DR BELAND'S EXPERIENCES

Was One of Three To Greet German Officers After Fall of Antwerp

TELLS A VIVID STORY OF THE SIEGE — ATTENDED THE WOUNDED IN HOSPITAL.

When Antwerp fell a distinguished Canadian, who has been in Belgium since the start of the war, Hon. Dr. Beland, of Beauce, was on the spot, and rendered a useful diplomatic service to the Belgian Burgomaster. Letters received from the ex-Postmaster-General in the Laurier administration tell of his experience during the siege and capture of Antwerp by the Germans last month, while he was there attending to his duties as an active member of the Belgian Hospital Corps. Dr. Beland came through the awful experience of that siege without harm, as he had previously come through the siege of Liege. After the entry of the Germans he was allowed to proceed to Holland with his wife, and reached there in safety. According to the last advice from him, he expects to be able to join the Canadian Medical Corps at the front.

FLEEING FROM THE CITY.

In the course of a letter written on October 10th, which came via Holland, Hon. Dr. Beland says:

"On Tuesday, at Antwerp, both the morning papers published an official proclamation warning the population to leave the city before 3 o'clock, as the bombardment of the suburbs could already be heard. The doctors helped us to get the wounded, but not the dead, into places of safety, either to Ghent or Ostend, by the free road which still remained along the coast to the west. I found it was necessary for me to get to Cappelen, (where his wife was) at any cost, for I knew how anxious they would all be as to my safety. At noon, when I was getting ready to depart from Antwerp, a bomb burst almost in the heart of the city. The terrified population were running in all directions in order to escape the Germans. The chateau where I was trembling at every discharge of the cannon, which was still perhaps 15 kilometers distant, I counted as many as thirty-five cannon shots to the minute.

THE SIGHT FROM CAPPELEN.

When I got to Cappelen we went up into the tower of the chateau and in the night looked down across the trees at the flashes of fire and the streaks of light across the night, where the nocturnal duel was going on. It was a supreme tragedy. At moments when four or five batteries of four cannon each were discharged at once one could feel the earth tremble.

MOST DREADFUL PROCESSION.

"From Monday morning until Friday noon the most dreadful procession of centuries passed before us. We had in the gardens of the chateau thousands of refugees sleeping in the open air. At night the chateau itself sheltered some five hundred vehicles of all kinds; hay wagons filled with household debris, cradles piled up with babies, dog-carts drawn by dogs pulling along old men of 80 and 90 years. A mother, with her babe of three days old, slept here in the cellar. We had no other place for her. It was an awful caravan, blood-stained, and homes destroyed or menaced by the invading host. An endless flood along the whole of the road.

ANTWERP ON FIRE.

"On Wednesday night the refugees cried in the dark: 'The fire, Antwerp is burning!' We mounted to the roof of the chateau. The village priest had just arrived, pale with fright. It was true. The petrol storage tanks shot up a great mass of flame, while at ten different points the cannon flashes could be seen, with

WORLD'S GREATEST KIDNEY REMEDY

"Fruit-a-tives" Have Proved Their Value In Thousands of Cases

WONDERFUL RECORD OF A WONDERFUL CURE

Only Remedy That Acts On All Three Of The Organs Responsible For The Formation Of Uric Acid In The Blood.

Many people do not realize that the Skin is one of the three great eliminators of waste matter from the body. As a matter of fact, the Skin rides the system of more Urea (or waste matter) than the Kidneys. When there is Kidney Trouble, Pain In The Back and Acid Urine, it may not be the fault of the kidneys at all, but be due to faulty Skin Action, or Constipation of the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives" cures weak, sore, aching Kidneys, not only because it strengthens these organs but also because "Fruit-a-tives" opens the bowels, sweetens the stomach and stimulates the action of the skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

PARLEY WITH GERMAN OFFICERS.

"On Friday morning I met Comte Legree at the municipal buildings, who told me that the Mayor had fled with the Bishops, and that the population of Cappelen was fleeing. He asked me if I would join him and Monsieur Speth to go and meet the Germans, who were evidently coming immediately. I readily consented. The three of us agreed upon a line of conduct, firm, dignified, etc. Speth, who is of German descent, speaks very good German. We saw Major Schulze with a Lieutenant arriving. We met them under a white flag. They came to us saying that the forts had fallen and had been evacuated. A third officer came up to confer. We spoke both in French and German. They left us after telling us that some German companies would come a little later to occupy the forts at Cappelen. They ordered us to give comfortable lodging to the officers and soldiers which we promised. Then the Germans thanked us for our welcome, and left after telling us to inform the terrified mass of fugitives that they could go back to their homes in complete security. "It is estimated that 25,000 shells fell in Antwerp."

