RETURNING CONFIDENCE REPLACES PANIC IN UNITED STATES TODAY

Banks Which Opened in Federal Reserve Centres Yesterday Report Deposits Exceeded Withdrawals—Roosevelt, Taking Advantage of Attitude of Congress, Expected to Press Other Reform Measures—Early Introduction of Farm Relief Measure Expected.

New York, March 14.—Citizens of United States smiled today, a fortnight since they saw their government lunging about in economic delirium, staggering from over-draughts at the flagon of fear and sick from the glow of dissipated confidence. Today it was different. Eyes flashed with new hope, for the financial snarls were being combed out.

Member banks of the Federal Reserve system located in the twelve cities where the Federal Reserve has district banks, returned gratifying reports for yesterday, the first day of their opening following the national bank holiday. In New York these banks reported more money received in deposits than paid out.

A single deposit in one New York bank was for $11,000,000. Cheque deposits were heavy, and so were cash.

EXPECT ROOSEVELT WILL RUSH FARM LEGISLATION

Washington, March 14.—President Roosevelt now is inclined, because of the way the United States Congress has responded to his requests, to keep the ball rolling through the emergency session until he has his complete extra meeting programme enacted.

Original plans for a short recess to permit drafting of a legislative scheme for the extra session virtually have been abandoned.

Consequently, Mr. Roosevelt was ready to work today on a message outlining his ideas for farm and unemployment relief. He has the assurance of Congressional leaders of enactment of the beer and economy legislation before the end of the week.

EVEN BROADWAY AFFECTED BY BUSINESS RESUMPTION

New York, March 14.—A box office spurt that perked up Broadway like its two a.m. cup of black coffee led the lane of lights to hope today that the "play will go on."

As late as yesterday afternoon, some legitimate producers wagged heads in gloom conferences and said "most of the shows will be closed by Saturday." Show business, not very hale and hearty for some time, had gone into a decline which the United States bank holiday indicated.

The holiday ended with a whoop yesterday, however, and last night most box offices reported that business was "exceptionally good."

EXTEND FACILITIES TO STATE BANKING HOUSES

Washington, March 14.—The Robinson bill to permit state banks to borrow directly from the Federal Reserve system for one year was approved today by the United States Senate banking committee with the understanding it would not be pushed if it is found it duplicated existing law.

The committee referred to the Glass subcommittee the McAdoo, Vandenberg, Fletcher and other bills proposing creation of Federal guarantee or insurance funds for bank deposits.

WALL STREET NOW AWAITS REOPENING OF EXCHANGE

New York, March 14.—With banking facilities restored to virtually a normal basis here and in many other cities, Wall Street's interest today turned toward resumption of trading in the security and commodity markets, perhaps on Thursday.

Plans for reopening of the New York Stock Exchange were progressing, it was said, and some activities of the exchange were being restored.

The money desk, at which brokers arrange their loans, was opened today and a five per cent. rate for call money was posted. This figure compared with an official renewal charge of 3 1/2 per cent. on Friday, March 3rd, the day before the exchange closed. Also, it was the highest since January 8th, 1930.

Firmness of money, bankers pointed out, was a natural aftermath result of the outpouring of gold and currency which preceded the banking holiday.

FESTIVAL GAILY OBSERVED
Jerusalem, March 14.—Parade of the festival commemorating the defeat of Haman's plot to massacre the Jews, was celebrated this year with unprecedented joyousness and gaiety.

At Tel Aviv streets were a mass of color, houses were covered with decorations, and all thoroughfares were crowded. Visitors were estimated at 100,000.

THE WEATHER

SNOW AND RAIN

The deep low area which was over Nebraska yesterday now covers the Great Lakes, while pressure is high over the Northwest States and Manitoba. The weather has been fair and cold in the Western and Maritime Provinces, and unsettled with snow and rain in Ontario.

Forecast: Easterly winds, with snow and rain. Wednesday cloudy and still unsettled.

New England: Snow or rain to-night and Wednesday; slowly rising temperature tonight; colder Wednesday night.

Temperature yesterday: Maximum 35, minimum 12.

Same day last year: Maximum 20, minimum 4.

STERLING IS OUTSTANDING FEATURE ON NEW YORK EXCHANGE MARKET.

New York, March 14.—The Canadian dollar displayed fractional irregularity today on local foreign exchanges. Opening weak at 83 cents in United States funds, down three-quarters per cent. from Monday's close, it strengthened slightly in later trading when noon quotations were at 83 3/16. The United States premium on Canadian funds stood at 20 3/16 per cent.

The pound sterling was the outstanding strong spot on the market. It gained 2 1/2 cents at the start and held its own.

DEMONSTRATION AGAINST BELGRADE POLICE

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, March 14.—The Croat leader, Viadko Matchek, and the Slovene leader, Father Anton Koroshez, were brought to Belgrade today to be tried for treason. Thousands of students rioted, hurling tear gas bombs at the police.

Father Koroshez and Matchek were arrested recently in connection with a drive by King Alexander's government apparently aimed at crushing Croat and Slovene dissent.

Latest U.S. Financial News

Secretary Woodin of the Treasury today announced new currency is available to state banks through Federal Reserve member banks and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

All sections of the country report a swing to normalcy as banks in Federal Reserve cities lead the procession of re-openings.

Hundreds of banks in clearing house cities have been granted permission to open their doors today.

State banks are rapidly opening, depending on the state authorization. Revival of business has been noted in several lines as restrictions against withdrawals are relaxed.

The American dollar is showing strength as trading in it is resumed on various bourses of the world.

Deposits were unexpectedly strong, with withdrawals average, bank officials stated after the first day of business following the holiday.

Fred I. Kent, New York investment banker, has been named by the Federal Reserve Bank as "dictator" of foreign exchange.

The heavy flow of gold back to banks continued today.

GOVERNMENT MEASURE TO RELIEVE OWNER OF MORTGAGED PROPERTY

Bill Would Extend Payment of Principal on Mortgages for One Year Under Certain Conditions—Another Measure Would Prevent Municipalities Erecting Trade Barriers Against Outsiders—Bill Provides for Contested Municipal Elections—Hope to Adjourn House by April 1.

Montreal, March 14.—Relief for embarrassed property owners facing maturing mortgages is promised in a bill to be introduced in the Legislative Assembly by the Government within the next few days, Premier Taschereau declared here yesterday. The proposed law will give relief by suspending until May 1, 1934, the payment of mortgage principal due, under certain conditions.

Terms of the proposed new law were outlined by the Premier as follows:

No action can be instituted by mortgagees or creditors against the mortgagor or creditors against the mortgagor in the Superior Court for non-payment of matured mortgage principal due, unless a notice of this kind is given to the debtor or proprietor. Within thirty days the proprietor will have the right to appear before a judge of the Superior Court and ask a suspension of the payment of the principal due. Such a suspension can only be granted by the Superior Court upon proof being filed to the following effect:

1. That the property owner has paid all taxes due on his property.

2. That he has paid up all interest due on the mortgage loan.

3. That he is able to prove to the court that he cannot meet the mortgage principal due.

4. That the creditor is in a position to await for ultimate payment of the matured loan.

Under such conditions, the premier said, the Superior Court will empower to suspend payment of the mortgage loan until May 1, 1934. "By that time," he added, "another session of parliament will be under way, and if there is a need for further action in the matter it will be taken under serious consideration."

