Peace Envoys Are Idle Until Czar Indicates Tenor of Russia. Reply

Japanese Terms Are Now Being Considered in Russian Capital and by Russian Envoys—General Opinion Among European Embassies is That Terms Are Excessive

Portsmouth, N.H., August 11. — With the Japanese peace terms under consideration by the Emperor at St. Petersburg, and the Russian plenipotentiaries awaiting the word of His Majesty before completing the draft of their response, an enforced pause has come in the procedings of the peace conference. The tally-ho's and automobiles which reported at the entrance of the Wentworth Hotel at the usual hour this morning were sent back to their quarters. The heat was sweltering. Baron Komura and his colleagues remained closely in their rooms. They have figuratively folded their arms and await the Russian response. M. Witte was at work early and with his secretaries, was busy deciphering telegrams from St. Petersburg before 8 o'clock. All the threads are in his hands. He controls and directs everything on the Russian side. His colleague, Baron Rosen, accompanied by Mr. Pokotiloff, went into Portsmouth in an automobile to do some shopping.

Russian Reply Ready To-morrow.

Portsmouth, N.H., August 11. — The Russian reply is already practically completed and will be handed by M. Witte to Baron Komura at 9.30 o'clock to-morrow morning. Mr. Witte has officially notified Baron Komura of this fact and the official call for a meeting of the conference at that hour has been issued.

Mr. Witte this morning explained to the Associated Press correspondent that that he had written the reply during the night in Russian and that the secretaries were now engaged in translating it into French and English. The revised document, he said, would probably be ready by 4 o'clock this afternoon and it might be possible to deliver it to the Japanese plenipotentiaries at 5 o'clock, but in order to cover unexpected contingencies, he had notified Baron Komura that it would be ready to-morrow morning.

Opinion in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, August 11. The Japanese terms were known early this morning only to a very few of the highest officials, who carefully guarded their knowledge.

The newspaper offices were informed of the terms through the Associated Press despatches from Portsmouth, and they rapidly became known.

At the embassies and among the officials of the various departments the terms were declared to be excessive and impossible of acceptance if they constituted the Japanese ultimatum, but generally they were regarded merely as a basis on which to negotiate further.

It was argued in the embassies and in other quarters that a settlement might still be possible if certain features, such as the relinquishment of the interned warships and the limitation of Russian naval power in the Far East, were open to possible modification, and that consequently the chances of reaching an understanding were not shut out.

Jap Terms Considered Extreme.

Berlin, August 11.—The Foreign Office, without giving judgment on the equitableness of the Japanese peace terms, as exclusively obtained and summarized by the Associated Press, believes that the negotiations will continue until an agreement is reached. The Foreign Office is convinced that the desire of both powers for peace is strong enough to lead to mutual surrenders.

Abstracts of the conditions were circulated quickly among the diplomatic agencies. They are, as the Associated Press learned at the embassies, considered extreme. The prevailing view is that Russia cannot be expected to accept them, but that they are not an impossible first demand and that negotiations may begin on the basis of these declarations to be ultimately concluded on something quite different.

The publication of the peace conditions produced no appreciable effect on the Bourse, unless it was an indisposition to trade in Russian securities until something further is known.

Optimism in Paris.

Paris, August 11.—The Bourse to-day opened unsteady, but became firmer on a belief that the Portsmouth conference will result in peace. The close was firm. Russian Imperial four's were quoted at 85.20, and Russian bonds of 1904 at 501.00.

Trouble Over Credentials.

Portsmouth, N.H., August 11. A very remarkable state of affairs exists regarding the credentials of the Japanese plenipotentiaries, and the end is not yet. Notwithstanding yesterday's official statement that with the exchange of credentials all difficulties upon that point had been removed, the Associated Press learns authoritatively that the matter still is in issue. After the failure of Baron Komura to produce his credentials at the first session on Wednesday, an English copy was communicated to Mr. Witte with the statement that it was a copy, but the paper was in nowise attested.

At yesterday's session Baron Komura submitted the original in Japanese, but, of course, no member of the Russian mission could read it. Mr. Witte's credentials, on the contrary, while in Russian, were accompanied by a certified copy in French which bore the signature of Count Lamsdorff, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs. Mr. Witte has returned to Baron Komura the copy of the latter's credentials in the expectation that he would forthwith receive an attested copy of the translation, but up to noon to-day he had received nothing.

STEEL RAIL BOUNTY HAS BEEN ABOLISHED

Ottawa, August 11. — (Special.) — There will be no bounty paid on steel rails. An order-in-council has been made to that effect. The Algoma steel company claimed a bounty on steel rails under an act of parliament providing a bounty for structural steel which was to encourage the establishment of that industry in Canada. Mr. A. B. Aylesworth gives it as his opinion that the rail makers were entitled to the bounty under the terms of the act. The sum of sixty thousand dollars has been paid as rail bounties. The Government is of opinion that the duty protection of rail makers is sufficient without bounty assistance. Hence the order-in-council abolishing the rail bounty.

NEUTRAL PANEL CAUSES TROUBLE

City Treasurer Robb Finds Great Difficulty in Collecting It.

The neutral panel school tax is again arousing attention, and City Treasurer Robb will this afternoon bring the matter afresh before the attention of the Finance Committee. The collection of this tax was found a difficult operation, and the treasurer was bothered by the absence of the city attorneys, as the point at issue was the legality of the impost.

Speaking on the subject this morning, City Treasurer Robb said: "In the collection of the school tax, we find it an intolerable nuisance the way the city is split up into districts. There are seven districts in which the neutral panel tax is collected, and all are treated in a different way. All these should be amalgamated into one and given the same treatment."

"This matter will in all probability be referred to the city attorneys for a special report.

Another question under discussion will be the proportion to taxe itinerant photographers. This measure has been asked for by the Photographers' Association, to abate the existing "amateur" nuisance.

The Mayor has written to the Finance Committee recommending the appointment of a "cicerone" or permanent corner at the City Hall, whose duties will be to give information to strangers and others. It is found necessary at present to have a police officer on duty for this purpose. This will be discussed to-day.

CADETS' ENGAGEMENTS.

The engagements of the Highland Cadet Battalion for next week are: Aug. 14th, recruits, Wednesday, 16th, battalion drill, uniform; Saturday, 19th, battalion drill, no uniform. The battalion will leave via N.Y.C. for Albany, N.Y., on Saturday, Sept. 2, remaining Sunday and Monday (Labor Day) in that city. In preparation for the exhibition drill in Ridgefield Park on Labor Day, Full muster of all members intending to go to Albany is requested till that date.

Three more actions were entered against the city by parties injured in the upset of the St. James Church sleighing party on Park Avenue last February. Mrs. Ellen McDonald claims $1,200, Mrs. Annie Laferty $300 and Mr. T. W. Haran $125.

Deputy Coroner Biron this morning by telephone disposed of the case of a four-year-old child who was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon, while playing near Chambly basin.

PRINCE LOUIS AND FLEET WILL REACH QUEBEC TO-DAY

Quebec, August 11 (Special.) The British ships of war forming the second cruiser squadron in command of Rear-Admiral H. S. H. Prince Louis of Battenberg passed Father Point at 8.20 o'clock this morning, and are now sailing towards the harbor of Quebec, where they are expected to arrive between 2 and 4 o'clock. The flagship "Drake" will anchor opposite the King's wharf, and the other five cruisers will anchor in line further up the river under the citadel heights.

Mayor Parent has arrived from Ottawa to take charge of the civic reception arrangements, and Sir Wilfred and Lady Laurier, who arrived yesterday afternoon, are guests of Sir Louis and Lady Jette at Spencerwood.

Prince Louis Alexander of Battenberg, G.C.B., G.C.V., personal A.D.C. to the King, commanding the second cruiser squadron, was born at Gratz (Austria), May 24, 1854, and is the eldest son of Prince Alexander of Hesse and grandson of Louis II., Grand Duke of Hesse.

He married his cousin, Princess Victoria, daughter of Louis IV., Grand Duke of Hesse, K.G., and of Princess Alice, her late Majesty's daughter, in 1884. He is a Protestant in religion, and became naturalized as a British subject and entered the Royal Navy as a naval cadet in 1868, sub-lieutenant in 1874, lieutenant in 1876, commander in 1885, captain in 1891.

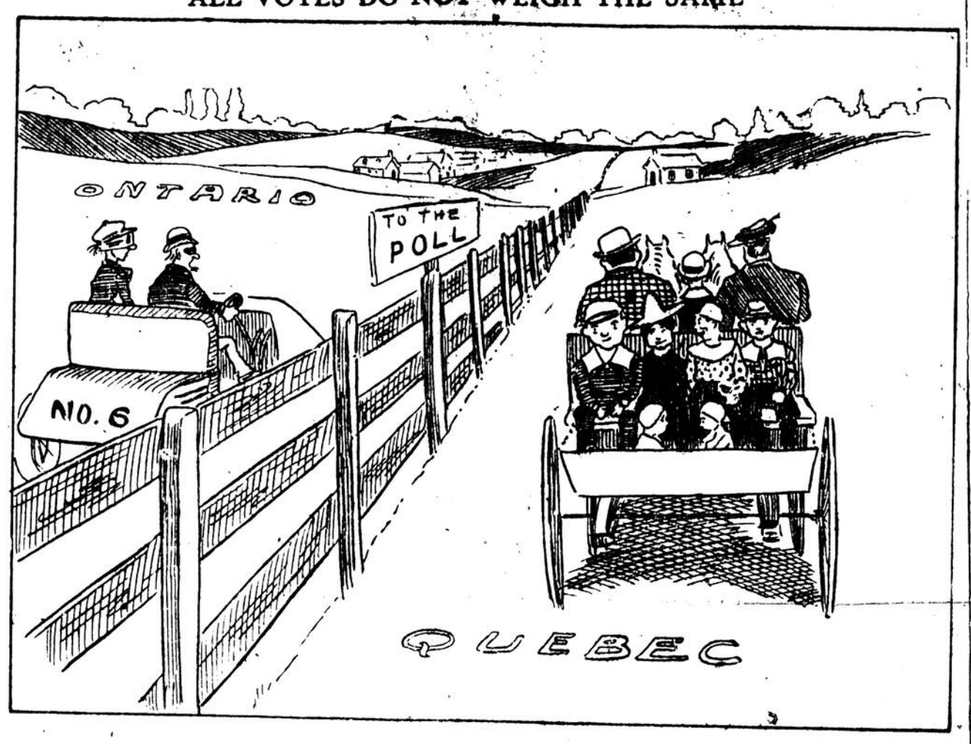

He served in the Egyptian war in 1882 (medal and Khedive's Star). He has no property in the United Kingdom, but owns Heiligenburg Castle and estate in Hesse, Germany.

His heir is Prince George, born 1892. His clubs are the Marlborough, United Service, Naval and Military, and Bachelors.

GRAND LODGE I.O.O.F. HAS ADJOURNED

Peterboro Has Been Chosen as Meeting Place Next Year.

Brockville, August 11.—(Special.)—The Grand Lodge of Ontario, I.O.O.F., concluded its fifty-first session yesterday afternoon.

The committee on appeals again reported in the case of Prospect Lodge, No 413, Toronto, and the committee brought in a finding pointing out that the sworn evidence was sifted thoroughly and a verdict given accordingly. Considerable discussion followed the report, which was later amended to refer back to the lodge for a new trial.

The Judiciary Committee reported to Amity Lodge, of Prescott, a brother dying and leaving no dependents. The lodge paid the actual funeral expenses and the committee upheld the Grand Master's decision that Amity Lodge pay over the full amount of benefit to the executors. The report was adopted.

Report on Rebekah degree received endorsing recommendations of Grand Masters. Four new lodges were instituted during the year and one resuscitated.

On request Bro. W. H. Hoyle, P.G.M., explained the effect of funeral and widows' benefits and the reason for separating them. Separate and distinct benefits must be arranged for.

Peterboro was decided upon as the next place of meeting. Niagara Falls, Hamilton and Orillia were also contestants.

After votes of thanks had been presented to the two local papers the newly-elected officers were installed and the meetings were brought to a close.

In the forenoon the committee on districts recommended that public installations were not commendable except in the case of weak lodges.

The report of the memorial committee was presented by Bro. Farwell. Forty-seven grand master had held office since 1856 and thirty-two were still living. 4,165 members had answered the final roll call. This year 254 deaths had occurred in the order including Rev. J. W. Sanders, a former grand chaplain, and Hon. Jas. Sutherland, both enthusiastic Oddfellows.

Bro. H. Allen for Committee of Appeals reported a lack of information in the appeal of Mrs. Watson vs. Deerento Lodge, in the matter of widows' benefits, be referred to the incoming Grand Master for adjustment.

ROADS COMMITTEE DEFENDS STREETS

Will Watch Business of Selling Steam for Heating Buildings.

One of the most interesting features of the meeting of the Roads Committee yesterday afternoon was a discussion in which Ald. L. A. Lapointe chiefly figured. Mr. J. C. Warmington, C.E., appeared before the committee asking permission to run a twelve-inch pipe across St. James Street, on behalf of the Central Electric Company. The scheme of this firm is to use the exhaust steam from the engines of their lighting plant for the purpose of heating buildings in the vicinity. With permission from the Council they have already run pipes across Notre Dame Street to Carsley's store, and across St. Peter Street to the Fortier building, and are at present engaged in crossing to the Mechanics' Institute Building; from 5 Recollet to Gnaedinger's, and from Gault's, on St. Helen Street, to the Corticelli Silk Company. Permission was asked to cross on St. James from the Mechanics' Institute to the Nordheimer building, and from the Molson's Bank to the Canada Life building.

