March on Ottawa for farm support

OTTAWA (CP) — More than 1,000 farmers made a mass appeal to the federal cabinet Wednesday for measures to put more money in the farmer's pocket, but got no definite commitments.

Agriculture Minister Hays told the farmers he recognizes prices of farm products and farm incomes have failed to keep pace with the rising costs of farm operations.

He told his sometimes hostile audience, gathered in a hotel ballroom, that the government has made certain moves, such as the new dairy support program, that indicate its intention to do something about the problem.

A brief from the Ontario Farmers Union, which organized the demonstration, sought higher price support levels for farm products, improved deficiency payments and a temporary national commodity marketing board.

The brief suggested the agricultural stabilization board could handle marketing of farm products until legislation is on the books to permit establishment of national marketing boards.

Mr. Hays said price support levels that everybody would consider desirable would produce unmarketable surpluses.

The meeting chairman, farm leader Alf Gleave, was forced to take the microphone from Mr. Hays at one point and call for order to halt hecklers.

The OEU brief—backed by a 33,000-name petition and endorsed by the National Farmers Union—said it is essential for the federal government to "immediately implement a comprehensive farm price policy that will enable the survival of the family farm in Canada."

After Mr. Hays' rapid-fire reply to the brief, Roy Atkinson, president of the National Farmers Union, told him that unless action is taken, more demonstrations are in the offing.

Trade Minister Sharp and Forestry Minister Sauve, who serve under Mr. Hays on the cabinet agriculture committee, and Veterans Minister Teillet were also on the platform, but did not speak.

Dupuis can search, says Kierans

ST. JOHNS, Que. (CP)—Yvon Dupuis, former federal cabinet minister, has been offered an opportunity to search the Quebec revenue department for an employee who is alleged to have received from him a package which "certainly felt like money."

The offer was made by Eric Kierans, Quebec revenue minister, who testified Wednesday at Mr. Dupuis' preliminary hearing on influence-peddling charges. The hearing resumed after a two-week adjournment.

Mr. Dupuis, 38, is charged with having asked for and received $10,000 in 1961 to help obtain a Quebec racetrack charter for a St. Johns group headed by chiropractor Roch Deslauriers. The charter was never granted.

Mr. Kierans said the Liberal MP told him last year of having received a package that "felt like money" from Mr. Deslauriers and of having passed it on to an unidentified member of the revenue department in "the chateau"—which Mr. Kierans presumed meant the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec City.

Mr. Dupuis had wanted to go through the revenue department to see whether he could identify the man, but Mr. Kierans said he refused permission to do this. Mr. Kierans said he did not believe the story. However, he said, "if Mr. Dupuis feels that something can be accomplished, I am perfectly willing to let him do so."

The revenue minister said he heard of the mysterious package when he asked Mr. Dupuis to meet him Feb. 14, 1964, to discuss rumors that $10,000 had been paid to revenue department officials in connection with the racetrack affair.

Following the interview, Mr. Kierans said, he felt he had enough information to make a report to the Quebec cabinet.

He said he was satisfied that "the $10,000 was no longer in the hands of my officers, and there was only one conclusion left."

Killed trying to swim

SAIGON (AP) — A force of more than 1,000 South Vietnamese troops was trying today to drive a key Viet Cong unit in the Mekong River delta into the South China Sea.

The government claimed at least 86 guerrillas were killed and 34 captured in the opening phase of the operation in Kien Hoa province Wednesday.

U.S. helicopter pilots caught about 60 Viet Cong trying to swim an estuary and machine-gunned them in the waters. The Americans estimated they killed about 40 swimmers.

CANBERRA (Reuters) — Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies announced today that Australia would provide an infantry battalion for service in South Viet Nam.

The government decided to do so after considering a request by the government of South Viet Nam for more Australian military aid, Menzies said.

At least 18 Viet Cong dead were reported in that engagement. The American deaths brought the toll of U.S. combat fatalities in Viet Nam to 353 since December, 1961.

In the Kien Hoa operation, the government force attacked in landing craft from the sea and in helicopters, hoping to catch the Viet Cong in a pincer movement.

The government suspects that arms and munitions from North Viet Nam are landed by junks in the swamp area, 60 miles south of Saigon.

U.S. advisers said the operation was preceded a month ago by an intense bombardment by 41 U.S. jets. Then leaflets and loudspeaker broadcasts advised all civilians to leave the area to avoid being killed.

Our polluted waters:

Money can dam the filthy flow

In Canada, 8.5 billion gallons of sewage are flushed down watercourses every day. Less than one-quarter of Canadian municipalities own and operate adequate sewage treatment plants.

Montreal pours all its wastes, untreated, from its sewer system into the St. Lawrence River; the largest city of our land rest amidst an ocean of filth.

Edmonton, until the recent completion of a treatment plant, polluted the water of the North Saskatchewan River all the way to Prince Albert, Sask., a distance of 500 miles.

Windsor gushes all its raw, untreated sewage into the Detroit River, causing excrement and other foul wastes to float around in water that has a high bacteria count.

Modern technology can solve any problem contained in the treatment of wastes, but the cost is high and the majority of municipalities fear the bookkeeping involved.

It is difficult to fix blame for conditions which exist in most areas of urban population throughout North America. For when a municipality is small and its industry light, sewage can often be handled through the natural processes.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

TACTICAL BID IS DISASTROUS
By JACOBY & SON

North's one heart opening was one of those tactical rubber bridge bids that usually turn out to be tactically unsatisfactory.

This one should have succeeded, but unfortunately for North, South decided to bid too much and the result was a minor disaster.

South, should have been delighted with his partner's two-club bid but South looked at his good diamonds and decided to bid two no-trump. He overlooked the fact that the good diamonds were just about his whole hand.

West made the killing opening lead of the seven of spades and the defense ran off five spade tricks. South had to make five discards from dummy and his choice of discards was far worse than his choice of bids. He shed four diamonds and the eight of hearts while East simply let the four and eight of diamonds go.

Now West led the deuce of hearts and East let dummy's king hold the trick.

At this point South had forced himself into a corner where club lead appeared necessary. Actually, a heart return here would have saved one trick but South appeared to be embarked on a career of losing whatever he could.

South led a low club to his queen. This put West in with the king and West promptly led a second heart whereupon East cashed three heart tricks and the ace of diamonds. South

About Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The Columbia Broadcasting System, reporting Tuesday night the death of Edward R. Murrow, went back 11 years to recall a high point in his career.

Walter Cronkite's news program re-ran portions of Murrow's See It Now program of March, 1954, which dealt with the controversial Senator Joseph McCarthy. It was indeed a memorable program. But to many TV viewers, the most moving moment was the once-familiar Murrow sign-off: "Good night . . . and good luck."

Eric Sevareid who worked with Murrow and knew him well, summarized the affection and admiration in which he was held by newspaper men as well as his broadcasting colleagues in this tribute: "I never knew any person among those who worked in his realm to feel jealousy for him," he said. This reporter has never met any person who had a harsh or critical word to say about Murrow.

RECALL PROGRAM

Many in the television audience will remember Ed Murrow best for his weekly Person to Person program when he was sitting informally in a chair beside a big screen, invariably smoking a cigarette. He would lean forward with keen interest as he talked with the great and near-great, his usually sober face occasionally breaking into a brilliant smile.

As Sevareid said: "He was an original and we shall not see his like again."

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Long in motion pictures, he has found acceptance in the U.S. comic talent. Jerry Lewis finally had a feast this month. But he had to go to Paris for it.

For some time the comic had been hearing rumbles that he had been embraced by intellectuals of France and England. But he didn't realize the extent of his acceptance until he flew to the French capital for location scenes of Boeing Boeing with Tony Curtis.

He was mobbed first at the airport, then at a press conference. He was interviewed in reverent tones by Paris film critics. The summit of Jerry's happiness was reached when the critics presented him with an award for best direction because of The Nutty Professor.

"It is hard to express what I felt," says Jerry, whose eyes get misty as he thinks about it. "This was the greatest satisfaction I have ever known in my career. The whole visit to Paris was unbelievable. I was walking 11 feet off the ground most of the time."

WANTS ACCEPTANCE

Like all comedians, Jerry needs desperately to be accepted. Despite 16 years of toil in motion pictures, he has found acceptance in the U.S. only from the public. "I'd like to hear the eulogies before I'm dead," he said wistfully. "It won't do me any good to have George Jessel say it at the funeral."

That point was driven home to Jerry on his meeting with Pierre Eteix, a French comedian and film maker. Jerry saw the Frenchman's new film, The Yo-Yo, and admits that he was "overcome with envy." He told a French critic he had to meet Eteix, and a meeting was arranged.

The French comedian's first question through the interpreter was: "Have you ever poured your heart and soul into your work, struggling to perfect every line of dialogue, every piece of action—and then find that you are denied the recognition you feel you deserve?"

HE KNOWS

Jerry smiled knowingly. By the end of the evening he and Eteix were soulmates. The Frenchman, who now has been embraced by U.S. highbrow critics, is as little appreciated in France as Lewis is in this country.

Jerry has profound respect for Paris critics. They are truly experts of the cinema, he said, and could discuss with him nuances of individual scenes he had filmed years ago. What pleased him most was they cherished the films he directed himself.

Does recognition in France mean Jerry is satisfied? "I'll never be satisfied until I get some kind of recognition from the critics in the United States," he said. "I'll never rest until they accept me."

French Canada: A People in Revolt

Canada is in her "greatest crisis". At its center is Quebec, her frustrations and her hopes. Where is Quebec going? What does she want? In May Reader's Digest, (condensed from Fortune Magazine) an American writer analyses the problem objectively. Don't miss this informative article in May Reader's Digest, now on sale.

