R.C.M.P. Overpower Escaped Lunatic --- Gunshots Fired

Flashed Knife as he Escaped Capture in Constable, N.Y., Restaurant

Felix Egar, aged 35, a ferocious escaped lunatic from the Ogdensburg Insane Asylum, since July 1944, was overpowered after the use of gun shots by the R.C.M.P. in Huntingdon Town, at 225 a.m., Monday, August 6.

The capture of Egar took place on Highway No. 4, about 60 feet within the town limits. It was thought at the time of his capture he was a German Prisoner of War who had made a break away from a U.S. Internment camp, but later evidence and his confession indicated he was an escaped lunatic.

Search has been going on since his escape from the Asylum in July 10, after being an inmate of the Asylum for nearly 8 years. He was committed to the Asylum from Hardsville, N.Y., a place near Watertown, N.Y. The R.C.M.P. at Huntingdon were notified on Sunday, that this man, believed to be a German Prisoner of War was going about. The Provost Corps at Chateauguy Barracks had also been notified. It seems that this man Egar was quite cunning, and as autos approached him he would slip into a ditch and only the occasional person in a car saw him in his travels by night. A U.S. Immigration officer passed the man on the Highway and shortly after learned of the wanted man. He immediately informed the State Troopers and after careful checking up they located him in a restaurant at Constable. The people in the restaurant were phoned when the phone rang Egar appeared interested in the conversation which he could hear going on from the restaurant. As he was approached he drew a knife and dashed through the people in the restaurant and escaped capture.

Early Monday morning, Taxi Driver Garceau, of Valleyfield, was passing through Huntingdon and he saw this questionable individual on the road. Earlier in the night he had been stopped by the R.C.M.P. and told they were looking for a prisoner and if he saw such a man as they described, to let them know. Garceau saw the man entering Huntingdon and immediately went to the R.C.M.P., who were in conversation with the Military Police at the bridge. They immediately went after the prisoner. Three

R.C.M.P. constables and the Provost Corps men were soon rounding up their man.

Egar, a man of 160 pounds, was spotted underneath a lamp post at the James Peter's residence, on Chateauguy St. When the officers reached the man they told him they were police and wished to arrest him. He was told to put his hands up and reach high to save his life. Egar at first put his hands up, but they were seen to be dropping, and was ordered to hold them high, as a warning shot from a 45 was discharged by the R.C.M.P. As one of the constables endeavoured to capture Egar from the back, and with a spot light blazing in his face, he quickly snatched an axe from his belt and was swinging it ferociously at the R.C.M.P. As he was doing so a second shot was fired hitting him in the heel. By this time Egar had backed up 45 feet from the lamp post, and was evidently hoping to escape into a roadside hedge.

When questioned he stated he was born in Switzerland, that he could speak German, French and English. He admitted he was a bit of a linguist. He claimed to be a prospector and that he was wanting to get to various parts of northern Canada to see his British interests. He carried a pair of knives, some flour, onions and from some where along his travels, he evidently got a chicken which he had in a knapsack. He also carried a blanket which was thought might be a U.S. Army issue.

The R.C.M.P. and the Provost Corps of Chateauguy Barracks, had Egar taken to the Barracks Hospital after first aid had been administered on the Highway. Monday morning, the R.C.M.P. were in communication with the U.S. State Troopers and they gave assurance that they would accept Egar in his wounded condition, without further delay.

The R.C.M.P. constables who had charge of the hunt and capture were: Constable Stein in charge, Constable Aice and special Constable Gariepy. Serg. Nash and other members of the Provost Corps were right on their job. As "Pop" Nash said to the Gleaner, Huntingdon has much better police protection than many people believe; and that is a truthful statement.

Evictions From Dwellings Are Halted by W.P.T.B.

To meet an emergency situation in housing across Canada the government, through the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, has suspended all outstanding notices to vacate self-contained dwellings and has postponed indefinitely the power of landlords to give such notices to well behaved tenants in the future.

