Van Doren Testifies He Was Given Script

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles Van Doren testified today he was given answers and even given a regular script to memorize when he appeared on the supposedly unrehearsed Twenty-One television quiz program. He said he was coached in mannerisms as well.

Van Doren admitted he testified falsely last year before the New York grand jury investigating the quiz programs.

He told a congressional investigating subcommittee "I was deeply involved in a deception" in his quiz appearances three years ago.

Van Doren named Albert Freedman, producer of Twenty-One, as the man who persuaded him to co-operate in rigging the show and then coached him.

A telling argument Freedman used, Van Doren said, was that as the scion of a famous literary family and a member of the Columbia University faculty, Van Doren would "increase public respect for the intellectual life, for the teaching profession" by making a good showing.

He said Freedman also told him "it was all entertainment" and coaching of contestants was routine.

"Perhaps I wanted to believe it," Van Doren told the committee. "Foolishly and wrongly I persuaded myself it was all true."

Van Doren appeared before a jam-packed audience with crowds waiting outside the hearing room to get in. But this time his questions and answers were not televised.

New Note To Peking

NEW DELHI — (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru declares that India refuses to be intimidated by Red China's show of force and attacks on the northern frontier.

"China may be a big country but India is not small," Nehru told 50,000 followers Sunday night at a rally of his Congress party. "We are not afraid. We are not weak."

Under domestic press attack for not taking more vigorous action in the border dispute, Nehru was cheered repeatedly.

Noting that Mahatma K. Gandhi taught that talk and bluster arose from cold feet, he suggested his slogan for India: "Keep your heads cool, your feet warm."

"People ask us to change our (neutralist) foreign policy," Nehru said. "Newspapers and others want this, or that to be done. This advice rises out of fear, weakness and doubt."

REFERS TO POLICY

"Our foreign policy was laid down by the (Indian national) congress 30 years ago. It is not a weathercock, to change with the wind."

Authoritative sources said India is sending a new note to Peking and predicted it will announce determination to resist any further encroachments.

Many believe Nehru has suffered severe political damage since the clash Oct. 21 in Ladakh province of Kashmir when nine Indian policemen were killed and 10 captured by Chinese Red troops. The disputed area is claimed by both India and China.

In his home state of Uttar Pradesh, his Congress party failed to gain a majority on any new municipal boards when five main cities held elections recently. Opposition parties blasted his China policy.

The government also is ending the low defence priority given Ladakh province by replacing the police with army regulars. A defence ministry spokesman said India is determined not to be caught napping again.

It happened when instructor John R. Ederer told the class they weren't putting enough effort into their exercises in articulation.

Brooke gave it all she had. Her jaw went crack! She couldn't close her mouth.

She's on the mend now after several sessions with an orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Kenton D. Leatherman, who said:

"She should get a good grade in that class for throwing herself into it so wholeheartedly."

Brooke, who couldn't remember the deadly word, had another idea.

She dropped the course.

26 Die

Survives Plane Crash

WAYNESBORO, Va. (AP) — "Things were all quiet — no moans, no groans."

This was the way a 33-year-old machinist' Union official described the immediate aftermath of a crashing impact against a Virginia mountainside in which 26 persons aboard a twin-engine airliner lost their lives and he alone survived.

"I yelled to see if anyone else was alive, but no one answered," said E. Phil Bradley of Clifton Forge, Va., as he told of his 36-hour ordeal in the wilderness following the crash of the Piedmont Airlines DC-3 Friday night.

He suffered dislocated hip and minor cuts.

Within a few hours after Bradley was taken to hospital Sunday at nearby Charlottesville, 26 bodies wrapped in tarpaulins were laboriously carried to the summit of cliff-studded Bucks Elbow Mountain near Virginia's Skyline Drive.

The plane, en route from Washington to Roanoke, Va., was last heard from at 8:24 p.m. Friday night, when the pilot requested landing instructions at Charlottesville. At that time the plane was believed to be about six minutes from the airfield.

The wreckage, only 18 miles west of Charlottesville, was not sighted until 8:30 a.m. Sunday.

Kaiser Predicts Settlement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal mediators stepped back full force into the steel strike picture today, shifting the deadlocked talks here a day before the United States Supreme Court hears arguments involving the dispute.

But there was nothing to indicate agreement would come quicker here than at New York or Pittsburgh, where negotiations in the 111-day-old strike have held long and largely futile sessions over the contract dispute.

One steel man who has signed with the union predicted Sunday the two sides eventually will agree on an economic package close to that he negotiated. But in saying that, Edgar F. Kaiser did not predict when it would come.

As board chairman of the Kaiser Steel Corporation, Kaiser agreed last week to a 20-month contract with the United Steelworkers Union. He estimated its cost at 19½ cents hourly per man, not counting a cost-of-living rise that could add as much as three cents.

"The final agreement," Kaiser said on a television program (NBC - Meet the Press) Sunday, "will be close to the economic package we offered. The contract language, I don't know. It may be a much deeper issue."

Fight BBG Canadian Content Issue

OTTAWA (CP)—The Canadian Association of Broadcasters today proclaimed its outright opposition to the proposal by the Board of Broadcast Governors that the weekly program content of television stations be at least 55-percent Canadian.

The association, representing Canada's 41 privately-owned TV stations, told a BBG hearing that such a move toward quantity would force stations to stretch production money over a greater number of Canadian shows with inevitable deterioration in quality.

As a result, said the C.A.B., more viewers would be driven to watching superior programs on United States stations, which it said already can reach 60 per cent of Canada's TV homes. This would decrease the use of Canadian television to preserve "the national identity."

DISPROPORTIONATE SHARE

Also, the regulation would place on the stations a disproportionately large share of responsibility for maintaining Canadian identity and expanding it. The BBG could not enforce a similar responsibility by the stations' commercial competitors — daily and weekly newspapers, movies and magazines.

The governors, headed by Dr. Andrew Stewart, proposed the 55-percent Canadian content last July in a statement of broad principles, on which to base the country's first regulations specifically for television. Both radio and TV now operate under the same rules.

Instead of the percentage rule, the private stations recommended long-term study to produce "the most effective means for practical achievement of the desired objective."

Perhaps the transmitter fees paid by stations could be earmarked for scholarships, training schools or production of programs featuring Canadian creation or Canadian performers.

Other possibilities might include examination of further encouragement from provincial and municipal governments and by expansion of Canada Council grants to the development of creative and performing talent to bring it up to levels of performance that will find public acceptance.

The C.R.B. came prepared with two other alternatives, for consideration if the broadcast board feels "it cannot proceed except by way of a fixed percentage regulation." They were:

1. The Canadian content of private-TV shows should be set on a yearly basis at half the percentage volume required of the CBC, which is heavily subsidized to "permit forced acceleration development of Canadian material."

2. Beginning Jan. 4, 1961—like latest date at which two or more Canadian areas would be served by more than one Canadian TV station — a program of gradually increasing percentages be started.

The C.A.B. suggested the Canadian content of private-TV shows should be set on a yearly basis at half the percentage volume required of the CBC, which is heavily subsidized to "permit forced acceleration development of Canadian material."

Seek Daylight Robbers In Eastern Townships

Police in the Farnham area are looking for two men today, who pulled off a daring daylight hold-up on the Napierville-St. Johns road Friday afternoon and got away with between $10,000 and $15,000-worth of pay cheques, postal money orders and mail.

The hold-up occurred when a truck carrying the Royal Mail was flagged down by two individuals while on its way to St. Johns with the Farnham mail.

According to police, all the contents of the mail truck were transferred by two gunmen into a second truck, closely resembling the mail truck.

Employees of the Southern Canada Power, Farnham branch are with out their pay cheques held up today because of the hold-up.

According to Farnham police chief, A. Robillard, employee pay cheques of several other companies were also taken.

The chief said that the Farnham police force together with the local detachment of the provincial police have combined in the search for the two gunmen.

It is expected that the provincial police will ask the Federal Government that an armed guard be placed in the mail trucks so as to prevent any further hold-ups of this nature.

Imps And Goblins Behave Only Bury Hit By Vandals

Imps and goblins wrapped up their Halloween costumes for another year causing a minimum amount of fuss and trouble over the weekend, district police departments reported today.

Only the Village of Bury reported anything more than the usual number of soaped windows and chalked sidewalks and streets.

Mayor Osborne Dougherty said vandals threw filth on the doors of two homes in the village last night. He said no vandalism had occurred Saturday night and that the Sunday night issue was apparently a form of vengeance. He said five Provincial policemen were called in by some unauthorized person seeking protection from Halloween vandals.

Mayor Dougherty thought the dirt throwing could have been a reprisal for this action.

Unfortunately, said the Mayor, some feel that they have a right to demand police assistance whenever they wish. An investigation would be made he said to find out the reasons for the appearance of the Provincial

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "There was much in his life that was strange and terrible, in his character something outrageous, and in his fate not a little that was pathetic."

This was Somerset Maugham's portrait of the artist as a middle-aged cad. The artist was Charles Strickland of The Moon and Sixpence, but everyone besides Maugham concedes him to be Paul Gauguin.

Strickland - Gauguin was brought to life by Sir Laurence Olivier on a 90-minute NBC special taped 10 months ago and televised Friday night. He again proved he is not only the best English-speaking actor but a fascinating one as well.

Olivier was at his best in early portions when he changed from the dull London stockbroker to the amoral painter of Paris. He played each character with vast skill and made the transition convincing.

But even Olivier couldn't transform this production of The Moon and Sixpence into a major triumph. The fault lies both with Maugham and producer David Susskind.