HOME GUARD FOR BEDFORD

Felt That Being a Near Border Town That Citizens Should Look to Their Own Protection

ABOUT FORTY REPRESENTA-TIVE CITIZENS WERE EN-ROLLED AT MEETING

Bedford, Nov. 14.—(Special)—The feeling which has manifested itself in Bedford and vicinity for some time that steps should be taken to form a Home Guard culminated in the calling of a meeting which was held at the New Bedford on Wednesday evening. Although the notice given was short, a large number of the men and boys were on hand and gave evidence of much enthusiasm over the proposed movement. Among those present from neighboring places were Capt. Pickel, Dr. F. H. Pickel,
Mr. James Miller, and Mr. Wm.
Dean, from Sweetsburg.

Mr. F. D. Walsh was unanimously voted to the chair and Mr. F. T.
Baldwin made secretary of the meeting.

The Chairman in a few words outlined the cause which the meeting had been called. The present European war brought its dangers and responsibilities to Canada and Bedford should be prepared to do what it could in every way possible. At present there was no protection at all in this locality, and being practically a border town in one of the direct lines that any invasion from the Germans from the great country to the south of us would take if such a thing could be possible. It was therefore felt that a Home Guard or some such organization should be formed. Such a step would be taken up by the boys and no doubt encourage some of them to enlist for active service at the front.

Dr. Pickel, Mr. F. C. Saunders, Mr.
C. B. Jameson and others addressed the meeting expressing their entire sympathy with the movement and discussed the ways and means in connection therewith.

As a result of the general discussion which followed it was decided to form a Bedford Civilian Rifle Association. The desire is to obtain rifles from the Government and to learn how to use them. It is also the intention to form the members into a company and practice drilling and thus give this section a military body of men that should be ready for any possible emergency.
Forty names were immediately enrolled among those present and they then proceeded to elect their officers as follows: Captain C. B. Jameson, Lieutenant, F. D. Walsh; Secretary-
Treasurer, F. T. Baldwin.

The Wilson Piano has more improvements of real value than any other upright made or sold in Canada. Our patented double brass flange action will outwear the ordinary piano action about two to one. This has been demonstrated over and over again with Wilson Pianos used in the large schools and convents in the Province during the past 18 years. Another feature is the special practice pedal (operated by hand lever) which saves wear on hammers and noise of children's practice. Six Wilson Pianos were sold to King's Hall, Compton, in 1902, and are in excellent condition to-day notwithstanding the excessive use of these instruments by the large number of pupils. The materials used in building the Wilson Piano are the best that money can buy, and remember they are "Made in Canada". Reasonable in price and fully guaranteed. Fair value for other pianos in exchange. Full particulars by mail if you cannot call.

The Real Reason

why some people do not wear glasses as soon as they should is pride. This foolish pride causes them to squint up their eyes and wrinkle their faces in an endeavor to see. A pair of good glasses will smooth out many of your worries and lighten your labors. Other young people wear them, why shouldn't you?

Long Street Names

The Parisian record for long street names is the Rue des Prêtres-Saint Germain-l'Auxerrois, which is something of a mouthful, but is equalled by a thoroughfare in Brussels rejoicing in the name of the Rue de la Montagne aux Herbes-Potagres. In the environs of the Belgian capital there is even more of a tongue twister, the Onge Schilderliverenockerootjestaet, which may be rendered as the street of the little unpicked silver nut.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair, and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied; it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

THE ONLOOKER COMMENTS

The British Resolve

Steadfastness is a British characteristic, and the British purpose in the war has been emphasized in unchanging tone in every utterance of Britain's public men.

Premier Asquith, in his latest speech, at Guildhall, thus states the British resolve:

"There is certainly nothing in the warfare of this hundred days to damp our hope, to depress our confidence or impair our resolve. Our enemies tried in turn Paris, Warsaw and Calais. From each in turn they retired baulked, frustrated by the invincible steadfastness of the Allies. But this is not enough. We shall not sheathe the sword, which we have not lightly drawn, until Belgium recovers in full measure more than all that she has sacrificed; until France is adequately secure against the menace of aggression; until the rights of the smaller nationalities of Europe are placed on an unassailable foundation; until the military domination of Prussia is fully and finally destroyed. That is a great task, worthy of a great nation. It means for its accomplishment that every man among us, old or young, rich or poor, busy or leisured, learned or simple, should give what he has and do what he can."

These stirring words contain both the Empire's resolve and the Empire's appeal. The great task is not to be easily accomplished. With a full measure of support from every part of the Empire, joined with the great strength of the British allies, the result of the conflict is not in doubt.

The U. S. and Santa.

