Westmount Rink has Perfect Score in Roaring Game

The thrill that comes to few in the roaring game — a perfect eight end — is seen spread out before T. C. Chown and his Heather foursome, which hit the 'dream' count in a club game at Heather. The quartet is shown receiving Harwood Cups for their feat. Left to right are J. T. Eastwood, lead; J. J. Young, second; E. A. Follis, third; skipper Chown, and Clary Walker.

Extinguish Fire On Top Floor Of Stone Structure

A blaze that broke out in the top flat of a three storey stone building at 4829 St. Catherine Street caused slight damage to sheds in the floor below.

Westmount firemen answered the call after the occupant in the upper flat noticed smoke arising from the vicinity of the furnace on the third floor. Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze with a master hose.

The fire was said by Chief W.C. Cobb, to be caused from the fire in the furnace penetrating through to the flooring beneath.

While firemen were at work extinguishing the blaze, another call was received from 17 Anwoth Road. A chimney fire at that address was quickly put out.

Westmount Putter's Invite New Members

The Putter's Club of Westmount are continuing the program of Monday night parties and would like to welcome any new members and their friends to this group. The coming month's program: Monday, February 12: card party; Monday, February 19: games night; Monday, February 26: movies, sports, comedies, etc.

H. S. ROSS SPEAKS

H. S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L., former Examiner columnist, will address the Home and School Association of Verdun High School Feb. 14, at 9 p.m. His subject will be "Some Pressing Problems for Parents To Study."

8-Year-Old Boy Struck By Auto

Eight-year-old Ricky Walsh, 489 Grosvenor Avenue, was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital for X-rays after he was struck by an automobile at the intersection of Cote St. Antoine Road and Grosvenor Avenue. Roy P. Hannaford was driver of the automobile.

Police said the boy was being chased across the street by a playmate and that Hannaford, 18, applied his brakes to avoid hitting him, but that the automobile skidded carrying the lad on the bumper to in front of 470 Cote St. Antoine Road.

Annual Meeting Of Business Ass'n To Be Held Soon

Paul Viau, president of the Westmount Business Association, told The Examiner last night, that the annual meeting of the association would be held in the near future probably before the end of the month.

Mr. Viau stated that pressure of business and the difficulty of securing a date and meeting place suitable to the majority of the members prevented him being able to give a definite date at the moment.

He stated that an announcement would be forthcoming within the next few days.

Weredale Boys' Home A.G.M. Set For Tuesday

Weredale House, the Boy's Home of Montreal, will hold its 80th annual meeting on February 13 at Weredale House, 6 Weredale Park, Westmount, at 8 p.m. An inspection of the building and the boys' evening classes will follow the meeting.

Architects Work On Plans For New Police Premises

Messrs. Shorey, Ritchie and Douglas, architects, 4147 Sherbrooke street west, it is learned, are preparing plans for alterations and additions to Westmount's fire and police station situated at 21 Stanton avenue.

Plans call for additions to include garages, offices, and extension of present facilities.

It is expected that tenders will be called shortly just as soon as the plans are completed and approved.

Part of the moneys authorized in the loan recently approved by the Metropolitan Commission will be used for this project, which was referred to by Mayor Cameron in his talk to the members at the annual meeting of the Westmount Municipal Association.

New Policewoman Engaged By City

Westmount now has two policewomen. Until last week Miss Dorothy Barnes had the distinction of being not only Westmount's first policewoman but also the only one in Canada.

She has now been joined by Miss Norma MacDonald who is receiving instruction in how to handle delinquents in the parks and to enforce city by-laws. The addition of another female member of the force will be welcomed by parents whose children spend much of their spare time in city playgrounds.

Miss MacDonald was employed in the offices of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada in Montreal prior to taking up her new position.

Westmount's Valuation Figures May Be Queried

Westmount may be asked by the Montreal Metropolitan Commission to explain why the municipal valuation has slightly decreased since 1940, in contrast to increases reported by all other municipalities in membership with the metropolitan body.

In 1940 Westmount showed a municipal valuation of $68,787,343 as against $67,375,950 in 1950.

Some of the Metropolitan Commission members are wondering what happened to Westmount's municipal valuation.

Every town and city under the commission's jurisdiction has shown a huge increase from 1940 to 1950 but not so with Westmount, according to a report submitted* by Ephrem Brisebois, secretary-treasurer, at a special sitting of the Commission on Monday.

They are so mystified about the whole thing that they intend to ask many questions at the next meeting.

Montreal showed an increase from $927,000,000 to $1,162,000,000 in round figures from 1940 to 1950, Verdun soared from $41,000,000 to $56,211,000. Outremont from $38,000,000 to $47,000,000.

Mr. Brisebois' report shows that Lachine has doubled its municipal valuation from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000, the Town of Mount Royal from $8,000,000 to $22,000,000, the Town of St. Laurent from $4,993,000 to $22,000,000 Ville LaSalle from $8,000,000 to $19,000,000.

Even the smaller places such as Ville St. Michel showed huge increases from $88,000 to $5,835,000, Pointe-aux-Trembles from $2,700,000 to $5,000,000, Montreal East from $12,987,000 to $29,000,000.

No public comments were made after Mr. Brisebois submitted his report but at the next meeting, the commissioners intend to ask questions, particularly since Councillor J. O. Asselin, commission chairman, had previously warned that unless municipalities voluntarily re-adjusted their valuations on a standard basis for the metropolitan district, "the commission would do something about it."

Enquiries at the city hall failed to find anyone who had heard of any criticism of Westmount's reported valuation figures as given out by secretary-treasurer Brisebois of the Montreal Metropolitan Commission.

A usually well informed source, however, told the Examiner that Westmount was in a different position to most of the other member municipalities, inasmuch that most of the available land in Westmount has been built on, and consequently new houses are built on the sites of old houses which have been demolished. In some instances the assessed value of the new house is less than the value of the one torn down.

This factor might account for the decrease in valuation of $411,393 over the ten year period covered in Mr. Brisebois' report. Westmount has just about reached the saturation point in contrast to other suburbs which are outpacing even Montreal in growth.

Dom-Douglas New Elders Were Inducted On Sunday

Ten elders were installed at the 11 a.m. service in the Dominion-Douglas United Church, Westmount, on Sunday. They were: E. T. Armitage, Dr. L. Parker Chesney, J. R. Fenwick, H. W. Langton, M. C. Loucks, A. G. MacKinnon, H. Marshall, E. H. Smith, Arthur D. Emory and P. Wood. Rev. Dr. Lloyd Smith officiated.

Municipal Ass'n Appoints Nine Exec. Committees

Westmount Municipal Association held an executive meeting last Tuesday night, with the principal item of business being the appointment of committees. As there are nine separate committees the allocation of members to the respective groups took considerable time.

Steps taken so far by the city council in the matter of civil defence evoked favorable comment, especially the appointment of a full-time civil defence director.

It was decided to stage a drive for new members and efforts will be made to try to get a majority of residents to interest themselves in the work of the association. Dent Harrison, chairman of the membership committee, will spearhead the drive.

Committees appointed to serve for the current year are as follows:

Education and Library — D. J. Glen, Chairman; Members: A. Gordon Anderson, F. H. Clements, Archibald Henshaw, J. H. Vale, D. M. Farish.

Health and Welfare — Dr. Gordon A. Copping, Chairman; Members: C. N. Bissett, J. C. Bonar, Dr. G. H. Halpenny.

Housing and Zoning — H. G. Seybold, Chairman; Members: D. G. Anglin, G. H. M. Campbell, Irving Riddell, M. L. Tucker.

Membership — Dent Harrison, Chairman; Members: T. W. Gilmour, Wm. M. Jackson, K. G. LeBaron, Ernest L. Maag, J. P. Page, W. M. Bartram, W. P. Carr, A. D. Falkner, H. M. Hague, Norman Harling.

Municipal Finance — F. E. H. Gates, Chairman; Members: Norman E. Kenrick, Peter Kilburn, Paul Viau.

Legislation — Alec P. Grigg, Chairman; Members: Ernest C. Common, Thos. R. Ker.

Publicity — W. E. Beamer, Chairman.

Recreation — R. S. White, Chairman; Members: Frank Bimmore, C. J. Dryden, L. R. Haldimand, O. H. N. Owens, Alfred Powis, Jr.

Traffic and Circulation — H. V. Roper, Chairman; Members: H. M. Baker, C. L. Brooks, W. A. Fowler, Alistair Macdinnon, Raymond Caron.

Metropolitan Suburbs Are Outpacing Montreal

The population of Westmount has increased in the period from 1940 to 1950 from 24,692 to 27,203, a net increase of 2,511, according to a report by Ephrem Brisebois, secretary-treasurer of the Metropolitan Commission at a meeting held on Monday.

Mr. Brisebois also reported that the populations of a majority of the 15 municipalities represented on the Commission are increasing at faster rate than that of the City of Montreal.

He officially announced that the population of the Montreal metropolitan area has now reached the total of 1,435,023, with the City of Montreal accounting for 1,180,955 of that figure.

Hyman Grover Is Again Installed As Temple Pres.

Hyman Grover, re-elected recently as president of the congregation of Temple Emanu-El, Westmount, was installed in that office Friday night in a special ritual by the rabbi, Dr. Harry J. Stern.