CHRONICLE, NOT NOVEL

The story was more a chronicle of a cad than a novel. The result was a succession of scenes in which the artist uses his family and friends badly.

What drama was in the story was largely muffled by the adaptation. The narration which overlapped the scenes told much of the plot so that many important actions took place off screen.

The dialogue was talky with much idle philosophizing about art, life and love. And then there was Olivier's remark to his Tahitian bride, "I shall beat you, you know." Her reply: "How else shall I know that thy love is true?"

The supporting cast was distinguished but the performances were spotty. Geraldine Fitzgerald came off best as the abandoned wife and Denholm Elliott was right as the Maugham-like writer.

Hume Cronyn had a miserable role as the fellow artist who betrays his friend Olivier and is betrayed by him. The former London, Ont., actor's wife, Jessica Tandy, had little to do as the wife who deserts Cronyn for Olivier. Judith Anderson was miscast as a chuckling south sea mammy.

Do you kiss your wife in public?

I don't.

I just can't.

The way I feel—public kissing is for the movies, or weddings, or when you're going away on a long trip.

I do kiss my son when I leave for work. But he is only four—and when he is fourteen we'll be shaking hands.

But don't get the idea I don't love them—just because I don't make a big scene about it.

I've got $60,000 worth of Metropolitan Life Insurance. Think about that.

That will pay the mortgage, and all our bills. It will give my wife and son $300 a month until he's grown up.

You buy Life insurance only because you love somebody. I see where the average insured Canadian family owns $11,000 worth.

Is $60,000 how much I love my wife and son?

No.

As soon as I can afford more, I'll call my Metropolitan Man.

"Only because you love somebody" . . . that's the best reason of all to call your Metropolitan Man. He can chart, and leave with you, a family security program. It will take into account not only your Old Age Pension, savings and other assets. It will take your special responsibilities into consideration, too—your own family's particular protection needs. He can help you plan to meet those needs in a way that makes good sense for you. Call your Metropolitan Man today.

Dismissed Asbestos Police Chief

Bell Suit For $15,000 This Week

(Special to the Record)
ASBESTOS — A $15,000 damage suit brought by Albert Bell, resulting from his dismissal as Asbestos police chief four years ago, is expected to be heard in Sherbrooke Superior Court Thursday.

The action is reported to be against police Captain Joseph Dionne, who informed Bell of his dismissal.

In June 1955, the amount of the damage suit had been set at $10,000, but court officials said this morning that the damage suit has now been boosted to $15,000.

Bell was dismissed from his post June 1955 by Asbestos police Captain Joseph Dionne, following a decision by the town council.

The court action has been taken on grounds that Bell suffered damage to his reputation as a result of statements made by Dionne during the course of a council investigation into the affairs of the police department held on March 29, 1955.

The inquiry resulted in a decision of the council to dismiss Bell, the sole dissenter at the time being Ald. Conrad Charland, chairman of the police committee.

At the time he was relieved of his duties, April 29, 1955, Bell was given three months in which to find another position.

When informed of his dismissal from the post which he held for the past 10 years, Bell said the action was taken as a result of personal grudges on the part of some aldermen and that he had been refused permission to appear before the inquiry and answer the charges laid against him.

Bell, who had 21 years experience in police work at the time of his dismissal, had been in charge of the Asbestos police force since April 2, 1945.

Prior to that he served in Sherbrooke under Chiefs H. O. Camirand, Arthur Maran-

He also worked for the Canada Paper Company at Windsor Mills as security officer and was a special investigator for the RCAF during World War II.

At the present time, Bell is the Director of Police at Mont Joli.

Saved From Cave-In

ASBESTOS — (Special) — Lionel Lavigne, 24, employee of the corporation of the town of Asbestos, narrowly escaped being buried alive Friday when the walls of a deep hole he was digging on Albert street collapsed, burying him.

Digging frantically to free him, fellow workers were able to drag him free before he suffocated.

Dr. Georges Lefevre, called to the scene, sent Lavigne home for a rest, apparently none the worse for wear.

Lavigne was back on the job Saturday morning.

Puttees Old Hat?

Army Is Taking A New Look At Foot-Sloggers' 'Bottins Taxis'

Old and New . . .

But Here's Solid Comfort!

By NICK POWELL
(Who Knows Army Boots)

They're putting the boots to Canada's soldiers!

New boots, that is. Yes, the Army may be going soft. Perhaps soldiers will no longer have a good excuse for fallen arches, myriad corns and tender toes.

The word is out. New-style boots are being tried. No more irritating puttees to wind about the leg only to unwind at a crucial moment on parade.

But the aches and pains will be the same old aches and pains. They are caused by something which only amputation of one or more feet can prevent—long strolls in rainy weather with 40-odd pounds of chow and hardware on your back.

Officers and men of the Van Doos, Canada's famed Royal 22nd Regiment, have a good name for them. "Bottins Taxis"—freely translated as "No car."

It's a vicious circle. Take away a soldier's old well-worn boots and he's stranded. Equip him with the new ones and breaking them in will leave him a cripple.

They obviate the need for puttees. They're higher than the conventional boot by some three inches or so. Just that much more leather to polish.

Before, it took some time to roll those lovely, hairy puttees around your legs. Now it takes longer to polish the boot tops. The Army obviously believes a change is as good as a rest.

However, there is no need to get worked up into lather at this early stage in the game. There are only about 300 pairs of the boots now undergoing trial. They may never even become issue.

One thing about them though. When they're laced up to the top it will be hard to sprain an ankle.

Rotate Troops In Germany

By DONALD FERGUSON

ROTTERDAM, The Netherlands — (Reuters) — A unit of killed Canadian troops landed here during the weekend to the music of bagpipes to replace elements of Canada's NATO forces in Germany under a new $4,500,000 rotation program now being carried out.

The men, drawn from the Black Watch Regiment, arrived aboard the liner Carinthia from Quebec with their wives and families, and boarded trains to take them to Werl, where they will be based in Germany under the Atlantic pact command. This movement, involving 607 persons, is the latest phase in a four-month program to replace approximately two-thirds of the 5,500 man Canadian brigade.

District Parties Mark Hallowe'en Weekend

Costumed children enjoyed comic movies, ice cream and candy at a Hallowe'en party held at the Asbestos-Danville-Shipton High School, Friday evening. Prizes were awarded for the eight best costumes. It was one of the many children's Hallowe'en parties held in the area over the weekend.

An Insecure Man

Fidel Castro seems intent on provoking the United States into a little gun-boat diplomacy.

He sounds and acts like a desperate and insecure man. His charges — that the U.S. is aiding and abetting the activities of Cuban counter-revolutionaries — appear not only futile but also pathetic.

As long as he stuck to words, however, chances were that his powerful neighbour would shrug them off with a token demand for an apology. However, when he moves in on American companies and seals their books as he did at the end of last week, he is going a bit too far.

Castro, with his flamboyant manner, made a big hit with the people of the United States during his tour last spring. He was the underdog who had succeeded and such people invariably are taken up and endorsed by public opinion.

But when the underdog turns around and snaps at the hand that pats him he soon finds that he is out of favor as quickly as he was in.

It could be that Fidel Castro is not as secure in Cuba as was believed. The counter-revolutionaries, working underground in Miami, told one American reporter recently that he will be out of power within the next four or five months.

Judging from his rat-in-the-corner tactics of last week they could be right.

Municipalities And Quebec Aid

Quebec municipalities, through the Union of Quebec Municipalities, are seeking increased financial aid from the provincial government towards meeting their operating costs.

Through a brief to be presented to Premier Paul Sauve in Quebec City next Thursday, the cities and towns are seeking such things as a reduction of the percentage of the cost of public assistance charged back to them; construction and maintenance by the provincial government of those sections of provincial and regional highways situated within municipal limits and of those bridges found there; the ending of the gas tax on purchases by municipalities; the abolition of the federal treasury and lacking this, it by municipalities; financial aid to municipalities in controlling automobile graveyards along the highways and the extension to all municipalities of the law for aiding the establishment of sewer and water services.

Probably most municipalities need financial assistance from some quarter to aid in meeting their increased operating costs, but whether any of them seriously expect the provincial government to meet any substantial portion of their demands at the present time is doubtful.

In Ottawa recently, the Provincial Treasurers received a short and clear "no" to their request for further aid from the federal treasury. In lacking this, it is unlikely they will part with any of their existing revenues to aid the cities and towns.

Traffic Lights

Not so long ago, Mayor Nadeau, at one of his regular press conferences, criticized the traffic light arrangement at the Queen Blvd. - Prospect St. - Brompton road intersection as being too slow.

He suggested improvements should be made.

If city council is going to consider improvements to existing traffic lights, top priority should be given to the ones at the Dufferin - Frontenac - Marquette - Wellington complex.

At the present time, there are no lights facing north on the southern side of the intersection. This means that pedestrians who wish to cross from north to south cannot tell if the lights are green or red.

A person crossing from Dufferin St. to Marquette St. has to look behind him to see what color the lights are.

Motorists are slightly better served. There is one north-facing set of lights for them on the north side of the intersection. However, a stranger to the city easily misses them.

This is one of the busiest and most dangerous intersections in the city. One more set of lights facing north from the south side of the crossing is imperative.

Prairie Farmers' Problem

May Dry Their Own Grain

WINNIPEG (CP) — Prairie farmers whose harvesting was brought to an early halt by flooded fields and early October snowstorms are becoming increasingly interested in having their own grain-drying equipment.

This is quite possible, says a University of Manitoba expert, although grain driers available now vary considerably in efficiency and cost.

