Cantabile.

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of four systems of piano accompaniment and one system of vocal melody with lyrics. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and a more melodic treble line with various ornaments and dynamics. The vocal line is simple and lyrical, with two verses. The first system of piano accompaniment is marked Cantabile. The second system includes a p (piano) dynamic marking. The third system includes a 7 (seventh) chord marking. The fourth system includes a 7 (seventh) chord marking. The vocal line is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The lyrics are: (I.) Some one to love in this wide world of sor - - row, (II.) Some one to love whose af - fec - tion will cher - ish, The

This image shows a blank page from an old ledger or account book. The page is cream-colored and features a faint, light red grid pattern. The grid consists of several columns and rows, typical of a ledger layout. There are several small, dark brown spots scattered across the page, likely due to age or handling. The page is otherwise empty of any text or markings.
