

Citizens Ask Ease In Parking Laws

NO PLACE FOR CARS IS CLAIM

Some easing of the city parking regulations has been asked of city council by a group of local residents, it is reported this week.

Made up mainly of residents from Kensington to Strathcona avenues, the group petitioned Mayor J. A. DeLalanne to open up limited parking in the areas of Victoria Hall and the City Hall, or give allowance to park opposite their homes.

Specifically, they asked the city to allow parking around Victoria Hall and the City Hall, subject to the understanding that "all those who enjoyed this privilege be compelled to remove their cars by 8.30 a.m. except Saturdays and Sundays."

Alternatively, the group asked that permission be given to "park opposite our homes, subject also to the provision the police department satisfies itself that only vehicles belonging to owners or residents be given this concession."

They pointed out that their own particular overnight parking problem had arisen because "when many of our homes were built some 40 or 50 years ago, provision for garages was not thought necessary, since the number of auto owners was negligible."

They added: In our section, i.e. Kensington to Strathcona avenues, and even as far west as Victoria avenue, there are practically no driveways and no lanes, and since overnight parking is prohibited, what is the solution?"

They asked the mayor to give the matter his "earliest possible consideration."

Col. Buchanan Honorary Head Of 6th Hussars

Lt-Col. Erskine B. Q. Buchanan, ED, of Westmount, P.Q., has been appointed Honorary Colonel of the 6th Duke of Connaught's Royal Canadian Hussars (15th Armoured Regiment), Montreal, it was announced today at Army Headquarters.

Colonel Buchanan began his Army career in England during 1912 when he became a member of the Wellington College Officers Training Corps. A veteran of the Great War 1914-18, he had 30 years of continuous service in the Army when he was transferred to the Corps Reserve of Officers in March 1942.

During his service with the Canadian Expeditionary Force from 1916 until 1919 he saw action in France, Belgium and Germany. He took part in a number of famous battles including Hill 70, 1917, Passchendaele 1917; Arras 1918; Amiens 1918 and Cambrai. He was wounded while serving as a lieutenant in August 1917.

From 1936 until 1942, Colonel Buchanan held the appointment of Second-in-Command of the 1st Armoured Car Regiment in the rank of major and lieutenant-colonel. This unit later became the 6th Duke of Connaught's Royal Canadian Hussars.

A native of Montreal, Colonel Buchanan is a graduate of McGill University with the degree

Local School Heads See Hearing Tests

Principals of Westmount schools and representatives of local organizations saw a demonstration of student-hearing tests at the Westmount Junior High Wednesday afternoon.

Under the direction of city health officer Dr. Donald G. Mackay all pupils in the local schools will be checked for hearing loss, it is reported.

The demonstration featured a talk by W. E. Kessler of the Maico Hearing Service.

Mr. Kessler, in his remarks, pointed out that while there are no statistics in the incidence of hearing loss among Canadian schoolchildren, in the United States a 27 State check showed hearing loss among school pupils of from five to fourteen per cent.

The difficulties, he said, were shown to be most prevalent in the low income bracket families, where colds and other illness in infancy had not received the same care or treatment as in other brackets.

Hearing loss, he pointed out, might be caused by poor conduction or by a combination of poor conduction and perception. In the latter cases particularly, special education is advised.

In the Westmount schools a report of the result of the tests will be sent to the parents, so that a medical follow-up will be possible in cases where hearing loss is detected.

In one of two cases checked during the demonstration, hearing loss was discovered.

Among those attending the demonstration were: Mrs. J. Willis of the Westmount Municipal Association, Dr. Ronald Denton of the Children's Memorial Hospital, E. Young of the Montreal Council of Social Agencies, school physical education instructors, five principals and Dr. Mackay.

Brig. Thomson Named Chief Medical Corps

Brigadier Clifford S. Thompson, OBE, ED, 55, of Westmount, Que., has been appointed Honorary Colonel of 1 Medical Battalion, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, it was announced this week at Army Headquarters.

Located in Montreal, 1 Medical Battalion was formed by the amalgamation of several medical units during the reorganization of the Militia. Included among these units was 49 Casualty Clearing Station of which Brigadier Thompson was Honorary Lieutenant-Colonel from January 1950.

Brigadier Thompson joined the Canadian Army Medical Corps in April 1929. He served continually with the Militia until July 1941, by which time he had attained the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

On July 1, 1941, Brigadier Thompson joined the Active Force and was appointed to command No. 6 Casualty Clearing Station. Early in 1942 he proceeded overseas and by August 1943, was appointed commanding officer of No. 1 General Hospital in the rank of Colonel.

Other senior medical appointments held by Brigadier Thompson included that of Assistant Director of Medical Services, Canadian Section, G.E.Q., Central Mediterranean Forces, and

The Plus 16 Senior Teen Age Club will hold a Halloween Dance on Wednesday, October 26th.

SPORTS. Basketball is the current attraction on these days as seven teams are conducting practices in preparation for the 1955-56 season. They are Biddy, bantam, midget, juvenile and senior boys teams and midget girls and junior girls.

Boys' Work Supervisor Jack Turner is trying to organize a gymnastic team and extends an invitation to all boys who are interested in gymnastics to turn out next Saturday morning.

Two regular Badminton classes are being held at the Club. On Mondays at 9 p.m. for senior members and on Fridays at 6.30 p.m. for junior members.

SEWING CLASS. Last Thursday evening the first sewing class of the current season was held under the supervision of Mrs. Dolan. Classes will be held every Thursday evening from 7 to 9 p.m.

Short Items

Thanks and appreciation is extended to Gus Laflamme for the excellent work he is doing in and around the Club... through his efforts, another Ping Pong Table will be put in service.

Major A. T. Stikeman is starting his sixth year as a volunteer worker in the Woodwork Shop.

The first class in Wood Carving attracted eleven boys. Mr. J. L. McLaughlin is the Instructor.

Graduate members of the Club are forming a Leaders' Corps. Sylvia Rosvald is Coach of the Midget Girls' Basketball team. Kenneth Knowles, Anne McDonald and Eddie Carr are doing general supervision work.

The proceeds from the Military Whist which is being held at the Club on Friday, October 21st, will help to defray operational expenses.

Members of Unity's Little League Baseball team "the Indians" have been invited to attend the Annual Kiwanis Club Banquet at the Mount Royal Hotel. The Indians will receive a Trophy, emblematic of the American "B" Championship.

It is expected that some of the Biddy Basketball games will be televised this year.

John Perrie Named President Of P.A.P.T.

John Perrie, principal of Willingdon School here, has been named president of the Provincial Association of Protestant Teachers.

A. N. Pitcairn, principal of Queen's School, Westmount, and Kiel Oxley, a former West Hill teacher, were also named to the executive, and Jessie Harris of Willingdon School is one of those whose term on the executive is still continuing.

More than 2,500 teachers from all parts of the province attended the two-day convention at West Hill High School here and the subjects discussed were many and varied.

Among the points made by various speakers were:

Ralph Allen, editor of Macleans, who said: "As a parent I don't think I have the right to demand that my children emerge from high school with any more than a degree of booklearning, faith in their own intelligence, an earnest regret at their own ignorance and a cheerful determination to correct it."

Dr. F. W. Maroney, dean emeritus of Brooklyn College, and a former national president of the American Physical Fitness Association, who said: "The Protestant Schools of the City of Montreal have the best physical education program in the world."