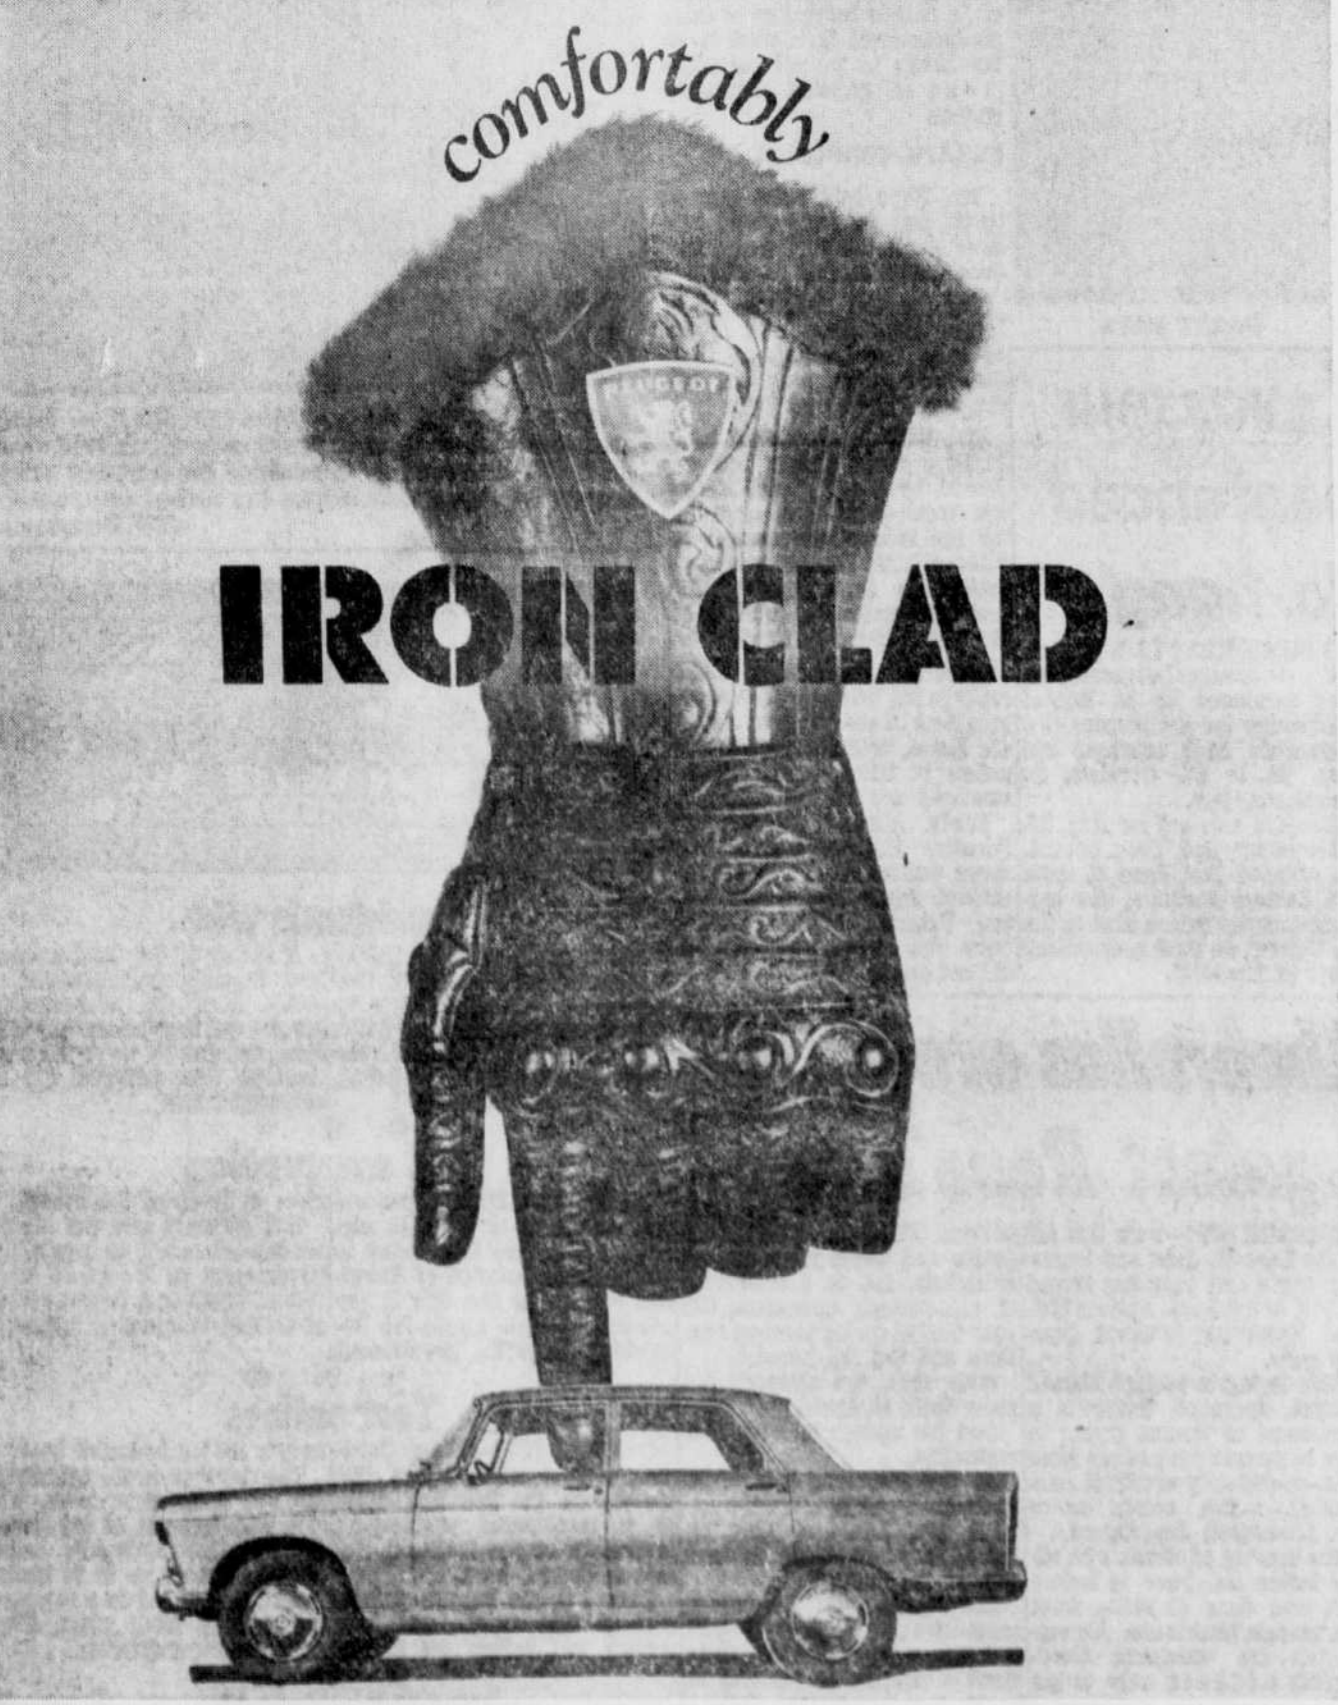

Sluggish Kidneys May Bring Restless Nights

If you "fight the pillow", toss and turn all through the night and don't really know why—perhaps here's news and help for you! One cause of such restlessness may be traced to sluggish kidney action. Urinary irritation and bladder discomfort may follow. The result can be backache and restless nights. This is when Dodo's Kidney Pills can help bring relief. Dodo's stimulates kidney action, helps relieve the irritated condition that causes the backache. Take Dodo's, and see if you don't feel better, rest better. Don't wait. Ask for Dodo's Kidney Pills at any drug counter. Used successfully by millions for over 70 years.

In Cookshire Mission festival to open

A number of Compton County churches are cooperating in the promotion of a Mission Festival which is to be held in Cookshire tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

The general theme of the festival is "What in the world is the church doing?" The mission of the church at home and abroad will be presented by means of displays, prepared during recent weeks by various groups of men, women and young people, outstanding speakers and stimulating discussions, carefully selected films and other modern means of communication. Fun and fellowship will also have an important place in the program.

Among outstanding features of the festival is a panel discussion, to be held on Friday evening in the United Church, led by the Rev. P. W. Jones of Dorval, a former pastor of the Cookshire United Church. He will be assisted by Rev. R. N. Nickle of Magog, Rev. Carson Duquette of Quebec City and Mrs. Walter Judge of Windsor. At this time, by means of an impressive new development in telephonic communication, members of the audience may participate in direct conversation with persons on the other side of the world.

A special program for children will be presented in Victoria Hall on Saturday at 10 a.m. On the same date, at 8 p.m., an international Social Evening will be held in Victoria Hall.

On Sunday evening, at a service beginning at 8 p.m. in the United Church Hall, audio-visual equipment will be used to provide an experience of interest, information and inspiration for all who wish to share in this service of worship and witness.

Elections for mayor, alderman to be held in Windsor on May 5

WINDSOR — (Staff) — Elections will be held here May 5 for the posts of mayor and seat 5 alderman. Running for mayor are incumbent mayor Arthur Hamel and Lewis Craig, town secretary J. Emile Langeleur reported yesterday.

Running for seat no. 5 are Adrien Peliquin and Henry Wheeler. Incumbent seat 5 alderman, Andre Beauregard did not present himself for re-election.

GEORGE CHAPMAN

Funeral on Saturday

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke, for George Frederick Chapman, manager of the Sherbrooke Curling Club, who died last night at Sherbrooke Hospital.

Mr. Chapman, 73, who lived at 217 Quebec Street, was active in numerous Eastern Township organizations. He was a former president and life member of the Sherbrooke Snow Shoe Club, and a former secretary of the Sherbrooke District Boy Scouts Association. He was also very active in Canadian Legion affairs. He was a veteran of the First World War.

He was instrumental in a $25,000 fund raising campaign for the present Legion building, and was secretary of the Legion for many years.

He was a member of the Legion board of trustees. Mr. Chapman sang in the St. Peter's Church choir for more than 50 years.

He was employed as an engineer by Canadian Ingersoll-Rand in Sherbrooke for 50 years. After his retirement he was manager of the Sherbrooke Curling Club.

He was born in Coddington, England, and educated in England, coming to Sherbrooke 57 years ago.

See "Funeral" on Page 7

Nominations for the posts were held at Windsor town hall yesterday.

The other two aldermen whose terms are ending were re-elected by acclamation since no one signed to run against them. They are Conrad Charland, seat no. 1 and Roland Riendeau, seat 2.

3-YEAR TERM

Windsor town council will, as of this fall, serve a three-year term rather than two-year term and will hold elections for mayor and aldermen at a single date, town secretary J. Emile Langeleur said yesterday.

The resolution denoting the change has been approved by Quebec City.