The United States, neutral in its political attitude toward the present war, is generosity itself toward those unfortunates who are suffering within the unbalanced boundaries of the war zone. As in our own country, the women in the neighboring republic are knitting warm mufflers, socks and jackets for the soldiers. Associations for relief, of which there are dozens, are raising thousands of dollars, in fact many hundreds of thousands, to help the non-combatants. Even Rockefeller, the hated enemy of labor organizations, has come forward as a friend of the Belgians and has sent large consignments of foodstuffs to this distressed people. Most interesting of all, this charitable effort is the "Santa Claus" ship, which bears not only necessities, but Christmas cheer to European unfortunates. "Just as a shipload of toys comes from Germany to retain the German toy trade," comments one writer, "a free ship laden with American toys sails to deliver at Falmouth, Marseilles, Genoa, the Piraeus and Salonika, Christmas gifts for a million fatherless children in England, Belgium, France, Austria, Russia, Serbia, Germany. Nobody is surprised that there arrived for this Santa Claus vessel special freight trains from California, Chicago, Pittsburg and other points, and that even the Panama zone forwarded a huge consignment of things to place in little foreigners' stockings (if they still have stockings)."

Christmas promises little of merry-making to those across the sea this year. Surely it was a happy thought that turned all these States of the republic into a Santa Claus for many innocent sufferers from the war.

Canada and The Monroe Doctrine.

By sending troops to help the Empire in the present struggle we have forfeited any right to shelter ourselves behind the Monroe Doctrine, is the specific conclusion to which the Ambassador from Germany at Washington, and the hundred and one editors of U. S. journals have come. Should the Germans invade Canada, we must face them alone, for if the Monroe Doctrine ever were trumps for us in this game, we have thrown the card away by showing practical loyalty to the Mother Country.

The German Ambassador and our friends to the South are more concerned over this conclusion than are we. As a matter of sentiment, or principle, we have stood by those countries which have mothered and fathered most of our citizens, English, Scotch, Irish and French, and have proved no laggard in making their quarrel ours. Had we been on the verge of announcing Canadian independence we should have postponed the announcement until we had done our duty to the Empire. We had been traitors otherwise, to ourselves as Canadians, and to the government which has ever ruled us with justice and given us a liberty nearly as democratic as that of the American Republic.

If Canada is ever forced to face an invading German army, she would not care to gain immunity from defending her country by taking shelter behind the Monroe Doctrine. She will fight the enemy bravely abroad; if need be, she will fight him at home. The German Ambassador need not trouble to assure the public that the Monroe Doctrine is no protection to us. He knows already that we sent soldiers, not a Doctrine, to aid the Empire.

The French-Canadian

This article is not written in defence of the French-Canadian, for the simple reason that the French-Canadian does not need any defence. Rather is its intention to call to the notice of those who are not of this older race of Canadians the very great debt we owe to the sturdy people who have for many more centuries than any other race in Canada lived under the charm and influence of her changing seasons, and given us such stability of national custom as we possess.

A short time ago the Record published a letter, signed by Dr. Parisseau, protesting against certain reflections on the character of the French-Canadian which had appeared in the public press. Every honest Canadian with regard for Canadian traditions will agree with the writer of that letter in condemning any statements that are broadly unfair in their allegations. The French-Canadian is the purest type of Canadian in this country, and while, admittedly, he is more Canadian than British, he is also more Canadian than French. Behind him are generations of Canadians, and he lives in a country where all other races are more alien than his. His traditions are French, his religion predominantly of the Roman church, and his nationality Canadian. To everything that is purely national he is sincerely allied. And so greatly has he enriched our art and literature that without the records of his achievements, the story of our accomplishments in these lines would be short, indeed.

In poetry French-Canadians have given us such men as Fréchette and Cremazie; in sculpture Hebert has distinguished himself by splendid imaginative work; in statesmanship Sir Wilfrid Laurier has proved himself one of our ablest men. Can any other race in Canada claim even so much of a contribution to Canadian progress? And there are many other French-Canadians who could be named with these, men who in actual distinction of their work for art and literature are not surpassed in their native land.

And more than this, greatly more than this, they have given to us that beautiful Canadian anthem "O Canada." To write with a carelessly critical pen of the only race among us with sufficient national fervor to produce a national anthem, an anthem noble in sentiment, and now generally adopted by all Canadians as our finest musical expression of high patriotism, is an error of taste, if not of morals. Once again it should be remembered that these people are more Canadian than any other race in our Dominion.

During a presentation of the pageants at the Quebec Tercentenary, the present writer watched with interest the delightful portrayal of incidents of Canadian history. At one moment of interest, when the strains of "O Canada" sounded, strains more familiar now than they then were, there arose from the assembled crowds on the stands a murmuring, but continuous and spontaneous accompaniment. There seemed to be some common chord of national sympathy in the swelling music. Not only the French-Canadian, but his fellow-citizens of other races have learned to love the song that is purely and commonly Canadian in its patriotism.

First of all, we are Canadians. Not all the heat of European quarrels should make us forget our ideal of Canadians as a united people. At present we are a people of many peoples. English, French, German, Austrian, and others in plenty, we indeed are. But the only man among them who proves a traitor to his adopted country is he who emphasizes instead of forgets the racial differences. First of all, we are Canadians.