Prof. D. C. Diltz, of the Ontario College of Education who said that when teachers and administrators come together "Shockingly seldom is any reference made to a basic principle in education".

Dr. Marjory Seddon Johnson, director of the Reading Clinic Laboratory School at Temple University, who charged that Rudolph Flesch had been "dishonest" in his book "Why Johnny Can't Read".

She said that a child's ability to learn reading could depend largely on the reading habits of the parents, and if there were an active conversation in the home.

It was important, Dr. Johnson said, for teachers at the kindergarten level to introduce children to speech sounds and visual objects of the widest range, at the beginning.

And the differentiation of the sounds must be very clear. There were people in the Southern United States, she said, who did not make a clear distinction between such words as Sit and Set, and children became confused when they were told that there was a difference in the meaning of such words.

Dr. Johnson said that when a child appeared to have a reading defect it was important to inves-

Board Of Trade Associates Plan Six Meetings

The Montreal Board of Trade Associates has announced six dinners. The first, sports night, takes place Oct. 19, and features a talk by Herb Capozzi and a film, "N. H. L. 1955".

The Hon. Paul Martin and Leo Leblanc of "Blue Cross" will speak at the Nov. 16 Health and Welfare meeting; and on Dec. 21, the Christmas Tree Party, there will be music and entertainment.

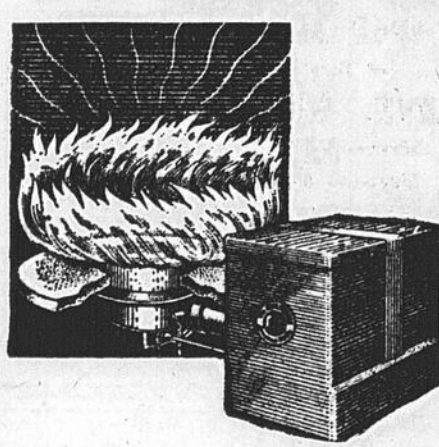

Succeeding meetings include: Womens' Rights, Jan. 18, with speakers Mrs. Wilhelmina M. Holmes, B.A., B.C.L., and Max Ford, B.A., B.C.L.; French Canadian Night, Feb. 15, with Gerard Filion, Editor and Writer, and Jim Laffoley and Herb McEvoy; and Post Hibernian Night, Mar. 21, with J. M. McAvity, Director of Sales, Jos. E. Seagram and Sons Ltd.

investigate many aspects of the child's background to investigate the cause of the difficulty. Among causes of reading problems she cited: emotional troubles, slight brain damage, poor eyesight, or poor hearing.

Crippled Children Aided By $8,901. From Easter Seals

"This cheque, resulting from the generous contribution of many people, is a substantial gift towards our heavy and increasing annual costs" Douglas Bremner, president of The School For Crippled Children, said this week as he received a cheque for $8,901.11 from Walter Attridge, president of The Easter Seals Society of the Province of Quebec.

"The school," he continued, serves physically disabled children of any race, color, or creed, giving them without fees, an education, meals, transportation to and from their homes, medical and nursing services, and a seven weeks full camping program every summer."

Westmount Park

By James R. Macken

James R. Macken
 Said a friend I met in
 Westmount Park,
 "To me it always seems
 You carry a torch for
 Murray Park
 In all your poetic dreams.

"I suggest," said he, "You stroll with me
 Around our Westmount Park
 To prove that here, there's gems
 to see
 As well as at Murray Park.

"We'll start," said he, "At the Conservatory
 Where winter, Spring and Fall,
 There's flowers to see of all specie,
 Some grouped, some small,
 some tall

"From each and every known clime,
 Orchids from far Peru.
 Hibiscus trees and Southern Limes
 Just to mention a few.

"Banana plants are there to
 to see,
 Laburnims and Hawthorns too.
 Sugar Canes and Magnolia trees,
 Rhododendrons and Cactus, too.

"These flowers my friend, in no easy way
 Are nursed for this collection.
 For Mums, they say, three hundred days,
 From slips to full perfection.

"And when you see the Fall
 Mum Show
 Of blooms, in lovely bowers,
 Remember they're grown by men who know
 The art of raising flowers.

"Now," said my friend, "The place to see
 Is a lovely Pond in the trees.
 It's a charming spot, when it's sticky hot
 And a lovelier place in a freeze.

"It's clear, from its shape, it's intended to make,

 A Pool with an all-season charm.
 For a Fly-casting place or a model boat race
 Or a skating rink, free from all harm.

"There's a lone willow tree,
 that's lovely to see,
 When it's mirrored in unruffled water.
 With a sky mostly blue, of could mostly free
 And a light wind that whispers and falters.

"We'll take in our walk the Miniature Golf,
 And the ladies and gents who play there,
 Where Marigolds gaze and Petunias amaze
 At the marvellous Putts that are played there

"Now, we came to a place,
 where Cricketers race,
 And Footballers, according to season,
 Ah Lord, what a shock on matting to "block"
 And half the year drive
 Football cleats-in

"It's a wide open space, a beautiful place,
 For School boys and girls to race in
 Or just to relax for a few minutes grace
 To soften the grind that we're facing.

"We'll walk Sherbrooke way,
 where Tennis they play,
 Victoria Hall in the flood-light.
 Where annuals blaze, in a patterned maze
 In the thousands, in daylight and sunlight.

"We've now reached the spot where the big Floral Clock
 A centre of interest to Tourists.
 Where Motorcars stop to Sherbrooke Street block
 And give "Tempus fugit" a queer twist.

"I think at this place, I'll just rest my case,
 As they say in judicial statings.
 It's needless to state our Park has its place
 In anyone's poetic phrasings.

CLEAR UP FIRE HAZARDS
 This is fire prevention week.
 The Province of Quebec Safety
 League notes that this doesn't mean that people should be cautious with fire this week and then be careless again until fire prevention week rolls around anew. But the League suggests it is a good week to have heating systems checked, to clean up attics and other storage rooms and to remove all possible dangers of fire. This is the type of prevention this week should mean, says the Safety League.

Favoured Few

One wonders how long it will be that the worker in general will be content to admit that there should be a favored group among workers. It is understandable that there must be some extra inducement to take a man into a coal mine or away from the ordinary comforts and conveniences of urban life. But that is not always where the favored condition exists.

There is no hardship involved, for instance, in living in the pleasant city of Hamilton. Yet according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics the average weekly wage there is $64.90 which is $1.10 better than the average wage for the neighboring city of Toronto.

Perhaps the best explanation might be that Hamilton is the home of heavy industry and, generally speaking, this represents one of the favored groups. In Hamilton, for instance, where the average for all workers is $64.90, the average for workers in steel is $74.15 for those engaged in the primary manufacture of iron and steel, and $75.32 in the fabricating steel plants.

It would be difficult to establish that the workers in steel accept substantially greater hazards and hardships. Yet they demand more wages at regular in-

CFCF Newsroom Rebuilt, Cannings New Director

Latest expansion of CFCF radio's public service policy will be re-organization of its newsroom to provide more complete coverage of the local, provincial and national news fields.

In announcing the re-organization, J. A. Hammond, manager of the Broadcasting division of the Canadian Marconi Company, said it would involve hiring of more experienced personnel in the station's Montreal newsroom, strengthening of the CFCF radio stringers in metropolitan and rural newpoints and establishment of correspondents in the Provincial and national capitols.

