IDENTITY OF VICTIM PROVEN

Scotland Yard Strengthening its Case Against Dr. Crippen.

MANNER OF DEATH UNCERTAIN

Quebec Prisoners Will Be Taken Back to England Without Delay.

London, Aug. 11.—It is reported today that the authorities have discovered a clue to the certain identity of the body unearthed in the Hilldrop Crescent home of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, now under arrest in Quebec awaiting extradition on the charge of having murdered an unnamed woman.

The police have contended all along that the bits of flesh found were parts of the body of Belle Elmore, the actress wife of Dr. Crippen, but their identification as such has been a matter of much doubt. It is generally believed that the case of the Crown rests on a positive identification, and the greatest importance is attached to the latest developments.

The latest clue was obtained during an exhaustive examination of the body made by Professor Pepper, the Home Office expert, who had previously given many hours to the problem.

During the five hours that he worked, Professor Pepper obtained conclusive evidence that the sex was feminine. He then continued with the purpose of determining the manner of death, having in mind the possibility that poison was used. The analysis, so far as the poison theory is concerned, was not completed today, but it was reported that the physician found evidence that at some period the woman had undergone a surgical operation. If this can be established, the authorities claim that they will have gone a long way in proving that the victim was Belle Elmore.

The inquest will be resumed on Monday, and as that day approaches, interest in the case is revived. It is doubtful, however, if anything beyond the scientific evidence is brought to light before the return here of Dr. Crippen and Ethel Claire le Neve, who is jointly charged with him with guilty knowledge of the woman's death.

SGT. MITCHELL ARRIVES SUNDAY.

Quebec, Aug. 11.—It has been positively affirmed by officials here to-day that Sergeant-Inspector Mitchell and the two matrons from Scotland Yard are on board the steamer 'Lake Manitoba,' which was reported at six o'clock this morning eighty-eight miles east of Belle Isle. The 'Lake Manitoba' is due to reach this port at 11.30 p.m. on Saturday, and the passengers will be landed at six o'clock on Sunday morning. It is now definitely known that the prisoners will be ready to sail on Aug. 16, on the expiration of their term of demand, and will leave with the least delay possible.

Visitors are still continuing to haunt the Quebec jail day and night, and Governor Morin states that more than two thousand visited the prison last week. The visitors are principally tourists, and all ask to see Crippen and Miss Le Neve, but none have succeeded so far. Despite her despondency, Miss Le Neve is not wholly oblivious of her personal appearance, and this morning she commissioned Matron Phillips to purchase a wig for her. In her new blue suit and black wig, the prisoner has recovered a great deal of her attractiveness, although she is still 'pale and worn-looking.

WANT A BIGGER GRANT.

Society Deserves it For Destroying Cats, Say Controllers.

A deputation from the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals appeared before the Controllers this morning asking that the city grant to the society, which was last year reduced from $400 to $200, be increased to $800. It was urged that the association, while its aims are humane, yet does much for the city. 'We destroy 50 cats a month' said one of the deputation.

'Who gets them?' asked one member of the Board.

Others didn't care who got them as long as the cats were despatched, and many who have spent sleepless nights this summer will agree.

Finally the visiting gentlemen were told that the increased grant would be kept in mind when the next budget is prepared.

ELECTED GRAND MASTER.

Chicago, Aug. 11. — Eminent Sir William B. Melish, of Cincinnati, was to-day unanimously elected grand commander of the Knights Templars.

LIGHT FOR THE CABBAGES

If Notre Dame de Grace Gets Lights It Wants There Will be no Darkness.

Mr. Champagne, manager of the Saraguay Light, Heat & Power Company, appeared before the Board of Control this morning asking where he would place lights for which he had been given a contract by the Council of Notre Dame de Grace. Thereby hangs a tale.

According to Controller Wanklyn, who is in a position to know, Notre Dame de Grace was lighted before annexation by 300 incandescent lights at a cost of something like $3,000. At the eleventh hour, that is in that last month before annexation, the town council gave a contract for 320 arc lamps, which would cost $30,000. These were the lamps which Mr. Champagne came to speak about. He wanted to know where they should be installed, and said in effect that he was willing to place them any where if there wasn't enough room in Notre Dame de Grace.

Some of the Controllers thought such a number of arc lamps would make the new ward a somewhat brilliant place. They felt some would have to shine upon the cabbages, and so decided to take no immediate action.

To put it mildly the Controllers are annoyed at this contract, which was slipped through. They expressed doubt if this contract would bind the city, and decided to make a careful investigation.

FARM QUARANTINED.

Board of Health Complains to the Board of Control.

There are sects which advocate a common life, but the Montreal health authorities do not approve of this on farms, and have complained to the Board of Control of a farm upon which pigs, cows, hens and children mix with a great degree of freedom. This farm is one of those which has been supplying milk to city dealers, but it is stated by Dr. Lachapelle that it will not be permitted to supply any more until hygienic conditions improve.

Some time ago this farm was temporarily quarantined because it was found children living upon it had been stricken with typhoid. More recent examinations have shown many more defects in the condition, so the controllers have decided to extend the quarantine.

TO ELECT ARCHBISHOP.

Important Matter to be Considered by Anglican Synod.

Toronto, August 11.—One of the important questions which will be decided by the Anglican Synod of the Province of Rupert's Land, which opens at Prince Albert, Sask., today, will be the place of the archbishop in the ecclesiastical system. Up to the present time the Archbishopric has been fixed in Winnipeg. Many of the parish want the bishops to elect their own archbishops as in Eastern Canada, in which case the archbishopric would shift from place to place.

The Diocese Synod of Rupert's Land in session at Winnipeg last year agreed to relinquish their right to elect their own bishop, provided they were allowed to retain the archbishopric. If the provincial house accepts this offer, the whole question will be settled without dispute. If not then it is likely that the matter will precipitate a lively and protracted debate.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKE.

Bricklayers and Masons Employed by Montreal Firm in Regina, Are Out.

Regina, Aug. 11.—The bricklayers and stone masons employed by Messrs. Peter Lyall & Sons, on the parliament buildings went on strike because the firm is involved in a labor dispute in Montreal. The men here have no grievance and several are emphatic in stating their objections to being called out because of trouble two thousand miles away.

RICHELIEU REGATTA.

Fete de Nuit Will be Held on Saturday Evening.

Favored with fine weather on Saturday, Richelieu ought to be a most successful regatta, as the committee in charge are doing everything possible to pull off some exciting events.

Keen interest is already being taken in the county championship race, also in the shovel war canoe and motor boat races.

The Marieville band has been engaged to play during the afternoon and evening.

The fete de nuit' to be held on the evening of the regatta is causing keen competition among the villagers, for the valuable prize to be awarded for the best illuminated residence.

The club is applying for incorporation.

FETE AT SAULT AUX RECOLLETS.

Next Sunday, on the occasion of the tercentenary of the discovery of the Riviere des Prairies, the celebration of which begins with a fete to-day, high mass will be chanted in the open air on Visitation Island, at the place where it is thought that Pere Viel and Ahuntsic were made martyrs. Mgr. Racicot will officiate, and Father Beaubien, curate of Sault au Recollet, will preach the sermon.

A BORROWING CASE.

Joseph Legault appeared in the Arraignment Court this morning to answer a charge of attempting to sell a horse and 'buggy' borrowed from one Hormisdas Miron. Detective Pigeon it was who apprehended him. 'Not guilty,' said Legault, and the case was fixed for August 18.

Struck by a Derrick.

Alcide Framant while working on a new building at the corner of Bourbonniere street and Delorimier avenue, was struck by the arm of a derrick about nine o'clock. He was taken to Notre Dame Hospital, where it was discovered that the injury was slight.

HIT WOMAN WITH HAMMER.

Eugenie Demers, 143 Vitre street east, was found wandering about the streets last night with a wound in her head. She told the constable who found her that a man named Harry Renickoir had hit her with a hammer. She was taken to Notre Dame Hospital, where the wound was treated.

SHOOTING AT POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES.

Rain Affects Marksmanship and Consequently Scores are Lower.

('Witness' staff correspondence.)

Point aux Trembles, August 12.—The second day of the Province of Quebec Rifle Association meet opened with clear weather, which tempted the marksmen to discard wet weather garments. The ranges, as a result, were brightened by red coats and militia uniforms. Towards noon, however, rain fell for a few minutes, and the wind arose, sending the clock around from 10 to 2. The change of weather affected some of the less experienced shots, and showed forth in low scoring during the association match. The morning results were:

PASSED BOGUS CHEQUES.

Anselme Houle thought in solitude, and formulated a plan. It was an old, old plan, and took little cognizance of the many possible blunders—none at all of the inside of a prison cell looming across its path.

The result was that Houle passed bogus cheques on the City & District Savings Bank, whereby he deceived Ernest Bouchard, barber, to the amount of $9.75, and Eugene Cleroux, to the amount of $10. For each offence he was told to spend eight long days in close confinement. Judge Bazin weighed the merits of the case.

HAD TAKEN POISON.

Love Affair Caused Young Parisian to Seek Death.

The occupants of 322 Cadieux street were startled last evening by a shriek which rang through the house. It appeared to come from the room where George Garondinbeau, a young Parisian, lived. They opened the door, saw the youth on the bed, deadly pale, and were greeted with the words, 'I'm dying. Get an ambulance.'

The young man was taken to the General Hospital, where it appeared that he had taken a dose of some sort of poison. It appears that he had suffered the pangs of undequited love and had unsuccessfully sought death.

LECTURER DEAD.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Judith Ellen Hornton Foster, noted as a temperance lecturer and writer, and advocate of missions and philanthropy, died in Garfield Hospital here early to-day following an operation.

Mrs. Foster was born at Lowell, Mass., in 1840.

MAYOR IN NO DANGER NOW

Physicians Report Condition of Mayor Gaynor Satisfactory.

GALLAGHER'S STATEMENT.

Would-be Assassin Glories in the Delusion That He Acted for Country.

New York, Aug. 11.—Mayor William J. Gaynor showed greater strength today than at any time since his life was attempted on the steamship 'Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse' on Tuesday. Not only were the physicians encouraged by the Mayor's condition, but Thomas L. Gaynor, the Mayor's brother, left for a three days' visit to Baltimore. Mr. Gaynor said there was now no cause for worry or alarm. There will be no further consultation of physicians until 8.30 to-night. The official morning bulletin to-day was encouraging, showingMayor Gaynor's temperture to be 10 01-5, with pluse 76.

Gallagher's statement, made last evening, was his frank talk concerning the crime. 'While I will not say that I am sorry,' he said, 'I now hope that the mayor will get well. But I wanted to teach high officials to regard the rights of subordinates. I considered that I had to shoot the mayor as a lesson to the country. I did what I did for personal principles and was not prompted by any anarchistic belief. I am sorry that Commissioner Edwards was wounded, for I was aiming only at the mayor. But even the thought of killing him had not been long on my mind. In fact, I reached no decision until I bought a newspaper yesterday morning. The newspaper said Gaynor was going to sail for a vacation. That made me angry—to think that he should have a vacation in Europe, while I did not even have a chance to work, much less get a vacation. So I hurried over the 23rd street ferry and inquired my way to the 'Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.'

'My wrongs had proved more than I could bear. Over and over I sized up my hard station in life, and contrasted it with that of some other men—of Mayor Gaynor, who had wronged me, in particular. At length I determined on revenge. I was not drunk. I had not taken a drop of liquor since last Saturday, and then only one glass of beer.

'I believe assassination is sometimes right. I had carried the gun for nine years. I feared the enemies I had made by writing letters when I was trying to reform the dock department.'

There is marked determination among the New Jersey authorities to make Gallagher an example of 'quick Jersey justice,' but it was definitely determined to-night not to lay his case before the grand jury pending the outcome of the mayor's injuries. If the mayor recovers Gallagher will be quickly tried, charged with assault with intent to kill, for which he may receive a maximum sentence of 20 years. If his victim should die the charge will be murder in the first degree, for which the penalty is death.

PHYSICIANS' REPORTS HOPEFUL.

All reports this morning from the bedside of Mayor William J. Gaynor were of an encouraging nature, and the indications were that the distinguished patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Hoboken, suffering from an assassin's bullet, was well fortified for what might prove to be a crucial day. At 7 o'clock this morning the following official bulletin was issued:

'Mayor Gaynor spent a comfortable night. Temperature 100 1-5; pulse 76; respiration 17.

'(Signed)

'WILLIAM J. ARLITZ, M.D.
'GEORGE W. STEWART, M.D.'

SERIOUS FLOODS IN JAPAN.

Thousands of Houses Submerged and Many Lives Lost.

Tokio, August 11.—Serious floods continued throughout Japan. Thousands of houses are submerged, and many lives have been lost. The interruption to the railway service is unprecedented. There is much suffering in Tokio.

AWAIT THE 'TERRA NOVA.'

London, Aug. 11.—Considerable anxiety is felt for Captain Scott's Antartic expedition ship the 'Terra Nova,' now eleven days overdue at Cape Town. The vessel has not been spoken of since she left Madeira on June 27.

Captain Robert F. Scott, commander of the British expedition which set out on June 1st from London for the South Pole, is not yet aboard the 'Terra Nova,' but left on July 16th to join the vessel in New Zealand. The 'Terra Nova' stopped at Cardiff to coal, and proceeded on June 15th to Madeira, from which port she sailed twelve days later for Capetown. She should have reached Capetown not later than August 1st. Lieut. E. R. Evans is second in command, and the other officers and scientists number 28. The crew of the steamer consists of 27 picked men.

C. M. B. A. CONVENTION.

New Members' Admission Creates Financial Problem.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—At the morning session of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association the grand president's report was discussed. Complaint was made by a Regina delegate that the order was becoming too costly in respect to new members. Each additional new member, he said, was costing the order eighteen dollars. Mr. Hackett, grand president, discussing the complaint, said that the order had reached such a size that special methods had to be taken, including the payment of bonuses to get new members. Without new members the order would in the course of time cease to exist.

VESSEL BURNING.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The Evanston life-saving station has received a report that a vessel caught fire in Lake Michigan between Milwaukee and Kenosha. The burning vessel is reported to have been sighted by the crew of the steamer 'Christopher Columbus' while the latter was en route to Milwaukee.

DECIDE ON COLOR SCHEME

Red, Yellow and White Will be the Decorations for Eucharistic Congress

Red, yellow and white, these are to be the colors used in decorating for the Eucharistic Congress. The reception committee decided this to-day. They had thought of using purple, but remembering the large extent to which this was employed during the mourning for the late King, it was agreed other colors would be better.

Plans for the decorations are progressing rapidly. This morning Ald. Dandurand and Mr. Jas. Sawyer, the reception committee's architect, met with Major Geo. W. Stephens and Mr. Seath, of the Harbor Commission. It was then decided to have the kiosk, in which the civic reception will be tendered the papal delegate, situated at the foot of McGill. Here the Harbor commission will build and decorate a floating wharf. The kiosk itself will be raised five or six feet so that those standing behind the revetement may have a good view of the proceedings.

Early this afternoon Ald. Dandurand appeared before the controllers, asking that more lights be installed in the vicinity of the Bishop's Palace, and the Cathedral, during the Congress. This, he was promised, would be attended to.

Mr. Chas. Wilson, president of the Raymond & Whitcomb Company, New York, Boston and California, one of the largest tourists' agencies in the United States, who is at the Place Viger Hotel, is perfectly satisfied with the arrangements he has been able to make in Montreal for the accommodation of the visitors who will come here for the Eucharistic Congress through his firm's agency. He has experienced no difficulty, having gone into arrangements as far back as last winter.

Amongst their clientele will be a large party from France and Europe, who will be brought beforehand from New York to Quebec, and thence by R. & O. boat to Montreal for the celebration, afterwards going on to Niagara and California.

EARL OF EGMONT DEAD

He Was Born in 1856 and is Survived by Wife—Was Once Member of Fire Brigade.

London, Aug. 11.—Augustus Arthur Perceval, eighth Earl of Egmont, died to-day. He was born in 1856. Before succeeding to the title of the Earl of Egmont, he was in such financial straits that for several years he earned his living as a member of a London fire brigade. He was the caretaker of the Chelsea Town Hall, when the death of a distant cousin gave him the Earldom. In 1881 he married Kate, the daughter of Warwick Howell, of South Carolina. He succeeded Baron Perceval (1715) Viscount Perceval, 1722; Baron Lovell and Holland (Great Britain) 1762; Baron Arden 1770; Baron Arden (United Kingdom), 1802.

A DIME NOVEL VICTIM.

Boy Stole Horse and, Carrying Revolver, Escaped.

Sherbrooke, August 11.—His mind turned by the reading of dime novels, Frank Partington, a sixteen-year-old boy, took his employer's horse, and dressing up in a cowboy's suit, started off. He was employed by Mr. C. C. Cabana, a local lawyer. About eight o'clock he was seen to leave the yard with a black mask over his face and carrying a revolver. As soon as Mr. Cabana was informed he reported the matter to the police, who immediately began to search for him. About noon he was seen at Capelton, travelling towards Rock Forest. Some time ago he stole a horse from Miss Morris and started off under similar circumstances. It is high time that measures be taken to prevent the selling or publishing of literature of this nature.

AMBASSADOR NOT DEAD.

Berlin Report Says M. Nelidoff is Stricken With Apoplexy.

New York, Aug. 11. — A despatch from Berlin contradicts yesterday's report of the death at Munich of Alexander Nelidoff, Russian ambassador to France. M. Nelidoff is suffering from an attack of apoplexy.

