RECREATION IS W. M. A. TOPIC

Will Discuss Planned Program At Spring Meeting Tuesday

CHRISTOPHER ELLIS

R. S. WHITE

MRS. JOHN O'N GALLERY

LEONARD W. TAYLOR

The four people pictured above will all take part in the Westmount Municipal Association Spring Meeting to be held Tuesday in Victoria Hall. Christopher Ellis will act as master of ceremonies and the other three will be speakers.

The Westmount Municipal Association Spring Meeting to be held Tuesday night in Victoria Hall, at 8.15 p.m., will take the form of an open forum and discussion will be centred around the subject of "Recreation in Westmount". Master of ceremonies for the occasion will be Christopher Ellis, well known in the district for his ability to handle such discussions.

Principal speakers at the meeting will be R. S. White, who will speak on "Community Recreation"; Mrs. John O'N. Gallery, whose subject will be "An Observer's Viewpoint"; and Leonard W. Taylor, speaking on "Benefits of a Co-ordinated Policy".

Following the speakers will be a question period open to those in attendance. Captain William Bowie of the Parks and Playgrounds Department of Welfare Federation will assist in this by acting as technical advisor. He is well qualified for this position as his knowledge of recreation problems is Dominion wide.

After the question period, presentations will be made to former Mayor R. P. Adams and former Aldermen G. L. Fowler, W. S. Greene, W. F. Macklaier, K.C., and J. Senecal, K.C. Rene Perrault,

More Commercial Buildings For Sherbrooke St.?

The opening of Sherbrooke street a block east and west of Greene Avenue for commercial buildings, the recent increase in business taxes, and the new Westmount business directory were all discussed Wednesday night at a general meeting of the Business Association of Westmount.

Up until the meeting the association did not have a constitution but one was drawn up and adopted Wednesday night.

It was decided that the association should write to the City Hall in forthcoming years and ask them to discuss whether or not it was necessary to raise the business taxes, before going ahead.

president of the Municipal Association, Paul Viau, president of the Business Association of Westmount, and Donald Ross, president of the Rotary Club will make the presentations which will be in the form of illuminated scrolls commemorating the service of these former members of the City Council to Westmount.

It is felt that more organization for a planned recreational program is needed in Westmount and the Municipal Association feel that the Rotary Club of Westmount will be particularly interested in the subject up for discussion because of the fact that the Rotarians are at present engaged in a drive for $103,000 to build a Unity Boys' Club clubhouse.

The recreation committee of the Municipal Association have pushed the reconditioning of the Westmount Athletic Grounds and they figure it is now time to find out what other people think and to get their ideas on what should be done about the recreational situation in this city and how.

Sub-Post Office Opens Monday At 4828 Sherbrooke

A new sub-Post Office will open at 4828 Sherbrooke Street West on Monday, according to word received from the Hon. D. C. Abbott, K.C., M.P. for Westmount-St. Antoine, and confirmed by the Post Office Department.

This ends the problem of not having a convenient place to buy stamps, etc., for west-end Westmount, after an absence of the usual postal facilities in that area for the past several weeks.

The situation was brought to Mr. Abbott's attention by the Westmount Municipal Association, who were backed by the Business Association of Westmount and several other local clubs.

The fact that the sub-station will again be in a store kills the Municipal Association's hope for a separate Post Office. However, the store proprietor is James Rooney, a veteran of the last war, who served as a sergeant with the Black Watch.

Zoning By-Laws, Electricity Rates Amended By Council

Revisions in electricity rates as effecting space heating and in the City zoning by-law regarding parking were made at the last meeting of the City Council.

A service charge of $1.33 per month per kilowatt of installed capacity will be made, starting at the first meter reading after August 1. This will especially affect householders who use electricity to heat their homes, and was decided upon as a better course of action than increasing the rate.

The extra charge was found to be a necessity when it was discovered that more people are using electricity now to heat their homes than in former years, and the extra load on the wires has made it necessary in some cases to install new equipment.

This same charge, $1.33 per month per kilowatt of installed capacity has also been put on all water heaters in excess of three kilowatts.

If a building occupies more than 2,000 square feet, it must have 200 square feet for use as parking facilities for every extra 500 feet, according to present zoning by-laws. This by-law has now been amended to include buildings occupying less than 2,000 sq. ft. The by-law now states that a commercial building occupying 2,000 sq. ft. or less must provide at least 200 sq. ft. for parking. This space can be beside, behind or inside the building.

Factories and warehouses are also affected by the amendment. Previously factories occupying

Quebec Law Incorporates Best Parts Of All Foreign Laws — Justice Collins

"To ensure the liberties of its citizens and the equality of justice, a nation must live by the rule of law," the Honourable Mr. Justice Frederick T. Collins told members of the Rotary Club of Westmount at their weekly luncheon meeting in Victoria Hall on Wednesday.

Mr. Collins' topic was "The Administration of Justice in the Province of Quebec" and he traced the history of Quebec law, saying that as arbiter of the law, the judiciary has no light weight on its shoulders.

"Many of our laws come to us from France and England," the speaker continued, "but the chief source of our law in Quebec is French. The law of France in turn was founded on the old Roman Law and upon Canon Law."

"In 1759, after the Battle of the Plains of Abraham English law was introduced into Canada. It is Teutonic in origin."

The speaker then stressed the point that Quebec law now combines the best features of all these older sets of laws. "The Civil Code of our Province incorporates concisely in its text the beneficial results of centuries of actual experience in the civil and the common law, and it constitutes for us a priceless heritage.

"In the making of these laws, race, language, religion, climatic conditions, national hopes and aspirations, wars, conquests, gov-

P. Delgado Leads Rotary; Unity Drive At $28,605

Other officers elected were Frank Kenwood, vice-president; H. McManus, honorary secretary; J. A. deLalanne, honorary treasurer; and J. P. Page, sergeant-at-arms.

J. A. deLalanne announced at the luncheon that 32 new subscriptions had come in during the week to the Unity Boys' Club Campaign which the Rotary Club of Westmount is sponsoring, raising the campaign total to $28,605 of which $3,540 is in the form of pledges.

Cash total for the past week was $1,930 and $50 in pledges.

The total amount raised as mentioned above does not include a special $15,000 gift which was received last week. Nor does it include the $72,000 raised by the Rotary Club before the campaign opened.

Monday night the battle of the century took place at Wesley United Church. Yes, it was here that those two g-r-r-eat teams, Wesley Seniors and . . . the St. Augustine's Old Boys (and we do mean OLD), clashed in a rugged, hard fought floor hockey game the likes of which we haven't seen since the last game, naturally. And also, naturally, Wesley Seniors won this game . . . they led 2-1 at the end of the first period, 7-2 at the end of the second and the final score was 10-5 for Wesley. In spite of the emphatic and vociferous goal-tending of St. Augustine's Joseph Unsworth, Wesley continued to rain pucks behind him. In fact, during the second period, five goals were scored within the space of six minutes, three of them by starry Jim Murray, who was one of the leading lights for the winners.