When the scheme was broached, Ald. Lapointe objected strongly. He had seen the disadvantages of letting companies have the streets. This company was evidently selling steam, and looked for permission to tear up the streets. The thing looked like a trust and there was no reason why the firm might not enforce discriminatory charges. It was the committee's duty to protect the public.

To these objections the company's representative replied that the firm was only using its own exhaust, naturally, a limited quantity. The city was complaining about exorbitant insurance charges in the business district. The new idea tended to lower these rates by changing furnaces to innocent steam pipes. As for destroying the streets, the modus operandi was to bore under, not to dig up, the streets. Mr. Warmington further explained that the system could only work within a radius of 700 yards; that the exhaust from a 100 h.p. engine would heat one million cubic feet of building; that the company had now 800 h. p., and would have when the station was complete, 2,000 h.p. The committee decided that a report on the matter should be prepared for the next meeting.

Reports for permission to put up more poles in the streets came from the Bell Telephone Co., the Merchants' Telephone Co., and the Light, Heat and Power Company. It was decided to get an opinion from the city attorneys on the corporation's rights as regards these poles. Ald. L. A. Lapointe again entered the discussion, saying the company had the right to erect poles, but it was the duty of the city to say where. More attention should be paid to this matter.

MR. SOUTHAM RETURNING.

One of the passengers on the incoming SS. Virginian is Mr. W. J. Southam from Hong Kong. Mr. Southam went to Hong Kong in the interests of the Young Men's Christian Association work some five years ago, and has been instrumental in not only opening a branch on behalf of the Chinese young men of that city, securing the hearty co-operation and financial support from the Chinese merchants for the same, but he has also opened a very attractive and helpful European branch, and is filling a most important place in that city.

TIRED OF PEACE DISCUSSION

Komura Would Discuss Billy Maclean

S. Teddy Reproves Him for the Desire

Shows the Enormity of the Crime Komura Contemplates, and the Japanese Diplomat is Duly Impressed and Censures the Donor of $1,000.

(By S. Teddy Lyre.)

"... you may call me a golgeg-glug-glug, which is Japanese for a swivel-eyed squatteroo. Me and Takahira didn't stack the deck but the cards fell our way and we certainly know how to handle them.

"But see here, S. Teddy, I am tired of this peace discussion. Let's talk of something entertaining, Billy Maclean, for instance."

"Wh-wh-what?" stuttered I, overcome with surprise. "Not on your life. Talk about any person that the public takes an interest in and I'll listen to you and record your utterances in the Sieve but if you start romancing about W. F., I'll hike to the beach and take a dip in the ocean."

"Why, what's the matter with Billy?" queried Komura.

I was literally stunned at such a question being asked by a gentleman whose intelligence was rated above the average and it was some minutes before I could find breath to reply.

"Didn't you know that acting on the principal that charity covereth etc., he gave $1,000, which he considered tainted, to an innocent, helpless hospital?"

"I suppose" said Komura, "that the hospital returned the money, when it discovered that Billy thought it was tainted."

"No, it didn't return it though it turned it over to the bank.

"Billy of course. He took it that he had no honestly earned this chunk of dough and advertised his ideas on the subject. Then later, he 'generously donated,' the $1,000 to a hospital and advertised that fact. So Billy has dropped in the public estimation to the lowest depths."

"Well, I'll eat my grandfather's ghost if that isn't the worst yet" commented Komura. "If anyone did that in Japan he would be——"

WATCH DOG FOR TWO AMERICAS

President Roosevelt Outlines Views on U.S. Foreign Policy

WARNS EUROPEAN POWERS

That United States Still Stands by the Monroe Doctrine, and is Prepared to Fight For It.

Chatauqua, N.Y., Aug. 11.—President Roosevelt arrived here this morning and delivered an address before the Chautauqua Assembly. He said in part, as follows: "To-day I wish to speak to you on one feature of our national foreign policy, and one feature of our national domestic policy.

"The Monroe doctrine is not a part of international law. But it is the fundamental feature of our entire foreign policy so far as the western hemisphere is concerned, and it has more and more been meeting with recognition abroad. The reason why it is meeting with this recognition is because we have not allowed it to become fossilized, but have adapted our construction of it to meet the growing, changing needs of this hemisphere. Fossilization, of course, means death, whether to an individual, a Government, or a doctrine.

"It is out of the question to claim a right and yet shirk the responsibility for exercising that right. When we announce a policy such as the Monroe doctrine we thereby commit ourselves to accepting the consequences of the policy, and these consequences from time to time alter.

Let us look for a moment at what the Monroe doctrine really is. It forbids the territorial encroachment of non-American powers on American soil. Its purpose is partly to secure this nation against seeing great military powers obtain new footholds in the western hemisphere, and partly to secure to our fellow-republics south of us the chance to develop along their own lines without being oppressed or conquered by non-American powers. As we have grown more and more powerful our advocacy of this doctrine has been received with more and more respect; but what has tended most to give the doctrine standing among the nations is our growing willingness to show that we not only mean to recognize our obligations to foreign peoples no less than to insist upon our own rights.

"We cannot permanently adhere to the Monroe doctrine unless we succeed in making it evident in the first place that we do not intend to treat it in any shape or way as an excuse for aggrandizement on our part at the expense of the republics to the south of us; second, that we do not intend to permit it to be used by any of these republics as a shield to protect that republic from the consequences of its own misdeeds against foreign nations; third, that inasmuch as by this doctrine we prevent other nations from interfering on this side of the water, we shall ourselves in good faith try to help those of our sister republics, which need such help, upward toward peace and order.

"I do not want to see any foreign power take possession permanently or temporarily of the custom houses of an American republic in order to enforce its obligations, and the alternative may at any time be that we shall be forced to do so ourselves.

"In the interest of justice, it is as necessary to exercise the police power as to show charity and helpful generosity. But something can even now be done toward the end in view. That something, for instance, this nation has already done as regards Cuba, and is now trying to do as regards Santo Domingo.

"Santo Domingo has now made an appeal to us to help it, and not only every principle of wisdom, but every generous instinct within us bids us respond to the appeal. The conditions in Santo Domingo have for a number of years grown from bad to worse, until recently all society was on the verge of dissolution. Fortunately just at this time a wise ruler sprang up in Santo Domingo, who, with his colleagues, saw the dangers threatening their beloved country, and appealed to the friendship of their great and powerful neighbor to help them.

QUEBEC-LIVERPOOL LINE AGAIN BEING DISCUSSED

Quebec, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—A new direct line of steamships between Quebec and Liverpool is again mooted. Yesterday Mr. Wm. Power, M.P. for Quebec West, and Mr. Thomas Harling, of Montreal, representing the Quebec Transportation Company, had a conference with the members of the Quebec Harbor Commissioners respecting the new ocean line, that lasted nearly three hours. The meeting was private, but at the close it was given out that the commissioners and the two delegates had came to an understanding acceptable to all parties. The whole discussion hinged on clause four of a previous agreement submitted by the company to the commissioners, respecting exemption of freight from dues east of the River St. Maurice and refund by the latter.

Few Important Measures Were Passed During the Session.

KING'S SPEECH PRAISES US

For Patriotic Offer to Assume the Defence of Halifax and Esquimalt—Reference to Peace Conference.

London, Aug. 11.—Parliament was prorogued this morning after a chequered session which will long be remembered for the unprecedented number of votes of censure and motions for adjournment moved with a view to the embarrassment of the Government.

The session produced two measures of sociological interest, the Alien Act and the Unemployed Workmen's Act, the latter creating facilities for the providing of work and wages for all able-bodied applicants. The conflict between the Scottish churches was also settled. Otherwise the work of the session was mostly of a routine character.

Not more than fifty members of the House of Commons assisted at to-day's closing scene. The Black rod summoned them to the House of Lords, where there were only two peers besides the three Royal Commissioners.

The Lord High Chancellor, the Earl of Hillsbury, read King Edward's speech, the most interesting clauses of which, from an international point of view, referred to the peace negotiations and the crisis in Sweden and Norway.

Regarding the peace negotiations the speech says: "Negotiations, due to the initiative of the President of the United States, are about to be entered upon between the Russian and Japanese Governments for the purpose of terminating the deplorable conflict still proceeding in the Far East. It is my earnest hope that they may lead to a lasting and mutually honorable peace."

Concerning the Swedish-Norwegian situation the speech says: "A dissolution of the union between Sweden and Norway apparently is imminent. I am confident that, by the exercise of wise moderation on each side, a settlement will be arrived at which will be acceptable to both countries, and that it will be of such a nature as to enable my Government to maintain with the people of the Scandinavian peninsula the same friendly relations which have prevailed in the past."

The speech refers to the continued friendly relations with other powers, and "cordially hopes" that the outcome of the conference summoned by the King of Italy to consider the establishment of an international institute dealing with agricultural information "will be of service to agriculturists, both at home and abroad."

It praises the "patriotic offer" of Canada to assume responsibility for the defence of Halifax and Esquimault, which is "cordially accepted."

Otherwise the speech was of no general interest.

Parliament was nominally adjourned to October 30, when it will be further adjourned.

Another Report.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Aug. 11.—King Edward in his speech in the House of Lords proroguing Parliament said: "My Government has received from the Dominion of Canada a most patriotic offer to assume the entire administrative and financial responsibility for the defence of Halifax and Esquimault and that offer has been cordially accepted. The transfer of control will take place at an early date under arrangements in regard to which my Government have been fortunate enough to obtain the fullest and most appreciative co-operation of the Dominion Government.

TWO SAILORS MET DEATH IN THE ST. LAWRENCE

Brockville, Ont., August 11.—(Special.)—Two wheelmen of the Canadian tug Nellie Reid, were drowned on Monday night while endeavoring to reach Ogdensburg in a skiff. A party of four members of the crew left Prescott before ten o'clock and when about the middle of the river one of the quartette decided it was time he took a turn at the cars. In changing positions the boat was capsized. Two of the men clung to the boat while the other two started to swim back to the Canadian shore. They never reached it. The two on the boat cried lustily for help but none came until they drifted close to Sandy Beach, when a man named Knapp rowed out and brought them to shore. The bodies have not been recovered. They were two French-Canadians named Vitelleau and Ribedeau.

Fine and Very Warm

In British Columbia, the Territories and Manitoba the weather has been very fine and moderately warm elsewhere in Canada, with the exception of a few scattered showers or thunderstorms the weather has been also very fine, and as a rule extremely warm. TIVERTON BEAT SWEET MARIE

At Buffalo Grand Circuit Races—Talent Was Hit Hard.

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Sweet Marie, 2.04¾, the McKinney mare, which took the measure of Tiverton in their match race in Readville last week, had the tables turned on her effectually yesterday in the free-for-all trot, the feature event of the Grand Circuit meeting at Kenilworth Park, when the Galileo Rex stallion took down first money in the two first heats in 2.05½ and 2.06, the mare getting the third heat in 2.06¼, but after the result of the race had been settled according to the three-heat plan, in operation here. George G. and McKinley completed the quartette which faced the starter for the event, and in the opening pools Sweet Marie sold at $200, with $80 on Tiverton and $21 on the field. The mare got away poorly, but was catching Tiverton in the stretch in the first heat when she broke and finished last. Still Sweet Marie sold favorite, $50 to $27 on the field, but third to Tiverton was the best she could do. In the last heat McDonald got her stepping through the stretch and she overhauled and beat Tiverton half a length in a whipping finish.

This blow was one of the worst the talent has suffered at the meeting, although Tiverton was supported handsomely. Those who saw Sadie Mac., Miss Wilke's fleet trotter, step away with the $10,000 stake the other day, gave expression to the belief that the Galt woman fancier owns the real trotting champion among those now being campaigned. "We will wait till fall and see," was her remark yesterday.

In the first race yesterday, the 2.14 pacer, Kruger, was $50 favorite in pools of $110 and he won three straight heats handily. There was little pooling in the 2.18 pace. Maud Keswick which sold $50 to $25 on the field before the start, taking three straight heats handily, going the last in 2.08¾. The last race of the day was a big upset. It was the 2.15 trot and Thorne Boy, a white gelding by Strong Boy, which sold at $12 in the field in pools of over $100, stepped right out and took three straight heats easily. Directum Lass, the favorite, at $50 in the pools named, was on her bad behavior, and after narrowly escaping the distance flag in the first heat, had it swished in her face, after a disastrous break in the second. Jim Fenton, second choice, also had a lot of trouble keeping his feet and was lucky to beat Harry J. a head in the last heat for third money.

Another smashing crowd enjoyed the sport. The meeting will be concluded to-day. Summary:—

ST JAMES WAFERS FOR PALE AND WEAK WOMEN

CEYLON TEA

GREEN OR BLACK

Is acknowledged by all judges to be the best and most economical tea on the market. Many people who use it do not know that it makes the best iced tea to be had. Use half the quantity as of other tea, infuse four to five minutes in fresh boiling water, pour off, cool with ice and add lemon to taste, and the result is a delicious and healthful drink.

ABATTOIR ODORS OFFEND EAST END

But Health Committee Defer Action—Proposal for a New Morgue.

There was unusual excitement at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Hygiene Committee when a complaint was made by Mr. St. Amour, of De-Lorimier, over the nuisance alleged to be caused by an abattoir in the East End of Montreal. The complaints with regard to the same firm have in the past been frequent, and emanate from the fact that a rendering plant is used in the manufacture of muclage and kindred products. Recently Dr. McCarrey inspected the place, and reported that he noticed no bad odors outside the building. Mr. St. Amour repudiated this report. He wanted to know what the city would do in the matter. He went so far as to hint that the inspector had not acted honestly in the affair.