Such notices to vacate have been allowed landlords who desired dwellings for themselves or for members of their families. The only exception to the eviction freezing order is in the cases of returned soldiers who desire to reoccupy dwellings in which they lived before entering one of the armed services.

A self-contained dwelling, according to the announcement of the board, includes houses, apartments, duplexes, triplexes or flats.

Notices already given and eviction proceedings already started were halted by the order of the Board but in cases where the landlord will suffer a hardship these cases may be reviewed by a Court of Rental Appeals. The Court will be authorized to consider the relative hardships and needs of the landlord and tenant and make a decision on that basis.

Dance and Floor Show Industrial Bldg., Ormstown

Dance fans are promised a good time on Thursday and Friday evenings, at the Industrial Building, Ormstown Show Grounds, Ormstown, when the "Custer Family" Dance Band makes its appearance there. There will be a dance each evening to be known as the Jitterbug Swing and added attractions will be Gene Krupa, Junior, the seven-year-old Drummer Boy, who really goes to town on the drums and in live talk makes the "music hot". Featured with the band is a floor show which should interest the older people who may want to attend.

In this issue is an advertisement for the band and each member featured is a member of the Custer Family. They are arranged in the following order: girl at the top is a four-year-old; holding the little girl's dress on either side are Michael (left) and Fred (right); between these two are Diane, 18, and Gene Krupa, the drummer boy; seated on the floor are in the following order from left to right: Mary, Rose and Frances, the vocalists.

The claim is that nothing like this has ever visited this part and that the show or the dance will be worth attending.

Special Meeting of Council to Bring in New Liquor By-law

To Discuss Sewer and Water Projects at Adjourned Meeting on Friday

A regular meeting of the Huntingdon Town Council was held at the County Building on Monday evening, with Mayor W. E. McNair presiding and all Aldermen present except Alderman Fawcett. The minutes of a regular meeting held July 9th, and adjourned meetings on July 10th and 17th were read and approved. Bills as read were approved and ordered passed.

For the financing of current accounts until tax returns are available, a resolution was passed to enable the Town of Huntingdon to borrow a sum of money from The Canadian Bank of Commerce.

A letter acquainting the Council of the decision reached in the case of A. A. Lunan vs. Town of Huntingdon in connection with the Liquor Store By-law No. 250 and proposed voting on same, was read and filed.

Several milk reports were read, but no comment was made regarding them.

Two Charity Cards for persons receiving hospital treatment were read, but no action was taken with regard to them.

Some correspondence in connection with the proposed laying of water mains and sewers under the N.Y.C. and C.N.R. tracks at Lakes Street, was read. The letter requested that the Council be willing to reimburse the railways for any expense in connection with bridging the tracks and to assume responsibility for some while the work was being done. The Council is to write the two railways on this matter.

Applications for water connections were received from the following: C. E. Boyce, Miss H. Murphy, Mr. I. Heath for houses, and the Leach Textiles Ltd. for a sprinkler system. The house connection rate was set at $25.00 per annum. The connections have been made, with the exception of Leach Textiles, which will be made later.

A notice of motion was given by Ald. Cappello that at a special meeting on Monday, August 13th, he will bring in a by-law to repeal By-law No. 250, and By-law No. 49 of the County of Huntingdon insofar as it concerns the Town of Huntingdon, and also By-law No. 201 of the Town of Huntingdon, and to request the Quebec Liquor Commission to establish one Hotel Permit Grocery Permits for beer, and for a Liquor Store in the Town of Huntingdon.

The Park Committee is to work with the Rotary Club in connection with the Bennis Cecilia playing field, in making what alterations deemed necessary for making this field into a suitable sports ground. The Mayor said he understood that the Town would be under no expense in this connection, but felt it advisable that the Park Committee work with the Rotary Club in this respect.

Ald. Fawcett was appointed pro-mayor for the next three months.