CANADA TO BAR AMERICAN PAPERS

ALL ANTI-BRITISH AND GERMAN NEWS SHEETS WILL BE KEPT OUT.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 13.—The order in council making it a criminal offence to circulate or possess so-called seditious anti-British and German papers, which are coming into Canada from American cities, is to be rigidly enforced, it is said. The matter is to be taken up by the postmaster-general and special officers appointed to enforce the law. The penalty is $5,000 fine or two years' imprisonment. There is said to be a heavy circulation of such papers in Montreal.

The fact that South Australia is the largest exporter of poultry and eggs in the Commonwealth is largely due to the efforts of the Government to encourage the industry.

55c. PER DAY

A trifling amount,—what does it mean? Just this; that you, as representing the average Canadian citizen, can square off your account with our army of factory workers, by making sure that at least 55 cents worth of the things you buy, in your ordinary every day shopping, are made right here in Canada—the country that gives you your own living.

That sum, 55 cents a day, equals $200 per year. There are 8,000,000 people in Canada. If for the support of every one of them, there was spent $200 a year on Canadian made goods it would give us a factory output of $1,600,000,000.

Back in 1910-11 Canada was enjoying pretty good times, but the total factory output then was less than $1,200,000,000.

You can easily bury the hard times of to-morrow under the coppers you spend on odds and ends to-day, just by using a little intelligent discrimination, by saying to the shop-keeper.

"Nothing But 'Made In Canada' For Mine" 134

The Simple, Sturdy Empire

Costs less—yet does more work

THE first cost of the "Empire" is from $40 to $60 lower than that of any other standard typewriter.

—because it is the ONLY typewriter "Made in Canada", and hence the only one on which you do not have to pay a heavy duty.

—because it has but two-thirds as many working parts as its nearest competitor, and so costs considerably less to manufacture.

THE upkeep of the "Empire" is the lowest known.

One of Canada's largest corporations, which uses over 3,000 "Empires" has found the repair bills for the "Empires" average just 1/5 as much as those for other machines.

This is due to fewer working parts—the easy sliding stroke—the exclusive "Empire" locking device, ensuring permanent alignment—and the splendid material and workmanship.

THE sturdy "Empire" does more work than any other typewriter.

—because it is "always on the job". It is almost impossible to wear it out, or even get it out of alignment.

—because in inexperienced or careless hands the simple "Empire" turns out good work where more complicated machines would fail. In competent hands its writing is far beyond criticism.

—because on heavy manifold work the "Empire", with its "straight-from-the-shoulder" stroke, makes more clear copies at once than any other machine.

—because the light, compact "Empire" can be taken on journeys, like a grip, and used where heavier machines are impracticable. 2

Let us give you a demonstration, or send you an "Empire" on trial without expense or obligation to you. Call, phone or write:

Renfrew Standard

THE THREE TOP-NOTCHERS

The tremendous popularity of the Renfrew Standard gasoline engine is proof of the satisfaction it is giving. No engine could attain such a large sale unless it had exceptional merit. And when you run one you'll know why. No trouble to start it. No cranking necessary, no matter how cold the weather. Can be regulated as closely as a steam engine. Very little water required. Nothing complicated. Easy to understand. Ruggedly built, yet highly finished. Complete description in our engine catalog. Write for it.

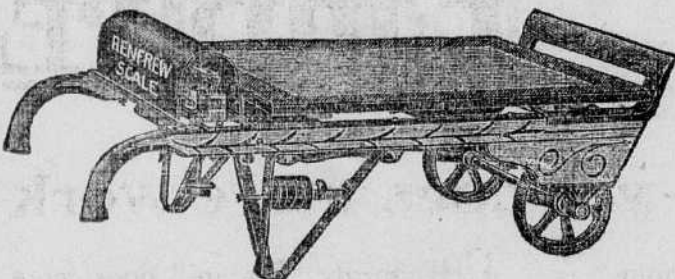

The top-notch among cream separators is surely the 1915 Model Standard. Here is a machine with a remarkably wide margin of strength, of over capacity, and with interchangeable bowls no matter what size. This interchangeability is attained by making all capacities with one size frame and gearing. This frame is built strong and rugged enough to support gearing heavy and powerful enough to drive a 2,000-pound capacity separator. This means an enormous margin of strength and safety on the 350 to 1,000 pound machines, and you are charged nothing extra for this feature. Neither do you pay anything extra for the over capacity feature, though it means that with the Standard you can skin 20 per cent. faster and still skim as close as with other separators. And when skimming at its rated capacity the Standard establishes records. Write for latest separator catalog and records of skimming results at Government Dairy Schools.

THE RENFREW TRUCK SCALE

Is another top-notch. It soon pays for itself. Our scale booklet tells how. And you can wheel it around anywhere. Weighs anything alive or dead, small or large, from 1 pound to 2,000 pounds. Strongly built, Government inspected, guaranteed.

