The Sheriff's party given rousing sendoff by entire County

Sheriff Joe and his passengers and outriders are out of the County now and should arrive at Montreal and Expo on Saturday.

While most Pontiac people are celebrating Dominion Day at the all day Confederation Picnic in Shawville, those eight will be on the last leg of their journey. Leading the little procession are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Racine of Otter Lake with Bill on a beautiful dappled grey Appaloosa and Lorraine riding her stunning Palomino. In the wagon with Sheriff Joe Sloan is his little son Dominic and his nephew, Danny Bowie, who is also a nephew of the Quebec Minister of Revenue, the Hon Raymond Johnston of Otter Lake. Riding behind the wagon are three young lumberjacks from Chichester, Maurice Fleury, Mervin and Lorne Ranger.

Their last few days in Pontiac were memorable. Campbell's Bay and Litchfield tendered them a great feast at Vinton Parish Hall, with all the Mayors of the County invited and the following day in Bryson the Municipality had a reception at noon at which a glorious meal of sea pie and beans was provided by Bryson Lions.

Mayors of all surrounding Municipalities were at Bryson and each had a few words of encouragement for the travellers. On the front of the wagon were two good luck floral horseshoes, gifts of the Stonehaven Flower Shop in Shawville, and Cliff Olmstead presented the Sheriff with an antique tomahawk for use in case of dire emergency.

Ken Dugan was the Master of Ceremonies, Father Tait said the blessing, Lloyd Newberry was thanked for his master work in preparing the sea pie and beans and John Griffin was credited with having taught Lloyd how, John being lauded as the greatest cook in the entire County!

Mayor Francis Devlin presented the Sheriff with some money on behalf of the Municipality and thanked the Lions on whom he said the town could always turn for help. The Mayor also congratulated the Sheriff on his beautiful wagon and Bill Racine was spokesman for the Sheriff's party in thanking the Mayor for his kindnesses.

Father Tait wished them all

Picnic in Coulonge Sunday promises delights for all

At Fort Coulonge on Sunday, July 2, 1967, the town will turn out to enjoy the Centennial edition of the Annual Driving Club Picnic. Every year this "do" attracts people from a considerable distance including the towns across the Ottawa River and this year's picnic should top them all.

Some come for the harness races—Three heats to each race with eight of Pontiac's finest horses in each heat make for a great series. Some come for the baseball which starts at four o'clock. Everyone enjoys the games of chance and the shanty baked beans and sea pie. Ponies are on hand for children to ride and refreshment booths are open all day.

It's one of those old fashioned affairs where relaxed informality is the order of the day and gives Fort Coulonge an annual opportunity to entertain the County. This Sunday, as a special attraction, they will be holding a draw for an outboard motor at six o'clock.

Scouts - Rangers to bring FLAME on Thursday

During the evening on Thursday, June 29, at the Memorial Park in Shawville an impressive little ceremony will be conducted by Rev John Pearce, representing the ministers of Shawville, to consecrate the Centennial Flame which will arrive here Thursday evening. On behalf of the Municipality of Shawville Mayor Orla Young will receive the flame, carried on a special torch constructed for the purpose by Scout Master Norris Jones.

The ceremony at Memorial Park will be the culmination of ... ambitious project of the Municipal Centennial Committee and undertaken by the Boy Scouts and Rangers. Twenty-two Boy Scouts and six Rangers will leave Shawville at eight o'clock Thursday morning in six cars and will take part in a special ceremony on Parliament Hill being organized by Tom Lefebvre, MP.

The Hill ceremony is scheduled for ten o'clock and will involve the passing of the Centennial Flame from its permanent place there to a torch held by a member of the Shawville group. From there it will be conveyed on foot to Shawville throughout the day. Two scouts, or two Rangers will run together, the rest driving. At intervals of one mile the pair of runners will be relieved by another pair, thus relaying the Flame the entire fifty miles. As the day progresses, some of the boys, and possibly some of the girls as well, will be making more than one part of the Flame carrying journey. They will carry the Flame at Scouts pace being fifty trotting steps and fifty walking steps, and they will all be in uniform for the trip.

