with the deepest regret the very sad and unexpected death of the President of the Company the Hon. S. N. Parent. Being their first meeting since the lamented death of the Hon. S. N. Parent they wish to place on record their very deep sense of the loss this Company has suffered in the death of its first president, the Hon. Mr. Parent, and they join their sympathies to those already expressed by the Board to the late Hon. S. N. Parent's bereaved wife and family."

The Directors elected at the meeting were as follows: Messrs. G. B. Ramsey, Geo. Parent, Wm. MacPherson, P. Arthur Laurent, Herman Young, G. Emile Tanguay, and Henri Gagnon all of this city.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors Mr. G. B. Ramsey was elected President to succeed Hon. S. N. Parent; Mr. Geo. Parent, M.P., was elected Vice-President; Secretary Treasurer Mr. P. A. Galarneau was re-elected.

Quebecers may be justly proud of such an industry as the Citadel Brick & Paving Block Co., Limited. The Works are among the best equipped of their kind and produce brick which both in beauty and quality are the equal of the very best made in America.

ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING OF ST. JAMES CHURCH

Was Held At Lake Beauport Recently, When Officers Were Elected

The Annual Vestry Meeting of St. James' Church, Lake Beauport, was held recently in the Church, and was well attended. The Rev. R. R. Roy Presided.

Mr. Chas. Smith, Warden, presented an excellent financial statement, showing a balance on hand after all accounts had been met.

The budget system was approved of and adopted. The amount paid towards the Clergyman's stipend was voluntarily raised twenty-five percent.

The following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year. Clergyman's Warden, Mr. Chas. Smith; Peoples' Warden, Mr. John A. Taylor; Vestry Clerk, Mr. David K. Smith; Auditor, the Clergyman. Mrs. D. K. Smith and Miss Florence Simons were appointed as a Committee to look after the purchasing of some new church furnishings.

Heartily votes of thanks were tendered to Mrs. D. K. Smith for her services as organist, so kindly rendered, to the Wardens and to all others who helped to forward the work of the church in this Parish.

The meeting was most harmonious and a splendid spirit prevailed throughout.

LETOURNEAU GOES TO PENITENTIARY

Chief Justice Lemieux Pronounced Sentence In Arthabaska Trial Yesterday

Alphonse Letourneau, the Victoriaville merchant, who was tried at Arthabaska on the charge of having murdered his nephew, Alphonse Auger, and was found guilty of manslaughter by the jury on Saturday night, was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary by Chief Justice Lemieux yesterday morning.

It will be recalled that last year Letourneau shot his nephew in a hardware store, and when the case was submitted to the Grand Jury, "no bill" was the decision of that body, and he was liberated. At the present term of the Criminal Assizes at Arthabaska, however, Letourneau was re-arrested and was committed for trial with the result given above.

RAILWAYMEN IN PRIVATE SESSION

C.P.R. Representatives Will Familiarize Themselves With Winter Sport At Quebec

The C. P. R. Traffic Agents, who are assembled in Quebec for a four days conference and to study the question of winter sports at Quebec, will hold private sessions at the Chateau Frontenac during their stay in the city, and at the same time make daily excursions, to become familiar with the wonderful local possibilities for winter sports.

In the meantime passenger business in general, in connection with the C. P. R. System will be discussed in anticipation of a banner season for the year 1921.

Yesterday the visitors attended the various curling rinks to witness play in the Centenary Bouspiel, now in course of progress. They expressed their admiration of the arrangements made by the Quebec Curling Club for the big event, and their appreciation of the enthusiastic interest taken by the visiting as well as the home players in the game.

REAL JAZZ AT THE MONTCALM DANSANT

Opening Last Night Of Prevost And His Company Of Colored Musicians Marked An Epoch In Dancing Circles In Quebec

Naturally, everybody wended their way to the Montcalm Dansant last night, to hear Prevost and his company of colored musicians. To say everyone was delighted is putting it mildly.

The patrons were treated to real jazz something new and different, with a "hip" and "pep" that made everyone dance as they never did before.

The orchestra is headed by Mr. Prevost and his playing on the violin and xylophone was a treat in itself. The banjo player is a marvel and he works in harmonic and catchy "touches" which are enjoyable and new.

The fox trots and one steps were jazzed up to the minute, while in the waltzes the orchestra "tuned down" to produce a brand of music which was a pleasure to listen to and a delight to dance to.

The large crowd enjoyed every minute of the evening.