Other temple officers installed were:

Honorary president, Arthur Simon; first vice-president, Irving Tarshis; second vice-president, George Hollinger; acting honorary treasurer, E. T. Garfinkle; honorary secretary, Lawrence Marks; members of board of trustees, Samuel Paperman, Sigmund Beckow, Francis Beck, Harry Horn, Herman Tower, Colin Spiegel, Jack

Since several off-island municipalities, and others at the extreme east and west ends of Montreal Island are not included, the total population figure for Greater Montreal would be around 1,500,000.

In 1940 the Montreal Island metropolitan area had a population of 1,205,074, as against 1,435,023 for 1950, or an increase of 229,949. Of that increase total, the City of Montreal provided 157,891 and the 14 adjoining municipalities 72,053. While the populations of several suburbs increased by 20 to about 200 per cent in the last decade (Montreal proper increased by just over 15 per cent), those suburban populations today furnish only 254,063 of the Montreal Island metropolitan total of 1,435,023.

Zone Figures

Metropolitan population figures for 1950, with 1940 figures shown after in brackets are as follows: Montreal 1,180,955 (1,023,064); Verdun 77,968 (65,269); Outremont 31,400 (30,320); Lachine 29,625 (19,513); Westmount 27,203 (24,692); St. Laurent 20,205 (7,699); Montreal North 12,774 (5,825); Mount Royal 10,666 (4,637); LaSalle 10,475 (3,716); St. Michel 9,130 (2,754); Pointe-aux-Trembles 7,506 (5,274); St. Pierre 5,100 (4,184); Montreal East 4,783 (2,308); Montreal West 3,749 (3,769) only municipality to show a decade decrease; Hampstead 3,503 (1,950).

Marler Demands Bridge Disaster Be Investigated

Quebec, February 7 (Special to The Examiner) — Hon. George C. Marler, leader of the opposition in the Quebec Legislature and member for Westmount, tonight demanded a complete and unbiased investigation into the Duplessis bridge disaster, and also asked for copies of all reports made to the government concerning the original break in the bridge a year ago, and of all correspondence exchanged between the government and the construction companies during the year 1950, and in January 1951.

Mr. Marler asked the House to appoint a board of engineers of unquestioned capability and impartiality to determine the cause of the collapse of the bridge and to make known the persons responsible for the disaster.

In introducing his motion, Mr. Marler recalled the history of the bridge. Started in 1946, it was opened to traffic in 1947, and officially opened in June 1948. He recalled the Premier's remarks on the occasion of the official opening, particularly some analogies Mr. Duplessis had made between the bridge and the Union Nationale party. In February, 1950, the bridge had developed cracks, Mr. Marler said, which required some months to repair, and within another year had collapsed.

Replying to Marler, the Premier reiterated his belief that the bridge had been sabotaged. He accused Mr. Marler of poisoning the public mind in the matter of the disaster and of making political capital of it. He said an enquiry would be held, but not until the part of the structure of the bridge which had given away had been examined by experts.

Following Mr. Duplessis remarks, debate on the bridge was adjourned to a future date.

* NO VEGETABLE

"Rhubarb" in the Perlberg-Seaton film of the same name is not a vegetable — it's a cat. Ray Milland stars in the comedy about a feline who inherits $30,000,000 and a big league baseball club, and the word derives from diamond lingo referring to a scrap or fight. Rhubarb is a scrappy kitten.

Orchid Showing Attracts Many Flower Lovers

The orchid exhibition in Westmount conservatories continues to attract attention and favorable comment from the many visitors. At this season of the year flowers have a particular appeal and to be able to walk from sub-zero weather into a tropical paradise by merely opening a door is rather fascinating.

Approximately 100 orchid blooms may be seen in the conservatory. Cyclamen, begonias, primulas, and hyacinths are other plants now in bloom and together with the rarer orchids make a visit to the conservatories well worth while.

It is believed that Westmount's collection of orchids is one of the largest in eastern Canada. Many of the plants in the conservatory were donated to the city by Mrs. F. G. Cope, 460 Wood avenue, some years ago when she decided to discontinue growing orchids due to help difficulties while others were given by the late J. K. L. Ross, who had an extensive collection at one time.

The conservatories are open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Longevity Introduces New Problems Rotarians Told

The average span of life has increased almost 20 years since the turn of the century, Dr. G. Earle Wight, member of the medical staff of the Canadian Pacific Railways, told Westmount Rotarians in an address at the club's weekly luncheon.

Speaking on "Good Health: Pros and Cons" Dr. Wight said that although longevity in the sixth decade had not shown a corresponding increase in the life span in the past, it was now showing a considerable extension into an age that had formerly been termed old.

This factor, he added, has and will continue to exert a disturbing influence upon the accepted age of retirement. He stated that many men who are now reaching the age of retirement are still healthy enough in mind and body to continue work. The loss to industry and to themselves, he said, is a problem we will have to face if we are to keep in step with modern medicine's extension of life.

Good Health

In examining what good health means, the speaker warned that he was omitting any discussion of mental health, a matter, he said, that is essential to good health.

He added, however, that health is relative to a person's age and that a man in his sixties should not expect to attain the soundness of body of a younger man. He said that the human body is like a car and that as much constant care of health should be shown by people in later years as one would expect in the mechanical care needed in an older model car.

In pointing out the necessity of constant care in order to assure good health Dr. Wight said that an organ such as the heart pumps 12 ounces of blood 37,000,000 times a year, or 273,000,000 quarts of blood in a life of 70 years, a record that cannot be reached without proper precaution.

Even with the tremendous advances made in the past few years by modern medicine, the speaker said, the doctor's job is often made difficult by personal neglect. He said that in diagnosis "by the time a patient has symptoms it is very often too late to do anything, but arrest the condition or hope for an improvement."

One way to prevent any serious sickness, he said, was to make regular calls upon one's doctor for a check-up. He stressed also that complete confidence must be placed in the individual's particular physician.

He asked his audience to beware of the well-meaning advice of friends and especially of reports from the press and radio, which, he said, were often wrong and misleading.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. John R. Lochead and thanked by Norm Millington.

Taxi-Driver Acquitted In Westmount Burglary

Male passengers will in future be the preference of John H. Angrove, 28, a taxi driver who was so completely duped by a "woman" recently that he was later accused of conspiracy and attempted burglary from a Westmount home.

Angrove was acquitted after a preliminary inquiry Tuesday during which his lawyer, Joseph Cohen, K.C., insisted that a signed declaration, made by his client to Westmount police, be produced in court. Usually defence lawyers strongly object to the production of such documents since the details are usually considered of a convicting nature.

According to Angrove's statement, he was engaged recently by a woman who asked him to drive her around town to see some of Montreal's night life.

Later, he said, she had him drive her to 4343 Westmount avenue, where she left the taxi and told Angrove to return for her in an hour.

On his return, he added, he saw a light in the house and after knocking several times without any response, he decided to wait. Soon afterwards, two Westmount policemen arrived and when he explained, they knocked at the door. Instead of a woman answering, as he had expected, a man opened the door and asked what they wanted.

When he (Angrove) and the constables discovered that the man, later identified as Lawrence Connors, 22, had lipstick marks on his face, and two valises, packed with various articles, were found in the house, both he and Connors were arrested.

Because evidence submitted by the prosecution was considered insufficient to prove that Angrove had been involved in the attempted burglary, he was acquitted and Connors was committed for voluntary statement on Feb. 14 on a charge of attempted burglary.

City Rinks Busy As Ice Holds Firm

Westmount's thirteen skating and hockey rinks as well as the small skating surface at Devon Park are being very well patronized, according to the parks and recreation department staff.

This is sharp contrast to last season when weather conditions played havoc with the ice and curtailed the number of hockey games played in the respective leagues.

As the rinks are lighted they are in use every night but despite the increased number of skaters on the ice there has been an absence of injury which speaks highly for the supervision exercised.

Robert Findlay Noted Architect Buried Wednesday

A funeral service for Robert Findlay, 419 Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, veteran architect, was held Wednesday morning in the chapel of Tees and Co., 1459 Tower street. Rev. D. M. Grant, minister of St. Andrew's United Church, officiated.

Mr. Findlay, who died Monday in his 92nd year, was born on May 12, 1859 at Inverness, Invernesshire, Scotland. He began his career in architecture at 17, and was first employed by a Scottish firm who designed the Carnegie Public Libraries in Scotland and a large number of wealthy residences, including The Macintosh, near Inverness and the Aldourie Castle on Loch Ness.

Designed Many Buildings

In 1885, Mr. Findlay came to Montreal and while working for an architectural firm, did valuable work on St. James Methodist Church. During the subsequent years after his work gained wide recognition he designed the Montreal Maternity Hospital on St. Urban street; the first Victoria Hall in Westmount and also the Westmount Public Library and the Westmount City Hall; Calvary Church at Greene and Dorchester street; the first buildings of the Imperial Tobacco Company and the residence of the late Sir Mortimer Davis at Pine avenue and Peel street.

Mr. Findlay was a charter member of the Province of Quebec Association of Architects and at the general meeting of the organization in 1938, he was presented with the first Medal of Merit issued by the association. At the time of his death, he was the oldest member of the Association of Architects.

He was a life-long member of the congregation of St. Andrew's United Church, Westmount, having begun his attendance at the original Melville Presbyterian Church before 1900 on the same site.