It is in the Clear Havana class, because the fillers come from the tables of Cuban workmen. The wrapper is light colored, but this does not signify anything as to the strength of a Grit Cigar or any other cigar. The filler forms 75 per cent. of the cigar, hence determines the strength. Grit fillers are mild, aromatic and as sweet as a nut.

The lecture course, which will supplement the practical work, will deal with: Opportunities in poultry husbandry, with advantages and disadvantages offered by the various departments of the industry; the advantages of a poultry department on a farm; origin of domestic poultry and the history of breeds; laying out a poultry plant; the extensive and intensive methods of keeping fowls; poultry house construction; the breeding and judging of utility poultry; incubation and brooding; methods of feeding poultry; markets and marketing poultry produce.

In connection with this course the Bacteriology Department will give lectures, with demonstrations in hygienic requirements of poultry, location of buildings, ventilation, cleanliness, disinfection, avian tuberculosis, blackhead (infectious enterocolitis), fowl cholera, roup, cancer, diarrhoea, asthenia, diseases of the ovary and oviduct.

IN PRAISE OF APPLES

(By Peter McArthur)

The apple lovers of the country have become altogether too finicky in their taste. Nothing will do them but No. 1 apples and those of the choicest varieties. In Ontario the No. 1 Spies, Snows and McIntosh Reds could have been sold many times over. I am told that it is the same with the Gravensteins and other choice varieties in the Maritime Provinces and the Jonathans and Spitzenbergs of British Columbia. Everybody wants the choicest grade of the best known varieties. They are all like the sporty Kentucky Major who said: "I figger that we ah goin' through the world for the last time and that the best is none too good."

Nonsense, and what is more, criminal nonsense! It is entirely right that apples should be graded to a legal standard so that the man who buys gets what he is paying for, but there are thousands and thousands of barrels of sound apples of little known varieties and culs of the best varieties that are as good as the best for cooking and eating. They are not "fancy" but they are wholesome and delicious and not one of them should be allowed to waste. And there is no reason why you should sniff superior and talk about "saving them for the poor."

Yesterday I was in an orchard and saw twenty-five barrels being thrown to pigs because they had few scats that made it impossible to pack them in the best grades. There is no market for culs and yet those culs were just as good as any apples in the No. 1 barrels. Just think of apples weighing over a pound—firm, juicy and full of the choicest flavors ever distilled in the alembics of a Canadian summer, being thrown to the pigs, because they were disfigured by a few blemishes that were only a deep red. Now, do not scold my friend the orchardist. He cannot sell them to the evaporating factory, for the nearest is miles away and the price he would get would not pay for the price of loading them in a wagon and hauling them. And he cannot put them on the market, because nobody wants culs. So they go to the pigs. If the pigs that the Prodigal son lived with fared like that, he would not have much to complain of.

But these were culs of choice varieties. There are other varieties of which you cannot sell even the No. 1 grades because they are not known. While talking with the orchardist, I picked up a very apple that tempted me, and bit into it. Perfectly ravishing! It was in perfect condition and tasted as good as any Snow or McIntosh Red I had ever eaten. I asked why this superb apple was being allowed to go to waste—for the ground was covered with them.

"No market," was the complete and conclusive answer. Because there is no market for the Strawberry Apple—that is its name—the apple grower did not bother picking them. If he had done so he would only have been wasting his time and his money. And yet, with the pick of all the orchard before me, I filled my pockets with these despised Strawberry apples and they comforted and delighted me while driving home through the October sunshine.

Apples, are apples, my friends, and this year we should not allow even the "natural fruits" to go to waste. Even the poorest apples have their use and if taken in their proper season may be almost as good as the best. But people have proud stomachs and eat only according to the label on the barrel. They must have No. 1 grade and of the most select varieties or they will have nothing. The apple-hungry children of the cities would not be so fastidious if they could get a chance to dispute with these luxurious country pigs for some of the apples I have seen wasted this year.

THE HORSE

Do not overwork the brood mare. Too many horses are "broken," not trained.

Get the best box stall for the colts in winter.

Drawing a three-horse plow is not fair to a two-horse team.

The automobile is a help in war time, but the horse is indispensable.

It is time all colts with working dams were weaned, that is, provided these colts are four months old.

It might be a good time to buy a stallion right now. They are almost sure to be scarcer and dearer in the spring.

At some of our shows geldings still appear in the breeding classes. This is a standing joke which seems to be permanent.

A report comes from St. Louis, U.S.A., that 10,000 horses have been selected in the stock yards there by representatives of the British army for use in the war.

If you want to have a good laugh ask a horseman to explain the difference between an agricultural and a general-purpose horse, or how the agricultural horse differs from the Clydesdale and so on. There are plenty of indefinable lines of demarcation, but few satisfactory solutions can be given.

