

Canada is told to insist on its own auto safety standards

Safety dictated by absentee auto manufacturers

OTTAWA (CP) — U.S. auto critic Ralph Nader Wednesday suggested Canada could assert its economic independence from the U.S. by insisting on auto safety standards that have bogged down in Washington.

He said Canadians are being told "by its absentee auto manufacturers" what they are going to get in safety features on new cars.

Mr. Nader, who started a sometimes-bitter controversy with his book Unsafe At Any Speed, has not softened his approach. Unsafe cars and tires still are being marketed and only government action can solve the problem, he said.

He suggested Canada could take over research and development of a prototype safety car in a program similar to that started by New York State two years ago.

Then the government could "explode" the three main reasons given by manufacturers for the lack of safer cars: That they were impossible to build, that they were too expensive to build and that they take at least three years to get into production.

He said U.S. manufacturers insist there is at least 28 months time lag from the time a decision is made until the finished product is ready.

MONTREAL (CP) — Top publications in Britain and the United States are giving the close-up treatment of Expo 67, with generally enthusiastic comments occasionally soured by negative reactions.

Charles' investiture in 1969

LONDON (CP) — The Queen put an end to a long-standing guessing game by announcing that her son and heir Charles will be invested Prince of Wales in the summer of 1969 at ancient Caernarvon Castle.

Charles' uncle Antony, the Earl of Snowdon, will be involved in arranging the first such ceremony since 1911 when the present Duke of Windsor was invested Prince of Wales at age 17.

Snowdon, Princess Margaret's Welsh photographer husband, is involved as constable of Caernarvon Castle, an honorary office bestowed by the Queen in 1963 on the government's advice.

UAR armies in mass mobilization

Arabs ask UN to quit Egypt

BEIRUT, Lebanon (CP) — The United Arab Republic asked the United Nations Emergency Force to terminate its presence on Egyptian territory and leave as soon as possible, Cairo radio reported today.

With Arab armies massed in their biggest mobilization since the 1956 Suez crisis, the radio broadcast the text of a message it said Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad sent to United Nations Secretary-General U Thant saying the U.A.R. wanted the presence of the force on either Egyptian territory or on the Egyptian border terminated.

It asked Thant to make the measures necessary for the force's evacuation as soon as possible.

Earlier today the U.A.R. claimed its troops had replaced UN troops along the border with Israel.

Riad was quoted by the radio as saying the UNEF came to Egypt in agreement with the U.A.R. Its continued presence was therefore subject to Cairo's approval.

His message to Thant, he said, ended the basis of the force's presence in both Egyptian territory or on the Egyptian border.

The Israeli army also announced that it has taken "suitable steps" to counter the movement of Egyptian troops into the Sinai Desert on Israel's southern border.

An Israeli Army spokesman did not elaborate but it was assumed that Israeli forces had reinforced the southern frontier.

Egyptian, Syrian and Jordanian forces were on full-scale alert as tension rose in the wake of repeated Israeli threats to strike hard at Syria in retaliation for sabotage raids it blames on the Syrian regime.

Lebanon, the fourth Arab country bordering Israel, declared its solidarity with Syria.

ALERT DEFENCES
Iraq also placed its army and air force on the alert.

The U.A.R. Wednesday asked the UN Emergency Force to pull out of the Sinai border region and concentrate in the Gaza Strip along the Mediterranean.

Grits win test

OTTAWA (CP)—The minority Liberal government won its fourth non-confidence vote of the new parliamentary session Wednesday against opposition ranks depleted by absentees.

The count was 107 to 90 on a motion by Lewis Brand (PC—Saskatoon) criticizing the government for not guaranteeing farmers the $5.10 a hundred-weight for manufacturing milk demanded by farm organizations. The subsidized price now is $4.75.

Among non-Liberals, only H. A. Olson (SC—Medicine Hat) and Independent J. A. Monaghan (Trois-Rivieres) voted with the government. Against the motion were 67 Conservatives, 16 New Democrats, six Creditistes and Independent Maurice Aillard (Sherbrooke).

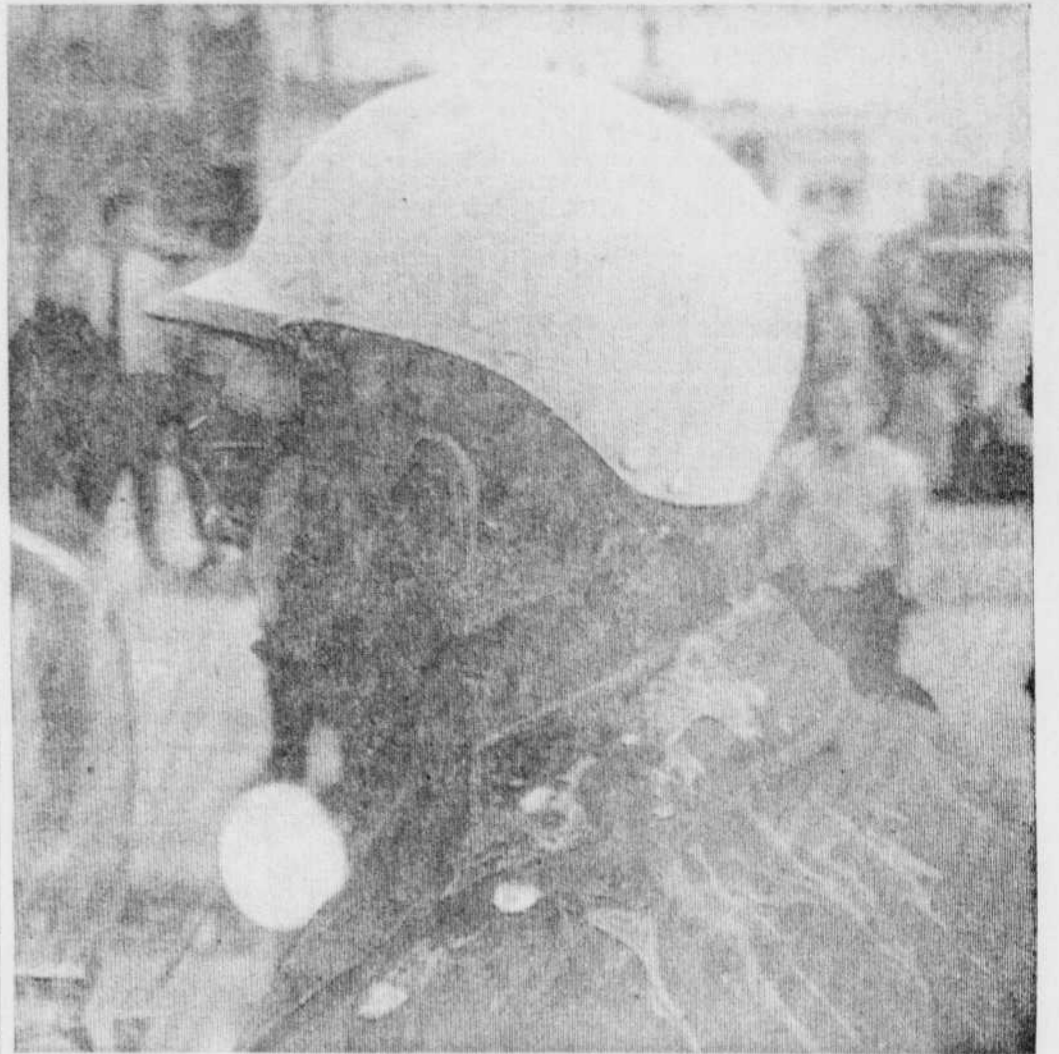

Although it was a Conservative motion, 25 of the official Opposition's 95 MPs were absent for the government-testing vote.

Five of the 31 New Democrats were absent as were four of the five Social Credit MPs and two of the eight Creditistes. Liberals held 127 seats in the 65-member house. There are three independents and six vacancies.