He is survived by his wife, the former Janie A. Fleming, of Edinburgh, Scotland; a son, Francis R. Findlay, and two daughters, Miss Edythe Findlay and Mrs. Donald B. Foss, of Grand'Mere. Another son, Arthur, died in March, 1950. In addition, there are six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Sit Tight Is Advice To Tenants By League

Westmount tenants will find the advice issued by the Montreal Tenants League on Tuesday to "sit tight" re-assuring, even although they may have been disturbed by receiving notices that their current leases will not be renewed.

The Tenant's League has found that many proprietors are notifying tenants that their leases expire shortly, the majority April 30, and will not be renewed. These notices are legal under present Federal rent control, but they do not take into cognizance proposed Provincial legislation.

Two Week Egg Diet Has Many Advocates Here

The two week egg diet which has been receiving considerable publicity in the local press and which has been taken up by many local sportsmen particularly those who frequent the M.A.A.A. is printed in this issue of the Examiner at the request of several subscribers.

Whether the diet has any merit or would be recommended by the family doctor is not known, but reports would seem to indicate that it is a weight reducer.

Herewith the diet and instructions:

Follow the diet carefully for two weeks. Not only abstaining from anything not included in it, but also eating what is assigned rather than doing without.

Naturally, a little common sense has to be used, i.e., the vegetables without butter, the grapefruit without sugar, the salad without oil or dressing, no sugar or cream in the coffee or tea, and of course, only the lean parts of chops and steaks to be eaten.

It is best to begin the diet on Monday, though, of course, Monday's menu may be the start of the two weeks on any day, Tuesday the second day, etc. The advantage of actually starting the diet on Monday is that it works out better than in regard to Sunday dinner. However, it is possible to start the diet with the diet for that day.

But since the meals are a little more substantial toward the last of the week, the loss in weight may not be so large or so rapid this way. Alcoholic beverages are debatable at this time, but at any rate, sweet cocktails or beer should not be taken. Weight loss may be from ten to twenty pounds in the two weeks. DO NOT FOLLOW THE DIET FOR LONGER THAN TWO WEEKS. IT IS HARMLESS FOR TWO WEEKS BUT NOT FOR LONGER.

Breakfast is exactly the same for every day of the diet.

Monday: Breakfast, Grapefruit, one or two eggs, coffee. Luncheon, Eggs, tomatoes, coffee. Dinner, Eggs, combination salad, 1 pc. dry toast, grapefruit.

Tuesday: Luncheon, Eggs, grapefruit, coffee. Dinner, Steak, tomatoes, celery, cucumbers, lettuce, olives, coffee or tea.

Wednesday: Luncheon, Eggs, tomatoes, spinach. Dinner, Two lamb chops, celery, cucumbers, tomatoes, coffee.

Thursday: Luncheon, Combination salad, grapefruit, coffee. Dinner, Eggs, cottage cheese, spinach, 1 pc. dry toast, coffee or tea.

Friday: Luncheon, Eggs, spinach, coffee. Dinner, Fish, combination salad, 1 pc. dry toast, coffee.

Saturday: Luncheon, Fruit salad (Nothing else). Dinner, Plenty of steak, celery, tomatoes, cucumbers, tea or coffee.

Sunday: Luncheon, Cold chicken, tomatoes, grapefruit, coffee. Dinner, Chicken, tomatoes, grapefruit, carrots, celery, vegetable salad and coffee.

WILL CONDUCT SERVICE

Rev. Alexander Manson, Evangelical Church of the Deaf, Toronto, will conduct services of worship on Feb. 18 at 3:30 p.m. at the Westmount Y.M.C.A.

New Terms Suggested

Some of the letters contain a paragraph such as this: "Should you desire to remain after that date and to enter into a new lease with us at different terms and conditions, please get in touch with us at your earliest convenience."

If you are living in a house, apartment or flat which is rent-controlled, just ignore these letters, Clarence Rosenhek, legal counsel for the Tenants' League advised.

Controls are in effect on all property built before Jan. 1, 1947, and on that which has not been vacated since Nov. 1, 1948.

Maintained Until Aug. 1

Proposed Provincial legislation provides that present rental ceilings will be maintained from April 30, the date when the law probably will take effect, until Aug. 1, during which time there can be no evictions. On Aug. 1, new, two-year legislation would take effect.

If the Federal Government decides to continue its present rent control, the Provincial legislation would not be exacted. Thus, said the Tenant's League, those renting homes are doubly assured of some form of legislation before present leases expire April 30. In the absence of any new lease, the tenant would retain security of tenure.

The proposed Provincial bill provides that, except in certain cases, "no lessee shall be evicted, before the first of August, 1951, from the house which he was legally occupying on the 30th of April, 1951, nor shall he be obliged, during such lapse of time (between May 1 and August 1) to pay a rent greater than that which he was bound to pay on the 30th of April, 1951."

If there is a failure to agree, tenants may apply to the local administrator for the prolongation of their leases and the fixing of the rent.

Judgment Is Given Against Resident In Damage Action

Donald Hill, Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, was ordered to pay $2,000 damages to Lloyd Carter, clerk, passenger in a car driven by Hill which collided with another vehicle on the St. Jerome highway on August 20, 1947, in an action heard in the Superior Court last Wednesday.

Mr. Justice C. Gordon Mackinnon found that Hill was at fault because he crossed the white line while trying to pass a third car driven by M. R. Bourgeois, of St. Adele.

Judge Mackinnon said that Hill was on Bourgeois' side of the highway, and he found that Carter's injuries had been solely due to Hill's fault and negligence. Carter had sued Hill and Bourgeois jointly and severally for $18,130 damages, but the action against Bourgeois was dismissed.

What to Do In A-Attack If It Comes

Here is a summary of the most important thing to do in the case of an atomic attack. It is taken from the book issued by the New York State Civil Defence Commission.

Keep calm. If there is time get to shelter at once.

If no underground shelter is close go into the ground floor of a nearby building or even stand in a doorway.

If you see the bomb flash and there is no cover of any kind within a step or two, drop to the street or gutter, turn away from the flash, and close eyes tightly. Cover your head, face, neck, arms and other exposed areas of the body.

If you are indoors, turn off gas, electricity, water and oil at first warning and hang drapes over windows. Go to cellar or under a desk or table if there isn't time to get to the basement. Lie face downward and out of line with windows. After the burst tie handkerchief over mouth if area is contaminated.

What NOT to Do

- Don't telephone.
- Don't turn on water after the blast unless to fight fire.
- Don't eat or drink in a contaminated area.
- Don't touch things after ground or water burst.
- Don't try to drive your car.
- Don't get excited or excite others.

Suburbs Demands Bring Tirade By Mayor Houde

Mayor R. E. Schofield of Mount Royal incurred the wrath of Mayor Camillien Houde of Montreal when he sparkplugged a demand by suburban municipalities that they should be given increased representation on the Montreal Metropolitan Commission.

The M.P.C. meeting held on Monday was the stormiest held by the commission in recent times. During Mayor Houde's tongue lashing of the municipalities His Worship stated that he was dissatisfied with the fact that Montreal had only three representatives on the five man Transportation Board.

He was especially critical of the suggestion of Mayor R. E. Schofield of Mount Royal (who represents six suburbs on the Metropolitan Commission), that Mount Royal have an entire commission seat to itself. Verdun, Outremont, Westmount and Lachine have individual seats.

That, said Mayor Houde, would tend to diminish Montreal's majority vote in Metropolitan Commission proceedings. He noted that Montreal pays most of the commission operating expenses, and said that he would be against any change in the commission set-up unless city council was first consulted. Mayor Schofield's term as representative of six suburbs ends soon, and he explained to Mayor Houde that all he was asking was that Mount Royal be allowed from now on to have its own direct representative sitting at commission meetings.

Mayor Schofield set off the fireworks when he proposed to the members specially assembled to consider their bill to the Quebec Legislature next Thursday, that the Town of Mount Royal be permanently represented on the commission.

At present, Mayor Schofield represents six municipalities on the commission which was created in 1921 after three towns on the Island of Montreal went bankrupt. The Commission must approve all financial expenditures made by 14 suburban municipalities.

In addition to representing his own municipality, Mayor Schofield is also spokesman for Ville St. Laurent, Ville LaSalle, Montreal West, Hampstead and Ville St. Pierre.

In asking that the Town of Mount Royal be permanently represented on the commission, Mayor Schofield said he represented an aggregate population in all six municipalities of about 70,000 people.

He considered it unjust that Ville St. Laurent, a fast-growing municipality, should not be entitled to equal representation on the commission. (At present the City of Montreal has eight representatives on the 15-member commission and if Mayor Schofield's proposal were carried through it might mean that the balance of power on the commission would shift from the City of Montreal to adjacent municipalities.)

So much opposition against increasing the number of commissioners was voiced by the Montreal group that it was decided to hold another meeting on the matter.

In any event, Mayor Camillien Houde announced: "I will insist that the Montreal City Council be consulted on the proposed changes before a final decision is reached."

Pays 80 Per Cent

"After all," Councillor J. O. Asselin, commission chairman said, "the City of Montreal is paying more than 80 per cent of the commission's assessments and, as such, should be consulted before any change in the charter is effected."