Cold, bleak nights are hard on a horse's coat and flesh. They will do much better in a comfortable stable, well bedded.

KEEP YOUR MAN AT WORK

There is a practice as too prevalent on the farms of this country to hire men from seven to nine months during the summer season and let these men go as soon as it freezes up, and winter sets in. This has been rightfully blamed for a large part of the rush of hired help to the cities where all-year round employment is given. No farmer who succeeds in obtaining a satisfactory hired man should turn this man away to winter, excepting to get him again next season, for such does not often happen. Obviously the procedure to follow on farms where there is enough work to make it necessary to hire in summer, is to make plenty of work to keep the man or men busy in winter. This can readily be accomplished by keeping more live stock which will soon increase production beyond the increased cost of operating the farm, due to hiring winter as well as summer. There are added reasons why the man should be kept this year. Prices are good and likely to be high, and there is money to be made from an increased output from the farms. Moreover, this output is urgently needed to feed the people who will be dependent upon it. Besides this, the hired man out of work cannot get employment in the city this winter. There are hundreds looking for work there already. To send him there would only add to the burden and trouble. If he is a good man keep him busy outside as long as the weather stays open, and find work for him around the buildings when winter sets in by giving extra care to stock, cleaning and even hand-picking seed grain that yields may be larger next year, cutting the summer wood so that this work will not interfere with seeding and summer work, cutting an extra supply of winter wood that it may be dried ahead and better fuel, cleaning and oiling harness, tightening nuts and repairing all the farm implements and machinery ready for the field, removing tumble down and useless fences and cleaning up the fence rows, straightening up the orchard, burning the brush and rubbish which harbor insects and disease, and possibly doing a little pruning. There are dozens of jobs to keep him busy—work that needs doing and work when done that will prove profitable. The city employer of labor who once twitted the farmer of being unfair to his hired help in turning them away for the winter has, in many instances, lost no time in "laying off" his men when he had nothing for them to do. The farmer is better fixed; he can arrange things to find work for his good man and work profitable in a season like this to man and employer alike. We are not asking that lazy loafers be kept. By no means. The man must be willing and able to work, and must consider that conditions are such that highest wages cannot be expected. Co-operation between the hired help and the farmer will work wonders this winter toward a higher production. Do not turn away the hired man. Find him work on your own farm and in your own stables.—Farmers' Advocate.

Cut Down Expenses On Your Farm

Cutting down the cost of production is the shortest route to increased profits.

Hand labor is usually the greatest part of the cost of producing an article for market whether from farm or factory.

Any device that will save expense by doing more work at less cost than is possible with hand labor, means increased profits.

The F-M Eclipse Engine

(MADE IN CANADA)

is inexpensive and takes the place of a man on the farm in a dozen ways. It will do more work than any man when attached to a pump, churn, cream separator, washing machine, feed mill, corn sheller or other light machines.

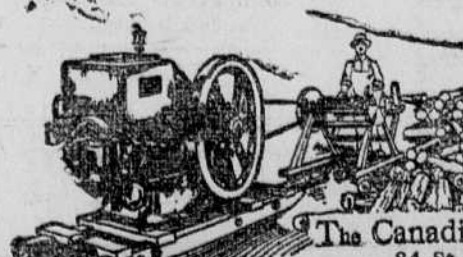

It is less cumbersome and less expensive than a wind mill.

It is always ready when wanted and works every minute of the time regardless of wind or weather. It never stops to complain or argue.

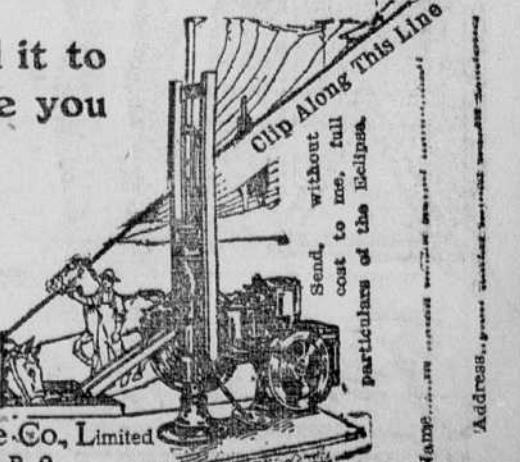

Costs only a few cents an hour to operate under full load and requires no experience.

If you want to cut down your cost of production, let us tell you how it can be done with one of our "Canadian made" engines.

Fill in the coupon and mail it to us today, it does not obligate you in any way.

trear after being sworn in as Provincial Treasurer at Quebec.

The demonstration offered the newly appointed Provincial Treasurer by the Reform Club and many members of the Liberal party was a decided compliment to the man who has been called to share the ministerial responsibility at thirty-eight years of age in the Government of the Province of Quebec.