The premier also indicated that this suspension of mortgage principal would not apply to loans contracted on and after March 1, 1933.

A delegation representing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Union of Municipalities also waited on the Prime Minister and presented a draft for uniform regulation concerning the taxing powers of municipalities against outsiders. The suggested change to the Cities and Towns Act and the Municipal Code would:

That outsiders wishing to do business within the limits of a municipality be not called upon to pay a licence tax unless local business men engaged in the same business pay a licence tax to the municipality. If the local business firms pay such a tax, then the municipality will have the right to tax the outsiders from 25 to 50 per cent. higher—this in order to protect local interests only. But in the case where the local business man

TRAGIC STORY OF DISRAELI FIRE UNFOLDED AT CORONER'S INQUEST

Verdict of Accidental Death Returned at Investigation into Deaths of Three Youngsters in Flames that Destroyed Property of Mr. and Mrs. George Cote—Infant Boy, Seriously Injured in Fire, Not Expected to Live.

Disraeli, March 14.—The pathetic story of a tragedy that claimed the lives of three young children, obliging the parents to flee into the cold night, scarcely clad, and to stand there, horrified and helpless as the flames swept through their home and robbed them of their loved ones, was unfolded in the coroner's court yesterday when Leonidas Bachand, coroner of St. Lawrence District, opened an inquest into the deaths of the three children of Mr. and Mrs. George Cote.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Cote, situated a short distance from this place, was razed to the ground on Friday night last. Three children, Rene, seven years old; Yolande, five years old; and Conrad, two years old, perished in the flames.

Mrs. Cote sustained severe burns about the face and hands, while her ten-month-old son, rescued from the burning house, was also seriously injured.

Dr. J. N. Plante, of Disraeli, advised the Record this morning that the boy's condition had grown worse and no hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Coroner Bachand held the inquest yesterday at the home of Gedeon Turcotte, who was Cote's neighbor.

The investigation was brief and featured by the evidence of only four witnesses, namely, George Cote, Mrs. George Cote, Dr. Plante and Gedeon Turcotte. The grief-stricken mother, scarcely able as yet to fully realize the enormity of her loss, is confined to her bed, suffering intensely from the burns and lacerations sustained when she escaped from the blazing building. Her testimony, taken in her sick-room, was exceedingly brief and consisted merely of corroborating what her husband had said.

Following the testimony of these four witnesses, the jurymen required but little deliberation to render a verdict of accidental death.

Mr. and Mrs. Cote and the infant son are at present staying with Mr. and Mrs. Turcotte—cruelly robbed of their three children, their home.

Gedeon Turcotte was the first witness to testify. He lives a few acres from the Cote farm. "I was in bed," he stated, "when the glow of the flames from the burning building woke me up. I dressed and hurried over."

The building was already in ruins. "I could see no one. I called out. I heard a voice answering me from the nearby barn." He hurried over

LEGAL BEER IN UNITED STATES EXPECTED SOON

Much Awaited Measure Will Probably Be Ready for Signature of President Before the Week-End.

Washington, March 14.—A new beer bill started today on a new charted course through a Democratic United States Congress pledged to its enactment, with the hand of President Roosevelt piloting it over the jagged reefs of opposition.

Responding to the Chief Executive's request to Congress yesterday to legalize beer for the purpose of obtaining about $150,000,000 a year in Federal revenue, the House was preparing to act today, and the Senate expects to send it to the White House before the weekend.

It is disclosed that the persons arrested are charged with participating in a conspiracy to wreck Soviet electrical stations and put out of commission state works served by those stations.

The company, which has been in the service of the Soviet Government about ten years, was reported to be within a few months of completion of its contract.

An official announcement said some of the British subjects arrested took an active part in the "wrecking activities."

The secret police disclosed a number of "unexpected and consecutive mishaps" at large electrical stations in Moscow, Cheliabinsk, Zuevo and Zlatoust.

CONDITION OF SIR HENRY THORNTON GRAVE TODAY

New York, March 14.—Sir Henry W. Thornton, former chairman of the Canadian National Railways, was reported in a serious condition today.

Sir Henry underwent the operation last Wednesday at Doctors' Hospital. Today it was reported that he was suffering from pneumonia and cerebral poisoning, and that his condition was extremely grave. The operation was performed by Dr. J. F. Erdman and Dr. J. J. Moorehead.

Lima, Peru, March 14.—Lt.-Col. Gustavo Jimenez, leader of a series of unsuccessful revolts in Peru, committed suicide today, the Government announced.

towards the barn. "And there I found Cote, his wife and the baby stove, a section of which was still weather prevailed that night. Realizing, as their home was converted into a blazing inferno, that they could do nothing, that their three young children, trapped in their rooms, had perished, they had gone to the barn for shelter. They had escaped from the burning house in their night-clothes," Turcotte said.

He took them to his home, and there Cote told him that he had awakened suddenly to find the house on fire. The flames had started in the lower section of the building.

"I saw the fire and three children had died in the flames."

"The following morning I went to the scene of the fire and found charred remains in the debris."

Turcotte was of the opinion that the fire had originated from the fireplace of which must have become disconnected.

A young man, twenty-eight years old, submerged in the greatest, the most cruel tragedy of his life, George Cote himself told of the fire that had destroyed his home and claimed the lives of his three children.

"We had gone to bed at eight-thirty o'clock," he said. "We all slept upstairs. Suddenly I awoke. The room was filled with smoke."

He awoke his wife, and the two, she carrying the baby boy, escaped from the building that way. They were then a seething mass of flames.

Cote's wife broke, "I tried to return into the house to rescue my children. I could not do so." The wooden structure was blazing fiercely. The walls were ready to crumble in. He could not fight his way past the flames.

His testimony was corroborated by his wife, Mrs. Irene Pailleux, while she lay in her bed in Turcotte's home.

The seven-year-old son, Rene, died as he tried to fight his way out of the building. His remains, scarcely recognizable, found about four feet from the door of his room, told the story of his futile effort. They were found in the debris by Dr. Plante a short time after the fire. Dr. Plante, in his testimony, stated that he had gone to the scene of the fire after attending to Mrs. Cote and the baby boy.

The jurymen at the inquest were Theodore Brochu, foreman; Emile Grimard, Ernest Roy, Eugene Gosselin, Johnny Gagnon and Joseph Audet, all of Disraeli.

OFFICIALS OF BRITISH FIRM ARE RELEASED

Six Englishmen and Twenty-Five Russian Employees of Electrical Company Are Forbidden to Leave Moscow, However.

Moscow, March 14.—Six British subjects and twenty-five other employees of the British Metropolitan-Vickers Electric Company who were arrested by the secret police were released from custody today but were forbidden to leave Moscow and were directed to report to the police every day.

The Telegraph Union news agency said there was an investigation of charges that the Englishmen were participating in sabotage damaging to the interest of the state.

It is disclosed that the persons arrested are charged with participating in a conspiracy to wreck Soviet electrical stations and put out of commission state works served by those stations.

The company, which has been in the service of the Soviet Government about ten years, was reported to be within a few months of completion of its contract.

An official announcement said some of the British subjects arrested took an active part in the "wrecking activities."

