

Number, volume transfers down

In both number and volume, Westmount's real estate transfers for May were down from last month and from the same month last year.

Sale prices compared with city valuations, however, were better than in April.

There were 24 transfers but five declarations—transfers from deceased persons to their estates—and three sales for "$1 and other considerations" brought the number of sales with actual prices to 16 compared with 27 in April and 31 in May of last year.

The 16 sales in May totaled $748,675 and represented a present city valuation of $493,240 and a proposed city valuation of $700,930. Thus the markup, the excess of sales over valuation, was 34.1 percent and 6.4 percent for present and proposed valuation, respectively.

The three sales for "$1 and other considerations" were for property worth $123,160 by present city valuation with a proposed valuation of $159,170. These brought the total present valuation transferred to $616,400 or $860,100 by proposed valuation.

April sales were heavy but sale prices were 10.9 percent below the proposed city valuation. In May of last year, real estate transfers were over $2 million. This May's transfers fall approximately $1.3 million behind this mark. Last May, two large sales—an apartment house and a large, upper-level dwelling, accounted for $771,000 of the $2-million total.

The largest sale in May this year was $115,000 for 615 Clarke avenue from the estate of Charles Gurd to Denis Stairs. The smallest transfer was for $20,000 from Mrs. John Irvine to James D. Moore for 11 St. George's place.

Details of the May transfers, excluding declarations, are as follows:

44 Windsor: from Peter Henry to Maurice Bradley, sale price $23,500 (present city valuation, $14,000; proposed, $25,600);

570 Claremont: from Mrs. Peter Williams to Mrs. Jermain Kremer, $35,000 ($24,350; $37,550);

5 Hudson: from Mrs. Thomas Gillespie to Mrs. John S. Lane, $1 & cons. ($30,550; $42,750);

21 Staynor: from Pontiac Finance Corp. to Henry Bross, $41,800 ($21,500; $40,400);

598 Cote St. Antoine: from Derek J. West to Mrs. Robert Maude, $35,000 ($25,700; $33,600);

17 Willow: from Alfred Smibert to National Trust Co. $1 & cons. ($27,850; $41,750);

333 Elm: from Jean Nolin to Thomas Kierans, $36,500, ($17,650; $36,000);

89 Holton: from Mrs. Philip Goodfellow to Jack R. Fontaine, $38,000 ($20,200; $33,400);

3714 The Boulevard: from Laurence Galletti to Thomas J. McCaughey, $52,000 ($40,700; $59,950);

11 St. George's: from Mrs. John Irvine to James D. Moore, $20,000 ($16,300; $23,600);

76 Sunnyside: from Albert Fairley jr. to Mrs. Gordon Eberts, $1 & cons. ($64,750; $74,650);

694 Grosvenor: from Edward Piper to Mrs. Robert Landori-Hoffman, $45,000 ($35,600; $48,800);

20 Anwoth: from Mrs. Charles Sturdee to Montreal Trust Co., $44,875 ($27,700; $40,800);

615 Clarke: from Est. Charles Gurd to Denis Stairs, $115,000 ($71,150; $82,850);

359 Redfern: from Ian F. Hellyer to Charles Greenshields, $56,000 ($41,150; $58,000);

Not so secret

A woman shopping in the Miracle Mart and Steinbergs at the Alexis Nihon Plaza had her wallet taken from her shopping car last Friday between 4 and 5 pm. It contained $30 in cash plus another $25 in a "secret compartment."

Paint job

Paint dripping from the building above is blamed for the owner of a car finding the roof of the car splattered with the stuff last Wednesday morning at the rear of 3040 Sherbrooke street.

NEXT WEEK'S WEATHER

By ERIC NEAL

June 26 to July 4

Although mainly sunny and sizzling hot, disconcerting conditions often develop at this time. Cloudburst type thunderstorms for many places, with 1 to 2" of rain and some hail. It is also a non-volcanic earthquake season, even Quebec district had one the corresponding week in 1967.

This is opening week for our hurricane season, but the first usually stays in the Mexican Gulf, although in 1966 Arlene travelled from Cape Hatteras to Bermuda.

Clearing to give us hot, sunny days into middle of next week.

Cops 'maced'

nipped

A million-dollar international counterfeit-passing operation probably has been scotched in Westmount.