Scoutmaster Larry Doherty of St. Augustine's, strangely enough, was the only casualty in this epic battle . . . he went down under a particularly good and hard check, and stayed down (for a few minutes) . . . we suspect he was just trying to get a "breather". Anyway, to give credit where credit is due (if any) both teams played well and fought hard until the last whistle. The leading scorer for the evening was sharp-shooter Murray for Wesley, who counted (and we hope this is correct) seven of Wesley's ten goals. The great effort of Wesley goalie, Jim Forsyth, also deserves special commendation . . . grand goaling!

Wesley, in a grand slam return to their winning ways of previous years, also turned in an outstanding performance last week in a basketball game with Iona Seniors. They took the Iona boys into camp by a 53-11 score, being in no trouble at any time during the game. Congrats to Scoutmaster Lionel Leighton for the fine work of the Wesley Seniors . . . Lionel was just recently appointed as District Scoutmaster for Senior Scouts . . . more congrats due, and good luck, too . . . Senior Scouting has a great future ahead of it.

Man and Woman Gravely Injured Crossing Street

Major P. Lindsay Hall, 494 Lansdowne Avenue, Westmount, and Mrs. Marion D. Savage, 4557 Sherbrooke Street West, Apt. 42, crossing Decarie Blvd., from east to west opposite 5425 Decarie Blvd., were struck by an auto driven by Jean Paul Laurin at 11.10 p.m. on Friday night. Both were seriously injured and taken to the St. Mary's Hospital by ambulance, where they were given treatment by Dr. Kelly.

Examination showed Major Hall to have sustained a fractured left leg, probable fracture of the pelvis, and probable fracture of the skull. Mrs. Savage's injuries were reported as a fractured right clavicle, probable fracture of the pelvis, and probable fracture of the spine.

Constables Perlman and Lapointe investigated the accident and turned in a report with witness being named as Mrs. D. E. Harvey, of 835 Duluth Street, East.

vernments and individuals have all played a prominent part. "The constitution of Canada is partly written and partly unwritten. The unwritten constitution includes all the great landmarks in British history: the Magna Carta, the Habeas Corpus Act, etc. The written part of our constitution is found in the British North America Act.

"The emergence of Canada as an autonomous state and its entrance into the family of nations is of recent origin but it has been building for many years," the speaker continued. The development of Canadian autonomy falls into two periods. The first period commenced in 1867 with the enactment of the British North America Act and it continued till 1914. The second period, the years since 1914, are really the most momentous of any in Canadian legal and constitutional history", Mr. Collins concluded.

Hammond, showed operating expenditures amounted to $507,971.37, exceeding those of the previous year by $86,160.77, while operating revenues aggregated $436,502.25, being $70,509.28 over 1947.

Other revenue derived from Governors' Fees, Annual Subscriptions, Interest, and dividends on investments, and including the sum of $2,797.19 received from the Women's Auxiliary, totalled $7,604.80, thus resulting in a net deficit of $63,864.32, which compares with $49,329.17 in 1947.

CROSSWINDS

By Martha Cheavens

This is the story of the Reverend James Bronson, a man who wanted to give up the ministry for teaching. However, a Mr. Graham, whose son had known the Bronsons, offered to give him a vacation to reconsider his resignation. Thus the Bronsons and their four sons, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, moved to Donde, a small Texan town, and lived next door to Cenci, a little ward of Mr. Graham's.

On his arrival the town was in an uproar at the accidental murder of the sheriff, by Parfils, a Mexican. In spite of James' efforts to help him, Parfils was hanged. Bronson becomes the minister of the Little Bonne Femme, which had no rector. He preached many wonderful sermons and inspired the people so that the church membership was greatly increased.

Then Cenci was hurt, and became critically ill, this was a great shock to the Bronsons who had come to love the child. However, she does get better and they decide to adopt her. The story of James' friends, the tailor, a reporter, and an editor in the town, are interwoven with the main theme. Their faith in God was strengthened by James' interest in helping others, and his success in the Little Bonne Femme which was now his aim.

Anyone who likes stories of small town life will find Crosswinds a heartwarming tale and will want to find out what happens to Cenci, and all the other characters.

Eggs are always a bargain in food value for they are an excellent source of protein and iron and are rich in some of the vitamins. Eggs are rich in body building material for children and the health protection they offer can be enjoyed by everyone including those who must keep a careful eye on calorie consumption. Medium size eggs are a good buy, being almost as valuable nutritionally as the more expensive large or extra large variety.

Freshly fallen snow absorbs much of the sound of the warning whistle of an approaching locomotive. Under some circumstances with snow on the ground, sounds may be two or three times weaker than they would be normally.

OVER THE TOP FOR LUCKY

A high jump, but not too high for Lucky, utility Collie owned by Theodore Kasmik, Jr., of Hartford, Conn. Lucky, whose full name is Sunderland Gay Cavalier, U.D., has nine Best Obedient Dog titles to his credit. He will be seen in action here on Saturday and Sunday at the Messers Armory when the Ladies' Kennel Club of Montreal hold its 28th annual championship dog shows in aid of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind "Seeing Eye Service." Lucky has appeared in countless exhibitions including shows in Yankee Stadium and Madison Square Gardens. He has also appeared on the stage and several times on the radio and is now working on a series of films for television in which he is to be featured. He has just completed a picture "Of Light and Darkness."

Welfare Federation

Red Feather Services

Mrs. Louis Drummond, recently appointed chairman of the Women's Division for the annual Red Feather Campaign of Welfare Federation to be held this Fall, lost little time in lining up the district chairmen who will supervise the door-to-door canvass throughout the Metropolitan area. In the City of Westmount, the following ladies have already agreed to assume charge in their districts: Westmount North, Mrs. A. D. Ross and Mrs. Frank Whittall; Westmount East, Mrs. G. H. Doble and Mrs. H. K. McLean; and Westmount West, Lady Aylmer.

Claude S. Richardson, K. C.,

chairman of the Board of Directors of Welfare Federation, and Charles N. Gerard Perrault Shows Art Works

An attractive collection of his recent work is being shown by Gerard Perrault at his home on Grosvenor Avenue. It includes pictures in oil and water colour, and bookbindings.

He has painted scenes in the Laurentians, and a few in other places near Montreal, with a difference of spirit in the oil pictures and the water colours. The oil pictures show mountain scenery in moer sombre moods, while the water colours have more space and fresh air and give the Laurentian atmosphere, in summer, autumn and winter, at its best, with admirable effects of distances and skies. There are slight sketches and more finished pictures, and some of the smallest sketches are among the most successful things in the exhibition.

The bookbindings have both beauty and originality. They are made of well chosen leathers, with striking decorations made by tooling or better still, by inlaying leathers of different colours, in

John W. Yaxley Leads Canadian Philatelists

At a board of directors meeting last Saturday, John W. Yaxley, president of the Westmount Stamp Club, was named president of the Canadian Philatelic Society.

Appointed director for the first time the day before at the annual general meeting of the parent body, the C.P.S., Mr. Yaxley acted as host for a three-day joint convention and exhibition in Victoria Hall, staged by the Westmount Club.

The Unity Boys' Club Building Fund is making an appeal for $175,000

This money is to be used to erect a Boys' Club in the Greene Ave.—St. Antoine St. district which will offer haven, companionship, planned recreational and educational activities and vocational guidance to boys unable to get

The project is designed as a community venture — to give guidance and privileges to those youths who, until now, have had to spend their hours on the bleak streets in haphazard and unrewarding pursuits.