Mr. George Thomson, was in charge of the ball-room and was the essence of courtesy and attention to everyone. His solicitude for each individual gave everyone a good time.

The same excellent jazz plays tonight, starting at 9 o'clock.

At The Theatres

CHRONICLE'S REVIEW

THE VICTORIA

It is the age old, struggle that never grows old, nor loses its power to give enjoyment when delineated on the stage or screen, which gives "punch" and "pep" to "Just a Wife", which is the feature attraction at the Victoria for the first half of the week.

Richard Emerson, an engineer, is fascinated by Eleanor Lathrop who shows him the road to unlimited power. He becomes a railroad magnate feared and respected by all. However, his heart is empty. He had married Mary Virginia Lee, but almost immediately they had entered into an agreement to live apart. Separation proves to both that they love fervently, madly. There is Eleanor, however, who stands between them. She is the power behind the railroad man's throne. Finally he throws down the gauntlet to her. He has come to realize that it is the unsophisticated woman, the "Just a Wife", whom he must have to know happiness.

A comedy and serial complete the bill.

THE CLASSIC

The bill at the Classic this week is one that is well worth seeing for there are several excellent pictures on the program. First comes Mary Miles Minter in "A Cumberland Romance", showing the diminutive star in an entirely different role, one that has a real heart interest, and that makes the spectator think of days when he or she were young.

Then comes the second episode of the serial "Velvet Fingers" as well as a two reel comedy with Bill Parsons in the feature role, and the Bray Pictograph, Topics of the Day and the Classic Weekly News, were also shown.

Not a single painted set, no cabaret scenes or anything except the picturesque mountain scenes could be seen in the feature film, and it made a pleasant change.

All in all, "A Cumberland Romance" is a picture worth seeing, and pretty little Miss Minter is a star worth watching, for her work, while finished and satisfying, shows promise of even bigger things when she really grows up.

THE CANADIAN

A double bill is again holding the boards and attracting the crowds to the Canadian this week. The features are May Allison in "All Men Alike", and Earle Williams in "Diamonds Adrift."

The latter is seen at his best in "Diamonds Adrift", which is a tale of love and adventure, and in which the redoubtable Earle takes a leading part. It is a film that will find favor in the eyes of a great number of picture lovers in the Ancient Capital.

The other star, May Allison, has a story that enables her to show her wonderful powers of acting, and is cast in a role that fits her like a glove. She portrays some great stuff, and has a character that will win the hearts of anybody, no matter who they be, who witness the film.

There are in addition to the two feature pictures, a good comedy and other short subjects on the bill.

THE AUDITORIUM

This week's bill at the Auditorium seemed to find favor in the eyes of the audience at last evening's show, if their applause was any criterion, for they applauded long and heartily all five acts. The Warner Amores Trio, with a variety act that included music, dances, juggling and several other little things got a great hand from the audience while Harper and Black, a pair of colored entertainers and dancers, also ingratiated themselves into the good graces of the crowd. They pulled off some very clever dancing, and went big.

Baranah and Grohe, a man and a woman in some classic dances fairly took the house by storm, particularly in the savage dance, which made the onlooker imagine himself back 2 hundred years ago.

Fennell and Tyson, in a clever impersonation act, with songs and some novelties, also went well with the audience, and they were well applauded.

The last, but not the least, was Ben Melrose, a pantomime comedian, did some very nice balancing stunts, and the way he played the fiddle on a saw was very good.

There are two good pictures on the bill.

THE EMPIRE

Tsuru Aoki, the wife of Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor is cast in the leading role of one of the features that go to form the double bill at the Empire for the first half of this week, and she is seen in a film which is a comedy drama of modern times, though a picturesque touch of antiquity is seen in several places in the film.

The scenes of the picture are laid both in the land of Nippon and in the States. In the title role the star appears as a little Japanese girl, betrothed by her uncle to a wealthy but repulsive suitor. She appeals to an American tourist to have her, and brings her to the States as his bride. From then on, complication set in right up till the end of the film.

'STRANGLER' BEAT
EARL CADDOCK

Former Champion Lasted One
Hour And Thirty Four Minutes

New York, Jan. 24.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, of San Jose, Calif., successfully defended his world's heavyweight catch-as-catch-can wrestling title here to-night, by throwing Earl Caddock, a former champion, in one hour and thirty four minutes. Lewis won with a combined head and hip lock.

The winning fall came as a dramatic climax to one of the most terrific mat struggles ever seen in the East. Caddock appeared to be the winner up to within one minute of the finish.

