THE CHRISTIAN LADIES of Montreal feeling that little had been done on part for the heathen women of foreign lands in the women's Board at Missions. The object of this society is to increase our own interest in missions and to help the heathen women to escape from a misery. Especially have we chosen India as our field of action. In this country there are heathen ladies in the different towns in the Dominion of Mysore in Board Societies. The yearly payment of $1.00 enables us to send a lady to the United States to study to talk of or read matters of interest regarding the heathen women. We have also supported forty-four scholars being trained in the Department of their married) in Southern India. A little money is also sent to the heathen ladies in Mysore which tend to the formation of a Board Society. Much of the money is also sent to the heathen ladies in Mysore which tend to the formation of a Board Society. Much of the money is also sent to the heathen ladies in Mysore which tend to the formation of a Board Society.