Mayor R. E. Schofield of the Town of Mount Royal who represents his own city as well as Ville St. Pierre, Montreal West, Hampstead, St. Laurent and Ville La Salle, insisted on representing only his own municipality at the commission.

Commissioners also discussed the Metropolitan Commission Bill which would provide a pension fund for its employees and payment of attendance fees to members.

Councillor Asselin proposed that each municipality under the jurisdiction of the commission with a population of at least 10,000 be allowed a representative.

Fears Minority Role

Mayor Houde said this would mean that the City of Montreal, while paying the greater part of the commission's assessments, would be in the minority.

"I'm sick and tired of these outside municipalities asking for the further control of the commission," he said. "After all, Montreal has had these municipalities on her back for years, footing their bills for police, fire, health and sanitation services, bridges and boulevards. I don't want to lose one single inch of the control we have now and I would not think of granting any change in the representation system without consulting the Montreal City Council."

Commission members agreed with Mayor Houde and Chairman J. O. Asselin that the question of revising the commission set-up to allow full representation proportionate with the amount of taxation, would require deep study, with further consideration at a later meeting. Both Alderman E. H. Connolly of Lachine and Mayor Edward Wilson of Verdun objected to the tenor of some of Houde's remarks regarding suburban financial contributions to metropolitan progress. Mayor Cameron represented Westmount at the meeting.

Sport Meet Set For St. Matthias Pack

As usual, badge work is going ahead and last Friday night Ross McCrimmon and Ray Lawson passed the Union Flag test in First Star. These two Cubs are coming along very well and Akela hopes to see them with their first eye open very soon. As Sixer Peter Leslie has completed all twelve badges, he was appointed to be Senior Sixer. Peter's Six, the Sand, are again leading the Inter-Six Competition by a good margin, but with three more nights to go there is still plenty of time for any other Six to get the pennant.

All First Star Cubs are reminded of the special test in skipping which will take place tonight. It is hoped that all have been practicing for the past month as instructed and will complete this part of their First Star tonight. Men going in for Second Star have just until next Friday to bring up their model, proof of savings, shined shoes and the other things required.

Tonight is "Sixers' Night." This evening's program will be run entirely by the Sixers, who will put on the games, instruction and other items, look after the competition blackboard and be completely in charge. The Seconds will assist.

Tomorrow afternoon is the date of our Winter Sports Meet. All Cubs will gather at the Pack Hall at two o'clock. Uniforms need not be worn. Dress warmly and bring your skis, sleigh or toboggan. After the races have been run off, there will be time to ski and slide before returning to the hall for hot dogs and cocoa, and presentation of prize to the Six getting the most points in the different events.

When Alan Ladd completed his role in "Branded," members of the cast and crew presented him with a regulation branding iron for his ranch. The iron highlights the star's initials and will be registered as the "Circle A."

GIRL TEACHER BRAVES THIN ICE TO RESCUE SMALL BOY

Miss Jeanne-Mance Bérubé, of Vassan, Abitibi, Que., crawls over treacherous Lacorne River.

1. Playing alone on the ice, 5-year-old Jules Boutin found himself well out towards the middle of the river before he heard an ominous cracking sound. Sensing the danger, he began to retrace his steps — but it was too late! The ice gave away under him . . . and he plunged into the frigid water. Bobbing to the surface, he grabbed the edge of the ice and cried for help with all his might.

2. Miss Bérubé, an 18-year-old school teacher, was leaving her home and heard the child's cries. In the distance she could see his small head above the water. She cried out "Hold on . . . I'm coming to get you!" . . . and then ran out to his rescue. But as she crossed the thin ice, water began to seep through to the surface. Frantically she called to her mother to bring her a rake.

3. After her mother had done this, the gallant young teacher got down on her hands and knees and crawled the rest of the way over the water-covered, treacherous surface. Finally she managed to reach the boy, who grasped the other end of the rake. Soon both were safe on shore. We proudly pay tribute to this brave Canadian girl through the presentation of The Dow Award.

THE DOW AWARD is a citation presented for acts of outstanding heroism and includes, as a tangible expression of appreciation, a $100 Canada Savings Bond. RCASC Will Show Three Films On Army Life Today

The Third Division, Royal Canadian Army Service Corps (Reserve) will present the first in a series of interesting and instructive film showings tomorrow evening, at 8, in the Verdun Legion Branch No. 4 Hall, Verdun avenue.

The three films which will be shown are "Left of the Line", "Report from the Aleutians", and "The Royal Canadian Army Service Corps." The latter film is most interesting, showing the work done by the men who drive the trucks which move the material up the line. Also the film shows the system of administration of food, petrol, and other material required to keep the soldier in top fighting trim in the front line.

The Third Division RCASC is commanded by Lt.-Col. J. A. Grant, and now occupies new quarters on Bel-Air Avenue, in St. Henri, two blocks west of Atwater Avenue.

Parades are held twice weekly, Tuesday and Friday, and one of the features of the programme of the unit is lectures given by experts from such companies as Ford and General Motors. The experts discuss care of cars and army vehicles. Skiing is also becoming a large part of the regular programme of the unit, with week-end excursions being held.

Tomorrow's two-hour film programme has been made possible through the co-operation of the Verdun Branch of the Legion.

Sinclair Lewis, One Of Best American Novelists

The late Sinclair Lewis, novelist, was the first American writer to win the Nobel Prize for Literature.

Born in Sauk Center, Minn., Mr. Lewis won world fame with his portrayal of George Babbitt, the typical American businessman of the 1920's. He also made literary history with such searching studies of American life as "Main Street," "Arrowsmith," "Elmer Gantry," "Dodsworth," "It Can't Happen Here" and "Kingsblood Royal."

He was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1930, chiefly for "Babbitt." Four years before he had refused a Pulitzer prize for "Arrowsmith" because he disagreed with the term of Joseph Pulitzer's will setting up the prize.

"The God-Seeker," his 21st book, appeared in 1949.

After a visit to Italy in 1949, he returned to the United States, his friends said, to put his affairs in order. He returned here early this year and after a sojourn in Florence took an apartment in Rome with his secretary, Alexander Manson.

Associates disclosed that he had outlined the plot of a new book, to be titled "Courage," on the theme that courage is a commodity belonging to those who are afraid.

Beyond the outline, however, he had done no writing on the work, they said.

Newspaper Career

Mr. Lewis after student days at Yale and a minor career on newspapers and magazines, became one of the great social historians among American novelists. His books blasted the foibles of "typically American" people and communities of the 1920's and 1930's with biting satire and down-to-earth realism.

Amid ever-stormy controversy, he put Main Street on the map and Babbitt into the language.

"Elmer Gantry," story of an Evangelist who abused his office, aroused a religious storm. Businessmen railed at "Babbitt" and "Dodsworth."

Germany and Italy in the mid-1930's banned "It Can't Happen Here," a warning against fascism in the United States.

Mr. Lewis was married twice. Both marriages ended in divorce. His second wife was the columnist-commentator Dorothy Thompson.

great Russian contemporary. The evening will be rounded off with musical numbers arranged by D. A. Hinchcliffe, and with a dramatic sketch adapted from "Edwin Drood," directed by Ed Willson. Anson Walker, president, will be in the chair.

CIVIL DEFENCE STALLED

Westmount Citizens and Others Worried by Delay in Organizing

Despite the many statements which have appeared in the public press on the subject of civil defence and the many conferences and meetings which have been held dealing with the matter of the formation of an efficient organization nothing concrete has emerged.

In Westmount the city council took the lead in this area in appointing a full time civil defence director.

When this happened, citizens felt that things would start humming but to date the man in the street knows little more about what is going on than he did some months ago.

If we have time to spare this delay is quite understandable, but apparently in the United States the authorities are not counting on this factor, and have at least taken the initial steps to line up an organization which could go into action at short notice.

It would seem to many, that the advice and experience of many wardens who served in the local C.D.C. in the Second World War could well be utilized at the present time.

Many of these men took specialized courses in civil defence work and with a refresher course would be able to pass on the information gained through their previous training to others.

Criticism has been levelled at the Federal Government's plan of making the civil defence force primarily a military one, and with this criticism many agree.

It is noted that Mayor Camillien Houde has suggested that the Montreal organization be split into six main sections each headed by a city department director.

The address given by Percy Soden who headed the Montreal C.D.C. in the last war when he spoke at a service club luncheon recently, contained many points which might well be studied by our civic authorities. Mr. Soden has probably given more time and study to civil defence work than any other local resident and his advice should be listened to, if for no other reason than he can probably point out where moneys might be wasted.

Outside of the group organized by the Seventh Day Adventist Church, in Westmount, we know of no other which is at the moment being trained to meet the threat of atomic bomb warfare should it happen here.

The matter of who is to pay the bills seems to be one of the things which is holding up the works, but if the five billion dollar defence estimates announced by Hon. Brooke Claxton in the house this week are any criterion the few millions which will have to be spent on civil defence seems a mere bagatelle.

It is hoped that there will be a minimum of delay in setting our civil defence house in order so to allay at least the very apparent fear amongst certain sections of the population at the thought of an A-attack.

Meanwhile here in Westmount and elsewhere we are marking time waiting.

Christian Science

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Ezekiel: 39:29 "I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God."

