MR. HORMIDAS LAPORTE ELECTED MAYOR BY LARGEST MAJORITY EVER GIVEN IN MONTREAL

Supporters of Good Government Also Return Aldermen Who Are Pledged by Terms of Their Platforms to Work for the Best Interests of the City.

Dept. of Agriculture Library

As a result of yesterday's elections Mr. H. Laporte, after seven years' service as an alderman, becomes Mayor of Montreal, after receiving the largest vote ever cast for a mayoralty candidate.

Seven new faces will be seen in the next City Council. Two of these will represent the two new seats and the other five are the conquerors of former aldermen, Martineau, Giroux, Lesperance, Ouimet and Lebeuf. Twenty-one members of the Council were elected by acclamation, and eight members defeated their opponents. They are: Ald. Gallery, Nelson, Ekers, Sauvageau, Dagenais, Chausse, Lariviere and Ricard. The complete returns gave the latter a majority of one, but this may be wiped out on a recount and Mr. Mederic Martin, his opponent, declared elected.

The seven new aldermen are Ald St. Denis, Leclair, Paquin, Marchand, Proulx, Bastien and Duquette.

Two of the great surprises were the overwhelming defeat of Ald. Lebeuf in Centre Ward, and the defeat of Ald. Martineau in St. Denis Ward. Mr. Martineau was previously elected three times by acclamation, and was believed to be invincible. Ald. Martineau was known in the Council as the "leader of the opposition," and his defeat will remove from the Council chamber an aggressive civic legislator.

His Defeat is Expected.

Ald. Giroux's defeat in St. James Ward was expected. His stand in favor of an extension of the Street Railway franchise made him unpopular with a large class of his electors, and contributed more than anything else to his defeat. He occupied a prominent place in the Council, being chairman of the important Police Committee.

The defeat of Ald. Ouimet and Lesperance was looked for. Neither were prominent in the Council. They have been replaced by Mr. Noe Leclair and Mr. J. T. Marchand, men of sterling ability, and elected on a progressive and safe policy.

The new Council is about evenly divided politically, the Liberals being in a slight majority.

It was announced last night, that Mr. Vandelac had been elected in St. Jean Baptiste Ward No. 2, but when a recount was made it was found that Mr. W. J. Proulx had been elected by a majority of 50.

Seven candidates lost their deposits. These were Messrs. Cochrane and Dandurand, Ald. Lebeuf, Centre Ward; Jones, St. Ann's Ward; Ward, West Ward; Dupre, St. Denis Ward; Beaulieu, St. Mary's Ward.

Recount for Next Thursday.

Notice was given at the City Hall last evening, that the recount would take place next Thursday at the City Hall, but that the proclamation of the elections would not be made until Feb. 9. This is in accordance with a new amendment to the charter. Formerly the proclamation was made after the City Clerk had opened and examined the ballot boxes.

Mayor Laporte's majority is the largest any mayoralty candidate in Montreal ever received. He led his opponents in all but four polls, Mayor Cochrane led at one poll, No. 26, in St. Ann's Ward, and Mr. Dandurand received a majority at three polls in Hochelaga Ward.

CHEERED AS VICTOR BY THE ELECTORATE

Mayor-Elect Laporte Thanks His Friends in Brief Speech at Herald Office.

Mayor-elect Laporte's progress through the city last evening after the ballots were counted assumed the character of a triumphal procession. His arrival at the Herald office at 7.30 o'clock was greeted with loud and prolonged cheers by the crowds watching the bulletins of the returns flashed by lantern on the large screen. There were cheers for the successful candidate and cries for a speech.

In response Mr. Laporte spoke a few words from an upper window in the Herald office. He said:

"Gentlemen: Please accept my thanks for the great work you have done for me to-day. Long ago, I made up my mind that the people of Montreal were grateful for services rendered to them. It had been said that there was no reward for work done in the best services of the city, but I have had proof to-night that the citizens are not slow to express their approval of work done for them, and to-day I received my reward.

"Let me thank again, my friends, who have assisted me and let me particularly thank the newspapers for the fair and generous support they extended to me during the entire contest.

Afterward Mr. Laporte re-entered a sleigh accompanied by several supporters and followed by a small army of men drove away amid cheers. An amusing feature was that many of the men following the sleigh carried brooms —symbolizing the clean sweep.

Mayor-elect Laporte also addressed a large gathering of electors at La Presse office, where he was enthusiastically received. In acknowledging the tribute he laid particular emphasis upon the fact that the returns from the various wards was an endorsation of his platform by the rank and file of citizens of Montreal and a vindication of his policy while a member of the Council. Mr. Laporte was frequently interrupted by applause during his brief address, and if good wishes count for anything his first term as chief magistrate of the first city of the Dominion will be a brilliant success.

CROWDS WATCH EAGERLY FOR ELECTION RETURNS

Mr. Laporte is Greeted by Prolonged Cheers on Arrival at the City Hall.

Many persons gathered in the City Hall yesterday afternoon and evening to hear the returns, which begun to come in at 5.25 o'clock, and for three hours Assistant City Clerk Bauset was kept busy calling off the results, which were immediately telephoned to The Herald office.

From the outset it was apparent that Mr. Laporte was elected by a large majority. The results from every part of the city told the same story. Mr. Laporte, as a rule, obtained double or treble the number of votes secured by his two opponents. By 6 o'clock there was no longer doubt.

The first complete return announced was the election of Mr. St. Denis in Centre Ward, and the announcement was received with great applause. The sweeping victory of Ald. Gallery in St. Ann's Ward was known shortly afterward, and this occasioned hearty cheers.

The enthusiasm of the crowd, however, did not break bounds until the arrival of Mr. Laporte at the City Hall. As he made his appearance all thought of hearing further returns was abandoned, and "speech," "speech," came from all sides.

The Mayor-elect was hoisted to an improvised rostrum, and spoke for ten minutes. He expressed his deep appreciation to the citizens for the signal mark of confidence reposed in him. All classes and all creeds had joined to elect him by the largest majority a Mayor ever received in Montreal.

It was ample reward for the services he had rendered to the city. The cry had been circulated against him that he was the enemy of the workingman. The vote showed they had repudiated the charge, and this was one of the most pleasing feature of the victory. In closing he said:

"We will all now go to work harmoniously to carry out reforms which are in the best interests of the city."

Ald. Ekers was called upon, and returned thanks to the electors of St. Lawrence Ward for their noble support. He characterized Mr. Laporte as an ideal Mayor, who would conduct the affairs of the city on an honest, business basis.

Ald. Payette, Ald. L. A. Lapointe, Ald. Lavallee and Ald. Clearihue delivered short addresses.

MAY R-ELECT LAPORTE IS VISITOR AT CITY HALL

Discusses Date for Inaugural Meeting With City Clerk and the Aldermen.

Mayor-elect Laporte occupied the Mayor's rooms in the City Hall for a short while to-day. He was met by City Clerk David, Ald. Sadler, Carter, Stearns and Nelson, who discussed the date when the inaugural meeting of the Council should be held.

According to an amendment to the charter, the returns as announced have to be compared with the recount when the ballot boxes are opened on Thursday. Three days more are allowed for defeated candidates to demand a recount in cases where the vote was close. This will throw the last day for such demand to Monday, when the inaugural should be held.

The point under discussion was whether they would prevent the inaugural being held on that day. It was decided to instruct the city clerk to call a meeting of the aldermen elected by acclamation for Monday, and at this meeting arrangements will be made for the inaugural on Monday next. An acting Mayor will also be appointed.

The following candidates on The Herald's slate were elected:
For Mayor—M. Hormisdas Laporte.
St. Gabriel—Ald. Dagenais.
West Ward—Ald. Nelson.
St. Ann's—Ald. Gallery.
Centre—Mr. St. Denis.
St. Joseph—Ald. Sauvageau.
St. Jean Baptiste—Mr. Leclair.
St. Jean Baptiste—Mr. W. J. Proulx.
St. Mary's—Mr. Marchand.
The following on The Herald's black list were defeated:
Centre—Ald. Lebeuf.
St. James—Ald. Giroux.
St. Mary's—Ald. Lesperance.

ALD. PAYETTE MAY HAVE FIRST CHOICE

Aldermen are Already Fixing Slate as to Composition of the Civic Committees.

The aldermen are already discussing the composition of the committees, and who will get the chairmanships. It is the general opinion that the chairmanship of the Finance Committee and the leadership of the Council will be given to Ald. Payette. The only other names mentioned in this connection are those of Ald. L. A. Lapointe and Ald. Vallieres.

The latter said to a Herald representative to-day that he had no ambitions, and would be quite satisfied to remain as chairman of the Road Committee.

The personnel of the Finance Committee will remain unchanged, with the one exception, a successor to Mr. Laporte. Two names have been mentioned for the vacancy, Mr. Gaspard DeSerres and Ald. Sauvageau.

If Mr. Vallieres remains as head of the Road Committee, it will necessitate one change in the membership of that committee, as Ald. Hebert and Ald. Vallieres belong to the same ward. It is understood at the City Hall that Mr. J. G. Duquette, who defeated Ald. Martineau, will get a place on this committee.

Ald. Lariviere will probably succeed Ald. Giroux as chairman of the Police Committee. He has been slated for the next chairmanship for some time. Ald. Ames has been mentioned for the post, but it is understood he is not anxious for it, as he has a Federal campaign ahead. The wiseacres say that if Ald. Ames is promoted to the Police Committee, Ald. Dagenais will be given the chairmanship of the Health Committee.

The other committees will probably retain the present chairmen. A number of aldermen were seen to-day in reference to the "slate," but all of them professed to be ignorant of what will happen.

PERSONATORS KEEP IN SHADE.

Absence of "Telegraphers" Makes Duty Easy for the Police.

It is satisafctory to learn that throughout yesterday's polling the police, and in addition Chief Carpenter's that not a single case of impersonation was attempted. The various polling booths were visited regularly by the police, and inaddition Chief Carpenter's detectives made calls at intervals during the day and reports from these and from the agents show that the election was a quiet one.

One incident, unconnected, however, with the election proper, caused some excitement at No. 2 polling station of St. Mary's Ward, 2 Dufresne Street. E. Frechette, an ex-constable, being arrested for forging a birth certificate. Frechette was acting as an agent for Mr. Beaulieu, who was opposing Ald. Lariviere, and the charge against him is that he furnished a false certificate of birth when he joined the force.

Victory of the People.

"Yesterday's results is emphatic testimony to the fact that the people of Montreal do appreciate long public service on their behalf."

This was the statement made to The Herald to-day by Mayor-Elect Laporte, in referring to the election. He added:

"I consider the result a trimuph for reform in municipal government. The attempts to create party, sectional and racial jealousy were rebuked as they deserved to be. The English-speaking electors in the west end voted shoulder to shoulder with my compatriots in the east end, and the small vote secured by my opponents shows that I received the endorsation of the majority of workingmen.

"I go back to the City Hall with an emphatic mandate from all classes and creeds to continue to contribute my share to the cause of good government in Montreal, and to that work I return with a renewed heart and renewed vigor.

Through the columns of The Herald, which worked so well in my behalf, I wish you would thank its readers for the magnificent support accorded to me. Believe me I am deeply grateful."

MAYOR-ELECT LAPORTE.

Mr. Hormisdas Laporte, the new Mayor of Montreal, was born at Lachine in 1850. By sheer native ability he has risen to his present commanding position. Like many other self-made men, he had to leave school early and study at night after his day's work was done. He started work in a nail factory in Montreal, but this line of work was not congenial to him, and in 1870 he entered the employ of a retail grocer. This was the beginning of a business career which has placed him at the head of a large wholesale grocery firm, Laporte, Martin & Co.

Mr. Laporte has filled several important positions outside of his aldermanic capacity. He has been a member of the Board of Trade, Chambre du Commerce, and numerous national and charitable institutions. He is president of the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Association; a director of the La Banque Provinciale du Canada, an ex-director of the Merchants' Telephone Company. He has been honorary president of the l'Alliance Nationale since its foundation, where his influence has contributed much to the success of this benevolent association.

In 1896 he was first elected to the Council for Centre Ward. From the first he took an active part in the administration of civic affairs. Four years ago Mr. Laporte was chosen chairman of the Finance Committee, and during this time, aided by a group of followers, English and French, he has transformed the internal administration of the City Hall. To do this he put into his work as alderman the same business methods that had been tested for years by himself, the appreciation of which can only be understood by those who know what it means to watch over a yearly revenue of $4,000,000.

His elevation to the Mayor's chair crowns the sterling period of his service to the city.

BRITISH HOUSE OPENED TO-DAY

King's Speech Deals With the Eastern Question, and the Advance Into Thibet.

London, Feb. 2.—King Edward opened Parliament to-day with all the ceremonial that has been in vogue since His Majesty's accession to the throne.

Early in the day occurred the time-honored search of the vaults of the Houses of Parliament for conspirators and later came the crowds under a forest of umbrellas, but their ranks were thinned by the inclement weather.

Touching on the Alaska decision the King's Speech said that on some points the verdict was favorable to the British claims and on others it had been adverse. Much as this last circumstance was to be deplored, it must nevertheless be a matter for congratulation that the misunderstandings, in which ancient boundary treaties made in ignorance of geographical facts are so fertile, have in this case been finally removed, from the field of controversy.

The crisis in the Far East is touched upon briefly, in the King's Speech as follows:

The Eastern Crisis.

"I have watched with concern the course of the negotiations between the Governments of Japan and Russia in regard to their respective interests in China and Korea, and a disturbance of the peace in those regions could not but have deplorable consequences.

Any assistance which my government can usefully render towards the promotion of a pacific solution will be gladly afforded."

After mentioning the "political mission which with the concurrence of the Chinese Government has entered Thibetan territory in order to secure due observance of conventions," saying that a Chinese official had been dispatched from Pekin to meet this mission, and expressing trust that an arrangement would be reached to peacefully remove the constant source of friction, the Speech concludes with the warning that although the estimates have been framed with the utmost desire for economy the burden imposed by the necessities of naval and military defence is "undoubtedly serious," and mentions some of the promised legislation, as already forecasted in these despatches.

