GERMANS MAKING NEW PROTEST TO ALLIES

RESOLUTE TO BE READY TOMORROW FOR SECOND RACE

VICTORY TO STAND

New York Club Refused Lipton's Request to Cancel it

NEW YORK, July 16. — (Star Special.) — Resolute, America's Cup defender will sail the second race of the series tomorrow against Shamrock IV., the New York Yacht Club announced today. The broken throat halyard, which caused Resolute to withdraw from the first race yesterday with an almost sure victory in her grasp, will be repaired today.

Charles Francis Adams, skipper of Resolute, explained the accident which caused him to lose at the turning point of the thirty-mile race when he had nearly a five minute lead over the challenger.

"The throat halyard parted at the winch," he said. "The gaff collapsed and the main-sail fell. We examined the break, and when it was found that repairs were impossible we withdrew and summoned a tender to tow us in."

"We will complete our work of adjusting new halyards today," said Robert W. Emmons, Jr., managing owner. A new metal gaff was to be slung on the Resolute, and Captain Charles Francis Adams, the Cup yacht skipper, did not seem unduly chagrined over the accident. Nat. Herreshoff, designer and builder of the Resolute, made a careful inspection of the 70-footer, and superintended the repairs on board. Herreshoff had no comment to make on the performance of the Shamrock IV.

ACCIDENT LESSENS CONFIDENCE.

The accident to Resolute coming on top of three other major mishaps earlier in the season—the loss of the mast off New Haven, the breaking of the jaws of the gaff and the carrying away of a topmast off Newport—had a tendency to somewhat shake the faith in the ability of the Herreshoff creation to hold together until the end of the season.

It was also anticipated that Designer Nicholson and Capt. Burton of the Shamrock IV., would endeavor to obtain a re-measurment of the challenger in the hope of still further reducing the handicap time allowance, since it has been explained that the smaller challenger is using a much smaller club topsail than was included in the original measurement of the New York Yacht Club officials.

A REAL SPORTSMAN.

NEW YORK, July, 16. — (Star Special.)—Displaying the sportsmanship characteristic of him, Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of the winning sloop is reluctant to take credit for a victory won on what he termed a fluke. He asked to have the race sail over. The New York Yacht Club refused to consider such a protest.

When it was pointed out that the first Shamrock was forced to withdraw by an accident in the race against Columbia in 1899, the Irish baronet agreed to accept the race as a victory for his green cup hunter.

BELFAST IS PLEASED.

BELFAST, Ireland, July 16.—News that the Shamrock IV. had won the first race against the Resolute in the series for the America's Cup was received amid joyous scenes at Bangor Down last night, because in the event of the ultimate victory of Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, future races will occur there. Large crowds there for the regatta being held during the present week awaited reports of the result of the race with intense interest

INTENSE INTEREST SHOWN.

LONDON, July 16.—(United Press.) — Satisfaction throughout Great Britain at the victory of Shamrock IV. in the first of the America's Cup races was tempered today by the fact that Lipton's challenger won the match by a fluke. Newspapers pointed out, however, that Sir Thomas had a precedent for claiming a victory because the yacht Columbia made a similar claim in 1899.

Interest in the yacht race was keener than in any international sporting event of recent history. Even the conference at Spa was subordinated in the newspapers to detailed stories of the Shamrock IV—tilt with the Resolute.

SAY VICTORY DESERVED.

NEW YORK, July 16. (By Canadian Press.)—While expressing regret at the accident to the Resolute in yesterday's race, the New York papers this morning are practically unanimous in declaring that it was "part of the game" and that Thomas Lipton was perfectly justified in accepting the victory which the fates handed to him. Doubt is expressed as to whether the construction of the Resolute is sufficiently strong to stand the heavy strain which a test of real rough weather would put upon her and it is recalled that the contest must not be considered one of speed and seamanship alone, but of strength of construction as well.

"What would have happened yesterday but for the accident to Resolute the experts will endlessly dispute," says the Times. "But the actual result must be set down as a fair win for Shamrock IV. A part of the test between the two yachts is that of staunchness of construction and of gear. Much of it is pitted against material as well as design against design. No one will regret the mishap to Resolute more than Sir Thomas Lipton. Yet he did but his duty in sailing over the course after his opponent was disabled, and the first race is legitimately his."

PART OF THE GAME.

The Sun says: "It must be borne in mind that the parting of a halyard on the Resolute yesterday, the incident which compelled her withdrawal from the race, is a part of the game. The contest is not merely to decide which sloop can cover a given distance in the shortest period of time, everything heads. It is to decide which yacht is best designed, best equipped and best handled. The hand which gave way yesterday should have held. That it did not is the consequence of

FORTY-EIGHTERS START CAMPAIGN

Plan Preparation for Congressional Drives in Coming Elections

CHICAGO, July 16 (United Press.) Leaders of the Committee of Forty-Eight here today began preparations for congressional campaigns in the coming elections.

Efforts will be directed to reorganization and attempts to secure victories this year in some congressional districts in hope of active participation in the presidential campaign years hence, leaders said today.

Following the split with the Farmer-Labor party, Committee of Forty Eight members late yesterday decided to continue the organization. Resolutions passed by the last session advised confining activities to congressional, legislative, and judicial action, with provisions for calling a national convention should the national executive committee deem it advisable.

The Forty Eighters did not endorse or repudiate the Farmer-Labor party which the previous day nominated Parley P. Christensen, former chairman of the Forty Eighters, to head its presidential ticket.

GEDDES SAW RACE.

Sir Auckland arrived from Washington Wednesday night, accompanied by Captain C. J. Henry, F. C. Graves and E. V. Tennant.

Another guest on board the Victoria was Maj. Gen. Nelson A. Miles, who was one of the "boy generals" of the Civil War, and a famous Indian fighter.

SINN FEIN NOW PLANS MEASURE OF CONSCRIPTION

Men Between 20 and 40 May Be Forced Into Republican Army

MURDERS CONTINUE

Five Police Killed Since Saturday—Railway Crisis Growing Worse

DUBLIN, July 16.—(Special Star Cable. Copyright).—If Sinn Fein victories are to be measured in terms of murdered policemen, the Republicans may well claim this as a highly successful week. Since Saturday five constables have paid the extreme penalty, while the wounded and seriously injured number nearly a dozen.

Despite the presence of sixty thousand troops in Ireland the assassination campaign goes on unchecked. The Republicans are also showing themselves intensely active in the holding up of mails. Yesterday morning's raid on the Dublin General Post Office being merely one of a number of similar incidents occurring in various parts of the country. The object in each case is to capture and destroy official letters passing between Government departments. When the raiders are hampered for time complete sacks of letters are removed and those of a private character eventually stuck, the addresses stamped with the notification that the contents have been examined and "Passed by the censor of the Irish Republican authority."

The railway situation goes from bad to worse. Except on northern routes, controlled by the Loyalists, time tables are no longer of the least consequence. Trains leave the terminal, and sometimes arrive at their destination. Oftener they are hung up at some wayside station through the driver's refusal to proceed further unless troops or policemen vacate their seats. Seven hundred railwaymen have lost their employment for such refusal and the number is being added to hourly.

Ulster drivers who take the place of suspended Southerners are being kidnapped. Five railwaymen of Clomes were thus spirited away on Wednesday.

Sinn Fein's first essay in applying taxation is reported from County Roscommon, where a district council has decided to levy a shilling rate of finance the administration of local volunteers. It was also stated this council contemplated introducing a measure of conscription and every able-bodied man between twenty and forty would be compelled to join the Republican forces.

AMBUSH POLICE PATROL.

DUBLIN, July 16.—A police patrol was ambushed near Lanesborough Wednesday night, one officer being killed instantly by the first volley. His companion, who was wounded, returned the fire of his assailants until his ammunition was exhausted, using the body of his dead comrade as a breastwork.

The Westmeath county council has ordered all court houses in the county closed and Government officials evicted. It has directed the Irish Republican army to prevent magistrates and other Government officers entering these buildings in future, asserting that the Sinn Fein courts have superseded these functionaries.

REFUSED LARKIN PLEA.

BELFAST, Ireland, July 16. The district council of Moira, in the Ulster county of Down today rejected the appeal of the Larkin release committee that it join in efforts to obtain the release of James Larkin, head of the Transport Workers' Union, who recently was convicted in the United States of criminal anarchy and sentenced to from five to ten years' imprisonment.

The council passed a resolution declaring that Larkin's conviction was just and righteous, and the sentence no more severe than his conduct earned him. A copy of the resolution will be sent to the United States Government.

LONDON, July 16. —(Star Special Cable.) Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary of Ireland, and Sir John Anderson, Under Secretary, used this morning in London interviewing divisional Commissioner Smyth of the Munster Royal Irish Constabulary, who specially was summoned to London to explain the extraordinary speech he is alleged to have made to the police at Listowel County in Derry. Mr. Smyth is alleged to have told the police to shoot freely and "the more you shoot the better I will like you."

Mr. Smyth also is said to have told the police to commandeer the best houses for barracks, throwing the occupants into the street. Also he is alleged to have said an emigrant ship with a lot of Sinn Feiners aboard would never land. As a result of this harangue the police mutinied, the men refused to carry out the orders and resigned, reporting the whole episode to the Sinn Fein.

At first the incident seemed incredible, but it is said Mr. Smyth, while declaring the reports exaggerated, practically admits its truth. He has been ordered to prepare a detailed report and Mr. Greenwood will report on the incident to the House of Commons tomorrow. There is little doubt Mr. Smyth will be "handed" and used as a stern example to other police officers who may be disposed to use Prussian methods in Ireland.

G.T.R. ARBITRATION DUE IN SEPTEMBER

Hearings Will Begin in Montreal by Middle of Month

A LENGTHY CASE

Decision on Head Office Location Will Come Afterwards

OTTAWA, July 16.—(From Our Own Correspondent.) — The Grand Trunk arbitration will begin in Montreal, probably about the middle of September. The arbitrators, Sir Walter Cassells, chairman; Sir Thomas White, for the Government, and Hon. W. H. Taft, for the Grand Trunk, are expected to confer next month and fix a definite date. Meanwhile, counsel have been selected by both sides and the case is under preparation. The Dominion Government lawyers will be Pierce Butler, a famous railway counsel of St. Paul; W. N. Tilley, K.C., of Toronto; Hector McInnes, K.C., Halifax, and H. A. Lovett, K.C., of Montreal. Those representing the Grand Trunk will be Eugene Lafleur, K.C., Montreal; Hon. F. H. Phippen, K.C., Toronto; Hon. A. W. Atwater, K.C., and W. H. Biggar, K.C., of Montreal.

A large staff of engineers has been engaged by each side. R. A. E. Henry is in charge of the Government case and J. B. Berry for the company.

The arbitration, it is believed, will last a couple of months, and Montreal will be the seat of it, because it is the head office of the Grand Trunk.

When it is concluded the road will formally pass into the hands of the Government, as it is practically now.

It will then be decided whether the head office of the amalgamated system will be in Montreal or Toronto.

TO COURT-MARTIAL MEXICAN REBELS

Generals Gonzalez, Garcia, Santos Planned Coup D'etat Manoeuvre

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—(By United Press).— The de la Huerta Government frustrated a projected coup d'etat with capture of Generals Pablo Gonzalez, Carlos Garcia, and Jose Santos, who were preparing to execute a well-planned manoeuvre for overthrowing the present regime, it became known today.

Gonzalez, who was formerly a candidate for the Mexican Presidency, was said to be the leader of the scheme. Garcia was his Chief of Staff, and Santos was Governor of the State of Nuevo Leon under President Carranza.

All three will be court martialled on charges of rebellion, it was announced at the War Office.

It is understood measures will be taken to repeal the Mexican law under which the life of Gonzalez as one of the conspirators, is forfeit.

General Pablo Gonzalez, former candidate for the Presidency and alleged leader of the abortive revolution in the State of Nuevo Leon, whose capture was reported yesterday, will be placed on trial immediately, according to official announcement.

Dry Farmer Envies Cows Found "Beastly Drunk" on Premises?

DURHAM, N.C., July 16 (Associated Press)—John King, a farmer living near this city, last night found two of his cows lying on the ground of their pasture in a stupor, apparently suffering from some strange malady. A veterinarian was called and after lengthy examination pronounced both animals as merely "beastly" drunk.

A search for the cause led to the discovery of a big "moonshine" still in a secluded corner of the pasture. The cows had eaten a quantity of the mash used by the illicit whiskey manufacturers.

SENSATIONAL DROP IN CHICAGO WHEAT

CHICAGO, July 16. Wheat underwent a sensational break in price today. The market opened all the way from unchanged figures to 9½ cents off, and soon was down 10½ cents a bushel in some cases for December, the principal speculative delivery. The big tumble in values was attributed more to lack of buying orders than to any great pressure to sell.

FRENCH-CANADIAN FOR ST. ANTOINE?

DOOR ALWAYS OPEN

New Ministry Anxious That Province Have Another Portfolio

OTTAWA, July 16. — (From Our Own Correspondent.)—The representation of French Canada in the Cabinet is receiving some attention in Government circles. There is only one French-Canadian minister now, Senator Blondin. There is no French-Canadian member from Quebec who supports the Government, and only three English-speaking Unionists, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne and Sir Herbert Ames. Sir Herbert is about to resign as his work with the League of Nations enforces his absence.

With regard to further French representation, it was stated in high circles today that the "door is always open," and that the new Premier is as desirous as was Sir Robert Borden that the present condition be rectified. The situation, however, is up to Quebec.

The opening of St. Antoine division of Montreal by the resignation of Sir Herbert Ames, might provide a way out, but it is recognized as an English seat. There is some suggestion, however, that as a temporary expedient a French-Canadian minister might run in that constituency when it becomes officially vacant.

The Meighen Cabinet has decided that, for the summer, two sittings a week, Tuesdays and Fridays, ought to suffice for what business is on hand.

The by-election dates will be fixed almost immediately, but making allowance for the delays contemplated by the statute they cannot be held before the beginning of September.

CHICAGO TRIES TO MEET STRIKE

Struggle to Operate Car Lines—Service Fifty Per Cent Normal

CHICAGO, July 16— (United Press) Chicago surface lines struggled today to maintain service while rumors of further crippling of transportation facilities here flitted about.

Officials of the Chicago surface lines promised fifty per cent. normal service today. They anticipated conditions would steadily improve. With power plants manned by loyal workers, current for one thousand cars was available early today.

STRIKE MAY SPREAD

Reports were that 1,200 truck workers employed by the surface lines would strike in sympathy today. The strike action was said to have been taken at a meeting early today. Efforts to hamper efficiency of elevated lines also were reported. Officials of the elevated system, however, said they had nothing to fear.

Chicago struggled to work today in much the same fashion as on the first day of the strike. Trucks, antiquated vehicles, elevated lines and suburban railroads were crowded to capacity.

Additional services on the elevated lines and railroads was provided during the rush hours and aside from an uncomfortable crowding there was little inconvenience today.

ALLIES' REITERATED INVASION THREAT AGAINST GERMANS

Simons Agrees on Coal Demand But Asks Explanation

BLUNT WARNING

Entente Insisted on Military Occupation in Event of Non-Compliance

SPA, Belgium, July 16.—(By the Associated Press). — The German delegates at the conference here have agreed in principle with the terms submitted to them by the Allies as to Germany's deliveries of coal, but will ask for the explanation of certain articles in the Allied notes. They made this announcement just before entering into conference with the Allied ministers here this afternoon.

From what could be learned this morning the thing that was standing in the way of acceptance by the Germans of the Allied terms was the clause providing for occupation of the Ruhr valley unless the coal deliveries reached a total of 6,000,000 tons by October 15.

Dr. Walter Simons, the German Foreign Minister, told his colleagues when they met to confer over the Allied conditions that this subject had not been mentioned during his conversation with Premiers Lloyd George and Millerand yesterday when a verbal agreement was virtually reached.

The Germans, it appears, were greatly annoyed to find it in the text of the terms handed them in the note of last night.

ALLIES' TERMS DEFINITE.

SPA, Belgium, July 16.—(United Press).—Having exhausted every diplomatic resource in an effort to obtain a reduction in the amount of coal demanded by the Allies, the German delegation was expected to accept the ultimatum requiring delivery of 2,000,000 tons monthly when the conference re-convened at the Villa Fraineuse late today. The equivocal acceptance presented by the Germans was considered by Allied representatives at private meetings and a reply formulated which called for the final German decision at 11 a.m. today.

Germany must deliver a total of 6,000,000 tons of coal to the Allies by October 1, under penalty of having Allied troops occupy the Rhur "or any other district," the latest Allied note set forth.

Following is the substance of the Allied reply to the Germans' qualified acceptance of the coal demands:

1—The German Government will, beginning August 1, deliver two million tons of coal monthly for a period of six months.

2—The value of this coal will be credited against the German reparations obligation at the German market price. A premium of five gold marks per ton will be allowed on certain classes and qualities of coal. This premium will be paid in cash to be used for purchasing foodstuffs for German miners.

3—During the six months the measures of control provided in the agreement drawn up July 11 will be applied, as shown in an annex to this document.

4—In the near future an agreement shall be made regarding distribution of Upper Silesian coal by a mixed Allied commission.

5—As soon as possible a commission will be established in Essen on which Germany will be represented, to provide a standard of living for miners in regard to food and clothing, with a view to improving coal production.

6—The Allied Governments are ready to grant Germany, during the six months' period, an advance payment amounting to the difference between the price paid according to Article Two of this document and the export price, f.o.b., German ports and the English export price, f.o.b., English harbors. In each case the lower price shall prevail. This advance will not be made conditional on questions of priority.

All other Allied claims will be made at the end of each month, according to the number of tons delivered and in accordance with the price of world coal during that period. At the end of the first month, such advances will be granted without awaiting exact figures.

THREAT OF OCCUPATION.

7—If up to November 20 it should be established that the August, September and October deliveries have failed to total six million tons, the Allies will proceed to occupy new parts of Germany, that is the Ruhr, or any other district.

The annex to this Allied reply provided for a standing commission of the reparations commission to sit at Berlin and supervise all coal operations in Germany.

In event the Germans should refuse to meet the terms of this ultimatum, the Allies have completed military preparations for occupation of German territory.

WHAT GERMANS PROPOSED.

[illegible] that Allied note came after consideration of a German proposal, embodying six points regarding the coal problem as follows:

1. The Allies should pay the world market price for coal delivered, crediting Germany's reparation account in accordance with the price of coal in Germany.

2. The Allies must not occupy the Ruhr district during the period of coal deliveries.

3. No attempt must be made to increase the total of 2,000,000 tons to be delivered monthly.

4. Arbitration of the question of the Upper Silesian mines should be started immediately.

5. An Allied commission should be sent to Essen to provide for food and clothing for miners.

6. The Allies must grant Germany credits immediately for purchase of foodstuffs.

If the Germans accept the Allied ultimatum, the reparation question will be referred back to the reparation commission and the conference will probably be adjourned tonight.

HINT OF PROMISE-BREAKING.

The Tagblach Rundschau said: "The crisis is over, but shortly a new and more serious crisis will occur dealing with promises broken because we are unable to fulfill the Allied demands."

The Tageblatt declared France was seeking to annex the Ruhr region and would take the first opportunity of getting French troops there.

The German delegates held a conference this morning to discuss their answer to the Allied coal ultimatum. Dr. Walter Simons, German Foreign Minister, told correspondents after the meeting he believes an agreement with the Allies can be reached.

"Premier Giolitti has proposed many difficulties but he always fears anything resembling modification of the Peace Treaty," Simons said. "That the Allies have met us half way and I believe we are close enough together now to enable us to reach an agreement."

Percentages of German Payments Probably Same as Before

POSTPONEMENT

On Coal Ultimatum, Germans Asked Delay Until Afternoon

SPA, July 16.—(United Press.) — Distribution of the German reparations payments among the Allies was agreed upon at a meeting of Allied leaders today. Percentages to go to the various countries were not announced, although it was believed they would be substantially as previously decided.

As a result of a disagreement among themselves, the German delegates sent Herr Simons's Secretary to Premier Millerand with a request that the conference scheduled for 11 a.m. be postponed until 4 this afternoon. Millerand conferred with Premier Lloyd George, after which the German request was granted.

HOLD N.Y. SINGER IN MURDER CASE

Miss Leroy's Story to Be Probed—Took Victim to Hospital

NEW YORK, July 16.—Miss Loretta Leroy, a cabaret singer with her chauffeur and another man, were held for questioning today in the investigation into the murder of an unknown man.

Miss Leroy drove to Bellevue Hospital at 2 a.m. with the man's body in her automobile. At first she said she was driving through the street and saw the man lying on the sidewalk dying. After several hours' questioning, however, she said she was dining in a restaurant with the man, who she knew only as "Mike" when someone told him he was wanted outside.

A few minutes later he excused himself, and went out. Miss Leroy said she heard a shot, ran out the door and found the man wounded. With the aid of her chauffeur, Wilson Jackson and Pasquale Dennar, she placed the body in the automobile.

Police found two loaded shotguns in a stairway near where Miss Leroy said the stranger was shot. One gun appeared to have been discharged and reloaded.

The man was struck by five shots, centering near his heart. His hat was also pierced by the shots, indicating he held it over his heart when the shots were fired.

Miss Leroy told the police she met "Mike" five days ago at Atlantic City and had dined with him several times since.

MUCH SUGAR IS GOING TO U.S.

OTTAWA, July 16.—(Star Special). —The removal of the restrictions on the export of sugar is resulting in great quantities of Canadian sugar being sent out of the country, especially from Ontario points, to the United States, according to advices received here.

It is stated that even small storekeepers are exporting.

Under the Board of Commerce regulations the profit is restricted to 8 per cent. In the States the demand is abnormal and there is no control of prices, while Canadian exporters also have the benefit of the exchange.

The Government recently proposed to take authority to regulate the export of any commodity but this legislation after being referred to a special committee, was dropped. Strong opposition was threatened.

BOLSHEVIKI DRIVE HALTS AS UKRAINE ARMIES BOLSTERED

Volunteers Forces in Rear of Soviets, Aided by Peasants

POLISH AGREEMENT

Approve Occupation of Vilna by Lithuanian Troops

BERNE, July 16 (Associated Press) The Russian Bolshevik offensive in the Ukraine has come to a standstill, according to advices from Bucharest, which declare the counter-offensive of the Ukrainian forces is making progress. The Ukrainian armies are being backed up by growing forces of volunteers forming in the rear of the Bolsheviki, and aided by the extensive uprisings of peasants.

AGREE WITH LITHUANIANS.

WARSAW, July 16 (Associated Press.)—Polish Governmental authorities have agreed with the Lithuanians for the occupation of Vilna by Lithuanian troops, and this step will soon be taken according to information received in military quarters.

The surrender of Vilna to the Lithuanians was conceded by the Soviet Government of Russia some time ago in negotiations between the two countries.

SOVIET CLAIM GAINS.

LONDON, July 16 (Associated Press.)—Continued success by the Bolsheviki in their operations against the Poles along the northern sector of the front is announced in Thursday's official statement from Moscow, received by wireless today. The communique says:

"South of the river Vilia (in the Vilna region) we defeated the resisting enemy along the entire front. Our advance is continuing energetically."

A special despatch from Kovno received in London Thursday night reported the occupation of Vilna by the Bolsheviki. This has not been officially confirmed, but Warsaw advices today say the Poles have agreed with the Lithuanians for occupation of Vilna by Lithuanian troops. The signing of a Peace Treaty between Lithuania and Soviet Russia was reported on July 15.

"West of Molodechno (on the railway line between Minsk and Vilna) we are successfully continuing our advance and driving back the enemy."

"Southwest of Minsk we occupied the village of Usra and a number of other villages. During the fighting along the railway from Bobruisk to Minsk we captured eight guns, several thousand shells, six locomotives and 142 wagons loaded with building materials and tools.

NEW POLISH APPEAL.

A despatch from Moscow today said General Pilsudski, Polish military chief, had made another appeal to the Polish people to give all possible aid in repelling the Red armies.

A Kovno message to the Times declared the Reds had occupied Vilna and that Lithuanian and Soviet troops were jointly holding Land-Vorovo to the east of Vilna. Polish troops were said to have clashed with Lithuanians ten miles east of Land-Vorovo.

The Daily Telegraph said it had learned the Red troops had reached the Rumanian frontier. The Soviet forces were also reported to have occupied Lemberg.

A wireless from Moscow today said: "To the west of Molodechno the Soviet armies are approaching the old German frontier. Our troops have crossed the River Cilia on a wide front. The Poles are resisting fiercely on the entire front between Dubno and the River Dniester."

The official Polish communique from Warsaw today said that on Wednesday the Poles had destroyed one Red Division and a brigade of General Budenny's cavalry near Rovno.

In Southern Polesia the Poles were said to be retreating to the River Stir.

The Bolsheviki crossed the Urla. "We are evacuating Minsk," the communique said. "Our troops repelled Red attacks along the River Ptyez."

Mysterious Lifebuoy, Shell-Crusted, Picked Up Off Sambro Light

HALIFAX, N.S., July 16. — The motor boat Muriel L., owned by Charles Zwick and Sons, West Dover, reports picking up, 15 miles southeast of Sambro lightship, a rubber lifebuoy with a man's vest-coat, made of black cloth, caught in the tube. There was no name on the buoy. From the appearance it was evident that it had been in the water for some time, and it is thought that it was from some large ship. Mussels and conches were fast to the buoy.

HALT ARMY HOSPITAL BUILD.

BRITISH PENSION FOR MME. ALBANI

LOVED HER PUBLIC

"He Sings Best Who Loves Best," Advice to Students

LONDON, July 16.—(By Canadian Press.)—The list of civil pensions, issued last night, mentions £100 per annum for Mme. Albani, the great singer.

Writing once under the heading of "Advice to Students," Albani warned them against getting wrapped up selfishly in their own careers, and said: "In order to sing so that you may touch other people's hearts, you must be in sympathy with those hearts yourself." Then, at the conclusion of her article she altered Coleridge's lines about prayer into "He sings best who loves best all things, both great and small."

It is doubtful if any prima donna ever took her mission in life more seriously. Having been gifted with a remarkable voice, she considered it a duty to use that gift to the best of her knowledge and ability, to keep herself mentally and physically fit that she might give to her world-wide public the highest art she was capable of expressing. And in loving her audiences with all the force of a generous nature, Albani inevitably drew back to herself a popularity such as is given to few singers to attain.

PROUD OF CANADA.

In 1911, when she retired from the stage, Mme. Albani wrote a book "Forty Years of Song," in which she set down many thoughts that shed a clear light upon her character. And one of these is her patriotism. Referring to the facts that she had married an Englishman and made her home in England for many years, she added, "But I shall always remain at heart a French-Canadian." It is in the book too, that she denies having suffered from professional jealousy on the part of her operatic associates, and records whole-souled admiration for artists who were supposed to be her rivals. And here, as in the case of her the public, the affection was returned. "There is one singer whom I do not hate," a contemporary is quoted as saying, "and she is Emma Lajeunesse, whom they call Albani."

SANG MANY PARTS.

Musically, Mme. Albani is a singer of the type that flourished when pure vocal beauty was considered of greater importance than histrionic power. Her voice was not flawless by any means; it was not the outstanding soprano voice of a generation, like the voice of Adelina Patti, or the voice of Mme. Melba at a later day; but, it was very brilliant in the upper register, and held a peculiar charm and sympathetic note; and it was developed by the schooling of the elder Lamperti, and by Albani's own industry, into an organ adaptable to an immense variety of music. She sang practically everything in opera, from the florid cadenzas of Rossini and Donizetti to the dramatic roles of Wagner; and reigned supreme in the realm of oratorio. Gounod, Sullivan and Dvorak writing oratorios and cantatas expressly for her. And even in the last days of her public singing, when the voice was but a shadow of its former self, the art of Albani was so strong that the enemy lurking in advancing years was repeatedly put to rout.

TREATED LIKE QUEEN.

Mme. Albani's personality, too, the patronage extended to her by the British royal family, and her high social standing are matters of common knowledge. She has counted most like Lord Salisbury among her friends, and Kitchener's name is written in her autograph book. On her tours of Canada, Albani was always treated like a queen. Once in Montreal the departure of a train was delayed that she might eat her breakfast in comfort; she would be entertained at Government House at the Capital, and premiers gave dinners in her honor.

Since her retirement from the stage Mme. Albani has turned her attention to teaching.—P. K.

CANADA'S ENORMOUS FISHING REVENUE

Total Revenue Over $60,000,000 — Increase of $20,000,000

OTTAWA, July 16.—(By Canadian Press.)—Canadian fisheries for the fiscal year which closed with March last produced a total commercial valuation in excess of sixty million dollars, or an increase of twenty-five millions, as compared with the fiscal year that closed with March, 1917. The export trade in fish for the last fiscal year was worth $40,687,172, an increase of over one hundred per cent in value, as compared with 1914. The increase over the preceding year was in excess of four million dollars.

The export trade with the United Kingdom increased from $6,726,369 in 1914 to $9,815,079 in the last year, while the trade with the United States jumped from $5,644,365 in 1914 to $17,180,250 last year. The great increase in fish sales to the United States has been due to the fact that the value of canned salmon sold to the republic in 1914 was $115,360, while last year it was $12,067,819. During a span of six years there has been a jump of nearly three hundred per cent in the value of dry salted cod, ling, hake and pollock shipped into the United States.