After an hour and a half of wrestling Caddock gained a terribly punishing toe-hold and for one minute and ten seconds he struggled to force Lewis' shoulders to the mat. The champion in his agony beat the floor with his fists, and cried aloud, but his voice was drowned in the terrible uproar for Caddock. The former soldier was a tremendous favorite with the 10,000 spectators who watched the contest.

Twice Referee Gies, Bothner asked Lewis if he would quit, but twice he refused, although his face was distorted entirely out of human resemblance and streams of perspiration were pouring from his face.

With a last desperate effort he kicked himself free, and staggering to his feet, leaped upon Caddock and clamped his famous deadly head lock around the Iowa's face. Three times Caddock broke the punishing hold and staggered to his feet only to have Lewis regain the grip.

On the second and third lock, Lewis picked up Caddock bodily and threw him to the floor, plunging his weight on top of the fast weakening challenger. The second crash combined with the grueling punishment which Caddock had received, left him helpless and he collapsed on his back as the referee slapped Lewis, the winner.

When Lewis rolled off Caddock the latter lay like a dead man on the floor, and when his manager and others scrambled through the ropes to his assistance, it was all they could do to lift him to his feet. A chair was placed beneath him in the center of the ring, but he rolled to the floor again and a call was made for a doctor.

This drew the crowd to a frenzy, for Caddock had been cheered lustily throughout the evening, while Lewis was steadily booed and derided.

Cries of "Kill the murderer" went up and there was a concerted rush for the ring. Caddock's manager waved the excited wrestling fans back and when Caddock was seen to recover and walk to his corner, danger of a riot quickly passed.

Caddock was the overwhelming favorite when he entered the ring while Lewis was greeted with boos. These did not stop until Caddock crossed the ring and shook hands with the champion. The weights were announced as Lewis 228 pounds Caddock 188 pounds.

Sporting Notes.

In the Ligue Nationale games last evening Loyola continued on their winning way by defeating St. Valler by 7-2. The last time these two teams met, they played a tie game, each scoring once. In the other game of the evening, St. Charles defeated Vickers, after six minutes of overtime had been played, by a score of four to three.

There will be a meeting in Montreal today of the Registration Committee of the C.A.H.A. to discuss the question of the cards for the Quebec players.

"Strangler" Lewis retained his title of world's heavyweight wrestling champion as a result of his victory over Earl Caddock, the former titleholder, when he threw after one hour and thirty four minutes of tough grappling. Caddock got a toe-hold on the champion that distorted the latter's face, and made the referee ask him if he wanted to quit, and the big crowd looked on, but when the "Strangler" broke loose and clamped on a head-lock, they started to yell "Kill the murderer."

George Kennedy is after Bouchard, the Voltigeurs star, for his Canadian team, and he seems determined to get him, for it is alleged that Kennedy offered to bet one hundred dollars that Bouchard would not get his amateur card, and when Kennedy starts to talk about betting real money, it looks like the real thing.

Bouchard said last evening, however, that he would not sign a professional contract with Kennedy for any consideration whatsoever.

There will be a double header in the Junior League this evening.

The Centenary Bonspiel got off to a flying start yesterday, and the local clubs upset quite a few of the visitors.

Prof. J. R. Young leads his splendid company of 7 musicians at the Auditorium Dansant tonight. For real music, as pleasant to listen to as it is to dance to, hear this orchestra at the Auditorium Dansant tonight.

WILLIE HOPPE
HERE ON SUNDAY

World's Billiard Champion
Gives Exhibition In K. Of C.
Hall On Monday

Champion Hoppe and Professor Peterson will arrive at the Chateau Frontenac Sunday morning. The exhibition game between these two great experts will take place Monday evening in the large hall of the Knights of Columbus Grande Allee at 8.15 sharp.

The admission tickets are now on sale at the following places: Chateau Frontenac, Garrison Club, Billiard Room of Frontenac Club, and at the office of the Knights of Columbus, Grande Allee, Quebec.

The admission fees are $1.00, $2.00, $3.00 and $5.00. All seats will give a good view of the Billiard table so that all the shots made by the champion of the world and his partner will be seen by the spectators.

Amongst those that have reserved seats for this fine billiard exhibition are: His Honor the Lt.-Governor, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, the Hon. Adolphe Turgeon, Hon. Honore Mercier, Mayor Samson and several Aldermen.

The large hall of the Knights of Columbus will be beautifully decorated for the great exhibition. Before the match, Professor Peterson will give a short lecture on billiards.

