THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

(Made up for the Royal Mail Steamship Canadian.)

At no period in the history of the province has there been less excitement than at present. In the immediate neighbourhood of Toronto the majority of the people dislike the present ministry; but this dislike is not very loudly expressed. A belief is prevalent that, although Toronto is the seat of government, Quebec governs the whole country.

sheep—natives, Leicesters, South Downs, and Merinos. The Governor General and Governor Clarke of New York attended Kingston Fair, and also the Ministers of State, and Baron DeLottinbary, who, as Adjutant General of Militia appears to be ex-officio one of the Governor's aides-de-camp. There were "bear women," "Yankee giantsess," "skeleton men," wooden horses and other such gubernatorial attractions. Twenty acres of ground had been enclosed. The cattle, horses, and sheep were both numerous and good, and the swine middling. "Our correspondent" adds:—

The central space is occupied by the "Crystal Palace," a really handsome building, erected in the form of a cross; the sides are of glass, protected by wire fencing; the roof is covered with shingles; it has no galleries. The main entrance to the grounds is to the east and the exit on the north. There are plenty of policemen, special constables and committeemen, skanking their batons in the face of unruly cab drivers, and no carriages being allowed to return by the eastern entrance, we manage in time to surmount the various difficulties that beset us, and at last to enter the Crystal Palace. Here the arrangements are generally excellent. A handsome spruce tree has been planted at the central point; and at the same place a fountain ascends from the head of a bronze female figure, exhibiting a rather decided case of "water on the brain"; it is both handsome and ingenious notwithstanding.

Speaking of Kingston, we may mention that a noted criminal, Dr. Dill, who has been seven or eight years in the penitentiary, and who is supposed to have murdered and poisoned half a dozen persons, his wife among the number, escaped from his place of confinement, and is now at large. He seems to have left to make way for another murderer from this district, one Corvieve, who killed a wealthy mother-in-law, better than a year ago, and yet was suffered to remain at large, until only six weeks back, when being tried, he was found guilty, and sentenced to be hanged, and whom the Governor General has saved from the gallows, at the request of the Roman Catholic Archbishop.

The Governor General has published his reasons for commuting the sentence, which are, that although the judge and the jury, and he (the Governor) believe that the convict did murder his mother-in-law, he (the Governor) does not believe that there was more than "a grain" of legal evidence to justify the finding of the jury.

The excuse is looked upon as rather ingenious. Some time ago a man named Henderson, ran away with another man's wife and here is the result:—

MURDER AT COBURG. By the International Telegraph line we have the following account of a cold-blooded murder perpetrated yesterday, on board the steamer Arabian, at Cobourg: A man named Thomas Henderson was standing in the bar of the steamer Arabian, drinking a bottle of ale with the Purser. The Purser said he would go out for a few minutes, and started to go out, and saw a man pointing a pistol but he was only fooling; soon he heard a report of a pistol, and turned around in time to see Henderson fall. Henderson's brother advanced towards a man on the wharf. When he got within five paces the man with the pistol told him to keep back or he would "shoot" him as he did the other Henderson. The murderer was Brodgin, of Fort Hope. Brodgin was allowed to walk quietly away from the presence of 300 people.

This picture of "life in Canada" is not very flattering; but it is a proof of progress. We are becoming highly civilized. We do not hang, and murder is becoming quite a popular amusement.

By Telegraph. Boston, Sept. 26. The Steamship "Canada" arrived at her dock at 7 o'clock this morning. Halifax, Sept. 26. The steamship "Arabia" arrived at half-past 7 o'clock last evening, and sailed again for Liverpool at 9 o'clock.

The English mail is expected this afternoon. Yesterday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock, it became suddenly very dark and at five, first great drops of rain fell, then large lumps of hail. The hail storm lasted about a quarter of an hour.

CRIMING.—We see by the telegraphic summary of the Canada's English news, which appears in the Boston papers received yesterday, that "the criming system at Quebec is attracting attention from those interested."

REMARKS.—On Thursday night last, some one entered the hargard of Mr. Blouin, grocer, corner of Dorchester and King streets, St. Roch's, and helped her or himself largely to rice, fish, &c.

demand from the Grenadian Government reparation to the amount of $500,000; and in case of refusal, recommends the United States Government to take military possession of Panama. We presume that after a good deal of boasting and noise, the United States Government will allow the affair to end quietly. Such is their characteristic.