The town council will hold a full election in early November and will sit for the next three years, he said.

Up until now mayor and aldermen's terms have run for two years with mayor and three aldermen being elected one year and the other three aldermen the next.

Youth group to hold its 1st congress

The first annual congress of the National Youth Society of Quebec will be held May 8 and May 9 at the University of Sherbrooke Faculty of Science building.

One of the aims of this society is to organize activities for young people for their well-being.

To be discussed at the congress will be the need of having a hostel for Eastern Township youth and the purpose it will serve.

Among proposals to be discussed is a proposal to form a commission to study the Fulton-Favreau repatriation formula for the Canadian constitution. The society will state its views on the formula.

A budget of $429 will be voted on for the society in order to maintain a permanent secretariat.

Bright future is forecast for beef cattle industry in Quebec

The beef industry in the province of Quebec has a bright future, members of the Quebec Beef Cattle Association were told last night.

Outgoing president Wesley Nichol, of Lennoxville giving the annual report to the association which gathered at the LeBaron motor Hotel said, that according to the federal agriculture department beef demand in 1960 will be 18 million head.

"This is an increase of six to five million head from the present figure," he said.

Reviewing the activities of 1964, Mr. Nichol said that at last year's spring sale, 64 head of pure bred beef cattle were sold bringing in an average price of $384.66. The price of the top bull was $750 and the top price for females was $675.

Referring to today's beef sale at the Sherbrooke arena Mr. Nichol said that this year only four cattle were taken out by the judges compared to 14 last year. This means that the quality of cattle is improving.

At last night's annual meeting two representatives of the provincial government's Agriculture and Colonization department were present, Honorary Pellerin and Roland Camirand.

Both men addressed the meeting praising the improving quality of beef in Quebec and offering their help in this respect.

Following this, officers of various committees and the 1965 executive were elected.

Alain Martin of Bury was elected president by the directors of the association. Doctor Louis Johnston of St. Genevieve de Pierrefonds 1st vice-president; Robert Mayhew of Bury, second vice-president; and Robert Laberge of Danville, secretary-treasurer.

Don MacMillan who has been with the association since 1947 was elected technical advisor, and Herbert Norris of Hudson was elected Expo 67 advisor.

Directors are: Herford committee—Wesley Nichol, Leo Langvein of St. Pie and Robert Mayhew; Shorthorns; Erwin Watson of Bury; Mrs. T. C. Stuart and Allen Martin; Angus committee: Dr. Louis Johnston, David Yule of Pierrefonds and R. Donaldson; ex-officio committee, C. A. Staples of Montreal, George Rodrigue of Montreal, and Roland Sourisse.

BEEBE — (Special) — Congratulations are extended to Mrs. John Grieve of Beebe who celebrates her 102nd birthday on May 2nd.

Mrs. Grieve was born in Scotland in 1863 and came to Canada in 1911. She now lives with her son and daughter-in-law.

Each day Mrs. Grieve is able to dress and come downstairs. She enjoys very good health although she has difficulty hearing.

OFF THE ROAD — This car, driven by Laureat Rouleau, 56, of 98 Camirand Street, careened into a traffic light post and the front of the La Tribune building on Dufferin Street in Sherbrooke late yesterday afternoon, after striking the rear of another car stopped at the traffic light. The other car was occupied by Roland Arcouette, 57, of 885 Esplanade Street. Mr. Rouleau had five passengers in his car. No one was injured, police said. (Record photo by Doug Gerrish)

2 preliminary hearings held

Two preliminary hearings were held yesterday at the Sherbrooke Court of Sessions, one for a hit and run case and the other for a man charged with being in possession of stolen machinery valued at about $1,300.

Mr. Bonneau and fellow detective Jean Marie Donahue investigated the accident. Between seven and 7:15 p.m. Detective Bonneau testified that he went to Potvin's home.

Detective Bonneau also brought to the stand some of the pieces of the car which collided with Mr. Lizee's car.

He testified that a left side door chrome piece, left hub wheel cap and left fender clamp found at the accident scene all fitted Mr. Potvin's car.

The accused then took the stand and said that he was at work between 5:30 and 8 p.m. at the Sherbrooke Race Track.

He also testified that the car was not registered in his name. This is one of the points Raynald Frchette Potvin's lawyer stressed after the witnesses were heard. "After all the car could have been stolen," he said, while his client was at work.

But Judge Turmel felt that there was enough evidence for a trial and set bail at $950.

 In the second case, Robert Labrecque, 23, of Sherbrooke RR 5 is charged with being in possession of stolen machine equipment. The merchandise was stolen during the night of

Hotel keepers fined for liquor offences

A Deauville hotel proprietor was fined $400 yesterday at the District of St. Francis Court of Sessions when he pleaded guilty to selling liquor contrary to the conditions of his license. Guy Leblanc pleaded guilty to three charges before Judge Benoit Turmel each one being an infraction of the license permit and the infractions occurred during the last three months of 1964.

Two other men, Normand Goodsell of St. Catherine de Hatley and Jean Paul Faucher of Windsor, were fined $100 each for selling liquor outside the time permitted by the liquor law.

A Deauville man was fined $30 when he pleaded guilty to three traffic infractions.

Henry Blanchette pleaded guilty before Judge Turmel to two traffic infractions incurred during October 1964 at Deauville and one at Lennoxville.

The infractions concerned driving a car without a license and for each infraction Judge Turmel gave a fine of $10.

An Asbestos man pleaded guilty to five charges of false unemployment insurance declarations and was fined $80.

Denis Turcotte pleaded guilty to the five offenses which were incurred during 1964.

Judge Turmel fined Turcotte twice for $25 and three times for ten dollars.

A 23-year-old Sherbrooke man was fined $25 for stealing two cans of maple syrup valued at a total of $40.

Robert Labrecque of Sherbrooke RR 5 pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Turmel.

Raynald Frchette his lawyer told the Judge that his client had reimbursed the $40. The offense occurred during March 1965.

Judge Turmel gave the accused the choice of paying the fine or being sent to jail for eight days. The accused paid.

Maine governor interested in highway

FREDERICTON (CP) — President J. A. Rioux of the Fredericton Board of Trade told a meeting here Wednesday Governor John Reed of Maine has shown "considerable interest in a proposed corridor road across Maine linking Quebec and New Brunswick. Mr. Rioux was reporting on a meeting here early this month of delegates from Canada and the U.S. called to discuss the proposal. The Fredericton and McAdam boards of trade were to seek immediate action on the matter. One proposal for the highway would have Sherbrooke as the western terminus of the highway.

Says the RC school tax rates can't be raised much higher

Sherbrooke Catholic school taxes cannot be raised much higher whatever the needs of the Regional school board, regional board president Michel Marengo has told the Sherbrooke Chamber of Commerce directors.

He was talking at a meeting held to discuss financing of the regional board, according to a chamber press release.

The chamber announced that it would also meet with Sherbrooke Catholic school commission president, Francois Thibault to discuss education financing.

Sherbrooke taxpayers should not be too worried since school tax rates will not be given more than a slight raise, the release quoted Mr. Marengo as saying.

Mr. Marengo also told the chamber directors that a study is being made on making evaluation rates uniform in the region.

Such a study would allow the regional board to levy its taxes on a just and equitable basis throughout the region.

The regional school commission is awaiting the issuing of the new taxation norms before preparation of its budget.

The Sherbrooke commission, in turn, must wait for completion of the regional board's budget before finishing its own, since the regional board levies a certain amount from the local boards.

Both budgets have to be completed and sent to the department of education for approval by May 30, says Sherbrooke commission secretary Yvon Lanctot.

The school commission fiscal year begins July 1.

Mr. Lanctot noted that the department advised the Sherbrooke commission to raise its realty tax rate from the present $2.16 per $100 evaluation to $2.46 per $100.

The increase has been delayed and the Sherbrooke commission is taking all steps possible to prevent its taking effect, he added.

The Chamber directors are also urging city council's attention to a centennial project. City Authorities may meet Sherbrooke MLA Carrier Fortin to study possible grants for a city centennial project.

Estrie school board covers huge region

The Estrie Regional School Board covers a huge region extending from Lake Megantic to Magog and from Asbestos to the U.S. border. It has a population estimated at 180,000 people.

However the centre and by far the largest city is Sherbrooke. It has three representatives on the nine-man regional board, including chairman, Michel Marengo.

If Sherbrooke withdraws, as Sherbrooke Catholic School Commission voted in favor of this week, the board would have to be entirely reorganized.

The regional board has a permanent office in Sherbrooke at the Ecole Lafontaine on East Ward Holmes Street and meets there every Monday night.

The regional area takes in 15,000 students and 75 local Catholic school commissions.

Its estimated budget for the first full year (June 1965 to June 1966) is $10 million.

Representing Sherbrooke on the board are, besides chairman Mr. Marengo, Mr. Thibault and Conrad Cayer.

The other six members are elected from each of six districts.

Windsor - Richmond is represented by Jean Trifiro, Weedon area by Alexandre Tounisnant, Asbestos area by Henri-Louis Grimard, Lake Megantic by Gregoire Duquette, Coaticook by Jean-Louis Dupont, and Magog by Adrien Lacroix.

The largest centres outside Sherbrooke are Magog (pop. 13,000), Asbestos (pop. 11,000), Lake Megantic and Coaticook (both about 7,000) and Windsor (pop. 6,600).

Expo 67 model is show feature
 A large model of Expo '67 will be the main attraction at the fifth annual exhibition, Life in the Outdoors, to be held May 5 to May 9 inclusive.

The exposition, to be held in the Belvedere Street Armoury in aid of retarded children, will display the latest pleasures of outdoor life.

Visitors will be able to see the changes made to Montreal in preparation for Expo '67 and just what the project involves.

Organizer Gilles Choquette reports that visitors will be able to view fish in 10,000 gallons of water. And for those interested in this subject, the Molson Hunting and Fishing Club will have a display exhibited by Richmond Pelletier.

Films will be shown continually on related subjects.

The provincial and federal governments will be equally represented at the exhibition. There will be many models of pleasure boats as well.

YM-YW art
 Work done by the student at the YM-YWCA art classes which are being conducted at the group headquarters on Montreal Street, were on display for the public all day today at the YM-YWCA.

The public exhibition will continue until 9 p.m. tonight.