The vote came on the sixth day of the throne speech debate, which must end by Friday, according to house time rules.

The government's dairy policy has been bitterly criticized for months in the Common and the Conservative motion was expected to get substantial opposition support for the vote.

An administration loss might have forced an election.

Power failures in two areas

Hydro-Quebec workers walk out in Matapedia and Abitibi areas

MONTREAL (CP) — Hydro-Quebec employees in the Matapedia region of Quebec struck at midnight Wednesday and employees in the Abitibi region in the northeastern district of the province were expected to walk out at noon today as the rotating strike by company employees entered its 11th day.

About 400 employees in the Matapedia region walked off at midnight Wednesday for the second time since the staggered area strike began May 8.

Meanwhile, power failures were reported in the St. Maurice and Montmorency regions Wednesday where 1,650 Hydro-Quebec employees staged a 24-hour walkout.

The Montmorency region takes in part of Quebec City and the legislative assembly was forced to adjourn at 5:30 p.m. when a power failure made it almost impossible for Hansard reporters to record exchanges across the chamber. The 900 Montmorency workers are to return at noon today. The 24-hour walkouts began May 8 in the Montreal region and have continued every day in one or more of Hydro's divisions in the province.

The Canadian Union of Public Employees, which represents 9,000 Hydro workers has guaranteed to keep up emergency services during the strike.

The last contract between the provincially-owned utility and the union expired Dec. 31 and the union has said the 24-hour strikes will continue until an agreement has been reached on a new labor contract for office workers, tradesmen and technicians.

Up to Wednesday night more than 1,000,000 persons took part in the protests outside the two-story brick building in one of Peking's eastern suburbs, officials said today.

SPECTATOR DISSENTS

But there was dissent in the Spectator, a British weekly, whose satirical versifier, Christopher Hollis, echoed Samuel Butler in explaining vis-a-vis the British pavilion:

"Oh God! Oh Montreal!"
The Spectator's Roy Strong let go the strongest anti-Expo blast of all, suggesting that the fair may have been designed as a "crash course on philosophical platitudes to end them all."

But Canadians may come to look back on Expo as a significant experience, he went on.

John Canaday, art critic of the New York Times, praised most aspects of the $35,000,000 art exhibit at Expo.

But he criticized "the indefensible inclusions of third- and fourth-rate 20th-century talents along with major ones of our time and of the past." Among the works he considered inferior and ill-placed was "a cake-frosting abstraction" by Canadian Paul-Emile Borduas.

TIMES APPROVES
The Times' movie critic, Bosley Crowther, hails the way Expo exhibits use of films to get their messages across.

REPRESENTING SHERBROOKE—Miss Irene Szabadazi, 20-year-old daughter of Mrs. Iren Kormendi-Szabadazi, 288 Vimy Street No., is among the 50 hostesses welcoming visitors at Expo's Telephone Association of Canada pavilion. Irene is playing a double role in the representation of Sherbrooke at Expo, for she has been a member of the Choral de L'Amite for three years. This choir will act as the ambassador of the Eastern Townships by presenting three recitals at Man and His World. Irene is employed at Bell Canada's employment office in Sherbrooke.

Montreal gets stabile

MONTREAL (CP)—The city of Montreal celebrated its 325th birthday Wednesday and received a gift that some likened to New York's Statue of Liberty.

On the 11th of the national and special days since Expo 67 opened April 27, Mayor Jean Drapeau took the stand of honor to see his city's flag raised at Place des Nations.

Then the dignitaries moved to the Place des Nations.

An Ayrshire cow owned by Chagnon and Freres, of Cookshire will be on display at Expo's Man the Provider, the agricultural pavilion of the fair, May 30.

The cow, Chacook Lionello was the highest producing cow in Canada last year and winner of the Wes McConnell Memorial Trophy with her yield of 20,547 lbs., milk, 769 lbs. fat, in 305 days and 22,566 lbs., milk, 850 lbs. fat, in 365 days.

A St. Helen's Island plaza where Alexander Calder's stable Man was handed over to the city.

As Albert P. Gagnebin, president of International Nickel Co., turned over the 46-ton stable by the American sculptor, he noted that both it and the Statue of Liberty had been built in France.

"It is perhaps significant that though almost a century separates these two stables, both are located at continental gateways and both represent an interpretation of mankind, his humanity, his freedom, his search for what is good and fine in life," said Mr. Gagnebin.

Today the fair celebrates the Dutch national day, with Queen Juliana and Prince Bernhard of The Netherlands watching the country's flag raised in Place des Nations.

"And we all agreed that as members of the cabinet, we would follow that policy and say or do nothing which would make its implementation more difficult," Mr. Pearson said.

READ STATEMENTS
To make doubly sure his ministers knew what is government policy, Mr. Pearson read the texts of policy statements made earlier by himself and External Affairs Minister Martin.

He then repeated the performance at the caucus meeting, and asked for dissenters to speak up. None did.

In Mr. Gordon's speech last weekend, he said the U.S. was enmeshed in a bloody civil war in Vietnam without moral or strategic justification.

The government's stand has been that the U.S. is in Vietnam only to help the Vietnamese resist aggression from the north.

Canada has called for a halt in the U.S. bombing of the north in the hope of improving the chances of a negotiated settlement.

URGENT GOVERNMENT TO CONDEMN AMERICA VIETNAM POLICY — While the cabinet discussed Vietnam inside the Parliament Buildings at Ottawa yesterday, young people paraded outside bearing placards urging the government to condemn U.S. policy on Vietnam. The demonstration, which lasted for about an hour, was organized by the Ottawa Committee to End the War in Vietnam. (CP Wirephoto)

Aerospace film

OTTAWA (CP) — The government is determined Canada will be a country to be reckoned with in the aerospace future.

For that reason it has spent $30,000-plus on the department's first promotional movie film.

All Systems Go is a quick, non-commercial survey of the current accomplishments of Canadian industry in the aviation, electronics and space field. It features bush-pilot and tilt-wing aircraft, sophisticated navigation equipment, and even ends up with a pitch for the day when man lands on the moon — on Canadian feet.

Get tough policy

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Texas Southern University administrators invoked a "get tough" policy and calm prevailed on the campus today after rioting in which a policeman was fatally shot and four other persons were wounded.

Of the 488 students arrested during the four-hour conflict early Wednesday, five were charged with rioting and their bonds fixed at $10,000 each. Conviction on the felony charge carries a penalty of four to 40 years in prison.

Employment up

OTTAWA (CP) — Unemployment dropped by 355,000 but remained 67,000 higher than in April of last year, it was reported today.

Most of the drop — 22,000 — was concentrated in Quebec.

LEHI, Utah (AP)—It was a curious place to find pro footballer Paul Hornung — on a movie set in this Salt Lake City suburb.

Hornung is playing a bit role in a movie called the Devil's Brigade.

Hornung's role calls for him to play a Montana miner and he has a total of five lines. His previous acting experience: A similar - sized part in the ill-fated television show My Sister Eileen six years ago.

At 31, Paul Hornung has endured 11 seasons in pro football, minus one for bad behavior, and he knows his years as a player are numbered.

His future is complicated by the fact he will be spending next season with New Orleans Saints, having been drafted for the new team after years with

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

BRIDGE ARGUING CAN BE ENDLESS

Peggy Solomon won her first national title in 1942 and has ten national title championships to her credit. Her husband Charles, a top bridge player for more than 30 years is president of the World Bridge Federation.

To show how nice Peggy is, we remember when Charley pulled the wrong card before a large gallery. This is no disgrace. Any expert would say, "Show me a man who claims to have never pulled the wrong card and I'll show you either a liar or a man who has never played."

All Peggy did was to smile, but later on she said, "I wish I had done it instead of Charley."