The committee decided to refer the question to the City Attorneys to see what steps could be taken towards abating the alleged nuisance. Dr. McCarrey explained that in that inspection as in many others, the nuisance, although it might have existed on other days, was not then noticeable. On some days the rendering tanks were not used. Besides this the wind and other conditions varied. It was suggested, though not definitely decided, that a peremptory notice be sent to the firm in question ordering a cessation of the alleged nuisance.

Dr. Laberge, the medical health officer, made his expected statement, outlining the sewage nuisance at the Elgin still-water basin. The nuisance, he said, existed, without doubt, and must be attended to. He urged the committee to recommend that the council act immediately in order that the question of the responsibility in the matter be settled. It lay between the city and the Harbor Commissioners. This question was referred also to the City Attorneys for their opinion.

The committee recommended the Finance Committee to urge the Council to put sewers on Boyer, St. Andre, Dargenson, Cardinal, and Conte streets.

Several tenders for work on the Hochelaga Bath were opened, but as these were all for particular kinds of work, brick-work, etc., it was decided to send them back and call for tenders that would embrace the whole work.

Dr. Laberge referred to a number of dwelling houses in the city containing apartments whose only ventillation was obtained through a door, and emphasized the danger to health from this cause. Dr. Laberge and Mr. Dore were instructed to jointly prepare a by-law with the object of abating the evil.

The question of a new morgue building came up for a brief discussion. Mr. Albert Payfer, of the firm of C. A. Dumaine & Co., the present morgue-keepers, brought his plans before the committee and explained that he could have a new morgue on the site of the present morgue office, corner of St. Andre and Notre Dame streets, open by December 1. As the prospectus contained the stipulation of tax-exemption, the committee referred Mr. Payfer to Monday's Council meeting, advising him to alter this clause.

A SALE OF NORFOLKS

THE WONDER OF THE CITY.

The common Norfolk style has always been the most popular with boys. Our's are most extraordinary in quality and make. Consider with these the great question of price, and you will see why ours are real bargains at any time, and will be even more so to-morrow. They are made of our special line of Tweeds, cool, comfortable and durable. The cut, as will easily be seen, is extremely Norfolk. This is the last chance you will have to secure one of these Suits at this price this season.

MR. COLAM RESIGNED.

At the annual meeting held on the eighty-first anniversary of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which took place at the Victoria Hall, Strand, London, on the 27th June, Mr. Colam's resignation, after over forty-five years' services as secretary, was with regret accepted. Many testimonies to the good accomplished through his agency were presented and recorded in "The Animal World" for the 1st August, and in other papers; among them one from the Canadian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, sent by Mr. Geo. Durnford, the secretary, at the request of the executive committee, as follows:

"I am desired by this society to convey to you their full appreciation of your services devoted to the protection of animals. This society is glad that the Royal Society will continue to have the benefit of your advice and experience, they hope for many years; and they congratulate you on the great work accomplished by you. It must be an immense satisfaction to you to see the improvement in the treatment of animals since you first entered the society."

EQUITABLE LIFE LOOKS TO CANADA

Seeks Here an Improved System of Organization

THE CANADA LIFE'S PLAN.

It is Considered the Best on the Continent.

Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse and Morgan J. O'Brien are Earnestly Endeavoring to Serve the Policyholders' Interests.

(New York Herald Despatch.)

New York, Aug. 10.—In their endeavor to obtain real power in the Equitable Life Assuarnce Society for the policy-holders, the trustees, Grover Cleveland, George Westinghouse and Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, are investigating the manner of election of directors by other insurance companies at home and abroad. Those companies whose methods are considered nearest to ideal are the Canada Life Assurance Company, of Toronto, and the Northwestern, of Milwaukee.

The Canada Life is a mixed stock and mutual company, with nine representatives of the stockholders, and six of the policyholders on its board of directors. Policyholders for $3,000 and upward, who have paid full premiums for two years, are allowed to vote for the policyholders' directors. To be a director in the policyholders' class one must have paid the full premium on $10,000 insurance for five years.

Although another plan under discussion is thought to work admirably in the Northwestern's case, that of the Canada Life is said to be the most favored by the Equitable trustees, who are determined upon conserving the interests of policyholders.

Rumors of a combination between former and present officials of the Equitable looking toward the organization of a new life insurance company, with a capital of $100,000, with Archibald C. Haynes, recently retired general agent for the metropolitan district, as its head, excite interest. Mr. Haynes will not talk about the proposition, declining either to affirm or deny it.

ENGLISH FOOTBALL TEAM COMING

Pilgrims Will Play in Montreal September 9—Will Tour States.

Arrangements have been completed for the forthcoming visit of the English footballers who, under the charter of the "Pilgrims," will visit Canada and the United States next month, and the players will sail from Liverpool on August 24th, arriving in time for a week's practice before they play their first match in Montreal on September 9th. On the 11th they will play Hamilton and the day following will be spent in visiting Niagara Falls. On Wednesday, the 16th, the English will face the Canadian champions at Galt.

From there the players will enter the United States, playing two days each in Detroit, St. Louis and Chicago, three days in Philadelphia, and one day each in New York and Boston.

F. H. Milnes, of Sheffield United, will captain the team, which will be made up from the following players:

Sir Chas. Kirkpatrick, of Dorking, T. T. Fitchie, of Woolwich Arsenal; J. D. Barnsdall, of Notts Forest; V. J. Woodward, of Tottenham; H. Smith, of Reading; R. E. Hounsfield, and J. Fletcher, of Derby County; J. E. Raine and C. Coopland, of Sheffield United; E. A. Milton, of Saltley College; C. W. Storey, of Corinthians; J. Bryning and F. Walmsley, of Northern Nomads, and Robert Hart, J. O. Dick and L. H. Skane, of Queen's Park, Glasgow.

Mr. J. J. Bentley, president of the Football Association, will accompany the players, and Sir Ernest Cochrane, who has offered a challenge cup to be played for between English, Canadian and American teams, is going to America on September 16th, to be present at the games in Philadelphia, New York and Boston.

Schultz Pitched Good Ball But Birds Beat Bronchos 2 Runs to 1

It was a shame to beat the Bronchos, but the Birds had to do it. They are bound to soar out of last place, and though they regret it exceedingly, they are compelled by the exigencies of the occasion to utilize the Bronchos to propel them upward.

Buckenberger's ball-tossers were beaten yesterday by two runs to one in what was after the third innings an exciting battle. The Bronchos scored in the first innings, but after that the smiling and perspiring Pappalau made them look like a bunch of itinerant cherry-pickers.

A certain Mr. Schultz, the same Mr. Schultz who held Toronto down to five hits Tuesday, was in the box for the Bronchos, and for four innings the Birds had about as much success solving his curves as they would have if they tried to locate the South Pole. But in the fifth the Royals evened the score and in the seventh Mr. Schultz, encouraged to do so by the wiles of the fans, gave a delightful exhibition of how to make a spectacular balloon ascension and the Birds scored the run which won the game.

Wow, wow, but it was a glorious occasion, and the fans went away rejoicing that such a game as baseball had ever been invented. Incidents there were in profusion and snappy plays galore.

The Bronchos are no slouches of players and the Birds were uneasy every minute of the game. They were keyed up to win and they took all the chances that came their way.

The Bronchos got away to a flying start. With two out in the first innings Barclay smashed a sizzling grounder at Dutch Hartman. Dutch smiled as the sphere smoked towards him and he had his lunch-hooks poised ready for it, when sad to say, it took a nasty bound and evaded his anxious fingers. Pappalau made a wild pitch and Barclay sprinted to second. Houser singled to centre and Barclay scored. Yancey went out Pappalau to Lachance.

The Bronchos got men on the bases in every other innings, but the eighth, but Pappalau's clever pitching and the fast fielding behind him, prevented them from scoring.

In the second innings, with one gone, O'Brien doubled to right, but was caught trying to make third on Steelman's grounder to Lou Hartman. Steelman sent up a foul fly which Raub nailed neatly.

In the seventh, with one out, Schultz planted a safe bingle in right field and Smith singled to centre, but Clancy sent a fly to Meaney and Barclay's bunt was handled by Raub, who threw him out at first, retiring the side.

In the ninth O'Brien, who had allowed the fans to get him going, ingloriously fanned and Payne, who batted for Steelman, followed suit. Manning reached first on a scratch single to Lachance, but Smith fouled out to Raub and it was all over.

The Birds were helpless before Schultz till the fifth. Joyce led off with a single to centre, but was forced at second by Raub. The latter stole second and scored on Lachance's smash between Smith and McConnell.

In the seventh there was all kinds of fun. Raub singled and stole second. Lachance fanned and L. Hartman hit a slow one to Smith. Raub thought the latter was going to throw to first and overran third, and was tagged by O'Brien. The fans went after Schultz and he went into the empyrean. Pappalau hit safely, sending Hartman to third. Wiedy drew a pass and Meaney singled, scoring Hartman and filling the bases. Bannon hit to Smith, forcing Meaney at second.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

"Hit it to O'Brien."

Pappalau got his usual hit.

Leroy may pitch to-morrow.

Buffalo is on the toboggan slide.

Bannon now has a baseball team.

Next Wednesday is Children's Day.

The Birds' errors were not expensive.

Isn't Mike Joyce swatting the ball some?

Payne had a batting average of 1,000.

This series will decide the tail-end honors.

O'Brien made three nice stops at third.

The Bronchos played in first division form.

Both third basemen got some too hot to handle.

Leroy looked as natural as ever batting out flies.

The Birds have won four out of the last six games.

The two tail-enders put up a very even battle yesterday.

Raub made a nice catch of Schultz's foul fly in the second.

Pappalau's hit was a timely one. Schultz also got a clean drive.

Yancey in the centre garden had four fine catches to nic credit.

Schultz pitched a nice game. He is the Bronchos' premier pitcher.

Conway is the best umpire that has appeared here this season.

Both O'Brien and Schultz got a very friendly reception from the fans.

Manager Buckenberger refused to give the Birds two games Saturday.

Leroy appeared on the side lines but his appearance caused little or no comment.

After the first inning Papalau pitched a very steady game and deserved to win.

Bannon came to bat in the seventh with the bases full, but could not hit safely.

Dutch Hartman hurt his finger trying to stop O'Brien's drive in the fourth.

Just imagine what Schultz would have got if yesterday had been Children's Day.

No use talking, Billy Tingle has managed the local affairs of the Birds in gilt-edged fashion.

Smith, the Bronchos' captain, is now playing short. He handled everything cleanly yesterday.

Bill Clancy's popularity is unabated. The youthful fans think that Bill is one of the nicest fellows ever.

Wiedensaul is playing a very steady game at second and is hitting fairly well. He should be kept on the regular line-up.

O'Brien permitted himself to be jollied into a fine frenzy and struck out in the last innings to the great joy of the rooters.

Joyce is firmly established among the select .300 batsmen. And he has worked up while most of the others have been dropping.

McConnell hit to Lachance in the fourth and by fast foot work Pappalau covered the bag and the runner was thrown out.

The Marylebone and Montreal cricketers have been invited by the Montreal Baseball Club's management to attend the Sunday game at the Shamrock grounds.

Clancy fooled pretty nearly everybody in the seventh. With Schultz on second and Smith on first, Bill drove a long fly to Meaney and though Smith stuck to first, Clancy ran on to second and was there when the ball dropped into Meaney's hands Bannon claimed that Smith was out because Clancy had passed him, but the kick was futile.

SADIE MAC IS A WINNER.

After the decisive victory of Sadie Mac in the 2.12 class at Detroit, which she won in three straight heats, reducing her record from 2.11½ to 2.06½, Trainer Spear, on behalf of Mr. Smathers, of New York, former owner of Sadie Mac, and from whom she was purchased by Miss Wilks last autumn for $15,000, made an offer of $20,000 for the speedy daughter of Peter the Great. The offer was declined. Miss Wilks is a very wealthy lady, and her hobby being the light harness horse, she desires to own the best and can afford to gratify her fancy.

ONE N.A.L.U. GAME SATURDAY

The only N.A.L.U. fixture for to-morrow is the match at the National grounds between Cornwalls and Nationals. The Factory Town boys are always game fighters and they are bound to give the locals a run for their money. They have been strengthening their line-up and are coming down confident of surprising the Nationals. The latter are travelling fast and are certain to give a good exhibition of the national game.

WESTMOUNT BOWLERS TO COMPETE AT TORONTO

Toronto, Aug. 11. — The annual tournament of the Dominion Lawn Bowling Association, which commences next week, promises to surpass all of its predecessors. The entry list will be the largest that has ever been known. Over 70 rinks have already signified their intention of competing for honors.

The Scotch, a new game added to the programme, has created a great deal of interest in lawn bowling this year, and for this alone there will be a big entry.

The matches will be played on the lawns of the Granite and Victoria Clubs. The preliminary round will commence on Monday afternon, and continue until the end of the week.

A number of outside entries, including that of the Westmount Club, Montreal, have already been received, so that a good start has already been made. The lawns of the two clubs have been put in the best possible condition and keen competitions should be the result.

The Dominion Lawn Bowling trophy is open for competition to members of all lawn bowling clubs in the Dominion for Canada, and is to become the property of any club whose representatives shall win it the greatest number of times in ten years.

It was won in 1900 and 1903 by the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club, in 1902 and 1904 by the Canada Lawn Bowling Club, and in 1901 by the Kincardine Lawn Bowling Club.

Last season 75 rinks were entered. This was a record for the association, and it is likely to be beaten again this season. Nearly all of the local clubs will increase their number of entries, while there are many new clubs which have become affiliated with the association in the past twelve months.