No suggestion of legislation concerning Ireland was contained in the King's Speech.

DAMAGE BY FLAMES MAY REACH $30,000

Fire at Craig and St. Lawrence Streets Gives Brigade a Stiff Battle.

Branches of the Vineberg family in Montreal have this week had a somewhat remarkable series of visitations from fire.

This morning at 12.40 o'clock an alarm was rung in from box 315, foot of St. Lawrence, and a rather serious outbreak was found in the premises occupied by a tailor named Vineberg, at No. 4. Stations 1 to 8 were turned out and laid on streams, but it was 2.30 o'clock before the firemen could leave.

The flames started in a small room on the upper flat and spread to the roof, a deep lining of sawdust there, givmg the fire-fighters a deal of trouble.

The flames did not do much damage, but owing to the nature of the stock a vast quantity of water had to be poured into the building, and thus much loss resulted.

The property is tenanted by a number of firms, and the damage sustained by these, together with that done to the building, is estimated at about $30,000, only a small portion of which is covered by insurance.

The flames again broke out at ten o'clock this morning but were got under by men from No. 2 station, after twenty minutes' work.

As already reported, there were on Sunday two calls to the premises of Samuel Vineberg, dealer in gents' furnishings, 1261 St. Catherine, and again yesterday afternoon, No. 8 station had to respond to an alarm, fire having broken out in the ceiling, where it is supposed by the brigade men to have been smouldering since Sunday. No great damage was done except by water.

HALF-MINUTE INTERVIEWS

Mr. W. S. Weldon, manager of the Windsor: The heavy storms throughout the States have greatly affected tourist traffic in Canada this winter.

Mr. Justice Dugas, of Dawson: While the output of gold in the Yukon Territory was less in 1903 than in previous years, there will be a big output for many years to come.

Mr. Recorder Weir: Public safety demands constant carefulness and sobriety on the part of all railwaymen, and it is to be hoped not many of them take drink. Personally, I am pleased that so few come before me in this connection.

Mr. A. Bienvenu: The severe sentences handed out a couple of years ago by Judge Weir, and the warnings recently issued by the press, had no doubt a salutary effect on those whose thoughts ran in the direction of impersonation in connection with yesterday's polling.

DEATHS.

CAMPBELL—On Monday, the 1st instant, W. I. Campbell, aged 37 years. Funeral from his late residence, 31a Boyer Street, on Wednesday, 3rd instant, at 2.30 p.m. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

YESTERDAY'S LESSON.

The vote yesterday given to Mr. Laporte was creditable alike to him and to the citizens of Montreal. It was an overwhelming popular endorsation of the faithful work in the public interest performed by him during the past six years. It was emphatic proof that the citizens of Montreal, of all classes, appreciate such work. It was an encouragement to public-spirited men to seek public office. It was a crushing rebuke to the self-seekers and the notoriety-hunters. It demonstrated that the wage-earners are as quick as any other class in the community to discern true worth, to weigh the merits of candidates, and to sift the chaff from the wheat of pre-election promises.

It would have been a serious reflection on the political intelligence and on the sense of gratitude of the citizens of Montreal had Mr. Laporte been defeated. The sweeping majority he obtained teaches emphatically the lesson that the people are to be trusted when the issue before them is clearly defined as between faithful public service on the one hand, and appeals to class prejudices and to political affiliations on the other.

IMPERIAL DEFENCE IS STILL THE TOPIC

Mr. Asquith, a Liberal Leader, Also Alludes to the Borden Incident.

London, Feb. 2.—The Liverpool Daily Post says: "The introduction of a Canadian representative upon the committee of defence is but a very little step in the scheme of reform now put forward, and does not touch at all the arrangements proposed for administrative reconstruction."

The Pall Mall Gazette, referring to Mr. Asquith's speech, says: "Undoubtedly one of the best ways to keep in mind the interdependence of England and her colonies is by inclusion of colonial representatives, such as Sir Frederick Borden, on the committee of defence. Mr. Asquith's speech congratulating Sir F. Borden and the committee can be welcomed as a recognition of the real Imperial problems of the day."

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

British Government Issues All the Correspondence.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 2. — A parliamentary paper is issued to-day respecting the Alaskan Boundary tribunal. In July, 1899, Lord Salisbury wrote to the American ambassador suggesting that the terms of the Anglo-Venezuelan arbitration treaty be applied to the Alaska question. The latter thought the terms inapplicable to such a controversy. Lord Onslow, replying on February 26 to Canada's objection to the American commissioners, said His Majesty's Ministers were as much surprised as the Canadian Ministers at the selection of the American members for the tribunal., but His Majesty's Government was convinced that it would be useless to withdraw the names, there was therefore virtually nothing to choose between breaking off negotiations altogether, which would be a grave misfortune to the interests of Canada or of accepting the American nominations and appointing as their colleagues representatives appropriate to the altered circumstances of the case.

Mr. Sifton, writing to Lord Lansdowne on October 24, said: "We are much indebted to Sir R. Finlay for his opening argument, which in dignity, clearness, and mastery of detail was in every respect worthy of the important character of the issues involved"; Sir E. Carson and Mr. Robinson fully sustained their high professional reputations and their presentation of the case of His Majesty's Government was all that could be desired; we enjoyed the advantage of the assistance of Mr. Blake in preparing our case, Mr. Blake's withdrawal, owing to ill-health, was a source of great regret. Mr. Sifton also expressed his appreciation of the efficient manner in which Messrs. Duff, Geoffrion, Rowlatt, and Simon discharged their important duties. Upon Messrs. Wade and Rowlatt fell the heaviest portion of the labor of attending to preparation and I cannot speak too highly of the ability and judgment exhibited by both these gentlemen. We also had the advantage of the services of the King's chief astronomer. Mr. Pope's services were also of great value.

Lord Lansdowne, in replying on October 30th, said: "We have received the King's commands to signify to you, and to those who worked with you, His Majesty's approval of the zeal and ability with which you advocated the interests of the Empire in a question of great importance to this country and to Canada; I ask you to offer the best acknowledgment of His Majesty's Government for the manner in which Messrs. Robinson, Blake, and others of the Canadian Bar and public service, who have taken part in the proceedings and have argued the British case before the Tribunal.

Apology.

The usual after-election comments will be inflicted upon readers to-day, and we are fully alive to the fact that everybody will know what they will be before reading them. We have the time-honored picture of the snow shoveller digging out the gentlemen who suddenly shot into oblivion, also a little comment upon the Larry Wilson boom failing to steam into the station at the advertised time. We merely refrain from mentioning the affinity supposed to exist between the election and the cold wave.

WE HOPE Ald. Laporte is not celebrating too soon. There are still 4 polls to hear from.

WE KNOW Larry Wilson voted for Dandurand, but there is considerable mystery as to who the other 3 voters were.

IN ST. ANN'S the question is: "What Happened to Jones?"

King Pete.

Peter Karageorgevitch,
Ere you hastened to be crowned
You were warned of cares by which
You are now hedged all around;
You were told that in your sleep
You would see unlovely things,
That your flesh would often creep
When you lined up with the kings.
You were warned that you would find
Sharp things in the royal seat,
That you'd be somewhat inclined
To regret your move, King Pete.

Peter Karageorgevitch,
You have reigned a little while,
You have donned a garb that's rich,
But you seldom seem to smile;
You are keeping out of sight,
You are nervous, and they say
That you've lost your appetite;
You refuse to trust the cook,
You are shaky on your feet,
You've assumed a careworn look—
Better quit the game, O Pete.

Peter Karageorgevitch,
Now that you have had renown,
Here's a pointer for you which
You may paste within your crown:
Better be a dicky bird,
Singing blithely in some tree,
Than a king whose royal word
Men receive derisively.
Less the wolves by traps betrayed
Than the lambs that gladly bleat;
Less the lion that's afraid
Than a fearless mouse, King Pete.

DEFEATED candidates will please explain how it happened the moment they are dug out, as the public doesn't like too much suspense.

THE BEAUTY of Laporte's majority is that you can see it without straining your eyesight.

MARK TWAIN is working hard. That means a lot of pleasure for other people.

SOME ONE has said that a fool is born every minute. But that's all right; this would be a tiresome old world if there was nothing but wisdom on tap.

WE HAVE seldom seen a dull thud thud like that thud thudded.

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure.

Cost Nothing if It Fails

Any honest person who suffers from Rheumatism is welcome to this offer. For years I searched everywhere to find a specific for Rheumatism. For nearly 20 years I worked to this end. At last, in Germany, my search was rewarded. I found a costly chemical that did not disappoint me as other Rheumatic prescriptions had disappointed physicians everywhere.

I do not mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again. That is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of Rheumatism. I know this so well that I will furnish for a full month my Rheumatic Cure on trial. I cannot cure all cases within a month. It would be unreasonable to expect that. But most cases will yield within 30 days. This trial treatment will convince you that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure is a power against Rheumatism—a potent force against disease that is irresistible.

My offer is made to convince you of my faith. My faith is but the outcome of experience—of actual knowledge. I know what it can do. And I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on Rheumatism. I will then arrange with a druggist in your vicinity so that you can secure six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure to make the test. You may take it a full month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost to you is $5.50. If it fails the loss is mine, and mine alone. It will be left entirely to you. I mean that exactly. If you say the trial is not satisfactory, I don't expect a penny from you.

Write me and I will send you the book. Try my remedy for a month. If it fails, the loss is mine.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 928, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

Had to Give up and go to Bed.

Several Doctors Attended But Did No Good.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills CURED.

Read what Miss L. L. Hanson, Waterside, N.B., says: "I feel it my duty to express the benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. A year ago last spring I began to have heart failure. At first I would have to stop working and lie down for a while. Then I got so bad I had to give up altogether and go to bed. I had several doctors attend me but they did me no good. I could get no relief until urged by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Before I had used three quarters of a box I began to feel the benefit and by the time I had taken three boxes I was completely cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure nervousness, sleeplessness, palpitation of the heart, skip beats, and all troubles arising from the heart or nerves.

Price 50 cts. box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers, or

SHERBROOKE AND DISTRICT.

Sherbrooke, Feb. 2.—(Special.)— At a meeting of the City Council last evening the light question was again discussed. The reply from the Sherbrooke Heat, Light & Power Company to the city's offer of $200,000 for the electric light plant was read. The company agreed to accept the city's offer of $200,000 for the electric light plant on condition that the city also take over the gas plant. A resolution was passed in the Council that the city also take over the gas plant, and that the payment for the same be made by the city taking up the $20,000 bonds of the company. The first offer was amended, and the shareholders of the electric light company will decide on Thursday next whether they will accept the offer of $220,000 for the electric light and gas plants and property of the company. It is believed that it will be accepted.

The saw mill at Stoke, owned by Mr. Antoine Biron, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The cause of the fire is unknown, and the loss is estimated at about $3,000.

The total customs duty collected at Sherbrooke for the month of January amount to $10,544.

Mr. E. H. Sewell, Ottawa, has assumed the duties here as city passenger agent for the C.P.R. Mr. Sewell was formerly ticket agent at the Union Station, Ottawa.

On Saturday afternoon the first round for the District Medal between the Sherbrooke and Thistle, Montreal curling clubs, took place on the ice of the former. There were two rinks aside, and both the Montreal teams went down to the local men. The teams were: Thistle—T. Mills, D. McIntyre, R. Adair, G. White, skip—12. Sherbrooke—C. G. Thompson, P. N. Boucher, J. Craig, C. Gordon, skip—16. Thistle—W. F. Robertson, J. Anderson, M. Freeman, D. Kinghorn, skip—10. Sherbrooke—A. Brodie, A. H. Foss, C. K. Fraser, R. J. Spearing, skip—20. The local club will send two teams to Montreal in a few days to play the second round. The Thistles will start out in the second round with a handicap of 14.

WANT PRISONER HYPNOTIZED.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—The attorney for Emil Roeski, one of the car barn bandits, announces an intention to go before Judge Koestern and ask permission to have Roeski hypnotized. The attorney reiterated a previous declaration that Roeski was hypnotized by Neidermeier, another of the bandits. A test, the attorney said, would demonstrate that Roeski is an easy subject to hypnotize.

John Sullivan, a waiter, who is in custody on a charge of theft, had no fewer than twenty-three keys in his possession when arrested, and "did not know" why he carried so many. The police are endeavoring to find a better answer to the question.

CORN EXCHANGE BOARD NAMES VICE-PRESIDENT

Decides Also to Renew Representation in Favor of Amending Inspection Act.

The new committee of management of the Corn Exchange Association held its first meeting yesterday afternoon and unanimously elected. Mr. Norman Wight, vice-president. The committee also decided to renew the representation made last year in favor of such amendment of the inspection law as will abolish the Eastern Grain Standards Board and substitute a system whereunder inspection would be based on the descriptions of the various grades and the standards would be made permanent as they are in the Manitoba district.

A meeting of the grain exporters of this port will be held soon to take action towards the appointment of a Montreal inspector who will be empowered to issue original certificates of inspection of Manitoba wheat.

It was pointed out that a large amount of Manitoba grain is shipped through the United States ports because seaboard inspection can be obtained at them.

A special meeting will be held next Tuesday to consider the representations that will be made to the Government Transportation Commission.

MR. ASQUITH THINKS IT GREAT ADVANCE

The Appointment of Sir Frederick Borden to the Defence Committee is Forward Step.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, Feb. 2.—Mr. Asquith was the principal speaker before the British Empire League last night.

He moved a resolution which was unanimously adopted, expressing satisfaction at the step toward Imperial military co-operation by the admission of Sir Frederick Borden to the deliberations of the committee on imperial defence, that the congratulations of the council be offered to the Canadian Government upon the inclusion of one of its Ministers on the Imperial committee, and that the council appreciates this great advance toward Imperial union.

The problem of Imperial defence Mr Asquith said was a composite, not a separable water-tight compartment one. Canada was another England, but interdependent. It was not imagined that a very important result would follow the step, but it afforded a precedent.