Appointed new director of news is A. G. "Bert" Cannings, who comes to CFCF from CKWX, Vancouver. Cannings is a veteran of 28-years in Canada, city police and court beats, the more important conventions, labor unions, waterfront and armed services activities.

Additional correspondents will be appointed to supply fast breaking news from the provincial legislature and the Ottawa press gallery and all key points throughout the province and eastern Ontario. dian newspaper, public relations and radio fields.

He worked with newspapers in Calgary, Edmonton and Medicine Hat until the war. He enlisted as a disciplinarian in 1939, transferring to the R.C.A.F. Public Relations when that branch was formed in 1940.

In 1945, he entered the radio news field and helped build the CKWX newsroom as the largest and strongest in Canada. In his ten years on the west coast, Cannings represented all private Canadian radio stations when he covered the Arctic operation "Sweetbriar" and later covered the opening phases of the Korean war in 1950.

In 1952, Cannings toured the R.C.A.F. NATO establishments in Europe, reporting back with a series of taped and written material.

He was the author and producer of the international prize-winning radio series "Why Do They Do It", a traffic document-tervals, and usually get them, because the alternative is too serious.

The president of the largest of these heavy industries, Mr. H. G. Hilton of the Steel Company of Canada, explained how this was following recent negotiations over further wage increases.

"While there is no economic justification for a wage increase at this time," Mr. Hilton said, "it was felt that a wage increase such as was granted was the best course in the light of all the circumstances."

Mr. Hilton doubtless grouped among these circumstances the sobering loss to the workers, the public and the industry that a strike involves, and the continuing loss in the competitive home market due to the intrusion of steel produced elsewhere to meet the needs this industry was unable to satisfy.

Quite obviously that means that the worker with the biggest stick is going to be paid more than the average of other workers, and that in tacitly accepting and supporting a strike these other workers are giving their blessing to the theory that there should be favored worker groups.

Because the new steel agreement also meant that "some price increases were inevitable," the worker who gets less will have to pay more for many of his needs as the cost of seeing that the favored worker always gets more.—J.L.R.

RESIDENTS HONORED: Several local residents were honored last week by the State of Israel Bond Organization when Col. Dina Werth, chief of the training staff of the Israeli Women's Army, presented them with special awards in recognition of outstanding service during the Israeli Bond Drive. Left to right are: Mrs. H. J. Halperin, who received a "Chen" charm; Mrs. Anna Raginsky, women's division chairman, "Chen" bracelet, with more than $30,000 worth of sales; Col. Werth; Joseph N. Frank, national treasurer; Mrs. M. Stavitsky, United States women's division national chairman; and Max Wolofsky, who received a "Palmach" for sales exceeding $10,000.

All Agree No Man Is An Island

N.D.G.'s Member of Parliament has declared people have come to acknowledge for the first time in history that the whole community has a responsibility for the welfare of each individual.

William Hamilton M.P., said that "throughout the free and democratic world every political party, in or out of power accepts the principle that the state, as the representative of us all, must so conduct itself that opportunities for employment are available for all who seek them or must offer a measure of support to those who cannot find work."

"Because this is the century for the common man," he told members of the Canadian Progress Club of Montreal, "every party in every democratic country, is steadily building up a complex of social security measures unlike anything the world has ever known."

Mr. Hamilton noted that Canada has unemployment insurance, family allowances, old age pensions, veterans' allowances and a host of other measures of a similar nature — all designed to provide help and assistance for all who need it and all supported by every political party.

He said it was not only the government which is accepting the responsibility of making this the century for the common man, "Business and industry have accepted their full share," he stated.

"First by their technological and marketing progress, which has made more jobs for more people, and by their attitude that those who work for them must be treated with sympathy and understanding. Also by providing good working conditions and facilities and finally by the growing realization that some form of job security is desired by all those who work and that the dignity of labor is to be respected.

"However there are those who will argue that all these things are not enough," Mr. Hamilton said. "They believe that always there must be more and more for all in return for less and less, but even those who argue this way will admit today that free men everywhere are living better, with more physical comforts and fewer worries about their social security than ever before in history."

6 Trophies Ready For Canvassers Of Red Feather

Red Feather canvassers engaged in the current "Close-the-Gap" campaign for $1,685,000 are competing hotly for six trophies annually awarded to workers in various divisions for outstanding achievement.

The cups, all donated by local firms and individuals, have furnished moments of excitement at closing dinners of Red Feather campaigns for several years. Announcements of winners are made and the winners' names engraved on the plaques on the trophies.

Last year three of the six went to the Women's Division; the Eaves and Bessette Cup, for the highest percentage obtained as between the Men's Division and the Women's Division; the Aird Nesbitt 100% Plus Cup, to the divisional chairman having the highest percentage of his or her objective; and the Mappin and Webb Cup, earmarked for the Women's Division and awarded to the district in the Division with the highest percentage of objective.

The Henry Birks Cup, awarded to the district other than the Woman's Division with the highest percentage of its objective, last year was won by an Outremont district of the Territorial Division. The Howard S. Patch Cup went to the leading section of the Industry and Finance Division and was won by the Tobacco Section, and the Leslie Cup for the leading section in the Professional and Public Service Division was carried off by the Social Agencies Section.

Fire Prevention Week

Carelessness With Matches and Cigarettes Costs Us Billions Each Year

Fire Prevention Week reminds us of the tremendous economic loss this country suffers each year through this scourge. And the pity of it is that a great part of this loss could be prevented by a reasonable amount of care on the part of everyone who uses matches and cigarettes. Eighty-five percent of all house fires can be traced to carelessness with matches or smokes — and there is a house fire every eighty seconds, all year round.

Last summer more than two million acres of Canadian forests were destroyed by fire. It is difficult to ascertain the causes of all the fires that wrought this destruction, but it can be safely said that the majority of them, too, were caused by the carelessness of travellers. Each of these two million burnt-out acres could have been converted into $1,500 worth of newsprint. Each three hundred acres of such land could have produced one hundred cords of wood annually in perpetuity.

Careless with cigarettes and matches is costing Canadians something like three and a half billion dollars a year.

Repentance I

By Rev. Canon R. Kenneth Naylor
Rector of Trinity Memorial Church

We have been considering our Lord's teaching about the Kingdom of God for some weeks. Perhaps we should have prefaced these articles with some words about the conditions attached to the entering into the Kingdom, but now that we have seen something of the teaching we may attend to those preliminaries.

When John the Baptist came to prepare the way of the Lord he laid all his emphasis on one word—Repent. He was a preacher with one sermon and one text—Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Only when he was asked for details on the way to express repentance did he deal with specific cases.

The word Repent covered everybody from tax gatherers to the religious leaders of the nation. The word was a reminder that not one of them was in a fit state to enter into the Kingdom. And the word does not simply apply to outward conduct, but reached down into the very heart and mind of the hearer. John was saying to each man in the crowd—"You have been thinking in the wrong way about your dealings with God and your neighbour. And because you have been thinking in the wrong way you have been doing the wrong things. Now repent, that is, change your minds, and you will find that you do the right things. And further, there is a reason why you should change your minds, and why your thinking is not adequate, and that is that the Kingdom of God is right here and you are not ready for it." That is all implied in the word Repent. It is a call to self-examination, to see where the thinking and action of each individual are wrong and how they may be righted. It was at that point that individuals came to John to ask for advice. And he gave them the advice suited to their circumstances — which was, in effect, to go back to their work and do it honestly, and with consideration for other people.