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: — "And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them. When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick." (Matthew 8:14 to 16)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: — "There are evil beliefs, often called evil spirits; but these evils are not Spirit, for there is no evil in Spirit. Spirits cast out evil spirits, or false beliefs. The question then as now was, How did Jesus heal the sick? His answer to this question the world rejected. He appealed to his students: 'Whom do men say that I, the Son of man, am?' That is: Who or what is it that is thus identified with casting out evils and healing the sick? With his usual impetuosity, Simon replied for his brethren, and his reply set forth a great fact; 'Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God!' That is: The Messiah is what thou hast declared, — Christ, the spirit of God, of Truth, Life, and Love, which heals mentally."

the Grace, the Presence and the Power of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the evening service Dr. Johnston will have as his theme "The Sheep-Master". During His public Ministry, our Lord spoke of "Shepherdless Sheep". "When He saw the multitude He had compassion on them for they were as Sheep without a Shepherd". He also spoke of "My Sheep". Then He went on to speak of "Other Sheep".

Friday evening the Westmount congregation had a delightful social evening. A. E. Smith functioned most efficiently as master of ceremonies. Refreshments were served by the social committee of the Women's Association, under the direction of Mrs. Frederick Bull. ## RMR Ladies Report on 31st Year Featured by Helpful Activities

At the 31st annual meeting of the Ladies Committee of the Royal Montreal Regiment held recently at the Armoury, Hon. Lieut-Col. the Rev. Harold S. Laws, V.D., read the names of officers of the Regiment who gave their lives in the last war, and said a short prayer.

The president, Mrs. T. C. Lewis, who presided, was re-elected. In reviewing the committee's activities during the past year, Mrs. Lewis commended the members who worked so successfully on the two rummage sales, with gratifying results which enabled the Committee to donate $750.00 as their contribution towards the cost of equipping the regiment's band with full dress scarlet uniforms. The April sale was convened by Mrs. R. Peirson, assisted by Mrs. K. A. MacKenzie, and the one in October was convened by Mrs. T. C. Trenholme, assisted by Mrs. F. F. Rejall.

The treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Acland, reported total receipts for the year amounted to $1,314.74, and disbursements of $1,491.71 included donations of $102.00 to the Montreal Soldiers' Wives' League, and $50.00 to the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Mrs. Dent Harrison, welfare convener, mentioned that requests for help of all kinds had been noticeably fewer. However, there were still several families of veterans of the regiment requiring help of one kind or another. Assistance rendered to these families consisted, where necessary, of grocery and meat orders, as well as clothing. A Christmas dinner was sent to nine families (consisting of 39 persons), and the children of each family were given a gayly wrapped gift. Special attention was drawn by Mrs. Harrison to the continuous help given to their welfare cases, by the Canadian Red Cross Society, the Army Benevolent Fund, the Canadian Legion, and the Social Service Workers of the various D.V.A. Hospitals and Welfare Agencies.

The sewing group, which had been convened by Mrs. G. J. House, supplied a number of garments and knitted articles to the Protestant Foster Home.

Mrs. M. Brickman told of her visits every two weeks to R.M.R. veterans in hospital, when she distributed cigarettes. She also gave her report as tea convener, tea having served at all meetings.

Publicity convener, Mrs. M. Allan Jamieson, spoke briefly, and Mrs. D. S. MacRitchie gave a vote of thanks to the officers for their

Two Junior Models Of Recent Fashion Show To Play In Movies

As an aftermath of the fashion show held last week in Victoria Hall, all the smart young misses, we hear, are mulling for the Speirs-Miller Studios to train as models. Betty Speirs reports that two of the junior stars of the fashion show, Gregory Gandy and Pauline Dalay, have been signed for a Canadian movie to be made in Montreal shortly. Incidentally, in the audience at the show was one of America's top commercial photographers, who flew to Paris last year to cover the world-wide fashion show there. He has stated that the local young models delighted him and that he would say confidently that the top ten are qualified to take any modelling assignment.

Young Classical Ballet Dancers Win Acclaim At Woman's Club

The Notre Dame de Grace Women's Club enjoyed an afternoon of Ballet at Victoria Hall, Friday, when a delightful programme was presented by the Montreal Junior and Senior Ballet Companies.

President of the Club, Mrs. K. E. Norris, introduced Eleanor Moore-Ashton, directress and choreographer of the companies, who gave a brief talk on the history and background of Ballet and then introduced talented young Susan Crawford who demonstrated the laws of ballet as Mrs. Ashton explained the difficulties of such a demanding art.

The Senior Company presented a charming "Piece de Resistance" entitled "Dresden Figurines," beautifully costumed.

Following this was the Junior Company in the most familiar musical of the "Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikowsky; including Children's Dance, Around the Christmas Tree, The Russian Doll, The Sugar Plum Fairy, The Trepak, The Arabian Dance, The Chinese Dance, The Dance of the Flutes and the Dance of the Flowers. This suite of dances brought to the fore children of amazing talent who, as the directress pointed out, were scholarship pupils taken from the various dance projects. The costumes were truly attractive.

Next came "Chopinesque," a ballet after Fokine's "Les Sylphides," a romantic reverie in long white classical tu-tus. Here the Senior Ballet danced through the intricate steps of waltz, preludes and mazurka of the famed composer, Chopin. Several outstanding solos were executed. Among those were Vanda Intini, Susan Crawford and Sylvia Matuchezensky who were just last week auditioned by Mary Skeapigg, Ballet Mistress of Sadlers Wells Co., who is recommending them to Arnold Haskell for acceptance into their famed school; also Joan Ryan who is now teaching in one of Mrs. Ashton's projects and last year won the Les Amies Ballet Contest and Bill Madigan and Margaret Trotter who offered a romantic "pas de deux."

Bill Madigan is leaving shortly for a six months partial scholar-

C. A. C. Reports

... Price Control In Spotlight ...

Many questions concerning present conditions come to the Canadian Association of Consumers. One which is most frequently asked is "How does C.A.C. feel about Price Controls?" At the National Annual Meeting held in Toronto last Fall, the delegates were not in favour of controls right across the board. This opinion was repeated in a recent National newsletter, and has drawn some rather strong criticism from some of the organizations with which C.A.C. is associated.

The right to express criticism is a natural one, just as is the right to an independent opinion. Our Canadian economy is made up of many different and often conflicting interests. With a membership which is composed of housewives from all walks of life, one of C.A.C.'s greatest problems is to give fair voice to all interests without becoming the mouthpiece of any particular one. And of course any point of view thus given by C.A.C., cannot hope to please all of the people all of the time. However, with due regard to all the circumstances, and allowing for recent developments, here is what the Canadian Association of Consumers thinks of Price Controls at this time.

Cost of Price Controls

C.A.C. does not believe that you can get something for nothing. The cost of anything has to be paid and it can only be paid by the people. To freeze prices you must have control over all the ingredients which make up the prices. This includes raw materials, some of which may not originate in Canada at all. Then control must also include subsidies, by which the Government pays part of the cost of the imported material, and spreads the cost out as more taxes. Controls must also include wages, and all the processes of manufacture and distribution. The cost of such control is high, thousands of new government employees must be hired, offices opened, and all this complicated machinery must be charged to the tax-payer who is now facing the rising bill for preparedness. As a "defence economy" increasingly prevails over "a peacetime economy" we reach the state in which consumer dollars try to buy in a market which has less and less consumer goods to offer. Controls are a lid on this steam of increased demand for lessened amount of goods. Sooner or later we have to face the result when this lid finally blows off. War-time controls did produce a stable economy during the most critical war years, but the results of the lid blowing off have been before us for the past five years.

So, with all things considered, C.A.C. does not want to see this expensive, and often futile, method adopted yet. However all wise men and women have to change their views with changed conditions, and C.A.C. does recognize that controls may have to come some day. One thing could be stressed though — how soon such controls must come, or how stringent it must be, depends on Canadians

Heart-Shaped Cake is Novel Bridge Dessert

Red for true love, white for loyalty, are party colors on St. Valentine's day. The festive table can go all out in sentiment with figurines, flowers, ribbons and lace doilies.

Here are directions for decorating the ideal cake for a Valentine bridge luncheon or buffet supper.

SWEETHEART CAKE

To make a heart-shaped cake cut a heart pattern in cardboard and trim baked layer cake to fit. Or use the heart-shaped layer pans which are available. For these use your favorite white cake recipe which fills two 9" layer pans. For marbled effect tint one-third of the batter with 4-5 drops of red food coloring and swirl it in the partially filled cake pans.

Cake Decoration: Fill cake with almond cream filling and frost with butter icing. If you're good with the decorating tube here's the place to lavish roses and sentiment. Or fill and frost cake with Seven-Minute or boiled frosting. Place a ruff of lace paper doilies around the cake.

To Ornament: (1) Crush red and white peppermint candy and cover the sides of the cake. Outline an arrow on the top with silver dragees and fill with crushed candy.

(2) Make a "real" nosegay of red carnations and green leaves to place on cake just before serving.

(3) On top of the cake outline a heart in the frosting with a toothpick. Melt ¼ cup red currant jelly. Cool to lukewarm and use to fill heart on top of cake spreading evenly. Sprinkle cocoanut around sides of cake and on top right around the jelly heart.

themselves — on the restraint with which our business interests handle a diminishing supply of consumer goods, and on the wisdom with which the average consumer uses his (or her) buying dollar.