LAWN TENNIS

TENNIS TOURNEY AT BOSTON.

Boston, Aug. 11.—Nineteen matches at the Longwood Cricket Club's tennis tournament yesterday brought the singles up to the semi-finals and the eastern doubles championship within three matches of the same stage.

To-day Clarence Hobart will meet E. W. Leonard, and F. B. Alexander will play his old partner in doubles, R. D. Little, and the winners will meet in the finals on Saturday.

Alexander was the favorite last night for the choice of meeting former Champion Larned, for the Longwood Cup on Monday.

IS THIS JEFF'S SUCCESSOR?

California sports think that they have a worthy successor of Jim Jeffries in Al Kaufmann, the amateur heavyweight of San Francisco. Although Kaufmann has been fighting only a little while he has made great strides in his profession. Kaufmann has the appearance of an ideal heavyweight. He is over 6 feet in height and weighs in condition about 200 pounds. Kaufmann is desirous of turning professional, and it is likely that he will do so in a little while. There is some talk of matching him to meet Sam Berger in a 20-round bout before the Colma A.C. Kaufmann has expressed his willingness to take part in such an encounter, so it is up to Berger.

POINTS VS. Y. M. C. A.

On Saturday the Point St. Charles intermediates will play their return match with the Y.M.C.A. on the former's ground at the Point, near the tail race bridge. The team to represent the Y.M.C.A. will be picked from the following, all of whom are requested to be on the Point's ground by 3 p.m. The match commences at 3.30 p.m. prompt:—A. Howat, F. Bryant, J. Macmorland, H. Dudgeon, G. Burton, G. Markham, W. Knight, E. Biron, J. Hollingsworth, D. Hollingsworth, J. Buchanan, Fairburn, Newman, L. C. Sharman.

LYON DEFEATED BY F. R. MARTIN

Latter Beaten by Sawyer—Canadians Played Good Golf.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Canada's hopes of winning the amateur golf championship of the United States were wrecked yesterday. The second round, played at the Chicago Golf Club's links bringing the finish. The luck of the draw brought Champion Geo. S. Lyon, of Toronto, and Fritz Martin, of Hamilton, together in the first round, and greatly to the surprise of the critics, Martin won a close match on the home green by 1 up.

In the afternoon Martin was beaten by Ned Sawyer, of Chicago, 4 up and 2 to play.

In the morning, Lyon led Martin by three, taking 40 to his opponent's 43. The bogey is 41. On the in-journey Martin sprinted home in 38, playing fine golf, Lyon taking 40. The bogey is 41.

Sawyer, who was the semi-finalist in the Western championship tournament last year, and one of Chicago's best players, was too clever for Martin, who did not play as well as in the morning game.

Martin took 45 and 39, Sawyer getting 43 and 38. The eight players left in are W. C. Fownes, and E. M. Byers of Pittsburg; W. J. Travis, A. L. White and M. Herreshoff of New York; H. Weber, of Toledo, and national champion Egan and D. F. Sawyer of Chicago.

W. J. Travis beat D. P. Fredericks by 2 and 1; Egan beat Simon Carr of Philadelphia 3 and 1 and E. M. Egan beat J. D. Travers 6 and 5.

Marylebones Behind on First Innings in Ottawa by 49 Runs

Bowling of McGiverin and Bristow Was Very Effective—Former Took 7 Wickets for 34 Runs—Bristow and Baber Batted Well.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The Ottawa-Marylebone match commenced in ideal weather about noon yesterday, the wicket being nearly perfect. Hill and Saunders carried the score 23 by careful cricket when Hill was neatly taken on the slips by Payne off Napier's first ball he having replaced Henley at the Government House end.

Pereira filled the vacancy but was stumped by Stow before scoring.

Baber was next in. But soon after his advent Saunders was taken in the slips by Payne for a careful 12.

Bristow filled the vacancy the score being 25—4—12.

These two men took the score to 58, when an adjournment was made for lunch.

Bristow had been batting very freely, treating the slow bowling of Burn, left hand, and McConnell, right hand, with scant courtesy.

The teams were photographed together after lunch and play was resumed at 3.15.

The not-outs, Baber and Bristow, took the score to 89 when Baber was caught and bowled by McDonnell for a carefully played and very useful 24.

Captain McGiverin joined Bristow and knocked the bowling about to the tune of 11 before retiring.

Bristow was shortly after out for a splendid 48. He had hit on the leg side with great vigor and although he took some big chances, his inning was invaluable to the side.

The inning closed eventually for 120. For the Englishmen Napier bowled well, keeping a good length and toward the end of the inning McDonnell did great execution, at one period bowling 3 maidens and getting 3 wickets in them.

The full score was as follows:

The Englishmen commenced their innings at 4.05 with Payne and Godsell to the bowling of McGiverin and Bristowe. From the start they were in trouble with the bowling Godsell being lbw at 5 to McGiverin; Wyld followed in but at 19 was nicely caught in the long field by Maude, off McGiverin. At no time was any stand made. Capt. Mann made a gallant effort to save tide of disaster but played to one of Bristow's fast ones. The innings beens" McGiverin and Bristow, "has beens," McGiverin and Bristow bowled magnificently, and the fielding was without error.

The downfall of the English team was the more remarkable when one considers the wicket which was absolutely good throughout both innings. McGiverin came out with 7 wickets for 34. Following is the score:

Gentlemen of England.

M. W. Payne lbw b Bristow	4
R. T. Godsell lbw b McGiverin	4

POINTS VS. SHAMROCKS.

Everything is ready for the game between Points and Shamrocks on Saturday. The Points had their final work out yesterday afternoon, when they put in two hours of good stiff practice in the sun, and will go on the field in the best of condition. The Points are taking no chances for they know in facing the Shamrocks that they will be up against the best twelve that the Shamrocks can place on the field.

NOTES.

There should be something doing on Saturday.

Keep your eye on Brown at centre.

Brennan can be depended on to play the game of his life on Saturday.

Parker at point is picking them out in grand style.

Watch Middy Sullivan on Saturday. He is a dangerous shot.

Hogan and Currie are fast and will do good work on Saturday.

A record crowd is expected.

RED STAR WINNERS.

The fifth game in the Independent Junior League was played on Lafontaine Park between Gordons and Red Stars and resulted in an easy win for the boys from the East by the score of 12 to nil. Mr. Hennessy, of the Leos, was referee, and performed his duties in an acceptable manner.

The teams were as follows:

FOOTBALL.

Y.M.C.A. VS. C.P.R.

Y.M.C.A. meets C.P.R. on Saturday in the first round of the Caledonia Cup series. The game will take place on the Montreal Baseball Park commencing at 5.30. Y.M.C.A. will line up as follows: Goal, Raynor; full backs Sykes and Robinson; half-backs, Teet Wilson and MacRae; forwards, Jamieson, Steedman, Gilchrist, W. Steedman, and Griffiths; spares, Sherman and Bryant.

GOOD GAME PROMISED.

One of the best games of football will be seen at the Beaver grounds, Wellington street, on Saturday afternoon, when the Point St. Charles meet the Westmount team in the first round of the Lyall Cup and the Sons of Scotland Badges. Westmount is the holder of the Cup and will do their utmost to retain the piece of silverware; the Points on the other hand will do their level best to cut the Westmount's ambition in the bud. These teams have met twice this season the result being a win for each team on its own ground and the football played was of the fast, clean kind, which makes it pleasant from the spectator's point of view. This match promises to be even more exciting and the clubs hope that they will have a large turnout of spectators to encourage them in their ambition of making association football one of the popular games of Canada. The game will start sharp at half-past four. The following Point players are requested to be on the field: Sutherland, Humphreys, Ross, McCulloch, Garden, Bissett, Watt, Suttee, Wright, May, Ogilvie, McKie, and Greig.

INTERMEDIATE ORIOLE VICTORIOUS.

In the presence of a record-breaking attendance, the Orioles easily defeated the Crystals. The game was rather one-sided, as A. Nicholson had perfect control, while Jos. Schultz was hit pretty freely.

GOLF SCANDAL AT ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Aug. 11.—The United States Golf Association will be called upon to settle a scandal growing out of the Trans-Mississippi tourney at Glen Echo, at which time F. K. Flaugh, of Des Moines, Ia., protested the act of J. Q. Adams, of the Omaha Field Club, in denying the former the honor and the unmolested use of the ninth tee in their match in the championship round, at which time in playing the eighth hole Adams sliced his second shot, and it went off the course thirty or forty feet.

After five minutes' search Adams claimed to have found the ball, but it is now said that he dropped one taken out of his pocket in place of the lost ball, which was found by a club employe after the match had been concluded. T. M. G. A. officials have investigated the matter and will lay the result of their conclusions before the parent body.

THE HERALD

A CANADIAN'S ACHIEVEMENT.

The splendid devotion of a Canadian, who had risen from a small clerical position in New York to the post of confidential secretary, adopted member of the family, and finally part heir of one of America's most public-spirited millionaires, is the striking feature of the rescue of the Fiala-Ziegler polar expedition recorded in yesterday's despatches. This is the ascription of the rescued themselves, as cabled from Norway:—

Our rescue was due to the splendid efforts of William S. Champ (secretary of the late William Ziegler), commanding the relief expedition, who, owing to the terrible weather, failed to reach us last year; and to the untiring zeal of Captain Kjeldsen and his Norwegian officers and crew, who for six weeks persistently forced their way through solid floes of ice and finally rescued us.

William S. Champ is a Hamilton, Ont., man, one of those innumerable Canadians who, when their opportunities were being hampered by misgovernment and mistaken policy at home, refused to accept the restrictions of their native land and sought larger spheres in the United States. His employer's death a little over a year ago, left him a rich man, even as New York measures riches, but it also left him a supreme sense of responsibility to his employer's ideal and to the men who were imperiling their lives to work it out. In June of last year he headed an unsuccessful attempt to reach the Fiala explorers, and suffered terribly from the exposure, which he underwent in the effort. Undeterred by this, and unallured by the attractions of a life of ease at home, he sailed once again from Tromsoe on July 1 last, with the result of which we have just heard. Canada is proud to have produced such men as Mr. Champ and still prouder that now she is for the most part able to keep them.

WHAT NEXT AT WESTMINSTER?

The British Parliament has been prorogued without any direct statement being made upon the subject of dissolution. In its last hours the vote to reduce the salary of the Irish Secretary of State which Mr. Redmond had succeeded in carrying by a majority of four votes three weeks since, was re-introduced and Mr. Balfour defeated it by a majority of sixty-two or just ten less than his nominal majority, so that he is able to enter upon the Parliamentary recess claiming that he has the confidence of the House of Commons.

The Government, however, is now in a somewhat similar position to that occupied by Mr. Gaidstone's first Ministry in 1873. Its position in the House is weakened and its defeat in the constituencies is assured. In 1873 Mr. Gladstone resigned office under such circumstances, and only continued in power because Mr. Disraeli declined to undertake the task of forming a Cabinet at that juncture. It is by no means certain that the Liberal leaders would have accepted office last month even had Mr. Balfour followed the Gladstonian precedent. They know that the longer Mr. Balfour postpones dissolution the greater their triumph is likely to be and there are several international questions which it may be to the general interest should be settled by the men who have held the diplomatic threads in their hands for so long.

There is a long agenda of domestic questions which the country desires to see settled in accordance with the principles of the Liberal party, and the task of systematically dealing with them may be lightened by foreign questions being relegated to the background for a time, as it is hoped they will be as a result of the negotiations at Portsmouth, the forthcoming conference anent Morocco and the recasting of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

Unless Mr. Balfour asks the King to dissolve Parliament in October or November we shall know that it is his intention to meet Parliament again in January or February and renew the attempt to carry a redistribution of seats, increasing the representation of England at the expense of Ireland, which has proved abortive this session. He has already given a hint that this is his intention by announcing that a commission to fix the boundaries of the proposed constituencies will sit during the recess. The signs accumulate that the entire Liberal party and some nominally Unionist members will unite with the Irish Nationalists to fight such a proposal line by line.

Thus the year 1906 is almost certain to see the termination of nearly two decades of "Tory Rule." Lord Salisbury's first Ministry was formed in 1885 and, except during the period 1892-1895, when the Liberals were in office without being in power, the Tory-Whig-Unionist coalition has succeeded in maintaining itself in office by a series of unexampled compromises and latterly by the exercise of tactics on the part of Mr. Balfour which have extinguished the enthusiasm of a number of his followers.

THE STATE AND THE SCOTTISH CHURCHES.

One of the many surprises of the session of the British Parliament, now drawing to a close, has been the successful passage of the bill introduced by Mr. Balfour which related to the extraordinary conflict produced by the judgment of the legal members of the House of Lords in regard to the status of the United Presbyterian and Free Churches of Scotland. That judgment handed over the control of heritable property and funds amounting to nearly $10,000,000 to twenty-seven ministers and 2,743 members of the Free Church, and led to events which have stirred the religious life of Scotland to the very foundations. The legal justice of the decision was hardly assailed, because it admittedly confined itself to technical points of law apart from equity, but upon all sides the situation was felt to be impossible, and only Parliament could supply a remedy.

The first step taken was the appointment of a Royal Commission, and the bill which has successfully run the gauntlet of Parliamentary criticism and obstruction was mainly founded upon the recommendations of that commission, over which Lord Elgin presided. The principle of the measure is the idea that the body which the legal judgment invested with all this property was not in a position, owing to its numerical inferiority, to administer the trust, and that therefore an Executive Commission must be set up by Parliament which should allocate the property, "in such manner as appeared to the commission to be fair and equitable."