SPECIAL NOTICES

The Annual Dinner and Meeting of the Westmount Branch will be held on Thursday evening, May 5, at 6.15 p.m. Lawrence Patterson, a well-known educator, will be the guest speaker, his topic being "Schools I would like to see." There will also be a review of the past year's activities of the Branch and the presentation of the Annual Report. James Carnie, the recently appointed Executive Secretary, will be pleased to make the acquaintance of all members of the branch. Make it a point to be present.

The Thirteenth Annual Learn-to-Swim Classes will start on May 9th. Boys' lessons will be on Monday and Thursday and the girls' on Tuesday and Friday. These classes are open to children between the ages of 6 and 12 years. Bob Moffat will be the chief instructor and will have qualified swimmers and life savers for assistants.

YOUNG ADULT SECTION

With the fine weather coming up, and likely to remain one of these days, holidays and conferences are much in the news. This year members of the Westmount Branch are interested in three meetings of Young Adults which reflect the enlarging area of the Y.M.C.A. work.

The Branch Conference is planned to be held on June 5th at the Y.M.C.A. Boys' Camp Perrot. This conference will concentrate on the work of the branch throughout the past winter, the program for the coming summer, and recommendations for the following winter.

The City-Wide Young Adult Conferences will be held on June 17-19 at the Y. M. C. A. Young Adult Camp Otoreka. Members from all the branches of the Montreal Y.M.C.A. will be present and pool their experiences as well as listen to outside experts.

The Fifth National Young Adult Program Conference will be held from July 2-9 at Y. M. C. A. Young Adult Camp Lake Couchiching, Geneva Park, Ontario. This will deal with the national aspects of the Y.M.C.A. as well as bring together outstanding speakers on world affairs, Christian living, and practical programs for local branches.

Members are making their plans now to attend these events. The clubs and groups are working together to raise funds to assist those who will be their delegates to the National Conference. The support of all members and their friends in preparing briefs and participation in fund-raising activities is anticipated.

The Spring Dance to be held next Friday, May 6, will be the first of these activities. This dance will follow in our dance-of-the-month series and it promises to be one of the outstanding events. Prizes and refreshments will be blended into the smooth music of favorites. Come out at 9.30 and enjoy a full evening of fun and frolic.

With Easter and the Hobby Show following one another the Friday Social Dances may seem to have stopped—they haven't and tonight at 9.30 the regulars and the visitors and you will be out as usual. The Otoreka Camp Reunion will be taking place in the gym—the Social Dance will be upstairs as usual. The music, we are promised, will be better than usual.

The Bridge Club is continuing to grow, and it is anticipated that it will continue in full-swing all summer, as it did so successfully last year. The chief reason for this is that it offers a place where young business men and women, new to the city, can come and learn to play a popular game as well as make new friends. If you can't play—come out, we'll teach you; if you can play—come out, you can teach others.

On Tuesday at 8 the Young Men's Fellowship will hold their regular meeting. On the agenda is a table tennis tourney, and some films for seeing and discussing.

The YEBA Club will meet again in the gymnasium at 7.30 on Wednesday night. After that and their swim, the club meeting will be primarily concerned with the trip to New York which John Finland, Gordon Cummins, John Larsen and Ken Easler took over the Easter weekend. It was a real good time they had, so we hear.

A Leathercraft Club has been formed to continue the work of the leathercraft class which finished on April 13. Miss Marguerite Stewart, the instructress, who was taking a course in graduate nursing at McGill, has been moved to Toronto. The expert assistance which she gave to the members of the class is reflected in their desire to meet as usual and work co-operatively on the projects. The meetings will continue to be held on Wednesday nights at 7.30 p.m.

The evening of Dvorak and his music as presented by Margaret Irwin was greatly appreciated by members of the Music Appreciation Group last Thursday evening. The evening of Folk Songs and Music as planned by Robert McEwen to be held next Thursday evening has had to be cancelled due to the Annual Dinner and Meeting which is taking place at that time.

TODAY WE LIVE IN A GREATER CANADA

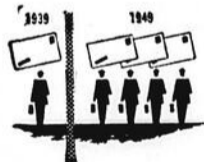

New Signs in the Sky...

A distant hum and a flashing streak in the outer sky announce another exciting Canadian achievement—a new jet plane designed and built by Canadians—one more example of the meteoric advances made by Canadian skills and manufacturing abilities:

In Canada, too, giant airliners, which have won international recognition, are now being built for the world's air routes of today and tomorrow.

Today our production—both in extent and variety—has attained heights undreamt of even ten years ago, creating new opportunities in every field of activity for the talents and enterprise of young Canadians.

Increase of air traffic: today Canada's commercial aircraft carry more than four times the number of passengers and three times the amount of mail they did in 1939.

One of a series presented by

to promote a fuller realization by Canadians of Canada's present greatness

"Countless New Opportunities..."

"I sometimes find it hard to realize the extent and rapidity of our plant's growth. It has all been based, of course, upon the tremendous expansion of Canadian industry in general, which has created countless new opportunities in every field of activity for the energy and enthusiasm of young Canadians." —says HARRY J. SEHL of Kitchener.

The development of Sehl Engineering is a typical Canadian success story. Only 14 years ago, Mr. Sehl, with one assistant, began operating a small tool and die shop in Kitchener. Its expansion has been spectacular, with new lines of production added, new departments established and new plants built. Today the company, with 90 employees, is fast becoming one of the leading metal producing concerns in the country.

Putters' Club

Monday evening brought out many of the Westmount Putters Club members for an enjoyable time at cards.

Mrs. E. Drain and W. Stott were the winners with the high scores.

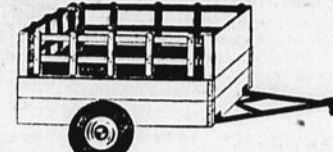

Tom Sargent was a welcome sight after his long shut-in due to his accident. His presence was missed during the winter meetings.

Next Monday will be the movies and refreshment night, and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

U.S.-CANADA ARMS CO-OPERATION

Four key officials, two Canadian and two American, have been set up as a United States-Canada Industrial Mobilization Committee. The move rounds out arrangements which the government has made for cooperation in defence with the United States. Ahead is a big job of providing arms for European countries which signed the Atlantic Pact, a bigger job of arming the democracies should war break out. The new committee is to plan things so that the resources of Canada and the United States are employed most efficiently in those tasks, as they were during the second world war. It will see to it that where Canadian industry can do an arms production job efficiently Canadian industry will be put to work. Mass production will be the method and duplication of effort is to be avoided. Some items will be produced in Canada for the forces of all the Atlantic Pact powers, some in the United States. Maximum preparedness at minimum cost is one of the purposes of the Atlantic Pact and co-operation between Canada and the United States on industrial mobilization will contribute to that end.

You Need Salvation!

"Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."
(The Bible, Acts 4:12).