The Missouri Republican, Sept. 19, announces a death which occurred under singular circumstances. Capt. Benj. Watts, of Howard county, was seen walking out in his park, just back of his residence, about 12 o'clock. He had in the park some elk, deer, &c. At 1 o'clock he was found dead, pierced to death by the elk. He had some twelve or thirteen wounds, any one of which would have killed him. His clothes were all torn off, or nearly so. To all appearance he made an extraordinary effort to escape. He retreated to the fence, but was unfortunate, as the fence was very high one. From the stones by him, and the position of a fence rail, he evidently made a great struggle for his life. The tent of a small hill prevented any one from seeing him, or hearing his calls for assistance. The elk was shot after the calamity, and from the blood found on his horns there is no doubt of Capt. Watts having been killed by the animal.

THE PEOPLE PAY.—The Hamilton City Council on Monday evening recommended the purchase of ground, and the erection of a new market, at a cost of upwards of £50,000! The city expenditure since the first of January last reaches nearly a quarter of a million of pounds!

A physician in New York took a quart of strong tea, such as is generally used at ordinary tables, and boiled it down to a pint, and administered small doses to mice, which all immediately killed them. He then reduced it to a gill, and at that strength, one or two drops would destroy rabbits in a few minutes. The tea experimented upon was of good quality. This is encouraging to tea-drinkers.

THE FIRST ASCENT OF MONT BLANC was accomplished in 1741 by Richard Pocock, an Englishman. Of 88 persons who have since that time reached the summit, 57 were English, Irish or Scotch; 12 French; 6 Citizens of the Sardinian States; 5 Americans; 3 Swiss; 2 Poles; 1 Neapolitan; 1 Russian; 1 Swede. Three of these adventurers were ladies.

CONTEMPTIBLE INSURRECTION IN COLORADO COUNTY, TEXAS, SUPPRESSED.—We find in the Galveston News a letter dated the 9th ult., from Colorado county, Texas, giving an account of the discovery of a plot on the part of the slaves, aided by the Mexicans of that county, to rise and murder all the white people of the county, except the young ladies, which was to go into effect on the 6th inst. When the diabolical plot was discovered, intense excitement followed, and two hundred negroes were arrested. Every Mexican in the county is said to have been implicated. All the negroes were discharged, however, except three, who were hanged on the 5th inst. in compliance with the unanimous voice of the people of the county. Every Mexican was ordered forthwith to leave the county within five days, never to return again under penalty of death. The plan of operations was to murder all the whites, except the young ladies, seize these, and make for Mexico with all the plunder they could obtain. The letter is signed John H. Robson, H. A. Tatum and J. H. Hicks, Corresponding Committee, and has every appearance of being genuine.

THE COLLINS LINE.—We learn that since the government has decided to reduce the pay to the Collins line on account of the mail contract, the Company has resolved to reduce their rate of speed, thereby avoiding an increased ratio of wear and tear, diminishing the consumption of fuel, and lessening the size of the crews—arguing that if the government cannot afford to pay for great speed, private individuals cannot do so. The greater rate individuals cannot do so. The greater economy of the new arrangement is apparent from the fact that the average consumption of coal per day at high speed, is eighty-five tons; at low speed, fifty-five tons.—This is a difference equal to $4000 per voyage, and it is calculated that the saving in wear and tear of machinery will equal this amount; so that the total saving on twenty-six round trips, as required by contract, will exceed $200,000 per annum, or more than compensate for the loss of pay. It is claimed that there is nothing in the contract binding as to speed, but simply that the vessels shall be built for high speed.

AMERICAN PRINTING PRESSES IN LONDON. Among the passengers in the Cambria was Mr. Wm. Conquest, a gentleman connected with the celebrated establishment of R. M. Hoe & Co., New York. Some three or four months since Mr. Conquest went to London, having in his charge one of "Hoe's Six Cylinder Presses," for the purpose of putting the same in operation in Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper Office. The Journal, in a notice of the return of Mr. Conquest, says that the impression, not on the paper, but on the minds of our brother newspaper people in London, which the operation of the six cylinder press made was most intense, so much so that hardly had the first edition been worked off upon it before the proprietors of Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper had written an order to Messrs. Hoe & Co., "for another press of the same sort."