It was decided to adjourn until Friday evening as the proposed By-law in connection with the laying of sewers and water mains, was considered to be very satisfactory and there were certain expenditures made last year out of current revenue that would not have to be made this year. Such would show as a surplus. From the result of the recent new valuation it was assumed that there would be a considerable amount of increased revenue from taxes on account of new property having been built up in the town in the past year. It was further evident that more building would be done and that a greater amount of taxes would accrue from this new building in the future. With the laying of the new sewer and water mains, there would be many new houses built on the other side of the tracks and this would also help in the matter of increased taxes. In all a very bright picture was painted as to the wisdom of the proposed project and all members of the Council seemed agreed on this point. Further discussion will take place when the matter is brought up at the meeting on Friday evening.

Stamp Sales Prove Success In County

G. A. McKay, Organizer, Voices Appreciation

A very successful War Savings Stamp Sale Campaign was conducted during the past few weeks, under the direction of Mr. G. A. McKay, County Field Secretary and Stamp Organizer for National War Finances, which realized the sum of $1,057.00 as a total for the County of Huntingdon. The amount realized was beyond expectations and showed that the various committees worked well and that the public responded well to the appeal to buy War Savings Stamps. Huntingdon Town came to the fore with a total amount of $510.00 worth of stamps sold, which showed the work of the committee composed of Mrs. Stata, Miss Ruth Warden, Mrs. J. Barrett and the Miss Canada Girls, who were untiring in their efforts throughout the campaign. Special mention should also be made of Huntingdon Chateau, the management of which purchased $100 worth of stamps; of Mr. W. K. Pope, Bank of Montreal, Huntingdon; Mr. N. P. Manning, The Canadian Bank of Commerce, Huntingdon, and Mr. Hauser, The Canadian Bank of Commerce, Hemmingford, for the splendid efforts they made in the campaign.

Mr. McKay also had a word of appreciation for the splendid publicity given by "The Huntingdon Gleaner," which he said did much to make the campaign the success it was. Thrift Occurs At Woollen Mills

Most of the employees at the mill were on holiday during the past week and only a skeleton staff was maintained during that week. The office manager was in his office on Saturday and there were men working in the mill during the week-end. The theft was discovered on Monday morning, when the office staff arrived. A cash box was missing along with several envelopes containing money from the payroll, later these were found in one of the bins in the mill and hidden under some wool. The cash box had been forced and the contents taken from it.

The matter was reported to Mr. McCrow for the Huntingdon police department and he immediately reported to Provincial Police at Montreal. Detectives were supposed to have been down to investigate the theft on Monday, but upon enquiries being made on Tuesday morning, they had not arrived.

There are many peculiarities about the theft that cannot be divulged until the police investigation has been completed.

Minister Urges Attention to Transportation Dairy Products

Care Should be Taken to Protect From Heat And Dust of Road

"The maintenance of the quality of our dairy products as well as their improvement should be one of the chief ambitions of anyone actually engaged in producing dairy products". These remarks were addressed to newspapermen by Hon. Laurent Barré with regard to the present conditions of our dairy industry. The Minister went on to say that figures for the first six months of the year were on the increase, butter being up 12.6% and cheese 1.3%. These are most gratifying results at a time when a famished world looks to America for provisioning.

However, the Minister said he was sorry to note that during the heavy heat wave we have been experiencing, milk and cream have been transported during the afternoon without benefit of protection against the burning rays of the sun, which greatly decreases the value of these perishable products. In open vehicles, whether horse-drawn or motor driven, canisters should be properly protected from the heat and dust of the road.

Although the Department of Agriculture is not issuing transportation permits this year, because of the recent abolition of the Federal Control Board, Provincial Regulations allow the transportation of milk and cream only between the hours of 5.00 and 10.00 a.m.

We hope, concluded Mr. Barré, that any one engaged in the transportation of milk and cream will generously collaborate, in the interest of all concerned, to the maintenance of the good reputation acquired on the markets for Quebec dairy products.

Governor Dewey to Speak at Malone Fair, Wed. Aug. 22

Governor Dewey has accepted the invitation of the Franklin County Fair to be its honored guest on Wednesday, the 22nd of August. To the knowledge of the officials in charge, this is the first time in the 94 year history of the Association that a Chief Executive of the State will have been present.