While the problem of Imperial defence was a single, though composite problem, yet each separate colony had its own local requirements, which it had to meet on the spot, and in determining what was the best way to do this, it was of the highest importance to be able to take counsel with the Imperial authorities. Mr. Asquith referred in this connection to Mr. Borden's acknowledgement of hints for the training of the Canadian officer.

Miss Barbara M. Stanfold

A Victim of Anaemia, Imperfect Circulation and Debility

Miss Barbara M. Stanfold, Hamilton, Ont., says:—"For over a year my health was in bad condition, and I became very weak and much depressed in spirits. My troubles arose from poor and watery blood and imperfect circulation. My appetite was almost gone, and I was afflicted with insomnia. After several doctors had done all they could for me, I was weaker than when they first began to treat me, and my family became anxious about my condition. A neighbor advised my mother to have me use Paine's Celery Compound. Before I finished the second bottle, my appetite was better, I felt stronger and could sleep soundly five or six hours each night. I had so much faith in the wonderful compound that I continued with it until I was perfectly cured. I thank you with all my heart for such a medicine; it saved my life when other medicines failed."

PAINE'S Celery Compound Cured Her.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

In Store for Those Who Doubt.

When you read that a sufferer of many years' standing has been completely restored to health by using Smith's Cure-all, you are inclined to doubt the statement and, in fact, have no belief in it whatever. The reason for this is that so much is claimed for the Cure-all it is impossible for anyone to believe it; if the advertiser confined his claims to the curing of one disease, as do the proprietors of Pyramid Pile Cure, readers would have much more faith in published testimonials. Those familiar with this great remedy know that testimonials as to its merit may be relied upon implicitly, also that the cures brought about by its use are little short of marvelous. The genuineness of the testimonial here given is vouched for and is but one of thousands received:

"I wish to write you and tell you what your Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I have been troubled with piles for the past five years and used every remedy that was recommended to me. While some would give me relief for a while they never have cured. I was so bad this summer I could not get up or down without pain; could not attend to my household duties. Finally I got a 50-cent box of your Pyramid Pile Cure at the druggist's and it is now two months since I used the last of the box, and have had no trouble since. I can say it is really and truly a good remedy.

"I am so thankful I tried it as I know it has cured me, and if at any time I should have any such trouble again I would use it at once. Since I am cured I have recommended it to my friends, whom I know to be afflicted as I was, and I know they will use it too. I am so thankful I ever learned of your cure." Mrs. F. Hutt, 460 2nd Street, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address upon receipt of price by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich. Write this firm for their book describing the cause and cure of piles.

WINTER IS HERE

Bringing With it Catarrhal Diseases of all Kinds—Pe-ru-na Cures.

A Singer's Experience.

Miss Maud Palmer, "The Willows," Cataraugi, Ont., is a singer of local note. She writes:

"I acknowledge with thanks the value of Peruna as a splendid remedy in case of a severe cold. Last winter I caught a cold and did not pay the proper attention to it until it got so bad that I could not attend to my regular work. My aunt advised me to try Peruna, and I commenced taking it at once. Within three days I found great relief. In ten days I was not entirely well, but my system was toned up, and I felt much stronger than I had before. We keep it on hand, and if any member of the family feels sick a dose or two of Peruna is all that is needed to cure." MISS MAUD PALMER.

Winter is really here. People are constantly catching colds, and not a house but hears the winter cough. People are trying to get something to cure these troubles which are almost inevitable at this time of the year. It can safely be said that nine-tenths of the people in Canada have a cold some time during the winter. There is one remedy which will precent colds and cough and cure them with certainty when contracted. This remedy is Peruna. Taken with regularity during the winter months, it will entirely prevent colds, coughs, la grippe, consumption, bronchitis or pneumonia. It will also cure without failure catarrh and recent cases of consumption, and often in advanced stages.

Everybody should have the 64-page book on catarrh and winter diseases which is being sent free by The Peruna Medicine Co., at Columbus, Ohio.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Peruna can be purchased at any first-class drug store at $1.00 per bottle.

WHITAKER WRIGHT AND THE EFFECT DOWN IN WALL STREET

Very few people have realized how closely the Whitaker Wright conviction of Tuesday last, in London, bore on the New York Stock Exchange's action, next day, in striking American Steel Foundry's stock from the list. Under ordinary circumstances, Wright should have been prosecuted, for his fraudulent stock promotions, by the law officers of the Crown. This the Crown refused to do; whereupon the London Stock Exchange took a most significant step. Announcing through its solicitors that, having been made the medium for Wright's frauds, it would deem itself participeps criminis if it were not to insist on the penalty, it detailed its own law agents to prosecute the suit. It was therefore at the instance of the Stock Exchange that the blackguard was finally dealt with.

The New York Stock Exchange's action on Steel Foundries, this week, because of an offence not unlike that of Whitaker Wright, as mainly caused Wall Street to ask why certain other enterprises had not been dealt with similarly. An expert of high repute in company law, here and abroad, was asked this week if, under the charges preferred, Whitaker Wright could have been convicted in this country. He answered promptly: "Wright was convicted under the same common law as exists in this country. While in New York City and in other States there is not the same language used with regard to false statements in prospectuses that is used in England, there is the same common law liability for issuing false statements. The Penal Code contains stringent provisions against making a false statemtn by an officer, agent, or employe of a corporation which proscribes the crime and the crime carries with it a statutory penalty. In addition to this there are the provisions of the criminal code with regard to the obtaining of money and property under false representations.

"The same charges have been made against the International Fire Engine Company, against the Pegamoid Company, the North American Paper Company, in which suits are now being brought by Heckscher and others. The American Malting Company, International Nickel, American Steel Foundries, Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company, and United States Realty Company, have been subject to similar imputations."

READY FOR GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Orphan Asylum and Hospital to Celebrate the Event.

The fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum and Hospital, Cathedral Street, will be celebrated to-morrow by religious ceremonies and a banquet to be held under the auspices of the ladies of St. Joseph.

The hospital was given over to the Grey Nuns, who have had charge ever since, in January, 1854. Little St. Joseph's Church, situated next to the asylum, and in which the religious ceremonies will take place, was dedicated in 1863. It was the first church in Montreal to receive the honors of dedication. Mgr. Bruchesi will officiate at the religious ceremonies. The committee in charge of the banquet will include Mrs. U. S. Rodier, Mme. O. Faucher, Mme. L. Brault, Mme. Dumont Lanolette.

It will be remembered he owed the King Edward Hotel for board besides other accounts for large sums. Several adjournments were ordered to give him time to receive expected money from the Countess or her friends, but none having arrived the magistrate would not longer delay.

NATIONAL MUSEUM PLANS APPROVED

Will be of Gothic Style Surmounted by a Huge Crown —Will be Three Storeys.

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—The plans for the new National Museum have been prepared and approved by the Government. It will be built of Canadian stone and located on the Stewart property, between MacLeod and Argyle Streets. The total length of the building is to be 380 feet. The height from the ground will be 96 feet and to the top of the tower 200 feet.

The main entrance is in the front elevation, entering a hall 58 feet square and open from the ground floor level to the roof, with galleries around at the various floor levels. There are museum rooms 105 feet by 50.

In the rear of the main hall there is an auditorium 70 by 57 feet. There is a basement, ground, first, second and third storey. On the first floor the rooms are the same size as the ground floor. The second and third floors have been arranged for the staffs of the Superintendent of Mines and the Director of the Geological Branch.

The ground and first floors are set apart solely for museum purposes. One of the wings of the building is set apart for the Department of Marine and Fisheries and National Art Gallery.

The building is so arranged that it can be built without any internal partitions.

It is of Gothic style and the tower takes the shape of a crown.

MR. J. PIERPONT MORGAN WILL VISIT METROPOLIS

Accompanied by Party of New Yorkers, He Will Spend Few Days in City.

Unless they get frozen up on the way Montreal will be invaded by American multi-millionaires to-night or to-morrow, as Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan and a party from New York are expected to arrive here within the next twenty-four hours.

A suite of rooms at the Windsor was engaged for the party several days ago and the announcement was then made that they would be here to-day. The New York trains this morning were all late, but even after the last of them had arrived there was no sign of the expected party.

Two special cars attached to one of the regular trains will bring the party to Montreal.

Asked in New York as to the purpose of the visit to Canada, Mr. Morgan is credited with the reply that it is purely a pleasure trip. He desired to visit Montreal and take a few days rest, so the present trip was planned.

MR. LAWRENCE A. WILSON MAKES HIS DECLARATION

Workingmen, He Alleges, Went Back on Their Promise to Support Mr. Dandurand.

Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson, chief organizer of Mr. Dandurand's campaign, said to-day:

"I agreed to aid Mr. Dandurand only when I was assured that he would be supported by the trades and labor unions. These organizations control about 23,000 votes, and Mr. Verville, the president of the Federated Trades Council, was confident that the labor vote would go solidly for Mr. Dandurand.

"We had capital and the press against us, but even with that we scared the other fellows badly. We fought a good campaign, and made absolutely no attempt to arouse political feeling.

"I claim the Mayor should be elected by the people and not by acclamation. This is the only true test of the public pulse.

"In a nutshell, the result shows that Mr. Laporte received a united Conservative vote, and many Liberal votes, and that the workingmen went back on their promises."

VOX POPULI, VOX DEI.

When the people have spoken, no power may contest their decision. In the world of smokers, all are united in praising the superior quality of Sweet Caporal Cigarettes.

CHARLES HANLON IS DEMENTED.

Police Make Search for the Young Man's Relatives.

The police authorities are trying to find the relatives of Charles Hanlon, 19 years of age, who has suddenly become insane in this city, while a boarder in the C.P.R. Stockyards Hotel. The young man was first sent to the General Hospital, and then given in charge to the police for safe keeping. He is known to have arrived, recently, in Montreal, in charge of a cattle train under a foreman named Fairbanks, of the Toronto western cattle market. This morning the patient, who had refused to speak so far, confided to the police physician, in jail, that his home was at No. 1 Howard Street, Liverpool, England. Information will now be asked from the Liverpool police.

COTTON MILLS IDLE.

Lack of Cotton and Fear of War Given as Causes.

Boston, Feb. 2.—Machinery is idle in many of the cotton mills of New England. The Lyman mills, at Holyoke, Burlington mills, at Burlington, Vt., Flint mills, at Fall River, Pepperell and Laconia mills, at Biddeford, Maine, and other corporations are curtailed, most of them having been placed on a short time basis.

The unusual cost of cotton is not the only impediment to the success of the cotton industry. The fear of a war betwe a Japan and Russia has killed the demand in China and other countries in the Orient for cotton goods. The curtailment at the Biddeford cotton mills is due principally to the situation in the East.

LONDON'S SHIPPING TRADE.

London, Eng., Feb. 2.—London was the most prosperous port in 1903, about 49,500 vessels, with cargo, entered and cleared from the Thames during the year. Total tonnage was about 20,900,000, net, increase of half million tons over 1902. Over 80 per cent. of the increase was in the over sea trade.

THE WORLD OF POLITICS

No Ontario House.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Two more speeches were chalked off the score of the debate on the address yesterday. Thomas Crawford (West Toronto) and Wm. Rickard (West Durham) were the speakers.

The end of the debate is now in sight, only about four more members on each side of the House being slated for speeches.

Mr. Crawford scored the Government on its temperance policy, and Mr. Rickard said the only policy of the Conservatives was the cry, "It's time for a change."

Armand Lavergne Chosen.

Quebec, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Armand Lavergne, son of Judge Lavergne and nephew of Mr. Lavergne, M.P., chief whip of the Province of Quebec, was nominated as the Government candidate in a convention of Liberals yesterday. Mr. Lavergne is 24 years of age, is a graduate of the Laval University, and was recently admitted to the bar. He is a good speaker and has in him the making of a good parliamentarian.

The Conservative party has not as yet nominated a candidate, but it is probable that they will give opposition though their chances of winning are small, as the county of Montmagny is a Liberal stronghold.

Ontario Bye-elections.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—(Special.)—The attention of Ontario politicians is now directed to the ridings of East Lambton and East Bruce, where bye-elections for the House of Commons, rendered necessary by the death of the sitting member in each case, will be held on Feb. 16. Among the speakers who will enter these ridings will be R. L. Borden, Hon. Wm. Paterson, C. S. Hyman, W. S. Calvert, M. K. Cowan, Dr. Johnson and the candidates.

B. B. Finance Enquiry.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 1.—It is the intention of the Provincial Government to ask Mr. Cross, expert accountant of Toronto, to examine into the finances of the province. An appropriation of $5,000 has been made for this work, which will be undertaken as soon as a fair test can be made of the working of the new assessment act. The Opposition strongly object to Mr. Cross' appointment, holding that while he is an expert accountant his appointment in Ontario was merely to establish whether or not a surplus existed, while in British Columbia his duties would be much more extensive.

Meeting for Conservatives.

A Conservative meeting in support of Mr. O. G. H. Bergeron in St. James division will take place to-night in Charbonneau Hall, Notre Dame Street. Mr. Bergeron will be supported by Hon. Mr. Tarte, Hon. L. O. Taillon, Hon. T. C. Casgrain, Hon. P. E. Leblanc and C. P. Beaubien.

Mr. Gervais' Meeting.

Mr. Honore Gervais, K.C., the Liberal candidate in St. James Division, will hold a meeting to-night in Poire Hall. The speakers will include Hon. R. Prefontaine, Hon. H. Archambault, Hon. L. Gouin, Hon. R. Dandurand, G. Langlois, Camille Piche, Jeremie Decarie.

For Hochelaga County.

The Conservatives of Hochelaga County will hold a convention in Le Caraller Hall, St. James Street, to-night to select a candidate for the bye-election called for Feb. 16.

Notes of the Fray.

Hon. Wm. Paterson will address a meeting at Teeswater, Bruce East, on Feb. 1.

At a meeting held at St. Paschal, Mr. Lapointe, advocate, was chosen as Liberal candidate for Kamouraska county.

A convention of the Liberals of the Province of New Brunswick will be held in St. John city on Thursday, Feb. 11. It is planned to make the gathering a big and representative one.