Did You Know Department

Have you ever, like this scribe, questioned some of the conclusions arrived at by the Dominion Cost of Living Index? Well the National Officers of the Canadian Association of Consumers had a chance last month of discussing the Index with the officials of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. While the discussion was unofficial, it did give C.A.C. a change to suggest ways of improving the index, and also means by which it might be more clearly understood by the average homemaker. We hope that some of these suggestions may receive serious consideration in improving the Cost-of-living Index. Wouldn't it be nice if we could improve the cost of living situation itself as easily?

Much Silk Seen Again In This Year's Fashions

Silk comes back into the fashion picture to everyone's satisfaction. Silks that are heavy and elegant, such as the ottomans with their wide wailes; silk mohairs that delighted the ladies who belonged to the horse and buggy era prove equally practical for wear in driving a car; silk suitings adorn every collection many of them fine Italian silks, heavy or sheer as the mood demands. There are also raw silk plaids from Siam in all their burning sun-lit colors. Textured nubby silks, too, hand-woven and bordered in gold and silver vie with a creamy silk covert, smoothness itself.

Where there is no vision, the people perish.

Leader-Graduation Exercises Open C.G.I.T. Week In Quebec

Completing a two-year study course, the first leader-graduates of the Canadian Girls in Training were presented with their diplomas at a banquet held Friday evening in Eaton's ninth-floor restaurant.

Chairman of the event, which opened C.G.I.T. week in Quebec, was Mrs. Norman Dunlop, Chairman of the Canadian Girls in Training Board of the Province of Quebec, and a resident of Crawford Park.

During the banquet a toast to the church was proposed by Miss Barbara Fasmore of Verdun who is president of C.G.I.T. in Quebec. In replying to the toast, Rev. McMurray, of Wesley United Church, President of the Religious Education Council of Quebec, spoke of the church as a spiritual house made up of living stones. He urged the C.G.I.T. members to be "living stones built up into that spiritual house we call the church." The toast to the leaders, made by Miss Linda Calder, president of the Senior Council, was answered by Mrs. W. D. Day, chairman of the Leader's Council.

Miss Elizabeth Moffett and Miss Lois MacKenzie led a sing-song, after which followed the graduation ceremony. Miss Daisy MacNeill, girls' work secretary for Quebec C.G.I.T., made the introductions, stressing the fact that this was the first such group in the Province. Miss Audrey Pope, vice-president of Quebec C.G.I.T., led the "C.G.I.T. Purpose" reading. Mrs. Donald Morrison reviewed the history of the organization and Mrs. Dorothy Hoult, president of the Leader-Grads, whose daugh-

Ste. Adele Carnival Includes Outdoor Show Of New Ski Fashions

A fashion show was held Saturday in conjunction with the Ste. Adele Carnival. Irving of Montreal, famous ski clothes designer, showed some of his newest creations. This fashion show was unique as it was held outdoors with a beautiful setting created by the Ste. Adele Lodge, with the huge Ice Palace, especially constructed for the Carnival, as background. A large crowd was on hand.

This is also the first Fashion Show where a complete line of children's ski clothes was shown.

Highlights of Irving's ski fashions were a gold and brown two-tone ski suit with dolman sleeves for action and an aqua suit with black stripe down the back drew considerable attention. Bright shades were the vogue with dusty pink, British tan and lovet green being featured. Children's styles set the pace with Irving's latest creation in weathercloth ski jacket with contrasting band embroidered with Swiss motif.

Conveners of this event are Miss M. Milloy and Mrs. R. C. Walker. Those pouring tea will be Mrs. R. D. Harkness, Mrs. E. G. Weekes, Mrs. M. G. Evans, and Mrs. K. P. MacPherson.

The proceeds from this event will be used for the welfare work of the auxiliary, including provision of comforts for Signals' personnel serving in Canada's Special Force.

For your VALENTINE

True love knots offer the hostess something appropriate and novel to serve at the valentine affair. Serve them instead of cookies.

Beat two eggs. Mix with the eggs two teaspoons of sugar, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of vanilla, and one-fourth cup of finely chopped peanuts. Add two cups of flour and mix to a stiff dough. Knead lightly on a floured board and roll out about a quarter of an inch thick. Flour a knife and cut the dough into ribbons an inch wide and four or five inches long. Tie each one loosely into knot and fry in deep fat a rich golden brown. Before serving dust with powdered sugar.

Here is a bitter-sweet dessert that is guaranteed to make you his Valentine.

Sherried Chocolate Custard Ring

Three and one-half cups milk, 2 (1-ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate, ½ cup sugar, dash of salt, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ½ cup sherry wine or if desired, sherry may be omitted and an additional ½ cup milk may be used, 6 eggs, slightly beaten.

Place the milk, chocolate, sugar, salt and cinnamon in a saucepan; stir over very low heat until the chocolate melts and milk reaches scalding point; beat with a rotary beater until well blended.

Remove from heat; stir in sherry or milk. Gradually add this mixture to the slightly beaten eggs. Pour into a greased 1½-quart ring mold, set in a shallow pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 1 hour, or until a knife inserted in the custard comes out clean.

Chill. Unmold and fill center with sherry-flavored whipped cream (whip 1 cup heavy cream and fold in 1 tablespoon sherry wine if desired.) Sprinkle cream with cinnamon.

meet the manager!"

When you take over the farm, one of these days, you'll want to talk to him. You can discuss your affairs in a friendly way, as I have done. And you'll find he knows a lot.

He knows we farmers need bank credit—sometimes to put in a crop, sometimes to take off a harvest. If we need market information, he can get it for us.

Remember when we electrified the farm? Our bank manager made me the loan. He's backed us up that way for years, helping us to improve our stock, increase production.

Let's Eat

By IDA BAILEY ALLEN

"Many homemakers are complaining about the beef these days." "But, madame, you cannot turn out a tasty dish without intelligent cooking, no matter what grade of meat you buy," remarked the chef. "As a matter of fact, the available beef is as good as ever. Prime beef was seldom sold to retail meat stores; it was used by the big hotels and restaurants for expensive steaks and filet mignon.

"In the new grading change, the beef called 'choice' is now merged under the name 'prime,' which will make more 'prime' beef available to the homemaker. The top half of the grade called 'good' has now been moved up to 'choice.'

Tomorrow's Dinner

Grapefruit Sections
Casserole of Beef
Creamed Peas
Cabbage Orange Salad
Gingerbread Squares Cheese
Coffee, Tea or Milk

And the rest of the meat graded 'good' is still 'good.'

For Armed Forces

"The net of the story is this, chef. With all the mumbo jumbo of grades, only about a fourth of our beef is government graded. This includes that for the armed forces. Three-fourths is not graded directly by the government, but is sold under the brand name of the packers who follow the government gradings. The ultimate tenderness and palatability of any meat dish depends upon choosing the right cut of meat for the type of dish to be served, and the right way of preparing it."

"Now you have it, madame. There is always a way to make tough meat more tender."

Casserole of Beef

Order 2 lbs. chuck or round of beef, and cut in serving sized pieces. Dust on both sides with 2 tbsp. flour and brown in 2 tbsp. drippings. When almost browned, add ½ c. chopped onions, 1 c. fine-diced yellow turnip, and 1 c. fine-diced carrots. Let the vegetables brown slightly. Then place in alternating layers in a casserole with 1½ c. spaghetti (broken in small pieces). To 3 c. boiling water add 1½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, 2 bouillon cubes or envelopes broth powder and ¼ tsp. thyme. Cover and bake about 2 hrs. in a slow oven, 325-350 F., or until the meat is fork-tender. If after 2 hrs. the casserole is too dry, add a little more boiling water.

Cabbage Orange Salad

Combine 3 c. tender crisp cabbage with 1 c. coarse-shredded orange sections; put together with French dressing.

The dogs bark, but the caravan goes on. — Indian Proverb.

JOHNNY HOTFOOT SAYS:

"This is important to COKE USERS"

One thing is essential when heating with coke—
HEAP THE FIREPOT FULL!

Lasalle Coke—clean and light—needs just a little different treatment from unrefined fuels, but no extra attention. It is a little bulkier than coal and must be fired "deeper" to provide the same weight of fuel in the firebox for a long-lasting fire. If you keep a "deep" fire, draft regulation is simplified and you will find coke lasts at least as long, ton for ton, as other solid fuels. Follow this method and you are sure of:

- * Steady and abundant heat.
- * Ease of handling and control.
- * Economy of operation.

If you have the slightest difficulty, take advantage of the Lasalle Customer-Service — it is absolutely free. Whether you obtain coke from your dealer or direct, you are entitled to consultation with one of our experts on your heating problem. He will show you how simple it is to have heating satisfaction with this uniform, modern fuel.

A phone call to your dealer or the Lasalle Service Department, MA. 6221, will bring a service man promptly to your door, at no cost to you.

We repeat:

Lana Turner and Betty Grable Starring at Westmount Sunday

Co-starred with Ray Milland, the more glamorous than ever Lana Turner has a tailor-made role as the heroine of M-G-M's "A Life of Her Own," which starts Sunday at the Westmount Theatre.

The part of the smalltown girl who fights her way to success as a New York model gives the dynamic Miss Turner not only an opportunity to reveal that famous face and figure in a dazzling series of tomorrow's fashions but also affords her the finest acting part of her career.