Exhibition game will begin at 8.15 sharp, Monday the 31st of January.

THE MAIN BOUT
SHOULD BE GOOD

Charlie White And Young
Green Ought To Provide Great Scrap

Only three more days before Charlie White hooks up with Young Green, of Montreal, in the main bout at the Drill Hall for the scraps under the auspices of the 5th Machine Gun Brigade.

The bout ought to be enough to pack the fans in so tight that they'll be like sardines, for the pair of them will put up a scrap that'll make them stand up on their feet and yell for more.

The pair of battlers have already hooked up in Montreal, and Green got the paper decision, but as the bout was only over the six round limit, Charlie figures that he can turn the tables on his opponent, who has one great little record. Green has met twenty two opponents, and has yet to be defeated. His last eight bouts have been via the knockout route, and to-night he faces a hard route, and to-night he faces a hard route, and to-night he faces a hard route.

Charlie White is also fighting to-night. He clashes with Kid Marshall, whom he has already defeated on two occasions last year, once at the Drill Hall, and once at the Auditorium.

While this is the main bout, another that should create considerable interest among the boxing fraternity in this city is the scrap between Badoud and Legare. The first named is the scrappier who created such a favorable record in France that he was adjudged one of the best at his weight. Since crossing the Atlantic Badoud has only engaged in a half dozen battles, among them being one with Jack Britton, the world's welterweight champion, and another with Eddie Fitzsimmons, who is recognized as one of the hardest hitting boys in his class in the States, and in both cases he held the men to a draw in no-decision bouts.

It will thus be seen that Legare is up against a hard proposition, and that if he emerges victorious, the win will be a distinct source of pleasure to him. He says that is a fact that remains to be seen.

Joe Williams and Joe Montminy will meet in a preliminary bout, while there is another bout on the bill.

OLD NEWSPAPER

OUT OF EXISTENCE
Portland, Maine, Jan. 24.—The Daily Eastern Argus, the oldest daily newspaper in Maine, passed out of existence with today's issue. It will be succeeded tomorrow by the Portland Herald, published in the same plant, but by a new company, in which those financially interested in the Argus have been reinforced by a number of local business men.

The Argus has had 115 years of uninterrupted existence.

SERIOUS FIRE

AT CALLANDER
North Bay, Ont., Jan. 24.—A destructive fire started this afternoon in the village of Callander, about seven miles from this town, in some unknown manner and destroyed Wilson's grocery store, Dr. Shaw's drug store, and the Hydro-Electric Commission's power line from Nipissing, besides seriously disturbing the service on the telephone party lines.

The Pacific Hotel at Callander caught fire several times, but the villagers managed to save the building.

The amount of the loss to the owners of the burned buildings could not be ascertained.

As a result of the burning of the Hydro-Electric line in the fire at Callander, the town of North Bay, was without electric light to-night.

SNAPSHOTS OF
LEADING CURLERS

Brief Biographies Of Some Of The Leading Exponents Of
"Roarin' Game"

Tom Delaney.

Mr. Thomas Delaney, who occupies the important position of President of the Quebec Curling Club, is one of the outstanding figures in the curling world. He joined the club in 1893, and from that period has been an ardent supporter of the "roarin' game." This is the second time that he has occupied the honored position of President, which he adorns in a manner in keeping with the dignity of "the Prince of Good Fellows." Among his legion of friends he is known as "the luckiest man in this world." Being, as his name indicates, an Irishman, he never loses an opportunity of displaying that hospitality for which his race is so noted, and the dinners he gives to the members of the Quebec Curling Club on St. Patrick's Day are anticipated with the greatest pleasure, and every one deems it an honor as well as a privilege to be a guest of the popular President on these occasions. Although he has never won a prize he is an excellent skip, but believes in playing the game for pleasure rather than for "pots." Visiting curlers as well as local, will join in wishing him many years of life to enjoy his favorite pastime.

Romeo Langlais.

Romeo Langlais, 1st Vice-President, is one of our most enthusiastic French-Canadian curlers. The splendid support which Mr. Langlais has given the Quebec Curling Club, both on and off the ice, has proved of great value both to the executive and members. He has occupied the position of President which is sufficient proof of his popularity amongst the members of his club.

Frank Stocking.