Trade authorities look with some misgivings upon the increased fish trade with the United States because a large quantity of salmon and other fish imported from Canada is exported again. Statistics indicate that the premium on American money is attracting Canadian trade to the exclusion of other markets. "While United States firms have agents abroad building up future trade, Canadians," remarks an official statement, "are content to sell to the United States. They seem not yet to have appreciated the fact that the premium on American funds gives Canadian exporters in foreign markets an advantage over their American competitors to the extent of the premium. The warning given recently by a Canadian bank that Canadians are letting slip by the opportunity to build up Canadian trade would seem to be applying just now to the fishing industry."

RAISE PREFERENCE ON COMMODITIES

West Indian Agreement to Be Announced Early in August

OTTAWA, July 16 (From Our Own Correspondent)—An increase to fifty per cent in the preference on many commodities of exchange between Canada and the West Indies with a marked improvement in steamship communications and a bettered cable service will be, it is understood, features of the new trade convention when it is announced early in August.

The publication of the agreement is being withheld to permit of the Governments of the different islands being consulted and action of their delegates to the recent convention here formally sanctioned.

The proposed broadening of the preference will be mutual and will likely embrace all the principal commodities now exchanged between Canada and the West Indies.

John Chandler, Woodstock, N.B. Four Canadians have elected to fire with the short rifle, and the remainder with the long weapon.

BISLEY SELECTIONS.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 16.—The prize list for the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association meeting, to commence on Monday, August 16, has just been issued. This is the first meeting since before the war. The 1914 meeting, it will remembered, was called off as the war had just broken out short time before the meet had been scheduled to take place. As in other years the meet will be held at the Rockcliffe Rifle Range.

The Bisley team for 1921 will be selected by the executive from competitors in the meet who are members of the Canadian Militia at the time of the competition, and in good standing at the date of selection, in order of scores, from the Bisley aggregate. The Bisley aggregate consists of the 300 and 600 yard scores of the Governor-General's added to the Grand aggregate. A prize of $50, presented by Captain C. R. Crown will be given to the highest winner who wins a place on the Bisley for the first time. Payment of this prize will be conditional on the winner accompanying the team in 1921.

ONE DAY A WEEK STRIKES AT SYDNEY

Miners Endeavoring to Secure Installation of Water System

SYDNEY, N.S., July 16.—Numbers Five and Ten Collieries at Reserve will be tied up today by the first of a series of one day a week strikes decided upon by the U.M.W. locals in that town.

The object of the one-day-strikes is to induce the company to install a water system in its houses, which system is alleged to have been promised the miners some time ago.

At present the people are supplied with water by means of water carts, which make the rounds of the houses with water in barrels from which each family is supplied.

Union leaders at Reserve state that the reason they chose Friday of each week for the series of strikes is because on that day of the week production is normally heaviest.

VICTORIA, B.C., July 16. — Demanding the same scale of wages now prevailing on coastwise vessels, the crew of the Dominion Government light house tender New England have gone on strike.

ODD ITEMS

A WIRY CAKE.

NEW YORK, July 16.—After Miss Bertha Chynsky had bitten on a cake which she purchased in a store near her home here she was shy fourteen teeth. The cake contained a piece of wire, which punctured her gums and caused the loss of her molars. She sued the manufacturers but the trial court dismissed the suit on the ground that there was no contractural relation existing between Miss Chynsky and the cake makers. The appeal court, however, held the manufacturers responsible.

SOME SPEED.

PETALUMA, Cal., July 16. — In Harry Haperson, the "Sleepy Swede," the Petaluma ball team maintains it has the fastest fielder in any league, major, minor or sand lot.

In a recent game a Sacramento batter drove a fast one through short. Haperson was dozing.

"Look out, Harry," shouted the second baseman.

Quick as a flash, Haperson shook himself alive; saw something dark speeding over his head, made a wild leap—and came down with a sparrow in his glove.

HIS FIRST PAY DAY.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 16. — A man who spoke with a pronounced Swedish accent presented at the income tax office two leather sacks containing $9,000 in travellers' checks yesterday, saying he had just had his first pay day in fifteen years and had heard an income tax was due.

He explained that during that time he had been employed on a ranch in Washington under an agreement with his employer for wages, plus board and clothing. During the fifteen years he "went to town" only twice a year and drew no money, he said, because his employer bought everything he needed. When he decided recently to go to South America, to become a rancher in his own name, his employer accompanied him to town and bought the checks for him.

No tax payment was due from him, he was told.

SHOE CONVENTION CLOSES TONIGHT

Special Exhibition Last Night Was Great Success

Interesting addresses were heard by the delegates at the Shoe Retailers' convention this morning, from H. E. Groves, of Montreal, on "Window Dressing"; C. R. Lasalle on "Diplomacy in Salesmanship," and Howard Blatchford, of Toronto, on "Refunds and Exchanges." Mr. Groves dealt at some length with the disadvantages of overcrowding in window displays, and pointed out several of the mistakes made in dressing windows.

C. R. Lasalle urged the necessity of diplomatic handling of customers, and receiving them in such a way as would give them a feeling of confidence.

Howard C. Blatchford spoke of the evils of the system of exchanging goods for customers, and also of refunding money to customers dissatisfied with their purchases. These refunds and exchanges cost the dealer a great deal, and should be minimised, Mr. Blatchford believed, but he was of the opinion that the system could not be discontinued.

The great style show which was held last night in the Windsor Hall was agreed by all concerned to be by far the most successful event of the week's programme for the Shoe Fair. Long before the hour of opening, the supply of tickets was exhausted, and the committee had to announce that exchange coupons would be accepted in lieu of tickets. The number originally expected was around 800. In point of fact, over a thousand members, delegates and guests were present.

From the stage in the Windsor Hall, a "run-up" was erected extending down the centre of the Hall, along which the ten models walked in the brilliant light of a couple of reflectors. After a brilliant series of gowns, costumes, fur coats and riding habits, the style display concluded with a show of lingerie.

Entertainment was provided between the items of the display, by the McGregors, a quartette of fine highland dancers, and several of the performers from the Bluebird Cafe.

During the evening the result of the window dressing competition was announced, as follows: 1st prize, W. H. Stewart; 2nd prize, Harry Gibbon; 3rd prize, Geo. G. Gales; 4th prize, F. Lasalle; 5th prize, Mendelssohn & Co.; 6th prize, J. Robinson; and in the Department Stores section: 1st, Almy's Ltd.; 2nd, Henry Morgan & Co. Ltd.; 3rd, John Murphy Co. Ltd. The judges were P. M. Rising, of St. John, N.B.; F. P. Kelly, of Toronto, and F. Wilson, Vancouver.

The show was followed by a dance in the Rose Room.

Tomorrow a general holiday will be given to all shoe workers in the city, and they will gather at 8:30 a.m. in Lafontaine Park to march in procession to the Exhibition Hall, headed by the Grenadiers' Band. At 2:30 p.m., a field day will be held in Delorimier Park for the benefit of the shoe workers, with dancing and sports, and at 8:30 p.m. the exhibition will close with a special band concert.

If the work on hand can be got through in time, the convention will close tonight, but the fair will be open to the public all Saturday afternoon and evening, except between 6 and 8:30 p.m.

ALLEGE CHICOINE'S SLAYER IN WEST

Three Montreal Detectives Seeking Murderer in Vicinity of McLeod

It is understood on the highest authority that the Montreal detective department is in possession of a perfect description and the name of the man responsible for the fatal shooting of Constable Thomas Chicoine on the morning of June 13. From the same source of information it is said that the man responsible for the murder of the constable is now known to be in the vicinity of McLeod, Alberta, and at the present time three detectives from Montreal are in the west investigating, the arrest of this man being expected momentarily.

Since the shooting of the constable every effort to locate the perpetrators of the crime has been made, and according to information supplied by one of the men, who, it is surmised, was in the car at the time of the shooting, the arrest of the guilty party is only a matter of time.

MAKE EXCHANGE OF RATIFICATIONS

PARIS, July 16. — (Associated Press.)—The exchange of ratifications of the Treaty of St. Germain, which established peace between the Allies and Austria, took place this morning in the clock room at the Foreign Office. Jules Cambon presided over the ceremony.

Afterwards M. Hertsh, representing Czecho-Slovakia, signed the agreements for the protection of minorities within the former territory of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

AUTO THEFT CHARGE.

Charged with having stolen an automobile valued at over $3,000, the property of Henry Gibbons, Jos. R. Desmarais, Stanley Paquin, and Alex. Lisnabidi, who all gave their address as 125 Hutchison street, were arrested early this morning by Detectives Brodeur, Pelletier, Therrien, Walsh and Lemire. The accused appeared before Judge Leet this morning, being remanded. Joseph Cohen appeared for the defence and Peter Bercovitch, K.C., for the prosecution.

MILK NOT ADULTERATED.

In a recent edition of The Star it was stated that G. A. L. Monteith, of Lasalle road, Verdun, was fined by the Recorder's Court when he was found guilty of selling "adulterated milk." The charge on which the accused was convicted was selling milk which was "below the city standard."

LABOR SECRETARY DENIES BRIBING

P. M. Draper, of Trades Congress, Refutes Montreal Delegate's Charge

SHOWS LETTERS

Produces Correspondence Covering $50,000 in Expenditures Named

OTTAWA, July 16.—An emphatic denial of the statement attributed to a delegate of the Montreal Trades and Labor Council in that city last night, to the effect that he had used sums of money in bribing delegates to trade and labor congress conventions, was made by Mr. P. M. Draper, secretary of the Congress, this morning.

Secretary Draper also states that he merely acted as agent for the post President, Allan E. Barker, of the International Brotherhood of Railway Maintenance and Shop Workers, in the disbursal of $50,000 which was sent to him by Barker. He declared that the money had been properly used for the purpose for which it was intended.

Mr. Draper belittles the attack made upon him by Delegate Kerrigan, of Montreal, who, he states, belongs to the Revolutionary Socialist type of worker, and who was his unsuccessful opponent for the position of Secretary-Treasurer of the Trades and Labor Congress, at the convention held in Montreal two years ago.

He produced copies of correspondence between himself, ex-President Barker and President E. F. Grable, concerning the $50,000, by which he shows that in April last he endeavored to ascertain what explanation Barker had made to the executive of the Brotherhood regarding its disbursement, and in which he requested of President Grable the official approval of the Brotherhood of his action in the matter.

This has not yet been forthcoming, but ex-President Barker is now on trial in Detroit, charged with mishandling funds of the Brotherhood to the extent of $172,000 of which amount the $50,000 sent to Mr. Draper by Barker is a part.

Regarding the insinuation that the money was utilized for the bribing of convention delegates, I would point out that all delegates are appointed by their respective unions, from all parts of the country, and go to the convention absolutely untrammelled. They generally give expression of their views and cast their ballots according to their conscience, and it is exceedingly foolish for any person to allege they could be controlled by any officer of the congress."

WILL BUILD NEW CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Tenders Called for Building in North End to Accommodate 700 Pupils

The Catholic Board of School Commissioners has approved of plans for a new school to accommodate the English-speaking population of St. Michael's parish, and tenders for the contract are now being called for.

The proposed building will be situated on Clarke street between St. Viateur and Bernard streets, and will be modern in all respects, stated J. P. Labarre, director, secretary of the north district. Just now, he declared, classes are not being held in one building, but in stores on various nearby streets. The leases of the present quarters expire on May 1st, and it is hoped that by that time the new building will be available. If the end of April does not find it ready to receive the pupils, the board will be obliged to grant them a four months holiday. Under any circumstances, continued Mr. Labarre, the new school will be completed by September, 1921.

The building will be of brick, three stories high and 65 feet by 160 in area. Between 600 and 700 children will be accommodated, in twenty-four classes, which will include all grades up to the eighth. The Sisters of St. Ann will instruct the girls, while the male teachers will be the Presentation Brothers. Two good-sized yards, one for the boys and one for the girls, will be provided, and besides being fireproof, the new school will have the most modern arrangements for lighting and ventilation.

LAD SENTENCED TO REFORMATORY

A boy of 15 years of age was arraigned before Judge Choquet at the Juvenile Court this morning and sentenced to three years in the reformatory, sentence being remitted to two years, on a charge of vagrancy whilst under suspended sentence for the theft of some knives from Almy's.

The lad was found by the police in a freight car on the waterfront, and not being able to render an account of himself, was taken to the station. He has already appeared five times on different charges.

Notwithstanding the warning issued by Judge Choquet regarding any boys found trespassing on the railway tracks, about 10 or 12 boys appeared this morning on the charge of loitering on the C.P.R. tracks. It being the first offence of the majority of the lads the judge let them off with a warning, but four of the boys being recognized as old offenders were fined $1 each.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION CAUSED FIRE

An inquiry was held yesterday afternoon by Fire Commissioner Ritchie into the cause of the fire which occurred at the furniture and show-case factory of Joseph Clement, 190 Pie IX boulevard, Maisonneuve, last Tuesday evening. The conclusion was reached that spontaneous combustion was the only cause of the outbreak. It was stated that most of the employes smoked at their work, though there were signs and orders to the contrary but it was not thought that the blaze was due to a cigarette butt. The losses were estimated as being over $8,000 and the insurance was $2,000.

Mr. Meighen has not fixed any date, but later on will visit his birthplace.

TEAMSTER STRIKE IN CITY SPREADS

Two Hundred More Men Went Out This Morning

The extension of the strike of teamsters which has been threatening for over a week was realized this morning, when the teamsters of Meldrum Bros. Co. and Cunningham and Wells, numbering 200 men, went on strike. This was the result of a meeting last night, at which it was decided that unless the wages were raised to $27 per week, the men would strike. The strikers say that a considerable number of them have found work elsewhere at a better rate of remuneration than they were getting from these firms.

Messrs. Meldrum Bros. and Co., questioned on the subject, replied that they had no idea what the strike was about. The men, they stated, had not approached them in any way, but had simply quit work without warning.

Messrs. Cunningham and Wells, commission agents, also stated that they had no information regarding the strike beyond the fact that the men had failed to start work this morning.

FOREMAN'S DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

Crushed and Suffocated When Car Knocked Down Wall

A verdict of accidental death was given at the Coroner's Court this morning inquiring into the death of Arthur Auger, a night watchman employed by L. O. Grothe, Ltd., cigar box factory, who was killed late last Wednesday evening when a C.P.R. freight car struck the wall of the boiler room causing the wall to collapse and wrecking the boiler.

Auger was 59 years of age and resided at 637 De Fleurimont street. According to evidence given at the inquest this morning, a train of eight freight cars was being shunted from the C.P.R. tracks near Mile End station to the siding of the Western Flour Mills Company Limited, when six of the cars broke away and failed to stop at the block placed at the end of the rails. The front car smashed into the wall of the engine room of the Grothe factory tearing it down and forcing the boiler off its base, causing part of the ceiling to collapse. Fire broke out almost immediately afterwards, and the fire brigade was summoned. After extinguishing the blaze he started to search for the body among the debris and eventually it was found by Captain Nelson of the St. Hubert street fire station, in the middle of a heap of sawdust about five feet deep, inside the engine room. Dead had resulted from suffocation and a fractured skull.

It is estimated that the damage will amount to about $20,000, the building being practically demolished.

NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH OF BOY

Foreman Held on Manslaughter Charge, is Acquitted

Ernest Rheaume, of 1192 Wellington street, was acquitted this morning when he appeared before Judge Cusson to answer a charge of manslaughter in the case of the death of Romeo Charlebois, the twelve-year-old boy, living at 33 Le Caron street, who was killed in an elevator accident recently on the premises of which Rheaume is foreman.

In acquitting Rheaume Judge Cusson stated that, although the accused had undoubtedly committed an offence in employing a boy who was under age, the boy had been constantly warned not to use the elevator on which the fatality occurred, and therefore had been the cause of his own death.

WEATHER TURNED COOL SUDDENLY

Cool weather last night gave Montrealers a welcome sleep after the heat of the two preceding days and the heaviness of atmosphere which accompanied it. This morning early risers were shivering with the thermometer at 54 degrees, but the sun was rapidly bringing it in the vicinity of the seventies.

The change was brought about by a shift of the wind which veered from west to northwest and the shower of last night cleared the air of its moisture. Last year a similar cool spell was recorded at the McGill observatory and was greeted with relief after the excessive heat of the early month from which Montrealers have so far escaped this year.

This morning the barometer registers 60 inches indicating an unusual dryness in the atmosphere and a moderate northwest breeze is making more bearable the rays of the summer sun.

DENIES POSSESSION OF C.P.R. GOODS

John Henry Staples, of 3000 Jeanne Mance Street, appeared before Judge Leet in the Enquete Court this morning charged with being found in possession of goods which were the property of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Staples pleaded not guilty and was remanded for voluntary statement until July 22. M. S. McKinnon, special investigator employed by the C. P. R., stated that he had searched the accused's house and had found there goods belonging to the C. P. R. The goods, he stated, included a large number of boxes of matches with the C. P. R. stamp on them, napkins belonging to the C. P. R., and towels which were the property of the Royal Victoria Hospital.

FRENCH FETE CONTINUES.

Large crowds attended Dominion Park last night, the second evening of the French fete now being held there, and Capt. du Prey declared that so successful have been the first two days of the celebration that arrangements have been made with the managers of the park to extend the duration of the fete. A concert and fireworks will be the entertainment on Saturday.

FINED FOR LEAVING ABANDONED QUARRY IN UNGUARDED STATE

A judgment of considerable importance to citizens of Montreal was rendered in the Recorder's Court this morning, when Recorder Semple found the Ross Realty Company, Limited, guilty of having an abandoned quarry on property belonging to it, unguarded and unprotected, and imposed a fine of $50 and costs.

The prosecution was the result of the city's decision to take some definite action to protect the public from the dangers of numerous abandoned quarries which exist, unguarded, in various parts of Montreal. Many of these holes contain a considerable depth of water, in the vicinity of which young children play.

In the case in point, the quarry which was situated between Chabot and Bordeaux streets, measured 150 feet by 125 feet and was filled with water, the following being the depths at the edges: East side, 18 feet; north side, 14 feet; west side, 13 feet; south side, 16 feet. The depth is probably considerably greater in the centre.

In rendering his judgment this morning, Recorder Semple stated that, had the defendant been a person instead of a corporation, he would have given sentence of six months imprisonment, as the city had been endeavoring for a long time to protect the citizens against this danger. As defendant was a limited company, he imposed the maximum fine of $50 and costs.

The action was taken under Section 287, Subsection B of the Criminal Code, which provides that holes, excavations, etc., on abandoned property must be enclosed or guarded to prevent human beings from riding, walking or in other ways falling therein.

It is understood that further prosecutions will follow shortly. Nathan Gordon, K.C., City Prosecutor, represented the authorities.

RAW SUGAR COSTS MORE THAN REFINED

Sugar prices can scarcely fail to take a substantial rise within the next thirty days, according to local dealers, for Canadian prices at present are entirely out of line with both the raw sugar market and the prices in the United States. Raw sugar now costs more than Canadian refined sugar, which was produced from raw material purchased some time ago, and the result of the appreciable difference in American and Canadian prices is that Canada, since the removal of export restrictions, has been sending considerable quantities of sugar into the United States. Canadian refined sugar today sells at 21 cents a pound less 5 per cent to wholesalers, while the American refineries are getting from 22½ to 24 cents, less 2 per cent. Raw sugar is worth approximately 22 cents a pound in Canada. In view of these facts a number of refineries, though unwilling as yet to make a definite statement, have signified that their prices have to rise in a short time. Several state that they have not as yet made application for permission to raise prices, since the market has been somewhat uncertain, but that they cannot fail to do so in a short time should there be no great change for the better in the raw sugar market and in conditions in the United States.

TAMMANY HALL DELEGATES RETURN

The Tammany Hall delegates to the recent Democratic convention in San Francisco left for United States this morning from Bonaventure station. The entire delegation, over 100 strong, returned from Quebec, on the C.S.S. "Montreal" which docked at eight o'clock this morning. The party spent the next hour or two visiting the downtown financial district and embarked on the train for New York at ten o'clock.

The delegation, which this morning completed its trip through Canada from the western coast, was conducted by John A. Boone and included several prominent assembly district leaders of New York and American newspapermen. About forty women delegates were also in the party.

It was the original intention of the delegation to leave for the States on the thirteenth instant, but the itinerary was lengthened to permit the trip to Quebec.

THEFT CHARGE DISMISSED.

Jack Cooksley, accused of having stolen baggage checks and other articles from a guest at the Russel Hotel, was dismissed upon the charge today by Judge Leet.

WESTERN CANADA MOST PROSPEROUS

Rev. J. Chisholm, Says There is Urgent Demand for Workers

Rev. J. Chisholm, director of Protestant overseas immigration, who has been on a trip throughout the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan in the interests of his work, has returned to the city. Mr. Chisholm told The Star that he found that the people out West are very pleased with the type of man who has immigrated this year so far.

The demand for out-door and household workers there, he stated, is inexhaustible, and the need for this class has never been more urgent than at the present time.

Perhaps with the exception of the year 1915, there never has been such an outlook for an abundant harvest as this year, he claimed, although owing to the immense size of the country, there are localities here and there where the crops are very light, because of the scarcity of rain and hail storms.

Mr. Chisholm stated that the Westerners are jubilant over the appointment of Mr. Meighen to the Premiership. "Old time politicians are optimistic over the young man's prospects," said Mr. Chisholm, "whilst on the other hand the Westerners who side with the Liberal party are glad because of the high position assigned to Mr. Calder." The director of immigration pointed out that, although there are certain discontented elements "out West," the discontent is occasioned by disappointed ambitions.

He was impressed by the wonderful progress made in recent years by many of the cities and towns along the railway lines. In describing the state of prosperity which he found out West, Mr. Chisholm stated that he had occasion to visit the house of a farmer whose guest he had been some years ago, and that, observing four cars outside the house, he said: "You have a number of guests today." "Oh no," replied the farmer, catching the glance his guest threw at the autos; "those are all in the family. One belongs to me, one to each of my two sons, and the fourth to my eldest daughter."

In describing the agricultural possibilities of the country, Mr. Chisholm stated that the same farmer had told him that he had realized $2,000 from part of a section on which he never spent a dollar. The farmer, he said, explained this by telling him that he had lent the land, uncultivated, to another farmer to work, and, according to the Western custom in such cases, had received one-third of the profit the other man had made on it.

ARGENTINE IS NOW VERY PROSPEROUS

Senor Lagos Urges Closer Trade Relations Between Republic and Canada

That the Argentine Republic has many points in common with Canada is the opinion of Senor Jose Fidel Lagos, special representative of "La Prensa," Buenos Aires, in Europe and the United States, who is in Montreal for a few days. Wheat farming, in fact cereal farming of all kinds takes a foremost place in the country's production. Cattle raising is equally important. At present the Argentine is enormously prosperous.

There are many unexploited oil wells which promise much when the Government develops them. The many rivers provide incalculable power for industrial purposes.

The country has adopted an open immigration policy and has much to offer intending settlers. The principal language in use is Spanish but English is understood to a marked degree especially among the educated classes. The climate is temperate and equable in summer and in winter. Senor Lagos stated that within the memory of inhabitants who were 86 years old, snow had fallen only twice, once in 1918 and again this week.

That there is splendid opportunity for a closer raproachment with Canada is the opinion held by the Argentine representative. Trade relations could be increased with profit to both countries.

One example cited was that of the need of the South American republic for newsprint, which it now imports from the United States. "We could easily buy this from the Canadian mills," stated Senor Lagos.

Senor Lagos is completing an extending tour of Europe and North America with the object of making his country better known. He has spent some months in the United States where he met the chief men in industrial and political life. He will visit several Canadian pulp and paper mills as well as other industries during his stay in Montreal. He is a guest at the Windsor.

"PLATEAU" WILL BE NEXT EXCHANGE

Automatic System Will Not Be in Operation for Two Years

Thousands of new telephone numbers will be in operation on Sunday and in delivering the new books on Monday, the Bell Telephone Company announces, that orders have been given to their employees not to hand over a new directory until the old has been received from the owner of a telephone line. This is being done in order to do away with as many mistakes as possible since, in addition to the Melrose Exchange which will be in operation after midnight on Saturday, many party lines and new telephones have been installed. The company is urging upon its subscribers the necessity of consulting the new book before asking for a number.

"Melrose" is the second new exchange which has been opened this year, "Calumet" having preceded it in the spring, and it is hoped that a third will be put in operation in the early fall. This, the "Plateau" exchange, will include a number of lines from the Uptown, Main, East and St. Louis exchanges. It will not be installed under the automatic system, but in the manuel system in use in the city. The automatic system, it is stated, though at present very satisfactory in towns, with but one exchange, is more complicated in the case of a city the size of Montreal which has ten exchanges.

The system, however, will be installed in time when arrangements have been completed, though this will probably not be for another two years at least. It will at first supplement the manuel exchanges, afterwards gradually replacing them.

OVERSEAS MAIL

A mail for the United Kingdom will close on Friday, July 16, at midnight, to be forwarded by the S.S. Canada, which leaves here on July 17.

A mail for South Africa will be despatched on Sunday evening, July 18, by Government train to catch the S.S. New Brooklyn, which sails from Sydney, N.S., on July 20.

REVIEWS EVENTS TO PROMOTION OF EMPIRE STEEL CO.

President Gives Interesting Facts of Canada's Shipping Development

COAST TO COAST

Generous Gift to Dalhousie —Dominion-British Steel Contract Confirmed

HALIFAX, N.S., July 16.— R. W. Wolvin's address at the Steel luncheon yesterday, was in effect a review of his later business career and of the events leading up to the promotion of the British Empire Steel Corporation. He said in part:

"Up to the year, 1915, I was engaged in business in every province of the Dominion with the exception of British Columbia and Maritime Provinces, but the work we all undertook during the war broadened us and widened our fields of activity, and I undertook some work in British Columbia before I came to Nova Scotia. On my first trip to British Columbia, associated with some of the gentlemen who are here with me to-day, I closed a contract for the first nine auxiliary wooden schooners of about 25,000 tons deadweight that were built in that province. We increased the number and later the Imperial Munitions Board took over wooden ship construction in that province and built a large number of wooden steamships.

SHIPBUILDING NECESSITY.

"When C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine commenced upon the Government shipbuilding program, he realized the necessity of a very large modern ship yard in the Maritime Provinces, and rather insisted that Mr. W. Norcross and I should undertake the work. It was during these negotiations that I first visited Halifax, and at that time I had the pleasure of becoming very well acquainted with Premier G. H. Murray, and with D. McGillivray, formerly president of the Halifax Board of Trade, and I fully appreciate all that they did for us at that time. I want to thank them again for their efforts and to say that they have qualified on all that they undertook to do. Mr. Norcross and I decided upon what we thought was the best location for a shipyard, and the Halifax Shipyards is doing business in that location, building the largest ships that are built in Canada, and I believe is assured of permanency and of continuous operation.

NOVA SCOTIA POSSIBILITIES.

"After becoming interested in Halifax, I took much more serious interest in the possibilities of this section of the country. Mr. Ballantyne, with admirable foresight, had also provided for a plate mill to be built at Sydney. Some negotiations as to cancellation of this plate contract arose, and I considered it a very serious thing for the shipbuilding industry and for Nova Scotia if this should occur, and at that time took my first interest in Dominion Steel Corporation affairs.

"At a little later date I joined the Board of the Dominion Steel Corporation, and finally was asked by the directors to take the presidency of the company, and since that time I hope I have fulfilled my obligations, not only to our shareholders, but also to the province of Nova Scotia.

"As you realize, we have to-day held here a special meeting of the shareholders of our company, to confirm a contract entered into between the Dominion Steel Corporation and the British Empire Steel Corporation. You undoubtedly know that this means the consolidation of the operations of the Dominion Steel Corporation, Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, the Canada Steamships Lines, Halifax Shipyards and several other smaller companies. The result of the meeting to-day is a source of considerable satisfaction to me. I have been very strongly in favor of this action, but have not felt that I could say very much in support of the British Empire Steel Corporation until my shareholders had signified their approval. This has all been accomplished to-day, and representing as I do the shareholders of the Dominion Steel Corporation, who will shortly be shareholders of the British Empire Steel Corporation, I want you to know that we are putting under way what will be the largest industrial enterprise in Canada.

N. S. GAVE ABLE SUPPORT.

"I came to Halifax today realizing that Halifax is friendly towards the British Empire Steel Corporation, and that the citizens appreciate that the success of this company means very much indeed to the province of Nova Scotia. The Government of the province has facilitated matters in every way, and I feel certain of their co-operation and the moral support of the people of Nova Scotia. With this we have no anxiety as to the future of the new company.

"The British Empire Steel Corporation will possess the largest individual holdings of iron ore and coal of any company in the world. To my mind its properties are best situated for the cheap manufacture of steel products and are most advantageously located for world trade. In these days of railroad difficulties and congestion, our situation is such that for export trade we need place no dependence whatever upon railroad service, and with a water outlet for our coal, our miners are able to work every day in the week if they will, instead of being idle on account of shortage of cars or other similar difficulties.

STEEL AND COAL INDUSTRY.

"The steel and coal industry of Nova Scotia has had a varied experience. Undoubtedly the men who first undertook this work were men of vision, but I do not feel that everything has been accomplished that should have been done with these wonderful natural resources. The companies have always found it difficult to get capital. They have also depended upon government assistance and upon domestic trade, but the situation in the world has changed, and our industry is now what its new name will imply—an Empire proposition and a world proposition. Our plans include the bringing into the consolidated companies of twenty-five million dollars of new money, to be spent upon the development of our properties, and with this money we hope to get at least part of our plants into a position where the cost of production will be such as to compete with any other plant in the world.