When John was put in prison because he had applied exactly the same words to Herod as to Herod's subjects, then Jesus took up the same sermon and came into Galilee preaching the Good News of the Kingdom of God, and saying . . . "Repent ye and believe the Good News." It is precisely the same sermon—"The Kingdom of God is here but you cannot receive it unless you change your minds. Your present way of thinking about God and your neighbour makes it impossible for you to take in the Good News which I have for you."

Our Lord comes to us with the same message. For even though we have behind us nineteen centuries of Christian teaching, still we are obsessed with the things of the world, and we lay so great an emphasis on them, that we have wrong ideas about God as well. And as a result we are still in need of repentance.

Christian Science

Man's responsibility to make religion practical in his activities throughout the week will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" at Christian Science church services on Sunday.

Scriptural selections include Paul's advice to the Hebrews: "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession."

 THE VALUE OF SELF-CONFIDENCE
 HELEN GREGG GREEN

A certain book on child behavior points out that one of the most valuable bank accounts that parents can encourage their children to provide for themselves is the gradual growth of self dependence. Such encouragement includes teaching children attractive habits in speech and manner, with which may be built confidence and self-assurance, thus leading the way to becoming ready for the acceptance of social and economic relations. This is a big step in the right direction.

I overheard an eight-year-old boy in a restaurant say to his parents. "Hand me the cardboard!" The parents were well-dressed and spoke well. Why had they not taught their son to say menu!

At a summer resort a mother the courteous and pleasing thing. How disconcerting it must be for him if he has to struggle for the right words and actions? How important to be prepared in advance?

Time and again in restaurants observes boys and girls clutching their knives and forks in an awkward manner, while their parents sit by using theirs correctly. Tell me, why have not mother and dad taught Bobby and Betty the right way? I know a pretty, but unobservant, girl who was not asked to join a sorority because of poor table manners.

An effective plan to help the children practice the gracious amenities of daily living is to teach both boys and girls, when they are very young to use these courtesies in their play. This, however, does little good unless they are encouraged to apply what they have learned in this way every time that an opportunity presents itself.

Today practically all our teenage youngsters want to possess know-how-and to be able to stand on their own feet as soon as possible. This is a new kind of world, where the helpless dependent youngster is out of step. The knowledge of what to do and what not to do both in private and public, gives a feeling of assurance and confidence, which is another rung on the ladder of success. The more confidently growing America climbs up those rungs the stronger and happier our country will be. In the final analysis, gracious manners mean thinking way of living the Golden Rule.

Miss Kathleen Cobbett, of Westmount, has left by air for an extended trip to the Western Provinces and to California.

Mr. and Mrs. David Feldman of Westmount will be at home on Sunday at a candlelight tea, in honor of the 16th birthday of their daughter, Andrea. Miss Carole Saxe and Miss Roslyn Wilks of Ottawa will be among the guests.

The annual St. Mary's Ball in aid of the Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital will be held on Friday evening, December 2 in the Windsor Hotel.

T. P. Slattery, Q.C., is chairman of this year's Ball Committee with Leonard Hynes as vice-chairman.

An afternoon tea will open the 1955-56 season of the University of Toronto Alumni Association, Montreal Alumnae Branch. The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Gibson E. Craig of Westmount from 4 to 6 p.m. tomorrow. New members will be especially welcome.

Clay Craft Shown To JJWL Members

The Jewish Junior Welfare League held its monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 11 at the Windsor Hotel. The guest speaker was Mr. Abramson of The Waldorf Art Gallery, and Mrs. Abramson of The Clayart Studio, who gave a demonstration of pottery making.

Mr. Henry Abramson stressed the facility of clay craft while showing The Jewish Junior Welfare League members the various items that could be made.

Mrs. Anita Abramson teaches classes of all ages at her Clayart Studio, and during the lecture she fashioned a piece of ceramic on the pottery wheel.

A short business meeting was held in which Mrs. J. Schneider, president, presided.

New Body Toner Is Said To Cool And Refresh Skin

Girl (above) is using a new after-bath preparation that's said to smooth the skin.

There's nothing like a bath to help one cool off in hot weather. But sometimes the heat starts to take its toll before a girl has a chance to finish dressing.

In an effort to combat this problem, one cosmetic house has just introduced an after-bath preparation they say has a very cooling effect.

Light textured with a translucent glow, this new liquid is designed to both tone and refresh the body. It contains a moisture-giving ingredient that's said to soften the skin without leaving a trace of stickiness.

In addition, it's supposed to act as a talcum, enabling stockings and girdles to slip on easily.

As an added feature for the girl who seeks treat as well as treatment, the company points out that this body toner combines an invigorating tingling effect with the gentle fragrance of its lace-inspired scent.

Calvary Club

Monthly supper meeting of Calvary Business Women's Club will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 19, instead of Oct. 26, at 6 p.m. in Calvary Church, Greene Avenue and Dorchester St., West.

Rev. Walter J. Spence will conclude his review of the book entitled "Two Solitudes" by Hugh MacLennan.

For reservations or information, call the church office, WE. 3367.

On The Committee For Shriners Ball

The annual Shriner's Ball, under the patronage of Illustrious Potentate of Karnak Temple, William J. Singleton, will be held Friday evening, November 4, in the Champlain Room of the Sheraton-Mount Royal Hotel.

The ball Committee includes Wm. McLuskie and R. C. Nelson Co-Chairmen, W. S. Andrews, J. L. Boyd, E. E. Donohue, Hugh C. Fetterly, W. R. C. Field, R. P. Gledhill, Bruce Hoyland, Andy Lejeune, K. W. Matheson, Bill Seeds, Ken Tadman, Archie Wilcox, Frank Wood; Ed. Leonard is secretary, assisted by Dick Waring. Tickets may be secured from Committee Members.

American Club

Mrs. Frederick Krug will be the commentator during the presentation of Mr. Krug's "Koda-Chrome Slides of Latin America" for the American Women's Club of Montreal, Wednesday, Oct. 19, at 2.30 p.m. in the Blue Room of the Ritz Carleton Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Krug lived in Latin America about eighteen years and during the past nineteen years they have returned yearly to collect additional pictures and information.

Mr. Krug is a member of "The Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain", "The Photographic Society of America" and "The Montreal Camera Club". His slides have been exhibited in International Exhibitions and local events.

Mrs. Krug has studied photography and has accompanied her husband on these trips abroad.

Whist

Make Home Safe For Children

Your home is loaded with potential baby killers. They come in all sizes, shapes, quantities and containers.

When locked up in the medicine cabinets and put away for safe-keeping, they're harmless. But beware of carelessness.

A fast-moving curious toddler can grab and gulp in a split second. It's a hand-to-mouth age that tastes first and then gasps—sometimes with tragic results.

Little one will not hesitate to swig such items as permanent wave solution, shampoo, lighter fluid, rubbing solution, bleaching agent, antifreeze, furniture polish, bleach, lye, paint, rat and insect poison. It's sickening but true.

Authorities at the Children's Bureau are concerned by the number of children between the ages of one and five who die due to poisoning accidents in the home. Every year about 400 such infant deaths can be traced to poisoning. And there are hundreds of cases where emergency treatment is necessary.