The Conservatives of St. John, N.B., last night nominated Dr. J. W. Daniel to oppose Hon. H. A. McKeown, in the bye-election, on Feb. 16. Dr. Daniel is a prominent physician and has served several terms as alderman and also in the Mayor's chair. He accepted the nomination.

LADIES' BONSPIEL WAS BEGUN TO-DAY

Montreal and Lachine Representatives Played a Strong Game, as Did the Quebec.

The first ladies' bonspiel ever held in Quebec, was begun this morning on the rinks of the Montreal, Thistle and Caledonia Curling Clubs. Great interest is being shown in the contest and the largest aggregation of fair curlers that have ever been got together are now in the city.

Play began this morning for the Bonspiel Cup. On the Montreal ice in the first round, two rinks from Ottawa were opposed by two rinks from Lachine. Mrs. Murphy's ladies played a great game and won by 16 shots to 9. Her third player, Miss Olive Strathy, displayed very fine judgment and much of the credit of the victory is due to her. Miss Henry had a close match with Miss Montizambert, getting a lead of 4 shots.

On the Thistle ice Cornwall met Quebec. The latter were far too good for the Ontario ladies, Miss Scott's rink winning by the big majority of 20 shots to 6.

On the Caledonia ice two rinks from the St. Lawrence and Montreal Clubs played. Miss Bond had an exciting struggle with Miss G. Riepert, but managed to secure a lead of 2 on the fifteen ends. Miss N. Smith, also of the Montreal Club, had another close match, defeating Miss Chipchase by 3 shots.

The umpires for to-day's play were: Mr. McCall and Mr. Brown on Montreal ice; Mr. Currie and Mr. Burket on Caledonia ice; and Mr. Aird and Mr. McIntyre on Thistle ice.

After play was over the ladies congregated at the Montreal Club's headquarters, where they were photographed. Then Mrs. A. E. Ogilvie entertained the members of the bonspiel at a delightful tea this afternoon at the Kennels, taking her guests out by electric car.

The scores to-day were: —

RESULT OF THE ELECTIONS

The successful candidates have every reason to feel proud of their victories, and the knowledge that they have the people's confidence, that the public have decided to place in their hands the management of the city's affairs, ought to spur each and every one of them to their very best efforts to deal fairly and honestly by the people, and thereby merit public gratitude and approval. But even as the different candidates are congratulating themselves on their good fortune, the public at large have good reason to be thankful for the announcement that we are going to continue our will make glad the hearts of Furniture and Carpet buyers throughout the whole city. As there is a reason for all things, so is there a reason for this. Our present accommodation being entirely too small to meet the demands of our constantly increasing business, we have decided to enlarge our premises, so we may secure more floor space, more display room and more accommodation for workshops. To do this will necessitate the removing of walls and floors which we are using at present. This will, of course, deprive us of this space for a while, and we must of necessity curtail our stock accordingly, which we expect to do by continuing for fifteen days more our 20 to 50 per cent. discount offer.

The officials who went to her room to seal up her furniture discovered the sum of $8,000 in a cupboard, and a further search resulted in the finding of securities valued at $1,000,000. The woman leaves no heirs.

Washington.—The Traders National Bank of Clarksburg, W.Va., has been closed by order of the comptroller of the currency and national bank examiner Robinson has been appointed temporary receiver. YESTERDAY'S VOTE.

By yesterday's vote Montreal cleared her reputation. Hereafter, at all events, nobody is free to point to this metropolitan city as one careless of its reputation. It seems but yesterday since one would have said the triumphant return of a reform mayor was a possibility scarcely to be dreamt of. And yet now we see the cheering spectacle of a man obtaining an overwhelming majority who not only promises reforms, but who has given us four years of reform administration, four years of resistance to monopolists and spoilers, four years of ruthless extermination of all those methods which make for the corruption of municipal officers and the paralysis of municipal efficiency. Faint hearts really feared, a couple of days ago, that mere organization, conducted by certain persons, might bring out enough votes to beat Mr. Laporte, and that the silent masses of the people gave not enough heed to the good work done at the City Hall. Never were fears less justified. The vote polled was very huge, two thousand larger than two years ago, and it went all one way. Over seventeen thousand voters testified to their keen appreciation of straightforward conduct. The fact will be a revelation to other communities that have felt free to scoff at old Montreal. More, it will be a revelation to Montreal herself.

In the ward elections the general result was the same. It begins to appear, at long last, that the part of wisdom in an alderman is to consider first the broad general interest, to do the thing that commands disinterested approval, and to be less frightened than heretofore aldermen have been of powerful electors who seek favors at the public expense as the price of their support or neutrality. Messrs. Lebeuf, Giroux, Martineau, Ouimet, Lesperance, all paid the penalty for choosing the wrong path. A couple of others escaped, but the moral will not be lost sight of. The men who have come newly into the Council will do well to regulate their conduct with a full understanding of what yesterday's vote means.

THE PARTIES AT WESTMINSTER.

When the Parliament which meets to-day for its fourth session was elected in October, 1900, it consisted of 402 supporters of Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour; 186 followers of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and Lord Rosebery, and 82 members of the Home Rule party. Bye-elections since then, concluding with the Ayr election reported yesterday, have increased the Liberal following from 186 to 195. The Irish party still numbers 82.

Mr. Balfour's apparent majority of 116, however, ceased to be cohesive when Mr. Chamberlain initiated his new fiscal policy. Even before that there was a small defection, led by Mr. Winston Churchill, Lord Hugh Cecil and Mr. Bowles, who showed restiveness at the character of the reorganization of the Ministry after Lord Salisbury's retirement and antagonized the administration of the War Office. In critical divisions, however, they went no further than to refrain from voting in the Government lobby.

The interest in the debate upon the King's speech will lie in the question as to whether the Opposition will frame such an amendment to the address as will not only secure the support of the 186 Liberals, but will induce the Unionists still sitting on the Ministerialist bench, who have professed their adhesion to the Duke of Devonshire, to go the length of entering the lobby on a vote of want of confidence, involving the existence of the Ministry.

The British House of Commons contains 670 members. To obtain an adverse vote it would be necessary for the followers of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Lord Rosebery and Mr. Redmond to be first agreed, and then to be reinforced by some 58 or more malcontents from the Unionist side. Merely to abstain from voting would not accomplish the downfall of Mr. Balfour at this time. The seceders must actually go into the Opposition lobby.

The course of the debate during the next few days will be of the highest interest, and the nature of the ornate criticisms will doubtless have an effect upon the course Mr. Balfour takes with reference to an early dissolution. The Parliament has three sessions of legal life before it, but the history of British Ministers since the Reform Bill of 1868 shows that any useful legislation is impossible when the Ministry of the day is discredited and can only rely upon a majority made up of members who occupy official positions. According to long custom, the House of Commons refuses to acknowledge the finality of votes which Ministers give for themselves.

If the 82 members who follow Mr. Redmond and who voted with the Government last session because of the Land Bill and their approval of religious education in the schools, continue their support this session they are more than sufficient to counterbalance any likely defection of Liberal Unionists; but so far Mr. Redmond retains a free hand and his attitude will doubtless be determined by the nature of the proposals Mr. Balfour makes regarding Irish university education and the affairs of Ireland generally.

Before the split in the Unionist party Mr. Chamberlain acted as leader of the House of Commons in the absence of Mr. Balfour. Should the latter be unfortunately absent this evening through illness as reported, it will be of high political interest to see who will act as deputy leader in the debate upon the address. Probably Mr. Wyndham, the only remaining colleague who has really made a mark. In the House of Lords the Duke of Devonshire, by resigning office has, of course, forfeited the leadership. It is probable that Lord Lansdowne will act as leader if his duties as Foreign Minister permit.

THE SETTLER AND HIS LUMBER.

The lumbermen of British Columbia want the duty upon lumber increased. These gentlemen find a market for most of their product in Manitoba and the Territories. This treeless district has arisen to demand the removal of all duties upon lumber, without considering the feelings of the British Columbian lumber kings. The people of the wheat belt say that the Western lumber manufacturers are in a combine which maintains the prices at unduly high figures and so controls the lumber yards throughout the Northwest that competition is absolutely crushed. If it were not for the restraining influence of Minnesota and Wisconsin lumber, the dwellers of the plains say the Canadian lumber trust would put up prices so high that sod shanties would become a necessity.

Whatever may be said of other industries it would seem that lumber manufacturing stands least in need of protection. We have the trees, the water power and water ways. We should be able to keep all foreign lumber out of Canada by the natural process of competition and without a dollar's duty.

The Middle West would seem to have a particularly strong case against the British Columbian lumbermen. They have shown pretty conclusively that with the present slight protection upon a few kinds of manufactured lumber there has been a Canadian trust formed. They have therefore every reason to dread the consequences of a still further advance in duties.

Lumber is one of the things our fertile wheat belt is not blessed with. It is one of the things settlers cannot do without. They have to build homes, barns, and granaries with lumber. This has to be hauled to them from a distance, so the freight makes the lumber cost heavily. Just now with settlers swarming in there is an unusually large demand for boards, and the men who are building need every cent they brought to Canada, for besides habitations there are horses, cattle, machinery and seed to be obtained. It is in the interest of the country that they should get these things, and particularly their lumber, as reasonably as possible. No lumber combine nor any other combine should be permitted to put obstacles in their way just as they are struggling to get started.

The Middle West says to the further West, "We do not need protection on our wheat, why should you need it on your lumber? Each is a natural product and each is to be had in abundance."

MILLIONAIRE EMIGRANTS.

The United States fiscal system is famous for the creation of multi-millionaires. The Land of the Free is acquiring new fame for its exportations of these products. It is announced Mr. J. P. Morgan is going to England to join Mr. Astor and Mr. Carnegie there for the rest of his life. He is going to gather there his art treasures now loaned to museums abroad, because the United States would charge a duty upon them almost equal to their cost, if he were to bring them to the United States and assemble them in the land of his nativity for his own enjoyment and edification. It is a singular comment on the scheme of things in the United States that a man can accumulate great wealth but has to go to another country to enjoy it. The United States is large enough and old enough to provide an atmosphere in which the most opulent should be happy. But the men who guide the American destinies and who have taken almost every feature of life into consideration have overlooked making any provision for a millionaire's paradise. A good many of the wealthy daughters of the republic, with their patrimonies, have been gathered to the bosoms of good old English families. Now their fathers are joining the movement back on the track of the adventurous Mayflower. The more this sort of immigration takes place the better it will be for Anglo-American friendship, which is not in a satisfactory condition. If Mr. Rockefeller could be induced to join the American colony in England the cap sheaf would be ours.

SOME NEW VOTERS.

The British soldiers at Halifax want to vote. They have never done so before but the authorities have decided that in law there is no reason why they should not have been on the lists in the past and no reason why they should not exercise the franchise hereafter unless the law is changed.

About three thousand of these men, it is said, are entitled to have their names placed upon the lists. This addition to the voting strength of the constituency would give the public men there an entirely new problem to consider. In the last Federal elections there were about twelve thousand votes cast in the constituency of Halifax and only a difference of three or four hundred between the victors and vanquished. Three thousand uniformed votes would probably be cast in one way and the garrison would control the constituency.

While we honor the British uniform in this country, and the men who wear it, still the city of Halifax would hardly agree to the election of its two Federal members and three provincial members by a body of men who know all about the political questions of constituencies in England, Ireland, Scotland, or Wales, but very little of those in Canada. They would hardly agree to their representatives being selected by men who have no intention of uniting their fortunes with that of this country and who have no permanent stake in Canada.

If the Nova Scotia Assembly should pass an Act disfranchising the soldiers at the garrison the men of war would find themselves in honorable company, for among the disfranchised persons in that province are the judges of the Supreme Court, employees of the Crown Land office, and local Public Works and Mine office and all employees in receipt of wages fifteen days before the election in the Customs, Inland Revenue, government railway or post office.

The Nova Scotia Legislature is now in session and can deal with this question without delay.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Dandurand and Cochrane also ran.

The people seem to want 75 cent gas.

Now for Bergeron and his new leader.

The worst of it is we can hardly hope ever to improve upon this.

Montreal has every right to feel a little proud of yesterday's performance.

If the corporations are wise they will take a pledge against franchise grabbing.

For the great victory of yesterday much is due to the energetic campaign made by La Presse.

Now if Russia would only send for General Larry Wilson, Japan might be willing to take chances.

Ald. Laporte's first expression of thanks to the electors was spoken from a window of The Herald office.

It is good to be on The Herald's slate, and bad to be on The Herald's black list. The people are with The Herald.

Mr. Dandurand complains that he was beaten by the workingman. The workingman can accept this as a compliment.

This morning, in the absence of news, the special correspondents discovered that Russia is preparing for war.

Mr. Rockefeller has got out of United States Steel. There are a lot of people who wish they could afford to follow his example.

Victory is becoming such a habit with The Herald that a little reverse might do us good. Still, we cannot support Mr. Bergeron, even to get a chastened spirit.

Ontario Tory papers say Mr. Monk's going is no great loss. That's the kind of reward he gets for letting them blackguard Quebec in the hope of beating Laurier in 1900.

Lord Roberts, it is expected, will be made inspector-general of the army under the new plan. The British people will sleep easily with the assurance that the work is being well done.

Parliament had to open without the British Premier, who was in bed with influenza. The First Commoner of Great Britain certainly has an accumulation of troubles. Influenza is the last, but not the greatest.

Recently it was announced Mr. George E. Foster was to be given the nomination for St. John, the constituency in which Mr. Blair knocked him down and piled a thousand ballots on him. He is not going back to his Waterloo. Another man has been selected by the Conservatives.

WANT OUR MINERALS.

Kingston, Ont., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—A. M. Chisholm, mine owner, has received an enquiry from Germany as to the cost of iron pyrites, feldspar and graphite. If prices are satisfactory a large trade may be worked up between Canada and Germany in these minerals.

The income on the real and personal estate of the late J. B. McIver goes to his sister, Mrs. Alexander Mackie, during her lifetime. After her death, the estate is to be divided between the General Hospital and Queen's University, the hospital getting the larger share. The value of the estate will likely be in the vicinity of $20,000.