In the new picture she is seen as Lily James, who crashes the gates of one of the big town's best-known model agencies, gets to the top fast and then finds she has to fight off the "wolves". In the process she also finds out what happens when a beautiful model tries to burn the candle at both ends, in the person of the fading Mary Ashlon, who jumps to her death from a hotel window.

Lily, determined not to repeat the mistakes of the unfortunate Mary, is able to ward off the amorous advances of the latter's ex-boy friend but meets her Waterloo when she falls head-over-heels in love with the attractive Steve Harleigh. The hitch is that Steve has an invalid wife. Lily's resolve to take Steve away from Nora, the dramatic meeting between the two women and the resultant climax make for a story that captures and holds your interest.

Added Attraction

One of the season's most delightful musicals, "My Blue Heaven," co-starring Betty Grable and Dan Dailey, is the added attraction at the Westmount Theatre. When Betty Grable and Dan Dailey get together, they light up the screen with sparkle. And that is just what "My Blue Heaven" is, a sparkling Technicolor entertainment.

One prime reason "My Blue Heaven" is such a satisfying show is that the eight new songs which comprise the Harold Arlen-Ralph Blane score rank among the best composed for a movie musical. Another, and even more unusual asset for a musical, "My Blue Heaven" has a story that is both comic and tender and with enough heart appeal for a topflight non-musical film.

The picture casts Miss Grable and Dailey as a celebrated husband-and-wife team of radio entertainers. It moves smoothly

"Blood Wedding" To Be MRT's Studio Offering

Lorca's "Blood Wedding," which the Montreal Repertory Theatre presents as its second Studio offering of the season, will open at 8.45 p.m., next Thursday, in the Guy Street Playhouse, and will run until Saturday. This Spanish play is being given twice this winter in Montreal — the English translation next week under the direction of Myron Galloway, and the French translation in March, when it will be produced by Le Rideau Vert, directed by Yvette Brind'amour.

M.R.T. has an interesting cast of players for "Blood Wedding": the Groom, Jan Schwartz, who has had five years of professional experience in Poland, and who appeared in C.A.T.'s "Happy Birthday" last summer; the Mother, Martta Ensio, whose professional experience was in Finland, and who played with the Boston Tributary Theatre; the Bride, Joan Blackman, who has played with C.A.T., at Braemanor, and earlier this season in "Goodbye, My Fancy" with M.R.T.; Leonardo, Donald Wilson, who has played at Trinity College, Bishop's University and McGill Theatre in Round; Beggar Woman, Pauline Trehub, who has appeared in many Y.M.H.A. productions, as well as with M.R.T.; the Mother-in-law, Marian Rosenzweig, who has played and directed in Pennsylvania and Ohio, but is new to Montreal; the Father, Leslie Roscoe, who won the male acting award last year in the Western Quebec Regional Drama Festival and appeared in M.R.T.'s "The Infernal Machine"; the Wife, Elizabeth Christensen, who has played with the Saint John Theatre Guild and in two previous Studio productions at M.R.T.; the Moon, Adelaide Smith, who has played many times with M.R.T., with the Shakespeare Society, the Open-Air Playhouse and the Lakeshore Summer Theatre.

Other roles will be played by: Bertha Merovitz, Mathilde Hanson, Rita Roy, Mary Bampton, Sheila Boland, Stella Hopkins, Muriel Haltrecht, Bernard Lafond, Reginald Groome, Brahm Feldman.

George Barnes, top photographer on George Stevens' "Something to Live For" for Paramount, won an Academy award for his photography of "Rebecca." Joan Fontaine was starred in both pictures.

"Three Little Words" Starts Saturday At Monkland

Fred Astaire, Vera-Ellen, Arlene Dahl and Red Skelton form the happy-go-lucky quartet of "Three Little Words," M-G-M's star-packed Technicolor musical based on the lives and music of Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby, who gave America some of its most beloved popular songs. The new offering comes to the Monkland screen Saturday till Tuesday with the added mystery feature that will keep you spellbound until the end. It's "Shadow on the Wall", starring your favorite stars, Ann Sothern, Zachary Scott and the child wonder, Gigi Perreau.

With Fred Astaire and Vera-Ellen and with Red Skelton in his first straight character role, and with such other luminaries as Arlene Dahl, Keenan Wynn, Gloria De Haven and Phil Regan adding to the parade of star talent, "Three Little Words" offers . . . "Three Little Words" starts at the Monkland Theatre Saturday

Latest of the popular biographical tuners, the new offering is based on the lives and songs of Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby, two of America's most successful composers. The story traces the careers of the songwriters from their first meeting in a Coney Island beer garden, where Harry Ruby (Skelton) bungles up Bert Kalmar's (Astaire) magician act, and continues with their happy efforts as collaborators despite such diversions as Ruby's passion for baseball and Kalmar's propensity for legerdemain. With their rise to phenomenal success as writers of popular songs, Broadway and London stage hits and Hollywood musicals, is the story of their respective romances. Kalmar marries his Palace Theater dancing partner, Jessie Brown (Vera-Ellen), and Ruby makes film star Eileen Percy (Arlene Dahl) his wife. The team breaks up due to a quarrel over a play written by Kalmar, but through the efforts of their wives, Kalmar and Ruby are reunited to bring forth their biggest song hit of them all, "Three Little Words," in the picture's rousing finale.

ADDED FEATURE

From the very first moments that Dell Faring murders Celia, the sister who has taken everything away from her, and then lets the blame fall on Celia's husband, unaware of a secret witness in the person of a six-year-old child, "Shadow on the Wall" holds the spectator in a relentless grip of suspense and excitement.

The M-G-M mystery-drama is one of the most unusual to come out of Hollywood. First of all, it breaks away from the accepted who-dun-it tradition of not letting the audience know who the criminal is until the final reel. Secondly, it engenders suspense in the characterization of a little child whose mind has become unhinged in the shock of witnessing a crime. The attempts of the murderer to put this little witness out of the way balanced against the efforts of a skilled psychiatrist to restore the child's memory and thus ferret out the true criminal gives the story its emotional validity and dramatic wallop.

The departure from the familiar is also stressed in the casting of "Shadow on the Wall." Ann Sothern, famous for her light comedy roles, leaves the laughs behind for the first time to play the sinister role of the murderess and proves herself as adept at straight drama as she is in the wisecracking field. Zachary Scott, usually cast as a "heel," this time plays the unjustly accused husband.

Alexis Smith in Cast "Here Comes the Groom"

Alexis Smith, the beautiful blonde, recently was signed to a top role in Frank Capra's "Here Comes the Groom" at Paramount. Bing Crosby, Jane Wyman and Franchot Tone are co-starred in this light romantic drama which is set for immediate start.

Miss Smith will play the part of "Winifred Stanley," cousin of the wealthy Tone, and becomes involved in the triangle between Crosby, Miss Wyman and Tone.

Alexis has been popular on the screen for the past several years. Her recent picture appearances include "Undercover Girl," "Wyoming Mail," "Montana" and "Any Number Can Play."

Capra will be both the producer and director of "Here Comes the Groom." Irving Asher is associate producer.

Betty Grable's "Million Dollar Legs" are displayed in a production scene from the Twentieth Century-Fox Technicolor musical, "My Blue Heaven," in which she is co-starred with Dan Dailey at the Westmount Theatre on Sunday.

RETURNS EAST

When Arleen Whelan completed her starring role with John Payne and Dennis O'Keefe in Pine-Thomas' "Passage West," Paramount Technicolor release, she returned to New York, where she lives between pictures. Her husband is an executive with Paramount in New York.

SUPERSTITIOUS

Gertrude Berg, who created "Molly Goldberg" 21 years ago and has been playing it ever since, brought her stage superstitions to Hollywood when she made her debut in Paramount's "The Goldbergs." Mrs. Berg insists all members of her cast step onto the stage with their right foot first.

Hussars Will Assist In Army Ski Race

Maj. K. R. Wigg has been appointed president of the 6th DCR-CH Officers Mess. In addition to entering two four man teams, the 6th Hussars are assisting with the radio network which will check the course of the Quebec Command's Cross-Country Ski Race. The race will be held Sunday, Feb. 11, over a 21½ mile course starting at Sun Valley Farm near Ste. Adele, to Morin Heights, from there to St. Sauveur, to Lesage and finally to St. Jerome.

Weatherman Disrupts Local Puck Schedules

The weather man hasn't been very co-operative as far as Westmount Hockey Leagues are concerned. The only groups that are keeping up with their schedules are Bantam A and B. Intermediate are away behind 10 postponed games to be played. If the weather holds up, it is hoped to play some of them before the end of next week.

Standings are as follows:

Ave. Stars (Mid)	2	0	0	4	3	4

Powder Puffs Beat Bobby Soxers In St. Paul's Hockey Classic

Coach Andy McGillis ventured out into a new sports promotional field Monday when he staged a hockey battle of the weaker sexes on the school rink. Two teams selected from St. Paul's Academy were organized under the names of Powder Puffs and Bobby Soxers and were brought into competition in a gigantic battle for hockey supremacy. The game was witnessed by practically the entire student body and staff. Coach McGillis is thinking of putting one of these games on as a preliminary to a senior game, to draw the male members of the staff to support his senior club.