MONTREAL'S BROAD VIEW.

"In Toronto business is largely operated on the banker and trust company idea. Montreal operates in a broader field, but when you get to the Maritime Provinces, one finds the trader who is in touch with West Indian business and foreign trade, and who has a different outlook. We are naming our new company the British Empire Steel Corporation. We hope to give it the world vision such as has made Great Britain. We will have the necessary money and I expect we will have sufficient vision and proper British enterprise and nerve to go into the world's markets and obtain sufficient profitable business for all our plants. Let me say here that in my judgment the possibilities of the corporation are unlimited.

"Let me refer for a moment to a matter which I know is very near to every one present—Dalhousie University. I have watched with considerable interest the efforts made by Dalhousie to create a fund for the enlargement of its activities. Throughout the Dominion we fully appreciate what Dalhousie has done for the entire country—we find its graduates in every part of Canada.

GIFT TO DALHOUSIE.

"The British Empire Steel Corporation has not been in business long enough to present the university with funds on account of what it has done in the past, but we feel certain that the plans underway will bring wonderful results and that any subscription at this time will be well repaid year after year. After consultation with Mr. D. H. McDougall and J. W. Norcross, who are presidents of two of the large companies going into the British Empire Steel Corporation, I will take the responsibility of announcing that a subscription will be given by the British Empire Steel Corporation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars to Dalhousie University under an arrangement to be agreed upon between the University and ourselves as to its use, as we have in mind definitely providing for professorships in research work in connection with the natural resources of the Province of Nova Scotia."

SIR CLIFFORD SIFTON'S VIEWS.

The directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation who attended the meeting of the shareholders here today left last night for Sydney to inspect the corporation's plants. Before departing president Roy M. Wolvin said that this was the largest representation of the directorate that had ever visited the plant at one time.

At the Board of Trade luncheon to the directors yesterday, an important address was delivered by Hon. Clifford Sifton.

Sir Clifford said that the reason for the merger was that by association of organizations experienced in steel trade from Great Britain we would acquire connections abroad and advantages of experience and knowledge of foreign trade which will be of immense value. Substantial economies can be effected in mining of coal by combination in operation of the two companies while there will be furnished the possibility of a much needed co-operation between the manufacturer and transportation. Nothing has been taken in which is not desirable or will not be profitable. It is not a stock jobbing proposition. It is a combination of businesses necessary to each other. It will be a well rounded, well connected and symmetrical enterprise.

Speaking of the future of the steel industry in Nova Scotia, Sir Clifford stated that he had reached the firm conclusion that the combination with its enormous supplies of iron ore and coal most advantageously situated at tidewater is in a position to compete successfully with any adversary. The people of Nova Scotia have common interest in the prosperity of their enterprise and it should be the efforts of everyone to press upon the employees of companies and wage earners that their livelihood depends upon the success of companies and every effort should be made to induce the employees to feel that their interests lie in loyal co-operation with the management.

Speaking in the light of long experience in Canadian business and long study of commercial relations of Canada with other countries, Sir Clifford said that the most optimistic conclusion is the only one that can be formed with regard to the future development of the companies' business. "There is literally no limit," he said, "to the possibilities of the enterprise. No company is more favorably situated, no one company is better supplied with raw material and we are satisfied no company is under better management than those included in the combination. The future therefore is bright and there seems no reason whatever why the expansion which would take place should not be of a phenomenal character. The arrangements which are being consummated at the present time undoubtedly mark an era in Canadian commercial life and there is every reason to feel satisfied with the result."

NO CONFIRMATION OF SOVIET REPLY

So British Premier Says—Reported Wrangel Refuses to Withdraw

SOVIET REQUEST

Poles are Reported to Have Re-occupied Dubno

SPA, Belgium, July 16. — Premier Lloyd George said last night that he had no confirmation of the report that the Russian Soviet had replied to his proposals for an armistice with Poland.

WRANGEL DECLINES TO WITHDRAW.

LONDON, July 16. — The London Times hears that General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader on the southern Russian front, has declined the British proposal that he withdraw to the Crimea in connection with the projected armistice with the Bolsheviki.

A despatch to the London Times from Spa says it is reported there that the Russian Soviet Government has accepted Premier Lloyd George's armistice proposal, but wants the Peace Conference with the Poles held at Brest-Litovsk.

POLES RE-OCCUPY DUBNO.

WARSAW, July 16. — The Poles have re-occupied Dubno, in Volhynia, after hard fighting, and the retreating Bolsheviki are being bombed by Polish airplanes, says an official communication issued today.

Otherwise there were no important modifications in the situation in Polesia and Volhynia today. Polish armies are holding the line at Zbrecz and Stkr to protect access to Lemberg and Brest-Litovsk, the communication adds.

Enemy attacks in the regions of Kamfest and Satahow, in Podolia, and against Dubno in Volhynia, as well as against the advance positions of Ptycz and Ubort, were repelled with heavy losses. The Poles captured important booty. Most desperate fighting continues north and east of Vilna, where the population is taking an active part in the defence of the city, says the communication.

WOMEN DEFENDING VILNA.

Women soldiers have taken up positions for the defence of Vilna. They have been assigned to an eight-mile front. They are under the command of Madame Goercz, who fought with General Pilsudski against the Russians, and who also operated last year with the women during the siege of Lemberg.

Commander Goercz is 26 years of age. She contends that women can hold their own alongside the men, even in the front line. Mme. Goercz has about one thousand women under her command. Many of them are strong women of the factory type, who are eager for excitement and adventure.

The woman commander is in charge of all her own transport system and rolling kitchens, and all fighting equipment except artillery.

SAYS REDS OCCUPY VILNA.

LONDON, July 17.—The Bolsheviki occupied Vilna Wednesday afternoon without opposition, according to a despatch to the London Times from Kovno.

The despatch adds that Lithuanian and Bolsheviki troops jointly hold Landuarovo, ten miles west of Vilna, and are negotiating for the future disposition of the town, which the Bolshevik probably will transfer to the Lithuanians.

ECREMENT TO SEND FOR CREDENTIALS

Deportation Proceedings Postponed for One Week

NEW YORK, July 16.—Deportation proceedings against Arthur Ecrement, former member of the Canadian Parliament, who is alleged to have entered the United States from Canada without complying with the immigration regulations, were postponed yesterday for one week in order that he may send to Montreal for his "credentials."

Ecrement told the immigration court that he had been inspected and passed by United States officials, and that his passport, which he said had been vised by the United States representative in Canada, was now in possession of his attorney in Montreal.

The bond of $10,000 under which Ecrement has been at liberty, was revoked. He is held at Ellis Island without bail.

A writ of habeas corpus in Ecrement's behalf was obtained in federal court today by Ecrement's counsel, Eugene F. McGee.

McGee, in his application, asked Ecrement's release on the ground that his detention and deportation are illegal.

SUDBURY MINER IS KILLED IN BLAST

SUDBURY, Ont., July 16.—Wasyl Miniw, a miner, was instantly killed, and Kadey Rozyiski, a companion, narrowly escaped death in an explosion at the Sellwood Mine here. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death. Both men were Austrians.

N.S. MILL OWNER KILLED BY TRAIN

S. Sutherland Received Fatal Injuries When Auto Struck

TRURO, N.S., July 16.—(Star Special.—A shocking fatality occurred at Brookfield yesterday afternoon, when Stanley Sutherland of that place received injuries from which he died an hour later. Mr. Sutherland, who was about thirty-five years of age, and a well-known mill-owner, was crossing the railway track at Brookfield station in an automobile, when the car was struck by the Halifax bound Maritime express. The locomotive hit the rear wheel of the automobile on the off side and smashed the machine to pieces. Mr. Sutherland, who was alone in the car, was thrown some distance, and so badly injured that he died an hour afterward.

In his immediate family he is survived by a wife and five small children. Mrs. Sutherland, who was formerly Miss Flo Clarke, is a sister of the late Abner Clarke, who died a few weeks ago as the result of an accident at Shubenacadie station, when one of his legs was cut off by a train. Other relatives are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Sutherland, of Brookfield, two brothers, Lyman Sutherland, of the Truro Market, Ltd., Truro; George Sutherland, of Forest Glen, and three sisters, Mrs. L. A. Ryan, Truro, Mrs. W. I. Dodge, Truro, and Mrs. Allan Wright, Forest Glen.

Russian Coal Miner Earns $602.67 for One Month's Work

SOMERSET, Pa., July 16. — Jeo. Witoski, a Russian Pole, has broken all existing records for earnings for a coal miner. During the month of June he earned $602.67, working an average of 8½ hours a day.

Frank Flynn started after the record with $264 for the first two weeks in the month, but when it was announced that Wiloski's earnings had been $329.04, he was an easy leader.

WILL IN WIFE'S FAVOR UPHELD

Mr. Justice Lane handed down judgment in the Practice Court yesterday maintaining the petition of Dame Florina Corbeil, for the probation of the holograph will of her husband, Edmond Robin, who died at the Town of St. Michel on Feb. 3, 1919. By the judgment, the will and codicil were ordered registered at the Tutelle office of the Superior Court.

By this will, which was a third one made by the deceased, Edmond Robin, who was then 71 years of age, left to his 21-year-old wife, the petitioner in the present instance, $3,000 in cash a house and its contents of furniture, etc. A previous will of the deceased, dated Jan. 19, 1919, was successfully contested by the seven children by a first marriage of the testator. The last will, however, filed by the petitioner, is decreed by the court as being authentic, legal and valid and so ordered to appear in the court's records.

J. W. Jalbert appeared for the petitioner; and Thibaudeau Rinfret, K.C., for the seven children of the testator.

CADET INSPECTION WAS SUCCESSFUL

Lt.-Col. R. O. Alexander, D.S.O., representing the G.O.C., and Lt.-Col. S. H. Hill, officer in charge of cadet work for the M.D. 4, inspected a parade of the Highland Cadet Battalion on the Champ de Mars last night.

The cadets, under Majors Alec M. Dewar, M.C., and Jas. Rose, went through platoon, company and battalion drill, and, with their pipe band in the lead, marched past Lt.-Col. Alexander, who took the salute.

After the parade the inspecting officer complimented the officers and men on their work. Three cheers for the King were called for by the General's representative and responded to justly.

CLAIM CONVICTION WAS ILLEGAL

In the Practice Court yesterday Mr. Justice Surveyer ordered a writ to be issued, returnable within the statutory delay of six days, on a petition presented by Mercier and Sullivan on behalf of the Roma Commercial Club, 67 Osborne street, against the Court of the Sessions of the Peace and L. H. Boisseau and J. T. Finnie, collectors of the provincial revenue, called in the case.

The petitioners were recently condemned in the Court of Special Sessions for an infraction of the prohibition law. They allege that their trial and conviction were illegal and ask that the judgment against them be quashed.

CLAIM GRANDSON DETAINED.

At the request of Dan McAvoy, K.C., Mr. Justice Surveyer in the Practice Court yesterday ordered the writ to issue returnable on July 19, on the petition of Felix Leblanc for a writ of habeas corpus directed against Dame Rosanne Charbonneau, widow of Alex. Leblanc, for the possession of Felix Leblanc, the petitioner's grandson, whom he alleges is being illegally detained by the respondent.

LOCAL OLYMPIC CANDIDATE HURT--HODGSON FOR ANTWERP

CAPTAIN A. MARANDA INJURES HIS CHEST WHILE POLE VAULTING

Local Police Athlete Had Pole Snap Under Him During Practice This Morning—Cream of Canada's Track and Field Stars Gathering

W. R. KENNEDY

McGill star for the Olympic finals tomorrow.

Captain A. Maranda, of the Montreal Police Athletic Association, the well known all-round athlete who is to compete in the Olympic finals at the M. A. A. A. grounds tomorrow received a nasty fall there this morning while practising pole vaulting, a pole snapping during one of his attemps. At the time of the accident he was about 9 feet in the air and he fell on the back of his neck and his body hinged over so that his knees came down on his face. Fortunately no bones were broken but he severely strained his chest and it is possible that this may effect his performance in the tests tomorrow.

About a dozen other aspirants for the honors and trip to Antwerp were also seen in action including a number of the local M. P. A. A., the Winnipeg track men and Alex. Ponton of Toronto. The Maritime contingent have wired a belated entry for the 1500 to 5000 metres events in Harold Lapierre. They were scheduled to arrive in Montreal at noon on the Halifax train. Coach Walter Knox will not arrive until tomorrow morning and with him will be the Ontario and Vancouver athletes who have been putting on the finishing touches in the Queen City. Some criticism has been expressed about the wisdom of the Ontario athletes travelling all night on the train and then competing tomorrow. It is felt in some circles that they will not be able to do themselves justice and that Knox should be on hand to help the boys now at the track in training.

The track is in splendid shape and is capable of producing fast time. Experts who have seen it declare that it is by far the best in Canada and the M. A. A. A. management have put it in excellent condition. Everything is in readiness for the big meet and R. E. Melville of the Olympic committee believes that the meet will be one of the outstanding features of Canadian athletics for several years to come. Undoubtedly the cream of Canada's athletes will be present. This galaxy of athletic stars has been combed from all parts of the Dominion. Those already present certainly are in grand condition with a minimum of flesh and a maximum of muscle worked out to a fine point so that "in the pink" is the only way to describe them.

Judging from the form they displayed in yesterday's workout, the Manitoba contingent promise to give a good account of themselves tomorrow. Billy Miller, the fleet-footed sprinter was the particular fancy of the railbirds, who were much impressed with his pretty style of running. The boys did not extend themselves very much but demonstrated that they at least "have the goods." They are all in the pink of condition, thanks to Trainer Tommy Cochrane. The Manitobans are highly pleased with Montreal, and are particularly delighted with the spacious athletic grounds, the like of which they have seldom seen before.

Earl J. Thomson, holder of the world's hurdle record and a possible representative for Canada in the Olympic games, told Norton H. Crow, secretary of the A.A.U. of C., and James Merrick, permanent chairman of the Olympic committee, yesterday, that he would leave for Montreal tonight to compete in the final trials to-morrow. He would not say, however, whether or not he would go to Antwerp, but, judging from his conversation, he will make the trip. The Ontario contingent of athletes leave tonight for Montreal over the C.P.R. (accompanied by a number of amateur union officials.

Owing to the rain only one item was completed at the M.A.A.A. handicaps last night, the hundred yards race. This was won by H. Speir from the four yard mark. Second place fell to W. S. Page, who also received the allowance of four yards. N. Fuller, five yards, was third. Murphy and Johnston, running from scratch, were well up but could not overcome the handicaps. The time was 10 3-5 seconds.

AMATEUR LACROSSE ON NATIONAL GROUNDS

Montreal and National meet on Saturday next on National Grounds and both sides are determined to win, in consequence a most interesting and exciting match is sure to be staged. Both teams will put in their final practices tonight. Each club has strengthened their team. Lacrosse lovers should see this struggle.

WATCHING THE SCORE-BOARD

Yesterday's hero—Babe Ruth. The swat king equalled his 1919 record by hitting a home run in the 11th inning with two on, enabling the Yanks to beat the Browns, 13 to 10.

Hitting of Speaker and Chapman enabled the Indians to beat the Athletics, 8 to 1 in a game stopped in the seventh inning by rain.

Two runs in the ninth inning enabled the Phillies to come from behind and beat the Reds, 7 to 5.

Lee, a Pirate pinch-hitter, singled in the ninth inning and drove in the run that beat the Braves, 9 to 8.

The Dodgers made it eighteen wins out of the last twenty starts by beating Jim Vaughn, and the Cubs.

Walkerville Handicap Was Won by Estero

WINDSOR July 16. — George M. Hendrie's Estero, ridden by Jockey Willis, accounted for the Walkerville handicap, at six furlongs, for three year olds and upward, which served as the "piece de resistance" of the seven days' card at the Windsor Jockey Club. Louise V. and Charley Leydecker divided the remainder of the $2,000 purse.

Louise V. set the pace to the eighth pole, where Estero moved up with a determined challenge and gradually drew away. The winner swerved in front of Louise V., causing Butwell to ease up his mount. The interference was not harmful, inasmuch as Louise V. was well beaten. Charley Leydecker closed stoutly in hard going after beng badly outrun. Commodore, the only other starter, although nine years old, was facing the starter in a race for the first time. He could not untrack himself.

RUTH TELLS OF 29TH CIRCUIT CLOUT HE MADE

NEW YORK, July 16. (By Babe Ruth, Copyright 1920 by the United News.)—It is gratifying to make a homerun count for something. Here we were, tied up with the Browns in the eleventh inning of a weird game at the Polo grounds. There were two men on bases, and a rattling good opportunity. I have missed some of them lately, and that is why I was particularly anxious to put it over.

Along came Burwell's fast, high ball, and out it travelled to the grandstand.

There were then two reasons why I had a right to feel pleased. In the first place it won the game. In the second place, I had at last reached the top of the last year's record, by bagging my twenty-ninth for the season.

Inasmuch as the season is only part through, there isn't any danger of that record's not going to smash soon.

CRICKET

LONDON, July 16. — Northamptonshire scored only 57 and 40 at Northampton against Yorkshire, and Yorkshire won by an inning and 173 runs. Waddington, in the second innings, took 7 wickets for 13 runs, including the hat trick, and for the whole match had the splendid figures of 13 wickets for 48 runs.

GRAND TRUNK AND C.P.R. MEET IN SOCCER AGAIN

TOMORROW'S SOCCER GAMES.

First Division.

Calvin vs. Can. Vickers.
Great War Vets vs. Locos.
Royal Highlanders vs. Lyalls.
C.P.R. vs. Grand Trunks.
Sons of Scotland vs. Verdun City.

Second Division.

M.A.A.A. vs. Sons of England.
Rosemount vs. St. Paul Town.
Beloeil vs. Woodland Park.
Nomads vs. Rosemount Rovers.
Emard vs. Dominion Bridge.

Third Division.

Robins vs. G.T.R. Jrs.
Printers vs. Aylwin.
Can. Packing vs. Greenshields.
Tetreaultville vs. Old Country.
Gren. Guards vs. Corinthians.
Blue Bonnets vs. 5th C.M.R.

The league grind in soccer circles will be continued tomorrow, with the usual 16 games. The event of the afternoon is C.P.R. vs. Grand Trunks, at Angus. It requires few words to tell what this affair means, owing to recent happenings. Money should flow into C.P.R.'s treasury, for no east-ender can pass up such a tit-bit.

The league leaders, Sons of Scotland, meet Verdun City at the Point, and if Verdun can maintain the form shown against Trunks last Tuesday, then the Sons can expect a warm time. Another good gate should fall to the Scots, but on no account must they expect anything easy, for Verdun now look like having a team.

Royal Highlanders are at home to Lyalls, or in other words, "all at home," for the match takes place on Lyalls' ground. Highlanders must beware, as Lyalls' new team, and it fails to few clubs to replace a complete outfit in the middle of the season, are going to be dangerous. This match should prove very entertaining.

Calvin and Vickers will fight it out on Verdun's ground, Regina Park, and it will be a good fight, too. Vickers are close up to Sons of Scotland, and have in the last few weeks improved out of all recognition. In fact, Vickers are equal to any team in the city. Of course, Calvins are aware of all this, and will set their house to meet circumstances. Indications point to Calvin needing all their strength for victory.

At Alexandra Park, Great War Veterans have Locos as visitors, and be it said, Locos must, after last Saturday's display, be treated with every respect. Assuming the Veterans should win, they have nothing to throw away.

After the Olympic trials M.A.A.A. play Sons of England, and this is the feature game of the Second Division. Considering the number of players signed on, the M.A.A.A. have not so far proved very successful, but they are well in the running. Another shuffle is likely, which may be all for the good, at least they hope so. Sons of England will give them a good game, but M.A.A.A. should take the points.

Rosemount and St. Paul Town is another good fixture. Last Saturday the Town elevan could only draw with Rosemount Rovers, so it does not look promising for them tomorrow, considering the form Rosemount are now displaying. Anyway, we shall see.

Woodland Park go to Beloeil; and Nomads are at home to Rosemount Rovers.

The Third Division games are well distributed, which is to say the leaders do not clash. There may be some surprises, so high and low must be on deck.

The First Division last evening suspended Paddy Gaffney for two weeks for striking a Vickers' player, and severely censured Archie Thompson, of War Vets, for talking to the referee.

Vedun City team against Sons of Scotland tomorrow will be selected from the following: Bell, N. Hill, W. Tranter, C. Tranter, Edwards, Taylor, Berry, H. Hill, Kirby, Lord, Mawhinney, Pearson, Harrowing, Reid and Shand. The above to meet at R. R. Y. M. C. A. at 2.30 sharp.

The following team has been chosen to represent the Printers against Aylwin on Saturday on Wellington grounds: Oliphant, Wakelam, Holmes, Linnington, Meigan, Hazel, Stephens, Carter, J. Davies, Hinckley and T. Davies. Reserves: F. Bennet, Dalziel, McIlveen, Seigel and Cartwright. Players to be on the grounds by 3 p.m.

The team to represent the Grenadier Guards in their game against Corinthians at Roxboro on Saturday, July 17th, will be picked from the following: Baillie, Rogers, Phillips, Young, Nicholson, Blault, Moxham, Parkinson, Hayes, Holton, Donachey, Pepler, Carruthers, Locke, Orr, Hudspith and Burnett.

A train will leave the Tunnel Terminal Station, C.N.R., at 3 p.m. on the date mentioned, to convey the two teams, their friends and supporters to the grounds, returning will reach the city at 7.10 p.m.

Wednesday, July 21st, the Guards will play the Rosemount Rovers on Rovers ground at 14th Ave. Kick-off 7 p.m.

The following players are picked to represent Emard against Dominion Bridge Saturday, July 17th; Davis, goal; Cater and Scales, backs; Fogg, Birtwistle and Owen, halves; Weldon, Richardson, right; Alf. Lloyd, centre; Hirst and Austin Lloyd, left. Reserves; Southern, Dawe and Turner. Players meet at 339 Hamilton street at 2.45 p.m.

The following men will represent Greenfield Park against St. Lambert Annex on Saturday, July 17th at Greenfield Park: Murphy, J. Templeton, R. Brereton, G. Brereton, T. Murray, W. Farrar, T. Meech, G. Baxter, A. Ball, W. Garfoot, Smith. Reserves: Belair, Mercer, Murray.

A special meeting of the Third Division will be held to-morrow evening in the Centre) Y.M.C.A. to discuss Referee L. H. Christie's report against player Lindsay of Canadian Packing. One delegate from each club will attend at 8 o'clock.

WINDMILL POINT SHIELD RACE SAT'Y

The annual race for the Windmill Point Shield will be sailed by the yachts of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club next Saturday.

The shield was presented by the Windmill Point Fish, Fur and Game Club to be raced for annually by yachts enrolled in the Yacht Club squadron. The race is sailed under a handicap basis and to judge from the turnout last Saturday at the Baie d'Urfe Beaurepaire Regatta and the closeness of the results, the competition should be very keen especially as under the average system of handicap now in use, every boat has an equal chance to have her name engraved on the shield.

This race is looked forward to by yacht club members each year very much as it generally brings the biggest fleet of the season out, and a man feels that he is not only racing the five or six boats of his own class, but all the others, and this especially appeals to the skipper of the small boats, as it gives him a chance for a whack at his larger rival whom he has probably not been able to get near all season under ordinary sailing conditions.

Whoever wins the shield, the spectators will watch with interest the race between the two big yachts, Thorella IV, Wm. C. Finley, sailed by C. H. Routh, and Osiris II, Sea Scouts, sailed by Leslie R. Thomson, as they are at present equal on the season's racing.

The start will be made from the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club pier at Dorval at 3.30 p.m. and after the firing of the starting guns the club launch will follow the boats up the lake to the finish line. Members and their friends who are interested in the sailing will thus be afforded an opportunity of watching the racing boats, and spending a pleasant afternoon on the lake.

Devonshire Track Case Decision Held Over

WINDSOR, Ont., July 16.—Magistrate Robert Miers yesterday heard the case of the Crown vs. the Western Racing Association, for running a common betting house on the Devonshire track last week. The decision was held over until a later date.

Detective Inspector Wm. P. Greer testified having visited the track and having bought $2 mutual tickets on three different horses, but lost on all three. Detective Hannah bet on three horses and picked three winners.

Halu Scored Easy Victory in the Mud

EMPIRE CITY, N.Y., July 16. — George W. Loft's Halu, a brown son of King James, found himself very much at home on the muddy track that prevailed at Empire City yesterday fairly romped off with the Frivolity Stakes, a five and a half furlong dash for two year olds, which was the feature event on the programme. He easily disposed of a small field, leading home Eye Opener by four lengths, with Hard Guess third and Alcatraz, the only other starter, a bad last.

KEMPTON PARK OPENS TOMORROW

Entries closed this morning for the opening card of the Kempton Park meeting which commences tomorrow afternoon, and there is a large entry list for the inaugural handicap, a six furlong race for three-year-olds and under.

The following have entered:—Delancey 100, Broom Peddler 118, Harry M. Stevens 117, Nepperhan 103, Phedoden 105, Walter Mack 110, Resist 110, Helen Atkin 103, Sentimental 111, Indian Chant 114, Yorkville 104, Richard V. 109, Thirteen 101, King Neptune 101, Viva Cuba 101, Leta 98, My Grace 112, Polly 102, July Fly 95, Little Maudie 102, Flying Frog 95, Concha 103, Servillian 100, Transient Hessian 101, Capers 98, Miss Sweep 97, Christie Holters 102, S. C. Keener 107, Brizz 108, Lobelia 108, White Crown 97, Back Bay 123, Sand River 123, Mumbo Jumbo 119, The Desert 111, Diadi 125, Kuklux 102, Redstart 107, Bonstelle 98, First Consul 96, Happy Go Lucky 100, Lucky Pearl 100, Dainty Lady 101.

The track at Laprairie has been practically rebuilt and redressed. It is a half mile course with a six furlong chute, which will give a long run to the first turn in all sprint events. The train for the horsemen will leave Bonaventure Station each morning at 8.25, daylight saving time, and the race trains will leave at 1.10 and 1.35, daylight saving time, each day. Three carloads of horses arrived yesterday, two from Fort Erie and one from Kentucky.

"Little Boy" Returned to Owner at Detroit

OTTAWA, July 16.—Pending action in the proceedings of W. E. Bamford, of Detroit, against the Connaught Park Jockey Club, and Fred. M. Tourneaux, collector of customs for the port of Ontario, Little Boy, the horse which recently figured in a memorable case at the local race track, goes back to Detroit. In the Hull Superior Court yesterday, Judge McDougall gave his decision in the matter of the motion of J. W. St. Marie and Lucien Cannon, M.P., giving temporary possession of the racer to the plaintiff.

Mr. Cannon suggested that Little Boy be turned over to Mr. Bamford on the payment of his maintenance costs incurred by the jockey club.

Judge McDougall allowed this, requesting, however, a security bond of $1,500 that the thoroughbred would be returned as evidence when required.

Favorite Captured Fort Miami Stake

TOLEDO, July 16. — Peter Coley, the favorite on account of his victory at North Randall last week, won the Fort Miami $3,000 stake for 2.08 trotters, the feature of yesterday's Grand Circuit racing programme. Single G. won the free-for-all pace, the other feature of the day, after Grace Direct had stepped in and taken the second heat.

"CHEER UP" SAYS HEPBURN, HEAD OF LOCAL SOCCER

The following manifesto, included in a letter to the Sporting Editor, has been issued by the P.Q.F.A. president, who, like the sensible man he is, realizes that the Grand Trunk-C.P.R. dispute should be very simple of adjustment by the Dominion Football Council, though apparently interested parties, for ulterior motives, are trying to befog the issue:

Sporting Editor, Montreal Star.

Dear Sir,—In the interest of the football public I trust that you will find space enough to insert the following message:

Despite the alarming statements regarding the P.Q.F.A. position in the Interprovincial (Connaught Cup) ties, the P.Q.F.A. will be represented. To gain this end I shall call upon the Council to go the limit to bring about that which we are justly entitled to, that is, the right of representation.

Although our ray of sunshine has been darkened, I have courage enough to say that not only shall we be represented, but what we have we hold, and that the blue ribbon of Canadian football shall (if we can keep it) again find a resting place in Montreal. Remember, nine-tenths of wisdom consists of being wise in time.

Fearing not the decision of the D. F.A., I have the honor to be,

NEIL HEPBURN,
President P.Q.F.A.

NORTON H. CROW

Secretary Canada Amateur Athletic Union, who will be here to see the Olympic finals tomorrow.

DELORIMIER MEETING CLOSES SUCCESSFULLY

Because a horse could not be identified the National Jockey Club stewards scratched the entry yesterday at Delorimier Park. At first this action appeared rather drastic, but in all fairness to both the officials and public it was the only safe course to pursue, more especially following as it does on the heels of the now famous "Little Boy" incident at Ottawa.

The horse affected was Back Rock, a four-year-old gelding, which has been bred and trained by P. Heigel, veteran horseman from the Southern States. A few years ago he bought a mare called Miss Nugent and later secured Great Jubilee, and bred Back Rock from the mare with Great Jubilee as his sire. Hoping that there would again be racing in Mexico, he retained the colt, but finally seeing the futility of these hopes, he brought his horse to Canada and entered him for his first start. However, he is well known among the horsemen and will probably have everything straightened out in the next few days. The officials were very loath to have to take the action they did, but felt that it was not worth the risk, especially as the meeting had been a great success up to that point, and as it was the last day nothing should be left undone to mar it.