HEART-SHAPED SPOT ON SUN.

Is Claimed to Have Been Discovered by St. Louis Astronomer.

St. Louis, Aug. 11.—Father Martin Brennan, astronomer, has discovered a heart-shaped spot on the sun. The spot is estimated by Father Bennan to be from 50,000 to 70,000 miles in width. It is surrounded by fourteen smaller spots four of which are large sized. The cluster is about midway between the rim of the sun and its centre.

PIONEER OF ONTARIO.

Newtonville, Ont., Aug. 11.—Miss Mary Smith Choate, widow of the late Aaron Choate, who has passed away at Port Hope, was born in August, 1816, and was the third daughter of Lothrop Smith, a United Empire Loyalist. The Smiths were an old Connecticut family, descended from the Rev. Henry Smith, who came from England about 1630 to be the first settled minister at Westfield, Conn. Early in their married life Mr. and Mrs. Smith moved to Canada and settled in Haldimand, Northumberland County. Thence they moved to Newtonville. Elder Case, a prominent Methodist clergyman of that day, was a friend of the family, and under his supervision Mrs. Choate, before her marriage, engaged in mission work among the Mississagua Indians. Later she and her husband resided at Welcome and Perrytown. All of Mrs. Choate's immediate family predeceased her, and her death has severed one of the last links between the historic early settlement of Northumberland County and the present.

AUTOMOBILE WRECKED.

Watertown, N.Y., Aug. 11.—James R. Smith, a prominent furniture man of this city, was killed, and William R. Zimmerman, of Peoria, Ill., was probably fatally injured in the wrecking of an automobile in which they were riding last night. The car in turning out to pass a team, struck a pile of stones left by contractors working on the road, and plunged through a culvert before it stopped. The five occupants were hurled out, but all save Smith and Zimmerman escaped injury.

VATICAN'S AID TO CARLISTS

Spanish Revolutionists Seeking the Assistance of Clergy.

TO START CIVIL WAR.

But Vatican Authorities Decline to Bring on a Useless Strife.

Rome, Aug. 11.—The Vatican is receiving reports from Mgr. Vico, Papal Nuncio at Madrid, and the Spanish Catholics and bishops, which were forwarded after they had received Cardinal Merry Del Val's instructions to abandon the demonstration at San Sebastian planned for last Sunday. According to these reports, the Catholic organizations on the peninsula is perfect, making it impossible for Senor Canalejas to repeat there what the French ministry did in France, bringing about the separation of Church and State.

Some of these reports state that only a word from Rome would be necessary to have the whole population rise and sweep away all of the enemies of the Church and religion.

On the other hand the Carlists declare that they are ready to intervene with a certainty of carrying the day if Rome will order the clergy and Catholics generally to support them.

The Holy See, it is said, is most reluctant to take any such step as this suggested, as it does not wish to bring on civil war, which it believes would not benefit the Church.

Madrid, Aug. 11.—Senor Canalejas, following an interview with Marquis Emilio De Ojeda, the ambassador to the Vatican, who was recently recalled, to-day announced that the Spanish diplomat probably would not return to Rome. A government organ asserts that Marquis De Ojeda before leaving the Italian capital paid a farewell visit to the Pope and was received by Cardinal Vives Y Tuto with the greatest courtesy.

Madrid, August 11.—'Liberal' to-day says that the decisions of the Government concerning religious reforms are irrevocable and that a resumption with Rome of the negotiations for the revision of the Concordat is impossible unless the Vatican accepts the acts of the Government as facts accomplished. The 'A. B. C.' states that 18,000 telegrams of loyalty have been sent to the Pope since Sunday, the most of them from Carlists.

Bilbao, August 11.—When a San Sebastian resident was brought here a prisoner yesterday, a crowd collected at the railway station and shouted: 'Long live the Pope and the King. Down with the Government.'

The demonstrators were dispersed by the police.

The Catholic committee explained the abandonment of the San Sebastian demonstration in a manifesto issued yesterday.

After stigmatizing the government's action as arbitrary the manifesto declares that the Catholics fear neither prosecutions, nor threats, and are ready to offer their lives in defence of the sovereign pontiff.

It is set forth that the manifestation was given up at the solicitation of Catholic junta at Guipuzloa, but adjures Biscayans not to forget that they come from an indomitable race which never submitted to tyranny. The committee announces that it has not finished its mission, and concludes:—

'A moment of resolute decision will suffice to put an end to the government's programme.'

Bordeaux, Aug. 11. — Cardinal Andrieu to-day issued an appeal to Catholics in which he condemned in the severest terms the instructions given for the public and primary schools and the secondary schools, citing the Holy See's instructions to the bishops in America in 1875.

MRS. M'CAUGHAN DEAD

Wife of Rev. Wm. J. McCaughan Who Also Lost Life in Dublin Hotel Fire.

Belfast, Ireland, Aug. 11.—Mrs. William John McCaughan, who was injured by jumping from the window of the Kelvin Hotel, on July 16th, dieu to-day. Mrs. McCaughan's husband, pastor of the May Street congregation, and formerly of Toronto and Chicago, was a victim of the same fire, and died from injuries received on July 21st.

HE NOMINATED LINCOLN.

John B. Allen Played Most Unusual Political Part.

New York, August 11.—The death at Mount Vernon of John B. Allen marks the passing of one of the noted political characters of his day. He played an unusual part in the nomination of Abraham Lincoln for president in breaking away from the New York delegation, casting a single vote for Lincoln, and turning the tide toward the emancipator.

SOLD STATE DOCUMENTS.

Charges Stated to be Proven Against Baron Desternburg.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 11.—The preliminary inquiry into the charges against Baron Ungern Desternburg, who is the Russian correspondent of several foreign newspapers, was concluded yesterday. It is stated that it was proved that the Baron sold secret state documents.

NORTHERN PACIFIC.

New York, Aug. 11.—In a few days Northern Pacific's preliminary income account for 1909-10 will be known. It will show that, whatever the uncertainties of the coming months, the dividend for the fiscal period ended on June 30 last was earned with a safe margin over for strengthening the road's profit and loss surplus.

NORTH-WEST CAR MOVEMENTS

New York, Aug. 11.— For the year ending June 30, 1910, Pacific Northwest Demurrage Bureau reports 1,055,112 cars handled compared with 929,321 for the preceding year, an increase of 13.39 percent. Of this number, 94 percent were released in free time.

SHORT INTEREST IN KERR LAKE IS GUILTY PARTY

A good deal of surprise has been expressed that the shares of the Kerr Lake Mining Company should have sold this week as low as $6, which is in fact the first lowest level touched by these shares for two years. It is quite evident that Kerr Lake is being militated against in the same way that other first class Cobalt properties recently were.

Selling has been by weak holders who were induced to part with their stock by reports, widely circulated, of depreciating ore values. There exists a 2,500 share short interest in Kerr Lake, and this interest is credited with having depressed the stock.

On Aug. 31 the Kerr Lake Company will have completed its fiscal year with satisfactory results. If the 12 3-3-cent per ounce cost established in the previous year is maintained the company will have made an excellent record.

During July the company's silver yield amounted to 205,000 ounces, and the average price for silver during that period was the best in months.

Some 4000-ounce ore has been encountered at the 150-foot level tributary to No. 7 shaft at the Kerr Lake property. This has been followed for about 120 feet, and values continued for the full distance.

Should the merger of leading producers of the Cobalt camp eventually materialize Kerr Lake will probably be one of the intergral parts for it is one of the cheapest and heaviest producers in the entire camp.

The stock market showed the first slight reaction in prices since the recent upward progress of quotations commenced. The local market was a reflection on a smaller scale of Wall Street conditions, and the fractional recessions were not considered as in any way portentous, as even the most blatant bulls are quite reconciled to the idea of an occasional reaction. There was no particular feature in the trading this morning. Steel and Quebec Railway were the only stocks to come out in any quantity. Steel opened at 59 3-8 and closed at 58 3-4, Quebec Railway opened at 41 1-4 and closed at 40 3-4. The remainder of the list shows no feature of special interest. Banks and bonds were in fair demand.

New York, Aug. 11.—There is no news of any speculative importance this morning. London prices were generally higher. The Bank of England's rate is unchanged. The market opened at about last night's closing prices, and during the first hour, being only 121,000 shares against 173,000 yesterday. However, the little selling soon ran its course, and the market continued stronger and more active.

As a commentary on the general investment situation, the Consolidated Gas Company, whose credit is of the best, has just received its year notes at 6 percent. Time money over the year is 5 percent; commercial paper from 5 to 6, while call money is in superabundance at 1½ percent.

Sales to noon were 164,200 shares.

STOCKS WERE STRONG THIS P.M.

The stock market this afternoon was strong and imoderately active, with Steel, Street, Power, and Quebec Railway to the fore.

WALL STREET WAS WEAKER

The New York market was slightly weaker at the close this afternoon, with U. S. Steel at 69 1-2, Reading, 140 3-8; C.P.R., 189 1-2, and Soo, 129 5-8.

Sales of Unlisted

Following are this morning's sales of unlisted:—La Rose, 100 at 402, 100 at 400; Canadian Power, 10 at 53, 25 at 54 1-4, 75 at 55; Union Pacific Cobalt, 500 at 2 1-2; Kerr Lake, 20 at 700, 20 at 750.

OATS ARE HIGHER.

The oat market is firming on slightly less encouraging reports on the size of the crops.

TORONTO HEARS NEWS ON M.S.R. PURCHASES

The following despatch from a financial authority in Toronto would seem to indicate that the Queen City is far better informed on mateers at our very doors than many financial authorities here. The despatch says:

'The Montreal Street Railway now have control of the Canadian Power Company. The interests which were favorably disposed to the merging of the two companies had acquired in the neighborhood of 30,000 shares of Street Railway stock, when the break to 213 occurred some time ago.

'The actual holdings of these interests are nearly 40,000 shares, according to reports.

'The proposal will likely be to exchange Street Railway and Canadian Power, for the securities of a holding company which will in turn endeavor to place low yield debentures in London.'

This will prove of interest particularly to M.S.R. shareholders. If the scheme is consummated so nicely, as the telegram suggests, the able way in which it has been conducted is worthy of note.

Stock Market's Position is Now Much Improved

The facts are, says Mr. Colin McCuaig, that through troubles in New York and untruthful statements as to crop disasters, etc., our market has been sold to a standstill, and while it will have its fluctuations as ever, there is nothing in the situation at present to warrant any severe break.

Stocks have declined from ten to fifty points during the past six months, and many are passing into the hands of investors and strong people. This in itself will clear the atmosphere and leave room for an improvement in the market.

The current figures show an increase over last year's figures of $434,000,000, or 17.9 percent, eloquent testimony to the increased volume of business which the country is handling and to the complete recovery from the depression of 1908, when the first half-year's clearings were less than $2,000,000,000, compared with this year's $3,000,000,000, almost.

NO NEW LOCOMOTIVES.

President Brown, of the New York Central, has ordered 260 new locomotives because of the crop report.

JAMES S. CANNON ELECTED.

James G. Cannon was elected president of the Fourth National Bank at a meeting held yesterday, to succeed the late J. Edward Simmons.

B.C. PACKERS MAY PAY DIVIDEND ON COMMON STOCK

Mr. Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, vice-president of the British Columbia Packers' Association, intimated to the 'Witness' this morning that all indications are to the effect that this season will show the heaviest average pack of the Packers' Association, outside of the years of the big runs.

In the year 1908 the pack was 139,000 cases. This year over 200,000 is looked for.

In November next the dividend on the preferred stock becomes due. The extraordinary pack of 1910 will probably allow further redemption of preferred shares in addition to the 75,000 already redeemed, and probably at that time, also a dividend will be declared on the common stock. The common is selling around 27 bid, with 33 asked, few transactions.

France is Buying Wheat From Kansas Points

Chicago, Aug. 11.—A report was received from Kansas City, Mo., late yesterday that France was purchasing wheat not only in that market, but at Kansas points. This same report also said that Kansas City had made good sales of low grade flour for export during the last week, but that particulars of the transactions were unobtainable.

The Northwestern news was somewhat more bullish—reports from sections of both the Dakotas and Minnesota saying that wheat has been pretty well threshed off the shock and that the grain now in stack will be allowed to remain there until it has passed through the sweat. Grand Forks, North Dakota, said that the farmers in that section would be more than likely to hold their grain for a higher price level.

Harriman Pacific Ry. Earnings for the Year Were Phenomenally Large

New York, Aug. 11.—Earnings of Union and Southern Pacific for the year ended June 30 last were phenomenal. Heretofore the record of earning power of the two properties was $202,500,000, as of 1907. This record was exceeded in the recent year by 11 percent, the 1910 level of gross being $225,000,000.

Even that does not show the improvement over the preceding year. The gross increase of the combined properties over 1909 was $26,000,000, or 13 percent. Compared with average gross of five preceding years the 1910 mark is a gain of $39,000,000, or 21 percent.

Bank Clearings Give a Moderate Increase

The local bank clearings for the week ending to-day show a considerable falling off from the recently established high average of increases, but the gain in this case is almost to the extent of two millions. The corresponding week of last year was, however, a very large one. Following are comparisons:—

| | Clearings. |
|---|---|
| Total for week ending August 11, 1910 | $37,307,966 |
| Corresponding week, August 11, 1909 | 35,416,901 |

Capital Increases

New York, Aug. 11.—Stockholders of Plaza Operating Company, subsidiary of United States Realty and Improvement Company, have voted to increase capital stock from $5,500,000 to $6,500,000. Of total new capital, $3,000,000 will be preferred and $3,500,000 common stock. United States Realty Company will also control the new stock.

WHAT GRAIN MEN HAVE TO SAY

Local oat dealers on 'Change say that the chances for a record oat crop in this province are not so bright as they were a few days ago. The quality is good in most cases, but the acreage is smaller than was imagined. A local dealer said this morning that the crop would not be as large as it was last year.

Having, evidently, in mind a recent report of a 100,000,000 bushel wheat crop in the West, Mr. Robert Meighen said on 'Change, this morning: 'No person here is more interested in the wheat crop than I am and not many possess the large extent of land out West that I do (and naturally wish its value to increase), but I would not for a moment venture to say that the crop would reach anything like a hundred million.

Stocks of wheat at Fort William and Port Arthur are:—

This week, 2,992,873 bushels.
Last week, 3,173,438 bushels.
Decrease from this week of last year, 180,564 bushels.

Following are yesterday's receipts of grain at Fort William and Port Arthur in carloads:—No. 1 northern wheat, 35; No. 2 northern, 26; No. 3 northern, 8; No. 4 northern, 4, and O. G., 7. Total, 77 (as against 17 last year); oats, 35; barley, 2, and flax, 1.

Following is the course of prices at Winnipeg this morning:—

| | Wheat. Oct. | Dec. | May. | Oats. Oct. | Dec. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|

SYDNEY STEEL RAILS SCORE OVER U.S. MAKE

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Canadian Trade Commissioner Musson reports further to the Trade and Commerce department from Leeds, England, that the results of the preliminary tests made by the British government at the instance of the Indian Office of experimental shipments of steel rails from Canada and the United States, are distinctly favorable of the Canadian product.

The rails in question are from the Sydney mills of the Dominion Steel Corporation. Two cargoes of 9000 tons each, it will be remembered, were shipped in the autumn of 1908 to South Punjaub, India, for railway construction there. This is one of the best advertisements yet secured for the product of the Sydney steel works.

Threshing in Full Swing in Southern Manitoba— Crop Outlook Brightens

Winnipeg, Aug. 11.—Threshing is in full swing in Southern Manitoba, and the crop has been cut, the Canadian Pacific reports. The crop reports for the week received by that company show a brightening all along the line, and that the western harvest this year has been underestimated seems certain.

In the Broadview section wheat is threshing 15 to 20 bushels to the acre; oats, 30 to 32; barley, 40.

Threshing will be general on the Mennonite reserve the last of this week.

Mortgage for $4,000,000 to Philadelphia Trust Co

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—A mortgage for $4,000,000 by Philadelphia and Western Railway Company to Philadelphia Trust, Safe Deposit and Insurance Co., trustee, has been recorded in Philadelphia, Westchester, Media and Norristown. At the same time an old mortgage for $20,000,000 to the Trust Company of America, trustees, was cancelled.

The bonds are first mortgage 5 percent gold bonds, dated July 1, 1910, and due July 1, 1960. There are to be presently issued $2,000,000 which have been purchased by Edward B. Smith & Co., bankers, of Philadelphia.

AMONG THE MEMBERS-ON-CHANGE

Transportation men on 'Change were commenting on the dulness of their trade during recent weeks. They expect a good deal of activity before the end of the present month, however.

One local grain exporter on 'Change asked another if the rise in the price of wheat to-day was due to a better demand from Europe, or to the report by Immigration Inspector White, issued this morning, stating that the western wheat crop would reach a total of 100,000,000 bushels. The one addressed was inclined to think that the latter factor was the one responsible for teh rise.

The present week has been a wretched one for cheese exporters, according to one of the best informed in the trade. The European demand has been nil, and the trade is suffering from overproduction and low prices. Next week conditions might improve.

Exporters of wheat, cheese and other articles that Europe has no use for at present were condoling with each other this morning on the dulness of trade. A produce merchant, who had in mind small shipments of cheese at low profitless prices solved the enigma by saying: 'We seem to live just for the benefit of transportation men.'