Westmount police and detective work is getting the credit, as well as a good deal of professional kidding for half a dozen members of the local force who, in cracking the case, had the embarrassment of being on the receiving end of temporarily paralysing mace—the liquid more ordinarily sprayed by some lawmen on unruly people—right in their own Stanton street headquarters.

It began last Wednesday (as reported on our front page last week) when Westmount Motorcycle Constable Richard Collon nabbed the second of two men who had passed three lots of $300 each in counterfeit U.S. $20 bills at three Sherbrooke-Victoria banks.

Held without bail

Two Toronto men, Nicholas McCormick, 46, and James Orval Ross, 47, were arraigned in Court of Sessions Monday and held without bail on counterfeit charges.

Following the Wednesday morning arrests, local detectives staked out a 1969 Chevrolet on Grosvenor avenue bearing Ontario license plates in which more counterfeit had been found, without result.

However, that evening police curiosity was aroused by a Cadillac bearing Pennsylvania markers which twice proceeded up Grosvenor.

Its driver closely matched the description of a man they were seeking. When stopped, he protested that his name was Keller. But addresses on some of his papers did not match. At his own suggestion he was taken to headquarters to clear the matter up. He was obliging and cooperative.

However, as he was being led upstairs from the police garage, inside the station, he suddenly whipped out an aerosol can and began spraying. Almost instantly half a dozen officers, including two detectives and an RCMP man, were virtually paralysed, temporarily.

Some held on to the man and the desk sergeant, Ed Plover, hearing the commotion leaped onto the scene. A karate expert, Sgt. Plover felled the man with a sharp chop.

Identity uncertain

"Keller" proved to be Ronald McCaud, also of Toronto—the man the police suspected him of being, whose RCMP "wanted" picture had left some doubt as to his identity in the first place and whose plausible behavior when first stopped had stayed his immediate arrest and search. McCaud also was arraigned retires as Rotary president

Andy Dorso takes over

The exclusive "Rocking Chair Club" dedicated to the "ancient and honorable" members of the exclusive past presidents' circle of the Westmount Rotary Club has a new member in the person of Curtis B. Ross, who was inducted Tuesday to the plaudits of the assembled members.

It was the occasion of the president presenting his annual report and then retiring gracefully to the comfort of a rocking chair and shawl was presented by Frank Kenwood. Past President Dan McLuskie presented the retiring official with the coveted past presidents' pin.

Andy Durso was installed as the new president.

In his annual report the retiring president complimented the chairmen of the many committees who had worked hard during the past year to make Rotary a success in Westmount. He mentioned members by name with particular emphasis going to the work done by Jack Burrows, Frank Starr, Ron Everson, Andy Durso and Dan McLuskie.

Eight new members had been signed up during the year, he reported. The committee work done by the community service, welfare, safety and Golden Age groups were specially mentioned.

Mother wins

The mother of John Kellett, vice-president of the Westmount Young Progressive Conservatives, was elected as a Conservative in a Lancashire riding in last week's British general elections.

St. Paul's break

Sometime last weekend, thieves broke into St. Paul's Academy and after disturbing papers and files, left without apparently taking anything.

Sod-turning

A sod-turning for the start of the general uplift of Stayner Park takes place at the park this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

For speeding?

It probably was a pet, out on a St. Jean Baptiste holiday journey, but Westmount Police nevertheless picked up a turtle on Lansdowne avenue Wednesday morning.

Monday on a charge of possession of counterfeit U.S. $20 notes. Additionally, he faces a charge in Westmount Municipal Court of resisting arrest.

McCaud was first known to Westmount Police about 10 years ago in connection with a fraud on The Royal Bank of Canada branch at Victoria and Sherbrooke, one of the three banks to which the counterfeit bills were passed last week.

The six officers were taken to the Montreal General Hospital for a check and all returned promptly to duty, including one who had a large bump on his forehead where the mace can—the same type issued to police but stripped of its identifying label—had struck him.

One of the Westmount policemen was PSO. George Pike, Quebec heavyweight boxing champion who is just off to Calgary for Canadian team trials prior to the British Commonwealth Games in Edinburgh.

Credit cards not gloves

The folly of leaving credit cards in one's glove compartment was shown twice this week to Westmount Police.

Nothing was noticed to be amiss from last Thursday to Saturday but when one car owner went to use the credit cards in his glove compartment, he discovered they were missing.

