First system of musical notation, consisting of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff features a melodic line with a long slur over the first six measures. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line. The bass staff includes the instruction "rall." (rallentando) in the sixth measure, indicating a change in tempo.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with the instruction "Leggiero" (light), marking the start of a more rhythmic section. The bass staff continues with chordal accompaniment.

Fourth system of musical notation, continuing the rhythmic section from the previous system. Both treble and bass staves show active musical lines.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melodic line with a slur over the final two measures. The bass staff continues with harmonic support.

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble staff is marked "2nde fois à l'octave" (second time at the octave), indicating a repeat of the previous system's melody at a higher register. The bass staff continues with chords.

Seventh system of musical notation. It includes a first ending bracket labeled "1<sup>o</sup>" and a second ending bracket labeled "loco 2<sup>o</sup>". Below the second ending, the instruction "Dal segno al Fine" is written, indicating the end of the piece.