Mr. S. Renwick, of the shipbuilding firm of Fisher, Renwick and Company, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, was on 'Change to-day. He intends taking a general survey of trade conditions here, and especially those appertaining to shipbuilding. He states that his firm, like most of the rest of the trade in England, is kept busy working to full capacity.

The following were introduced on 'Change this morning: Mr. J. C. Dale, of Madoc, Ont., by Mr. James Croil, and Mr. S. Renwick, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, by Mr. Andrew Reford.

May be Reduction of Dividend in Smelter Co.

New York, Aug. 11.—Forecasts of the annual report of the American Smelting and Refining Company are in circulation in the street, and these indicate net earnings for the fiscal year about $300,000 less than last year. Should such a report actually be made it would be natural to expect a reduction in the dividend.

The agreement among copper producers to restrict output is going to cut off earnings of the smelting company materially. Overproduction of cheap copper would not hurt smelters, but a 15 percent decline in output will hurt the smelting business just that much.

The directors might be doing a conservative thing to reduce the dividend. There is some talk of a meeting within a week or so to decide the matter.

We own and offer the following:

APPLE CROP OF CANADA WILL BE A FAIR ONE

Reports to local fruit dealers from the various apple growing sections of Canada show that the total apple crop this year will only be a medium one.

There is no improvement in the prospects for the apple crop in Nova Scotia. The crop in the Annapolis, Cornwallis and Gaspereau valleys will be very light. In Hants and the eastern part of Kings county, the prospect is somewhat better than in the western part of Kings and Annapolis counties. Throughout the centre of the valley the crop is nearly a failure, but along the mountains the outlook is for half a crop. Unless the quality should turn out to be very good, which from reports received is rather doubtful, the quantity of apples exported will likely be less than 350,000 barrels, or less than one-half of last season's exports from Nova Scotia.

Apples in Prince Edward Island will be hardly up to the average. It is reported that late frosts have seriously damaged the crop.

British Columbia will have a large crop of apples, both early and late. Wealthies are very heavy. In Ontario and Quebec provinces crops are only medium.

Market conditions will be somewhat improved this year over last. The better organization of sellers this year will aid materially in a proper distribution from the larger points of production. Local dealers anticipate a fairly profitable trade.

First Samples of Ontario Wheat Covered With Smut—Sell at $1.00

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Samples of Ontario wheat at the Board of Trade to-day fully substantiate the reports that certain districts are badly afflicted with smut. As to the actual extent of smut on the wheat crop this year only the market will determine when deliveries begin. Just now winter wheat is offering freely at a dollar per bushel outside, but buyers only want to pay 98c.

Manitoba wheat and oats at lake ports are steady in price to-day, in accordance with the steady tone of the Winnipeg market.

Local quotations are as follows:—Ontario wheat old No. 2 winter, $1.05 to $1.06 outside; new nominal at 93c to $1 outside. Manitoba wheat nominal; No. 1 northern, $1.13; No. 2 northern, at $1.10½; No. 3 northern, $1.07 at lake ports for immediate shipment.

Oats, Canada western No. 2, 43½c; No. 3 Canada western, 42½c at lake ports for immediate shipment; Ontario No. 2 white, 40c to 41c outside; No. 3 white, 38c to 39c outside, 43c to 44c on track, Toronto.

Manitoba flour quotations at Toronto are: First patents, $6.20; second do., at $5.70; strong bakers, $5.50; 90 percent Glasgow freights, 25s; Ontario new winter wheat flour for future delivery, $3.75 to $3.85 at the mills.

FIVE HOURS IN RESERVE

'Royal Edward,' Record Breaker, Can Do Even Better, Says Captain Roberts

ARRIVED THIS MORNING.

New Record Made by Royal Liner For the Port of Montreal.

The record voyage of the 'Royal Edward' finished this morning. She arrived in port shortly after sunrise. By tying up at her wharf on the morning of the seventh day out from Bristol she creates a new figure in the list of fast runs to this port. The best previous time was made by both the 'Virginiaon' and the 'Laurentic. They made port on the evening of the seventh day out.

Captain Roberts this morning put a blue mark alongside the log of the fourth westbound run of the 'Royal Edward.'

He beat the record from an English port to Quebec in six and a half hours, without making allowance for an hour's delay at Grosse Isle. The 'Royal Edward's' log says:

Fastnet to Belle Isle—land to land—3 days, 16 hours 16 minutes.

Nash Point to Father UPoint—pilot to pilot—5 days 9 hours 36 minutes.

Avonmouth to Father Point, 5 days 11 hours 25 minutes.

The distance from port to port was 2,681 miles. The best runs were 490, 488 and 496 miles.

'Ive five hours up my sleeve yet,' said Captain Roberts.

DOMINION POLICE REMAIN

To Stop Liquor Traffic at La Tuque But Have Had no Trouble.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The Transcontinental Railway Commissioners have sent their legal representatives to La Tuque (Quebec) to conduct prosecutions against the men who have been trafficking illegally in liquor within the five-mile limit of construction. Reports received from the Dominion Police, who were sent to La Tuque, are to the effect that they have had no trouble with the liquor element. They have been instructed to remain there until the traffic has been completely suppressed.

HOW ABOUT SUNDAY WORK.

Street Waterers Want Extra Pay for Their Extra Work.

Are city employees who work at street watering on Sunday to receive extra pay? The question, which is now before the Board of Control, is exciting a good deal of feeling. It seems in 1905 the men did receive an addition to their remuneration for this additional work. Since then things have been different. Last year it was agreed there should be no regular sum given for Sunday work, but that the men should receive an increase in wages which would amount practically to the same thing. To-day the controllers were told that this increase had been only $32, instead of $100, as expected.

The controllers hardly knew what to do about this, and therefore decided to wait until they could hear from Mr. Barlow, under whose direction the street watering is carried on.

POST-OFFICE CRITICIZED.

Sons of England Complain of Negligence of Delivery.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The Post-office Department came in for some strong criticism to-day at the Sons of England Convention regarding the delivery of society literature. It was stated that in some country places whole bundles had been cast aside unopened, and were not delivered.

MELANCHOLY INDIAN.

Man Blown to Bits Had Been Drinking Heavily Lately.

Coroner McMahon commenced his investigation into the death of Tom Smith, yesterday afternoon. Little was discovered, and the coroner postponed the inquest until next Tuesday, in order to gain a few more facts. The idea of suicide is held by many. Some hold that the dynamite was placed in the unfortunate man's pocket by some one, with criminal intent, and they say that it was purely accidental. If it was suicide, it will be the first case of the kind on record in the archives of the Iroquois Indians of the Caughnawaga reserve.

Witnesses stated yesterday that Smith for the past two weeks had been drinking hard. When sober he was a very fair worker, and sometimes took charge of a quarry owned by his brother-in-law. He had been there that morning, but had been to Lachine in the afternoon, and returned home under the influence of liquor. Some time ago his parents refused to allow him to enter their house, and since then he has been melancholy and frequently informed his brother-in-law that he was tired of life.

The fact which make it appear that death was not accidental was that a detonating cap was fixed to the stick of dynamite, making it ready for use. Were it not for this the inquest would be concluded at once and the verdict would be accidental death.

GIRL SWIMMER DROWNED.

Coroner McMahon disposed of the case of Helen Robertson, a waitress at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club, who was drowned while bathing in Lake Louis yesterday morning. It was known that death was accidental. The girl was an experienced swimmer, and was taking her usual morning swim after her work was finished. Two men who were in the club house heard a shriek, and saw that the girl was in trouble. A boat was put out immediately, but it was too late. The girl, who was but twenty-two years of age, was not long from the Old Country.

The Association Match was was on the most exciting so far.

Gunner Noble made a remarkable score at 800 yards. He missed his sighting shot, and then scored six bulls in succession. His last shot, however, was an inner, and this pulled him down to fourth place.

LIGHTNING STRUCK SHIP.

Mate Received a Shock Which Made Him Unconscious.

The 'Advance,' one of the Montreal Transportation Company's ships, was struck by lightning early this afternoon as she lay at Jacques wharf, at lock No. 2 of the canal. The only damage done to the boat was a bit of railing knocked off. Mate McGillvary, of Kingston, who was standing near, recived a severe shock, being rendered unconscious. The General Hospital ambulance was called, but McGillvary had recovered when it arrived, and he remained on the ship.

FATAL CHASE.

Man Ran After His Hat and Was Killed by Waggon.

The man who was knocked down and killed by a brewery waggon at the corner of Craig and McGill streets last night, has not yet been identified. The accident occurred about 7.30. The man was standing on the corner when a gust of wind whirled his hat across the street. He darted after it. The hat meanwhile had blown beneath the feet of a team of horses attached to a Molsons brewery waggon. The owner tried to rescue it. Before the team could be stopped and before he could get out of the way he was knocked down and one of the heavy wheels passed over his chest. He was taken to the General Hospital where he died within an hour.

Witnesses state that the waggon was not travelling excessively fast, and that the cause of the accident was the man's imprudence. There was nothing in the pockets of the deceased which would enable his identity to be established. A scarf-pin with the initials L. D. on it may solve the mystery. The man was middle-aged, dark, about five feet nine inches in height, and weighing about 175 pounds. He wore a blue suit, blue collar and a soft felt hat.

BRITISH SPORTSMANSHIP

Strongly Appreciated by Canada's Bisley Team.

Guelph, Ont., August 11.—Captain Crowe, who made one of the Canadian team at Bisley, declares that the treatment accorded the Canadians was of the best, despite rumors to the contrary. 'There has been a tendency on the part of some members of the Canadian press to state that the Canadian team at Bisley this year were in some indefinable way not given a square deal,' he said; 'I wish to give this an unqualified denial, for the team this year received most courteous treatment, and so far as the rules of competition were concerned, were exactly on a par with everybody else. I fail to understand why, when a team leaves Canada for Bisley and returns without winning everything in sight, there seems to be some small minded individuals, who seem to scent some wrong treatment somewhere. A statement has recently been made that the British are poor losers, whilst my experience goes to show that they are the best losers in the world, provided they are beaten fairly, and if they feel that everything has been on the level, will be the first to offer the victor congratulations. No where on the face of the civilized globe is a sportsman surer of fair treatment than he is in England.'

PROFESSIONAL BURGLAR.

William Keating Sentenced for the Fifteenth Time.

William Keating, who lives on crime literally—for he spends most of his life in penitentiary—came up before Judge Choquet this morning to answer a charge of breaking into 9 Notre Dame street, east on the night of July 27

'Keating, have you anything to say in your defence?' asked the Bench.

'If you will give me this one chance, Judge,' huskily, mumbled the prisoner, grizzled with hard labor and confinement.

'How often have you been here before?'

'I don't remember.'

'I don't wonder, Keating. It's so often. I have your record here. One, two, three, four,' and so on up to 'fourteen times. Last time you served a term of four years in the penitentiary. How long have you been out?'

'Fifteen months, Judge. I'll keep straight.'

'Three years,' proclaimed the Court, and William Keating, who lives on crime, with bowed shoulders, was taken from the dock.

ALDERMEN VS. CONTROLLERS.

Mr. Gauvin Says Council Will Object to Recommendation of Fair Wage Scale.

There is to be trouble over the recommendation made by the Board of Control for a fair wage official. This was made clearer than ever to-day, when Aldermen Tetreau and Gauvin appeared before the Controlers, asking for a fina reply upon the suggestion made by Ald. Tetreau to the effect that the new civic officer should be a man intimately acquainted with labor questions.

Controller Dupuis answered: 'There has not been any appointment as yet,' he said. 'But I do not think it is necessary for you gentlemen to come here as advocates of the workingmen. Mr. Ainey is here and will protect their interests. But,' he added, 'Mr. Ainey is opposed to the appointment of any one to this position except Mr. Raoul Bolte, whom we have suggested.

'Well,' said Ald. Gauvin, in reply to this, 'the question is going to be discussed in council.'

'JUNGLE' FOOD METHODS.

Philadelphia, August 11.—As the result of an experiment upon a guinea pig that died after being inoculated with frozen eggs, J. Buschel, a large dealer of this city, is under arrest on a warrant obtained by the state dairy and food department on a charge of selling eggs unfit for food purposes. Harry P. Cassidy, special agent of the dairy and food department, alleges that Buschel sells frozen eggs that have been removed from the shells, and in a solid body are disposed of to bakeries, which thaw out the product. The samples seized were examined by bacteriologists. They inoculated the guinea pig with the frozen eggs, and it died within twelve hours. Two other dealers were also held for a hearing for selling eggs unfit for food.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Aug. 11.—The by-election took place in the Cardigan district yesterday. Cardigan district remains Conservative and the strength of the parties in the Legislature is: Liberals, 16; Conservatives, 14.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1910.

The attitude of mind which the assassin Gallagher describes as his own, which makes jealousy and hatred of those whose conditions are better than his own cardinal virtues, and murder a noble duty, is in greater or less measure a very common one in our day, and is in its essence taught by much of the preaching and of the literature which seeks and obtains popular currency. By this view of life the wage-earner is not taught that the way of success is to rise, as so many notable men have done, by diligence, temperance, thrift and intelligence. Indeed the sentiment of organized labor seems to be steadfastly against a man's doing the best he can or getting ahead of the average, by the better cultivation of his talents and more devoted pursuit of his calling. On the contrary he is taught that success is robbery, and that those who have greater comforts have robbed him and deserve punishment at his hands. Men are taught that if they want to better themselves they must take the robber by the throat and make him disgorge. This some seek to do by combination, and by waging open war against society, and the businesses in which they are engaged, and some, lacking combination, seek to do the same by heroic acts of personal championship, like that of Gallagher. Admitting all that is to be said in favor of the theory of plunder, this is only substituting one despotism for another, and exchanging one method of plunder for another. We see, and indeed it is only to be looked for that wherever there is a surrender to combined demand, that demand naturally renews itself, often in spite of solemn agreements. Where there is no measure by which what is right can be determined the only measure will be the utmost that can be obtained by force of combination taking advantage of extremities. Gallagher is said to have been one of the place-men of Tammany, who thought he had a right to his position whether he did the work or not, who resented having to register his time, and who, when dismissed, was convinced that he had been robbed of his living. In sympathy possibly, with many who had been living too easily on the public, and as a testimony against all who did not employ such as he, he attempted to murder the Mayor.

The Italians might as well gather in riotous mobs to protest against earthquakes, as to protest against the high prices of food, except in so far as those prices are enhanced by duties and consequent monopoly. Food prices and other prices have gone up in every country on earth because money has become less valuable. Gold, in which money is measured, has become more plentiful and more cheaply produced. There is no people anywhere that uses money based on either gold or silver—silver is much worse than gold—that is not finding everything the people need getting dearer. Wages have in the more active communities largely accommodated themselves to the new standards; and are in process of doing so even in countries like rural Italy and China, whose conditions change more slowly than ours.

The many Montrealers who saw Walter Brookins at the aviation meeting here and admired his skill and daring will sympathize with him in the painful fall he has had and hope for his swift recovery. It will be remarked that this accident, like so many others, was caused by the exigencies of the exhibition ground. It was to avoid the people who thronged out on the field that Brookins turned too abruptly and overthrew his machine. In time, the aeroplanes will be devoted to more useful ends than to please the populace by crazy feats of daring. A crowd assembles, it has paid its money, and it demands that some one must fly, no matter how unpropitious the weather. Butchered to make a holiday would be the direct epitaph of most of the dead airmen.

THE DOCTOR'S BRAND.

Some British sailors are alleged to have objected to a particular sort of label or brand that is being put on them. But the case seems to have another side. In an interview the other day, Mr. Cuthbert Laws, the secretary of the Shipping Federation, made some interesting statements on the questions submitted to the president of the Board of Trade on the subject of seamen's grievances. 'If,' he said, 'a conciliation board were 'set up under present conditions it 'would have the effect of combining 'the shipowners, and the seamen 'would be left out in the cold. It could 'not be expected to work when there 'was no real union among the men.' Asked as to the allegations of 'branding' of British seamen, Mr. Laws said what had happened was this: 'The 'system of a medical examination of 'seamen was found to work so well 'that it was extended to the principal 'Continental ports where British seamen were engaged.' It appears that the boarding-masters of Antwerp have been in the habit of realizing on the advance notes of seamen, by putting forward sound men for the medical examination, and afterwards substituting for them those who were defective. In order to overcome this difficulty, Dr. de Dekan, prior to his appointment by the Shipping Federation, hit upon the idea of impressing on the wrists of seamen a rubber stamp bearing their own names as a proof that they had been passed by him. Such stamp could be easily removed by a little soap and water; but the men, it is stated, were not anxious to remove it. It was a proof, so to speak, that they were 'A1 at Lloyds.' The only men who are said to have objected to it were those whom the doctor would not pass and the boarding-masters whose machinations were entirely defeated by this simple device. This is how it appears to Mr. Laws, and as to the statement that seamen are made to pay fees averaging from 10s. to £5 for the right of employment, he characterizes it as absolutely without foundation. However, the firemen very evidently think differently. They have a close union and they find that many who are members of it do not pass the doctor. They therefore demand the abolition of the physicians' examinations, characterizing them as too strict and needless. They want to do less work; and they require more pay. It is to be hoped that in their case a strike may be averted by conciliation, as it would be a serious thing for commerce, and we would probably feel it at this port through great inconvenience and loss, but it is generally found that a well knit union wants to try its fighting powers.

YELLOW LONDON.