Peggy and Charley believe firmly that if you can't say something nice you should keep quiet. North in today's hand was her husband, although Peggy does not say so. South, a male expert, covered the queen of hearts with dummy's king. East won with his ace and returned the suit. West took his jack and led a third heart.

South elected to ruff with dummy's nine of trumps. East overruffed and the ace of diamonds became the setting trick. East said, "Too bad you didn't realize I could overruff the third round of hearts. If you go in with the ace of trumps ina slam and your partner has refused the invitation. Either he has no ace or has some other flaw in his hand.

stead of the nine you can pull trumps and claim your contract after you have ditched a club loser on dummy's diamonds."

South explained to East that this play would not have worked if East were smart enough to refuse the first diamond and win the second.

North wanted to get into the exchange and point out that South could make the hand by simply ducking the heart opening, but he knew that South was unhappy enough as it was and saw no reason to rub salt into his wounds.

To work as soon as possible on Lennoxville's centennial park

Work will begin on Lennoxville's Centennial Park project when the weather permits, Ald. W. S. Richardson, parks chairman said yesterday.

"We'll start by putting the top soil on, but the project won't be finished by this year. We hope to get the grass started and complete the fencing.

"Possibly next spring the trees can be planted," He said it would be about a year before the 200 by 400 foot park could be used.

Plans call for a bowling green, swings and a fountain.

The Quebec Department of Education gave its final approval for the sale of this parcel of land which had been purchased originally for the construction of a high school.

Lennoxville is not receiving federal nor provincial grants for the joint town-Lennoxville Optimist project.

Initial plans to establish a park as a Centennial project got underway last year through the suggestion of a citizens' committee.

City employees' pension fund reports assets of $3,859,000

The City of Sherbrooke's employees pension fund assets stood at $3,859,062 at the end of 1966 it was learned from the treasurer's financial statement issued yesterday.

Olivier Routhier, secretary-treasurer of the fund, wrote in his annual message to the board of directors that the total assets of the fund in 1965 amounted to $3,345,416 which was $513,646 less than the 1966 figure.

Mr. Routhier pointed out that the fund has 722 members of which there are 622 active and 100 pensioned members.

In 1966, 28 city employees were admitted as members and 20 members retired.

The trustees of the commission made investments in bonds, mortgage loans and common shares of companies.

Mortgage loans represented $1,660,533 or 47 per cent of the assets.

Bonds represented $1,299,750 or 16 per cent of the assets.

Common stock represented $540,530 or 16 per cent of the assets.

The common stock held at the end of the year showed a market value of $564,193 and the investment in bonds had a market value of $1,206,447.

The average earning of investment in 1966 was 5.30 per cent. Bond discount and accrued interest are not taken into consideration in the average earning of investments.

Industrial promotion booklet is published

The City of Sherbrooke has printed a new booklet for industrial promotion purposes.

The 26-page booklet is filled with information vital to the businessman considering establishing in Sherbrooke.

The booklet is called Sherbrooke, City with a future for industry. It is printed in both French and English editions.

The title of the booklet is taken from the city of Sherbrooke's booth at Expo 67's Quebec Industrial Pavilion.

The booklet has been prepared by the industrial commission's secretary, Robert Belisle. It describes the geographic location of the city, the population, municipal finances, local industries, working force and taxes.

It also notes that Sherbrooke is most probably the most bilingual city in Canada and gives a short history of the settlement of the City of Sherbrooke.

The fund has shares in major Canadian industries. The fund's largest number of shares is 4000 with the Power Corporation of Canada Limited. These stocks have a book value, of $26,130.

The largest amount of money invested in one particular company is $29,636 for 300 shares with Banque Canadienne Nationale.

The least number of shares are with the International Paper Company for $9. However, the least amount invested in a company is $1 for 300 shares of British Columbia Power Corporation.

The fund's major bond investment is with La Tribune for $42,000.

The Lennoxville Savings & Credit Union invites you to become a member now!

JOIN and find out how money grows through accumulated dividends. For example, a young person who has saved $500.00 at the age of twenty in the Credit Union will have $4,000 at the age of 62. This also carries $2,000 life insurance. This can be accomplished by depositing $1.25 per month from birth to 20 years without any further deposits.

More blood donors needed

Clinic Expo needs 745 more blood donors if the clinic is to meet its objective of 2,400 for tonight.

On Wednesday a total of 564 people donated blood. An Expo passport will be raffled among the donors tonight at the close of the clinic at 9:30.

Sherbrooke Hospital student nurses are helping out at the mobile clinic today. Clinic hours are from 1:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Sherbrooke Fusiliers Armory.

Fireworks

On Saturday evening May 20 at 7:30 p.m. on St. Francis St., Lennoxville there will be a giant bonfire and fireworks commemorating Victoria Day. This is an annual event sponsored by the Atto Beaver Club.

Everybody is invited to attend to see this and other attractions. Refreshments will be sold on the grounds. In case of rain the event will take place on Monday evening May 22 at 7:30 p.m.

FLYING HIGH — The Canadian Armed Forces new aerobically modified aircraft, the Golden Centennaires, will be invading Sherbrooke skies, May 28. The Centennaires air display an across Canada project is in accordance with Canada's Centennial and the golden anniversary of military flight in Canada. Shown here is the team in its nine-plane formation.

Golden Centennaires coming to Sherbrooke skies May 28

The Canadian Armed Forces new aerobically modified aircraft, the Golden Centennaires will be invading Sherbrooke skies, May 28 as part of a twofold coast to coast mission.

One objective is the observance of the nation's centennial and the other is the golden anniversary of military flight in Canada.

The team's performance uses the basic concept of an airshow developed and improved by the Golden Hawks but it is original in almost every respect.

To add variety to the show, a nine-plane formation will be used. Where runway space is available, the team will take off and land in this nine-plane formation. Six, four and three groupings will be used as well as three solo performances.

Four types of aircraft participate in the team's performances that will take them across the country, three times in a six month period. Main spring of the show is the RCAF's new jet trainer, the Tutor, built by Canadair.

Nine of the Tutors perform as a team with three of these also featured in solo performances. This marks the first aerobically modified aircraft for the new trainer.

Sherbrooke will be the air base for the Centennaires during their performances in the province.

The aerobically modified team will fly over Thetford Mines skies, May 30.

Two other stars in the Centennaires' cast are a supersonic CF-101 B Voodoo interceptor and a CF-104 Super Starfighter.

Another feature of the display team will be two 1919 vintage AVRO 504 K biplane trainers, last used in RCAF service in 1928, which were bought from private sources and were reconstructed at Canadian Forces Base, Trenton, Ont.

They are two of 160 donated in 1919 by the British government to the Canadian Air Board. The RCAF used them for refresher training until 1928.

Organized in May 1966 at Canadian Forces Base Portage La Prairie, Man., the Golden Centennaires are commanded by Wing Commander, O. B. Philip, of Sidney, B.C., who is a 43-year-old former test pilot and veteran of 25 years service in the RCAF.

Thirty-year-old Squadron Leader C. B. Lang, of Creston, B.C., a veteran of the RCAF Golden Hawks aerobically team leads the Centennaires.

C of C to study possibility of apprentice training plan

The Industrial Affairs Committee of the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce is to meet with interested industries to discuss the possibilities and problems of setting up in Sherbrooke a practical apprenticeship training program.

A release from the Chamber says that the aim of this program will be to supply local industry with the kind of skilled labor that it needs.

At a meeting on Monday, the Chamber's executive also decided to help the Sherbrooke General Radio Service (Citizens' Band) to obtain the city's aid and to have the City of Sherbrooke officially announce the service's existence and to have its crest placed on the welcome sign to Sherbrooke.

The release also says that the release says, is the public service character of this service especially in the case of emergency when time can be such an important factor.

The release also says that Sherbrooke Mayor Armand Nadeau will preside at the swearing-in ceremonies of the Chamber's executive and officers at the next general meeting of the Chamber at the Club Social on June 3.