The people of Bath have undertaken to erect an altar in oak in Bath Anglican Church as a parochial memorial of their late rector, the Rev. C. J. H. Hutton. There will also be, in all probability, a beautiful monument erected at the grave.

Queen's University Senate met on Saturday evening. It was decided to change the course for the Ph.D. degree, making it attainable in three years after taking the M.A. degree, instead of four, and also allowing it to be secured on any two subjects a candidate might choose.

YESTERDAY'S VOTE WAS A BIG SURPRISE.

The result of the election caused numerous and, in some cases, big surprises. Yet nobody will be surprised to learn that Sweet Caporal more than ever enjoys the favor of cigarette smokers.

REDMOND IS CHAIRMAN.

Dublin, Feb. 2.—At a meeting of the Irish parliamentary party John Redmond was re-elected chairman for the coming season.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is the great flesh producer. Thirty years have proved its effeciency in throat and lung troubles and all wasting diseases.

Do not try substitutes, especially now, when cod liver oil is so scarce and high. They are mostly all adulterated with seal or other cheap oils.

Scott's Emulsion is always the same. The cod liver oil used is absolutely pure; all the other ingredients are also carefully selected and of the finest quality.

Views of French Press

Le Journal: The programme of the new Council is well filled. Many promises were made and two years will not be any too long to do great things.

Le Canada: We expect more of the new council than of any other that preceded it in the way of reform and we will know how to keep it to its promises.

La Presse: When further developments are being made in the use of radium it must be remembered that the biggest miracle is not the one that we consider as such.

La Presse: To arrive at a right idea of the opinion held by the women of the city of their right to vote one must consider the many objections that keep them from going to the polls.

WESTMOUNT TOWN COUNCIL.

The new Westmount Town Council last night took up the report of the Health Committee on the findings of the special commission of enquiry appointed to examine conditions of the river about the intake pipe.

After a good deal of discussion it was decided that a committee should be appointed to confer with the officials of the Montreal Water and Power Company. The Council will then decide whether action should be taken against the Water Company.

A deputation composed of Mr. Justice Trenholme, Dr. Kirby and Mr. Hutchins pointed out that the value of their property had been depreciated owing to the proximity of the pumping station on Clarke Avenue. They claimed that the Council had good grounds for taking action against the company. Mayor Cross again defined the town's position and ex-Mayor Lighthall in a short address advocated immediate action.

BALFOUR STUDYING STRATEGY.

London, Feb. 2.—It was reported that Premier Balfour has been diligently studying strategy and military matters under the guidance of a well-known army coach with the view of fitting himself for his important duties under the reformed war office plan, as chairman of the defence committee. A further consideration of the army reforms recommended by the Esher Commission has provoked some criticism of the drastic nature of the proposed changes which involve the removals of some of the ablest officers in the service from very high positions. It is reported that the office of Inspector General will be offered to Lord Roberts, and that the Duke of Connaught as well as Sir George Clarke, the latter as member of the commission are to have high posts under the new plan.

POINT FORTUNE MAYOR.

Point Fortune, Q., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—At the regular session of the municipal council, held on the 1st inst., Mr. William Brown was for the fifth term elected Mayor.

The harbor seam of this mine will be idle probably for the rest of this week, owing to the accident to the compressor on Sunday afternoon.

FIREMEN PLAY ON PIANOS.

An outbreak of fire yesterday afternoon did damage to the extent of $2,000 in the piano warehouse of J. A. Hurteau, 1680 St. Catherine Street. Flames were first observed underneath the counter and the firemen from No. 6 station were promptly summoned and were able to prevent the fire from spreading to any extent, the loss consisting of damage by heat and water to six pianos and an organs.

Many Ministers Suffer From Throat Catarrh

Rev. D. R. Smith, one of the Most Prominent Churchmen in Nova Scotia, Cured of Chronic Catarrh by Inhaling Fragrant, Healing Catarrhozone.

A CONVINCING DECLARATION.

"For years I tried all the advertised remedies for Catarrh, but was unable to get relief from that disease, which affected me in the nose and throat, until I used Catarrhozone. Before I had been using it half an hour my nostrils became for the first time clear and free, so I could breathe easily through them. In one day Catarrhozone helped me immensely, stopping my coughing and hawking, and cured a dull pain that was continually over my eyes. I have the greatest pleasure in recommending Catarrhozone, knowing it to be the best cure for Catarrh, and disease of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes.

(Signed) (Rev.) "D. R. SMITH, White Head, N.S."

What Catarrhozone accomplished in Mr. Smith's case it can accomplish again. It will cure any case of Catarrh, no matter how chronic or long standing. It is the only remedy that can possibly reach the diseased parts, and is warranted perfectly safe to use. Catarrhozone contains no cocaine or morphine. It is nature's own remedy, soothing and healing.

CATARRHOZONE CURES CATARRH

The medicated vapor is breathed into the most minute air cells in the nose, throat, and lungs. It goes wherever the catarrh really is. It can't escape the antiseptic vapor of this healing medicine, which is as sure as death to cure. Thousands of clergymen, lawyers and doctors endorse Catarrhozone as a positive sure cure for Catarrh, lung and throat troubles. Try it and see if this isn't so. Remember, Catarrhozone is guaranteed.

Complete outfit, consisting of beautifully polished hard rubber inhaler and sufficient extra liquid to last two months, cost $1.00. Sample size 25c. Gertrude	Miss Jennie A. Eustace
Ophelia	Miss Gertrude Elliott

Vivid, convincing and realistic was the portrayal of the Prince of Denmark given last night at the Academy of Music by Mr. J. Forbes Robertson, who presented Hamlet as a generous, courtly gentleman, who loved deeply, was driven from despair to distraction, never, however, drifting even to the borderland of insanity. No player of recent years, probably not since the days of Edwin Booth, has given a more impressive characterization of the role; but it cannot be said Mr. Robertson's acting compares with that of his predecessors, from the fact that he represents the modern school of historianism, yet his finished art, the consistency of his interpretation and the departures from the version usually heard, appealed to the heart and intelligence, which aroused the enthusiasm of a large audience.

Material changes are made in the Robertson production, these consisting mainly of transpositions and combinations of scenes, which greatly simplified the movement of the play, without laying violent hands upon the text. Restorations were apparent throughout, and they gave the tragedy more color, outlining as they did the story of Hamlet's father, and prepared the way for the Fortinbras episode, which brings the complete drama to a close, and raised the roles of Rosencranz and Guildenstern to the importance justified by the complete text.

The most important departure from the traditional acting version is the use made of the Fortinbras episode, the entrance of the Prince of Norway and the Ambassador of England, and the honors they show the dead Hamlet furnish a highly dramatic contrast and give the closing tragedy, in which three lives are quieted, a symmetry and finality not otherwise obtainable. The first notes of "Hamlet" in the Robertson production are those of sorrow and sweetness, which appeal at once to the student. The scenes with the ghost of Hamlet's father are given with repression and an appealing show of filial love, while the incident of the oath showed the horror and emotion a sensitive man would naturally undergo in such a crisis, rather than the ravings of a diseased mind.

Mr. Robertson played his scenes with Polonius, the Lord Chamberlain, in a bantering spirit; his farewell to Ophelia was steeped in pathos, and, then, as he realized the deceit, he assumed in a most convincing way the antic disposition of insanity. The play scene and the incident with the pipes were highly dramatic, but in the scene where he comes upon the king in prayer, which, by the way, is the real climax, was somewhat hurried in his nervous, rapid delivery, which, while it appears to fit the character in certain phases, lacks repose in others. Another instance of this was in the interview with his mother, which was pitched in too loud a key at the opening of the scene, though as the act proceeded it gained in significance, particularly at the death of Polonius.

Among the other departures from the accepted version were the leave-taking between Ophelia, Laertes and Polonius, which was transferred bodily to the palace, though not a little strength was added by the narrative by Ophelia of her encounter with Hamlet. The closet and the king's prayer scenes were done in a single setting. There was a break in interest, but Mr. Robertson overcame this by placing Ophelia in her mad scene and Laertes' return in a walled orchard; the king's presence in his wife's chamber seemed plausible, though Hamlet's exit and re-entrance were somewhat forced.

Miss Elliott's work, especially during the "mad scene" was nicely handled, the light and shade being particularly effective. Her Ophelia was pleasing on the whole and she acted with a show of sweetness and repression that was refreshing, and her personation suggested the horror a young woman of the heroine's temperament would have felt at the supposed plight of the man she loved better than life.

While Miss Eustace never rose to the heights of fine acting, her portrayal of the queen was satisfactory. She was effective in the interview with Hamlet, though there seemed an inclination to over-act the part in the closing scene. Miss Lee, who appeared as Bessie Broke in the Kipling story, had some difficulty with the lines assigned to her, but her acting was convincing on the whole. It's a far cry from a creature of the slums to the player queen; one should not expect too much, but Miss Lee gives promise of doing much with the role.

As was his Torpenhow in "The Light that Failed," so was Mr. Aubrey Smith's ghost: it was most effectively played. Mr. Ian Robertson's portrayal of King Claudius was interesting in the craftiness and viciousness with which he invested the character. He was convincing in the prayer, but the subtle bits of humor the role calls for were lacking, nor did Mr. Guy Line bring out all the posibilities in the Lord Chamberlain, realistic and polished as he was. Mr. Arthur Harrold was manly and most natural as Horatio and his scenes with Mr. Robertson were well handled. Mr. Leon Quartermaine was acceptable as Laertes, especially in the duel scene with Hamlet. The other parts were fairly well done.

The scenic display in the drama is a feature, the sage pictures being artistic in detail. Particularly effective in their atmospheric rioness were the views of the sea, the battlements of the palace and the orchard with its walls and towers. Taken as a whole, the production made a deep impression, and added laurels to Mr. Robertson's wreath which will ever remain green in the memory of Montreal play-goers. "Hamlet" will be repeated to-night and to-morrow night, with Saturday matinee. "The Light that Failed," preceded by a one act play, "The Sacrament of Judas," compose the bill for the rest of the week.

CONCERT IN VICTORIA HALL.

Under the management of Mr. Frank A. Veitch, the second concert of a series was given in the Victoria Hall, Westmount, last evening, which attracted a fair and very appreciative audience. Selections from Beethoven, Schubert and Rheinberger formed the principal feature of the programme and justice was done to these great masters by the harmonious efforts of Prof. Charles Reichling, first violin; Miss Lilian Bengough, viola; Mr. W. R. Spence, 'cello, and Mrs. S. Chadwick, at the piano, whose playing was a feature of the evening. The Westmount Ladies' Quartette, Mesdames Watson, T. Ramsay, Birchall and Williams, was responsible for three numbers, each of which was heartily encored, the rendering of "Forget Me Not," by Th. Gelse, being specially appreciated. There was no conductor, but excellent time was kept without the aid of the baton.

"THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST."

Among the plays of which the theatre-going public never seems to tire must be numbered "The Volunteer Organist," which is seen at the Theatre Francais this week. Probably the reason for its continued popularity is the amount of heart interest it possesses. The company seen here this week is a capable one. Undoubtedly the best piece of character work in the play was that presented by Geo. H. Nichols as Tom Sturges, in the title role. The part of Howard Sturgis, the Methodist minister, his brother, was ably played by S. J. Broughton. Mr. Charles Hasty wasted none of his opportunities as Ebbe Utter. Miss Alice Belle Pollack is also deserving of mention for her presentation of the role of Grace Hunter. The part is a somewhat difficult one to play, but it was acted in a graceful, natural manner. Another good piece of character work was that done by Miss Carrie Thomas, as the spinster aunt. Solos were rendered in the third act by Willie Nelson and Floyd Hunt.

"TESS" AT PROCTOR'S THEATRE.

Lorrimer Stoddard's four act play "Tess of the D'Urberville's" is the attraction at Proctor's this week. The story taken from Thomas Hardy's novel, tells of the sad experience of a young country girl. Tess falls in love with Angle Clare, but owing to a secret of the past she will not marry him without telling all. The note containing this information is laid on the window sill of Clare's house, but Tess' ambitious mother steals it and substitutes a heart. After the marriage, a mutual confession follows and only then does Tess learn that her husband was unacquainted with her past life. Clare, horrified by the revelation, leaves England for Brazil in the hope of forgetting Tess and his unfortunate marriage. Tess is left behind and after writing numerous letters to her husband which remain unanswered, she is told that Clare is dead. Then, driven by despair and the hope of helping her family she marries Alec Stoke-D'Urberville, who treats her cruelly. When her hopes are at their lowest, Clare returns and begs his wife's pardon. Tess, enraged at being deceived, enters her second husband's room and plunges a knife into his heart. The closing scene shows the surrender of Tess and Clare at Stonehenge. As the curtain rises on this scene, a view of Stonehenge by night is presented, showing Clare and Tess in their flight from the scene of murder. Gradually the first streaks of dawn appear and as the red sky melts into bright sunlight, Tess surrenders to her pursuers. The name role is taken by Miss Rebecca Warren, who shows much taste in carrying it out. Her portrayal of the poor dairymaid and the bride is only excelled by her part as Alec's wife and the surrender at Stonehenge. The one point at which she falls to maintain her standard is the murder of Alec, an episode that is rather unreal in execution. Mr. Earle Ryder, as Clare made an admirable hero, but it is regrettable that more scope has not been allowed for his powers of acting. Mr. Will J. Dean well maintained the part of the villain, and his acting at times was excellent. Others in the cast deserving mention are Miss Lilian Paige, Mr. Will J. Dean and Mr. Ralph Theadore.

BURLESQUE AT THE ROYAL.