There was a time, many years ago, when to speak of the English was to speak of a cool, calm race which locked its emotions in its own breast and regarded with contempt those continental nations which wore their hearts on their sleeves that all might see. Then came the South African war with its periods of tension which finally broke with the relief of Mafeking, and London went mad. Surging crowds pressed down Ludgate hill, along Fleet street and the Strand, filled the popular music halls to the ceilings, cheered, waved flags, blew tin horns and formed fit subjects for columns of descriptive matter contributed by the best men the continental journals could send to see old England crazy. Before the days of newspaper 'enterprise,' solemn thanksgiving services in the churches would have been the utmost the British people would have considered necessary, but the tension had become so great that with its removal something snapped and the 'poor little street-bred people' found it necessary to find vent for their feelings. After a debauch, men sometimes look back with remorse at their actions, but London did not; it came to the conclusion that a debauch of this character was novel, and worth having. They came under the fostering care of a certain type of newspaper. A horrible murder in the north of London formed the next excuse. A man without pretense of morality was accused of murdering his mistress under most revolting circumstances. A former paramour gave evidence against him. The newspapers of sensationalism divided in opinion as to whether the woman told the truth or the alleged murderer. The evidence proved that the man was not fit to be allowed in decent society, even if he had not committed the crime of which he was accused. So much the better material did the case afford for the most detailed description by the papers of everything on which the shadow of any of the participants happened to fall, just as we are having served up to us now. The papers on one side and the other played on the feelings of the crowd, the crowd allowed itself to be played upon; and the trial became the subject of the day, with the result that when the jury brought in a verdict of 'not guilty,' London went 'Mafeking mad' once more. Flags and horns reappeared, crowds collected and cheered the Old Bailey; the woman who had given evidence against the popular hero had to flee for her life, and visitors coming into the city either from the provinces or foreign countries were at a loss to understand.

The next occasion for 'Mafeking' behavior was when a low class sporting man, best known through his ability to just keep out of the hands of the police, either for racing tricks or indecent publications, was charged with blackmail. Work was neglected in order that his faithful satellites, who purchased his indecent stories, could stand round the court house and help him with their sympathy. And when he was discharged, owing to the evidence not being sufficiently strong for a conviction, it mattered nothing to them that he had been proved a scoundrel. He formed an object for more rejoicing, and once more traffic had to be diverted from the principal streets, in order that his supporters could march in procession, cheering, shrieking and singing 'Rule Britannia.' Now, we understand, Crippen is to be made another popular hero. How it has been done will not be seen until the London papers arrive, but one of the sensational papers—it is easy to guess which—has promised to pay his legal expenses in return for the story of his companion's life. This will be eagerly absorbed by its readers, and the case will evolve not so much into the trial of an alleged murderer but the trial of the paper supporting him. The paper's readers will take it as a personal affront if their own journal becomes beaten in the trial; and a man accused of a revolting crime will be regarded as 'poor old Crippen,' and be the recipient of sympathy from thousands of maudlin people, who will extend their subscriptions and thanks to the paper undertaking the costs of his defence. This, of course, is journalistic enterprise. It is consoling to think—so far as England is concerned—it is only in London that such scenes of misplaced sympathy are to be seen, and that in the provinces—especialy amongst the hard-headed Lancashire and Yorkshire men—the behavior of the 'cockneys' is regarded with both pity and contempt.

CANADIAN CABLES.

(Canadian Associated Press.)

London, August 11.—Congregationalist statistics show 188 churches in Canada and Newfoundland.

London, August 11.—Madame Melba has engaged Edward Burke, the Canadian artist, for her concert tour of Great Britain in 1911.

CADET TEAM COMING TO CANADA

London, August 11.—The English cadet team for the Dominion Rifle Association matches at Rockliffe Ranges, Ottawa, sails on the 'Empress of Britain' to-morrow. Captain McCalmont, of Eton, commands the team. Two cadets from New Zealand accompany the team.

ANNUAL WORLD'S CROPS ESTIMATES.

London, August 11.—Mr. J. K. Carthew's annual estimate of the world's crops gives Canada 13,500,000 quarters, or 35,000,000 bushels less than in 1909. The total crops are placed at 375,000,000 quarters, an increase of 50,000 quarters compared with 1909.

SIDELIGHTS ON SOUTH AFRICAN RAID.

Durban, August 11.—Dr. Leander Jameson, the leader of the Progressive party, said it was not sought by means of the Boer raid to replace Dutchmen by Englishmen in the Transvaal. During that raid he had carried a letter containing a list of the proposed new executive, including Generals Lucas and Meyer. The raid was badly carried out, and was thoroughly deserving of punishment, yet it was a step in the direction of federation, which was Cecil Rhodes's policy.

BRITISH VIEW OF PROTECTION.

London, August 11.—The 'British Weekly' says: 'For once we almost envy the Liberal member going down to the country on the Canadian revolt against protection. It is a great fact, and so great a fact that it cannot be silenced or suppressed by any conspiracy of Unionist papers. It is a momentous fact that the Canadian farmers desire no preference in the British market. The Canadian manufacturers will fight hard, but the future of Canada is in the West.'

TELLS STORY OF HOTEL FIRE.

Belfast, August 11.—At the resumed inquest into the fire at the Kelvin Hotel, a statement was read from Mrs. McCaughan, who is still in the hospital suffering from her injuries, that when she and her husband, the Rev. W. J. McCaughan, discovered the fire they tried to escape by the door, but were prevented by smoke. She went to the window and tried to suspend herself from the sill, but fell. Her husband rang the bell to alarm the servants before he jumped from a window.

BOTHA AWAITS UNIONISTS' ACTION.

Pretoria, August 11.—General Louis Botha, Premier of the South African Union, said the Government still awaited the Unionist programme. He had heard that the people were being stirred up to 'vote British,' but 'had not the Empire every reason to regard him and his party as her sons and as good as any other?' General Smuts advocated training on the Swiss basis, with a nucleus for a striking force. He was willing to abide by the advice of the War Office that South Africa should be self-reliant, but she should do everything possible to assist the Empire which gave the Transvaal freedom and education. This will be the dominating issue in the elections.

MR. PUGSLEY AT GODERICH.

Minister of Public Works on Inspection Tour.

Goderich, Ont., Aug. 11.—Mr. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, and Mr. J. B. Hunter, Deputy Minister, and party arrived here yesterday on the government yacht 'Speedy.' The party are here on a tour of inspection and the object of the minister's visit to Goderich is to inspect the harbor here. The party drove around town, and in the afternoon the minister addressed a large gathering of the citizens in the park, where his remarks on contemplated harbor improvements were received with great enthusiasm. A banquet was held last evening, at which he was a guest of honor.

Among those present were Mr. W. L Mackenzie King, Minister of Labor; Col. Hodgins, D.O.C., of London; H. J. Lambe, district engineer, London; Captain Houghton, inspector of dredging; Mr. Tolmie, M.P., of Kincardine; Mr. Chisholm, M.P., of Wingham; Mr. Rankin, M.P., of Stratford; Mr. McLean, M.P., of Seaforth, and Mr. E. N. Lewis, M.P., of Goderich. The principal speakers of the evening were Mr. William Pugsley and Mr. W. L. Mackenzie King. Dr. Pugsley confined his remarks particularly to the improvement of Goderich harbor, the development of lake transportation and the importance of the lake-carrying trade being routed via Canadian ports.

STRIKERS SATISFIED.

States Vice-President Berry, of Grand Trunk Settlement.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 11.—That the reported dissatisfaction among the striking G. T. R. trainmen over the terms of settlement is greatly exaggerated was the statement of Mr. Berry, vice-president of the Order of Railway Conductors, who returned from Montreal yesterday. 'I am not concerning myself with merely the local and individual dissatisfaction,' he said. 'The men in general are satisfied, and in an organization like ours, the individuals must acquiesce in the general feeling. Furthermore, the papers are being fooled in many interviews with supposed strikers. In many cases these reports of dissatisfaction come from imported workers, who desire to foment trouble as they are in danger of losing their own jobs. The report that the men's committee in Hamilton was protesting is absolutely false. There is some delay at several points in taking the old conductors back, but I am confident that the company is doing the best it can under the circumstances.' When asked as to the proposal from London that the men form a pension fund of their own to take the place of the company's pension loss by the strike, Mr. Berry answered that this was a matter which would take some time to reach. 'We already have a protective fund, to help our men when the need arises. In addition, the brotherhoods have pledged themselves to look after those who are not re-engaged shortly.'

ALLIANCE SUNDAY.

Extensive Field Day for New Ontario Planned.

Toronto, August 11.—Arrangements are being completed by Secretary B. H. Spence, of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, for one of the biggest field days yet conducted by the Alliance, and certainly one of the most unique. On September 4 twenty-two men sent out by the Alliance will occupy pulpits in new Ontario, filling almost every one north of and including North Bay, and going as far west as Sudbury.

FAREWELL TO REGIMENT.

Toronto Soldiers Are Leaving for Trip to England.

Toronto, August 11.—With several thousand relatives and friends crowding the galleries of the armories and overflowing out on the parade floor the officers and men of the Queen's Own Rifles took part last night in perhaps the most unique ceremony in the history of the Canadian militia. The Lieutenant-Governor, the Premier of Ontario and the Mayor of Toronto united in bidding 'Godspeed' to the regiment, voicing the farewell of the people of the province and dwelling upon the precedent in imperialism that the regiment is setting in its visit to England, a journey the importance of which will not be truly estimated until the years to come.

A. C. P. R. EXTENSION.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has completed the extension of its line from Three Rivers to Shawinigan Falls through to Grand Mere, and after the 13th inst. the regular service now running to Shawinigan Falls will be extended—with some minor changes in order to complete connections with both Montreal and Quebec—on to Grand Mere.

The extension takes in seven miles of the St. Maurice Valley road, which has been put through during the present summer, and will give direct connections between Grand Mere and Montreal via Three Rivers. In addition to this it will give Grand Mere, now rapidly becoming a large manufacturing centre, railway communication with the outside markets by both the C. P. R. and the Canadian Northern.

SOLD TO MILWAUKEE.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 11.Arthur S. Degroff, outfielder of the Wilkesbarre Club, has been sold to Milwaukee. His place will be taken by George Hunter, late of the Montreal team.

CLIMATE IS CANADA'S GLORY

Sir Wilfrid Declares it Makes Strong and Willing Nation.

IN ADDRESS AT RED DEER.

Premier Urges New Settlers to Contribute by Energy to the Country's Progress.

Red Deer, Alta., Aug. 11.—Ten young ladies, unmistakably American, were standing on the outside of a gathering that met Sir Wilfrid Laurier yesterday. They were witnessing the enthusiastic scenes of the Premier's welcome. 'Say,' said one, in all earnestness to her companion, 'people think as much of him as they do of Roosevelt.' Which was probably the tribute par excellence from a native of the United States at the present time.

A reference in the civic address to climatic conditions in winter elicited from the Premier a sparkling eulogy. 'For my part,' said he, 'I have no fault to find with the Canadian climate. Some few years ago Rudyard Kipling, the imperial poet, referring to Canada as 'Our Lady of the Snows,' caused some critics to find fault with the title. I approved the appellation. The climate of Canada is the glory of Canada. It is the climate of Canada which makes No. 1 hard wheat. It is the climate of Canada which puts the bloom on the cheeks of the better half of the audience before me. When I rise on a winter morning and see the smoke arising in the atmosphere one hundred feet above the chimneys, perpendicularly in the clear, cold, still air, I know what it is that makes our men strong and our women beautiful. This country has not been made by God for the effete, for the timorous or the laggard, but the strong and willing will find labor rewarded as in no other part of the world.'

GOOD ADVICE TO SETTLERS.

Dr. Thomas Stevenson, a cousin of the Minister of Railways, presided, and Mr. Sifton, the Premier, and Mr. Frank Oliver extended Alberta's welcome. Discussing the Hudson's Bay Railway project with the grain growers, Mr. Graham expressed the hope that the opening of the route with its transatlantic adjunct would give an impetus to lines of agricultural effort. 'I come from a part of Ontario noted for its dairy output,' observed the minister. 'I have been studying this northern part of Alberta with great interest as we came along. This part of Canada is peculiarly blessed in that nature lends itself to the development of one of the best dairy sections in the world. There is no reason why northern Alberta butter should not take first place in the Liverpool market with New Zealand and Danish butter.'

Speaking from his car at Ponoka, Sir Wilfrid Laurier briefly reiterated his welcome to the newcomers, of whom there are many in that district and urged them to contribute by energy and effort to the future of their Canadian homeland.

At Lacombe, where a stop was made to enable the party to visit Alberta's experimental farm, the Premier addressed himself especially to the women. He found no agitation for woman suffrage, but he had been proud to notice the important part the women of the west were performing in creating a country of happy and contented homesteads. He appealed to them to keep the standard of Canadian life high and to inspire their husbands and brothers to take an active and intelligent interest in civic and national affairs. Alluding to the congratulations upon his health, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said: 'I thank God I am in perfect health. I do not know that I ever felt better in my life. The only thing of which I can complain is that I am growing older, but that is a very prevalent complaint. But if I am growing older in time, I am growing younger in spirit these days. I fancy I am imbibing something of that spirit of perennial youth, buoyancy, courage and hope which belongs popularly to this country. The west is doing me good in many ways.'

MADE MONEY IN JAIL.

Three Prisoners Prove Clever Counterfeiters.

Boston, Aug. 11.—How three inmates of the State Prison at Charlestown were able to construct a counterfeiting outfit and manufacture spurious half-dollars has been discovered by secret service officers. Every since July 21st, when the State Prison officials learned that counterfeit half-dollars were in circulation in the prison and that some had got outside, an investigation has been in progress. At that time it became known that Patrick Hanley, of Lynn, who is serving a 25-year sentence as a habitual criminal, was involved.

Last night it was announced at the office of the United States District Attorney that two other prisoners had been accomplices of Hanley, and that the cases of all three would be presented to the federal grand jury next fall.

The method of the counterfeiters was ingenious. They secured from unknown sources some scraps of tin and lead, jeweller's crucible, and some plaster of Paris. One of the trio, who has a knowledge of electricity cut in on the electric light wires in Hanley's cell, attached two pieces of carbon and placed them on a small sheet of iron covered with fireproof cement. On the white-hot carbon the crucible was placed, the metal was melted and the coins were manufactured in a plaster of Paris mould.

HUNTINGDON

Huntingdon, Aug. 11.—Huntingdon village grows slowly, but it grows. Four new dwelling houses are in course of erection within the village, and two more in the 'Wes'mount suburbs,' making six in all.

A Montreal woman named Bedard, who owns a small house built of cement, in Huntingdon, effected a summary ejectment last Monday. Without any legal formalities she burst in the front door, while her tenants departed by the rear. After bustling the 'message' out on the green sward she closed and boarded up the doors.

The Rev. J. B. Maclean is spending his holidays in Nova Scotia.

Many farmers are still haying. The crop has been enormous.

HILL ROAD EXTENSIONS.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 11.—Mr. Stevens, president of the Oregon Trunk Railway of the Hill system, announces that the road will be extended across the Cascade Mountains to Medford.

LAW IS CRITICISED

Canadian Florists Declare Montreal Was Not Mentioned in New Regulation.

St. Catharines, Ont., August 11.—An important convention of the Canadian Horticulturists was opened in the Carnegie Library yesterday afternoon, delegates being present from all parts of Canada. Mr. H. E. Philpott, of Winnipeg, who has been president for several years, occupied the chair. The president read an address, reviewing the work of the past year and forecasting some important undertakings for the coming twelve months. The only paper read during the afternoon was one entitled 'Carnations,' by Mr. C. H. Jansen, of Berlin.

At the evening session Mr. Ed. Mepsted, Ottawa, and Mr. George A. Robinson, of Montreal, led the discussion on the values and the future of cut flowers and plants at holiday seasons.

The new law passed in May last, by which all foreign greenhouse plants and stocks may be admitted at ports in the Dominion at certain periods only of the year came in for a good deal of discussion. Only certain ports are named at which this greenhouse stock may be admitted, and in this list Montreal is not even mentioned. The matter will come up for further discussion.

NEW MILITIA RULE

Increased Power Given Officers to Reduce Number of Courts-Martial.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—The following changes in the discipline regulations of the Army Act are noted in militia orders:

'Under the provisions of the Army Act, 1910, the power of a commanding officer has been increased so as to enable him to award detention up to 28 days for any offence, but when awarding detention for absence without leave, although he has the general power of awarding detention up to 28 days for the offence, regard must still be had to the number of days during which the offender has been absent, and when such absence exceeds seven days the term of detention awarded cannot exceed the number of days' absence.

'For instance, if a soldier has been absent without leave for a period of 28 days, and a court of inquiry had been held to inquire into his illegal absence, the commanding officer, if satisfied that the soldier had no intention of permanently abandoning His Majesty's service, or of avoiding some important particular service, could deal summarily with the case as one of absence without leave without reference to superior authority, but if the intention to desert is clearly apparent, the case should be referred to superior authority as one of desertion.

'The object of thus extending the power of a commanding officer is to enable him to dispose of most of those offences, for which, as a rule, a punishment not exceeding 28 days' detention has hitherto been awarded by court-martial, and the exercise of this increased power should not only cause the assembly of regimental courts-martial to be of rare occurrence, but should also greatly reduce the number of courts-martial.'

BROCKVILLE.

Brockville, Ont., Aug. 11.—William Kennedy, a prominent young lawyer of Winnipeg, and a native of Westport, Ont., was married this morning to Miss Maude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wiltsie, of Athens. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. John Scanlon, of Jasper. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy came to Brockville in an automobile and took the mail boat west for their home.