The meeting, therefore, came to a successful close when Trentino repeated by coming through with a great rush and nosing out Pierrot, who was much favored. Red Post was another repeater when Jockey J. Smith brought him home in the second race, outgaming Britain's Ally in the final drive, while Galopin got up in time to be third.

The talent got a huge surprise in the third race, when Clear Lake left

HODGSON LIKELY TO GO TO THE OLYMPIC GAMES ONCE MORE

Did Not Compete Second Day of Swimming Finals But Showed Up Well Enough First Day —Other Likely Selection Including Vernot.

It seems pretty well settled in the minds of those who are supposed to know, although it is not announced officially, that George Hodgson, the last Canadian Olympic swimming champion, is slated again for the Canadian team, and will be one of the swimmers to go to Antwerp.

This may seem a bit strange to those who remember how he failed to enter the second day's competition of the St. Helen's Island Olympic finals, but it is pointed out that though Vernot beat him the first day, he made such a fine showing upon that occasion that without any further tryouts, the committee will be quite justified in sending him.

The choice, however, does not lie with the executive of the Amateur Swimming Association of Canada, but with the Canadian Olympic committee, the first named committee having recommended all those who received first place in the finals as well as those who made good times as seconds.

A man who is supposed to be well posted told The Star that Vernot, Hodgson, Gooday and Bourne are most likely to go as from this combination a relay team could be built up and each man could also enter several individual races and thereby increase Canada's chances at the Olympaid.

He seemed to think that second choices would be Clayton Bourne, of the M.A.A.A., and Richard H. Flint, the Toronto diver.

R. L. HAMILTON

little doubt as to who was the best sprinter in the field of seven that faced the starter. He won decisively on his last start at Maisonneuve, but this victory was overlooked with such fast travellers as Col. Murphy, Capers and the H. E. Crist entry, Walter Mack and Phedoden, entered. Phedoden finished second and Capers third, but Col. Murphy quit badly and was bleeding profusely from the nostrils when pulled up. Undoubtedly he needs a good rest before he races again. He bled slightly after his last race also.

This probably means that the match race between Col. Murphy and Capers for $500 a side, which was to have been run on Monday morning at Delorimier Park over a distance of three-eighths of a mile is off or at least postponed. This match was the result of an argument as to which horse had the faster early speed, J. J. Feeney's five-year-old mare, Capers, or B. Mack's three-year-old gelding, Col. Murphy. If yesterday's race was any criterion, Capers is much the better, for at the three-eights pole he was far in front of the Colonel, but of course a horse bleeding as he was should not have been running. In the match race Capers drew the pole position and was to carry 114 pounds as against Col. Murphy's 107.

The distance event of the card, one and one-sixteenth miles, for four-year-olds and up, saw Jockey Gibson rate Duke Ruff along in the third position until the back stretch of the last time around and then move up to beat out White Crown, who had made all the running from the start. The much favored Guy was outside the money in the sixth, Betterton winning all the way, with thrills second and Stilly Night third. The results.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 16.—Maintaining the aggressive throughout, Chuck Wiggins, of Indianapolis, was conceded to have won by a clear margin in the opinion of newspaper critics in a 10-round no-decision contest with Gumboat Smith of New York last night. Smith weighed 189 pounds and Wiggins 172.

Royal Highlanders Meet Artillerymen at Baseball

Westmount failing to turn out, the Royal Highlanders won by default last evening in the City and District Twilight Baseball League. However, they had made the journey and having with them fourteen men to put in the field, the Kilties fixed up a good practice game.

As the Highlanders now consider themselves "coming on strongly," their League match with the 60th Field Battery on the National ground next Wednesday evening should prove an interesting one. Play will commence at 6.15 p.m. In D. Scares they calculate that they possess a really first class base ball player.

DENVER, Colo., July 16. — Harry Schumen of Denver and Mel Coogan of Brooklyn, lightweights, fought 12 rounds to a draw here last night.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

COMPARISONS.

I've been to dinners, many a night,
Where, to my prudish way of thinking,
The diners to my left and right
Did altogether too much drinking.
I laughed and listened quite a lot.
My mirth with theirs was often mingled;
And yet I thought that I did not Get jingled.

The anecdotes the speakers told
I heard with honest admiration;
Their jokes, though generally old,
Received my hearty approbation.
My risibilities, I knew,
Were stirred to function somewhat quicker,
But never did I lay this to
The liquor.

But now, when I go out to dine,
Although there still is cheerful chatter,
Without the artful aid of wine
The speeches seem but pointless patter.
And when the humorists divest
Themselves of funny thoughts that fill them,
A seething longing stirs my breast
To kill them.

So I conclude that I was wrong—
The spell by which I was enchanted,
Had strength to charm me, but as long
As potent liquors were decanted.
The speakers now don't make a bit,
Who once so witty and so gay were,
And therefore either I was lit,
Or they were!

Crown to Take Action Against Windsor Also

TORONTO, July 16.—(Star Special)—Deputy Attorney-General Edward Bayley, K.C., leaves today for Windsor to represent the crown in the action against the Devonshire Racing Association, in which the defendants are charged with maintaining a common gambling place. The first hearing will be held in the Windsor Police Court.

Action will also be taken against the Windsor Jockey Club on a similar charge. Attorney Raney announced yesterday that the department refrained from bringing action against the Windsor Jockey Club until after its race meeting opened. The running of the $10,000 frontier handicap and other races yesterday inaugurated the season at the W. J. C.

The crown contends that the Devonshire and Windsor clubs are not within the provisions of their charters when they conduct racing with betting.

ALWAYS HIS LEAP.

Hewitt—The frog would a wooing go. Jewett—Why not? It is always leap year for the frog.

The usual crowd was gathered round the usual motor car and the usual goggled one was endeavoring to right matters in the usual way.

"Hallo!" suddenly cried the voice of a new arrival. "What's the matter, Hobbins — car turned turtle?"

Hobbins smiled with expansive sweetness. "Oh, no; not at all, old chap!" he replied. "These kids here wanted to see how the machinery worked, so I had the car turned upside down just to please them."

The doctor was giving an informal talk on physiology. "Also," he remarked, "it has recently been found that the human body contains sulphur."

"Sulphur!" exclaimed the girl in the blue and white blazer. "And how much sulphur is there, then, in a girl's body?"

"Oh, the amount varies," said the doctor, smiling, "according to the girl."

CITY LEAGUE STARS IN HARD GAMES

The week-end games in the City League will see four great teams opposing each other. St. Henri vs. Indians, and Athletics vs. St. Arsene. It will be noted that the leading pitchers will perform in pitched battles—the finest selection of pitchers ever gathered together in a league fixture will be watcher with interest. Athletics, who meet St. Arsene, may take the lead in the hard fought race in process and it is predicted that the giant twirler Paddy Grenier, will be the man to take the first fall out of St. Arsene for the season, but will have a hard tussle in beating "Gene" Olivier and Deforges, who in turn have kept their team in the race for the championship. Iron Man Calvert will be pitted against Malcolm Fraser. This will be another contest when the old gray matter of baseball will be shown. These pitchers are the best in the country when it comes down to a point when they have to use all their energy in the pinches. Time and again they have made difficult situations look simple and have got out of some tight corners, for the reason that they know the pitching end of it down to perfection there will be some big doings Sunday. President Thibault may have new umpires for these important games. Poor umpiring will cause a lot of confliction in a ball game, both from a spectator's point of view as well as keeping the players in order. The decisions that were made during the games of last week-end which nearly caused a riot with the followers of the various teams, will be eliminated Sunday. More tension is caused during the games at present owing to the fact that the five clubs in the league are so eagerly fighting it out for the championship. A wrong decision at the critical moment of a game might turn a victory to defeat. Fair play has been the City League motto and must be carried out.

BOY SCOUTS TO HOLD AN ATHLETIC MEET

The Central District Boy Scouts will hold an athletic meet on Thursday evening, 22nd July, at the Y.M.C.A. Athletic Grounds (Atwater Park). Among the various events will be two straight races of 50 and 100 yards, a shoe race, several jumps and others. Scouts will be divided into two classes according to age. Juniors 12 to 14. Seniors 15 to 17. Scouts who belong to troops that have closed for the summer and are not in touch with their Scoutmasters, will parade with the other scouts. Prior to the athletic meet a short route march will be held, troops meeting at cor. Dorchester and Guy streets at 7:15 p.m.

The St. Denis baseball team scored their seventh victory by defeating the Athletics of Hachelaga by the score of 9 to 2. Unsworth, the St. Denis star pitcher, was the hero of the game, striking out 12 and making two hits, one of which was a three-bagger. The St. Denis team play at Valleyfield on July 17 and 18. LITTLE DIFFERENCE IN YACHTS' SPEED, SAYS NAVAL EXPERT

Skipper of Cup Defender Seemed to Have the Better Nose for What Breeze There Was—Lipton Boat Showed Speed When She Caught Wind

(By J. B. Connolly, writer of "The Deep Sea's Toll"; "The Crested Seas"; "Open Water"; "Wide Courses"; "The Trawler"; "Head Winds"; "Running Free." Special to The Star by United Press. Copyright.)

NEW YORK, July 16.—The Government requirement of lifebelts, lifeboats and rafts for passengers, may have held some craft in the harbor today, but none of us who followed the race today took notice of it.

They seemed to be all there—the good old harbor steamers with their ginger-bread topsides, the ocean steamers, the big steam yachts, the little steam yachts, the sailing craft of the kind you see anchored off Bar Harbor, and the other kind that you wonder why they ever left their little old moorings to come as far away as Sandy Hook.

The war craft were there, the destroyers and revenue cutters as of old, and the sub-chasers, these last making their first appearance on any race course; and not a blessed one of them forgot to whistle while the two yachts were crossing between the yellow lightship and the black official tug.

There was the usual fiddling around, tacking back and forth, to get advantage of position, on doubt; but they both seemed to go over the line when the time came, each to her own satisfaction.

SHAMROCK TOOK HER TIME.

The Resolute crossed first, taking the southwesterly breeze, such breeze as there was over her port bow. The Shamrock may have been a minute and a half behind, seeming to be in no great hurry before the second crossing, but looking to have important business before her after she got over. She went right after the Resolute, caught up with her, slid by, and kept sliding by, and most of us looking at her did not like it at all. More than one, watching her in that first twenty minutes, said: "There goes the cup!"

She was to the leeward of the green boat all this time, and kept working to leeward, but she was sailing with so much more of a full that it looked as if they were satisfied to go to leeward, so that they got over the water.

Then came big blobs of rain, and a drizzle which hid them both from us. From our destroyers we could see the Shamrock dimly, the Resolute not at all in the drizzle, and thought of nothing but how far ahead the green lady would be when next we saw them clearly. But when the time came for them to jibe over and head down the Jersey coast for the fifteen mile outer mark, there was the Shamrock less than a quarter mile to the good. The Resolute must have done a little tack splitting while hid away, and found something better than the other in the way of free air.

RESOLUTE GOOD TO WINDWARD.

Down the coast they went, with little to choose between them, except that the Resolute seemed to be eating into the wind in better shape than the other. More squalls—or rather they were gusts of rain and drizzle, during which about all we could see from our destroyer was the edge of the Shamrock's great main-sail.

Throughout all this time the excursion fleet and patrols were spread across the racers' wakes like a huge, disorderly convoy, smudging an already dark enough sky—low clouds rather—with up-rolling columns of dirty black smoke.

It did not rise very high, though. Everything in the air seemed to want to hug the earth—the clouds, the flying boats both, these last coming whirring close down over our heads as if they wanted to identify people aboard. In among the big steamers would be the little fellows, emitting indignant little whistles if they felt themselves crowded. It looked like a fine jam at times from our deck, with the sailing craft having a good time to escape being squeezed or run into.

RESPECTIVE SPEEDS CLOSE.

Down the coast they went, with the Resolute having steadily the better of it. She could not sail any faster. I doubt if at any time she was slipping through the water any time any faster than the Shamrock, and at times I felt certain that she was moving quite as fast. But she did hold onto her windward gauge.

It had been a sort of mixed weather all day. The sun had only broken through once, and that was just as the Shamrock crossed the starting line. Now, with the boats half way or so to the outer mark, the clouds began to bank in black and low; and from out of the clouds came some rolling thunder and jiggedly jags of lightning cut the horizon ahead of the racing yachts. Squalls of rain rolled down on us again, but none of them held the wind—we, and no doubt the racing crews—wanted to see and feel—never but once and then it did not last long.

SHAMROCK HAS THE SPEED.

But while the wind drive lasted the yachts skipped along. From our destroyer, the same commanded by a young officer and crew who were as eager as any of the press men to be close up—from her we could see only the winged edge of the Shamrock. But during that rush the Shamrock surely kicked out eleven knots, as also, in the judgment of many of us, she picked up quite a little distance on the Resolute.

More calm, then, with the clouds lifting and on top of a smooth ocean the two boats rocked up and down. A little wind came, and away went the Shamrock hunting for more of it or perhaps only to try her hand at tacking. Three times she tacked in a few minutes, but every time she tacked, the Resolute tacked with her. Evidently our fellow was not going to let his rival find anything good without getting his share of it. The Shamrock gave up tacking and perhaps just as well, because the Resolute plainly gained ground with every tack.

The Resolute was looking the winner all over. She was to get more than six minutes time allowance; and here with the outer mark but a mile or so away, she was in the actual lead. And then, Oh joy! The wind picked up and the Resolute, being ahead, caught it first. It was a fine little breath of air, nothing to excite a sea-going craft, but the Resolute went down to her rail beneath it and began to walk along like the lady most of us wanted to believe she was.

On her last windward she was, the outer mark just ahead of her, when—

Her main-sail began to flutter. "What in ——" you could hear all around—"She isn't ready to round yet!" We saw the throat of her big sail sag. She kept on going, though, and around the mark she went, with the whistles of such steamers as were near enough to see clearly giving her grand encouragement. But the big sail was sagging, sagging. And then we saw the gaff come tumbling down into the belly of the sail. And then—it was all over. She did not stop dead then but she might as well have. We saw the sail being lowered and a bunch of the crew gathered around the foot of the mainmast as if they were holding funeral ceremonies over something.

SHAMROCK PLUNGED FORWARD.

It was the throat halyard which had parted, we were informed by radio from someone in authority. The poor Resolute lay there—a bird with a broken wing if there was one—and as she lay there the Shamrock went on by. The Shamrock kept on going, to a slightly increasing breeze. And she showed that she could sail on that home leg. In less than one hour and a half she ran the fifteen miles in that light breeze. Slightly better than ten knots, that is, and as she crossed the line, she got a great greeting of steam whistles. I doubt if the Resolute would have been given a better greeting in her place. And she had hardly crossed when the dark clouds rolled back again, and the thunder boomed out and there was a flash or two of lightning with a fine squall of wind. And before that squall of wind the big main-sail and jib of the green boat was spread to the full and down to her sail and under she went—and if ever a yacht logged fourteen knots she did then. She was going! We had only to watch the steam yachts trying to keep up with her to have the proof of that.

SHAMROCK VICTORY A FAIR ONE.

There is much talk ashore of why if only her throat halyards were parted the Resolute did not make shift of some kind of repairs and keep on going. But there must have been something more than a parted halyard to contend with. Her crew no doubt could give us a good reason for her going out of the race. They sailed her well today.

Some sentimentalized people here are thinking it would have been a fine bit of sportsmanship if the Shamrock had refused to cross the line after the Resolute's accident, and so made no race of it. But that won't do! She took the breeze today as the Resolute took it with racing gear, and stood up under it. If a racing boat lightens up to the last thread of her gear to make speed, and under the stress of weather that gear gives out on her, then there is nothing left for her but to pay the penalty.

The Shamrock won a fair victory today; but we are all hoping that by Saturday when they meet again, the Resolute will have overhauled her gear.

FOG HID SIGNIFICANT INCIDENT.

NEW YORK, July 16.— (From Our Own Correspondent.)—When the curtain of fog descended on the course immediately after Resolute and Shamrock IV. slid across the starting line yesterday it shut out one of the most significant features of the race. Observers in the watch-towers ashore could not see the boats at all. Press men and yachting experts on all destroyers and other craft got a close-up view of the fog and nothing else. Except one destroyer.

Photographs taken from this vessel, which was close to the racers, show that within a second or two after the Resolute crossed the line, Shamrock had overhauled and passed her and that for nearly twenty minutes she led the defender. When the fog lifted, Resolute was over a quarter of a mile ahead. What had happened that the observers had unavoidedly missed?

Comparison of notes reveals that when the fog shut down and the first rain fell, Shamrock was a good half mile ahead but in the gloom which enveloped all the boats, Captain Burton, of the Challenger, lost his bearings for a moment and headed inshore, Adams, on the contrary, headed out to sea and did a little tack splitting which found him a little more breeze.

It is the opinion of your correspondent that with anything of a breeze, Shamrock will walk past Resolute. Yesterday there was not enough air moving for the most part to heel either sloop over. The moment the wind freshened and the craft went over on their racing lines, Resolute broke her throat halyards. Evidently she cannot stand strain.

Burton has the reputation of being shrewd. He showed his shrewdness yesterday. Shamrock covered the fifteen miles return course in less than one hour and a half. She did it in the lightest of breezes and without breaking out her spinnaker, balloon jibs or other wind-snatching canvas. And Burton was not showing what the challenger could do. He headed her far seaward, out of the ken of the following craft and strolled home on the quiet.

From yesterday's performances it would appear that the Resolute can pick up quicker in tacking to a light breeze. But given a wind that will heel her over, Shamrock, unless we are sadly mistaken, will show her heels to the Resolute.

The score stands, Shamrock 1; Resolute 0.

Summary:—

First cup race, course 15 miles to windward and return. Wind, southwest, light.

Yacht	Start	Finish	Elapsed Time.
Shamrock	12.01.33	4.26.26	4.24.48
Resolute	12.00.40	disabled.

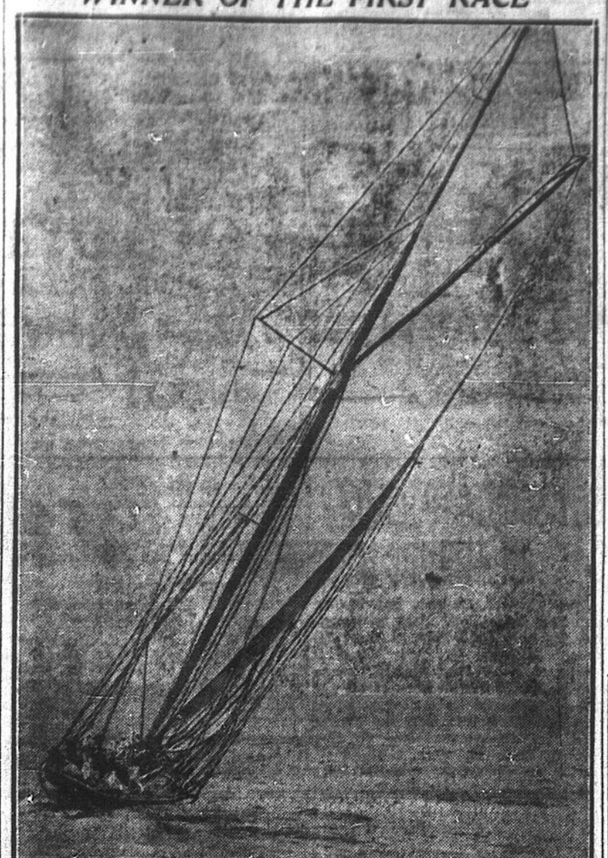
WINNER OF THE FIRST RACE



The Shamrock IV. the challenger for the America's Cup, ready for the start in the first race yesterday with the Resolute.

LIPTON HAS THE TEA, WHY NOT LET HIM HAVE THE CUP

By RING W. LARDNER

NEW YORK, July 16.—(By Ring W. Lardner.)—The first heat went to the Shamrock, but they's many a slip-ton between the cup and the Lipton. I don't know if that gag's been used before, but it's my own idea.

As I couldn't stand the excitement of continuously watching the two catboats as they sped forwards in the teeth of a 3-mile calm, I happened to be down in Lieut. Annotoyn's room when the Resolute done a Willard. Word was rushed in that the rest of the race would be a monologue as the Resolute's had flopped, and I couldn't help from feeling sorry for her, as I was to a evening dress suit dance one night and broke a suspender.

I went out on the porch and asked one of the newspaper boys how it could of happened, and he said she had broke a gaff. You know how a woman feels these days when she breaks a gaff at the present price of gaffs. But any way, I went and seen Captain Norton of our destroyer, that used to play football at the Navy in Annapolis, and he said he didn't think it was a broken gaff, but he thought it was a broken throat halyard, and maybe she had died of tonsolitis.

Well, I would of been satisfied with the broken throat diagnosis, only Lieut. Com. Dowes said he thought it was a combination of broken gaff jaw and a busted spinnaker. Personally I come to the conclusions that I might as well use my own judgments as I once rowed a rowboat out on Lake Mich, so I borrowed a pair of opera glasses off of a bum cartoonist and took a look at the Irresolute, and looked to me like she had croaked from a barnacle on her binnacle. Whatever it was, the boys on board of her all but perspired trying not to fix it.

She was toed to a marine hospital, and now they say that the second leg will be run off Saturday if she can stand the gaff.

Maybe some of you boys has never seen a international yacht race, so I will try and tell you a few of our experiences. In the first place, we had to get up in the middle of the night so as we could be down to the Battery in time to catch the press boats which was to leave at 8 a.m., but didn't. On the way down I borrowed a paper off a guy and read about the comeing event so as I would know what was going on, and it said in the article that the race might not maybe be very good as both boats needed more time to tune up. You see, the race was sprung on them kind of suddenly as they didn't know it was comeing off till way back in 1913. It also said the Resolute would have a time allowance of seven minutes and 1 second on account of the difference in time between here and Belfast, where the Shamrock grows and the River Shannon flows. Speaking about shamrocks, I always thought they were supposed to be three-leaved, but what old Tom had yesterday was a 4-leaf clover.

Well, along about half past eight we fell into a tug and was dragged out to the middle of the river where two destroyers was waiting for us, though some of the boys looked like they had been destroyed the night before. Out there they separated the goats from the sheep, putting us guys on the destroyed Semmes, while the sheep, namely the p.m. newspaper men, was herded onto the Goldberg. On the way to the racetrack we passed J. P. Morgan's dinghy, the Corsair, but he didn't see me.

Somebody asked a lieut. on our destroyer if the Semmes was a steady ship, and he says she was the best little rocker in the U.S. army. Several of us forced a smile. We reached the paddock along about 10 o'clock, and the 2 yawls was already there warming up. The Shamrock was painted green for some reason another. We set there on the porch rocking until noon, which was starting time. By that time the grounds was really too wet to play on, but they started the game anyway, and the 2 scows got away to a pretty even start. They hadn't went very far, however, when it begin to rain, but Klem wouldn't stop the game.

I will let the experts tell you about the technical side of it, as all I found out was that on one occasion the Irish sloop was going at a speed of 7 nuts per nautical mile, while the other slop was doing a little better. Personally I wished we was at a 6-day bicycle race, where you get about the same thrills, only you don't have to set in a rocker.

Saturday, if the jaws and throat halyards and gaffs is all fixed up I will go out and see the next leg, and that night I will go to the Follies and see a whole lot more of them.

As for old Tom's victory, I say why not leave him have the cup as he got tea to pour into it, and what have we got? Nothing.

IS NO EMBARGO ON EXPORTS TO RUSSIA

Trading Situation Clarified by Statement of Sir George Foster

OTTAWA, Ont., July 16. — The situation in regard to trading between Canada and Russia was clarified today in a statement made to a Canadian Press representative by Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce. Sir George declared that there was no embargo on Canadian exports to Russia and that it was open to any Russian to make legal purchases from Canadians. Further, any Russian individual or corporate company is at liberty to set up his place of business in exactly the same manner as the citizens of any other country.

Sir George's statement was as follows:

"With reference to various rumors which have been afloat and the statements purporting to have been made by various parties as to trade between Russians and Canadians, it may be stated:

"(1)—No recognitions have been asked or are called for of the Soviet or any other Russian Government.

"(2)—Russian correspondents from the United States and elsewhere have been informed that there is no embargo in the Canadian agents exports destined for any part of Russia and that it is open to any Russian to make legal purchases from Canadians on such terms and conditions as they will mutually agree upon and that no restrictions will be placed upon either the making of the contract or the carrying out of the same by export or otherwise which is not at the same time applicable to transactions between Canadians and peoples of other country's and that the Canadian Government is not in any way supporting by advance credits or otherwise any such transactions between Russians and Canadians, nor is it the intention of the Canadian Government to make any credits in relation thereto.

"Any Russian individual or corporate company is at liberty to set up his place of business in exactly the same manner as the citizens of any other friendly country. No recognition has been made of the Soviet or any other form of Russian Government by the Minister of Trade and Commerce or by the Government of Canada."

MANITOBA OBSERVES FIFTIETH BIRTHDAY

WINNIPEG, Man., July 16.—Manitoba yesterday observed her fiftieth birthday. Fifty years ago the province entered the Confederation. Today the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General, telegraphed Lieut.-Governor Sir James Aikens, his most cordial congratulations on the anniversary, and added:

"The history of the province during the last fifty years is a striking record of progress and prosperity, and the achievements of the past are a sure guarantee of what can be accomplished in the future."

TWO MONTREALERS SENTENCED IN N.Y.

NEW YORK, July 16.—Tharot and Omar Barcelou, both of Montreal, were sentenced to prison terms on charges of counterfeiting here yesterday in the United States District Court. Tharot will serve one and one-half years in the penitentiary and Barcelou received a sentence of one year.

Alleged to have attempted to pass a bogus ten dollar note, both men were arrested here recently. When their room was searched, federal agents said they found $4,500 worth of bogus ten dollar federal reserve notes hidden behind a bathtub.

According to advices from Groningen the British Government has decided to place tombstones over the graves of British officers and men who died while interned in Holland.

Cox's Chances of Winning the Presidency

While Senator Capper's Topeka Capital (Rep.) considers Republican victory at the polls not even in question, declaring that "after November the Democrats will know that a political party can not carry a presidential election in this country by sprinkling a little booze on its clothes," other Republican papers agree with the New York Tribune that it "would be most foolish if they [Senator Harding's supporters] did not frankly recognize the formidableness of the Cox and Roosevelt ticket." The Chicago Tribune (Rep.) says that the bosses nominated Governor Cox because they thought he was "the best vote-getter and the best goat-getter Democracy had."

If you would obtain a practical idea of Governor Cox's chances of winning the election, as pointed out by newspaper editors of all shades of political opinion, you will do well to read THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week—July 17th. The leading article is a careful summary of American newspaper opinion of the Democratic nominee and the advantages and disadvantages that will be his during the campaign.

THE IMPERIAL PRESS CONFERENCE.

THE pilgrimage which leaves England on Tuesday next en route for the Imperial Press Conference to be held at Ottawa will contribute towards a high mission, a task of world significance. The first important gathering of representative Britons to meet after the great war will be watched with intense interest in every capital in the world.

The spirit in which the British delegates are coming was expressed by Lord Burnham, chairman of the delegation, and Colonel Amery, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, at a farewell luncheon yesterday in London. That spirit must commend itself to all Canadians.

Said Lord Burnham: "We do not go to lay down the law. We are all on the same level of good-will, good sense and loyal service." Col. Amery stated: "Why talk of Imperial constitutions and such like? It is upon personal sympathy and intimacy that the Empire's security really rests."

The coming together in conference of men whose business it is to keep in daily touch with public opinion and to sense the popular reaction to events—men drawn from all parts of the British Empire—must lead to a valuable development in mutual sympathy and understanding under the British flag. Five years of suffering and serving together, as Lord Burnham notes, have taught us much in common effort and sacrifice, and the detachment of the Imperial Press Conference from doctrinaire schemes or partisan entanglements fits it admirably to shed clear light upon the present state of British sentiment everywhere.

It is good to hear from such an authority as Col. Amery the view that the Empire's security really rests upon personal sympathy and intimacy. The war furnished a compelling demonstration that dependable bonds of Empire may best be fashioned out of loyal sentiments kept fresh by understanding.

SQUANDERING OUR WEALTH.

SOME home truths about the manner in which we are exhausting the fertility of our soil were told to the Commission of Conservation at present in session at Winnipeg. According to one speaker, the wonderfully fertile soil of the Western Provinces has been systematically "mined" by get-rich-quick settlers.

From early childhood Canadians are taught to believe that the natural wealth of their country is "inexhaustible," "incalculable," and all the rest of it. Our school text-books lay great emphasis on our boundless prairies of virgin soil of an unparalleled fertility, our countless miles of unbroken forests, our lakes and rivers "teeming" with fish. It is a pretty picture and it is not surprising, in consequence, that when we grow up we proceed to behave as though it were true.

As a matter of fact, it is nothing of the kind. Canada has a per capita natural wealth that is perhaps unequalled, but there are no natural resources anywhere in the world which cannot and will not, sooner or later, become exhausted under steady development. Unfortunately on this continent we have set a pace that means their exhaustion a great deal sooner than would be necessary if we took more thought for the future.