With the cars pacing the boys and carrying the extra runners, it is anticipated that all will arrive at Shawville together and the entire group in uniform with their leaders, committeemen, councillors and hopefully the whole town out to greet them should make for a joyous and colorful assembly on Thursday evening, June 29th.

Although all the details have not yet been completed, it is most likely that a Color Party will be on hand to greet the Flame carriers and that the Shawville Community Band will be on hand to enliven the occasion.

The Flame is intended to be kept burning at the Memorial Park in Shawville through the summer and until after the Confederation Caravan visits here on October 14, 1967.

Ball fully subscribed

Mrs. Donald Paul, Chairman of the Centennial Costume Ball committee has announced that all the tickets for this Ball have been sold and the Ball is fully subscribed. The announcement came shortly after last week's reminder that there were only a few left. Requests for further tickets have been received but unfortunately the hall has a limited capacity and for the enjoyment of the guests the number has been kept to a comfortable maximum.

Three in a row for CPC

CPC made it three in a row against the young Shawville team Monday night by a score of 7-6. It was no easy win by the Consolidated crew as the game went nine innings due to the superb pitching of Gary McCallum and Elson Schock.

CPC took a bigger hold on first place Tuesday night by beating Bryson 6-2. Ron Tanguay and Bob Essiambre made the winning home runs. The winning pitcher was Paul Essiambre.

Injured in fall

John Fulford fell yesterday afternoon at his job on construction at the E B Eddy new mill in Hull. As a result of the fall John now has a broken back and broken foot. He is recuperating in Sacred Heart Hospital, Hull.

The fall was 35 feet. It is believed at present that he suffered no internal injuries.

Lions to bring summer festival to Shawville

The Shawville Lions Club brings another summer entertainment to town on Wednesday, July 5th. This time it is the "Summer Expo Festival 1967" with Miss Go Go 66 and Miss Go Go 67 and Mr Ye Ye 66 who appeared three times on the Ed Sullivan Show as well as Western singers, trained poodles, dancers and singers and Pee Wee James, the Singing Midget, and dancing for the public after the show.

A feature of the evening will be a Go Go Contest for local girls with cash prizes.

CONFEDERATION IS HERE AND NOW

As the clock struck midnight to signal the birthday of the Dominion of Canada on July 1, 1867, the church bells sent forth a merry peal. Bonfires were lighted in various parts of the city. Small arms went off as rapidly as popguns. Citizens paraded the streets from midnight on and companies of serenaders marched in different directions singing loyal and patriotic anthems.

At four a.m. a detachment of soldiers hoisted the Union Jack and saluted with 21 guns.

At six o'clock a.m. an immense ox was roasted which occupied a large portion of the day and the meat was afterwards distributed among the poor of the city.

At half-past nine a meeting was held of Christian persons of all denominations to invoke the Divine blessing on the new Dominion.

At half past ten a grand review of Hussars, infantry, regular and voluntary artillery and other battalions was held followed by a feu de joie fired by the infantry and a royal salute by the artillery.

In the afternoon a picnic and festival was held on the Government grounds, the Horticultural Society prepared an evening's entertainment and at nine o'clock there were fireworks with the avenues leading to the park illuminated with lanterns and a band was present to add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

A grand balloon ascension was a feature of the day.

And that was the way they celebrated the first Confederation Day, July 1 1867, in Toronto.

On Saturday Shawville will provide variations on the same theme in the same spirit.

The editor of The Globe wrote in 1867: "We celebrate the inauguration of a new nationality to which are committed the interests of Christianity and civilization . . . In the duties therefore of the present and in the hopes and aspirations which gild our future, there is room and scope ample enough for the purest patriotism and the loftiest ambition. Let us hope that Canadians—using the word in its new and large acceptation— will worthily fulfil the duties which Providence has confided in them".

Over the past weeks and in the months ahead, and particularly on Saturday, July 1 in Shawville, people will be wearing old fashioned costumes turning their minds back to those exciting days when Confederation was just happening. With the long skirts and the whiskers we assume the spirit. With antiques, old photos, old vehicles and old fashioned activities, we are surrounding ourselves with all the props—setting the stage for our thinking about the early days.