Five samples of water were sent to Kingston yesterday to be analyzed by Dr. Connell, two from the well at the pumping station, one from the river near the mouth of the intake pipe, one from the well at St. Lawrence park, and one from private premises.

One of the baggagemen on the steamer 'Kingston' took an involuntary plunge into the river at the C. P. R. dock. The boat had cast her lines preparatory to resuming the trip to Prescott when the man jumped on a gang plank as it was being hauled in. In some manner he lost his balance and fell overboard. He was rescued by persons standing on the dock.

The death occurred here following an operation for septic meningitis of Evelin Billings, a prominent young dairyman of the Township of Elizabethtown. Mr. Billings was one of Brockville's leading milk vendors. He was 29 years of age and leaves a wife and three small children. His parents reside in Saskatchewan.

While on a visit to relatives at Caintown, Robert McDonald, a native of that place, but more recently of New Rochelle, N.Y., passed away suddenly. He was three score and ten years old.

There are at present seventy-four inmates under the care of the superintendent of the Lanark House of Industry.

Since the episode of early Sunday morning, when Peter Maret, the self-confessed originator of the big blaze in the Merrill block, found the front door open, extra efforts are being made to see that all doors leading into public buildings are closed and locked.

Last night Brockville was in the wake of another violent storm. While there was no thunder or lightning, a copious supply of rain fell, accompanied by a gale from the west which shook things up along the river.

Two interesting cases will be given a hearing before the police magistrate of Gananoque, one the case of a local license holder, who is charged with selling liquor to a minor, and the other a charge against an ex-license holder from the rear of the township for selling cider. Both matters are attracting considerable interest.

MILITIA IS UNPREPARED

Is Believed to be Criticism in Report by Sir John French.

NO READINESS FOR WAR.

Annual Training and Staffs Are Declared to be Ineffective.

Ottawa, Aug. 11. — That General French's report on the Canadian militia will embrace at least three radical criticisms is stated here by reliable sources.

(1) That the peace organization and composition of the militia should be such that in the even. of war breaking out the forces would be ready to take the field forthwith. Then General French finds that this is not the state of affairs at present.

(2) Better qualified and more effective staffs should be in command of some brigade divisions.

(3) The period of annual training is wholly inadequate to produce results.

With these features as the base the report in respect to them is elaborated to the extent of some seventy pages. It is reiterated that it will not be made public until Sir Wilfrid Laurier comes home.

The General advocates strongly that the present system of commands and military districts be replaced by divisional organization and that the component parts of the latter should be complete in detail; further, that local influences should not be allowed to preclude this being done. In that connection it is stated that in certain places where a cavalry or artillery unit is really needed an infantry regiment has been established because of local representations that these would be more popular.

As regards the annual training periods the General suggests that artillery should be in camp for 21 days, cavalry 16 days, and infantry for 12 days, outside of the time occupied in going and coming. He finds that the city regiments devote too much time to purely ceremonial movements and have too little practical work. That there is good material in the militia he admits, but strongly emphasizes the need of more qualified officers, an essential which is now lacking. The general conclusion is that the peace organization is at present is not such as could prove effective in the event of a sudden outbreak of hostilities.

A falling off of about ten thousand men is reported from the attendance at this year's militia camps. The total will be around forty thousand. The prosperity of the country and the resultant employment are assigned as the reasons for the diminished attendance. The outlay on the annual training will be around one and a quarter millions.

$600,000 FOR SIDEWALKS

Citizens Who Complained Surprised by Statistics.

Some householders who have come to the road department complaining of cheap sidewalks in front of their houses have been given an eye-opener in the shape of some statistics. These figures used by Mr. Barlow, city surveyor, show such extensive operations in sidewalk building that they demand attention.

Poor or wooden sidewalks, Mr. Barlow assured his callers, are only laid where the nature of the ground demands. Even then they are only temporary, and will be replaced when the land recently broken by the building operations, becomes hard enough to give a bottom for cement or stone.

In all, according to the figures given, nearly six hundred thousand dollars is being spent for sidewalks this year. In June a sum of $499,880 was voted for the work, and since a sum of $100,000 has been set aside.

Of the sidewalks being laid, twenty-five thousand square yards are of flagstone, eighty thousand square yards of asphalt, fifty thousand square yards of cement. The extent of wood sidewalks being laid is not exactly known, but Mr. Barlow says it is but a small fraction of the whole.

FIENDS KILLED MUSICIAN.

Violinist Played Until Exhausted, and Was Then Brutally Beaten.

Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 11.—Because he stopped playing his violin in a vacant lot last Sunday night, Jacob Kziozo was so battered and kicked that his injuries have resulted in his death. The police, seeking his assailants, gave out the story to-day. Kziozo was a laborer in the day time and a dance hall violinist at night, was crossing a vacant lot, homeward, after midnight when held up by several men who ordered him to take out his violin and play. Kziozo played softly at first, many popular airs, then louder, hoping to attract attention of some passerby. Pausing a moment in the weird recital he was brutally pounded and knocked down. Then, yanked to his feet, he was ordered to continue. He played until exhausted. Further blows were rained upon him and he was left helpless. It was morning before he was discovered and removed. His skull was fractured. He told of the assault and described his assailants, who are supposed to have been intoxicated.

COCHRANE FIRE.

Insurance Companies May Refuse Risks in Northern District.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—No report has been received here regarding the fire losses in Cochrane. Local fire insurance companies, however, estimate the loss of between $50,000 and $70,000. The companies have about decided to cease accepting risks in the far northern towns, on account of the amount of insurance carried, and also because poor fire fighting appliances The rates are almost prohibitive, being 10 percent of the risk for the year. As far as can be learned, all the mails were saved from the post-office at Cochrane. The building, with all the other contents, was a total loss.

ANCIENT TAXATION.

Colchester, whose new Royal Grammar School was opened recently by Lord Rosebery, has special interest just now when most adult minds are directed to the Budget. For its extant records include two 'taxations' of the town in the time of Edward I., such 'taxations' requiring a house-to-house visitation by sworn commissioners 'to inventory and appraise every man's possessions for the purpose of imposing a general property tax.'

The 'taxation' of A.D. 1300 appears to have been no mere perfunctory visitation, as it took count of one Edward the shoemaker, whose goods and chattels were only valued at nineteenpence; Gold-at-the-Helle at eighteenpence, and Alive Maynard at fifteenpence. The inventories include every penny and personal ornament, every pot and pan, bed and towel in the house, as well as stock in trade and tools. They always begin with the 'cash in hand,' which, says the Rev. E. L. Cutts in his work on the historic town, in most cases is nil, in all cases very small. The total value of the property of Henry Pearson, a butcher, one of the wealthiest men in Colchester, was returned at £5 3s. 1d.—Daily Chronicle.'

JAPANESE ADVERTISING WAYS.

(From the London 'Tit Bits.')

The Japanese have an original way of advertising, and they apply to the art all the poetry that their oriental imagination is capable of. They have recourse to the most varied and improvised methods, and their combinations are sometimes as picturesque as they are original. A Japanese merchant informs his customers that his goods are sent off with the rapidity of a shot. A stationer calls his knowledge of natural history to his aid thus: 'Our wonderful paper is as durable as the hide of an elephant.' A Tokio grocer borrows from psychology, and, in mordant language, announces that 'our vinegar of extra quality is sharper than the bitterness of the most diabolical of mothers-in-law.'

INQUEST ON A CANARY.

The medical officer of health for Holborn, reporting on a gas poisoning case in Neal street, Holborn, recently, said that upon the road being taken up it was discovered that the bituem around the cables of the Charing Cross, West End, and City Electricity Supply Company was in a molten condition, no less than 150 feet of cable having been fused. It was decided that the symptoms were due to carbon monoxide poisoning. In order to discover the cause of the poisoning an inquest was held on a canary which succumbed in its cage. As a result of these investigations the medical officer reports that no escape of coal gas could be found.

MONTREAL HAD GOOD PRACTICE

Hoyan and H. Scott Were Still Missing From the Line-up.

CAPITALS STRONG.

Eddie St. Pere and John McPhee Will Handle Shamrock Game on Saturday.

Montreal held a good, brisk practice last night. With the exception of Hogan, Henry Scott and Dade, all the team were out. Dade has not appeared at practice since the team returned from the West. On Saturday the team will almost certainly be the same as last week, with Layden in Dade's position, and both Henry Scott and Hogan on the line-up. The winged-wheelers are in good trim for Saturday's meeting with the Indians, and should make a good showing.

Toronto sporting writers predict that Tecumsehs will have a very difficult game, and one says it is too much to expect the team to conquer the N. L. U. champions so soon after downing the League leaders. Up to last night Peter Murphy had appointed no officials for the Montreal-Tecumseh game. He will likely select two Shamrock men if he can persuade them to leave Montreal when their team is in action.

The Toronto 'Telegram' says: Reports of the Montreal-Toronto game indicate that, contrary to general expectation, it was the blue shirt defence which went up into the air, and not the home. Fred Scott, Hogan and Roberts, it is said, broke through the Toronto defence well nigh when they pleased. And after that experience on the Coast, and all it must be admitted that Montreal has a valiant little home, and it will be a battle royal between them and the big Tecumseh defence next Saturday. For Montreal needs this game worse even than Nationals needed it.

Ottawa, Aug. 10.—Capitals will be strong against Shamrocks on Saturday. They have got together their best team of the year. Lesueur will play in the nets with Currie at point and Goodman at cover; Shea, Pringle and Yeatman making up the defence field, with Dooley or Bawlf at centre and J. Gorman, Hutt, Martin, T. Gorman and Eastwood on the home.

Eddie St. Pere and John McPhee, president of the Cornwall Lacrosse Club, will handle the Shamrock-Capital game on Saturday.

ROUGH FLYING

Aviators in a Cross Country Race in a Storm.

Mezieres, France, Aug. 11.—M. Leblanc's good fortune in the cross-country aerial race continued on the third leg of the course to-day. Although he experienced a great deal of difficulty he was the first to arrive at the post. The day's flight was from Nancy to this town, a distance of 99.36 miles. The leader's time was one hour and fifty-eight minutes and three seconds.

Leblanc, barring accidents, is practically sure of winning the race, although M. Aubrun and M. Legagneux, who completed the first two laps in single flights, still have a chance.

Aubrum reached here to-day, two hours after Leblanc had landed.

M. Lindpainter descended and abandoned the race at a point twelve miles from Nancy.

All of the aviators experienced the roughest flying thus far encountered. Leblanc had the best luck. He came to town just ahead of a violent storm, which caught his pursuers soon after the start. After leaving Nancy a gust of wind blew away his chart, and for a time he was lost in a thick haze.

French General's Adventure.

M. Lindpainter, who started third, was caught in a heavy downpour of rain after he had been in the air but a short time and was forced to alight.

The others who started in the race of six stages from Paris to Troyes, Nancy, Mezieres, Douai, Amiens and return, a total distance of 485 miles, continue to participate in the local meetings that alternate with the racing days.

A FRENCH GENERAL'S ADVENTURE.

Several officers in military aeroplanes one of which carried General Maumoury, effected reconnaissances in the vicinity of Nancy at daylight. They, too, met with bad weather and the pilot of the machine occupied by the General lost his direction, and finally he brought up at Metz, in the District of Lorraine, Germany. From that point the return to Nancy was made.

WASHINGTON REGATTA.

Many Rowing Crews From Canada Have Entered.

Washington, Aug. 11.—Rowing crews from many cities of Canada and the United States are arriving in Washington to compete in the national regatta on the Potomac River Friday and Saturday.

F. Russell Underwood, chairman of the regatta committee, and his assistants were busy to-day assigning the crews to their quarters along the Potomac banks lining the course where special lockers and boat houses have been erected for the event.

Many visitors are expected from all parts of the country for the water races, and the demand for seats on excursion steamers and yacht club verandahs has been steady for more than a week. The course will be patrolled by the revenue cutters 'Apache' and 'Onondaga.' Among the crews entered for the events, which include singles, doubles, intermediate and senior fours, and intermediate and senior eights, are the following: Argonauts, of Toronto; Ariels, of Baltimore; Arundels, of Baltimore; Bachelors, of Philadelphia; Bradford, of Cambridge; Centrala, of St. Louis; Crescents, of Philadelphia; Detroits, of Detroit; Don Rowing Club, of Toronto; Harlams, of New York; Minnesotas, of St. Paul; Sound City, of St. Louis; Nassaus, of New York; New Rochelles, of New York; New York Athletics, of New York; Ottawas, of Ottawa, Ont.; Pennsylvania Barge, Philadelphia; Potomacs, of Washington; Riversides, of Cambridge, Mass.; Rookrimmons, of Springfield; Sheepshead Bay, of New York; Springfield, Massachusetts; Unions, of Boston; Vespers, of Philadelphia; Virginia, of Richmond; West Lynn, of West Lynn, Mass.

BROOKINS IN AN ACCIDENT

SEVERAL BOYS INJURED.

The Spectators Caused Mishap by Crowding—German Airman Seriously Injured.

Asbury Park, N.J., Aug. 11.—A serious mishap to Walter Brookins, in which the daring Wright aviator was painfully but not dangerously hurt, marred the opening day of the aviation meet here. Brookins was dashed to earth when his machine suddenly turned turtle after he had been forced to swerve suddenly to avoid crashing into a crowd of spectators. Seven persons among whom the machine tumbled were more or less seriously injured.

Brookins was pinned under the wreckage and was only half conscious when friends reached him. This started a report that he had been fatally injured. An examination showed that his nose was broken, and that he had been badly bruised and shaken up, but not seriously hurt.

The mishap was directly due to the thronging of spectators out into the field. Brookins in descending had no room to operate the machine and was driven to make a sudden turn to avoid dashing among the watchers. The tricky wind caught the machine and sent it spinning over backwards.

The machine tumbled amid a small crowd of watchers, mostly boys. One youngster was rushed to an hospital, where it was reported that he had a fracture of the skull. Six other youths were less seriously hurt.

Walter Brookins created a world's record for high flying on July 9 at Atlantic City, N.J., where he reached an elevation of 6,175 feet in a Wright biplane. For this feat he received a $5,000 prize offered by the Atlantic City Aero Club. Brookins created other records for high flying at Indianapolis.

AIRMAN MAY NOT SURVIVE.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—Oscar Helm, a German aviator, who was competing in yesterday's flying contests at Johannisthal, fell a distance of 250 feet and was so badly injured that he is expected to die. Helm was driving a Wright biplane when it suddenly somersaulted, the machine turning completely over four times in its descent. Helm was taken from the wreck alive but unconscious.

TWO RECORDS ESTABLISHED.

London, Aug. 11.—The aviation meeting at Lanark has proved to be one of the most successful ever held in Great Britain. In yesterday's contest Radley beat his own British record, travelling at the rate of 58.32 miles an hour.

Later in the day Cattaneo established a new English record for endurance. He remained in the air 3 hours 41 mins. and 45 seconds. His average speed was 44.16 miles an hour.

AEROPLANES INEFFECTIVE.

Nancy, France, Aug. 11.—Interesting tests of military aeroplanes pitted against bicycle and automobile scouts filled up yesterday's programme before the resumption of the cross-country serial race.

The aeroplanes had the worst of the match. The soldier cyclists and automobiles figuratively shot at a range of about 300 feet all of the aeroplanists who attempted to reconnoitre in a given direction. In making their reports of the manoeuvres the officers in charge stated that the aeroplanists would have escaped if they had kept above the line of the woods that skirted the field of their operations.

GLASGOW CHOIR COMING.

Will Give Concert in Montreal on September 21.

The musical world of Montreal will have the pleasure of hearing the Glasgow Select Choir, an organization well known and appreciated in the British Isles, on September 21st.

Mr. J. W. Leckie, managing director of the choir, arrived in Montreal yesterday to make advance arrangements.

The singers naturally pay a great deal of attention to Scottish airs, but they are pronounced by critics to have remarkable versatility.

The choir is leaving Glasgow on the 'Ionian,' September 12, giving the first Canadian concert in Quebec on the 19th, and afterwards appearing in the principal North American cities.

Lachine is to have band concerts on Thursday and Sunday evenings.

DUBUC AGAIN HITS IN PINCH

The Pitcher Helps Royals Take Another Game From Baltimore.

EVEN BREAK ON SERIES.

Montreal Dims Baltimore Manager's Vision of the Championship Pennant.

Baltimore, Aug. 10.—Again the Orioles and the visiting Royals divided a double-header, and peculiarly enough the winning pitcher in each case was the one driven from the box on Tuesday. Vickers for the home team was in fine fettle, Holly and McAllister alone getting hits off his delivery. Burchell was not quite so stingy in the second game, but though he was hit safely six times. No Baltimore runs resulted. The one score of the home team was the direct results of Burchell's momentary weakness being produced by a base on balls, an infield out and a wild pitch.

Dunn did not enjoy the turn of events. The Baltimore manager has a moving picture imagination, and now he sees Eastern League Championship pennant flying from the Baltimore flag pole. He expected to take all the games, or at least the majority, from the Royals, and the failure to do this has spoiled some of the views in the projectiscope roll.

The Orioles played good ball all right, but not any better than the Royals. The visitors were in the game continually, and deserved an even break.

It was the seventh innings that proved disastrous to Montreal in the first game. With one out Hall, a weak hitter, managed to drop the ball safely over Yeager's head and Walsh drove a hit to centre. Then they worked the double, Sheal and Walsh scored on Frick's grounder which Yeager with difficulty knocked down. Keefe gave Byers free transportation, but Vickers hit a long fly and Hall scored on the throw-in.