It is not as though we had no example to teach us better. We have before our eyes a splendid lesson in the vital importance of conservation in what has happened in the United States. A policy of letting the future take care of itself so far as the pulpwood supplies of the country are concerned has resulted in a famine with serious consequences. The free "mining" of the wheat lands of the Dakotas has cut production from the exhausted prairies by two-thirds. You cannot restore a devastated forest or an exhausted farm in a year—or in a generation. Now there is under way from one end of the United States to the other an intelligent and skilful campaign for conservation and restoration.

Would it not be better if we took warning before we, too, have to deplore the squandering of our magnificent heritage? A policy of profligate recklessness, whether in forests, in mines, in fisheries, or in farming will have only one result.

A DEMONSTRATION OF STABILITY

THE anvil chorus of pessimists for some years has sounded abroad the unrest and extravagance of the present generation. The fact remains that thrift is still in evidence if one looks beneath the surface, and that important proof may be adduced showing public confidence in the stability of existing institutions.

In this connection life insurance offers a profitable field for investigation. Those who invest in life insurance not only display thrift, but also show confidence in the future.

The sum of life insurance effected in Canada in 1919, according to Government figures, far outdistanced all previous records. It amounted to no less than $513,135,579, with a total premium income of $74,689,262. This means that the Canadian people paid out in life insurance premiums during 1919 considerably more than the total of insurance effected in the year 1901, when the business written amounted to less than seventy-four millions.

The upward trend in life insurance has been steady since 1915, the figures for that year being $221,119,558; for 1916, $231,101,625; for 1917, $282,120,430; for 1918, $313,251,556, and for 1919, $513,135,579.

The situation in Canada is duplicated on a larger scale in the United States. During their first war year, 1917, there was written in the Republic $4,890,000,000 life insurance, as compared with $4,212,000,000 in 1916, that having been the largest previous total. In 1919 the American people took up life insurance amounting to more than $8,600,000,000, an increase of 67 per cent over 1918. And figures furnished by the American companies show for the first four months of 1920 an increase of no less than 38 per cent over the first four months of 1919.

Canadians invested more in life insurance in 1919 than the total of life insurance protection existing in the year 1911. Americans are taking up twice as much life insurance as they did two years ago. And actual cash is being invested, not promises to pay.

The popular movement in the field of life insurance is remarkably impressive as evidence of public stability and confidence and of private thrift. In the last few years a great new army has been recruited to stand in favor of order and law.

THE REVENGE OF TIME.

IT is May, 1915, in Rome and twenty thousand people march deliriously down the Via del Corso and surge into the great Piazza del Popolo, shouting their patriotic hymns and rioting in the newly-found spirit of Nationalism. With the inbred romanticism of the Latin race they hail d'Annunzio as the genius of the re-born Italy, pelting him with rose petals in the exuberance of their admiration.

Like the wind that bends the standing corn before the summer storm, so sombre whispers go humming through the crowd, "Death to Giolitti," "Death to Giolitti" is echoed at first by scattering voices and later in a crescendo of sound until the dense masses march in rhythmic step to the words which now become a solemn dirge.

Giolitti, four times Premier of Italy, lies in hiding in the home of an old servant to escape the fury of his own people. The man whose whole policy had been framed to make Italy a vassal state of Germany dares not show his head in this hour of national exultation. In the eyes of his countrymen, singing triumphantly through the streets on that May evening d'Annunzio is the symbol of the Italy that has overthrown the Great Beast, while Giolitti is the embodiment of the servitude and degradation of the national life that they believe has passed forever.

Five years have gone by and once again the "old fox of Europe" becomes the man of the hour. He who had been Italy's dictator in bygone years, he who had fought with matchless skill and cunning to keep Italy on the side of Germany, comes back to power in triumph less than two years after the heroic sacrifices that bathed her northern heights in blood, while d'Annunzio remains at Fiume discredited, not because he has lowered his ideals, but because he has failed to inspire a wearied people.

When d'Annunzio rode into Fiume at the head of his Arditi he was hailed by his admirers as the supreme patriot. The romance of his mediaeval adventure struck a respondent chord in the hearts of thousands of his countrymen. But the Italy of 1918, with its splendid victories that lent sanity to the Poet's daring audacity a year later is not the Italy of today. The military triumphs along the Piave have lost their power to enthuse, the failure of Italian diplomacy has left the people sick at heart, aching with the dull pain of disillusionment and languid with the hopelessness of spoiled ambition.

Italy has drifted back to Giolitti, through fear of the Slav menace and because this old veteran of the political arena has worked secretly and ceaselessly for the hour when he should be recalled to power by his own people.

D'Annunzio is the Italy of Vittorio Veneto; Giolitti is the Italy of Caporetto. D'Annunzio symbolizes the sentiment of May, 1915; Giolitti the darkest hour of Prussian dominance.

Was the tragic lesson of Caporetto forgotten too soon in the ecstasy of succeeding victories? Will Italy in sheer desperation and through a carelessness born of despair drift back to her old alliance?

It would be the supreme tragedy of the Great War if the blood spilled so generously along the Piave is to be atoned by the permanent triumph of the man who fought, at least in hopes and sentiment, on the side of the enemies of his country.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

Talk is Cheaper Than Money.

Washington Star: In regard to indemnity, Germany represents herself as short of funds, but with an abundant supply of conversation material, which she will endeavor to make as entertaining as possible.

With Nerves on Edge.

Baltimore Sun: Our national nerves are in a frazzle. Horse-faced reformers, with weak stomachs and atrophied passions, are waging endless war on whatever is too strong for their digestions or their powers. In the interest of national sanity we need to revive the silly season.

Millenium's Date is Set.

Worcester Telegram: The United States will never be dry entirely until all other nations establish and maintain prohibition of liquors, says the Anti-Saloon League of New York in formal resolutions. And when that is accomplished then will be the "coming of the Kingdom of the Lord," says the same set of resolutions.

Labor Rules the Roost.

Topeka State Journal: Chicago finds that new industrial enterprises are turning elsewhere when seeking locations for factory sites, because of the exacting demands of labor, and that thirty factories have left the city in recent months because of tax laws and other legislation that are considered exceptionally burdensome. It is a way that business has of resisting encroachments on its rights.

Why Wait?

London Daily Chronicle: Every now and again mankind is threatened with a strike of waiters. To appreciate the gravity of the menace we must remind ourselves what waiters are. Waiters are men, able-bodied and in the possession of all their faculties, who fetch us our food and carry away our empty plates in public places, where, to oblige them and the presiding genius at such feasts, we eat more than we require or even desire.

When Editors Rule.

Indianapolis News: We are certain to have an editor for president. . . . The carrying out of newspaper customs calls for a seven-day week in all Government departments — that is, a six-day week for the subordinate with a regular day off when and if he can get it. . . . The prospect is alluring in other particulars. This new road to the presidency having been blazed, classes in college journalism will be encouraged and the overcrowding of the bar will doubtless be relieved.

Inflated Currency.

Boston Globe: Today the dollar bill creates an illusion. The peril of currency inflation lies in the appearance of an ocean of prosperity which it gives. The mind is full of fancies tagged with pre-war prices; in the pocket are shrunken dollars. Men from the farms flock to the city to get a bankroll, and throw it on the counter for gewgaws. The deceptive buying power of money leads us to false anchorages. The ship settles upon a rock at ebb tide. The rock is poverty.

"Old Scarlet."

London Morning Post: Gazing grimly down the nave of Peterborough Cathedral, where a great congregation will gather today to celebrate the 800th anniversary of the Cathedral's foundation, is the picture of Old Scarlet, which hangs just inside the west door. Old Scarlet was the famous sexton who buried Katharine of Arragon and Mary Queen of Scots, and as the quaint inscription beneath records, he has also buried "this townes hovse-holders & his lives space twice over." The picture is an Eighteenth Century copy of a portrait drawn during Old Scarlet's lifetime. He is represented with a spade in his right hand and a bunch of keys in his left. Resting against a pillar just behind him are a pickaxe and a skull — grim symbols of his profession. He died in 1594 in his ninety-ninth year.

Germany's Obstinate Delays.

London Daily Mail: The most vital peace conditions were those enforcing the disarmament of Germany. They have not been carried out. Germany still retains 17,800 aeroplanes and thousands of heavy guns; and she is estimated to have nearly a million troops still under arms. Her success in obstructing the Allies has had two direct results. It has encouraged the Young Turks to try the same methods, and has produced the present war in Asia Minor. It has also compelled the Allies to maintain large armaments. Waste of time has meant waste of money and ruinous expense. The promise to search the German pockets has not been carried out. By the official return, issued last week, the Germans are paying only £3 sterling in taxes per head, whereas the British are paying £22 per head.

Lynch Law

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Lynchings have become so common and so comprehensive as to locality, that no state and no section can adopt the holier than thou attitude towards any other state or section where such an incident occurs. It is the lynching spirit, not the locality, which is responsible. There is not enough respect for the law nor the constitutions of the United States and the separate states, which guarantee to every man a fair trial for whatever he may be charged with. Our institutions cannot continue if they are to be honored in name only and the spirit of them ignored. Respect for the courts, protection of human rights by the courts, punishment of those guilty of crime through the courts, are fundamental principles of Americanism. We cannot discard them and continue a country of law-abiding democracy.

The Prince Wins All Hearts

Melbourne Argus: It would be difficult to overestimate the influence which this delightful fraternization of the Prince with the people of the dominions will have—for there can be no doubt that he will make the same conquest of hearts wherever he goes. In the minds of the young it will remain as a treasured memory through their lives. "The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power" will have no place in their minds when they recall the visit of their Prince. They will think of him as one of themselves and not as some august, unapproachable being to whom they must look up with reverence and awe. The affection with which our soldiers learned to regard the Prince in France will be strengthened by the renewal of their intercourse with him. Wherever he has been he has regarded them as the most important person in the company. His keen eye has picked them out, and he has, without ceremony, left the surrounding dignitaries to chat with them.

Dawn in a Garden.

The border of my garden shows
Glorious with lilies tall and white,
And that dark beauty of a rose,
Red—with a hint of night,
And as I watch their buds unclose
Touched by the magic of the light,
Lo! suddenly my garden grows
To far horizons out of sight;
Tumults invade its still repose.
Here, side by side, sworn comrades fight
Who fought of old as foes.

French fleur-de-lys and English rose,
Those ancient banners sway and gleam;
The Maid of France before them goes,
Mailed knights and bowmen pass between.
This morning from my garden close
Dead armies marching have I seen.
Midsummer, 1917.

WHY EXPORT NEEDED COAL?

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star:

Sir,—In reference to recent articles in your paper re coal shortage, an article in The Eastern Chronicle of June 22nd, announces a shipment of Canadian coal to Iceland. The quantity of coal shipped in this cargo to Iceland was over 4,000 tons. It seems unfair to have coal exported that is so badly needed at home. This 4,000 tons would have kept several factories from closing down.

MANUFACTURER.

St. Johns, Que.

A PUBLIC OUTRAGE.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star:

Sir,—Your editorial columns and the general news pertaining to the social activities of Montreal would indicate a keen and sympathetic interest in everything affecting child welfare, particularly at this season of the year. For many years, fifty at least, there was a popular, and on account of its cherished memories, a well-beloved playground, situated in St. Ann's Ward, known as "Haymarket Square." Notwithstanding its total neglect by the numerous civic administrations of the past and present, and the complete ignoring of its existence by social agencies for the past fifty years, it has been the athletic nursery of many of Canada's greatest athletes whose achievements have spread the name of Canada far and wide and brought honor and distinction to its metropolis.

The consistent neglect of this breathing spot and playground finally culminated in our city fathers establishing and maintaining a civic dump on the property for the past four or five years. This spring, however, the modern and progressive administration which now governs our city, reached the climax of civic callousness and neglect by permitting a private enterprise to commandeer the remaining part of the dump as a construction and storage yard and authorizing this philanthropic institution to erect offices, warehouses and workshops on the people's property. For the benefit of those interested I may say that the building material and workshops referred to are not intended for a school or hospital but for the extension of a local brewery. And you ask where the misanthrope, the grouch, the agitator and finally the bolshivist come from?

Who is the man or men guilty of this social crime? What responsibility has the so-called Parks and Playgrounds Association in the matter or are they the great silent party to the outrage? No section of Montreal requires and deserves a park and playground more than where this civic crime has been perpetrated. The district contains the humble but honest homes of the best working classes of our city, many of whose families, for two and three generations, have supplied the brains and sinew of the numerous factories and foundries which flourish in the district. There is no race suicide in this section of our community and children are numerous. Adjoining the square, in a lane 30 feet wide, and immediately opposite a paint and varnish factory, whose poisonous fumes permeate the class rooms, is located a school, containing about 400 children, who have not got a square foot of playground or one-half hour's recreation. Just why the School Commissioners selected this very desirable site is a puzzle to any sane mind, particularly when there was an open square available, ornamented on two sides by junk yards and dilapidated buildings whose removal would have been a blessing, while at the same time furnishing fresh air and a recreation ground, a vital necessity to this tenement district school.

A few pertinent questions now suggest themselves. Eliminating the O'Connell bath, already falling into decay, what improvements, if any, have been made to the old "Haymarket Square?" Has one dollar been appropriated or expended upon it in the past fifty years? Has the district a representative in the City Council? If so, what action does he propose to take or are present conditions to remain (they cannot become worse). Finally, is there a sense of civic justice remaining at the City Hall?

A few suggestions follow: Could not the Rotary or Kiwanis Clubs, or others engaged in the Big Brother movement, hold one of their weekly luncheons on the site, the brewery will lend them the ground. Invite the chairman of the Administrative Commission to preside. The speaker of the occasion should be the president of the Parks and Playgrounds Commission who could dilate on the beauty of the surrounding scene and point with pride and satisfaction to a wonderful achievement. Incidentally he should repeat and emphasize his request for more money for parks and playgrounds to be similarly treated and utilized. As compensation, restitution or atonement, the National Breweries, when their building is completed, should promise on that occasion, to declare a stock dividend for the particular benefit of its civic benefactors. An indignation mass meeting of the citizens of the district should follow the luncheon and one of the resolutions brought forward and adopted without dissent, would be a call for volunteers to remove the unsightly piles of stone, sand, lumber and beer vats and deposit them on Dominion Square or Lafontaine Park, where they might possibly arouse a protest.

Quebec, according to some authorities, may be "the glory of the Dominion," but Montreal, its metropolis, in some respects, is a disgrace to modern civilization.

Apologizing for the length of this, my first newspaper offence, and thanking you in advance, on behalf of a suffering community.

"VILLE MARIE."

FROM THE STAR FILES

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

(From The Star File, July 16, 1890).

London.—The St. James Gazette does not express confidence in the outcome of the Universal Peace Conference which is meeting here. The conference looks to a simultaneous and graduated disarmament by the various powers, and the Gazette says such ideas are as impracticable as they are obsolete.

Berlin. — Two Austrian officers who went up in a military balloon from Vienna yesterday were carried about for eleven hours, finally landing in Prussia.

Montreal.—Hon. John Costigan passed through the city last evening on the way from Ottawa to New Brunswick.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

(From The Star File, July 16, 1900).

Tien Tsin.—Allied troops to the number of 7,000 are attempting to storm the walls of the city. Their success is doubtful. The Chinese on the walls are estimated at 20,000; they are pouring a terrific hail of artillery, rifle and machine gun fire upon the attackers. British, Japanese, French and United States troops are attacking from the west, and Russians from the East.

Montreal.—A new Baron de Hirsch Institute is to be built on Bleury street, above Ontario, on land bought from the Lyman estate, as the present quarters on St. Elizabeth street are now too small for the increasing work.

London.—The Nitrel's Nek reverse has come as a cold douche. The nation was prepared for guerilla warfare, but did not really expect it. The country is unanimous in desiring the end of the struggle.

FRENCH-CANADIAN VIEWS

THE AMUSEMENT TAX.

La Presse—For the fiscal year ending June 30th last, the tax on places of amusement brought the City of Montreal the sum of $445,288 clear. What invaluable aid could not our charitable institutions have been able to give to the sick, to the infirm and to the needy with this money if a sacrilegious hand had not diverted a considerable portion for useless, and arbitrary expenditure in purely administrative departments. It will be one of the tragic "triumphs" of the Decary era that it became the despoiler of the poor-box.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

La Patrie—The question of separate schools will not fail to cause annoyance to the Manitoba Government. At least fifteen of the new members elected in ridings peopled by persons who speak a foreign tongue desire that German or their own language should be taught in the schools as well as English. The workingmen and the farmers, who are not tinged with fanaticism will vote without doubt to give perfect freedom to the several nationalities that inhabit Manitoba. There is therefore reason to hope that in a short time the French-Canadians with the support of those who love liberty, will see their rights recognized. French will again take its place in the school. The reign of the narrow-minded and of the fanatics has endured too long in the country which French discovered and settled and which has the good fortune of possessing the free institutions of Great Britain.

SIR LOMER GOUIN.

L'Action Catholique — Sir Lomer Gouin is not a man of brilliant ideas, but he has one quality which perhaps is more useful in a Government leader; he possesses a wonderful adaptability. By means of this quality he annihilated his three most formidable opponents in the Parliamentary arena. J. M. Tellier, Jean Prevost and Henri Bourassa. Through this same quality he brought the province into practical unanimity with the Government. If the Opposition originated any measure of importance to the province it was as a rule sidetracked, only to appear again later in the Speech from the Throne in an altered form. There remained therefore nothing for the Leader of the Opposition to do, but to claim paternity of the measure and to give it his support. No Government Leader could dissolve an Opposition more effectually. That is why Mr. Bourassa retired and why Mr. Tellier followed him out of the political arena.

THE MAGIC CARPET

Little visits to new worlds.

THE SCHELDT.

Among the many problems that European statesmen have wrestled with for the past two or three centuries, few are more intricate than that known as the Question of the Scheldt. The River Scheldt enters the sea by two mouths—the Eastern Scheldt and the Western Scheldt or Hondt. The Western Scheldt is the waterway which gives Antwerp access to the ocean. The "question of the Scheldt" arises from the fact that for the last forty miles of its course the Western Scheldt flows through Dutch territory. On the northern shore lie the Zeeland islands of South Beveland and Walcheren and on the southern is the strip of territory known as Dutch Flanders. In the middle of the sixteenth century Antwerp had become the finest seaport in the world. The revolt of the Netherlands and the capture of Antwerp by the Spaniards in 1585 brought ruin to the town. Its citizens fled and its trade was transferred to Amsterdam and thereafter it became a fixed aim of Dutch policy to close the Scheldt in the interests of Amsterdam. Yet Holland's idea in this was not wholly selfish. Its closure meant also the safeguarding of the Zeeland Islands and especially of Walcheren with its naval base against a sudden attack from the Spanish Netherlands. Matters stood thus when in August 1874 the Emperor Joseph sent an ultimatum for the opening of the Scheldt to the States-General under threat of a declaration of war. The States refused and the threats were followed by action. Two vessels started from Antwerp and both were seized by the Dutch. The Emperor despatched an army of 60,000 men to invade Holland, but French intervention prevented hostilities. After the French revolution the navigation of the Scheldt was declared free. Later a French garrison was placed at Flushing and Dutch Flanders was incorporated with Antwerp as the capital. In 1806 Napoleon transferred the Batavian Republic into the kingdom of Holland and put his brother Louis on the throne and the Scheldt became a French river throughout its entire course. The fall of Napoleon freed the Netherlands from the French yoke and for fifteen years under William of Orange there was of course no question of the closing of the Scheldt. The Belgian revolt, however, raised the question again, but an agreement was reached by the treaties of 1839 and 1842. But this treaty has never suited Belgium, although the Scheldt became quite free. The main question that arises is whether in case of warships of a power friendly to Belgium can bring munitions up the Scheldt to Antwerp for if not Antwerp becomes an entrenched camp and during the late war Holland maintained her neutrality most strictly. Since the signing of peace a new agreement has been reached between the two countries, by which it is hoped the "question of the Scheldt" will be permanently settled.

T. AND L. COUNCIL ELECTS DELEGATES

Appoints Three Representatives to Dom. Congress After Stormy Session

Little hope of obtaining coal in large quantities for next winter was extended to the Trades and Labor Council last night by the executive committee. The original idea had been to buy large quantities for distribution amongst members, on a co-operative basis.

The committee, however, had met with very little success in their efforts in this direction, and J. Foley, second vice-president of the Journeymen Barbers' International Union, informed the meeting that there was no hope of getting coal from the mines in Pennsylvania, his home, except inferior grades which he did not recommend them to try. The opinion was strongly expressed that the coal mines of Canada ought to be more fully developed.

The question of sending three delegates to the Dominion Trades Congress aroused a storm of criticism, both of the Congress and of its secretary, P. M. Draper. Delegate Kerrigan's forcibly expressed opinion brought a protest from one of the policemen's representatives, resulting in a vigorous argument and some choice epithets. Delegates Thompson and Spealing continued the attack on the Congress, and Delegate Kerrigan moved to refer the matter to the committee. After a period of stormy disorder Chairman Foster succeeded in putting the question, when the motion was lost. Delegates R. Lynch, J. Gauthier and A. Mathieu were elected delegates to the Congress.

To replace Delegates Thompson and Maguire, who resigned, Delegates Trudel and Griffard were elected to the executive council. A committee of the following delegates was appointed to study the coal question further: J. T. Foster, Dickson, Thompson, Kerrigan, Alfred Mathieu and McLean.

SENTENCES IN COURT OF SESSIONS

The following sentences were imposed by Judge Bazin in the Court of Sessions yesterday: Sam Effrani, one month's imprisonment for shopbreaking and theft; Pierre Gagnon, two months' imprisonment for stealing lumber to the value of $100; Geo. Richeleau, charged with theft of cloth valued at $2,000, was acquitted; Alexander Bincofskv, charged with theft on person, was acquitted; Amedee Daignault, charged with arson, was acquitted.

Raoul Sarault, charged with misappropriating $15,000, was acquitted; Raoul Lachapelle, charged with passing a cheque drawn on a bank where he had no account, was found guilty and will appear for sentence next week. Henry Cyr and Pierre Leduc were found guilty of theft and will be sentenced next week.

DISMISSED TWENTY MONTHS' OLD CASE

Before Judge Choquet yesterday a number of cases of the selling of liquor without the proper license came up. The case against Napoleon Poupre, of Chambly Canton, which has been dragging through the courts for the past twenty months, was dismissed as the prosecution was unable to have the witnesses present in court.

Those found guilty and fined were: George Therrien, 209a Barre street, $100 and costs or three months; Fida Herchine, Ontario street, $100 and costs; Rene Costelli, $300 and costs; Helda Rosevitch, $100 each on two charges; Rene Lussier, $100 and costs.

HE JUST "QUIT."

Please Miss Currie help a little worried girl with your valuable advice which will be greatly appreciated.

I have been keeping company with a young man about one year. Although nothing has been said to my parents about our being engaged, I have allowed him to tell people we were going to be married next fall.

I have treated him well. He has always been made very welcome at home and he has been to our country home for week-ends on several occasions and everything seemed fine.

Lately he has neglected me and has stopped coming to see me without any explanation. I have asked him why he had not been up, and my folks have asked him why he has not been up lately. His excuse was that he had been out of town and had been working late. Once or twice when with me he talked quite a lot about a girl he had met. Now he has stopped coming altogether.

Please Miss Currie, what should I do with him, just let him go or write to him for an explanation.

AN ADANAC GIRL.

Ans.—I'm afraid there isn't any explanation—he just "quit." I think I wouldn't ask but would just let him go—he is not worth bothering about.

AN OFFICE FLIRTATION.

I am a young girl and in very great distress and as many others come to you for advice. A few months ago I met a young man working in our office. This young man is tall, dark and somewhat good looking. Shortly after he entered the service of the company I worked, he paid a great deal of attention to me. Flirtations were carried to such an extreme that we were the talk of the whole staff. Thinking he was a single man, as he had made me believe so, I did not care and even went out with him. Later on it was found out that he was married and father of a child a few days old. I am led to believe that his wife is aware of the fact that he is carrying on a flirtation with someone in the office through one or two incidents that happened, that is having given me a book and photograph, same was asked back. As I have written to this man a few letters I feel that I should apologize to his wife and return his letters to her. I am about to take this step as I think he should be taught a good lesson by it. Do you think I would be doing right by returning them? Your advice would be very much appreciated as I am uncertain as to the wisest way to act.

"TROUBLED."

Ans.—It would be very unkind to the wife and I would not do it. You were foolish to allow yourself to indulge in an office flirtation so extreme as to be "the talk of the whole staff." Do not make your own folly an instrument for wounding the only innocent person in the story, the unhappy wife. If you will think it over, you will realize that you were just as much to blame as the man: It takes two to make a flirtation, you know, and you should have found out something about him before going to such extremes.

YOUNG OFFICE ASSISTANTS.

I would like to draw attention to the conduct of young office assistants. Nowadays they are really bold, to speak my mind. They will leave at night before the work is finished and in the morning they think nothing of being fifteen or thirty minutes late. This goes on month in and month out and still they retain their positions, whereas, a young attentive girl happening to be late once is reprimanded.

The schools of the present day, or maybe it is the homes, are sending the young people out without any idea of fairness or obedience. Ask them to help you with your work or to replace anything they themselves have taken out they will tell you to do it yourself. They never think of the full stenographer, who is perhaps only a few years older than themselves and who is working hard from morning until night, as a human being, and if there is a very great amount of work on any particular day it is not her fault and she will bear the greater part of the burden.

They think nothing of leaving you at night in the middle of probably fifty or seventy-five envelopes which have to be sealed and stamped and then the next morning will land in fifteen or thirty minutes late. I may mention here that these are the girls the young men of today are running after. The quiet young girls who keep their place in an office and do the best they can with the brains in their possession are hardly even respected. They are most times treated like machines.

I would be glad if you could publish this so it will receive attention from some of these young people, although I have long ago despaired of their paying attention to anything or anybody. CLEOPATRA.

HEALTH TALKS

By JOHN B. HUBER, A.M., M.D.

THE GLANDS IN THE NECK.

One often sees glands in the necks of little children swollen, appearing sometimes as a string of beads. Such glandular inflammation is called adenitis, or one large lymph tumor in the neck—lymphangioma. But most such cases of adenitis are seen under two years of age.

The ailment comes also by reason of infection spreading through the lymph channels during or after scarlet fever, measles, diphtheria and like diseases; and the germs of the respective diseases are found in the matter in the glands. The germ of tuberculosis is frequently found. The irritation caused by catarrhs of the nose, throat and mouth (snuffles, adenoids, tonsilitis) or neglected decayed teeth; eczema of the scalp or the irritation due to lice; ear inflammations, injuries—all such are provocative of adenitis.

The glands are like to become red and hot, to break down with the formation of pus; then the child is feverish. Otherwise the glands remain swollen for a week to two months, the lumps or "nodes" gradually becoming smaller or harder, then disappearing or leaving just one hard little node. The adenitis may redevelop later should any cause that brought on the first attack re-occur.

For a cure of adenitis, we have in each case to remove the cause. When the swelling is red and hot, threatening suppuration (the formation of pus or matter), cold applications are best—an ice bag or cloth wrung out in cold water. When pus is actually forming hot applications (poultices) are best. A 5 per cent ichthyol ointment spread on flannel and bandaged to the neck gives the child great relief.

In most cases it is best to wait till the abscess points, and then the doctor will make an incision. Then a cotton and gauze dressing is placed over the wound to receive the pus. The wound is washed at least twice a day with boracic acid (teaspoonful to the pint) solution. Painting with iodine is of no use.

In cases of prolonged chronic adenitis, cod liver oil, good nourishment, the syrup of the iodide of iron (in teaspoonful doses) and, if possible, change of climate to the seashore, are right measures.

As I have intimated, some of those cases of adenitis are tuberculous, and mothers of children suffering thus naturally fear consumption when those children grow up. It is, however, gratifying to observe that in many cases—though not in all, unhappily—the glandular inflammation has acted as an auto-inoculation, by which the child is like to be immune to tuberculosis in later life.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Mumps and Just Glands.

I have had glands below and a little behind my neck. There is now no swelling, but the after effects appear to affect my health. Do such swellings affect the procreative organs?

Answer.—Read the above. Mumps may have the effect you mention. But not glands in the neck as stated.

THE HISTORY OF YOUR NAME

By Philip Francis Nowlan

GREENWALD

VARIATIONS—Grunewald, Greenwalt, Greenwood.
RACIAL ORIGIN—German, also English.
SOURCE—Descriptive of Locality.

The last named of the variations of this family name gives you the clue to its meaning, as it is the only name of English origin in the group. The rest are of German development.

By far the larger number of families in the United States bearing the various forms of this name trace it back to German origin, for the name had a much wider development in Germany than in England. This is ascribed to the fact that even though the period of family name formation took place considerably later in Germany than in England, most sections of that country were less developed than the England of two or three hundred years before. In short, there were more forests, hence more "Greenwoods" in Germany than in England.

It is rare that an English and a German family name of exactly the same meaning run so near parallel in the philology of the words of which they are composed. Both "green" and "grune" come from the same root. Formerly the English word was spelled "grene," and the older form of the German word was "gruene." In the development of one language the "e" has prevailed and in that of the other the "u." In the same manner the words "wood" and "wald" come from the same root. The older form of the one was "wode," developed from a still earlier "wolde."

Grunewald is, of course, the true form of the German name. Greenawald and Greenwalt are modern variations, developed, as you may plainly observe from the first syllable, under the influence of English speech.

Tomorrow—Armstrong.