In particular, the Governor has been asked to participate in the celebration of the burning of the mortgage on the Holland erty, against which there is a debt amounting to thirty-three thousand dollars just a few years back.

Plans are being made to give Governor Dewey a rousing welcome, and it is expected that 15,000 people will be in Malone to see him. There has been arranged a military review at the State Armory, and a parade from there to the Fair Grounds, with Co. G., and the 6th Regimental Band as escort.

The Governor's interest in increased and improved agricultural production will mean that he will inspect the many exhibits on the Grounds. The Fair is putting forth every effort to expand the various departments, and make the 1945 exhibition which is from Aug. 20 through the 26th, seven days, the biggest and best on record.

Cut Sugar Quotas Given to Beekeepers

Only beekeepers who produce honey for sale and are registered with the Ration Administration will be granted sugar to feed their bees this fall the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has announced. A maximum of 15 pounds per colony may be granted and, as no sugar will be available for spring feeding, beekeepers are being advised to keep enough honey from their own production for spring feeding.

The action of the Board was made necessary by the drastic cuts in the Canadian and world sugar supply which has already been reflected in the reduction of rations to domestic and industrial sugar users in Canada.

The Annual Burnside Sale

ON Saturday, the annual sale of Ayrshire cattle takes place at the well-known Burnside Farm of R. R. Ness & Sons, Howick, Que.

Great pains are taken by the firm of R. R. Ness & Sons to see that the cattle put on sale are of the very best and which will give the buyer full value for the money he pays.

Usually these animals go to outside buyers, while only a few remain in the immediate district, we would like to see more of these animals remain in the district and be distributed among those farmers requiring additional good stock and foundation animals.

At the present time there is a great demand for dairy products and the dairy farmer is in a fair way to building a prosperous business for all time.

We know that it is perhaps not right to tell a man what to do in his own business, but when a business is common and the person is busy with his own part of it, it is often that opportunities are missed which are right under his nose, as it were.

Let there be a greater number of these animals remain in the district than after previous sales and let us hope that the highest priced animal may remain on a local farm.

In unity there can be more than strength. If we achieve it there is national destiny.

The Big Three Potsdam Conference Ends

WHEN writing of the Big 3 it seems hard not to include the names of the late President Roosevelt and that of Winston Churchill. But the latest conference of the Big 3 has ended without the inclusion of these names, instead there appear two new names: President Truman for the United States and Clement Attlee for Great Britain.

However, the world must go on and the Big 3 conference went on and came to a final conclusion despite two of the originals being absent at the final sitting.

maintained this policy. The conference was shrouded in much secrecy and a great deal of comment was heard on the necessity of such secrecy now that the war in Europe has ended and that the conference was mostly supposed to deal with matters to do with clearing up difficulties of governing and restoring the countries of Europe.

It would seem that France is not entirely satisfied with the decisions reached at the conference and will likely make representations on behalf of what France thinks should be done with that part of Germany close to her own borders.

In the latter matter and knowing the German tendency to assume power of greater proportions than that allowed, a move to allow a government of the German people themselves may lead to another war in very short order.

It is quite evident that we are already going soft on the way to handle these Germans and that we are falling for the soft soap that some of their number are handing out.

So it is that the Potsdam conference does not appear to have been the solution to all the problems that must be faced.

Lives that overflow to others gather no scum.

There can be no real economic, political or social recovery while there is spiritual and moral destitution.

Railways and War

TWENTY-SIX Pullman or hospital-car trains, which if lined up, would extend a distance of nine miles, were required to move homeward more than 10,000 veterans who arrived in Halifax recently aboard the troopship Ile de France and the hospital ship Letitia.

This particular instance of coping with a huge transportation problem, well-publicized with the relaxation of wartime news restrictions regarding troop movements, is a striking example of the tremendous wartime tasks executed by Canadian railways.

Working against time, congestion, drastically increased loads of freight and passengers without corresponding increases in equipment, Canadian railways moved construction materials, machinery, raw materials, munitions, troops, supplies to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and to army camps and air training depots in the Dominion with increasing efficiency.