It seems curious that the State should have had to be called in to settle differences between rival Scottish churches, neither of which had any legal connection with the State, but so long as people die and leave money, estates or other property to any organized religious denominations of which they are members there must always be a final appeal to the State when any question arises as to the authority of the administrators of such funds. In this sense Church and State cannot be separated.

FOOD SUPPLIES AND CONTRABAND.

The South African war was the occasion when food supplies in time of war were first seriously discussed by the press and Parliament of the United Kingdom; and the appointment of the Royal Commission which has just made its report was the result of these discussions. Until we receive the report itself it will be unwise to lay too much stress upon the one paragraph which is before us, as the separation of text from context is responsible for as many misunderstandings in diplomatic and political documents and speeches as it is in those heated discussions waged between the leading theologians and scientific men of this and earlier ages.

The present war has been remarkable for the number of questions it has raised regarding what should be internationally regarded as contraband. The reason for this is evidently in the fact that it has been the first war for almost a century in which large naval forces have been engaged, certainly the first war in which the maritime interests of various neutral powers have been so intimately involved. More than once the seizure of British vessels, such as the Malacca, has caused strained relations, and the various interpretations placed upon contraband and belligerent rights has corresponded to the differing sympathies and interests of the neutrals. There seems little probability that any new Hague conference will be able to bring about international agreement as to what shall be consistently regarded as contraband; Russia has declared some articles to be of that nature which the Japanese proclamation omitted.

Presuming England to be engaged in a death struggle it is idle to suppose that her opponents would be willing to treat foodstuffs as exempt from capture, but the question naturally arises, supposing that the main supply of those foodstuffs was derived from the ports of some important naval power, such as the United States, how long would that power be content to remain neutral while one of the main avenues of trade was blocked and a large section of its population compelled to suffer as great hardships though lack of markets, as if they were actually at war themselves?

The advantage of drawing food supplies solely from the outlying portions of the British Empire in time of war is thus apparently discounted unless they are able to contribute such an accession of naval strength as would enable them successfully to convey the food they produced to the British markets over sea.

The report of the Royal Commission seems to emphasize the fact that not only the United Kingdom, but the countries from whence she imports her foodstuffs have a very vital interest in the question as to what is contraband and who holds control of the great ocean highways in time of war.

"ALL RECORDS BROKEN."

Editor Herald.

Sir,—For 24 hours we have been overwhelmed by reports in the public press as to the breaking of all records by the Allan liner Virginian whose mails were received in the city this morning at 1.30 a.m.

We are now wondering what the hurry has been about. Our place of business is within a mile of the post office and at 9 a.m. our English mail has not reached us. On calling up the post office we are informed that there was "not time" to get the mail sorted and that it will be sent out by the ten o'clock delivery.

Further comment is unnecessary.

FRENCH CANADA'S GREETING TO BRITISH PRINCE

Under the heading of "Welcome," the Canada says editorially to-day: His Royal Highness, Prince Louis of Battenberg, one of the respected members of our sovereign and admiral of the British navy, arrived in Quebec to-day with an escort of six cruisers.

As a member of the Royal family and one of the leading officials of the powerful navy of Great Britain, His Royal Highness will deign to accept our respectful homage and the assurance of our loyal attachment to the British Crown in the person of His Majesty King Edward VII.

The French Canadian subjects of His Majesty are happy in welcoming to their shores a member of the Royal Family and a representative of England's powerful navy at the same time as England is entertaining at Portsmouth the fleet of France, their former mother country and to be able to acclaim together the two countries which are most dear to them.

They desire to express their ardent hope that this entente between France and England an example of which they have long given in Canada may become more marked for the greater glory and prosperity of the two nations and for the greater good of humanity.

Fighting "Japonians."

(Chicago News.)

In that interesting book, "Purchas His Pilgrimes," is recorded the adventure which befell John Davis and Sir Edward Michelbourne, who, little better than pirates themselves, met in 1605, with a Chinese junk full of piratical "Japonians," whose own vessel had been cast away on Borneo. There were ninety men aboard this junk, "most of them in too gallant a habit for Saylers, and such an equalitie of behavior among them that they seemed all fellowes; yet among them there was one that they called Capitaine, but gave him little respect." A number of them having been transferred to the ship while the junk's cargo was being searched, they suddenly sailed out of the cabin at a given signal, and while those in the junk killed or drove overboard the Englishmen in charge those on the ship tried to take possession of it. At the first onset they killed Capt. Davis.

"They pressed so fiercely to come to us as, we receiving them on our Pikes, they would gather in our Pikes, with their hands to reach us with their swords. It was neere half an hour before we could stone them back into the Cabbin; in which time we had killed three or four of their Leaders. After they were in the Cabbin they fought with us at the least foure houres before we could suppresse them, often fyring the Cabin, burning the bedding and much other stuffe that was there.

"And had we not with two Demy-culverins, from under the halfe-decke, beaten downe the bulke head and the pumpe of the ship, we could not have suppressed them from burning the ship. This Ordnance being charged with Crossebarres, Bullets and Case-shot, and bent close to the bulke head, so violently marred therewith boorish and splinters that it left but one of them standing of two and twentie.

"Their legs, arms and bodies were so torne, as it was strange to see how the shot had massacred them. Inn all this conflict they never would desire their lives though they were hopelesse to escape; such was the desperateness of these Japonians."

Bombay Towers of Silence Threatened.

(Westminster Gazette.)

Much agitation has lately been going on among the Parsees of Bombay on account of a proposal that the famous "Towers of Silence" on Malabar Hill should no longer be devoted to their present purpose. Every visitor to India knows the Towers of Silence, and it is scarcely necessary to explain that they are used for the disposal of the dead according to the strange method in vogue among the disciples of Zoroaster —namely, the exposure of the body to the vultures. A letter from an advanced member of the Parsee community, published in the Times of India, was the immediate cause of the controversy. The original suggestion was not that the community should adopt sepulture or cremation, or that the Towers of Silence should be demolished, but that it was extremely undesirable for the present Towers of Silence, situated as they are in the midst of a growing residential neighborhood, to continue in actual use.

Forthwith the storm broke, and it was immediately disclosed that the Parsee community was really divided upon a more fundamental question — namely, whether the principles of Zoroaster expressly enjoined the traditional method of disposal of the dead and forbade all form of incineration. The main contention of the progressive section apears to be that, even if it be granted that burning by fire is unlawful, the modern method of cremation does not bring the body into contact with the flames, and therefore the law is literally respected. It is not perhaps surprising that this argument is resented by the more conservative Parsees, who, like the adherents of tradition in every cline, see in every departure from custom the beginning of social disaster.

Camping Song.

(Bliss Carman, in the Reader Magazine.)

Has your dinner lost its savor?
Has your greeting lost its cheer?
Is your daily stunt a burden?
Is your laughter half a sneer?
There's a medicine to cure you,
There's a way to lift your load,
With a horse and a saddle
And a mile of open road.

Is your eyebail growing bilious?
Is your temper getting short?
Is this life a blind delusion,
Or a grim, unlovely sport?
There's a world of health and beauty,
There's a help that cannot fail,
In a day behind the burros
Of a dusty mountain trail.

Come out, old man, we're going
To a land that's free and large,
Where the rainless skies are resting
On a snowy mountain marge.
When we camp in God's own country,
You will find yourself again,
With a fire and a blanket,
And the stars upon the plain!

He's the Worst.

(Chicago News.)

He's just about as lazy as can be,
He lies abed till nearly 9 o'clock.
Eight-thirty is quite late enough for me—
I always wake at that time if you knock.
He lounges down to breakfast simply clad
In his pyjamas—he will never dress.
I wear a bathrobe, and it makes me mad
To see a man sit to a meal in less.

He'll stretch himself out somewhere in the shade
And smoke a pipe for hours and never stir.
He's irreclaimable, I am afraid.
A good cigar indoors I much prefer.
He hardly has the energy to move
When Mary rings the bell for lunch at one.
In that respect, at least, he might improve.
Whenever I hear that sweet sound I run.

Of course, he says that he is here for rest.
I am myself, but my short rest I need.
He says that he'll go back to work with zest.
I think I see that fellow work, indeed!
It just disgusts me, does such idleness
In one so young. It really makes me sigh.
I like to loaf myself, I must confess,
But I'll be hanged if he's not worse than I.

Opportunity.

(The Khan.)

Gimme a map of Canada!
Why, there's only a few small spots
That's populated—here and there
In little scattered dots!
And here I be a hired man,
I'm ordered 'round on this here plan:
"Oh, you come here!"
Oh, "You go there!"
It isn't very sweet.
The North, the West, both cry: "Tut, tut!
Come right up here and help us cut
And shock and thresh our wheat!"

I think my hired-man days are done,
And I've put in the peg,
So here's another son of a gun
That's off for Winnipeg.
To have a homestead I am bound;
No more will I be ordered round,
Like "You come here!"
Or "You go there—
Get busy on your feet!"
To-night the Ruberoon I'll cross;
Hereafter I'll be my own boss,
In the midst of my own wheat!

Would You Like to Drink Yermeth?

(U. S. Consular Reports.)

In a recent article on Paraguay tea the consul-general of Paraguay in Dresden asks why unfermented drinks from malt, apples and grapes may not answer the legitimate pretensions of beer and wine. The answer is a simple one: That these fruit drinks do not contain the necessary stimulating principle such as alcohol in wine and caffein and thein in tea and coffee. To be sure, in the so-called non-alcoholic beers and wines the starch is changed into dextrin and sugar, but there is no fermentation which will furnish the stimulating agent.

Yerba mate, however, contains 1.85 per cent. caffein, which is an entire substitute for alcohol. Messrs. Friedrich, Sommer & Obst became interested in this problem and endeavored to make a bitter rather than a sweet drink, rich in caffein, containing carbon dioxide and resembling beer. After many experiments Mr. Obst succeeded in preparing such a drink, which is called "yermeth." This drink has all the characteristics of yerba mate; it is cooling, tastes well and relieves fatigue. In addition to caffein, yermeth contains tannic acid, gluten, sodium nitrate, carbon dioxide and a small amount of raw sugar. A specially made variety of yermeth without sugar, but containing a small amount of saccharin, is recommended to diabetes.

While Paraguay tea occupies the first rank as a warm, healthy, stimulating drink, yermeth is the only non-alcholic drink resembling beer which contains caffein.

Progress of Decimal System in England.

(Westminster Gazette.)

The authorisation by the Board of Trade of the use of 20lb., 10lb. and 5lb. weights as aliquot parts of the cental is another step on the road towards the complete decimalising of our weights and measures. In this connexion, it is not generally known that the metric system was made legal but not compulsory in the United Kingdom in 1897, when Mr. Ritchie, as President of the Board of Trade, carried through Parliament the necessary legalising measure. Since then, in addition to the standards of the Imperial system, the standards of the metric system have been kept at the Standards Office of the Board of Trade. The cental of 100lb., mainly used in the corn trade, was adopted in 1878 by the Central Chamber of Agriculture, and this weight was the following year established by an Order of Council as the new standard hundredweight.

Natural standards are the theoretical basis of both the Imperial and metric systems, but the great difficulty experienced by the attempt to restore by reference to such standards, the standards lost when the House of Commons was destroyed by fire in 1834 convinced the authorities that exactness was not attainable by this method. New standards were therefore made, and from these five copies officially recognized as equally exact. These copies are kept in various places, among them the Mint, the Greenwich Observatory and the Royal Society. Several other copies exist, but are not guaranteed to be perfectly accurate. A set of these length standards is let into the outer wall of Greenwich Observatory, where also is a pound balance for public use, and lengths of 100ft. and 66ft. are marked on brass plates let in a granite step at the back of Trafalgar-square.

Heat That Isn't Hot.

(Country Calendar.)

It has been my fortune to visit some of the hottest places in America at the hottest period of the year, and the reader may be incredulous when I say that I have been vastly more uncomfortable in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore or Washington in summer than I have at Yuma or in the heart of the Mojave, California or Apache Desert, or any of the great pseudo summer deserts that reach away in a general line from Yuma to San Antonio, Tex.

I recall entering a restaurant at Indio, on the edge of the Mojave, when the heat called to mind proximity to a furnace. I suggested to a citizen that it was hot. "No," he replied; "yesterday was hot; it was 120 degrees in the shade; to-day it is only 115 degrees;" yet I have been more uncomfortable in Boston with the thermometer at 90 degrees. In Boston the heat was humid; one perspired. At Indio or on the desert the heat was absolutely dry and at night the chances were that a blanket might be required, nature giving one an opportunity to recuperate, which is not always the case in the great cities.

Bombard the Enemy With Ads.

(Toronto Globe.)

Of the many novelties introduced into war by the Japanese not the least up-to-date is the bombarding of the enemy with proclamations. The latest effort in this direction is the firing into the camp of suggestions that it is useless to sacrifice life now that peace is so near. Our big advertisers may get a hint from this. What an effective plan it would be to send into the Slav camp thousands of declarations that Sunlight soap would be a specific for the chief of the ills that Russia is heir to.

MECHANIC AND COFFEE.

The Old Coffee Troubles Left When He Quit.

"Since quitting coffee I am hearty and well at sixty-three and go to my work every day and feel stronger and better in every way than I used to when I was considerably younger.

"I am a mechanic and have been a great lover of coffee and used it all my life until a few months ago when I made up my mind that it was hurting me. I suffered from constipation, indigestion and kidney troubles and I used to bloat up and have pains in my back.

"Something had to be done, and I quit coffee, the old kind, I mean, and began to use Postum Food Coffee. In a few weeks I was a well man again. My bowels became regular, my food digested comfortably, the bloating, and pains in my back no longer troubled me and my kidneys resumed healthy, normal action. That improved condition remains. I am sure I owe it to Postum Coffee, for I have used no medicines.