But the problem goes beyond educating parents and baby sitters to keep dangerous substances out of reach.

Because new household products are appearing on the market every day, doctors are often unable to find an immediate cure for a stricken child. Without technical knowledge of the poison, they cannot use a counter-acting agent.

But steps are being taken to do something about this. Within the last year special poison control centers were set in Chicago, Boston, Cincinnati and Washington, say Children's Bureau officials who are enthusiastically following the development.

The American Academy of Pediatrics is spearheading the drive to establish poison control cen-

This youngster may be reaching for the last time if a poisonous substance is left on the shelf. Every year 400 children between the ages of one and five die due to accidental poisoning in the home. It's an age when they grab, gulp and then gasp—sometimes with tragic results.

ters so doctors can count on getting reliable data. And along with the Children's Bureau they are urging the public to follow safe rules in the home.

The Poison Control Center for the Washington area is located at the Children's Hospital in the District of Columbia. There a vast file of antidotes is kept which will combat a multitude of poisons. An intern is on duty 24 hours a day.

Here's a case to illustrate how the system works. A doctor is confronted with a child who has eaten a certain rat poison which causes internal bleeding. When the doctor finds a stomach pump fails to help, he calls the center. The brand name of the rat killer looked up, and the doctor is told that a large dose of vitamin K is the best antidote. As a result the child survives.

Strangely enough, aspirin is the top drug killer today. This is based on a study by Dr. Katherine Bain of the Children's Bureau and reports of cases from Washington and Chicago.

For example, of 212 cases of poisoning at the Washington center, 50 were caused by large quantities of aspirin gobbled up by babies.

"Roughly two-thirds of the deaths from accidental poisoning," says Dr. Bain, "could be wiped out if aspirin, the barbiturates, kerosene, lye, lead and arsenic were unavailable to small children."

But she warns parents not to become panicky or overscared about poisoning.

"You shouldn't be constantly saying 'no' to a youngster," explains Dr. Bain. "It's the time in the life of a child when he or she ought to touch and feel things. But it's up to the parents to keep harmful objects out of the way."

Assn. Deplores Loss Of Child Life Through Accidents

Accidents continue to be the largest single cause of child mortality among children of all age groups, according to the Child Health Association, a Red Feather service. Deaths from diseases have dropped spectacularly within the last 20 years, but the accident rate has not shown the same decline.

In 1935, the great child killers were influenza, pneumonia and gastric diseases. None of these begins to compare now with the death rate from accidents. Children are increasingly accident prone as they grow out of infancy, figures show. Deaths from accidents more than double during the years between 15 and 19.

Well-known Adv'g Man To Wed Fashion Model

The recent word from glamour and promotion circles is the engagement of Ted Abrams, Advertising Manager of CFCF-Marconi and freelance consultant, to Miss Carmen Lister, the local model who has graced the pages of fashion in Harper's Bazaar and Vogue, travelling between Montréal and New York quietly, "in some small town, City. They plan to be married quietly, "in some small town, with the powder of snow, and the jingle of holiday bells, and a warm fireplace burning."

This news comes as a surprise to the advertising and fashion fields. They met on location, while photographing material for use in CFCF's advertising. Miss Lister does not plan to work after the marriage, and is presently planning their home's decor with enthusiasm. Miss Lister is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lister, of Montreal. Mr. Abrams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Abrams, also of Montreal.

Jane Sutherland Suggests Timely Inexpensive Recipes

Peach Jam Is Easy To Make Using These Tested Recipes

Nowadays, the modern homemaker can make perfect peach jam, jelly or marmalade the up-to-date short-boil way. That's equally true of all our fall fruits. And it's as simple as one-two-three. No need to slave over a hot stove for hours, to have delicious jam or jelly for winter months. All you do is prepare the fruit or juice bring the jam and jelly mixture to a full rolling boil and boil for one minute—just enough to sterilize and prevent spoilage. Only fifteen minutes from the time the fruit or juice is prepared, your jam or jelly is sealed in glasses! So quickly in fact, that the delightful orchard-fresh flavor of fully ripe fruit is captured in each glassful!

Peach and Ginger Jam

Three and one-half cups prepared fruit, ½ cup sliced candied ginger, 4½ cups sugar, one 2½-ounce box powdered fruit pectin.

First, prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 pounds soft, ripe peaches. Chop very fine or grind. Measure 3½ cups into a large saucepan. Slice fine about ¼ pound candied ginger. Measure ½ cup into saucepan.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well.

Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Skim off foam with metal spoon.

Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ¼ inch hot paraffin.

Peach Jam

Four cups prepared fruit (about 3 pounds ripe fruit), ¼ cup lemon juice, 7½ cups sugar, ½ bottle liquid fruit pectin.

First prepare the fruit. Peel and pit or core about 3 pounds fully ripe peaches. Grind or chop very fine. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan. Add ¼ cup lemon juice.

Then make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ¼ inch hot paraffin.

Fashion Hints

The wool dress is getting better looking each season, graduating as it has from the utility class to the dressy side of things. For smart daytime wear, for a matinee or a tea, here is a delightful dress in dark brown or black smooth, fine woolen. The neckline charts a nice course between high and low and has a pretty little pointed collar in front. There is a double row of self buttons below the waist from which the skirt is draped to fall in graceful side back fullness.

C.W.L. Business Unit

Membership Night of the Business Women's Unit of the Catholic Women's League of Canada is taking place on Wednesday evening, October 19. This will be a military whist and will be held in Congress Hall, starting at 8:15 p.m. Miss Winifred O'Brien is convener of this event.

From Ottawa, Katherine B. Niles, distinguished poultry recipe expert, sends enthusiastic reports on her newest recipe, Pennywise Chicken Casserole. It will save pennies, she says, and it tastes wonderful.

She says this dish is a mint of good eating, and she adds that broiler-fryers will satisfy robust fall appetites. There is economy, too, in the preparation. The foods are simply arranged in three layers and left to bake in an aromatic vinegar sauce. The chicken cooks to a rich brown as it bakes. No pre-browning is necessary.

The crispness of the green cabbage comes from large 1½-inch wedges which cook to just the desired doneness by the time the chicken is done. Leave the autumn-red skin on the apple rings and cut them at least half an inch thick. This way the apples will keep their appetizing appearance.

Pennywise Chicken Casserole

One broiler-fryer chicken (2-2½-pound) cut up, 1 small head cabbage cut into 1½-inch wedges, 4 tart red apples cut in ½-inch rings, unpeeled; 2 teaspoons flour, ¾ cup vinegar, 1 tablespoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter melted.

Place cabbage in bottom of shallow 2-quart casserole. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon of the flour. Make a layer of the apple rings. Sprinkle with remaining flour. Top with chicken pieces, skin side up. Brush chicken surface with melted butter. Combine vinegar and salt. Pour over chicken.

Cover casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes. Remove cover. Baste chicken with juices in bottom of casserole as needed to moisten chicken. Bake, uncovered, 30 minutes or until chicken is well-browned and meaty pieces are fork-tender.

small, sweet green pepper; add 1 diced, small skinned tomato. Saute in 3 tbsp. butter or margarine until softened. Add 1 c. fresh or drained canned corn kernels.

Beat 6 eggs until frothy with 1 tsp. salt and ¼ tsp. each pepper and monosodium glutamate. Pour into the vegetables and slowly cook. Scrape up with a spoon to make flakes.