The Powder Puffs, under acting coach Mario Chartrand, blasted their way to a 4 to 2 victory over Kevin Smart's Bobby Soxers. Paul Ramsay, who was to coach the Powder Puff gals, was absent due to some mysterious disease unknown to the medical profession. After game reports from Paul's bedside revealed that he was well on the road to recovery.

GOOD GAME

The gals from St. Paul's put on a surprisingly good game and their efforts were cheered by a couple of hundred enthusiastic supporters. A few of the girls showed more pep than some members of the Bantam school team showed against William Dawson, in their last game. The Smart twins, Margaret and Carolyn, were rivals for the big contest and both played a grand game, showing a cleverness in finding the opening in the nets for goals, that put big brother Buster to shame. It wouldn't be a bad idea to form a senior line with the cute young Smart twins and brother Buster who now patrols left wing for the seniors. Margaret and Carolyn could supply the scoring punch, with Buster left to do the back-checking.

WALSH, RAMSEY REF.

Neil Walsh and Gerry Ramsey acted in capacity as referees and even though confused as much as the girls as to the purpose of the blue lines on the ice, managed to keep the game in hand with no free for alls breaking out. Pretty Miss Ann Mulligan, who played a bruising game on defence for the Bobby Soxers, feels that Neil missed a puck that slipped through Margo Conroy, the shutout Queen of the Powder Puffs. Mary Kay Martin, who is all in favor of putting the nets in the corner of the rink, was in the clear on a number of breakaways, only to

Three Third Period Goals Give Locals 4-4 Stalemate

St. Leo's Seniors picked up a valuable point in the league standing last week at the Verdun Auditorium, when they rallied in the last period for three goals to wipe out a two goal deficit, and earn a 4 to 4 draw with D'arcy McGee, present senior city hockey champions. The Academites, running true to form of previous games, allowed the opposition to jump into a fast two goal lead before settling down to cut the margin down and in this respect were given some unexpected help from the Double Blue goalie who fanned on a couple of soft shots.

It is becoming more apparent with each game played, that a few of the Academy boys are weak on positional hockey and unless they smarten up at the beginning of each game to cover their men inside their own blue line, a lot more goals will be scored in the same fashion. Peter Grant, Tommy Grant and Neil Walsh are the chief offenders at wandering around the ice without a thought about covering up inside their defensive zone. Richard Goulet, Buster Smart, Peter Grant and Ray Losito were the scorers for the home club in this game.

This afternoon at Verdun Auditorium, St. Leo's will engage the fast stepping Verdun High aggregation, in a game that will have an important bearing on the league standing.

Sport Shorts

The Bantams suffered a 2 to 0 shutout at the hands of William Dawson, in their most recent league game. It was a poor display of hockey by the Westmounters. The first string line of Wayne Hibbard, Mario Chartrand and Grant Gill showed but little hustle from the outset and after a few short whirls in the beginning of the game, were benched for most of the contest. Wayne Hibbard, who showed great promise as an up and coming athlete during the football season, is now the hockey team's biggest disappointment and he would do well to throw away those football clippings or exchange them for a few well needed goals on his Bantam team. Dick Ryan, Pierre Bouchard and Dave Orr were the pick of the Saints in this game.

The team has a chance to redeem themselves this Saturday morning, when they tangle with Westmount High at Lachine Arena.

Brother Paul will bring his classy Catholic High squad to Lachine Arena tomorrow morning for an exhibition game with the Seniors. The Black and White are rated the team to beat for top hockey honors in the G.M.I.A.A.

Brenda Guilfoyle is improving fast with the Bantam Q.A.H.A. team and stands a good chance of moving up to the school Bantams before long.

Local Gym Team Will Compete In City Championship

Members of the Gymnastic Team from Westmount Y.M.C.A. are in for plenty of action over the weekend. Representatives of the "Y" Club will be entered in the City Open Championships, to be held at McGill Sir Arthur Currie Gymnasium on Saturday afternoon; a group will be travelling to Macdonald College Saturday night to participate in the Gymnastic Display at Macdonald's Athletic Night; and the entire Club will be entered in the City-wide Inter-"Y" Meet, to be held at Central "Y" on Monday at 7.30 p.m.

In the City Open Championships, which are sanctioned by the Quebec Branch of the A.A.U. of C., Westmount Club will send Don LeClair and John Cooper as part of the Y.M.C.A. Team entered in the Meet. Other members of the Team are Gordon and Len Mather of International "Y" and Jack King of Central "Y". The Team held its final work-out at Westmount "Y" Thursday night, and is confident of a good showing on Saturday afternoon.

Monday night will see every member of the Westmount "Y" Gymnastic Club entered in the City-wide "Y" Meet at Central "Y". There will be championships declared in the Novice and Senior divisions. In both meets, spectators are welcomed — the McGill meet is scheduled to get under way at 2.30 and the "Y" meet at 7.30 p.m.

WHS Whitewashed Montreal Wins 5-0

Scoring three goals in the first period and two in the last, Montreal High School blanked Westmount High 5 to 0 in a dull High School Senior "A" hockey game at Verdun yesterday.

Westmount was outclassed as Jim Eaton's High School, playing without the services of Ron Sheppard, clicked for the first time this season.

Using two new lines and four defencemen, Montreal High sewed up the game as early as the four minute mark of the first period. Ted Theodore scored at 4.10 on a deflection from Jack Stravides' shot.

Billy Hutton added another at 9.30. A minute later, Ron Sinodinos broke away from a Westmount ganging attack to score unassisted.

The middle frame was dull, enlivened only by a verbal duel between Westmount's Charlie Baillie and Sinodinos. Baillie was hit with a minor penalty and then a misconduct for using abusive language.

Max Black added the two last goals in the third, both on passing plays with Sinodinos.

Wes Whelan in Montreal's nets had little work and he was given good protection by the blueline defenders and a few back-checking forwards. The Westmount defence was weak with Johnny Swain making some good saves in the nets.

Bob Forrest, Fred Hofman and Bill Williams were best for Westmount with the latter turning in an effective two-way game.

First Period
1—Mont. High: Theodore (Stravides) 4.10
2—Mont. High: Hutton (Stewart) 9.30
3—Mont. High: Sinodinos 10.55
Penalties: Best, Williams.

Second Period
Scoring: None.
Penalties: Baillie (minor and misconduct), Williams, Petrie.

Third Period
4—Mont. High: Black (Sinodinos) 5.40
5—Mont. High: Black (Sinodinos) 6.23
Penalty: Black.

Westmount High Girls Win Basketball Title

Westmount High Senior "A" and "B" girls basketball teams are western champions. They clinched the title by virtue of a double victory over Montreal West on Thursday.

The "A" team triumphed 21 to 13 while the "B" squad coasted to a 19-9 win.

Point getters for the "A" team were: Carol Reynolds who was outstanding with 7 pts., Frances Williams 5, Pat Earl 3, Elizabeth Loebel 3, Pat Mowat 2 and Shirley Williams 1. Scorers for the "B" team were Nina Chadwick and Carol Fisch who carried the brunt of the attack with 9 and 8 points respectively. Cairine Gilmour and Mimi Pascal each notched a free shot.

Victories to make it three in a row

The play-off date with the eastern district champs has not yet been determined but will take place in the near future in a sudden death game on a neutral floor.

Last year Westmount Senior "A" lost out to Verdun in the city finals by a 20 to 13 count.

Boys Basketball

Westmount High defeated Catholic High last Wednesday on the latter's floor by 64-52.

Ian MacIntosh and Bud Naismith scored 20 and 18 with Andy Cote and Doug Reed getting 8 and 9 points respectively. Skinner, Klein, Creamer and Liddell scored the balance of 9 points between them.

Westmount Downs Loyola

On Wednesday Westmount kept up their unbroken stretch of victories to make it threerein a row when they took Loyola into camp by a 52-49 score.

Loyola led at half time by 39-18.

The narrow gym which has a tile floor bothered the Westmount players somewhat but in the closing frame Westmount mastered the technique of playing on the smaller surface and ran in enough points to edge out the west end college by 3 points.

Denny Skinner's kid brother followed in his brother's footsteps teaming up with Ian MacIntosh to score 14 points each.

Andy Cote was third in line with 7 pts, Doug Reed and Bud Naismith got 5 each. Mitch Klein, Nelson Creamer, Jim Liddell got the remaining 7 points between them.

Westmount are now in second place in the league standing one point behind Montreal High the leaders.

It should be noted here that Westmount edged out Montreal Montreal two weeks ago in a thrilling game by the margin of 33-32.

Senior "A" Westmount tied R.M.C. in an exhibition played on the Junior High floor on Saturday afternoon the score being 39 all. Ian MacIntosh scored with 25 seconds to go and tallied the winning basket 2 seconds from the final whistle to give his team a tie score. R.M.C. were all a little older than our boys being first year college men so the score is a moral victory for Westmount.

Westmount's next game takes place today against Baron Byng at Queen's School, starting time 4 p.m.

Junior Hockey

Westmount has lost only one game to date. Last week against Mount Royal High, Westmount won by 4 to 2.

Apostolatos, Besant, Ito and Wright were standouts for Westmount each getting a goal with Besant also getting an assist.

Two exhibition games were played during the past week. Loyola won the first by 3 to 1, Ito getting Westmount's sole marker. Lachine was swamped 5 to 1 in the second exhibition with Southward and Ito getting two goals each and Langshaw the fifth.

Westmount's next game is at