"I like Postum much better than the old kind. It seems to be more satisfying and I and my whole family drink it morning, noon and night. This is my honest statement of what Postum has done for me." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A Story of the New Crown Princess.

(London Globe.)

The German papers, in their enthusiasm for the new Crown Princess, relate at least one anecdote which can scarcely be agreeable for the ladies of her suite. The Princess is endowed with a beautiful profusion of hair, which she wears dressed high upon the head. It need scarcely be added that high coiffures are the order of the day among the ladies of the suite, and the story goes that Berlin hairdressers take a malicious pleasure in making them up badly to avenge the slight of a Viennese having been called in to perform the wedding coiffure of her Imperial Highness. One day, a lady in attendance was sitting at a table with the Prince and Princess in evident doubt as to the security of this superstructure, when a sudden gust of wind through the open window sent all toppling into her soup plate, revealing the fact that her luxurious tresses were only the "harvest of a second head." "That mishap will never happen to me, Fritz," said the Crown Princess.

Hay Killed Anglophobia.

(Walter Wellman in American Review of Reviews.)

"It has long been suspected of Mr. Hay that he was pro-British and anti-Russian. There was ground for the suspicion, so far as his personal feelings were concerned. He had faith in English character, English justice, English institutions. He sought no alliance, but he did seek a closer understanding, a drawing together of the two English-speaking peoples, which should make war between them an utter impossibility. Despite criticism, and even bitter attacks, he held to his task; and he lived long enough to see the work done—to see Anglo-American friendship so firmly knitted that nothing less than an earthquake would suffice to upset it. If Mr. Hay had done nothing else, this one achievement would redound to his fame—he more than any other one man swept away the foolish cult which all recently made it necessary for an ambitious American politician to proclaim his hostility to England."

Poverty a Nuisance in Paris.

(T. P.'s Weekly.)

In which of the great cities of the world is poverty most irksome? The palm is usually awarded to Paris, a fact of which I am reminded by reading that a few days ago a poorly-dressed man being seen to pick up a purse from the ground on one of the boulevards, was promptly arrested. Nor, until he had been in custody for several hours was he able to prove what was however, the fact, that it was his own purse, which he had dropped the moment before. This recalls a famous bet on e made, by the Duc de Grammont-Caderousse, who wagered 1,000 francs that he would be arrested within twenty-four hours without having done anything whatever to deserve it. He dressed himself shabbily, went to a boulevard cafe and ordered a cup of coffee. When called upon to pay he produced a banknote for 1,000 francs. Within two minutes a policeman had him by the collar.

A Lot Depends on the Man.

Lady Henry Somerset, who was introduced to Canadian women by Miss Francis E. Willard and who is supposed to have first hand knowledge of English society and a careful regard for the truth, has made some painful revelations in an article in Black and White. She says: "I hear that there are young ladies in society who are now called Hooligan girls. They have forsaken the tradition of bygone days as to the necessity of chaperones, and look upon the circumspect conduct which was considered necessary in the debutante as frumpy and old-fashioned. I am told that in order to enjoy the society of a partner a young lady will leave a ball-room, and will spend an hour or two inside a hansom cab."

The First Tramway.

Westminster Gazette.)

When was the term "tramway" first used? is a question which suggests itself on reading the Report of Commissioners on London Traffic. In 1794 a Mr. Homfrary obtained an Act of Parliament "for the construction of an iron dramroad, tramroad, or railway between Cardiff and Merthyr Tydvil." In the Life of George Stephenson it is stated that iron-ways were first known as "Outram roads," so called after Mr. Benjamin Outram, of Little Eaton, Derbyshire, who, in connection with his iron works, substituted iron for wooden rails. Subsequently, for brevity's sake, they were called "tramroads."

Roosevelt's Advice to Australia.

(Westminster Gazette.)

An Australian lady has been publishing an interesting account of an interview which she obtained with President Roosevelt. After having conquered all sorts of difficulties she arrived at last in the audience-chamber, and then "a kind of whirlwind danced into the room." This, of course, was the busiest and most strenuous of Presidents. He plunged at once into the affairs of the Commonwealth, and gave his views on the Australian Act for the restriction of undesirable alien immigrants and the declining birth-rate of the Commonwealth. "You must do either one thing or the other—either let the world into your gates or keep your cradles full."

Royal Tips.

(Chicago Journal.)

Some of the European monarchs give very large tips whenever they travel. The Emperor Nicholas of Russia is the most liberal in this respect. During his brief visit to France three years ago he spent $16,000 on tips to servants and almost as much on presents to officials and others. King Edward of England is not quite so generous, but as he travels a good deal both within his own realm and abroad he is obliged to lay aside each year $32,000 as an allowance for tips. The Emperor William of Germany is much more generous in a foreign country than at home and during his latest visit to Cowes, England, he spent not less than $10,000 on tips.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

Three Point Jump in Scotia; C.P.R. Again Makes High Record

Hill Stocks Were Booming on the Wall Street Market.

A clean jump of three points in Nova Scotia Steel and a new high record for C. P. R. were the most notable features of a rather quiet market. The Wall Street market made a great spurt but while the local market ruled strong it failed to develop much activity. A three point rise in one session has been a rather unusual thing of late and when Nova Scotia accomplished this to-day, many were inclined to attribute it mainly to professional trading. The stocks were even more active in Toronto than here. Nova Scotia Steel is attracting as much attention by its steady rise as it recently did by the ease with which it sold up. In the upward movement the work of a professional interest has been evident and to-day's advance was made by jumping fairly large fractions. Very little stock has been coming out in the upward movement as this has undoubtedly helped the advance quite considerably. After opening at 65, the common jumped right to 65 3-4, then to 66, and within the first hour had sold to 66 1-2. Towards the close the stock jumped right to 68, without touching any fraction between 67 and 68. Many believe the stock has been selling too low and thought it would not take very much to make the shorts try to cover. Some very optimistic reports have recently been made on the operations of the company.

C. P. R. certainly continues to show very large earnings and since the beginning of the fiscal year have come up to the prediction made by Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, that they would soon aggregate over $1,000.000 a week. At the opening on Wall Street the stock was in fair demand on what was reported to be London and Montreal buying. At the opening here the stock sold at 157½, a new high level for the local market.

Very little Montreal Cotton is being offered on the market an dthis might be taken as an indication that the shareholders are accepting the proposal made by the directors to pool their stock. A small broken lot sold to-day at 117.

The traction stocks for the most part were strong, Toledo selling at 35 and Twin City at 117¼. Detroit sold off silghtly, most of the transactions being at 92¾.

Wall Street Market

Wall Street, noon—Erratic fluctuations from one to two points in the high-priced stocks caused an irregular movement elsewhere, with some stocks under pressure. The list of gains was extended and varied and included many of the recent buoyant stocks, with several new-comers. Record prices continued to be made in several stocks. Delaware and Hudson recovered its opening decline. There were occasional reactions when trading became dull, but buying orders at new points revived the market constantly. The strength of the Hill stocks was the feature, Great Northern pfd. scoring the bigger gain of the day.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Sales on Wall Street to noon, were 439,700 shares.

Great Northern Railway preferred jumped from 297 at the opening to 307 1-2.

Northern Securities sold up from 180 to 184.

Northern Pacific advanced from 210 to 212 1-8.

Marler & Hodgson: It appears, however, that the speculators and investors have begun to realize what the conditions are throughout the country, and how brilliant are the prospects for the growing crops.

Charles Head & Co.: There were sharp advances in Great Northern, Northern Pacific, N. Y. Central, Northwestern and all the Vanderbilt and Hill stocks. Excellent buying occurred in St. Paul, and the Harriman stocks were strong and active, the strength in U. P. having a beneficial effect. A considerable amount of realizing was conducted at the advance, but the absorptive power was tremendous and speculation continues to broaden.

E. & C. Randolph: The general list has shown marked strength. The Steel stocks have been active at advancing prices and U. P., on large transactions, advanced above 133. B. & O. and Pennsylvania were both heavily bought. Atchison and Mop. were strong.

J. S. Bache & Co.: Noon: The market opened strong and active this morning under the lead of N. Y. C. and St. Paul. London is bullish on St. Paul and the Granger shares on the strength of the crop report. Steels were fairly strong. Information from Portsmouth was rather less pessimistic. There was some realizing to-day, but it was well taken. The market looks like going higher.

Norris P. Bryant: Indications point to broadening of the speculation and purchases of such stocks as U. S. Steels, Copper, Atchison, M. O. P., and B. & O., should prove very satisfactory.

A director of the Pullman Company is reported to have said that there would be no distribution of surplus by the company this year.

BRITT WILL FIGHT NELSON.

San Francisco, Aug. 77.—Jimmy Britt came out yesterday with a statement which makes the way clear for a battle with Battling Nelson in the near future, says the American. Britt announced that he would fight Nelson fifty rounds in September for the purse of $20,000 offered by J. W. Coffroth. Britt said that he would insist upon a side wager of $10,000 and that the winner take all the purse. In other words, the winner will be $40,000 richer by the victory. As this proposition was originally made by Nelson the fight under the conditions named seems assured. The matter is expected to e settled to-day when the fighters and the clu's representatives will come together and sign articles.

Halifax, N.S.—Wm. E. Peters, Prothonotary and County Clerk for Cape Breton, died at Sydney. He had undergone an operation in New York last week, but it was unsuccessful. He arrived back on Monday evening in a weakened condition. He was unconscious when brought home. Mr. Peters was one of the best known residents of Cape Breton. He was born in Sydney sixty-six years ago last June, and came of Loyalist stock. Ten years ago he was appointed Prothonotary and County Clerk for the county of Cape Breton.

Mr. G. A. Forbes left last evening for Vancouver, B.C.

"Street" Gossip

Havana Electric Co. Going Ahead Rapidly

Mr. Edwin Hanson, president of the Havana Electric Railway, when asked by The Herald if there was any particular reason for the steady advance in the price of Havana common, said he did not desire to say anything that might be construed as an attempt to boost the price of the stock. As far as the operations of the company in Havana were concerned, the company was getting on in a very satisfactory way, and new lines and new cars were being built right along to take care of the increased traffic. From what he had heard, the buying was coming from different sources, many evidently believing the stock is good for a fairly long pull.

London, Aug. 11.—The Grand Trunk Railway has declared a full dividend on the second preference. Seven thousand four hundred pounds carried forward.

Big Order for Steel

New York, Aug. 11.—Bids were opened at two o'clock yesterday by Bridge Commissioner Best for the steel superstructure for the Manhattan Bridge. The bids will involve the manufacture and erection of 43,000 tons of steel, 8,000 tons of which will cover the wire cables and fittings. An expenditure of about $7,000,000 will be called for. It is expected that there will be four bidders—the Pennsylvania Steel Co., Milliken Bros. of this city, the King Bridge Co. of Cleveland and the McClintock-Marshall Co. of Pittsburg.

The contract for the steel work to be awarded will require that all steel for the anchorages must be delivered before February next; that the erection of the steel towers must begin next spring, and that the whole structure must be completed on or before Jan. 1, 1909.

Cobalt is a Drug on the Market

Tronto, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Mr. B. F. Folger, late of the Temiskaming Railway Commission, is in town. Mr. Folger has been up at Cobalt—not merely for his health. He is interested in silver properties there.

"Silver is the main thing up there these days," he said to a News reporter. "Cobalt is depreciating. It's worth only 60 cents a pound now. It's a drug on the market. Silver is booming. It's easy to mine, cheap to get and brings $30,000 a car. Why, it's almost free silver.

"But they need a few houses at Cobalt," he added. "Talk about house scarcity in Toronto—not in it for a minute. Why, there isn't even a hotel at Cobalt, and people flocking in there from all over clear from the Klondike to Mexico.

"And you can save," he concluded, "that the new Government railway is bound to be a bread-winner. It's all right."

Amalgamated Copper Will Have Largest Output

Managing Director John D. Ryan, of Amalgamted Copper, states that the Amalgamated production for the current year would be the largest of any since its inception. Last fall the Colorado smelter at Butte was closed down, while during April of this year operations were suspended at the Butte & Boston plant, with the result that but two smelters—the Washoe, at Anaconda, and the Boston & Montana, at Great Falls—are treating the company's entire output. Under the new arrangement more effective saving of the metal values is secured, while liberal reductions have been noted in the cost of treating the ores. The ore tonnage treated at these plants, by the way, is in excess of that supplied when shipments were also forwarded to the Colorado and Butte & Boston smelters.

Mr. Ryan stated that the mines of the Amalgamated were now supplying as large a volume of high-grade ore as at any time in their career. The company, however, thanks to decreased costs and more effective methods of treatment, is mining a grade of ore that, under former conditions, was looked upon as not possessing a commercial value. The scale of development work has been broadened materially during the past year, as a result of which additional depth has been secured and the extent of available reserves considerably enlarged. The showing at the lower levels, he says, is such as to insure the fullest degree of confidence, but the reserves thus established will not be drawn upon for several years.

Mexican Light and Power Secures a Big Contract

A wire from Mexico to the head office of the Mexican Light and Power Company states that the company has made a ten-year contract with the Mexican Electric Tramway Company to supply it with 5,000 horse power a year.

The contract is made by Mr. Charles H. Cohen, the general counsel for the company who has been particularly successful in getting very valuable franchises for the company.

For a time some of the directors of the Mexican Light and Power Company were in favor of the company buying out the principal tramway company, but Mr. James Ross, the president, thought it would be better to make a large contract with the tramway companies.

MARKET REPORTS.