Dunn made a desperate effort to win the second game, too, sending in three pitchers. But they were all the same to Messrs. Jones, Nattress, Holly and Kritchell, who batted everything sent up. The game was hardly in doubt. Once or twice Burchell found himself in an awkward predicament, but he had splendid support. Holly and Nattress made some remarkable stops, while twice Holly and Cockill pulled off fast double plays.

Montreal got one in the third when Burchell was walked and scored on two outs, and Jones' double to left field.

Another came in the fourth, again the result of a base on balls, Nattress making the circuit on Cockill's sacrifice and hits by Holly and Kritchell.

Donnelly essayed to pitch in the seventh and Kritchell welcomed him by driving out a hard double. Burchell continued the good work by sacrificing him to third. Beaton had a ball and a strike on him when Barrow sent in Dubuc, the pitcher and pinch hitter. Now, earlier in the season Dubuc was with Buffalo. There he was seldom used. He wasn't given a chance to show if he had anything so naturally the Bison management decided he hadn't. At the time the Royals were short of pitchers. They secured Dubuc, and in the first game he pitched he clouted so lustily, that he has been used as a pinch hitter as well as a regular pitcher ever since. Result is the history of baseball. But before this digression Dubuc was at the bat. He didn't stay there long, for again he did as it had been hoped he would, that is, he hit and Kritchell scored.

In their half of the seventh the Orioles scored but Montreal retaliated in the eighth. Nattress hit to centre. Then, after Cockill was out, Holly laced one out to left. In an effort to catch Nattress off second, Egan threw to centre field, Nattress taking third, from which place he scored on a wild pitch of Donnelly's. Burchell then knocked a fly to centre field and Holly scored.

To-day the Royals commence a four-game series with Newark. So far they have done finely on their trip away, having split even with Baltimore, and won two, lost one, and tied one with Providence.

WILD STRAWBERRY

The medicine with a record of cures extending over 65 years. You don't experiment when you buy it.

Mr. J. Chapelle, Glenboro, Alta, writes:—"While living in England I suffered with acute stomach trouble, colic, diarrhoea, etc., I took various medicines and had a doctor attend me for several weeks but found no relief. I suffered terrible pain and was gradually getting weaker. In 1905 I came to Canada and suffered with Summer Complaint. I was recommended to take Dr. Fowler's Extract Of Wild Strawberry so I bought a bottle (but had no faith in it) and it completely cured me. I now have it constantly in the house and one spoonful always cures me."

KILLIAN JOINS LEAFS

Former Detroit Pitcher Will Pitch One of Games Against Baltimore

Toronto, Aug. 10. —Ed. Killian, the Southpaw pitcher, secured by the Toronto Ball Club from Detroit, reported to-day to President McCaffery and left to-night for Baltimore, where he will pitch one of the Toronto games. Killian is a big, strapping fellow, eager for work, with a record of 4 won and 3 lost in the American League this year, where he did not work as often as he would have liked. Killian thinks that he will do much better with more to do than he had in Detroit. Killian was with Detroit seven years and helped the Tigers with three championships.

FOOTBALLERS IN CONFERENCE.

Efforts are being made to bring the two local soccer organizations together in order that a combined international under both leagues may be conducted on Labor Day. A representative from the Montreal Football Association will be received at a meeting of the M. and D. F. A. on Friday evening. On Friday night the report will be received. It is felt among the followers of the game that if a reconciliation is effected the game will have a much stronger hold in Montreal.

MARVELLOUS WEEK-END REDUCTIONS IN PRICES

TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW

TO-DAY our business hopes,—the ambitions of our store life which took shape many years ago are rounding out to realization—almost matured. We started out on original lines, adopting methods that were entirely new in these days, and many of which have preserved their character of originality up to this hour. This may not appear on the surface, but the fact remains that if you were to look into our mental power house you would see business machinery in operation of a cast so original as to be unknown—even to the greatest stores in the world. These original methods have stood the test of years, and the wisdom of their employment is appearing more and more each day in the splendid solid successes that are accumulating around the name of the John Murphy Company, Limited.

AND TO-MORROW! What about it—the to-morrow of our business lives? Well, the very conception and evolution of these unique methods have not brought our present day successes alone. New thoughts have generated more of their kind. Out of these thoughts have sprung still newer ideas, great ambitions. Vast possibilities are looming up on our commercial horizon and away in the unmeasured business field ahead we have, like the engineer at survey, planted a mental picket as a new objective point towards which we shall direct our already splendid avenues and channels of commerce. Behind it all, of course, is the Master thought, SERVICE.

THE COOLEST GLOVE FOR STREET WEAR

during the late summer and early fall months is the DOLLAR LEATHER CAPE GLOVE, of which the John Murphy Company, Limited, is the sole agent in Montreal. The creation of one of the best known English manufacturers, it is as finely designed and finished as the finest French kid glove, due entirely to a particular process used in tanning, which absolutely prevents the customary 'splotching' that has been the source of endless trouble to other manufacturers. So consistent is the shading of these leather gloves and so evenly are they finished, that we have had but very, very few occasions on which we were even asked to make good our GUARANTEE of their finish and wearing qualities. The DOLLAR LEATHER CAPE is cut on the broad pattern, thus permitting the glove to fit on as easily when first purchased as after it has been worn for weeks... The leather is properly seasoned throughout and guaranteed not to stretch as do other one-dome gloves. Remember, we have handled them in our store for three years now, selling thousands of pairs with a guarantee of satisfaction in every case. We should be delighted to have you call and see THE DOLLAR LEATHER CAPE GLOVE .. .. .. .. .. .. .. $1.00

AWAKENING OF SCIENCE

TO THE VALUE OF FRUIT

What is "FRUIT-A-TIVES"?

Medical men are just beginning to realize the possibilities of fruit in curing disease. Its action on the liver, kidneys and skin is wonderful. Yet fruit in its raw state is impracticable in treating disease because of the minute quantity of the active or curative principle contained in fruit juice.

A physician in Ottawa, after years of patient work, discovered a process, whereby the medicinal or bitter principle of fruit juice is increased in quantity and thus a more active and more valuable substance is obtained. 'Fruit-a-tives' is the only medicine in the world made of fruit.

Hundreds of prominent people in every section of the Dominion owe their good health to 'Fruit-a-tives.' Hundreds more are daily becoming stronger and better by taking them. 'Fruit-a-tives' is daily proving its inestimable value as a natural cure in all cases of Constipation, Biliousness, Torpid Liver, Backache and Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Kidney and Skin Troubles.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. Sold by all dealers, or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

WELCOMING THE LEGATE

Harbor Commissioners Will Construct Special Bridge for Landing.

Arrangements for the reception of His Eminence Cardinal Vannutelli, who is expected to reach this city on Sept. 7, in connection with the Eucharistic Congress, are practically completed.

The papal legate will be welcomed to Canada by Archbishop Bruchesi, at Father Point, where the distinguished party will proceed to the completion of their voyage at Quebec, afterward being the guests of Archbishop Begin. From Quebec they will proceed to Three Rivers, where they will be entertained by the ecclesiastical and municipal authorities, and a flotilla of hundreds of yachts will escort the Cardinal and his suite to Montreal, the foot of McGill street, where the Harbor Commissioners will have a special bridge constructed for the convenience of the illustrious visitors, being the place designated for the landing.

The sacerdotal ornaments for the Congress, costing in all nine thousand dollars, arrived at St. James's Cathedral yesterday. They comprised chasubles, copes and stoles in cloth of gold, studded with pearls and precious stones. The vestments are hand-embroidered with most delicate designs. Two of the ornaments, the cope and chasuble, will be used by the papal legate. In the centre of the chasuble is embroidered a superb medallion. The theme chosen is Mgr. the Archbishop of Montreal, consecrating Canada to the Sacred Heart. At the foot of the medal are the arms of the Church and the different provinces of Canada.

On Saturday, September 10th, a large party from St. Patrick's Church will leave Toronto by the steamer Turbinia to take part in the procession on the Sunday afternoon. Montreal will be reached early on Sunday morning, and mass will be celebrated on board the steamer. The procession of the Blessed Sacrament takes place at 2 o'clock on the Sunday afternoon, and having helped to swell the vast gathering of worshippers the party will return to Toronto by the 'Turbinia' about midnight the same evening.

Commander Comte and the directors of the Independants Ville Marie are devoting their energies to the recruiting of Zouaves for the procession of the Blessed Sacrament. About a hundred young men have already enlisted, but Commander Comte wishes to raise the number to three or four hundred. These Zouaves will act as advance and rear guards of the Blessed Sacrament. They will wear the picturesque uniform of the French Zouaves.

Mr. Pierre Boucher de Boucherville, who will represent the Archbishopric of the State of San Paulo, Brazil, arrived in Montreal yesterday, and is the first lay delegate to get here. Mr. Boucher is the son of the late Geo. B. de Boucherville, a former clerk of the Legislative Council, and he is the nephew of the Hon. Charles de Boucherville, senator and former prime minister of Quebec. It is thirty years since M. Pierre B. de Boucherville has visited Canada.

Archbishop Bruchesi has received a letter from the Archbishop of Wellington, New Zealand, announcing his intention of attending the congress.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Important Concordat Between National Bodies.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—The resolution unanimously adopted here yesterday establishing a concordat between the Knights Templar governing bodies, is said by Masons to be the most important step taken by the conclave for many years. The concordat establishes amicable relations between the Knights of England, Canada, Ireland, Scotland and the United States, and is an event which has been crystallizing for many years. Its consummation is said to be the chief object for which the Earl of Euston, grand master of England and Wales, visited the Thirty-first Triennial Conclave. All the Templars of the world are affiliated with the governing bodies of one or other of the nations, and to-day's legislation practically consolidates them into a whole. The election of officers for the conclave of 1913 will be taken up to-morrow morning. By established custom, elective officers all advance one step, leaving only the office of grand junior warden to be filled. For this place there are four active candidates: Frederick C. Thayer, of Waterville, Me.; J. W. Chamberlain, St. Paul; I. L. Register, New Jersey, and L. P. New, of Indiana.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Isidore Crepeau has sold to the estate of Andre Montrait lot 12-2-106, in Laurier ward, with buildings, fronting on Park avenue, for $20,000.

J. H. Redfern has sold to Donald W. Ross, jr., part of the undivided part of lot 220 and lots 220-61 and 62, in Westmount, with residence on Lansdowne avenue, for $7,000.

Patrick Ryan has sold to Henry Gatehouse the north-west part of lot 1130, St. Antoine cadastre, with buildings on Hanover street, for $1 and other considerations.

John Baile has sold to Bartlett McLennan part of lot 1729, St. Antoine cadastre, fronting on Simpson street, for $1, with other considerations.

J. H. Hand has sold to James Kerr the north-west part of the vacant lot 227-16-3, on Belmont avenue, Westmount, for $3,514.50.

Of Interest to Women.

The 'Witness' Fashion Hint.

PERSIAN BATHING CAP.

The Oriental touch has crept even into bathing costumes, and the maid who can swim wears a Persian cap which bobs gayly above the waves. One of the adjustable rubber caps is shown here, the rubber, inside, fitting snugly over the hair and the Persian bordered triangle of silk tying over this. Rubber cap and silk triangle are attached at the back, though the front corners of the silk kerchief are left free, so that they may be tightly knotted to keep the water out.

WOMEN'S WORK IN JAPAN.

From the work entitled 'Every Day Japan,' the following details have been selected, regarding the work of the women of that country:

A country woman in Japan is a very hard worker, sharing in the labors of the field as well as undertaking those duties which fall more especially within her own sphere, such as cooking, the care of children, sewing and household work. In almost every case in cities the woman supplements the labors of the man by some 'naishoku,' or home industry, which materially increases the family income. Teachers of music, singing, or dancing form an honored class by themselves. Western music, singing, and dancing are always taught at schools or special academies; it is only the Japanese branches of these arts that are taught at home. The music consists of instruction in playing the koto, samisen, kokyu, drum, and flute; the singing is the peculiar nasal performance so annoying to Western ears, and the dancing is the graceful posture-dancing which most Japanese girls learn as a finishing accomplishment. Quite a number of women, both in Tokio and Osaka, are employed by the shops as bill collectors, and are, as a rule, paid a commission on the amount they collect.

An expert hairdresser can add something to the family revenues by the practice of her art. Every Japanese woman, from the highest to the lowest, has her hair done for her by these itinerant artists, at least at certain intervals, and the hairdresser plays a really important part in woman's life. She is the purveyor of news from house to house; she becomes the confidante of both mother and daughter, both mistress and maid; and when a marriage is in contemplation, it is she who always knows where to look for a suitable partner for the young man or young woman of the house. It takes several years of apprenticeship before a woman can become an expert hairdresser, but when the knack has been acquired she can always reckon on a good and steady income.

Many women, again, are employed as 'ayoshio,' or itinerant merchants, carrying haberdashery and sweetmeats from house to house, and making a profit commensurate with their skill in puffing their wares.

There are many other domestic avocations too numerous to menton. Even the simple twisting of paper gives rise to two industries. Thus: Twisted paper is used for tying-up women's hair, and for this purpose it must be thin, strong, and black. Again, no present can be made without a piece of twisted paper string, partly gilt and partly white, and there are families in which the women folk do nothing else but make these strings. In the same way, the paper-folders are making the little colored paper 'noshi,' which are also the invariable accompaniments of presents. The Japanese 'geta,' or clogs, are fastened on to the foot by two thongs, which pass between the big toe and the second, and these also have to be made in private houses.

'The factory system' is not, Mr. Lloyd, the author, considers, 'for the good of the Japanese girl either morally or physically, but at any rate it is one of the means by which she can contribute a good deal to the support of the family.' Girls of respectable station and good education can now find employment in banks, insurance companies, railways, and telephone exchanges, as clerks, tellers, and copyists, and many young women are occupied in teaching sick nursing.

THE WEDDING GIFT ABUSED.

Speaking at a conference of ladies on domestic hygiene and social economy in Liverpool, Professor William R. Smith, principal of the Royal Institute of Public Health, had some caustic remarks to make on the practice of giving wedding presents.

Because wedding presents were o often much more lavish than the circumstances of donor or recipients rightly permitted, he said, the giving of them inclined to make young people imagine that they could slothfully start life where their presents left off. It was, therefore, 'immoral.'

Enlarging on the subject afterwards, Professor Smith was most emphatic and sweeping in his condemnation of the wedding gift custom.

'The weak and extravagant manner in which great numbers of wage-earners give golden teapots, heavy silver inkstands and plate and jewellery of all kinds to friends getting married surely justifies me in condemning the practice,' he is reported as saying.

'The general way in which wedding presents are given nowadays is unwisely sentimental. No doubt the donors mean kindly, but their generosity is greatly misplaced. The economic results on the recipients is that they strive to 'live up' to the magnificence of these gifts, but generally fail badly, and in any case their sense of values is upset. If wedding presents are given at all, the givers should take the greatest care that only serviceable and suitable gifts are made.'

SCENERY ON THE N. P. C.

The Northern Pacific Company have issued two books of information and colored views, which they will call 'Through Wonderland,' and 'On the Wings of the Wind,' concerning Yellowstone National Park. The books are splendidly got up, and are quite art treasures, and more than proposed travellers will wish to secure copies.

Both books are mines of interesting information of the beauties of the district, termed the 'Scenic Highway through the Land of Fortune,' to which the Northern Pacific provides through standard sleeping cars daily from Portland to Chicago. Amongst the vigorous and realistic descriptions of the unique scenery is one of Kipling's on the Upper Geyser Basin, written when he visited the Park. Mr. G. W. Hardisty, 286 St. James street, is the company's Montreal representative.

LAWN SOCIAL IN VERDUN.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather the Verdun Baptists still continue their preparations for the lawn social which they intend to hold at 'Shady Nook,' Lower Lachine road, to-night.

Mr. Hopps and his orchestra will supply music, and vocal selections will be contributed by friends. Candy, ice cream, and soft drinks will be on sale, and all that is needed for to make the entertainment a success is favorable treatment from the 'Clerk of the Weather.'

WHEN BABY'S LIFE IS MOST IN DANGER

Summer is the season when the mother finds it most difficult to keep her little ones well. The complaints that afflict the babies during the hot summer months come on so quickly and so unexpectedly that often it is too late before the mother realizes that her baby is anything but well. In summer the mother should make a special effort to keep baby's bowels regular and his little stomach sweet and pure, for this is the secret of successfully warding off those dangerous summer complaints. The mother will find a great friend in Baby's Own Tablets during the hot weather. These Tablets regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and thus ward off or cure cholera infantum, diarrhoea, colic, vomiting, etc. Mrs. Wm. Sinclair, Benaventure River, Que., writes: "I can highly recommend Baby's Own Tablets, as they have done my baby much good." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ARBITRATION FAILS

Board Reaches no Agreement in Toronto Street Railway Dispute.

Toronto, Aug. 11. — The board of conciliation dealing with the grievances of the Toronto Railway employees separated last night without having reached an agreement on the question in dispute, namely, the maximum wages and some questions of hours and routes. The men claimed that in many cases they were compelled to be from home from thirteen to as many as seventeen hours per day in order to put in the ten hours' run on their routes. The management say that it is advisable in the interests of the safety of passengers, as well as the financial interests of the company, that the experienced motormen and conductors be on the cars during the morning, noon and night rush hours. The board has done its very best to arrange terms which would be accepted by both parties, but in this it has failed, for the reason that Mr. Mularkey, for the company, and Mr. O'Donoghue, for the men, have each held out very strongly on such points, and an agreement is not likely. Some time to-day Judge Barron will likely make a statement on the matter, and may even be able to make a report, if only that of a minority. In the meantime both sides are quietly preparing for an emergency.