Heap on a large heated platter, Pile French fries around and garnish with crisp bacon and sliced tomato.

Fluffy Flakes

In any case, I like them best scrambled according to an old New England method that produces big fluffy flakes. When properly cooked, they do not stick to the frying pan, leaving it easy to clean.

New England Scrambled Eggs

Break 6 large fresh eggs into a bowl. Add 1 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. each monosodium glutamate and pepper, and ½ c. milk. Beat until frothy. Melt 1 tsp. butter in a smooth frying pan. Do not let it brown. Turn the pan to coat with the butter.

Pour in the eggs. Cook over a low heat 30 sec., or enough to slightly firm the eggs. With a spoon scrape into big flakes; continue until all is cooked but still loose in texture.

Scrambled Eggs with Mushrooms

Wash and slice ¼ lb. fresh mushrooms. Saute in the frying pan to be used in scrambling, but use 4 tsp. butter. Add the egg mixture; finish as a plain scramble.

Scrambled Eggs with Zucchini:

Prepare as for scrambled eggs with mushrooms, substituting thin-sliced zucchini.

Inexpensive Pepper Steak Is Different

Careful cooking and imaginative seasoning can make welcome budget dishes out of the less expensive cuts of beef. Here are two recipes from our family files.

Pepper Steak (Yield: 4 servings)

Two tablespoons shortening or beef suet, 1 pound round or flank steak, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, ¼ cup flour, 1 small onion, chopped; 1½ cups chopped green pepper, 1 cup water.

Heat shortening in a heavy skillet. Cut steak into strips, 1-inch wide. Roll in flour seasoned with the salt and pepper. Brown in hot shortening. Add onions and saute. Add green pepper and water. Cover. Simmer until tender. Add more water if necessary.

Stuffed Beef Rolls (Yield: 4)

Four cubed minute steaks, ¼-inch thick; 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon ground black pepper, ½ cup chopped onion, ½ cup chopped celery, ½ cup chopped dill pickles, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 8-ounce can (1 cup) tomato sauce, 2 tablespoons shortening, ½ cup water.

Sprinkle steaks with a mixture of the salt and black pepper. Combine onion, celery, dill pickle, chili powder and 3 tablespoons of the tomato sauce. Place a rounded tablespoon of the mixture on each steak. Roll up tightly. Fasten edges with a toothpick. Brown all sides in the shortening.

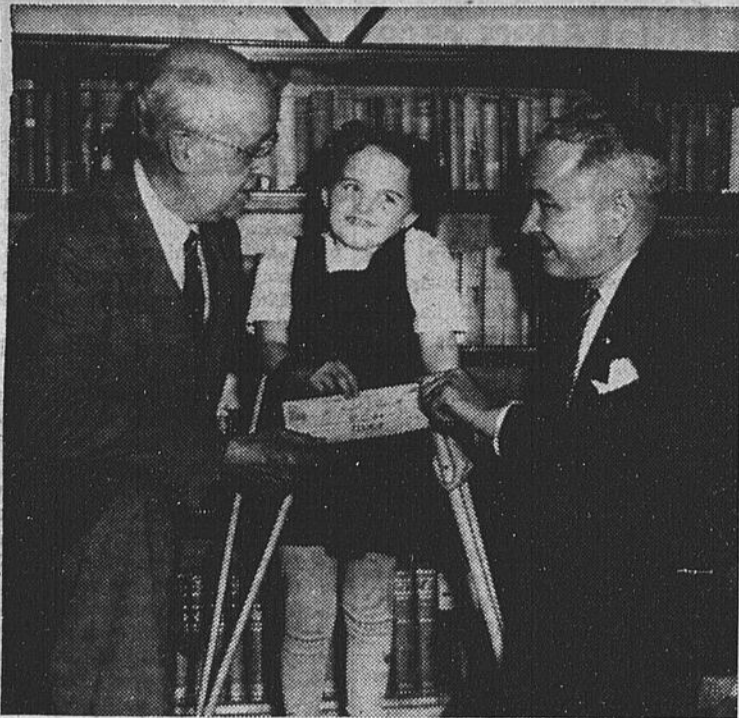

Place in a baking pan. Combine the remaining vegetables and pickle mixture with the water and pour over meat rolls. Cover. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until tender, 40 to 50 minutes. Remove the beef rolls to a serving dish. Pour the sauce over all.

Clever Use Of Mats Transforms Lamps

There are several inexpensive ways in which you can dress up and vary your lamp bases or your containers that hold flowers and house plants. The changes that can be made are endless if you learn to alter the appearance of your containers by covering them with flexible place mats.

Mrs. Fixit wanted to make her living room look cool and summery. She bought three beige colored place mats, measuring 12 by 18 inches and woven of straw. Her rather formal lamp bases were then covered by two of the mats. It was simple to hold the mats in place temporarily with inconspicuous paper clips. Across the room she used the third beige mat to cover a straight vase that held tall growing philodendron.

As the mat was too tall for the vase, she merely folded under the bottom edge where necessary. Or she could have cut it with scissors and covered it with press-on tape, as she would have bound any raw edge.

FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN: Walter Attridge, right, president of the Easter Seals Society of Quebec, donates a cheque to Douglas Bremner, president of the School for Crippled Children, as Linda Durocher smiles happily in the center. The cheque — for almost $9,000 — represented contributions made in the annual Easter Seals campaign.

Inspection, Banquet, To Feature Visit Of True Kindred Official

Montreal Conclave No. 1, Order of True Kindred will hold its inspection to-day when Mrs. Dorothy Otto, of St. Louis, Mo., Supreme Commander, will be making her official visit. Mrs. Georgina James will preside.

The meeting will take place in Victoria Hall, Westmount, at 8 p.m., following which a banquet will be held. Mrs. Rose Smart and her committee will be in charge.

Mrs. Otto and her party were entertained at a luncheon yesterday in the Queen's Hotel.

Dramatic New Color For Fall Make-up

How will you look this Fall? Like the loveliest princess of the East, says Elizabeth Arden, and introduces Oriental Pink, one of the most exciting — and loveliest make-ups in years.

With brilliant, exciting roseate overtones and rich, mysterious depths, this inspired make-up color comes in two tones of lipstick, rouge and nail lacquer: Oriental Pink and Plus Oriental Red.

Both are the key to Miss Arden's dramatic new look . . . a look that is delicate, muted, with eyes emphasized in a strikingly different way, the mouth glowing like a Rajah's rarest jewel . . . And it is a look that flatters every face . . . the perfect make-up for the new fashions that are so definitely Eastern in origin . . . with sheath-like lines, rich colors, opulent textures.

There are two Elizabeth Arden completely co-ordinated Oriental make-ups — a Pale Ivory Oriental for blondes (light base and powder with Oriental Pink lipstick, rouge, nail lacquer — and a Golden Ivory Oriental for brunettes (darker base and powder with Plus Oriental Red).

Women's Realm Donor Luncheon

The Spanish and Portuguese Sisterhood will hold the Annual Donor Luncheon, on Tuesday at 12.30 p.m. at the Synagogue Auditorium. Miss Jennie Goldstein, famous Stage, Screen, Radio and T.V. Guided Tour

A guided Tour and Tea Party at the Jewish Hospital of Hope is being arranged by the Council of Units to take place on Wednesday afternoon, October 19.

Members and friends are invited and will be given an opportunity to see what rehabilitation means to those who are chronically ill.