The forces which pressed the Fathers of Confederation into the giant step in 1867 are still at work today. All we have to do now is to appreciate what they did and fulfil the duties which Providence has confided in us.

Having an all day party is a good way to get into the right group spirit. After the party it becomes a personal matter for each of us to attend to alone, with Divine guidance. We will be left with a tangible reminder appropriately located in the Memorial Park.

A Centennial flame burns on Parliament Hill in Ottawa as a symbol of Canadian unity. Lighted torches from this flame have been carried to various communities.

On Thursday, this week, the Boy Scouts and Girl Rangers of Shawville will carry such a torch on foot from the Capital to Shawville, doing the entire fifty miles during the one day in one mile relays. They will arrive in the evening and a short service will be held at Memorial Park under the direction of Rev John Pearce. The Town Council will be present, the Band will play, and the spectacle will be one to remember forever.

The flame will remain to remind us after the party on Saturday is over that Canadian Confederation is not a one day affair, that it is not a thing of the past, and that it depends on each of us as individuals here and now.

Sheriff Joe Sloan at Fort Coulonge

Many turned out to greet Sheriff Joseph Sloan and his covered wagon in Fort Coulonge on Tuesday afternoon June 20, an organized parade included. The decorated wagon drawn by a team of Bay horses and with 4 outriders, cars and carriages and people travelled around the town. A dinner was served at Labine's Hotel by the Municipality of Fort Coulonge. This dinner created a wonderful feeling between the elected people of the town, this being the first time that the Public School Board and the Separate School Board, also the United Township of Mansfield and Pontfract were together at a social function.

Waltham host to Joe at banquet

Approximately 80 guests attended Town Council's Centennial banquet Monday evening at Keon's Hotel in honor of Sheriff Joe Sloan's visit to Waltham.

The dining salon was appropriately decorated for this occasion with flags. Lighted tapers and vases of spring flowers decorated the tables. The head table was centered with a replica of the Covered Wagon placed on clusters of Maple leaves.

Mr. Clifford Robinson, MC, introduced the head table guests: Rev. Fr. Bridge, Chapeau who invoked the blessing, Sheriff Sloan and his young son, Mr. and Mrs. Racine, Otter Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Spotswood, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Art Labelle, Mr. and Mrs. Kensley, Campbell's Bay.

Several ladies were attired in beautiful Centennial dresses and bonnets which added a festive air to the occasion.

Sheriff Sloan and his party were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Keon. The horses were taken care of at the farm of Eric Rochon.

Young people under twenty were given a free Centennial treat by Town Council at the new restaurant.

Quyon hails Joe Sloan

Joe was met several miles out of town where his own outriders were met by members of the Quyon Pony Club and San Antonio Ranch. These riders accompanied Joe to the fairgrounds where his caravan was parked in front of the Agricultural Hall. For several hours Joe's wagon was the centre of curious on-lookers and amateur photographers.

There was much evidence of the spirit of Confederation throughout the town, especially in the beautiful centennial dress worn by more than thirty of the ladies and the suits worn by a few of the men, notably Wyman and Laurie MacKechnie.

A very delicious smorgasbord supper was served by the ladies from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

From nine until one a.m. a portion of street near the Canadian Legion was fenced off for a street dance. The music was provided by Garry and Brent Young and Ervin McCann. A refreshment booth was staffed by members of the newly formed Lions Club of Quyon.

One of the most significant and rewarding aspects of this entire affair was the spirit of cooperation and enjoyment displayed by the organizations and individuals who worked to make the reception for Sheriff Joe Sloan such a success. Indeed, the wish was expressed by more than one person that these communities should not wait for another one hundred years to gather in such a spirit of harmony and good-will as was evident that Friday night.

So it was in this manner that the citizens of Quyon and the area said "Bon Voyage" to their Sheriff on his way to Montreal and Expo.

. . . at Waltham

These ladies were photographed in front of Sheriff Sloan's covered wagon when the Sheriff visited Waltham on June 18. The ladies are Mrs. Gorman Nadeau, Mrs. Arthur Gagnon, Mrs. Ken Robinson, and Mrs. Lionel Boisvert, all of Waltham.