ON STRIKE ONE YEAR

Coal Miners at Springhill Celebrated Anniversary With Parade.

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 11.—Hundreds of red flags floated yesterday in the mining town of Springhill, where the striking U. M. W. miners were celebrating fifty-two weeks of idleness. The idle workmen formed a procession and marched through the principal streets in the business section to picnic grounds a mile from the town, where a great demonstration was held. There were many little children in the procession, and they all carried red flags. Fully a thousand men have been on strike in Springhill for a year and have been living on relief funds. Business in the town is at a standstill, and the civic finances are in a deplorable state. The soldiers are still guarding the loyal workmen and the output is daily increasing.

LOCKOUT ORDERED.

Shipowners in Germany May be Rendered Idle.

Kiel, Aug. 11.—The shipbuilding interests yesterday notified the managers of the Germania, the Howalds and the Kolbe shipyards, all in or near this city, to lock out their workmen on Saturday unless in the meantime the strikers in the yards of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company at Hamburg return to work.

Among the principal amendments will be the changing of the name of the 'Royal Architectural Institute of Canada' to the 'Royal Institute of Canadian Architects.'

Quick and Permanent Relief from Rheumatism

Rev. Father Morriscy

It is not exposure to cold or wet that is the real cause of rheumatism — it is bad kidneys. So long as the kidneys are doing their work properly, filtering from the blood all the Uric Acid formed there from the waste products of the body, rheumatism cannot exist. It is only when the kidneys fail, and the blood becomes loaded with this Uric Acid, that the slightest exposure stiffens up the joints or muscles and causes agony.

Father Morriscy's No. 7 Tablets

promptly relieve and permanently cure rheumatism by putting the kidneys into perfect shape for their work. Once the strengthened, invigorated kidneys get the Uric Acid cleared out of the blood the rheumatic pains disappear. If they ever show symptoms of returning a few No. 7 Tablets will tone the kidneys up again and keep you free from the dreaded rheumatism.

Father Morriscy's No. 7 Tablets have proved their value in hundreds of cases where other remedies have failed entirely.

DEATH OF MR. WM. DUCKETT.

The death occurred suddenly yesterday of Mr. William Duckett, who for many years was a familiar figure in the Grand Trunk Railway shops at Point St. Charles and at Port Huron, Mich. At the latter place he was for many years foreman of the erecting shop. Prior to going to Port Huron Mr. Duckett was connected with the Locomotive Department of the 'Point' shops.

Mr. Duckett has lived in retirement for the past ten years. He was 80 years of age, and for nearly twenty-six years had been a member of the Royal Arcanum, having joined the order in Port Huron, Mich., in 1885. Upon his return to Montreal in 1898 he identified himself with Wellington Council, 1455, where he seldom missed attending at least one of the two meetings held every month.

FOUR KILLED; MANY INJURED

At Meeting Called in Italy to Protest Against Food Prices.

TROOPS FIRED ON CROWD.

Militia Now Guards Town of Bari, As Further Trouble is Feared.

Rome, Aug. 11.—Four rioters were killed and more than a hundred wounded yesterday by being fired upon by troops at Bari, which is sixty-nine miles north-west of Brindisi. A meeting had been called to protest against the high price of food, and a great crowd assembled. Revolutionary speeches were made, and when the officers ordered the mob to disperse they savagely attacked the carbineers, who had been sent to preserve order. The troops fired twice, when the rioters scattered, leaving the dead and wounded behind. Strong reinforcements have been sent to the town, as further trouble is feared.

BRIBERY SCANDAL

Testimony in United States Lands Inquiry Implicates Many Congressmen.

McAlester, Okla., August 11.—'Lo, the poor Indian,' learned a few more things about the proposed sale of $30,000,000 worth of his land in the hearing before the Congressional Investigating Committee yesterday. Congressman C. D. Carter, of the Fourth Oklahoma district, testified that in an interview at the home of Richard C. Adams, an attorney, at Washington, Adams had said he had an arrangement by which he was to secure five percent of the 'profits' to be deprived from the McMurray contracts. 'He also told me,' testified Mr. Carter, 'that Congressman B. S. McGuire was in on the deal, and would get his share. He also told me that Dr. Wright, a delegate for the Choctaw Indians at Washington, with a salary of $6,000, was in on the deal. He also said: "We've got some others," but he did not mention other names. I also met Jale L. Hamon at Washington. He told me to go to that old man Gore, and get him to withdraw that bill of his against the McMurray contracts.'

STORM INJURES CROP.

Much Hail Fell in Leamington Fruit Belt.

Leamington, Ont., August 11.—A storm of hail, rain, wind and electricity swept over the fruit, vegetable and tobacco district of South Sussex, known as the Leamington fruit belt, yesterday afternoon. The rain was badly needed in this particular locality. The storm lasted several minutes, and the hail must have done great damage to the tobacco crop in this section, as the crop is now far advanced. The corn, vegetable and fruit crops will also suffer from the storm. Hailstones weighing from one-half to one ounce were picked up on the streets of Leamington.

DOG OWNERS WILL PROFIT.

Muzzling Order Will Give Canadian Breeders Free Hand at National Exhibition.

Local dog owners are going to have an especially good chance to carry away a lion's share of the prize money at the Canada's National Exhibition this year. The muzzling order that went into effect prohibiting the transportation of dogs that went into or out of the district of Western Ontario, of which Toronto is the centre, will prevent the exhibition of the blooded animals that travel around from one bench show to another, gathering in the most valuable prizes, but while this handicap may result in depriving the exhibition of a number of noted prize winners, it will not greatly decrease the number of exhibits, as their absence will only have the effect of encouraging local exhibitors to bring in their entries.

The result will in fact be a very gratifying one, both to exhibitors and the dog-loving public, as there will follow a much keener competition between Canadian breeders and owners, and the quality of the show will not be greatly, if any, depreciated. There is a sufficient quantity of good dogs in Western Ontario to make a creditable showing in any company, and the owners are showing a renewed interest in the Toronto show this year, as they feel that the absence of foreign competition will give them a fair chance which they did not feel that they got in former years.

The management is making every effort to encourage them, and has ordered a reduction in the entrance fee. Great interest is being manifested in the show, and it is likely that there will be 1,000 dogs on exhibition on the opening day.

Intending visitors should write at once to Manager J. O. Orr at the City Hall, Toronto, for entry blank, prize lists and all particulars.

LYNCHERS INDICTED.

Fifteen Arrests Through Death of Detective.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 11. — Fifteen members of the mob at Newark, Ohio, who participated in the riot which resulted in the lynching of Carl Etherington on July 8 were indicted yesterday by the grand jury.

BENEFITS LABOR.

Fort William, Ont., Aug. 11.—The amendment to the immigration law legalizing the bringing into Canada of farm and railway laborers under contract already is having its effect in New Ontario, and the wheat provinces. Hundreds of laborers who could not under the original act have come to the Dominion, and have joined Grand Trunk Pacific construction camps. Contractors say the new law is a boon to the West generally, and employment agents are raking in enormous commissions.

EXPECT TROUBLE

Bricklayers on Strike Claim Builders Violated Alien Labor Law.

Trouble is brewing in connection with the strike of bricklayers and stone masons now going on in the city. The strikers state that they have instances of violation of the Alien Labor Law on the part of the Builders' Exchange, and intend to invoke it aid to prevent the importation of workmen to replace strikers.

They also say that an agent of the Builders' Exchange has gone around Birmingham, England, crying up the Canadian metropolis, with the result that a number of bricklayers and masons have responded to the seeming golden proposition, and are sailing for the shores of the new world. Many, who have already landed in Canada, say the strikers, have not had the money qualification of $25. They were unaware of the fact that a strike was in progress in Montreal, and said they would not have left the Old Land had they known all. Many of them were members of the union in the Old Country.

The G. T. R. dropped seventy dollars for contravening the Alien Labor Law, and the Builers' Exchange may also, said a member of the strike committee to a 'Witness' reporter. 'There have been 100 non-union men placed on jobs in the city since the beginning of the week, and our pickets have won them all into the union.'

PLEASED BY CROPS.

Elbow, Sask., Aug. 11.—A number of agricultural editors yesterday spent a delightful morning in Moose Jaw. The programme included luncheon as guests of the city and a three-mile automobile drive through the surrounding wheat fields. The crops will be well up to the average, and the visitors were much impressed with its quality, considering the dry season. The party is now en route to Outlook, Sask.

SUNDAY HOUSE PAINTING.

Toronto Men Fined for Breaking Lord's Day Act.

Toronto, Aug. 10.—A number of cigar and fruit storekeepers, mostly foreigners, were fined in yesterday's Police Court for violating the Lord's Day Act. Three Jews, who are painters and decorators, were fined two dollars and costs for painting and papering their own houses on the Sabbath. They contended they could do this in their own houses, but the law does not permit them, hence the fines.

PROTEST AGAINST SOCIALISTS.

A petition addressed to the Mayor is being signed in the Parish of the Sacred Heart. The petitioners ask that the meetings which a certain number of socialists have been holding at the St. James market on Sundays, for some time past, be prohibited. They allege that those meetings are a mere pretence for distributing among the crowd printed matter in which the Pope, the Archbishop of Montreal and the priests are charged with a series of crimes, and add that they are a cause of disorders and trouble the peace of the Lord's Day. At the head of the signatures is that of the Rev. Canon Adam, pastor of the parish.

FOR EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

Among other events of the Eucharistic Congress which are being prepared with special care by the general committee will be two mass meetings, one for young men and the other for married men, to be held in the afternoon of Saturday, Sept. 10. The first of those meetings will be held at the Drill Hall and the other at the Monument National. Vardinal Vannutelli will address both gatherings.

The reception committee is making arrangements to have a flotilla of steam yachts and other small boats down as far as Pointe aux Trembles to meet the Lady Grey, which will bring the papal legate from Quebec to Montreal. His Eminence will disembark at the foot of McGill street, where a special landing platform will be prepared.

LORD LOVELAND DISCOVERS AMERICA

All rights reserved, including that of translation into foreign languages including the Scandinavian.

By C.N. and A.M. WILLIAMSON

SUMMARY OF THE PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

The adventures of the young Marquis of Loveland, spoiled darling of his mother and pet of society, begin at the family seat, Loveland Castle, in the North of Scotland. Here, on his mother's advice, to recuperate the fallen family fortunes he decides to visit the United States and marry an heiress. Convinced that Jim Harborough, the wealthy American, who married his cousin Betty, will be only too glad to supply the need, Loveland asks for letters of introduction. Harborough, with plans to reform Lord Loveland, agrees in apparent good faith, and further persuades Loveland to travel on the 'Mauretania' instead of on the vessel in which his passage had been engaged. He agrees, taking the cabin engaged for a friend of Harborough's, who was unable to leave at the last minute. On board are Major Cadwallader-Hunter, a notorious gossip, whom Loveland cold-shoulders, Elinor Coolidge and Fanny Milton whom he 'considers' and Lesley Dearmer, who attracts him greatly but who is evidently not wealthy. Arriving at New York, his prudence conquers, and he merely says good-bye to Lesley with a very real pain, and going to the Waldorf Astoria establishes himself in a suite of rooms. His own valet, Foxham, having deserted him before sailing, he engages one at the hotel, but the opening of his trunks shows that Foxham has not only deserted but robbed him, substituting for Loveland's clothes the valet's own discarded apparel. It is at the moment of this discovery that Major Cadwallader-Hunter calls with a reporter from 'New York Light.' They are treated to a spicy taste of the Loveland temper, the rudeness of which Loveland after regrets, but is too proud to acknowledge. His first attempt at bettering matters is to visit the bank with his letter of credit, but he is coolly told they have no instructions to pay. This insult is followed by his being cut at the hotel by several of his fellow passengers on the 'Mauretania,' and the intimation from the hotel authorities that his departure and the payment of his bill are desired. Unable to pay, his baggage is held, but he is forced to leave. He passes through the hall blind with rage, not even seeing Cadwallader-Hunter, Mrs. Milton and Fanny, and others of the 'Mauretania' passengers who were there. Through the cold of the winter streets, dressed in his evening attire and without money, he seeks in vain for a hotel that will take him in, or an acquaintance who will give him even a hearing. His puzzled, miserable search has been closely followed by Mr. Milton, who at last catches up and suggests a way out of Loveland's money difficulties. The proposal is that Loveland shall be paid, cash down, a thousand dollars, for assisting Milton to secure a case against his wife. Loveland's disgusted blow in answer lays the man flat on his back, and leaving Milton to pick himself up, he goes to think matters over in the quiet of Central Park. Here he saves a little dog from being run over by a motor and finds himself glad of the friendly talk of its shabby owner. So hungry is he and so lonely that he does not demur even when Bill Willing, his new acquaintance, undertakes to pilot him to food and lodging. The food he gets in the Bread Line and the lodging at the Bat Hotel in the Bowery, and in the morning is introduced to the restaurant where Bill earns a living making advertising cards and to Isadora, the handsome daughter of the Jewish owner. Humbled by his misfortunes, Loveland accepts Isadora's advice, and by her help secures one of his own street suits, and cables his mother for money. No answer coming, Loveland, in desperation, goes to work as a waiter in the restaurant.

CHAPTER XXII.—Continued.

'But this is something really very special,' Aunt Barbara apologized. 'It's quite exciting. Only fancy having known him! I almost wish you'd pointed him out to me that last morning on board, when I was up on deck. It would be interesting to remember what he was like.'

'Is there something about him him in the paper?' asked Lesley, who had been expecting news, but would have preferred to read it herself, if she could have chosen.

'I should think there was!' exclaimed her aunt, screened behind the great printed sheets again.

'Is he engaged already?' Lesley inquired, making a sketch of Lord Loveland's profile in the midst of a speech of Dick's, though Dick was a very different sort of young man from Loveland, a very different sort indeed. How many times she had caught herself tracing the outline of those features—so clear, so straight, so perfect an outline, that it was easy to draw as to copy a Greek statue. She knew every line, and often the little profile-portrait was there before her eyes on the paper before she knew what she had been doing. She was almost perfectly certain what Aunt Barbara's answer to her question would be. Of course he was engaged. He had hardly had time to make the acquaintance of any girls in Ney York, and propose marriage, so it must be Elinor Coolidge—or Fanny Milton.

'Engaged!' echoed the elder. 'No, indeed. What a mercy he's been found out before some nice girl was mixed up in the scandal. Of course he wanted——'

'A scandal!' Now at last Lesley did lift her head, quickly, and the last profile-sketch looked as if it had been struck by lightning.

'Shocking,' answered Mrs. Loveland. 'What a dreadful thing that our country should be looked upon as a sort of gold mine by these foreign birds of prey.'

Lesley's little ears burned pink as if her aunt had boxed them. Her eyes sent out a spark, but its fire was quenched in a sudden trickle of nervous laughter. 'Dear Aunt Barb! Would "birds of prey" make successful miners?'

Aunt Barbara laughed, too. 'You're always catching me up for my similes,' she said. 'But luckily I don't write stories, so it doesn't matter. And anyway that's what they are: birds of prey. As for what they do, they marry our girls, who find them out too late, and then try to get divorces. What can escape for some poor little heiress, that this creature is hoist with his own petard in the very midst of baiting his wicked trap! You needn't look at me like that, child. I don't care how mixed up I am. Did this man look like a gentleman?'

'Yes,' said Lesley. 'Naturally, because he is a gentleman.'

'My dear! he must have been clever to hoodwink an observant little thing like you, who can see right down into men's hearts, even when you hardly seem to be noticing how they do their hair, or the color of their necktties. This man is nothing but his own valet.'

'So am I my own maid,' said Lesley. 'He never said he was rich, or——'

'I mean he isn't a Marquis.'

The soft outline of the girl's figure stiffened, and she sat up very straight on the sofa.

'Who says he isn't a Marquis?' she asked sharply.

'Everybody. The newspaper.'

'Oh—the newspaper!'

'But it's true. He's been turned out of his hotel. I'll read you the——'

'Please, I think I'll read it myself, if you don't mind, dear,' said Lesley. 'That is—when you've finished, I can wait.'

'I have finished, all I care about reading,' Mrs. Loveland hastened to assure her, for she invariably discovered that she had ceased to want anything which Lesley could even be suspected of wishing for.

'Take the paper, dear. Don't get up. I'll bring it to you.'

But Lesley did get up, and stood with her back as she read the Louisville version of Tony Kidd's sensational story. She took a long time to read it, and when she had come to the end, she laid the paper on her aunt's lap without saying a word.

'Well—has it struck you dumb?' exclaimed Mrs. Loveland, disappointed for if she spoiled Lesley with petting, Lesley spoiled her with responsiveness.

'I am rather horrified,' said the girl.

'No wonder. You actually knew him—or thought you did.'

'I think so still.'

'Why—did you suspect at all?'

'Nothing that I don't suspect now. Poor fellow!'

'"Poor!" Dearest, that's carrying soft-heartedness too far. Think—if he'd married some girl.

'I have often thought of it.

'What must Mrs. Milton and Fanny be feeling?' went on Mrs. Loveland. 'Friends on the ship—now he knocks down the husband and father in the street, because——'

'Ah, yes, because of what?' echoed Lesley.