Record Attendance of Farmers at the Bonsecours Market

Demand for Fruits and Vegetables Very Good.

To-day was a record day at the Bonsecours market. About 760 farmers' waggons were lined up along the curb each loaded down with vegetables, grain, etc. This is the largest attendance of farmers of any market day this year.

Vegetables this season are unusually plentiful and prices are easier than last year. The demand for fruits and vegetables of all kinds is very good as a result of the warm weather.

Some idea of the amount of business that is done at the Bonsecours Market may be gathered from the number of farmers who are present with their waggon loads of farm produce. The average value of each load is about $15. This would bring the total value of to-day's stock up to nearly $11,500. Nearly all of this was sold, most of the farmers returning to their homes with empty waggons. This amount does not include the sales made by the regular dealers who occupy stalls in the market.

Prices in all lines of fruits and vegetables were fairly steady to-day, though they were easier in a few cases. Cucumbers are very plentiful and were selling as low as 3c per dozen to-day. Apples are coming in pretty freely now and are selling at from $2.25 to $3 per barrel.

Business in meats was also good this morning, Friday being the big day for the butchers. Poultry is rather quiet and prices are steady.

Retail quotations to-day were as follows:

Fruits.—New Canadian apples, $2.25 to $3; bananas, $1.50 to $2.25 per bunch; lemons, $5.50 to $6 per box; California peaches, $1.75; plums, $2.25 per crate; Canadian cherries, 75c to $1.25, according to size; watermelons, 30c to 40 each; raspberries, 9c to 10c per box, blueberries, 6c quart; blackberries, 10c box.

Vegetables. — Potatoes, 60c to 75c per bag; radishes, 10c to 15c per dozen; spinach, 30c per basket; lettuces, 20c to 35c per doz.; cabbages, Montreal, 25c to 40c per doz.; spring onions, 3 bunches for 25c; onions, 2c per lb.; turnips, new, 3 bunches for 25c; new carrots, three bunches for 25c; cauliflowers, 75c to $1.50 per doz.; string beans, green, 40c, wax, 40c per bushel; tomatoes, Canadian, 50c per box; Canadian cucumbers, 8c per doz.; Canadian celery, 25c to 40c per doz.; American, 50c.

Meats.—Sirloin roast, 15c to 17c; tenderloin roast, 11c to 14c; rib roast, 12½c to 15; corn beef, 12c; brisket of corn beef, 10c; shoulder beef, 7c to 9c; salt, 8c to 10c; shoulder beef, 7c to 10c; salt tongues, 10c to 12½c; mutton, carcass, 7c to 9c; forequartar, 7c; hindquarters, 10c to 11c; veal, carcass, 7c to 10c; forequarter, 7c to 9c; hindquarter, 10c to 12½c; spring lamb, forequarter, 10c; hindquarter, 12½c to 14c.

Fork.—Roast, 11c; chops, 14c; fresh hams, 13c; salt pork, 14c; sausages, 10c to 25c; hams, 18c; bacon, 16c; lard, $2.10 per pail.

Poultry.—Turkeys, 16c to 18c; pigeons, 30c per pair; squabs, 40c to 45c per pair; new spring chikens, 50 to 75.

Ontario Wheat Crop

Mr. S. A. McGaw, president of the Lake Huron and Manitoba Milling Company, who has returned, after a trip to different points in Ontario, says that province will grow this season no less than 20,000,000 bushels of fine wheat. He declares that this splendid crop is already assured to the sister province, as there will be no apprehension as to frost as is the case sometimes in Manitoba. This is probably the best wheat crop that has ever been placed to the credit of Ontario, the yield last year being only 10,000,000 bushels.

"What will it take to bread your province?" Mr. McGaw was then asked.

"Ontario, with a population of say 2,500,000, will require about 12,000,000 bushels of wheat to bread her. Yes, that is about it, so this will give us a surplus of almost as much as last year's total yield."

Wheat on Eve of Harvest is Growing Splendidly

Winnipeg, August 11.—(Special.)—C.P.R. to-day issued fullest and most informing and interesting report of entire season. Condition of crops, damage (if any), probable date of harvest, and in some instances estimated yield per acre, are given for 130 districts, representative of general condition throughout wheat zone of Canadian West. Report now so near to time of harvest, is very favorable. Wheat is growing splendidly and heads are filling well.

Local hail falls have occurred in isolated districts, however, and in a few instances losses to individuals will be heavy. Barnarod Farm lost nearly its whole wheat crop. Territory where hail is chiefly reported includes Broadview section, along main line; Glenboro district, on Souris section, which loses 70,000 bushels of wheat; Pinscarth, on Yorkton section, where 500 acres were hailed out; Belcarres, Pheasant Hills branch. Whole crop, however, is unaffected by these local losses, and promise is generally splendid.

The Provision Market

There is no change in the condition of the provision market, which rules very firm for all lines. The demand for cured meats is good, owing to the continued warm weather, and an active trade is passing in these lines on both local and country account. Lard is in fair demand, but pork remains quiet. Abattoir fresh-killed dressed hogs are unchanged at $8.75 to $10 per 100 lb.

Wholesale:—Heavy Canada short cut mess pork, in tierces, $30 to $31; heavy Canada short cut mess, $20 to $21; Canada short cut back pork, $19 to $20; heavy Canada long cut mess pork, none; heavy Canada short cut clear pork, $18 to $19; heavy flank pork, $21 to $22; light Canada short cut clear pork, none.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain.—The condition of the local grain market is unchanged, business in all lines being quiet. Some business is passing in American corn by Western shippers and a fair amount of open freight space has been engaged. The local market for oats is quiet and prices are steady at 46c to 46½c for No. 2 white and 45c to 45½c for No. 3 per bushel, ex store. New crop No. 2 are offering to arrive at 39c to 40c, and No. 3 at 38c to 39c. Some enquiry is reported for new crop Manitoba spring wheat, but offers are not up to ruling quotations.

Flour.—The local flour market is quiet and featureless. A fair demand for small lots is reported from local and country buyers, but the export business is dead. Prices: Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5.30 to $5.40; strong bakers', $5 to $5.10; winter wheat patents $5.50; straight rollers, $5 to $5.15, and in bags, $2.35 to $2.45.

Millfeed.—The market for millfeed is firm. The demand for bran is especially good. Manitoba bran, in bags, $16; shorts, $19 to $20 per ton; Ontario bran, in bulk, $14.50 to $15; shorts, $19 to $20; mouillie, $21 to $24 per ton, as to quality.

Oats.—There is some demand for rolled oats in small lots, but business is rather quiet and prices are unchanged, at $2.40 to $2.42 per bag. Cornmeal continues quiet at $1.45 to $1.50 per bag.

Hay.—The demand for baled hay is fairly active and the tone of the market is firm. No. 1, $8.50 to $9; No. 2, $7.50 to $8; clover mixed, $6.50 to $7; and pure clover, $6 to $6.25 per ton, in car lots.

Country Produce

Beans.—Business in beans continues quiet, but supplies are small and the market is firm at $1.65 to $1.75 per bushel for choice primes.

Hopey.—The demand for new clover comb honey is fair, but business in other lines is slow. We quote as follows:—Extracted white clover honey, 7c to 7½c per 10-lb. tin, and 6½c to 7c in 60-lb. tins; buckwheat honey, 6c to 6½c, and white clover comb, 13c to 13½c.

Maple Produce.—The market for maple produce continues quiet and prices are unchanged. We quote as follows:—Syrup, in 60-gal. kegs, 5½c to 6¼c per lb.; in tins, 60c to 65c per wine measure, and 70c to 75c per imperial, and Beauce sugar, 8½c to 9c per lb.

Hops.—There is no change in the condition of the market for hops. Choice Canadians, 26c to 27c, and fair to good, 22c to 23c per lb.

Ashes.—The demand for potash is slow. The offerings are small, and prices unchanged at $5.02½ to $5.07½ for first sorts, and $4.55 to $4.60 for seconds. Pearl ash, $7.

Cheese Boards

Kingston, Aug. 11.—At the cheese board there were registered 520 boxes of white and 410 colored. The highest bid was 10⅝c, but there were no sales.

Madoc, Aug. 11.—At the cheese board 1,190 boxes were boarded, all sold at 10 13-16c.

Lawrenceville, Aug. 11.—At the butter and cheese board the market price for cheese was 10⅝c, 760 boxes of cheese were sold.

Tweed, Ont., Aug. 11.—Six hundred boxes of cheese were boarded. Sales:—595 boxes at 10 3-4c.

Cheese, Butter and Eggs

The receipts of cheese this morning were 14,747 boxes. The market continues quiet and steady. Holders are asking 10¾c to 11c for Ontario and 10⅝c to 10 3-4c for Quebec.

The receipts of butter were 7,968 packages. The tone of the market is steady and holders are asking 22½c to 22 3-4c for finest creamery. A few sales of small lots are reported at these figures, but English importers are not disposed to pay more than 21½c to 22c. About 20,000 packages of butter were exported to England from the United States last week at 21½c to 22c.

The receipts of eggs were 698 cases. The market continues quiet at 17c to 17½c for straight receipts and 20c for selected stock.

NOTES.

The Dominion liner Southwark and the Thomson liner Kildona will sail to-morrow morning.

The Allan liner Virginian landed her steerage passengers at Quebec last evening and left at 5.30 this morning. She passed Three Rivers at 11.30 a.m., and will be here about 6 this afternoon.

The Dominion line SS. Ottawa sailed from Liverpool to-day, at 5 p.m., with 187 second and 288 third-class passengers.

The Dunmore Head with a cargo of Welsh coal for the fleet has arrived at Quebec.

The Pomeranian, from Havre and London, has reached Quebec and will be here this evening or early to-morrow.

The Dominion liner Dominion, which left Liverpool on Aug. 3, is reported as having made an excellent passage. She has a large number of passengers and will probably reach here to-morrow evening.

IMPORTANT FIGHT TO-NIGHT.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—Gus Ruhlin and Jim McCormick are ready for their twenty-round battle, which takes place to-night at the Colma. Both fighters put on the finishing touches to their training yesterday afternoon and each expressed himself as being well pleased with his condition. They appear evenly matched, and the fact that they are going to fight for the right to meet Hart has added considerable interest to the affair.

Of the two Ruhlin seems to have the most friends and for this reason he has been made favorite in the betting.

ADRIFT IN BOAT FOR 24 HOURS

Two Hamilton Girls Had Terrible Experience on Lake Ontario.

Toronto Aug. 11.—(Special.)—Annie and Irene O'Connor children of Edward O'Connor Hamilton were picked up on the lake last evening by the steamer Lakeside after having been drifting about for 24 hours. The older girl was wel nigh exhausted rowing but the younger girl fared better as her older sister had wrapped her in an underskirt which she had taken off. Theyq were at a picuic at Beamsville, and while in a bot the wind sprang up and they were carried out.

The litle girl, Irene, 11 years old, tells the following story of their experience:

"We sat for a long time wondering what we should do. When it began to get dark and there was no one in sight I started to cry. Annie kept on rowing towards where she thought the land was and pretty soon she said she saw lights. Annie rowed for a long time, but we did not get any nearer. Then the lights went out. I cried and and Annie cried a little. Then she took off her skirt and laid it over me and I laid down in the bottom of the boat. I think it must have been about 11 o'clock. I was sleepy and cold and hungry, for I didn't have anything to eat since breakfast time. I pulled Annie's skirt around me and cried and cried till I must have gone to sleep. When I woke up it was cold and it was just beginning to get light. Annie was rowing but we could not see land. It had been raining and the boat had quite a bit of water in it. The skirt was gone and Annie said it blew off and got lost. I was hungry and I cried and Annie told me to go to sleep again. She took off her petticoat and wrapped it around me but I did not go to sleep for a long time. Annierowed for a long time, then she did not think it was much use and she was tired. She told me stories and sang to me and tried to put me to sleep again. The sun was up and it was hot before I went to sleep. When I woke up again we saw a boat away off, Annie was lyign in the bottom of the boat, but she was not asleep. I showed her the boat and she took the oars and rowed as hard as she could. I screamed to the boat but for a long time they did not see us. Then they let down a boat and it rowed over to us. They took us it in it and then to the captain."

British Co. Branching Out

Chicago, August 11.—(Special.)—The Liverpool and London and Globe, which recently secured new articles of incorporation, is permitted, under these, to write all classes of insurance, in addition to fire and marine to which its business has heretofore been restricted. In furtherance of this, it is now writing the various insurance departments of the country asking whether the State laws will prevent it from entering upon the business of employers' liability and surety bonds insurance, should it so desire. In most of the Western States fire insurance companies are barred from writing these lines.

Mr. John Murray chief of the Ontario Government's detective force was in the city for a short time. He is on a holiday trip to Cape Breton.

ELECTRICAL STORM DID MUCH DAMAGE

Several Barns With All the Season's Crop Destroyed

Peterboro, Ont., Aug. 11.—(Special.)—The worst electrical storm of the season passed over this city early yesterday and three fine new barns of Mr. Richard Lillico, in North Monaghan, near the city boundary, were totally destroyed, having been struck by lightning. The extent, including the summer crop of unthrashed grain and hay, as well as the farm implements, were also destroyed along with a number of hens and hogs. The horses and cattle being saved. The loss is estimated at $5,000, with insurance of $1,100.

IN QUEBEC DISTRICT.

Quebec, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—A severe electrical storm passed over the city and district Wednesday accompanied by torrents of rain. A house and barn occupied by two brothers, Pierre and Paul Rainville, in the parish of Beauport, were struck by lightning and destroyed by fire with all their contents, including this year's crops harvested and stored in the barn.