Christianity, though considerable and charitable, is not spineless. "It doesn't matter in whom or what you believe, sincerity is all that counts," is not a Christian sentiment. While he must be most tolerant in matters of purely personal difference, the Christian — to be true to his confession — must be absolutely inflexible in matters of divine revelation. Here is such an utterance: "Neither is their salvation in any other!" Confessedly, by the standard of the world, there have been other great and good men, but none of them is in the class with the Lord Jesus Christ. Believers in the God of the Bible take their stand resolutely and finally on the dictum: "Beside Me there is no Saviour" (Isa 43:11).

But do we need salvation? Are we not able to save ourselves? If ever a people were self-sufficient, are not we? Both the testimony of past and present argue against us, if we think that we are adequate. As well meaning and hopeful as we are in approaching a solution to our individual and social problems, we are, for the most part, coping with forces beyond us. Even though, to concede too much, all our solutions be most logical, there is still the human equation as a dominant factor. If we cannot find — unaided by divine wisdom and power — the answer to these questions, who would dare presume that the salvation of the soul, which includes eternity as well as time, is a matter for human accomplishment? We need salvation. A topsy-turvy world shouts it, a fearful soul within us cries it and a holy God says it.

Salvation! What a word to encourage, to inspire, to bless! While there is the dark background of our need, there is the brilliant foreground of God's provision. If there is no other Saviour, there is this one! He speaks in righteousness; He is mighty to save to the uttermost all who come unto the Father by Him. Do you know, on His authority, that you are saved? You may. For, thanks be unto God, there is no alternative, the soul who meets the conditions "must be saved." The conditions? They are simple. You and I are the lost, undone sinners Jesus came to save. We admit that fact to God. We rely upon none else and upon nothing else than the Lord Jesus Christ to save us — by the blood of His cross. That is salvation by grace through faith. Here is the beginning of the Christian life. Then we know something of God's leading, teaching, and strengthening for daily living as we follow on to know the Lord.

Chicago.

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook "Science & Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"The destruction of sin is the divine method of pardon. Divine Life destroys death, Truth destroys error, and Love destroys hate. Being destroyed, sin needs no other form of forgiveness. Does not God's pardon, destroying any one sin, prophesy and involve the final destruction of all sin?"

Red Feather
 the non-sectarian character of Federation's activities.
 Mr. Young said the activities of Federation were misunderstood, and as a result, the organization was subject to a dual criticism. On the one hand, many leading citizens offered criticism because Federation sets an ever-increasing objective, although this is "imperative for there is no alternative", while other citizens are critical because it is not meeting the needs of the people. Mr. Young added that the crisis was hastened by the fact that Federation is doing work it should not be called upon to do. However, if this work is to be left to Federation "it would be adequately subsidized by the provincial and municipal governments."
 The nominating committee report included the following appointments: J. M. McConnell as chairman of the Advisory Board; Victor M. Drury as chairman of the Board of Governors; Mr. Richardson as chairman of the board of directors, and Lt.-Col. W. W. Ogilvie as chairman of the Budget Committee.
 G. B. Clarke, general secretary of the Red Feather Family Welfare Association, at the Association's annual meeting urged that governments should begin planning in the field of unemployment before "our recession becomes another depression". He noted that there is no place in the Montreal area where family agencies may refer the unemployed head of a family either for productive work or financial assistance after insurance credits are exhausted and work is unavailable. He added that funds for support of long-term cases should come from tax revenue, thus releasing voluntary contributions for other needy persons. Family Welfare serves clients from all parts of the Metropolitan area, with the South district office at 2200 St. Antoine street caring for Westmount residents.

LETTERS to the EDITOR
 Letters are reproduced exactly as received as a public service. The paper does not accept any responsibility for them.

Dear Mr. Editor:
 Please allow me a little of your valuable space in which to state our views on the recent local rumor that the Hon. D. C. Abbott will seek a riding other than his own St. Antoine-Westmount. The motive prompting this rumor must surely be obvious. It is common knowledge that the Tory powers sought the candidature of a number of prominent residents of the riding and brought more than a little pressure to bear to promote their aim. All this during the past few months and without success.
 It became obvious that one of the difficulties was the standing in the constituency of its able and popular representative. What then more simple than to plant the story that Mr. Abbott would not run in this riding. That plan has succeeded and at last a candidate has accepted the formidable task of carrying the Conservative banner or should that be banners.
 While this early exposure of tactics, which we may expect to be continued, can be classed as a tribute to the ingenuity of those who fathered the story, it cannot be accepted as any compliment to the intelligence of the voters. They remember the energy and ability that Mr. Abbott has brought to the public service. They appreciate the need for informed and experienced minds in the difficult days ahead. And they resent the imputation that the Hon. Doug would retire from the riding he has won, held and so ably represented.
 Douglas Abbott is our candidate and will continue to be our member!

Skin Loveliness Reflects Health

Spring sun and Easter finery focus attention on a lovely skin. According to the best medical authorities, skin loveliness is a reflection of good health, and general health is the basic requirement for a clear and glowing complexion. Without this foundation, the best cosmetics and beauty salons are powerless.

To be sure of continued good health, our expert recommends four essentials — freedom from worry, adequate rest, a balanced diet and cleanliness. The best way to prevent worry is to keep busy — do the best possible in any situation and let it go at that. Adequate rest differs with different people, but the proof of sufficient sleep is in your ability to rise and shine in the morning.

For a balanced diet, our expert recommends a drink immediately on rising — the juice of a lemon in a glass of warm water; a good breakfast — fruit, cereal, toast and coffee; and for the other two meals, one should consist of a salad or vegetable plate, and the other meat and vegetables with a light fruit dessert. Pastry, rich sauces, fried foods, candy and sweets between meals should be kept to a minimum and, especially in warm weather, you need quantities of water every day. Milk and milk dishes are especially good if you are nervous, and a walk or some form of outdoor exercise is a necessary part of each day's program.

Besides attention to general health, your skin needs to be kept scrupulously clean. Most complexions will respond to an oil or cold cream cleansing followed by soap and water and a good scrubbing with a rough facecloth. This friction causes good circulation of blood to your skin, removing the basic cause of blackheads and skin blemishes.

Following a reception at the Berkeley Hotel, where spring flowers were arranged, Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Beazley left for Virginia Beach on their honeymoon. For travelling the bride wore a suit of middle blue gabardine with toning shoes and bag and worn with a white hat and gloves, her shoulder spray of red roses. The couple will reside in Youngstown, N.Y.

Decoratively Speaking

By FRANCIS JAMES

Do you ever get claustrophobia in your own house? Maybe you have too much furniture! It's only human to want to collect possessions around us — but the trouble is that many of today's small homes just don't lend themselves to the collecting bug.

However, there are ever so many space-saving ideas that add, not only to the roominess of a home, but to its beauty as well.

There are, for instance, prefabricated storage units. These are made up for any room in the house — living room, dining room, kitchen or bedroom. Some of them have drawers and some have open shelves.

In the dining room, these storage units can be used for holding china, silver and linen, thereby doing away with the necessity for a china cabinet or a buffet or both. In the living room, storage units are ideal for holding books and magazines, radios and records, vases and all sorts of ornaments. You can see what a space-saver this would be. It would do away with bookcases and extra tables, and would leave room on the remaining tables. Or, you can make a hinge for a section of a unit — a door that opens down flat — put a chair in front of it, and — presto — you have a writing desk!