Probably no man in sporting circles in the Ancient Capital or outside of it has done more for the promotion of curling than Frank Stocking, President, Frank Stocking. An all-round sportsman, there is hardly a branch of sport in which he has not participated, and is favorably known throughout the Dominion as one of the cleanest and most gentlemanly players in every form of sport in which he has taken part. He is a past President of the Quebec Curling Club and also a past President of the Canadian Branch of the Royal Canadian Curling Club. He has also had the honor of representing, in 1909, Quebec on the Canadian team to Scotland. Frank Stocking has the distinct honor of having won both the Senator and Chalmers Cups in the yearly bonspiel held in Quebec.

W. Lambton.

The immediate past President of the Quebec Club is now in Scotland as a member of the Canadian Curling team, and from all reports is giving a splendid account of himself by upholding the credit of his club and of his adopted country in the "roarin' game." In this Bonspiel "Billie" Lambton will be much missed as he is a skip of exceptional ability. His brother currier in the Ancient Capital extend to him their best wishes for his future success in the remaining international games.

C. H. Handley.

Charles Handley, who occupies the position of Hon. Treasurer, of the Quebec Curling Club, was initiated in the game in 1911, and since then has made remarkable progress, having won his way to the important position of skip. This year he shipped to victory in the Quebec District for the Jubilee trophy, the finals for which are to be played in Montreal next month. In the past he has been a strong adherent of bowling, in which he gained high honors, and still holds the record in this city for single strings. In his official capacity as Treasurer he has proved invaluable to the Quebec Club.

Gordon Perry.

Gordon Perry commenced his curling career in the City of Montreal, in 1902, and upon removing to the Ancient Capital in 1908 joined the Quebec Club. Has occupied the position of Secretary for the past five years, succeeding the late lamented currier, Mr. S. J. Grogan. He has participated in all the curling events both in Quebec and Montreal, and having attained to the dignity of a skip, has always given a good account of himself. He is a "blue nose" of the first water, having been born in Yarmouth, N.S., more years ago than he cares to say.

Rev. J. J. Wright.

The popular Chaplain of the Quebec Curling Club, the Rev. J. J. Wright is one of the most enthusiastic curlers in the Ancient Capital, and his interest in the game is such that he thinks nothing of crossing over the ocean from the distant city of Lewis to Quebec, even when the most tempestuous seas are running, to fulfil his curling engagements. As an after dinner speaker he is ideal, and his witty "salutes" always appeal to that bump of humor which all devotees of the game possess.

DONALD O'CALLAGHAN

WAS SURRENDERED.
Norfolk, Va., Donald O'Callaghan, Lord-Mayor of Cork, was surrendered by his counsel, Judge Joseph T. Lawless, to Immigration authorities here this afternoon. He immediately was issued a "seaman's certificate" and it was said that he could ship aboard a foreign-bound vessel at his convenience.

The plans of the Lord-Mayor, who arrived here as a stowaway, and without a passport, were said to be indefinite.

PADDY SULLIVAN
GETS REINSTATED

By Registration Committee Of
A.A.U. Of Canada Which Met Yesterday in Montreal

Montreal, Que. Jan. 24.—The Registration Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada for the Province of Quebec met this afternoon and considered the case of Paddy Sullivan, of the Royal Bank Hockey Team, and decided that he was fully entitled to amateur privileges and to have his amateur card returned.

In the case of Jack Lahue, the Committee recommended that the man whose name is alleged to have been forged to certain papers testifying that Lahue had failed in his amateur obligations, take action in the criminal court.

The man in question is stated to be one of the best known sporting authorities in the city.

After a suspension of two years from amateur hockey, Jack Lahue was this afternoon given a probationary card "to play amateur hockey" by President Granger of the Quebec Hockey Association on the advice of R. E. Melville, Secretary of the Quebec Branch of the Amateur Athletic Association of Canada.

During the season of 1918, while manager of the Vickers here, Lahue was suspended on the affidavit made by J. R. Doure, claiming that he had committed an infraction of the amateur rule.

Shortly afterward Lahue's amateur card was cancelled and he has not played in organized hockey since.

On the presentation of affidavits by J. R. Doure, one made by himself and one from Leo Danvers, Lahue was placed in good standing pending an investigation.

The ruling enabled Lahue to play with Nationals against M.A.A.A. in their City League fixture to-night.

Another player, J. A. Sullivan, was also placed in good standing by the Registration Committee of the A.A.U. of C. today and played with M. A.A.A. to-night.

TWO BROTHERS ARE

CHARGED WITH MURDER.
London, Ont., Jan. 24.—Norman Garfield, aged 24, and Clinton Garfield, his brother, aged 29, both of Toronto, arrested here Friday night on suspicion of being implicated in recent robberies, have been charged with the murder of Ben Johnston, of Woodstock, proprietor of a confectionery store, who was held up and shot there on Thursday night, January 20, at 11 o'clock.