Highly intricate problems arose in transporting equipment. Among other things, the movement of landing barges required railway tracks to be depressed to permit loads to pass under bridges; giant boilers constituting loads too wide for clearance had to be loaded on two flat cars and routed over single track branch lines.

The greatest share of war railways work was carried by the two major railways, the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific. Since these two companies make up the largest single industry in Canada, the largest employer of labor and the largest user of materials, their post-war plans are vitally important.

The end of the war in Europe involves virtually no easing of the burden carried by the great transportation systems. Huge food shipments must be transported to the Atlantic seaboard for Europe's starving millions to say nothing of machinery for industrial rehabilitation.

Throughout the war the railways have suffered by loss of personnel to the armed forces and their backlog of deferred maintenance grows daily. Some idea of the task ahead is shown by the fact that up to July 1944 the railways had accumulated more than $50,000,000 for deferred maintenance work, representing between 25,000 and 30,000 man-years of work, in addition to ordinary maintenance work.

You cannot put class first and expect to have first-class teamwork.

Yelling at the children isn't likely to make home a howling success.

MOST ALL GIRLS LIKE A BOX OF CHOCOLATES

Chocolate has been proven to be a highly concentrated food and is used as part of the sustaining rations for marooned airmen and army personnel. Maybe the little lady is a good judge of food values after all, she seems to have a knowing look on her face and that wink of the eye seems to indicate that she believes the box of chocolates is O.K.

Not only the girls but a large number of the men like chocolates, too. Despite the nutritive value of the specially prepared type of chocolate, how many of us would like chocolate served for all our meals? No, chocolate will not appease the average person's hunger for good nutritive meals and it would not be a good idea to live on chocolate alone, even if this were possible. Canada's Food Rules do not prescribe chocolate as an important part of the daily menu, so that it would not come under the heading of being a necessary part of the diet. There is nothing to take the place of the items listed in the daily food rules and all the items mentioned are needed in the daily diet. If we all follow these rules it should result in a very healthy race of people and it should result in everyone enjoying all the benefits of health and happiness.

More attention should be paid to our daily habits of living and less attention to the luxuries that can be ignored and which do not help us to attain health and happiness. If one can afford luxuries there is no reason for them not to have them, but the first attention should be given to the vital necessities as being the most important. The vital necessities are those foods which give the greatest nutritive value and are prescribed as being the most beneficial to the human body from a health standpoint. This being the case, it is better that we EAT RIGHT TO FEEL RIGHT. Canada needs a strong healthy race of people and included among that race of people are the workers in our mills, stores, offices, and business places in Huntingdon. Let us all study Canada's Food Rules and stay healthy the year round.

DUNDEE BRANCH
The members of the Dundee Women's Institute were delighted to welcome six members of the Fort Covington Home Bureau, to their regular meeting in the Community Hall, on Wednesday afternoon, August 1st, when Mrs. Hugh A. Cameron and Mrs. Albert H. Fraser were joint hostesses.

Among the guests was Mrs. S. Gleason, R.N. (formerly Miss Grace Smith of Dundee) who gave an outstanding talk on health entitled "Running down hill or pulling up hill". Mrs. Gleason spoke on the body, mind and spirit; how easy we run down hill in health, but how difficult to pull up to perfect health again. She outlined the proper care of the body, food, recreation, work, beauty of soul, etc. She dealt on communicable diseases and their proper treatment. Mrs. Gleason left a worthy and uplifting message, that will long be remembered by the ladies.

The making of handbags was a real fad in the Home Bureau, Fort Covington, around Christmas time and Mrs. H. Parubar, who is known to many in this district as an accomplished pianist and music teacher, demonstrated several types, including envelope, six wing and round, in her usual pleasing manner. During the afternoon Mrs. Parubar delighted the gathering with several instrumental selections on the piano.

Mrs. W. B. Grant and Mrs. W. Creighton (formerly Miss Beatrice McDonald of Dundee) who were hostesses for a "Victory Dinner" at Fort Covington, some few weeks ago, gave recipes and suggestions on such a meal, these proved most interesting and helpful in these days of rationed foods.