Credit cards were also stolen from a car kept in a garage at the rear of 3166 The Boulevard and they too were not missed until the driver stopped for gas on Friday.

Brotherhood holds rites at Temple

Sabbath services during summer weeks at Temple Emanu-El are being held under the auspices of the Temple Brotherhood on Friday evenings at 8:15 o'clock. Tomorrow the worship will be conducted by Lawrence Marks, QC, Lawrence Bessner, Arthur I. Lipton, David Polansky, William Hoffman and Mrs. Harry J. Stern.

The committee in charge of Sabbath Eve services during the Summer is: Chairman, Samuel Segal; co-chairman, James Williams and Soulie Levine; Members, Mrs. Percy Abelson, Mrs. George Rauch, Brahm E. Silver, Robert Glaymon, David Fleming, Alec Blumenthal, Howard Echenberg, Paul Lowenstein, Stephen Messer, Samuel Wechsler, Dr. Klaus Herrmann and Dr. Kurt Ekler.

In a new departure for summer arrangements and a practical exercise in line with the movement toward joining of the United and Anglican churches of Canada, leading Westmount congregations of the two denominations are to worship together over the next 10 weeks—nearly one-fifth of the year.

Commencing this Sunday until the end of July, the people of Dominion-Douglas United Church, The Boulevard and Lansdowne avenue, will be joining in the Anglican Morning Prayer at St. Matthias Church, Cote St. Antoine road at Church Hill avenue. While the rector, Ven. Archdeacon J.N. Doidge, is on vacation, the preacher will be Dominion-Douglas' minister, Rev. Dr. R. Douglas Smith, assisted by St. Matthias' assistant rector, Rev. W.L. Chatterton.

For the five Sundays of August, St. Matthias members will join the the Dominion-Douglas congregation at their church where Archdeacon Doidge will be preacher aided by Rev. J.T.P. Nichols, the Dominion-Douglas assistant. Dr. Smith will be holidaying at this time.

The format was evolved and decisions favoring it were made by the boards of the two churches and designed to be as much an experience preliminary to anticipated union as a practical arrangement for summer months when church attendance flags and clergy, like their flocks, desire time out from their duties.

No formal arrangements for joint communion services have yet been made here, though authorized by higher church authorities on both sides.

However, the regular Sunday 8 am Holy Communion services at St. Matthias will continue throughout the summer and United Church communicants will be welcomed to the Anglican altar rail.

Graham film for Baptists

The Billy Graham film, "His Land," will be shown at Westmount Baptist Church on Sunday, July 5, at 8:45 pm. The popular music, composed and conducted by Ralph Carmichael, has been called a musical journey into the soul of a nation.

All are invited to see this thrilling story of Israel from ancient to modern times.

Instructions given disciples

Instructions given by Jesus to his 12 disciples and to 70 other followers, who were sent out to heal and save mankind, are included in the lesson-sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

We Say

Local example re. hospitals

Another example of the virtue of the smaller municipal unit, such as Westmount, versus Montreal at its present size let alone the threatened super-city.

All that furore over hospital conditions is simply a later, noisier version of what happened here months ago. Westmount's only hospital, the Reddy Memorial, was found by our inspectors not to up to snuff, particularly with regard to disposal of garbage.

The hospital was told to get back on the line of the governing by-laws. It did. That was that. If it hadn't, it would have been in court.

But the big, ponderous neighboring city has got around to the same situations only now. We are sure that the erring hospitals then would have, like the Reddy, straightened official complaints as readily as did the Reddy.

And we agree with the Hon. Dr. Goldbloom that publicity at this stage served no useful purpose and perhaps caused needless alarm to patients and would-be patients of the institutions concerned.

Someone in Montreal was pretty free and easy with inspectors' notes, and pretty sloppy and mischievous revealing only the names of French hospitals.

Reasons for leaving of teachers listed

Sir: In the June 18 issue of The Westmount Examiner, this statement is made:

"Some of the teachers are leaving because they feel they are adversely affected by the new two-day cycle teaching system adopted this year for high schools by the P.S.B.G.M."

For the record, 12 teachers are leaving Westmount High School. There are a number of reasons for their leaving:

- one is retiring;
- two have been promoted;
- four have decided to return to university for further study (one will study law; the other three were granted leave of absence for one year);

- one is considering returning to university for study;
- one is returning to England with her husband;
- one is travelling for a year (around the world by sail!);
- one has accepted a full time position at Dawson College, and one will become a librarian of another school.