The charge has been laid by R. N. Ball, Crown Attorney at Woodstock. They will appear in police court here Tuesday when the formal charge is made, after which they will be taken to Woodstock.

Montreal Syndicate Are Angling With Tex Rickard For Big Scrap

New York, N.Y., Jan. 24.—At the office of Promoter Tex Rickard it was stated tonight that as far as was known he had not been in conference with representatives of Canadians who desired to stage the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Montreal.

Tex Rickard this afternoon told the Canadian Press that he had received a telegram from C. F. Graham and Frank Goodspeed, vice-president of the same company, were negotiating with Tex Rickard, one of the fight promoters. Mr. Graham said that a meeting had been held in the Windsor Hotel the latter part of last week, at which it was decided that if those present attended to matters sufficiently the world's heavyweight championship would be staged here. An amount exceeding what it was said Tex Rickard wanted to bring the two fighters here, viz $700,000 was voted. Today a representative in New York seeing Rickard in the interest of the two promoters. When he returns on Wednesday a syndicate will be formed of the New York interests and approved to the terms offered. The syndicate will then start seriously to work.

A Definite Move.

Montreal, Jan. 24.—A definite move to bring the Dempsey-Carpenter fight to Montreal was announced this morning when C. F. Graham, President of the Eastern Canada Securities, Ltd., stated that both he and Frank Goodspeed, vice-president of the same company, were negotiating with Tex Rickard, one of the fight promoters. Mr. Graham said that a meeting had been held in the Windsor Hotel the latter part of last week, at which it was decided that if those present attended to matters sufficiently the world's heavyweight championship would be staged here. QUARREL OVER
MONEY MATTERS

The Motive Assigned For Killing Of Dartmouth College Student

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 24.—A quarrel over money matters was the motive assigned for the killing on October 17, of Elmer C. Drewes, a Dartmouth College senior, by Assistant-District Attorney James Gay Gordon, Jr., in his opening address to the jury, when the trial of Wm. P. Brines, a University of Pennsylvania sophomore who is charged with the murder, began. Drewes and Brines had been friends since their high school days in West Philadelphia.

Gordon told the court that the prosecution would show that Brines had told various persons of his animosity towards Drewes, and of his intention to do him bodily harm. A jury was selected today and three witnesses heard.

The prosecutor stated that Brines had seen a letter to Drewes, for the purpose of luring him to Philadelphia to his death, and the remnants of this letter had been found in the furnace of Brines' apartment.

A HOMELIKE BUNGALOW

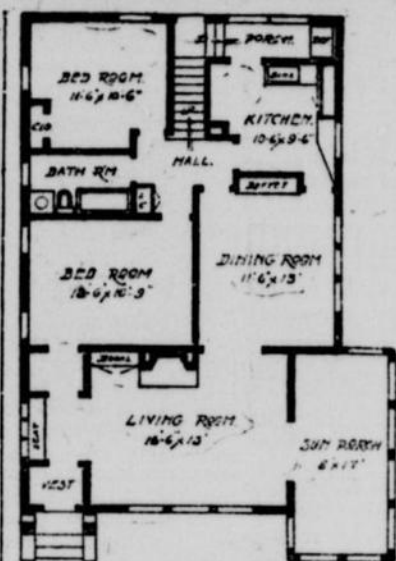

DESIGNED BY CHAS. S. SEDGWICK.

BUNGALOWS took the "bungle" out of housework, someone has facetiously remarked. Just how near the literal truth that statement is, can be vouched for by almost any woman who has ever lived in a bungalow.

"Never will I ever consent to live again in a house with stairs," said one housewife the other day to the writer of this little sketch. "Why I feel years younger since I don't have to run up and down stairs and I can clean my bungalow clear through in one morning."