Among the invited guests, the release says, are Sherbrooke MLA Raynald Frechette and MP Maurice Allard; Senator Paul Desruisseaux, and Claude Genest, honorary treasurer of the Chamber.

Traffic survey started in city

Fourteen traffic technicians started a 14-day traffic survey yesterday in Sherbrooke.

The traffic experts, who will be increased to 33 before the survey is completed — are employees of Cameron Grant and Associates, the firm hired by the city to do the survey.

Some of the traffic technicians — clip board and blue pen in hand — were busy estimating the average parking time of cars on Wellington Street on the meters and in the two large parking lots at the rear.

Defector

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mystery surrounded the whereabouts today and motives of the highest-ranking Communist diplomat ever to defect in the United States.

State department officials said Janos Radvanyi, Hungarian charge d'affaires who sought and received refuge here has asked that his decision be attributed to personal reasons.

But the state department refused to go into any further detail at this time, including where he is or when he may give out his story.

WATCH OUT, CROOKS: RICHMOND IS READY

Gun toting bandits, beware!

The Richmond Municipal Police are ready for you; they've got a new machine-gun.

The fully automatic Browning 9 mm rifle holds 25 bullets and can discharge at seven shells a second.

"And it's light as a feather," said Police Chief Emeril Perrault. "There's a folding stock that allows you to shoot from the hip (when it's folded) or shoot from the shoulder (when extended).

Amazingly, there is no kick-back, well, no more than from a .38 pistol according to the chief.

It was purchased for $212 after the chief put in a bid to council for "the proper tools to do the job."

Student exchange is set for Richmond

RICHMOND — (Special) — In cooperation with St. Francis High School, Notre Dame High School and Notre Dame, the Richmond-Melbourne Lions Club has arranged a student exchange project with St. Albert, Alberta.

Fifteen Grade XI students from the St. Albert High School will arrive in Richmond on June 24 and stay approximately 10 days as guests of local families.

While in Richmond, the students will be entertained at a picnic, trips to Expo and Quebec City as well as other points of interest and will be guests of the Towns of Richmond and Melbourn at a farewell banquet at the BelleView Golf Club before returning West.

Later in July, fifteen youngsters from the Richmond High Schools will leave for a return visit to St. Albert, where they will stay approximately 10 days with their Western friends.

While in St. Albert they will visit Banff, Jasper, Lake Louise, Calgary and Edmonton and will be given a first hand look at Western farms and oil well operations. It is hoped the exchange will benefit both groups by giving them the opportunity of knowing each other.

The trip is being arranged by the Student Exchange Committee representing the High Schools and Lions Club Hector Arenseneau, a former resident of St. Albert, is chairman and members are M. J. Butler, of St. Francis High School, Sister Edna Litchfield, Notre Dame, Sister Ste. Madeleine of Ecole Notre Dame, Fernand Menard, Lions Club and M. O'Donnell of the Catholic School Commission.

The trip will be financed by a centennial grant, a donation from the Lions Club and a small portion of the cost will be borne by each student. Adult supervisors will accompany both groups.

Centennial poem wins a prize

QUEBEC (CP) — Suzanne Gendron of Sherbrooke Wednesday received a $250 prize from the centennial commission for winning a poetry contest organized by the City of Quebec as part of its centennial celebrations.

Her poem, La Rose du Centenaire, is to be translated into 11 languages. A recording is also expected to be made.

Miss Gendron was in Quebec Wednesday to read her poem during ceremonies at the foot of the Louis-Hebert monument opposite city hall where 67 roses were planted by members of the Quebec chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The Quebec chapter of the order was founded 67 years ago.

Firetruck for Magog
MAGOG—(Special)—The City of Magog has opened tenders from companies asked to quote on new fire fighting equipment. A complete unit was quoted at $20,500 or $10,325 without fittings by the Pierre Thibault Canada firm, while two other firms, King Seagrave Limited and LaFrance Fire Engines did not bid.

The city decided on the basic vehicle built to specification, which will cost $10,950, mounted with $2,715 in accessories.

Also on order by Magog is a special truck with accessories being purchased from St. Johns Sheet Metal Limited with a Polar Body, costing $21,906.72.

Other fire fighting equipment considered by Magog is undergoing study, as the council endeavours to meet the demands for service and fire protection within the community.

Western show delights fans

KNOWLTON — (Special) — The Legion Hall was filled to an overflow capacity of enthusiastic Western fans to hear a real old fashioned Western Jamboree, under the sponsorship of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brome Branch, Royal Canadian Legion. The general consensus of opinion was that this program of Western music and the introduction of local talent was one of the most successful ventures ever undertaken by the Ladies of the Legion Branch here in Knowlton. The tremendous reception accorded to every band and to every participant in the program served as a living proof of the popularity of a concert of this type for people of all ages.

The program was under the able direction of Herve Gagne who acted as emcee, commenced sharply at 8 o'clock with the presentation of Band No. 1, the B. C. Ramblers, under the leadership of Wally Bowbrick. After playing several popular numbers and repeated encores, Wally Bowbrick introduced the first talent performer, Miss Janet Powell who sang well known Western numbers to the delight of the audience.

She was followed by Floyd Ling who sang and accompanied himself on his guitar, he in turn was followed by Wesley Sweet who also sang to his own accompaniment.

However, time moved along and it was time for the introduction of Band No. 2, this being Norm and His Ramblers, under the direction of Norman Lloyd of Waterloo, this again, proved a very popular band, playing Western tunes of a different type to Band No. 1. Norman Lloyd then introduced his talent stars in the person of Miss Penny La Flamme of Knowlton, who sang to the band's accompaniment, in a very stylish and professional form.

She was followed by Archie Powell who sang and played and again, the audience was reluctant to let them go, but still another band was waiting, this time The Twos and Oners under the leadership of Mr. George Stratford of Sutton.

First graders

WATERLOO — Children six years old before Dec. 31, 1967 are being accepted for first grade at Waterloo High School, principal Sam Wayne said last night.

It was incorrectly reported in Bits and Pieces yesterday that the cut-off date was June 30. Mr. Wayne said there was only one grade one this year because there are only 25 children eligible for registration, and this number is not sufficient for two classes.

Twenty students graduate at Waterloo High School ceremonies

WATERLOO — (Special) — Graduation exercises were held at Waterloo High School on May 12 with 20 graduates. Peter Miller addressed the students and Jo Anne Dalton was the top prizewinner, as well as being named as scholar citizen of the year, along with Fred Sheppard. Miss Dalton won the school commission book prize for the highest in general proficiency, and placed first for the following awards: Slack Bros. award for English literature and composition. Croname Macdonald award for mathematics, Adam Lumber prize for French, Henrich Birks medal for scholastic achievement, and the Order of the Eastern Star award for biology. Fred Sheppard placed second for the general proficiency prize, and for the Slack Bros. award in literature and composition. Louise Rainville was third, for a School Commission book prize in general proficiency. Diane Reed received second prize in mathematics.

Miss Dalton and Fred Sheppard, named as scholar citizens of the year, will have their names inscribed on the Roll of Honor, provided that they achieve at least second class marks in the June provincial exams. This honor is not bestowed annually, but only as it is merited by a girl or boy or both.

Streeter, Gwen Whitehead, Diane Reed, Donna Willey, W.H.S. principal Sam Wayne, Louise Rainville, Pauline Westover, Anne Waterhouse, and Joanne Dalton, Standing, same order, Norman Staines,

Michael Hollenbeck, Ken Ramsay, David Tibbits, Fred Sheppard, Harold Dingman, Bradley Williams, Maurice Singfield, Andy Sarrasin, John Hackwell, and Murray Bokus. (Record photo by Marcel Cote)

Mr. Miller, chairman of the Greater Montreal Protestant School Board, told the graduates that they must not feel short-changed as graduates from a small school, as size is not indicative of a good school. Rather, he said, good education depends on good teachers. The small school has the advantage of the personal touch and these graduates had that advantage. He closed by wishing the graduating class success and happiness.