The secret police disclosed a number of "unexpected and consecutive mishaps" at large electrical stations in Moscow, Cheliabinsk, Zuevo and Zlatoust.

HUGE GOLD RUSH MAY END WEST COAST UNEMPLOYMENT

San Francisco, March 14.—Thousands of unemployed men may be sent on a gold hunt in California to answer America's cry for more of the metal and to provide the men with a living.

Governor James Rolph, Jr., and other state officers are favorably considering a plan which would provide for a systematic invasion of the areas which geologists estimate contain hundreds of millions of dollars worth of glittering wealth. The gold "rush" would have the sponsorship of the state or federal government, or both.

As originally proposed to Walter W. Bradley, state mineralogist, the plan called for the recruiting of 200,000 to 300,000 unemployed men to be grubstaked by the Federal

TOTAL PUBLIC DEBT OF CANADA PLACED AT $6,539,728,053.

Ottawa, March 14.—The total public debt of Canada, including Dominion, provincial and municipal obligations, was placed at $6,539,728,053, by R. H. Coats, Dominion statistician, in evidence submitted today to the Banking and Commerce committee of the House of Commons. This included debts guaranteed by the Dominion.

A NOVEL GOLD FIND

Porterville, Calif., March 14.—It was a gold find, by gum. As Game Warden Ray Bullard walked along Porterville's main street, some thing stuck to his shoe sole. It was a wad of gum. Disgustedly, he removed the gum with his knife at his office, after failing to dislodge it by scraping his foot on the sidewalk. Inside the gum he found a gold ring, set with two diamonds and two small rubies.

Ottawa, March 14.—A delegation from the National Service Council saw Hon. W. A. Gordon, Minister of Immigration, yesterday. The question of deportation, it is reported, was discussed generally. No announcement was made following the meeting.

Today On Parliament Hill

The Senate will today dispose of second reading of the sweepstakes bill, while further debate on the Railway Bill will take place in the House of Commons.

The Senate rejected a move to kill Senator A. D. MacRae's bill to legalize sweepstakes by giving it the six months' hoist, heard conflicting views from Senators on the ethics of gambling in general and lotteries in particular, and postponed second reading of the bill until today.

The House of Commons heard Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, announce Tuesday, March 21st, as budget day and spent the afternoon and evening debating the Railway Bill. Speakers were mostly from the Opposition side and included: F. G. Sanderson, Liberal, Perth South; D. M. Kennedy, U.F.A., Peace River; J. H. Harris, Conservative, Toronto-Scarborough; Samuel Jacobs, Liberal, Jacques Cartier; W. W. Kennedy, Conservative, Winnipeg North Central; Hon. J. E. TOURIST TRADE SHOWS BALANCE ON RIGHT SIDE

Expenditures of Tourists from Other Countries in Canada Last Year Placed at $194,000,000.

Ottawa, March 14.—Canada has a substantial favorable balance in its tourist trade in spite of the fact that tourist activities showed a distinct falling off in 1932 as compared with 1931, according to figures compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Expenditures of tourists from other countries in Canada last year are estimated at $194,000,000 and the expenditures of Canadian tourists in other countries are placed at $58,000,000, these being declines of $57,000,000 and $18,000,000, respectively, as compared with the preceding year.

Visitors through ocean ports were less numerous than the previous year, although there were thirteen more saloon class passengers. These tourists are estimated to have left $10,812,000 in Canada.

Automobile tourists from the United States were not as numerous either, although owing to the exchange situation those who came are stated to have remained longer and spent more money than in the previous year.

Automobile tourists spent approximately $145,507,000 compared with $188,129,000 in 1931. Rail and steamer tourists from the United States left behind some $38,000,000.

More Canadians went abroad by way of ocean ports in 1932 than in the previous year, increases in the number of saloon and third class passengers overbalancing the decrease in the cabin class traffic. The 30,608 Canadians who went abroad this way are estimated to have spent $19,255,000, compared with $19,550,000 by 29,963 in 1931.

Canadian automobiles entering the United States for touring purposes dropped from 836,855 in 1931 to 376,857 in 1932. Expenditures by the occupants averaged $72.30 per automobile and amounted to $27,247,000 last year compared with $20,000,000 in 1931. Rail and steamer tourists from Canada to the United States are estimated to have left $12,000,000 in Canadian money behind them, a slight drop compared with the previous year.

MONTREAL LIBERAL MEMBER URGES EARLY RAILWAY AMALGAMATION

Samuel Jacobs, Member for Jacques Cartier, Supports Cooperation Bill as First Step Toward Railway Amalgamation—Warns of Serious Condition of Private Railway Systems—Senate Debated Sweepstakes Proposals—Presentation of Budget Delayed to March 21st.

Ottawa, March 14.—Sweepstakes and railways are the dominant topics of debate in Parliament this week. The House of Commons is struggling with the railway legislation based on the Duff report, and the Senate is giving serious consideration to a bill to legalize sweepstakes introduced by Hon. A. D. MacRae, of Vancouver.

Discussion of railway matters is likely to continue in the Lower House for a few days, but today should bring a definite vote on the Sweepstakes Bill in the Senate.

Definite announcement of the budget date for Tuesday, March 21st, is somewhat later than was expected, and may mean a prolongation of the session. If the Railway Bill can be disposed of before the budget comes, however, it would expedite matters.

Unlike most other Liberals who have spoken on the railway measure, Samuel Jacobs, of Jacques Cartier, Montreal, has no fear of railway amalgamation. He believes the bill will bring about amalgamation eventually, although it is really intended only as a trial marriage and he supports it for that reason. Amalgamation, in his opinion, is the only solution of the problem.

A note of warning about the Canadian Pacific was sounded by Mr. Jacobs. That company would soon be in the hands of the receivers if present conditions continued. The Canadian National was receiving bond transactions from the Government and the Canadian Pacific would soon need some.

Most other Liberals, including the party leader, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, have warned against any merger of the two railways and sought more definite assurance in the bill that amalgamation will not take place.

SWEETZEY SEEKING RIGHT TO EXPORT ELECTRICITY

Ottawa, March 14.—That Robert O. Sweetzey has been active in efforts to pave the way for export of power by the Beauharnois enterprise to the United States was indicated in the House yesterday by Premier R. B. Bennett in giving oral replies to some questions on the order paper from E. J. Garland, Progressive, member for Bow River.

"No formal request" said the Prime Minister, "has been made to the Government with respect to the sale or export of power, but Mr. Sweetzey has in the course of conversation and other people, as well as I fancy connected with the enterprise, made the statement that they thought electrical energy could be sold in the United States. Therefore, to answer yes or no to the questions of Mr. Garland would be difficult."

"No formal permission to export power has been given nor has any request been made formally to the United States. In any event, the provisions of provincial statutes preclude the possibility of it being conveyed across highways or public places. This Government, and any government, as far as I know, is not in the habit of stating policy in respect of matters before the conditions necessitating the question of jurisdiction arises."

FARM OFFICER DISMISSED WITHOUT INVESTIGATION

Ottawa, March 14.—It has never been the custom to hold an investigation when a member of Parliament states to his personal knowledge an employee has been guilty of active political partisanship. Such was the Ministry's reply to a question in the House of Commons today, asked by P. F. Casgrain, Liberal member for Charlevoix-Saguenay. Mr. Casgrain requested information regarding the dismissal of G. N. Pelland, who had been chief herdman on an experimental farm of Ste. Anne de la Pointe.