The performance given by the Moonlight Maid Burlesquers at the Royal this week is well up to the average usually seen at the Cote Street theatre. There is no radical departure in it except that "A Rialto Rounder" is made to resemble more a legitimate comedy than a burlesque. This also applies to "A Round Up," which concludes the show. Both comedies serve their purpose in that they make the audience laugh. They are bright, well put on and afford the company an opportunity to show what it can do in the way of dances and songs. "Joe" Fields, as Michael Cransmayer and D. Ferguson, as Bernard McManus, were the principal funmakers. The ollo is responsible for several good turns, among the best of which must be reckoned Rice and Prevost, the eccentric acrobats. Their specialty is tumbling and is one of the funniest seen here for some time. The coon and coster songs by Marie Rogers secured for her many encores. Good music was played by Frederick Bros. and Jessie Burns, notably their performance on the saxophone and cornet. Toma Hanlon and Dave Ferguson pleased the audience with their songs and dances, while Fields and Wooley, as German soldiers, gained much applause by their clever work in that line.

THE FRENCH STOCK COMPANY.

The French stock company at the Theatre des Nouveautes this week for the first time this season produces one the leading French comedies. The selection of "Cabotins," is a happy one and its production with M. Laby of the Mme. Charlotte Wiehe Company, in the leading role, is an excellent one. Mr. Laby at once became a favorite with the large audience by his clever and finished interpretation of the part of Caracel. Mme. Varennier surprised a number of her friends by displaying almost as great talent in comedy as she had in high class drama. A number of enjoyable entr'actes were supplied by Mme. D'Artigny, Mr. Laby and Mr. Darcy.

the numerous Remnants and ends of lots that accumulated in all departments during the busiest January sales ever experienced. Yesterday, the first day, the public gave renewed proofs of their interest in the Big Store's offerings.

REMNANTS WERE IN BRISK DEMAND

Specific information about these Remnants is not possible, inasmuch as the principle that prevails is the shorter the piece the shorter the price.

LADIES' BLACK SATEEN BLOUSES

RARELY EQUALLED VALUES

These Blouses are made from beautiful glove finish Sateens, practically free from dressing, with a sheen that simulates satin. All this season's styles, though many different modes are represented and various methods of trimming have been employed. A clean up of a manufacturer's surpluses, that accounts both for the variations in making and the additional value that each piece will secure. Three prices;

69c, 85c and $1.00

Sizes 32 to 42. The lack of assortment in any one style renders difficult the task of detailed description. A glance in passing at some of the $1.00 Blouses: Here is one style, that is beautifully tucked, and further embellished with cording; another with shoulder tabs, trimmed with black fabric covered buttons.

In the 85c line there are some whose charm is further heightened by the introduction of fancy white stitching.

The 69c line are not made on quite so elaborate a principle. Still many are neatly pleated and trimmed with buttons.

The cheapest Blouse cannot be matched from regular stocks for less than 90c. The most expensive ones are well worth up to $1.75.

THE SEAWANHAKA CUP DEFENDER BEING BUILT

Excellent Suggestions Made at the Annual Meeting of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

The annual meeting of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club was held last evening at the Windsor Hotel. An announcement was made that one defender for the Seawanhaka Cup was now being built at Dorval, and that work on another would soon be begun.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing season:—Commodore, W. C. Finley; vice-commodore, H. R. Drummond; rear commodore, W. F. Angus; hon. secretary, J. J. Riley, jr.; committee—C. H. Routh, J. Paton, A. W. Shearwood, Peers Davidson, Harvey Hough, S. A. Finley, A. R. Hall, and Chas. J. Saxe; measurers—A. Angus Macdonald, R. J. Durley, and E. J. M. Cape.

The executive's report, which stated the membership to be 854, gave an interesting detail of the season's work, and in connection with Saturday cruises read as follows:

"In connection with the suggestion of the Sailing Committee that on alternate Saturdays cruises be held to some outlying point, where the competitors can camp one night, we may report that some gentlemen, having acquired Windmill Point, at the foot of Isle Perrot, and having equipped a club house and harbor, arrangements are being made with them to adopt this station as one of the objective points for such cruises. The understanding with these gentlemen is that in consideration of a subscription by the club to the maintenance of their undertaking, the members of the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club shall, during the sailing season, be entitled to the privileges of the harbor and club house, thus providing our members with a most desirable up-the-lake station.

"Your committee in closing the report, must refer to the commodore, the Hon. Mr. Justice C. P. Davidson, who during his two years of office has evinced an unusual personal and active interest in the work of the club, and whose resignation was regretfully accepted by your committee in October last. His wide experience in affairs and long connection with the club made him an invaluable presiding officer, and many of the improvements that have characterized the work of your committee during his term of office were suggested by the commodore and carried out under his direction."

The Sailing Committee's report gave a summary of the contests for the Seawanhaka Cup, and the other sailing events, and ran:

"The trial races for choosing the defender of the Seawanhaka Cup might have been more exciting if the crews of some of the competitors had practiced more regularly and consistently and kept their boats in perfect racing trim. The Thorella, as it was, had things her own way against the Trident, Arolus, Myra and Osma. This last was kindly lent by Mr. Clouston for the trials, and the thanks of the committee are extended to him for her use. We very much regret, however, that irregular handling and poor turning up prevented her making the showing that the generosity of the lender merited. We hope arrangements will be made for better handling another year, if any owners of cup racers cannot devote the time to racing themselves, and feel disposed to lend their yachts for such trials.

"The foregoing suggests a few recommendations that might be made in our desire to promote better practice in racing classes, and more interest in the club sailing, and we lay them before the club simply as suggestions to be considered another year.

"1. It has been suggested that on alternate Saturdays during the season a cruising race be held to some ground or foreign point where the competitors might camp over night before returning. The destination to be named later, and probably changed from time to time to give variety in the course of the summer's races.

"2. Races migth be held for the power boats that have lately become so numerous on the lake, and it is recommended that a compptent committee be formed to look into teh various rules and arrange for the adoption of the most satisfactory ones for the handicapping of these boats.

"3. The incoming committee should pay more attention to obtaining entries for the class races, and also to these and the Seawanhaka trials."

Quebec Yacht Club.

Quebec, eb. 1.—Special.)—At a meeting of the Quebec Yacht Club, held last evening, it was decided to build a new club house and a committee was appointed to choose a site either on the Island of Orleans, at St. Joseph de Levis or on the St. Lawrence, near the Chaudiere.

Hockey

Dissatisfied With O. H. A.

Brockville, Feb. 2.—Brockville people consider that they have been unjustly dealt with by the O.H.A. regarding the arrangements made for the final game of Group 2. Prominent officials of the club state that it will be the first and last season in the O.H.A. Smith's Falls is also dissatisfied and these two clubs early next season will take the initiative to form an association in the East independent of the O.H.A., which never did, nor ever will, give the East a fair show.

Vankleek Hill Wins Again.

In a game here on Friday last the Vankleek Hill team demonstrated to Hawkesbury their superiority over the Hawkesbury team by a score of 13 goals to 5. The game at no time looked dangerous for the Hill team. In the first half they held the fresh opponents down to 5 goals to 4—in the Hill's favor, and in the last half the star Hawkesbury goal keeper Paquette was treated to a shower bath, letting eight goals go by him. The Hawkesbury team in the last half of the game were winded and completely played off their feet. The teams lined up as follows:

Hawkesbury.	Vankleek Hill.
Paquette	Goal
Murphy	Point.
Craig	Cover Point.
Doyle	Forwards.

Z.A.A.A. Defeat Y.M.H.A.

A fast game of hockey was played on the Victoria Rink on Saturday night between the Z.A.A.A. and the Y.M.H.A. resulting in a well earned game for the Z.A.A.A. by a score of 5-0. Games:—M. Silver, 3; S. Holdsteine, 1; S. Silver, 1.

Wanderers Vs. Nationals.

What will probably be one of the most interesting matches of the season will take place to-morrow evening at the Stadium when the Wanderers meet the National team in the Federal series.

It will be remembered that when these teams came together a short time ago they furnished an exceedingly exciting contest and the French-Canadian seven made the prospective Federal pennant-winners extend themselves the limit to get the decision and succeeded in holding them down for the whole of the second half without a tally. Encouraged by their good showing in the previous match they have practiced faithfully for to-morrow night's game and will make the effort of their lives to defeat the Wanderers.

"Turkey" Bellingham, who played with the Victorias against the Ottawas on Saturday night, will make his appearance with the boys in red and white, probably in place of "Dicky" Boon, who has been under the weather for the last few days with the grippe. The referee has not yet been agreed on, but will likely be an out-of-town man.

The Caledonias of Montreal are the next on the list of challengers for the Quebec Challenge Cup, now in possession of the Rideau Curling Club of Ottawa.

Fire broke out last evening in a temporary wooden flat at the new Bank of Ottawa building in St. James Street. Only trifling damage was done.

AN ISLAND ROMANCE.

By LOUIS TRACY.

CHAPTER XIV.—(Continued.)

But he was utterly helpless, a pawn on that tiny chessboard where the game was being played between Civilization and Barbarism. The fight must go on to the bitter end: he must either vanquish or be vanquished. There were other threads being woven into the garment of his life at that moment, but he knew not of them. Sufficient for the day was the evil, and the good, thereof. Of both he had received full measure.

A period of such reflection could hardly pass without a speculative dive into the future. If Iris and he were rescued, what would happen when they went forth once more into the busy world? Not for one instant did he doubt her faith. She was true as steel, knit to him now by bonds of triple brass. But, what would Sir Arthur Deane think of his daughter's marriage to a discredited and cashiered officer? What was it that poor Mir Jan called himself?—"a disgraced man." Yes, that was it. Could that stain be removed? Mir Jan was doing it. Why not he?—by other means, for his good name rested on the word of a perjured woman. Wealth was potent, but not all-powerful. He would ask Iris to wait until he came to her unsoiled by slander, purged of this odium cast upon him unmerited.

And all this goes to show that he, a man wise beyond his fellows, had not yet learned the unwisdom of striving to lift the veil of to-morrow, behind whose mystic curtain what is to be ever jostles out of place what is hoped for.

Iris, smiling in her dreams, was assailed by no torturing doubts. Robert loved her—that was enough. Love suffices for a woman; a man asks for honor, reputation, an unblemished record.

To awake her he kissed her: he knew not, perhaps it might be their last kiss on earth. Not yet dawn, there was morning in the air, for the first faint shafts of light were not visible from their eyrie owing to its position. But there was much to be done. If the Dyaks carried out the plan described by Mir Jan, he had a good many preparations to make.

The canvas awning was rolled back and the stores built into a barricade intended to shelter Iriss.

"What is that for?" she asked, when she discovered its nature. He told her. She definitely refused to avail herself of any such protection.

"Robert dear," she said, "if the attack comes to our very door, so to speak, surely I must help you. Even my slight aid may stem a rush in one place whilst you are busy in another."

He explained to her that if hand-to-hand fighting were necessary he would depend more upon a crowbar than a rifle to sweep the ledge clear. She might be in the way.

"Very well. The moment you tell me to get behind that fence I will do so. Even there can use a revolver."

That reminded him. His own pistol was unloaded. He possessed only five more cartridges of small calibre. He placed them in the weapon and gave it to her.

"Now you have eleven men's lives in your hands," he said. "Try not to miss if you must shoot."

In the dim light he could not see the spasm of pain that clouded her face. No Dyak would reach her whilst he lived. If he fell, there was another use for one of those cartridges.

The sailor had cleared the main floor of the rock and was placing his four rifles and other implements within easy reach when a hiss came from beneath.

"Mir Jan!" exclaimed Iris.

"What now?" demanded Jenks over the side.

"Sahib, they come!"

"I am prepared. Let that snake get back to his hole in the rock, lest a mongoose seize him by the head."

Mir Jan, engaged in a scouting expedition on his own account, understood that the officer-sahib's orders must be obeyed. He vanished. Soon they heard a great crackling among the bushes on the right, but Jenks knew even before he looked that the Dyaks had correctly estimated the extent of his fire zone and would keep out of it.

The first physical intimation of the enemy's design they received was a pungent but pleasant smell of burning pine, borne to them by the northerly breeze and filling the air with its aroma. The Dyaks kindled a huge fire. The heat was perceptible even on the ledge, but the minutes passed, and the dawn broadened into day without any other result being achieved.

Iris, a little drawn and pale with suspense, said with a timid giggle—

"This does not seem to be so very serious. It reminds me of my efforts to cook."

"There is more to follow, I fear, dear one. But the Dyaks are fools. They should have waited until night fell again, after wearing us out by constant vigilance all day. If they intend to employ smoke it would be far worse for us at night."

Phew! A volume of murky vapor arose that nearly suffocated them by the first whiff of its noisome fumes. It curled like a black pall over the face of the rock and blotted one sea and sky. They coughed incessantly, and nearly choked, for the Dyaks had thrown wet seaweed on top of the burning pile of dry wood. Mir Jan, born in interior Inda, knew little about the sea or its products, and when the savages talked of seaweed he thought they meant green wood. Fortunately for him, the ascending clouds of smoke missed the cave, or he must infallibly have been stifled.

"Lie flat on the rock!" gasped Jenks. Careless of waste, he poured water over a coat and made Iris bury her mouth and nose in the wet cloth. This gave her immediate relief, and she showed her woman's wit by tying the sleeves of the garment behind her neck. Jenks nodded comprehension and followed her example, for by this means their hands were left free.

The black cloud grew more dense each few seconds. Nevertheless, owing to the slope of the ledge, and the tendency of the smoke to rise, the south side was far more tenable than the north. Quick to note this favorable circumstance, the sailor deducted a further fact from it. A barrier erected on the extreme right of the ledge would be a material gain. He sprang up, dragged the huge tarpaulin from its former location, and propped it on the handle of the pickaxe, driven by one mighty stroke deep into the crevice of the rock.

It was no mean feat of strength that he performed. He swung the heavy and cumbrous canvas into position as if it were a dust cloth. He emerged from the gloom of the driven cloud red-eyed but triumphant. Instantly the vapor on the ledge lessened, and they could breathe, even talk. Overhead and in front the smoke swept in ever-increasing density, but once again the sailor had outwitted the Dyak's manoeuvres.

"We have won the first rubber," he whispered to Iris.

Above, beneath, beyond, they could see nothing. The air they breathed was hot and foetid. It was like being immured in a foul tunnel and almost as dark. Jenks looked over the parapet. He thought he could distinguish some vague figures on the sands, so he fired at them. A volley of answering bullets crashed into the rock on all sides, the Dyaks had laid their plans well this time. A firing squad, stationed beyond the smoke area, and supplied with all the available guns, commenced and kept up a smart fusilade in the direction of the ledge in order to cover the operations of the scaling party.