Mr. Miller, who had been introduced by school commissioner Russell Savage, was thanked on behalf of the students by Dr.

For and about Women

Women's groups

ST. PETER'S ACW

The regular monthly meeting of St. Peter's Anglican Church Women took place Monday, May 8, in the Memorial Hall of the church. The president, Mrs. L. Thomson, welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Rogers and Rev. J. D. R. Franklin.

The meeting was opened with a devotional service led by Mrs. A. Allenger. Mr. Franklin introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Rogers, who ministered for six years in northern Newfoundland, and his wife, a registered nurse, who served in the Grenfell Mission. Their talk and slides were most interesting. Despite the gorgeous sunrise and sunset over such flat, barren country, winter storms had to be seen to be believed and several slides showed snow banks and drifts high above the roof tops.

Mrs. Rogers spoke of the great changes within the nursing station and the ways and means of conveying patients to a nearby hospital, of perhaps 75 miles. In the winter this was done by dog sled, snowflurries or plane and, in the summer, by land-rover jeep. One highlight with Mr. Rogers was the fact that when he first ministered in this part of Newfoundland, only one student graduated from Grade 11, not because of lack of ability but because of the lack of educational facilities. With many changes and improvements a regional school was set up and this past year saw a bigger Grade 11 graduation than all the rest of the province.

Thanks were extended on behalf of all present, by Mrs. K. Hammill. Mr. Rogers has just completed a post graduate course at Bishop's University and will be leaving shortly for a parish appointment in Newfoundland.

Mrs. L. Thomson presided for the business part of the meeting. Miss D. Giroux reported on correspondence received and Mrs. Dornan reported on Dorcas work. The Pangnirtung parcel of hospital supplies was displayed and will be packed and shipped before next meeting.

Mrs. W. Taylor reported on the cent-day: Mrs. P. LeGallais, family life secretary, reported five families visited during the month and several birthdays remembered by cards. Mrs. R. Neville reported 10 calls made at Youville Hospital for Social Service; Mrs. J. Franklin made eight calls at the McKeage home. Miss E. Watkins and Mrs. Franklin were thanked for transporting the J.A. girls to Sawyerville May 6, to attend the festival. Congratulations were extended to the Junior Auxiliary girls for bringing home a prize.

Members were thanked by the president for helping with the rummage sale and, particularly to Mrs. Allenger, convener. Mrs. Thomson welcomed Miss C. Norris, to the meeting.

Corporate Communion was announced for Wednesday, May 10 and next meeting date will be June 12. The meeting was closed with prayer by the rector, Mr. Franklin.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. A. Allenger and Mrs. B. Lyon.

FIRST BAPTIST WMS

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Mission Circle of First Baptist Church was held May 9, in the church hall. The president, Mrs. J. Gilmartin, was in the chair and opened the meeting with a reading. She also conducted the devotional period.

During the business session, the president asked for delegates for the Baptist Women's Missionary Society being held at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ont., on May 30, 31 and June 1.

The topic for the evening, 'The Ten Steps To A Mission Field', Salvation, Training, Reading, Letter writing, Application, Probation, Prayer, Deposition, Warning, and Endurance, was taken by Mrs. J. Gilmartin.

Mrs. Henry Leech, Jr., told the group an interesting story of a Brazilian boy.

After the closing hymn the president closed the meeting with prayer.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Norman Bradley and Mrs. Clifford Wright.

MISS NINA CUIANI, only daughter of Mrs. Maria Cuiani, of Montreal, and MR.

DAVID GRAHAM PATRIQUIN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Patriquin, Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, whose engagement is announced.

Corriveau-Dezan vows exchanged

BEEBE — The marriage of Mary Louise, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dezan to Mr. Gerard N. Corriveau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arsene Corriveau, all of Beebe, took place on Saturday, May 13, at eleven o'clock, in Ste. Therese de L'Enfant Jesus Church, Beebe, with Father Jean Melasco, officiating at the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. J. M. Thomson, Rock Island, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Conrad Haselton. Seasonal flowers were used to decorate the church.

Dunbar-Pope

MONTREAL WEST — The marriage took place May 5, at St. Phillip's Church, Montreal West, of Lois Alberta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weyland Pope, Ayer's Cliff to Mr. Richard Dunbar, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunbar, Westmount. Rev. W. J. White officiating at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Gwen Pope, as bridesmaid.

The best man was Mr. Ian McCrae.

The reception, following the ceremony, held at 40 Windsor Street, Westmount, was attended by 25 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar left by plane from Dorval for a honeymoon in New York. They will take up residence in Montreal on their return.

Polly's pointers

DEAR POLLY — I have a portable sewing machine and when I recently lifted up the head to clean and oil the machine, my daughter said, "Oh look at all that storage." When we finished cleaning and oiling the machine, we left the oilcan, an old toothbrush for cleaning and a nice, clean rag for dusting in the bottom, where they are handy when next needed. — JACKIE

DEAR POLLY — Often coats are taken by mistake or even stolen when hung in an unattended cloak room. As you remove your coat, pull one of the coat sleeves inside out and let it hang that way. Should someone start to take the coat by mistake he will have a second look and realize it is the wrong one. If anyone plans to steal it he will have such a time trying to get it on in a hurry that he will probably think it is not worth the trouble. — PHYLLIS

DEAR POLLY — After our small child pulled the tablecloth off a fully set table, including a hot coffee server, I did not use a cloth on my kitchen table for a long time. When I refinished the kitchen set, I wondered what I could use that would be safe and protect the table top, too. I got an idea while ironing and it has proven to be a real safety device for I have seven children. I bought felt-backed plastic, laid it on the table top, cut it the shape of the table with enough extra along the sides to allow for making a hem for elastic to run through, pulled it up tight and tied it. It cannot slip or be pulled off as it fits like an ironing board cover. This looks neat, serves as a tablecloth and has prevented accidents. — JANE

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor-length gown of white Raschel lace over taffeta, with hoop skirt, lace being drawn up front revealing the satin under skirt, which was edged at bottom with matching lace, long on the sleeves, round neckline, and lace bow at waist back. Over the gown, she wore a three-tier hand scalloped Raschel lace detachable train, attached at the shoulders, which fell in a slight cathedral train. Her shoulder length veil of white nylon tulle was held by a crown of matching lace. She carried a fan shape bouquet of red Sweetheart roses. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of a friend.

Miss Nancy Dezan, as maid of honor for her sister, was in an empire line floor length gown of pastel blue satin, the rounded neckline sleeveless bodice featuring ribbon bows at the waist. Her detachable train, attached at the shoulders, was of satin back chiffon, and her shoulder length veil of blue nylon net was held by an open lace pillow of matching satin ribbon. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her jewelry was a drop pearl on a gold chain, the gift of a bride to all her attendants.

The groom presented his attendants with tie clips and matching cuff links.

The Misses Ina Dezan of Ayer's Cliff, cousin of the bride, and Marie-Laura Corriveau, sister of the groom, bridesmaids wore gowns of pastel pink in identical styling, accessories and bouquets to that of the maid of honor.

Mr. Robert Corriveau acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Messrs. Arthur Dezan, brother of the bride and Donald Goodsell.

Mrs. Dezan, mother of the bride, chose a royal blue china crepe dress with lace over crepe matching jacket, a hat of toning blue, cocoa brown accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Corriveau, mother of the groom, was in a turquoise two piece dress of lace over satin, matching hat and black accessories, her corsage was of pink carnations.

The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. A. Henderson, wore a light blue figured crepe dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

The reception following the ceremony was at Ridgewood Inn, Fitch Bay, where seasonal flowers were used for decorations.