Perhaps your furniture is the old-fashioned massive kind. This type of furniture is lovely to look at but oh — the room it takes up! I know of one woman who recently bought, at an auction sale, an exquisite old spool bed and matching chest of drawers. She wanted them to furnish her guest room, but when she started arranging the room she discovered that the bed itself took up so much room that there just wasn't space left for the chest of drawers, which is very wide as well as high. She was afraid she would have to dispense with this part of the ensemble and get a little modern dresser, which would have completely spoiled the effect of the room. However, she hit on a happy solution. Opening off the bedroom is a good-sized clothes closet. So she had the chest of drawers built into the bedroom wall, so that only the front shows in the bedroom — the rest of it protrudes into the clothes closet, where it doesn't matter if there are a few irregularities. Now all she has to do is go to the wall and open a drawer — and she has retained in her guest room the most important part of the chest of drawers — its elegant front, with the rich, lovely spool trim!

Another space-saver in the bedroom is the dressing table. The kind with a swiss or organdy skirt around the bottom. It isn't news that many people make such dressing tables of orange crates and old radio cabinets and similar things. But how many of them utilize the shelves as well as the top? You can put ever so many things on these shelves — clothes, shoes and linens, not to mention combs and jars. To make this space easily accessible, make the skirt of your dressing table in two sections, so that it meets in the middle of the front and can be pulled apart to get at the shelves. Dress the shelves up by lining them with wallpaper in a shade that contrasts pleasantly with the skirt.

The big game hunter was telling his wife all about his encounter with a tiger.

"Yes," he wound up, "it was a case of the tiger or me."

"I'm so glad it was the tiger, dear," she said, "otherwise we wouldn't have this lovely rug."

Washable Prints For Sunny Days Ahead

Cool cottons to double for work or play. Easy to make from this season's wide selection of gay, washable prints, and perfect for wear in the office or on vacation. Notice the small hats, shortie gloves and novelty straw handbags in vogue this summer.

Courtesy of the Northern News

April sun and showers remind us that warm sunny days are close at hand, and its high time to look to our summer wardrobe. Crisp cottons will again be very much in style this summer — washable seersucker and striped chambray for daytime wear, and fine lawn or organdie for date occasions.

A great favorite this year is the versatile sundress and bolero. It is cool on the warmest day, and designed for wear in office or on vacation. Skirts are moderate to full with molded midriff or fitted bodice, and the jackets come in a hundred variations. Sometimes the same material is used for dress and bolero, sometimes a plain material in the jacket is matched with an all-over print, and sometimes companion prints are used. Stripes and border prints are very popular, and the plain color shades are perhaps the prettiest in years.

For sports, co-ordinates are very smart this season. Shorts, slacks, skirt, bra, bolero and shortie coat made of the same or matching materials can be combined in many ways for active sports and summer weekends. Piqué, butcher linen, denim and corded cottons are sturdy, practical materials for these smart play togs.

Yellow turnips are sweet tasting when they are fairly young. To tell a young turnip from a mature one, notice the leaf scars at the base. If they are quite numerous the turnip is old. If they are few the turnip will be tender and sweet tasting.

Scarboro Night Bridge To Aid Missionaries

The work of the Catholic missionary priests in war-torn China will benefit by proceeds from the fifth annual Scarboro Night Bridge party being held in St. Michael's Parish Hall on Wednesday evening.

Held under the auspices of the Mission League of the Little Flower, the bridge party is an annual event which has raised considerable sums for the work of Scarboro Foreign Mission Society, Toronto.

This year's Scarboro Night Bridge is dedicated to Most Reverend Kenneth R. Turner, first Bishop of Lishui, China, who returned to that country in the fall of 1948 after the consecration ceremonies which elevated him to the Hierarchy.

Handling all arrangements for the bridge party are Mrs. J. F. Bryant, Mrs. E. O. MacDonald, Miss Ruth Turner, Mrs. C. W. Dynes, Mr. C. W. Dynes and Miss Marie Piche.

Holders of ticket books for the drawing in connection with Scarboro Night are asked to make returns without delay to Miss M. McFee, 4239 Marcell Avenue, Montreal 28.

Four Showings Daily May 5-6 At Kiwanis Fur Parade 1949

There are at least three excellent reasons why the women of Montreal are all agog at the news that the Canadian Fur Manufacturers are presenting their outstanding Fashion Show in the city on May 5 and 6. First of all the comprehensive collection of exquisite furs, as well as more practical ones, will feature the very latest in design and skin manipulation; secondly, the huge showing will benefit the Kiwanis Club Welfare work, and thirdly, eight beautiful fur coats will be given away to eight lucky women in the city.

The Kiwanis Club (St. George Division) is bringing this treat for the smart and practical women of Montreal from Toronto, where the Fashion Show was presented to the Canadian fur industry by the Canadian Fur Manufacturers. The entire exhibit will be for the benefit of the general public, paraded in Cardy Hall at the Mount Royal Hotel, at four showings daily. And, as was mentioned before, a beautiful fur coat will be given away at every performance. These eight coats will be smartly and gorgeously styled in furs ranging from Mouton to Alaska seal!

When most of us were thinking of a new spring bonnet — fur manufacturers from coast to coast were hard at work designing patterns and choosing furs for next winter's coats and jackets. At the Kiwanis Fur Parade of 1949 you'll see the Fur Styles of 1949-1950. Next winter — the choice will be ours! And judging from the preview styles we have seen — there will be no lack of choice!

Graceful Swing

The loose silhouette with straight front and restrained back fullness is the most popular — and the most becoming to all figure types. In coats of this cut — collars are usually shawl, falling into soft revers or buttoned high at the throat. While back fullness is still strong in favour — the fullness is now achieved in soft folds falling below the shoulder to emphasize the narrow shoulder-line. There also promises to be a return of the fitted coat — now that coat lengths are shorter. This style is at its best in the slack furs such as Kidskin or Russian Broadtail. One dramatic coat cut on princess lines is of Black Russian Broadtail collared in wild mink.

The really new length in coats is the 38 or 40 inch style — in reality the seven-eighth length. This is most attractive when cut slightly shorter in front and tapering into back fullness. Styled most effectively in flat furs — it is of dramatic importance in the new beige shades.

Dramatic Highlights

Collars are trim and modified in size — compared to last season's. The largest collar is in the Puritan effect. Queen Anne collars are also new and appear most often on jackets and in the high-styled coats. One Persian lamb coat featured a double-wing collar which converts into a single collar when buttoned. The shawl collar has new features — depending mainly on the manipulation of the striped furs. A small, stiffened shield collar was featured on a natural grey lamb coat — matching the half-belt and shaped cuffs in cut. Collar, cuff and pocket treatment are often the dramatic highlights of a simply styled coat.

Most sleeves are open at the bottom — sometimes with tight inner cuffs of contrasting fur. Split, shaped and wrap-over cuffs are also in evidence. The newest of sleeves features the Kimona cut, usually with a narrow cuff. An unusual treatment features 'winged' cuffs of mutation mink on a single black Persian lamb topper. Scalloped and Doublet cuffs are also shown on Alaska seal and muskrat coats.

A new line is achieved with pockets on the less bulky furs. The favourite slit pocket is apparent in most styles, sometimes highlighted in contrasting fur.