Grain drying on farms calls for well-designed driers operated by a competent operator who knows the requirements and dangers of grain drying.

Prof. H. M. Lapp, chairman of the university's agricultural engineering department, said experiments conducted by his department indicate artificial heat should be used for drying grain. While drying with unheated air is possible, it is not economical and is too uncertain.

Three types of driers now are available: batch, bulk - drying bins, and continuous flow.

The continuous flow is fastest and reduces the hazards of overheating, but is also the most expensive type, costing from $3,000 to $5,000 for a fully - assembled unit.

In this process the grain moves continuously from inlet to outlet air passages, and thus is not exposed to the hottest air for any length of time.

Grain in the batch-type drying bin is held in stationary layers and hot air is forced through by fans. Experiments showed that with this type about 50 bushels of grain at 19-per-cent-moisture content can be dried in an hour.

Bulk drying in bins or truck boxes is the cheapest but least satisfactory method. Circulation of air depends on the construction of a false floor on which the grain lies. Heated air may be blown under the false floor.

Professor Lapp said an eight-foot - square bin, fully equipped for bulk drying, costs between $1,100 and $1,300.

All heating units should be equipped with proper thermometers, thermostats, automatic temperature controls and a heat exchanger, he said.

compromise in the interests of party or state.

There may, as Mr. Fisher says, be too many "phonies" in Canadian politics. But the people of Canada, in all their wisdom, put them there. And Canada is also fortunate in having many tough-minded, honest, sincere and able men in public life, most ready to dedicate much time and effort and many to sacrifice material gain.

Some enter reluctantly. A few, like Mr. Fisher, leave disillusioned and many leave defeated. Many remain to play the game for what it's worth, and this is fortunate, for politics of this order is the heart and pulse of freedom.

CHORES
(Ottawa Journal)

Men look through office and factory windows these late-Autumn afternoons and remember chore time on the farm. As soon as a lad reached home from school, he changed into farm pants and old shoes and went at the chores.

In the days when big friendly horses furnished power, chores in Fall and Winter were done by lantern light. It was taken for granted that a 12-year-old would help do the work and it never occurred to him to object.

He hung the lantern on an oaken peg in one of the up-rights of the main floor, climbed to the scaffold and pitched down enough hay for the night and morning feedings. It was good to hear the whinnying of the horses and the impatient mooing of the cows as they tossed their heads.

A lad cleaned the gutters and horse stalls, bedded the cows with fresh sawdust and the horse stalls with oat straw. He filled the cart with the mixture of midlings, ground oats and meal for the cows. He filled the grain measures with whole oats for the horses. The pigs had their special mixture of grain. When the year was growing older and dusk came early, Mother fed the hens in mid-afternoon.

Before milking, cows and stock were turned out to the barnyard to drink from the trough. The only job a lad really disliked was pumping the trough full. No one appreciates how much water cows can drink until he pumps it for them.

Back in the barn, the cows were grained and then the milking began. It was good

Letter To The Editor

A Border Resident Speaks Out

Into our Border Towns of Rock Island and Derby Line the past few weeks has come an influx of reporters and photographers from newspapers and magazines across Canada and from the New England States. As a result many dispatches have carried stories of our "Border Situation", a few putting Rock Island and Derby Line on the map in a most uncomplimentary manner.

The following is a brief history of what actually happened with regards to the regulations as they are now. Back in early 1928 E. J. Struthers came to Rock Island from Noyan, Quebec, another Border port, as Collector of Customs. This was in the days known to many as the "roaring twenties", the days of prohibition and of smuggling, not only at Rock Island, but at many other Border ports.

Mr. Struthers quickly cleared the local situation in the years following, except 1940-49 when he was on loan to the Federal Government in Ottawa, he held a firm but understanding hand over the local Canadian Customs situation. F. Cecil Miller and Louis Roberge, acting Collectors in the absence of Mr. Struthers, carried on likewise.

REACHED RETIREMENT

Last April, Mr. Struthers reached retirement age and Louis Shephardson, a native of Richmond, Que., (his wife is a native of Lake Megantic), a former Inspector of Customs and Excise at Montreal came here to replace him as Collector of Customs and Excise at Rock Island.

For a few months things appeared to go along as in the past but were secretly unpleasant. Unpleasant stories and much distorted gossip have caused great confusion in the minds of local residents, resulting in many Canadians feeling a grievance against Mr. Shephardson and the Canadian Customs officials.

It has been mentioned that citizens of Derby Line and Newport have desired to stay on their own side of the Border and not come over to Rock Island or points North of the Port.

Such rumors as chocolate bars and other trivial purchases made in Derby Line or Newport being confiscated by the Canadian Customs, and that cars entering Canada via Rock Island being searched and torn apart, and of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police regularly intercepting visitors are not correct, only gossip.

RECORDS SHOW

Customs records too, show that oleomargarine through the years has been seized from persons thinking to smuggle in a pound or more, for this along with immoral and indecent literature is absolutely forbidden to enter into Canada at any port.

At Rock Island hundreds of pounds of oleomargarine have been confiscated and burned. Cigarettes in quantities have been seized and sent away to be distributed under Customs Administration in Veterans hospitals across Canada.

When Mr. Struthers was head of this Port, persons living at the Border towns knew there might be a periodic check made of vehicles at any time by the Canadian Customs staff. But NEVER at any time was merchandise of value allowed into Canada with their knowledge, without duties and taxes being paid.

to be in the warm tie-up on a cold evening, good to hear the streams of white strike the bottom of the pail and to watch the head of froth build up. Farm chores today are mechanized, but there are men who still recall the quiet satisfaction of chore time a generation and more ago.

Items of small value were allowed to come across free of duty, and this is still the case. Even in the past few weeks persons declaring spoils of thread, chocolate bars, and similar small articles have been told to proceed.

Of all the stories written to date, I doubt if any have recorded the Customs laws, which are made in Ottawa and Washington by the Customs administration. The following, obtained after careful research and inquiry are the present correct customs regulations.

On a 48 hour or more spent in the United States, a Canadian may bring into Canada $100.00 worth of articles every four months.

IN BAGGAGE

Articles must be included in the baggage accompanying the traveller and not shipped separately. These articles may include two pounds of tobacco, 50 cigars, 200 cigarettes, AND one quart of alcoholic beverage. There is no age limitation provided the claimant can make the necessary declaration. However it is NOT allowed for goods belonging to two or more persons to be claimed as one person, nor can the value of an article be divided between two or more persons. Articles for personal use, souvenirs, or gifts, but not for sale, or use in business nor the accommodation of others.

It should also be noted that a traveller should be very certain their exemptions are four months apart, to the last hour, otherwise duties may be claimed by Ottawa in the later goods brought in.

When leaving Canada it is also advisable, for later reentering for Canadians, to report if they have in their possession radios, cameras, musical instruments, record players, binoculars, or other such articles and where valuable have a permit (Y38) filled out for identification purposes when returning into Canada. These permits are obtainable at any Canadian Customs office, and are duly stamped with their official stamp.

CANADIAN GOODS

New, if an article is brought into Canada on exemption or by paying duties, then it becomes Canadian goods. What happens if repairs are necessary? An article, if it cannot be repaired within a reasonable distance of the owners home town, may be taken to the Canadian Customs office and a permit obtained to take it into the States. When the article is being returned to Canada, duties are paid on the repairs only.

Americans ask, can I bring or mail a gift package into Canada to relatives and friends in Canada? The answer is yes. Up to a value of $10.00, excluding gifts of tobacco, advertising or alcoholic beverages, by declaring the value of contents, however should the value be as much as one cent over the $10.00 then duties can be collected on the total value of the gift.

These laws made by Customs Administration in Ottawa should make it possible for the American persons to bring their gifts to their church and support their place of worship now as in the past.

Just recently, the Ottawa Customs Administration has made a new law, effective at Rock Island as at any Canadian port of entry from the United States, and this is issuing of travel permits when vehicles enter Canada by an American Port. These are returned to the Customs when the traveller leaves Canada and re-enters the United States. There are also three month term permits issued to Border residents who are commuters into Canada or who other reasons frequently come across the Border. Holders of these permits are identified by a special windshield sticker. Rock Island is the only Port in the Province of Quebec issuing these stickers and these are issued by Mr. Shephardson, Collector of Customs and Excise, who will give courteous attention to those who ask for them. Many living in Derby Line, Vermont, have these commuters stickers now. The permits are obtainable from the Customs officers.

SMALL COLLECTIONS

Regarding small collections, wouldn't it be better if our leading citizens of both sides of the Border got together (unfortunately there is no active Chamber of Commerce, or they might do this), to have the Canadian Tar-

NORTH'S RESCUE BAD

JUDGMENT

West's spade bid was one of those third hand openings that sometimes turn out to be effective. This one really did.

North's double was reasonable and South had a fair hand for his two heart response. When East went to two spades South decided to compete further and tried two no-trump. North went to three hearts.

East cried double and the fat was in the fire.

West opened his singleton club. South won the trick and led a low heart the ace. He put East in with the ace of spades whereupon East took his ace of diamonds and then gave West a club ruff.

That ace of diamonds lead could only mean a singleton so West gave East a diamond ruff. Now East put West in with the king of spades and another diamond ruff completed the slaughter.

As in frequently the case when someone takes an 800 point blow I was asked to place the blame if any and I certainly find some. North had no reason to disturb

TODAY'S QUESTION

West bids two clubs and it is passed around to you. What do you do now?