Centering the bride's table was a three tier wedding cake iced win white, with touches of silver and red roses, topped by a bride and groom, under an arch of lace and miniature pearls, flanked by candles. The cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Roland Sheldon.

The afternoon was spent in dancing to the music of Hector Channell and his orchestra.

Later, the couple left for a short honeymoon, the bride travelling in a two piece light yellow suit of double knit cotton, with black accessories, the center of her bouquet was her corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Corriveau have taken up residence in Rock Island.

Guests attended from St. Johnsbury, Derby, Shelburne, Springfield, Beebe, Vt.; Montreal, Noyan, Theford, Mines, Arundel, Coaticook, Sherbrooke, North Hatley and the Border Villages.

U.C.W. sponsors Mother's Day tea

Scott Hall, in Lennoxville, was gay with tulips, daffodils and other spring flowers when the United Church Women sponsored the annual Mother's Day Tea and food sale recently. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Richardson.

The president, Mrs. E. G. Wells, and vice-president, Mrs. D. McElrea, welcomed the guests and Mrs. D. Baldwin was in charge of tickets.

The tea table was arranged with silver candelabra and silver bowls of daffodils. Tea was poured by Mrs. J. Williams and coffee by Mrs. G. Winslow. Each tea table was centered with a Mother's Day corsage made by Mrs. H. Neclay.

Mrs. W. J. Lane was hostess, assisted by members of Units 2, 3 and 5.

The food table was in charge of Mrs. Austin Scott, Mrs. S. Hamilton, Mrs. H. Wallace and Mrs. M. Robinson.

Co-conveners for the event were Mrs. H. Robertson and Mrs. M. Bown, of the social functions committee, assisted by other members of U.C.W.

Trade bars, no: Cultural bars, yes!

MONTREAL (CP) — Premier Daniel Johnson said Wednesday night in a speech delivered by a Union Nationale member of the legislature that Quebec supports the breaking down of economic barriers but wants to preserve cultural differences.

He said, "We recognize and wholeheartedly support this trend, but we do not believe that the abolition of economic barriers necessarily implies the disappearance of cultural differences amongst men."

Denies charges

MONTREAL (CP) — Ian Fraser, vice-president and managing director of Fraser Bros. Ltd., said Tuesday his firm has not auctioned off any Cuban merchandise since a bomb exploded outside his office during an auction last March.

"Modern economic activity is tending towards the breaking down of barriers and frontiers between nations and between people," he said. "We recognize and wholeheartedly support this trend, but we do not believe that the abolition of economic barriers necessarily implies the disappearance of cultural differences amongst men."

Low crime rate

MONTREAL (CP) — On a day nearly 219,000 visitors came to Expo 67, only seven cases rated police attention but the small number of offences leaves fair officials unsurprised.

"The number of such cases is neither more nor less than at the 1958 Brussels world's fair and is about what we expected," Michael Dibben, head of the press, radio and TV division, said at a news briefing Wednesday.

"It looks as though Colombia pick-pocket university has not graduated its class yet," he said.

This was a reference to reports that pick-pockets from a school of thieves in the South American country would hit Expo. Some were arrested in Montreal a year ago and the courts cracked down with sentences as long as 12 months.

Dupuy to reply

MONTREAL (CP) — Commissioner General Pierre Dupuy of Expo 67 plans to make no comment on criticism of himself made in the House of Commons Tuesday night, Expo source said Wednesday.

The criticism came from Alide Simard, Creditiste member for Lac St. Jean, who said he was "completely thunderstruck" when Mr. Dupuy spoke only English in welcoming a parliamentary group to Expo. The source said the welcome was extended to the Canada United States Interparliamentary group, made up of about 60 U.S. senators and congressmen and Canadian senators and MPs.

He said "most of Mr. Dupuy's audience was English-speaking."

Fresh from its smash-hit debut across the Atlantic... the all-new Viva comes to Canada.

The all-new Viva is here, with stunning new styling. New, greater power. Completely new ride. New super silence. Plus a new optional automatic transmission. This is the totally new swinger that got a sensational reception when it was introduced abroad. And it's going to stage a repeat performance here in Canada!

The all-new Viva's "with it". Longer, lower and wider with exciting new space-curve styling as contemporary as anything on Carnaby Street.

Makes for much more room inside, too. And Viva's luxurious interior really rates the raves it's won.

With a new wider stance and new full coil suspension, Viva delivers flatter, road-hugging handling. Power's been boosted over 12% and harnessed to Viva's world-proved 4-speed, fully-synchronized manual transmission.

But if shiftless driving is your cup of tea, then Viva's with you there, too. Here at last is a stylish small car with an optional automatic—Viva's smooth new 3-speed, fully automatic transmission.

Perhaps the most welcome news of all is the new level of silence. Viva's built a sound barrier to keep out road and running noises. Redesigned suspension, extensive sound deadeners and body insulation, and new twin in-line mufflers soothe you with the silent treatment.

You get all this and economy, too. Economy of operation, an extra-ordinarily economical price.

See the all-new Viva soon at your Vauxhall-Pontiac dealer's.

THE WORLD OF SPORTS

Lacrosse officially opens tonight

Torre and McCarver don't like extra innings, belt homers to end duels

Probably the guy on whom an extra inning baseball game is toughest is the poor catcher going up and down behind the plate, wearing all that heavy gear.

So Joe Torre and Tim McCarver, a couple of receivers, decided they'd rather not stick around for more than the regulation nine innings.

Torre, Atlanta's all-star catcher, cracked a leadoff homer in the bottom of the East Angus Golf Club opens with two-ball event

The East Angus Golf Club will officially open their season Saturday with a two-ball, best ball Mixed.

The tee-off will start at 1:30 p.m. when the partners will be drawn. The lady will supply the supper for her partner.

Following this a dance will be held in the clubhouse and is slated to commence at 8:30 p.m. The dance is open to all members and their friends.

Bedford Horse Show to be held Sunday, May 21

BEDFORD — The annual Horse Show, sponsored by the Missisquoi County Historical Society, will be held Sunday, May 21.

It will be staged in the Bedford Arena and will commence at 12:30 p.m. A total of twelve classes is on the agenda for all types of horses.

HELPS CAUSE

Aaron's two-run shot in the sixth inning had tied it for the Braves against young Tom Seaver, who helped his own cause by driving two New York runs with three straight hits.

Left-handed hitting McCarver was on the bench against Southpaw Chris Short, who cruised through the first five innings, retiring 15 straight batters. But when right-hander Dick Farrell came on in relief, McCarver batted for John Romano opening the bottom of the ninth.

Jack Nicklaus to play in Canadian Open

MONTREAL (CP) — Jack Nicklaus, one of four players to follow as a philosopher.

"Just swing, that's my philosophy, the Baltimore first baseman said Wednesday night. "But swing hard in case you hit it."

Well, the boys were swinging hard in the Oriole-Boston Red Sox game, and they were hitting it.

TRACK INAUGURATED — Oscar Moore of the University of Southern Illinois won an exhibition two-mile run staged Tuesday to inaugurate the new Pan-American Games all-weather track. The track is a composition material known as Tartan. It is at the University of Manitoba campus in the Metropolitan Winnipeg suburb of Fort Garry. Behind Moore after the first lap are Arjan Gelling of the University of North Dakota and Ray Haswell of the University of Alberta at Edmonton. Moore, who covered the route in eight minutes, 43.4 seconds compared with his best outdoor time this season of 8:41, finished 130 yards ahead of Haswell.

O-QAA adds two more colleges for six teams

LONDON, Ont. (CP) — The Ontario-Quebec Athletic Association's football grouping will increase to six teams, largest in the college league's long history, with the admittance of McMaster and the University of Waterloo in the fall of 1968.

Among other changes in the league setup announced Wednesday by John Metras, chairman of the O-QAA's administrative council, is the addition of the University of Windsor to the hockey grouping and a realignment of the two basketball divisions, both effective in the 1968-69 season.