WIDE AWAKE.—The Monitor says that on the 8th September it being the anniversary of the capture of Sebastopol, the Emperor invited the 35th Regiment of the line, which is stationed at Biaritz, to a dinner. The privates and subaltern officers were entertained in front of the barracks by the Emperor; and the Empress, who carried in her arms the Imperial Prince, came suddenly among them. The officers afterwards dined with their Majesties.

The Grenadian Government have replied to the demand of the Government of the United States, asking for reparation and satisfaction for the injuries and loss of life on the part of United States citizens in Havana, on the 2nd of April last. The Grenadian Government admit that their power on the Isthmus was insufficient to quell the riot, and that it is in their power to offer adequate redress. Mr. Corvieve, one of President Pierce's Ministers,

EXPORTATION OF BALLOT BOXES TO CALIFORNIA.—On Saturday last a very novel shipment was made, through the well-known Express of Freeman & Co., to San Francisco. It consisted of seventy-five cases, each containing two Patent Ballot-Boxes, for the use of the public authorities at the next election in that State. The ballot-boxes are the invention of Mr. Samuel C. Jollie, of this city, to prevent the fraudulent polling of votes. The receptacle or box for the ballots is of glass, of a globular form, but thick and strong enough to resist a rifle ball or brickbat; and yet they are so perfectly transparent that every voter can see his ballot as it passes through the iron aperture into the box from the hands of the Inspector of the election. The transparent ballot-box is firmly secured in an iron frame, and can be attached by screws to the desk of the presiding officer, and thus all attempts at "stuffing" or other malpractice, by force or fraud, can be effectually prevented.—New York Courier.

GOOD HUMOUR.—Keep in good humour. It is not great calamities that embitter existence, it is the petty vexations, the small jealousies, the little disappointments, the "minor misadventures," that make the heart heavy and the temper sour. Don't let them. Anger is a pure matter of vitality. It helps nobody, and injures every body. It is always disgraceful, except in rare cases, when it is kindled by seeing wrong done to another, and even that noble rage seldom mends the matter. Keep in good humour. No man does his best except when he is cheerful. A light heart makes nimble hands and keeps the mind free and alert. No misfortune is so great as one that soured the temper. Till cheerfulness is lost, nothing is lost. Keep in good humour. The company of a good humored man is a perpetual feast. He is welcome everywhere. Eyes gladden in his approach, and difficulties vanish in his cheering presence. Franklin's immortal good humour did as much for his country in Congress, as any of the great statesmen's wisdom. He clothed wisdom with smiles and softened contentious minds into acquiescence. Keep in good humour. A good conscience and a sound stomach, and a clean skin are the elements of good humour. Get them, keep them, and keep in good humour.

THE ELEVENTH PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION OF THE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION OF UPPER CANADA. Kingston, Tuesday, Sept. 23. The eleventh Provincial Exhibition of the Agricultural Association of Upper Canada, was opened to-day (Tuesday) at nine o'clock, by the business portion of the press, being confined to the giving out the badges to the several officers who have been appointed, and arranging the various articles that have been brought in for exhibition. The officers of the Society here consist of the Board of Agriculture, the President of the Provincial Exhibition, and the Presidents and Vice Presidents of the several County Societies throughout the Province, or any two delegates they may think proper to appoint. This body declines where the next Provincial Exhibition shall be held, and likewise who shall form the leading officers of the Society. The Committee meets to-morrow morning (Wednesday) to select the judges for the several departments. It is expected that all the articles and specimens for exhibition will be properly arranged by to-morrow evening, so that the judges may be enabled to enter upon their duties and hand in the report by ten o'clock on Friday morning. Sometimes in the afternoon of Friday the premiums will be declared, and the President's address delivered.