Answer Tomorrow

School Board has accepted an average of thirty rather than forty or fifty children in class as are as follows:

First: Government teacher-grants are based on the principle of 30 elementary pupils per elementary class or 25 high school pupils per teacher, e.g. 3,000 pupils would result in 100 teacher-grants where there were 30 pupils per classroom; but 3,000 elementary children would result in only 75 teacher-grants where there were 40 pupils to a classroom.

Second: Although it would be physically possible to place forty or more children in a classroom, just as it is possible to sleep three or four in a bed, nevertheless, it is quite obvious that the education of each individual pupil in overcrowded classes certainly suffers, even though the results might not be immediately apparent. It has been found by years of painful experience that although almost any number of pupils can be physically squeezed into a classroom, the maximum number of active, keen, groping, curious minds that can be fed, nourished and inspired by one busy teacher, lies somewhere between 25 to 35. In this case 30 is thought to be a happy compromise, even though on many occasions the number for some teachers will range considerably higher.

SLEEP ON THE ROCKS

(Ottawa Journal)

A note from the National Parks says that camping holidays have become immensely popular and are being referred to as "our rediscovery of the wilderness."

This enthusiasm for camping out does not include us for, with our feet growing longer, it takes more and more air mattress to make our wilderness paradise enow.

But we do marvel at and admire those gentle folk of this town who, undaunted, load the children and a bundle of canvas in the car and take off for the other side of the continent, camping all the way.

They come back looking very fit and insist that their beds of rocks were cosy. They say it takes them a little while to become accustomed to the comforts of an ordinary bed. In private, we wonder why people of mature years living in a free country will go to such effort to find, and relish, discomfort. But they do.

SCHOOL QUESTIONS

(Brandon Daily Sun)

Question: Why can't the School Board put more children in each classroom and in this way cut down on the number of teachers and classrooms?

ANSWER: The average Brandon pupil-teacher count is 30 pupils per classroom. In some cases the figure goes much higher than this (e.g., 163 Grade XI students in four classes). The reasons why the

Coaticook Lions Club Hears Address On Importance Of Political Awareness

COATICOOK — The Lions Club met for the regular supper meeting, with double the usual attendance as each member brought along a guest. President Charles Wells welcomed the visitors and introduced each Lion member who in turn rose and introduced the guest he had invited.

Jack Brown led the group in several rousing songs, including one in which Sam Green sang a verse as a solo, and another in which J. A. Morin sang solo parts. The Tail Twister, Denis Maurais, kept the group in good spirits by fines for not singing and for other misdemeanors.

The guest speaker, J. A. Monro, former mayor of Three Rivers, and a well known political figure, was introduced by Roger Bouchard.

Mr. Monro spoke in both French and English on the importance of being a good citizen by making oneself aware of the political issues at stake, both in municipal and national fields. The speaker was thanked by J. Armand Robitaille, who also presented Mr. Monro with a gift from the Club, a pen and calendar desk set, for which the guest of honor expressed his pleasure and thanks.

Mayor Leger Cameron, a guest of one of the members, was introduced and congratulated for being returned for another term as mayor, together with Aldermen Joe Cloutier and J. Oliva Beaudin, also returned by acclamation and Mr. Carrier, who replaces Mr. Marcoux.

Lion Lepoine reported that the next meeting would probably feature a visit to a manufacturing plant, as plans were being made for such a visit.

C. OF C. MEETS
The opening meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce was held at the Town Hall assembly room with the president, Andre Langevin, presiding. Also present was Gerard Turmel, regional president, who gave a report of the growth of J. C. groups in the area.

The committee planning a forthcoming industrial visit to the Thibault Company at Pierreville, Adeodat Ross and Laureat Belanger, reported that the plans were complete.

Policemen, in Lennoxville and Sherbrooke, police said that it had been one of the quietest Hallowe'en for some years. Lennoxville Police Chief Eric Madisson stated that apart from one minor incident and slight damage to some street signs it was, from the police point of view, the best Hallowe'en in many years.

The UNICEF door-to-door campaign he said helped enormously in curbing the wilder souls bent on vandalism. In Sherbrooke Capt. Armand Genest of the municipal police department reported the same low level of destructiveness and vandalism. It was a very quiet night, more so than last year, and only slight damage was incurred to a few street signs.

Magog Police Chief Telephone Lavioie's reports tallied exactly with previous statements. Only a few chalked and soaped windows were evident Sunday morning.

Miss Betty Jones, of Pointe Claire, was a guest over the week of Mrs. Charles Jones.

Mr. George Jones, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. C. Jones, has returned to his home in Toronto.

Mrs. Alice George has returned from Stanbridge East, where she spent the past week at her home.

Miss Clara Boomhower, of Verdun, visited Miss Newman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Campbell.

Miss Margaret Cockerline, of Montreal, and her sister, Miss L. Cockerline, of St. Lambert, were home for the weekend.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Hawes, of Valois, also Mrs. Charles Ferguson, of Columbus, O., were guests of Mrs. Alice Sawyer and Miss Marion Sawyer.

Kinnear's Mills Minister Leaves

REV. G. E. KENDRICK PREPARES A FAREWELL SERMON
(Record Photo by Lunan)

St. Mark's 60th Anniversary

Rev. G. E. Kendrick Bids Farewell

INVERNESS — (Special) — Rev. G. E. Kendrick officiated yesterday afternoon at the 60th anniversary services of St. Mark's Church in Kinnear's Mills before leaving this parish to go to his new charge in Coaticook.

The choir from Holy Trinity Cathedral in Quebec City under the direction of Richard Carroll, sang at the special service.

Mr. Kendrick, who has ministered in the Mission of Inverness including the Church of Ascension in Inverness, St. James Church, Leeds, Rectory Hill at St. Stevens and St. Mark's

Church in Kinnear's Mills, has also had charge of Christ's Church in Lower Ireland.

Prior to his departure, Rev. and Mrs. Kendrick were tendered a surprise farewell party at the L.O.O.F. Hall in Inverness before the annual church bazaar, when parishioners and friends gathered around the Kendricks and sang, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

During the evening a presentation of a purse of money was made to Mr. Kendrick by Weston Graham on behalf of the Mission and friends, and one by Willard Christie, president of the Lower Ireland Guild.

Following a sing-song and dance, refreshments were served. John Cruickshank wished Mr. Kendrick and his wife success in his new parish, on behalf of the parishioners.

The minister thanked the parishioners for the fine party and for their thoughtfulness and co-operation during his stay in that district.

Among the head table guests with Rev. and Mrs. Kendrick were Mr. and Mrs. John Stokoe, Weston Graham, Stanley White, J. Allan Little, A. Edwards and Willard Christie.

dian content could be set at 35 per cent in the first year, 40 per cent in the second year, and 45 per cent in the third. There could be reviews in June of both 1961 and 1962 to determine whether the figures should be revised upward or downward for the ensuing year.

REVIEW IN 1963

Then, in June of 1963, there should be a comprehensive and detailed review to determine whether the regulation had succeeded in increasing the output of Canadian material, the effect on program quality, and whether viewing of Canadian TV stations had increased.

The BBG then could decide whether the percentage should be continued—and, if so, to what extent.

Even in dealing with these percentages, the governors should recognize the varying circumstances under which TV stations operate.

Stations in smaller centres would have the least amount of creative and performing talent available. While those in bigger cities would have a larger pool of talent to draw from, these are the stations most directly exposed to U.S. competition.

A new station, even with the best intentions, would require a few years to build up the experience, staff, ideas and organizational necessary to produce competitive Canadian programming.

The C.A.B. also called for deletion of this proposed BBG regulation:

"A maximum of two hours of broadcasting time each day between the hours of 8 p.m. and 11 p.m. will be reserved for purposes to be prescribed by the BBG. Programming during the two hours in whatever way provided will have a minimum of 55-per-cent Canadian content."

ADVANCE PLANNING

Program schedules normally were planned well in advance for a 10- or 12-month period. This planning could not be carried out when the whole arrangement could be wiped out by the later insertion of a program specified by the BBG, the C.A.B. contended.

The working of the regulation—55 per cent Canadian for two hours—worked out to 66 minutes. Since TV programs were arranged in half-hour blocks, 1½ hours of Canadian content would be required. And that was 75 per cent—not 55.

Time zones also would present a problem. An American play originating from New York between 8 and 10 p.m. New York time could not be carried in Canada's Eastern or Atlantic time zones, though it would be partly available in the central zone and entirely usable in the Mountain and Pacific zones.

As an alternative, the C.A.B. suggested the board reserve a maximum of seven hours a week between 8 and 11 p.m. The Canadian content of those seven hours could be set according to the C.A.B. formula—for private stations—of half the required CBC percentage.

BISHOPTON —

The oyster supper sponsored by the Sunshine Society and Ladies' Aid was quite successful despite the rainy weather.

OBITUARIES

MRS. ANNIE THOMPSON, OF SAWYERVILLE

SAWYERVILLE — After a long period of ill health, the death occurred on Sept. 28, 1959, at her home of Mrs. Annie E. Thompson in her 89th year.

Mrs. Thompson, the former Annie Elizabeth Matthews, was born on February 15, 1871, at Nelson, Que., the only daughter of the late Duncan Matthews, and his wife Margaret Longmore.

At the age of two years, her parents moved to High Forest, where they were among the early pioneers of that district.

As a young girl Mrs. Thompson spent several years in St. Johnsbury Vt., where she was employed, coming home to care for her invalid mother who died in 1902. On June 3, 1903, she was married to Thomas Bailey Thompson, in the Presbyterian church at Sawyerville by Rev. Wm. Tanner.

Following their marriage they took up residence in East Clifton where their eldest son, Delbert, was born. In 1907, they moved to Island Brook where Mr. Thompson was engaged as blacksmith. He built a large house there, which they ran as a boarding house, and where their three younger sons, Elton, Renwick and Earl were born.