McMaster and Waterloo, which now are members of the 13-team Central Canada Intercollegiate Football Conference, will join Western, Toronto, Queen's and McGill in the O-QAA football league.

It is the first change in the O-QAA football grouping since 1953 when McMaster made a brief one-year appearance.

Both McMaster and Waterloo will play in the newly-formed CCIFC during the 1967 season before joining the O-QAA football group the following fall.

US to prohibit rigging TV for commercials

WASHINGTON (AP) — Representative Richard L. Ottinger said Wednesday he is drafting legislation that would prohibit rigging professional sports events to permit scheduling of radio or television commercials.

Ottinger, a member of the House communications and power subcommittee, said the bill would extend to professional sports events a provision making it illegal to "rig contests of intellectual knowledge, intellectual skill or chance."

The New York Democrat added in a statement he hopes his proposal will spark an investigation "of the extent to which the radio and television networks are influencing the conduct of professional sports at the expense of the viewer or listener."

Ottinger said his concern was prompted by published reports that professional soccer players "have been ordered to feign injuries or disputes in order to allow the Columbia Broadcasting System to work in commercials."

He said he had learned the network "ordered the referee to call a time out every nine minutes."

Well, the boys were swinging hard in the Oriole-Boston Red Sox game, and they were hitting it.

Ten home runs sailed out of Fenway Park — seven by Baltimore and three by the Red Sox — in the game won 12-8 by the Orioles.

The 10 homers were one shy of the major league record for two teams in a game; Baltimore's four blasts in the seventh were one short of the mark for homers by a team in one inning and the total of five in seventh tied the record for homers by two teams in an inning.

NO LIMIT ON HOMERS

In all, there were 21 homers hit in the American League Wednesday night, with five coming in Cleveland Indian's 8-7 victory over New York Yankees. Detroit Tigers crushed Washington Senators 8-1. California Angels topped Kansas City Athletics 7-3 and Chicago White Sox edged Minnesota Twins 5-4 in other AL action.

There was a stiff wind blowing out generally from home plate in Fenway. The homer binge started in the very first inning when Paul Blair of the Orioles hit a solo homer and Boston's Don Demeter connected with two on.

THOSE ROBINSON BOYS

Brooks Robinson homered with none on in the second and team-mate Frank Robinson did the same in the fourth. Carl Yastrzemski belted a two-run blast in the Boston fifth.

Then came the wild seventh. Andy Etchebarren hit a three-run shot and pinch hitter Sam Bowers followed with a solo belt. After another run scored

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Batting — Leon Wagner, Indians, and Jim Northrup, Tigers, both walloped grand slam home runs helping their clubs win. Cleveland edged New York Yankees 8-7 and Detroit downed Washington Senators 8-1.

Pitching — Joe Sparrma, Tigers, won his fourth straight, hurling a three-hitter and striking out 10 as Detroit defeated Washington 8-1.

HEFTY HORTON

Willie Horton drove in three runs with a pair of homers and Jim Northrup hit a grand slam in leading Detroit past Washington.

California snapped a six-game losing streak with its victory over Kansas City. Rick Reichardt and Don Mincher each drove in two runs for the winners.

The White Sox beat Jim Kaat for the first time in 10 decisions dating back to Sept. 10, 1964. Joel Horlen ran his record to 5-0 although he needed relief help.

Chicago wrapped up the game with three runs in the fourth. Harmon Killebrew drove in two Minnesota runs with a double and homer.

Derby winner Proud Clarion rated no better than second choice for Preakness Stake

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ken-wal television (CBS) slated for lucky Derby winner Proud Clarion 5:30-5:45 p.m.

The owners of Barbs Delight second choice Wednesday to must post $10,000 today to make take Saturday's $150,000-added Preakness at Pimlico as the classic. The $10,000 represents a supplementary fee.

The Preakness will have a gross value of $192,000, exceeding the previous high of $190,300 for 30 years, pegged in Reality in 1959, when Royal Orbit took as a 5-2 choice to take the 1.31-mile Preakness although Mrs. Frances A. Genter's ace has not raced in seven weeks.

Proud Clarion, who gave John Galbreath's Derby Dan Farm its second Kentucky Derby victory in four years, was quoted at 3-1 along with Mrs. Edith W. Bancroft's Damascus, third in the derby.

Barbs Delight, third May 6 at Churchill Downs, followed the Jimmy Simpson announced he leading trio at 5-1. Great Power, Reason to Hail, Ask the Fare, Jr.'s Misty Cloud. Olympics at home to Sorel, Mayor Nadeau to get season started, local squad ready

The Sherbrooke Olympics of the Quebec Lacrosse League will officially open their season this evening at the Sports Palace when they will play hosts to the Sorel Titans in a regular league fixture.

Mayor Armand Nadeau has been invited to get the season underway and make the faceoff at 8:30 p.m. He will be assisted by members of the City Council, team officials and several former lacrosse players.

It is the first time since 1937 that a lacrosse game has taken place. Back in those days it was played on the Parade Grounds but now the game has moved indoors and is much faster and has more body checks, owing to the size of the floor.

The Olympics are hoping a good crowd will be on hand for tonight's game. Box lacrosse, for the benefit of our readers, resembles hockey quite a lot. The team is set up along the same lines with a goalie, two defensemen and three forwards. However it is much faster as the ball travels at lightning speed.

Coach Bill Wilkinson has a good team lined up and the boys have been hard at work for the past few weeks. However, as Coach Wilkinson stated at last week's press conference, it takes considerable time to build a unit into a top team.

Lacrosse is a little different than hockey, says Coach Wilkinson, in that the ball is tossed about much faster than a puck and players must be at the right spot to catch it. There is plenty of body contact and the fans should see plenty of action."

Coach Wilkinson released the names of his players last evening. Terry Burgess, goalie, Remi Fleury, Jean Franehe, Richard "Ticker" Dagenais and Gerry Gallant will form the rearguard brigade and they are rated highly by the local pilot.

The attacking units will consist of Guy Hubert, Andre Despard, John "Sonny" Hansen, Denis Dagenais, Gerry Widdup, Claude Milot and Roger Blais. Ray Courchesne will act as the sub goalie.

Coach Wilkinson, who was assistant coach with the Ville St. Pierre Saints, last year, is hoping his squad will get off on the right foot tonight and is looking for a victory to start the season off.

The Olympics will definitely be in the battle for honors in the league and we should have some good clubs but I am sure that we will give a good account of ourselves and the fans should be in for plenty of action," stated Coach Wilkinson.

The Preakness, followed in two weeks by the Belmont Stakes, jewel in the triple crown, received an unexpected entry Wednesday when trainer Churchill Downs, followed the Jimmy Simpson announced he leading trio at 5-1. Great Power, Reason to Hail, Ask the Fare, Jr.'s Misty Cloud. The decision Favorable Turn and Misty Cloud were lightly regarded for this five-eighths of a mile in 1:00 4-5. The richest of all Preakness renewals.

Jockey Bill Hartack spurred E. P. Taylor's Northern Dancer to victory in the Preakness Stakes, second leg of U.S. horse racing's triple crown, three years ago today — in 1964. The Dancer had already won the Kentucky Derby but was later to be beaten at Aqueduct in the Belmont Stakes. Willie Shoemaker had first planned to ride Northern Dancer in the Preakness but switched to Hill Rise, which came in third, at the last moment.

Now there's a pretty way to save money.