The hospitality committee for the tea party following the tour is headed by Mrs. A. Blauer and Mrs. H. Oberfield.

Chartered buses will leave both the Garland terminus and at the corner of Mount Royal and Park Avenue at 1.30 p.m. sharp.

Annual Whist

Non-Pensioned Veterans Widows Association will hold its annual military whist to-day at 8.15 p.m. at St. Willibrord's Hall, Willibrord Avenue, Verdun. There will be table and door prizes.

Players are requested to take their own cards.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. M. Wilson PO-6-2420 or at the door.

Rummage Sales

The Women's Auxiliary of the Montreal Children's Hospital will hold their Fall rummage sale on Tuesday, October 18 at 10.30 a.m. in St. Stephen's Church Parish Hall, Dorchester and Atwater Streets.

Chapter Of Hadassah Plans Annual Shower

The annual shower sponsored by the Ethel Epstein Ein Chapter of Hadassah will take place Monday at 8.30 p. m., at the Zionist Headquarters, 2025 University Street. The proceeds of this program will be applied for Youth Aliyah.

The Ethel Epstein Ein Chapter has been well known throughout the country, and in many parts of the United States, for the publication of "A Treasure for My Daughter", the Jewish home-maker's handbook. Now in its fourth printing, the "Treasure" tells the story of all Jewish festivals, customs and ceremonies, and describes how the housewife can enrich the holiday with the appropriate dishes as well as the authentic explanations to the children.

The program on Monday evening will include a cookery sale, palm and tea-cup readings, entertainment and refreshments.

Conveners are Mrs. Sarah Policoff, Mrs. S. S. Feiner and Mrs. H. Albin. The President of the Chapter is Mrs. S. (Ann) Warshaw.

UBC Cagers Face Possible Lack Of Manpower

Maurice Mariasine may face a manpower problem with his Unity Boys Club senior B basketball squad, if the present trend continues.

So far, only four members of last year's team are definitely returning. They are Jack McKissock, Dave Barnard, Grant Peterson and Ulrich Brown.

Of the others, Bob Paul has returned to Brockville, and Johnny Reddon is reported in Ontario. Mike Barnard, Emmett Murphy and Bill Buckberrough are all "indefinite."

Back after a year's absence is Dick McGrail, who spent last season at Macdonald College. In addition, Mariasine expects to have Ian McIntosh, elongated center, with the team.

Practices started last week and continue every Wednesday and Friday at 8.30 p.m., at the Greene avenue layout.

Paul, in his first year with the club, showed himself to be a good club man, but McGrail is expected to be more than adequate as

St. Leo's Starts Puck Practices At Verdun

St. Leo's Academy will start its hockey campaign today, when prospective senior B players work out at Verdun auditorium. The bantams will make their bow next Friday.

Due to lack of material St. Leo's was unable to field a tackle football squad this Autumn and the early start in hockey was found most feasible to keep the older boys active.

About 25 candidates have registered for the initial practise but this includes only six hold overs from the 1954-55 squad that finished a respectable third in last year's standing. Gone is all star defenceman Jacques Lefebvre, Joe Froio clever pivot player, rugged Karl Hurley and team captain Gerry Ramsey.

Holdovers from last years teams that are expected to carry the brunt of this years hockey a replacement, Mariasine is more concerned about the possible loss of Buckberrough, the West Hill product particularly adept at snaring rebounds.

Invitations are extended to all westend court artists to try out with the club.

hopes, are Brendan Guilfoyle, John Roche, Phil Drummond and John Farrell. Mike Lunny and Peter Armstrong will again fight it out for the regular goaler berth but are liable to encounter some opposition the up and coming Claude Fleury. Fleury at present however is slated to play Bantam.

Most of the newcomers to the team are fifteen and sixteen old youngsters and some of them should surprise before the end of the season.

Academy Notes: 18 teams are playing in the schools intermural Volleyball program. The schools nine, six men touch teams are enjoying a full scale schedule in the City of Westmount touch football leagues. Congratulations to Brian Patterson in winning the schools senior tennis honors in the recent tournament. Sixteen year old Brian is rated one of the best tennis prospects in Montreal and should go along the same trail that leads to success that two former Academy tennis greats in the person of Brendan and Jimmy Macken personified so well for many years.

7B4 Keeps Lead In Touch Rugby

Patterson Gains On Pat Abbruzzi

Harold Patterson's spectacular performance against Ottawa earned him the heaviest ballot count of the day from the fans although Pat Abbruzzi's overall season total kept him in the "Player of Distinction" lead in the seventh annual Lord Calvert Trophy race.

In the latest voting release, the hard-working Patterson sliced Abbruzzi's margin to 420 points. The perennial leader has amassed a total of 4,042 compared to Patterson's 3,622. Early in the season, Abbruzzi was runner-up and then shot ahead of Patterson.

Tex Coulter still held third spot although threatened by Sam Etcheverry who was accorded a big vote on Thanksgiving Day. The Als' field general has boosted his total to 2,732 while Coulter has 3,060. Tom Hugo who racked up a touchdown also received much recognition from the fans as his count kept him in fifth place with 2,426. Herb Trawick, twice winner of the Lord Calvert Trophy, remained in sixth place with 2,365.

Completing the first ten "Player of Distinction" rankings were Doug McNichol, Juan Sheridan, Al Makowiecki, and Red O'Quinn in that order. The next voting takes place Saturday when the Als are at home to the Toronto Argonauts.

SMOKING IN BED FOOLISH PRACTICE

That last cigarette can be fatal . . . particularly if it is taken in bed, according to the Province of Quebec Safety League. Some people reason that there is no danger as the flames would wake them if they did fall asleep. This is foolish reasoning says the League. Furthermore, a person is asphyxiated before he is enveloped by flames. Have that last cigarette in the living room, suggests the League.

Ottawa. The wholesale price index of the Bureau of Statistics was 0.3 per cent higher at September 23 than a month before.

Higher prices were recorded for beef, hides and copper with smaller increases for zing, raw rubber, sters, raw sugar tin and iron ore.

Westmount Junior High's 7B4 team picked up a pair of wins at their last outing, maintaining their unbeaten record, and thus remain on top of the A section of the midget league.

George Spare was the only bright light for the winless St. Leo's Blues; 7B5 split two and are four points off the leaders.

In the "B" section, 7B3 leads the four team loop with 22 points. In games played on Tuesday afternoon, at Prince Albert Park, Mark Friedman was outstanding for 7B3 as he passed to Ray Mader and Ian Gill for two touchdowns and scored a pair of majors himself, one on a pass from Dwight Keizer, the second on a dash down the sideline from 25 yards out.

Fred Moulton, John Lechter, Bob Garfinkle and Bob McLean kept 7B1 in the running for a play off spot, leading their team to a win and a tie in 3 starts.

Vic Salveneschi and Frank Gibson stood out for St. Leo's Reds as they picked up two ties.

Verdun-Lakeshore Rivalry On Again In Sunday Match

Verdun Stampede and Lakeshore Flyers are all set to put on another gridiron thriller this week, according to word from the rival camps.

Bill Davies' Flyers must hustle if they hope to catch up to Roy Chesley's high flying Verdunites. So far the Flyers have dropped two tilts, both to the unbeaten Stampede.

The clubs are due to hook up at Valois park, Saturday at 2:15 pm, while the two weaker clubs, Three River Braves and Montreal Orfuns, clash at Morgan park.