A house occupied by a farmer named Jobin, in the parish of St. Augustin, County of Portneuf, was also struck by lightning and took fire which ended in its total destruction with all its contents.

ANOTHER TERM FOR SIR HENRI JOLY

Sir Henri Will be Re-appointed Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 11.—(Special.) — Private letters from Ottawa, state that it is a foregone conclusion that Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere, whose official term expired at the end of June last, will be reappointed Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia for a further term of four years. His Honor has not yet been officially advised of reappointment, but at his office it is stated that such advice would not come in the nature of a surprise. Sir Henri had been asked to remain in charge of affairs in British Columbia until after the Dominion exhibition at New Westminster and had consented so to do. The second choice for the Lieutenant-Governorship has been Mr. Ralph Smith, M.P., of Nanaimo, while there have also been counted as in the running Mr. George Riley, M.P., Senator Hewitt Bostock, Mr. Robert Jardine, and Mr. J. C. Brown, of New Westminster, and Senator Templeman, of this city.

BRITT IS LIKELY TO MEET BATTLING NELSON

Boston, Aug. 10.—According to a letter received in this city from San Francisco, Battling Nelson and Jimmy Britt are to come together after all. It is stated that the pair will be the next attraction at the Colma A.C., and that they are to have it out for 25 rounds some time next month. During the last six months Nelson has been doing all in his power to bring about a struggle, but to no purpose. The Dane even went as far as to offer Britt a bonus if he would sign articles, but the native son refused. Nelson, however, has many friends on the Pacific Coast, and they influenced all Britt's friends, with the result that Britt became unpopular.

Britt, it is said, will meet Nelson under the same conditions that characterized their last mill, in which Nels no was defeated on points. Nelson is training every day so as to be in the best of condition in case Britt really agrees to fight him. Should Britt refuse a match it is reported that Jimmy Gardiner of Lowell, who knocked out Rufe Turner the other night, will be substituted. Gardner is well liked in an Francisco, and there are many who think that he can defeat either Britt or Nelson.

TO-MORROW WE CLOSE AT 1 p.m.

Striking Novelties from Japan

Kimonas and Dressing Sacques,

We got in a lot of Kimonas and Dressing Sacques the other day from Japan — striking things in crepe, tinted and decorated as only the Japanese can do it. The first day we exposed them they went; principally to visitors from the United States, who can't buy such imported goods as well at home as they can from us. Fortunately we had our Toronto stock to fall back on, so that on Saturday morning we shall once more be in a position to offer these decidedly pretty bits of usefulness at such prices as $1.50, $1.75, $3.25 and $8.00.

SOME OF THE NEW RAINCOATS.

We have told you of the new long coat suits, and of the Newmarket travelling coats, and now we bring to your notice the new cravenette raincoats, stamped with the same features that go to mark the change of style for fall. The Redingotes and Newmarkets—tight-fitting—long and so graceful. We are opening the sale of them to-day at $16.50 and $20.00.

By the way, you will be hearing about the "Empire style" in a little while. They do say that Paris is inclined to go a little mad over it. You may see the idea carried out in some raincoats we have just got in and which we are offering at $6.50 each. Dark gray and fawn cravenettes, ¾ length, loose fitting and trimmed with buttons.

SHIRTWAISTS at 69c.

that were 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00, $2.25 and $2.50.

The number of different prices tells the story—different lines sold down to the odd sizes, added together and offered at a price that should make shirtwaists all the more interesting for Saturday.

Shirtwaists made of fine White Lawn, some trimmed with lace insertion in front, some have lace yokes, others have rows of Swiss insertion, all have tucked back and new large sleeve. There are a few Colored Muslins with insertion and tucks, also a few striped Ginghams. Not all sizes in each style, but all sizes in the lot. Regular prices from 75c to $2.50. Saturday morning, 69c.

NEW HANDBAGS,

at $1.25.

They are 8 and 10 in. Walrus grained Hand Bags, made with leather covered and riveted frames and French handles, and fitted with coin purses, in all the newest colorings, including blue, green, black, brown and tan. Regular $1.50 and $1.75 values. Saturday, $1.25.

SWISS EMBROIDERED COLLARS.

Ten Cents Each.

A little lot picked up by one of our buyers when in Switzerland a few weeks ago. They are white and beautifully embroidered. Just the thing now in greatest demand. Ordinarily sold at 25c. On Saturday 10c.

THE REST OF OUR SILK SHIRTWAIST SUITS

At $13.50.

We have not many more Silk Shirtwaist Suits left, but what we have will sell at $13.50 each on Saturday morning—even though they were $20.00, and some were $24.00.

There are sizes 34, 36, 38 in black and white checks, blue and white, plain black, navy, fawn, and a few black Shantungs.

YELLOW FEVER EPIDEMIC IS GETTING WORSE

New Orleans, La., August 11. — The official record of the yellow fever situation up to 6 p.m., follows:—

New cases, 68; total cases to date, 747; total deaths to date, 124; new disease centers, 21; total disease centres, 151; cases under treatment, 286.

The situation does not look so favorable in the face of such a steady increase in new cases, and new disease centres. They seem to be arising all over town and the discouraging feature of the report is that only nineteen of the sixty-eight names are those of Italians. Quite a number of new cases appear to be secondary infection in disease centres.

The arrangements for the funeral of Archbishop Chapelle were changed again, in view of the desire of the Marine Hospital Service. The High Mass will be sung to-day.

THE CHURCH SUPPER.

"Ding-dong!" said the big church bell,
"A supper to-night and things to sell;
Ding-dong! I do declare,
Here I'm rung in on a vestry fair.
I've a mind to stick and refuse to ring,
For I wasn't donated for such a thing.
But my, oh, my! How sweet that smells!
I wish that coffee were good for bells!"
For at every pull the sexton gave
The bell swung out above the pave,
And at every swing he got the scent,
And on he swung there, all content.
Said down below good pastor Pipp,
Fingers tapping, tip to tip,
"I have been asked by all who're here
To say unto the sister dear,
Who brought the coffee here to-night,
That we consider it her right
To thus be thanked in public wise—
She finds great favor in our eyes.
May all her deeds smell sweet as this
By which she brings her neighbors bliss."
Thought blushing Mrs. Jones, "I knew
What CHASE & SANBORN'S brand would do."
Good deeds, you know, are only lent,
And so she smiled in deep content.

JAPANESE TERMS WERE PRESENTED

Include Reimbursement for War Expenses and Cession of Sakhalin.

Portsmouth, N.H., Aug. 11.—Reimbursement for the expenses sustained in the prosecution of the war and the cession of the Island of Sakhalin constitute the main features of the peace conditions handed by Baron Komura to M. Witte at the conclusion of the morning session of the plenipotentiaries here. The word "indemnity" is carefully avoided, the term employed being "reimbursement" for the cost of the war. No sum is fixed, the amount being distinctly adjourned for mutual adjustment between the two countries after the Japanese expenditure has been ascertained. These are the two all-important conditions, and those which the Russian plenipotentiaries find absolutely unacceptable. Unacceptable as they are, however, it can be stated that these two principal conditions did not come as a surprise to the Russian plenipotentiaries. The friendly fashion in which Baron Komura explained the conditions before handing them to M. Witte, and the avoidance of the use of the word "indemnity" in the presentation of Japan's bill for the cost of the war, without fixing a sum, leaves the way open for negotiation, and constitues the main hope that a final agreement is possible.

The other terms are substantially what the world expected, and with one, or perhaps two exceptions, could probably be entertained as bases for negotiation. They include the following:

STATEMENT OF TERMS.

The cession of the Russian leases to the Liao Tung peninsula, comprising Port Arthur and Dalny, the evacuation of the entire Province of Manchuria, the retrocession to China of any privileges Russia may have in the Province, and the recognition by Russia of the principle of the "open door," the cession to Japan of the Chinese Eastern Railroad below Harbin, the main line through Northern Manchuria to Vladivostok to remain Russian property, the recognition of the Japanese protectorate over Corea, the grant of fishing right to Japan in the waters of the Siberian littoral northward from Vladivostok to the Behring Sea, the relinquishment to Japan of the Russian warships interned in neutral ports, and, finally, a limitation upon the naval strength of Russia in Far Eastern waters.

As a whole the terms are regarded as exceptionally hard by the Russians. In addition to the two principal conditions, which cannot be accepted under M. Witte's instructions, those relating to the limiting of Russia's naval power in the Far East and the granting of fishing rights upon the Russian littoral are considered particularly offensive to the amour prepre of their country, and of such a humiliating character as to be inadmissable.

The Japanese, on the contrary, as Baron Komura announced at the conference yesterday, considers them moderate, contending that they only represent a fair compensation for the expenses of the war and the victories they have achieved on land and sea, their sole purpose being to attain the objects for which they have fought, the spoils claimed being only such as they are legitimately entitled to as the result of their military and naval successes. The Russian plenipotentiarios, as soon as the Japanese terms were in their hands, called in the five expert delegates attached to the mission, and spent the whole afternoon in the consideration of the terms. Meantime, the conditions had been placed in cipher and cabled to the Russian Emperor, with M. Witte's personal recommendations.

REPLY WAS DELAYED.

It is hoped that a reply will be received from the Emperor to-day, in which case M. Witte expects to have the Russian response ready by Saturday, but it is not unlikely that Saturday, being the first anniversary of the birth of the Czarevitch, the presentation of the reply will be deferred until Monday. Meantime, the plenipotentiaries will not meet unless some unexpected necessity for a conference should arise.

The Japanese plenipotentiaries manifest not the slightest annoyance at the prospect of a few day's delay. They realize how serious the issue is and are perfectly willing to give their Russian colleagues ample time for consideration. M. Witte and Baron Rosen had yesterday accepted an invitation to dine with Assistant United States Secretary of State Peirce, and in spite of their arduous labors at the Navy Yard, today, they kept the engagement. At 9 o'clock, upon their return to their quarters in the hotel, they plunged again into their work and the lights in their rooms burned until long after midnight.

Much excitement prevailed about the hotel, the corridors of which were thronged with summer guests and newspaper correspondents, all discussing and speculating upon the terms, while off the corridors dozens of telegraph instruments were clicking off despatches to all four quarters of the globe.

HERALD DAILY PATTERN

A CAPTIVATING SURPLICE BLOUSE.

No. 1123. Sizes 32 to 40 inches Bust.

Nothing compares in popularity this season with the surplice blouse—Paris is particularly partial to it and we show to-day a charming design by one of the leading French modistes, made up in cream batiste. Three rather wide plaits at each shoulder give the fulness over the bust. The fronts are crossed to leave a deep V at the neck, which is filled in with a chemisette of creamy Alencon lace. The neck opening is edged with a dainty applique of the same lace. The back plaits slant from shoulder to belt, helping to give an effect of slenderness to the waist, and the sleeves are the newest shape tucked to cuff depth. Persian lawn, dimity, plain or figured, handkerchief linen or mercerized cottons are all well adapted to make waists in this style. The pattern, No. 1123, is cut for sizes 32 to 40 inches bust. A lady of medium size will require 3¾ yards of material 27 inches wide, or 2⅛ yards 44 inches wide for the waist, with ¾ yards of lace 18 inches wide for the chemisette and 2¼ yards of applique. This pattern may be obtained, postpaid, by sending ten cents, the number and size desired, and the name and address to the Fashion Department of this paper.

A WOMAN'S ORDEAL

DREADS DOCTOR'S QUESTIONS

Thousands Write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and Receive Valuable Advice Absolutely Confidential and Free

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions in regard to her private ills, even when those questions are asked by her family physician, and many continue to suffer rather than submit to examinations which so many physicians propose in order to intelligently treat the disease; and this is the reason why so many physicians fail to cure female disease.

This is also the reason why thousands upon thousands of women are corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. To her they can confide every detail of their illness, and from her great knowledge, obtained from years of experience in treating female ills, Mrs. Pinkham can advise women more wisely than the local physician.

Delle Emerentienne Montreuil, of 114 Latourelle St., Quebec, Que., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered for eight months with what the doctors called prolapsus, which caused great weakness all over my system, with faint dizzy spells. I kept growing weaker and weaker. I tried several medicines which they claimed would cure my trouble, but nothing was of the least benefit until I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and this helped me so rapidly that I could hardly believe my good fortune. I would gladly have paid $25.00 for that first bottle, for it started me on the road to health, and five bottles cured me.

"I am most grateful for my splendid, robust health, and shall certainly recommend the Vegetable Compound in glowing terms to all my friends and acquaintances, for it is deserving of all the praise I can give it."

Mountains of proof establish the fact that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for restoring women's health.

FOR SALE BY W. R. BROCK CO., LIMITED.

WEATHER—FINE AND VERY WARM

CLOSE SATURDAY AT 1 O'CLOCK

STOCK RE-ARRANGEMENT SALES!

Turn this sale to your advantage! Profit by the conditions that oblige immediate clearance of all goods that belong to the summer season—that require the consideration of the stocks of staple lines of merchandise, too. Unusual conditions make this an unusual sale—unusually far-reaching in its scope—unusual in the price-cutting that has been resorted to. 'Tis deeds rather than words that prove values—here's a page indicating what you will find underprice during the five hours The Store of Satisfaction will be open to-morrow: From 8 a. m. to 1 o'clock.

The Worker Needs a

Rest Sometimes

It is the recognition of this principle that causes The Store of Satisfaction to close every Saturday during July and August at 1 o'clock. Also, grant a vacation to all of its employees with a year of service to their credit.

Early closing depends upon your co-operation for its success. Thank you for according such in the past, and permit us to emphasize the desirability of shopping to-morrow, as usual, at 8 a. m.