The bungalow shown today has an exceptionally happy floor plan, and at the same time it makes a most charming appearance. It is constructed of frame with wide siding up to the window sills above which it is finished with stucco and shingles. The roof is shingled and stained. The flooring is of birch and the casings are of fir, mission stained. Entrance is through a little vestibule which, like the bathroom, has a tile floor. A window seat in the tiny hallway and a glimpse through the arched doorway of the living room of the red brick fireplace with its built-in book shelves alongside it at once emphasizes the home-like atmosphere of this home. The sun porch directly off from the living room is a delightful spot and furnished with flowers, plants and plenty of wicker furniture with gay colored chintz coverings and hangings. It makes a room in which any host or hostess would delight to entertain their guests. The dining-room is featured by a pleasant grouping of windows—ideal spot for plants and flowers—and a built-in sideboard. A tiny back hall divides the two bedrooms and bath from the rest of the house, thus assuring privacy and quietness. This bungalow has an upstairs which with comparatively little extra cost, could easily be completed and made into two rooms. It also boasts a basement which is seven feet six inches high. The height of the main story is nine feet. The total width of the house is 26 feet and the total depth, 42 feet. To build this bungalow it is estimated from between $4,000 and $5,000 will be required; that estimate is exclusive of the plumbing and heating.

Unusually Good Vaudeville At The Auditorium

From good to better seems to be the slogan at the Auditorium, these days, because this week's vaudeville which opened yesterday was even one point better than last week's splendid show. And the large houses which, yesterday, greeted the opening performers proved their marked appreciation of the bill for all acts were heartily applauded.

The Werner Amores Trio proved exceptionally popular. Music, dances, juggling, everything this trio attempts is a perfection, even to the impersonation by one of the trio of Charlie Chaplin's antics. He was cheered to the echo. And their music is wonderful, especially a piano, cello and violin selection that kept the house under the spell.

Harper and Blank, colored entertainers and dancers were one of the big lines, while Baranash and Grosh, man and woman in classic dances took the house by storm, particularly in the dance of the savages, a most realistic dance interpretation of savage life.

Fennell and Tyson have a clever male-female and re-male impersonation with songs and talking novelties. Bert McRoe, a pantomime comedian is very amusing in his stunts of balancing. He goes as far as playing the fiddle on a saw, which amuses to no small extent the audience.

Pictures comprise Madge Kennedy in the big society drama "The Highest Bidder," a comedy and Pathe Weekly.

Crowds See Mary Miles Minter in Her Latest and Best Picture at the Classic

"Velvet Fingers," the Serial, Is Great

An entirely different play is "A Cumberland Romance" showing Mary Miles Minter in her greatest portrayal which opened at the Classic Theatre yesterday for 3 days.

The picture was different and refreshing, not a single cabaret scene. No painted sets, just the unusual, genuine, picturesque mountain scenery. It even has a different love theme and Minter is at her best in a different role. It is a truly an excellent picture everyone, from the youngest to the oldest, will enjoy.

The second episode of the serial "Velvet Fingers" everyone proclaims it the best serial they ever saw was thoroughly enjoyed by the whole audience, whether "serial" fans or not. This is surely one serial that can be safely recommended.

Bill Parsons in a 2 reel comedy keeps everybody in spasms of laughter. The Bray Photograph was a splendid feature of the bill; while the Classic Weekly News and Topics of the Day added still more to the enjoyment.

The best Orchestra in Town" (the Classic) as the theatregoers put it, discoursed programme which left nothing to be desired.

MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL

January 21st, 1921.

Quebec, January 22nd, 1921. Present: His Worship the Mayor, Aldermen Bertrand, Bouchard, Collier, Delagrè, Fiset, Labrecque, Lesage, Mercier, (9).

The minutes of the last meeting are read and adopted.

Her Friends Said She Was Going to Die

WHY MRS. MARKLAND PRAISES DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She suffered terribly, and lost sixty pounds, but Dodd's Kidney Pills started her on the road to health.

Pictou, Ont., Jan. 24.—(Special).—Enthusiastic in her praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills is Mrs. Finlay Markland, a well-known and highly respected resident here. And Mrs. Markland is always willing to tell why she pins her faith to the great Canadian Kidney remedy.

"Two years ago I had a bad attack of flu and pneumonia," she states, "and the poison in my system all went to my kidneys and gave me diabetes. I had it for nearly a year before I knew it, but last fall I broke out all over with boils.

"I suffered something terrible. I went down in flesh till I lost 60 lbs. The doctor put me on starvation diet. I could not even put my shoes on. My husband and all my friends thought I was going to die.

"Reading of what Dodd's Kidney Pills had done for another woman with kidney trouble led my husband to get some for me. After I had taken two boxes I began to feel better. I have taken 21 boxes and feel splendid. I can do my work and eat almost anything I have gained 20 lbs. I tell all my friends what grand pills Dodd's Kidney Pills are."

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the best remedy for sick kidneys.

ALARM CLOCK FOR HENS.