The tract of ground on which the Exhibition stands is about a mile and a half from the city, and contains twenty acres, fenced in by a very substantial picket fence. The Crystal Palace building stands nearly in the centre, and is in the form of a Grecian cross, being 100 feet each way, by 25 feet wide. The sides are composed of glass, and the main building, which itself is covered with shingles. The building to the top of the transept stands 34 feet, and the extreme height is 60 feet. The enclosure is set with covered stalls round four-fifths of the ground for horses and cattle of the various breeds; those for sheep and hogs not being covered. Buildings are erected for the coarser manufactures. A large tent on the ground is occupied with dairy and field productions. There are also the following erections:—600 stalls for cattle, sheep, and hogs; 200 stalls for carriages, six refreshment booths, 60 feet long; a poultry house, 200 feet long; two band stands, 12 feet square, and a third 48 feet square; nearly 100 stalls for horses; three large barns for hay and straw; and three large sheds for sheep and cattle. The building is well supplied with water, and is a very convenient place for the exhibition of all kinds of agricultural produce. The Crystal Palace building is an object of great attraction, the outside presenting a very gay appearance, being decorated with the flags of all nations, but the inside is beautifully ornamented with garlands of evergreens hanging in loops from side to side, and interspersed with the branches of the most brilliant flowers. A beautiful fountain is in full play in the centre of the building, and occasionally damps the dresses of the ladies who may venture too close an inspection. This fountain is worked by hand from beneath by a pump, and under the building there is a cistern, 30 feet long to supply it with water. The four transepts in the Crystal Palace building are thus occupied: 1st Fine Arts and ladies' work; 2nd The educational department of Toronto; 3rd Horticulture; 4th Manufactures. It is thought that the Crystal Palace will be kept standing after the exhibition and used as a winter-garden, pleasure ground, vinery, and hot-house. The estimated cost of all erections, it is supposed, will be about $10,000.

The town is exceedingly full, and there is scarcely a bed to be had for love or money; and, as a consequence, the hotel-keepers and house keepers have "put on the screw," and are making the visitors "bleed" to an alarming extent. Amongst the arrivals to-day, an Attorney General McDonald, the Hon. Wm. Laidlaw, and the Hon. John Spence. The Governor of New York is expected to-morrow. There are also a great many military officers driving about in all directions.—Also many fashionably dressed ladies, with very pretty and elegant dresses, and superb dresses, only they are a little too long, and they are to be seen in all directions, with their goal-natured, cheerful, smiling, rosy countenances. There are shows and booths here of all sorts and descriptions, of the "greatest curiosity of the world;" to a "penny penny" and, as may naturally be supposed, there is a perfect Babel of tongues. The "light-fingered gentry" have already commenced their nefarious labors, not with impunity, as at Three Rivers, where they set the police at defiance; for this afternoon two of these gentry were caught in the act of passing bad money, consisting of ten two dollar notes, by detective O'Leary, of the Montreal city police. On the prisoners being searched, there were found on their persons a large bunch of keys, which were taken from them, and they were immediately lodged in the police-station.—Montreal Herald.

CORRESPONDENCE. To the Editor of the Quebec Gazette. Sir, The Episcopalian who has seen fit to assail Mr. Carden must permit me in all charity to advert to his communication in your journal. Mr. Carden doubtless entertains for his ecclesiastical superior all the respect which he is entitled; but Mr. Carden owes something to himself. From respect for the bishop, and the sensitiveness of the presence of others of his order had been requested, could not intrude unbidden. To omit to invite a person to attend on such an occasion generally amounts to an intimation to stay at home. Does he see—can he see the vast numerical preponderance and overpowering political influence of those who stigmatize all Protestants as heretics? Is it not enough that Churchmen and Presbyterians should have their grounds of difference. Not enough that the Church should be weakened by dissent, and that Methodists and Baptists should necessarily entertain opinions at variance with those of the Church. All these are conscientious opinions, a result of the right of private judgment, it is true; but they prove that Protestants are not united, and they tend to detract from their strength. That, one would think, were enough, and it is enough to cloud the prospects of all denominations of Protestants in this country. But an Episcopalian has intimated a bad eminence from which he attempts to throw upon his Bishop, and to prove that dissent is not ripe in the bosom of the Church itself—may among the very clergy, the closed band whose mission is peace and good will to men. What, if Mr. Carden's indignation had admitted a fixed existed between the Bishop and himself, and had attempted to justify him at the expense of the Bishop? Was that not merely possible, but probable result, what "An Episcopalian" wished to bring about? Friends, more ardent than discreet, might have attacked the Bishop, and have afforded the enemies of the reformed faith subjects for derision, scorn, and triumph. The writer of these lines might, in that way, have undertaken the defence of Mr. Carden, had he not been restrained by deference for the reverend gentleman's well-known sentiments. May they hereafter act upon those who deal with the character of clergymen. ANOTHER EPISCOPALIAN. Quebec, Sept. 26th, 1856.