On representation of J. A. Barrette, Conservative member for Berthier-Maskinonge, Mr. Pelland had been dismissed, the reply indicated. Mr. Barrette had informed the minister that "to his personal knowledge," Mr. Pelland had been guilty of active political partisanship. No investigation had been held.

LARGE GOLD COVERAGE FOR CANADIAN CURRENCY NOTES

Ottawa, March 14.—The ratio of gold holdings to combined Dominion and bank note circulation in Canada is 39 per cent., according to an answer given in the House of Commons today to a question asked by J. A. Bradette, Liberal member for North Temiskaming. On the last day of February the total Dominion notes in circulation was $175,701,103.19.

Total gold held by the Dominion against note circulation was $70,348,325.60. This included $12,500,000 against the first $50,000,000 of Dominion notes issued $57,757,103.19 representing full coverage against notes issued in excess of $50,000,000, and $1,222.41 representing gold held in excess of statutory requirements.

Gold held represents a coverage of 40 per cent. against total amount of Dominion notes outstanding. The amount of gold reserves held by the chartered banks of Canada amounted to $43,043,000. The amount of bank notes, etc., issued

THE HAPPINESS OF MOTHERHOOD It Depends Upon Health—Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"Before my first baby was born I was very ill and dizzy. My husband went to the drug store and bought a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and made me take it according to directions. It certainly built me up. The baby weighed eight pounds and we were both healthy. I have three children now and I am as young looking as the day I was married. cozy corners and archer. This pleasing effect was greatly enhanced by the beautiful costumes and the artistic crayon work which decorated the many blackboards. The receiving committee consisted of officers of the Literary Society: Messrs. Elsie Mizener and Margaret Philip and Messrs. Arnold MacKenzie and Thomas Bready. Mr. Bill Campbell presented each guest with a programme. They were further welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. McFadyen. Mr. Thomas Bready acted as chairman for the occasion and performed his duties with unusual efficiency. Interspersed with promenades and dances, for which the college orchestra provided the music, were a number of musical and literary selections all rendered by students taking some subject at the B. B. C. There was an address on the "History of Bugbee College" given by Mr. Arnold MacKenzie which would have done credit to an orator of long standing. In the course of this address, the speaker made reference to a stater entered into the records of the province of one of the largest firms in Canada, with head office in Montreal. The manager said he knew Stanstead Business College by her graduates and would never turn one away if he had an opening. This was followed by a well rendered vocal solo by Mr. Roger McKenney. Then "The Baseball Game." It was humorous, and skillfully handled, and was received with very hearty applause. Mr. Alex Gilbride's vocal was also well rendered and heartily applauded. Gordon Shipway and Mervyn Rogers provided some of the music for the dances to supplement the radio.

A dainty and tasty lunch was provided during the course of the evening. At eleven p.m., all joined in the double National Anthem and another B. B. C. "At Home" passed into history.

"THE PAPER"

By Joan Stouffer.

The Press that news arm reaching forth busily gleaming views of worth; Neatly captioning each news item; Are there foes? The Press is ready to fight em; Murky corners? The Press will light 'em; For the Press has influence.

The "Sherbrooke Record" daily proffers The best the franchised World Press offers. Then adds to that "Our City's" news. We, on editorial's deep thoughts, muse; All rural happenings here peruse; While "Recordings" interest and amuse; In a daily of strong comment.

WE NOW PROCEED TO CLIMB UP AGAIN.

The worst is over. We stand now on the threshold of better times, and with certain readjustments which can be co-ordinated in the building years to come, we can feel cheered and re-assured.

Much of our trouble has come from the reflected troubles of other lands. A grumbling neighbour is always a liability unless he has constructive thought and good cheer.

We have passed through an era of gaiety for the political nostrum vendors, the noisome persons who take advantage of other people's troubles, and who had heretofore only been able to prey upon trusting widows.

The United States hit bottom on the murky Saturday when a new President was being installed, and it brought to light the old fighting spirit of the Roosevelt clan.

The whole world was sick. But all the world is feeling better, for the worst was not so bad.

Knowing the worst, we can now proceed cheerily on our way, with confidence restored, and with the knowledge which begets the wisdom of experience. We are cautiously and carefully coming back.

STATE AID AND STATE INTERFERENCE IS A FROST.

State marketing and state help in the wheat markets of the United States helped to shoot down the values of wheat in that country.

Yet the Bennett administration promptly went into the wheat market to buy and to uphold the price of wheat, and thus demoralized the regular channels of trade. Who knows what the loss will be when the speculation is closed.

It has been demonstrated through the ages that private marketing and personal bargaining assure the highest prices for agricultural commodities that can be justified by supply and demand. And surely all experiments in paternalism, all state interference in business has inevitably depressed prices to new low.

Keep the government out of business. Get every government out of the fallacy of their vain efforts to direct what has to do with the private life of the citizen. Appeals to the government to do this and that only tangle things up in the doing. It ends in tragic failure, in a roll of red tape strangling personal incentive, and killing individual ambition.

For business playing politics is as playing with fire.

Our own Provincial Government, usually staid, conservative, dependable, ventured into accident insurance last year under the misnomer of workmen's compensation, and a loss of nine million dollars was unloaded on the taxpayers at large.

We erected a Department of Labour, and in doing so disturbed the employers of labour and weakened the growing idea that in Quebec there was a Land of Contented Labour. New industries may go elsewhere when they read of government interference in fair business.

Only by personal effort, by individual initiative and through strong incentive, can we encourage outsiders and insiders to look upon Quebec as the finest place for establishing industry with a surety of stability—and non-interference.

NOT THE TIME FOR A DUAL CURRENCY.

There is no reason why Canadian currency should not be printed in two languages and there is no reason why it should. No one reads what is inscribed on the bill anyway. Figures are the same in every language except the dead Roman. One just looks at the figure to see whether it is a one or a two, a five or a ten, or a century. If people would only read what is printed, it would be well to use several languages so that they would learn them all, and realize that every bill is merely a promise to pay and therefore it is not advisable to issue too many lest the issuing authority get into the same plight as an individual does who is too free with his notes of hand.

The knowledge that the question is but made to raise political prejudice among the Quebec members, and to arouse the racial cry one against another, calls for a rebuke. Jean is trying to catch Baptiste tripping in his militant allegiance to the tricolor.

French is the international language of the world in diplomacy, but English pounds and dollars are the commercial language of the whole world. Why be trifling?

"AND YOUR PETITIONERS WILL EVER PRAY."

It is now proposed to sing the National Anthem more slowly although it is generally sung so slowly that it drags, thus giving the irreverent, who do not realize that besides being the National Anthem it is a prayer, ample time to get on their overshoes and overcoats and start moving toward the exits.

Speaking of prayer, we heard of one recently that might be considered injudicious. The clergyman was not asking the Lord—he was telling Him. It wasn't a petition—it was a demand. It was not a supplication—it sounded more like an ultimatum, as if he were saying, "Now, I've brought these matters up several times lately and nothing has been done and I'm getting sick and tired of this delay."