Ever since Volkswagen invented economy in 1949, people have been making regular trips to the bank in the familiar VW Sedan. Not everyone, however. Some people just don't care for the Beetle's classic bad looks. Regardless of how wealthy it might make them. So we built a racy Sedan with all the saving graces of the VW Sedan: The VW Fastback. It goes about 32 miles on a gallon of regular gas. 35,000 miles on a set of tires. And forever without water or antifreeze. (The air-cooled engine doesn't use them.) The family resemblance doesn't end there. The Fastback has the Beetle's extraordinary traction to go in snow and mud. (You save on tow trucks.) The same kind of replaceable fenders. (You save on repairs.) The same 4-coats-deep paint job. (You save on paint jobs.) What the Fastback has that the VW Sedan doesn't is more room inside, a second trunk in back over the engine, front wheel disc brakes, a stronger engine plus rakish good looks that look decidedly Un-Volkswagen.

Canada produced only three active players in majors but 13 have developed in past

Canada produced only three players active this season in baseball's major leagues but at least 13 on big league rosters received part of their development in this country. Three right-handed pitchers — George Korince of Detroit Tigers, Claude Raymond of Houston Astros and Ferguson

Jenkins of Chicago Cubs — remained the only Canadians active after Ron Taylor of New York Mets was placed on the injured list. Jenkins, a promising starter, and relief hurlers Raymond and Korince will be faced this season by many American graduates of the Western Canada Baseball League.

Another major leaguer claims a Canadian affiliation of a different variety. Dennis Ribant, slim right-hander with Pittsburgh Pirates, played virtually all his baseball in the United States but spent some time in Canada as a junior hockey forward with Hamilton Red Wings. Ribant, who last season became the first New York Mets' starter to post a winning record, is a Detroit native. Raymond was born in St. Jean, Que. Jenkins was born and raised in Chatham, Ont., and Korince got his minor baseball start in St. Catharines, Ont.

FAIRLY IS GRAD
The WCBL, a currently inactive circuit that operated at various times in Alberta and Saskatchewan, was a testing ground for university and college standouts. Some received substantial bonuses to sign with big league clubs.

Probably the most prominent of the WCBL graduates is Ron Fairly of Los Angeles Dodgers. Fairly received an estimated $65,000 to sign after spending a summer with Edmonton Dodgers in the late 1950s.

The National League also claims most of the other WCBL graduates currently active.

Included are pitchers Nelson Briles and Ray Washburn of St. Louis Cardinals and Dan Schneider of Houston, catcher Tom Haller of San Francisco Giants, infielders Gary Sutherland of Philadelphia Phillies and John Werhas of Los Angeles Dodgers, and utility man John Boccabella of Chicago Cubs.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox' double-play combination, Don Buford and Jerry Adair, are joined by outfielder Len Gabrielson and utility-man Tom Satriano of California Angels and infielder Tim Cullen of Washington Senators.

The WCBL folded most recently in 1964 after major league sponsors pulled out. Edmonton was supported by the Dodgers, Calgary by the Giants, Saskatoon by the Cubs and Lethbridge by the Cardinals.

At various times, the league also had teams in Lloydminster, Sask., Medicine Hat, Alta., and Regina.

WANTS INTO PCL
An Edmonton insurance agent, John Ducey, has started a movement to encourage the Alberta government to build domed stadiums at Calgary and Edmonton with a view to joining the Pacific Coast League.

Ducey claims, and experts agree, that further major league expansion is inevitable. He also maintains the PCL cannot continue to pay outrageous amounts for travel in the 12-team circuit that sprawls from Hawaii to Indianapolis. Ducey, a former professional umpire who was born in Buffalo, N.Y., points beyond the list of current major leaguers to bolster his statement that baseball can prosper in Canada.

Almost every minor league shows at least one graduate of the circuit he helped organize. Vancouver and Toronto, the only professional franchises operating in Canada this season, both have had players schooled in the WCBL.

Infielder Ernie Fazio played in Vancouver last year on option from Kansas City and pitcher Schneider toiled with Toronto a few years ago on option from Milwaukee Braves.

Despite continuing apathy by fans in Toronto, Ducey says, a major league franchise is possible there when and if a suitable stadium is provided. He looks forward to the day a graduate of the WCBL plays with a Canadian major league club.

Stanstead College took last year's laurels

Stanstead Wesleyan College returned the Skitner Trophy to the college last year at the 24th annual Sherbrooke Y's Men's sponsored Eastern Townships Track and Field Meet.

In 1965 the award went to Bishop's College School. These two competitors will be among 14 others vying for the trophy, Saturday at the Parade Grounds. The gigantic sports day will begin at 8:45 a.m. and end at 5:30 in the afternoon. Others competing are ADS High School, Danville; Bedford High, Cowansville High, Drummondville High, Feller College, St. Johns; Granby High, Lennoxville High, Pope Memorial High, Bury; Princess Elizabeth High, Magog; St. Francis High, Richmond; Sherbrooke High, Sunnyside High and Sutton High.

Officials in charge of the event this year will be co-chairman Bob Jarjour, Ron Bishop, chief marshal Bruce Coulter, track marshal Curtis Bishop, field marshal Gordon Ross and official starter Jim MacKinnon.

A total of 350 young people from ages 11 to 19 will be participating. Last year Stanstead accumulated 90 points in the overall standing to win the coveted Skinner Trophy. Fifty-nine points were contributed by the Junior class while the Juveniles offered 22 and the Middlets nine points. Two other classes, Pee Wee and Bantam were point-less.

Cowansville High School followed in the standing as second highest aggregate of the Meet, chalking up 79 points, ahead of Sherbrooke High School, who amassed 63. BCS was a close fourth, with 61 points.

Fine weather from early start to late finish for the day long Meet attracted between 800 and 1,000 persons to the Parade Grounds watching the many athletes competing for the top. Fourteen schools entered over 300 athletes in the various events.

Danny Lemay, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Lemay, Sherbrooke, won the Sherbrooke General Sports Commission Trophy as Individual High Aggregate of the Meet. The Grade 8 student at Sherbrooke High School literally earned the honor, coming in ahead of the field in each event entered. Of the five heats, Lemay smashed two set records.

Clifford Lusby, of Stanstead Wesleyan College, won the mile medley again for the second consecutive time. Lusby had finished second in the day's last event Saturday, but was awarded first place by officials of the Meet. The actual Open Mile winner, Colin Gage, violated a Meet regulation, and was disqualified. Gage had entered under the Cowansville Consolidated High School roster, but was a student at the Bedford High School.

Individual trophy winners for each class also contributed to the Class High Aggregate winners with their total points. In the Pee Wee class, Terry Marlin was High Aggregate, winning the Horst A. Rothfels Trophy, and contributing 17 points to the Lennoxville High Class Aggregate, to win the Sherbrooke Daily Record Trophy on 27 points.

Danny Lemay was the Bantam High Aggregate, being responsible for 20 points of the Sherbrooke High 34 total as Bantam class aggregate. Lemay won the Syd Hart Trophy, and the BP Canada Trophy. Peter Terauds was named Middlet High Aggregate with 12 points in the Meet. The Cowansville High School student was awarded the Inspector J. H. Hunter Trophy, while Bishop's College School won the Charlie Connors Trophy as class aggregate.

A three-way tie developed for the Juvenile individual winner for the Sherbrooke Athletic Commission Trophy. Bill Purchase, of Cowansville, Stan Rayzora, of Knowlton, and Peter Porteous, of BCS, each amassed ten points. Stanstead College won the Class High Aggregate, and the Jean Maysenheider Trophy.

In the junior class, there was little doubt in anyone's mind, throughout the meet, as to who would emerge as winners. Hersh Gottheil and the team he represented, Stanstead College, was above all others. Gottheil won the J. S. Mitchell Trophy for his 18 point contribution, and the Warren Lynch Trophy went to Stanstead, for a high 59 points in the junior class.

Members of the Sherbrooke Y's Men's Club, and also members of the Sherbrooke Hi-Y handled the operations of the day. Track Marshal was Ken Strew; assisted by Field Marshal Bruce Coulter, Track Marshal Warren Lynch, and starter Jim MacKinnon.

Sutton's Don Marchand is up and over to win juvenile pole vault event.