The Provincial Treasurer was sworn in Thursday at the office of the Lieutenant-Governor at Quebec, and after sitting at Council for the first time and receiving the congratulations of first of Sir Lomer Gouin and secondly of his other colleagues in the ministry, he left for Montreal, arriving at Bonaventure Station Thursday evening at ten o'clock. Long before the train arrived a crowd of hum-dred members of the Reform Club, headed by its President, Mr. J. L. Perron, M. L. A., and other leading citizens, gathered at the platform, and when the new minister stepped from the train he was received with hearty cheers, the crowd singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Care were then taken and the entire party proceeded to the rooms of the Reform Club, Sherbrooke Street West, where a meeting was organized with the President in the chair. Mr. Perron, in introducing Hon. Mr. Mitchell, spoke of what the new minister had done for the club, for the party and for the Province of Quebec, saying that in calling him to the Cabinet, Sir Lomer Gouin had honored the Reform Club and secured an able colleague for the Govern-ment. Mr. Mitchell, the President, had stood by the Liberal party in its darkest days, and his promotion today was the reward for sturdy work and loyal devotion to the Liberal party. Mr. Mitchell had made his mark at the bar, and Mr. Perron was sure he would make as great a success at the head of the Provincial finances.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell, who was received with cheers, said he hardly knew how to sufficiently thank the friends who had come to greet him. He could promise that all his energy, all his ambition and all the ability at his command would be placed at the disposal of his party, of his department and of his Province. Hon. Mr. Mitchell then proceeded to pay tribute to his late predecessor in office. Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, saying that the wonderful demonstration which many of them had witnessed a short week ago, was ample evidence of the hold which the late Provincial Treasurer had on the affections of his fellow countrymen.

Nominations, he stated, would take place on the 21st, and polling a week later. He did not contemplate there would be any opposition, but if such a thing materialized they would all have to take off their coats and work.

Hon. J. Decarie, Provincial Secretary, made a brief speech, saying the English people should be proud of their young representative, and that he and his colleagues of the Govern-ment were all delighted when Hon. Mr. Mitchell was introduced and took his seat amongst them.

UNCLE JOE'S COLUMN

Dear People:
What are you doing for the British Empire?

London lassies are handing out bunches of white feathers and miniature petticoats to able-bodied youths who hang out on the street corners, instead of joining the colors. Some evening a fair Sherbrooke lady may cause consternation at the King street corner by doing likewise. Look out, boys.

When you buy goods that are not made in Canada you are stealing money that rightfully belongs to the Canadian workman and his family. How many thieves have we in the Eastern Townships?

History tells us that "Bullocks" have been sacrificed for many causes, but I fail to find another instance where one was sacrificed to allow an outsider to pilfer the Townships' representation in the Provincial Cabinet.

Talking about Cabinets, permit me to suggest that the Federal Government consider the claim of the Eastern Townships when they are shuffling about.

Even our strongest temperance advocates will not object to "Koenigsberg" being bottled up.

Apostles of Blue Ruin have yet to blame the war for the high water at Lake Megantic, as reported in your Tuesday's Record.

In view of the fact that environment has a wonderful influence on a person it is not to be wondered that the observations of a Curstone Observer are ignored by men who frequent places of enlightenment.

The problem of the unemployed is one to be reckoned with during the coming winter. There is no cause for alarm, however. All will be well if the situation is met fairly and squarely, and if every man in the Empire will keep his head. Every cloud has its silver lining.

Britons have great reason to be proud of the solidarity of the Empire. The revolution headed by Beyers and De Wet in South Africa was "Germanized" (crushed) by Botha, India and Egypt are standing by the old flag, and last but not least the old Jack-the-Giant-Killer has fallen from his pedestal, the curbstone, and is smothered under an avalanche of public indignation.

The heart of the German Army is torn between Nancy and Lille. Oh! you terrible flirts.

A judgment given in a Montreal Court recently has had a depressing effect on many fathers-in-law. The ruling was that the father-in-law had to keep the son-in-law under certain conditions. Out of consideration for fathers-in-law in Sherbrooke I won't tell what these conditions are.

Is Teddy Roosevelt at the bottom of the false report that the U. S. battleship North Carolina was blown up? If the Ex-Rough Rider doesn't bust up the neutrality of the U. S. I miss my guess.

"A journalist is a grumbler, a censor, a giver of advice, a regent of sovereigns, a tutor of nations. Four hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a thousand bayonets." —Napoleon I.

If, as H. G. Adams says, Hell is shut then too late, the German Army will not suffer with the cold.

What proverb do some of Sherbrooke streets remind you of? "Every path has a puddle."

The G. N. W. Telegraph Co. has instructed their genial and obliging local agent to close the office at eight o'clock every night. This is poor business, in my opinion, as the action of the Company in keeping open until eleven has been appreciated by the public.