There was no suggestion of humility or pleading about it but rather the aggrieved tone of a man who had done everything he could in setting forth the facts and pointing out the policies that should be adopted and whose patience has been well-nigh exhausted by official inaction, very like the tone nowadays used by spokesmen of deputations interviewing prime ministers about the economic situation and relief measures.

Prime Minister Bennett became testy when a petition was made in the form of a demand, and ordered the man out, and we presume the Supreme Being would meet presumption with rebuke.

Some Senators rejected the plea of the people for relief from the great railway burden, because those who paid the piper insisted upon having the right tune, the Senate thus feeling they were supreme to the people.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

Montreal sought to impose a supertax on the Light, Heat and Power Company, and even though it was less than the surtax imposed by Aldermen Langis and Gelinas upon the users of electricity and gas in this city, the Quebec Legislature decided it was an unfair discrimination. Montreal rates are lower than those of any city in Canada, even though that Company pays a million a year in taxes to civic, provincial and federal governments. But an increase in taxes would necessarily mean an increase in rates in a city which has enjoyed a gradual descending rate. In the days when people were less tax-conscious, less enlightened as to their being the ultimate payers, it was a popular thing to bang the utility corporations, on the partizan "kill the empire" cry. But people to-day know that wherever the taxes fall, the consumers pay in the end.

Prof. Traquair's lecture is a masterpiece of its kind. And the remaining three look just as good. You do not often get a series of such quality anywhere. William Phillips McVie has a great deal of credit coming to him for his persistence and energy in organizing these lectures in Sherbrooke.

Parallel to these lectures in interest and cultural importance are those in the French language sponsored by L'Union Musicale and L'Alliance Francaise. Several times already this season have distinguished speakers from France and the Canadian Universities spoken to large audiences in the City Hall auditorium.

The so-called depression, however it may have affected the business life of this community, seems to have brought with it an awakening of genuine interest in provocative ideas. The pace of living has slackened for all of us, and we have learned that the cost of entertainment has no necessary relation to its satisfaction. Our home life has returned to a natural level, and we have stopped trying to live up to the Joneses because there are not so many Joneses left to live up to.

The Canadians appreciate now more than they have appreciated for a generation the value of living simply, and there is a tendency, when folks get down to plain living, for them to turn to plain thinking as well.

And so the men who, all during the boom years, were working quietly and sometimes without any recognition at all in their studies and workshops, puzzling out and clarifying our problems for us while we were making whoopee, are coming belatedly into their own.

We are ready now to listen to what they have to tell us. And we are finding, to our gratification, that the "highbrow" things we had neither time nor patience to bother with before, are really pleasant things, inexpensive and entertaining, and profitable to boot.

RECORDINGS

By Ted Bullock.

Tonight, in the New Sherbrooke House, will be delivered an address which every citizen of Sherbrooke ought to hear.

No man who ever built a house, who hopes some day to build a house, or who lives in a house now, can afford to go in ignorance of what McGill's Professor of Architecture has to say about the builders' craft in this province.

I heard Ramsay Traquair deliver his lecture nine years ago, in Montreal's old Chateau de Ramezay. The walls of that splendid landmark must have whispered gleefully to each other as he spoke. For he made such a plea then for beautiful, sensible building that none who heard it were ever able again quite to forgive the contractors and architects who have defiled an art which once attained a high dignity in this province.

It is not my purpose to repeat here what Professor Traquair said then and will say again tonight. But I suggest as earnestly as I can that every citizen of Sherbrooke who does attend that lecture will come away from it a better Canadian.

Ramsay Traquair's address will be the third in a series of six arranged for the people of Sherbrooke by the local Y.M.C.A. and Teachers' Association, co-operating with the Extra Mural Departments of McGill and Bishop's Universities.

A one-time college student, a reporter for years, I am pretty hard-boiled in the matter of lectures. It takes a rattling good one to keep me awake. I have slept through a great deal of verbal thunder and lightning, and expect in my time to sleep through a great deal more.

But I have not even nodded so far in this series. Doctor Kiang Kang-Hu's analysis of the Oriental situation was a world-picture condensed in one vivid, striking tableau.

Dean Philip Carrington's sketch of New Zealand was as entertaining and provocative as Gilbert Keith Chesterton's observations on "The Ignorance of the Educated."

Professor Traquair's lecture is a masterpiece of its kind. And the remaining three look just as good.

You do not often get a series of such quality anywhere. William Phillips McVie has a great deal of credit coming to him for his persistence and energy in organizing these lectures in Sherbrooke.

HOSPITAL HAD $8,000 DEFICIT FOR PAST YEAR

Reports Presented at Annual Meeting of Sherbrooke Hospital Last Evening Revealed Fine Work Accomplished During 1932.

A net deficit of $8,417.02 in the past year's operating account of the Sherbrooke Hospital was revealed when the financial report was presented by Andrew Sangster at the thirty-seventh annual meeting of the institution held at the City Hall last evening.

Mr. Sangster, president of the hospital, in his report on behalf of the Board of Governors and of the executive committee, pointed out that free service during the year amounted to $12,762.88. Owing to present financial conditions the income from the private wards during the year had declined considerably, while public ward accounts, on the other hand, had increased. "A large percentage of these public ward accounts," he said, "are uncollectable, and even in those cases that are accepted by the Department of Quebec Public Charities we get nothing for operating-room, X-ray and other special departments."

Mr. Sangster presided over last night's meeting, which was fairly well attended and featured by reports of the medical board, the superintendent, five Congregational Hospital Ladies' Auxiliaries, and Officers for the coming year were appointed as follows: honorary president, H. A. Norton; honorary vice-presidents, M. G. Crombie, Dr. James Mackinnon, Hon. A. J. Brown, K.C., W. E. Paton and D. J. Salls; president, Andrew Sangster; vice-presidents, J. P. Wells, K.C., and A. C. Stevens; and secretary-treasurer, R. A. Bartlett. The executive committee for the year includes Dr. W. E. Baker, G. D. Wadsworth, J. D. Armstrong, David Wilson and Dr. H. D. Bayne, as chairman of the medical board. The honorees were re-elected for 1933.

In his report Mr. Sangster stated that the hospital property had been maintained in good condition during the year, needed improvements being made as required. The sum of $5,240 was expended for this purpose, and $9,676.45 had been added to the hospital's depreciation reserve, which now amounts to $34,088.05.

During the past year the hospital's investments have increased by $170. A number of two legacies, one from the late Mrs. Sarah E. Bothwell of $1,000 and another from the late Miss Amelia Egerton Aspinhall of $700 per annum of Canadian Pacific Railway stock. "Our total investments," Mr. Sangster said, "now amount to $105,765.37 at cost, and in no case has interest been defaulted, except on Canadian Pacific Railway stock bequeathed to us."

He said that during the year the hospital authorities had been advised of several generous legacies, but these had not been received in 1932. "We feel, however," he stated, "that public acknowledgment should be made at this time for $5,000 from the late Richard Fairlie Morris, $9,105.50 in cash and bank stock at value current when received, also a half interest in a property in Richmond, and cash and securities that may amount to approximately $15,000 from the late Miss Annie M. Reid."

Mr. Sangster continued to say that it was with deep regret that the hospital had received the passing of E. L. Stewart-Patterson, E. W. Farwell and Miss Annie M. Reid, all of whom were life members and governors. "Mr. Patterson," he said, "was a past president of the hospital and an active worker on its behalf."