At the time of their resignations, no teacher mentioned to me that the two-day cycle was the reason for leaving.

I feel I should point out that fewer teachers than usual are leaving this year. During the past few years 18 to 21 teachers have left each year; this year, as I said, only 12.

My thanks to you for the generous space you give to educational matters.

our M.P.Q.

Hon. Kevin Drummond

says...

Office opened in Montreal

While I don't claim to be happy with the results of the British elections, I was nonetheless pleasantly surprised by one aspect of the situation.

The people again have proved that it isn't yet the time to do away with the democratic process and to replace it by a system of official opinion polls. For those of us who have a certain distrust of machinery—be it bureaucratic or a computer—this represents, as did April 29, a victory worth remembering.

My office in Montreal is now set up and is situated at the regional headquarters of the Department of Lands and Forests in Montreal at 1255 Phillips Square. While it isn't in the constituency proper, it is reasonably conveniently located with regard to public transportation, and I hope that it will prove accessible to all of you who wish to see me or my constituency assistant. I am very happy to announce that Miss Anne Dawson has consented to take on this job, which I consider to be very important indeed.

One of the main reasons, of course, for opening this office is to give you the opportunity of contacting me with as little difficulty as possible. At the same time, however, we hope to find out just what are the problems and needs of the people of the constituency.

Already, for example, after just one week, we have discovered that there are many people who receive some sort of social assistance, such as our M.P.

Hon. C. M. Drury

says...

Two years since the election

It has been two years since the present government was elected to office.

Traditionally, elections in Canada are held every four years (although five is the permissible limit) and so we the government are at the midpoint of the 28th Parliament.

As so much happens every day in our society and what you read one day becomes dated the next, I thought that I might sum up some of the things the government has done over the past year in the field of legislation.

From the standpoint of laws enacted, it was not what one could call a spectacular year. There were a number of items which died on the order paper when time ran out and which simply had to be dealt with again (the Expo winding-up act is an example).

Of the bills that have become law in the last year, undoubtedly the most important is the Official Languages Act.

On the subject of official languages, I should also mention the federal government's proposal to provide financial assistance to the provinces for leaving, their departments, and where they were going and the two-day cycle system was specifically mentioned as a prime reason, among others, for their departures. So detailed was the list that we assumed, wrongly it turns out to our embarrassment, that it came from Mr. Hamilton's own office.

(This is a good occasion on which to caution contributors that we now newly enforce our own rule that all material submitted for publication in The Westmount Examiner must be identified, preferably with a phone number for checking, with the name and address of the sender.)

minority-language education (and which the Quebec government accepted in principle last month).

There was clearly evident in the past year a resurgence or perhaps an awakening of Canadian nationalism. While there are always implicit dangers involved in any "ISM" I believe that the mood so prevalent these days is a healthy one—less anti-American than pro-Canadian. We want to protect and be proud of our environment. To do this we must be wary of anything which might endanger the state of our natural resources.

Two bills introduced this year which are now awaiting Senate approval propose to do just this—protect our environment. The Bills I am referring to are the Arctic seas pollution prevention bill and an amendment to the territorial sea and fishing zones act. They will establish a 100-nautical-mile shipping control zone and a 12-mile territorial sea, respectively. Their importance cannot be underestimated. Particularly when the Arrow incident is so fresh in our minds. Their future enactment is timely for they anticipate the increased volume of shipping that is likely to occur in our north and they also happen to reflect the present mood of our country with regard to environmental pollution.

The White Paper

Some of the more important actions of the federal government this past year can be put under the heading of pre-legislation proposals. I am thinking here in particular of the white paper on tax reform, an important document which will have considerable impact on the future of our society. One of the principles on which the white paper is based is the proposition that there should be a more equitable or fairer distribution of income in Canada. While the government intends to respond positively to certain representations and incorporate changes, the basic tenor of the proposals will be retained welfare, who are far from happy with the services provided. This is simply the first item to come to our attention—no doubt there will be many others to follow. Having diagnosed and polarized some of the ills of the community, hopefully then with your help we can set about remedying them.

Taught here

Anne has spent the last year and a half working in a community in the north of Montreal. From this experience she has gained a certain amount of knowledge of working with different types of people and groups, which will certainly be an asset in this job. Prior to that she taught in a school in Westmount, so perhaps some of you already know her.