Rev Bridle given warm Pontiac welcome

Large congregations were present at the Sunday morning services in Beech Grove United Church and St John's Anglican Church in Quyon to welcome Rev T M Bridle BA, the newly appointed secretary of the Ottawa Branch of the Bible Society, to his work in this community.

In Beech Grove he was accompanied by Rev E McColl and Rev Roy Huntly who conducted the service.

In St John's, Quyon Rev Roy Huntly and Rev R S Smith assisted in the service. The Scripture lesson was read by Brian Davis and a duet was delightfully rendered by two junior members of the Sunday School, namely Dorothy McColl and Gilbert Fraser.

Antique shop to open in Bristol

Rene and Mac MacLean have finally come to the point of opening their antique shop in Bristol, and plan to have it open on Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays starting July first. The shop is on the Ottawa River, approachable by water, or by road through Charlie Russell's area.

They have collected antiques of many sorts for about five years from Quebec and Ontario and will have coloured glassware, dishes of china, brass, silver, furniture including cradles and spinning wheels, oil lamps and other fascinating Canadianna. The MacLeans will welcome visitors who are merely interested in looking at the displays as well as antique collectors.

Lucille Hodgins wins high honors at Elmwood

On Friday, June 16th, Elmwood school, situated in Rockcliffe Park, Ottawa, held its annual closing exercises in St Bartholomew's Church Hall. Among the top prize winners receiving awards before the audience of 400 was Lucille A. Hodgins (Lu), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Hodgins of Shawville. Lucille won the Senior Matriculation History Prize; the All-Round Sportsmanship Trophy; and was form captain of the form winning the Best Form Trophy for the second year in a row. As a climax Lucille received the highest and most coveted award at Elmwood the Summa Summarum which is given to the girl "who possesses the qualities of integrity, trustworthiness, the spirit of comradeship and the capacity to achieve". Her name will be added to the illustrious plague of Summa Summarum winners dating back to 1913. Also Lucille received a Merit pin for having successfully completed Grade 12 with 1st class honors.

During the past academic year Lucille has been Head Girl at Elmwood and due to the addition of Grade 13 into the scholastic program Lu has again been chosen Head Girl for the 1967-68 year. Thus Lu will make history at Elmwood as the only girl who has ever served two "runs" as Head Girl in Elmwood's long and distinguished history.

Hilton annual payroll is actually $2,600,000

When it comes to quoting figures we figure we might as well not especially after last week's double error in one figure. To have mistakenly published an amount of $2,500,000 for Hilton's annual payroll instead of the actual figure of $2,600,000 would have been bad enough but we blush to admit of a second error that of leaving off two essential zeros which changed the number again to $25,000! Over two and a half million dollars is the actual annual payroll at Hilton Mines; not twenty five thousand as reported last week in the Equity.

June 21, 1917

On Thursday, June 14, by Rev J H Turnbull, M.A., Margaretta Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGriffin, to the Rev James Milton Pritchard, BA., B.D. of Spirit River, Alberta, son of the late J M Pritchard and Mrs. W J Thomson, Wyman Que.

Dr. Fraser who for the past 13 years has been practicing in Brownsburg has moved to Shawville and opened an office in the premises formerly occupied by Dr Armstrong.

Of course, our sense of vision for the moment may have been erratic, but if we didn't see Mr. Jos E Dolan of Portage du Fort go swiftly by on Thursday evening manipulating the business end of a Ford car, now who was it? And if our suspicions are correct, would the incident be regarded as an indication that good roadsters of the four-footed variety are being crowded out of the field by the propulsive force of gasoline?

Report of district schools No. 11 Clarendon: Hilda Eades, Ethel Grant, Iva Eades, Wilmer Elliott, Russell Grant, Willeta Grant, Royce Prendergast, James Clarke, Arthur Eades, Gladys Queale, Lillian Dunlop, Blake McTiernan, Gerald Howard, Doreen Telford, Viletta Elliott, Harold Queale, Letitia Eades, George Dunlop, Violet Burton, Orville McTiernan, Anna Queale, Louisa Smith, teacher.