Jenks realized that to expose himself was to court a serious wound and achieve no useful purpose. He fell back out of range, laid down his rifle and grabbed the crowbar. At brief intervals a deep hollow boom came up from the valley. At first it puzzled them until the sailor hit upon an explanation. Mir Jan was busy.

The end of a strong roughly-made ladder swung through the smoke and banged against the ledge. Before Jenks could reach it those hoisting it into position hastily retreated. They were standing in front of the cave and the Mahommedan made play on them with a Lee-Metford at thirty feet.

Jenks using his crowbar as a lever, toppled the ladder clean over. It fell outwards and disconcerted a section of the musketeers.

"Well done," cried Iris.

The sailor, astounded by her tone gave her a fleeting glance. She was very pale now, but not with fear. Her eyes were slightly contracted, her nostrils quivering, her lips set tight and her chin dimpled. She had gone back thirty generations in as many seconds. Thus might one of the daughters of Boadicea have looked whilst guiding her mother's chariot against the Roman phalanx. Resing on one knee, with a revolver in each hand, she seemed no puling mate for the gallant man who fought for her.

She caught his look.

"We will beat them yet!" she cried again, and she smiled, not as a woman smiles, but with the joy of a warrior when the fray is toward.

BETTER EDUCATION THE SUBJECT FOR DISCOURSE

Mr. W. A. Weir, M.L.A., K.C., Speaks Before Social Department of the Woman's Club.

Mr. W. A. Weir, M.L.A., K.C., was speaker before the Social and Science Department of the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon, with Dr. Marion Hansford in the chair.

The vital question of education and urgent necessity of bettering elementary school conditions in this province was the subject of Mr. Weir's able paper.

The lecturer, after thanking the ladies for their invitation to speak before the Club, said that he had lectured in many places and under various conditions, but never before had he been the sole representative of his sex and allowed to speak. And that he felt his subject would especially appeal to the Club, as woman was the natural educator of the world.

The speaker then opened his lecture by quoting Milton, who said, "Education fits a man for the performance of all public and private duties in peace and war." And that consequently every child according to his or her peculiar circumstances should have their natural instincts developed in full so as in the future to be able to cope with the great responsibilities of life.

Mr. Weir then touched briefly on education as it was in England some sixty or seventy year sago, before the reform bill was passed and of the terrible ignorance of the masses compared to the culture and refinement of the present age, and of France before the Revolution and introduction of elementary schools, quoting Dante, who said, "After bread, education is the first need of the people." That the Scotsmen held to-day positions of the highest rank on the globe was due to parochial schools in Scotland established by John Knox. That the United States did not owe its greatness to its mines or vast prarles, but the old log school house of the Puritans of New England, pointing out that at the time of the Southern war the people of the South traced their greatest calamities t owant of education, education being denied the slave with the result that power and progress were held in bond.

From the work of other countries, the lecturer spoke of the peculiar situation of educational matters in the province of Quebec, being due to the differences of race and creed making a discussion of the school system a delicate one.

Mr. Weir then went into minute details of the system of school laws as made by the Quebec Legislature, criticizing its workings especially in the rural districts. Look at the Bench of to-day. Some of our greatest leaders are men who came from these districts, places where to-day we are forcing emigration to the far West, where better educational systems exist.

The abolishment of small schools was suggested by Mr. Weir, They are only open a portion of the year. There being a scarcity of teachers, a fact due to the present unnecessarily severe laws of obtaining a diploma. We should have central schools in our rural districts, and if necessary busses to carry the pupils to and from long distances.

In conclusion, Mr. Weir said: Ladies, I beg of you, look into this matter, take an interest in the future of the growing generation and best of all, devise a remedy for bettering the conditions of the elementary school system.

ROCKFELLER SAYS HE IS TOO BUSY FOR DIRECTOR

The U. S. Steel Corporation Says His Resignation Has No Significance.

New York, Feb. 2.—John D. Rockefeller who tendered his resignation as a director of the United States Steel Corporation, wrote: "It has not been convenient for me to attend the meetings of the board. My interest in the company is represented on the board by my son, and I hope the vacancy occasioned by my resignation can be filled to the advantage of the company by some one who can personally attend the meetings."

The following statement was made on behalf of the United States Steel Corporation: "Much as everyone interested regrets the resignation of Mr. Rockefeller's letter should attach to his resignation. It is understood that he accepted the place as a director chiefly at the request of J. Pierpont Morgan. So far as is known he never attended any meetings of the board. His term as director would have expired in April.

TECHNICAL BOARD

G. MARCONI. THOS. A. EDISON. M. I. PUPIN.

The company is organized to control the Marconi system of Wireless Telegraphy and all of the inventions and patents relating thereto in the United States of America and its possessions and dependencies, including Cuba, Porto Rico, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippine Islands, Alaska, the Aleutian Islands and all ships having an American registry. It is the owner, by purchase, of the patents and inventions relating to wireless telegraphy of Guglielmo Marconi, Thomas Edison, Michael I. Pupin, J. A. Fleming and others.

MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY.

Much of the success of any company depends upon the wisdom, honesty and capability of the management. As a guaranty that the affairs of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America are managed for the best interests of the stockholders, wisely, prudently, honestly, we cite the following named directors: E. Rollins Morse, of E. R. Morse & Bro., of Boston and New York; Guglielmo Marconi, Eugene H. Lewis, of Eaton & Lewis, attorneys, New York; Cyrus S. Sedgwick, of the Hall Signal Co., New York; H. H. McClure, publisher, New York; John D. Oppe, Montreal; W. R. Betts, New York; Robert Goddbody, New York; Hon. J. W. Griggs, ex-Attorney General of the United States, New York; W. H. Bentley, New York.

Possibilities of an Investment in Marconi Securities.

There are 14 cables crossing the Atlantic. Their traffic amounts to many millions annually. Their profits are enormous. Fourteen Marconi stations would do as much work. The cables cost over $50,000,000. The Marconi station would cost not $2,000,000.

Marconi securities now offered at par are on the basis of a capitalization of $6,650,000. With fourteen stations in operation at half cable rates the net earnings would amount to 150 per cent. on the total capitalization. This means that Marconi securities now at par would then show 1,500 per cent. increase in value. This is not an extravagant expectation in view of some notable instances. Welsbach stock increased 1,600 per cent. Edison Electric Light advanced 4,000 per cent. in one year. Bell Telephone stock paid a profit of over $200,000, on $100 invested, in 25 years.

These were scientific inventions commercialized as the Marconi system is now being commercialized.

All the great inventions of the past, applied to commercial purposes, have brought riches to those who have aided in their establishment. The certificates now offered for sale represent the treasury stock of the company and provide working capital with which to inaugurate this, the most profitable commercial undertaking of the day. Investments in the corresponding securities of the telephone, the electric light, the steam railway, the air brake, the kodak and similar inventions were the foundation of some of the greatest of American fortunes. We believe that the certificates which we now offer will more than double in value in the next 12 months, and that within 10 years they will reach a value of from $500 to $1,000. This opinion is backed up by some of the best financiers of the country.

Commercial Operations of the Company.

The company is now actively engaged in the commercial operation of the Marconi system and is in receipt of a constantly increasing revenue therefrom. Its executive staff is thoroughly and efficiently organized for economical and profitable operation. It maintains a corps of efficient workers and has no high-salaried, ornamental officials. The various departments thus far organized are the Departments of Instruction, Traffic, Construction, Finance, Operation, Manufacture and the Technical Corps. Each department is under the direction and control of an efficient officer, with the result that the company's business is rapidly increasing, as is shown by the following certificate:

New York, Sept. 30, 1903.—We have examined the books and accounts of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America for the six months ending July 31, 1903, and certify that the books show steadily increasing receipts, month by month, for commercial services rendered.

(Signed) MENZIES, ROBERTSON & CO., Chartered Accountants.

We offer for immediate subscription in blocks of not less than $100 nor more than $1000 at $5.00 each the certificates described below. Make all checks payable to

The underwriters whom we represent have agreed to provide a large sum of money for the Company's treasury, available as additional working capital. In pursuance of this agreement, certain of the Company's treasury shares have been deposited with the Continental Trust Co., of the City of New York, and $5.00 deposit certificates have been issued against the same. These are now offered for sale in blocks of twenty or multiples thereof. Each block represents intact all the rights and privileges attaching to a single share of the capital stock of the American Company, including voting, dividends, etc.

Every other Marconi Company in existence had $5.00 (or £1) shares except the American Company, and it is not unlikely that action will be taken to reduce the par value of the shares of the American Company from $100.00 to an amount uniform with the other companies referred to. In anticipation of such action, the $5.00 certificates of deposit are provided, being full paid and non-assessable.

The certificates thus offered are the only securities of the company now obtainable from the sales of which the company receives any benefit.

PEACE IN THE EAST SEEMS NO NEARER

Russian and Japanese War Preparations Are Almost Complete—Britain Urging

St. Petersburg, Feb. 2.—In spite of the expressed hope of the Russian authorities that the present crisis will be passed, and that a pacific solution of the Russo-Japanese negotiations will be reached, it is no longer concealed that Russia is practically prepared for eventualities.

Yesterday the mobilization of the Manchurian reserves was announced.

The authorities now feel that the situation is secure, should Japan reject the efforts of the Czar is making to avoid war.

Calm, But Determined.

Tokio, Feb. 2.—The Japanese show a remarkable outward calm, and no scenes similar to those in America and England before recent wars are witnessed. There are occasional demonstrations and outcroppings of popular feeling, but the casual visitor to the larger cities can see but little out of the ordinary in the disposition and behavior of the people. There is, however, an undercurrent of desperate determination running the nation's length and breadth. The people have counted the cost and made final preparations, so that if forced to fight they are capable of waging and sustaining war in a manner that will surprise the world.

Not Forcing Japan.

London, Feb. 2.—Referring to a published statement that Great Britain and France were bringing pressure to bear on Japan in order to induce her to accept the terms of the new Russian note, the Japanese Minister, Baron Hayashi, said to-day that the British Government was not exercising any pressure on Japan, and he thought it extremely unlikely that France would attempt any such step.

King Sends Messengers.

New York, Feb. 2.—A special to the Herald from London, says: No fewer than four King's messengers have been dispatched from this country to St. Petersburg within the last four days, an absolutely unprecedented record. This may be taken as evidence of the influences that are being brought into play to prevent hostilities in the Far East.

Notes of the Despatches.

The Tokio correspondent of the Times' cable that an ordinance has been issued fixing the war pay of men in the army and navy.

Viceroy Alexieff is shortly to have a colleague in the administration of Russian affairs, the government of Western Siberia being intrusted to a viceroy residing at Omsk.

Prices on the St. Petersburg Bourse declined further to-day.

At the Court ball at St. Petersburg Count Lamsdorff, the Foreign Minister, drew M. Kurino, the Japanese Minister to Russia, into a window embrasure, where the two talked earnestly for half an hour. This incident attracted general attention.

Prince Khilkoff, the Ruslan Minister of Communications, started to-day on a tour of inspection of the Siberian and Trans-Baikal railways.

The announcement of the Russian mobilization precedes the Russian response, "as a warning to Japan," says the St. Petersburg Bourse Gazette to-day.

JABEL ROBINSON SAYS CANADIANS ARE SLAVES

Calls on the Farmers to Unite as the Dominion is "Governed Beyond Endurance."

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 2.—(Special.)—Jabel Robinson, M.P., president of the Dominion Grange in the course of his annual address to that body this morning contended that the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway should be built and owned by the people of Canada, thus relieving settlers from the yoke of wealthy corporations entirely beyond the control of the Government.

Elsewhere in his address he deplored the action of the Postmaster-General in pronouncing against rural mail delivery.

He expressed the opinion that "Canadians were governed beyond endurance" and made a loud call to the farmers to combine for mutual protection, one of his observations in this connection being as follows: "When the farmers and other toilers get away from the crack of the party whip then and not till then will they be out of slavery."

Mr. Robert C. Wilkins has returned from New York, where he attended the Convention of Garment Manufacturers of America. He is the only Canadian elected to the directorate of the association and was also honored by being elected chairman of the banquet, which took place last week at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

TERRITORY IS RICH SAYS JUDGE DUGAS

Output of Gold, He Declares, Will Continue Heavy for Years to Come.

"While the output of gold in the Yukon Territory during 1903 was considerably less than during the previous years, there will continue to be a large output for many years to come. The quantity will vary according to the facilities obtained to work the claims."

The speaker was Mr. Justice Dugas, of Dawson, who is in the city to spend a few days with relatives. He added:

"I am convinced there is gold in nearly every part of the territory, but it requires a great deal of labor to get it in fact, the nature of the soil is such that it requires more labor to work it.

"Some idea of the difficulty may be gathered from the instance that at the Eldorado mine it was found necessary to go to a depth of 220 feet of frozen earth before reaching the gold.

"This is expensive work, but since the introduction of machines the cost has been reduced to a considerable extent. These machines can only be worked with success by the large companies who own a large number of claims in one district.

"Of the $100,000,000 worth of gold that has been taken out of the Yukon district, fully $80,000,000 have been sent to foreign countries, by far the greater quantity going into the United States.

"It has been the gold from the Canadian territory of the Yukon that has built up such large towns as Seattle, Tacoma and Everett on the American coast. It is difficult to say how this money could be kept in Canada, as miners are at liberty to take the gold wherever they like. Commercial men in Canada should not overlook the oportunities they have in the Yukon. Conditions are now much more stable than ever before, and indications are that they will become even more so."

MAKING MONEY.