'Mr. Milton says——'

'I read what he said. But his photograph is in the paper.'

'What has that got to do with it?'

'Nothing, unless one's interested in physiognomy,' said Mrs. Loveland.

'I don't know anything about physiognomy,' said Mrs. Loveland, gently.

'Neither do I,' said Lesley, except what I was born knowing.'

'Well, dear, I don't think I'd talk to any of our friends about having met this dreadful impostor,' Aunt Barbara suggested, gently. 'People might fancy, if you did, that there'd been—oh, some little shipboard flirtation, perhaps, nothing serious, of course, but——'

'So they might,' admitted the girl. 'I didn't think of the time, myself, that it was anything serious.'

'I should hope not!' breathed Aunt Barbara. 'A valet!'

'Marquis or valet?' murmured Lesley, with a quaint little smile. 'It sounds like the title of an old-fashioned story.'

'For goodness' sake don't use it,' begged her aunt. 'The material isn't worthy of you.'

'Oh, my stories are always new-fashioned,' said Lesley. 'You know, the critics reproach me for running ahead of the times in my ideas.'

'You certainly are rather unexpected,' replied Mrs. Loveland. 'Sometime I almost wish you were a tiny—just a tiny bit more conventional.'

'You wished it when I said "poor fellow."'

'Oh, but you didn't really mean that.'

'I did,' persisted Lesley. 'I should be disappointed in myself if I thought I could fail to recognize a valet when I saw one. And I hate being disappointed—in any one.'

'It must be disappointing to an author—one who has to be a student of character,' assented Aunt Barbara, soothingly.

'Even when she's forgotten all about that part of herself for awhile, owing to—interruptions.'

The dovelike little lady looked hurt. 'Oh, my dear, I do beg your pardon!' she cried. 'Of course I know, at this time of day—I'm only in the library on sufferance.'

'I don't mean you, Auntie,' said Lesley, kissing her.

'Not me? Who then——'

'But I really ought to write.'

'I do hope I haven't taken your inspiration away, dearest.'

'No. You've given me one.'

'I'm so glad. Well, I'll run away now. I've lots of things to see to. Forget all about the Marquis of Loveland—I mean the valet. Put him out of your mind.'

'Don't worry, Auntie. It's quite easy to put a valet out of a tidy, well-regulated little mind like mine.'

'Think of Dick,' said Mrs. Loveland. 'He's going to be a splendid fellow.'

'Dick's a paper doll,' said Lesley.

Perhaps it was because she was not in a mood to play dolls that, when Aunt Barbara was gone, Lesley did not go back to her sofa and her story writing. She picked up the paper which Mrs. Loveland had left lying on the table, but she did not read. She merely looked at Mr. Milton's photograph. Then she went to the desk where she kept papers, and took a cheque-book from a drawer.

'No, that won't do,' she said to herself, after thinking for a minute. She put the cheque-book back in its place, and opened another drawer, not locked, for neither drawers nor cupboards nor hearts were ever locked in this old-fashioned Kentucky house.

The second drawer was full of greenbacks. Perhaps it was a kind of savings bank for the young author; but, poor or rich, authors are proverbially easy about parting with their earnings, and Southern-born Lesley was no exception to the rule.

She counted out a number of bills—(more than half)—folded them up in a blank sheet of paper, torn off the writing pad, that there might be no address upon it, and pressed the flattened parcel into a large, stout envelope. This she sealed with blue sealing wax, and after a moment or two of puzzled reflection, began to print, in big black letters:

'The Marquis of Loveland,
'Waldorf-Astoria Hotel,
'New York.

'To be sent immediately to present address.'

CHILDREN'S CORNER.

AN OLD BAPTISMAL FONT.

In the old baptistery at Florence—the baptistery with the wonderful bronze doors which Michel-Angelo called 'so beautiful that they were worthy to be the gates of paradise'—most of the babies of Florence have been baptized for many hundred years.

At almost any hour of any day one will find baptismal parties waiting before the font, with babies of every rank of life, from the princely heir of a great house, nearly smothered in costly laces and attended by a small army of friends and relatives, to the little creature decked out in gaudy cotton and held in the arms of a solitary old peasant woman.

No register of baptisms was kept in the very early days. The first record was made in this wise: a certain priest took it into his head to keep account of the number of children he baptized. Accordingly, he put a white bean into a box for every boy and a black bean for every girl.

Later on records were carefully kept, and if one could look them over it would be a fascinating study, for probably the greater part of the painters, scholars, poets and soldiers who have made Florence famous received their names at the font of 'my dear little Saint John'—as Dante called it.—'Youth's Companion.'

HARD WORK.

When little Jennie, who was not quite five years old, went to visit school one day for the first time, she was as gay as a lark. But when school was over and she returned to her home, she had a tired look upon her face. When she was asked how she liked school, she said, 'I did not like it.'

'Why not?' was the next question they asked her.

'Oh, I had to work awful hard,' answered the little girl. 'I had to keep still like everything.'—Selected.

WHAT SAITH THE SCRIPTURE?
August 11.
That through death He might destroy him that had the power of death.
Our Saviour Jesus Christ . . . hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.—He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it.—When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.—Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

KNOWLTON CONFERENCE

Interesting Lecture Delivered Before Christian Workers.

'CONSTRUCTION OF BIBLE.'

Prof. Bieler Starts Course of Study on Books of the Bible.

(Special Correspondence.)

Knowlton, Que., Aug. 11.—The last week of the Conference began on Monday. The day was given up to recreation by those remaining in residence, and to reception of the new lecturers and students. The weather was fine, and there were several picnics of a very enjoyable nature on the lake. The present, the 'Christian Workers' Week,' promises to be an exceptionally interesting one. It is hoped that many who were not able to be present at the beginning of the week may be able to attend later, if it be only for a day or two, especially for the illustrated lectures to be given in addition to the day's programme to-day and Saturday evenings, at 7.30 by Mrs. Bieler, who will on Thursday speak on 'Christian Work in France,' and on Saturday on 'Christ and Early Christianity as portrayed by the Great Artists.' The daily lectures by Prof. G. D. Kuhring and Prof. Bieler will be on the 'Construction of the Bible,' and the 'Prophetical Books,' especially 'The Book of Job.' On Friday evening Prof. Bieler lectures on 'The Temple of Jerusalem' and 'Ezekiel, the Prophet.' On Tuesday morning Prof. Bieler began the course with his first lecture on the 'Construction of the Bible.' The Jews divided the Old Testament into three parts:

(1) Thorah, the Books of Moses.

(2) The Prophets (a) historical, (b) prophetical.

(3) The Hagiographies, or sacred writings, among which was the 'Book of Daniel,' which was not numbered at first among the prophetical books of the greater prophets, such as Isaiah and Jeremiah, and the minor prophets as Jonah, Obadiah and Malachi. The different books were regarded as of vastly varying degrees of value, and were read at particular seasons of the year, or Church. 'The Song of Solomon,' Ecclesiastics,' 'Ruth,' 'Lamentations,' and the 'Book of Esther,' were considered as of much less value than the other thirty-nine books of the Old Testament.

The 'Song of Solomon' was read to commemorate the going out of Israel from Egypt, corresponding to our season of Lent. Ruth during the season corresponding to Pentecost. 'Lamentations' was read to commemorate the destruction of Jerusalem; 'Ecclesiastes,' at the Feast of Tabernacles; 'Esther,' at the feast of Purim. The whole collection of the sacred books had been called 'The Book,' or 'The Books,' from the Greek 'Ta Biblia.'

The term Testament, as applied to both the pre-Christian and Christian Scriptures, though derived directly from the Latin 'Testamentum,' derived its origin primarily from the Greek 'diathoke,' which might mean either a bequest or a covenant. The latter was perhaps a happier term, as God is not dead, but living. We had New Testament manuscripts as early as the fourth century after Christ, but none of the Old Testament earlier than the ninth century of the Christian era, owing to the rabbis of that time having destroyed all the older manuscripts which did not agree with the text they had adopted. Manuscripts of ancient times written upon rolls did not contain the whole Bible, nor even whole books, if the books were lengthy. Often two rolls were used, as in Kings and Chronicles, this being the reason for the division of these books, and of Samuel into first and second. The Bible might be considered as resembling a great building, as a cathedral, for instance, which showed indeed the work of some superintending architect, indicating a unity of plan, but gave evidence too of the work of particular builders at different periods, thus manifesting diversity of execution. The Old and New Testaments might be considered as constituting a monument erected to perpetuate the memory of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

CONFUSION SOMETIMES CAUSED.

In the Old Testament He was spoken of as of One who was coming, as, for instance, in Psalm 40-7, 'Then said I, Lo! I come.' In the volume of the book it is written of 'Me.' Again, 'Behold your King will come with vengeance.' The Lord cometh with ten thousand of His saints.' The Gentiles shall come to His light, and Kings to the brightness of His rising.' Malachi 3-1, 'The Lord whom ye seek will suddenly come.' But in the New Testament in the earlier parts of it He is spoken of as of one who 'has come,' and in the latter portion as of 'one who will come.' Again, viz., Matt. 3, 'This is He that was spoken of through Isaiah,' Mark 1-14. 'Jesus came into Galilee, saying 'the time is fulfilled' and the kingdom of heaven is at hand,' Luke 2-51, and 'He went down with them and came to Nazareth,' John 1-11. 'He came unto His own,' 14, 'and the Word became flesh.' 29, 'Behold the Lamb of God,' 49. 'Thou are the Son of God,' Acts 1-11. This Jesus shall so come in like manner as ye beheld Him going,' John 14-3. 'I will come again, Heb. 10-37. 'Yet a little while and He that shall come will come,' Rev. 3-11. 'Behold I come quickly,' 22-17. The spirit and the bride say come,' 22-20, 'Come Lord Jesus.

The books of the Old Testament in their arrangement cause confusion in the minds of those who do not ascertain their dates, as many of them overlap in chronological order, for instance, the collection of the Psalms was not closed when Malachi wrote. Lower criticism has to do with the text, higher criticism with the subject matter and doctrine of the Bible.

Prof. Bieler was followed by Prof. Kuhring in his lecture on the 'Book of Job.' He said he thoroughly believed that Job was a real man and not a myth. His name was given, his possessions were enumerated, the number of his children given, the place in which he lived mentioned, his position and character indicated. Moreover, in Ezekiel xiv. 14 the prophet, speaking as if God Himself had declared it unto him, says 'though these three men, Noah, Daniel and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls.' A truth may be taught by a parable, but it is contrary to the nature of a parable and inconsistent with truth to speak of fictitious characters along with those who had a real existence. A man in trouble is not likely to appeal to a mere ideal. An ideal is of no use unless it has a basis of fact. Every true ideal has its beginning in Christ, for the head of creation is man, and the head of man is Christ. Among the things we learn from the Book of Job are (1) that the possession of wealth is not inconsistent with a high degree of spirituality. (2) That God allows His strong servants to be tempted, while often warding off temptation from the weak. (3) That Satan has power to bring disease upon people, and this often accounts for diseases the cause of which doctors are not able to discover. Prof. Kuhring said he did not teach children that nothing was to be feared during darkness, but that though malign influences abounded, though the Prince of the Air was strong, yet that God's good spirits were stronger, and we and they, through Him, could overcome the evil one. (4) That Satan could enter into the presence of God and His angels, but only as an accuser, and not as one who was there as His right. Satan in this instance wished to challenge God. He knew he had those upon whom He could depend in heaven, as, for instance, the Archangel Michael and other angels. But he wished to show God that on earth He had no one upon whom He could depend. Hence his request to try the faith of Job. Dr. Kuhring thought that the perusal of the Book of Job would be specially beneficial to those who in a state of despondency meditated suicide. Men generally resorted to suicide because they thought their troubles peculiar to themselves. If they could be shown that others had suffered in like manner and having endured had come out victors, they would be encouraged to do the same. But only to those whom God Himself calls out of this world is the next world a refuge where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.' 'Blessed only are the dead who die in the Lord,' even as 'saith the spirit, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.' But they who leave this world of their own volition without waiting for the call of God have no sure hope of this rest, and deliverance from their enemies. If there be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, surely there is also joy when one who has bravely endured has obtained the victory. For this earth is the testing place. In heaven we walk by sight, but here only by faith. Dr. Kuhring said he thought we were on the eve of making stupendous discoveries in the spiritual world that we would soon discover the power of evil spirits and the nature of their warfare upon mankind and with the angels of God in a way that would startle humanity.

CIVIC INVESTIGATION.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—Mayor Geary and the Board of Control have decided on an investigation immediately, before the county judge, of the city works department. There is no formal charge, but general complaints of bungling and inefficiency.

Fourteen head of cattle took to the water yesterday afternoon near Ogilvie's mills. Their route lay across the narrow bridge at Windmill Point. A portion of the embankment gave way and into the sluice way they went. Some were carried down into the river, the other were rescued from the hole. All were recovered.

MONTREAL'S BISLEY

ENTRIES ARE LOW.

Five More Prizes Than Men in One Competition Yesterday.

('Witness' Staff Correspondence.)

Pointe aux Trembles, Aug. 11.—There was joy in the camp this morning when on the sounding of reveille the men looked out of their tents to find the rain had ceased and the wind dropped away to a negligible quality. The liberal prize list and the reduced number of men here, there being only 168 as compared with about 205 last year, is having a very gratifying effect on the pockets of the green and tyro competitors, most of whom are certain to get some of their expenses back. Yesterday, for instance, in the Green competition, there were five more prizes than men, and a score of eleven out of a possible fifty was successful.

Some confusion has been caused by the statement that Sergt. Sharpe is the Bisley man; this is not the case. George Sharpe of Bisley fame, is not on the range; it is his namesake, Sergeant J. W. Sharpe, of the 5th Royal Highlanders, who scored the only 'possible' in the Merchants match yesterday. This was at five hundred yards. When he got back to six hundred, however, he dropped away five points, and finished third, to the consistent shooting of Pte. Cairns, of the 3rd V. R. C., who dropped one point at each distance.

TYRO MATCH.

In addition to those reported yesterday the following won two dollars each: Gr. J. L. Sharpe, 2nd C. A., 39; Sergt. James Antle, 4th F. C. E., 39; Sergt. F. Hogge, 1st P. W. F., 39; Corp. C. ## TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The moulding shops of the Western Iron Works, Winnipeg, Man., were destroyed by an early-morning fire today. The loss will be $20,000; partly insured.

The man arrested at North Sydney, on suspicion of being Restille, a murderer wanted in Quincy, Mass., claims he is E. Weiss, of Richmond, Indiana. He is still held in North Sydney jail.

By the blowing out of a fuse on a Toronto car six people were injured. When the fuse blew out the car was filled with smoke, and the people, being alarmed, jumped out and this caused the injuries.

The will of Mrs. Ann Tooth, Toronto, leave twelve hundred dollars to the Watch Tower and Bible Society of Brooklyn, N.Y. The remainder of the estate, about $4,500, goes to relatives.

Sydney, N.S., has the air-ship fever. Hundreds lined the esplanade along the water front to watch the passage over Westmount of what was either an aeroplane or a balloon. The object flew over at a high speed and a great height, but appeared to be descending when it passed out of sight.

Five hundred Hamilton, Ont., newsboys went on strike yesterday, after their demand for two papers for one cent had been refused. The boys gathered around the newspaper offices, and those who refused to strike were subjected to a hissing and hooting, while some were punched by the strikers. The police were called to the corner of King and James streets, and a lad named Little was arrested, after he had knocked another boy down, and thrown his papers in the mud.

COAL PRICES ADVANCE.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 11.—The local coal merchants have increased the price of coal from $6.50 to $6.75 per ton cash to $7 per ton when charged. Increased demand is given as the reason. The raise went into effect to-day.

THE GOOD OLD COACHING DAYS!

The Next in the "Witness" Series of Masterpieces of the World's Art

The success of the distribution of art treasures by the "Witness" was phenomenal. Two famous pictures, "The Doctor" and the "Horse Fair", are now hanging in thousands of Canadian homes, as a result. The third of the series, different as it is in theme and treatment, is worthy of its place among the pictures that one prizes in den, dining-room or hall. The publishers expect a heavy run on "The Last Change," which breathes the spirit of life in the old land at a time when travel was more picturesque as well as more leisurely than it is to-day. The "Last Change" Coupons are appearing in the "Witness" every day this week. They are numbered and must be consecutive.

"The Last Change."

The coupons for the picture, the interest and beauty of which the above newspaper cut gives but a rough idea, are appearing in the "Witness" daily this week.

"THE LAST CHANGE"

There is nothing more exciting in sports than the quick changes of the coaching trip. Try as they will, modern days cannot kill coaching. It is as popular now as a pastime as it formerly was as a mode of travel. There is that about the sport that keeps the blood stirring, and the same quality is part of the real coaching picture. To tell the story of the excitement, to get all the action of the reality into a picture is a task for a master. In "The Last Change" Heywood Hardy has accomplished it. Blood cannot but course faster when the eyes convey the message of this masterly work.

Heywood Hardy was born in England. He is ranked high as a genre painter and exhibits at the Royal Academy and at the Grosvenor Gallery. Among his works are "Little Sisters," "The Sleeping Beauty," "Lion in Love," "The New Arrival," "The Rear Guard," "Sale of Cavalry Horses" and "Trespassers."

If you are not a regular subscriber, leave your order with your newsdealer. Six coupons, with ten cents merely to cover cost of handling. If picture is to be sent by post add five cents for mailing.