Annexation proposals unjustified

As might be expected Mayor J. Wilfrid Bernier and his fellow members of the Rock Forest municipal council are indignant over proposals made by the Sherbrooke City Council to annex an important section of that municipality.

And with good reason. Rock Forest residents would have everything to lose and nothing to gain from the transfer of the area, which will include the proposed two-million dollar shopping centre, to the jurisdiction of Sherbrooke.

This particular section of the sprawling municipality provides the largest source of Rock Forest's revenue and the municipal income should be implemented substantially when the new development is completed.

Individual proprietors in the region concerned would find their taxes increased substantially without any substantial improvement in the public services. In fact, it is possible that they may experience an extended delay in receiving water and sewage facilities which Rock Forest is prepared to provide immediately.

One obvious reason for the Sherbrooke proposal is the desire of the Sherbrooke Council to gain an important source of revenue which will accrue when the shopping centre is completed.

Another reason advanced for the proposed grab is that shopping centre stores will be able to remain open during the evening hours when Sherbrooke storekeepers are required to close under the terms of a municipal by-law.

If the Council really desires to protect the interests of the local merchants, it might consider repealing the early closing by-law and give the local citizens an opportunity to shop outside the somewhat restricted hours now observed by Sherbrooke merchants.

With early closing and frequent holidays it is becoming harder and harder for the Sherbrooke people to do their shopping within the city. An extension of these hours might react to the benefit of the merchants and prospective patrons alike.

Getting CDC off to a wrong start

Somehow or other the importance of the Canadian Development Corporation, proposed by Finance Minister Walter Gordon in his latest budget, as an instrument for expanding Canadian investment in the country's resources seems to have been downgraded by the decision to transfer the Crown-owned Polymer Corporation to the new fund.

The avowed purpose of the Canadian Development Corporation is to provide a means for new industries to obtain at home the money they require for establishing their enterprises or to assist established firms in danger of being acquired by outside interests because of lack of capital.

Polymer Corporation meets neither of these conditions. It has reached full development and has ample means of acquiring any money needed for expansion from the same source it received its initial investment — from the taxpayers of Canada. And the only possible danger of it being acquired by foreigners would be through a reversal of government policy on foreign ownership.

If the Government has decided that the time has come for reversing the trend to socialism and restore many of its non-government agencies to private ownership it might consider the creation of another monster corporation which could acquire the Canadian National Railways, Eldorado Mining and Refining Limited and Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation, stock in which could be offered to the public.

But any move in this direction should be divorced from the idea of development funds.

The problems facing the operators of well-established concerns are far removed from those encountered by those seeking to establish some new enterprise.

Now if someone would only show us how to escape from television. "Escapism" describes most of the 34 television shows scheduled to debut next fall.

Disturbing thoughts on neo-Nazis

Probably the news of the foundation of a branch of the Nazi party in Toronto may be dismissed as a serious threat to Canadian institutions. The opinion of the average man that this movement will never make any substantial progress in Canada is probably justified.

But the fact that such a hate-making movement can find even limited support raises some disturbing questions as to human behavior.

If one dismisses the theory that this is a form of exhibitionism which thrives on notoriety, there is left the idea that in many human beings there remains a deep, dark urge to exercise the perverted bestiality that made Nazism attractive to so many in the years gone by.

It may be a reflection of the boredom caused by a prolonged period of relative peace and prosperity, of the lack of challenge resulting from easy, peaceful living.

Or it may be the outward sign of the sadistic tendencies which psychiatrists say are kept hidden by the average man.

The ordinary individual gives vent to these impulses by witnessing a prize fight, shooting crows or watching a street brawl.

But to the abnormal mentality succumb from the pressures can be achieved only by the thought of inflicting suffering on another human being.

Child beaters and Nazi butchers apparently have a lot in common.

Other papers say:

Ontario may end religious courses

An impartial investigation into the religious courses in Ontario's public schools is overdue. Ever since they were introduced in 1944, controversy and emotion have surrounded them.

It is, therefore, welcome news that Queen's Park is to appoint a committee of educators and psychologists, representing various backgrounds, to study the problem and make recommendations.

The problem is to rear a God-fearing generation without encroaching on the rights of differing dogmas. As presently constituted, the religious courses reflect a kind of compromise Protestantism agreed upon by an inter-church committee.

Parents may obtain exemption for their children from these courses, but this is regarded by opponents as an odious distinction that should not be allowed in state-supported schools.

(Toronto Telegram)

gious instruction in the schools is not between religionists and anti-religionists, as many people are quick to declare.

It is between those who say that the best guarantee of religious freedom is to keep the state out of religion as far as possible and those who view the termination of such instruction as a detraction of religious expression.

The Telegram stands with those who are concerned in this age about the incursions and attacks on the principles of Judeo-Christian teaching. Technology has advanced far more quickly than spiritual values. We are witnessing today a growing irreverence for the sanctities of life and a falling of standards generally.

But is instruction in Christian dogma in the schools the best way of arresting this trend? Christian leaders in this province are in dispute among themselves on this issue? Only last February a group of clergymen, representing the United, Anglican, Presbyterian, Unitarian and Buddhist churches, appealed to Education Minister Davis to put an end to the religious courses.

The objection is to the theological content in the courses, which tend to divide rather than unite future citizens who must find a way of respecting each other's beliefs.

Our history counsels against mingling theology and officialdom in the sensitive setting of the schools and under circumstances regarded by minorities as coercive, in spite of the exemptions.

It should be possible to come up with a course that stresses ethical behavior, refusal to be dependent on materialism, loyalty to law and order, desire to maintain hu-

GOULD — A delightful informal reception was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Morrison, who were married at East Angus, by relatives and friends at the Town Hall on April 21.

Those present from a distance in spite of bad roads, were the groom's great aunt, Mrs. John MacLeod, of East Angus; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Witty and son, Ronald, of Newton, Mass.; Mrs. Albert Beliveau, Mr. and Mrs. A. Beliveau, Mr. Alfred Rowland, Miss Mabel Crump, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie N. MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Beattie, Mr. Ronald Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Damon and Miss Helen Stickle, all of East Angus; Mr. and Mrs. George MacDonald and children, Mrs. W. S. MacCaskill and Mrs. K. A. MacLeod and Miss Kay MacLeod, of Scotstown; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morrison, of West Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Brien and Mr. Irving Annesley of Keith; and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Matheson, of Sherbrooke.

Mr. Fleming, former Finance and Justice Minister, wanted to return to private life for personal reasons. He is now practising law in Toronto.

Mr. Halpenny, ex-State Secretary, didn't stand for re-election because of health reasons. But he has recovered and, if reports are correct, is looking longingly toward Ottawa.

Tory old guard coming back?

Mr. Hees seen a combination of JFK, Anthony Eden and Acheson

By PETER DEMPSON

name Mr. Hees as his successor.

The 1963 turn of events changed all that. Many Conservatives are still critical of Mr. Hees for walking out on the party during the Cabinet crisis. But memories are short. Many are expected to welcome his plan to return, convinced that it will help heal the wounds within party ranks.

Mr. Hees hasn't tried to hide the fact that the pull of Ottawa is strong.

"I like what I'm doing," he said recently. "But I wouldn't be honest if I didn't say that my heart is still in Parliament."

Asked at the time if he was planning a comeback, the $40,000-a-year stock exchange boss replied with a smile:

"I've got a job to do. I'm giving it the best I've got. My employers couldn't treat me better."

Ironically, Mr. Hees has been doing as much public speaking — if not more — than he did as a politician and a Cabinet minister. Hardly a week has gone by that he hasn't been making a speech in Vancouver, or Halifax, or Quebec, or Toronto, or Winnipeg.

He has been making it a point to avoid politics most of the time. He has dealt with the economy, urging Canadians to dig their savings out of bed mattresses and bluntly suggesting that they invest in Canadian company shares and the future of Canada.

But earlier this week he strayed into the political realm with an observation that the Liberal Government should cut taxes in the 1964-65 budget.

And he hasn't lost any of the punch or enthusiasm that he had when in government. In many ways, he has remained the go-go-go Trade Minister, selling Canadian products both at home and abroad.

Now a well-preserved 55, Mr. Hees could pass for 40. He keeps fit by skiing, swimming and playing golf. Big, handsome, his dark hair only starting to turn grey at the temples, Mr. Hees is still the "hail fellow, well met."

Canadians generally like him, whether they happen to be Tories or not. On the international scene, he has been a good advertisement for Canada.

Now, long ago one of the London Daily Express's most able reporters, Rene MacColl, came to Canada to interview Mr. Hees. So taken was he by Mr. Hees's personality and infectious manner that he wrote:

"Visually Mr. Hees is a dreamboat combo of the late Owen Nares, Ivor Novello and Gerad du Maurier (in their day, great British matinee idols) in one supremely glorious package. Also he is titanicly rich."

Mr. MacColl continues in this same vein. He admits that the six-foot-three Mr. Hees, as seen through admiring Fleet Street eyes, would make as much impact in the councils of the world as a combination of Anthony Eden, John Kennedy and Dean Acheson if he ever got to be top man in Canada.

Mr. MacColl didn't rule that out. He foresaw a solid political future for the one time Toronto Argos football player, distinguished World War II soldier, successful businessman and outstanding Cabinet minister.

New tenant

"The thing to remember about George Hees," Mr. MacColl wrote prophetically, "is that if and when John Diefenbaker vacates the leadership, he may be in there as the new tenant — and if he is, he one day might be Canadian Prime Minister."

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — Pop artist Andy Warhol, who pads down in a loft in Greenwich Village, had a finger in Finance Minister Gordon's Monday budget. Mr. Gordon gave him no credit. Like man it's the Liberal government that sees the beauty in a case of Campbell's soup.

Warhol's influence is in the announcement that "The duty free item for original sculptures is amended by substituting a minimum value of $75 for the requirement that the sculpture be certified as being of a cultural nature."

This harkens back to the bill of Toronto art dealer Jerrold Morris to import some of Warhol's boxes — his replicas of packing cases for soup, soap and scouring pads — as duty-free sculpture. The National Gallery's Dr. Charles Comfort said no, they weren't sculpture within the "cultural" item in the Tariff Act — and got himself called an artistic clot.

Now, thanks to Mr. Gordon's artistic sensitivity, if it's worth $75 it's duty-free art.