The medical staff, Mr. Sangster stated, is maintaining the hospital's high standards in treatment and surgical and medical cases, and have added to the prestige of the hospital. "We are indebted to them for their active co-operation."

The total number of patients at the hospital in 1932 was 1,404, a decrease of sixty-five from the previous year, the superintendent's report, prepared by Miss Verma Beane, revealed.

The out-of-town patients again shows an increase over those from the city, three hundred and 804 patients from outside districts as compared with 654 from this city.

The hospital staff at present includes one superintendent, one operating room supervisor, one ward supervisor, one night supervisor, one X-ray technician, one dietitian and one instructor. There are thirty-nine nurses at the training school. Ten nurses graduated from the hospital on April 14th last.

Miss Beane stated in her report: "In March, the St. John Sherbrooke Chapter of the I. O. O. F. engaged a library in the hospital for the use of the patients, while in May new gas ranges, which were very much needed, were installed and are giving very satisfactory service. A donation of $200 was received from the late Miss Annie M. Reid for the purchase of surgical instruments for the operating room, while the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary have as usual given us a generous amount. To them we extend our thanks and appreciation for their work on our behalf. We are also very grateful to friends of the hospital, from whom we received generous donations and gifts during the year." In February last, she added, an appreciated donation of colored blankets was made by Mrs. Fairlie Morris.

The report of the medical board, prepared by Dr. W. W. L. Bayne, revealed the total number of admissions at the hospital during the past year to have been 1,494—486 men, 723 women and 285 children. Births totalled ninety-two. The deaths included sixty-three adults, four premature and three stillborn. Deaths occurred within twenty-four hours of

ASKS $10,000 FOR DAMAGES IN ACCIDENT. Echoes of a motor car accident that occurred on the Bury-Lingwick highway a year and a half ago were heard in the local Superior Court this morning when Judge Hector Verret inaugurated hearing in the case of Emile Bergeron, of Bromptonville, against Alphonse Roy, of Lake Megantic. Bergeron is claiming damages amounting to $10,000, of which amount $7,147.25 is for personal injuries sustained in the accident that occurred when his motor truck collided with a similar vehicle driven by Roy. Dalma Landry is acting for Roy, who has instituted a cross-demand for $1,940.20.

Bergeron alleges that on August 8, 1931, he was driving on the Bury-Lingwick road towards Sherbrooke at a slow rate of speed along a stretch of straight highway when he encountered the defendant. Roy, he claimed, was travelling at an excessive rate of speed, with his head lights full on. The glare from these lights blinded Bergeron's vision. He swerved his own car to the right hand side of the highway, dimming his lights twice as a signal to the driver of the oncoming car to also dim his lights. But Roy failed to heed the signal, Bergeron asserts, and continued to approach at a fast rate of speed in the centre of the road. His truck struck Bergeron's on the left hand side.

Bergeron states that he suffered serious injuries and had to be removed to the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital, where he was confined for five weeks. Several operations had to be made to save his life, and his left arm had to be amputated at the shoulder. As a result, Bergeron claims that his earning capacity is reduced sixty per cent, and he estimates damages suffered at $30,000. For the purpose of the present action, however, he reduces these damages to $7,147.25.

Roy, in this declaration, denies that he was driving in the centre of the highway or at an excessive rate of speed. He further claims that Bergeron's estimation of damages is grossly exaggerated. As regards the accident itself, he claims that as Bergeron approached, he, Roy, dimmed his lights, and when Bergeron failed to do likewise he put on bright lights in order to see the road and not drive into the ditch. At the time of the accident he was not travelling more than five or seven miles an hour, he declares, and asks that the case be dismissed.

A PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENING, SPONSORED BY THE WOMEN'S GUILD. The parish hall of the church of the Advent was last evening the scene of a largely attended and most enjoyable social event, given under the auspices of the Women's Guild. Dancing and cards were participated in most enthusiastically by the young people, who, happily enjoying the normal and well arranged party.

Throughout the evening the seasonable delicacy, sugar-on-snow, was served under the able conversership of Mrs. F. H. Bachelier, assisted by Cliff Bryant, William Peak and members of the Guild. The delectable sweet was served in gleaming tin pans piled high with snow at long white-covered tables. The golden wax-like sugar was constantly in demand from the opening hour until after the last dance; Mr. Bachelier and his band of assistants being at times pressed to supply the continued requests for "more sugar."

Cliff Bryant acted as treasurer, and the party was a splendid success, both socially and financially.

INTERESTING REPORTS PRESENTED AT Y.W.C.A. BOARD MEETING An unusually large number of members attended the regular Y.W.C.A. Board meeting and annual linen shower held yesterday afternoon at the MacKinnon Memorial. Mrs. J. F. S. McCaw, the president, opened the meeting by calling upon Mrs. W. H. Abbott to take the devotional exercises.

The financial report, presented by Mrs. David Wilson, treasurer, proved very satisfactory.

An attendance of 1,028 had been registered in the health educational department, Miss Ann Van Buskirk stated, this attendance being an increase over the corresponding months of the past two years. A life saving class had been organized, she continued, and was practising for the examinations next May. Miss Van Buskirk also gave a report of the basketball activities, adding that the team was going to Montreal this coming week-end.

Following Miss Van Buskirk's report, Mrs. McCaw said the Association's feeling of deep regret with which the Board accepted her resignation, as she had filled her duties very satisfactorily.

The house report, read by Miss Bulmer, revealed a slight reduction in the accounts owing since last month. Meals served had totaled 1,169. Gratitude was expressed to the ladies of St. Andrew's Church for the donation made to the Y.W.C.A. as a result of their recent annual tea and food sale for Y.W.C.A.

ands. Thanks were also expressed to those who had contributed to the linen shower.

Ten outside organizations used the MacKinnon Memorial Building during the month, holding twenty-six meetings, the general secretary stated. The "Brownies" had held four meetings. She added that letters had been sent to an equal number, drawing attention to the annual membership week and extending an invitation to attend this meeting.

A brief report of the Social Service was then read, and Miss Marjens gave a paper on "How does religion operate in the Association?" together with a synopsis of a Board members' conference held in Hamilton recently.

Afternoon tea was served by the refreshment committee, under the direction of Mrs. C. A. Turner and Mrs. David Wilson, assisted by Board members.

MODEL AIR CRAFT CLUB HELD SUCCESSFUL PAGEANT The keen progress which Sherbrooke's Model Air Craft Club is making towards the education of the city's air-minded youth was manifested at the pageant which the club staged at the Sherbrooke Regiment Armory on William street. There were no less than seventy planes entered, scale and flying models providing a large section of the exhibits. Norman Phelps entered models, while John McKay, of North Hatley, was the sole out-of-town entrant.

The scale models on display included a Curtis-Wright Junior, a Nieuport 28, a Bevanud, a Sopwith Dolphin, a Fairchild 71, a D.H. 6, a Puss Moth, a Flying Fool and a Laloui entered by Norman Phelps; a Camel, an S.E. 5 and a Fairchild 24, produced by A. Brodeur; an S.E. 5 and a Lockheed-Sirus exhibited by C. Willis; a Curtis Falcon and a Heath entered by F. Lenton; an S.E. 5, a Ford Triplane, a Lockheed-Vega and a Spad from M. Hume; a Loucheud-Vega and a Vought-Corsair by J. McKay, and a Curtis 8 entered by J. Mutchler.