Every stockholder in the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America is making money, and making it fast. It is the most profitable investment offered to public subscripton since the cable, telephone and electric light stocks were put out. Its value is enhanced daily by additions to its resources and earning capacity, by the popularization of the system and the extension of its use by the general public. The day is not far distant when all telegraphing will be done by wireless. Ask any holder of Marconi stock if he will sell it for double what it cost him. Try him on a bid of three times its cost. But it's no use—he won't sell, and he'd be foolish to do so. He reads the papers—he knows what rapid strides the system is making in usefulness and public favor, and he rightly expects to make from 1,000 to 1,500 per cent. on his investment. He will hold it a few years more and he will be rich, and he knows it. You have an opportunity to buy some of the $5.00 Marconi certificates if you want the same chance to make money rapidly. Send us your application for not less than twenty nor more than two hundred certificates, accompanied by remittance in full at the rate of $5.00 each. Make all cheques payable to Stocks and Money.

FULL C.P.R. DIVIDEND EXPECTED; LOCAL STOCKS ON FIRM SIDE

The stock market did not reveal anything of a startling nature to-day, and news was scarce.

Cotton, by some strange freak, failed to break a record this morning, and, in spite of a big rise in Liverpool, the best July could do in New York was 17.42, the market afterwards going off to 17.20.

Mr. D. J. Sully is still predicting even higher prices, and he recently told a Montreal friend that in three months' time "20 cents would look cheap."

There was again a little talk of a probable cut in the Canadian Pacific dividend, but the insiders laugh at it. A gentleman identified with the road stated this morning that the talk had arisen entirely from the recent decreases in earnings, and that there was no other basis for it. The falling off he attributed almost entirely to the excessively cold and stormy weather, and that the road has had to overcome obstacles arising from those conditions that only a practical railroad man can appreciate. The directors are fully alive to the magnificent prospects in the West, and in view of this, and the fact that the recent falling off has been due to abnormal conditions, the full dividend will unquestionably be declared.

There was strong buying of Montreal Street Ry. this morning, and the price ran to 205 1-8. It is not thought that the new City Council will be favorable to the franchise extension plan, but this did not seem to be a consideration to-day, as a leading broker had some big buying orders on hand, and was freely bidding 205 for any part of 1,000 shares. Power was also a little stiffer under the influence of more investment orders.

The settlement of the trouble at the Dominion Coal mine created little comment, as the difficulty was not regarded as being anyway serious. There was a little trading in Coal, without any material price change, although the tone was rather firm.

Total sales of Montreal Street this morning were 825 shares, the stock opening at 204, with the final sales of the morning at 205 1-4. Coal opened at 60 1-2, and went to 61, while Power opened at 71 3-4 and went to 72 1-2.

Mr. C. D. Monk's messages said:—Americans in London 1-4 to 1-2 above parity. Montana decision regarded as a severe defeat for Heinze, releases to Amalgamated $3,000,000 Boston and Montana and Parot dividends. Attorney-General Knox adversely criticizes Foraker Bill to modify Sherman anti-Trust Law.' Improbable that Northern Securities decision be known before April first. Western crowd now believed to be long of very little stock in market. No real change in far Eastern situation, all markets waiting Russia's reply on Thursday. Pennsylvania Railroad reports for the year ended December 31 gr ss increase $9,963,100, net increase $2,100. Times asserts Speyer & Co. and J. P. Morgan & Co. and National City Bank signified intention bidding for whole or part of Cuban 35 million loan.

London, 2 p.m.—Prices show advances throughout for Americans. The change in sentiment yesterday was quite pronounced after receipt of decision from Montana that the Amalgamated Co. had an even chance regardless of politics. This would have had a more decided influence had the decision not been questioned; the admission of authenticity was to olate o affect the list, as a whole, therefore we should see some further recoveries to-day.

Washington.—In spite of rumors that Russia will concede practically everything on which Japan insits, the feeling of uneasiness that prevailed recently in official circles is again becoming manifest. It seems that the real crisis is on.

Meeting of stockholders of Northern Pacific is set for to-morrow. At the time of last adjournment it was expected that anti-merger suit, involving the right of the Northern Pacific Co. to exercise privileges of a stockholder, would have been decided by the Supreme Court. It is probable that another adjournment will be taken. The Northern Securites Co. is supposed to hold about four-fifths of Northern Pacific stock. Its holdings were not reported at the stockholders' meeting last October. All retiring directors hold over until their successors are elected.

There is a belief that every rally in the market is engineered for the purpose of selling stocks. As long as this feeling exists, an upward movement of the market is not likely to inspire confidence among traders or the public.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 2.—William Scallon has telegraphed from New York that he has resigned as president of the Anaconda Copper Company and manager of the Amalgamated properties in Montana. In announcing his resignation, Mr. Scallon says:

"The organization of which I have had charge is now in good shape, the relations between the company and men are generally of the best. With the awakening of the public sentiment which insists on justice and equal rights for all, with the passage of laws enacted at the special session of the Legislature designed to secure fair trials to all litigants; and with the favorable decision in the MacGinnis cases, the most important crisis in the history of Amalgamated affairs in Montana, the most important crisis in the history of Amalgamated affairs in Montana has been successfully passed, and I feel that I can consistently retire."

COTTON WENT BACK SOMEWHAT TO-DAY

New York, Feb. 2.—The upward course of prices in the cotton market was interrupted to-day by a decline of about half a cent a pound during the first twenty minutes of trading. The opening was easy at a decline of 7 to 16 points on the old crop and an advance of 10 to 12 points on the new crop months. The initial declines were to lower cables. Later selling was increased by a rumor that a large short interest had made a private settlement and March broke to 16.63, May to 16.96 and July to 17 cents, a net loss or 38 to 49 points. With the smaller long interest eliminated the market recovered 10 to 25 points of the loss, ruling very nervous and irregular.

The train was at a standstill waiting for the wind to subside when the gale lifted the three cars from the track.

At the cathedral the pulpit will be occupied by either Abbe Gauthier or Mgr. Archambault, vice-rector of Laval.

I have recommended Grape-Nuts to a number of years to patients with the greatest success and every year's experience makes me more enthusiastic regarding its use.

"I make it a rule to always recommend Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee in place of coffee when giving my patients instructions as to diet, for I know both Grape-Nuts and Postum can be digested by anyone.

"As for myself, when engaged in much mental work my diet twice a day consists or Grape-Nuts and rich cream. I find it just the thing to build up gray matter and keep the brain in good working order.

"In addition to its wonderful effects as a brain and nerve food Grape-Nuts always keeps the digestive organs in perfect, healthy tone. I carry it with me when I travel, otherwise I am almost certain to have trouble with my stomach." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

HOW WAR IN EAST MIGHT AFFECT THE CANADIAN BANKS

It is generally conceded that the Boer war had a good deal to do with upsetting the equilibrium of the world's money markets and in bringing about the stringency which has affected us intermittently since the fall of 1902. This stringency in money it was that gave the shock to security prices, and along with other causes forced them down to their present level.

At some of our recent bank meetings bankers have admitted that they were obliged to write down the book value of their securities and that profits were less on that account. The investments of our banks are supposed to be confined to high class bonds; it is known that several are accustomed to carry certain amounts in British consols, called the world's premier security, and these have declined relatively quite as much as others not so good. Recent purchases of consols by Canadian banks probably consist largely of the National War Loan of 1900, bought around 98, which, though now selling below that figure, must be redeemed at par in 1910. But although the banks may have had to face losses through the depreciation in their securities, everybody knows that they have profited handsomely by the high interest rates that have ruled for some time.

During the fall of 1902 particularly, they were able to get as high as 15 and 20 per cent. on New York call loans. The rates for mercantile business in the Dominion has tended to stiffen also, while the deposit rate has remained unchanged. How much in extra profits this wider margin meant to the banks would be difficult to calculate, but it is safe to say that it would far outweigh any appropriation necessary to write down securities.

According to the latest news, Japan is figuring on raising at home a good part of the money needed she proposes to increase taxation and to bring out loans on the Japanese markets. It is quite possible that this decision was arrived at because of difficulties raised in England over the question of a loan. Recent flotations in London have not proved unqualified successes; English investors seem to be pretty well loaded up with securities of one kind and another. Russia also is encountering difficulties in securing funds. But if the war breaks out nobody doubts but that both countries will manage somehow, either directly or indirectly, to borrow in the world's markets.

Of course a Russo-Japanese war, or any imporant war, would tend to make money dearer, and scarcer through the extra strain which it would throw on liquid capital; and as money is the stock-in-trade of our banks a rise in its value should prove beneficial to them. The scene of operations would be so far away that it ought not to derange any of our important industries (except perhaps indirectly, through causing tight money), and it might help the Canadian farmer by raising the price of wheat. Speaking generally, the banks cannot prosper unless the country prospers. —Eckardt.

LACK OF CAPITAL CAUSE OF FAILURES

Lack of capital is the main compelling cause of Canadian failures. In 1903 this cause accounted for 69.6 per cent. of all Canadian casualties, as against 67 per cent. in 1902, 70.6 per cent. in 1901, and 68.5 per cent. in 1900. Incompetence, though less hurtful than in the United States, still accounted for 12.3 per cent. of all failures in 1903, as against the same proportion in 1902. Fraudulent disposition accounted for 6.5 per cent. of the failures of 1903, as against 5.5 per cent. in 1902. Failures due to the shortcomings of the trader himself made up 94.9 per cent. of the total, which is a very much larger proportion than that exhibited in the United States. Of the remaining 5 per cent. of failures, specific conditions, which seem to have smaller play than in the United States, accounted for 4.3 per cent. Of the liabilities in 1903, 57.4 per cent. were chargeable to lack of capital and 31.5 per cent., to incompetence, while speculation, which accounted for only 1 per cent. of the failures, produced 12.1 per cent. of the liabilities. Taken as a whole, it might be noted that Canada reported 12 per cent. decrease in failures and 2 per cent. decrease in liabilities from 1902.

HENRY CLEWS ON THE STOCK OUTLOOK

There has been a surprisingly good demand for bonds, and many of the recent new issues have been readily taken. Our railroads show a disposition to go slow in their improvements, owing chiefly to the unsettled condition of the iron and steel markets. As steel comes down, however, to a more normal level, orders are likely to increase, and the railroads will no doubt continue their outlays. At a later period, therefore, it would cause no surprise if their demands upon the money market were to expand. The effect of war would unquestionably be temporarily depressing, because of the strain which any new war loans would impose upon the international money markets. American shares in common with others would be sold to provide funds. The decline, however, would not be serious, and might, as usual, be discounted in advance. Just now the Presidential campaign does not cut much of a figure. This is probably explained by the belief that a revival of the issues of the last two campaigns is impossible, and that in comparison with them it will be a quiet affair.

The general outlook for the market is consequently favorable. There are some important uncertainties, however, and prices have already had an important recovery; so that unfavorable developments might easily precipitate sharp reactions. This means a good trading market and a profit on all good stocks purchased on the sharp breaks.—Henry Clews.

THE BIG PROFITS OF COTTON CLIQUE

Inquiry on the Cotton Exchange, this week, as to the actual effect of the great cotton speculation on the money market drew forth the following views: The campaign which has been going on in the cotton market has absorbed a great deal of money, but the bull operators have made such enormous profits during the past two months' rise that they are now practically operating on what the gamblers term "clear velvet." Since the now famous Government crop estimate of 9,962,000 bales was issued on December 3, the price of spot cotton and options in the various markets has risen no less than 5 cents per pound, or equivalent to $25 per bale. As both the local and New Orleans bulls have been consistent in their aggressive position on the market since then, and their operations have been on a very extensive scale, their profits must be very large. Just how much cannot be estimated, but the trade opinion is that probably over $10,000,000 has been taken out of the market—this, of course, being distributed among the various bull interests here and at New Orleans.—N.Y. Post.

Prof. E. W. McBride, principal of McGill University, read a paper on "The Canadian Oyster," before the Natural History Society at its regular monthly meeting last evening, when Mr. Charles J. Stuart also contributed a paper on "The Great Aurora Borealis of Oct. 31, as seen at Montreal."

THROAT CATARRH

The symptoms of this disease are irritation, inflammation and tickling in the throat, hoarseness, cough, frequent expectoration of stringy, adherent matter, gagging, and sometimes vomiting. If neglected, the disease tends to the bronchial tubes and the lungs. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion cures Throat Catarrh by removing the cause. It allays the irritation and inflammation, cures the cough, removes the phlegm, clears the passages of secretions, heals the soreness, regulates the stomach and bowels, cleanses the blood and creates firm, healthy tissues and flesh. It has a marked effect upon the stomach and organs of digestion and it promotes nutrition. In all cases it gives quick and lasting results. Remember, Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is not like similar preparations. It is of a special odorless and tasteless product of petroleum, and has decided antiseptic and healing virtues.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST LA GRIPPE

Keep Your Stomach Right by Using Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—A Bad Stomach Means a Weak Body Unable to Fight Disease.

These are the days of la grippe. It is the substitute for a bad cold, but in the old days of less hurry and good stomachs it was not looked upon as being so catching or so dangerous.

Did you ever stop to think of the reason. It is that when the stomach is out of order the different parts of the body do not receive the nourishment they require. The body becomes starved and weak and is not able to ward off disease or fight against it once it has taken hold.

The safe-guard against la grippe is a good stomach; the best and most lasting cure for la grippe is a good stomach. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets ensure a good stomach. Thousands of people will tell you that out of their own experience, and those thousands haven't got la grippe either.

Marie Ann Bujold, of Maria Cap, Bonaventure Co., Que., says: "The cures of Dyspepsia by Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are wonderful. For two years my life was a burden. I could not take the simplest food without a pain across my stomach. One box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cured me completely."

Discovered Samaria's Power to Save When all Hope Was Lost.

Hamilton, April 3, 1901.

Dear Sir,—I received your letter of the first in reference to your remedy. As my father was going to Toronto, I got him to call and get two bottles of the remedy, and both bottles are taken. It is three months since we got it, and my friend has never tasted liquor since taking your remedy. It has proven all you claim, but I can truly say that your remedy saved his life, as he has been drinking for the past six years. I will take the great pleasure of recommending your remedy wherever it is needed, as I have discovered its power to save where we thought all was lost.

You may publish my letter if you wish, but please do not publish my name. You may give my address to anyone doubting these words. I remain, Yours sincerely, Miss L. M. W.