On the economic side, it's a pump priming budget — only I'm not sure the pump needs priming. Neither, I suspect, is Mr. Gordon. So the tax cuts smack of double barreled political insurance. One barrel: in case the government is forced into an election this year. The other barrel: to make sure that the economic upswing now in its fourth year lasts through a 1966 election.

I would be loath to argue against the 10 per cent tax cut — but I would have liked some reassurance about inflation. Tax cuts are inflationary. Price pressures are increasing, as any comparison of consumer prices this year and last quickly shows. But Mr. Gordon didn't mention inflation.

I'd also like something more than Mr. Gordon's pious hope that the provinces won't hike taxes to put the total tax load right back where it was — say, to combat inflation!

"I would not expect provincial governments to move in to raise their income taxes," Mr. Gordon said — a comment that, to Quebec, may be something like a red flag to a bull.

But the provinces don't have to increase income taxes. They can boost gasoline taxes, cigarette taxes, sales taxes, liquor prices and so forth in the comforting knowledge that after July 1 we can all afford to pay more.

Mr. Gordon dresses up the economic nationalism of the Canada Development Corp. fairly respectably by emphasizing that capital in the amounts Canada needs may not always be available from foreign sources. True — and there's still an appeal in the homely virtues of thrift, savings and self-reliance. But the investor-voters will want dividends from their CDC investments, and the politicians will want dividends paid. Especially before an election!

Having outlawed foreign capital in the newspaper and magazine publishing businesses, the government seems under some moral obligation to ensure alternative sources. This suggests the CDC. Mr. Gordon says the CDC will "stand on its own feet, free of government control". But the government will be the largest shareholder, with 10 per cent of stock, and will swing an awful lot of weight on the CDC board. So perhaps the CDC wouldn't be an altogether desirable source of publishing capital.

The budget overall: sugary, play it safe, don't rock the boat.

If you think you don't need disability insurance, you haven't seen the statistics.

Of 1000 persons aged 35, 33% will be disabled by illness or injury—for three months or more—before they reach age 65. That's what the statistics show.

What kind of a statistic will you be? It makes sense to look into a Manufacturers Life Personal Income Protector Plan. Nothing can give you such peace of mind as the sure knowledge that if you are disabled and cannot work, a guaranteed income will come your way.

Our Plan has many advantages. It offers you a wide flexibility in amount of income and the length of time it will be paid. For example; you may be able to arrange for income benefits right through to age 65 for total disability due to sickness or for life when an accident is the cause. Accidental death and dismemberment benefits to age 65 are also offered. You can co-ordinate the plan with your other resources; tailor it to your needs and your pocketbook. Manufacturers Life cannot alter the policy nor can your premium rate be raised—ever. The plan can be adjusted to correct the inadequacy of any short-term coverage you already have.

If you are interested, call the Man from Manufacturers. When advising you on disability income he offers you the same competent counsel available to you when you are planning your life insurance security.

Financial report read of Junior C of C

SUTTON — (Staff) — At the monthly general assembly of the Sutton Junior Chamber of Commerce held Monday night at the Sutton Lodge, one of the main subjects to come up for reading was the financial report based on the Chamber's past year's activities.

Revenue realized for the year by the 1964-65 executive amounted to $1,168.98. This amount was realized from a variety of sources: a supper given for the man of the year, $679.57; dues received from 28 members, $280; publicity, $141.75; sale of apple juice, $13.50; excursion to Sorrel, $4.14; and from other sources, $24.50. The executive started with a bank balance of $25.52, which brought the total revenue to $1,168.98. Expenses incurred by the outgoing executive amounted to $563.06.

Two suppers with discussions on the subject of Urbanism for the town of Sutton cost the club a total of $193.34; exhibition of paintings, $17.74; Provincial Congress, $30.00; Cine-Club, $40.00 was spent for this during the past year; $10 was spent on publicity; $72.61 on stationery; $21.10 on the Junior Chamber newspaper; $13.72 was spent on flowers for the opening of La Paimpolaise de Sutton, a lodge built on the mountain road. The amount of $140 was spent on federation dues. For a cocktail party, Le Partie de Balon - balais, $22.50 was spent. This brings the total spent during the past year to $563.06. On April 19 of this year the Junior Chamber of Commerce had a bank balance of exactly $605.92.

Windfall commission

They ignored company policy and stock exchange rules

TORONTO (CP) — Partners and employees of a Toronto stock brokerage firm ignored company policy and stock exchange rules when they bought 35,000 shares of Windfall Oils and Mines Ltd. last July, the Windfall royal commission was told Wednesday.

George Hunter, a director of T. A. Richardson and Co., testified the shares should not have been bought from Viola MacMillan, Windfall promoter, because she was a Richardson client.

Mr. Hunter said the employees' orders "just go in with the rest of the flood of orders."

"It was an error . . . I can't explain it."

The commission under Mr. Justice Arthur Kelly of the Ontario Court of Appeal is investigating the rise of Windfall shares last July to $5.60 from 56 cents on rumors of an ore strike and the plunge to 80 cents when assays uncovered no valuable ore bodies.

Then Mr. Field testified he had bought 15,000 shares.

Mr. Field and Mr. Hunter both said Mr. Lecour also bought 15,000—by means of a "trading device" involving Mr. Field's buying the shares nominally, at $1.01, under agreement that Mr. Field would then sell the shares to Mr. Lecour at $1.02.

Mr. Hunter was asked if this is usual practice. He said "it does take place on the floor," but added "I don't condone it."

Simmering labor unrest brings French police to St. Pierre-Miquelon

ST. PIERRE, St. Pierre-Miquelon (CP) — French police reinforcements headed here today as an initial contingent which landed several days ago amid simmering labor unrest became the focal point of street protests.

The French frigate Commandant Bourdais steamed here from Halifax, where 65 guards made a transfer Wednesday from an airliner. The ship was expected here late in the day.

Spokesmen for the town council and the general council, legislative body in this last remnant of the French colonial empire of North America, have promised that resumption of a general strike will greet any new police landing.

Elected officials and the islands' 5,200 inhabitants, split over proposed general wage increases until the original 67 police landed Sunday from another warship, closed ranks during the week against Paris-appointed Governor Jacques Herry.

Governor Herry, who asked for the police after reporting he had been threatened from unidentified quarters, Wednesday arranged a halt in a three-day general strike after meeting people who marched on his mansion.

Albert Penn, former vice-president of the general council, told the gathering after meetings with the governor and the mayor they should end the strike. However, he said it would resume if the initial police body, landed with jeeps, trucks and weapons, was not withdrawn within a reasonable time. Similarly, he said, it would resume if the extra police landed today.

A joint committee of the mayor, town council, several members of the general council and union representatives said the trouble "is in the imagination of the governor" and appealed to French Premier Georges Pompidou for the governor's recall, along with the police.

The mayor said the "territory has been faithful to France for more than three centuries and did not deserve this disciplinary penalty. I decline all responsibility on unavoidable consequences." The message was directed to French States Minister Louis Jacquinot.

The additional police would bring to 152 the number of law officers on the islands, policed by a normal force of 20.

Pension plan documents burn

QUEBEC (CP) — Fire destroyed offices occupied by a committee drawing up Quebec's pension plan Wednesday but Premier Lesage said all the documents destroyed are most likely available elsewhere. The fire injured committee employee Gustave Poisson, 63, who burned his hands while trying to put out the blaze which started in a waste paper basket

Premier Lesage told reporters the fire will cause no delays in presentation of the provincial pension plan legislation or in its execution, scheduled for the beginning of 1966.

St. Patrick Mission Circle sponsors successful Salad Tea

The St. Patrick Mission Circle Salad Tea, held in St. Patrick's Church Hall on Saturday, April 24, proved successful both socially and financially.

In the absence of Mrs. Paul Boileau, president, the many guests were received by Mrs. M. Farrell and Miss Flossie Sheridan. The tea table was centered with an attractive arrangement of multicolored tulips in a crystal vase, and the poures were Mrs. Georges Sylvestre, Mrs. Jim Lynn, Mrs. Wilfred Olivier and Mrs. Charlie Clark. Carrying out the spring theme, the small tables were arranged with an assortment of spring flowers and pussywillows.

Members of the circle looked after the food, apron, gift and surprise box tables, which were well patronized. The waitresses and kitchen duties were also in charge of the circle members.

A needlepoint picture, donated by Mrs. Albertine Trudeau, was won by Miss Gertrude O'Boyle.

Honor bride - elect

Miss Barbara Billson, a May bride-to-be, was entertained recently at a dinner at a local restaurant by her co-workers from the Ingersoll-Rand Company.

Following the dinner party, the friends of the guest of honor pleasantly surprised her with a cup and saucer shower. Miss Billson expressed thanks to her friends for the many beautiful gifts and the pleasant evening.

The artist-in-wool spent a busy time at her winter home in Phoenix, Ariz., plying her "hook" at the rate of 55 stitches a minute.

She got into tapestry portraits in the 1940s after her famous Cape Breton hooked rugs attracted attention of tourists at her old home here. Over the years she has hooked tapestry portraits for such notables as Queen Elizabeth, Popes Paul, John and Pius XII, Presidents Eisenhower, Kennedy and Johnson, Lord Beaverbrook.

It's smart to plan ahead with adaptable pieces

The stock advice handed to young brides-to-be shopping for home furnishings is to "plan ahead."

This spring I can safely predict that several of my young friends will tell me how downright silly it is to tell them to "plan ahead" in the home furnishing field.

The tiny apartment today may yield to a home in the suburbs tomorrow — or it may not. It may yield instead to another apartment in a distant city. Few of us as young marrieds can accurately predict where we'll be in 5 to 10 years.

Some of my friends meet the unpredictability by adopting the "camp stool and orange crate" decor in which everything is expendable. This type of interior has a certain roughish charm but it lacks a stability that most of us appreciate after a hard day's work.

Admitting that it is often difficult to plan ahead or, if you can, to find the suitable furniture that may be implied, one method of planning ahead is to select each piece of furniture for versatility and to buy the best quality you can afford. To qualify as versatile doesn't automatically mean a gadgety serving bar or a dual-purpose sofa.

Another example of versatility is the adaptability of a given piece of furniture to different situations and locations, without looking dated.