On March 30, Mrs. Thompson was bereft of her husband, leaving her with four small children the youngest only three weeks old. In 1915 she took her family back to High Forest, where her father and youngest brother were living. Later that year her brother purchased a house in Sawyerville, to which they all moved. On September 28, 1928, their father Duncan Matthews, died at the age of 89.

Devoted to the task of raising her children, Mrs. Thompson's chief interest centered in the welfare and happiness of her family and home, always ready however, to lend her support to any worthy outside cause.

Her younger son, Renwick, was among those taken prisoner at Hong Kong on Christmas Day, 1941, her anxiety ending with his safe return in 1945. In July 1955 she was deeply sorrowed by the death of her eldest son Delbert.

As the years passed her health gradually gave way, as well as her eye sight. During these years, her brother, Tom, had been unremitting in providing for her care and comfort.

In her early married life Mrs. Thompson had shared her home with a young cousin, Elizabeth Longmore, until the latter's marriage in 1914 to Norman Bain. She was predeceased by two brothers, the eldest John, who met death by drowning, in California many years ago, and George, who died in 1920.

The funeral was held from her late home on Thursday, Sept. 30, under the direction of T. C. French.

Rev. Howard Fraser officiated at a short service of prayer held at the house prior to the service in the Sawyerville United Church. With Mrs. Clement Flaws at the organ, the choir sang Unto the Hills, after which the cortege proceeded to the East Clifton cemetery, where burial took place by the side of her husband and son.

The bearers, all old friends, were Stanley Thompson, Desmond and Crescent Bain, Lionel Hurd, Lawrence Mackay and Alvin Nugent.

A profusion of beautiful flowers as well as generous cash donations to the Memorial fund of the United Church and the East Clifton cemetery were tangible evidence of esteem and sympathy. Besides the flowers given by family and personal friends

MRS. BENJAMIN HUSK, OF RICHMOND

RICHMOND — Mrs. Benjamin Husk passed away at her home here on Sunday, Oct. 11, following a long illness.

The deceased, who was in her 74th year, is survived by her husband and five children, Marion (Mrs. Alfred Fontaine), of Montreal, Clifford R. of Melbourne, Guelph, of Melbourne; Margaret (Mrs. Fraser Converse) of Gore, and Pauline (Mrs. F. Wilkins) of Montreal; a sister, Mrs. Clara Smith, of Melbourne; seven grandchildren and one great-grandson.

The funeral service was conducted at Chalmers United Church, Richmond, on Oct. 14, Rev. W. E. Long officiating. Hymns sung, favorites of the deceased, were Unto the Hills and O Love That Will Not Let Me Go. The bearers, stewards of the church were John Barrington, Barrie Armatage, Stein Taylor, Errol Taylor, George Ewing and Arthur Galbraith.

Interment took place at Ebenezer Cemetery in Upper Melbourne.

In her younger years when in good health, Mrs. Husk enjoyed taking part in the service of church, Red Cross I.O.O.F. and Women's Institute. When unable to participate more actively, she was greatly interested in the Radio Ministry of the Gospel. Realizing the important part this ministry plays in the lives of sick and shut-ins, she contributed regularly and most generously to this work.

To her family, her devotion and love as wife and mother remains a hallowed memory.

The Doctor Says

THERE'S NO NEED TO LIVE IN HELPLESS FEAR OF CANCER

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M. D.

Can you do anything about cancer? I think so.

Here are some of the things you can do to prevent or delay cancer growth and help your doctor to detect a malignant growth while it's still possible to cut it out surgically or destroy it with some form of radiation.

Make semiannual health visits to your doctor so he can look at visible growths on your skin and mucous surfaces, feel organs like the breast or prostate where cancers often occur and makes slides of material from places like the mouth of the uterus for the pathologist to examine.

Stop smoking. Don't chew tobacco. If you must keep your jaws moving, chew gum or slippery elm bark.

Have your dentist take care of any pressure spots in your mouth. Don't let your tongue, lips or cheek suffer from chronic irritation resulting from a bad bite, missing teeth or ill-fitting dentures.

If you work with a cancer-producing substance, follow directions for prevention issued by your company or by the Department of Labor.

If you think your work requires exposure to an industrial carcinogen, check with your local health officer or write directly to the state or federal commissioner of labor.

If you work in a hospital or around X-ray equipment, use protective devices whenever you're in the vicinity of a machine that's in use.

If you work or play in the sun, wear a hat except for maybe 10 minutes a day. If you have a wart or mole on your head or face, use a sun-protective ointment while you're exposed.

Avoid cosmetics that contain hormones.

Do not ask your doctor to give you: "glad shots" to relieve discomforts of the menopause or to stimulate your sexual appetite.

Have male babies circumcised when they're about a week old. It'll do you no good but there's evidence it may reduce the chances that your son will later get cancer of the prostate or his wife cancer of the uterus.

If your mother or maternal aunt died of breast cancer, don't nurse your girl babies. The evidence of inheritance through nursing is slim and controversial but don't take a chance.

I wish I could be more enthusiastic about our present efforts to prevent, control and destroy cancerous growth. But the public announcements during Secretary Dulles' illness, for example, must suggest to the thinking newspaper reader the width of the gap between hopes and actual accomplishments.

Looking back to the early days of my practice, I recognize many of the great achievements of surgery and irradiation. Looking forward to the next decades, I comfort myself with the hope that development of a true cure will make these achievements look as mole hills to a mountain.

Tomorrow: What You Can Do About Cancer.

Bride-Elect Is Twice Honored At Sweetsburg

SWEETSBURG — Miss Gweneth Beattie, bride-elect, was entertained at showers in her honor. That given by the Christ Church Guild and Woman's Auxiliary had as its theme the Tree of Life, symbolized in the placing of a white birch tree with plenty of leaves on it, in the parlors of the church. Crepe paper decorations were carried out in autumn colors throughout the hall.

Thirty-five ladies were on hand and presented prettily-wrapped gifts, to the guest of honor, who was assisted in opening them by two of her prospective wedding attendants, Mrs. Keith Dryden, and Miss Barbara Beattie, a cousin. The honored guest was also the recipient of a dainty corsage when she entered the hall.

The members served lunch which included a shower cake made by the president of the group, Mrs. Irene Williams.

SECOND SHOWER
Another delightful event was a kitchen and bathroom shower given by Miss Barbara Beattie at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beattie. A huge cup and saucer, in blue, held many gifts, in front of an attractively decorated chair where the bride-elect was seated after being presented with a corsage.

Flowers in pastel shades and paper streamers were arranged from the large window back of her chair to a chair and table, where other gifts were placed. Again Mrs. K. Dryden and Miss Barbara Beattie assisted her in unwrapping her gifts. Thanks were expressed to all for the useful and pretty gifts by the guest of honor, after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Donald Beattie and several other ladies.

It Really Doesn't Take Much Effort to Be a Bore

You're bound to be a bore if——You aren't really interested in anything except you and yours.
—It has never dawned on you that a little talk about your children goes a long way, because others can't possibly find the subject as fascinating as you do.
—You always do far more than your share of the talking and listen to what the other person is saying just for the chance of interrupting at the first opportunity.
—You're "agin" most things and can always point out the hole in the doughnut or the fly in the ointment, no matter how enthusiastic someone else is.
—You drone on in a monotonous tone of voice and can drag a story out longer than anybody else.
—You are deadly serious and don't even try to see the light or funny side of any happening.

—You are convinced the world is going to the dogs, that young people these days are simply "terrible," and that nothing is quite as good as it was back in the old days.
—You are quick to pass along all the sad news you hear, not sparing any of the depressing details.
—You have one or two pet subjects that you eventually get around to, no matter how a conversation begins.
—You feel you have to keep apologizing for yourself all the time, which forces others to continually reassure you.
—You aren't really very much interested in anything outside your own home and your own family.
—You don't really listen when others talk, but only make a pretense of being attentive.
—You think anyone who doesn't agree with you is wrong and you are determined to prove it.

Sew It Seams

Check These New Additions In Zippers, Pins And Needles

BY ANN VAN BUREN

It's like pulling a rabbit out of a hat. There's practically nothing you can't do in the sewing line—"if you have the notion," the proper notion for the project at hand.

There are countless timesavers and sewing aids in the market. Why, just take zippers, pins, and needles. Here are many you may not have a "notion" even exist:

New! 8 and 9-inch skirt zippers. With the present high waists, a skirt placket zipper longer than the usual 7 inches becomes necessary and is now available in a limited number of colors.

New! 14-inch dress placket zipper. Also necessitated by higher waists. In limited supply, limited colors.

Trouser zipper. A very strong zipper is required when making or repairing men's or boy's trousers or slacks—or bathing suits, leggings or snowsuits, etc.

Zip-in lining zippers. 84-inch or shorter open-end zippers for coats with removable linings.

Jacket zippers. Heavy or lightweight, open-end, separating zippers for fronts of blazers, windbreakers, work coats, snow-suit jackets. Those open at both ends, and can help you to rescue an otherwise done-for coat or jacket.

Reversible zippers. Check your notion counter or store to see if the heavy separating zipper, mentioned above, can be made with a reversible tab or pull.

Girdle zipper. You're not likely to be making a girdle, but if a zipper has to be replaced, here you are. They come in flesh or white, with a strip of plush under the teeth.

Handbag zipper. Various lengths with gold chain and ring pull.

Zipper repair kit. Two zipper slides and a tool; with detailed directions and illustrations on how to repair a zipper.