The President, Mrs. H. A. Cameron, graciously thanked all the speakers.

The Roll Call "Does it pay to work and leave the child behind?" $5.00 received from National Film Board for use of Hall.

Correspondence included letters from Mrs. T. Stowell, Miss Florence R. Mortimore, Mrs. L. Hodges and Mrs. R. Taylor.

Conveners reports: Education: Mrs. Lester Fraser, Horrors of Science. Home Economics: Mrs. J. Platt: Potato Salads; Electric lamps; Dress chokers.

National and International Relations: Mrs. John Fleming; Tin Drath seen prolonged. Publicity: Mrs. S. Cameron: Doors, "Youth in the New World", was discussed after which the hostesses served delicious refreshments, to ten members and seven guests and a social hour enjoyed.

It was with a distinct sense of shock that the town of Huntingdon learned on Thursday, 2nd August, of the sudden death of Mrs. Manning, wife of Mr. N. Folsom Manning, Editor-in-Chief of The Canadian Bank of Commerce.

Mrs. Manning had been holidaying at Chateaugay Lake, N.Y., with her husband, until Thursday she had appeared to be in her usual health. That morning, however, she suddenly complained of sharp discomfort, the doctor was immediately called and she was rushed to the Huntingdon County Hospital. There her condition grew rapidly worse and the end came within an hour.

Through the many years of her married life in Chateaugay Valley, Mrs. Manning had a host of friends who valued her for her kindness, her unflinching co-operation and her hospitality. A devoted member of the Church of St. John (Anglican), she was active in all local benevolent and patriotic work where she was in constant demand for her capable leadership, her unflinching zeal and her rare human understanding. Of her it might be said, she never ceased to gather friends and never lost an old one. As a devoted wife and mother, an unfailing friend and a local citizen she has left a gap that will be hard to fill.

Mrs. Manning was born at Stanstead, Que., the daughter of William Lee Terrill and the grand-daughter of the Hon. Timothy Lee Terrill. She is survived by her husband, Mr. N. Folsom Manning, a prominent local Banker and Business Executive, her son Terrill Manning (O. Cdr. R.C.N.V.R.) and a sister, Miss G. Belle Terrill of Stanstead, who is the last surviving member of that family, to all of whom goes the deepest sympathy of this community.

After brief prayers at the home of the deceased conducted by the Rev. Harry Lindley of Valleyfield the body was taken to Stanstead, followed by many Huntingdon citizens, representative of the various organizations with which Mrs. Manning had carried her husband's interests; the Rotary Club of Huntingdon, the Board of Trade, the Huntingdon County Hospital and others.

Final and touching tribute in service and in flowers was paid the deceased at Christ Church, Stanstead, which was filled to capacity by sympathetic friends from Huntingdon, Stanstead, Sherbrooke and other parts. Burial took place in the family lot at the beautiful Chrystal Lake Cemetery, Stanstead, where prayers were offered at the graveside.

I wish to thank my relatives and friends for flowers, fruit, letters and cards received during my recent illness in Barrie Memorial Hospital, Ormstown, and Montreal General Hospital.

Mrs. George Robb.

I wish to thank my friends and shippers for their business of the past, and hope they will continue to give their cooperation with the new owner J. Gordon Fraser, of Dundee.

W. J. Smythe.

I wish to extend our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our relatives, friends and neighbours for their kindness, expressions of sympathy and floral tributes during our recent sad bereavement.

Mrs. Alice L. Clyde and Norman

WADDELL—In loving memory of our dear father, John Waddell, who passed away August 7, 1931. "At dawn you are always remembered with tenderness, love and regret. At sunset sweet memories awaken of a father we'll never forget. In memories we see you just the same. As long as we live we'll remember your name. Deep in our hearts you are living yet. We loved you too dearly to ever forget." Sadly missed by his loving family.

I wish to express my most sincere thanks to my neighbours, friends and relatives for visiting me, also for flowers, fruit, letters, cards and many other ways of kind deeds. I also thank the Staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the many acts of kindness shown me while I was in the Hospital.