The enduring popularity of Early American does mean a wide selection as manufacturers regard it as a stable commodity above the fickle winds of change. For this reason, you will often find very good craftsmanship at a moderate price. American restoration designs in one collection (Globe) are good examples of the combination of quality and versatility.

A simple three-drawer chest in cherry with antique brass pulls with a white marble top is strongly built, well-finished, in the medium-low price range and would serve storage needs in many ways.

In that tiny apartment such a chest (and you will find counterparts of this one in many collections) looks at home in the living room holding table linens, silver, games or cards. The marble top permits it to be used as a serving counter for buffets. Well-planned proportions of drawers mean this same unit could be used in a foyer or entrance hall or a bedroom.

In a small living room, a love seat, big enough for two, is in better proportion than a large sofa which is also difficult and expensive to move.

A love seat supplements a sofa later or moves to a bedroom alcove (oh, well, we can dream can't we?).

Small tables can be bunched for cocktail use or separated for occasional use. A good, capacious lounge chair is a joy forever. I know our lounge chair, purchased many years ago, has been reupholstered for the third time and looks as fit as ever. Lounge chairs are timeless and will blend with almost any furniture style.

Today's recipe

Honey Whip
1/2 cup cold water
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup skim milk powder
Few grains salt
1/2 cup honey

Mix water and lemon juice in a deep bowl and add skim milk powder and salt. Beat until mixture stands in firm (about 5 minutes), and then gradually beat in the honey. Makes about 3 cups. Serve cold with jellied desserts, baked apples or other fruit, rice and other puddings, and almost any kind of cake; and use to fill cream puffs or chocolate eclairs. (Honey Whip has about a third as many calories as whipped cream.)

Cherry Honey Glaze

1 15-ounce can pitted red cherries
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/4 cup honey
1 dash cinnamon
1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon butter
Few drops red food color

Drain juice off cherries and set aside 1/4 cup; mix rest of juice with lemon juice, honey and cinnamon and heat to boiling. Dissolve cornstarch in the 1/4 cup juice, stir into hot juice and reheat, stirring constantly until thickened. Stir in cherries and reheat. Remove from heat; stir in the butter and red color. Serve hot on cottage pudding, Mary Anns (sponge cake shells) or other plain cake. Or cool slightly; spoon over large angel food cake and chill about 2 hours to set glaze before cutting cake.

Spanish touches add Beauty briefs that special zest

The accent in home decorating this spring will often be Spanish. The romance of wrought iron grill work and curlicues, the solid historical charm of carved chests and tables, the power of Spanish reds, muted olive green, dull gold to inject excitement into a room are not lost on homemakers looking for a little something to wake up a living or dining room.

Some homemakers may be unquestioned authorities in their own homes when they want to inject a new color or new accessory. I fight all the way.

Recently when I diverted enough cash from the grocery account to have the living room painted, my decision to have the back wall of the bookshelves and the fireplace wall painted that dull mustard-green Spanish olive color was challenged by every gobby member of the family. Reason prevailed (I won) and the freshly painted walls — the main walls are off-white — look lovely but in need of a sharp black accent.

I was surprised to find a number of handsome black wrought iron accessories to provide the accent. Wrought iron planters, for example, of all sizes and shapes, and iron-based tables head the list.

Like many homemakers, I study model rooms or the decorating pictures to get ideas which I can adapt or to appreciate how many ways there are to express individual tastes. One point often bothers me: where are the lamps? I don't know any living room that doesn't need a lamp or two or three. Yet lamps don't get the space they should, in my opinion, in most of the beautiful color reproductions of lovely rooms.

It is not necessary, as one friend advised me, to have an old wine bottle electrified if you want a lamp with a Spanish accent. Nor do you have to give up reading and settle for candlelight in wrought iron sconces — although this is very pretty.

There are several lamps in new designs, new colors and new glazed effects which can contribute to an effect without the high price tag of custom originals.

One, for example, that is particularly adaptable to the current mode is a Spanish jug (by Heager) set in an iron tripod. The ceramic jug with incised design is in shades of antique yellow, olive or red. In this same line are lamps, both decorative and useful, with an Oriental, traditional and contemporary flare.

Prices are moderate, craftsmanship is excellent. Smaller accessories such as vases, ashtrays and cigarette holders are color coordinated.

Polly's pointers

DEAR POLLY — We recently moved into a new home with pale green carpeting over the entire first floor. My husband's office has oiled floors and the oil plus the tracks from muddy feet put me at my wits' end as I wanted to protect the carpeting. I made my husband a pair of booties by sewing up a loose pair of slippers out of old Turkish towels and putting a loose elastic around the tops. They are kept on the chair by the kitchen door and my husband slips them on over his shoes and wears them in the house. He does not mind as this is a lot easier than taking his shoes off and putting them on again to go out later. My invention has caused some laughs and maybe some misplaced pity for my husband but it has saved the carpeting. He, too, is proud of his home and willing, as any husband should be, to do this little bit toward keeping it nice. — MRS. R. R.

CHARLES TONNEAU
connoisseur and well-known Montreal wine steward suggests the proper way with WINES

For each occasion in the home there is a right and proper type of wine, determined by experience and tradition. For example, at meals:

With red meats, roasts, venison — Serve a robust and full-bodied red wine at room temperature, between 60°F. and 65°F. Serve in a generous size tulip shaped glass. When possible, open the bottle an hour or two before serving to allow the wine to "breathe".

With fish, oysters, lobsters — Serve a dry white wine, chilled to about 45°F. to 53°F. The correct glass is tulip shaped and medium size. Never fill the glass more than two-thirds.

The exact wine selected within each type depends on your individual taste... but may I suggest for the above servings two that are produced, aged and bottled in the vineyards of South Africa. They are: Paarl Roederberg, a full-bodied red wine similar in character to the finest burgundies. And Paarl Riesling, a dry white wine like the fine Alsations. Having toured the sunny South African vineyards, I know both of these wines are excellent, because they bear the Paarl name.

For memorable flavour at moderate cost... vous Paarl-iez.

VALLEY WEAVERS

The Valley Weavers are to be given a second free government-sponsored five week weaving course. Last year, through the department of Home Economics, Mrs. Vivian April held the first of a five year course in weaving, beginning with the Knowledge of a Loom, and the Elementary Weaves. Classes are to be held afternoons and evenings and everyone attending must register for two classes each week.

The minimum attendance is 25, and as the Valley Weavers by themselves could not fill the necessary enrollment, anyone interested was invited to enroll, and all classes were filled. This year it is hoped the same procedure may be carried out, names will be registered in the order in which they are received. Interested people either men or women, wishing to enroll, may call 569-2314, 569-6159 or 569-2433.

Every one interested is asked to attend the opening session on May 24, at 8 p.m. The place of meeting has yet to be arranged. All who took the course last year should bring their sample books to the opening session.

These, and other arrangements, were made at the regular meeting held at the home of Mrs. Helen Hyatt, Huntingville, where the secretary-treasurer reported 14 members now enrolled, with seven present. Mrs. Ernest Johnston, president, presided. Three members reported on their visit to the exhibition of tapestries, at the University of Sherbrooke.

Work of the month on display was the following: Mrs. Hyatt, an interesting chenille cushion; Mrs. Arthur White, linen placemats and purse; Mrs. Ernest Johnston, material for a church pall and towels.

The president, in charge of the program, read an interesting article on the finishing of the following materials: linens, cottons, wools, manmade fibres and silks, the latter being the most difficult. She concluded with tips on hemming. Discussion followed, when personal ideas were aired; and library books and instruction sheets given out for exchange.

At the close, lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Hyatt.

LENNOXVILLE WING OF SHERBROOKE HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

The April meeting of the Lennoxville Wing of the Sherbrooke Hospital Auxiliary was held April 21 at the home of Mrs. Stewart Large B.C.S., with the president, Mrs. A. A. Dougan, in the chair.

Mrs. Dougan reported on her meeting with the medical advisor's committee recently, where it was decided that a permanent committee would be formed with representatives from Sherbrooke & Lennoxville Auxiliaries and the Carry-On Club. The purpose of this committee would be to keep the Auxiliary members informed of new hospital equipment and of ways in which the members might be of aid. A letter from Mr. Alnutt, regarding this meeting was read to the members by Mrs. Hunt, corresponding secretary.

It was decided by the members to make a donation of $800 to the hospital for the Physiotherapy Department; a further $250 was voted as a donation to the Sherbrooke Hospital Annual Campaign.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. John Pratt and Mrs. H. McLeod, following adjournment.

UNIT III, LENNOXVILLE UNITED CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting of Unit III of the Lennoxville United Church was held in Douglas Hall, Queen Street, with Mrs. Charles Hoy, leader, in the chair. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Stanley Hamilton.

Eighteen members answered the roll call with 34 visits having been made to sick and shut-ins.

Mrs. Douglas Baldwin, in the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. W. F. Hicks, read the financial report. Mrs. Alex Rowat reported material purchased for making aprons for the Christmas Bazaar.

Mrs. D'Arcy Bennett announced several members of the Unit had spent one afternoon recently at Mapplemount, Cookshire, helping with the sewing and mending.

Mrs. Hoy gave an interesting report on the U.C.W. Workshop held recently in Plymouth Church, Sherbrooke.

It was suggested that at the next meeting a recommendation be made that a larger coffee maker be purchased for the Gertrude Scott Hall kitchen. Mrs. A. B. Lovelace joined the Unit later when discussion was held for further events regarding the group.

At the close of the session refreshments were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. D'Arcy Bennett, Mrs. Leo K. Burczyk, Mrs. Stanley Hamilton and Mrs. Hoy.

Mrs. A. B. Tolhurst and Mrs. W. S. McMan poured at the lace covered table which was clothed in a silver bowl, flanked with tall yellow tapers in silver holders.

peace for the next six months.

Jean Luc Aube of Sherbrooke was also given a suspended sentence after he pleaded guilty to driving a car without a permit.

Raynald Frechette, the defense lawyer, pointed out that his client had no accident during the time this infraction occurred, that the car was his cousin's car and that his client had no previous criminal record.

Judge Turmel gave the suspended sentence with a stipulation that the accused post a $100 bond to keep the peace for six months.

Denis Bellevue 25, of Sherbrooke, appeared before Judge Turmel yesterday to change his plea to guilty on the charge of being an accomplice to setting a car on fire and was given a suspended sentence.