In the flying models class, Norman Phelps captured first honors with a D. H. Moth; J. McKay came second with his Lockheed-Vega and Clifford Willis placed third with a Lockheed-Sirus. A Brodeur won the flying competition with endurance tractors with an average of fifty-five seconds, F. Palmer taking the runner-up position with an average of twenty-six and two-fifths seconds. Cliff Willis won the prize presented by Reg Smith for boys under fifteen years of age making the most points in the competition. Prizes presented by A. E. Willis included two beautifully mounted model planes and the Mod. Air Craft silver cup.

The success which attended this pageant prompted the officers to decide on an open air pageant to be held on the Parade Grounds towards the end of May.

Ask the Dow Girl!

Question:— I noticed in the newspapers recently a list of the "Big Eight" leading point makers in the National Hockey League and later got into an argument with some friends as to whether right-hand or left-hand shots were getting the most goals. Can you tell me from which side the various players of the "Big Eight" as published March 11th deliver their shots? L. P. Montreal.

... Have you found what every woman FEARS?

ARE headaches, sleeplessness, dull eyes, a sallow skin destroying your vigour and charm? These distressing ills often caused by drinking tea and coffee which contain tannin and caffeine, threaten every woman. There are, of course, many people who can drink tea and coffee in moderation without feeling the ill effects—without suffering from sleeplessness or other distressing disorders. But not everyone, by any means. Here is one way to banish nervousness, headaches, lack of sleep—

Drink Postum. You'll sleep better. Your nerves will be steadier.

COTTONS WON EASTERN TOWNSHIPS INDUSTRIAL TITLE LAST EVENING

Champions of Sherbrooke Industrial Hockey Circuit Defeated Coaticook Knights of Columbus in "Sudden Death" Fixture—Charlie Letarte Registered Two Counters and Maurice Parsons One, While Ashley Hibbard Kept Visitors Scoreless—Coaticook Made Fine Showing.

Sherbrooke Cottons' proud coat of arms today graced the Eastern Townships Industrial Hockey throne, and from their lofty pinnacle the successors to Southern Canada Power gazed upon the wrecked ambitions they had left in their wake.

Last evening Austin Workman's aggregation made a funeral pyre of Coaticook's hopes of representing this district in the provincial commercial play-offs. By a count of three to nothing, the cleanest team in the Sherbrooke Industrial circuit crushed the Knights of Columbus into the limbo of shattered dreams, but only after Doc Dupuis' band of puck chasers had staged a battle royal before succumbing.

led by an elusive right winger, Charlie Letarte, and a stellar defenseman, Maurice Parsons, Cottons buried the Knights' aspirations under a smooth arena surface, none of the interment of the hopes of many a valiant outside squad. Revealing unexpected strength, the visitors gave Cottons a stubborn battle, but could not overcome the protection which "Babe" Camire and his mates gave to the three-goal margin registered by Letarte and Parsons. Coaticook never gave up trying, but lacked the finishing touches to avert a shut-out.

Cottons, the entry which looked anything but championship-bound when it absorbed a five to one defeat from Coaticook in its schedule opener, last evening brought its long campaign to a successful conclusion. After a slow start, caused by Coaticook's unexpected strength as compared with the showing the visitors made against East Sherbrooke here last week, the local title-holders hit their stride and entered to a decisive victory. Backed by the stellar reminding of Ashley Hibbard, the blue and white-clad sextette slowly forged to the front and established its margin with a goal a period.

From goalie Joe Lemire to the last substitute, Coaticook gave a vastly improved exhibition in every department. Emile Drapeau, East Angus rearward, was a tower of strength on defence to counteract Cayer's weakness, while the two forward lines developed smooth combination efforts which kept Camire and Parsons, the Cottons' shock absorbers, on their toes continually. Lemire, awkward but effective, gave a masterful exhibition to thwart many promising sallies, while the work of Maurice Gendreau, Charlie Audet and Armand Desruisseaux featured Coaticook's attacks on Hibbard.

Cottons were not at the peak of their game, they did not register many scoring opportunities, but their combination lacked its usual precision, while their marksmanship was considerably below par. However, only infrequently were they obliged to adopt defensive measures. Penalties in the closing minutes of the third period witnessed them until but three men were left in front of Hibbard, but the brilliant netminder filled the breach until the teams were again at full strength.

Fast skating by both teams featured the opening of the game, but Coaticook's sudden attack disorganized Cottons' defences, and it was that the hockey was somewhat ragged. There was more life injected into proceedings when the second lines made their initial appearance. Gordon and the Shields boys replacing Durochers, Letarte and Laramee against Audet, Drolet and Favreau, who took over Coaticook's task from Desruisseaux, Gendreau and Couture. In the first six minutes Lemire did not receive a single shot, while Hibbard accepted five, the majority of which were easy to handle.

After Laramee had given Lemire his first shot, a soft drive from the Coaticook blue line, the regular lines returned and Favreau was shifted back to defence with Drapeau. Eight minutes had elapsed when Letarte went on his initial scoring errand, making the puck behind his own blue line. Letarte played the Coaticook pass to get by both Gendreau and Drapeau. Lemire came out of his cage as the puck carrier changed his course. The puck struck Lemire's skate and had sufficient momentum to complete the distance across the goal mouth. The tally applied the spark to Cottons' offensive and Letarte almost added a second point on a shot from the corner.

Cottons' supporters held their breath when the disc was deflected off Parsons' skate and bobbed by the goal post with mere inches to spare. Hibbard made a spectacular save on Audet's shot, and Frankie Mitton made his debut with Durochers and Letarte. The light wingman almost converted Durochers' pass into a counter, while at the other end Coaticook saw Gendreau's goal called back when Desruisseaux's pass was offside. As the period ended, Gordon was penalized for elbowing Desruisseaux.

Coaticook attempted to capitalize their advantage in manpower, when the second session started, but Camire, Parsons and Hibbard proved equal to the task until Gordon returned. Camire's long heaves found their target, but Lemire turned them aside and kept his citadel intact until Letarte appeared on the horizon. This time the smart winger did not try to get in close on the Coaticook cage. Instead he lifted a shot through Drapeau's legs and Lemire was caught helplessly out of position. Desruisseaux bothered Hibbard with his hard drives, but the pressure on the home team's fort was lessened when Drolet was benched as a breathing spell, but were forced to come out of their shells when Gordon was penalized.

In Gordon's absence Couture was left uncovered twice, but Hibbard blocked his progress and Laramee joined Desruisseaux from a scoring

AMATEUR TITLE-SEEKING RANKS MUCH REDUCED

Halifax and Antigonish Eliminated in Maritime Trek by Moncton and Saint John—Memorial Cup Play Narrowed Down to Western Canada Semi-Finals.

Moncton, March 14.—Moncton Hawks, with the Maritime "Big Three" Hockey League title dangling in their belt, today prepared for their battle with Saint John Beavers for Maritime hockey supremacy and the right to enter the Allan Cup playdowns. Moncton won a strenuous five-game series with Halifax when they took a four to one decision in the final game last night.