An innovation in furs is the heaver-toned mouton — available in the budget range. Dropped racoon, muskrat backs and Persian paw will also be important in that field. Peking lamb, mutation mink and Russian broadtail are featured in the higher-priced furs along with beaver and Persian lamb.

Betty Speirs Recital Heralds Spring

Betty Speirs' Springtime Revue will be held in Victoria Hall on Friday evening May 6th. The above group is typical of the Speirs' tots which will be seen in 'Show of Shows.'

Speirs - Miller Recital Means Spring Is Here

It always gives a warm glow to the heart when Betty Speirs announces the Springtime Revue. It means that the talented young pupils are here on time with the warm weather to make us feel much better. Miss Speirs assures us that the work of the various groups is on a par with past performance. The tiny tots will delight us again in 'Fairy Tales,' the title of which tells what to expect from the baby classes. The Juniors will be seen in 'Ballet of Spring,' in which the scenic and lighting effects will give artistic background to their talents.

The soloists in tap, toe, acrobatic and ballet will offer their various numbers, and Peter Miller, widely known in show business as the teacher of Johnny Coy, promises a distinct treat with the Beginners' Tap Class, which will feature a comedy routine, 'East Side, West Side,' and a straight number, 'Love Nest.'

In the more advanced work the Gaieté Parisienne' and 'Warsaw Concerto', for which special musical arrangements have been written. Senior Group will be seen in ten.

By special request Theresa Daly, talented assistant to Betty Speirs, and Peter Miller, will again contribute vocal and dance selections. Reservations should be made as soon as possible at the Studio, as the demand for seats signifies another 'Standing Room Only' sign at Victoria Hall.

Robert Peter was the first mayor of Georgetown, D. C.

Variety Show Set For St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's United Church is the scene these days of busy preparations for a Variety Show, to be held there on Friday, May 6, at 8:30 p.m. Highlight of the show will be a comedy in one act, "A Young Man's Fancy", in which the various antics of young Art Redmond playing teenager Donnie Hoofle, will be sure to amuse young and old alike.

Preceding this will be a well-rounded programme of shorter numbers including two short skits, one of them written by Christine Jockel, who also directed it. Donald Harvie will accompany two of his own songs, to be sung by Vera Lewis, and will also direct a small choral group in his own arrangements of several songs. Ted Phillips, who has been prominent in Westmount High School productions, will also be heard in several numbers. The whole show has been produced and directed by Christine Jockel and Donald Harvie, assisted by Walter Judge. Ticket may be purchased at the door.

MRT Plans Final Play For Season

"What Every Woman Knows," a delightfully sentimental comedy written by James M. Barrie, will be the closing major production of the season for the Montreal Repertory Theatre, and will be staged at Moyses Hall from May 24-28.

The 117th major production of MRT, this play is considered one of Barrie's most popular works, and proved one of Helen Hayes' greatest successes. It is filled with the wry expressions of the Scottish race and tells a simple story of marital relationship, ending very happily.

Jean de Savoye, who directs the production, comes from Scotland and is now a resident of N.D.G. She has been rehearsing the play during the past several weeks with Mary Douglas as "Maggie" and Peter Golick as "John Shand". "What Every Woman Knows" will complete the 19th year of continuous operation of the MRT.

Comedienne Mildred Morey Opens Belmont Park May 7

Mildred Morey, Canada's top comedienne, will "share" honours with Ellis McLintock and his Band on Belmont Park's special preview opening, Saturday May 7, it was announced today by the park's Managing Director, Rex Billings.

The celebrated comedienne, who is heard each Wednesday night over the CBC network on the Wrigley Show, will be featured with the band on Saturday night and the following evening. This will be her first visit to Canada's leading amusement park.

Mildred Morey first achieved nation-wide recognition as the comedy star of the wartime Army Show, where her wide range of vocal tricks and her antics immediately became the hit of the show. At war's end, producer Rai Purdy lined her up for the Wrigley program, which is built around her. In it, too, she works with Ellis McLintock, who played last season at Belmont and made many friends there for the band, rated one of the best in the country.

In addition to her radio commitments, Mildred Morey has appeared in stage shows right across Canada, first with the Lifebuoy Follies that preceded the war, and since the war in many variety shows that have been built around her. Hamilton-born, she is one of the few fine Canadian artists who have consistently refused attractive financial offers to go to the United States. "Canada is my country" says Mildred, "and I want to play to Canadians. Money is not that important."

According to her antics in radio and in her variety shows, anything can be expected of Mildred Morey when she appears at Belmont Park. Her vocal range is as wide as that of Gracie Fields, with whom she has often been compared; and her spontaneous comedy keeps her fellow artists busy trying to stay with her. "We do not know exactly what Miss Morey will be doing", reports Mr. Billings, "but we have been warned to prepare for anything. A large staff will stand by in case of emergency, though we do not expect her to take a high dive off the Thriller into the Back River."

Salvation Army Drive Will Open on Tuesday

On Tuesday, May 3, the Salvation Army Red Shield Campaign opens in Greater Montreal with the objective of $165,000, announces Campaign Chairman C. C. Thackray, the higher objective this year due to capital expenditure at the Catherine Booth Hospital on Walkley Avenue, and to meet rising costs in most Red Shield Services. The drive will conclude on May 16 and it is anticipated the response of residents of the Greater Montreal area will be as generous as ever to the appeal.

At the Catherine Booth Hospital last year some 204 unmarried mothers and their babies were cared for, representing a total of 2,240 hospital days. During the year a Women's Auxiliary with a membership of 20 was organized. The Hospital, at 4400 Walkley Avenue, admitted 1,597 patients and the total number of 1,431 births included 762 male and 679 female babies. Hospital days for mothers totalled 13,146 and for babies 12,694 with a full total of 25,840 hospital days.

Pre-natal Clinics numbered 52 with attendance of 3,109 and the number of free laboratory tests given were 828.

During the year, laboratory, laundry, boiler room and sterilizing equipment amounting to a value of $10,900 was purchased and installed. Other purchases included an incubator for the second floor nursery, an electric floor polisher, 12 spring-filled mattresses and also upholstery and drapery replacements.

Major expenditure is a necessity and it is service such as this, in caring for those unable to help

HIS AMBITION

Ray Milland, starred in Paramount's "Alias Nick Beal," is seeking studio permission to direct pictures. He would like to do a short subject as his first production, then graduate into features.

Carpet History Dates Back Thousands of Years

The origin of the carpet goes back many centuries before Christ. Then the carpet was used as a wall decoration, a cover for a couch or for a tent door curtain, according to Frank Cregeen, of Cregeen Limited.

Once the carpet maker was a wool grower, spinner, designer and weaver but today carpet making has developed into a many sided craft employing chemist, engineers, artists, spinners, weavers and finishers.

Wool is the principal material in a good carpet and forms the pile or tufted surface on which one treads. It has been found that Jute is the best yarn for the back of the carpet and thereby giving it a firm feel and making the carpet lie flat.

As you know, Jute comes from India and grows in height of eight to ten feet and sometimes more.

After it has grown to the required length, the fibre is obtained by the process known as "retting." In retting, the stems are immersed in ponds and streams and watched carefully and when the stalks begin to disintegrate the bark is cleaned off and the fibres stripped, graded and pressed into bales for shipment.