Bellevue pleaded guilty to being an accomplice to Gilles Breton also of Sherbrooke who is charged with setting a car on fire last November to get the insurance money.

Gilles Breton 31, was sentenced to six months when he pleaded guilty to the charge.

Judge Turmel gave the suspended sentence on the stipulation that Bellevue would post a bond of $200 to keep the peace for one year.

A 19-year-old Coaticook youth pleaded guilty to obtaining money five times on false pretenses and to stealing a revolver worth $40.

Judge Turmel will hand down the sentence next week.

Raymond Arsenault pleaded guilty to obtaining money from $25 to six dollars five times from April 11 to the 25th.

WESTCOTT — In loving memory of father and grandfather, who passed away April 25, 1960, also a brother, Carlton, who passed away in the same month, April 10, 1924. Time takes away the edge of grief.
Always remembered by:
MR. & MRS. ROMEO CUSHION & ALL THE FAMILY.
(daughter & son-in-law).

Card of Thanks

SKUSE — We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends who visited my husband during his second time in the Sherbrooke Hospital, for plants, flowers, cards, etc. Special thanks to Dr. Taylor, the nurses and staff on the third floor, to King's Hall School, also after his return home. The lovely large sunshine basket, phone calls, cards, and help of kind friends, then came death and we also extend our heart felt thanks and appreciation to Archdeacon Matthews and Rev. Roberts, the bearers, to Mr. D. Johnston, those who visited the funeral home. For all the beautiful flowers to King's Hall School, Dr. Berube, Mr. S. Lodge, Danville, for the messages of sympathy, to those who helped in any way at the time of the death and burial of our beloved husband and father. Your many acts of kindness were greatly appreciated, and will always be remembered.
MRS. EMILY SKUSE (wife),
MR. WILLIAM SKUSE (son),
VIOLET (daughter),

Receipts: 213 cattle, 180 calves, 25 hogs.

Good cows 15-16.25; few to 17; medium 13.50 - 14.75; common 11.50-13.25; canners and cutters 9-1.

Medium bulls 16-16.50.

Good vealers 25.50-26.50; tops 30; medium 21-24; common 15-18.50.

Hogs grade A 27-28; sows 18.50.

No sheep and lamb prices established.

UNLUCKILY NUMBERED

LONDON (CP) — A motorist here thought he was seeing double recently, when he noticed the car in front had the same number as his own, so he called police. It turned out to be a stolen car equipped with false licence plates.

Trophies given to bowlers at Lake Megantic

LAKE MEGANTIC — To mark the end of the bowling season, the Thursday Evening bowlers held a supper on April 21 for members and their friends at the Trudel Sugar Camp. After a beautiful meal, which included fresh maple syrup, trophies were awarded to Earl Veary and Eddie Smith who had attained the highest scores in the bowling finals. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. S. G. Veary and Mr. John Fraser.

A parting gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bailie David, who are moving away. Later at a social evening games and sugar-on-snow were enjoyed.

Nelson downs Warroad to take Western finals, here Sunday, prices raised by CAHA for finals

Nelson, B.C. will be the Beavers' opposition in the Allan Cup finals which will open here Sunday evening. Nelson team won the Western finals last evening and will leave for the East today.

At the same time the price of tickets for the finals has been increased by the CAHA. Boxes and promenades will sell for $2.00 with reserved at $1.75, general admission $1.50 and children has advanced to .50. This increase has been made in order to offset the heavy expense in bringing a team from the West. At Woodstock the top price for the Eastern finals was $2.00 while in Sherbrooke the top ticket was $1.75.

The final dates for the finals haven't been settled yet but it is expected the series will open Sunday evening followed on Tuesday. The other dates haven't been settled but as soon as Lionel Fleury, president of the CAHA, has a meeting with his representatives they will be released.

It was mentioned in a Montreal newspaper that a couple of games might be moved to the Forum but Henry Crochetiere, vice-president of the CAHA, who is Fleury's representative in the series, stated he had not received news on the matter.

The Beavers will return to work tomorrow evening at 7.30 p.m. No ice is available tonight as the annual Bingo is taking place but everything will be in order tomorrow. Nelson is expected sometime late tomorrow.

Knowlton High to stage annual cross-country event on Tuesday, Alouette clinic is postponed

BY DOUG MACKENZIE

KNOWLTON — KHS has their third annual cross country races slated for Tuesday, May 4th. This is an inter school affair, but one that commands a lot of attention among students and townspeople alike.

The first year saw 34 boys compete in this event, which was won by Robert Lemaire. In last year's event, Jan Ryzora, Ken Lenz, and Barry Ladd finished one, two, three respectively in a field of 67, as well as eclipsing Lemaire's 1963 record.

Over 100 boys are expected to turn out for this year's grueling 3.2 mile race. Trophies will be awarded to the first five finishers with crests to the first twelve.

The results of the District of Bedford Badminton Tournament were quite satisfying as far as Knowlton participants were concerned as they advanced to the semi-finals and finals. However space will only be devoted to the winners. Danny Mullins won the championship in the Sr. boys singles while David Grant and Fred Albers won Sr. boys doubles championship.

The Montreal Alouettes E.T. football clinic scheduled for May 1st, has been postponed until May 15th or 22nd. Confirmation should be finalized this weekend.

CFL players to present demands to team heads

HAMILTON (CP)—The newly formed Canadian Football League's Players' Association is ready to present its demands to the league, said John Agro, the players' legal adviser, Wednesday.

Mr. Agro made the announcement following a meeting attended by more than 50 players here Monday.

He said he has asked CFL president Pat Mahoney, of Calgary, for permission to meet with league officials for the first time.

Toronto Argonauts' Dick Shatto and former Hamilton Tiger-Cat Ralph Goldston were named treasurer and secretary, pro tem respectively, at the Hamilton meeting.

No other offices have been filled, according to Mr. Agro. "It was an excellent meeting," he said. "Forty-one players paid their assessments and one even put up a double assessment."

The only Eastern Football League team not represented was Ottawa Rough Riders, he reported, adding that Sam Scocia had sent his regrets.

Elks Club wins City Bowling championship

The Elks Club won the championship of the City Bowling League when they downed Bergeron Furniture by 216 pins in the two-game total pinfall series.

The Elks edged out the first match by a small margin of 22 pins but in the second match of the series they picked up 194 pins to win by their margin.

Norm Ainslie posted the high triple and single with 897 and 229 to walk off with the honors. All members of the league are reminded that the closing banquet will be held Saturday evening at the Alouette Motel and is slated to commence at 3.30 p.m.

Auto Club not connected with Asbestos Rally

The Sherbrooke Auto Club wishes to advise their members they are in no way connected with the Rally being staged Sunday in Asbestos.

Andre Lachance, official of the local club, issued the statement last evening. Any members competing in the event will do so under their own name as the club did not name any official team to represent them.

A few members of the Sherbrooke Auto Club are helping to organize the Rally Sunday, but are doing so on their own stated Mr. Lachance.

Twins' Tovar drops another, Yanks win

Cesar Tovar of Minnesota Twins has notched another hole in his glove en route to the second annual Richie Allen fielding award.

Tovar's latest entry in his bid for the honor came Wednesday night in Minnesota's 9-3 loss to Cleveland Indians.

The Allen award, established last year in honor of the third baseman of Philadelphia Phillies, goes to the rookie infielder whose season-long performance in the field is the most conspicuous—and embarrassing.

Tovar has played in only six games and has committed two errors, so it's unlikely he'll achieve Allen's freshman report card of 41 errors, most by a player in the majors last season. But the two Twins' rookies has made have been outstanding.

As a third baseman in the opener against New York Yankees the 24-year-old Venezuelan dropped a two-out pop fly in the ninth inning, allowing the tying run to score. Fortunately for the Twins, Tovar redeemed himself at bat by lashing a game-winning single in 11th, much the same way Allen did for Philadelphia.

Tovar had pop-up trouble again Wednesday night against the Indians. With two out and none on in the first inning Leo Wagner lofted an easy pop toward second base where the rookie was playing. Tovar dropped the ball, and Cleveland was on its way to three unearned runs.

The freshman had help, however, in leading the Twins to only their third defeat in 10 games. Right fielder Tony Oliva started the third inning by dropping Dick Howser's fly ball while left fielder Bob Allison followed shortly after by doing the same for Max Alvis. The result was another three unearned runs.

In other AL games, Detroit Tigers nipped Los Angeles Angels 5-4, Baltimore Orioles defeated Washington Senators 6-0 and New York belted Kansas City Athletics 5-1.

While the Twins were aiding the Indians defensively, Rocky Colavito was leading the Tribe's offence, driving in four runs with a three-run homer and a single. Alvis homered with one on for Cleveland while Jimmie Hall connected twice and Allison once for Minnesota.

Detroit's three-run rally in the seventh inning chased Dean Chance and brought the Tigers a victory over Los Angeles. Chance retired the first two batters before he walked Jim Northrup and gave up a single to Dick McAuliffe.

George Brunet replaced Chance and was greeted by Jerry Lumpe's two-run triple. Lumpe then scored on Norm Cash's single. Jose Cardenal blasted a three-run Angel homer in the fifth while Joe Judge connected with none on in the sixth.

John Orsino's three-run homer in the sixth inning, the Orioles' third homer in two innings, boosted Baltimore past Washington. Jack Brandt and Jerry Adair had homered in the fifth, helping Robin Roberts to his second victory. Doug Camilli and Frank Howard connected for the Senators.

Larry Regan forced to shelve trip

OTTAWA (CP) — Larry Regan, former National Hockey League player, said Wednesday he is shelving temporarily his proposal to establish a hockey school at Innsbruck, Austria, this summer.

Regan said in a statement he has had to put off his plans due to a "misunderstanding that this was an attempt to bring professionalism to Europe and to encourage European hockey players to leave the amateur ranks."

He said the school, to be staffed by NHL regulars Gordie Howe, Tim Horton, Alex Delvecchio, Marcel Pronovost, Terry Sawchuk and Ron Stewart, was a "sincere attempt to expose the Austrians to a system which has proven so helpful in developing young hockey players in Canada."

Boston Red Sox set something of a baseball record 47 years ago today—in 1918—by doing nothing. The club turned down an offer of $100,000 for Babe Ruth, then just starting to make his name as a slugger. Two years later Ruth went to New York Yankees, with whom he played 15 years before a last season back in Boston with the Braves.