The action taken by James Bennett against the Jencks Machine Company gives me a pain. Bennett didn't vote for or against the Jencks by a vote, simply because he didn't have a vote, and he didn't have a vote because he owns no property. On the day the action was taken he called at the City Office and paid his poll tax for two years. That he is not alone in his opinion that the action is justified is evident from the fact "Just a Citizen" writes in support of him. I am strongly of the opinion that the ratepayers of the city of Sherbrooke will ratify any amendment the Council will submit. Take a tip from Uncle Joe, Bennett, old boy your commander gave you the signal to fire at the wrong time.

Before closing, I want to tell you a piece of good news. I have had my picture taken, and really I am better looking than I ever imagined. Watch for it in next Saturday's Record.

—UNCLE JOE.

MARKET GENERALLY WAS FIRM DURING WEEK

Montreal, Nov. 14—Feed wheat—There is very little new business reported, recent sales being made at 85c to $1.00 as to quality.

Corn—Argentine corn is steady at last week's prices, sales being reported at 83c to 84c.

Oats—The market continues firm with business reported in car lots of No. 2 Canadian Western at 62c to 63c; No. 3 C.W., 60c; Extra No. 1 feed, 60c to 61c; No. 1 feed, 59c to 59c.

Barley—The market is firm for malting samples which have been sold at 75c to 76c, sales of some 20,000 bushels being reported at these figures.

Peas—The market is firm at $2.30 to $2.35 for choice car lots of boilers. Smaller lots have sold at $2.45 to $2.50.

Buckwheat—Market quiet at 73c to 74c in store.

Rye—Prices nominal at 85c to 87c. Exports last week nil.

Flaxseed—Prices are nominal at $1.25 to $1.27 for No. 1 Northern.

Malt—The market is steady with sales of new malt at 95c to 96c.

Hops—The market is quiet but steady, and we quote Kents at 24c to 25c, East Kents golden 31c, Best Worcester 31c to 32c, Furgies 22c to 23c, delivered, Best Oregon, 18c to 19c f.o.b. Coast, and choice B.C. 21c f.o.b. Coast. Canadian hops 17c to 19c as to quality. Bohemian grown on the Coast 25c to 26c delivered here. There has been some business in English hops at about our quotations.

HAY AND STRAW

MARKET FIRM WITH STEADY PRICES
Montreal, November 14—The hay market is firm at last week's quotations. Most of the Government's November contracts have been filled at within range of the prices quoted by us last week. A farmer who was in the city this week stated that he was selling hay at his barn door, at about the same price that dealers offered him delivered here. Of course, there are some districts as previously explained by us that are short of hay but taking the country at large there is said to be ample for Government and home requirements. We quote as follows: No. 1 $20.50; No. 2 extra, $19.50 to $20; No. 2 ordinary, $18.50 to $19; No. 3 hay, $16.50 to $17.50; inferior grades, $14.50 to $15.50.

RETAIL MERCHANTS COMMITTEE

A local merchant who was present at the meeting of merchants held on Wednesday evening stated to the Record this morning that the report that they had favored the catalogue scheme was hardly correct. They decided not to pass a resolution approving of it, and the promoters were told that the only way to carry the thing through was for them to take the matter up with the merchants individually. The attendance was by no means a representative one.

The objection merchants have to the plan is that it will limit their field. For instance, merchants at Bromontville may have the exclusive right in their section, and, as a result, Sherbrooke merchants must send their catalogues to that neighborhood.

TOO LATE TO BE CLASSIFIED.

WANTED TO PURCHASE—ONE good second-hand baby sleigh. Apply Box 51, Record.

COUNTRY PRODUCE

UPWARD TENDENCY IN EGG PRICES
Montreal, Nov. 14—The market is firm with a strong upward tendency in prices due to the continued export demand from Great Britain. Chicago is shipping considerable eggs through Montreal and New York to the English market. About 14,000 cases of storage eggs were shipped from New York last week, costing 26c to 28c delivered on board steamer there. It is expected that British will take considerable quantities of our storage eggs. Prices are not hoisted too high. Sales have been made in this market at 40c for strictly new laid selected, cold storage at 32c. No. 1 do at 30c and No. 2 at 26c to 27c.

DRESSED POULTRY

Montreal, Nov. 14—An improved demand has set in for dressed poultry, owing to the advent of colder weather. Sales of turkeys are reported in a wholesale way in cases and barrels at 16c to 17c, one case of the birds were an extra fine lot. Chickens have sold at 12c to 13c, ducks at 12c to 13c and geese at 10

WHEN WAR STRIKES HOME

It may be good logic to argue that it is better that one should lose than that the Masses should lose, but it is mighty hard on the one chosen. In this case I am the Jonah. Never expecting a war I purchased an exceptionally heavy stock, and to-day I have this big stock on my hands. I must pay for the goods and to get the money I must sell these goods. My estimated profits wiped out, and during the next fifteen days the Citizens of Sherbrooke and surrounding towns will have an opportunity of purchasing their Winter requirements at cost price.