Cotton Important

Cotton, too, is important and the fibre is obtained from the seed boll. By selection and blending the right thread is produced.

The chief material wool, can be spun in two different ways making either woolen yarn or worsted yarn. Woolen yarn is used mostly and is spun on cards and mules which makes a uniform thread with fibres criss-crossed giving a somewhat shaggy appearance.

In spinning, great care must be taken in blending the various types of wool for the right proportions.

In the olden days dyes had to be obtained from plants and natural sources.

Next comes the design and here the Artist does his work. In designing a carpet many factors have to be taken into consideration, for example, different countries prefer different designs; then there are designs for hotels, theatres, ships and air liners. Therefore the artist must have a vast knowledge of carpet lore and colour harmony and must keep in touch with modern trends and, most of all, must know quite a lot about the technical side of carpet making and the limitations to each carpet. He must then be able to produce the design on a special squared paper where each square represents a tuft of the final carpet. By this you can see he must be a real artist and have a lot of experience.

Weaving Processes

Now comes the weaving. In the Orient this is done by hand looms and each knot tied by hand. In Spool Axminster the design is taken by setters and they use bobbins the full width of the carpet and if there are 252 squares across the design the setters use 252 separate threads of coloured wool side by side on the bobbin each correct colour according to the design, then with great speed the colour is changed to correspond with the next row until a spool has been wound to correspond with every row for the length of the carpet. The spools are taken to the looms and are clipped in an endless chain in correct order.

As the loom weaves it takes each spool in turn with a pair of arms that works almost like human arms and inserts little tubes with thread of yarn into the fabric a V-shaped tuft and knives come together and cut off the right amount, the arms replace the spool back in the chain and the chain moves to repeat the operation until the carpet is completed.

In Gripper Axminster the design is made by quite a different process. The various colours are wound on bobbins and arranged in a special frame or "Creel" just behind the loom and each thread is brought to the looms and threaded into its own place. Over the top of the loom is a machine known as a "Jacquard" which is controlled by a series of punched cards. These cards are so punched that when the loom or Jacquards are working they select the right colours for each row and bring them into a horizontal line.

Then the grippers come up; these are shaped like a bird's beak, take hold of the end of each required thread and take off the necessary amount for a tuft. A knife comes across which cuts off this length and the grippers swing down to place the tuft in the fabric. This is repeated for each row until the carpet is completed.

Wilton Carpets have yet another process. There are inexpensive Wilton Carpets, but it is on a Wilton loom the finest and closest carpets are usually made. They can be made of woolen yarn but the best are made of worsted, this allowing more tufts to the inch and gives a finer appearance to the carpet. Wilton carpet is very seldom made with more than five colours, these are selected and formed into a pattern by a different process.

Bobbins containing dyed yarn are arranged in a "Creel" and of the five colours used the one required is raised by a jacquard to the top of the fabric being woven, as in the gripper loom. Now a strip of steel as wide as the height of pile required, is placed under the coloured yarn. When the coloured threads drop again they

"Mildred Pierce," the screen adaptation of James Cain's hard-boiled saga of a soft-hearted lady, starring Joan Crawford in her Academy Award-winning role, returns by popular request to the Monkland Theatre Saturday until Tuesday. "Mildred Pierce" is a taut and tense film-fashioning of Cain's fascinating transom-peek into the lives of some of our less desirable neighbors and into the heart of an ill-omened woman.

Also starring Zachary Scott and Jack Carson, "Mildred Pierce," is, in turn, heart-warming, coldly analytical and intensely personal. In it Joan Crawford crowns her distinguished career with a performance which is superlatively "right". For a little more than one hundred intense minutes, Miss Crawford IS the sacrificing, doubt-ridden, incorruptible Mildred Pierce, squaring off against the world, true to what she conceives to be a duty to her daughter, for whom she unflinchingly undergoes every privation.

Mildred's story is not a pretty one, although she has in her make-up all the elements of an attractive, intelligent woman. Separated, though not divorced, from her husband after many drab years of marriage, she dedicates herself to her daughter, Veda (Ann Blyth), a young lady who, despite her mother's fine example, seems rotten to the core, incapable of experiencing any deep affection for her mother or anyone round her.

form loops over this wire and are bound into the fabric by the weft, then the threads for the next row are raised by the jacquard.

When about thirty steel strips have been held in by the looped yarn they are withdrawn one by one with a hook and are carried forward for insertion.

These strips have a razor edge and when the strip is drawn the loops are cut forming the pile. The four colours not required are woven into the back this adds to the weight and firmness of the carpet and is one of the reasons why a Wilton carpet is more expensive than others.

Definition of Broadloom Carpets: A Broadloom carpet can be a very cheap carpet or a very expensive one. It can be a plain colour or a pattern. It gets its name Broadloom because it is woven on a wide loom 6'9" to 18'0" and wider according to the Manufacturers Looms and can be made in either Axminster or Wilton qualities. Therefore 27" or 36" carpet should not be called Broadloom.

Tortoises sometimes are found in the desert 60 miles from water.

Visiting Days At Your Child's Camp

By ROY D. LOCKE

(Fourth In A Series Of Six Articles)

Most camps have specified visiting days for visits by parents and friends. It is quite important that these days be adhered to. If parents came at any time during the week it would be difficult to plan satisfactory program. If only one of the parents were involved it would be easy for the camp to arrange a meeting with their respective children. However, if a large number of the parents insisted on coming on other than the specified visiting days, very little program could be organized.

If possible let your child know of the approximate time of your arrival. This is especially important when you may be arriving later in the day. Children can become extremely tense if they wait for their parents for many hours. Sometimes it happens that after you have notified your child that you are coming something happens which prevents your visit. Make sure you notify the camp of the postponement so that they can notify your son or daughter.

Younger children particularly are usually very excited about their parents' visits. This is especially true when children are away from home for the first time. Do not hurl too many admonitions at him, such as "Quieten Down", or "stop jumping around", etc. The children will be full of animal spirits and their excitement may be somewhat embarrassing at first. However, they will soon quieten down. Let him show you around the camp properly. Encourage him to tell you of his activities.

Throughout your whole visit at camp emphasize what he is doing in camp, not what is happening at home in the city or what his friends are doing elsewhere. Show a positive interest in his activities at camp and he will appreciate it. This does not mean that it is necessary to fuss over him. His clothes may not be quite as neat as you would have them, but that is true of most husbands, let alone your children! He may have a bit of dirt on him, but that is a fairly common practice with children so do not worry too much about it. If it is a well organized camp the doctor or nurse will make sure that health routines are being followed in each cabin or tent.

Meet Counsellor
Plan to meet your youngster's counsellor. Your lad may make a poor job of the introduction. Make sure that you mention your name so that the counsellor knows he is not talking to the boys' aunt or uncle or big brother as the case may be. It will be necessary to limit your interview with him because other parents will also want to meet him, but do take time to have a short frank friendly chat with him. The counsellor has an arduous job. He is on duty early in the morning until late at night. A few words of encouragement from you will be much appreciated. If you have some suggestions by all means forward them to the counsellor, but always commence your suggestions with some complimentary remark about a few of the good results you have observed in your lads appearance or behaviour. Most camps have a rest hour after the noon hour meal, even on visitors' day. Avoid going into the cabin or tent at this period.