Big Jean Beliveau is fourth NHL all-time playoff scorer and key man in Canadiens' drive for Cup

MONTREAL (CP)—Big Jean Beliveau, a key man in Montreal Canadiens' current Stanley Cup drive, has become the National Hockey League's fourth all-time playoff scorer.

The veteran Canadiens captain-centre has scored seven goals and added seven assists in the current playoffs to move up two notches in the all-time list with 105 points.

He now trails only Detroit's Gordie Howe, who leads the pack with 146 points, and former Montreal teammates Maurice Richard and Bernie Geoffrion, who have 126 and 115 points respectively.

Beliveau, 33, who has been in the playoffs every year of his 12-year NHL career, began the current series in sixth place in the all-time list.

His 14-point output—and he has at least one, and possibly two, games to add to it—lifted him over both Dickie Moore, the former Canadian now with Toronto, and Detroit's re-retired Ted Lindsay.

Beliveau's 49 playoff goals also rank fourth to Richard's 82, Howe's 61 and 56 by Geoffrion.

Beliveau, however, has scored his in only 96 games while the other three all played in more than 125 playoff contests.

With the exception of Beliveau's spurt, the current playoffs have done little to alter the all-time Stanley Cup scoring list.

Lindsay, who entered the playoffs trailing Moore by one point, out-scored him 3 to 2 in their respective semi-finals and the pair now are tied for fifth place with 96 points apiece.

Alex Delvecchio of Detroit and Toronto's Leonard (Red) Kelly each scored five points in the semi-finals and remain in sixth and seventh places respectively with 81 and 85 points.

The lone new face in the all-time playoff top 10 is Chicago's Bobby Hull, whose 10 goals and seven assists lead the scoring parade for the current series.

Although a relative newcomer to the playoffs with only 57 games to his credit, he now is tied for 10th place in former Montrealer Elmer Lach's each with 64 points.

Hull, only 26 years old, appears the prime threat as far as future advance is concerned. All other members of the top 10 are either retired or apparently within one or two years of it.

Home ice is big factor as both clubs are winning on home surface, slow ice tonight may help Hawks

CHICAGO (CP) — All through the National Hockey League season, Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks were good road clubs. Now, all of a sudden, they can't buy a victory away from home.

Before the Stanley Cup playoffs began, the Montrealers were enthusiastic travellers, winning 16 games, losing 15 and tying four on the other fellow's rink during the NHL campaign. They had broken even in Chicago with three wins, three losses and a tie.

"I can't understand it," said Canadiens coach Toe Blake Wednesday. "This year more games were won on the road in our league than ever before. Then we get into the playoffs and . . ." He broke off with a shrug.

The Hawks, whose deplorable road record in past years has contributed to their failure to finish first in their 38-year NHL career, achieved respectability this season with a 14-15-6 mark. At Montreal they had two wins and two ties in seven games.

Present Hawks who played on the 1961 squad—the last cup triumph — are goaltender Glenn Hall, Pilot, Elmer Vasko, Bill Hay, Hull, Eric Nesterenko, Mikita and Wharram.

In two previous finals against the Canadiens, the Hawks came out second best. Montreal won a best-of-five series in 1931 and took the first four games of a best-of-seven set in 1944.

Montreal's last championship was in 1960, and six of the players of that team will be on the ice tonight. They are netminder Charlie Hodge, Jean Guy Talbot, Ralph Backstrom, Beliveau, Claude Provost and Henri Richard.

The Canadiens, currently tied with Toronto Maple Leafs for the most cup championships, are shooting for a record of 11 with this season's series.

OBITUARIES

MRS. F. O. HARVEY OF SHERBROOKE

The death of Mrs. F. O. Harvey occurred suddenly on April 5th, 1965, at her home, 865 McManamy Blvd., Sherbrooke.

The former Margaret Murphy was born in Capetlon, daughter of the late Henry Murphy, Sr., and his wife the late Maria Keay both of Birmingham, England. In her younger years she came to Sherbrooke where she resided until the time of her death.

In 1913 she was married to Frank Harvey.

Mrs. Harvey was a member of St. Patrick's Church and belonged to the Catholic Women's League of that Church.

Left to mourn her loss are her husband, two sisters, Mrs. W. Lavers, Mamie, of Vancouver, B.C., and Gertrude, of Sherbrooke; two brothers, Alton of Virginiatown, Ont., and Allan of Sherbrooke.

One sister, Helen, and three brothers, Herbert, Henry and John predeceased her.

The funeral left Johnston's Funeral Home on Thursday morning, April 8, for service in St. Patrick's Church at 9 a.m.

Monsignor R. Moisan and Father J. Clark officiated. The bearers were R. Murphy, G. Burrington, H. Morin, Jean-

Pierre Morin, S. Carson and G. Gosselin. Interment was in St. Michael's Cemetery.

DENNIS CARLIN, OF ST. MARY'S ELY

ST. MARY'S ELY — The death occurred on April 7, 1965, of Dennis Carlin, oldest resident of St. Mary's, at his home here, after a few days' illness.

The deceased was the son of the late Hugh Carlin and Bridget Long. He was born on September 7, 1866, on the farm where he had since resided.

His wife, the former Elizabeth Morrissey, predeceased him on July 5, 1947.

Mr. Carlin is survived by a daughter, Gertrude, and two sons, Bert and Gene, all of St. Mary's.

The remains rested at the J. H. Fleury funeral home in Richmond, thence on April 10 to St. Mary's Church, where the funeral service took place according to the new liturgy in English.

The officiating clergy were Rev. George Leveille, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Rosario Lapointe and Rev. J. Robert, both of Valcourt, Rev. Leandre Boisclair, of Mansonville, and Rev. Germain Racicot, White Father of the African missions, were in the sanctuary.

Paul Tremblay of Richmond, sang the hymn, Nearer my God to Thee.

The bearers were George Murphy, Warren Morrissey, Edward Carlin, Dennis Murphy, Robert Lavertu and Raymond Lavertu. Relatives and friends attending were from Montreal, Sherbrooke, Stanstead, Rock Island, Granby, Waterloo, Asbestos, Danville, Richmond, St. Claude, Ste. Anne de La Roche, Melbourn, Kingsbury, Ste. Christine, Valcourt, Racine and St. Mary's.

MRS. F. A. HALL, OF DUNHAM

DUNHAM — Mrs. Florence Amelia Hall died suddenly at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. Jenne, in East Farnham, on March 22, 1965, in her eighty-fourth year.

Born in Dunham, Aug. 30, 1881, she was the third child of the late Hannibal Garrick and his wife, Mary Baker, who had a family of six.

She was married on New Year's Day in 1913 to Edwin E. Hall, of Dunham, who predeceased her in 1929.

Left to mourn, are three daughters, Alice, Mrs. Lloyd Corey, of Stanbridge East, Florence, Mrs. Rodney Jenne, East Farnham, and Ethel, Mrs. Rosby McCutcheon, West Brom, three sons, George, of Hamilton, Ont., Arthur and John, both of Dunham; eight grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Alice Longway, of Alberta, and Miss Ethel S. Garrick, of Ontario.

The body rested at Wilson's Funeral Parlors in Cowansville, thence to the All Saint's Anglican Church in Dunham, where the funeral service was held, Rev. Mr. Toase officiating.

The organist was Miss Helen McElroy and the choir sang two hymns, Abide with Me, and Rock of Ages.

The bearers were James Symington, Malcolm Jones, John Rihard, Neil Rihard, Geoffrey Doherty and Wallace Doherty.

Interment was in the family lot in All Saint's Cemetery, Dunham.

ST. ARMAND — Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Seale, Miss Barbara, Seale, St. Lambert, and Mr. Lutterel Seale, New York City, were visitors of Mr. Seale's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wade and also called on Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dagley and daughters, Arlene and Darlene, Montreal, spent the holiday weekend with Mr. Dagley's mother, Mrs. P. C. Luke. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Luke, who is spending several days in the city.

Mrs. Henry Symington spent several days in Ottawa, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Appleyard and Mrs. Ethel Symington. Miss Mary Rutherford and Tommy Rutherford, Granby, were visiting their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wade during the Easter holidays.

Mrs. George Kidd spent the Easter weekend in Cowansville with Mr. and Mrs. M. N. McKay.

Ulverton UCW plans food sale

ULVERTON — The United Church Women held their regular business meeting in the Church vestry on April 22.

Deviotions were taken by Mrs. F. Smith and the study on Brazil by Mrs. W. Cripps.

A letter was read from the Rev. E. Carr, at present a missionary in Africa, also a letter concerning Quebec - Sherbrooke U.C.W. annual meeting to be held May 3 in Lennoxville United Church.

Plans have been completed to hold a food sale in the Southern Canada Power Building, Richmond, on May 7. The committee will be Mrs. D. Smith, Mrs. E. McMannes and Mrs. O. Cinnamon.

Tentative dates were set for the following months activities: May 19, tea and sale; June 2, supper; July, Ice cream social; Sept. 1, supper; Oct. 6, annual bazaar and sale; Dec. 4, Christmas tea.

Fifteen friendship calls were made during the month. The next meeting will be held May 20 in the church vestry.

GENERAL NOTES — Mrs. George Pritchard has returned home, after spending the Easter holidays with friends and relatives in Ottawa, Ont.

Mrs. J. Stokoe, who spent the past two months with Mr. and Mrs. F. Butt in Halifax, N.S., has returned home.

Pink and Blue shower honors Beebe lady — BEEBE — Mrs. Hollis Crawford, the former Margaret Aulis, was guest of honor at a pink and blue shower, held April 21 at the home of Miss Rachel Galazzo, with Miss Janie Gilbert assisting.

Upon arrival, Mrs. Crawford was greeted by the hostesses, with Miss Gilbert pinning on a corsage of baby gadgets, while Miss Galazzo took pictures. She was then escorted to a chair, beside a table laden with ribboned gifts.

The honored guest was assisted in opening the gifts by her sister, Linda and mother-in-law. The table was covered with a stork cloth, with the napkins having the same design. Blue and white streamers completed the decor. An attractively decorated cake, iced in white, trimmed in pink and blue, topped by a stork and a tiny baby, centered the table. The cake was made and decorated by Mrs. S. Galazzo.

Guests attended from Newport, Vt. Rock Island and Beebe.