The funeral took place to the cemetery here on Sunday afternoon from the home of her son, Thomas Sharpe of Bristol, of Mrs. Brownlee, relict of the late Nathaniel Brownlee. The deceased was in her 102nd year of her life, probably the oldest resident of the county.

As we Canadians reach our hundredth birthday, we pause for a moment to look back.

What does it mean to be a hundred?

It means that many hardships and disappointments have been endured and overcome. It means hard work and growth and achievement.

W. A. Hodgins Store established in 1857, 110 years ago, has shared in this experience.

Today we pause to give thanks to those who have gone before us, they have made an incalculable contribution to what we are today.

We, as a nation, have reached our first century. Now let us move forward together to the next milestone.

COMIC CHARIOT

Races on Saturday in Shawville will be by foot, by horse, by cart and by chariot and in the program it is listed as comic chariot. More comic even than the chariot, with puckish grin painted on its passenger bucket, is the first team of charioteers. Costumes aren't necessary to take part, all that is necessary is six people to draw and one to ride, and notify Bill Brandum. But the sack cloth and winged helmets added immensely to the appearance of the current champions as they ripped around town last week. Teams from anywhere are invited to beat the champs and chariots will be provided by the committee.

Upper Ottawa Valley is site of surveying course

The Upper Ottawa Valley has become a classroom for 29 students from developing countries of Asia, Africa, and the Caribbean. These students make up the first group of External Aid sponsored students who arrived in Arnprior this month and who will take part in a newly-designed practical course in surveying. They will be working with instructors from the Department of Energy, Mines and Resolrces as well as from such agencies as the Canadian Army.

These students who represent the countries of Nigeria, Kenya, Zambia, Tanzania, Uganda, Malawi, Lesotho in Africa; British Honduras, Barbados, St Vincent, Antigua, Jamaica, and St Lucia in the Caribbean; and Thailand in the Far East will be trained in the use of surveying instruments on up to the complex job of planning, organizing, and executing specific field survey and mapping projects which will lead them into the countryside around Arnprior. They will work in teams of from two to six men.

This course is a pilot project for similar courses being planned. It is designed to give these students an opportunity to handle the equipment and to apply the theory learned at various Canadian educational institutions.

During the course which will keep them busy throughout the summer months, the students will use the Canadian Emergency Measures College in Arnprior as their living quarters. The students will also go on tours of the Upper Ottawa Valley visiting valley industries.

Bass fishing and moose hunting seasons fixed

The opening date for the smallmouth bass fishing season in the Ottawa River and the counties of Papineau, Gatineau, Temiscamingue, Rouyn-Noranda, and Pontiac has been fixed by the Department of Tourism Fish and Game. The season opened June 16 and it will extend to March 31, 1968. The daily credit limit is ten fish.

Controlled moose hunting in La Verendrye Park will begin September 16 and will end October 20. 600 hunters chosen by electronic draw will be admitted to the Park. Registration forms were left with game wardens at eleven Protection Service offices. Applicants registered just once for one park only. The four day outing costs $60 per man & this includes the services of a guide. Hunters should bring their own shelters as none will be provided.

ST MARY'S C W L

The regular monthly meeting of St Mary's Council of the CWL was held in the school auditorium June 13th, presided over by Mrs. Alfred Trudeau. Minutes of the May meeting were read by Secretary, Mrs. Steve Robinson. Mrs. Donald Derouin presented the financial statement. Convenors of standing committees submitted their monthly reports.

Mrs. Steve Robinson gave a very interesting account on the CWL convention in Deep River.

Mrs. Trudeau thanked the members for bake sale contributions. Convenors were chosen for the bake sale to be heid July 22nd.

Mrs. Stanton, membership convenor, requested members to solicit candidates for membership, especially new parishioners.

A discussion followed regarding plans for a centennial tea to be held in St Mary's School, Sept 10th. Convenors chosen were Mrs. Edward Kennedy, Mrs. Percy Moyle, Mrs. John Robinson and Mrs. Steve Robinson.

The meeting was then divided into groups for discussion of "Putting Vatican II into Practice" under the guidance of Sr. Marguerite.