In the excitement of visitors' day the campers need a rest more than ever. If your visit is going to be a short one it might be possible to get permission from the Director for the lad to rest with you under some trees or by the lake front. If you make this request it is important to see that he does lie down quietly and relaxes just as he would do in his tent group.

If your doctor has requested that your son or daughter have serums or injections at camp, then visiting day is a good time to check on this matter. See the camp medical officers. Never ask your son or daughter to give such a serum to the camp doctor for storage or injection.

You should send this direct to the Camp Director with clear instructions. Too many campers forget the serums, etc., and leave them in their baggage. So check on these matters while you are at camp. The camp will appreciate your enquiries.

The frequency of your visits and the length of time you remain will have to be left to your own judgment. It is not necessary to visit the camp every Sunday or Saturday as the case may be. Most parents do not visit their child every Sunday. Some campers have difficulty in making an adjustment to camp in their first few years. In such cases it is usually advisable to forego your visit on the first Sunday.

Give your child two clear weeks to get well adjusted to the camp. Your first visit particularly should not be too long. Try to avoid a prolonged leave-taking. It is usually better to leave promptly and just as your boy or girl is beginning some activity.

TENNIS TICKETS

Tennis tickets can now be procured from the Superintendent of Parks office in the Westmount Greenhouse; proof of residence in Westmount is all that is required. The tennis courts will be open next week.

PROTECT FROM FLIES

With the approach of warm weather most Canadians can expect flies and other insects to make their usual summer invasion. Nearly everyone knows that flies spread disease, but not everyone takes the trouble to keep these pests out of the house. Spring is the time to check up on screens and screen doors. Properly placed, these appliances are among the best means of avoiding insect-borne infections.

If you want to catch a live alligator, hold his mouth shut and tie him up.

Wolves Wallop Whizs 46-34 In Inter Cage Playoff

The play-offs began last week in the Westmount Municipal Basketball League.

The first place Wolves tangled with the fourth place Whizs in a two game total goal series. The Wolves came out on top by a 46-34 score and will carry a 12 point lead into the second game.

Dave Binmore, playing terrific basketball, paced the Wolves. He scored 3 baskets and 1 free throw in the first frame, and sank 6 baskets in the second half to come away with 19 points. Bruce Thompson was second high man for the Wolves, scoring 5 baskets and 1 free throw for 11 points. Wendy Young sniped 4 field goals for 8 points, Marvin Greenbaum banded in 6 points and Eddie Moore 2. George Cochrane led the Whizs, scoring 6 baskets and 3 free throws for a total of 15 points. He was closely followed by Jack McKissock who dropped the ball in the basket for 12 points; George Presho came up with 5 and Dave Barnard scored a basket for 2 points.

to see who will meet the winner of the Wolves' and Whiz's series, for the championship.

KENTUCKY BEATEN

The Kentucky team that had gone undefeated during the regular schedule were eliminated by the amazing Alouettes who finished fifth in the final standings. The Alouettes outscored them 28-11.

The Alouettes changed their style of play and played a very close-checking game during the first half; they allowed the Kentucky team only 2 free throws for 2 points while they scored 5 points themselves. In the second frame, the Larks opened up to outshoot the Kentucky team 23-9. Ray Binmore and Jack Dudley teamed up to lead the Larks by scoring 10 points each. Ron Morrow came up with 4 points, Jon Piers and Bob Grant scored a basket each for 2 points. Bert Kelly was the only Kentucky player that had any success against the tight Larks' defence. He banded in 3 baskets and 4 free throws for a total of 10 points, Bob Forrest scored a free throw for the other Kentucky point.

STARS OUST ROYALS

The Avenue Stars had little trouble knocking off the winless Royals by a 26-13 count. Will Manolson was the big gun on the Stars, he dented the mesh for 6 baskets and 5 singles, to come away with 17 points. Graydon Easton banded in 6 for the Stars, while Allan Turner scored 2 and Bruce Campbell 1. Bill Graham and Bob Young sniped 4 points each for the Royals, Eddie O'Brien and Logue MacDonald came up with 2 points each and Buck Knott notched a single point.

The Alouettes will now meet the Ave. Stars in a sudden death game.

HOCKEY STILL IN THE NEWS

Finis in both senior and junior Canadian hockey championships get under way tomorrow night when Ottawa receives the Regina Caps at Ottawa and Montreal Royals meet Brandon Wheat Kings in the West. Before these two series finish we'll see well into the merry month of May, which makes hockey the most durable game in the world. With a little encouragement, the magnates might make it a year-round proposition. The present season of seven months beats baseball by quite a margin, you omit the long and expensive baseball training before the schedule begins.

The senior "amateur" final series, all games of which will be played at the Ottawa Auditorium, will carry plenty of interest for several former star professionals are with the Regina team, including Sweeney Schriner, Lorne Carr, and Mel Hill. In their day these players were just about as good as they come, especially Schriner who was one of the smoothest strick-handlers of all time. It will be interesting to see how they fare against a younger, and coming, team like the Senators.

Having picked Toronto Maple Leafs, Ottawa Senators, and Royal juniors correctly, to date, we'll go out on a limb again and pick Ottawa to take the Caps. That long train ride won't help the aging muscles of the westerners, and the rest should go to the Senators a lot of good. Besides, the advantage of playing at home, especially on that egg-shaped Ottawa rink, will be no mean advantage to the home team.

From all accounts, Caps are a rough, hard-hitting team. In hockey as it is played today, that means they'll get away with murder if they can and if the referee is in a co-operative mood. Schriner, Hill, and Carr, could always hand it out and take it. But old age eventually beats them all, and the Caps are getting long.

* * *

That Ottawa-Marlboro series still has the fans talking, by the way. No sudden reversals of form have been witnessed in Allan Cup play since the Moncton Hawks of 1933 took the old mug back to the Maritimes — and enough cash with it to life the mortgage on the farm — on the rink, rather. Down in Moncton they still speak of the rink as the "rink Toronto paid for".

Caledonian Games Set For June 25 At CN Recreation Grounds, Lachine

The Caledonian Games, which will be held on Saturday, June 25, on the C.N.R. Recreation Grounds, Lachine, will be bigger and better than ever this year.

The games section of The Caledonian Society, under direction of which the games have been held annually — except for a few years — since 1856, has been working on preparations for some time now with the support of the Pipers' Society of Montreal, the Montreal Track and Field Club and the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada and the active assistance of members of each of these organizations and a program of events has been drawn up which promises to make the Games a real attraction for those who find enjoyment in watching a Highland Gathering with all its colour and thrills.

More Piping Events

A feature of the Games this year will be the increased number of piping events and the improvement in the class of competition therein. This has been made possible by the support — active and practical — of the Pipers' Society. This organization, formed only last year for the purpose of generating interest in piping in and around Montreal, already has made material progress since its inception. Headquarters are in the Black Watch armoury and new members active and associate, will be cordially welcomed.

The dancing events, always a prominent feature of the Games, are expected to attract greater competition than ever and the active assistance of the M.T. & F.C. and W.A.A.F. gives assurance of successful operation of the track and field events.