FASHIONS FOR TODAY

While fall styles are in the limelight just now, summer certainly is far from ended, and as long as warm weather lasts the average wardrobe will require occasional replenishing or refurbishing. The yardage departments of the big shops are offering extraordinary values on the remnant counters just now, because with them the summer is practically done once next season styles have made their appearance. The thrifty woman may easily make herself a number of smart little between-seasons' frocks at comparatively small expense, and she may study advance styles well enough to make these late dresses perfectly good throughout the fall months.

For evening and afternoon wear, fabrics have not changed much for several years. Georgettes and chiffons are always good and lace appears to have taken a permanent hold on the public fancy.

The sketch offers a suggestion for a dainty afternoon frock. It may be made all in one color of Georgette or chiffon, embroidered motifs supplying the trimming touch, or the frock proper may be made of flowered chiffon with plain drapery. The feature of this drapery is its length. Observe that it reaches well below the skirt proper.

Irregularity of line at the skirt's edge is a feature of the newest fall frocks. This is arrived at in many ways. The skirt may be short at the front and back and long at the sides, it may be long in front and shorter at sides and back, or it may be long on one side and short at the other. Irregularity is arrived at also by having many panels that come below the skirt proper.

The High Cost of Calf Food

It costs real money to feed a calf on pure milk. You'd be surprised at the quantity one will drink at a meal and when you consider that the animal is not really marketable until it has reached full calf growth you can easily realize the cost of feeding. Despite this fact we have received some excellent fillets of milk-fed veal which we can offer you at most modest prices. They are exceptionally fine and of a lovely white color. May we select some for you or may we expect you in to make your own selection?

BEDTIME STORY---HOME ECONOMICS

THE LITTLE JOKE OF NIMBLE-HEELS.

Some folks jump into trouble;
I jump the other way.
To jump unheeding, blindly,
Will very seldom pay.
—Nimbleheels.

He told the story of his adventures and grew quite puffed up with pride.

Of course, Peter Rabbit couldn't possibly keep to himself the story of how he had fooled Old Man Coyote. I am afraid Peter boasted a little. I suspect that he forgot that but for Jerry Muskrat he wouldn't have succeeded as he did. It is one of the queer things of life that people do forget such things. Anyway, late the next afternoon Peter ran over to the edge of the Green Forest and with a little group of his friends about him he told the story of his adventures and grew quite puffed out with pride as his friends admired him for his smartness. Peter dearly loves to be admired, in which matter he is not much different from most folks.

Just as he ended his story something landed on the ground right in the middle of that circle of little folks and almost at Peter's very feet. It was so unexpected and startling that the result was very, very funny. Peter didn't even look to see what it was; he bolted for a hollow log near by. Danny Meadow Mouse scurried under a little pile of dead leaves. Whitefoot the Wood Mouse darted in a knothole in the log on which he had been sitting. Jumper the Hare dodged behind a little pile of brush. Johnny Chuck backed up against a tree-trunk ready to fight. Only Happy Jack the Grey Squirrel and Chatterer the Red Squirrel, who were sitting in a tree, remained where they were. You see, they felt quite safe.

Then every one looked to see what had frightened them so. Perhaps you can guess how very, very foolish they felt when all they saw was a little fellow about the size of Whitefoot the Wood Mouse, but with a much longer tail. It was Nimbleheels the Jumping Mouse.

Johnny Chuck stopped snapping his teeth in the threatening way he has and began to chuckle. The chuckle became a laugh and presently Johnny was laughing so that he had to hold his fat sides. Now, as you know, laughter is catching, and in a minute or so everybody was laughing, and no one but Johnny Chuck knew what the joke was. At last Peter Rabbit stopped laughing long enough to ask Johnny what he was laughing at.

"At the idea of that little pinch-of-nothing giving us all such a fright," replied Johnny. Then all laughed some more.

It was a joke, for Nimbleheels is naturally such a timid little fellow that he is the last one in all the Great World who would think of trying to frighten anybody. When the others had stopped laughing he explained that he hadn't meant to scare them at all.

"I happened to see you fellows over here and thought I would run over and find out what was going on," he explained. "Just as I was almost here I thought I heard a twig snap just behind me and jumped. I didn't suppose anyone would be afraid of little me."

"It was some jump!" explained Jumper the Hare, who is a great jumper himself. "It was some jump! Why, he went right over my head, and I was sitting up at that!"

"It isn't much of a jump to go over your head," replied Nimbleheels modestly. "You ought to see me when I really try to jump. I wasn't half trying when I landed here. I'm sorry I frightened you so. It gives me a queer feeling to think I should be able to frighten anybody."

Now, Peter Rabbit had been the centre of admiration as he told how he had fooled Old Man Coyote and he wasn't at all pleased to have the attention of the others drawn to some one else. Besides, he was provoked to think that after boasting that he wasn't afraid of Old Man Coyote he had been so badly frightened by such a mite of a fellow as Nimbleheels.

"I don't think that was much of a jump," said he crossly. "I could jump farther than that myself."

COSTUME DESIGNING.

The lines of a dress should accord with the contour of the body. The ideal Greek figure has slightly sloping shoulders, a high chest, but not a large bust, a long neck, straight back, and a gentle curve at the waist. The Venus of Milo is the accepted type.

In designing a costume we need to remember that the body has three great divisions, head, trunk, and limbs, and that we drape the trunk and limbs with reference to the head, as well as to each other. The points of support of the body are the shoulders, and hips, while the parts that move and articulate are the ankles, knees, wrists, elbows and neck. In a well-ordered design, no line may be at variance with the contour of the figure, and all divisions must be made in relation to these structural divisions of the body. We may shift the waist line, and disguise it, but for beauty, we cannot get rid of it, and where a gown stops at neck, wrist and ankle is an important detail of design. Many recent gowns are really hideous from the standpoint of design, besides being incomplete. A garment should be supported at the structural points and decoration should be placed there or at a point of articulation.

Two kinds of lines are used in design, the straight and the curved. Straight lines are severe, and lend dignity and strength, while a curved line give variety and expresses the lighter emotions of joy and gayety. The curve that approaches the straight line, rather than the deep curve is the finer.

The lines of a design should suit the kind of material used. Stiff harsh fabrics demand straight lines, but soft fabrics may be made into a variety of curves. If vertical and horizontal lines are used in combination care must be taken not to destroy the unity of the whole effect. All the details of a design should merge into the design as a whole.

How Do You Say It?

(Copyright.)

"HIM" OR "HIS."

Such expressions as the following are often heard:

"What do you think of him studying Latin?" "The boy's advancement in business will depend upon him attending to his duties." "Her mother was opposed to the girl entering the school for nurses."

In each of these cases, and in other similar cases, the possessive should be used, and the sentences should be changed to read: "What do you think of his studying Latin?" "The boy's advancement in business will depend upon his attending to his duties," and "Her mother was opposed to the girl's entering the school for nurses."

The rule of grammar which governs such cases is given in Lookwood's "Lessons in English." It reads as follows: "The possessive case of the pronoun should be used before the verbal noun, sometimes called the infinitive in 'ing.'"

BY-ELECTIONS NOT BEFORE OCTOBER

Preliminary Procedure Prescribed Under New Act Somewhat Involved

MUST PREPARE LISTS

Maritime Contests Come First—Premier's Western Plans Indefinite

OTTAWA, July 16— From Our Own Correspondent.)— It will be the better part of two months before the Federal by-elections, necessitated by the entry to the Cabinet of Hon. F. B. McCurdy and Hon. R. W. Wigmore, are held. The preliminary procedure prescribed by the new Franchise Act which incidentally will have its first try out, is lengthy. In the first place registrars have to sit to prepare the lists, using the Provincial lists as a base. This process calls for a notice of several days, apart from the sitting time and time for making the lists.

Then the revising officers will sit and hear appeals to put on or take off names, and this begins twenty-one days before polling. Making allowance for the different exactions of the law the by-elections will not occur before the first week in September, and possibly later.

Those in St. John and Colchester will come first. The by-elections in East Elgin must be brought on within six months after the issue of the Speaker's warrant. This was issued on February 17th, so the writs must be issued by the 17th of August, and the voting need be held only in whatever date is then selected. It may be October before East Elgin votes, and later still in Yale, B.C., vacant by the retirement of Hon. Martin Burrell.

While J. H. Burnham has announced his resignation from West Peterboro, it is said to lack the witness of two fellow members and so is not effective till this deficiency is supplied.

POLITICAL SITUATION QUIET.

In political circles, meanwhile, the situation is quiet. The slightly reorganized Cabinet has disposed of some routine, but the new Prime Minister has been too busy getting his bearings and clearing up his correspondence to do much else. Moreover, at the end of a rather strenuous session there is a disposition to ease up and several of the Cabinet—the old timers especially—are leaving town to take a rest.

While the new Premier has indefinite plans about going west and opening a campaign, he will be in Ottawa for a good while yet and probably it will be August at the earliest before he gets away.

The status of the two Parliamentary secretaries—Hon. F. H. Keefer and Hon. Hugh Clark—is not yet determined. Their appointments were in the nature of war measures sanctioned by Parliament, but expiring at a stated period after the war that is now up. If the British practice is followed and the positions are maintained, the secretaries will need to go back for re-election. There is doubt, however, as to the continuance of these sub-portfolios, particularly that of the Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment Department, held by Col. Clark, as that department will soon be abolished and its work absorbed by the Militia Department.

Government Has Yet Taken No Action Under Act

OTTAWA, July 16.—(By Canadian Press.)—No action has yet been taken by the Government under the Act to assist shipbuilding which was passed at the recent session of Parliament, although it is believed that a number of applications for the endorsation of notes have been received. It was stated, when the bill was before the House, that a number of orders from Foreign firms would be placed with Canadian yards as soon as the financial assistance provided for in the Act could be given.

The Biggest Value in Popular Priced Tailored-to-Measure Suits and Overcoats in the British Empire.

OUR policy, our Quality fabrics and our Standardized No-tax Prices were the foundation of this business twelve years ago. We speak of Quality first, because we fixed the Standard of Quality before we fixed the Standardized Price Policy!

Price alone is no reason why you should order your clothes Tailored-to-Measure. Price doesn't mean anything anywhere, unless it fixes the value of a Quality that is satisfactory to you.

We know that you can pay more than our Standardized Prices for a Suit that is not any better than our Tailored-to-Measure Garment. We have never tried to make a cheap suit to meet a certain price—every garment that leaves our Tailor Shops must be as good as you can get anywhere—and at any one of our 27 Quality Tailor Shops the Quality is the same and all at our Known Standardized Prices. Our garments represent Real Value rather than a mere vanity high price.

EVERY man who comes to one of our 27 Quality Tailor Shops will immediately recognize our extraordinary fabric values—values that are impossible of duplication. Every thinking man today knows that real value in a suit or overcoat is not on a price tag—nor in a "reduced-price." The real value is behind the price tag! It is in the merchandise; in the integrity of the concern back of the clothes; in its spirit of service and guarantee of satisfaction. We want the clothes buyers of the Dominion to know that is the secret of our unprecedented volume of business. If you believe in this kind of service, let us take your measure for a new suit or overcoat, and we shall accept full responsibility in pleasing you, not to speak of saving you money as well.

APPLICATION OF MRS. DOUGHTY CONTESTED

Sisters of Missing Man Claims Wife Not Entitled to Rents

TORONTO, July 16.—An application on behalf of the wife of John Doughty, who has been missing since December 28, 1919, was made to Mr. Justice Lennox at Osgoode Hall here yesterday for authority to collect the Doughty rents. The application was opposed on behalf of three sisters of Mr. Doughty, and it was contended that as Mr. and Mrs. Doughty had been separated for some time prior to his disappearance, during which time the wife had not received separation money, she should have no claim now to rents owing to Mr. Doughty. Besides, it was contended that Mr. Doughty had not disappeared from Toronto, but had obtained a position in Montreal and had gone to it. The application was adjourned until after the holidays.

Doughty is "wanted" by the police on a charge of having kidnapped Ambrose J. Small, the millionaire theatre owner of this city, who disappeared on December 2, 1919, and also charged with having stolen $100,000 of Victory Bonds owned by Mr. Small. Doughty was Mr. Small's private secretary for many years.

Magistrates in England in the sixteenth century had certain powers with regard to fixing wages and hours of labor.

EQUAL TO THE EMERGENCY.

Collection money was to little Tommy one of the essentials of church going. Every Sunday morning he saw that his penny was ready. One day, just as the ushers began to take the collection, Tommy noticed that a guest in the family pew was not duly provided. Sliding along, the lad, he whispered: "Where's your penny?"

"I didn't bring one," replied the lady.

Time was short and the matter was urgent, but Tommy was quick witted. Thrusting his penny into the lady's hand, he whispered:

BATTLE AGAINST LOCUST PLAGUE

CAN BE STEMMED

Sweeping Measures Under Way to Kill Off Young Hordes

WINNIPEG, Man., July 1.—Every grain, pod, leaf, stem, and root in the entire Province of Manitoba might be swept out of existence if the devastating hordes of young locusts now being killed off in the southwestern corner of the province in numbers as impossible to count as the sand grains of the sea shore, were permitted to reach maturity.

To most people the locust menace seems as vague and remote as did the German peril.

But take it from T. A. Johnson, representative of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, who was interviewed today at his headquarters, Deloraine, Man., there were enough locust eggs in the ground this spring to produce adults in sufficient numbers to spread ruin over the whole of Manitoba.

"If the Government had not acted, or if we were to slacken now in our battle against the plague," said Mr. Johnson, "the swarms would rapidly lay waste the crop in the six municipalities to which they are at present confined, and then migrate in clouds to infest the rest of the province, providing climatic conditions did not interfere.

ASTOUNDING MENACE.

"Farmers in districts most remote from us might be rejoicing in the best crops grown in years. Rains might be plentiful, sunshine abundant and all other weather conditions ideal. But suddenly the sky would be obscured and millions of insects would settle down on the rich fields, to destroy not only the parts of the grain that form the food of man, but even the residual products used as cattle feed."

So southwestern Manitoba is merely the battle-front. The rest of the country should be as vitally interested in the outcome of the war that is waged there as were the thriving provinces of Belgium when the Germans first opened fire on the eastern boundary.

That would amount to 43,560,000 adult insects from each acre, or 27,878,400,000 from each square mile; or 41,817,600,000,000 from the entire infested area, supposing it was uniformly affected. That would mean about 500,000 locusts for every square mile of tilled land in the whole province, supposing only half the area of the province falls into this classification.

A bushel of adult grasshoppers contains 10,000 insects, adult locusts. The infested corner might produce, therefore, 4,181,760,000 bushels of the insects.

AREA IS INCREASED.

This estimate necessarily is very rough. It is impossible to ascertain yet the total extent of the infested area and districts already reported as such may contain eggs only in limited areas.

A rough idea of the territory in which the pests are most numerous may be obtained by taking the town of Hartney as the northeast corner of a rectangle, the east side of which extends due south to the international boundary and the north side due west to the Saskatchewan boundary.

The environs of Waskada, Melita, Goodlands, Medora, Lyleton, Coulter, Pierson, Cameron, Elva and Napinka are reported as suffering the most severe outbreaks.

Why are they there?

Sam Yeomans, of Napinka, voiced the opinion of many farmers and Government workers when he said the infestation was the result to be expected from the occurrence of four dry years in succession. Normally present in most localities, the locusts have thrived upon the sandy soil of the south west corner and the absence of rain in large quantities has enabled them to reproduce with great rapidity and little climatic interference.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE.

As only a certain percentage of the eggs have been hatched, and the young locusts are still too small to do extensive damage, the loss so far has been slight. On a few farms, though, the broad strips of land on which the grain has been destroyed are observable.

W. Temple, who, with his two sons, worked two sections of land near Waskada, has suffered perhaps as much loss as any farmer in the territory. Starting on a front of about 200 yards along the fence of one of his wheat fields, the insects have progressed about 30 feet into the field. Not a trace of plant life is left in their path. The green of the field ends sharply in a wavy line, which marks the locusts' farthest point of penetration.

Close examination of the barron strip in the rear of the insects reveals that only parts of the plants, which have attained a height of only a few inches as yet, have been eaten. But although plants snowed under, badly blown or otherwise damaged by weather conditions, will resume growth after a time, once a locust nibbles at them they die, leaf, stem and root, Mr. Temple said.

John Harbottle's half-section, south of Napinka, is said to be infested so severely that the proprietor is considering the advisability of moving north. "He is being eaten out," said A. L. Maher, propreitor of the Russell Hotel at Napinka. "I hear he is talking of seeding no more of his land."

Another factor that accounts for the small loss incurred this year is that the insects will not attack the grain fields in earnest as long as the grass of the road allowances is fresh.

Because drought, blights and windstorms also contributed to the comparative failure of last year's crop in the locust territory, Dominion and provincial governments have not found it possible to estimate the proportion of the loss that may be attributed to the insects. It is reported officially merely that a number of fields were completly devastated and many others suffered to a less extent. A Dominion government report states that millions of dollars worth of grain were destroyed in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

FARMERS HARD HIT.

However, individual farmers have forced rough estimates of their losses. For instance, Holly Hanna, who farms two sections between Dalny and Waskada has been obliged to purchase $1,700 worth of oats to feed his stock. Calculating from this figure, it is conservative to say that his total loss was in excess of $2,000.

Mr. Temple, whose two sections are infested again this year also places his loss at about $2,000. A typical example of the work of the insects was that a five-acre field of registered wheat which he expected to furnish 35 bushels to the acre, as it had weathered the summer splendidly, yielded only five bushels to the acre after a swarm or locusts had passed over.

J. S. Henry, in charge of the Ogilvie elevator at Napinka said only 35,000 bushels of grain were marketed from Napinka instead of the usual 200,000 or more. However, much of this decline was due undoubtedly to weather conditions, although with good weather, the output of the district sometimes reaches 250,000 bushels.

At least $1,000 per section was lost in feed alone, according to M. E. Harty, who has three-quarters of a section near Waskada.

Considering that there are 48 townships in the area affected and each township contains 36 sections, if only 20 per cent. of the farms suffered to this extent, the total loss in food alone would amount to $400,000.

Mr. Hartry said that on much of his land he realized only ten instead of 50 or 60 bushels to the acre. Oats and barley were most commonly attacked. The adult locusts climbed to the tops of the stems and nipped off the heads, allowing them to fall to the ground. They even took the leaves, so that all that remained was the stem. This was comparatively useless, as feed for the stock. The cattle in the district therefore, have failed considerably.

A general impression, which lacks official substantiation, that locusts will select rye fields in preference to others has resulted in a great decrease in rye acreage, it is reported. Farmers who have devoted almost their entire farms to rye in former years and who suffered great losses last year are said to be turning to wheat this year, since the insects seem to be attracted less by that grain.

GROUND IS ALIVE.

What damage may be expected this year?

The ominous rustling of the grass is the only signal of impending destruction that reaches the senses of a person walking along the rural roads. But by straying toward the fence-line more striking testimony is obtained. Thousands of minute insects about one-third of an inch in length, start up from the roadside at every step. Close examination reveals the fact that the ground is "alive" with them. Yet by scraping away a handful of earth, hundreds of eggs still unhatched are exposed to view.

The whole constitutes a menace such as Manitoba has never faced. The swarm of tiny insects posesses the power to throw even Winnipeg into stagnancy and to send the cost of living to unconceived heights. For, although this story concerns only the plague in Manitoba, there is a similar state of affairs in Saskatchewan, parts of Alberta and the northern states of the union.

But it is a menace that is being met. At the right jucture with the right tools, with full scientific knowledge and with the zealous co-operation of the inhabitants of the afflicted districts, the Manitoba agricultural department has already struck a mighty blow. Continuation of the effort during the ensuing weeks will result not only in the prevention of the spread of the scourge, but in the saving of a much greater percentage of the crop in the southwest corner than was saved last year.

BLACK BEARS ROB VANCOUVER COOPS

SOUTH VANCOUVER, B.C., July 11.—The prevalence of black bears is evoking much criticism in this district. One large black bear visited the thickly-settled district between Main and Fraser streets at midnight recently. It killed four ducks and badly mauled several pigs. The squealing of the pigs aroused neighbors, whose shouts alarmed the bear. He scrambled out of the pen and ambled away in the darkness. A few days ago a chicken coop was raided in a similar manner by a bear. Local experts in wild animal lore are at a loss to account for these unusual forays.

FIERCE TYRANNY IN NORTH RUSSIA

PRISONS FILLING UP

No Production, No One Will Work—Distorted Justice

When the British authorities at Archangel ordered the embarkation of all British subjects our interests in that port were placed in the hands of two Dutch gentlemen, says the London Morning Post. These gentlemen arrived in London a few days ago, after a daring escape, and bring terrible accounts of the disorganization, suffering and misery which followed the Soviet occupation last February. The following is the account given by one of them of the present state of Russia under Bolshevist rule:

All trade and industry of private persons, companies and enterprises, no matter to what nationality they belong, are liquidated and taken in hand by the Soviet Government. All former owners, directors, merchants and manufacturers who had not been imprisoned or executed, are compelled to serve in the many Government institutions for low wages under the control of the Communists. All moveable property of merchants and manufacturers has been requisitioned without scruple and without any payment. The same fate befell banks, manufactories, shops, steamships, etc. The co-operative socities, of which so much has been said of late, exist only as Government institutions. They were liquidated by arresting or discharging their leading officers and putting in their place Communists appointed by the Government. These men possess the power and position of autocrats, and act solely by and according to Government instructions. The goods belonging to the co-operative societies in Archangel after the occupation in February last were immediately sent to Moscow, and there is nothing left for the inhabitants of North Russia. A Commissary for foreign trade who arrived in Archangel with a most extensive power of attorney from Moscow actually told me: "If the Allies will deal only with the co-operatives, and not with the Soviet Government, we will take the co-operative sign from off their doors and put it above that of the Government." And this was actually done.

GAINS OF CONFISCATORS.

Organized searches in an endeavor to find anti-Bolshevist propaganda take place every night. If any evidence is found, gold, silver, money, clothes, and foodstuffs are confiscated, houses, grounds, carriages, horses, etc., are confiscated, according to the needs of the different Commissaries and institutions. The right of property no longer exists in Russia, nor do personal political convictions or liberty. Every Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning, from nine until twelve o'clock, all Government employes are obliged to do physical labor, no matter whether man or woman. This has to be done as voluntary work for the welfare of the Communist State, and if anyone fails to appear he is punished as a counter-revolutionist.

The prisons are filled to overflowing, and the prisoners are threatened with starvation. Spotted fever reigns everywhere to an alarming extent, and all means of travel are infected with it. At the end of April Lenin declared war against all peasants who are possessors of property. The Commissaries of different institutions are working absolutely without any contact with each other, and each one considers himself the chief. The envy and distrust of each other is enormous. This state of affairs makes it possible that an agreement made with one institution will afterwards be cancelled by another. Lenin now intends to put one responsible man at the head of each department, but the Communist Party will not give its sanction to this.

TREATMENT OF FOREIGNERS.

The law is in a horrible state, the judges being taken from the lowest classes. I myself was arrested and set at liberty without knowing the reason for my arrest. After the occupation of Archangel, the Bolsheviks transported everything into the interior except timber and some small quantities of goods. At the beginning of May a decree was issued putting all foreigners with the exception of Norwegians, in the same category as the Russian people; consequently exposing them to all despotic acts. Owing to the destruction of all means of transport, bread, salt and all kinds of food — in fact, everything the people need — is exceedingly scarce. In Vologda, for instance, one pound of salt costs 600 roubles, and everyone except the Commissary or Red Guard and Communist is starving, and the remainder of the people in the central part of Russia are almost demented.

In the big towns everyone is disinclined to work, and speculates in the queerest things for a living. It is, however, a matter of fact that the peasants, nomads and other people living in the country are in a somewhath better position, but they only work to produce as much as is necessary to feed themselves and their families. Consequently, here, too, there is no production; besides which, at the present time they have no seeds to plant. That is my own opinion, and it is one that is shared by many Russians. In fact, if foreign countries keep up Russia's commercial isolation, the Bolshevist Government is doomed.

Woman Aged 106, With 12 Children, Eats All Foods

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 14.—"I eat anything—always have done so and always will." Thus Mrs. George de Beck, who has just celebrated her one hundred and sixth birthday, disposes of the popular theory that dieting makes for longevity.

Mrs. de Beck, the oldest woman in British Columbia—probably the oldest in Canada—still takes a lively interest in all that goes on about her, in her home and throughout the world. She is keen-eyed and vigorous, and spends much of her time in her garden. Up until the last year she had been able to read the newspapers in detail, but now she reads only the headlines. Born in New Brunswick, on June 27, 1814, Mrs. de Beck was the mother of twelve children, five of whom are still alive. One daughter died two years ago at the age of eighty, and another of 79 visited her recently.

HEART FAILURE CAUSED DEATH

QUEBEC, July 16.—Last Monday night a man by the name of Benoit died suddenly here, and it was said that he had been poisoned by drinking a medical prescription wrongly prepared by a druggist. CZECHO-SLOVAKS CARRY MASCOTS

Left on Reford Liner With Bear, Horse, and Pony—Local Tug Sunk

The Montreal liner Valencia, of the Robert Reford Company, which left port this week, sailed from Quebec yesterday with 627 Czecho-Slovaks and 51 officers for Hamburg. She is the second of the Reford liners to sail with contingents from Valcartier Camp.

A very unusual privilege was allowed when the Czecho-Slovaks embarked, namely the carrying of animals aboard ship. The returning soldiers in their long trek from Siberia, round the world eastward to Galicia, had gathered a few mascots on the way. The Valencia took aboard a bear, a horse, and a pony. Her predecessor, the Czaritza, of the same company, carried 3 bears.

Dantzig has been declared a "free port" by the Allies.

MONTREAL TUG SUNK.

An accident happened in the upper river early this morning, the tug Margaret Hackett being sunk in Lake St. Peter. The Margaret Hackett, with a tow of lumber was bound for Ogdensburg, N.Y. She collided with the Canada Steamship Lines Brookdale.

First reports which came to the George Hall Company today indicated that there was no loss of life. The Margaret is owned by the latter company. No details have come to hand showing the cause of the collision. The tug is presumed to be a total loss.

ROME TO TOKIO, 95 HOURS IN AIR

Flight of 10,000 Miles is One of Varied Thrills

TOKIO, June 2. — On arriving in Tokio, on May 31st, after their long flight of more than 10,000 miles from Rome to Tokio, the Italian aviators accorded interviews to the press and described their remarkable experiences on the way. They left Rome on the 29th of February, and were 106 days on the way, having spent only 95 hours in the air and made 24 stops.

Almost every sort of weather was encountered on the voyage, the early days of the flight taking them through much snow and rain, with heavy clouds later, and then torrid heat over Eastern plains and chilling blasts as they crossed mountain passes. The best weather experienced during the voyage was between Canton and Foochow. At Canton, Lieut. Ferrari got lost, and at last groped his way to Hongkong, where he landed at night in front of the British barracks.

SUPPOSED TO BE BIRD.

From Rome to Aleppo the weather was very unfavorable, with heavy snowstorms; from Aleppo to Basra flying conditions were good, while the next three flights which brought them to Karachi were all made under trying weather conditions with much rain; and the voyage from there past various stopping places to Hanoi and Indo-China was much the same. Adventures in plenty came to the aviators on the way, compelling them to make landings in various undesirable places. One of the most exciting of these was when Lieut. Ferrari was forced to land in Baluchistan. The natives supposed the machine to be a great bird and came out in a crowd with rifles to capture it. Having satisfied themselves that it was not dangerous they insisted on the airman remaining with them for good, as something interesting. This he apparently agreed to do; and after getting his motor again into order he proposed to show them some stunts in the air, to which they agreed. He soared aloft, looped the loop and side slipped a few times, getting farther and farther away all the time, until at last he was out of rifle range and resumed his voyage leaving his amazed spectators waiting for him to return.

The course of the flight covered the following landing places: Rome, Gioia de Colle, Salonika, Adalia, Aleppo, Bagdad, Basra, Bander-Abbasi, Chahbar, Karachi, Delhi, Benares, Calcutta, Rangoon, Bangok, Hanoi, Canton, Hongkong, Foochow, Shanghai, Tsingtau, Pekin, Seoul, Osaka, Tokio. Every welcome was extended to the aviators on the way, save when they chanced among hostile tribes in Arabia. Thus the flight originally planned by d'Annunzio and to be led by him came to an end, with two out of the 7 original planes reaching their destination. We doubt the experiences of the Italian aviators will prove useful to those studying the weather and other conditions important in aerial navigation over the distance traversed.

Lieut. Ferari is a young man of 24, but he has had plenty of flying experience, having participated with d'Annunzio in the record flight in the air raid on Vienna, and the mechanician that flew with him to Tokio has seen similar service. Lieut. Masiero is also an Italian ace who took part in the raid on Vienna, and distinguished himself by the number of enemy planes he brought down during the war. He once flew from Rome to Warsaw. The letter entrusted to the expedition by the King of Italy to be handed to the Emperor of Japan was in charge of Lieut. Ranza, who was unfortunately captured by the Arabs near Aleppo.