Mrs. Trudeau presented scrolls to Rev Sr. Marguerite and Sr. Kevin to honor them on their 25th anniversary.

The meeting closed with recitation of prayer after which refreshments were served.

Proceeds from Film Night given to Christian Pavilion

As the result of the Film Night sponsored jointly by the local I.S.C.F. and Shawville C.B.M.C. the sum of $25 was donated to the Sermons from Science Pavilion at Expo '67 in Montreal recently. The Interschool Christian Fellowship is a student group headed by Miss Diane Tracey. The Christian Business Men's Committee has as its Chairman, Mr. Lornie Rooney. Both leaders with their respective groups are to be commended for this effort. The Sermons from Science Pavilion is enjoying success far beyond the expectations of the far-sighted Christians who faithfully and sacrificially made the Pavilion possible.

a safe and faultless journey and said he hoped Pontiac would see Joe Sloan back "in the same condition as we see him now". Rev Emard said a prayer, Mayor Elsie Gibbons of Portage du Fort said she had also said a prayer and would continue praying for the safety of the Sheriff's party, hoping it would help even though it was Protestant prayer. Mayor Edgar Lance invited Joe back to Campbell's Bay for August 2th, Mayor Melvin Brown of Litchfield and Mayor Orla Young also spoke and it was announced proudly by the Bryson town fathers that Sheriff Joe Sloan's mother was born in Bryson 82 years ago, a good eight years after Bryson was incorporated.

The covered wagon then took off for Shawville where it arrived around five o'clock. Some members of the Shawville Pony and Saddle Club met the wagon several miles up the highway to escort them to the outskirts of town where they were met by the entire Club which accompanied them down the old highway, through Main Street and on the Fair Grounds.

Mayor Orla Young and Mrs. Young were hosts to the Sheriff's party and town Councillors and Mayors of surrounding Municipalities at a garden party dinner at their home.

The Shawville Community Band, mounted on a float and playing a medley of marches, led a parade after dinner which took the bright caravan up and down many of the town's streets and wound up at the Community Centre where a moccasin dance was held in honor of the Sheriff's party. Louis Judd and a group of good local artists played for the square dancing in the arena. One of the most amusing entries in the parade was the six-man chariot drawn by a half dozen winged miners.

Friday noon, at the farm of John Smith, the Sheriff's party enjoyed a lawn luncheon accompanied by eighty eight Bristol residents over seventy years old all guests of the Municipality of Bristol and at night they were in Quyon where Centennial costumes were worn by many of the townspeople to create a gala atmosphere, very much in keeping with the covered wagon theme.

On Saturday the little caravan pulled slowly along the road, out of Pontiac, going towards Ottawa for its big appointment on Parliament Hill and carrying four thousand copies of a special little edition of The Equity which the Sheriff will distribute free at Ottawa and Montreal. The miniature measures 5"x7" and contains four pages describing the Sheriff's trip and including a picture of the covered wagon, a list of County-wide Centennial celebrations, a lot of information about Shawville and district and an advertisement for Family Tree kits being prepared for sale at Pontiac Printshop Ltd.

Also available from the Sheriff are brightly colored postcards picturing the Sheriff and the covered wagon standing before the Pontiac County Court House at Campbell's Bay. These post cards are being sold to raise additional funds for the voyage.

Luskville greets Sheriff Sloan

The Sheriff arrived in Luskville and "never expected such a wonderful party after I left Pontiac County', said Sheriff Sloan as he thanked Mr. and Mrs. Jos Archambault, luncheon hosts to the Expo traveller and his party on Saturday.

Greetings from the large crowd that came to see the Sheriff were extended by Edgar Mulligan. Music was provided by Luskville's own Andy Lusk, his son Hubert, nephew Bob Sally and his fiddler Reg Workman.

Mrs. Archambault presented the Sheriff and his son with a charcoal painitng of a covered wagon done by Miss Caroline Rowland.

The table was centered with a large cake topped with a covered wagon, outriders and dogs. It was a beautiful piece of work done by Mrs. Archambault.

Special thanks should be extended to the weatherman who kept the rain off until the Expo-bound party were waving goodbye.