And here are some pin-pointers:

Unbendable pins. Actually impossible to bend. Slim, smooth, needle-sharp. They pin heaviest or most closely woven fabrics, without bending.

Button pins. Small safety pins for pinning on rather than sewing on buttons...with a hump to fit into shank of tufted buttons. They lie flat. Ideal for removing and putting on buttons which have to be removed before washing or dry-cleaning. Makes you wonder, "why didn't someone think of this before?"

And now some needle novelties:

Upholstery needle. A curved needle which forms a semicircle from eye to point. Also ideal for mattresses, lampshades, car seats, handbags, hat shapes, rugs.

Packing needle. For sewing with string...sacks, hampers, mattresses.

Sailmaker's needle. Large, strong needle for repairing sunblinds, deck chairs, tents, tarpaulins and sails.

Embroidery needles. These have long eyes to accommodate embroidery thread. Also an easy-to-thread needle for regular sewing.

Wire needle-threader. If threading your needle is a problem, this draws thread through needle.

Florida Grapefruit Back In Town

Florida is a nice place to go when it starts getting cool, but even if you can't go south you can enjoy some of Florida's fairest offerings in the form of the big juicy grapefruit now being shipped to almost every section of the country.

Grapefruit halves are a healthful breakfast fruit, naturally rich in daily-needed vitamin C, and their bracing flavor makes them delicious, too, as salads or desserts.

Everyone will love grapefruit if you make it easy to get the succulent sections out of the shell. To properly prepare it, cut the fruit in half, remove core. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. Here's how to do the four variations shown:

Broiled Grapefruit

Sprinkle grapefruit half with 1 tablespoon sugar and a dash of cinnamon, mace or nutmeg, if desired; dot with 1 teaspoon butter or margarine. Place grapefruit on broiler rack 3 inches from heat. Broil slowly 15 to 20 minutes or until grapefruit is slightly brown and heated through. Grapefruit may also be baked in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot.

Grapefruit With Grape Garnish

Slice seedless grapes in half. Arrange 7 or 8 halves in center of grapefruit to represent bunch of grapes as illustrated.

Grapefruit With Cranberry Garnish

Cut slice of cranberry jelly with small star-shaped cookie cutter. Place cranberry star in center of grapefruit half.

Grapefruit Salad Bowl

Follow directions for preparing grapefruit halves. Remove sections from half; reserve. Cut out membrane remaining in shell to make "Salad Bowl." Combine grapefruit sections with diced celery and chicken, shrimp or tuna. Moisten with mayonnaise. Refill shells with salad and garnish with watercress.

Marriages Of Local Interest

JOHNSON—SCOTT

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — A lovely autumn wedding was held in the Wesley Methodist Church on Saturday, Oct. 10, when Miss Jane Elizabeth Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Scott of Milwaukee, became the bride of Mr. Keith Elwin Johnson, Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin H. Johnson of Covansville, Que. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter Taylor and Dr. Richard Miller. Mr. John Kaestner, Fond du Lac, Wis., brother-in-law of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was in a ballerina length white Chantilly lace dress, tulle lined, with a lace over blouse. She wore a crown of pearls, crystal beads and sequins, from which fell her elbow length veil of nylon net and carried a sheath of white chrysanthemums, and a white orchid interspersed with California ivy.

Miss Carol Ehler, of Milwaukee, was maid-of-honor, and the bridesmaid was Miss Helen Porth of Milwaukee. Flower girl was Miss Gail Kaestner, of Fond du Lac, niece of the bride.

The best man was Mr. Alexander Crowley, of Toronto, Ont. Ushers were Messrs. Robert Hoey, Toronto, Lee Flanders of West Bend, Wis., and John Scott, West Allis, Wis., the latter two being brothers of the bride.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding. Among the guests were the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Johnson, of Covansville, Quebec.

After a honeymoon trip through Lincoln County, Ill., Kentucky, and Niagara Falls, the newlyweds will make their home in Toronto, Ont. The groom is a junior draftsman for the Canadian Government in the Highway Division.

CUNNINGTON—MORSE

HATLEY — An evening wedding took place recently in the Hatley United Church, when May Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morse, became the bride of Mr. Ben T. Cunningham, youngest son of Mrs. Sadie Cunningham and the late Mr. Claud Cunningham, of Stanstead, Rev. A. G. MacLeod officiated.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Orcutt and Mrs. A. Wheeler sang "Because" before the wedding and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. The guest pews were marked with gladioli tied with satin bows. Baskets of gladioli and mixed flowers decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father.

Beauty Tips

Teen-agers aren't being as vain as they seem when they spend hours changing hairdos and experimenting with cosmetics. This is the only way to find out what is most complimentary to them. If they look better, then they have more confidence to carry them through the trying teen years.

Stretching exercises will make a girl more lithe but it won't change the fact that she is short-waisted or short-legged. So she has to camouflage these problems. Select clothes in the same color and tone and get variety by combining them in a monochromatic manner.

SHS Ends Season Undefeated And Unscored On, Wallop Stanstead

Posts 32-0 Win To End Season With Impressive Record, Tally 181 Points While Holding Opposition Scoreless

The amazing Sherbrooke High School football team came up with their fifth straight victory Saturday afternoon at Stanstead romping to a 32-0 win, previously the Sherbrooke team had taken the measure of Stanstead by a 44-0 count, Queen Elizabeth High School Magog by 50-0 and 32-0 and B.C.S. by 23-0.

The team has chalked up a total of 181 points in the five games played and have never been scored on. Coach Jim MacKinnon has done wonders with the young squad and the playing ability of such young stars as Bob Coates, Gary Ross, Pete Watson, Gary Quinn and Derick Gosselin has improved greatly with each game played.

Getting away to a 6 point lead on an unconverted touchdown, by Bob Coates, in the first quarter, the visitors had most of the play until the quarter ended. Gary Quinn with a nice end run put the visitors further ahead early in the second quarter going over for the T. D. after twelve minutes of play. Bob Coates failed with the convert. This was all the scoring in the first half. The running of Quinn and Gary Ross in this half had a lot to do with Sherbrooke's thirteen-point lead. Ross stood out brilliantly in the half with his long gallops.

A single point booted by Bob Coates added one more point to the locals' score in the third. The visitors came close to losing their unscored upon record in this quarter only a fine run back by the Sherbrooke ends keeping the Stanstead boys off the score sheet.