Last weekend the top two ran true to form, with Lakeshore downing Three Rivers 17-3 and 12-0, and Verdun clobbering Orfuns 20-0 and 32-0.

SIDELIGHTS on Sports

by MARTY GOODMAN

● WITH THE COLLAPSE of junior A hockey in Montreal, the Metropolitan Junior Hockey League was revamped in keeping with its position this year as the only organized junior circuit in the city. And going along with this new look idea are the NDG Monarchs, one of the stronger teams in the loop according to pre-season reports.

The Metropolitan league could be just the thing to revive interest in junior hockey. Outside of a winning club, nothing creates more interest than sectional appeal, and that is just what the loop is offering. There seemed to be two main ideas in forming the league — to bring costs down to more reasonable levels, and to make junior hockey a local affair.

Just how well the moguls who control the situation have succeeded has still to be seen; chances are it will take quite a few seasons to even think in any terms of permanent success. It is also a moot point to consider the calibre of the league. Certain factions would like to have an out and out A status, but with the junior A Canadiens using the 10 teams to farm out prospects, that would be silly. And, while attempting to "sell" their product, it would also be silly to retain the old B nomenclature. Simply "junior" in the meantime is an ideal solution.

In its debut last year the league seemed well on its way to bringing out a local response in people by forming teams based around certain definable districts. This year that idea was carried out even further with the addition of St. Laurent, Ste. Therese and St. John, teams with definite followings. If the same measure of success is found again, chances are the crowds will be quite adequate.

Locally, the situation shows both poles. The Monarchs, who have retained a starting team from last year's roster, are basically westend products who drew the usual complement of friends and relatives. Whether they can do any better depends largely to the extent that they are adopted by the community. During the past few years, NDG, once noted for its community spirit, has fallen more and more to the pressures of modern urbanization, to the point where only the smallest segments of the community find success. The area has grown too large, so that a relatively small group no longer possesses the appeal of being "the boy from next door" to everyone.

Now, there will be vast sections that have never heard of any of the players concerned, and thus there is little reason to watch the games when modern life provides so many other attractions, each vying for the customer and his dollar.

The St. Laurent Jets, very much an unknown quantity, might prove to be one of the big draws in the league. They created quite a degree of excitement in the rapidly growing city when they won the provincial junior B crown last year. Any measure of similar success this season, especially while performing in their home arena, could attract relatively large numbers. They have retained most of their players, still possess a great deal of community appeal, and could be very good.

The same situation, to some degree, exists with every one of the 10 teams. For the sake of all concerned, and for hockey in general, it would be a good thing if the league were to succeed. Any type of team is expensive to sponsor these days, and any organization that can provide winter recreation for well over 150 boys deserves as much support as possible.

● WANDERINGS: Brian Patterson, who draws rave notices from Mount Royal tennis club pro Pete Constable, was a recent winner of two court tournaments. He won the Westmount men's open singles title trimming Alan Telfer, and was also tops in the St. Leo's Academy senior singles tourney. He's a fourth year student at the Academy, the Alma Mater of Brendan and Jimmy Macken . . . Virgil Wagner, making a series of speaking appearances in Montreal, will be at Snowdon Baptist Church Sunday. He'll appear at the 10 a.m. Sunday School meeting and the Fireside Night at 8:30 p.m. . . . Several biddy basketball games are skedded to be shown over TV this winter, and the Unity Boys Club squads expected to appear in several of them. . . . Our own George Cochrane was lured back to active service with the Snowdon Major Fastball League. He was elected secretary.

Bantam Soccer
W.J.H.S. are now tied with M. H.S. after defeating the Monkland's crew, on the latter home grounds, on Tuesday. It marked the second time in their last two starts that Monkland's came out on the losing end.

During the first half of the battle, both sides defended well, with few shots on goal. But due to some strong kicking on the part of Westmount's fullbacks, the visiting club were able to score three times within the last ten minutes of play, and thus win the game 3-0.

Among those who stood out for Monklands were: goaler, Melvyn Glichman, left half, Vilnes Aunes center half, John Todds, right half, Michael Goldberg.

Eagan Out, Patterson In, Foster Term Extended

Eagan out, Patterson in and Foster still there. That just about sums up the week's developments in the Snowdon Major Football League, climaxing with the annual meeting and election of officers Tuesday.

Not unexpectedly the announcement was made of Jack Eagan resigning as manager of the Steinberg team. No successor has as yet been appointed.

And also not unexpectedly, Pat Patterson made his return to the local loop, though it was more of a surprise that he came back to manage the Fisher Brothers club. It was reported that the Grocers had also been interested in securing his services.

And at the meeting Tuesday, Bob Foster was re-elected president of the august executive committee. The only major change in executive positions was the announcement that Harold Bowen, former first vice-president, had been named chairman of the board of governors. He had requested a change because of health reasons.

Other officers named were Gerry Snyder, first vice-president; Bill Gray, second vice-president; George Cochrane, secretary; and Jim O'Donnell and Walter Cavey, co-treasurers.

Named as directors were Barney Shea, Bob Ganley, Jack Eagan, Roger Bastien, J. P. Bertrand, Val Desloges, Bob O'Hara, Len Pedvis, Irving Selick, Alan Gold and Lorne Wilson.

The announcement was also made that Bob Nall has resigned as public relations officer. The league did not make a new appointment immediately.

The annual banquet will be held Nov. 2 at the Little Roumanian Restaurant, it was decided.

Pedvis is a new member of the directorate, representing Steinberg's. He is expected to take some of the load of running the ball team off the shoulders of Morris Steinberg.

But as to a successor to Eagan, Steinberg said yesterday this would be decided "within the next 10 days. As yet we haven't even begun to consider names."

Asked whether or not the new manager would come from within the existing organization, he said: "There is a good chance of that. But naturally all applications will be considered."

Eagan, who guided the Grocers to two Eastern Canada titles and three pennants within four years, announced his resignation at the meeting. This year the Grocers finished third in the loop, and were eliminated in the first playoff round by Dow.

"Now I'll be able to see what it feels like to have a summer," he said. "I definitely will not be back this summer, with any team or in any capacity. What I do in years to come will depend very much on how I react to this summer."

Patterson returns to the league after a four year absence, one year of it enforced by league dictum. A manager for seven years in the loop, he was meted out a two year suspension, later commuted to one year, for going to Colorado with the Robitaille team in 1951.

"I've looked forwards to this for a long time," Patterson said. For the past four years he has managed Ace Holden and his four man team.

"One might say it took me a long time to get my return ticket from Colorado," Patterson said, "and I want to make a good showing. It is my hope FBI will win the pennant, playoffs and then head for the world tournament."

Patterson succeeds Irving Selick as manager of the club. Selick resigned and moved upstairs to the post of general manager, to be able to devote more time for business. He first managed the Bnai Brith entry in the league, and won the pennant with FBI this year when the Tomato Kings entered the loop in place of the Brithers.

Patterson has several changes he wants to make in the Kings, and they range throughout the club. He has his eye on Gene Desautels as a catcher, and intends to strengthen infield, outfield and pitching staff.

More and more are the mills using an increasingly large number of tree species, particularly hardwoods. Some mills use twenty species and also the bark and branches in the pulping process. Two mills operate largely on saw-mill waste. Thus is more pulp being made per acre of woodlands.