Berwick, Pa., Jan. 24.—Councilman Lester Lutz, a chicken fancier, tried several weeks ago the experiment of placing electric lights in his chicken pen that would switch on about four o'clock in the morning.

As a means of getting more eggs from the hens, the chickens refused to be disturbed. Then Lutz got an alarm clock and put that in the pen set for four a.m. He has since increased the "output" of his twenty leghorns by from six a day to from twelve to fourteen eggs a day.

A woman is the recipient of the first honorary degree of Master of Arts to be conferred by Boston University, at Wuchang, China.

The woman thus honored is Miss Mary Elizabeth Wood, who for twenty years has been in charge of the university library.

Each year for the past thirteen years the American-born Duchess of Marlborough has presented a silver cup as a prize for one of the district horticultural shows held in London.

At the annual prize-giving this year announcement was made that it would be the last, as the Duchess was leaving England to take up her abode abroad.

Among the notable visitors likely to create a stir in Washington toward the end of this year will be the much discussed Mrs. Asquith, wife of the former British premier. It is expected that some time next winter she will pay a visit to her daughter (the former Miss Elizabeth Asquith), now the wife of the Prince Antoine Bibesco, who is to be the Rumanian diplomatic representative in the United States.

In Italy a servant girl will cook a five-course meal with charcoal that costs but a cent or two, all hot, and when the last course is served the flame will be out, with little ash and no waste of heat. The cookery will be excellent, and the cook will also act as waitress. She also does the general housework. Her wages in pre-war days averaged less than five dollars a month.

THOUGHTLESS WOMEN?

COULD GET NO HELP SAYS T. OVILA COTE

Montreal Man Tried Seven Years to Find Relief—Tan-lac Overcame His Troubles

"Just give me Tanlac and you may have all the other medicines," said T. Ovila Cote, 3 Prefontaine St., Montreal, well-known machinist at Dominion Textile Co. Ltd.

"I had indigestion badly for nearly seven years. I lost my appetite and what little I did eat caused gas and terrible pains in my stomach and around my heart. At times my legs would get as cold as stone and I was so weak I could hardly stand up. I was so nervous the noise at the shop almost drove me distracted, and my hand shook so that it was difficult to hit bolts with my hammer. I had such severe headaches I could hardly sleep, would wake up several times during the night and was as tired in the morning as when retiring the night before. Goodness only knows the different medicines I took, but nothing seemed to help us.

"Why, this Tanlac is the greatest medicine I ever took or heard tell of. It has built me up until I actually feel like a brand new man. I can eat heartily of anything I want and am not bothered anymore with indigestion. My legs are alright and my nerves are as steady as they ever were. In fact, I am a well man and Tanlac did it. Tanlac is absolutely the only medicine that ever helped me and I am glad to make a statement like this, as it may influence others to try Tanlac and be benefited."

Tanlac is sold by Martel & Dion and Jolicoeur's Pharmacy.

Lecture by Dr. A. T. Love, in the Kirk Hall, 8 p.m.

Womens' Work.

The Ladies' Musical Club is holding one of its regular concerts this afternoon in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The subject of the lecture which Dr. Love will deliver tonight in the Kirk Hall, is "Robert Burns."

Today is being observed throughout the city as "Yard Day," somewhat on the principle of the "Found Day" recently held for the benefit of Le Creche. This time clothes are being collected and dress materials by the yard, the most useful ones being flannel, flannelette and sturdy cotton. These donations will be used in clothing the poor who are inmates of the Home of the Mothers of Nativity.

Outgrown or discarded clothing that is still serviceable as well as material by the yard may be sent to any one of the following depots: The Mother House of the Sisters of Charity, 1 St. Oliver St.; Mallette Academy, 508 St. John Street; Noviciate of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Ste. Foy Road; Notre Dame du Chateau Academy, 207 Crematist St.; St. Bridget's Asylum, Grande Allee; Ecole de la Base Ville; The Palais School; School of Notre Dame de la Garde; Foulon School; Hospice St. Antoine; E. Dubois, 779 St. Valler Street, and Limolouo Convent.

RENDERS THE HUMAN BODY TRANSPARENT

Paris, Jan. 21.—A Russian physician, Dr. Wasmileff, has announced the discovery of a fluid which renders the human body transparent.

Flowers which he treated in the same manner also become transparent, he says, but apparently were otherwise unaffected. Before the war Dr. Wasmileff had a laboratory in Petrograd, but he is at present living in Paris. He refuses to reveal the nature of the fluid, but says it is a combination of a number of liquids.