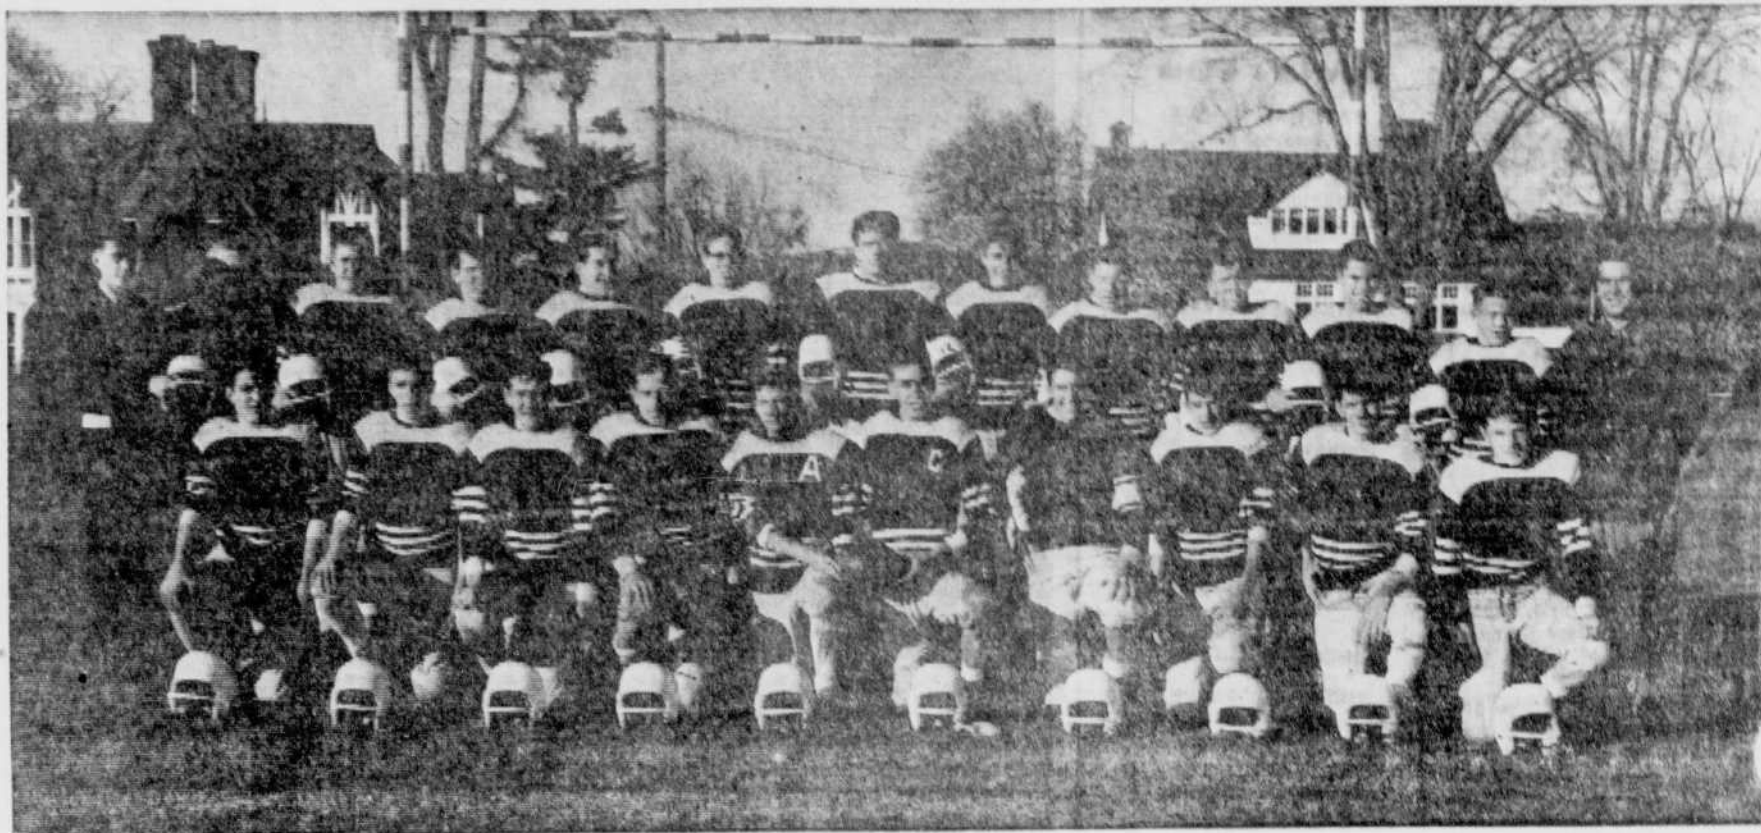

Touchdowns by Gary Ross and Gary Quinn put the issue beyond doubt. These two scores coming in the closing minutes of the last quarter. Bob Coates made the convert on Quinn's T. D. the game finished with the locals away out in front 32-0.

Playing well for Stanstead on the line were Sinclair, Blenkiron and King and backs Stewart and Dobain. Sherbrooke stars on the offense were Ross, Quinn and Bob Coates while on the defence Ross, Winslow and G. Quinn. Bob Coates quarterbacked the local team while Dobain was the Stanstead Quarterback.

The teams follow:
Stanstead: Dobain, Stewart, Reynolds, Meth, Ingram, Sullivan, Derchers, King, Wilkie, Rudge, Richstone, Blenkiron, Sinclair, Ricaot, Borger, Roberts, Yarosky, Arape, Houghton and McManus.

Sherbrooke: Coates, Quinn, Winslow, Calhoun, Gelonias, Cooper, Matthews, Gilling, Watson, Ross, Billing, MacLean, Goodson, Swindon, Bacon, Perkins, Fuller and Davidson.

The 1959 Sherbrooke High School football team just completed an outstanding record for the season. The Jim MacKinnon coached squad went through the schedule with out being scored upon. It was the first time in the history of the local school that any team has ever accomplished such a feat. In the front, left to right Ross Winslow, Pete Watson, Bob MacLean, Darryl Billing, Gary Quinn, Bob Coates, Gary Ross, Toni Goodson, Dave Bacon, Robt. Reynolds. Standing, same order, Ron Barr, manager, Jim Gillam, Dave Cooper, Dereck Gosselin, Doug Calhoun, John Hallett, Rodney Coates, Dave Perkins, Brady Gellinas, Bill Fuller, Brian Davidson, Geo. Swindon, Jim MacKinnon, Coach. Jeff Mills is missing from the picture.

Russians Land For Big Race At Laurel Track

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—The enigmatic Russians are in the International village today awaiting the eighth running of the $100,000 horse race Nov. 11.

"The most important thing we're here for is to learn more about the specifics of American racing," said Yevgeni Dolmatov with a smile. He directs the Moscow Hippodrome, centre of Russia's racing.

He and Yevgeni Gottlieb, trainer of Russia's two entries in the International, won't even name their jockeys. Garnier, their horse who finished sixth last year, is back and so is his jockey, Nikolai Nazimov.

Flang is the new horse and Pavel F. Borovoy the new jockey.

"We're not entirely decided on the jockeys," said Gottlieb upon their arrival Saturday night. "It depends on the track."

Larry Wilson Pots Four As Bisons Win 8-4

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—A four-goal performance by centre Larry Wilson paced the Buffalo Bisons to their second consecutive American Hockey League victory over the Cleveland Barons Sunday night 8-4.

Wilson, who scored in each period, was assisted on each goal by his linemates Bob Bailey and Dick Gamble.

The win moved Buffalo out of the AHL cellar, one point in front of Cleveland.

Buffalo skated to a 3-0 first period lead as centre Norm Johnson scored twice before Wilson got the first of his quartet. The Barons, however, closed the gap to 3-2 on scores by Fred Glover and Grieg Hicks before the stanza ended and tied it early in the second on a counter by Bill Dineen.

Buffalo's other goals, both in the third period, were by Billy Dea and Wally Hergesheimer. Cleveland's final tally was by Eddie Mazur.

ANCIENT CUSTOM

Many women in the Middle East still darken their eyelashes and shadow their eyes with kohl, or powdered antimony.

Kingston needed two rallies, tallying with little more than two minutes remaining Saturday and

Jimmy Brown Explodes And Knocks Colts Out Of Top Spot As Browns Win 38-3; Giants Dump Packers

NEW YORK (AP)—Jimmy Brown finally exploded, jarring Baltimore's champion Colts out of the Western Conference lead and making Cleveland Browns a contender again in the East as the National Football League races hit the halfway mark.

The six-foot-two, 228-pound bulldozer mixed speed with power for five touchdowns Sunday, triggering the near-record performance with the longest gain of his pro career—a 70-yard rumble with a pitchout that got Cleveland rolling on a 38-31 victory over the Colts at Baltimore.

San Francisco's surprising '49ers leap-frogged the Colts into the western lead with a 33-breeze over Detroit Lions. That gave the '49ers, pre-season picks for the second division, a 5-1 record to Baltimore's 4-2.

The surprise at Baltimore was Cleveland's third straight success and left the Browns in a second-place tie with Philadelphia Eagles in the East behind New York Giants. The Giants (5-1) retained their one-game edge by smacking Green Bay Packers 20-3. Philadelphia worked Washington Redskins over 30-23.

The other games went to the two Chicago teams, the Cardinals walloping Pittsburgh Steelers 45-24 and the Bears, beating Los Angeles Rams 26-21.

TERROR ALONG GROUND

Brown—who has led the NFL in rushing for each of his two campaigns, setting a record with a 1,527 net last season—pushed his six-game 1959 total to 737 yards, a 123-yard average. He carried 32 times and moved 178 yards.

Ernie Nevers set the one-game record of six touchdowns with the Cardinals against the Bears 30 years ago.

For all Browns' brilliance, Cleveland had its hands full containing Johnny Unitas, who passed for all four Colt TDs. That stretched his consecutive game record to 31.

The '49ers also won their third in a row, ripping the Lions as Hugh McElhenny, after nursing a broken hand for a month, returned to full-time duty and hauled in a pair of scoring passes from Y. A. Tittle.

WEBSTER STARS

Alex Webster, former Montreal Alouettes back, scored twice for New York with short bursts.

Against Philadelphia, the Redskins came alive for 14 points in the final period but the Eagles held fullback Don Bosseler in the short of the goal on three shots at the line with time running out.

Rookies Bill Stacey and Ken Hall put it away for Pop Ivy's Cardinals with a pair of long punt returns in a 21-point second period against the Steelers. Stacey went 59 yards and Hall 83 for a 35-10 lead at half time.

The Bears beat the Rams with 19 points in the third quarter, scoring twice within two minutes on a blocked punt and a fumble.

Three Tilts In Eastern Pro Loop End In Ties, Royals Blank Sudbury 3-0

Only one of four weekend games in the Eastern Professional Hockey League produced a clear-cut verdict and it was a shutout. The three others were tied.

Kingston Frontenacs and Trois-Rivieres Lions deadlocked 3-3 in Kingston Saturday night and 4-4 in Trois-Rivieres Sunday. Sault Ste. Marie Thunderbirds and Hull-Ottawa with a 3-0 victory over Sudbury Wolves.

Lulu Denis, Yves Locas and defenceman Wally Clune scored for Montreal. Hodge made 27 saves, Gilles Boisvert 33 for Sudbury.

SALVAGE ONE POINT

At Hull, Bill Carter scored with 65 seconds remaining for Canadiens, his second of the game. The tying goal came when he stole the puck from Terry Gray at his own blue line and sped towards the Thunderbird net, whistling a drive from 15 feet past netminder Dennis DeJordy.

Earlier in the period Gray had scored what appeared the winner on a brilliant solo rush. Other Sault markers went to Fred Hiltz and Matt Ravlich, while John Annable notched Canadiens' other goal.

Kingston needed two rallies, tallying with little more than two minutes remaining Saturday and Sunbelle, driven by O'Brien, paid $4.80, $3.00 and $2.60.

Jamin, an artichoke lover who wears red ear muffs to drown out noise, could have concluded the classic by winning again Saturday. But the field now must return for a third dash Nov. 11.

NEW YORK (AP)—Warfare rolled off the head of the stretch in the fog and rain Saturday, then swiftly overhauled Bally Ache in the run to the wire to capture the $283,075 Garden State Stakes at Camden, N.Y.

Meantime, at New York's Aqueduct, Sword Dancer, a three-year-old from Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Brookmeade Stable, nailed the horse of the year honors with a seven-length victory over millionaire Round Table in the $110,600 Jockey Club Gold Cup.

mine, established himself as the solid early choice for the Kentucky Derby at Louisville next May.

Ridden by Ismael Valenzuela, Warfare came home a half-length winner over Bally Ache before a crowd of 36,616.