Saint John had an easier time winning the Senior "B" play-off with Antigonish Bull Dogs when they won last night's game by five to one and the round by nine to one. The winners of the Moncton-Saint John clash will meet the survivors of Montreal Royals-Quebec Granites tilt in Allan Cup play.

The Saskatoon Quakers today were nursing a two-goal lead for Wednesday's game with Edmonton Superiors as a result of their four to two victory in the first game last night in an Allan Cup playdown. The Saskatchewan title bearers travel to the home of the Alberta champions for the second game. Trail, the British Columbia titlists, will meet the winners.

Memorial Cup play narrowed down to Western Canada semi-finals as a result of last night's games. Brandon Native Sons overcame a two-goal Winnipeg lead and won the round for the Manitoba title by six to four. They now travel to Port Arthur to meet the Thunder Bay title holders in the first of a two-game Memorial Cup round with the juniors there.

Regina Pats earned a two-goal lead over Alberta's hard-hitting juniors from Calgary to take into the second of the two-game series at Regina on Wednesday night. The conquerors of Trail Juniors made a stirring effort to overcome a lead, but lost by three to one.

Nova Scotia's champion Truro Juniors take on Moncton in the first of a two-game round for the Maritime title tonight. The winners travel to Montreal to meet Royals, Quebec rulers, in Memorial Cup play. Sudbury Wolves will watch Stratford and Newmarket play their third game for the O.H.A. title tonight at Toronto, prepared to meet the winners of the round in defence of the Dominion title they won last year. Stratford has won one game and one has been tied.

Jack Powers and Bas Baker drew the officiating assignments. Their work was satisfactory, although there were perhaps a few sly pokes which their eagle eyes missed. No protest, however.

"Fudgey" Eddie McGinty, the auction bridge expert, was not among those present. Other business occupied the St. Pats Juniors' trainer, who has not missed many games this winter.

D'y ever read "How basketball should be played and how I play it," by Ken Flappers' Ken, whose activity in hockey circles this year has extended to the position of time-keeper, is a very efficient help to inexperienced reporters, as Saturday night's game at the Y.M.C.A. revealed.

The past performance chart counts for more in basketball than in most games, and such famous squads as the Winnipeg Toller, defending champions, Raymond Union Jacks and University of British Columbia in the West; St.

Catharines Grads, Windsor Alumni, Grads, Toronto West End "V" and Saint John's Trojans in the East, hold favored positions. Acadia University and Halifax Wanderers will decide the Nova Scotia championship, but the Maritimes' chief hope for a Canadian title rests with Saint John Trojans, who were beaten in the Dominion final last spring by the Winnipeg Toller.

The Toller, again senior champions of Manitoba, have only to defeat the province's intermediate titlists, Winnipeg, or the "B" series champions, University of Manitoba, to qualify for the playdowns. The minor series winners are to play a series to decide which enters the final against the Toller.

It will be University of British Columbia in the far west and Raymond in Alberta unless surprising upsets occur. In Saskatchewan the Regina Capitals, leading the southern schedule, are considered likely winners. Ontario's title may fall to Windsor Alumni, defending champs. Notre Dame de Grace, of Montreal, hold the whip hand in Quebec, waiting the result of a series between Sun Life and Nationale. They meet the winners of this series in the provincial final, then play Ottawa's champions. Five teams are still in the chase in Ottawa-Y.M.C.A. Kiwanis Diamonds, Britannias and Y.M.C.A.

BASKETBALL

TEAMS NEARING PLAY-OFF STAGE

Toronto, March 14.—True to form as usual, basketball big shots across Canada are nearing the play-off stage, primed for inter-provincial combat that will produce the Dominion's 1933 senior champion.

The past performance chart counts for more in basketball than in most games, and such famous squads as the Winnipeg Toller, defending champions, Raymond Union Jacks and University of British Columbia in the West; St.

Catharines Grads, Windsor Alumni, Grads, Toronto West End "V" and Saint John's Trojans in the East, hold favored positions. Acadia University and Halifax Wanderers will decide the Nova Scotia championship, but the Maritimes' chief hope for a Canadian title rests with Saint John Trojans, who were beaten in the Dominion final last spring by the Winnipeg Toller.

MAROON SQUAD WON JUVENILE HOCKEY TITLE

Defeated Lennoxville Red Jackets by Three to Two at Minto Rink Last Evening to Capture Championship by Round Score of Six to Four.

Sherbrooke Maroons, the name which occupied the Eastern Townships junior hockey spotlight for two years in succession and then faded from the local horizon, has again appeared in the limelight, this time as Eastern Townships juvenile monarchs. Last evening at the Minto rink the juvenile under-studies of the stellar junior machine of past years ascended the heights at the expense of Lennoxville's Red Jackets. In a fast battle which, however, did not measure up to the standard established at the first fixture of the play-off series, here last Friday night, Len O'Donnell's youngsters tacked a three to two defeat on their crimson-clad opponents to take the round by a score of six to four.

Lennoxville aspirations, raised when the Red Jackets trounced the Maroons by four to nothing in the last game of the schedule, to create a deadlock for the leadership and necessitate a play-off, were ground under the feet of a determined aggregation which realized that a miscue on foreign ice would bring disaster. Cautious hockey was the keynote of the Maroons' strategy, and the wisdom of this policy bore the desired fruits of victory. In the absence of Len O'Donnell, Bill Armstrong and Albert Kouri handled the visiting squad. They had a hard task on their hands, for the number of penalties inflicted brought added burdens in the form of replacing the banished players in such a manner as to maintain their slim margin. The overwhelming desire to prevent goals at any cost caused minor infringements of the rules, tripping being the chief offence with which the referees Lawrence Pergau and Stewart Dunbar, had to contend.

And from the hard-fought battle which kept a fair-sized crowd on its toes continually emerged new stars. On the Maroons' roster they were Eric Hall, Harry Kouri, Charlie Willis and Albie Horsfall, while Lennoxville's contributions were Russ Johnston and Shand. Hall did not get a chance to inscribe his name in the scoring column, but he gathered two points from the assists he gave for the two second-period Maroon tallies. Harry Kouri was responsible for the first goal chalked up by the visitors, while Horsfall and Willis accounted for the other two markers. It was Willis' first goal of the season and proved the prettiest tally of the evening. Shand tied the round score a few moments after the "crucial" fixture started, while Johnston put his team back in the hunt during the middle frame, a two-goal advantage held by the Sherbrooke squad, however, created too wide a gap to bridge, and the Maroons succeeded the Pirates as champions of their division.

Ker Jackson played a prominent role in the Maroons' victory. Playing safe with every shot which required his attention, Jackson turned aside everything Lennoxville had to offer after Johnston had notched his only point of the series. Horsfall received strong support from Henry Kouri, his defence partner, especially when his huskier mate was serving time in the penalty box. Kirby, Cohoon and Mac Dunsmore held their own as Maroons' starting line, showing fine combination and back-checking well. Doug Wootton was Maroons' defence relief and upheld the protection which Jackson received from his support behind the blue line.

Galvin gave a stellar exhibition between the Red Jackets' goal posts, but McMullen and Shand, his defence, did not play their usual hard-checking game. They broke up several promising attacks, but were weak in clearing. McCrea, Johnston and Raycraft measured up to anything the Maroons could afford, while Trenchome, Ross, Continued on Page 2.