Should you wish to contact myself or Anne, the telephone number at the office is 873-2104. You may call between 9 am and 9 pm. If the office is closed, you can leave a message with the answering service.

Hope to hear from you.

Thirty-five Years Ago

"The annual distribution of peonies among the hospitals of Montreal was begun this week by the Parks Department of the City of Westmount.

"Every week of each year while these flowers are in bloom on public properties they are cut and sorted out in large bunches and distributed to the hospitals."

"The funeral took place last Saturday morning of Mrs. John Tooke, one of Westmount's oldest residents, from her former residence, 349 Clarke avenue. She was in her 95th year. Mrs. Tooke, the former Miss Jane Bell, came to Montreal over 50 years ago and she had resided here ever since."

Twenty-five Years Ago
June 22, 1945

"Forty thousand petitions have been distributed to parents and guardians of children attending Protestant schools on the Island of Montreal urging the Hon. Maurice Duplessis to 'give assurance to the Montreal Protestant Central School Board that the necessary financial aid will be forthcoming to balance the Board's budget.' Mr. Gordon Paterson, President of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Association, sponsors of the petition, said today that the response was exceeding even the most optimistic expectations.

"Petitions by the thousands are going forward by mail, parcel post, and express to the Prime Minister. The keen interest of all concerned was evident from the beginning."

Fifteen Years Ago
June 24, 1955

"A 300-pound iron dog, which vanished mysteriously from in front of its Westmount home early Saturday morning, was recovered by police on Redpath crescent Monday night.

"The dog, a replica of a Labrador retriever, is the property of F.W. Waugh and is one of a pair brought from England by Mr. Waugh's forebears 100 years ago.

"Police said they found the missing cast iron dog in front of a vacant lot on Redpath crescent. They said youths probably stole it as a prank. Mr. Waugh told police there are only two such pairs of the dogs in Canada but that they had little value except his sentimental attachment to them."

Five Years Ago
June 25, 1965

"Mr. D.N. McRae and Mr. C.N. Mackie, vice-principals at Westmount High School, have recently received promotions from the Protestant School Board of Greater Montreal.

"Mr. McRae was named principal of Westmount Park School, replacing Mr. M.T. Craig, who has been transferred to Devonshire School. Mr. Mackie was appointed principal of Dunton High School.

"Both men were recently feted by members of the staff at a dinner. Honoured also in this occasion was Mr. Howard Atwood, retiring after twenty years as a teacher of English in Westmount High School."

St. Paul's tree falls on taxi; fence car hit

A freak accident on Cote St. Antoine road last Friday at 11:18 am caused a total of $1,500 damage to two vehicles and a fence.

A 1967 Pontiac taxi driven by Rudolph Regis of LaSalle was travelling west on Cote St. Antoine when a large branch from a tree on St. Paul's Academy's grounds fell on the car's hood.

The driver lost control, swerved, crashed through a fence and struck the rear of a car parked in the lot.

High-rise resisted

Formal public meeting on a by-law to amend zoning regulations in the area of Somerville and Prince Albert avenues, to permit construction of a fully serviced apartment block for senior citizens, takes place in the city council chamber next Thursday evening.

It is learned that some residents of the area neighboring the site, now razed, of the old Dent Harrison bakery, intend to register their opposition to the project, principally on the grounds of its high-rise nature.

Ten opponents would force the matter to a referendum of the residents of the zone.

Results of next Thursday's meeting will be announced at the July statutory meeting of city council, slated for 8 pm Monday, July 6.

Music night

While a record crowd turned out at the Forum last Saturday night to see and hear singer Tom Jones, thieves in Alexis Nihon Plaza parking garage sought their own kind of music. A tape player and five tapes valued at $90 were taken from one car while another tape player and six tapes valued at $160 were taken from another.

Scientific theft

Thieves broke into the Michel Provost Institute, 3219 The Boulevard, by the front window last Wednesday and made off with two sets of keys and a microscope valued at $150. Police found the basement door also open when they arrived.

$100 flees Flea

While the clerk was helping another customer at 2 pm last Thursday, three people already in the store stole $100 in bills from the cash box at The Spanish Flea Shop, 1369 Greene avenue.

Rent went

The sum of $138 in rent money was stolen from a rooming house at 400 Mount Pleasant at Sherbrooke last week.