OFFICE LOWELL MASSACHUSETTS

MOST EXCEPTIONAL VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Pledged without limit or reserve in all its entirety in one lot as a single unit to the highest bona fide bidder at unrestricted and unprotected public sale—free from all encumbrance except a comparatively small first mortgage gold bond issue not yet due with interest at six per cent. per annum—the long established and completely equipped ship repair yard midway of the Great Lakes on one of the busiest and most important waterways in America; which waterway forms the boundary line between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, and serves both countries; in the Port Huron-Marysville location in the Saint Clair River district at Port Huron, Michigan. The erection of new plate and angle and pipe shops, and new air-compressor house, and new wood-working shop—with new late type heavy standard machine equipment installed in each, together with new instalments in the machine and fitting shops and yard tool house and power plant and new systems of air and gas and water yard piping and industrial yard trackage and new steam crane and new locomotive crane and new wharves and bulkheads and pier and new shipways and etc. had hardly been completed and the large dry dock in full use when the armistice came and contracts with the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation for ten steel sea-going tugs were cancelled. Rarely has a manufacturing site such a combination of extended deep water connections and broad trunk railway facilities and trolley freight and express privileges and concrete paved far-reaching motor highway shipping advantages. This ship repair yard was taken over by The Foundation Company-Port Huron Shipyard, and for the duration of the war only—hence its sale without recourse at this time. All is set forth in unusual detail by picture and plan and word in a catalogue free to all upon application. The sale will take place upon the premises at Port Huron Michigan regardless of any condition of the weather on Thursday the 29th day of July 1920 commencing very promptly at one o'clock noon (Eastern Standard Time). GEO. E. JOHNSON Vice President.

STEAMSHIPS MERGER PLAN---LAKE OF WOODS SHARE BONUS

FURTHER PRICE LOSSES; TREND WAS UNCERTAIN

In spite of several efforts on the part of traders to rally the local stock market this morning the main trend was downward and the result of the morning's business, in the main, was a fairly long list of net losses from last night's closing level, which, in turn, was lower than from the previous day. From the recent high prices the market has had a fairly good decline, although the shake-out of stock has not been as great as might be expected after such a consistently strong market as has ruled recently. It is argued, therefore, that the major upward movement is not yet over, the present softness being more of a pause for breath than a definite break.

The paper stocks were rather undecided during the greater part of the session, and from the lowest points, there were some rallied. Spanish River, for instance, opening at 120½, breaking to 119, rallying to 121 and closing at 120⅝, up ⅛ point. The preferred was weak, however, opening at 129, firming to 130, breaking to 127 with odd lots as low as 125. It then rallied to 130 and closed off again at 128½, a net loss of 1½ points. Laurentide was weaker on the session opening at 119½ and easing back to 118, a net drop of 1 point. Other papers included: Abitibi 84¼ to 83½, down ½; Wayagamack 122 to 120, down 1; Brompton 148¼ to 149 to 147½ to 148, down 1; Riordon 218 to 217, unchanged, and Smith Paper 154, down 1.

Lake of the Woods, following the announcement of the 25 per cent. special cash dividend and new stock issue, was strong, but not markedly active. Recently the stock sold at 205. To-day odd lots sold at 225 and 220 with the board lots coming out at 215, a net advance of 10 points. The announcements by the company came as a surprise to the Street.

Forgings was one of the features of the session when the stock sold near the end of the session at a new low point on the downward movement at 185, a net decline of 27 points from the previous board lot sale of the stock which was recorded last month. Recent weakness in the issue has carried the price downward from the high of this year at 256. Today's price also constitutes a new low level for this year, the previous low having been a point higher. Another point of interest was a sale of Windsor Hotel at 74, a net advance of 2 points. This is the first sale of the stock on the local market in some long time, with the exception of a sale of two shares last month at 80.

Sugar common weakened on the morning, and after opening up 2 at 150 the price fell off to 147½. From there it rallied to 149 but closed at 148, a net loss of 1. The preferred sold down 1 net at 175.

Textile showed improvement at 143 to ½ to 143, up 1 net. Penmans, however was down 2 at 143. Converters was unchanged at 77, and Can. Cottons was 90 bid. Tooke came out at 80, then fell two to 78, a net loss of 2.

Beer assayed a rally in the early trading, but not receiving much encouragement slacked off and closed at 65, down 1 from the opening and a net gain of ¼.

The balance of the list quoted as follows: Ont. Steel 77 to 78⅝, the old high, to 78¼, a net gain of 1¼; Iron weaker at 67½ to 67, down 1¼; Asbestos 87, unchanged; Steamships 75⅝ to ⅛ to 75, down ½; Steel of Can. 73, unchanged; Quebec Ry. 33¼ to 33, down 1; Cement 58½ to ¼, down ½; Brazilian 42½, down ¼; Canners 59, unchanged; Macdonald, 33⅝ to ½, down ⅛; Hillcrest 56, unchanged; Steamships pref. 81¼ to 81, down ½; Car pref. 100, unchanged; and Cement pref. 91, unchanged.

REID NEWFOUNDLAND CO INSURES ITS EMPLOYES

Of peculiar interest to large employers at the present time is the recent action of the Reid Newfoundland Company in covering its employees by means of a group insurance policy.

This corporation has been one of the principal instruments in building up the Ancient Colony to its present strong industrial position. Capital and labor are drawing closer together. A better understanding is being reached, and group insurance has had a lot to do with this better understanding.

In making the announcement to its employees in a circular letter, the Reid Company declare that "the interests of the employer and employee are so closely allied and interwoven that whatever helps one helps the other, and desiring to promote and increase the harmonious relationship between the company and its employees we have adopted as a reward for faithful service the group life insurance system and have covered the lives of our regular staff with the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada.

This policy amounting to over a million and a quarter dollars, is the first to be placed in any part of the British Colonies outside of Canada. The Reid Newfoundland Company have specially provided that employees of the company who enlisted for service during the late war will be given full credit for the time of their service with the Empire.

STEAMSHIP DEAL; AGREEMENT IS MORE LIKE LEASE

The special meeting of Canada Steamship shareholders to ratify the British Empire Steel merger deal has been called for Saturday, July 24. Proxies are in the name of J. W. Norcross, or failing him, C. A. Barnard, K.C., or failing him, M. J. Haney, both of the later being vice-presidents.

The agreement is along different lines from that made with either of the steel companies, as by the agreement the Steamship Company undertakes for a period of 25 years from and after the first day of July, 1920, to operate and manage the business of Canada Steamship Lines and to conduct the same in all respects as efficiently as heretofore for the profit or loss of the British Empire Steel Corporation, who shall be entitled to any surplus profit arising therefrom, after deduction therefrom of all expenses of such operations, including management and direction expenses and the further deduction afterwards mentioned in the agreement, the British Empire Steel Corporation, on its part, to bear any loss or deficiency.

By the second clause of the agreement the Canada Steamship Lines assures the maintenance of the 7 per cent dividend on the common stock of the company, and it is specified that if this were not earned, the British Empire Steel Corporation covenants and agrees to supply the deficiency as required.

Out of the surplus revenues arising from the operations and expenses, the Steamship Company shall retain and pay the amount necessary to meet interest on its outstanding debenture stock or bonds, mortgages, whether due by the Steamship Company or its subsidiaries, and a dividend at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, payable quarterly on the Steamship Company's issue of preferred and common stock outstanding, as well as making provision for requisite depreciation and sinking fund which in no event shall be less than the depreciation and sinking fund required by the Trust Deed securing the Company's debenture stock or bonds, and should the revenues of the Steamship Company and its subsidiaries be insufficient for such purposes the Steel Company covenants and agrees to supply the deficiency as required.

The Steel Company on its part further covenants and agrees to provide or advance such additional cash capital as the Steamship Company may reasonably require from time to time for its operations and extensions to secure the repayment of which provision or advances the Steamship Company shall give proper security therefor, convenanting to pay a reasonable rate of interest thereon having regard to prevailing conditions at the time of such advances;

In consideration of the foregoing covenants on the part of the Steel Company the Steamship Company agrees to transfer and pay over to the Steel Company its surplus net earnings, subject to the provisions aforesaid, during the currency of this agreement;

This agreement shall remain in force for such period beyond the term of 25 years as aforesaid until cancelled by one year's notice in writing given by either party to the other, but shall in no event extend beyond the period of 99 years.

Furthermore, for the consideration aforesaid the Steamship Company covenants and agrees that the Steel Company provided it has not in the meantime increased its outstanding capital stock by the declaration of stock dividends or stock bonuses to its shareholders shall during the period of 25 years from the date hereof have the right at any time to purchase all the then existing assets and undertakings of the Steamship Company, including goodwill, but subject to the assumption of its liabilities, as a going concern upon the payment or transfer by the Steel Company to the Steamship Company of 125,000 shares of 7% cumulative second preference stock, 120,000 shares of 7% cumulative second preference, and 66,500 shares of common or ordinary stock of the Steel Company, such shares to be fully paid and of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100) each. In the event of this option being exercised, the said shares of the Steel Company shall carry dividends from the date in respect of which the last dividends have been paid upon the shares of the Steamship Company, or the Steel Company shall pay to the Steamship Company the equivalent in cash.

AREAS SHOWN TO GRAIN LARGER THAN EXPECTED

OTTAWA, July 16.—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has issued the revised estimate of the areas sown to the principal grains and to potatoes and hay, of which the following is a summary.

In most cases the areas reported, after conclusion of seeding, are larger by about 1 or 2 per cent than the preliminary estimate of a month ago. Wheat, including fall wheat, is now reported as occupying for all Canada 17,186,300 acres, which compares with 19,125,968 acres, the final estimate of 1919, and represents a decrease of 10 p.c. Spring wheat occupies 16,446,000 acres, or 11 p.c. less than last year, and fall wheat 740,300 acres, or 10 p.c. more. The area sown to oats is 15,555,400 acres, as against 14,952,114 acres last year, an increase of 4 p.c. Barley is sown to 2,588,000 acres, or 2 p.c. less, rye 729,500 acres, or 3 p.c. less, peas 222,800 acres, or 3 p.c. less, mixed grains 909,350 acres, or 1 p.c. more, hay and clover 10,409,150 acres or 2 p.c. less and alfalfa 229,000 acres, or 1 p.c. more. Potatoes have an acreage of 819,000, which is practically equal to that of last year.

There will be no session on Montreal Stock Exchange tomorrow, Saturday, by decision of the Committee, as officially announced. The New York Stock Exchange will remain open as usual, unless a decision to the contrary is arrived at late today, but this is unlikely. The local market will re-open at the usual hour Monday.

Topics of the Street

This morning's turnover on the local stock market underwent severe shrinkage, only 9,499 shares changing hands compared with 8,170 more, or 17,669, shares yesterday morning. In no single issue did trading exceed the 1,000-share mark. The list of stocks traded in was a fairly comprehensive one.

More active stocks included: Spanish River, 996; Spanish River pref., 890; Atlantic Sugar, 820; Brompton, 796; Breweries, 780; Laurentide, 693; Quebec Railway, 425; Ontario Steel, 400; Iron, 285; Canners, 250; Cement, 214; Steamships, 200.

The wide interest at present displayed in the pulp and paper stocks on the local market, as well as the interest in the statistics of their movements during the past three years, as recently printed in these columns, brings up a point of considerable interest in connection therewith. While a great deal has been said of the general movement upward in the price of pulp and paper stocks, such appreciation is not generally applied directly to the companies themselves. It is nevertheless interesting to study the great increase in the value of the capital stocks of nine of the leading pulp and paper issues from the low point of 1916 to the high point of 1920.

In 1916 low prices of the issued capital of these companies made up an aggregate of market value $32,867,730, a comparatively small amount when looked at from today's viewpoint. At the high points touched by the various issues thus far this year, the value of the capital stocks of the same companies, had increased no less than $102,730,000, to $135,547,730.

This would mean that were the nine companies to have sold out their share capital in the open market early in 1916, they would have received in actual cash well over a hundred million dollars less than they would at the present time. In a measure, this round figure might be taken as an indication of how much better off the industry as well as the holders of the securities are today than three years ago, but this figure might be multiplied many times if an approximate idea of the profits made out of the advance in these stocks in the open market were to be judged.

(Three last figures omitted.)

In his address at the Dominion Steel meeting at Halifax yesterday, the president, Mr. Wolvin, in the course of his address, made the following remarks which will be of special interest to bankers and financiers generally:

"In Toronto business is largely operated on the banker and trust company idea. Montreal operates in a broader field, but when you get to the Maritime Provinces, one finds the trader who is in touch with West Indian business and foreign trade, and who has a different outlook. We are naming our new company the British Empire Steel Corporation. We hope to give it the world vision such as has made Great Britain. We will have the necessary money and I expect we will have sufficient vision and proper British enterprise and nerve to go into the world's markets and obtain sufficient profitable business for all our plants. Let me say here that in my judgment the possibilities of the corporation are unlimited."

COL. F. S. MEIGHEN

JUICY MELON IS DISTRIBUTED BY LAKE OF WOODS

cash dividend of 25 per cent on the outstanding common stock of the company, as detailed hereunder, the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Limited, directors have enacted a new by-law providing for the issuing of additional stock.

The by-law provides for the issuing to shareholders of record at 3 p.m. Aug. 21, next, one share of new stock for each share now held, or 7,000 new shares in all, raising the common to $3,500,000. The cash dividend will amount to one hundred dollars on each four shares now held, so that this distribution will actually pay for the new share which is to be issued at par, thus virtually making it a stock bonus, with the shareholder retaining the privilage of either keeping his dividend or of buying the extra share with it, besides, the valuable rights, accruing to his credit on the distribution.

Subscription form for the new stock will be sent to shareholders on or about Aug. 21, next, and subscriptions must be returned to the Crown Trust Company, duly completed, on or before Sept. 30, by which date payment for the new stock must also be made, which payment can be made through the transfer of the special dividend, as mentioned above.

No fractional shares will be issued but participating warrants for fractions of shares will be issued to those entitled to them and holders may deal in them personally or through brokers until Sept. 30. Warrants outstanding after that date will no longer entitle the holder to the fractional shares, but holders will be entitled to be paid a proportional amount at the rate of $100 a share, upon surrender of the warrants. Proportional part of the special dividend will be covered by and included in that payment.

Directors of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Limited, have declared a special dividend to shareholders of 25 per cent, together with the regular dividends on the common and preferred stocks for the quarter ending Aug. 31 next. This is the second big distribution to be made thus far this year by a Canadian milling company, St. Lawrence Flour Mills having paid a 10 per cent bonus on January 2, last.

The declaration by the Lake of the Woods board comes as a complete surprise to the Street and indicates that despite the dullness that has been attending the milling stocks in the local market for some months past, there is still something to expect from them, not only in the way of distributions, but also in the way of market action, although most of the leading issues are very closely held at the present time.

A 25 per cent cash dividend is one of the largest distributions ever made out of profits by any Canadian company and is certainly the largest ever paid by the Lake of the Woods. The Ogilvie Milling Company have paid large special dividends, and during 1917, 1918, and 1919, cash distributions of 15 per cent, together with regular dividends, were made. In 1917 the Maple Leaf Milling declared a special dividend of 10 per cent in Victory Loan Bonds, and the same in 1918. In 1917 this company's total dividends on the common stock were 21 per cent, in 1918, 23 per cent and in 1919, 24 per cent.

On Lake of the Woods common the dividend has been increased steadily from 6 to 8 per cent in 1910 and to the present rate of 12 per cent per annum. In 1916 total paid out was 16 per cent, in 1917, 10 per cent, and in 1918, 15 per cent and 1919, 14 per cent.

EX-DIVIDEND TODAY

Among the stocks which went ex-dividend on the local market today were: Imperial Bank, 3 per cent; Montreal Tramways, 2½ per cent; Standard Bank, 3½ per cent.; Russell Motor common, 1¾ per cent; the pref., 1¾ per cent.

The investor in stocks is sometimes misled by large current earnings. It is equally important to know how earnings averaged over a period of years on the stock he is considering.

WHEAT BROKE SHARPLY ON SCATTERED SELLING

Wheat—Business in futures was again light and in consequence the market broke sharply under the pressure of scattered selling. Bids to the country for deferred shipment were reduced as much as 14 cents per bushel. Export buying somewhat less persistent.

Corn—The sharp decline late yesterday was accompanied by heavy liquidation of long contracts and the market this morning is more settled, although new low figures were reached and little recuperative power in evidence as yet. The disturbing influence was the weakness in cash corn, which continues to display a tendency to follow the futures despite smaller receipts. Shipping demand still conspicuous by its absence.

WALL ST. PRESENTED FAGGED APPEARANCE

NEW YORK, July 16.—Stocks were under further restraint at the opening of today's session, largely as a result of yesterday's sudden advance of call money to 11 per cent. Crucible Steel, which led yesterday's sharp setback of prices, made an initial decline of 2 points. Granger railway shares were heavy, despite very favorable crop prospects, Illinois Central losing 1½. American Locomotive and Beet Sugar yielded 1 point each and most specialties eased fractionally. A brisk rally within the first half hour was led by oils and motors.

The early rally failed to hold, renewed offerings of steels, oils and shippings, also motors and coppers, forcing many leaders under final prices of the previous session. A few stocks were conspicuous for their strength, however, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western gaining 6 points on a few sales. Stromberg 2¼, May Department Stores 2 and Sumatra Tobacco 1⅛. The 9 per cent. opening quotation for call money represented the highest initial rate of the week and pointed to a possible advance over yesterday's maximum figure.

The general tone was slightly firmer in the early afternoon, following a continuation of the recent decline throughout the forenoon. The range of the more active stock was as follows: Steel, 91⅝ to 90¼ to ⅝; C. P. R., 119¼ to 120; Union Bag, 88½; Scotia, 53½ to 52½; Wool, 86¼ to 84¼ to 85¼; Vanadium, 85 to 82½ to 83⅝; Studebaker, 70½ to 68½; Southern Pac., 93¼ to 93; Union Pac. 115¼ to 114¾ to 115; Stromberg, 81½ to 78½ to 79⅝; Rubber, 91¼ to 92 to 91⅜; Retail Stores, 73⅜ to 74½ to 73½; Republic, 90⅝ to 88⅝; Reading, 88⅝ to 89½ to 88½ to ¼; Loco, 97⅜ to 95½; Pierce Arrow, 51½ to 49; Pan-American, 103⅞ to 101½; Mex. SHARP ADVANCE IN PICKLES FOR WEEK JUST PAST

Business is reported as being fair in the local grocery market. Comparatively nothing of importance has transpired in the past week.

Again this week there is reported a continued number of anxious sellers of rice in the local market. Speculation is believed to be the explanation of this.

There is a stronger feeling in all lines of pickles at the present time, prices having advanced in every case. Pickles that were quoted at $4.25 are now $4.50 and lines that were $4.75 have taken a sharp jump to $5.75. The high prices paid for glass is given to explain this sudden and sharp advance.

The second Japan tea crop is now on the market and even though the quotations are lower than were expected, they are still too high for local dealers to contemplate placing orders. The prices are five or six cents above those of last year. Black teas remain about the same as last week.

The following is a list of prices of some of the principal groceries: Black teas, 40-80c lb.; coffee (best grades), 40-48c lb.; beans, $5.00 bus.; peas, $4.75 bus.; canned tomatoes (first quality), $1.80-$2.00 doz.; canned beans, $2.00 doz.; canned peas, $2.25 doz.; evaporated apples, 20c lb.; molasses (best Barbadoes), $1.75-$2.00 gal.; black pepper, 40c lb.; white pepper, 45c lb.; cream of tartar, 80-90c lb.; cinnamon, 30c lb.; ground Jamaica ginger, 35c lb.; corn starch, 13c lb.; corn syrup, 8¾c lb. in tins; raisins, 25-30c lb.; currants, 20-23c lb.; dates, 16c lb.; figs, 15-30c lb.; prunes, 12-30c lb.; rice, 13-18c; broken, 8c lb.; canned corn, $1.80-$1.90.

BEGIN WHEAT CUTTING

TORONTO, July 16.—Wheat cutting has begun in North County, according to advices received by local grain men yesterday. Generally it is said to be a fine sample, but the Hessian fly is causing trouble in some sections. A good spell of dry weather is also desired.

Notes on 'change

Japan's adverse balance of trade was increased more than 44 per cent. in the first half of 1920, according to estimates compiled and announced by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington. The excess of imports over exports for the first six months of 1920 was estimated at 494,940,000 yen, or 44 3-10 per cent of the value of exports for that period. Of this unfavorable balance it was announced 260,040,000 yen was accumulated during the first quarter of the year and 234,900,000 yen during the second quarter.

The Silk Association of America says: "Reports have been received from the principal warehouses in New York stating that the amount of raw silk in storage on July 1 was as follows: Italian bales 739, Japan bales 32,384, and all other bales 12,716, making a total of 45,839 bales on hand. The imports of silk have been somewhat heavier than the consumption during the past month. Whereas there is normally consumed between 20,000 and 22,000 bales per month, last month the consumption fell off to between 16,000 and 17,000 bales. This condition has caused the amount of silk in storage to show an increase."

TORONTO, Ont., July 16.—Application has been made for admission to the unlisted department of the Toronto Stock Exchange of the securities of Western Canada Pulp & Paper Company, whose operations are carried on at Howe Sound, five miles from Vancouver, B.C.

STRAWBERRY PRICES REACH LOW LEVEL NOW

Bradstreet's Montreal weekly trade report says: Some of our manufacturing plants have had to curtail their output considerably, due to the shortage of soft coal. Those who are familiar with the coal situation, state that it is very grave, being more serious than the general public are aware of. Other manufacturers are working on short time, due to the market being overstocked in their particular line, such as clothing, boots, shoes, etc. While the cotton mills, etc., have more orders on hand than they can fill for some months ahead, they say that their greatest difficulty is to make the proper allotments to their customers.

Wholesale trade conditions generally are healthy. Building is fairly active, but supplies are short, and are the means of holding up a lot of our buildings. Many supplies, such as nails, wire lathe, tile, etc., are almost unobtainable. Labor is more plentiful, but wages are so high that it brings the price of building up high. However, it will be a long time yet before any perceptible change is noticed, and with the scarcity of houses, people will be forced to build, notwithstanding the high prices.

Large quantities of strawberries were sold in the fruit districts during the past few days, as low as five cents per box, retail. The real cause of these low prices is due to the high prices of refined sugars, which has prevented a great number of families from making their customary preserves.

A fine display of Canadian manufacture of boots and shoes has been on exhibition in this city during the week; the annual convention of boot and shoe manufacturers being held there at the present time.

Investment securities, with few exceptions, have reflected the rise in the cost of commodities and have reached a point where they now yield from 6% to 8%.

In financial circles, it is confidently expected that, with a return to lower commodity prices, investment securities should show a corresponding advance.

Question of Probate of Verbal Will Up Before the Courts

The question as to whether a verbal will can be probated came up for the first time yesterday when Bernard Rose, acting on behalf of George Hamilton, wholesale merchant and manufacturer in this city, asked Mr. Justice Surveyer, sitting in the Practice Division of the Superior Court, to direct the registrating of a verbal will made by the late Lieut. Douglas Reginald Hamilton at the Tutelle Office. His Lordship took the matter under advisement.

Lieut. Hamilton, who was killed on active service overseas, joined the Royal Flying Corps in the city of Toronto on June 28, 1917. He left Canada for the war on November 17 of the same year, and on that date, in the presence of his father, the petitioners, his brothers, Jos. Hamilton and Bertram Hamilton; and Leo Martin Fink, he said, concerning the disposition of his assets or property in the event of his dying or being killed in active service: "If I am killed on active service, I leave everything to you, father."

He was killed on active service on January 23, 1918, and the Imperial Government was indebted to him, for services, in the sum of 109 pounds, 17 shillings and 4 pence.

Mr. Rose, counsel for petitioner, after filing proofs of Lieut. Hamilton's death and correspondence he has had with the Imperial Military authorities, said military law recognized the act and right to have a verbal will probated.

KEMAL CABINET ADOPTS TITLES OF BOLSHEVIKI

Nationalist Leader Triumphs Over Enemies in Angora Ministry

TURKS BOASTFUL

Say Allies Cannot Put Large Forces in the Field

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 16, (Chicago Tribune Cable. (Copyright.)—Mustapha Kemal Pasha has triumphed over his enemies in the Angora Cabinet by making a change in every office, according to an anatolian newspaper. Each new Cabinet member is a titled commissariat, an indication of Bolshevik influence. Col. Ismet Bey, former Minister of War in the old Turk Government is the Chief of Staff in the Kemal Nationalist army.

Bekir Sami Bey, Minister of Foreign Affairs, addressing a large Nationalist assembly, says Allied applications of the Peace Treaty are impossible, as the French, for political reasons, cannot afford to put large forces against the Turks, the Italians are unable to fight for economic reasons, the British have insufficient troops for military effectiveness, and the Greek strength is limited.

Nahy Bey, former Ambassador to Rome and Ahmet Rustem Bey, former Washington Ambassador have left Anatolia for Paris to negotiate with the French over Angora, the press asserts. Kiazim Karabekir Pasha former commander of the Turks against Russia now is commanding troops on the Erzerum front, while Nourendin Pasha former Governor of Smyrna has charge of the Turks in Alaschehir.

The Constantinople Premier Ferid, will arrive today, from Paris and he is expected to shake up the Cabinet to carry out British policy.

DEATH DUE TO FALL AS RAILING BREAKS

At the Coroner's Court yesterday a verdict of accidental death was returned at the inquest into the death of Mrs. Mary Johnson, fifty-four years of age, of 563 Joliette street, who was killed by a fall from a second storey balcony at her home yesterday. She was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital suffering with a fractured skull.

Mrs. Johnson was alone on the gallery at the time. When she leaned against the railing it gave way and she fell to the ground.

Claim Chauffeur Took the Money But Did Not Fulfil Contract

The complainant in the case, a resident of Lowell, Mass., Jos. D. Roberge, on cross-examination by James Crankshaw, jr., for the defence stated that he had come to Montreal in May to see the races, and had become acquainted with the accused, who was a taxi driver. He claims that he made a deal with him to take 15 cases of whiskey from Montreal to Plattsburg, N.Y., by automobile, for which service he gave the accused $400. He also stated that he bought the 15 cases of liquor from some party whom he did not know, for $630.

A friend of the complainant, Dennis Sullivan, also of Lowell, testified that he started in the car with the accused for Plattsburg, but on reaching St. Johns the car containing the liquor, which was wrapped in burlap bags, broke down and the party returned to Montreal. Sullivan then stated that Volensky told him he could not take the liquor over for several days and the witness went back to Lowell, returning on a later date. On inquiry, however, he was unable to find the accused, and it was with great difficulty that he located him about 60 miles in the country on a farm. He went to see the accused, who accompanied him back to Montreal. On their return to Montreal, the witness alleges that the accused told him he could whistle for the money and the booze. The action was then taken.

Judge Leet remanded the accused for voluntary statement on July 20, remarking that he preferred the other courts to have the responsibility of the case.

COMMERCE BOARD WILL CONTINUE

OTTAWA, July 16.—Chief Commissioner W. White of the Board of Commerce having returned to the capital from Montreal, where he has been carrying on some special investigations for several days, immediate resumption of activities by the reconstituted board may be expected by the public.

When questioned by the Canadian Press this morning in reference to the plans of the board, the Chief Commissioner said he had nothing to add at present to the official announcement made ten days ago, to the effect that the Board of Commerce will continue its activities in regard to matters in connection with which its jurisdiction is not questioned. These include such matters as restraint of combines, monopolies, trusts and mergers. The board will proceed with hearings which were postponed owing to the disorganization in April last.

JUSTICE BARROW CHAIRMAN.

OTTAWA, July 16.—Hon. Justice Barron, of Stratford, Ont., has been named by the Minister of Labor as chairman of the board of conciliation which will enquire into the wages dispute between the Toronto Suburban Railway Company and its electrical workers. Other members of the board will be George D. Kelly, Ottawa, representing the company, and L. Braithwaite, Toronto, representing the men.

SPLENDID GIFT FOR TUBERCULOSIS WING

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whitney Give Ottawa Hundred Thousand in Bonds

OTTAWA, July 16 (From Our Own Correspondent.)—Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Whitney, of Ottawa, have given $100,000 in victory bonds to the Corporation to be used for the construction of a tuberculosis sanitorium in connection with the City of Ottawa Sanitorium. Mr. Whitney has written to Mayor Fisher to this effect and includes but one provision, that the city shall be responsible for the upkeep of the institution.

This generous gift will undoubtedly result in renewed building activity at the Lady Grey Hospital and the Perley memorial home, both civic institutions. Some years ago the city voted $100,000 to enlarge the institutions to meeting the needs of the rapidly growing city but so far no action has been taken with this money.

Mayor Fisher said this morning the need of increased hospital accommodation for tuberculosis patients was of the first importance. With $200,000 on hand for construction purposes, it is expected a first class sanitorium will be constructed.

PARIS DANCE HALLS ARE GROWING EMPTY

Hot weather is perhaps not the only factor in the notable falling off in the receipts of the innumerable dancing halls and ballrooms in Paris at present, writes a correspondent living in France. It may be that the fever for dancing which seized on every class of population at the beginning of the year is wearing off.

Even the most palatial dancing halls now allow their clients to drink democratic coffee and even beer, whereas before, in spite of a ten shilling entry fee, one was forced to drink champagne at seventy francs the bottle. But the cheaper drinks have brought no crowd. Can it be that dancing is going out of fashion?

"You may have my seat, sir," is what the "flapper" should say when she finds a tired, overworked business man standing near her in a London train or 'bus. This revolution in feminine deportment is suggested not by the men, but by Englishwomen who object to their husbands surrendering seats in public conveyances to girls and women returning home after frivolous errands.