Sword Dancer Wins Gold Cup

NEW YORK (AP)—Sword Dancer, heading for a two-month vacation, today presented an imposing list of credentials to back his candidacy for two of racing's most important titles.

He virtually wrapped up horse-of-the-year honors Saturday by defeating Round Table, defending titleholder, by seven lengths in the $110,600 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct. He also is the leading candidate for the three-year-old championship and top money winner of the year.

The $70,790 earned Saturday boosted his 1959 bank account to $537,004.

His over-all record for the year shows 13 starts with eight victories, four seconds and once out of the money.

With Eddie Arcaro in the saddle for his eighth Gold Cup triumph, Sword Dancer was clocked in 3:22 1-5 for the two miles.

Plante Dons Mask After Being Hit By Flying Puck, Canadiens Win

Hit In First Period And Required Seven Stitches, Finishes Game; Tie And Win, Leafs-Bruins Split

Montreal Canadiens goalie Jacques Plante finally got to wear his self-made plastic mask in National Hockey League competition but it came about the hard way.

Plante perfected the mask in pre-season training with the hope of wearing it in regular games. But when the season opened club officials had other ideas.

Plante, 39, was hit early in the first period Sunday night by a flying puck shot by New York Rangers' Andy Bathgate. Seven stitches were required to close cuts on his nose and upper lip and he wore the mask for the rest of the game, won by Canadiens 3-1. Rangers scored while Plante was wearing the mask.

It marked the first time such protection had been used in regular play.

COMPILE FINE SLATE

Plante stopped 27 shots as the first-place Canadiens stretched their unbeaten string to eight games and maintained their four-point lead over runner-up Detroit Red Wings.

The Wings beat Chicago Black Hawks 2-1 after tying Montreal 2-2 Saturday.

Toronto Maple Leafs and Boston Bruins split, the Leafs winning 4-3 Saturday but losing 6-3 at Boston Sunday.

Dickie Moore, Andre Pronovost and Bernie Geoffrion scored Canadiens' goals Sunday before a sellout New York crowd of 15,925. Camille Henry scored for Rangers.

Lorne (Gump) Worsley stopped 39 drives, including four breakaways in the third period.

SAWCHUK STILL HOT

Detroit's Terry Sawchuk, who has allowed only 15 goals in 11 games, again was Detroit's big man against Chicago, making 28 saves, 23 in the last two periods.

Alex Delvecchio scored the winner with only 14 seconds gone in the third period. Rookie Jerry Melynk had scored earlier for Wings, Phil Maloney for Hawks, who lost their eighth game in their last nine.

At Montreal Saturday, Maurice (Rocket) Richard and Moore scored for the Habs, Norm Ullman and Delvecchio for Wings.

Guy Gendron and Bronco Horvath were practically the whole show for Boston Sunday in a game enlivened by a late third-period brawl. Gendron scored the NHL's first hat trick this season and Horvath got two more, running his total to 10 in 11 games. Vic Stasiuk got Boston's other goal and Dick Duff, Carl Brewer and Johnny Wilson scored for Toronto.

Wilson, who has now played in 520 consecutive NHL games, got Toronto goals Saturday, singles going to Bob Pulford and Gerry Ehman. Fleming Mackell, Bob Armstrong and Leo Boivin scored for Boston.

Horvath also assisted on Stasiuk's goal Sunday for three points, giving him a season total of 15 and a tie with Geoffrion in the scoring race.

Boston centre Charlie Burns drew two major fighting penalties, a minor for high sticking and a 10-minute misconduct as a result of the third-period brawl. Toronto's Bert Olinstead and Bob Baum and Bruins' Mackell also got majors for fighting.

Regarding Plante's mask, coach Toe Blake, who once hated it, said after the victory: "It's the coming thing in the game. The time will come when they'll have an even better mask than Plante's and it'll be standard equipment for goalies."

Jacques said: "I'll wear it for our next game." Blake added: "He can wear it as long as he needs it and he plays like he did here."

Plante continued: "I'm much less cautious about mixing into a goalmouth melee when I wear the mask. And if they'll let me wear it all the time, I can play until I'm 45."

Giants Out To Make Deal For Pitching Help

NEW YORK (AP)—Chub Feeney, vice-president of the San Francisco Giants, expects three or four major deals during baseball's three-week inter-league trading period starting Nov. 21.

And, says Feeney, it's more than likely the Giants will make one of them.

"We've discussed other players too, of course," Feeney said Thursday, "but what we need most are pitchers, either front line or in the bullpen. And we have just so many players available for trade, so we're concentrating first on strengthening our pitching staff."

To reports that the Cleveland Indians had offered Herb Score, Feeney said: "We haven't talked with Frank Lane or anybody connected with the Indians, about Score or anybody else. But that doesn't mean we won't."

No Upsets Registered On Sunday's Card, Saturday's Program Postponed Till Wednesday; Quinella Sets High

No major upsets were registered yesterday afternoon on the Sunday card of the Sherbrooke Raceway despite the slippery condition of the track. The Saturday evening program which was postponed will be held Wednesday night.

One suspension and the setting back of Beaudoin's Boum Boum Bumpas in the eighth race featured the program. Driver Jim Fearneley drew a two-day enforced rest for using threatening language to the starter. The rest of the card was completed without any further mishaps.

Amedee Beaudoin who had copped the first half of the "D" Trot and Pace pulled under the wire in the second half of the event but when driver Frank Newell laid a protest he was set back. Newell claimed Beaudoin cut him twice on the back stretch right in front of the patrol judge. The judges upon investigation confirmed the finding and he was set down. He was dropped back to third although he had won the heat. This met with strong protest from some of the fans, who hadn't witnessed the incident but despite this the judgement stood.

The double of Jack Harvester and Abe Scott paid their backers the sum of $21.90 while the quinellas were low with $41.30 being the top one of the card. The best payoff of a straight investment was collected on Atmore Grattan in the eighth when he was moved ahead and $16.00 was picked up.

In the sixth S. Kydd's Father Harmony paid the tops for a place bet when $20.70 was shelled out. For a show wager $8.10 was tops for Marty Creed in the third race. The best time of the day was registered in the second race when L. Larose drove Abe Scott home in 2:25. All the other times were higher owing to the very heavy going.

The prices on the whole remained on a low basis with no outstanding payoffs being doled out despite the slow track. The next card is Wednesday evening when the program slated for last Saturday will be presented.

Quebec Aces Extend Amazing Winning Streak With Wins Over Springfield And Providence; Bisons Down Barons

Quebec Aces' amazing winning streak and Rochester Americans' performance at home has given a new look to the American Hockey League.

The Aces, who won only two of their first 11 games, beat Springfield Indians 6-4 Saturday and the league-leading Providence Reds 4-3 Sunday night to run their victory streak to four. The Americans recorded their sixth straight home triumph, edging Hershey Bears 3-2 Sunday night. Hershey downed Providence 3-2 Saturday.

Buffalo Bisons vacated last place with two victories over Cleveland Barons. Larry Wilson scored four goals Sunday night as Bisons overpowered the Barons 8-4. Eddie Kachur contributed four Saturday to an 8-5 Bisons victory.

LATE TALLY WINS

Obie O'Brien scored Quebec's winning goal Sunday with less than three minutes remaining. Bob Barlow scored twice, Alain Caron once. Bo Elik scored two for Providence, Lorne Davis one.

Aces dealt the Indians their first home loss Saturday as Jack Leclair and Barlow scored two each. Jean Cossette and Caron contributed singles. Bill McCreary led Springfield with two goals and Harry Pidhirny and Bill Sweeney got one each.

Stan Smrke netted two Rochester goals Sunday, running Americans' undefeated home streak to 21 games since last Jan. 16. Pat Hannigan accounted for Rochester's other goal. Rookie Brian Smith and Larry Zeidel scored for Hershey.

Veteran centre Willie Marshall scored at the 19-second mark in overtime to give Hershey victory over Providence. Bob Solinger and Claude Laforge got the others. Danny Poliziani and Dick Cherry assisted for the Reds.

Wilson was assisted on each of his goals by linemen Bob Bailey and Dick Gamble. Norm Johnson followed up with two goals and Billy Dea and Wally Hergeheimer got one each. Eddie Mazur, Fred Glover, Grog Hicks and Bill Dineen scored for Cleveland.

Kachur was backed up Saturday by Danny Lewicki, who scored twice, and Bailey and three goals for the Barons. Bill Shvetz scored twice.

Stan Smrke Leads Rochester To Win Over Bears

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Stan Smrke scored two goals Sunday night and led the Rochester Americans to a 3-2 decision over Hershey in a penalty-filled American Hockey League game.

The win was the sixth straight at home for the Amerks this season and ran their undefeated string to 21 home games since Jan. 16. They've won 19 and played two ties in that span.

The Amerks never led in the game until Smrke's second goal, registered at 3:38 of the final period while Hershey player-coach Frank Mathers was in the penalty box.

Hershey grabbed a 1-0 lead at 10:25 of the first period when rookie Brian Smith back-handed a blazer past goalie Ed Chadwick. Smrke tied it at 2:44 of the middle session, again with Hershey a man short, but the Bears bounced back for a 2-1 lead on Larry Zeidel's tally at 12:13. Pat Hannigan deadlocked it for the Americans at 16:32.

Sarnia Imperials crushed Toronto St. Michael's College 37-0 to win the Ontario Rugby Football Union title 27 years ago today. It was the second Sarnia championship in a string of nine consecutive league titles ending in 1939, during which period they won the Grey Cup twice—against Regina in 1934 and Ottawa in 1936—although there was no east-west final in 1936.