BODY IS THAT OF CAPT. CAVINASH

Identity of Man Found Near Country Club is Established

The identity of the man, whose body was found in the river near the Country Club, at St. Lambert was established yesterday. The body was identified by Robert Wilson, of Baltimore, Maryland. The victim's name is Captain Cavinash, but no further particulars as to his place of abode or his friends are available. It was stated that Cavinash was conducting officer, attached to the camp at Petawawa at the outbreak of war. About the end of 1919 went to the United States on propoganda work.

Robert Wilson stated that he had known the victim only about three weeks, and had identified him by his costume, (riding breeches, coat, cap, and a pair of high tan boots,) which he wore continually. He first met the man in the Buffet at Bonaventure station and said that most of the men who frequent the place had formed an acquaintance with him owing to his seeming knowledge of affairs. Cavinash spoke with a Scotch accent and seemed to be a man of education. He was seen last at the Buffet, Monday afternoon and seemed to be depressed but no notice was taken of it as he had been in the same frame of mind for about three weeks.

The deceased has a brother living in Vancouver but his address is not known. Arrangements are being made with Ottawa to give the man a military funeral but no particulars are available at present.

The Japanese Weekly Chronicle characterizes the contemplated establishment of a Chamber of Commerce in teh Hanshi district of Japan as a remarkable development and quite a new departure in Japan, as far as rural districts are concerned.

WINNIPEG TEST OF PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATION

Recent Election There Demonstrated the Plan in Operation

RESULTS FAIR

Close Analysis of Votes Shows All Got Square Deal

WINNIPEG, Man., July 16 (Canadian Press.)—There are three lessons to be drawn from Winnipeg's recent test of proportional representation, in the opinion of A. E. Parker, editor of Canadian Finance and himself an authority on "P. R." They are: (1) Candidates now know that it is dangerous to risk an election deposit under the P.R. system if they are not sure of reasonable support from electors. (2) Voters know that the figure 1 is not sufficient on a ballot, and realize that their choices should be equal under ordinary conditions to at least the number of candidates to be elected. (3) Voters know that P.R. is practicable and produces equitable results.

Mr. Parker in his journal analyzes carefully the features of the election, and declares that it was "an absolute triumph for the advocates of proportional representation." He proceeds to set out in detail the method of counting the ballots and draws his conclusions.

HOW IT WORKED.

P.R. was used in Winnipeg only in the provincial election, the contests in the remainder of the province being conducted under the old system. The whole of the Winnipeg area was grouped into one constituency, and ten seats in the legislature were allotted to it. Forty-one candidates were nominated, consisting of 10 Liberals, 10 Conservatives, 10 Labor nominees and 11 Independents. This superabundance of candidates was the cause of considerable trouble to the election officials and the counting staff, and turned out to be somewhat costly to those candidates who lost their deposits. The Manitoba election Act provides that any defeated candidate who received first choices less in number than 25 per cent of the quota shall lose his or her deposit of $200. Under this regulation, 25 candidates lost their deposits, and the Government profited to the extent of $5,000. The candidates affected consisted of the following: Independents, 8; Liberals, 5; Labor nominees, 5; Conservatives, 7.

Under the P.R. system the voter has only one vote, but that vote is transferable. When marking the ballot the voter places the figure 1 opposite the name of the candidate whom he wishes to see elected. That figure 1 is called his first choice. He continues to place numbers opposite the names of candidates he favors, the figure 2 against one, the figure 3 against another, and so on. The figure 2 denotes his second choice, the figure 3 his third choice, etc.

The first task of the counting staff was to tabulate the number of first choices given to the respective candidates, and to segregate the ballot papers in separate bundles according to the candidates for whom they were given.

When the first count was completed it was found that 47,427 good ballots had been cast. The quota was then ascertained by dividing this number by one more than the number of seats to be filled, adding one to the result. This meant that to secure election at this stage of the proceedings, a candidate had to have at least 4,812 votes. Two candidates were elected on the first count, and a third candidate was elected on the second count. The fourth candidate was not elected until the 31st count, the fifth was elected on the 32nd count, the sixth and seventh on the 33rd count and the remaining three on the 37th count.

The Independent candidates were entirely eliminated from the contest before it ended, plainly demonstrating that a candidate must be supported by a fairly strong group of votes before his election can be secured. There were 6,362 votes cast for the 11 Independent candidates on the first count, but not one of there candidates benefited sufficiently from the subsequent counts to secure election. In the ordinary form of election those who voted for these Independents would have wasted their votes, but under P.R. the votes were simply transferred to the next choices marked thereon. As a result of the various transfers the Liberal candidates received approximately 2,500 votes and the Conservatives gained approximately 1,400 votes and Labor received over 500 votes more than was shown in the original count. It will be noted that the Independent vote went principally to the Liberal and Conservative candidates when it was distributed.

WHAT RESULT TEACHES.

The final result demonstrates the fairness of proportional representation as a method of elections, says Mr. Parker. The Labor vote represented a little more than 40 per cent of the total vote and Labor elected 40 per cent of the members. The Liberal vote represented nearly 40 per cent of the total vote, and the Liberals elected 40 per cent of the members. The Conservatives were supported by voters representing a little less than 20 per cent of the total vote and they elected 20 per cent of the members.

Advocates of proportional representation declare that P.R. gives absolute freedom of choice to the voter; that it encourages independence on the part of the voter. An outstanding instance of this was given in the transfer of the surplus of Dixon, the Labor candidate. Dixon received 11,586 votes, being 7,274 more than he needed. As a result, Dixon's ballots were re-examined to ascertain the 2nd choices marked thereon. The result was as foloiws: 2nd choices for Labor candidates, 10,075; 2nd choices for Liberal candidates, 868; 2nd choices for Conservative candidates, 310; 2nd choices for Independent candidates, 766; Non-transferable, 67. This clearly shows that over 1,400 voters who originally voted Labor marked their second choices for non-labor candidates.

Another instance is found in the result of the elimination of Jacob, a Liberal candidate. Jacob's votes totalled 2,947, and they were distributed as follows: 91 votes went to Labor candidates; 147 votes to Conservative candidates; 1,770 votes to Liberal candidates; 188 votes to Independent candidates, and 151 votes were non-transferable.

The foregoing shows that over 18 per cent of Jacob's votes went to candidates other than Liberal candidates.

The transfer of votes credited to Christie, Conservative candidate, at the time of his elimination, resulted as follows: 33 votes went to Labor candidates; 145 to Liberal candidates; 1,354 to Conservative candidates; 157 to Independent and 37 were non-transferable.

In the last count 1,867 ballots were not transferable, or in other words, exhausted. This means that 1,867 voters lost their votes because they did not mark sufficient choices on their ballots. Many of them were content with just marking the figure 1. With 41 candidates it was necessary to mark at least 10 choices on the ballot, and those who did not do that ran the risk of having their ballots used up—each of the candidates market thereon having possibly been either elected or defeated.

FARMERS HAVE BIG LESSON TO LEARN

Must Save from "Fat" Years to Tide Them Over "Lean"

CONFERENCE ENDS

Committee of Experts Appointed to Study Problems

WINNIPEG, July 16.—Canada must take a lesson from the pages of history if the Dominion's great agricultural regime in the West are to continue in successful operation indefinitely—a lesson of learning how to save from the "fat" years to tide over the "lean" ones. That was the solution for the future agricultural welfare of the country offered by Prof. John Bracken, newly appointed principal of the Manitoba Agricultural College to the members of the Commission of Conservation in conference on soil fertility and soil fibre here yesterday.

Prof. Bracken told the 100 members of the Commission that the State's future cannot be left to the individual, especially the State's agricultural future.

"It is the business of the State to conserve the State's future, not the business of the individual. If Canada, through this Commission, takes the initiative the individual will follow."

The conference concluded its business last evening. Western Canada's future agricultural welfare and advancement, which impelled the conference, is expected to be largedy dependent on the activities of a permanent committee research named by the Commission as the result of the two day's deliberations. Where the committee of experts, which is to proceed under the auspices of the commission and with its support "Will continue and co-ordinate work which has been started on experimental farms; try out and compare methods of applying knowledge already possessed; seek other and new methods of benefit to the practical operations of farming, in order to obtain the best economy results under the varying conditions of soil, climate, markets, labor and other available resources."

This committee, as named by Dr. James W. Robertson, Ottawa, chairman of the Commission Committee on Lands, includes Dr. J. H. Grisdale, Ottawa, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Canada.

LONDON WELCOMES GOOD ROADS BOOSTERS

LONDON, Ont., July 15. — Sixty motor cars and trucks, transporting 300 members of the Michigan Pikers' Association, completed the first leg of the international jaunt to boost good roads with their arrival here at 5:30 yesterday afternoon.

The party, which carries with it a complete camping outfit, including cooking kitchens, shower baths and electric light plant, camped tonight in Queens Park, where they were visited by thousands of citizens. Thursday's run of 142 miles from Windsor to this city, was completed practically on schedule. All along the route the party was given a most cordial welcome. The noon stop was made at Chatham, where a civic welcome and banquet were tendered the party.

BECK REPLIES TO PREMIER DRURY

DEMAND ACTION

More Salaries for Members of Toronto Transportation Commission

TORONTO, July 16, (Star Special.)—After sitting well on to 1:30 yesterday during which time about the most interesting happening was a series of onslaughts made on Controller Maguire by Controller Cameron, the Board of Control was suddenly jolted into action by Controller Ramsden's moving that the salaries of the new Transportation Commission be fixed at $6,000 a year for the chairman, and $5,000 a year for the other two members.

The question came up through Controller Cameron stating that he thought the board intended fixing the salaries. Mayor Church argued that the matter was to be left to council, and also declared that the people had voted that no salaries be paid. "What is the good of leaving it to the council," asked Controller Ramsden, "we told the council we would come to a decision by Monday.

Controller Maguire also wanted it left to council. Both Controllers Cameron and Ramsden demanded that the question be settled at once. Controller Gibbons suggested that a questionnaire to be sent to members of the council, asking them to name the salary.

After this, Mayor Church moved that Sir Adam Beck be selected as the arbitrator in the taking over of the Street Railway, with Controller Maguire seconding. The board was unanimous in supporting this and it will go on to the council. Corporation Counsel Geary, Finance Commissioner Harris will be appointed to assist Sir Adam in looking into details.

BECK REPLIES TO DRURY.

Speaking to a citizen's meeting at Guelph last night on the subject of hydro railals, Sir Adam Beck took direct issue with statements made by Premier Drury that the Government and not the municipalities was responsible for the financial responsibilities of the Hydro enterprises, that the estimates of the Hydro Electric Power Commission had sometimes been incorrect in the past and that the Government was unable to get necessary information from the commission to permit of an intelligent decision being reached. Sir Adam quoted at length from statutes and official documents to prove that the assertions made by Mr. Drury were not in accordance with the facts.

Sir Adam was the principal speaker at the meeting held to protest against the action of the Government in delaying transfer of the local street railway system to control of the Provincial Hydro Commission. The meeting was well attended and those present were most unanimous in supporting demands for immediate action on part of Government instead of procrastination.

RUM RUNNER FINED $500.

It is not only at the Windsor border that attempts at "rum running" are made. While patrolling his beat at an early hour yesterday morning, P. C. Harrison, was surprised at the sight of a heavily laden lorrie crossing York St. Bridge toward the lake, and as a result of his consequent investigations he prevented a shipment of liquor with a Canadian value of $3,000, and an American value of approximately $18,000, from being sent forward by boat to its destination. The men he arrested William Calderoni and Mike Arbino, subsequently appeared in the police court on a charge of committing a breach of the O.T.A. while their stock of liquor was seized. In spite of his denial of knowledge of the nature of the work he was doing, Calderoni paid a fine of $500; his companion, Arbino, was discharged.

DEATH BY VIOLENCE.

"In my opinion the deceased came to his death by external violence," said Dr. A. J. Harrington, 813 Bathurst street, in telling Coroner W. A. Young's jury last night of the post mortem examination conducted on the body of the unknown man found in a shed at the rear of 19 D'Arcy street in June. Chief Coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson, who was associated with Dr. Harrington in the post mortem, also testified, and futher examination is to be made of the head of the dead man. The inquest was adjourned until Thursday, Aug. 5.

NOMINEE UNSATISFACTORY.

The nominee of the Liberal group, L. Homfray Irving, as a member of the board to have charge of superannuation of civil servants, is not satisfactory to the Government, it is said at the Parliament Buildings. The nominee was endorsed by the meeting of Liberal members held recently at the request of H. H. Dewart, the Liberal leader. The name has been submitted to the Government and it is understood that the Liberals will be asked to make another nominee. Mr. Irving was formerly in the civil service.

LONDON, July 16. — The Soviet Government is offering a reward of 2,000,000 rubles for the head of a man claiming to be Czar Nicholas, II., of Russia, according to information received by the Jewish Correspondence Bureau yesterday.

The advices say the claimant who is in Siberia, has raised a considerable followintz. In accounting for his escape from the hands of the Bolsheviki he asserts it was a servant impersonating the Czar who was killed at Yekaterinburg where the Czar and his family are understood to have been executed.

TAKE SERIOUS VIEW OF COAL SITUATION

Commissioners Carvel and McLean to Confer with U.S. Board

OTTAWA, July 16.—The sudden departure for Washington yesterday afternoon of Chief Commissioner Carvell and Commissioner McLean, of the Railway Board, to confer with the United States Inter-State Commerce Commission in regard to the fuel situation in Canada and the United States, is an indication of the serious view of the coal problem taken by the Dominion and United States authorities. The trip to Washington is being made on the invitation of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, which apparently is dealing with fuel shortage across the border.

The Canadian commissioners will arrive in Washington on Friday night and the conference will be commenced on Saturday. They are not expected back in Ottawa until Tuesday next.

The Dominion Railway Board had the Canadian fuel situation under review on Wednesday and it was expected that its first order would have been issued today, but no order will now be forthcoming, until after the Washington conference. The order under consideration, it is understood, provided for the prohibition of export of Canadian coal except to the United States and Newfoundland and the stopping of bunkering with imported United States coal, co-operative measures, which will doubtless meet with the approval of the Washington authorities.

GREAT CONGESTION AT ELLIS ISLAND

Commissioner Wallis Declared Existing Conditions Inhuman

NEW YORK, July 16.—(Associated Press.)—Overcrowded conditions at the Ellis Island immigration station reached a situation last night in which 2,000 aliens had to sleep in detention rooms with accommodation for only 1,500.

This information was given over the long distance telephone to the office of the Secretary of Labor in Washington by Commissioner of Immigration Wallis, who informed Assistant Secretary of Labor Post that "a crisis had been reached in the inadequate way of handling immigrants at the port of New York."

Commissioner Wallis invited Mr. Post to come here and witness for himself the "inhumanity" of existing conditions. Mr. Post said his executive secretary, Hugh Reid, would leave Washington last night, and today "would make a thorough study of the congestion at the station."

LUSITANIA LIFE-BELT RECOVERED FROM SEA

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—A life jacket, silent remembrance of the tragic sinking of the Lusitania five years ago and bearing a strand of faded blonde hair, was picked up yesterday in the Delaware River.

The name of the ship the Germans torpedoed still remained clear and distinct on the wave beaten canvas, which has been adrift on the seas throughout three years of war and two of peace.

The life jacket which was found by two railroad detectives was covered with slime and seaweed, with one arm strap broken. On one side were the words "Lifebelt" and on the other, in large black letters the inscription "Lusitania."

DUKE RECEIVES ISLAND PEOPLE

Impressive Event Under Shadow of Montgomery House

ON LONG TOUR

Governor-General to Pay Visit to Newfoundland Points

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., July 16.—On the grounds of the Cavendish Presbyterian Church and under the shadow of the old Montgomery Home immortalized by Lucy Maud Montgomery, the Island authoress of "Anne of Green Gables," the Governor-General of Canada and the Duchess of Devonshire received the people of that splendid section of the country today, over five hundred shaking hands with their Excellencies.

In an address read to the Governor-General it was stated that that district was named after the Cavendish family, of which the Governor-General is a member, by Captain Robert Winter, of His Majesty's Twelfth Regiment, who came out to the Island about 150 years ago and through the influence of the family, as a reward for his valor in the battle of Minden in 1759, was granted township No. 23.

The Vice Regal party landed in Summerside yesterday from the cruiser Hochelaga and motored to Cavendish. After the reception and luncheon there, they proceeded to Charlottetown in the evening. Today they will be entertained at Government House and on Saturday will motor to Montagu and Souris. At the latter place they will rejoin the ship and sail to Amherst and Grindstone Islands in the Magdalenes, thence proceed to Port aux Basques, Newfoundland. After fishing in the LaPorte and Serpentine rivers they will go to Louisburg on July 31st and return via the Bras d'Or Lakes and Mulgrave to Ottawa reaching there on August 4, in time to welcome the Imperial Press Conference on August 5th.

GREEKS ADVANCE BEYOND BRUSSA

Greek Premier's Son Commanded Entry to City

SMYRNA, July 16. — An official communique issued from army headquarters says that the advance guard of the Greek forces has reached a line 15 kilometres beyond Brussa.

"We annihilated the enemy entrenched in the region of Brussa, capturing all his artillery," the statement adds.

PREMIER'S SON LED GREEKS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 16.—Major Venizelos, son of the Greek Premier, commanded the artillery of the Greek forces which recently entered Brussa.

As the Greeks approached the city the Nationalists waved a white flag, but treacherously killed an officer who was sent to confer with them. Thereupon Major Venizelos ordered the artillery to open fire, killing many Turks and quieting all opposition, so that the Greek flag was hoisted speedily over the town hall of the most historic city of the Osmanlis, where Mahommed I. and several other sultans are buried.

MAY BE SPECIAL RATE FOR ALBERTA COAL

Ontario Fuel Administrator Says it Could Replace U.S. Coal

TORONTO, July 16.— Alberta coal could take the place of coal from the United States in the whole Northern part of Ontario if a better freight rate could be obtained from the railways than that prevailing at the present time, according to H. A. Harrington, Fuel Administrator for the Province, and, with reasonable freight rates, could be supplied to Sudbury, North Bay points on the T. and N. O. and "Soo" railways, and other northern Ontario places, cheaper than American coal. It costs about $5 a ton less at the mines, Mr. Harrington said, but at the present time the rate per ton on coal from Hillcrest Mines, Alberta to Sudbury is over $17 a ton. It is believed that the Board of Railway Commissioners is considering an application for a special rate.

FINE MAY BE $200 FOR IMPURE MILK

The proposed city bylaw raising the penalty for selling impure milk from $40 to $200 automatically becomes law on August 28, if the City Council fails to adopt it before that date, as also does the housing by-law providing for the receipt of the Provincial Government grant, it was learned at the City Hall today.

DIED AFTER SWALLOWING ROSARY.

Ludovic Riopelle, fifty-five years of age, of 2957 St. Andre street, who swallowed his rosary recently, died at the Montreal General Hospital yesterday morning. It was stated that the deceased had been ill for some time and was saying prayers with a rosary when someone in the room, hearing a choking sound, ran to him and saw the end of the beads going into the man's mouth. An ambulance was called and he was rushed to the hospital.

MILITARY QUERIES AND ANSWERS

E. H., Montreal. — I accidentally burnt my husband's discharge. Could I possibly get another?

A.—You can get a certificate of his discharge. Apply to Record Office, 50 Bishop street.

W. F., Plymouth Grove.—I came to Montreal in 1912, and left August, 1915, at the age of 16 years, 11 months on a merchant ship in order to enlist in an English regiment, but was turned down and told to wait till I got papers, as I was too small. I was taken in May, 1917, and served in the Border Regiment in France, Belgium and Germany, and was demobilized in November, 1919. I paid my own passage to Canada out of my Gratuity and credits. Can I get a refund of my passage money?

A.—You should. Write to the Officer in Charge Repatriation Records, Morn Hill Camp, Winchester, England.

A. A., Forsyth St.—How can I get a copy of my discharge papers, or another discharge?

A.—Through the Record Officer, 50 Bishop street, Montreal.

Widow.—Is it correct that the widows are to receive War Gratuity, and if so, will we have to fill out application for same?

A.—Yes, although I do not think it will be paid for at least some weeks. You will probably have to fill out a form. My advice is to have patience and watch this page for information.

Perplexed, Cornwall, Ont.—I married a man in Scotland who was an American citizen serving in a Canadian regiment. I came to Canada with him and we lived together for six months. Now he has deserted me, and I have not heard from him direct for nine months, only that he has said he would not live with me again. I wanted to go back home, having sufficient to pay all expenses. Canadian authorities refuse me a passport as they claim I am an American citizen, my husband having renounced his allegiance to the King of Great Britain and again become an American citizen. The American authorities claim I must produce birth certificate and other papers of my husband to prove his citizenship. I applied at Montreal, but it seems they could do nothing for me. I do not know his birthplace.

A.—Bless my soul, I do not know how I can give you any advise that will be worth while. It does seem to me that this matter could be fixed up by taking it up with the Secretary of State, Ottawa.

MILITARY ITEMS

The sum of $60,000 unexpended of the Toronto and York Patriotic Fund is to be returned to the municipalities which gave it, as it is not needed for patriotic fund purposes.

The Niagara Veteran's Association of 1866 has decided to disband. There are very few of them left and those that remain are very aged. They will turn over the duty of decorating graves, etc., to the G.W.V.A.

A picnic for all soldiers who have suffered amputation is to be held at Niagara Falls. It will be a unique gathering of legless and armless men.

A Calgary magistrate has given a rather remarkable decision to the effect that there is no objection to anyone wearing a war service badge so long as he does not seek to benefit by it.

The Grand Army of United Veterans is starting a medical clinic of its own at Toronto, for returned soldiers, who have complaints to make of their classification for pensions.

Among the memorials to men who fell in the war is one which commends itself as being most appropriate. St. Andrew's Church, Cobourg, has installed an organ to the memory of seven of its members who were killed. On the anniversary of the sinking of the hospital ship Llandovery Castle, her fellow graduates placed a tablet in Avenue Road Presbyterian Church, Toronto, to the memory of Nursing Sister McKenzie. Tablets were also unveiled on the same occasion in St. Columbia's and College Street Presbyterian Churches, Toronto.

The membership of the G.W.V.A. is rapidly increasing. The last monthly report of the secretary shows an increase of branches from 730 to 857 in thirty days. There are branches in the leading cities of Great Britain. A weekly bulletin is to be issued.

The action of King George in entertaining the V.C. men of Great Britain at Windsor Castle has suggested a gathering of the Canadian holders of the V.C. at Toronto National Exhibition. There are thirty or forty of them. The veterans' associations are taking the matter up.

Halifax militia men are excited over an order for the demobilization of permanent adjutants and sergeant majors on the strength of the local volunteer units. What amounts almost to a strike prevails in the 63rd and 66th regiments. An order appointing adjutants, sergeant majors and orderly room clerks, which the officers regarded as permanent, expired the end of June, being made according to the adjutant-general, to assist returning officers in command of militia units. General Ashton states, however, that the militia authorities are considering whether steps should be taken to continue some form of assistance to the city units.

THE ORDERLY ROOM MAIL BAG

"TELL THE GIVERS."

Sir.—"Tagged" asked a question in today's issue, which had he been a regular reader of the press, he would have found answered a week ago. As a member of the executive, I can assure "Tagged" that the G. A. C. is always willing to take the pubile into their confidence, as my confreres on the executive such as Col. C. E. R. Paterson, Major Paul E. Ostigny, Captain W. J. Gerrard, Captain R. L. Calder, M.C., Captain G. A. Struppe, and a half dozen more of like calibre, is indicative of the fact, the Grand Army of Canada has nothing to conceal from the public.

I presume "Tagged" is honest in his inquiry, although I would think that possibly his name would mean more than "Tagged"—I suppose he prefers to blush unseen — let him [illegible]. W. H. CLARKSON.

STEAMER SHOOTS LACHINE RAPIDS

Though Montrealers have this year been deprived of the usual number of opportunities of shooting the rapids by the discontinuance of the company which arranged the trips, one boat a week will make the trip throughout the summer. The Beauharnois every Sunday will leave the wharf at the foot of Nazareth street at 2.30 p.m. proceeding to Lake St. Louis and returning through the Lachine Rapids, arriving in Montreal about 5:30.

DR. J. MacNAUGHTON SEES SON'S GRAVE

RE-ORGANIZATION OF ROYAL MONTREAL

The general militia order of last April with regard to the reorganization of the Royal Montreal Regiment, has been withdrawn, and it is announced that the regiment will consist of the 1st (Westmount) Battalion, C.E.F.), with a reserve of the 2nd Battalion (23rd Battalion, C.E.F.)

SUSPEND BERLIN POLICE.

BERLIN, July 16. — Police who failed to interfere with the demonstration in front of the French Embassy Bastile Day will be suspended, it was officially announced today.

NEW RIVER SERVICE.

The Canada Steamship Lines state that they have for some time past been in receipt of many inquiries from all over the City for an afternoon boat-trip of not more than three or four hours duration.

In response to this request the Company has inaugurated a new River Service on Thursdays, Saturdays, and Sundays, leaving the foot of McGill Street at 2:15, making a non-stop cruise down-stream to various points of interest in the near vicinity and returning to Victoria Pier at 6:30.

This gives an opportunity to everybody engaged in business to get away for a few hours from the heat of the City and also to parents to give the kiddies an afternoon on the river.

The boat making the trip is the palace-steamer "Rapids King" recently re-conditioned and equipped with an excellent floor for dancing. This feature, with the Orchestra, which accompanies it, is an added attraction to what is fast becoming the most popular excursion out of Montreal.

For further information, apply 9, Victoria Square, or Telephone Main 4710.

CROAT UPRISING AGAINST ITALIANS

Commander of Italian Cruiser, Officer and Sailors Killed

SPALATO, Dalmatia, July 16.—By Associated Press.) — Croat outbreaks against Italians here Sunday resulted in the death of Commander Giuli, of the Italian cruiser Puglia, another Italian officer, three Italian sailors and a boy of fourteen.

The Croats broke up the furniture of a cafe, smashed the windows and stock, and wrecked the establishment. Commander Giuli, of the Puglia, saw the uprising from the bridge of his ship. He ordered a motorboat to set out to fetch aboard the officers who were in danger of harm from the crowd. As the motorboat neared the wharf revolver shots were fired from the crowd. Commander Giuli was struck in the chest and fell. Before the boat landed he received two more bullets. The tillerman of the boat also was struck and killed, and the motor craft was steered in by other sailors. The Italian officers on the wharf now were trying their best to effect an escape. As they were embarking on the motorboat one was shot and died later. Two other sailors were killed in the melee, while a boy bystander in the crowd was struck by a stray bullet and killed.

Meanwhile, the Croats were becoming wilder and wilder, and the shooting was increasing. They began parading and molesting Italian stores and Italian civilians. The Serb command realized the danger and despatched a machine-gun squad to disperse the crowd. The machine-gunners took up their position, while the crowd's temper cooled. The order was given to fill the guns and make preparations to fire at a point in the crowd. A hurried dispersal followed, and order was restored.

Giuli died Tuesday morning.

CAIRO TRIALS

CAIRO, July 16.—Sensational evidence is expected at the trial next Tuesday of a gang of anarchists. It is understood evidence will be introduced to show that an organization for the assassination of prominent men was formed, this organization during the past 12 months, planning the murder of ministers and preparing an even more sensational coup against Field-Marshal Allenby, British High Commissioner in Egypt, and the Soudan and the Sultan.

During the past few months there have been a number of murders and attempted murders.

TAKING EUGENIE'S BODY TO ENGLAND

Was Removed from Palace to Station in Royal Hearse

MADRID, July 16.— The body of former Empress Eugenie of France was removed this evening from the Liria palace to the railway station to be taken to England for burial. The cortege moved from the palace at six o'clock in the evening in the presence of representatives of the King and all the members of the Government. The casket, made from Spanish mahogany, was placed in the royal hearse, which was drawn by eight horses used only for royal personages. The escort was made up of members of the royal guards.

King Alfonso was represented by Prince Ferdinand. He was attended by the Dukes of Alba, Penaranda, Osuna and Count Mora.

THE FINISHING TOUCH

But he was careful not to omit the dessert—entree, roast and dessert being the specified service.

DE VALERA PLANS NEW CAMPAIGN

Feels Cohalan-Devoy Activities Have Injured Cause

NEW YORK, July 16.—Eamonn de Valera, so-called "President of the Irish Republic" will arrive here yesterday from Chicago and will begin plans for a new education campaign in the United States. It is understood this campaign will be carried on for several months.

De Valera's advisers, including Archbishop Mannix, of Australia, are of the opinion that the "self-determination" activities of the Cohalan-Devoy group have injured the cause and created confusion among its workers.

THREATENS TO OCCUPY PEKING

Manchurian General Demands Punishment of ex-Chinese Prince

WASHINGTON, July 16.— Charging that the Anfu party leader, Tuan Chi Jui, former Chinese Premier, had incited Manchurian brigands, General Chang Tso Lin, military inspector of Manchuria, has served notice on President Hsu Shih-Chang that he proposed to organize an expedition with a view to occupying Peking until General Tuan has been punished.

This information was received yesterday in a Peking despatch to the United States State Department which also reported that all rolling stock on the Peking-Mukden railway had been sent to Manchuria.

Another despatch to the department dealing with the situation in China growing out of the revolt of General Tuan and Hsu Shih-Chang against the present government said that a Japanese statement had been published to the effect that Jananese instructors attached to armies commanded by General Tuan had been recalled.

President Hsu was reported to have issued a mandate ordering troops of the contending factions back to their original posts in order to preserve the people from the miseries of a civil war.
